The Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم said to his sahabah رضي الله عنهم that they would be brought (to testify). These words prove that he would be there throughout the proceedings and see people and being brought. Thus when the Prophet عليه السلام and Messenger عليه السلام will be due, the first to be presented will be prophet Nuh عليه السلام. Then, his witnesses, the ummah of Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم will be brought.

Then they will bear testimony and their prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم will be their observe. Or, they will bear testimony and he too will bear testimony with them.

The Muslims will bear witness about the previous ummahs. For example, they would give testimony that Prophet Nuh عليه السلام had conveyed Divine message to his ummah. As for the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم testimony for his umah, it is stated in another hadith that when on the day of resurrection the other ummahs say categorically that no prophet had conveyed any message to them, their Prophet عليه السلام and Messengers عليه السلام will cite the ummah of Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم as their witnesses. So, when the Muslims give testimony on their behalf, they will be asked, 'How do you know that their Prophet عليه السلام had conveyed the message to them? On what basis do you give this testimony?"

The Muslims will say that they found the evidence in Allah's Book (The quran gave them very correct news and on that basis they gave the testimony)

Thereafter, those members of the past ummahs will cross examine the Muslims concerning their veracity. On that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم will prove that the Muslims are true and give assurance that certainly these people reliable.

This is exactly the words mean when they say, "The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم will give testimony about his ummah." It is in this sense that he is called a witness of his ummah and, because of that, he will be cited by Prophet Nuh عليه السلام as his witness along with his ummah.

LIMBS WILL GIVE TESTIMONY

(٥٥٥٤) وَعَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ كُنَّا عِنْدَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ فَضَحِكَ فَقَالَ هَلْ تَدْرُوْنَ مِمَّا أَضْحَكُ قَالَ قُلْنَا اللّٰهُ وَرَسُوْلُهُ أَعْلَمُ قَالَ مِنْ مُخَاطَبَةِ الْعَبْدِ رَبَّهُ يَقُوْلُ يَا رَبِّ أَلَمْ تُجِرْنِيْ مِنَ الظُّلْمِ قَالَ يَقُوْلُ بَلٰى قَالَ فَيَقُوْلُ فَإِنِّيْ لَا أُجِيْزُ عَلٰى نَفْسِيْ إِلَّا شَاهِدًا مِنِّيْ قَالَ فَيَقُوْلُ كَفٰى بِنَفْسِكَ الْيَوْمَ عَلَيْكَ شَهِيْدًا وَبِالْكِرَامِ الْكَاتِبِيْنَ شُهُوْدًا قَالَ فَيُخْتَمُ عَلٰى فِيْهِ فَيُقَالُ لِأَرْكَانِهِ انْطِقِيْ قَالَ فَتَنْطِقُ بِأَعْمَالِهِ ثُمَّ يُخَلّٰى بَيْنَهُ وَبَيْنَ الْكَلَامِ فَيَقُوْلُ بُعْدًا لَكُنَّ وَسُحْقًا فَعَنْكُنَّ كُنْتُ أُنَاضِلُ (رواه مسلم)

5554. Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه narrated that while they were sitting with Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم one day, He laughed and asked, "Can you imagine why I am laughing?" Anas رضی الله عنه said, "We submitted, 'Allah and his Messenger know best." (Then) he said, "Because of the conversation between man and his Lord (on the day of resurrection). He (the slave of Allah) will say, 'My Lord, have you not granted me protection from injustice?' He will affirm 'of course!' He will submit 'I do not want anyone (to give testimony) concerning me but a witness of my own.' Allah will say, 'You are enough for yourself to day as a witness[1] as are the Kiraman katibin (noble writers).' His mouth will be sealed and the limbs of his body will be commanded 'speak!' So, they will begin to speak about his deeds, Then, the seal will be broken and) he will be permitted to speak. He will utter 'Away with you! May you perish! It was because of you that I did content!."[2]

COMMENTARY: At the time of reckoning, man would plead that his witness should be part of him and no outsider, forgetting that Allah is able to do that. In this way, he traps himself and has to repent. Finally he gives vent to his anger and bursts out at his limbs that have borne witness against him.

Then the recording angels will present their records of man's deeds. This will confirm the testimony of the limbs and organs. Thus, his wish too is fulfilled and procedure is followed too. He will fly into a rage over his limbs for letting him down though he tries to protect them. This hadith does not mention the response of the limbs to him, but the Quran gives an idea of it in surah. Fussilat verse 21's

وَقَالُوْا لِجُلُوْدِهِمْ لِمَ شَهِدْتُّمْ عَلَيْنَا قَالُوْا أَنْطَقَنَا اللّٰهُ الَّذِيْ أَنْطَقَ كُلَّ شَيْءٍ وَّهُوَ خَلَقَكُمْ أَوَّلَ مَرَّةٍ وَّإِلَيْهِ تُرْجَعُوْنَ۔

{And they will ask their skins, 'why did you bear witness against us? They will say, "Allah made us speak, as He made everything speak, and he created you the first time and unto him you are now returned.} (41:21)

5555. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that they (the sahabah) رضی الله عنه submitted, "O Messenger of Allah, shall we see our Lord on the day of resurrection?" He asked, "Do you have any reservations about seeing the sun at noon when it is cloudless?" They submitted, "No!" He asked, "Do you have any reservations about seeing the full moon in the night which is cloudless?" They submitted, "No!" He said, "By Him who has my soul in His hand, just as you have no reservations about seeing either of them (the sun and the moon), so too you will have no reservations about seeing your Lord (on the day of resurrection)."

Then, he said, "(when they see their Lord). He will meet a man and ask him, 'O My slave, did I not honour you, made you a chief, give you a wife (of your own species), subjected to you horses and camels and let you be head (of your clan) and receive one-quarter of the spoils? He will say, Yes indeed!' He will ask, Had you thought that you would meet me?' He will say 'No' He will say, 'So I have forgotten you (today and keep you deprived of My mercy) just as you did forget Me (and did not obey Me)."

"Then He will meet a second man." And the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم mentioned the like of the previous meeting.

"Then He will meet a third man. and exchange similar dialogue and he will say, "My Lord, I believed in you, in your Book and in your messenger and I offered salah, fasted and gave sadaqah." Speaking high of himself and his virtues as best as he can. Allah will say to him, 'stay here! We shall create a witness concerning you.' He will wonder in his mind, 'who can it be that will testify about me?' (At that moment) his mouth will be sealed. His thigh will be direct ed to speak. So, his thigh, his flesh and his bones will speak about his bones will speak about his deeds (in the world) – so that he may make no excuses. (Or, that Allah may have reason to punish him) Thus, he this third one) is a hypocrite and he is the one with whom Allah will angry"[1]

[Do you have reservations...?' may also be rendered, 'Do you dispute concerning...' because (تضارون) is spelt in different ways.]

COMMENTARY: Allah will be visible very clearly. Everyone will see Him and no one will disagree concerning it. Some people have rendered the words: 'None of you will be an obstructions to another.'

According to Majma ul Bihar, the word (تضارون)is from (مضارت) which means a rush and crowding at the time of the vision. This may cause difficulty and hardship to the people, but they will have Allah's vision very clearly.

Qadi Iyad Maaliki رحمه الله has said that the word (مضارت) means (مضايقت) which is to inconvenience each other. This thing happens when people throng to look at something over each other's head in a limited, narrow place. In this case, the hadith will mean: 'At the time of seeing your Lord, you will not crowd each other as happens in a small, narrow place. Rather, you will be able to see Allah from your individual place as comfortably as you can see the sun and the moon.'

According to one version, this word is the word (تضامون) instead of تضارون). Further, it appears with a different set of diatrical marks (with a dammah over (ت) and a shaddah over (م) or without a shaddah). So, it is derived from either (ضيم) or (ضمّ) but the interpretation will be the same (as under variations of (تضارون).

Allah will tell him that if he had been grateful and righteous in the world, then He would have honoured him in the hereafter as He had honoured him in the world. But, since he was undutiful, Allah would keep him deprived. This same fact is found in this verse;

قَالَ كَذٰلِكَ اَتَتْكَ اٰيٰتُنَا فَنَسِيْتَهَا وَكَذٰلِكَ الْيَوْمَ تُنْسٰى

{Like this our signs came to you and you had ignored them. And in the same way you will be ignored today?) (20:126)

While the Quran does assert that a person's hand, feet, tongue and skin will speak and disclose his deeds, this hadith says that the person's thigh flesh and bones will speak and bear testimony. The objective here, too, is to show that all the limbs of a person will speaks and give testimony that he had performed certain deeds. This is as the hadith of Sayyiduna Anas رضي الله عنه (# 5554) reports.

وَذُكِرَ حَدِيْثُ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ يَدْخُلُ مِنْ اُمَّتِيْ الْجَنَّةَ فِيْ بَابِ التَّوَكُّلِ بِرِوَايَةِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ

And the hadith of Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه "Seventy thousand of my people will enter paradise..." is as narrated by Ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه (# 5295). (It is not reproduced here.)

SECTION II الفصل الثاني

THE PARADISE WITHOUT GOING THROUGH RECKONING

(٥٥٥٦) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ اُمَامَةَ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ وَعَدَنِيْ رَبِّيْ اَنْ يُّدْخِلَ الْجَنَّةَ مِنْ اُمَّتِيْ سَبْعِيْنَ اَلْفًا لَا حِسَابَ عَلَيْهِمْ وَلَا عَذَابَ مَعَ كُلِّ اَلْفٍ سَبْعُوْنَ اَلْفًا وَّثَلٰثُ حَثَيَاتٍ مِّنْ حَثَيَاتِ رَبِّيْ- (رواه احمد والترمذى وابن ماجة)

5556. Sayyiduna Abu Umamah رضي الله عنه narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم say "My Lord had assured me that He would admit to paradise seventy thousand members of my ummah without reckoning and punishment of any kind. Besides, every one thousand (of these seventy) will be accompanied by (another) seventy thousand and three handfuls of the handfuls of my Lord (will also go to paradise).[1]

COMMENTARY: The words without reckoning mean that they will not be subjected to a strict reckoning. As for 'seventy thousand' this could mean that exact figure but it could also mean an unspecified number, innumerable. The same applies to 'three handfuls' – a very large numbers, that is uncountable.

THREE PRESENTATIONS BEFORE ALLAH FOR JUDGEMENT

(٥٥٥٧-٥٥٥٨) وَعَنِ الْحَسَنِ عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُعْرَضُ النَّاسُ يَوْمَ الْقِيٰمَةِ ثَلٰثَ عَرَضَاتٍ فَأَمَّا عَرْضَتَانِ فَجِدَالٌ وَّمَعَاذِيْرُ وَأَمَّا الْعَرْضَةُ الثَّالِثَةُ فَعِنْدَ ذٰلِكَ تَطِيْرُ الصُّحُفُ فِي الْأَيْدِيْ فَاٰخِذٌ بِيَمِيْنِهٖ وَاٰخِذٌ بِشِمَالِهٖ۔ رَوَاهُ أَحْمَدُ وَالتِّرْمِذِيُّ لَا يَصِحُّ هٰذَا الْحَدِيْثُ مِنْ قِبَلِ أَنَّ الْحَسَنَ لَمْ يَسْمَعْ مِنْ أَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ وَقَدْ رَوَاهُ بَعْضُهُمْ عَنِ الْحَسَنِ عَنْ أَبِيْ مُوْسٰى۔

5557. Sayyiduna Hasan (Busri) رحمه الله reported that Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, 'On the day of resurrection, people will be presented (before Allah) three times. As for the first two presentations, they will occasion contention and pleas. The third time, records of deeds will be handed over swiftly to men. Some of them (who will be fortunate) will get them (records of their deed) in their right hands. And, some (who are wicked) will get them in their left hands."

5558. Sayyiduna Hasan reported this hadith, according to some, from Sayyiduna Abu Musa رضي الله عنه.[2]

COMMENTARY: When they are presented the first time, the sinners will not confess but will try to avoid being punished. They will plead that no Prophet عليه السلام had come to them and the message was not conveyed to them. But when they are confronted with evidences that Messengers عليهم السلام and Prophets عليهم السلام had come to them but they had falled back in obedience, they will admit to their disobedience and plead that they had done it unintentionally and had committed mistake or had fallen prey to ignorance. Some of them will place hope in Allah's mercy and become negligent.

The third time, all their deeds will become manifest. Then, judgement will be passed. The guided will be know from the astray. Those who deserve to go to paradise will get their records in their right hands. Those who are condemned to go to hell will get their records in their left hands.

Though Tirmidhi رحمه الله says that Hasan رحمه الله had not met Abu Hurayrah, رضي الله عنه Jazri has cited three ahadith of Bukhari رحمه الله from Hasan رحمه الله from Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه. Besides Hasan رحمه الله has reported it from Abu Musa رضي الله عنه Anas رضي الله عنه, Ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه and others. So, after all, it is authentic.

THE WEIGHT OF THE KALIMAH

(٥٥٥٩) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ سَيُخَلِّصُ رَجُلًا مِّنْ اُمَّتِيْ عَلٰى رُؤُسِ الْخَلَآئِقِ يَوْمَ الْقِيٰمَةِ فَيَنْشُرُ عَلَيْهِ تِسْعَةً وَّتِسْعِيْنَ سِجِلًّا كُلُّ سِجِلٍّ مِّثْلُ مَدِّ الْبَصَرِ ثُمَّ يَقُوْلُ اَتُنْكِرُ مِنْ هٰذَا شَيْئًا اَظَلَمَكَ كَتَبَتِي الْحَافِظُوْنَ فَيَقُوْلُ لَا يَارَبِّ فَيَقُوْلُ اَفَلَكَ عُذْرٌ قَالَ لَا يَارَبِّ فَيَقُوْلُ بَلٰى اِنَّ لَكَ عِنْدَنَا حَسَنَةً وَاِنَّهُ لَا ظُلْمَ عَلَيْكَ الْيَوْمَ فَتُخْرَجُ بِطَاقَةٌ فِيْهَا اَشْهَدُ اَنْ لَّا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَاَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا عَبْدُهٗ وَرَسُوْلُهٗ فَيَقُوْلُ احْضُرْ وَزْنَكَ فَيَقُوْلُ يَارَبِّ مَاهٰذِهِ الْبِطَاقَةُ مَعَ هٰذِهِ السِّجِلَّاتُ فَيَقُوْلُ اِنَّكَ لَا تُظْلَمُ قَالَ فَتُوْضَعُ السِّجِلَّاتُ فِيْ كَفَّةٍ وَالْبِطَاقَةُ فِيْ كِفَّةٍ فَطَاشَتِ السِّجِلَّاتُ وَثَقُلَتِ الْبِطَاقَةُ فَلَا يَثْقُلُ مَعَ اسْمِ اللّٰهِ شَيْءٌ۔ (رواه الترمذی وابن ماجة)

5559. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Amr رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "On the day of resurrection, Allah will pick out a man from my ummah in the presence of all the creatures. Ninety nine scrolls will be spread over him, each scroll extending the length of an eye-sight (as far as the eye can see). Allah will ask, 'Do you deny anything of it?" He will submit 'No my Lord!" He will ask 'Do you have an excuse?' He will answer, 'No, my Lord! He will ask 'Do you have an excuse?' He will answer, 'No my Lord!' Allah will say, Rather, You have with us a pious deed from you And, indeed, you will not be wronged today. A card would be brought out with an inscription;

(I bear witness that there is no god But Allah and I bear witness that Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم is His slave and His Messenger). Allah will command, Bring your scale. He will plead, My lord what is this card before the scrolls?' Allah will say, 'You will not be wronged. The scrolls will be placed in one pan of the scale and the card in the other. The scrolls shall fails and the card shall outweigh them. Nothing is heavier than the name of Allah."[1]

COMMENTARY: The word (سجل) has been translated 'scrolls.' It could be a large register, too. Some people say that (سجل) is the name of an angel who writes the deeds of men.

As for the card, perhaps the kalimah on the card might have been what he had recited the first time. Or, he may have recited it some other time and it was accepted by Allah. This possibility is greater.

THREE PLACES WHERE EVERYONE IS FORGOTTEN

(٥٥٦٠) وَعَنْ عَآئِشَةَ اَنَّهَا ذَكَرَتِ النَّارَ فَبَكَتْ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَايُبْكِيْكِ قَالَ ذَكَرْتُ النَّارَ فَبَكَيْتُ فَهَلْ تَذْكُرُوْنَ اَهْلِيْكُمْ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَمَّا فِيْ ثَلٰثَةِ

5560.Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا reported that (once) she (suddenly) had a thought of hell and began to weep. Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم asked, "What makes you weep?' she submitted, 'I thought of hell and (was overcome with fear and I) wept will you remember the members of your household (your family, O Messenger of Allah) on the day of resurrection?" So Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "(Not only the members of my household but I will remember all members of my ummah on that day, but there will be three occasions (On that day) when no one will think of anyone (not specifically but the general intercession will be made for the creatures on the whole. They are:) at the scale until (the deeds are weighed and) one knows whether his scale weighs (his deeds) light or heavy; at the scrutiny of the record of deeds when the command is given to take the record and read the book until he knows whether it is given in his right hand or in his left hand from behind his back; and at the sirat (the bridge) when it is placed across hell."[1]

COMMENTARY: There will be three occasions on the day of resurrection when everyone will be senseless and trembling with fear. No one will have any thought of anyone nor have the least respite for it. Everyone will be respite for it. Everyone will be afraid not knowing what becomes of him.

When reckoning is over, deeds have been separated, the records of deeds will be handed over to all the people. Those who get theirs in their right hand will be safe while those who receive theirs in their left hand will be liable to punishment. The way the records of deeds will be handed over is that either:

(i) the right hand will be brought to the back from the side of the neck, or:

(ii) the left hand will be pulled from under the armpit onto the back, then the records of deeds will be given from behind into the hands.

The sirat is finer than hair and sharper than the edge of a sword. It will be placed across hell. Each person will be made to pass over it. The believers who have gained deliverance will go past it at speeds depending on their deeds and rank and will enter paradise. The disbelievers who will be liable to punishment will tumble down into hell.

5561. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that a man came and sat down opposite to Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, and submitted, "O Messenger of Allah, I have some slaves. They lie to me, cheat me and disobey me. So, I abuse them and beat them. How will I fair because of that? (will I be punished?)" He said, "when the day of resurrection comes, their treachery disobedience and falsehood towards you will be reckoned against the punishment you gave them. Thus, if your punishment is commensurate with their crime then things would square up - nothing for, or against you. If your punishment was softer then their crime, that would be in your favour. (If you choose, you would get a reward. It will make it wajib for you). If your punishment was harsher than their crime, requital will be taken from you in their favour for the excess." The man went aside and began to shriek and sob. So, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم asked him, "Have you not r ecited the words of Allah the exalted:

وَ نَضَعُ الْمَوَازِيْنَ الْقِسْطَ لِيَوْمِ الْقِيٰمَةِ فَلَا تُظْلَمُ نَفْسٌ شَيْئًا وَإِنْ كَانَ مِثْقَالَ حَبَّةٍ مِنْ خَرْدَلٍ اَتَيْنَا بِهَا وَكَفٰى بِنَا حَاسِبِيْنَ

{And we shall set up scales of justice for the day of resurrection so that no soul will be wronged in anything. Even if the weight of a grain of mustard seed, we shall bring it (to account) And we suffice as reckoners} (21:47)

The man submitted, 'O Messenger of Allah, I do not find anything better for myself and for them than to part from them. Be you witness that they are free all of them."[1]

COMMENTARY: The man said that he had slaves. This could include female slaves too. When things were squared up for the man then neither the slaves nor the man would be punished. None would have a right over the other.

If punishment awarded to the slaves was lighter than the crime, the man was eligible for reward. This implies higher rank and not the recompense for the deed, for, some good deeds might get an unconventional reward but they do not qualify for a recompense whether the doer seeks it or not. Thus, the man who did not punish his slaves to the full extent may wish for reward for his kindness and get a raised rank but if he does not ask for it then his record of deeds will not be credit ed with any distinct reward.

We may see from this hadith how delicate are the mutual relationship between master and slave and employer and employed. Those who treat their slaves and servants as animals and punish them heavily must realize what awaits them before the judge of all judges. They will have to account for every little thing they do.

This sahabi رضی اللہ عنہ displayed exemplary taqwa by setting his slaves free. He endured a heavy loss in this world to preserve himself from perpetrating wrong. He did not wish to displease his Lord in any way.

SOFT RECKONING OR MINUTE SCRUTINY

(٥٥٦٢) وَعَنْهَا قَالَتْ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ فِيْ بَعْضِ صَلَاتِهِ اَللّٰهُمَّ حَاسِبْنِيْ حِسَابًا يَسِيْرًا قُلْتُ يَا نَبِيَّ اللّٰهِ مَا الْحِسَابُ الْيَسِيْرُ قَالَ اَنْ يَّنْظُرَ فِيْ كِتَابِهٖ فَيَتَجَاوَزُ عَنْهُ اَنَّهٗ مَنْ نُوْقِشَ الْحِسَابَ يَوْمَئِذٍ يَا عَائِشَةُ هَلَكَ۔ (رواه احمد)

5562. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that she heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم make this supplication while offering his salah.

اَللّٰهُمَّ حَاسِبْنِيْ حِسَابًا يَسِيْرًا

(O Allah, subject me to a soft reckoning). She asked, "O Prophet of Allah, what is a soft reckoning?" He said, "It will be that a man sees his book (or, Allah gives a cursory look at it) and then Allah will (forgive him and will) disregard it. Ayshah, he who is subjected to minute scrutiny that day will perish."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had made this supplication in salah, either the fard or optional, during the beginning or in one of the postures of salah.

He made this supplication to teach his ummah to pray for an easy reckoning or to keep them alert lest they become negligent. They must keep in mind the presentation before the Lord. If a strict accounting is taken then Allah's justice will not spare anyone.

He may also have made this supplication when he was overcome by the thought of the hereafter and the day of judgement.

The word in the hadith (مناقشہ) means 'to reckon closely. It is to take account of every little thing and examine thoroughly. No one can face it. If anyone is deprived of Allah's mercy and of easy reckoning then he is doomed to a severe punishment.

Those of Allah slaves who will be in the shade of His mercy will go through a reckoning in which their record of deeds will be opened for them to see the sins they had committed at different times. They will be remorseful and confess their lapses. Allah will forgive them. But, if the pronominal suffix stands for Allah then the sentence would means; "Allah will give a cursory look at the Record of deeds and forgive him."

BELIEVER WILL FIND THE HEREAFTER EASY

5563. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed Khudri رضی الله عنه narrated that he went to Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم and submitted." Tell me (O Messenger of Allah) who would venture to stand (before Allah) on the day of resurrection of which Allah, Mighty and Glorious says:

يَوْمَ يَقُوْمُ النَّاسُ لِرَبِّ الْعَالَمِيْنَ

{the day when all the people will stand before the Lord of the worlds}?" (83:6)
He said. "It will be made light (easy) for the believer till it is for him like the (time taken to offer the) presented salah."[1]

COMMENTARY: The verse quoted by Abu Sa'eed Khudri رضی الله عنه is from surah Tattif (ویل للمطففین). It describes the day of resurrection and awarding reward and punishment. It also emphasizes on right s of fellow men and other salient duties in social life, like giving proper weights and measures about which it says:

اَلَا يَظُنُّ اُولٰٓئِكَ اَنَّهُمْ مَّبْعُوْثُوْنَ * لِيَوْمٍ عَظِيْمٍ يَوْمَ يَقُوْمُ النَّاسُ لِرَبِّ الْعٰلَمِيْنَ *

{Do they not think that they shall be raised up on a mighty Day? A day when mankind shall stand before the Lord of the worlds} (83:4-6)

So, we must fear this day and we must abstain from every such sin as involves violation of rights of fellow men and as causes an imbalance in social life and causes a loss of mutual trust, like giving less weight and measure. It is reported of Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه that when, while reciting this surah, he come to its verse (6), he was overcome by fear of Allah and bobbed. Then he was unable to continue recital of this surah.

Abu Sa'eed Khudri رضی الله عنه asked that the day of resurrection will be very trying and difficult by itself, then how will one dare to stand before Allah with the record of his deeds? But, the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم gave him the glad tiding that, in spite of its awe, it will be easy for them because they will have the shade of Allah's mercy and kindness over them. So, the day of resurrection will elapse in such a short time as takes to offer a prescribed salah.

It must be borne in mind that in this hadith 'believer' means a perfect believer. His belief and deeds are impeccable.

Similarly, the prescribed salah is one of four raka'at. Or the time it takes to offer it flawlessly. The day of resurrection will be over in that much time. The fact is that in spite of its severity and unending length and terror, it will seem to pass over for a Muslim in a brief time as little as takes to complete a prescribed salah. But, the infidels will find it very long and difficult. We see examples of this in our worldly life too. Though days and nights are of uniform duration for everyone, yet some find it passing through rapidly. Those who are comfortable and happy find the twenty four hours a fleeting period but not so for those who are in difficulty and straitened circumstances. This also gives us an idea that, even for Muslim, the day of resurrection will not seem of equal length but it shall depend on the strength of their belief and deeds. Those who are more perfect will find it transient, more than those who are not as perfect, and so on according to their degrees of perfection. Ultimately the disbeliever will find it as long as fifty thousand years.

These words of the Quran throw clear light on this subject:

[1] Bayhaqi in Both wa an Nuihorr (see footnote against hadith # 5493)

تَعْرُجُ الْمَلٰٓئِكَةُ وَالرُّوْحُ اِلَيْهِ فِيْ يَوْمٍ كَانَ مِقْدَارُهٗ خَمْسِيْنَ اَلْفَ سَنَةٍ * فَاصْبِرْ صَبْرًا جَمِيْلًا * اِنَّهُمْ يَرَوْنَهٗ بَعِيْدًا * وَّنَرٰىهُ قَرِيْبًا *۔

{....... to whom ascend the angels and the spirit, in a day the length of which is fifty thousand years. So, observe patience a good patience. They see it far off and we see it near.} (70:4-7) [see also Ma'ariful Quran, v8 pp 577-579.]

'The day' in this verse is the day of resurrection. It will seem very long to the disbelievers because of its severity and length. As for the believers, according to the degrees of their faith, some will find it very easy and light. Some others will find it less easy and light. It is on this basis that this day's length is mentioned in another verse as one thousand years. Hence, some disbelievers will find it as long as one thousand years and some as long as fifty thousand years.

This opinion is supported by these words of the Quran too.

فَاِذَا نُقِرَ فِي النَّاقُوْرِ * فَذٰلِكَ يَوْمَئِذٍ يَّوْمٌ عَسِيْرٌ * عَلَى الْكٰفِرِيْنَ غَيْرُ يَسِيْرٍ *

{For when the trumpet is sounded, that day shall be hard day for the disbelievers not easy} (74:8-10)

In other words, these verse says that the Day will be very light and easy for the believers. Its ease and lightness will be in keeping with the degree of their faith.

This hadith offers a clear guidance to the Muslim that if they wish that the day of resurrection should be very easy for them and briefest, then they must make their faith very strong and their practical life should be based on complete obedience and in doing what earns Allah's pleasure.

5564. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed Khudri رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was asked about the day the length of which is fifty thousand years: 'How long will it be for men to stand throughout!" He said, "By Him who had my soul in his hand, it will be made easy for the believer (who is perfect). In fact, it will be easier for him than the prescribed salah that he used to offer in the world."[1]

COMMENTARY: Like the previous hadith, this too assures a perfect believer who is righteous that he need not be perturbed about the length of the day of resurrection and its severity. He will be under the wide shade of Allah's unlimited mercy. In spite of its severity and length, it will get over as though he had offered a prescribed salah.

PERFECT BELIEVERS WILL ENTER PARADISE WITHOUT GOING THROUGH RECKONING

(٥٥٦٥) وَعَنْ اَسْمَآءَ بِنْتِ يَزِيْدَ عَنْ رَّسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ يُحْشَرُ النَّاسُ فِيْ صَعِيْدٍ وَّاحِدٍ يَوْمَ الْقِيٰمَةِ فَيُنَادِيْ مُنَادٍ فَيَقُوْلُ اَيْنَ الَّذِيْنَ كَانَتْ تَتَجَافٰى جُنُوْبُهُمْ عَنِ الْمَضَاجِعِ فَيَقُوْمُوْنَ وَهُمْ قَلِيْلٌ

فَيَدْخُلُوْنَ الْجَنَّةَ بِغَيْرِ حِسَابٍ ثُمَّ يُؤْمَرُ لِسَآئِرِ النَّاسِ إِلَى الْحِسَابِ۔ رَوَاهُ الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِي شُعَبِ الْإِيْمَانِ۔

5565. Sayyidah Asma bint Yazid رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "On the day of resurrection, people will be assembled on a single, wide plain. An announcer will proclaim; 'where are they whose.

تَتَجَافٰى جُنُوْبُهُمْ عَنِ الْمَضَاجِعِ

{Sides forsook their beds….} (32:16)

(On hearing this proclamation), very few (of the people in the pain) will arise and enter paradise without going through reckoning. Then the remaining people will be summoned to present themselves for the reckoning."[1]

COMMENTARY: The words of the verse (16) of al-Furqan refer to those who get up in the night from sound sleep to present themselves before their creator and offer the salah of tahajjud.

According to another interpretation, they offer the salah of awwabeen (which in six raka'at in two's after the salah of maghrib).

According to yet another interpretation, these people offer the salah of isha and fajr.

Anyway, these words of the hadith refer to the verses of the noble Quran in which Allah speaks of his pious and righteous slaves:

{Only those believe in our revelations who, when they are reminded of them, fall down prostrate and glorify the praise of their Lord and they show not arrogance.[2]

Their sides forsake their beds as they call on their Lord in fear and in hope, and they expend out of what we have provided them. No soul knows what delight of the eyes is kept hidden from them, as a recompense for what they used to do} (32:15-17)

These verse enumerate the virtues and characteristics of the believers. Some of these characteristics are inherent part of faith. Some other characteristics are essential to make faith perfect.

Moreover, the foregoing hadith discloses that Allah's slaves who have perfected their faith and deeds will be exempted from the necessity of going through reckoning. They will not be subjected to any severity and they will not be punished. They will remain within the shade of their Lord's bounties and mercies and go straight to paradise without reckoning.

The believers are fewer than the infidels and the pious are fewer than the wicked. Hence, even in the hereafter such people who will be admitted to paradise without reckoning of any kind will be relatively fewer. This is also proved through the noble Quran that the followers of the truth and the pious are always fewer than, the untruthful and the wicked. The Quran says at one place:

إِلَّا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ وَقَلِيلٌ مَّا هُمْ

{......Save those who believe and do righteous deeds, and very few are they !} (38:24) (a prostration is due on reciting their full verse)

And, it also says:

وَقَلِيلٌ مِّنْ عِبَادِيَ الشَّكُورُ

{And few of My servants are grateful (though worship and obedience).} (34:13)

This means that the believers will always be fewer. Because of their being in minority, they will be beset with myriad problems in the social, economic and political fields. They will be oppressed and victimized in different ways. They should not feel dejected. Rather, this is an honour and good fortune for them from Allah. In the end they will get reward for it in the form of comfort and blessings. These chosen slaves of Allah who have perfect faith and deeds will enter paradise directly. Without being subjected to reckoning because they had pursued the path of guidance in this world, obeyed Allah and His messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم showed. Steadfast abiding by religion, endured hardship and persecution for the cause of Islam to please Allah. May had abandoned the luxuries and comforts of the world and in this way the attained the distinction of the patient. Thus, they genuinely deserve form Allah honour and endless comforts. It is such people that Allah addresses in His Book and prefers glad tidings in these words:

الصَّابِرُونَ أَجْرَهُم بِغَيْرِ حِسَابٍ

{Say (O Prophet to the believers that I say:) "O My servants who believe, fear your Lord For these who do good in this world a good (reward), and Allah's earth is vast (so if you have to leave your native land for religion, emigrate elsewhere). Truly, the persevering will be paid their reward in full without reckoning} (39:10)

THE SCALE & THE SIRAT: The ahl us sunnah believe that on the day of resurrection Allah will set up a scale with two pans in the place of gathering. Deeds. Of the people will be weighed in it. The Mu'tazilah, the Murji'ah, and the Farkhiyah reject the existence of the scale. They say that the word (ميزان) in the text stands for justice. It does imply weighing of deeds, but Quran and hadith, these people lie and are liars. Allah Himself says.

بِهَا ۗ وَكَفَىٰ بِنَا حَاسِبِينَ

{And we shall set up scales of justice for the day of resurrection so that no soul will be wronged in anything even if it be the weight of a grain of mustard seed, we shall bring it. And we suffice as reckoners.} (21:47)

He also says:

فَأَمَّا مَن ثَقُلَتْ مَوَازِينُهُ * فَهُوَ فِي عِيشَةٍ رَّاضِيَةٍ * وَأَمَّا مَنْ خَفَّتْ مَوَازِينُهُ * فَأُمُّهُ هَاوِيَةٌ

{Then as for him whose balances are heavy, he shall be in a well pleasing life. And as for him whose balances are light, the Abyss will be a mother to him } (101:6-9)

Justice is dispensed by weighing deeds in the scale. The ulama say that the scale will be with Allah because he will hold the reckoning of mankind Himself. According one tradition: "On the day of resurrection, the scale will be in Allah's hand. He will raise a section and bring down another."

It is said that pious deeds will be infinitesimal like barley-seed and very tiny ants and very beautiful. They will be put in a pan of light and by Allah's mercy it will become very heavy. The shape of evil will be extremely ugly. They will be put in a pen of darkness and it will become light weight at the command of Allah.

In weighing of deeds people will be grouped in three classes. There will be same whose pan of pious deeds will be higher relative to the pan of bad deeds. They will be admitted to paradise.

There will be others whose pan of bad deeds will be heavier than that of good deeds. They will be consigned to hell.

The third class will be those whose good and bad deeds are equally balanced. They will be sent to al-Arafat. Then either because of intercession they will be admitted to paradise without punishment, or they will be sent, after due punishment, to paradise.

According to the ahl sunnah, it is wajib to believe in the sirat. It is a bridge that passes over hell and is finer than hair, Lotter than fire and shaper than the adage of a sword. On the day of resurrection all creatures will have to walk over this bridge. Those who are eligible for paradise will go over it, according to the degrees of their faith and deeds, paradise. As for those who deserve to go to hell will down from the sirat into hell.

The believers will be granted light commensurate with their belief. They will walk over the sirat with this light. Some of them will ride over it and be like runners. Some will trek on their knees, some will crawl on their bottoms.

The distance on a sirat in terms of the years of the hereafter will be three thousand years.

According to a hadith, there are seven bridges over hell, a distance of what would be covered in seventy years.

Each bridge is sharper than the sword-edge the first group to go over it will cross over it in the twinkling of on eye. The second will pass over it at the speed of lightning. The third will go over it like a swift breeze. The fourth will go over it at the speed of birds. The fifth will pass at galloping pace of the horses. The sixth at running speed, The seventh will cross over it like pedestrians Last of all, one group will remain. When they are asked to pas over it, they will put the feet on it but their feet will tremble. So, they will walk on their knees. The sparks of the fire of hell will reach their feet and skin. Then they would move on their bellies and will cling to. the bridge with their hands. The fire, too will cling to them compelling them to drag themselves on their belies. They will manage to get past hell. On getting past it, they will turn to look at it. They will say, "Allah who has brought us past it, is without blemish. He has shown mercy to us, up to today from the first to the last, He has not shown favour to anyone besides us He delivered us from this bridge through His mercy and favour.

CHAPTER - XII

THE POND & THE INTERCESSION بَابُ الْحَوْضِ وَالشَّفَاعَةِ

POND: The word (حوض) is a river (or pond) but actually 'water gathering and flowing.' This is why the menses are called (حيض) and the word has the same root as (حوض). In this chapter, the word refers to the river that will be reserved for the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم on the day of resurrection and its features will be known from the ahadith in this chapter.

Qurtubi رحمه الله has written that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم shall have two ponds. One of these will be in the mahshar before the sirat and the other in paradise. Both will be called kawthar. This word means 'innumerable blessing.' The one in the mahshar would be granted before the scales are faced so that people who will be raised from their graves will be thirsty and they will come to the pond. Then the scales will be set up. Every Prophet عليه السلام will have his own pond in the masher where his umah will come. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "I hope that those who come to my pond will outnumber the visitors to the other ponds."

INTERCESSION: The word (شفاعة) means to recommend that sins may be forgiven. Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم will intercede for the sinners to be forgiven their sins and crimes. The word (شفاعة) is derived from (شفع) meaning 'to join'. 'to pair' two things and it is the opposite of (وتر) witr, 'add' - (شفع) 'even' This why the right to purchase neighbouring property (when it is sold) is called (Arabic) Shuf'ah 'pre-emption.' In this sense, one who recommends (makes Shafa'ah (شفاعة) associates himself with the wrong doer and sinner when he requests that he be forgiven.

KINDS OF SHAFA'AH: It is wajib to believe that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم will intercede for those people who have committed major and minor sins, and that his intercession will be accepted.

There will be different sorts of (شفاعة) Shafa'ah or intercession. All of them are known for the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم but some of them are allowed to him exclusively and some are such as others will join him or will also be allowed to make them. However, since he will be the first to open the gate of intercession, so, in fact, all intercessions are ascribed to him alone. Hence, he is the absolute chief of all intercessions.

FIRST KIND: It is Shafa'ah uzma (شفاعة عظمى). It will be made for all the creatures. Only Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم has the right to make this intercession. Not even any of the Prophet عليه السلام will Endeavour to make this intercession. It will be made to relieve all the people in the mahsher of uncertainty, long wait and severity of the standing, to begin reckoning and to pronounce judgement and thus to end the rigours and fear at the gathering place or mahsher.

SECOND: It is the intercession whereby one section will be admitted to paradise without being subjected to reckoning. Some scholars say that even this kind is allowed exclusively to prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم.

THIRD: This kind will get such people admitted to paradise whose pieties and sins will offset one another.

FOURTH: It will aim at getting those people admitted to paradise whose sins make them liable to be punished in hell.

FIFTH: The ranks of some will be sought to be increased by means of this intercession.

SIXTH: This intercession will be for those sinners who will be sent to hell but they will be taken out from there because of this intercession and admitted to paradise. This kind of intercession may also be made by others besides Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم Muhammad, like the Prophets عليهم السلام, the angels, the u lama and the martyrs, in their respective manner and for their own people.

SEVENTH: This intercession will be made for those people who have been consigned to hell forever so that their punishment may be mitigated.

EIGHTH: This is the intercession that is available only to the people of Madinah.

NINTH: As a mark of distinction and exclusive privilege those people who have had the honour of visiting the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم grave will benefit from this intercession.

OCCASIONS: The ulama say that there will be innumerable occasions on which intercession may be made.

FIRST OCCASION: When the people are made to stand in the gathering place they will be in a very frightened state. They will be restless and will perspire heavily and tremble The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم who is (شفيع المذنبين) (intercessor of the sinners) will make a recommendation so that the people may have some comfort and may sit a while to breathe.

SECOND: When Allah will give the command and they will be brought to Him for reckoning, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم will recommend that they should be exempted from the reckoning and be forgiven but if they ought to be examined, that should be superficial. If anyone is subjected to scrutiny then it will be impossible for him to avert punishment.

THIRD: When certain people are sentenced to punishment in hell, this will be another occasion to make a recommendation. They will be consigned to hell, but on the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم intercession, they would be released and admitted to paradise.

In short, we must have high hopes all during this time that the authorized Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم will make a strong recommendation and the All-Forgiving. All Merciful Allah will have mercy and will pardon. Of course the final decision may be whatever it is.

SECTION I الفصل الأول

PILES OF PEARLS AT BANKS OF KAWTHAR

(٥٥٦٦) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بَيْنَا أَنَا أَسِيْرُ فِي الْجَنَّةِ إِذَا أَنَا بِنَهْرٍ حَافَتَاهُ قِبَابُ الدُّرِّ الْمُجَوَّفِ قُلْتُ مَا هٰذَا يَا جِبْرَئِيْلُ قَالَ هٰذَا الْكَوْثَرُ الَّذِيْ أَعْطَاكَ رَبُّكَ فَإِذَا طِيْنُهُ مِسْكٌ أَذْفَرُ۔ (رواه البخاري)

5566. Sayyiduna Anas رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "While I was touring paradise, I come upon a river on either side of which were domes of depressed pearls. (This was touring paradise, I came upon a river on either side of which were domes of depressed pearls. (This was during the miraj or my night journey) I asked, 'what is this, O Jibril?' He said, 'It is the Kawthar the your Lord has granted you.' Behold! Its soil was strongly fragrant musk."[1]

COMMENTARY: The word (مجوف) means 'depressed' or 'hollow.' Thus, the domes on both banks of the river kawthar are not made of the conventional material like bricks, lime, etc. but each dome is a huge pearl hollow inside. They contain different fixtures useful for sitting and staying.

'That which your Lord has granted you. This is a reference to the noble verse:

إِنَّا أَعْطَيْنَٰكَ الْكَوْثَرَ

{Surely we have granted you the kawthar} (108:1),

Most of the exegetes have said that the word 'kawthar' in this verse means 'much good which is uncountable blessings and plenty of bounties grant ed by Allah to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. These blessings and bounties include prophet hood, messenger ship, the noble Quran, knowledge and wisdom. They also include a large ummah and high rank and degree. The greatest of these is the maqaam Mahmood[1] in the hereafter, the liwa'l hamd, [2]and the kawthar.

Whether kawthar means the river or abundant good, the river is included even in 'abundant good.' In this way, the words of Jibril عليه السلام would imply that the kawthar or abundant good granted to you by Allah includes the river by this name, too.

Some exegetes say that al-kawthar means 'children and the ulama of the ummah. But this too may be included in abundant good.

MERIT OF THE POND KAWTHAR

(٥٥٦٧) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حَوْضِيْ مَسِيْرَةُ شَهْرٍ وَزَوَايَاهُ سَوَآءٌ وَمَآءُهٗ أَبْيَضُ مِنَ اللَّبَنِ وَرِيْحُهٗ أَطْيَبُ مِنَ الْمِسْكِ وَكِيْزَانُهٗ كَنُجُوْمِ السَّمَآءِ مَنْ يَّشْرَبُ مِنْهَا فَلَا يَظْمَأُ أَبَدًا۔

5567. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Amr رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "My pond is a month's journey (end to end) and its sides are equal (so it is a square). Its water is whiter than milk and its fragrance is sweeter than musk. Its jugs are (bright) like the stars in the sky. He who drinks from it shall never again be thirsty."[3]

COMMENTARY: The words that he who drinks from the kawthar will never again feel thirst imply that the dwellers of paradise will drink water or anything else not to quench thirst but to enjoy its taste. So to, he will never feel hunger. He will eat to enjoy the blessing. The Quran says:

وَإِنَّ لَكَ أَلَّا تَجُوعَ فِيهَا وَلَا تَعْرَىٰ وَأَنَّكَ لَا تَظْمَؤُا فِيهَا وَلَا تَضْحَىٰ

{Surely, it is (vouchsafed) to you that you shall not hunger therein, nor go naked, nor shall you thirst therein, nor suffer the sun} (20:118-119)

EXTENT OF THE POND KAWTHAR

(٥٥٦٨، ٥٥٦٩، ٥٥٧٠) وَعَنْ أَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ حَوْضِيْ أَبْعَدُ مِنْ أَيْلَةَ مِنْ عَدَنٍ لَهُوَ أَشَدُّ بَيَاضًا مِّنَ الثَّلْجِ وَأَحْلٰى مِنَ الْعَسَلِ بِاللَّبَنِ وَلَآنِيَتُهٗ أَكْثَرُ مِنْ عَدَدِ النُّجُوْمِ وَإِنِّيْ لَأَصُدُّ النَّاسَ

عَنْهُ كَمَا يَصُدُّ الرَّجُلُ إِبِلَ النَّاسِ عَنْ حَوْضِهِ قَالُوْا يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ أَتَعْرِفُنَا يَوْمَئِذٍ قَالَ نَعَمْ لَكُمْ سِيْمَاءٌ لَيْسَتْ لِأَحَدٍ مِّنَ الْأُمَمِ تَرِدُوْنَ عَلَيَّ غُرًّا مُحَجَّلِيْنَ مِنْ أَثَرِ الْوُضُوْءِ رَوَاهُ مُسْلِمٌ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ لَهُ عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ تُرٰى فِيْهِ أَبَارِيْقُ الذَّهَبِ وَالْفِضَّةِ كَعَدَدِ نُجُوْمِ السَّمَاءِ وَفِيْ أُخْرٰى لَهُ عَنْ ثَوْبَانَ قَالَ سُئِلَ عَنْ شَرَابِهِ فَقَالَ أَشَدُّ بَيَاضًا مِّنَ اللَّبَنِ وَأَحْلٰى مِنَ الْعَسَلِ يَغُتُّ فِيْهِ مِيْزَابَانِ يَمُدَّانِهِ مِنَ الْجَنَّةِ أَحَدُهُمَا مِنْ ذَهَبٍ وَالْآخَرُ مِنْ وَرِقٍ۔

5568. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Indeed, my pond is more lengthy than the distance between Aylah and Aden. It is more white than snow, more sweet than honey mixed with milk. Its vessels are more in number than the stars (in the sky). And, I shall send away people (of other ummahs) from it in the same manner as one prevents camels of strangers from his pond." (That will be because it is the exclusive privilege of this ummah) Someone asked, "O Messenger of Allah, will you recognize us on that day?' He confirmed, 'Yes, you will be distinguished by a mark not found in the members of other ummahs. When you come before me, you will have on your foreheads, your hands and your feet white sparkling marks from the trace of ablution."[1]

5569. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he said, "Vessels of gold and silver as many as the stars in the sky will be sent at the pond."[2]

5570.Sayyiduna Thawban رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he (the Prophet) صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was asked about its drink (meaning, the water of the pond). He said, "It is more white than milk and more sweet than honey. Two ducts replenish it from paradise. One is made of gold and the other of silver."[3]

COMMENTARY: Aylah was a coastal city in Syria. Presently, it is a port of Isra'il, renamed Aylaat. It is situated to the north of the Red sea.

Aden is to the south of the Red Sea. It used to be a sea port of Yemen.

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that his pond al-kawthar was as long as the distance between Aylah and aden. However, he has named other cities too, like 'between Aden and Amman, and between San'a and Madinah. These distances do not restrict the length of the kawthar but imply that it is very long. The distances between the cities are mentioned only by way of example to show that it is very long. The prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم took the names of the cities depending on his audience and the cities that were familiar to them.

INNOVATORS WILL BE REPULSED FROM KAWTHAR

(٥٥٧١) وَعَنْ سَهْلِ بْنِ سَعْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنِّيْ فَرَطُكُمْ عَلَى الْحَوْضِ مَنْ مَرَّ عَلَيَّ شَرِبَ وَمَنْ شَرِبَ لَمْ يَظْمَأْ أَبَدًا لَيَرِدَنَّ عَلَيَّ أَقْوَامٌ أَعْرِفُهُمْ وَيَعْرِفُوْنَنِيْ ثُمَّ يُحَالُ بَيْنِيْ وَبَيْنَهُمْ فَأَقُوْلُ إِنَّهُمْ مِنِّيْ فَيُقَالُ إِنَّكَ لَا تَدْرِيْ مَا أَحْدَثُوْا بَعْدَكَ فَأَقُوْلُ سُحْقًا لِّمَنْ غَيَّرَ بَعْدِيْ۔ (متفق علیہ)

5571. Sayyiduna Sahl ibn Sa'd رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger said, "I shall proceed you to the pond (kawthar as your amir). Whoever passes by me will drink (from it) and whoso drink (from it) will never know thirst. Some people whom I know and who know me will come towards me, but they will be precluded by something between them and me. I shall exclaim, 'They are my people. But will be told, 'you cannot imagine what they innovated (in religion) after you.' So, I shall say, 'Away with them who innovated after my death."[1]

COMMENTARY: The hadith does not say who those men are. It seem that they had embraced Islam in the time of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم but had apostate after his death at the hands of the false prophets. See hadith # 5535 which is on this subject.

Moreover, this hadith perhaps also refers to the innovators or perpetrators of bidah. However, it is a confirmed fact that no number of this ummah, howsoever grave a sinner, will be prevented from coming to the kawthar and drinking its water. So, this suggestion is rejected outright unless the innovation alters the basic principles of religion or hits at prophet hood or Shari'ah to fall into disbelief. In that case, the innovator. Surely is an apostate. Such people are the ones covered by this hadith.

5572. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said "On the day of resurrection, the believers will be held back (and not allowed to move)./ They will be worried about their predicament. They will talk about it (to each other) saying, 'We must have someone to intercede with our Lord that He may relieve us from what we find ourselves in. So they will go to Aadam علیہ السلام and request him, 'You are Aadam, father of mankind. Allah created by His hand and let you reside in His paradise. He made the angels prostrate themselves to you. He taught you the names of everything. Do intercede withy your Lord for us that He may get us out from what we find ourselves in.' He will excuse 'I am not the one for it' and will recall his failing when he ate from the tree though he had been forbidden to do so. He will suggest. 'But, go to Nuh علیہ السلام, the first Prophet whom Allah sent to the people of the earth.'

They will come to Nuh (and request him to intercede with Allah for them) but. He will excuse himself, recalling his failing in requesting his Lord without knowledge (to save his seen from drawing) saying, 'I am not the one to do it for you. Go to Ibrahim علیہ السلام, the friend of the Merciful (Khalil ur Rahman).

They will comé to Ibrahim علیہ السلام (and request him to intercede with Allah on their behalf) but, he will recall the three lies that he had spoken saying, 'I am not the one to do that for you. But, you may go to Musa علیہ السلام a slave (of Allah) whom Allah gave the Torah and to whom He spoke and whom He drew near Him as a confidant (a keeper of secrets and all Prophets علیہم السلام of the Banu, Isra'il were subservient to him).

They will come to Musa علیہ السلام (with the same request to intercede with Allah on their behalf) but, he will excuse himself, recalling his failing when he took a life (of a qubti), saying, 'I am not the one to do that for you. You may go to Easa علیہ السلام, Allah's slave and Messenger, Allah's spirit and word. They will come to Easa علیہ السلام (and request him to intercede with Allah on their behalf). But, he will excuse himself saying, 'I am not the one to do that for you. Go to Muhammad, a slave (of Allah) whom Allah has forgiven all his sons earlier and latter.

They will then come to me, (I will be prepared to do it, so) I shall seek permission to appear before my Lord. It will be granted (and I shall go) and when I see him, I shall fall down in prostration. Allah will let me remain in prostration as long as the wishes me to remain. Then, He will say, 'Rise, Muhammad! Speak! It will be heard. Make intercession. It will be accepted. Supplicate! It will be granted. Then, I shall get up from prostration. I shall praise and glorify my Lord in the way he teaches me.

Then, I shall make intercession, but He will specify a limit for me where after I shall go out and get them out of hell and admit them to paradise.
I shall come back a second time and seek permission to appear before my card. It will be granted and when I see Him, I shall fall down in prostration. Allah will let me remain so as long as He wishes me to remain. Then he will direct me to rise and will say, 'speak! You will heard. Make intercession, it will be accepted. Supplicate. It will be granted' I shall arise from the prostration, praise and glorify my Lord in the way He teaches me, I shall make intercession, but He will specify a limit for me where after I shall go out. I shall get them out of hell and admit them to paradise.
I shall come back a third time and seek permission to appear before my Lord. It will be granted. When I see Him I shall down in prostration. Allah will let me remain so as long as He wished me to prostrate. Then, He will say. 'Rise, Muhammad! Speak! It will be heard. Make intercession. It will be accepted. Supplicate! It will be granted! 'The, I shall get up from prostration and praise and glorify my Lord in a way He teaches me. Then, I shall make intercession, but He will specify a limit for me where after I shall go out and get them out of hell and admit them to paradise.
No one will remain in hell apart from those whom the Quran has held back there. They are those who are punished to abide there forever. T hen he (the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم or Anas رضي الله عنه or Qatabdah) رحمه الله recited:

عَسَىٰٓ أَن يَبْعَثَكَ رَبُّكَ مَقَامًا مَّحْمُودًا

Then, he said, "And this praised station is that which He promised your Prophet." (Those words were spoken by the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Anas رضي الله عنه or Qatgadah) رضي الله عنه[1]

COMMENTARY: Prophet Aadam عليه السلام called prophet Nuh عليه السلام the first prophet. But there were three prophets before him; Sayyiduna Aadam عليه السلام himself, Sayyiduna Sheeth عليه السلام and Sayyiduna Idris عليه السلام. When these three Prophets عليهم السلام were sent, this world also had believers as its inhabitants. So their mission was to preach to both believers and unbelievers. As against this, when Prophet Nuh عليه السلام was sent to this world, all its people were disbelievers. Hence, he was the first prophet whose mission was exclusively to the disbelievers.

The ulama have offered more explanations but they are not very strong.

A question arises: why will the people not go directly to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم why will they go to different prophets, one by one? The wisdom behind it is that the merit of the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم should be known to everyone. His rank is higher than that of the other Prophets عليهم السلام. His rank is superior to all creatures, all men, the angels and the Prophets عليه السلام. It is not easy to intercede for others. It is a very difficult task for anyone to undertake, But, he did it!

PROPHET عليه السلام NUH: The failing of which prophet Nuh عليه السلام spoke concerned his son. During the deluge, when every believer boarded the ship with Prophet Nuh عليه السلام, his son did not obey him but remained with the disbelievers. He then drowned with them. Prophet Nuh عليه السلام prayed to Allah to save him from drawing:

رَبِّ إِنَّ ابْنِي مِنْ أَهْلِي وَإِنَّ وَعْدَكَ الْحَقُّ وَأَنْتَ أَحْكَمُ الْحَاكِمِينَ

{My Lord, surely my son is of my family and your promise is surely the truth, and you are the Justest of the judges} (11:45)

Prophet Nuh عليه السلام made this supplication without realizing that he should not have made it so, Allah reprimanded him for asking for that which he did not know.

PROPHET عليه السلام IBRAHIM: The three lies to which prophet Ibrhaim عليه السلام referred were not truly lies. But, Prophets عليهم السلام are expected to shun such hints too, It is said:

{Some things may be pieties for the pious people but they are evil for those who are near (to Allah),}

As for the three lies for which prophet Ibrahim عليه السلام blamed himself, they were:

(i) When his people went to a festival of theirs outside the city, he declined to accompany them on the plea that he was ill. Apparently he was not ill so this should be termed a lie, but it is not so, for he was for up of his people's disbelief and adamant refusal to obey him. He was thus ill in this sense, sick of them, for they did not desist from idol worship.

(ii) When they departed, he broke their idols. Then, he said to them, when they accused him, that the biggest of the idols has broken the smaller ones. He pointed out to them that the idols that they worshipped could not save themselves, nor could the biggest of them protect the smaller ones.

(iii) Once, in order to save his wife, Sayyidah Sarah, رضى الله عنه, from as indecent infidel, he said to him, :"She is my sister." This was a lie on the face of it but even a person's spouse is his (or her) a sister (or brother) in religion. So, in fact, he did not lie. Besides, Sayyidah Sarah عليه السلام was the cousin of prophet Ibrahim عليه السلام, being his paternal uncle's daughter. In this sense too, he did not lie when he called her his sister.

PROPHET EESA عليه السلام: Prophet Eesa عليه السلام will not present any excuse when he will be requested to intercede for the people with Allah. The ulama say that he will be too ashamed on account of his ummah who call him Allah's son. Hence he will direct them who seek intercession to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم straightaway.

However, some traditions do say that he also excused himself for some reasons.

ONLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم IS QUALIFIED: Be that as it may, the distinction to make a recommendation belongs only to Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم who is the chief of the Messengers عليهم السلام and the imam (Leader) of the Prophet عليه السلام. According to some other ahadith, all the prophets عليهم السلام will not present any excuse at all, but say merely, "We are not qualified to discharge this great task."

ALL PROPHET عليه السلام ARE INNOCENT: All the Prophets عليهم السلام are innocent and free of sins, not only Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم. He is not even accused of any sin. The fact that Allah has forgiven all his sins first and last is interpreted by the ulama in different ways. But, the most correct interpretation is that Allah honours him in this way and his superior merit is declared in this way leaving aside the fact that he has committed no sin the calls for forgiveness.

literal translation were made then it would be: will seek permission to enter the residence of Allah. This would mean 'the place granted by Him as reward namely, paradise.

But turpushti's explanation is more correct: 'to enter the residence of Allah's is to admitted to a place where no one is permitted to enter, where every supplication is granted, - where no screen or barrier lies between the admitted person and Allah. It is the place called Muqam Mahmood (or, the praiseworthy station). It is also called the Muqam Shafa (or, the rank of intercessor, or place of intercession). However, the question arises that Allah needs no residence. He may be called from any where. He hears the supplicant and grants his prayer then why will the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم go to the mahshar (to intercede for the people) to the place where Allah will grant the prayer and seek permission to present himself? The answer is that the mahshar will be governed by a protocol. Everyone will be treated according to his status. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم will be an intercessor at that time, and will deserve to stand at a place of honour. Allah will inspire him to move away from a place where the people are fearful and terrorized to a calm place of honour and make supplication in peace and with concentration.

PRAISE & GLORIFY IN WORDS ALLAH TEACHES: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم says use to praise and glorify Allah at that time Allah will teach them to me and make me pray in those words. They cannot be contemplated now, for, they would be according to the sanctity and peculiarity of the occasion. This is why that place is called maqam Hamd (station of praise) and maqam Mahmood (Praiseworthy station). This hadith is evidence that before making a recommendation to someone, one must first praise him to become familiar and to gain nearness and his attention and famous.

I WILL MAKE INTERCESSION: Qadi رحمه الله has said that according to one tradition narrated by Anas رضى الله عنه and Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم will raise his head from prostration and praise and glorify Allah very much. Then, on receiving permission to make intercession, he will begin to call ummati, ummati (my ummah, my people)!

LIMIT WILL BE SPECIFIED: The words that Allah will specify a limit for him mean that Allah define for him the people for whom he may intercede. For instance, He might say, "Intercede for members of your ummah who were adulterers or fornicators, or who did not offer the salah, or who consumed wine, ..." Therefore, he will make intercession in this manner according to the limit set by Allah. Allah will say, 'I have approved your recommendation for the fornication," and so on for the other recommendations

WILL GET THEM ADMITTED TO PARADISE: The hadith says in the beginning that the people for whom the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم will hope to make recommendation will be those who are restrained in the place of gathering and are restless because of continuous standing. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم will requested to get them relief from their ordeal. But, the portion in the hadith where it says that the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم recommendation will be accepted with limitations mentions getting some condemned people out of help and having them admitted to paradise. This seeming contradiction may be explained in two ways:

(i) There will be two groups of the believers. One will be sent to hell directly while the other will be detained in the mahshar. The Prophet will get the latter admitted to paradise and then have the former released from hell and admitted to paradise. He mentioned only one of the two groups leaving the other to surmise.

(ii) The word used in the hadith is (نار) fire translated hell. But, it could literally mean fire in reference to the terrible heat of that day in the scorching sun. The sun will be very near. The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم will get them out of there and have them admitted to paradise. This answer is near facts. This is the great intercession (شفاعۃ عظمی) in which all the creatures will be helped to get relief from the ordeal at the mahshar where they would be standing in an endless predicament, for the reckoning to begin. Besides, it is this form of intercession that is reserved for the Prophet only. Its objective is to recommend to Allah to give relief to those people.

After that, there will be many recommendation by the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم himself, other prophet علیه السلام the awliya, the ulama, the righteous, the martyrs and the poor. This has been mentioned in the introduction to this chapter.

MAQAM MAHMOOD: The closing words (that this is the praiseworthy station) confirm that the (شفاعۃ عظمی) shafa uzma great intercession which the Quran mentioned as exclusive for the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم is this very intercession at the mahshar.

It is so called because either one who stands here will praise it and recognize it, or the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم will stand here and praise and glorify Allah. It could also be because all creatures first to last will praise the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم for his receiving this honour.

5573. Sayyiduna Anas رضي الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم, "When the day of resurrections comes, the people will be desperate (not able to contain themselves). They will go to Aadam عليه السلام and request him to intercede with his Lord for them. He will express his incapability and advise them to go to Ibrahim عليه السلام, the friend of the All-Merciful (Allah). They will go to Ibrahim عليه السلام but he too will express inability and advise them to go to Musa عليه السلام who is Kaleem Allah (the one with whom Allah spoke). They will go to Musa عليه السلام, but he too will express his inability and advise them to go to Eesa عليه السلام who is Allah's spirit and word. They will go to Eesa عليه السلام but he too will express his inability and advise them to come to me (Muhammad). They will come to me and I shall confirm my ability (to do it) and I shall seek permission to come before my Lord. He will grant me permission and will teach me some words of praise which I do not know now. I shall praise him in those words and go down in prostration. It will be said that I should raise my head and if I should speak I will be heard, and make a supplication it will be granted, and make an intercession it will be given. So, I shall say, 'My Lord, my ummah, my ummah.' I will be told to go and get out of hell such people whose heart have faith as much as a grain of barley. I shall go and do it.

Then, I shall come back and praise him in those words again and go down in prostration. It will be said, 'Muhammad, raise your head. Speak, you will be heard! Supplicate, you will get it! Intercede, it will be accept ed.' I shall say again, 'My Lord, my ummah, my ummah!' I shall be commanded to go and get out of hell those whose hearts have faith as much as a grain of mustard see. I shall go and do it.

Then, I shall come back and praise Him in those words again and go down in prostration. It will be said that I should raise my head and speak so that I shall be heard, and make a supplication which would be granted, and intercede so that it would be accepted. I shall pray, 'O my Lord, my ummah, my ummah.' I shall be commanded to go and get out of hell such people whose hearts have as much faith as the smallest - nay the smallest - nay eh smallest (of small) grain of mustard-seed. I shall go and do it.

Then, I shall come back a fourth time and praise Him in those words again and go down in prostration. It will be said, 'Muhammad, raise your head, speak, you will be heard! Supplicate, you will be granted! Intercede, you will be given!' I shall again appeal, 'My Lord, grant me permission for those who have said (لا اله الا الله) (there is no God but Allah).' He will say, 'That is not for you! But, by My Might, My Glory Greatness and My Omnipotence, I shall certainly get out of it (hell) whose has said (لا اله الا الله) - There is no God but Allah." [1]

COMMENTARY: As for the words about anyone having faith as much a grain of ....., this means the results of faith like goodness, etc. The ulama differ on the exact meaning of it and this thing has been debated and, discussed at length by them. We have thrown light on it in the Book of faith and elsewhere (in Mazahir Haq).

As stated these words mean results of faith like goodness, etc. They grow in the heart through the light of faith and conviction and of Divine awareness. This cannot be said to apply to true faith because true faith is conviction of the heart and confirmation by the tongue. It cannot be divided into parts. It cannot increase and decrease.

This hadith speaks of those who have said that there is no God but Allah and have no good deeds in their records of deeds apart from reciting this expression sometime. In fact, some may have recited it only once in their life. Recommendation must be made for them on the hope that reciting of the kalimah (لا اله الا الله) by the tongue is also a piety after all. Allah does not ignore any piety howsoever insignificant or small. Rather, he does reward it some time or other. According to a hadith (من قال لا اله الا الله دخل الجنة) (He who recites the kalimah - there is no God but Allah - will enter paradise.)

Teebi رحمه الله said that this is evidence that the words like faith as much as grain of barley, etc. Do not refer to faith or conviction of the heart but they refer to goodness, piety, etc that grow in the heart as fruit of faith.

If anyone has no piety is his credit beyond saying (لا اله الا الله) then the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has not disallowed to intercede for him. He could intercede and Allah will approve his intercession. But, it is not his responsibility to get him released from hell.

Secondly these words also mean that surely Allah will get him out of paradise, but that would not be because of the prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم recommendation. Rather, Allah will do it become of His favour and mercy and to demonstrate that He himself wishes to release him from hell.

Therefore, the deliverance from hell of a believer who has never in his life performed a pious deed is outside the ambit of intercession. Rather, that will be done only because of Allah's kindness and favour.

However, this seems to contradict the next hadith (# 5474) of Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه.

If the first meaning is followed then there is no contradiction in the two ahadith because Allah will bring out that person from hell on the intercession of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

If the second meaning is taken then it is presumed that the persons who recited the kalimah did believe in their prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم but had not done any pious work. They were deserving of hell because of their evil deeds. And, the next hadith (# 5474) is about those people who may have done both deeds may have outweighed the good deeds making him liable to be consigned to hell.

THE FORTUNATE ONE

(٥٥٧٤) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اَسْعَدُ النَّاسِ بِشَفَاعَتِيْ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ مَنْ قَالَ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ خَالِصًا مِّنْ قَلْبِهٖ اَوْ نَفْسِهٖ۔ (رواه البخارى)

5574. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "On the day of resurrection, the person who will be most fortunate because of my intercession will be the one who had said (in the world) (لا اله الا الله) – 'there is no God but Allah' sincerely from his heart or from his soul."[1]

COMMENTARY: The 'or' between 'his heart' and 'his soul' is spoken by the narrator to express his doubt on which of the two he had heard. However, soul too means heart.

The word sincerely implies 'from the care of his heart, sincerely.' Because sincerely can only be from the core of the heart. It is like saying, ;I saw it with my eye,' or 'I heard it with my ears.'
If anyone is not a monotheist then he will not benefit by the Prophet's intercession. On, he may be a person who has no such deed in his record of deeds which qualities him for mercy and deliverance from hell. Clearly, this sort of a person will be most needy of intercession and he will benefit from it most.

MORE ABOUT INTERCESSION

(٥٥٧٥) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ اُتِيَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِلَحْمٍ فَرُفِعَ إِلَيْهِ الذِّرَاعُ وَكَانَتْ تُعْجِبُهُ فَنَهَسَ مِنْهَا نَهْسَةً ثُمَّ قَالَ اَنَا سَيِّدُ النَّاسِ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ يَوْمَ يَقُوْمُ النَّاسُ لِرَبِّ الْعٰلَمِيْنَ وَتَدْنُو الشَّمْسُ فَيَبْلُغُ النَّاسَ مِنَ الْغَمِّ وَالْكَرْبِ مَالَا يُطِيْقُوْنَ فَيَقُوْلُ النَّاسُ اَلَا تَنْظُرُوْنَ مَنْ يَّشْفَعُ لَكُمْ اِلٰى رَبِّكُمْ فَيَأْتُوْنَ اٰدَمَ وَ ذَكَرَ حَدِيْثَ الشَّفَاعَةِ وَقَالَ فَاَنْطَلِقُ فَاٰتِيْ تَحْتَ الْعَرْشِ فَاَقَعُ سَاجِدًا لِرَبِّيْ ثُمَّ يَفْتَحُ اللّٰهُ عَلَيَّ مِنْ مَّحَامِدِهٖ وَحُسْنِ الثَّنَاءِ عَلَيْهِ شَيْئًا لَمْ يَفْتَحْهُ اللّٰهُ لِاَحَدٍ قَبْلِيْ ثُمَّ قَالَ يَا مُحَمَّدُ ارْفَعْ رَأْسَكَ سَلْ تُعْطَهْ وَاشْفَعْ تُشَفَّعْ فَارْفَعُ رَأْسِيْ فَاَقُوْلُ اُمَّتِيْ يَارَبِّ اُمَّتِيْ يَا رَبِّ اُمَّتِيْ يَارَبِّ فَيُقَالُ يَا مُحَمَّدُ اَدْخِلْ مِنْ اُمَّتِكَ مَنْ لَّا حِسَابَ عَلَيْهِمْ مِنَ الْبَابِ الْاَيْمَنِ مِنْ اَبْوَابِ الْجَنَّةِ وَهُمْ شُرَكَاءُ النَّاسِ فِيْمَا سِوٰى ذٰلِكَ مِنَ الْاَبْوَابِ ثُمَّ قَالَ وَالَّذِيْ نَفْسِيْ بِيَدِهٖ اِنَّ مَابَيْنَ الْمِصْرَاعَيْنِ مِنْ مَّصَارِيْعِ الْجَنَّةِ كَمَا بَيْنَ مَكَّةَ وَ هَجَرَ۔ (متفق عليه)

5575. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that once some meat was brought to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and he was offered the foreleg. This was what he liked much. He bit off from it. Then he said, "I shall be the chief of all mankind on the day of resurrection – a day when mankind shall stand before the Lord of the worlds,[1] and the sun will draw near. The people will go through hardship and anxiety such as they will be unable to endure. So they will say to each other, 'why do you not look for someone who may intercede for you with your Lord?' So, they will come to Aadam علیہ السلام." Then, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم (or Abu Hurayrah) رضی اللہ عنہ mentioned the hadith of the intercession. Then he said, "So, I shall go till I come below the throne, and go down in prostration before my Lord. Then Allah will disclose to me words of praise for Him and the best from the glorifying him such as He had not disclosed to anyone before me. Then He will say, 'O Muhammad, raise your head. Supplicate and you will be given. Make intercession and it will be accepted.' So, I shall raise my head, and pray. My Lord, my ummah! My Lord, my ummah! My Lord, my ummah!' It will be said, 'O Muhamamd, admit from your ummah those whose reckoning is not taken through the right gate of paradise and they may (rightfully) enter through other gates too alongwith other people.'"
Thereafter, he said, "By Him in whose hand is my soul, the distance between every two gate-posts of the gates of paradise is like the distance between Makkah and Hajar."[2]

COMMENTARY: The word [(الناس) – the people] in 'I shall be the chief...' stands for all mankind. This includes the Prophets عليهم السلام too. This is confirmed by the words of the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in another hadith (# 5741, 5761):

انا سيد ولد ادم يوم القيامة الخ

He said this because of the honour he will be given on that day and will gain utmost nearness and love. On that day, everyone will depend on his intercession when all mankind will be extremely worried and in bad spirits. They will come to him ultimately to seek his intercession.

In this hadith, the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is quoted as saying, 'I shall come beneath the Throne of Allah." But, in a previous hadith (# 5572), he says,..." will seek permission to come before Him (or, in His residence). Allah's abode is paradise which is below the throne of Allah. Hence, both traditions agree.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم repeat ed his prayer, 'O my Lord, my ummah! Three times to lay stress. It also resembles the previous hadith (# 5573) in which he come to Allah again and again to intercede for different groups of people.

The right gate of paradise will be allotted exclusively to those who are to be admitted to paradise without reckoning. No one else will go by it though these people may use any of the other gates too.

Hajar is to the east of the Arabian peninsula at its coast This region is now called Ahsad. In ancient times, this region was called Bahrain.

The distance of the gate posts of the gates of paradise is not meant to be specified as the distance between Hajar and Makkah. Rather it is to say that the gate is very large.

FAITHFULNESS & BONDS OF KINSHIP

(٥٥٧٦) وَعَنْ حُذَيْفَةَ فِيْ حَدِيْثِ الشَّفَاعَةِ عَنْ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ وَتُرْسَلُ الْاَمَانَةُ وَالرَّحِمُ فَتَقُوْمَانِ جَنْبَتَيِ الصِّرَاطِ يَمِيْنًا وَّشِمَالًا۔ (رواه ومسلم)

5576. Sayyiduna Hudhayfah رضى الله عنه narrated that in the hadith about intercession Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم also said (subsequently), "Faithfulness (or trustworthiness) and bonds of kinship will be sent. They will stand to the either side of the sirat – right and left."[1]

COMMENTARY: Faithfulness is to give rights to the people for their properties, etc. bonds of kinship is to keep them joined. It is necessary to be careful about both these things. Both these things will give testimony for those who observed them and protest against those who were directly about them in this world. Thus, both kinds of people will be recognized in that next world.This hadith encourages people to be mindful about them and not be derelict in observing them.

INTERCESSION WILL BE ACCEPTED

(٥٥٧٧) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ عَمْرِو بْنِ الْعَاصِ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ تَلَا قَوْلَ اللّٰهِ تَعَالٰى فِيْ اِبْرَاهِيْمَ

5577. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Amr ibn Aas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم recited (to them) the words of Allah, the great, about prophet Ibrahim علیہ السلام (which he will submit about his people):

رَبِّ إِنَّهُنَّ أَضْلَلْنَ كَثِيرًا مِّنَ النَّاسِ فَمَنْ تَبِعَنِي فَإِنَّهُ مِنِّي

{My Lord, surely they have led astray many among mankind; whosoever follows me, surely he is of me.} (14:36)
Then he recited the words (of Allah) about prophet Easa علیہ السلام!

إِنْ تُعَذِّبْهُمْ فَإِنَّهُمْ عِبَادُكَ

{If you chastise them, surely they are your slaves...} (5:18)
Then, he (the Prophet) صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم raised his hands and prayed:

اللّٰهُمَّ أُمَّتِي أُمَّتِي

(O Allah my ummah, my ummah)! And wept.
Allah, the great, said, 'O Jibril, go to Muhammad, - and your Lord knows best - ask him, 'what makes you weep?"
Jibril علیہ السلام came to him and asked him. Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم informed him what he had said (being fearful for his ummah). So, Allah said to Jibril علیہ السلام, "Go to Muhammad and tell him, 'Surely, we shall please you concerning your ummah and shall not disappointed you."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم made this supplication and wept on recalling the words of Prophet Ibrahim علیہ السلام and Prophet Eesa علیہ السلام to Allah about their respective peoples. He was worried how his own ummah would fare. So, he prayed to Allah to forgive his ummah.

Allah Mighty and Glorious, told the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم that he would please him concerning his ummah. What would please him? According to some ahadith, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "I shall not be pleased till Allah, the Glorious forgive each member of my ummah." What were honour may this ummah expect? Hence, it is most necessary that we become members of his ummah in the true sense of the word. We must keep our belief correct. Only this is the difficulty and nothing else:

خاک او باش بادشاہی کن   آب او باش ہرچہ خواہی کن

We learn from this hadith that the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was very concerned about his ummah. He loved them dearly and had their good in his mind. He wished that they should be guided on the straight path.

Moreover, Allah has assured him that He would please him on their account. Furthermore, this hadith demonstrates the greatness and high standing of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

5578. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed narrated that some people asked, "O Messenger of Allah, shall we see our Lord on the day of resurrection?" Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, Yes. Do you find any difficulty in seeing the sun at noon when it is clearly visible and there are no clouds (to obstruct its view)? And, do you find any difficulty in seeing the moon on the fourteenth night (of a lunar month) when it is visible and there are no clouds (to prevent its view)?" They submitted, "No O Messenger of Allah." He said, "You will have no difficulty in having the vision of Allah on the day of resurrection just as you have no difficulty in seeing any of them." When it is the day of resurrection, a mu'adhdhin will call, 'Let every ummah follow that which they had been worshiping.'

Then, no one will remain who worshipped others than Allah, like idols and stones but will fall into hell one after the other. When no one will remain except those who worshiped Allah, be they the pious and the sinful, the Lord of the worlds will come t o them and will ask, 'What are you waiting for? Everyone is pursuing whatever he was worshipping (and you, too, should pursue whoever you worshiped). They will say, 'We remained apart from the people (who worshipped others beside you (in the world though we had great need of them. We did not keep with them.'"

5579. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah's صلى الله عليه وسلم narration has that they will say, "This is our place till our Lord comes to us. Indeed, when our Lord will come to us, we shall recognize him."

Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed's رضى الله عنه narration has that He (Allah) will ask, "In there a sign between you and him by which you will recognize Him?" They will say, "Yes!" Then the shank will be uncovered. (This expression has been explained previously to mean things will be made clear). Then Allah will enable everyone to perform prostration and permit him who had prostrated himself in the world (for Allah's Sake) to prostrate himself. But, he who had prostrated himself (in the world) out of fear (for himself) or Ostentatiously will have back made by Allah into a single piece (like a plank). So whenever he tries to prostrate himself, he will fall back on his neck.

Then the sirat (Or bridge) will be set up over hell (right over its centre and permission will be given for intercession. So, they (meaning, all the Prophets) will pray, (اللهم سلم سلم) (O Allah let them go over it safely!)

The believers will go over it (according to their piety and sincerity) within the twinkling of an eye, at lightning speed, like (a swift) wind, like a (speedy) bird, like a (galloping) horse or a (fast) camel. Some will escape (the fire and go over it safely). Some will manage to cross over with a wound. (Some will (be hurt badly and) thrown into hell.)

When the believers are safe from the fire of hell, I swear by Him in whose hand is my soul, none of you makes as much effort for an obvious, proved right as the believers will do on the day of resurrection before Allah to get their (believing) brothers released from hell. They will pray, "O our Lord, they used to fast along with us, offer salah and perform hajj.' They will be told 'Bring our (of it) hose whom your recognize.' The fire (of hell) will be forbidden to (burn) their faces and they will fetch out (of it) a large number of people. They will submit, 'O our Lord, none of those about whom you gave us command remains therein. He will order them to go again bring our those is whose heart they could find so much as a dinar of piety when they will bring out very many people (of that description), He will command them to go again and get out such as a whose hearts they find piety as much as half a dinar. They will (obey and) bring our very many such people and He will send them back to bring out such as in whose heart they detect piety of an atom's worth. They will bring out a large number of (such) people and submit, 'O our lord, we have not left therein any good at all.'

Allah will say, 'The angels have interceded. The prophets have interceded. The believers have interceded. And none but the Ar-ham ur Rahimeen (the Most merciful of those who show mercy) remains." He will take a handful from hell and bring out such people who had never done any good. They will have turned into charcoal. He will cast them into a river outside the gate of paradise, called the River of Life (nahr ul hayah). They will emerge as a seed rises from the litter carriage away by a flood and will sprout like pearls with seals on their necks. The dwellers of paradise will remarks' 'They are the (fortunate) ones whom the most merciful has set free. He has brought them into paradise though they have done no good and have sent forward no piety.

Then they (the freed ones) will be told, "Your is what you see and the like of it with it!."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم assured his sahabah that on the day of resurrect ion, they will see Allah when they are in the place of standing which is where all creatures will stand in the place of gathering Men and women, everyone will see Allah. In fact some authorities say that even the hypocrites and disbelievers will see Allah once after which they will be made unable to see Him. Then they will be deprived of His vision for ever. But the possibility of the hypocrites and disbelievers having an opportunity to see Allah is not certain. Rather, it is debated because the noble Quran says:

{Nay, surely on that Day they shall be veiled from their Lord} (83:15)

WOMEN: Suyuti رحمه الله said that there is a consensus of opinion that Allah's sight will be available to all the Prophets عليهم السلام Messengers عليهم السلام, the Siddiqs and all the male believers of this ummah, regularly. As for the believing women, there are three opinions:

(i) They will not see Allah there.
(ii) They will also see him regularly.
(iii) They will not see Him every day, but see Him on specified days, like eed, etc.

ANGELS: There are two opinions about the angels.

(i) They will not see Allah.
(ii) They will be able to see Allah regularly.

JINNS: There are differing opinion about the jinns being able to see Allah

VISION WITHOUT DIFFICULTY: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has assured us that we shall be able to see Allah without difficulty. He compared it with the view of the sun or full moon which everyone can see without hustle and bending or stretching oneself to look at it. In the same way, there will be no difficulty in seeing Allah we might say in passing that the ulama have said that the sight of Allah mentioned here is apart from His sight in paradise that will be available to the believers as a token of honour for them. This sight will be merely as a trial and examination to put apart those who had worshipped Allah in the world and those who had worshiped others than Allah. This means that people will be put to test even ion the hereafter and this will go on till reckoning is over and the final judgement is passed against every individual, to reward some and to punish some. Though the hereafter is the able of requital yet sometimes people will have to go through trial. It is like this world which is the abode of trial and examination yet sometimes reward and punishment is given here too. Allah says:

{And whatever of misfortune befalls you, it is for what your own hands have earned..} (42:30)

IDOLS & STONES: Those people who worshipped idols and stones.. The stones were put up at particular places with the sole purpose to adore them like idols. Though the word 'stone' is used, yet it might be anything else, like wood, etc. They were worshipped and offerings were made to them.

COMING OF THE LORD: The coming of the Lord to them is mentioned in this hadith. We cannot say about the nature of it but we must believe it as spoken without trying to examine its nature and must also believe that Allah is free of movement of any kind as might be imagined in anyone's coming. It is one of the Mutashabihat (an allegorical statement). It is binding on us not to involve ourselves in such things. The facts are known only to Allah and we must leave them to Him. However, some explanations are offered for the coming of the Lord. For example, one of His angel come, or His command will be received as is indicated in the next sentence.

UNCOVERING THE SHIN: The uncovering of the shin or shank implies 'removal of fear and anxiety.' Or, it implies 'seeing a mighty light.' 'a company of the angels being seen.' However, it is best to avoid looking into it for a meaning, and to leave it as known only to Allah.

Nawami رحمه الله reduced from this portion of the hadith (where the shin is said to be uncovered, the command is given to prostrate as a result of which some people will prostrate and some will be unable to do it) that even the hypocrites will see Allah (Sharh Muslim). However if we look at it deeply then this idea seems hollow because the hadith does not say it explicitly. It only says that Allah will remove the screen before His slaves among whom one the sincere believers and hypocrites too. Then He will try them by instructing them to prostrate themselves. Only the sincere ones will prostrate themselves but the hypocrites will be unable to do so. Hence, this certainly does not prove that the hypocrites too will be favoured by the version of Allah.

THE SIRAT: The believers will go past the sirat commensurate with the nature of their worldly lives. Some will go past it easily the sincerely ones) while some others will face difficulty of varying degrees. Hence, it is like the straight path (صراط مستقيم)of religion. Some of the believers will make it to the other side after receiving wounds. This might means that before they make it to the other side they will be hurt at the sirat. Itself because of their sin or they might fall down into hell and, other they have suffered their punishment, they will be sent to paradise.

Some Muslims will be thrown into hell because of their sins. They will go through an agony at the sirat and then fall down into hell. There, they will undergo punishment for as long as Allah wills. According to some versions they will be fettered at their hands and feet and thrown into hell one over the other. According to Teebi رحمه الله, they will be taken out of hell after completing their sentence, or when Allah remove them because of mercy and favour, or when someone intercedes for them.

Believers will not remain in hell forever, as stated in the preceding lines. Moreover, when they are admitted to paradise, they will intercede with Allah strongly for those believers who remain in hell because of their sins and suffer punishment. They may not have been able to free themselves from hell because of their many sins.

Then the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "You will make a very strong demand from your Lord for the release from hell of your Muslim brothers - stronger than you make for your rights from anyone over whom you have your right. You will beseech Allah and try your best to the limit of your ability to please him.

So, they will be sent to bring out their man and for this purpose they will have to go there. The fire of hell will be disallowed to burn them or hurt them in any way, not even blacken their faces. Thus they will bring their men out of hell whose faces will be clear and untouched by fire, so they will have no difficulty in recognizing them.

DINAR'S WORTH OF PIETY: This sentence and such others by their use of piety, refer to that which is beyond faith, because faith itself is indivisible and it cannot increase or decrease. 'Only such piety as follows from faith may be divided into parts and may increase or decrease. It is a separate entity. So, piety with a dinar, or less than that, implies even a little piety through an ordinary righteous deed that issues from the heart, like a quiet dhikr or remembrance of Allah, being kind to a poor person, fear of Allah or resolving to give charity. These people were to be brought out of hell.

WHO NEVER DID ANY GOOD: This also means people who never did anything good or pious deed beyond their belief. The most merciful would get them out of hell merely because of His mercy. These people will be believers but would have done nothing good or pious. They are those who do not qualify for intercession from anyone at all.

SEALS ON NECKS: Seals on their necks' will be some peculiar garlands or necklaces in their necks. They will be recognized because of them.

BURNT OUT BY HELL RESTORED

(٥٥٨٠) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا دَخَلَ أَهْلُ الْجَنَّةِ الْجَنَّةَ وَأَهْلُ النَّارِ النَّارَ يَقُوْلُ اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى مَنْ كَانَ فِيْ قَلْبِهٖ مِثْقَالُ حَبَّةٍ مِّنْ خَرْدَلٍ مِّنْ إِيْمَانٍ فَأَخْرِجُوْهُ فَيُخْرَجُوْنَ قَدِ امْتُحِشُوْا وَعَادُوْا حُمَمًا فَيُلْقَوْنَ فِيْ نَهَرِ الْحَيٰوةِ فَيَنْبُتُوْنَ كَمَا تَنْبُتُ الْحِبَّةُ فِيْ حَمِيْلِ السَّيْلِ أَلَمْ تَرَوْا أَنَّهَا تَخْرُجُ صَفْرَآءَ مُلْتَوِيَةً۔ مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ۔

5580.Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed Khudri رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "when the deserving of paradise enter paradise and the deserving of hell enter hell, Allah, the Glorious, will say (to the Prophet) or the intercessors or the angels), 'Get out (of hell) everyone who h as in his heart faith (meaning, piety or good) equal to a grain of mustard seed.' They will be brought out (and will have been) burned and reduced to charcoal. So they will be thrown into the river of life and will sprout as a seed grows in the dregs drown by a flood Have you not observed it? It springs out yellow and bent."[1]

COMMENTARY: This hadith throws light on the previous hadith (# 5578-79) on its words that the Most Merciful will bring out a handful of people from hell who had never done any good. In that hadith, the some people are meant who are faithful though their record of deeds lacks good and pious deeds. It is necessary to make it clear because that hadith gives the impression that the people brought out by the handful will be disbelievers.
The entire ummah is agreed that no disbeliever will ever be taken out of hell.

5581. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that the people asked, "O Messenger of Allah, shall we see our Lord on the day of resurrection?" Then Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated the same hadith as of Abu Sa'eed with similar words without mentioning the uncovering of the Shank (#5580). Then, he continued saying (that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said). "The sirat will be erected over the centre of hell and I shall be the first of the Messengers علیهم السلام to lead his (my) people over it. On that day none but the Messengers علیهم السلام will speak and their speech that day will be (اَللّٰهُمَّ سَلِّمْ سَلِّمْ) 'O Allah, keep (us safe. Safe!)'

In hell will be (to either side of the sirat) hooks like sa'dan thorns (a kind of plant on which camels pasture). Their size is known only to Allah. They will seize the people according to their deeds. Some will perish (in the sense that they will fall into the fire) for their deeds some will be wounded severely before being shaved, and getting past it. (Or, if they fall, they will be brought out after receiving their punishment,)

Thereafter, when Allah finishes (the reckoning and) the judgement of His slaves and decides to bring out of hell those whom He wishes (to be out) among those who had given the testimony that there is no God but Allah, He will command the angels to fetch out (of hell) those who worshipped Allah (and did not worship anyone else). They will get them out, recognising them by the marks of prostration (on their foreheads) because Allah, the Glorious, has disallowed hell to burn the mark of prostration. So, hell will devour everything in the children of Aadam علیه السلام but not the mark of prostration. They will come out of hell having been burned and the water of life will be sprinkled over them (or, poured over them). They will sprout as a seed does in the (dirt and) dregs carried away by a flood.

One man will remain, being the last of the inmates of hell to enter paradise. He will be between paradise and hell with his face towards hell. He will submit, 'O my Lord, turn my face away from hell. Its odour is killing me and its fire is burning me.' Allah will say, 'But, if I do that, you might ask for something else." He will promise, 'No! By your Might.' He will hold out such assurances and promises as Allah wishes. So, He will turn his face away from hell.

When he is turned (away from hell) and faces paradise, he will see its beauty and keep quit as long as Allah wishes him to be silent. Then he will plead, O my Lord getme closer to the gate of paradise. Allah, Blessed and Exalted, will ask him, 'Have you not held out assurances and promises not to ask for anything other than what you have asked? He will must deprived of your creatures. Allah will ask, 'What do you intend to ask for after you get there?' He will promise, 'No, by your Might, I shall not ask for any other thing.' And, he give his Lord such assurances and promises as He wishes. So, He will bring him to the gate of paradise.

When he reaches its gate and observes its beauty and that which is inside it of freshness and happiness, he will keep quiet as long as Allah wishes him to remain silent. Then, he will plead, 'O my Lord admit me to paradise!' Allah, blessed and Exalted, will say. 'How bad for you (1) son of Aadam? How treacherous you are! Did you not hold out assurances and promises that you shall not seek more than what you are given?' He will plead, 'O my Lord! Do not let me be the most deprived of your creatures.' (He will cite Allah's words (لَا تَايْئَسُوا مِن رَّحْمَةِ اللهِ الخ) - do not despair of Allah's mercy. (12:87)] He will not cease beseech (Allah) till Allah laughs at him, So, when He laughs, He will permit him to enter paradise, and will say, 'wish for what you desire.' So, he will make wishes till he has no more to wish for. But Allah, the Most High, will remind him, 'Wish from this and from that.' His Lord will continue to remain him till his wishes are exhausted. Then, Allah will say, 'You will have all that, and as much more alongwith it,"

According to the version of Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed: "Allah, the Glorious, will say, 'You will have all that and ten times as much."[1]

COMMENTARY: Nawawi رحمه الله interpreted this hadith to mean that the fire of hell will not burn those limbs which are used to prostrate oneself. They are seven limbs: the forehead, both hands both knees and both feet. Some authorities, however, disagree and say that only the forehead will be spared by the fire. But, Nawawi's رحمه الله opinion is preferred. The previous hadith (# 5880) says that the inmates of hell when brought out will be cast into the river of life. Perhaps, some will be cast into the river of life and some will have its water sprinkled over them for, that might be enough for them.

The man will swear on Allah not to ask for anything more but will betray his promise, yet he will not be punished for willful falsehood. The reason is that he will be in the situation of a mad man, so he will be considered as helpless. Also, this thing will take place in the hereafter where such lapses will be condoned.

5582. Sayyiduna Ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The last to enter paradise will be a man who will walk (out of paradise) one step forward but stumble (when he takes) the next step. The third time, he will be burned by hell. When he gets somewhat away from it, he will turn (and look) and say, 'Allah is blessed. He saved me from you. Allah has given me what He has not given to anyone before or after (me). He will be attracted to a tree (under which will be a spring). So, he will say. 'O my Lord, get me near this tree so that I may use its shade and drink some of the water of its spring. Allah will ask him, 'O son of Aadam, if I let you have that, then you might ask Me for some other thing.' He will promise, 'No, my Lord,' and he will hold out firm assurances that he will not seek from Him any other thing. His Lord will excuse him because he will have seen something that he cannot do without asking for it, so He will get him nearer to it. He will have its shade and drink from its water. Then another tree more beautiful than the first would be raised up for him to see and he will plead. 'O Lord, get me closer to this tree that I may drink from its spring and shelter myself in its shade. I will not ask you for any other thing. Allah will say O son ow Aadam did you not give me your solemn assurances not to ask for any thing again And he will also say. If I get you hear to it, you will ask for another thing.' Allah will say O Son of Aadam did you not give me your Solemn assurances not to ask for any thing again and he will also say, If I get you hear to it, you will ask for another thing. He will promise not to ask again for anything. His Lord will excuse him because he will have seen something he cannot do without. He will get him nearer to it and he will shelter himself and drink its water.

Then a tree will be raised for him near the gate of paradise, more beautiful than the first two. So, he will plead, 'O my Lord, get me nearer to it, so I may shelter in its shade and drink from its water. I shall not ask you for any other thing.' He (Allah) will remind him, 'O son of Aadam, had you not give assurances not to ask for anything again?' He will concede, 'Of course, my Lord. But, I shall not ask you for anything other than this.' His Lord will condone his (excessive demands) because he will be seeing something he cannot avoid asking for. He will get him nearer to it, when he is closer to it, he will hear voices of the dwellers of paradise and plead, 'O my Lord, get me into it.' He will say, 'O son of Aadam, what will make you stop desiring more things from Me? Will it satisfy you if I give you (as much as) the world and as much more (in paradise)? He will ask, 'O my Lord do you make fun of me? You are the Lord of the universe."

Ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ laughed and asked (his listeners), "Will you not ask me why do I laugh?" so, they asked, why do you laugh?" He said, "Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had also laughed in this manner and they had asked, 'At what do you laugh, O Messenger of Allah? He said 'Because the Lord of the universe will laugh when the man will ask Him if He made fun of him and He will say that He did not make fun of him but had power to do what He willed."[1]

5583. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed رضی اللہ عنہ narrated a similar hadith without the words; Allah will say, 'what will make you stop desiring' "till the end of the hadith. But, it has, Allah will prompt him to ask for this and that....when his desires cease, Allah, the exalted, will say, 'You can have it and ten times as much?'

He said that he will then enter his house and his two wives from the large eyed maidens (of paradise) will come to him and, say 'praise belongs to Allah who has created you for us and created us for you' He will then say, 'No one has been blessed with anything similar to what is granted to me."[2]

COMMENTARY: The man was released from hell and that certainly was a great favour shown to him. So, he acknowledged it as such from Allah and was much delighted. He might not have seen anything else being released from hell and may not have known that many were admitted already to paradise. So, he perhaps though that no else before or after him was distinguished in like manner.

When the man asked his Lord whether he was making fun of him, He laughed because He was much pleased with him. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم laughed after mentioning that because he was pleased and happy that Allah was kind to a sinful slave of His. Ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ laughed in emulation of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, and to demonstrate his happiness, too.

The maiden of paradise is the hoor (حور). It is the plural of (حوراء) meaning: a fair and beautiful woman. The word (عین) is the plural of (عیناء) to mean large, black eyes.

RELEASE FROM HELL WILL GET THEM GET CALLED JAHANNAMIS

(٥٥٨٤) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَيُصِيْبَنَّ اَقْوَامًا سَفْعٌ مِّنَ النَّارِ بِذُنُوْبٍ اَمَا بُوْهَا عُقُوْبَةٌ ثُمَّ يُدْخِلُهُمُ اللّٰهُ الْجَنَّةَ بِفَضْلِ رَحْمَتِهٖ فَيُقَالُ لَهُمُ الْجَهَنَّمِيُّوْنَ۔ (رواه البخارى)

5584. Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Many people will be punished by burning in (the fire of) hell for their sins committed by them. (This will alter their appearances.) Then Allah will admit them to paradise by His favour and mercy. They will be known (in paradise) as al-jahannameyun."[1] (from hell).

COMMENTARY: The people who will be admitted to paradise after release from jahannam (hell) will be called in paradise jahannemiyun (from hell). This will not be done to deride them but to take pride in them and to encourage them to be grateful for the great favour.

5585. Sayyiduna Imran ibn Husayn رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Manyu people will be set free from hell because of the intercession of Muhammad and admitted to paradise. They will be called there al-jahannamiyin."[2] According to another version: "Some of my people will be released from hell because of my intercession and called al-jahannamiyin."

Note: Jahannamiyun is the nominative case. Jahannamiyin is the genitive. It is the plural of jahannami.

5586. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Indeed, I do know the last of the inmates of hell to come out of it, and the last of the dwellers of paradise to enter it. He will be a man who will crawl out of hell. Allah will say to him, 'Go! Enter paradise.' When he arrives (at its gate), he would be made to feel that it is occupied fully. So, he will submit. Of my Lord, I find it occupied to the brim.' Allah will say, 'Go and enter paradise. You will get as much as the world there and ten times as much as that.' He will ask, 'Are you jesting with me?' Or, Are you laughing at me though you are the king?' "

Ibn Mas'ud رضی الله عنه said, "I saw Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم laugh so much that his molar teeth were seen."

And, it was said, "That will be the dweller of paradise who will have the lowest rank."[1]

COMMENTARY: The question in the closing paragraph are not the words of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. Rather these words belong to the narrator Ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ or to one of the sub-narrators.
The man who will be given a very large place in paradise will be of the lowest ranked in paradise.

(٥٥٨٧) وَعَنْ اَبِي ذَرٍّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنِّيْ لَاَعْلَمُ اٰخِرَ اَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ دُخُوْلًا بِالْجَنَّةِ وَاٰخِرَ اَهْلِ النَّارِ خُرُوْجًا مِّنْهَا رَجُلًا يُؤْتٰى بِهٖ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ فَيُقَالُ اعْرِضُوْا عَلَيْهِ صِغَارَ ذُنُوْبِهٖ وَارْفَعُوْا عَنْهُ كِبَارَهَا فَتُعْرَضُ عَلَيْهِ صِغَارُ ذُنُوْبِهٖ فَيُقَالُ عَمِلْتَ يَوْمَ كَذَا وَكَذَا كَذَا وَكَذَا وَعَمِلْتَ يَوْمَ كَذَا وَكَذَا كَذَا وَكَذَا فَيَقُوْلُ نَعَمْ لَا يَسْتَطِيْعُ اَنْ يُّنْكِرَ وَهُوَ مُشْفِقٌ مِّنْ كِبَارِ ذُنُوْبِهٖ اَنْ تُعْرَضَ عَلَيْهِ فَيُقَالُ لَهٗ فَاِنَّ لَكَ مَكَانَ كُلِّ سَيِّئَةٍ حَسَنَةً فَيَقُوْلُ رَبِّ قَدْ عَمِلْتُ اَشْيَاءَ لَا اَرَاهَا هٰهُنَا وَلَقَدْ رَاَيْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ضَحِكَ حَتّٰى بَدَتْ نَوَاجِذُهٗ۔ (رواہ مسلم)

5587. Sayyiduna Abu Dharr رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Surely, I do know the last of the dwellers of paradise to enter it and the last of the inmates of hell to come out of it, He will be a man who will be brought (before Allah) on the day of resurrection. A command will be given (to the angels) to show to him his minor sins and exclude from him his major sins. So, he will be shown his minor sins and reminded, 'On such and such a day you had done this or that, and on such and such a day you had, done that act of disobedience.' He will confess, not being able to say, 'No' and scared that he will be shown his major sins (and will be doomed). But, he will be told 'For you, every deed (as a taken of Our mercy).' He will submit, 'My Lord, indeed I have done other things too that I do not see here (in the record)."
(Abu Dharr رضی اللہ عنہ said:) "And, indeed, I saw Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم laugh so much that his molar teeth were visible."[2]

HOPE FULFILLED

(٥٥٨٨) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ يُخْرَجُ مِنَ النَّارِ اَرْبَعَةٌ فَيُعْرَضُوْنَ عَلَى اللّٰهِ ثُمَّ يُؤْمَرُ بِهِمْ اِلَى النَّارِ فَيَلْتَفِتُ اَحَدُهُمْ فَيَقُوْلُ اَيْ رَبِّ لَقَدْ كُنْتُ اَرْجُوْ اِذْ اَخْرَجْتَنِيْ مِنْهَا اَنْ لَّا تُعِيْدَنِيْ فِيْهَا قَالَ فَيُنْجِيْهِ اللّٰهُ مِنْهَا۔ (رواہ مسلم)

5588. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Four people will be brought out of hell and presented before Allah. Command will then be given that they should be consigned to hell. One of them will turn and submit, 'O my Lord! Indeed, I had hoped when you brought me out of it that you would not put me in it again."
He (the prophet) صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, 'So, Allah will presence him from it."[1]

---

COMMENTARY: Those four people will be tried when they are taken out of hell and sent back and then released, and to make them grateful. The hadith mentions only one person as released but, on his basis, we may assume that the some treatment will be given to the others, too. Besides, only four are mentioned. Actually, there will be a whole batch of those like these four.

WHY ARE BELIEVERS PUNISHED

(٥٥٨٩) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ سَعِيْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُخْلَصُ الْمُؤْمِنُوْنَ مِنَ النَّارِ فَيُحْبَسُوْنَ عَلٰى قَنْطَرَةٍ بَيْنَ الْجَنَّةِ وَالنَّارِ فَيُقْتَصُّ لِبَعْضِهِمْ مِّنْ بَعْضٍ مَظَالِمُ كَانَتْ بَيْنَهُمْ فِي الدُّنْيَا حَتّٰى اِذَا هُذِّبُوْا وَنُقُّوْا أُذِنَ لَهُمْ فِيْ دُخُوْلِ الْجَنَّةِ فَوَالَّذِيْ نَفْسُ مُحَمَّدٍ بِيَدِهٖ لَاَحَدُهُمْ اَهْدٰى بِمَنْزِلِهٖ فِي الْجَنَّةِ مِنْهُ بِمَنْزِلِهٖ كَانَ لَهٗ فِي الدُّنْيَا۔ (رواه البخاری)

5589. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The believers will be freed from hell but will be held back at a bridge between paradise and hell. Then they will be made to recompense each other for their rights that were unsettled by them in the world. When (that is done and) they are purged of it and purified, permission will be given to them to enter paradise. By him in whose hand is the soul of Muhammad, (When they enter paradise), each of them will know his house in paradise better than he knew his house that he had in the world."[2]

COMMENTARY: The believers who have committed sin will be sent to hell and punished so that they may be purged of all impurity of sin and misdeeds. Then, they will be sent to paradise which is a place where they will abide for ever.

The believers will not be punished out of hatred or anger. In the world too, Allah involves his slaves in sickness, accidents or hardship to cleanse them of their sins.

Scholars say that of the sins committed by people. Some are washed away through hardships and trials that one endures for the sake of Truth. Some sins are cleansed by the pangs of death. Some sins are removed by punishment in the grave. Some sins cannot be offset by anything except by the fire of hell. It is like gold and silver that can be melted only in a kiln.

When the heart is bright and sinless (after being purified of sins), It is guided. When such people find Allah's path in the world, they will also find their dwelling in the hereafter.

EVERYONE'S PLACE IS RESERVED IN PARADISE & HELL

(٥٥٩٠) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يَدْخُلُ اَحَدٌ الْجَنَّةَ اِلَّا أُرِيَ مَقْعَدَهٗ مِنَ النَّارِ لَوْ اَسَاءَ لِيَزْدَادَ شُكْرًا وَّلَا يَدْخُلُ النَّارَ اَحَدٌ اِلَّا أُرِيَ مَقْعَدَهٗ مِنَ الْجَنَّةِ لَوْ اَحْسَنَ لِيَكُوْنَ عَلَيْهِ حَسْرَةً۔ (رواه البخاری)

5590.Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "No one will enter paradise (when he deserves it) without being shown his place in hell (where he would have been) if he had perpetrated evil. This will make him more grateful. And no one will be consigned to hell without being shown his place in paradise (where he would have been) if he had been pious. This will cause him despair."[1]

(٥٥٩١) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا صَارَ اَهْلُ الْجَنَّةِ إِلَى الْجَنَّةِ وَاَهْلُ النَّارِ إِلَى النَّارِ جِيْءَ بِالْمَوْتِ حَتّٰى يُجْعَلَ بَيْنَ الْجَنَّةِ وَالنَّارِ ثُمَّ يُذْبَحُ ثُمَّ يُنَادِيْ مُنَادٍ يَا اَهْلَ الْجَنَّةِ لَا مَوْتَ وَيَا اَهْلَ النَّارِ لَا مَوْتَ فَيَزْدَادُ اَهْلُ الْجَنَّةِ فَرَحًا إِلٰى فَرَحِهِمْ وَيَزْدَادُ اَهْلُ النَّارِ حُزْنًا إِلٰى حُزْنِهِمْ۔ (متفق عليه)

5591. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "When the deserving of paradise enter paradise and the condemned to hell enter hell, death will be brought (like a ram) and placed between paradise and hell and slaughtered. Then an announcer will announce 'O people of paradise! Death is no more. O people of hell! Death is no more.' The happiness of the people of paradise will increase and the grief of the people of hell will increase."[2]

FIRST ARRIVALS AT THE POND AL-KAWTHAR

(٥٥٩٢) عَنْ ثَوْبَانَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ حَوْضِيْ مِنْ عَدَنٍ إِلٰى عَمَّانَ الْبَلْقَاءِ مَاؤُهُ اَشَدُّ بَيَاضًا مِّنَ اللَّبَنِ وَاَحْلٰى مِنَ الْعَسَلِ وَاَكْوَابُهُ عَدَدُ نُجُوْمِ السَّمَاءِ مَنْ شَرِبَ مِنْهُ شَرْبَةً لَمْ يَظْمَأْ بَعْدَهَا اَبَدًا اَوَّلُ النَّاسِ وُرُوْدًا فُقَرَاءُ الْمُهَاجِرِيْنَ الشُّعْثُ رُؤُسًا الدُّنْسُ ثِيَابًا اَلَّذِيْنَ لَا يَنْكِحُوْنَ الْمُتَنَعِّمَاتِ وَلَا يُفْتَحُ لَهُمُ السُّدَدُ۔ رَوَاهُ اَحْمَدُ وَالتِّرْمِذِيُّ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

5592. Sayyiduna Thawban رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "My pond is as the distance between Aden and Amman is Balqa." Its water is more white than milk and more sweet than honey and its tumblers (or cups) are as numerous as the stars in the heaven. He who drinks from it once will never again experience thirst. The first people to arrive at it will be the poor muhajirs (emigrants) with unkempt, disorderly deeds, dirty clothes and not married to delicate, sensitive women and for whom doors are not opened."[3]

COMMENTARY: It has been explained against hadith (# 5567) that Aden was a seaport of Yemen and until recent the Britishers has occupied it, but now it is an independent republic. Amman is a city near Damascus (or,) It is Aman, but we have followed the spelling in the Arabic and Urdu texts though the actual spellings differ).It was part of Syria but now it is the capital city of Jordon.

Balqa (or al Balqa) was an ancient city in the neighbourhood of Damascus. Amman was a suburb of Balqa. This is why the hadith says Amman Balqa. We might say, therefore, that the pond al-kawthar is as long as the Red sea.

However, see the comments on the hadith(# 5567) for the length of the (River) pond al kawthar, as compared to different cities, As stated, the only purpose is to show the vastness of the pond but not to specify its exact length or breath.
The poor emigrants will come here to drink before others are allowed They have been given preference because they had endured hunger and thirst in the world for the sake of religion. So, in the next world they will be allowed to drink from the kawthar before other people.
According to another hadith:

اجوعكم في الدنيا اشبعكم في الاخرة

And, Allah commands such people in paradise:

كُلُوا وَاشْرَبُوا هَنِيْئًا بِمَا أَسْلَفْتُمْ فِي الْأَيَّامِ الْخَالِيَةِ

{Eat and drink pleasantly for that which you sent on before in days gone by} (69:24)

MUHAJIR: The muhajirs are they who had emigrated to Madinah from Makkah in the time of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم who was their leader. This definition applies also to all people who emigrated from their native land for the sake of religion and settled in Makkah or Madinah. Moreover, they gave up a life of comfort and plenty for poverty and need, and a life of fame for obscurity. They gave up their efforts to earn name and wealth to please Allah and devoted themselves to learning and deeds.
Doors are not opened for these people. They are unwelcome because of their outward poor condition. They are spurned and black listed in parties and invitations. No one allows them to join them in social life.

VISITORS TO AL-KAWTHAR WILL BE NUMEROUS

(٥٥٩٣) وَعَنْ زَيْدِ ابْنِ أَرْقَمَ قَالَ كُنَّا مَعَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَنَزَلْنَا مَنْزِلًا فَقَالَ مَا أَنْتُمْ جُزْءٌ مِّنْ مِّائَةِ أَلْفِ جُزْءٍ مِّمَّنْ يَّرِدُ عَلَيَّ الْحَوْضَ قِيْلَ كَمْ كُنْتُمْ يَوْمَئِذٍ قَالَ سَبْعُ مِائَةٍ أَوْ ثَمَانُ مِائَةٍ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

5593. Sayyiduna Zayd ibn Arqam رضى الله عنه narrated that they were with Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم (during a journey). They halted at a place where he said (to them). "You are not even one hundred thousandth part of those who will arrive at the pond." He (Zayd) رضى الله عنه was asked, "How many people were you that day?" He said, "Seven hundred or eight hundred,"[1]

COMMENTARY: This hadith does not mean to specify how many people will visit the pond kawthar. All it means that the visitors there will be uncountable.

A POND IS GIVEN TO EVERY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم

(٥٥٩٤) وَعَنْ سَمُرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ لِكُلِّ نَبِيٍّ حَوْضًا وَإِنَّهُمْ لَيَتَبَاهَوْنَ أَيُّهُمْ أَكْثَرُ وَارِدَةً وَإِنِّيْ لَأَرْجُوْ أَنْ أَكُوْنَ أَكْثَرَهُمْ وَارِدَةً۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

5594. Sayyiduna Sammurah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "There is a pond for every prophet علیہ السلام. They will vie with each other about who among them has the most people visiting his pond. And, I hope that I will have the largest number (at my pond)."[1]

COMMENTARY: The number of the Prophets علیہم السلام, ummah will be greater than the ummah of other Prophets علیہم السلام. So, the arrivals at his pond to drink water will outnumber the others. Hence, his words of hope are spoken in a humble manner.

THREE PLACES WHERE THE PROPHET صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم WILL BE

(٥٥٩٥) وَعَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ سَأَلْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَنْ يَّشْفَعَ لِيْ يَوْمَ الْقِيٰمَةِ فَقَالَ أَنَا فَاعِلٌ قُلْتُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ فَأَيْنَ أَطْلُبُكَ قَالَ أُطْلُبْنِيْ أَوَّلَ مَا تَطْلُبُنِيْ عَلَى الصِّرَاطِ قُلْتُ فَإِنْ لَّمْ أَلْقَكَ عَلَى الصِّرَاطِ قَالَ فَاطْلُبْنِيْ عِنْدَ الْمِيْزَانِ قَالَ فَاطْلُبْنِيْ عِنْدَ الْحَوْضِ فَإِنِّيْ لَا أُخْطِئُ هٰذِهِ الثَّلٰثَ الْمَوَاطِنَ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

5595. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated, "I requested the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم to intercede for on the day of resurrection. He said, "I will do it." So, I asked "O Messenger of Allah, where shall I find you?' He said," Look for me first at the sirat." I pleaded, "But, it I do not find you at the sirat!" He said, "Then look for me at the scale." I pleaded a gain, "But, if I do not see you there too?' Then, he said, "Look for me at the pond kawthar, for I shall not be but at these three places"[2]

COMMENTARY: These will be the three places where the people will be in great difficulty and distress. It is at these places that they will be in much heed of intercession. The prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم will be occupied at these places to help the people.

In a previous hadith of Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا (# 5560), the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had said that no one will remember another at these places. However, he spoke those words about the absentees while this hadith concerns those who are present on the day: Teebi رحمہ اللہ said that the Prophet were because he did not wish her to rely on his intercession as her hasband. He wanted her to be attentive to her religious obligations.

Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ had asked him where he would be found on that day. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم did not wish that he should lose hope. His question was as from a disciple and deserved a consolation and love.

While the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم would be allowed to intercede on that day and His recommendation will be accepted, yet we must continue to be obedient and pious in this world to earn his intercession.

It is no use merely relying on the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم intercession, be something must be done. Also, mere dependence on deeds is not proper. We must hope for the Prophet intercession, too.

MUQAM-E-MAHMUD & ALLAH'S CHAIR

(٥٥٩٦) وَعَنِ ابْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ قِيْلَ لَهُ مَا الْمَقَامُ الْمَحْمُوْدُ قَالَ ذٰلِكَ يَوْمٌ يَّنْزِلُ اللّٰهُ

---

تَعَالٰى كُرْسِيِّهٖ فَيَاطُّ كَمَا يَاطُّ الرَّحْلُ الْجَدِيْدُ مِنْ تَضَايُقِهٖ وَهُوَ لَسَعَةِ مَابَيْنَ السَّمَآءِ وَ الْاَرْضِ وَيُجَآءُ بِكُمْ حُفَاةً
عُرَاةً غُرْلًا فَيَكُوْنُ اَوَّلُ مَنْ يُّكْسٰى اِبْرَاهِيْمُ يَقُوْلُ اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى اَكْسُوْا خَلِيْلِيْ فَيُؤْتٰى بِرَيْطَتَيْنِ بَيْضَاوَيْنِ مِنْ رِيَاطِ
الْجَنَّةِ ثُمَّ اُكْسٰى عَلٰى اِثْرِهٖ ثُمَّ اَقُوْمُ عَنْ يَمِيْنِ اللّٰهِ مَقَامًا يَغْبِطُنِيْ الْاَوَّلُوْنَ وَالْاٰخِرُوْنَ۔ (رواه الدارمی)

5596. Sayyiduna Ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was asked, "What is al-Maqam ul Mahmood (the praiseworthy station – of which you are promised in this verse:

{....Soon your Lord will raise you to a station Praise} (17:79)

He said, "That will be on the day when Allah will descend on to His chair. It will creak as a new leather pack-saddle creaks on being pressed. The extent of the chair is as great as the distance between heaven and earth. You will be brought – all of you (in the Mahshar) barefoot, naked and uncircumcised. The first to be clothed (on that day) will be Ibrahim علیہ السلام Allah, the Glorious, will command (the angels), "clothe my friend." Two white seamless garments from the garments of paradise will be brought. Then, I will be clothed after him. Then, I will stand to the right side of Allah – a place for which those of the earliest and latest times will envy me."[1]

COMMENTARY: Another hadith says that the chair is as vast in comparison to the seven heavens and seven earths as they are in comparison to a small ring lying in a large desert. And the throne is to the chair as the ring is to the large desert.

Actually, these comprisons are made only to impress on the people the greatness of the chair. The examples depend on the power & understanding of the people addressed. It is like mentioning that the breadth of paradise is as the heavens and the earth (3:133, 57)

Another reason why the greatness of the chair is mentioned is to clear the impression that it is narrow and uncomfortable which one might be driven to deduce from the words that it created when Allah descended onto it. Rather, it is great and spacious. The words of the hadith are allegorical. Our minds cannot fathom their real meaning. Hence, we must not try to probe into the intrinsic meanings of such symbols of worship as Allah's sitting on the chair, the squeaking of the chair, its dimensions and so on. Rather, we must go by the meaning of the hadith which is to know that, on the day of resurrection, Allah will demonstrate His Might and Greatness, His Glory and Power, and His kingdom and Rule.

IBRAHIM علیہ السلام: Prophet Ibrahim علیہ السلام will be the first person to be clothed on the day of resurrection. This has been mentioned against hadith (# 5535). He will be given this honour because he is the spiritual father of the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم whose religion and its path (or Shari'ah) originates from him. His being the first person to be clothed gives him a partial excellence but the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم has a complete excellence in all fields. The concluding words of this hadith too bear out the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم merits when they disclose that he shall stand at the right side of Allah.

The next words of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم in the hadith: "Then I shall be clothed" contradict the tradition in which he say, "I shall rise from my grave in my clothing." The point is that he will be clothed once again in the gathering place to emphasise his honour and excellence.

عليه وسلم has not been answered in this hadith. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not give a direct answer to the question about the praiseworthy station. Rather, he mentioned the greatness of the day to make his listeners conscious about it. Finally, he indicated the nature of the praiseworthy station by saying that he would stand to the right of Allah, an honour that will not be given to anyone else. Everyone will envy him.

This is clear evidence that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has excellence over all the creature including all the Prophets عليهم السلام and Messengers عليهم السلام.

THE SHI'AR ON THE SIRAT

(٥٥٩٧) وَعَنِ الْمُغِيْرَةِ بْنِ شُعْبَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ شِعَارُ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ يَوْمَ الْقِيٰمَةِ عَلَى الصِّرَاطِ رَبِّ سَلِّمْ سَلِّمْ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

5597. Sayyiduna Mughirah ibn Shu'bah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The shi'ar (or slogan) of the believers on the sirat on the day of resurrection will be (رب سلِّم سلِّم) rabbi sallim, sallim (O my Lord, keep safe, Keep safe)."[1] (The sirat is the narrow bridge that will be set up over hell that everyone will have to go over.)

COMMENTARY: The words Shi'ar is a technical term used particularly by the army or travellers to recognize each other as their own. It is password or a rallying cry or a slogan. The believers will call rabbi sallim, sallim when they have to walk on the sirat to go to the other side and into paradise. Though it is said that people of every ummah will use it, the most correct thing is that this slogan will be used only by the perfect believers, meaning the practicing ulama, the martyrs and the righteous who will be qualified to have the intercession because of their following the Prophets عليهم السلام and the Messengers عليهم السلام.

Ibn Murdawiyah رحمه الله has reported that Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها narrated that in a marfu form that when people are resurrected from their graves, the slogan of the believers will be: (لا اله الا الله وعلى الله فليتوكل المومنون) (There is no God but Allah and on Allah do the believers put their trust).

Also, shirazi رحمه الله has reported that Sayyiduna Ayshah رضى الله عنها said, "On the day of resurrection, during its fearful darkness, the slogan of the believers will be (لا اله الا انت) (There is no god but you).

INTERCESSION FOR THOSE WHO COMMIT MAJOR SINS

(٥٥٩٨،٥٥٩٩) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ شَفَاعَتِيْ لِاَهْلِ الْكَبَآئِرِ مِنْ اُمَّتِيْ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَاَبُوْدَاوُدَ وَرَوَاهُ ابْنُ مَاجَةَ عَنْ جَابِرٍ۔

5598. Sayyiduna Anas رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "My intercession will be for the perpetrators of the major sins belonging (only) to my ummah.[2]

5599. Sayyiduna Jabir رضى الله عنه also narrated this hadith.[3]

COMMENTARY: It is only this ummah of Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم whose major sins will be forgiven by his intercession. The other ummah will not have this concession.

Teebi رحمه الله said that the intercession mentioned here is to get relief from punishment. But, the intercession to raise degrees and ranks and honour is available to the righteous, the friends of Allah and the God fearing.

EVIDENCE OF INTERCESSION & KINDS: We have spoken about the basic things about intercession in the introduction to this chapter. It is appropriate to say something at this stage too. Most of all, the Ahl us Sunnah hold that intercession on the day for resurrection is confirmed by this verse:

يَوْمَئِذٍ لَّا تَنفَعُ الشَّفَاعَةُ إِلَّا مَنْ أَذِنَ لَهُ الرَّحْمٰنُ وَرَضِيَ لَهُ قَوْلًا۔

{That day no intercession will be of any use to anyone, except the one whom Ar-Rahman (the All-Merciful) permits and is pleased wit his word.} (20:109)

There are very many ahadith about it. So many, indeed, that all of them together attain the rank of tawatir (continuously handed down). So all the righteous predecessors and the ahl us sunnah agree that intercession will be made on the day of resurrection. But, the Khwarij and Mu'tazillah do not, all of the, subscribe to this fact. They reject that there will be intercession for anyone on the day of resurrection.

There are five kinds of intercession.

(i) That which is reserved only for the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. no one else has the right or permission to make it. This intercession will be a recommendation to begin the reckoning and relieve all people from waiting for it at the mahshar where they will be in great distress, standing continuously.

(ii) The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم will also make an intercession for some people to be admitted to paradise without subjecting them to reckoning of any sort. This kind is also reserved exclusively for the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

(iii) Such people as are liable to be sent to hell but Allah wishes to pardon them will receive the intercession of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

(iv) Such people have been sent to hell for their misdeeds and receive the intercession of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, the angels and their Muslim brothers will be delivered from hell and admitted to paradise. This fact is confirmed by some ahadith.

(v) Allah will pardon sustain people from punishment and hell, by His particular mercy, as have declared the kalimah (لا اله الا الله) – there is no god but Allah.

(vi) It is an intercession that will get ranks of certain dwellers of paradise raised in paradise and have their honour and esteem increased.

CHOICE GIVEN TO THE PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم

(٥٦٠٠) وَعَنْ عَوْفِ بْنِ مَالِكٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَتَانِي آتٍ مِّنْ عِنْدِ رَبِّي فَخَيَّرَنِي بَيْنَ أَنْ يُّدْخِلَ نِصْفَ أُمَّتِي الْجَنَّةَ وَبَيْنَ الشَّفَاعَةِ فَاخْتَرْتُ الشَّفَاعَةَ وَهِيَ لِمَنْ مَّاتَ لَا يُشْرِكُ بِاللّٰهِ۔

(رواه الترمذی وابن ماجة)

5600.Sayyiduna Awf ibn Maalik رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said "There came to me one (angel) sent (to me) by my Lord. He gave me a choice between (i) admittance of half of my ummah to paradise and (ii) intercession. So, I chose to make intercession. That will be for those who have died without having associated with Allah anything."[1]

(In short, on the day of resurrection, my intercession will be available to all believers).

INTERCESSION OF A MEMBER OF THIS UMMAH

(٥٦٠١) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ اَبِي الْجَدْعَاءِ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ يَدْخُلُ الْجَنَّةَ بِشَفَاعَةِ رَجُلٍ مِّنْ اُمَّتِيْ اَكْثَرُ مِنْ بَنِيْ تَمِيْمٍ۔ (رواه الترمذی والدارمی وابن ماجة)

5601. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Abi Jad'a رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say, "The intercession of a (Pious) man of my umah will get more than the members of Banu Tamim admitted to paradise."[2]

COMMENTARY: Banu Tamim was a large populous tribe. It was a tribe that was cited as an example for its large numbers and its name was used figuratively for numerous.

If one pious man of this ummah will get so many admitted to paradise, then we might imagine the number of pious men of this ummah and how huge a number they will get admitted to paradise through their intercession.

However, some authorities have interpreted the hadith to mean 'one particular man of my ummah, meaning, Sayyiduna Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ.' Some others have said that he was Sayyiduna Uways Qarni رحمہ اللہ. Some others have said that it is difficult to pinpoint anyone and he can be anyone. Zayn ul Arab has said that this opinion is nearer to the meaning of the hadith.

(٥٦٠٢) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ سَعِيْدٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اِنَّ مِنْ اُمَّتِيْ مَنْ يَّشْفَعُ لِلْفِئَامِ وَمِنْهُمْ مَّنْ يَّشْفَعُ لِلْقَبِيْلَةِ وَمِنْهُمْ مَّنْ يَّشْفَعُ لِلْعُصْبَةِ وَمِنْهُمْ مَنْ يَّشْفَعُ لِلرَّجُلِ حَتّٰى يَدْخُلُوا الْجَنَّةَ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

5602. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Indeed, there will be people of my ummah (who will have a right to intercede like the ulama the martyrs, the righteous) who will intercede for innumerable people (of their connections), for a tribe, for a group, or for a single man till they go to paradise (so, in this way, the entire ummah will enter paradise)."[3]

COMMENTARY: The tribe is large clan, or a father and his sons over many generations. Generally, it is used for very many people. And (عصبہ) is applied to ten to forty people.

WHO WILL BE ADMITTED TO PARADISE WITHOUT RECKONING

(٥٦٠٣) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ عَزَّوَجَلَّ وَعَدَنِيْ اَنْ يُّدْخِلَ الْجَنَّةَ مِنْ اُمَّتِيْ اَرْبَعَ مِائَةِ اَلْفٍ بِلَا حِسَابٍ فَقَالَ اَبُوْبَكْرٍ وَزِدْنَا يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ قَالَ وَهٰكَذَا فَحَثَا بِكَفَّيْهِ وَجَمَعَهُمَا فَقَالَ اَبُوْبَكْرٍ زِدْنَا يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ قَالَ وَهٰكَذَا فَقَالَ عُمَرُ دَعْنَا يَا اَبَا بَكْرٍ فَقَالَ اَبُوْبَكْرٍ وَّمَا عَلَيْكَ اَنْ يُّدْخِلَنَا اللّٰهُ كُلَّنَا الْجَنَّةَ فَقَالَ عُمَرُ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ عَزَّوَجَلَّ اِنْ شَاءَ اَنْ يُّدْخِلَ خَلْقَهُ الْجَنَّةَ بِكَفٍّ وَّاحِدٍ فَقَالَ

النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ صَدَقَ عُمَرَ۔ (رواه فی شرح السنة)

5603. Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Indeed, Allah Mighty and Glorious, has promised me that He will admit to paradise four hundred thousand of my people without being subjected to reckoning." Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه asked, "Tell us more (and add to this number, for Allah will accept your prayer and, if you give us a greater number on your own, Allah will honour your commitment). He said, "Right like this!' He took up two handfuls and put his hands together. Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه said (again). "Tell us more." And, he (did the same thing and) said, "Like this!" Umar رضی الله عنه said, "Leave us alone, O Abu Bakr!" So, Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه asked, "How does it hurt you, if Allah admits us all to paradise?" so, Umar said, "If Allah, Mighty and Glorious, wishes to admit (all) His creatures to paradise with one handful (meaning, all together), He can do it."

The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Umar has spoken the truth."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم took two handfuls and put his hands together before Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه to show that he increased their number to that much. He meant that they were very many. He meant to remind him that Allah will take people to paradise by His handful and they will be innumerable. The exponents say that in this way the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم showed that He who is Liberal will do it in this way. When He is asked for more, He does not go by numbers but gives without any limit.

Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه spoke to show man's helplessness and need any full fledged dependence on Allah's mercy. He requested for more concessions.

Sayyiduna Umar رضی الله عنه spoke words according to reasoning for the moment and submission to Allah's will.

The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم accommodated both men. First he accepted the request of Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه and then he confirmed the words of Sayyiduna Umar رضی الله عنه without giving any answer to Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه

From another angle, the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم agreed with Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه because good tidings have a great influence on compliance with Shari'ah. So, he raised the glad tidings (that Allah will admit a very large number to paradise without their going through reckoning). Then he confirmed what Sayyiduna Umar رضی الله عنه said as not only good tidings but much more than good tiding.

In this sense both of them had the same thing in their minds.

PLEAS OF THE SINFUL

(٥٦٠٤) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُصَفُّ اَهْلُ النَّارِ فَيَمُرُّبِهِمُ الرَّجُلُ مِنْ اَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ فَيَقُوْلُ الرَّجُلُ مِنْهُمْ يَا فُلَانُ اَمَا تَعْرِفُنِيْ اَنَا الَّذِيْ سَقَيْتُكَ شَرْبَةً وَّقَالَ بَعْضُهُمْ اَنَا الَّذِيْ وَهَبْتُ لَكَ وُضُوْءًا فَيَشْفَعُ لَهٗ فَيُدْخِلُهُ الْجَنَّةَ۔ (رواه ابن ماجة)

5604. Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "The inmates of hell (who were believers but sent there because of their sins) will stand in line along the path of the righteous). When any of the dwellers of paradise will pass them, one of them will call out (by his name), 'O so and so, do you not recognise me? I am the one who had given you a drink once.' Another of them will say, 'I am the one who had given you water to perform ablution.' So, he will intercede for him and get him admitted to paradise."[1]

COMMENTARY: If a person who is indecent and a sinner helps a pious and righteous man in this world in some way then he will earn reward for it in the next world. He will get his intercession and go to paradise.

Mazhar رضی اللہ عنہ has said that through this saying the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم has encouraged Muslims to be kind and considerate to their brothers, particularly the pious ones. They must not let go any opportunity of keeping their company because their company and love will be instrumental in living a pure and bright life in this world and getting radiance in the next world.

EXAMPLES OF ALLAH'S MERCY

(٥٦٠٥) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اِنَّ رَجُلَيْنِ مِمَّنْ دَخَلَ النَّارَ اشْتَدَّ صِيَاحُهُمَا فَقَالَ الرَّبُّ تَعَالٰى اَخْرِجُوْهُمَا فَقَالَ لَهُمَا لِاَيِّ شَيْءٍ اشْتَدَّ صِيَاحُكُمَا قَالَا فَعَلْنَا ذٰلِكَ لِتَرْحَمَنَا قَالَ فَاِنَّ رَحْمَتِيْ لَكُمَا اَنْ تَنْطَلِقَا فَتُلْقِيَا اَنْفُسَكُمَا حَيْثُ كُنْتُمَا مِنَ النَّارِ فَيُلْقِيْ اَحَدُهُمَا نَفْسَهُ فَيَجْعَلُهَا اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ بَرْدًا وَّسَلَامًا وَّيَقُوْمُ الْاٰخَرُ فَلَا يُلْقِيْ نَفْسَهُ فَيَقُوْلُ لَهُ الرَّبُّ تَعَالٰى مَا مَنَعَكَ اَنْ تُلْقِيَ نَفْسَكَ كَمَآ اَلْقٰى صَاحِبُكَ فَيَقُوْلُ رَبِّ اِنِّيْ لَاَرْجُوْ اَنْ لَّا تُعِيْدَنِيْ فِيْهَا بَعْدَ مَآ اَخْرَجْتَنِيْ مِنْهَا فَيَقُوْلُ لَهُ الرَّبُّ لَكَ رَجَآؤُكَ فَيُدْخَلَانِ جَمِيْعًا الْجَنَّةَ بِرَحْمَةِ اللّٰهِ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

5605. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Two of the men admitted to hell will shriek vociferously. So, the Lord, the Glorious will command that they should be brought out and He will ask them, 'why do you shriek so much?' they will submit, 'we did it to have your mercy on us.' He will say, 'My mercy on you is that you should go and cast yourselves where you were in hell.' One of them will obey and throw himself in the fire and Allah will make it cool and safe for him. But, the other will stand (and not budge) without putting himself (in the fire). The Lord, the Glorious, will ask him, 'what precluded you from throwing yourself (in the fire) as your colleague has done?' He will submit, 'I have hope that you will not return me to it after taking me out of it.' The Lord, the Glorious, will say to him, 'You will have what you hope for.' Then, both will be admitted to paradise by Allah's mercy."[2]

COMMENTARY: Allah's saying that His mercy is that they should return to hell is actually a demand that they should obey Him all the time.

To place hope in Allah is to get His favours even if a person is disobedient because of his helplessness and weakness.

GIVING PAST THE SIRAT

(٥٦٠٦) وَعَنِ ابْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَرِدُ النَّاسُ النَّارَ ثُمَّ يَصْدُرُوْنَ مِنْهَا بِأَعْمَالِهِمْ فَأَوَّلُهُمْ كَلَمْحِ الْبَرْقِ ثُمَّ كَالرِّيْحِ ثُمَّ كَحُضْرِ الْفَرَسِ ثُمَّ كَالرَّاكِبِ فِيْ رَحْلِهِ ثُمَّ كَشَدِّ الرَّجُلِ ثُمَّ كَمَشْيِهِ (رواه الترمذی والدارمی)

5606. Sayyiduna Ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The people (meaning the believers) will come by hell (when they go over the sirat which is placed above it) and go away from it (after seeing it with their eyes) commensurate with their deeds. The first (and the best) of them will go away like a flash of lightning. Next, the second will go away like wind. Next like the swift horse, next like a camel-rider, next like a runner and next as one who walks."[1]

[Tirmidhi has placed this hadith under the Exegesis of the Quran, verse 77 of Surah Maryam: And there is not one of you, but shall come to it.]

SECTION III الفصل الثالث

GREATNESS OF AL-KAWTHAR

(٥٦٠٧) عَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اِنَّ اَمَامَكُمْ حَوْضِيْ مَابَيْنَ جَنْبَيْهِ كَمَابَيْنَ جَرْبَآءَ وَاَذْرُحَ قَالَ بَعْضُ الرُّوَاةِ هُمَا قَرْيَتَانِ بِالشَّامِ بَيْنَهُمَا مَسِيْرَةُ ثَلٰثِ لَيَالٍ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ فِيْهِ اَبَارِيْقُ كَنُجُوْمِ السَّمَآءِ مَنْ وَّرَدَهٗ فَشَرِبَ مِنْهُ لَمْ يَظْمَأْ بَعْدَهَا اَبَدًا۔ (متفق علیه)

5607. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "My pond will be before you. Its banks will be much apart as it the distance between Jarba' and Adruh." One of the narrators (in the chain of transmitters) said, 'They are two villages in Syria between them lies a journey of three days."

According to another version: "There are vessels by it as many as the stars in the heaven. He who come to it and drinks from it will never again feel thirsty."[2]

COMMENTARY: The comments interposed by the transmitter are not correct, for the distance between the two, places is not equal to three days journey. The tradition in Daraqutni is: The distance between the two banks of al-kawthar is as between Madinah and Jarba and (Madinah and) Adruh.

REQUEST FOR PARADISE TO BE OPENED

5608, 5609. Sayyiduna Hudhayfah رضی اللہ عنہ and Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Allah Blessed and Exalted, will gather the people (in the place of gathering on the day of resurrection) and the believers will stand (waiting for the reckoning to take place) and paradise will be brought near to them. Then they (the chief believers of every ummah) will come to Aadam علیہ السلام and say, 'O our father, do get paradise opened for us.' He will ask (them), 'But, has not the sin of your father brought you out of paradise? I am not the one for that. Go to my son Ibrahim علیہ السلام, the friend of Allah.' Ibrahim علیہ السلام will say, 'I am not the one for that. I was a friend a long time ago. Direct yourselves to Musa علیہ السلام with whom Allah spoke directly.' They will come to Musa علیہ السلام. He too will say, "I am not the one for that. Go to Easa علیہ السلام who is Allah's word and spirit.' But, Easa علیہ السلام will say, 'I am not the one for that.' They will then come to Muhammad. He will stand and will be given permission (to intercede for all mankind. That will begin the reckoning and as the next stage of passing over the sirat is about to commence,) faithfulness (امانة) and ties of relationship (Arabic) will be brought (having been given forms) and they will stand on either side of the sirat -to the right and left.

The first of you (and the best) will pass like lightning."

Here, Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ said that he interrupted, "May my father and mother be ransomed to you, what resembles the speed of lightning?" The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Have you not seen lighting? How it sparks and disappears in the twinkling of an eye!"

(To continue the hadith:) "The next will pass like the blowing of the wind, next like the flying of a bird and the running of men powered by their deeds, to run.

Your prophet will stand on the sirat and say. 'O my Lord, keep (them) safe, keep safe!' (This will go on) that a man may be able only to crawl.

On either side of the sirat will be hung pointed flesh hook under command to grassy those who have been declared liable to be seized. Some of those (whom they gasp)will manage to get out (of the gasp) after being wounded severely (and be safe from the fire of hell). But. Some others will be bound and cast into hell headlong."

"By Him who has the soul of Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ in His hand, the depth of hell is down to a distance covered in seventy years."[1]

COMMENTARY: The paradise will be brought nearer to them. This is on surah at-Takwir states:

وَإِذَا الْجَنَّةُ أُزْلِفَتْ * عَلِمَتْ نَفْسٌ مَّآ أَحْضَرَتْ *

{And when paradise is brought nigh Then shall every soul know what it has presented} (81:13-14)

According to one scholar, the answer of Prophet Ibrahim علیہ السلام shows his humility and humble nature.

WILL COME TO MUHAMMAD: Instead of saying "they will come to me," the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم took his name, ... "they will come to Muhammad!" The reason is that this name 'Muhammad' has the meaning of 'praise.' This indicates that he will be standing at the maqam-e-Mehmood (praiseworthy station) which is where intercession is made.

The group that will pass over the sirat first of all will be of the Prophets علیہ السلام. However, it could also refer to the awliyaa and the righteous of this ummah.

THOSE WHO ARE SENT TO PARADISE FROM HELL WILL BECOME FRESH

(٥٦١٠) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَخْرُجُ مِنَ النَّارِ قَوْمٌ بِالشَّفَاعَةِ كَأَنَّهُمُ الثَّعَارِيْرُ قُلْنَا مَا الثَّعَارِيْرُ قَالَ إِنَّهُ الضَّغَابِيْسُ۔ (متفق علیه)

5610.Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Those who are brought out of hell because of intercession will be like tha'arir (الثعارير). They asked, what is tha'arir?" He said, "It is daghabis (الضغابيس) - small cucumbers."[2]

COMMENTARY: When those people are brought out of hell, they would have burned to charcool. But, when they are immersed into the river of life, they will become fresh and shining as cucumber or any vegetable or greenery that turns ripe very soon.

WHO ALL WILL INTERCEDE

(٥٦١١) وَعَنْ عُثْمَانَ ابْنِ عَفَّانَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَشْفَعُ يَوْمَ الْقِيٰمَةِ ثَلٰثَةٌ الْاَنْبِيَآءُ ثُمَّ الْعُلَمَآءُ ثُمَّ الشُّهَدَآءُ۔ (رواه ابن ماجة)

5611. Sayyiduna Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "On the day of resurrection, there classes will make intercession:

- i. the prophet علیہ السلام
- ii. the (practicing ulama (religious scholars),
- iii. and the martyrs.'[3]

COMMENTARY: The conjunction between the ulama and the shuhada (ثم العلماء ثم الشهداء) - the scholars and the martyrs - establishes that the practicing scholars are superior to the martyrs. This is further proved by the hadith transmitted by Shirazi رحمه الله:

یوزن یوم القیامة مدادا العلماء و دم الشهداء فترجح مداد العلماء علی دم الشهداء

"The ink of the ulama and the blood of the martyr will be weighed on the day for resurrection. The ink of the ulama (scholars) will outweigh the blood of the martyrs."

NOT ONLY THREE: The hadith under discussion says that three classes of people will make intercession. They are specified because of their superiority and merit. Apart from that, all pious Muslims have a right to make intercession as is known from many authentic ahadith. Their intercession may concern forgiveness of sin or elevating ranks and degrees. Moreover, to reject the validity of the right of intercession is an obvious bid'ah and straying, as the khawarij and some of the Mu'tazillah do

CHAPTER - XIII

DESCRIPTION OF PARADISE & ABOUT ITS DWELLERS بَابُ صِفَةِ الْجَنَّةِ وَاَهْلِهَا

According to (صراح) Sarah the word (جنة) jannah (in the caption) means 'a garden,' 'paradise.' In the original sense, jannah is 'to cover.' According, this word was first applied to 'shade-bearing trees.' It was as though they concealed and covered that which was under them. Then, it come to be used in the sense of a garden because it is a collection of shade bearing trees. Then, this word was used for a place where reward is given.' Which is jannah, paradise because it has dense trees and gardens that conceal everything in their folds.

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

ABOUT PARADISE

(٥٦١٢) عَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى اَعْدَدْتُ لِعِبَادِيَ الصَّالِحِيْنَ مَا لَا عَيْنٌ رَاَتْ وَلَا اُذُنٌ سَمِعَتْ وَلَا خَطَرَ عَلٰى قَلْبِ بَشَرٍ وَاقْرَؤُوْا اِنْ شِئْتُمْ فَلَا تَعْلَمُ نَفْسٌ مَّآ اُخْفِيَ لَهُمْ مِّنْ قُرَّةِ اَعْيُنٍ۔ (متفق عليه)

5612. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said that Allah, the exalted, says, "I have prepared for My righteous slaves what no eye has seen, no ear has heard and no heart has perceived." So, recite, if you wish:

فَلَا تَعْلَمُ نَفْسٌ مَّآ اُخْفِيَ لَهُمْ مِّنْ قُرَّةِ اَعْيُنٍ

{No soul known what delight of the eyes is kept hidden for them.}[1] (32:17)

COMMENTARY: No one has seen paradise. This includes its appearance, shapes, voices and whatever is available there. The view, faces and shapes found there are not found in this world, and cannot be seen in future. Its voices have not been heard. The sweetness and rhythm of those voice have not been heard in this world, not will be experienced.

We cannot even comprehend the other blessings, services, comforts and tastes that are available there. No one has so far imagined their perfectness and no one can ever think of them.

The 'delight of the eyes' mentioned in the verse is comfort, completeness, peace and joy. The Arabic word for 'delight of the eyes' is (قرة). The word (قرة) is from (قر) qarr which means 'constancy, 'being steadfast.' When the eye sees what is dear to it, there is satisfaction for it and it is no more restless. It does not incline to any other thing but if it sees what it does not like then it becomes restless and does not settle but roams about. When one is happy and at peace, eye get a delightful peace but when one is afraid and grieved, eye drift here and there.
The word (قرة) could have been derived from (قر) qurr to mean 'coolness.' The eye is cool when it sees what it likes, otherwise there is a burning feeling in it. This is why dear children are called (قرة العين) coolness of the eyes.'
According to a hadith the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said: (جعلت قرة عيني في الصلوة) (coolness of my eyes is placed in the salah).
Here, too, the word (قرة) may have either of the two meaning.

THE EXCELLENCE OF PARADISE

(٥٦١٣) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَوْضِعُ سَوْطٍ فِي الْجَنَّةِ خَيْرٌ مِّنَ الدُّنْيَا وَمَا فِيْهَا (متفق عليه)

5613. Sayyiduna Abu Huryarah رضي الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "A place in paradise (as small) as for a whip is better then the world and whatever contains."[1]

COMMENTARY: When a rider decides to halt at any place during his journey, he throws his whip there before alighting from the beast so that he has that place to himself. The hadith says that even that much place in paradise is better than the fleeting world and its treasures because paradise is ever abiding.

THE MAIDENS OF PARADISE

(٥٦١٤) وَعَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ غَدْوَةٌ فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ أَوْ رَوْحَةٌ خَيْرٌ مِّنَ الدُّنْيَا وَمَا فِيْهَا وَلَوْ أَنَّ امْرَأَةً مِّنَ النِّسَاءِ أَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ اطَّلَعَتْ إِلَى الْأَرْضِ لَأَضَاءَتْ مَا بَيْنَهُمَا وَلَمَلَأَتْ مَا بَيْنَهُمَا رِيْحًا وَلَنَصِيْفُهَا عَلٰى رَأْسِهَا خَيْرٌ مِّنَ الدُّنْيَا وَمَا فِيْهَا۔ (رواه البخاری)

5614. Sayyiduna Anas رضي الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "An expedition in the morning (by a man) in Allah's cause, or in the evening is better than the world and whatever it contains. If one of the maidens of paradise (hoors) were to cast a glance on the earth, she would brighten all the space in between and fill at the space in between with fragrance. The headscarf that she wears is better than the world and whatever it contains."[2]

COMMENTARY: The expeditions have been specified as in the morning or evening because generally armies advance at these times. However, the merit is not restricted to these hours only. The armies may launch the attack at any other hour, they will qualify for the merit anyway. The expedition in Allah's path could be jihad, hijrah, hajj, seeking to acquire knowledge, or any other purpose with a view to earn Allah's pleasure. It may be in obedience to Him directly or indirectly, In fact, to set out from one's home to earn a living for one's family, to engage in worship and to discharge the Divine Commands with sincere effort also fall under the purview of going out in Allah's cause.

The merit and excellence of going out in Allah's path, leaving home and family, may be gauged from the fact that if anyone goes out in this manner just once, the reward he gets here and in the next world will be better than the world and all that it contains.

THE HOOR: The maidens of paradise are mentioned here because they are in paradise which is the reward of one who goes out in Allah's path. They are among the bounties of paradise.

The space in between that will be filled with fragrance could be between cast and west, between the sky and earth or between paradise and earth. The last opinion is most correct.

A TREE IN PARADISE

(٥٦١٥) وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ فِي الْجَنَّةِ شَجَرَةً يَسِيْرُ الرَّاكِبُ فِي ظِلِّهَا مِائَةَ عَامٍ لَّا يَقْطَعُهَا وَلَقَابُ قَوْسِ أَحَدِكُمْ فِي الْجَنَّةِ خَيْرٌ مِّمَّا طَلَعَتْ عَلَيْهِ الشَّمْسُ أَوْ تَغْرُبُ (متفق عليه)

5615. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said. "There is a tree in paradise (called Tooba) whose shade fall over such a wide area that if a rider travels for one hundred years even than he will not come to the end of it. And, in paradise, the length of a bow of any of you is better than all that on which the sun rises or sets."[1]

COMMENTARY: The words about that on which the sun rises and sets means the entire world and whatever it contains. The previous hadith spoke about the rider's whip. This one speaks of the pedestrians bow which he puts down to indicate that he would sit there.

A TENT IN PARADISE

(٥٦١٦) وَعَنْ أَبِي مُوْسٰى قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ الْمُؤْمِنَ فِي الْجَنَّةِ لَخَيْمَةً مِّنْ لُؤْلُؤَةٍ وَّاحِدَةٍ مُجَوَّفَةٍ عَرْضُهَا وَفِي رِوَايَةٍ طُوْلُهَا سِتُّوْنَ مِيْلًا فِي كُلِّ زَاوِيَةٍ مِّنْهَا أَهْلٌ مَّا يَرَوْنَ الْاٰخَرِيْنَ يَطُوْفُ عَلَيْهِمُ الْمُؤْمِنُ وَجَنَّتَانِ مِنْ فِضَّةٍ اٰنِيَتُهُمَا وَمَا فِيْهِمَا وَجَنَّتَانِ مِنْ ذَهَبٍ اٰنِيَتُهُمَا وَمَا فِيْهِمَا وَمَا بَيْنَ الْقَوْمِ وَبَيْنَ أَنْ يَّنْظُرُوْٓا إِلٰى رَبِّهِمْ إِلَّا رِدَاءُ الْكِبْرِيَاءِ عَلٰى وَجْهِهٖ فِي جَنَّةِ عَدْنٍ۔ (متفق عليه)

5616. Sayyiduna Abu Musa رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "In paradise, the believer will be given a tent caved into a single pearl (so as it would be hollow). Its width (but according to another version: its length) will be sixty miles. In each of its concerns will be a wife or family) unable see the others. The believer will meet each of them in turn. There will be two gardens of silver, the utensils and whatever else is in it will be of silver, and two gardens of gold so that its implant and all else in it will be golden. Between the slaves (of Allah) and vision of their Lord will be noting but the mantle of grandeur that He would have cast over Himself in the garden of Adn (عدن)"[2]

COMMENTARY: Whether the tent is sixty miles long or broad, the real aim is to say that it will be a huge tent. This is the message of both versions, because its length and breadth will be proportionate and cannot be out of proportion.

The hadith says that in each of its corners will be his (اهل) ahl. This stands for his wife, etc. According to one scholar, they are his wives to whom the believer will be married there. He will get sexual enjoyment with them. This is what is meant to meeting them 'in turn.'

This hadith speaks of two gardens of silver and two of gold. But another tradition says about the edifices of paradise that they will be built with blocks of gold and silver used alternatively in each building. The point is that one hadith speaks of two gardens one of which has vessels and all content of gold and the other will have then made of silver. But, the second hadith means that the building s themselves will be built with both kinds of blocks, golden as well as silver (in each garden or paradise).

HOW MANY PARADISES? THEIR NAMES

Bayhaqi رحمه الله said that it is proved from the Quran and ahadith that there are four paradises (or garden). Allah says in surah al-Quran (verse 46):

وَلِمَنْ خَافَ مَقَامَ رَبِّهٖ جَنَّتٰنِ

{And for him who fears the standing before his Lord, there are two gardens}

The verses following it describe them. Then, we are told (verse 62)

وَمِنْ دُوْنِهِمَا جَنَّتٰنِ

{And beside these are two other gardens}

Again, the next verses describe these two paradise (or gardens, meaning jinnah).

جنتان من فضة انيتهما وما فيهما وجنتان من ذهب انيتهما وما فيهما

This hadith, under discussion, also says that there are four gardens (or paradises). This is further confirmed by the tradition:

جنتان من الذهب للسابقين وجنتان من فضة لاصحاب اليمين

(Two gardens of gold are for those who are foremost. And two gardens of silver are for the companions of the right.)

It is also possible that (جنتان) two gardens, in the verse of ar-Rahman, mean two kinds of paradise, one of gold and the other of silver.

In any case, there are four gardens, two of gold for the particular close or nearer ones are two of silver for the general body of believers. While the dual form is used (جنتان) – two gardens, sometimes the dual stands for more than two and represents a plural. Hence, (جنتان) could mean four gardens, and the perfect ones might get apart form the two gardens, two others that might be of gold and silver a means of adornment to the right and left of their homes.

This is confirmed by the traditions that mention eight names for paradise. They are:

(i) Jannatul-aadn (جنة العدن)
(ii) Jannat ul·firdaws (جنة الفردوس)
(iii) Jannat ul khuld (جنة الخلد)
(iv) Jannat un na'im (جنة النعيم)
(v) Jannat ul ma'wa (جنة الماوى)
(vi) Daar us salaam (دار السلام)

(vii) Daar ul qarar (دارالقرار)
(viii) Daar u muqamah (دارالمقامة)

When they enter jananatul adn the screen between them and vision of their Lord will be removed. However, the screen before the Majesty of the sacred Being and His greatness and Glory will remain. But, Allah will remove it too out of His exclusive benevolence and permit human sight to see Him in paradise by bestowing on the eye the ability to see Him. So, those in paradise will see their Lord with their eyes.

RANKS IN PARADISE

(٥٦١٧) وَعَنْ عُبَادَةَ بْنِ الصَّامِتِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي الْجَنَّةِ مِائَةُ دَرَجَةٍ مَّا بَيْنَ كُلِّ دَرَجَتَيْنِ كَمَا بَيْنَ السَّمَآءِ وَالْاَرْضِ وَالْفِرْدَوْسُ اَعْلَاهَا دَرَجَةً مِّنْهَا تُفَجَّرُ اَنْهَارُ الْجَنَّةِ الْاَرْبَعَةُ وَمِنْ فَوْقِهَا يَكُوْنُ الْعَرْشُ فَاِذَا سَاَلْتُمُ اللّٰهَ فَاسْئَلُوْهُ الْفِرْدَوْسَ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَلَمْ اَجِدْهُ فِي الصَّحِيْحَيْنِ وَلَا فِي كِتَابِ الْحُمَيْدِيِّ۔

5617. Sayyiduna Ubadah ibn Samit رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "There are one hundred ranks in paradise Between every two ranks is like the distance between heaven and earth. Firdaws is the highest rank. From its issue four rivers of paradise. Above it is the throne. So when you pray to Allah (for paradise), ask Him for Firdaws."[1]

COMMENTARY: The hundred ranks may not the number but may imply 'very many.' This is corroborated by the marfu hadith of Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا in Bayhaqi: 'the ranks of paradise are as many as the verses of the Quran. He among the people of the Quran enters paradise, there is no rank above him.

However, the number one hundred might be specific two and the hadith may have mentioned only one hundred out of the very many. The distance between every two of them may be as stated, or less or more.

Daylami has transmitted a hadith from Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ in Masnad Firdaws in a marfu manner that there is a rank in paradise that may be attained only by the people who are grieved. No one else can attain it.

Fridaws is a name of paradise and it is found in the quran in this verse:

{They are the inheritors, who shall inherit paradise. Therein they shall abide} (23:110)

FOUR RIVERS: The four rivers that issue from Firdaws are: rivers of water, of honey, of milk and of wine. They are mentioned in these verses of the Quran:

فِيْهَا اَنْهٰرٌ مِّنْ مَّاءٍ غَيْرِ اٰسِنٍ وَاَنْهٰرٌ مِّنْ لَّبَنٍ لَّمْ يَتَغَيَّرْ طَعْمُهٗ وَاَنْهٰرٌ مِّنْ خَمْرٍ لَّذَّةٍ لِّلشّٰرِبِيْنَ وَاَنْهٰرٌ مِّنْ عَسَلٍ مُّصَفًّى

{....therein are rivers of water unstaling, and rivers of milk where of the flovour changes not, and rivers of wine delicious to the drinkers, and rivers of purified honey....} (47:15)

THRONE ABOVE THE FIRDAWS: This is evidence that firdaws is the superior most paradise and the highest. Therefore, the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم encouraged the ummah to ask for al-Firdaws.

Though the compiler of Mishkah has stated that this hadith does not belong to section one because it is not found in Bukhari or Muslim, yet it is found in both these books. In the former, it is found in kittab ul jihad and in the chapter on the Throne being over water. In the latter, it is traced in the chapter on the excellence of jihad.

MARKET PLACES OF PARADISE

(٥٦١٨) وَعَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ فِي الْجَنَّةِ لَسُوْقًا يَأْتُوْنَهَا كُلَّ جُمُعَةٍ فَتَهُبُّ رِيْحُ الشِّمَالِ فَتَحْثُوْا فِيْ وُجُوْهِهِمْ وَ ثِيَابِهِمْ فَيَزْدَادُوْنَ حُسْنًا وَّجَمَالًا فَيَرْجِعُوْنَ إِلَى أَهْلِيْهِمْ وَقَدِ ازْدَادُوْا حُسْنًا وَّجَمَالًا فَيَقُوْلُ لَهُمْ أَهْلُوْهُمْ وَاللّٰهِ لَقَدِ ازْدَدْتُّمْ بَعْدَنَا حُسْنًا وَّجَمَالًا فَيَقُوْلُوْنَ وَأَنْتُمْ وَاللّٰهِ لَقَدِ ازْدَدْتُّمْ بَعْدَنَا حُسْنًا وَّجَمَالًا. (رواه مسلم)

5618. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "There will be a market in paradise to which people will come every Friday. The north wind will blow and refresh their faces and clothes with fragrance (of musk, etc) making them more handsome and graceful. When they arrive home in this appealing state, their wives will say. 'After being away from us, you have become more handsome and graceful.' They will say (and return the compliment). 'Indeed, you too have become more beautiful and lovely'[1]

COMMENTARY: The dwellers of paradise will assemble at the market place where beautiful and appealing shapes and models will be available. Every dweller may adopt the look he likes there in place of the look that he already wears.
As for every Friday, it means once a week (the word (جمعہ) meaning a week as also Friday. But the week will not be as we know because, in paradise, there will be no sun and no rotation of day and night. The time will remain static. So, this hadith implies time equivalent to a week.
The northern air is (شمال) in Arabic. It flows from the cool regions and the Red sea. So it is very cold and is called (ریح الشمال) 'the northern wind! (So the same nomenclature is used for a similar breeze in paradise.)
When these people return home, the north wind will have already increased the beauty of their wives. Besides, when they come back home more beautiful, their beauty will reflect in their mates and so there will be beauty all over.

BLESSING IN PARADISE

(٥٦١٩) وَعَنْ أَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَوَّلُ زُمْرَةٍ يَّدْخُلُوْنَ الْجَنَّةَ عَلَى صُوْرَةِ الْقَمَرِ لَيْلَةَ الْبَدْرِ ثُمَّ الَّذِيْنَ يَلُوْنَهُمْ كَأَشَدِّ كَوْكَبٍ دُرِّيٍّ فِي السَّمَآءِ إِضَآءَةً قُلُوْبُهُمْ عَلَى قَلْبِ رَجُلٍ وَّاحِدٍ لَا اخْتِلَافَ بَيْنَهُمْ وَلَا تَبَاغُضَ لِكُلِّ امْرِءٍ مِّنْهُمْ زَوْجَتَانِ مِنَ الْحُوْرِ الْعِيْنِ يُرٰى مُخُّ سُوْقِهِنَّ مِنْ وَّرَآءِ الْعَظْمِ

5619. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Those who enter paradise first of all (being the Prophets) علیہم السلام will be (bright and radiant) like the moon when it is full (on the fourteenth of a lunar month). Those who follow them (being the ulama, awliya, martyrs and righteous) will be like the brightest, shinning star in the sky. Their hearts will be like a single man's heart and they will not differ or disagree, not bear grudge for each other. Each man among them will have two wives from the large-eyed maidens (of paradise). The marrow of theirs legs will be visible through the bone and the flesh because of their beauty and purity. They will glorify Allah morning and evening (meaning, all the time) They will never fall ill, never pass water, never excrete fasces, never spit and never blow their nose (for mucus). Their utensils will be made of gold and silver. Their combs will be made of gold. Their cookers will run on aloes. Their perspirations will be musk. All of them will have some way of life and character. And will look like their father, Aadam, sixty cubits tall.[1]

COMMENTARY: The word (حور) hoor is the plural of (حوراء), a beautiful woman with deep white and deep black eyes. (see hadith # 56140. The word (عين) is the plural of (عيناء), large eyed woman. This hadith mentions two wives, but a hadith to follow says that lowliest of the man of paradise will have seventy two wives (# 5648). The two wives mentioned here will be the most beautiful of the lot.

In this world we use charcoal for our cooking on stoves, etc. (Or any other fuel may be used we use aloes to get fragrance. But, in paradise aloes will be used to burn the stoves the word (وقود) is fuel for fire.

The closing words may also mean with a slight change of the diatrical marks: "They will be of one appearance and be equally handsome and beautiful, of the same age - thirty or thirty three years."

This sentence is elaborated by the next: "They will resemble their father, Aadam علیہ السلام and be sixty cubits tall."

WILL NOT NEED TO RELIEVE THEMSELVES

(٥٦٢٠) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ اَهْلَ الْجَنَّةِ يَاْكُلُوْنَ فِيْهَا وَيَشْرَبُوْنَ وَلَا يَتْفُلُوْنَ وَلَا يَبُوْلُوْنَ وَلَا يَتَغَوَّطُوْنَ وَلَا يَمْتَخِطُوْنَ قَالُوْا فَمَا بَالُ الطَّعَامِ قَالَ جُشَآءٌ وَّرَشْحٌ كَرَشْحِ الْمِسْكِ يُلْهَمُوْنَ التَّسْبِيْحَ وَالتَّحْمِيْدَ كَمَا تُلْهَمُوْنَ النَّفَسَ۔ (رواه مسلم)

5620.Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The dwellers of paradise will eat and drink there, but they will not spit, pas water, empty their bowels and blow their nose." They (the sahabah) رضی اللہ عنہم asked, "Then, what would happen to the food (how will they digest it)?" He said, "By belching and perspiration with the fragrance of musk. They will glorify and praise Allah (with subhan Allah and Alhamdulilah) as naturally (from their hearts) as one breathes (naturally)."[1]

COMMENTARY: The digestive system will work through belching and perspiration instead of the way it work in this world.

In this world, one breathes naturally without effort on intention while engaged in different occupations, so in the next world tasbih and tahmid will come naturally to every one. They would become as essential characteristic of every life. Nothing will prevent people from repeating the tasbih, tahlil and tahmid.

PERPETUAL YOUTH

(٥٦٢١) وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ يَدْخُلُ الْجَنَّةَ يَنْعَمُ وَلَا يَبْأَسُ وَلَا يَبْلٰى ثِيَابُهُ وَلَا يَفْنٰى شَبَابُهُ۔ (رواه مسلم)

5621. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "He who enters paradise will remain in (Allah's) favour and blessing. He will never fray. And his youth will never wither away."[2]

COMMENTARY: Paradise is (دار القرار والثبات) – abode of consistency, stability and permanence. Neither will its comfort give way to hardship nor will happiness change to grief.

(٥٦٢٢، ٥٦٢٣) وَعَنْ أَبِي سَعِيْدٍ وَّأَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَا إِنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ يُنَادِيْ مُنَادٍ إِنَّ لَكُمْ أَنْ تَصِحُّوْا فَلَا تَسْقَمُوْا أَبَدًا وَّإِنَّ لَكُمْ أَنْ تَحْيَوْا فَلَا تَمُوْتُوْا أَبَدًا وَّإِنَّ لَكُمْ أَنْ تَشِبُّوْا فَلَا تَهْرَمُوْا أَبَدًا وَّإِنَّ لَكُمْ أَنْ تَنْعَمُوْا فَلَا تَبْأَسُوْا أَبَدًا۔ (رواه مسلم)

5622 & 5623. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed R) and Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم did say, "An announcer will proclaim (in paradise, regularly): 'You will ever be healthy. Illness will not touch you. You will live for ever and never die. You will keep your youth always and never become old. You will live in (Allah's) favour and blessing and hardship and desperation will never approach you."[3]

UPPER ROOMS IN PARADISE

(٥٦٢٤) وَعَنْ أَبِي سَعِيْدِنِ الْخُدْرِيِّ أَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ إِنَّ أَهْلَ الْجَنَّةِ يَتَرَاءَوْنَ أَهْلَ الْغُرَفِ مِنْ فَوْقِهِمْ كَمَا تَرَاءَوْنَ الْكَوْكَبَ الدُّرِّيَّ الْغَابِرَ فِي الْأُفُقِ مِنَ الْمَشْرِقِ أَوِ الْمَغْرِبِ لِتَفَاضُلِ مَا بَيْنَهُمْ قَالُوْا يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ تِلْكَ مَنَازِلُ الْأَنْبِيَاءِ لَا يَبْلُغُهَا غَيْرُهُمْ قَالَ بَلٰى وَالَّذِيْ نَفْسِيْ بِيَدِهٖ رِجَالٌ اٰمَنُوْا بِاللّٰهِ وَصَدَّقُوا الْمُرْسَلِيْنَ (متفق عليه)

5624. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed Khudri رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The inhabitants of paradise will see the occupants of the upper rooms as you see that star of the east or of the west which remains in he horizon, this being because of the difference in their ranks." The sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم asked "Will those lofts house the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم where no one else might reach?" He said, "Why not? By Him in whose hand is my soul, they who believed in Allah and corroborated His Messenger will reach them, too."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Arabic word (غابر) refers to the shining star that is about to set or has risen at daybreak. According to one version which is not sound this word is (غائر) meaning 'low lying area.'

Some of the dwellers of paradise will have higher ranks than others, some will have mean standing and some will be of low rank. They will fare in paradise according to their ranks the ulama say that these people will get their residences too commensurate with their standing.

The concluding words of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم refer t o the very pious friends of Allah, the righteous, who were perfect in their belief of Allah and in emulating His Messenger and obeying them. They are described in the Quran:

وَعِبَادُ الرَّحْمٰنِ الَّذِيْنَ يَمْشُوْنَ عَلَى الْاَرْضِ هَوْنًا۔ الأية۔

{And the servants of the compassionate are those who walk on the earth in humility...} 25:63)

Then their attributes are recounted where after glad tidings are given to them.

اُوْلٰئِكَ يُجْزَوْنَ الْغُرْفَةَ بِمَا صَبَرُوْا۔ الأية

{Those shall be recompensed with the highest places (in paradise)....} (25:75)

ABOUT SOME DWELLERS OF PARADISE

(٥٦٢٥) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَدْخُلُ الْجَنَّةَ اَقْوَامٌ اَفْئِدَتُهُمْ مِثْلُ اَفْئِدَةِ الطَّيْرِ۔ (رواه مسلم)

5625. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "How many a tribe will enter paradise with hearts and soft and tender as hearts of birds!"[2]

COMMENTARY: Those who go to paradise will include many who will have been wild and kind-hearted in this world. They had not harboured any malice or deceit or jealousy. They were careful and scrupulous, and they relied on Allah.

They feared Allah as birds are most fearful of all creatures

And they were trustful as birds are symbolic in this regard. According to a hadith, "If you rely on Allah, He will give you provision as he gives to birds who fly out in the morning and return with a full belly in the evening."

ALLAH'S PLEASURE

(٥٦٢٦) وَعَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ اللّٰهَ تَعَالٰى يَقُوْلُ لِأَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ يَا أَهْلَ الْجَنَّةِ فَيَقُوْلُوْنَ لَبَّيْكَ رَبَّنَا وَسَعْدَيْكَ وَالْخَيْرُ فِي يَدَيْكَ فَيَقُوْلُ هَلْ رَضِيْتُمْ فَيَقُوْلُوْنَ وَمَا لَنَا لَا نَرْضٰى يَا رَبِّ وَقَدْ أَعْطَيْتَنَا مَا لَمْ تُعْطِ أَحَدًا مِّنْ خَلْقِكَ فَيَقُوْلُ أَلَا أُعْطِيْكُمْ أَفْضَلَ مِنْ ذٰلِكَ فَيَقُوْلُوْنَ يَا رَبِّ وَأَيُّ شَيْءٍ أَفْضَلُ مِنْ ذٰلِكَ فَيَقُوْلُ أُحِلُّ عَلَيْكُمْ رِضْوَانِي فَلَا أَسْخَطُ عَلَيْكُمْ بَعْدَهُ أَبَدًا (متفق عليه)

5626. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed Khudri رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, that surely Allah, the Glorious, will say to the dwellers of paradise, "O people of paradise!" They will say, "Our Lord, here we are, at you service! All good is in your hand!" He will ask, "Are you happy?" they will submit, "Why should we not be happy, O our Lord? You have give us all that which you have not given to any other of your creatures." He will ask, "Shall I not give you something better and more than that?" They will ask, "what can be better than what we have been given?" He will say, "I shall let you have My god pleasure. And, never after that I shall be angry of displeased with you."[1]

COMMENTARY: When Allah is pleased with His creature that is an assurance to them of receiving all blessings and honour. This will also get them the greatest of all blessings the vision of Allah!

The sahabah رضی الله عنهم used to wonder how could they say it their Lord was pleased with them. Then they realized that if they were pleased with their Lord. He too would be pleased with them.

Allah assured the dwellers of paradise that He would never be displeased with them. There can be no other blessing greater than that what to say of His perpetual pleasure, even a little bit of Allah's pleasure is better than paradise and all its bounties. Indeed, He Himself has said:

وَرِضْوَانٌ مِّنَ اللّٰهِ أَكْبَرُ

{And greatest of all is Allah's good pleasure} (9:72)

Therefore, the believer must always s beseech Allah:

اللهم ارض عنا وارضنا عنك

THE WISH OF AN ORDINARY DWELLER OF PARADISE

5627. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "He of you who will have lowest rank in paradise will be asked by Allah to make a wish. So, he will express a desire, and again a desire. Allah will ask him, 'Have you wished for whatever you wanted?" He will say, "Yes!' So, He will say to him, 'for you is what you wished and the like of it with it."[1]

RIVERS WITH MOUTH IN PARADISE

(٥٦٢٨) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ سَيْحَانُ وَجَيْحَانُ وَالْفُرَاتُ وَالنِّيْلُ كُلٌّ مِّنْ أَنْهَارِ الْجَنَّةِ (رواه مسلم)

5628. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Sa'ihan, Jaihan, the Euphrates (al-Furat) and the Nile are all among the rivers of paradise."[2]

COMMENTARY: While the Furat (Euphrates) and the Nile are known to us, the other two are rivers about which the ulama disagree. Different places are named for their location. However, it is confirmed that Sa'ihan and Ja'han are both in Syria, near its ancient cities Tartus and Masi'ah

The ulama express different opinion about these four rivers flowing in paradise. The most correct of them is that they originate in paradise. According to a hadith in Muslim, the Nile and Euphrates originate in paradise. According to a version in Bukhari, they begin at the base of Sidratul muntaha (which is a tree in the seventh heaven near paradise). Mu'alim at Tanzil cites a tradition that Allah has entrusted the source of these four rivers to the mountains from where they flow into the plains. According to another tradition, these four rivers are in paradise and their names have been given to four rivers on earth. Hence they are namesakes. And are more known than other river because of their sweet water and other benefits. This indicates that the blessing and the benefits in this world are all examples of the blessings and benefits of that world.

Another opinion that in more explanatory is that these rivers are attributed to paradise because their water is more sweet and fine, and more cool and pleasant than other water. So many advantage are derived from these rivers and so many characteristics are ascribed to them that they look as though they have come from paradise.

GREATNESS OF HELL & HEAVEN

(٥٦٢٩) وَعَنْ عُتْبَةَ بْنِ غَزْوَانَ قَالَ ذُكِرَ لَنَا أَنَّ الْحَجَرَ يُلْقٰى فِيْ شَفَةِ جَهَنَّمَ فَيَهْوِيْ فِيْهَا سَبْعِيْنَ خَرِيْفًا لَا يُدْرِكُ لَهَا قَعْرًا وَاللّٰهِ لَتُمْلَأَنَّ وَلَقَدْ ذُكِرَ لَنَا أَنَّ مَابَيْنَ مِصْرَاعَيْنِ مِنْ مَّصَارِيْعِ الْجَنَّةِ مَسِيْرَةُ أَرْبَعِيْنَ سَنَةً وَلَيَاتِيَنَّ عَلَيْهَا يَوْمٌ وَّهُوَ كَظِيْظٌ مِّنَ الزِّحَامِ (رواه مسلم)

5629. Sayyiduna Utbah رضی الله عنه ibn Ghazwan said, "It has been mentioned to us (on the authority of Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم that he said. "If a stone is dropped from the edge of hell, it will continue to fall down for seventy years without reaching the bottom. By Allah, (in spite of such a depth) hell will be filed up with the disbelievers, polytheists and idolaters.)"

He said further, "It has been mentioned to us (that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم also said), "The distance between the two posts of every gate of paradise is as a journey of forty years, yet a time will come when they will be packed to capacity."[1]

CONSTRUCTION OF PARADISE

(٥٦٣٠) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قُلْتُ يَارَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مِمَّ خُلِقَ الْخَلْقُ قَالَ مِنَ الْمَآءِ قُلْنَا الْجَنَّةُ مَابِنَآءُ هَا قَالَ لَبِنَةٌ مِّنْ ذَهَبٍ وَّلَبِنَةٌ مِّنْ فِضَّةٍ وَّ مِلَاطُهَا الْمِسْكُ الْاَذْفَرُ وَ حَصْبَآؤُهَا اللُّؤْلُؤُ وَالْيَاقُوْتُ وَتُرْبَتُهَا الزَّعْفَرَانُ مَنْ يَّدْخُلُهَا يَنْعَمُ وَلَا يَبْاَسُ وَ يَخْلُدُ وَلَا يَمُوْتُ وَلَا تَبْلٰى ثِيَابُهُمْ وَلَا يَفْنٰى شَبَابُهُمْ (رواه احمد والترمذی والدارمی)

5630.Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that he asked. "O Messenger of Allah, of what was the creation made?" He said, "It was made of water." Then, we asked, "Of what was paradise built?" He said, "A brick of gold and a brick of silver with clay of nice fragrant musk. Its gravel is pearls and rubies. It soil is saffron whose come into it will have Allah's favour (and bounties) and will never be wretched. They will abide for ever and will never die. Their garments will never fray and they youth will never wither away."[2]

COMMENTARY: The scholars say water was the first thing to be created as a whole entity. Then it was turned dense and solid and earth was created from it. Then water was turned thin and fine to create fire from whose smoke the sky was created.[3]

It is stated in the Torah that Allah created an element and gave it a look of awe and majesty. So it melted and became water. Steam came up from this water and ascended as smoke till it spread around to become a sky. Then bubbles were formed on water and they made up the earth. Then mountains were created as anchors for the earth (which was not steady till they were created).

Some scholars say that water here means sperm. In that case creation would refer to animates or living creatures. It is as the Quran says:

وَجَعَلْنَا مِنَ الْمَاءِ كُلَّ شَيْءٍ حَيٍّ

{And we made from water every living thing.} (21:30) {This mean human beings and others too}

The Quran also says:

وَاللّٰهُ خَلَقَ كُلَّ دَابَّةٍ مِّنْ مَّاءٍ

{And Allah created every animal of water} (24:45)

The sperm is in the form of water. Hence, it is so called. Besides, water is essential to every living creature. Advantage is derived from it most of all.

TRUNK OF TREES IN PARADISE

(٥٦٣١) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا فِي الْجَنَّةِ شَجَرَةٌ اِلَّا وَسَاقُهَا مِنْ ذَهَبٍ (رواه الترمذى)

5631. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "There is not a tree in paradise but its trunk is of gold."[1]

COMMENTARY: The trunks of the trees of paradise are of gold but their branches and twigs are of different kinds and hey have fruit of varied description.

(٥٦٣٢) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ اِنَّ فِي الْجَنَّةِ مِائَةُ دَرَجَةٍ مَّابَيْنَ كُلِّ دَرَجَتَيْنِ مِائَةُ عَامٍ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ غَرِيْبٌ

5632. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "In paradise, there are one hundred ranks. Between every two ranks there is a distance of one hundred years."[2]

COMMENTARY: The ranks of which the hadith speaks the higher degrees of the dwellers of paradise according to their deeds. Allah says

هُمْ دَرَجَاتٌ عِنْدَ اللّٰهِ

{They have (diverse) rank in the sight of Allah} (3:163)

It will be alike for the denizens of hell. They will be in the lower portion according to their disbelief and polytheism, the more severe their disbelief, the lower their places in hell. The Quran says:

اِنَّ الْمُنَافِقِيْنَ فِي الدَّرْكِ الْاَسْفَلِ مِنَ النَّارِ

{Surely, the hypocrites will be in the lowest depth of the Fire...} (4:145)

(٥٦٣٣) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ سَعِيْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ فِي الْجَنَّةِ مِائَةَ دَرَجَةٍ لَوْاَنَّ الْعَالَمِيْنَ اجْتَمَعُوْا فِيْ اِحْدٰهُنَّ لَوَسِعَتْهُمْ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

5633. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "In paradise, there are one hundred ranks. If (all the creatures of) the universe assemble in any of them, that would suffice them all."[3]

THE MATTRESSES OF PARADISE

(٥٦٣٤) وَعَنْهُ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيْ قَوْلِهٖ تَعَالٰى وَفُرُشٍ مَّرْفُوْعَةٍ قَالَ ارْتِفَاعُهَا لَكَمَا بَيْنَ السَّمَآءِ وَالْاَرْضِ مَسِيْرَةُ خَمْسِ مِائَةِ سَنَةٍ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

5634. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet (E0 said about the words of Allah, the exalted:

وَفُرُشٍ مَّرْفُوْعَةٍ

{And mattresses of high quality} (56:34)

"Their height will be as the distance between heaven and earth a distance of five hundred years."[1]

COMMENTARY: The mattresses spread out in paradise will seen to be like the height of heaven from earth.

Or, this verse of the quran says that these mattresses would have been spread out in the ranks that would be as high as the distance from earth to heaven. A hadith says that there are one hundred ranks in paradise. The distance between every two ranks is as between heaven and earth. (Hadith # 3787)

Some scholars say that the word (فرش) mattresses actually means the hoors (حور) maidens of paradise. And the word (مرفوعة) means that they are superior to the women of the world in their beauty. However, there is also a hadith that says: the believing women in paradise will excel the hoors in their beauty. They will have excellence over the hoors because of the salah and fasting that they may have observed in this world.[2]

RADIANT FACES OF PEOPLE OF PARADISE

(٥٦٣٥) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ اَوَّلَ زُمْرَةٍ يَّدْخُلُوْنَ الْجَنَّةَ يَوْمَ الْقِيٰمَةِ ضَوْءُ وُجُوْهِهِمْ عَلٰى مِثْلِ ضَوْءِ الْقَمَرِ لَيْلَةَ الْبَدْرِ وَالزُّمْرَةُ الثَّانِيَةُ عَلٰى مِثْلِ اَحْسَنِ كَوْكَبٍ دُرِّيٍّ فِى السَّمَآءِ لِكُلِّ رَجُلٍ مِّنْهُمْ زَوْجَتَانِ عَلٰى كُلِّ زَوْجَةٍ سَبْعُوْنَ حُلَّةً يُّرٰى مُخُّ سَاقِهَا مِنْ وَّرَاءِ هَا(رواه الترمذى)

5635. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The first batch (of people) who will enter paradise will be have faces as radiant as the moon when it is full (and they will be the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. The second batch will have faces like the most beautiful bright star in the sky and they will be the awliya and the righteous. Each man (of paradise) will have two wives, each of whom will wear seventy mantles (but each for them will be so pure that) through them the marrow of her leg will be visible."[3]

COMMENTARY: According to another hadith (# 5648) a man of the lowest grade in paradise will have seventy two wives and eighty thousand servants. The ulama say that the two mentioned in this hadith will be as described here. Their marrow of the legs will be visible over their mantles. The remaining will include worldly women and hoors but the marrow of theirs legs will not be seen.

Another explanation is that the two wives will be from the women of the world, and the rest seventy will be the maidens of paradise (hoors).

SEXUAL POTENCY OF MEN OF PARADISE

(٥٦٣٦) وَعَنْ أَنَسٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ يُعْطَى الْمُؤْمِنُ فِي الْجَنَّةِ قُوَّةً كَذَا وَكَذَا مِنَ الْجِمَاعِ قِيْلَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ أَوَيُطِيْقُ ذٰلِكَ قَالَ يُعْطَى قُوَّةَ مِائَةٍ (رواه الترمذ)

5636. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "In paradise, the believer will be given such and such sexual potency. "Someone asked, "O Messenger of Allah, will he be able to do that? He said, "He will have the potency of one hundred men."[1]

BRACELETS OF PEOPLE OF PARADISE

(٥٦٣٧) وَعَنْ سَعْدِ بْنِ أَبِي وَقَّاصٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَنَّهُ قَالَ لَوْ أَنَّ مَا يُقِلُّ ظُفُرٌ مِمَّا فِي الْجَنَّةِ بَدَا لَتَزَخْرَفَتْ لَهُ مَا بَيْنَ خَوَافِقِ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَلَوْ أَنَّ رَجُلًا مِنْ أَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ اطَّلَعَ فَبَدَا أَسَاوِرُهُ لَطَمَسَ ضَوْئُهُ ضَوْءَ الشَّمْسِ كَمَا تَطْمِسُ الشَّمْسُ ضَوْءَ النُّجُوْمِ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ

5637. Sayyiduna Sa'd ibn Abu Waqqas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If so much of the bounties of paradise as might be carried on a fingernail were to be seen (in the world). The entire area between the sides of heaven and earth would be illuminated and adorned.
And if any of the dwellers of paradise were to glance down (on earth) and his bracelet were to be observed, then its brilliance would fade out the glitter of the sun just as the sun blots out the brightness of the stars."[2]

HAIRLESS MEN OF PARADISE

(٥٦٣٨) وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَهْلُ الْجَنَّةِ جُرْدٌ مُرْدٌ كُحْلٌ لَا يَفْنٰى شَبَابُهُمْ وَلَا يَبْلٰى ثِيَابُهُمْ (رواه الترمذی والدارمی)

5638. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The people of paradise will be hairless, beardless and will have black eyes. Their youth will not end and their garments will not wear out."[3]

COMMENTARY: Their eyes will be black as though collyrium was applied to the eyes. It would appear as if they are black with collyrium from birth.

(٥٦٣٩) عَنْ مُعَاذِ بْنِ جَبَلٍ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ يَدْخُلُ أَهْلُ الْجَنَّةِ الْجَنَّةَ جُرْدًا مُرْدًا مُكَحَّلِيْنَ أَبْنَاءَ ثَلٰثِيْنَ أَوْ ثَلٰثٍ وَّثَلٰثِيْنَ سَنَةً (رواه الترمذی)

5639. Sayyiduna Mu'adh ibn Jabal رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The dwellers of paradise will enter paradise hairless, beardless, with collyrium on their eyes and aged thirty or thirty three years."[1]

COMMENTARY: The age of thirty to thirty three is the age perfect youth. The word 'or' is interposed by a subnarrator who was not sure whether the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, 'thirty' or 'thirty three.'

SIDRATUL MUNTAHA

5640.Sayyiduna Asma bint Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه narrated that she heard Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم say when sidratul muntaha was mentioned in his presence, "A rider may ride on in the shade of a branch of it for one hundred years," or (he said) "one hundred rider may rest in its shade." The subnarrator was[1] in doubt (which were the correct words). "There are in the golden locust and its fruit looks like earthenware jars."[2]

COMMENTARY: The words sidrat ul-muhntaha means 'the lote tree of eternity.' It is so called because it is at the extreme limits of paradise. No one knows what is beyond it, and not even an angel is allowed to go there. Sayyiduna Jabrail عليه السلام was also allowed to go only up to this point not beyond. But, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did go beyond this tree on the night of the miraj, ascension to the heavens though one tradition says that it is in the sixth this tree is in the seventy heaven.

As for the golden locust, perhaps it is the wings of the angels on this tree. They shine as though golden. Or the light that is thrown on the branches reflects in the manner of golden locust.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم words explain the verse of the Quran:

اِذْ يَغْشَى السِّدْرَةَ مَا يَغْشٰى

{When the late tree was covered by that which covered it} (53:16)

Baydawi رحمه الله has said that a great number of angels who are engaged in worship of Allah cover this tree, continuously.[3]

THE POND KAWTHAR

(٥٦٤١) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ سُئِلَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا الْكَوْثَرُ قَالَ ذٰلِكَ نَهْرٌ اَعْطَانِيْهِ اللّٰهُ يَعْنِيْ فِي الْجَنَّةِ اَشَدُّ بَيَاضًا مِّنَ اللَّبَنِ وَاَحْلٰى مِنَ الْعَسَلِ فِيْهِ طَيْرٌ اَعْنَاقُهَا كَاَعْنَاقِ الْجُزُرِ قَالَ عُمَرُ اِنَّ هٰذِهٖ لَنَاعِمَةٌ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اٰكِلَتُهَا اَنْعَمُ مِنْهَا (رواه الترمذى)

5641. Sayyiduna Anas رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم was asked, "what is al-kawthar?" He said "It is a river that Allah has given me, meaning is paradise (exclusively for me). It is whiter than milk and sweeter than honey. In it are birds whose necks are like the necks of camels readied to be sacrificed. (The birds are to be sacrificed for the drinkers from kawthar)."

Sayyiduna Umar submitted, "Those birds must be quite fat (and delicious)!" Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said "Those who eat them will be more fat and healthy."[1]

COMMENTARY: Kawthar is a river on either side of which is a pond. One is in the masher (or gathering place) and the other is in paradise. Since most of it in paradise, so the hadith says that it is as in paradise (فى الجنة). It is for the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم exclusively, so that him ummah may drink from it to heart's content.

The hadith mentions necks like (جزر). They are sacrificial camels. The camels that the made ready to sacrifice the. This indicates that the birds that are in the kawthar will have been readied to sacrifice them for those who have drunk water at the kawthar.

FOR THE DWELLERS WHATEVER THEY DESIRE

(٥٦٤٢) وَعَنْ بُرَيْدَةَ اَنَّ رَجُلًا قَالَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ هَلْ فِي الْجَنَّةِ مِنْ خَيْلٍ قَالَ اِنَّ اللّٰهُ اَدْخَلَكَ الْجَنَّةَ فَلَا تَشَاءُ اَنْ تُحْمَلَ فِيْهَا عَلٰى فَرَسٍ مِنْ يَاقُوْتَةٍ حَمْرَاءَ يَطِيْرُ بِكَ فِي الْجَنَّةِ حَيْثُ شِئْتَ اِلَّا فَعَلْتَ وَسَأَلَهُ رَجُلٌ فَقَالَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ هَلْ فِي الْجَنَّةِ مِنْ اِبِلٍ قَالَ فَلَمْ يَقُلْ لَهُ مَاقَالَ لِصَاحِبِهٖ فَقَالَ اِنْ يُدْخِلَكَ اللّٰهُ الْجَنَّةَ يَكُنْ لَكَ فِيْهَا مَا اشْتَهَتْ نَفْسُكَ وَلَذَّتْ عَيْنُكَ (رواه الترمذى)

5642. Sayyiduna Buraydah رضى الله عنه narrated that a man asked Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم "O Messenger of Allah, are there horses in paradise?" He said, "If Allah admits you to paradise then whenever you wish to mount a horse in it, you will be put on a horse of red pearls. It will fly with you in paradise wherever you wish to go."
Then, another man asked, "O Messenger of Allah, are there in paradise camels?" he did not say what he had said to the first man but he said, "If Allah admits you to paradise then there will be for you everything you desire and your eyes enjoy."[2]

COMMENTARY: The word (فعلت) is read with different diatrical marks but the sense is generally the same: 'that will be done for you, 'You will get a horse.' Etc.

The word (فرس) is used for both a male and a female horse.

In short in paradise, everyone will get whatever desires.

(٥٦٤٣) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ اَيُّوْبَ قَالَ اَتَى النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَعْرَابِيٌّ فَقَالَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اِنِّيْ اُحِبُّ الْخَيْلَ اَفِي الْجَنَّةِ خَيْلٌ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنْ اُدْخِلْتَ الْجَنَّةَ اُوْتِيْتَ بِفَرَسٍ مِنْ يَاقُوْتَةٍ لَهُ جَنَاحَانِ فَحُمِلْتَ عَلَيْهِ ثُمَّ طَارَبِكَ حَيْثُ شِئْتَ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ لَيْسَ اِسْنَادُهُ بِالْقَوِيِّ وَاَبُوْسُوْرَةَ الرَّاوِيْ يُضَعَّفُ فِي الْحَدِيْثِ وَسَمِعْتُ مُحَمَّدَ بْنَ اِسْمٰعِيْلَ يَقُوْلُ اَبُوْ سُوْرَةَ هٰذَا مُنْكَرُ الْحَدِيْثِ يَرْوِيْ مَنَاكِيْرَ۔

5643. Sayyiduna Abu Ayyub رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that a villager come to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and asked, "O Messenger of Allah, I love horses (very much). Are there horses in paradise?" He said, "If you are admitted to paradise, you shall be given a horse of ruby having two wings. You will be mounted on it and it will fly with you wherever you desire to go."[1]

(Abu Sawra, according to Tirmidhi, is a weak narrator of hadith. According to Bukhari, his ahadith are numkar -rejected.)

(٥٦٤٤) وَعَنْ بُرَيْدَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَهْلُ الْجَنَّةِ عِشْرُوْنَ وَمِائَةُ صَفٍّ ثَمَانُوْنَ مِنْهَا مِنْ هٰذِهِ الْأُمَّةِ وَأَرْبَعُوْنَ مِنْ سَائِرِ الْأُمَمِ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَالدَّارِمِيُّ وَالْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِي كِتَابِ الْبَعْثِ وَالنُّشُوْرِ۔

5644. Sayyiduna Buraydah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The dwellers of paradise will form one hundred and twenty rows (if lined up). Eighty of them will belong to this ummah and forty to the remaining ummah."[2]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم ummah will from more than two thirds of the people of paradise. According to a hadith in the previous chapter, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم hoped that his u mmah would form half of the people of paradise. The increase is clearly because of Allah's mercy and favour.

Another suggestion though not appealing is that the number of people in each row may be unequal and those of this ummah may be fewer per row. But, the first opinion more correct.

WIDTH OF GATE OF PARADISE FOR MUSLIMS

(٥٦٤٥) وَعَنْ سَالِمٍ عَنْ أَبِيْهِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بَابُ أُمَّتِي الَّذِيْ يَدْخُلُوْنَ مِنْهُ الْجَنَّةَ عَرْضُهُ مَسِيْرَةُ الرَّاكِبِ الْمُجَوِّدِ ثَلٰثًا ثُمَّ إِنَّهُمْ لَيُضْغَطُوْنَ عَلَيْهِ حَتّٰى تَكَادُ مَنَاكِبُهُمْ تَزُوْلُ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ ضَعِيْفٌ وَسَأَلْتُ مُحَمَّدَ بْنَ إِسْمٰعِيْلَ عَنْ هٰذَا الْحَدِيْثِ فَلَمْ يَعْرِفْهُ وَقَالَ مَخْلَدُ بْنِ أَبِي بَكْرٍ يَرْوِي الْمَنَاكِيْرَ۔

5645. Sayyiduna Saalim رحمہ اللہ (a tabi'i) narrated on the authority of his father (Abdullah ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ) that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The gate through which may ummah will enter paradise is so much wide that (even) a swift rider will vide across it for three (rights or years), yet when they enter it {they will be so many that it will seem too narrow for them so,} they will nearly dislocate their shoulders."[3]

COMMENTARY: The text has only 'three' but the noun is omitted. So, it could be three rights of three years. It is better to assume three years because it suggests a large number and a wider gate. This will agree with the tradition that says that the two extremes or posts of each gate of paradise will be so much apart that it would be a journey of forty years from end of end (#5629).

Or, we may say that the multitude known to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم first was later confirmed as a greater n umber. It may also be said that the width of the gates would seem different according to the number of people entering by a gate.

Tirmidhi has termed this hadith as (ضعيف) weak the Masabih terms it da'if mankar (ضعيف منكر) weak, rejected. It contradicts a sahih hadith. Moreover, Imam Bukhari رحمه الله has expressed ignorance of this hadith so it suggests that the hadith is weak. He also said about one of its sub-narrators, Khalid ibn Abu Bakr that he used to circulate rejected ahadith. The Mishkah's compiler has mis-named him as (يخلد) yakhlud.

MARKET OF MASKS & FORMS

(٥٦٤٦) وَعَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ فِي الْجَنَّةِ لَسُوْقًا مَّا فِيْهَا شِرًى وَّلَا بَيْعٌ اِلَّا الصُّوَرُ مِنَ الرِّجَالِ وَالنِّسَآءِ فَاِذَا اشْتَهَى الرَّجُلُ صُوْرَةً دَخَلَ فِيْهَا رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

5646. Sayyiduna Ali رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "There is a market in paradise where buying and selling is not transacted, but only faces and forms of men and women (are displayed), when anyone likes a shape, he (simply) enter into it."[1]

COMMENTARY: That market is a centre of beautiful faces and forms. If any of the dwellers of paradise wishes to change into a new form and get up, he will choose it and will put it on himself. It is like the j inns and angels who adopt the form they like in this world, at their whim.

5647. Sayyiduna Sa'eed ibn Musayyib رحمه الله (a tabi) narrated: I met Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه and he said, "I pray to Allah that He bring you and me together in the market of paradise." I asked, "Is there a market there?" He said, "Yes, Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم informed me that when the deserving of paradise enter it, they will settle according to the merit of their deeds. Then they will be summoned at intervals equal to every Friday in terms of the days in this world. They will visit their Lord. His throne will be visible of them and He will show himself to them in one of the gardens of paradise pearls. Pulpits of rubies, pulpits of aquamarine, pulpits of gold, pulpits of silver - all put up for them the humblest of them, and there are not worthless among them, will sit on mound of musk and camphor without thinking that those seated on chairs are more meritorious than they are in the assembly." I (Abu Hurayray) رضی الله عنه asked Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم whether we would be able to see our Lord. He said that we would (and) asked, "Do you have difficulty in seeing the sun and the moon on the night when it is full?" We said, "No" and he explained, "In the same way, you will have no difficulty in seeing your Lord. There would be no person in that assembly with when Allah does not converse. Indeed, He will ask him, 'O you son of so-and so do you recall the day when you said such and such?' He will remind him of the deceitful thing he had done in the world so that he will submit, 'O my Lord, have you not forgiven me/" He will assure him, 'certainly, by the vastness of my forgiveness you have come to this, your station.' Meanwhile, a cloud will come over them and shower perfume over them the like of whose fragrance they will not have perceived ever before. Our Lord will say, 'Arise! And come to what I have prepared for you of blessing, and pick up what you desire."

(Abi Hurayrah رضی الله عنه then went on with the narrative in his own words:)

"We shall then come to the market surrounded by the angels. There will be in it the like of which eyes have not seen, ears have not heard and hearts have not imagined. To us will be delivered what we desire without there being any buying or selling in the market. There, the inhabitants of paradise will meet each other. A man of a high rank will meet another of a lower rank, there being none trifling among them. He will be delighted by the garments on him, but even before their conversation concludes, he will assume that he himself wears what is more beautiful than what the other wears, that being because it will not be proper for anyone to grieve there (or feel deprived).

Then, we shall return to our dwellings where our wises will meet us and welcome us and say to us that we have returned more beautiful than we had parted from them. We shall say that we had met our Lord, the Dominant, and it was befitting for us to return (from there) as we did return."[1]

COMMENTARY: There will be no days and rights in paradise. The division between Friday and Friday is only symbolic. The dwellers will assemble in one of the gardens and have an opportunity to have a vision of their Lord. The moment will be known as Friday because the people used to assemble for the Friday salah.

The Lord will let them see the throne meaning his mercy and kindness to the creature, for, as stated earlier, the throne is the roof of paradise, so it is meaningless to say that the throne will be shown to the dwellers of paradise.

The humblest of the dwellers of paradise will not be contemptible or the least deserving. Rather this stands in relation to one of a higher rank. As for as personal standing is concerned all inhabitants of paradise will be of equal esteem. Their ranks will be commensurate with their deeds in the world.

The same applies to those sitting on mounds in comparison to people on the chairs. The former will have no inferiority complex because everyone in paradise will be patient wherever he stands in rank. They will not feel deprived or will they envy those who have higher ranks.

As for the garments, a second meaning could be the opposite of the given. The pronouns will be reserved. The dress of the other would be poorer but before the conversion culminates, that would seem better.

DESEIR TO HAVE CHILDREN

(٥٦٤٨) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ سَعِيْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَدْنٰى اَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ الَّذِىْ لَهٗ ثَمَانُوْنَ اَلْفَ خَادِمٍ وَاثْنَتَانِ وَسَبْعُوْنَ زَوْجَةً وَتُنْصَبُ لَهٗ قُبَّةٌ مِّنْ لُؤْلُؤٍ وَزَبَرْجَدٍ وَّيَاقُوْتٍ كَمَا بَيْنَ الْجَابِيَةِ اِلٰى صَنْعَاءَ وَبِهٰذَا الْاَسْنَادِ قَالَ مَنْ مَّاتَ مِنْ اَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ مِنْ صَغِيْرٍ اَوْ كَبِيْرٍ يُرَدُّوْنَ بَنِىْ ثَلٰثِيْنَ فِى الْجَنَّةِ لَا يَزِيْدُوْنَ عَلَيْهَا اَبَدًا وَّكَذٰلِكَ اَهْلُ النَّارِ وَبِهٰذَا الْاَسْنَادِ قَالَ اِنَّ عَلَيْهِمُ التِّيْجَانَ اَدْنٰى لُؤْلُؤَةٍ مِنْهَا لَتُضِيْءُ مَا بَيْنَ الْمَشْرِقِ وَالْمَغْرِبِ وَبِهٰذَ الْاِسْنَادِ قَالَ الْمُؤْمِنُ اِذَا اشْتَهَى الْوَلَدَ فِى الْجَنَّةِ كَانَ حَمْلُهٗ وَوَضْعُهٗ وَسِنُّهٗ فِىْ سَاعَةٍ كَمَا يَشْتَهِىْ وَقَالَ اِسْحٰقُ بْنُ اِبْرَاهِيْمَ فِىْ هٰذَا الْحَدِيْثِ اِذَا اشْتَهَى الْمُؤْمِنُ فِى الْجَنَّةِ الْوَلَدَ كَانَ فِىْ سَاعَةٍ وَّلٰكِنْ لَّا يَشْتَهِىْ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِىُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ وَرَوَى ابْنُ مَاجَةَ الرَّابِعَةَ وَالدَّارِمِىُّ الْاَخِيْرَةَ۔

5648. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The dweller of paradise having the lowest rank will have eighty thousand servants and servant two wives (two of whom will be women from the world and seventy will be hoors of paradise). A large pavilion will be erected for him made of pearls, aquamarine and rubies covering the distance between jabiyah and San'a."

(Another narrative of Abu Sa'eed) رضی اللہ عنہ through the same sanad (the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said). Those who are eligible to be admitted to paradise and die young or old will be reverted to the age thirty years in paradise, never rising above that age. And it will be alike for the people of hell (concerning their age)."
Though the same sanad (it is reported that) the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "They will wear crowns, the smallest pearl of which will illuminate all that is between the east and the west."
Though the same sanad, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "When (supposing) a believer wishes for a child in paradise, its conception, delivery and growth will take place, us he wishes, in a moment."
Ishaq ibn Ibrahim رحمہ اللہ said about this hadith "When a believer in paradise will desire a child, it will be delivered in a moment, but he will not desire to have one."[1]

COMMENTARY: The denizens of hell will also be of age thirty whether they die old or young. This will be their age when cast in hell, and they will be of this age forever. This is the age of prime youth. Hence, if anyone is destined to live comfortably, he will do so at an ideal age. If he is destined to be chastised, the shall endure pain at his prime youth.

THE POETRY OF THE HOORS

(٥٦٤٩) وَعَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ فِي الْجَنَّةِ لَمُجْتَمَعًا لِلْحُوْرِ الْعِيْنِ يَرْفَعْنَ بِأَصْوَاتٍ لَمْ تَسْمَعِ الْخَلَائِقُ مِثْلَهَا يَقُلْنَ نَحْنُ الْخَالِدَاتُ فَلَا نَبِيْدُ وَنَحْنُ النَّاعِمَاتُ فَلَا نَبْأَسُ وَنَحْنُ الرَّاضِيَاتُ فَلَا نَسْخَطُ طُوْبٰى لِمَنْ كَانَ لَنَا وَكُنَّا لَهُ (رواه الترمذی)

5649. Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger said, "There is a meeting place of the larged eyed hoors (maidens of paradise) in paradise. They will call in a high pitch such as the creatures have never heard, 'we will abide for ever and die never. We live in blessings and grieve never. Happy are they who are for us and we for them.'[2]

RIVER IN PARADISE

(٥٦٥٠، ٥٦٥١) وَعَنْ حَكِيْمِ بْنِ مُعَاوِيَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ فِي الْجَنَّةِ بَحْرَ الْمَاءِ وَبَحْرَ الْعَسَلِ وَبَحْرَ اللَّبَنِ وَبَحْرَ الْخَمْرِ ثُمَّ تَشَقَّقُ الْاَنْهَارُ بَعْدُ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَرَوَاهُ الدَّارِمِيُّ وَعَنْ مُعٰوِيَةَ۔

5650.Sayyiduna Hakim ibn Mu'awiyah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said there are in paradise (large rivers) a large river of water, a large river of honey, a large river of milk, and a large river of wine. Then (later the dwellers enter it)(, they will branch off into (small) tributaries."[3]
5651. Sayyiduna Mu'awiyah رضی اللہ عنہ also narrated it.[4]

3 Tirmidhi # 2571 (2580).
4 Darimi # 2836.

COMMENTARY: It seems that the hadith refers by - 'large river' to the springs and tributaries of the river mentioned in the Quran.

فِيهَا أَنْهَٰرٌ مِّن مَّآءٍ غَيْرِ ءَاسِنٍ وَأَنْهَٰرٌ مِّن لَّبَنٍ لَّمْ يَتَغَيَّرْ طَعْمُهُۥ وَأَنْهَٰرٌ مِّنْ خَمْرٍ لَّذَّةٍ لِّلشَّٰرِبِينَ * وَأَنْهَٰرٌ مِّنْ عَسَلٍ مُّصَفًّى

{...therein are river of water unstaling and rivers of milk whereof the flavour changed not, and river of wine delicious to the drinkers and rivers of purified honey...} (45:15)

These rivers will branch out from the large rivers mentioned in the hadith. Then they will continue to be divided off into smaller rivers and flow along the pavilions of the righteous and under palaces.

Some commentators say that he hadith mentions the same (بحر) large rivers which the Quran calls (نهر) river. The only difference is that the hadith calls them (بحر) large rivers while the Quran refer to them as (نهر) rivers because they issue and flow.

ABOUT THE HOORS (MAIDENS) OF PARADISE

(٥٦٥٢) عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ عَنْ رَسُولِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ إِنَّ الرَّجُلَ فِي الْجَنَّةِ لَيَتَّكِئُ فِي الْجَنَّةِ سَبْعِينَ مَسْنَدًا قَبْلَ أَنْ يَتَحَوَّلَ ثُمَّ تَأْتِيهِ امْرَأَةٌ فَتَضْرِبُ عَلَى مَنْكِبَيْهِ فَيَنْظُرُ وَجْهَهُ فِي خَدِّهَا أَصْفَى مِنَ الْمِرْآةِ وَإِنَّ أَدْنَى لُؤْلُؤَةٍ عَلَيْهَا تُضِيءُ مَا بَيْنَ الْمَشْرِقِ وَالْمَغْرِبِ فَتُسَلِّمُ عَلَيْهِ فَيَرُدُّ السَّلَامَ وَيَسْأَلُهَا مَنْ أَنْتِ فَتَقُولُ أَنَا مِنَ الْمَزِيدِ وَإِنَّهُ لَيَكُونُ عَلَيْهَا سَبْعُونَ ثَوْبًا فَيَنْفُذُهَا بَصَرُهُ حَتَّى يَرَى مُخَّ سَاقِهَا مِنْ وَرَاءِ ذٰلِكَ وَإِنَّ عَلَيْهَا مِنَ التِّيجَانِ إِنَّ أَدْنَى لُؤْلُؤَةٍ مِنْهَا لَتُضِيءُ مَا بَيْنَ الْمَشْرِقِ وَالْمَغْرِبِ (رواه احمد)

5652. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "A man in paradise will surely recline on seventy pillows before the turns (his side). Then a woman will come and stroke him in his shoulder. He will see his face in her cheek (that will reflect) clearer than a mirror. And, indeed, the tiniest pearl that she wears (will be so previous and dazzling that it) will brighten everything between the east and the west. She will offer him salaam[1] (a greeting) and he will respond to the salaam and ask her, 'who are you?' She will say, 'I am from that mazeed (مزید) more (reward that is with Allah, 50:35). She will have worn seventy garments (of different colours). His eye will penetrate those to enable him to see the marrow of her leg through them. She will also have worn crowns, the most ordinary pearl of them will illuminate e all that is between the east and the west."[2]

COMMENTARY: The words about the man's reclining one seventy pillows before he changes his side imply that he will have seventy pillows to recline on beforehe curns to the other side. The hoor will say that she is from the mazeed. She will be one of those blessings that Allah will add to his due reward. He has promised to give additional reward.

لَهُم مَّا يَشَآءُونَ فِيهَا وَلَدَيْنَا مَزِيدٌ

{for them shall be whatever they will and with us there is yet more} (50:35)
There is another verse on the same topic.

{For those who do good.is the best reward and an increase.} (10:26)
The exegetes have interpreted (Arabic) in the verse to mean vision of Allah, the Glorious, However, it does not rule out that more of the blessings may include the hoors of paradise. They are called (Arabic) - more because they will be given to the dwellers o paradise by Allah's favour over.and above their due reward. After admitting them to paradise whatever they get will be an additional and exclusive favour above their real, due reward.

DESIRE TO CULTIVATE CROPS

(٥٦٥٣) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يَتَحَدَّثُ وَعِنْدَهُ رَجُلٌ مِّنْ اَهْلِ الْبَادِيَةِ اِنَّ رَجُلًا مِّنْ اَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ اسْتَاْذَنَ رَبَّهُ فِي الزَّرْعِ فَقَالَ لَهُ اَلَسْتَ فِيْمَا شِئْتَ قَالَ بَلٰى وَلٰكِنِّيْ اُحِبُّ اَنْ اَزْرَعَ فَبَذَرَ فَبَادَرَ الطَّرْفَ نَبَاتُهُ وَ اسْتِوَاءُهُ وَاسْتِحْصَادُهُ فَكَانَ اَمْثَالَ الْجِبَالِ فَيَقُوْلُ اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى دُوْنَكَ يَا ابْنَ اٰدَمَ فَاِنَّهُ لَا يُشْبِعُكَ شَيْءٌ فَقَالَ الْاَعْرَابِيُّ وَاللّٰهِ لَا تَجِدُهٗ اِلَّا قُرَشِيًّا اَوْاَنْصَارِيًّا فَاِنَّهُمْ اَصْحَابُ زَرْعٍ وَاَمَّا نَحْنُ فَلَسْنَا بِاَصْحَابِ زَرْعٍ فَضَحِكَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ (رواه البخاری)

5653. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رحمه الله narrated that a villager was among the sahabah رضی الله عنهم with the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم when he said, "One of the men of paradise will seek permission of his Lord to till the land. He will ask him, "Do you not get whatever you desire?' He will confirm, 'Of course ! But, I like to engage in cultivating crops. Thus, he will sow the seed and, in an instant, it will grow, be ripe and reaped. The harvest will pile up mountain high. Allah, the Glorious, will say to him, 'O son of Aadam! Take it! (Your desire is fulfilled) Your hunger is near satiated.' The villager commented, 'By Allah, you will not find him anyone but a Quraysh or an Ansar, for only they are agriculturists. As for us, we do not till the land,' The Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم of Allah laughed.[1]

COMMENTARY: In spite of possessing uncountable blessing in paradise, man's nature to have more will not leave him even in paradise.

NO SLEEP

(٥٦٥٤) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ سَاَلَ رَجُلٌ رَّسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَيَنَامُ اَهْلُ الْجَنَّةِ قَالَ النَّوْمُ اَخُ الْمَوْتِ وَلَا يَمُوْتُ اَهْلُ الْجَنَّةِ رَوَاهُ الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِيْ شُعَبِ الْاِيْمَانِ

5654. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه narrated that a man asked Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم, "will the dwellers of paradise?" He said, "Sleep is he brother of death. And the inhabitants of paradise will not die. (So, they will not sleep, too.)[2]

CHAPTER - XIV

THE VISION OF ALLAH, THE MOST HIGH

بَابُ رُؤْيَةِ اللّٰهِ تَعَالٰى

The caption is (رؤية الله تعالى). It means to see Allah with one's open eyes. The believers will receive this good fortune and honour to see Him in the next world. This chapter will elaborate on this subject and include ahadith about it.

SEEING ALLAH IS NOT POSSIBLE LOGICALLY: It is the unanimous conviction of the ahl us sunnah wa al-jama'ah that seeing Allah is a real experience. And it is also logically correct. It is not necessary for him to be at any particular place to be able to see Him, nor is it necessary for Him to be before one who sees Him. Rather it is possible to see Him as He is in His being and as He exists, though He is without a body and not in need of place and position.

As for the scientific condition that whatever is seen with the open eyes can only be seen if it has a body, is at any particular place, is stationary and is in the path of the viewer's sight. However, these conditions apply because nature has set this kind of a working and has bound human eye sight by these stipulations to do its work. If the Omnipotent decides to let anyone see anything by passing this kind of working then certainly He can do it and it will become possible Therefore, there is nothing contrary to reasoning if Allah empowers human eyesight with heart's insight on the day of resurrection. Thus while we see and find the believers with insight today, we might find them tomorrow in the hereafter with our normal eyes in the face.

ALLAH'S VISION WILL BE IN THE HEREAFTER: The ulama say unanimously that all the believers will see Allah in the hereafter in this manner. This is confirmed by the verses of the Quran, sound ahadith, consensus of the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم and the tabi'un, and the saying of the imams in this regard. Nevertheless, here are some people who deny and reject this possibility of seeing Allah. Their point of view and interpretation of relative verses of the Quran and the sound ahadith and evidence have been discussed in different scholar books together with the strong rejoinder of the ulama.

WOMEN TOO WILL SEE ALLAH: The scholars are divided on the question whether women would be deprived of Allah's sight or not. However, the correct view is that women will not be deprived of this honour. They will see Allah as men will some scholars are of the view that woman will be permitted to see Allah only on certain days like Friday and eed days, days when it will be a general opportunity.

Those people who say that women will not be able to see Allah argue that since women will observe the veil and be secluded in their pavilions, they will not have he opportunity. They cite the verse:

{Hour is (hoors) will guarded in pavilions} (55:72)

But this opinion is untenable. The verses and ahadith pertaining to the vision of Allah do not restrict the vision to anyone. Rather, they are of a general nature respecting both men and women. Besides, it is wrong to apply the worldly standards to the hereafter and compare women's living in pavilions or tents to being secluded and veiled. The pavilion is paradise will not make the veil conditional. Furthermore, it is worth pandering how such august women as Sayyidah Fatimah رضی اللہ عنہا, Khadijah رضی اللہ عنہا, Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا and other mothers of the believers and similar prominent women who are more meritorious and greater than milliners of men will be deprived of the vision of Allah?

EVEN JINNS & ANGELS: Opinion differ about the jinns and angels too. Will they see Allah? Some authorities maintain that no angel, apart from Jibril علیہ السلام, will see Allah. Besides, he too will see Allah only once. The jinns will also not see Him. However, the correct opinion is that all the believers will see Allah, be they human beings or jinns and all the angels will see him.

VISION OF ALLAH IN THIS WORLD: This question, too is debatable - whether anyone may see Allah in this world with his open eyes in an awakening state. The learned do say that while it is possible (to see Allah in this world) yet it does not happen. Only the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم did see Allah on the right of the mi'raj though some authorities disagree that the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم saw Him on the night of mi'raj, with his eyes, but this is an altogether different question and we shall speak on it later against a hadith. Any way, all scholars agree that no one till today has seen Allah in this world, whatever his standing, and no one has claimed to have seen Him. No one can possibly see Him in future. The ulama have gone so for as to say that if anyone claims to have seen Allah in his awakening state then belie him and declare that he is misled, as some ignorant Sufis claim to have seen him. It is stated in Anwar a reliable book of the fiqh of the Shafi'is that if anyone claims, 'I see Allah with my eyes in this world and He speaks to me directly," then this men is a disbeliever.

A question does arise that while it is possible to see Allah in this world and there is no defect in human sight to prevent seeing Him then why is it that Allah cannot be seen are truly works of nature and causes of Divine creation. The sense of sight that lies in man's eyes is not the real reason and means of seeing. The sense of sight is only an outward cause that Allah has made a means of seeing. If He wishes to let anyone see then He can do it without eyes and sight and if He decides that one may not see then that person will not be able to see with his open eyes and strong eye sight. Thus a man with good sight will not see a huge mountain in front of him if Allah does not wish him to see, but a blind man on the eastern corner of the world will see a mosquito on the western corner of it, if Allah desires that he should see it. This is evidence that seeing or showing is the function of the eye within nature's arrangement, without any doubt. But this function of the eye or its potential which enables man to see is not unlimited or voluntary. It is capable only to the extent Allah enables it. It is Allah's wisdom not to let man see Him in this world, so He has denied man's sense of sight ability to see him. This should not be surmised according to the function of the world.

SEEING ALLAH IN A DREAM: Though opinion differ, yet are correct thing is that seeing Allah in a dream is not only possible but is also experienced. Besides, it is not for fetched by reasoning and experience. However, we might say that seeing Him in a dream is the heart's observation. It is an example but not a resemblance, and Allah has no resemblance though there may be an example. Anyway, it is known of pious men that they have seen Allah. Imam Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ said, "I have seen Allah one hundred times in my dreams." Imam Ahmad ibn Hanbal رحمہ اللہ said, 'I saw Allah in my dream and asked him about the deed dearest to Him. He said, 'Recitation of the Quran. I asked, 'while pondering over its meaning or without pondering over its meaning or without pondering over it?" He said that it was dear to Him either way."

These examples show that it is possible to see Allah in a dream.

(٥٦٥٥) عَنْ جَرِيْرِبْنِ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّكُمْ سَتَرَوْنَ رَبَّكُمْ عِيَانًا وَّفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ قَالَ كُنَّا جُلُوْسًا عِنْدَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَنَظَرَ اِلَى الْقَمَرِ لَيْلَةَ الْبَدْرِ فَقَالَ اِنَّكُمْ سَتَرَوْنَ رَبَّكُمْ كَمَا تَرَوْنَ هٰذَا الْقَمَرَ لَا تُضَامُوْنَ فِيْ رُؤْيَتِهٖ فَاِنِ اسْتَطَعْتُمْ اَنْ لَّا تُغْلَبُوْا عَلٰى صَلٰوةٍ قَبْلَ طُلُوْعِ الشَّمْسِ وَقَبْلَ غُرُوْبِهَا فَافْعَلُوْا ثُمَّ قَرَأَ وَسَبِّحْ بِحَمْدِ رَبِّكَ قَبْلَ طُلُوْعِ الشَّمْسِ وَقَبْلَ غُرُوْبِهَا۔ (متفق عليه)

5655. Sayyiduna Jarir ibn Abdullah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "You will indeed. See Allah with your eyes, soon (in the hereafter)." According to another version: He (Jarir) رضی الله عنه said, "We were sitting with Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم and he looked at the full moon and said, 'You will see your Lord just as you see this moon. You will have no difficulty in seeing Him. Hence, if you can do not procrastinate over the salah before the sun rises and before it sets (meaning, the fajr and asr)." Then, he recited:

وَسَبِّحْ بِحَمْدِ رَبِّكَ قَبْلَ طُلُوْعِ الشَّمْسِ وَقَبْلَ غُرُوْبِهَا

COMMENTARY: The Prophet's صلی الله علیه وسلم words, "Just as you see the moon you will see." Compare the seeing of the moon and the seeing of Allah, not what is seen. He did not mean that just as the moon is before you at its place and in a particular direction so will Allah be before you at His fixed place and toward a fixed direction. He did not mean that.

As for there being no difficulty in seeing Allah, it means that everyone will see Him. No one will be wronged and deprived. Also, the viewers will not dispute among themselves or deny each other. They will not belie anyone who has seen Allah. Besides, they will not push each other to get a view. Everyone will stay in his place and be able to see Allah peacefully without any hustle. It will be like viewing the moon of the fourteenth of the month.

Anyone who is regular in offering the salah is ore deserving of seeing Allah. The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم has said, therefore, "Salah is made the cooling of my eyes." The same importance is attached to every salah but the fajr and asr are mentioned because they have more excellence over the other salah. At the time of fajr, people are sleepy and at the time of asr, they are occupied in their diverse businesses. Besides, these two hours have more merit than the other hours of salah. Furthermore, the vision of Allah, in the hereafter will be at these two hours.

SEEING ALLAH IS THE GREATEST OF BLESSINGS

5656. Sayyiduna Suhayb رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "When the deserving of paradise enter it, Allah, the Glorious, will ask 'Do you wish for anything more (than what has been given to you)?' They will say, 'Have you not made our faces radiant? Have you not admitted us to paradise? And saved us from hell?' the screen will be removed and they will look at Allah (who is free from a form, a body, a place and a direction). They will not have been given anything dearer to them than the vision of their Lord."
Then he recited:

COMMENTARY: the screen will be removed to pacify the inhabitants of paradise who will be wondering what more blessing was being given to them.
Allah will let them see Him and this blessing would be beyond the reward due to them. Allah is the Dear One not the veiled. He is overpowering not under a screen. He is not (we seek refuge in Allah) concealed under a veil. The hadith means that the screen will be removed from the eyes of the viewers as it says thereafter, 'and they will look at Allah.'
It is a fact that all physical and spiritual degrees in this world rise and are elevated to culminate at the Divine Being. So, too, all blessings and favours in the next world reach their peak with the vision of the sacred and exalted being.

RANK OF THE PEOPLE OF PARADISE

(٥٦٥٧) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ اَدْنٰى اَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ مَنْزِلَةً لَمَنْ يَّنْظُرُ اِلٰى جِنَانِهِ وَاَزْوَاجِهِ وَنَعِيْمِهِ وَخَدَمِهِ وَسُرُرِهِ مَسِيْرَةَ اَلْفِ سَنَةٍ وَاَكْرَمَهُمْ عَلَى اللّٰهِ مَنْ يَّنْظُرُ اِلٰى وَجْهِهِ غُدْوَةً وَّعَشِيَّةً ثُمَّ قَرَاَ وُجُوْهٌ يَّوْمَئِذٍ نَّاضِرَةٌ اِلٰى رَبِّهَا نَاظِرَةٌ (رواه احمد والترمذی)

5657. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی الله عنهما narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "The humblest of the inhabitants of paradise will be of such a rank us one looking at his gardens, his wives, his blessings, his servants and his couches extending to a distance of a journey of one thousand years. The most honoured of them in the sight of Allah will look at Allah morning and evening." Then, he recited:

COMMENTARY: Allah's vision will be allowed to the people of paradise at the times of morning and evening. This means that more emphasis is placed on the salah of fajr and asr. These words could also mean that the people of paradise who are honour will look at Allah all the time (morning through evening) day and night. But, this meaning does seem proper because, if the high ranked people of paradise are engaged always in seeing Allah then they would fail to use the other lesser blessings of paradise which are also made for them. This hadith, nevertheless, teaches us that our hearts should be oriented to no one else but to the Truth, meaning Allah. If anyone diverts his attention elsewhere then it is evidence that he lacks sense.

SEEING ALLAH WILL NOT BE DIFFICULT

(٥٦٥٨) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ رَزِيْنٍ نِ الْعُقَيْلِيِّ قَالَ قُلْتُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اَكُلُّنَا يَرٰى رَبَّهٗ مُخْلِيًا بِهٖ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ قَالَ بَلٰى قَالَ قُلْتُ وَمَا اٰيَةُ ذٰلِكَ فِيْ خَلْقِهٖ قَالَ يَا اَبَا رَزِيْنَ اَلَيْسَ كُلُّكُمْ يَرَى الْقَمَرَ لَيْلَةَ الْبَدْرِ مُخْلِيًا بِهٖ قَالَ بَلٰى قَالَ فَاِنَّمَا هُوَ خَلْقٌ مِّنْ خَلْقِ اللّٰهِ وَاللّٰهُ اَجَلُّ وَاَعْظَمُ (رواه ابوداؤد)

5658. Sayyiduna Abu Razin رضی اللہ عنہ Uqayli said, "'I asked, 'O Messenger of Allah shall every one of us see his Lord all by himself on the day of resurrection?' He said, "Of course!

Abu Razin narrated further, "I asked, 'Is there a sign of that in His creation?" He put the question to me, 'O Abu Razin, does not each one of you see the moon on the fourteenth night of a lunar month, all by himself (undisturbed)?' I said, 'Of course!' He said, 'Then it is only one of the creation of Allah. And Allah is more Glorious and Mightier (so why may He not be seen undisturbed?)."[2]

ALLAH IS LIGHT

(٥٦٥٩) عَنْ اَبِيْ ذَرٍّ قَالَ سَاَلْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ هَلْ رَاَيْتَ رَبَّكَ قَالَ نُوْرٌ اَنّٰى اَرَاهُ (رواه مسلم)

5659. Sayyiduna Abu Dharr رضی اللہ عنہ said that he asked Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, 'Did you see your Lord (on the night of the ascension)?" He said, "He is Noor (light). How may I see Him?"[3]

COMMENTARY: Allah is light. This means that he has no body, needs no space, and man cannot fathom the perfectness of His Light and the greatness of His Being. Human sight cannot endure His Brilliance.

He is described as Noor in the Quran:

اَللّٰهُ نُوْرُ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَالْاَرْضِ

{Allah is Light of the heavens and the earth} (24:35)

His Brilliance spreads all over the universe. Whatever we see is because of His Light and the sun, moon and stars borrow His Light.

Allah is the Light of guidance of the universe. He guides those on earth and in the heavens. His Light of guidance brightens the hearts and minds of the creatures.

On of His names is An Noor. He Himself is clear and Brilliant and makes others seen and radiant.

The word translated:

"He is Noor (Light) How may I see Him?"

are in the Arabic: [(نورانّی اراه) – noor an naa arahu] – three words – in most of the version. But, some version have only one word for [(نورانی) noor anna] as [(نورانی) noorani] to maan, "I presume He is Noorani (Full of Light).

Ibn Maalik رحمه الله has written about this hadith that the ulama differ on whether the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saw Allah during his miraj (ascension to the heavens) with his eyes or not. Both sides – those who say that he did see Allah with his eyes and those who reject this idea – cite this very hadith to support their contention reading it in the two different ways that we have just shown. The reason is:

(i) With the three word (نورانّی اراه) – He is Light. How many I see Him, the rhetoric answer would suggest, 'He is Light, NO human eye can look at Him, so I say that I did not see Him on the night of the miraj.

(ii) But, with the two words (نورانی اراه) – 'He is Light, I presume, it is established that the prophet did see Allah on the night of the miraj. He used the present continuous tense to relate a past event.

EXPLANATION OF A VERSE

(٥٦٦٠) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ مَا كَذَبَ الْفُؤَادُ مَارَاٰى وَلَقَدْ رَاٰهُ نَزْلَةً اُخْرٰى قَالَ رَاٰهُ بِفُؤَادِهٖ مَرَّتَيْنِ رَوَاهُ مُسْلِمٌ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةِ التِّرْمِذِيِّ قَالَ رَاٰى مُحَمَّدٌ رَبَّهٗ قَالَ عِكْرَمَةُ قُلْتُ اَلَيْسَ اللّٰهُ يَقُوْلُ لَا تُدْرِكُهُ الْاَبْصَارُ وَهُوَ يُدْرِكُ الْاَبْصَارَ قَالَ وَيْحَكَ ذٰلِكَ اِذَا تَجَلّٰى بِنُوْرِهِ الَّذِيْ هُوَ نُوْرُهٗ وَقَدْ رَاٰى رَبَّهٗ مَرَّتَيْنِ۔

5660.Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه explained the verse:

(The heart lied not of what he saw. And certainly he saw Him yet another time) (53:11,13) He said, "He saw Him twice with the eye of the heart."[1]

According to another version, he said, "Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم saw his Lord, "(explaining the foregoing verse). So, Ikrimah رضى الله عنه asked, "Does not Allah say:

لَا تُدْرِكُهُ الْاَبْصَارُ وَهُوَ يُدْرِكُ الْاَبْصَارَ

(Version comprehends him not, but He comprehends all vision)?" (6:102)

Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه said, "Woe to you! That is when He appears in His Light which in His own essential Light. There is no doubt that Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم has seen his Lord two times."[2] surah an-Najm. The exegetes disagree about application of these verses; who do they refer? Some of the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم and other say that he saw Jibril علیہ السلام in his real form twice. Some others hold that these verses of an Najm say that he saw Allah.

COMMENTARY: The verses that Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه has explained in this hadith pertain to

Allah enable the heart of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم to see as an eye and enabled his eye to grasp as a heart grasps Hence, it is the same whether he saw Allah with the eye of his heart or the eye on his face. This will accommodate both opinions of the exegetes like Ibn Abbas and others who maintain that he saw Allah during the miraj with his eyes and others who say that he saw Allah with the eyes of his heart.

As for seeing Allah or Jibril علیہ السلام Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ says that he saw Allah. Many others agree with him.

Imam Nawawi رحمہ اللہ concludes that most of the ulama say that on the might of the miraj, the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم saw Allah with his own eyes. But, Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا and Ibn mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ and other contend that the Prophet saw Jibril علیہ السلام in his real form - one dewing the miraj when they were together and before that in Makkah.

CONVERSED WITH ALLAH: The ulama also disagree whether during the mi'raj the prophet (e0 spoke to Allah directly or not.

As for the words: 'when He appears with His own Light. Only when Allah enables any one may he see Allah in His essential Light. As for the worse cited by Ikrimah رضی اللہ عنہ the ulama say that it mentions idraak (ادراک) which is to see anything from all angles comprehensively. Obviously, there is no limit for Allah and no sides. His Being is not dependant on such things, so, in this sense, no sight can encompass Him. Therefore this verse rejects the ability to comprehend Him and it does not reject ability to see Him, which means that this verse cannot be cited to say that the eyes are unable to see Allah and the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم did not see Allah during the miraj.

The next words that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم saw Allah twice are explained by some scholars to mean:

(i) He saw Allah once near the sidıatul muntaha and

(ii) He saw him again on the Throne.

Mulla Ali Qari رحمہ اللہ writes that it is possible that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم saw Allah both the time with the eye of his heart and once with his eye on his face. This variant meaning in given because none of the ahadith not even this one – says explicitly that he saw Allah with his eyes twice.

DID THE PROPHET صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم SEE ALLAH DURING THE MI'RAJ

5661. Sayyiduna Sha'bi رحمه الله narrated that Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه met Sayyiduna Ka'b رضى الله عنه at ARafah and asked Him about something (that is, can one see Allah in this world and he began to call the takbir (Allahu Akbar) till it echoed from the mountains. Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه said, "We are children of Hashimi." Ka'b رضى الله عنه said, "Indeed, Allah divided His vision and speech between Muhammad رضى الله عنه and Musa عليه السلام. Musa عليه السلام conversed with Him twice (in the velley Ayman and on the mount Tur) and Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم saw him twice (during the miraj).
Masruq رحمه الله said that he went to Sayyidah Ayshah and Asked her, "Did Muhammad see his Lord?" She said, "You have said something that makes my hair stand on ends.!" (I believe that no one can see Allah in this world). He said, "Be patient (let me first make my point clear.)" Then, he recited:

لَقَدْ رَاٰى مِنْ اٰيٰتِ رَبِّهِ الْكُبْرٰى

(He thought that the greatest sign was the vision of Allah)
She asked, "Where are you senses? That was only Jibril. And, who did tell you that Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم saw his Lord? (Rather, that greatest sign was seeing Jibril عليه السلام in his real form). Or (who did tell you) that Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم concealed something from his ummah of what Allah had commanded him? Or (who did tell you) that Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم knew the five thin of which Allah says:

اِنَّ اللّٰهَ عِنْدَهٗ عِلْمُ السَّاعَةِ وَيُنَزِّلُ الْغَيْثَ

{Surely the knowledge of the Hour is with Allah alone, and He sends down the rain..} (3134)
That man lies. But, of course, Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم did see Jibril عليه السلام and he did see him in his real form only twice – at the sidratul munhtaha and at Aiyad He has six hundred wings that covered the horizon."[1]
According to another version (of Bukhari & Muslim) there is an addition and some difference. Another version (of Muslim) is:
Masruq رحمه الله asked Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها "Then (if it is an you say) what abut Allah's words:

ثُمَّ دَنٰى فَتَدَلّٰى فَكَانَ قَابَ قَوْسَيْنِ اَوْ اَدْنٰى

{Then he drew high and hung down suspended till he was within two bows length or even nearer.} (53:8-9)

She said, "That was JIbril عليه السلام who used to come to him in human form (mostly in the likeness of Dihya kabi رضی الله عنه a sahabi). On this occasion, however, he come to him (at Ayyad, a suburb of Makkah) in his own appearance which was his (created original) formed an angel. So (because of his wings) he covered the horizon."[1]

COMMENTARY: Ibn Abbas pointed out that they were children of Hashim to which the prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم and belonged. They were learned and distinguished and also had greater opportunity to acquire more knowledge and understanding from the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم because they were nearer to him. So, he indicated to Ka'b رضی الله عنه that he would not put an unnecessary unworthy question. In the beginning Ka'b رضی الله عنه may have presumed that Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه had asked about the vision of Allah for everyone but then he realized that he was serious and had asked about seeing Allah in a limited sense. So, he gave the answer that the vision of Allah was possible only by the prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم and he got the opportunity during the miraj.

Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها also asked Masruk رضی الله عنه if anyone had alleged that the prophet had concealed any part of Allah's commands or message. But, he was responsible to convey them to the people. This is as the Quran says:

يٰاَيُّهَا الرَّسُوْلُ بَلِّغْ مَآ اُنْزِلَ اِلَيْكَ مِنْ رَّبِّكَ وَاِنْ لَّمْ تَفْعَلْ فَمَا بَلَّغْتَ رِسَالَتَهٗ

{O Messenger, convey that which has been revealed to you from your Lord. And, if you do it not you will not have conveyed His Message.} (5:67)

Hence, the implication of concealing is g eneral, like all the commands and (Shari'ah) law, or some of them. This gives the lie to the idea of the Shi'as that there are some commands and law that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم restricted for the ahl ul bayt of his house or his family) ahl did not enlarge their scope to the entire ummah.

Masruq)رحمه الله asked Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها that if her opinion was to be respected then who she thought was referred to in the verses of an Najm (53:8-11) concerning the meaning of which the sahabah رضی الله عنهم and other differed.

ثُمَّ دَنَا فَتَدَلّٰى ٭ فَكَانَ قَابَ قَوْسَيْنِ اَوْ اَدْنٰى ٭ فَاَوْحٰٓى اِلٰى عَبْدِهٖ مَآ اَوْحٰى ٭ مَا كَذَبَ الْفُؤَادُ مَا رَاٰى

{Then he drew nigh and hung down suspended till he was within two bows length or even nearer Thus did (Allah) reveal to His servant (Muahammad) that which He revealed. The heart lied not of what he saw} (53:8-11)

Masruq contended that the pronoun in (دنی) 'he drew' reverts to Allah (He drew), in (تدلی) 'he hung down,' in (قاب قوسین) 'he was within ..... and in (ادنی) 'or nearer.'

And this is an apparent conclusion in the word (فاوحی) 'He (Allah) did reveal, and it is certainly so.

This is what made Masruq express his doubts: do not here verse prove that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم had seen Allah on the night of the mi'raj?

Sayyiduna Ayshah رضی الله عنها explained to him that the pronouns of the verbs do not revert to Allah at all. Rather, they refer to Jibril علیه السلام Hence, it is not correct to believe that these verses prove that t eh Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم has seen Allah. She further convinced him by telling him about Jibril علیه السلام:

كَانَ ياتيه في صورة الرَّجُلِ ...... الخ

(he used to come to him in the body of a man. In this way she forestalled his argument that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to see jibril عليه السلام regularly, so why say in these tones that he saw him on the night of the miraj?' She made it clear that Jibril عليه السلام used to meet the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in human from but he met him in his real form as an angel only twice, once in the very early days of prophet hood in Makah with six hundred wings on him that had eclipsed the horizon and the second time in the same original form on the right of the miraj near sidratul muntaha.

DEDUCTION OF IBN ABBAS رضى الله عنه: Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه deduced from the saying of Sayyiduna Ka'b رضى الله عنه that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did see Allah twice on the night of the mi'raj with his open eyes or with the eyes of his heart, or once with the eyes on his face and once with the eyes of his heart, but it is agreed that he did not see Allah with the eyes on his face (or open eyes) twice. Allah Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها denies that he saw Allah on the night of the miraj. Her denial may be considered either an outright denial, or a conditional denial.

An outright denial means that she rejects emphatically that the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ever aw Allah, not with his eye and not with his heart.

A conditional denial means that she rejects his seeing with his eyes, but not his heart. However, her denial seems to be on outright denial.

Hafiz Ibn Hajar رحمه الله said that the conflicting opinions of Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه and Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها may be reconciled by saying that she rejects the seeing with the eye and he upholds the seeing with the heart's eye. But seeing with the eye of the heart is not a new insight. Because the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم possessed knowledge and awareness of Allah's Being at all times and there is no point in associating it with the night of mi'raj done. Hence, seeing with the eyes of the heart would mean that on this particular occasion, Allah created in the heart of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that very sight which the eyes possess and he got the vision of Allah through his heart in the some away as anyone get sight of something else through his normal eyes.

(٥٦٦٢، ٥٦٦٣) وَعَنِ ابْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ فِيْ قَوْلِهٖ فَكَانَ قَابَ قَوْسَيْنِ اَوْ اَدْنٰى وَفِيْ قَوْلِهٖ مَا كَذَبَ الْفُؤَادُ مَارَاٰى وَفِيْ قَوْلِهٖ لَقَدْ رَاٰى مِنْ اٰيَاتِ رَبِّهِ الْكُبْرٰى قَالَ فِيْهَا كُلِّهَا رَاٰى جِبْرَئِيْلَ لَهٗ سِتُّمِائَةِ جَنَاحٍ مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةِ التِّرْمِذِيِّ قَالَ مَا كَذَبَ الْفُؤَادُ مَارَاٰى قَالَ رَاٰى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ جِبْرَئِيْلَ فِيْ حُلَّةٍ مِّنْ رَفْرَفٍ قَدْ مَلَاَ مَا بَيْنَ السَّمَآءِ وَالْاَرْضِ وَلَهٗ وَلِلْبُخَارِيِّ فِيْ قَوْلِهٖ وَلَقَدْ رَاٰى مِنْ اٰيَاتِ رَبِّهِ الْكُبْرٰى قَالَ رَاٰى رَفْرَفًا اَخْضَرَسَدَّ اُفُقَ السَّمَآءِ وَسُئِلَ مَالِكُ ابْنُ اَنَسٍ عَنْ قَوْلِهٖ تَعَالٰى اِلٰى رَبِّهَا نَاظِرَةٌ فَقِيْلَ قَوْمٌ يَقُوْلُوْنَ اِلٰى ثَوَابِهٖ فَقَالَ مَالِكٌ كَذَبُوْا فَاَيْنَ هُمْ عَنْ قَوْلِهٖ تَعَالٰى كَلَّا اِنَّهُمْ عَنْ رَّبِّهِمْ يَوْمَئِذٍ لَّمَحْجُوْبُوْنَ قَالَ مَالِكٌ اَلنَّاسُ يَنْظُرُوْنَ اِلَى اللّٰهِ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ بِاَعْيُنِهِمْ وَقَالَ لَوْ لَمْ يَرَ الْمُؤْمِنُوْنَ رَبَّهُمْ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ لَمْ يُعَيِّرِ اللّٰهُ

5662. Sayyiduna Ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ said about Allah's words:

فَكَانَ قَابَ قَوْسَيْنِ

{till he was within two bows length or even nearer...} (53:9)

and Allah's words:

مَا كَذَبَ الْفُؤَادُ مَارَاى

{The heart lied not of what he saw) (53:11)

and Allah words:

لَقَدْ رَاى مِنْ ايَاتِ رَبِّهِ الْكُبْرَى

{Certainly he saw of the greatest sings of his Lord} (53:18)

- that the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم saw Jibril علیہ السلام (in his original body), and he had six hundred wings.

According to another version by Tirmidhi, he said about:

مَا كَذَبَ الْفُؤَادُ مَارَاى

{The heart lied not of what he saw} (53:11)

- that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم saw JIbril علیہ السلام dressed in silk garment, his body having occupied all the space between heaven and earth.

According to another version by Tirmidhi and Bukhari, he said about Allah's words:

{And certainly he saw of the greatest signs of his Lord...} (53:18)

- that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم saw a fire green silk (wearing body). If obscured the horizon in the sky.[1]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ said about the initial verses of surah an-Najm that the pronouns in certain words refer (not to Allah but to Jibril علیہ السلام (see comments to previous hadith # 5661 about Mushriq contention and Sayyidah Ayshah's رضی اللہ عنہا response). The mean that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had seen JIbril علیہ السلام. And not Allah had drawn nearer, s Ibn Abas رضی اللہ عنہ presumed.

Thus the explanatiɔn nof Ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ is similar to that of Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا about those verses and reproduced in the comments to the previous hadith (# 5661). The caliber of Ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ is recognized and the ulama say that after the righteous caliphs, he was the most learned of all the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہ.

Anyway, it is clear that the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم too were not of one mind on whether the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم saw Allah on the night of the mi'raj or not. Some of them were of the some opinion as Sayyidah Ayshash رضی اللہ عنہ that he had not seen Allah some others upheld the opinion of Sayyiduna Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ that he did see Allah. After them the tabi'un and later generation continued in their footsteps. Some more did not express any opinion either side. Some of them contend that neither side has substantial evidence so it is wise to leave the question undecided. Only Allah known the facts.

The majority of the ulama, however, maintain that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did see Allah with his eyes on the right of the mi'raj shaykh Muhy ud din Nawawi رضى الله عنه affirms that most ulama subscribe to this view and he says that it was confirmed only after hearing from it from the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها did not deduce from the hadith nor had heard from the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم anything about it. Whatever she said she depended on her understanding of these verses of the Quran.

{And it is not (vouchsafed) to a mortal that Allah should speak to him except by revelation, or from behind a veil} (42:57)

لَا تُدْرِكُهُ الْأَبْصَارُ وَهُوَ يُدْرِكُ الْأَبْصَارَ

{version comprehends him not, but He comprehends all vision} (6:103)

She made an independent deduction on the basis of these verses.

The ulama, on the other hand, say that the denial in the first of the two verses above (ماكان بشر ان يكلمه الله..) is a denial of seeing Allah complemented with conversation with him. It certainly does not deny seeing Him without talking to Him at the same time. The second verse (لاتدركه الابصار..) concerns comprehending Him. Clearly, not comprehending Him is not the some as not seeing Allah.

Some other ulama also say that on this question the contention of ibn Abbas R) is reliable and stronger. It is certain that he had heard it from the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

It is reported that Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه asked Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه about it and discussed it with him in detail and asked him, " Had Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم really seen Allah?" Ibn Abbas صلى الله عليه وسلم answered his questions very confidentially and with strong evidences, and said, "Yes, he did see Allah!"

Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه accepted the opinion of Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه He did not entertain any doubt had no none questions.

Umar ibn Raashid رحمه الله said "We say that Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها did not possess more knowledge that ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه (Therefore, the opinion of Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه will prevail over hers.)"

Moreover, the shaykhs of the Sufis also subscribe to the belief that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has seen Allah.

5663. Sayyiduna Maalik ibn Anas رضى الله عنه was asked the words of Allah, eh Glorious:

إِلَىٰ رَبِّهَا نَاظِرَةٌ

{Looking towards their Lord} (75:23)

He was also told that some people (Like the Mu'tazillah and other innovators) said that this verse means (by working towards their Lord) not looking at Allah but looking to His reward. Maalik رحمه الله said, "They lie. Then what do they say of Allah's words:

كَلَّآ إِنَّهُمۡ عَن رَّبِّهِمۡ يَوۡمَئِذٍ لَّمَحۡجُوبُونَ

{Nay, surely on that Day they shall be veiled} (83:15)

Maalik رحمه الله said, "The (believing) people will see Allah with their eyes on the day of resurrection."

He also said, "If it was that the believers would not see their Lord (Allah) on the day of resurrection, Allah would not have reminded the disbelievers that they wer deprived of His vision and He would not have said:

COMMENTARY: Imam Maalik رحمه الله was told that some people believed that the verse (75:23) spoke of looking at Allah's reward, like paradise and the blessings therein, but not looking to Allah. He said that such people were wrong. They did not interpret the verse correctly though it is very clear. He reminded them at the verse (83:15) in which the infidels are told that will not see Allah but will be prevented form it. If that is so then it is clear that the believers will see Allah.

If he.believers were not to see Allah then the disbelievers would not have been told that they would be deprived of Allah's sight

In the hereafter, the severest punishment that will be awarded to the disbelievers will be that they will be deprived of seeing Allah. They will lament this deprival for ever. In contrast, the believers will be happy at receiving the greatest blessing sight of Allah.

NATURE OF VISION OF ALLAH

(٥٦٦٤) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بَيْنَا أَهْلُ الْجَنَّةِ فِي نَعِيْمِهِمْ إِذْ سَطَعَ لَهُمْ نُوْرٌ فَرَفَعُوْا رُؤُسَهُمْ فَإِذَا الرَّبُّ قَدْ أَشْرَفَ عَلَيْهِمْ مِنْ فَوْقِهِمْ فَقَالَ السَّلَامُ عَلَيْكُمْ يَا أَهْلَ الْجَنَّةِ قَالَ وَذٰلِكَ قَوْلُهُ تَعَالٰى سَلَامٌ قَوْلًا مِّنْ رَّبٍّ الرَّحِيْمِ قَالَ فَنَظَرَ إِلَيْهِمْ وَيَنْظُرُوْنَ إِلَيْهِ فَلَا يَلْتَفِتُوْنَ إِلٰى شَيْءٍ مِّنَ النَّعِيْمِ مَادَامُوْا يَنْظُرُوْنَ إِلَيْهِ حَتّٰى يَحْتَجِبَ عَنْهُمْ وَيَبْقٰى نُوْرُهُ (رواه ابن ماجة)

5664. Sayyiduna Jabir رضي الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "while the dwellers of paradise will be occupied with their blessings (that they have earned), suddenly a light will spread out before them. They will raise their heads and see that their Lord is above them and book down on them. He will say, 'As salaamualaykum (peace be on you), O dwellers at paradise." That is known from the words of Allah, the Exalted (in he Quran:

{Peace shall be the word from the Lord Merciful} (36:58)

Then, He will look at them and they will look at Him. They (will be so observed in looking at Him that they) will not turn towards any of their blessing (in paradise) as long as they look at Him till He makes himself invisible to them and His light will subsist."[1]

COMMENTARY: Allah will remain before then as long as He wishes. Then He will put a veil before their eyes. But, the light of His glory will keep before their sight and their delight at having seen Him will subsist. If he remains before them always then that would beyond their ability to see Him continuously. They will need some time to adjust themselves back to their normal condition and turn to other blessing in paradise till they are favoured once again with the greatest blessing - Allah's sight.

CHAPTER - XV

DESCRIPTION OF HELL & ITS INMATES[2] بَابُ صِفَةِ النَّارِ وَأَهْلِهَا

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

HEAT OF THE FIRE OF HELL

(٥٦٦٥) عَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ نَارُكُمْ جُزْءٌ مِّنْ سَبْعِيْنَ جُزْءًا مِّنْ نَّارِ جَهَنَّمَ قِيْلَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ فُضِّلَتْ عَلَيْهِنَّ بِتِسْعَةٍ وَسِتِّيْنَ جُزْءًا كُلُّهُنَّ مِثْلُ حَرِّهَا مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ وَاللَّفْظُ لِلْبُخَارِيِّ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةِ مُسْلِمٍ نَارُكُمُ الَّتِيْ يُوْقِدُ ابْنُ اٰدَمَ فِيْهَا عَلَيْهَا وَكُلُّهَا بَدَلَ عَلَيْهِنَّ وَكُلُّهُنَّ

5665. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger (صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم) said, "Your fire (in the world) is a seventieth part of the fire of hell. He was asked, "O Messenger of Allah, this fire (that we have) was sufficient (as it is why was more needed)?" He said, "that fire (of hell) is sixty nine times stronger than this fire, each part of it is like the fire of this world." (This is from Bukhari and the other version by Muslim is:

"Your fire that the son of Aadam علیہ السلام kindles (is one seventieth.....) this version has (علیها) and (کلها) instead of (علیهن) and (کلهن), meaning feminine singular pronouns instead of feminine plural pronouns.[3]

COMMENTARY: The fire of hell is hotter that the world's fire by seventy degrees. It could also be many more degrees and the word seventy may have been used to denote 'unlimited.' When someone suggested that the fire of the world was sufficient to (burn and) punish, the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم repeated his worlds, His intention was to say that Allah's punishment is more severe and should be distinct for the sinner to be warned.

HELL WILL BE PULLED BY SEVENTY THOUSAND HALTERS

زِمَامٍ مَعَ كُلِّ زِمَامٍ سَبْعُوْنَ اَلْفَ مَلَكٍ يَجُرُّوْنَهَا(رواه مسلم)

5666. Sayyiduna Ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "This day (meaning on the day of resurrection) hell will be brought (from where Allah has created it). It will have seventy thousand reins, each of which will be pulled by seventy thousand angels."[1]

COMMENTARY: Millions of angels will bring h ell to the masher between the gathering and paradise. The sirat will be erected above it as the only means to go to paradise. When it is brought, it will demonstrate its fury its fury and wish to swallow everyone. The angels will check it otherwise it would spare no one, not believer not infidel.

LIGHTEST PUNISHMENT IN HELL

5667. Sayyiduna Nu'man ibn Bashir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, 'The one who will receive the least punishment in hell will be made to wear a pair of sandals with thongs made of fire. His brain will cook up in the same way as a cooking pot boils. He will suppose that no one else is punished more severely than he although the punishment inflicted on him will be the lightest."[2]

COMMENTARY: This hadith is evidence that the people of hell will receive different degrees of punishment.

ABU TALIB'S FATE

(٥٦٦٨) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَهْوَنُ اَهْلِ النَّارِ عَذَابًا اَبُوْطَالِبٍ وَّهُوَ مُتَنَعِّلٌ بِنَعْلَيْنِ يَغْلِيْ مِنْهُمَا دِمَاغُهٗ(رواه البخاری)

5668. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Of the inmates of hell, the one who will be given the lightest punishment will be Abu Talib. He will be made to put on two sandals (of fire) wit h which his brain will boil."[3]

COMMENTARY: Abu Talib was the paternal uncle of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. He was very kind and helpful to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. He did not embrace Islam but, as long as he lived, he Protected the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم from the persecution of the infidels. Therefore, he will have his punishment mitigated in hell.

WILL FORGET COMFORT & GRIEF OF THE WORLD

فَيُصْبَغُ فِي النَّارِ صُبْغَةً ثُمَّ يُقَالُ يَاابْنَ اٰدَمَ هَلْ رَاَيْتَ خَيْرًا قَطُّ هَلْ مَرَّبِكَ نَعِيْمٌ قَطُّ فَيَقُوْلُ لَا وَاللّٰهِ يَا رَبِّ وَيُؤْتٰى بِاَشَدِّ النَّاسِ بُؤْسًا فِي الدُّنْيَا مِنْ اَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ فَيُصْبَغُ صِبْغَةً فِي الْجَنَّةِ فَيُقَالُ لَهُ يَا ابْنَ اٰدَمَ هَلْ رَاَيْتَ بُؤْسًا قَطُّ وَهَلْ مَرَّبِكَ شِدَّةٌ قَطُّ فَيَقُوْلُ لَا وَاللّٰهِ يَارَبِّ مَا مَرَّبِيْ بُؤْسٌ قَطُّ وَلَا رَاَيْتُ شِدَّةً قَطُّ (رواه مسلم)

5669. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "On the day of resurrection, that person will be brought who had lived the most luxurious life in the world. He will be given a dip in hell (and brought at). Then, he will be asked, 'O son of Aadam, have you ever had a good life? Has any good come your way anytime? He will say, 'No by Allah, my Lord, no!' Than, from those who are eligible of paradise, one such will be brought forward who had suffered most grief in the world and will be given a dip in paradise and then he will be asked, 'O son of Aadam have you ever gone through misery? Has difficult life been your let? He will say, 'No by Allah, my hand, distress has not come my way and I have names seen hardship,' (This means they will forget their luxury or hardship when they experience even a simple punishment in hell or an ordinary blessing in paradise).

COMMENTARY: The dweller of paradise will experience a high degree of happiness, so he will give a lengthy response. The inmate of hell will give a brief answer and keep quit.

WARNING TO POLYTHEISTS

(٥٦٧٠) وَعَنْهُ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ يَقُوْلُ اللّٰهُ لِاَهْوَنِ اَهْلِ النَّارِ عَذَابًا يَوْمَ الْقِيٰمَةِ لَوْ اَنَّ لَكَ مَافِي الْاَرْضِ مِنْ شَيْءٍ اَكُنْتَ تَفْتَدِيْ بِهٖ فَيَقُوْلُ نَعَمْ فَيَقُوْلُ اَرَدْتُّ مِنْكَ اَهْوَنَ مِنْ هٰذَا وَاَنْتَ فِيْ صُلْبِ اٰدَمَ اَنْ لَّا تُشْرِكَ بِيْ شَيْئًا فَاَبَيْتَ اِلَّا اَنْ تُشْرِكَ بِيْ (متفق عليه)

5670.Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said 'On the day of resurrection, Allah will ask him who is among the least punished. 'If you possess all that is in the earth, will you pay it to ransom yourself (today)?' He will say, 'Yes I will.' Allah will say, 'I had asked you for something lesser than that when you were in the loins of Aadam (I had asked) that you should not ascribe anything as My partner but you persisted in ascribing partners to Me."[1]

COMMENTARY: The translation is a literal reproduction of the Arabic when Allah says that He had asked for something lesser ... But, Mazhari رحمہ اللہ says that here the word (اردت منک) means 'commanded.' 'I had commanded you....'

Teebi رحمہ اللہ says that it concerns the (میثاق) (mithaq) or the covenant of which the Quran says:

This is confirmed by a hadith Qudsi:

وَاَنْتَ فِيْ صُلْبِ اٰدَمَ

(And you were in the loins of Aadam).[1]
But, you persist ed (ascribing partners) means you broke the covenant.

DIFFERENT DEGREE OF CHASTISEMENT

(٥٦٧١) وَعَنْ سَمُرَةَ بْنِ جُنْدُبٍ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مِنْهُمْ مَّنْ تَأْخُذُهُ النَّارُ إِلَى كَعْبَيْهِ وَمِنْهُمْ مَّنْ تَأْخُذُهُ النَّارُ إِلَى رُكْبَتَيْهِ وِمِنْهُمْ مَّنْ تَأْخُذُهُ النَّارُ إِلَى حُجْزَتِهِ وَمِنْهُمْ مَّنْ تَأْخُذُهُ النَّارُ إِلَى تَرْقُوَتِهِ(رواه مسلم)

5671. Sayyiduna Samrah ibn Jundub رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said (about the denizens of hell), "There will be among them whom the fire shall seize up to his ankles, whom the fire shall seize up to his knees, whom the fire shall seize up to his waist and whom the fire shall seize u to his neck."[2]

COMMENTARY: This hadith confirms that the inmates of hell will receive different degrees of punishment. This will depend on the evil deeds that they has perpetrated.

THE BODIES OF THE INMATES OF HELL

(٥٦٧٢) وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَابَيْنَ مَنْكِبَي الْكَافِرِ فِي النَّارِ مَسِيْرَةُ ثَلٰثَةِ أَيَّامٍ لِلرَّاكِبِ الْمُسْرِعِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ ضِرْسُ الْكَافِرِ مِثْلُ أُحُدٍ وَغِلَظُ جِلْدِهٖ مَسِيْرَةُ ثَلٰثٍ رَوَاهُ مُسْلِمٌ وَذُكِرَ حَدِيْثُ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ اِشْتَكَتِ النَّارُ إِلَى رَبِّهَا فِيْ بَابِ تَعْجِيْلِ الصَّلٰوةِ

5672. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said. 'The distance between the shoulders of an infidel in hell will be (like) a journey of three day s by a swift rider."
According to an other version: "The molar tooth of an infidel (in hell) ride of his skin will be t hick like a journey of three nights."[3]

COMMENTARY: While this hadith says that the people of hell will be crapulent, another says that in the gathering place, the arrogant will bought like tiny ants with human faces and they will be driven to the prison. However, the arrogant will be the believers who will have committed sin while this hadith under discussion speaks of the disbelievers.
Another interpretation which is more correct is that in the place of gathering they will be brought like tiny ants to be trampled under feet. Thereafter their bodies will revert to their original condition when they are cast into hell where their bodies will become unusually bulky and large. In this way, they will suffer utmost punishment.

وَذُكِرَ حَدِيْثُ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ اِشْتَكَتِ النَّارُ إِلَى رَبِّهَا فِيْ بَابِ تَعْجِيْلِ الصَّلٰوةِ

And the hadith of Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ about hell complaining...is at # 590.

THE FIRE OF HELL

(٥٦٧٣) عَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اُوْقِدَ عَلَى النَّارِ اَلْفَ سَنَةٍ حَتّٰى اَحْمَرَّتْ ثُمَّ اُوْقِدَ عَلَيْهَا اَلْفَ سَنَةٍ حَتّٰى ابْيَضَّتْ ثُمَّ اُوْقِدَ عَلَيْهَا اَلْفَ سَنَةٍ حَتّٰى اسْوَدَّتْ فَهِيَ سَوْدَآءُ مُظْلِمَةٌ (رواه الترمذی)

5673. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "The fire of hell was let to burn for one thousand years till it flowed red. Then, it was left to burn for one thousand years till it turned white. Then, it was kept burning for one thousand years till it become black so, it is pitch black, dark."[1]

COMMENTARY: When a fire burns for a very long time, it turns white after becoming very clear and strong. The redness before that is because of the smoke.

The hadith is evidence that hell exists. The ahlu sunah wa al jama'ah have this conviction. But the mu'tazillah contend that hell is not created yet. The evidence of the ahl us sunah wa al jamə'ah is the verse of the Quran.

واتَّقُوا النَّارَ الَّتِيْٓ اُعِدَّتْ لِلْكَافِرِيْنَ

{And fear t eh fire that has been prepared for the disbelievers} (3:131)

The word (اعدت) 'prepared' in this verse is used in the past tense.

BODIES OF INFIDELS IN HELL

(٥٦٧٤) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ضِرْسُ الْكَافِرِ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ مِثْلُ اُحُدٍ وَ فَخِذُهٗ مِثْلُ الْبَيْضَآءِ وَمَقْعَدُهٗ مِنَ النَّارِ مَسِيْرَةُ ثَلٰثٍ مِّثْلُ الرَّبَذَةِ (رواه الترمذی)

5674. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "On the day of resurrection, the molar tooth of the infidel will be like the (mount) Uhut. His thigh will be like (the mountain) Bayda. And, his seat in hell like a journey of three days, like ar-Rabdah."[2]

COMMENTARY: Rabdhah was a suburb of Madinah about three days journey from it near Dhat Arq. The disbelievers will be so large that they will need a place to sit as the distance between Madinah and Rabdhah.

(٥٦٧٥) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ غِلَظَ جِلْدِ الْكَافِرِ اثْنَانِ وَاَرْبَعُوْنَ ذِرَاعًا وَاِنَّ ضِرْسَهٗ مِثْلُ اُحُدٍ وَاِنَّ مَجْلِسَهٗ مِنْ جَهَنَّمَ مَابَيْنَ مَكَّةَ وَ الْمَدِيْنَةِ (رواه الترمذی)

5675. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "The skin of a disbeliever (in hell) will be as thick as forty two ambits. His molar tooth will be like (the mount) Uhud, and his seat in hell will be like the distance between Makkah and Madinah."[3]

COMMENTARY: According to one hadith forty-two cubits are described as forty two hands long, the hand being (بذراع الجبار) of a bulky tall man.

[2] 2378 (2387).

The difference between this hadith and the previous in the distance occupied by the seat of a disbeliever is because of the difference in the punishment awarded to them. This is a as explained by Ibn Hajar. The infidel who is liable to amore severe punishment will be huge person and will occupy much space. The infidel who is liable to a lesser punishment will be a smaller person. The same argument will apply to their hides and other things. The more huge a person the more pain he will feel when punished.

(٥٦٧٦) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ الْكَافِرَ لَيَسْحَبُ لِسَانَهُ الْفَرْسَخَ وَ الْفَرْسَخَيْنِ يَتَوَطَّأُهُ النَّاسُ رَوَاهُ أَحْمَدُ وَالتِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

5676. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The infidel will drag his tongue (in hell) one league and two leagues. People will tread on it. (They will walk on it).[1]

MOUNTAIN IN HELL

(٥٦٧٧) وَعَنْ أَبِيْ سَعِيْدٍ عَنْ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ الصَّعُوْدُ جَبَلٌ مِّنَ النَّارِ يُتَصَعَّدُ فِيْهِ سَبْعِيْنَ خَرِيْفًا وَّيُهْوٰى بِهٖ كَذٰلِكَ فِيْهِ أَبَدًا (رواه الترمذی)

5677. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "As-Sa'ud is a mountain in hell. On it, the infidel will be made to ascent for seventy years and made to fall down it (for seventy years). And, this will go on for ever. (He will be made to climb and then made to fall down)."[2]

The mountain is mentioned in the Quran:

(سارهقه صعودا) [I will compel him to climb (the mountain).] (74:17)

FOOD OF THE PEOPLE OF HELL

(٥٦٧٨) وَعَنْهُ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ فِيْ قَوْلِهٖ كَالْمُهْلِ أَيْ كَعَكَرِ الزَّيْتِ فَإِذَا قُرِّبَ إِلٰى وَجْهِهٖ سَقَطَتْ فَرْوَةُ وَجْهِهٖ فِيْهِ (رواه الترمذی)

5678. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said about the words of Allah:

إِنَّ شَجَرَةَ الزَّقُّوْمِ طَعَامُ الْأَثِيْمِ كَالْمُهْلِ يَغْلِيْ فِي الْبُطُوْنِ

[like the sediment of oil] (18:29, 44:45, 70:8)

"It is like the sediment of olive oil. When it is brought before the face of one (of the dwellers of hell), the skin of his face will peel off into it."[3]

HOT WATER FOR PUNISHMENT

حَتّٰى يَخْلُصَ إِلٰى جَوْفِهٖ فَيَسْلُتَ مَا فِي جَوْفِهٖ حَتّٰى يَمْرُقَ مِنْ قَدَمَيْهِ وَهُوَ الصَّهْرُ ثُمَّ يُعَادُ كَمَا كَانَ (رواه الترمذی)

5679. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Hot water will be poured on the heads of those in hell. It will sep into their belly and burn everything inside, inside, the flow down to and out of their feet. This is sahr (melting). Then they will be restored to what they were."[1]

COMMENTARY: The word sahr means to melt and to dissolve. It is used in this verse of the Quran:

يُصَبُّ مِنْ فَوْقِ رُؤُسِهِمُ الْحَمِيْمُ يُصْهَرُ بِهٖ مَا فِيْ بُطُوْنِهِمْ وَالْجُلُوْدُ

{whereby shall be melted what is in their belies and (also) their skins.} (22:20)

The inmates of hell will be subjected to this punishment of hot water continuously. Every time their bodies burn down, they will be restored and the punishment will be resumed to them. This is confirmed by the Qurani:

كُلَّمَا نَضِجَتْ جُلُوْدُهُمْ بَدَّلْنٰهُمْ جُلُوْدًا غَيْرَهَا

{As often as their skins are burned we shall change them for other skins...} (4:56)

DRINKING WATER IN HELL

(٥٦٨٠) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ اُمَامَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيْ قَوْلِهٖ يُسْقٰى مِنْ مَّآءٍ صَدِيْدٍ يَّتَجَرَّعُهٗ قَالَ يُقَرَّبُ اِلٰى فِيْهِ فَيَكْرَهُهٗ فَاِذَآ اُدْنِيَ مِنْهُ شَوٰى وَجْهَهٗ وَوَقَعَتْ فَرْوَةُ رَاْسِهٖ فَاِذَا شَرِبَهٗ قَطَّعَ اَمْعَآءَهٗ حَتّٰى يَخْرُجَ مِنْ دُبُرِهٖ يَقُوْلُ اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى وَسُقُوْا مَآءً حَمِيْمًا فَقَطَّعَ اَمْعَآءَهُمْ وَيَقُوْلُ وَاِنْ يَّسْتَغِيْثُوْا يُغَاثُوْا بِمَآءٍ كَالْمُهْلِ يَشْوِى الْوُجُوْهَ بِئْسَ الشَّرَابُ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

5680.Sayyiduna Abu Umamah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that concerning the verse:

{He shall be made to drink of unclean (fetid) water,} (14:16)

the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "He will bring it to his face and despise it. As it is brought nearer, it will burn his face and the skin of his head will peel off. When he drinks it, it will cut his entrails to bits pushing them off his posterior.

Allah says:

وَسُقُوْا مَآءً حَمِيْمًا فَقَطَّعَ اَمْعَآءَهُمْ

وَاِنْ يَّسْتَغِيْثُوْا يُغَاثُوْا بِمَآءٍ كَالْمُهْلِ يَشْوِى الْوُجُوْهَ بِئْسَ الشَّرَابُ

{And if they seek aid, they will be aided with water like molten copper that shall scald their faces. How evil the drink (and how wile the resting place)}[2] (18:29)

TENTS OF HELL

(٥٦٨١) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ سَعِيْدِ نِ الْخُدْرِيِّ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لِسُرَادِقُ النَّارِ اَرْبَعَةُ جُدُرٍ كِثَفُ كُلِّ جِدَارٍ مَسِيْرَةُ اَرْبَعِيْنَ سَنَةً۔ (رواه الترمذی)

5681. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed Khudri رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, 'The fences of hell are four walls. The thickness of each is as the distance traversed in forty years."[1]

(٥٦٨٢) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَوْ اَنَّ دَلْوًا مِّنْ غَسَّاقٍ يُهْرَاقُ فِي الدُّنْيَا لَاَنْتَنَ اَهْلُ الدُّنْيَا۔ (رواه الترمذی)

5682. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed Khudri رضی اللہ عنہ narrated further that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If a bucket containing the ghassaq (Arabic) or pus of the inmates of hell were poured into the world, the people of the world become rotten."[2]
Both 5681 & 5681 are hadith (3584) in Tirmidhi

(٥٦٨٣) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَرَأَ هٰذِهِ الْاٰيَةَ اِتَّقُوا اللّٰهَ حَقَّ تُقَاتِهٖ وَلَا تَمُوْتُنَّ اِلَّا وَاَنْتُمْ مُّسْلِمُوْنَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَوْ اَنَّ قَطْرَةً مِّنَ الزَّقُّوْمِ قَطَرَتْ فِيْ دَارِ الدُّنْيَا لَاَفْسَدَتْ عَلٰى اَهْلِ الْاَرْضِ مَعَايِشَهُمْ فَكَيْفَ بِمَنْ يَّكُوْنُ طَعَامَهٗ. رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ صَحِيْحٌ۔

5683. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم recited this verse:

اِتَّقُوا اللّٰهَ حَقَّ تُقَاتِهٖ وَلَا تَمُوْتُنَّ اِلَّا وَاَنْتُمْ مُّسْلِمُوْنَ

{Fear Allah as He should be feared and die not save you be Muslim} (3:102)
Then he said, "If a droop of zuqqum (a bitter tree) were to fall on earth, it would spoil the means of livelihood of the people. Then (imagine) what will it be with those whose food it is?"[3]

COMMENTARY: To fear Allah as He should be feared is to discharge one's obligatory duties and to abstain from evil. Ibn Mas'ud explained these words thus:

هوان يطاع فلا يعصى ويشكر فلا يكفر ويذكر فلا ينسى

"It is to obey him and never to disobey Him. He should be thanked and never should and be ungrateful. He should be remembered and never should he be forgotten."

Haakim has cited this explanation from the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. Ibn Marduwiyah and Ibn Hatim and other scholars have said that is correct.

[3] Tirmidhi # 2585 (2594)

This verse quoted above (3:102) is clearly the definition of perfect taqwa. But the definition of taqwa itself in its ordinary sense is the verse (64:16)

فَاتَّقُوا اللّٰهَ مَا اسْتَطَعْتُمْ

{So fear Allah as much as you can.}

As it is, to observe perfect taqwa and fear Allah as He/should be feared is beyond the common mortal.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم recited the verse and his intention was to say that taqwa in a means to protect one from the punishment of hell. In other words, if one does not adopt taqwa then he makes himself liable to punishment in hell. This is why the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم mentioned some kinds of chastisement in hell.

DISFIGURED FACE

(٥٦٨٤) وَعَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ وَهُمْ فِيْهَا كَالِحُوْنَ قَالَ تَشْوِيْهِ النَّارُ فَتَقَلَّصُ شَفَتُهُ الْعُلْيَا حَتّٰى تَبْلُغَ وَسَطَ رَأْسِهٖ وَيَسْتَرْخِيْ شَفَتُهُ السُّفْلٰى حَتّٰى تَضْرِبَ سُرَّتَهٗ (رواه الترمذى)

5684. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم explained the words (of the Quran):

{they shall be glum (therein).} (23:104)

Hw said, "The fire of hell will roast (the flesh of) the mouth of the infidel so that his upper lip will shink and retract up to the middle of his head and his lower lip will hang down to his navel."[1]

COMMENTARY: The entire verse of the Quran is:

تَلْفَحُ وُجُوْهَهُمُ النَّارُ وَهُمْ فِيْهَا كَالِحُوْنَ

The word (كالح) is applied to one whose lip contracts and reveals his teeth. Hence, the verse is translated: (i) 'their lips shall be raised up, or (ii) there teeth will be bared.' But, the translation that accommodates the hadith is: 'their faces will be disfigured and ugly.

TEARS OF BLOOD

(٥٦٨٥) وَعَنْ أَنَسٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَاأَيُّهَا النَّاسُ ابْكُوْا فَإِنْ لَّمْ تَسْتَطِيْعُوْا فَتَبَاكُوْا فَإِنَّ أَهْلَ النَّارِ يَبْكُوْنَ فِي النَّارِ حَتّٰى تَسِيْلَ دُمُوْعُهُمْ فِيْ وُجُوْهِهِمْ كَأَنَّهَا جَدَاوِلُ حَتّٰى يَنْقَطِعَ الدُّمُوْعُ فَتَسِيْلَ الدِّمَاءُ فَتَقَرَّحُ الْعُيُوْنُ فَلَوْ أَنَّ سُفُنًا أُزْجِيَتْ فِيْهَا لَجَرَتْ۔ رَوَاهُ فِيْ شَرْحِ السُّنَّةِ

5685. Sayyiduna Anas رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "O people weep (for fear of Allah). But, if you cannot weep (because it is not voluntary), then make as if you weep (by thinking of such things as will make you weep and fear Allah) The inmates of hell will weep in hell till their t ears flow on their faces like streams. When tears are exhausted, blood will flow making their eyes bloody and chafed. (Tear and blood will be soul copious that) if ships were put in, they would sail."[1]

(٥٦٨٦) وَعَنْ اَبِي الدَّرْدَاءِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُلْقٰى عَلٰى اَهْلِ النَّارِ الْجُوْعُ فَيَعْدِلُ مَا هُمْ فِيْهِ مِنَ الْعَذَابِ فَيَسْتَغِيْثُوْنَ فَيُغَاثُوْنَ بِطَعَامٍ مِنْ ضَرِيْعٍ لَّا يُسْمِنُ وَلَا يُغْنِيْ مِنْ جُوْعٍ فَيَسْتَغِيْثُوْنَ بِالطَّعَامِ فَيُغَاثُوْنَ بِطَعَامٍ ذِيْ غُصَّةٍ فَيَذْكُرُوْنَ اَنَّهُمْ كَانُوْا يُجِيْزُوْنَ الْغُصَصَ فِي الدُّنْيَا بِالشَّرَابِ فَيَسْتَغِيْثُوْنَ بِالشَّرَابِ فَيُرْفَعُ اِلَيْهِمُ الْحَمِيْمُ بِكَلَالِيْبِ الْحَدِيْدِ فَاِذَا دَنَتْ مِنْ وُجُوْهِهِمْ شَوَتْ وُجُوْهَهُمْ فَاِذَا دَخَلَتْ بُطُوْنَهُمْ قَطَّعَتْ مَا فِيْ بُطُوْنِهِمْ فَيَقُوْلُوْنَ ادْعُوْا خَزَنَةَ جَهَنَّمَ فَيَقُوْلُوْنَ اَلَمْ تَكُ تَاْتِيْكُمْ رُسُلُكُمْ بِالْبَيِّنٰتِ قَالُوْا بَلٰى قَالُوْا فَادْعُوْا وَمَا دُعٰٓؤُا الْكٰفِرِيْنَ اِلَّا فِيْ ضَلَالٍ قَالَ فَيَقُوْلُوْنَ ادْعُوْا مَالِكًا فَيَقُوْلُوْنَ يٰمٰلِكُ لِيَقْضِ عَلَيْنَا رَبُّكَ قَالَ فَيُجِيْبُهُمْ اِنَّكُمْ مّٰكِثُوْنَ قَالَ الْاَعْمَشُ نُبِّئْتُ اَنَّ بَيْنَ دُعَآئِهِمْ وَاِجَابَةِ مَالِكٍ اِيَّاهُمْ اَلْفَ عَامٍ قَالَ فَيَقُوْلُوْنَ ادْعُوْا رَبَّكُمْ فَلَا اَحَدٌ خَيْرٌ مِّنْ رَبِّكُمْ فَيَقُوْلُوْنَ رَبَّنَا غَلَبَتْ عَلَيْنَا شِقْوَتُنَا وَكُنَّا قَوْمًا ضَآلِّيْنَ رَبَّنَآ اَخْرِجْنَا مِنْهَا فَاِنْ عُدْنَا فَاِنَّا ظٰلِمُوْنَ قَالَ فَيُجِيْبُهُمْ اخْسَئُوْا فِيْهَا وَلَا تُكَلِّمُوْنِ قَالَ فَعِنْدَ ذٰلِكَ يَئِسُوْا مِنْ كُلِّ خَيْرٍ وَعِنْدَ ذٰلِكَ يَاْخُذُوْنَ فِي الزَّفِيْرِ وَالْحَسْرَةِ وَالْوَيْلِ قَالَ عَبْدُ اللّٰهِ بْنُ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمٰنِ وَالنَّاسُ لَا يَرْفَعُوْنَ هٰذَا الْحَدِيْثَ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

5686. Sayyiduna Abu Darda رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The in mated of hell will be subjected to hunger so that it will complement the punishment the they are suffering already. They will plead for help and will be helped with dari (which is dried thorn and plants that are very bitter) but they will neither fatten them nor put off their hunger. They will again seek help for food and will be given such food as will not be swallowed. They will recall that in the world, they used to swallow such difficult food with water and will ask for water. So, they will be provided hamim (Hot, boiling water) that will be handled with iron flesh-hook (by the angels or nature will brink them to their mouths). When they are brought to their mouths, they will most the flesh on their faces and when the liquid goes down into their bellies, it will cut everything (like intestines, etc) to bits. They will say. 'Call the guards of hell!' They will ask, 'Had not messenger come to you clear signs?" They will confirm, 'Yes!' They will say, 'Then go on praying, but the prayer of he disbeliefs is only in error (وَمَا دُعٰٓؤُا الْكٰفِرِيْنَ)[2]
Then they will appeal, 'Call Maalik (the keeper)!/ And will shout, 'O Maalik pray to your Lord to make an end of us![3]

But, they will be told (by Maalik himself or the command of the Lord), 'Surely, you shall tarry (here).[1]

A'mash رحمه الله (a sub-narrator of this hadith) said, 'I have been informed that their call and Maalik's answer will be separated by one thousand years.

They will then say (to each other), 'Call your Lord, for, there is none better than your Lord.' So, they will plead, 'O our Lord! Wretchedness had overtaken us. We were an erring people. Our Lord, take us out of it. Then if we revert to evil, we shall be evil-doers indeed.'[2]

Allah will say to them, 'Slink into it, and speak not to Me.[3]

They will despair of al good and will begin to sigh long, and wail."[4]

Abdullah ibn Abdur Rahman رحمه الله and others did not trace this hadith up to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

Tirmidhi writes that it is from Abu Darda رضي الله عنه in his own words, not marfu.

COMMENTARY: The hunger that will afflict the inmates of hell will be as painful to them as any other kind of punishment that they will suffer there. The fire of hunger will, therefore, be like the fire of hell.

They will be provided dari to eat. It is a thorny plant found in the Hijaz. It is a poisonous plant that is very bitter. No animal approaches it but if any animal eats it then it diet. This hadith implies by dari ,thorns of fire, more bitter than aloes, more bad smelling than a corpse and more hot than fire.

The words that neither will it fotten nor word off hunger are what the Quran says:

{They shall have no food but of bitten thorns, neither nourishing nor satisfying hunger} (88:6-7)

The second time they will be given a thing that will choke them. It may be a bone or thorns of fire. They will be unable to swallow it or vomit it out. It is as this verse:

إِنَّ لَدَيْنَا أَنكَالًا وَجَحِيمًا وَطَعَامًا ذَا غُصَّةٍ وَعَذَابًا أَلِيمًا

{Surely with us are heavy fetters and a raging fire, and food that chokes and a painful chastisement} (73:12-13)

The words of the hadith to the effect that the prayer of the infidel is in vain mean that it is the same whether they make supplication themselves or get anyone else to do it. However, it does not mean that the prayer of a disbeliever of polytheist is not granted in this world Rather, it is a fact that, in this world the prayer of the devil too is granted. He requested Allah to grant him a long life and Allah did so. Hence, the prayed of the infidel is also granted if he makes it to Allah, the Exalted.

Then they will concede that they had been wretched. And they will assure that they will not revert to disbelief But they will be lying even at that time. They Quran confirms it:

{And even if they were sent back, they would certainly relapse to that which they were forbidden and surely they are liar} (6:28)

They will then give up, saying 'wretchedness had overtaken us. We were an erring people ...' The word (زفير) used here actually means a donkey 'breathing in' just as (شهيق) means 'exhaling.' It also means that when a donkey brays, initially it is a thin, sharp sound and is called (زفير) which rises in pitch and becomes full and loud and is called (شهيق). Those words of the hadith refer to the Quran:

{wherein them will be for them sighing and wailing} (11;106)

When the inmates of hell hear the words of Allah rejecting their prayer, they will despair and have no hope at all. They will have tried all avenues but to no avail. Then, they will shout and shriek meaninglessly as happens with the defected.

Some scholars of hadith do not regard these words as the prophets. They assume then to be of Abu Darda رضی الله عنه. However, the fact is that this hadith is marfu They are the saying of the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم. The reason is that none of the sahabah رضی الله عنهم could have spoken about the things mentioned in the hadith about hell and it s inmates without having heard them from the prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم

(٥٦٨٧) وَعَنِ النُّعْمَانِ بْنِ بَشِيْرٍ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ اَنْذَرْتُكُمُ النَّارَ اَنْذَرْتُكُمُ النَّارَ فَمَا زَالَ يَقُوْلُهَا حَتّٰى لَوْ كَانَ فِيْ مَقَامِيْ هٰذَا سَمِعَهٗ اَهْلُ السُّوْقِ وَحَتّٰى سَقَطَتْ خَمِيْصَةٌ كَانَتْ عَلَيْهِ عِنْدَ رِجْلَيْهِ (رواه الدارمی)

5687. Sayyiduna Numan ibn Bashir رضی الله عنه narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم say, "I have warned you of hell! I have warned you of hell!" He repeated that again and again (in an awe-inspiring manner). He (numan) said, "If the prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم was where I am now, the people in the market would have heard him certainly. He continued to repeat till the cloak that he had on him dropped down on his feet."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم words meant that he had informed the people of the punishment in hell. He had also informed them of the right path and of the path that they should avoid, He informed them how they could save themselves form hell, like by giving a piece of date as charity.

HEAVEN TO EARTH IN THE NIGHT

5688. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Amr ibn Aas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said pointed to a skull, 'If a piece of lead like this were to be dropped from heaven towards earth on a journey of five hundred years, it would touch earth before night. But, if it were dropped from one end of the chain it would remain in motion for forty years, day and night, before touching its root, or its bottom."[1]

COMMENTARY: The chain is the one in which the infidel will be bound in hell. The Qurna mentions it:

{Then in a chain of seventy cubits length insert him!} (69:32)

The seventy cubits d not mean the specific number but 'seventy' is used for an unspecified number. Besides, weight and measures of the next world might differ from what they are here. An example is the qirat of the hereafter. It is said to be like Mount Uhud.

A pious man Nawf Bakali رحمہ اللہ said that each cubit will be twice the distance between kufah and Makkah. Hasan Busri رحمہ اللہ said that only Allah known what it means.

Anyway, the hadith itself gives an idea of the length of the chain when it says that the skull would reach earth in a night but move from end to end of a chain in forty years continuous motion.

HABHAB VALLEY

(٥٦٨٩) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ بُرْدَةَ عَنْ اَبِيْهِ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اِنَّ فِيْ جَهَنَّمَ لَوَادِيًا يُقَالُ لَهُ هَبْهَبُ يَسْكُنُهُ كُلُّ جَبَّارٍ۔ (رواه الدارمى)

5689. Sayyiduna Abu Burdah رحمہ اللہ (a tabi) narrated on the authority of his father that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "There is a valley in hell called habhab. Every oppressor (arrogant and cruel the creatures) will be lodged here."[2]

COMMENTARY: Habhab means 'swiftness' haste. The fire in the valley by this name is very fierce and the sinner dropped into it are consigned to punishment swiftly.

HUGE BODIES IN HELL

(٥٦٩٠) عَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ يَعْظُمُ اَهْلُ النَّارِ فِي النَّارِ حَتّٰى اَنَّ بَيْنَ شَحْمَةِ اُذُنِ اَحَدِهِمْ اِلٰى عَاتِقِهِ مَسِيْرَةُ سَبْعِ مِائَةِ عَامٍ وَاِنَّ غِلَظَ جِلْدِهِ سَبْعُوْنَ ذِرَاعًا وَاِنَّ ضِرْسَهُ مِثْلُ اُحُدٍ۔

5690.Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The denizens of hell will become huge bodied in hell so much so that the space between the earlobe and shoulder of any of them will be like a journey of seven hundred years. The thickness of his hide will be seventy cubits and his molar tooth will be like (the Mount) Uhud.[3]

SNAKES & SCORPIONS IN HELL

(٥٦٩١) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ الْحَارِثِ بْنِ جَزْءٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ فِي النَّارِ حَيَّاتٍ كَاَمْثَالِ الْبُخْتِ تَلْسَعُ اِحْدٰهُنَّ اللَّسْعَةَ فَيَجِدُ حَمْوَتَهَا اَرْبَعِيْنَ خَرِيْفًا وَاِنَّ فِي النَّارِ عَقَارِبَ كَاَمْثَالِ الْبِغَالِ الْمُؤْكَفَةِ تَلْسَعُ اِحْدٰهُنَّ اللَّسْعَةَ فَيَجِدُ حَمْوَتَهَا اَرْبَعِيْنَ خَرِيْفًا (رواہما احمد)

5691. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Harith ibn Jaz narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیہ وسلم said, "There are in hell snakes like Bukhti (Bactrian) camels. If any of them stings (a person), its effect (pain and poison) will be fresh for forty years. And, there are in hell scorpions like saddled mules. If any of them stings, its effect will last for forty years."[1]

SUN & MOON WILL BE CAST IN HELL

5692. Sayyiduna Hasan رحمہ الله reported that Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیہ وسلم said, The sun and the moon will be folded as through two pieces of cheese and flung into hell."
Hasan رحمہ الله said that he asked (Abu Hurayrah) رضی الله عنہ, "And what sin they will have committed?" Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنہ said, :"I have narrated to you the saying of Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیہ وسلم.
So, Hasan رحمہ الله did not ask any more.[2]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنہ cautioned Sayyiduna Hasan رحمہ الله against trying to reason out the will of Allah as disclosed in the hadith. Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنہ narrated all that he had heard and know no more.

Some ulama say that these two heavenly bodies will be cast in hell to increase the heat c hell. Daylam has transmitted a tradition in Musnad Firdaws from Sayyiduna Umar رضی الله عنہ in a marfu from that the sun and the moon are turned towards the Throne and their back are towards the earth. If they were oriented towards earth, their heat would have bee intolerable for the people of the world.

Some authorities say that since the polytheists worshipped these two bodies, Allah will le them see how their deities fared.

THE WRETCHED

(٥٦٩٣) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يَدْخُلُ النَّارَ اِلَّا شَقِيٌّ قِيْلَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ وَمَنِ الشَّقِيُّ قَالَ مَنْ لَّمْ يَعْمَلْ لِلّٰهِ بِطَاعَةٍ وَّلَمْ يَتْرُكْ لَهٗ بِمَعْصِيَةٍ (رواہ ابن ماجۃ)

5693. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Only he will be cast into hell who is miserable." Someone asked, "O Messenger of Allah, who is the miserable?" He said, "He (is the miscrable) who has not performed on act of obedience (Like the obligatory worship) for the sake of Allah and has not abstained from an act of disobedience for his sake."[1]

COMMENTARY: The miserable or the wretched may be either a disbeliever or a believer who commits sin.

CHAPTER - XVI

THE CREATION OF PARADISE & HELL

بَابُ خَلْقِ الْجَنَّةِ وَالنَّارِ

The ahadith in this chapter establish that paradise and hell are created already and they do exist. The Ahl-us-sunnah wa Al-jama'ah hold this conviction. But, there are some Muslims who are misled into believing that paradise and hell have not been crated so for. These people say that both paradise and hell will come into existence on the day of resurrection.

There are some ahadith in this chapter that mention the special chapter that mention the special characteristics of paradise and hell. These ahadith also describe the people who are eligible to enter paradise and those liable to be consigned to hell.

DEBATE BETWEEN PARADISE & HELL

(٥٦٩٤) عَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ تَحَاجَتِ الْجَنَّةُ وَالنَّارُ فَقَالَتِ النَّارُ اُوْثِرْتُ بِالْمُتَكَبِّرِيْنَ وَالْمُتَجَبِّرِيْنَ وَقَالَتِ الْجَنَّةُ فَمَالِيْ لَا يَدْخُلُنِيْ اِلَّا ضُعَفَاءُ النَّاسِ وَسَقَطُهُمْ وَعِزَّ تُهُمْ قَالَ اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى لِلْجَنَّةِ اِنَّمَا اَنْتِ رَحْمَتِيْ اَرْحَمُ بِكِ مَنْ اَشَاءُ مِنْ عِبَادِيْ وَقَالَ لِلنَّارِ اِنَّمَا اَنْتِ عَذَابِيْ اُعَذِّبُ بِكِ مَنْ اَشَاءُ مِنْ عِبَادِيْ وَ لِكُلِّ وَاحِدَةٍ مِّنْكُمَا مِلْؤُهَا فَاَمَّا النَّارُ فَلَا تَمْتَلِئُ حَتّٰى يَضَعَ اللّٰهُ رِجْلَهُ تَقُوْلُ قَطْ قَطْ فَهُنَالِكَ تَمْتَلِئُ وَيُزْوٰى بَعْضُهَا اِلٰى بَعْضٍ فَلَا يَظْلِمُ اللّٰهُ مِنْ خَلْقِهٖ اَحَدًا وَاَمَّا الْجَنَّةُ فَاِنَّ اللّٰهَ يُنْشِئُ لَهَا خَلْقًا (متفق علیہ)

5694. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayran رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Paradise and hell debated with one another. Hell boasted, "I have been chosen for the tyrants and .he arrogant.' Paradise said, 'What is wrong with me that none but the weak people, their down trodden and their simple ones will be admitted to me.' Allah, the Exalted, said to paradise, 'You are My mercy. I show My mercy to whom I will of My slaves through you.' And, to hell, He said, 'You are My punishment. I Punish such of My slaves as I wish through you. And, each of you two will be filled."

'B·ıt, hell will not be full till Allah puts down His foo'. It will cry. qat qat, qat (enough, enough, enouh!), "It will be full and its portions will be converged together. Allah will not wrong any of His creation. As for paradise, Allah will create a new creation."[1]

COMMENTARY: This was the complaint of hell and paradise against the kind of people to be admitted into them. But, Allah made it clear that everything depended on His will. He sent those whom He punished to hell and He admitted to paradise those and whom He had mercy Neither of the two excelled over the other. His justice decided cases about hell, but His mercy and blessing applied to matters concerning paradise.

The downtrodden and simple people and they who are esteemed in the sight of Allah because of their piety and righteousness. Outwardly they look weak and are not respected by the worldly people. But they are humble before Allah and in their own eyes too they are humility personified, as before other people.

These people are not every familiar with the affairs of the world, so they are deceived easily. There is another hadith about it: 'Most of the inmates of paradise will be ignorant of worldly matters. In contrast, the infidels and hypocrites will be very clever in these affairs.' It is as Allah says:

{They know the outward appearance of the life of this world but of the hereafter they are heedless} (30:7)

Hell will not be satiated wit h the sinners who are sent to it but will ask for more. The Quran says:

يَوْمَ نَقُوْلُ لِجَهَنَّمَ هَلِ امْتَلَأْتِ وَتَقُوْلُ هَلْ مِنْ مَّزِيْدٍ

{On the day when we shall say to hell, "Are you filed up?" And it shall say, "Are there any more?"} (50:30)

However, Allah will not fill it by hell to contract it so that it will become the right size for its people. Thus, Allah will not wrong His creatures to fill hell.

Reference to Allah's foot is only an allegorical statement. It is like speaking of His hand, eye and face. The Quran and the hadith command us not to try to probe into their meaning but believe that whatever Allah means by these things is correct. This is the best course to follow and our predecessors did that. However, latter day people have interpreted such words keeping regard to His greatness, like His foot way may be a creature's foot. We do not wish to go into further details in thus regard lest our discussion become lengthy

As against this, Allah will create now people to fill paradise. They will have performed no deed at all.

HELL & PARADISE WILL BE FILLED

(٥٦٩٥) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَا تَزَالُ جَهَنَّمُ يُلْقٰى فِيْهَا وَتَقُوْلُ هَلْ مِنْ مَّزِيْدٍ حَتّٰى يَضَعَ رَبُّ الْعِزَّةِ فِيْهَا قَدَمَهٗ فَيَنْزَوِيْ بَعْضُهَا اِلٰى بَعْضٍ فَتَقُوْلُ قَطْ قَطْ بِعِزَّتِكَ وَكَرَمِكَ وَلَا يَزَالُ فِي الْجَنَّةِ فَضْلٌ حَتّٰى يُنْشِئَ اللّٰهُ لَهَا خَلْقًا فَيُسْكِنُهُمْ فَضْلَ الْجَنَّةِ۔ مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ وَذُكِرَ حَدِيْثُ اَنَسٍ حُفَّتِ الْجَنَّةُ بِالْمَكَارِهِ فِيْ كِتَابِ الرِّقَاقِ۔

5695. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Hell will not cease to get more and more (people) thrown into it and to ask. 'Are there more?' (It will want more people thrown into it,) but finally (Allah) the Mighty Lord will put down His foot on it and its portions will shrink into each other (and it will contract). Then it will say 'qat, qat (enough, enough), by Your Mighty and Your graciousness!'
And paradise will not cease to grow spacious. (Many places will remain unoccupied) till Allah creates people for it and make them dwell in the unoccupied extra spaces in paradise."[1]

(٥٦٩٦) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَمَّا خَلَقَ اللّٰهُ الْجَنَّةَ قَالَ لِجِبْرَئِيلَ اذْهَبْ فَانْظُرْ إِلَيْهَا فَذَهَبَ فَنَظَرَ إِلَيْهَا وَإِلَى مَا أَعَدَّ اللّٰهُ لِأَهْلِهَا فِيهَا ثُمَّ جَاءَ فَقَالَ أَيْ رَبِّ وَعِزَّتِكَ لَا يَسْمَعُ بِهَا أَحَدٌ إِلَّا دَخَلَهَا ثُمَّ حَفَّهَا بِالْمَكَارِهِ ثُمَّ قَالَ يَا جِبْرَئِيلُ اذْهَبْ فَانْظُرْ إِلَيْهَا قَالَ فَذَهَبَ فَنَظَرَ إِلَيْهَا ثُمَّ جَاءَ فَقَالَ أَيْ رَبِّ وَعِزَّتِكَ لَقَدْ خَشِيتُ أَنْ لَّا يَدْخُلَهَا أَحَدٌ قَالَ فَلَمَّا خَلَقَ اللّٰهُ النَّارَ قَالَ يَا جِبْرَئِيلُ اذْهَبْ فَانْظُرْ إِلَيْهَا قَالَ فَذَهَبَ فَنَظَرَ إِلَيْهَا ثُمَّ جَاءَ فَقَالَ أَيْ رَبِّ وَعِزَّتِكَ لَا يَسْمَعُ بِهَا أَحَدٌ فَيَدْخُلُهَا فَحَفَّهَا بِالشَّهَوَاتِ ثُمَّ قَالَ يَا جِبْرَئِيلُ اذْهَبْ فَانْظُرْ إِلَيْهَا قَالَ فَذَهَبَ فَنَظَرَ إِلَيْهَا فَقَالَ أَيْ رَبِّ وَعِزَّتِكَ لَقَدْ خَشِيتُ أَنْ لَّا يَبْقَى أَحَدٌ إِلَّا دَخَلَهَا (رواه الترمذی وابوداؤد والنسائی)

5696. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "When Allah created paradise, He said to Jibril علیہ السلام, 'Go and look at it.' So, he went and looked at it and at that which Allah had prepared in it for the dwellers of paradise. He came back and submitted, 'My Lord! By your Might! Whoever hears of it will surely enter it." Then Allah surrounded it with such things as are disliked by the soul and said, 'O Jibril, go! Look at it (again).' He went and looked at it. Then he come back and submitted, 'My Lord, by your Might! I fear no one will now desire to enter it.'
When Allah created hell, He said, 'O JIbril, go and look at it! He went and looked at it and come back and said, 'My Lord, by your Might! Wherever hears of it will surely not enter it.' Allah then surrounded it with such things for which the soul craves and instructed Jibril علیہ السلام to go and look at it, He went and looked (and came back) and said, 'O Lord, by your Might, indeed, I fear that no one will stay without entering it.'"[1]

COMMENTARY: The disliked things by which paradise is surrounded are the commanc of Shari'ah like the obligatory worship and prohibitions of such things from which or must refrain. Paradise is surrounded by commands to do and to abstain from. In oth words, Allah must be obeyed and sins must be avoided. To endure this difficulty and curb the desires of the soul will ensure entry into paradise.

(٥٦٩٧) عَنْ أَنَسٍ أَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ صَلَّى لَنَا يَوْمَ الصَّلٰوةَ ثُمَّ رَقِيَ الْمِنْبَرَ فَأَشَارَ بِيَدِهٖ قِبَلَ قِبْلَةَ الْمَسْجِدِ فَقَالَ قَدْ أُرِيْتُ الْآنَ مُذْ صَلَّيْتُ لَكُمُ الصَّلٰوةَ الْجَنَّةَ وَالنَّارَ مُمَثَّلَتَيْنِ فِيْ قِبَلِ هٰذِهِ الْجِدَارِ فَلَمْ أَرَكَا لْيَوْمِ فِي الْخَيْرِ وَالشَّرِّ (رواه البخاري)

5697. Sayyiduna Anas رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم led them in salah one day. Then he climbed up the pulpit and pointed to the qiblah of the mosque and said, "I Indeed, I have been shown just now after I led you in salah (both) paradise and hell represented in front of this wall. In fact, I have never seen such good and evil as I have seen today."[2]

COMMENTARY: The word (قبل) is found in different versions with different di'atric morks but in each case the meaning is the same; to be opposite, facing.

It is not necessary that the two places were shown to be Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم on the all, b they could have been in front of it. Besides a replica may be a shorter version.

Some scholars say that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saw paradise and hell with his spiritu insight. Allah knows the facts best.

CHAPTER - XVII

THE BEGINNING OF CREATION & ABOUT THE PROPHETS عليهم السلام

ا بَدْءِ الْخَلْقِ وَذِكْرِ الْأَنْبِيَاءِ عَلَيْهِمُ الصَّلٰوةُ السَّلَامُ

This chapter deals with the coming into existence of this universe and the creatures a every things else. And this chapter makes mention of the Prophet عليه السلام. They are the jev of this universe and the source of religious education and training. The affairs of the wo and its administration are reformed at their hands. The creation of mankind begins w their father, Sayyiduna Aadam عليه السلام who was also the first prophet.

UNIVERSE IS CREATED: We must bear in mind that all heavenly religions and nations are unanimous that the universe is created. Even the Majis (Majusi) agree wi this. It was nothing and was created from nothingness. Only Allah was there and nothi else. He created everything. The best testimony of this is in the words of the truthful, t rue Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم. He said,

كان الله ولم يكن معه شيء

"There was Allah alone and nothing else existed with Him."

The first thing Allah created was the tablet was the pen. Before creating anything else, He :reated a Book, meaning recorded the destiny. Then He created the throne, the chair, the ıeavens, the earths, the angels and the jinns and mankind.

The ulama agree that all bodies with their essence and characteristics are created things. ɔome people say that the first of them to be created was water. It is the only body that ıdopts all the forms and shapes and is the root of everything, the origin of everything.

Vater turns fine and caused air to come into existence. Then fire was created from its :ssence. From its awoke, the sky was created. The Quran also uses the word (دخان) smoke in elation to the sky.

\s for the saying. 'water is the origin of creation of everything of their universe. From the :ssence of water, fire come into being and from its smoke the sky came into existence. It is ıttributed to an ancient philosopher (طاس ملطی) But the scholars say that he derived it from the ayings of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saying on this subject are conferment by the earlier heavenly Books ınd latter and ancient scientists and philosophers. According to the initial words of the 'orah; When Allah decided to create the universe, He created an essence and cast on it a ɔok of are and might causing it to melt into water. Smoke rose from it a create the sky. 'roth appeared on the water and the earth came into existence. Mountains were created to :eep the earth stable...'

This is a very vast subject and requires a lengthy discussion. The scholars have been lebating it and different theories have been forwarded. But only reasoning cannot decide nd arrive at a conclusion. Divine revelation provides much information on it, and the 'rophet صلى الله عليه وسلم conveyed them to the people of the world.[1]

THERE ONLY WAS ALLAH

5698. Sayyiduna Imran ibn Husayn رضي الله عنه narrated: I was with Allah's Messenger

[1] The story of the creation (Ibn Kathir) throws much light on this subject. (Darul Isha'at Karachi).

صلى الله عليه وسلم when some people of {the well-known tribe of} Banu Tamim came to him. He said to them, "Receive glad tiding, O Banu Tamim!" They said, "You have given us glad tidings (of the religion). Now, give us more."
The some people of Yemen came and he said, "Receive glad tidings, O people of Yemen while Banu Tamim did not accept it." They submitted, "We have accepted it. We have come to you to learn more of religion and to ask you about the beginning of this universe. What existed (prior to that)? He said, "Allah was there (from eternity). There was nothing before (or with Him. His Throne was on water. Then He created the heavens and the earth and recorded everything on the dhikr (the Preserved Tabled – Lawh Mahfuz)."
Imran ibn Husayn رضي الله عنه said; A man come to me at that time, saying, 'Imam, look for you she camel. It has escaped." So, I went out to look for it. And, I swear by Allah, how I wish that I had not got up and it had disappeared![1]
COMMENTARY: When the men of Banu Tamim came to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and he offered them glad tidings, they submitted that while they recognized the need to understand religion, at that time their man purpose was to acquire some worldly benefits They failed to seize reward for the hereafter and thus displeased the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.
The intention of the people of Yemen was sincere. They ad come to learn religion and keep the company of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to correct their belief. They had no mind to acquire from him any worldly benefit. So, they received the glad tidings and submitted in obedience. They succeeded in their ambition.
This teaches us that a believer must always have high, pure and bold ambitions. This takes him to higher degree and assures success in both the worlds.
It is reported of Shaykh Abu Al-Abbas Marsi رحمه that one day he set out from Madinah to visit the tomb of Amir Hamzah رحمه. Another man accompanied him. There unexpectedly the door was opened for him and when he went inside, he was amazed to find some people of the unseen world. They were without any shortcoming or defect and free of every kind of deficiency, and they were there with their bodies. He understood that the moment was opportune for prayer and he prayed to Allah for forgiveness and security is both the world He also advised his companion to seize the opportunity and pray telling him. This is the right time for prayers to get answered." But, that man did not pray for the hereafter, for paradise and for forgiveness. All he prayed for was one diner.
They come out to return to Madinah. When they entered Madinah, someone gave that man one dinar and both of them went to the well-known spiritual leader of that time Sayyid Abu Al-Hasan Shadhli رحمه الله He had already learnt of their story through spiritual perception. He reprimanded that man for giving up the opportunity to pray for his success is both the worlds and asked merely for a mere trifling world. He could have put his affairs of the next world right.
Allah is the living. He was there in eternity and will be there in infinity. There was nothing before Him and there is nothing like an end for Him. There was no beginning for Him. He is free from change and newness which are the characteristics of His slaves and creatures This establishes that He was never into nothingness and wil never be into nothingness, for the Being who is forever and will remain for ever cannot be part of nothing.

verything but Allah is new and changing. So, there was none before Him He is over xisting. Whatever exists is created by Him. He is the sole creator. So nothing can have xisted before Him.

he words that His Throne was on water prove that water and throne were created before ie sky and earth. In the beginning, there was noting but water below the Throne. There ras nothing else between them. This is the meaning of Throne being on or above water, ot that the throne was on the surface of the water. Besides, it does not mean the water (as re know it) of the oceans, rivers etc. Rather, the water below the Throne was some other ind. It was a demonstration of the Omnipotence and will of Allah. This has been iscussed at length in the beginning of the book in the chapter on faith on decree.

›n Maalik رحمه الله said that the Throne was above water which was on the surface of air. Air ras retained by Allah's Power, and will.

s stated, the throne and water were created before the sky and earth. Allah created them rith water. He cast His Light on water so it began of effervesce and giant waves were reated on it causing froth. This accumulated at the place were the Ka'bah is situated and his is how the first portion of earth come into being. Then, from this portion, the earth was pread all around. The surface of earth thus come into being. Mountains were then created n it to keep it steady. The first mountain to be raised was Mount Abu Qays. When the rater had become restless and turbulent, smoke arose from it and the skies were formed.

AWH MAHFUZ: Before creating everything, Allah wrote down about them in the 'reserved Tablet, meaning whatever was to happen with them. It is according to that ecord that things work. But, what does it mean that Allah wrote in the preserved Tablet?) He may have created letters that composed themselves on the preserved Tablet. Or, (ii) llah may have commanded the angels to write down and they may have followed His irection. It must be known that the preserved Tablet was written down before the creation f the earth.

MRAN'S رضي الله عنه REGRET: Imran ibn Husayn رضي الله عنه concluded the hadith expressing egret that he was lured by His own self to depart from the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم suddenly in rder to search his she-camel though the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم hadith had not concluded. He ould not hear the rest of the saying of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

(٥٦٩٩) وَعَنْ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَامَ فِيْنَا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَقَامًا فَأَخْبَرَنَا عَنْ بَدْءِ الْخَلْقِ حَتّٰى دَخَلَ أَهْلُ الْجَنَّةِ مَنَازِلَهُمْ وَأَهْلُ النَّارِ مَنَازِلَهُمْ حَفِظَ ذٰلِكَ مَنْ حَفِظَهُ وَنَسِيَهُ مَنْ نَسِيَهُ (رواه البخاری)

5699. Sayyiduna Umar رضي الله عنه narrated that "Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم stood up among us (to deliver a sermon) and he informed us of the beginning of the creation up to the admittance of the inhabitance of paradise of their abodes and of the inhabitant of hell to their places. But, he who could remember that did remember and he who forget did forget."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم spoke at length that day touching on everything rom the beginning to the end; How Allah began the creation, created Sayyiduna Aadam عليه السلام and his progeny and decreed their working, the Messenger عليه السلام and the Prophet عليه

السلام and their lives, the way they were treated, how their ummahs were punished or rewarded and how they will fare in the next world. Then he spoke about his own ummah. Some of the listeners remembered all that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had said but some could not remember everything.

ALLAH'S MERCY PRECEDES HIS ANGER

(٥٧٠٠) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ تَعَالٰى كَتَبَ كِتَابًا قَبْلَ اَنْ يَّخْلُقَ الْخَلْقَ اِنَّ رَحْمَتِيْ سَبَقَتْ غَضَبِيْ فَهُوَ مَكْتُوْبٌ عِنْدَهٗ فَوْقَ الْعَرْشِ (متفق عليه)

5700.Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narratted that he heard Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم say, "Surely Allah, he exalted, recorded a writing (or book) before He originated the creation, 'Surely My Mercy has prevailed over my wrath. And it is recorded with Him above the Throne. The writing of book).[1]

COMMENTARY: The book is kept with Allah and is contents are not disclosed to anyone. NO one has been given such knowledge as may enable him to understand what is recorded in the Book.

The pushti رحمه الله said that perhaps this Book means the Preserved Tablet. The Prophet's saying that it is recorded with Him (فهو مكتوب عنده) may mean that the stated words are written in the preserved Tablet. It is also possible that it does not refer to the preserved Tablet, but the decree of Allah that He has enforced.

Allah's mercy is more effective and embraces both the believers and the unbelievers. But, His wrath is not shown often. Only sometimes someone becomes subject to it. Allah says in the Quran:

اِنَّ عَذَابِيْٓ اُصِيْبُ بِهٖ مَنْ اَشَآءُ وَرَحْمَتِيْ وَسِعَتْ كُلَّ شَيْءٍ

{As for My chastisement, I smite with it Whom I will, yet My mercy embraces all things} (7:156)

SUBSTANCE OF CREATION

(٥٧٠١) وَعَنْ عَآئِشَةَ عَنْ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ خُلِقَتِ الْمَلٰٓئِكَةُ مِنْ نُّوْرٍ وَ خُلِقَ الْجَآنُّ مِنْ مَّارِجٍ مِّنْ نَّارٍ وَخُلِقَ اٰدَمُ مِمَّا وُصِفَ لَكُمْ (رواه مسلم)

5701. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The angels are created from light (nur). The jinns are created from the flames of fire (or smokeless fire). And, Aadam عليه السلام was created from what has been described to you already."[2]

COMMENTARY: According to the Qamoos, 'nur' is 'light' or 'rays of light.' This hadith uses it in the sense of 'light.'

The word (جان) jaan means the jinn, on the community of jinns. It could also means their forefather, from whom the jinns descended, as Aadam عليه السلام is to mankind.

As for the creation of Prophet Aadm عليه السلام, the words, 'what has been described to you' mean 'dust' as stated in the Quran (3:59). The quran also says elsewhere 'ringing clay of mud moulded' (15:26, etc).

Some traditions speak of other substances for other created things. Ibn Asakir transmits the hadith of Abu Sa'eed رضی اللہ عنہ in a marfu' form that dates, pomegranate and grapes were created from the residue of the dust of Aadam علیہ السلام

Tabarani carries a tradition of Abu Umamah رضی اللہ عنہ in a marfu form that the hoor ayn (the large eyed maiden of paradise) was created from saffron.

THREE KINDS OF CREATIONS OF JINNS & MEN: Haakim ibn Abu Ad-Dunya. Abu Ash-Shaykh رحمہ اللہ and Ibn Marduwiyah رضی اللہ عنہ have transmitted the hadith of Abu Darda رضی اللہ عنہ: Allah has created the jinns of three kinds:

(i) In the shape of snakes, scorpions and crawling insects of the earth.
(ii) Who are like air in the atmosphere.
(iii) Who are answerable for their deeds and will be subjected to reckoning.

In the same way, Allah has created mankind in three ways:

(i) Who are like the quadrapeds.
(ii) Whose bodies are like the children of Aadam علیہ السلام but their souls are like the souls of the devils.
(iii) Whose bodies and souls are human 2nd on the day of resurrection they wil be in the shade of Allah's mercy.

DEVIL'S IDEA OF AADAM'S علیہ السلام WOULD

(٥٧٠٢) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَمَّا صَوَّرَ اللّٰهُ اٰدَمَ فِي الْجَنَّةِ تَرَكَهُ مَاشَاءَ اللّٰهُ اَنْ يَّتْرُكَهُ فَجَعَلَ اِبْلِيْسُ يُطِيْفُ بِهٖ يَنْظُرُ مَا هُوَ فَلَمَّا رَاٰهُ اَجْوَفَ عَرَفَ اَنَّهٗ خُلِقَ خَلْقًا لَا يَتَمَالَكُ (رواه مسلم)

5702. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, 'when Allah fashioned Aadam علیہ السلام in paradise, He left him there as long as He wished to leave him. Then Iblis (the devil) began to go round him (meaning, the mould) to see what it was. When he observed that he had a hollow space inside, he understood that a creation was being brought that lacked self control."[1]

COMMENTARY: While this hadith say that prophet Aadam علیہ السلام was fashioned in the plain of Arafat in its valley, Ar-Numan. Then when a soul was blown in him, he was taken to paradise. Therefore, this hadith means by in paradise, that after him creation he was brought to paradise. Thus the meaning of the hadith is that after a soul was blown in him and he was brought to paradise, Iblis examined him and found the hollow and commented as he did. He understood that anything that is di-jointed in such a way cannot be strong. He cannot be steady. Iblis came to the conclusion that his internal thought also cannot be steady, so man will be wavering. For example, he will not be able to control his anger and his sexual appetite. He will not distinguish between the lawful and the unlawful. Iblis was pleased that he will find it easy to mislead man.

CIRCUMCISION OF PROPHET IBRHIM علیہ السلام

سَنَةً بِالْقَدُوْمِ۔ (متفق عليه)

5703. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Ibrahim علیہ السلام, the prophet circumcised himself with an axe when he was eighty years old." (Or, "He circumcised himself at Qaddum in Syria at the age of eighty years.")[1]

COMMENTARY: The word is an axe if it is read (قدوم) Qadum but the village Qaddum Syria if read with the doubled (قدّوم) – (قدّوم).

(٥٧٠٤) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَمْ يَكْذِبْ اِبْرٰهِيْمُ اِلَّا ثَلٰثَ كَذِبَاتٍ ثِنْتَيْنِ مِنْهُنَّ فِيْ ذَاتِ اللّٰهِ قَوْلُهٗ اِنِّيْ سَقِيْمٌ وَقَوْلُهٗ بَلْ فَعَلَهٗ كَبِيْرُهُمْ هٰذَا وَقَالَ بَيْنَا هُوَ ذَاتَ يَوْمٍ وَسَارَةُ اِذَا اَتٰى عَلٰى جَبَّارٍ مِّنَ الْجَبَابِرَةِ فَقِيْلَ لَهٗ اِنَّ هٰهُنَا رَجُلًا مَعَهُ امْرَأَةٌ مِنْ اَحْسَنِ النَّاسِ فَاَرْسَلَ اِلَيْهِ فَسَأَلَهٗ عَنْهَا مَنْ هٰذِهٖ قَالَ اُخْتِيْ فَاَتٰى سَارَةَ فَقَالَ لَهَا اِنَّ هٰذَا الْجَبَّارَ اِنْ يَعْلَمْ اَنَّكِ اِمْرَاَتِيْ يَغْلِبْنِيْ عَلَيْكِ فَاِنْ سَاَلَكِ فَاَخْبِرِيْهِ اَنَّكِ اُخْتِيْ فِي الْاِسْلَامِ لَيْسَ عَلٰى وَجْهِ الْاَرْضِ مُؤْمِنٌ غَيْرِيْ وَغَيْرُكِ فَاَرْسَلَ اِلَيْهَا فَاُتِيَ بِهَا قَامَ اِبْرَاهِيْمُ يُصَلِّيْ فَلَمَّا دَخَلَتْ عَلَيْهِ ذَهَبَ يَتَنَاوَلُهَا بِيَدِهٖ فَاُخِذَ وَيُرْوٰى فَغُطَّ حَتّٰى رَكَضَ بِرِجْلِهٖ فَقَالَ ادْعِي اللّٰهَ لِيْ وَلَا اَضُرُّكِ فَدَعَتِ اللّٰهَ فَاُطْلِقَ فَدَعَا بَعْضَ حَجَبَتِهٖ فَقَالَ اِنَّكَ لَمْ تَأْتِنِيْ بِاِنْسَانٍ اِنَّمَا اَتَيْتَنِيْ بِشَيْطَانٍ فَاَخْدَمَهَا هَاجَرَ فَاَتَتْهُ وَهُوَ قَائِمٌ يُصَلِّيْ فَاَوْمَأَ بِيَدِهٖ مَهْيَمْ قَالَتْ رَدَّ اللّٰهُ كَيْدَ الْكَافِرِ فِيْ نَحْرِهٖ وَاَخْدَمَ هَاجَرَ قَالَ اَبُوْ هُرَيْرَةَ تِلْكَ اُمُّكُمْ يَابَنِيْ مَاءِ السَّمَاءِ (متفق عليه)

And he said, "(The third was) when, one day, he and (his wife) Surah علیہ السلام passed through the city of a tyrant who was told of the arrival of a man alongwith a most beautiful woman. So, he sent for him and asked, 'Who is she?' He said, 'She is my sister.' Then he went to sarah علیہا السلام and said to her, 'surely, wife he learns that you are my wife, then the tyrant would take you away form me. So, if he asks you tell him that you are my sister, for, you are my sister in Islam, there being no believer on the surface of the earth besides you and me.' And, he sent for her and she was brought to him. Ibrahim stood up offer salah (where he was staying). When she dame to him (he was overcome by her beauty), he tried to touch her with his hand, but he was seized (unable to move) or he choked. He began to hick the ground with his feet and requested her, 'Pray to Allah for one (to be relieved), I assure you that I will not hurt you. She prayed to Allah, but when he was relieved, he stretched his hand to touch her a second time. He was again seized as previously or more severely. He said, 'Pray to Allah for me. I shall not hurt you." She prayed to Allah and he was relieved, He then called one of his officers and said, 'You have not brought to me a human being. You have brought a devil. Give her as a servant, Hajar عليه السلام (Hajjah),

She came to him (Ibrahim) عليه السلام. He was engaged in salah, and asked her through signs with his had what had happened. She said to him, 'Allah threw back the ruse of the infidel in his throat and gave us Hajar as a servant."

Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ said, "That is your mother, O Banu Ma as-Sama."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophets عليهم السلام are innocent. They do not commit sin, and do not tell lies. The hadith certainly does not mean that prophet Ibrahim عليه السلام perpetrated sin by telling lies three times. The fact is that the falsehood attributed to him is from the point for view of the listeners. Neither what he said fell under the classification of lies nor did he intend to lie or deceive anyone. We may put this thing in another way:

"In this case, 'lying' is a speech meant for a good and pure cause but the addressee does not take it in the sense that the speaker intends to convey. Rather, he interprets them as conceived by his mind (beforehand)." This speech is of the kind of allegorical speech. The orators generally use this style of speech.

Though the hadith enumerates only three such things, there is a fourth too which is not mentioned. He had said on looking at the stars (هٰذا ربّی) This is my Lord! (6:76). The reason it is not mentioned is that he had spoken these words when he was a young boy. At that time he was not responsible for anything, so it is disregarded.

I AM SICK: The back ground of these words is that he had tried his best to keep his father Azar and other people of his community away from idol worship. But, they did not heed his advice. Hence, he though of a way to impress on them that the idols of stone and wood do not benefit or harm them. Accordingly, when the people were preparing for a fate, some of them invited him to it. He was waiting for an opportunity. In the beginning, he declined to join them but when they persisted, he said (انّی سقیم) 'I am sick.' This seems to be against facts and untrue because he was not sick at that time. He has merely pretended so that he may not have to go with them. The ulama say that by saying, 'I am sick.' Prophet Ibrahim عليه السلام meant to make clear to them that like every person, sickness affects him now and then. On the face of it, his words should that he was sick and could not accompany them. In fact, however, he meant the opposite of that. Some authorities say that prophet Ibrahim عليه السلام had spoken in such a way that their mind was diverted to the stars. Since they believed in astrology, they presumed that Ibrahim عليه السلام was under the influence of one of the stars, and would full sick. This interpretation is based on the verse of the Quran that recounts this event. (37:89) According to another opinion, prophet Ibrahim عليه السلام did not mean any physical sickness by the word 'I am sick; Rather, he meant to express his disgust at heart at their disbelief and transgression. | "I am feeling sick at heart. How then may I come with you?"

THE BIGGEST DID IT: These words of Prophet Ibrahim عليه السلام, "Rather, the biggest of them did it" also concern the first words, 'I am sick," When everyone was gone to their festival, prophet Ibrahim عليه السلام went to the temple of the biggest idol, sweetmeat, fruit. Etc.

were placed in front of the many idols as offerings.
He said to the idols with scorn, 'why do you not eat? Everything is here!" Then, he asked, "why do you not answer me?" then, he broke all the smaller idols and put the axe on the shoulder of the biggest of the idols, and departed from there. When the people returned and saw their idols shuttered, they asked each after who could have done it. They concluded that (Prophet) Ibrahim عليه السلام was the only one in the village and he always scorned them for idols worship. So, he was summoned before the elders. When they asked him if he hand done it, he said: (Arabic) "Rather, the biggest of them has done it." (21:63) This answer to was contrary to facts but it cannot be called a lie because his intention was to put his people on the night path. This is one of the ways to correct a misled people. Prophet Ibrahim عليه السلام people had believed that their idols helped them and avenged their enemies. So he proved them wrong. The idols that could not protect themselves may not be expected to help other.
Some commentator say that in his word (بَلْ فَعَلَهُ كَبِيرُهُمْ) the word (كبيرهم) 'the biggest of them' stands for Allah, the Most High. So, whatever happened to the idols was as decreed by Allah who is the Greatest and whose will prevails.
MY SISTER: Sayyiduna Ibrahim عليه السلام said about his wife, Sayyidah عليه السلام sarah that she was his sister. This apparently is contrary to the facts and one's wife cannot be one's sister. But, in truth it is not against facts because they followed the same religion (Islam) and were siblings-in-religion. The Quran says:

When two people marry, their religious fraternity does not end. Besides, Sayyidah sarah was the daughter of Prophet عليه السلام Ibrahim's paternal uncle Kharan. So, calling her a sister cannot be termed a lie.
Prophet Ibrahim عليه السلام said to Sayyidah عليه السلام Sarah, "There is no believer around besides you and me." This was true. At that time. no one else had believed in Prophet Ibrahim عليه السلام. There was no third believer in that city besides them. However, a question does arise: there was a third believer too, Sayyiduna Lut عليه السلام, as the Quran says:

(And Lut, believed in him.) (29:26)

This question might be correct in Prophet Ibrahim عليه السلام has said that there was no third believer in the entire world, or if Sayyiduna Lut عليه السلام was there with them.
Shaykh Abdul Haq عليه السلام has written that Perhaps Prophet Ibrhim عليه السلام has referred to their genuine relationship is Islam and the particularity of their relationship that Sayyidah Sarah عليه السلام had. The Shaykh has also answered another question, the summary of which is reproduced here:
Why did prophet Ibrahim عليه السلام not tell straightaway that the woman was his wife? Why did he say, 'She is my sister?" what difference did it make to the tyrant whether the woman was someone's wife or sister? In ancient time's even rogues and scoundrels did not take away anyone's wife. The answer to these questions is that the tyrant never snatched anyone's sister from him but took away a wife from her husband. Moreover, that tyrant was a Zoroastrian, a fire worshipper. They have a high regard for the relationship of brother and sister and they never touch another man's sister when she was under his care If anyone calls a woman his sister then they desist from her. Her Brother is responsible for her. Prophet Ibrahim عليه السلام wished to capitalize on their principle.

However, the tyrant was unrelenting and did not respect their own standard He lost his senses and tried to molest her but did not succeed.

IBRAHIM عليه السلام STOOD TO PRAY: When Sayyidah Sarah عليه السلام was taken to the Tyrant, Sayyiduna Ibrahim عليه السلام stood up to offer salah to present his supplication to the Mighty Lord praying to Him to keep his wife safe and to rescue her from her predicament. This is the practice of those of Allah slaves who are close to Him. When they are distress and surrounded b worry, they stand up to offer salah. This is as the Quran says:

يٰٓاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوا اسْتَعِيْنُوْا بِالصَّبْرِ وَالصَّلٰوةِ

{O you who believe! Seek help in perseverance and slah} (2:153)

WAS SEIZED: The Arabic word (اخذ) is in the passive sense. There are three opinions explaining this word.

(i) When he tyrant advanced with an evil intention, he was compelled to desist by nature.

(ii) He was seized promptly when he intended to cause her harm and Divine punishment descended on him.

(iii) When he tried to touch her, he become unconscious.

According to another version, the word (اخذ) is with a shaddah. It means to cast a spell.

The word (غط) is also in the passive tense. It means to e throttled, or 'have a snoring sound come out from one's throat.

SENT HER HONORABLY: The tyrant was overawed by Sayyidah Sarah عليها السلام. he recognized some supernatural powers in her and was scared b her. He gave her a female slave by the name of Hajar or Aajar. She is better known as Hajarah عليها السلام.

Sayyidah Sarah عليها السلام had no children. So, she presented her to Sayyiduna Ibrhaim عليه السلام, saying to him, 'I hope you will have a child from her." He was one hundred years old at the time Allah best owed on him a son. (Sayyiduna) Ismail عليه السلام through Sayyidah Hajrah عليها السلام Then, Sayyiduna Sarah عليها السلام also has a child, (Sayyiduna Ishaq عليه السلام).

BANU MA AS SAMA: These words were addressed to the children of Sayyiduna Ismail عليه السلام, the Arabs, Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه addressed them in these words to express their noble ancestry and greatness. The water of the heaven is coined to confirm purify. Some authorities say that the Arabs are so-called because they awaits rain. They go where it rains. Some others say that (بنی ماء السماء) refers to the ansars, because they are descendants of Aamir ibn Harithah Azdi, the grandfather of Nu'man ibn Mudhir. His sobriquet was Ma as-Sama. He had earned this sobriquet because people of his tribe used to pray for rain by his virtue.

According to another opinion, Ma as-Sama refers to zamzam. Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه referred to the fact that the spring of zamzam was discovered because of Sayyiduna Ismail عليه السلام. Its water had come down to earth from the sacred and pure heaven, and whatever advantages are derived from the earth are sent by Allah from the heaven.

Though all the people of Arabic are not children of Sayyidah Hajrah عليها السلام, yet most of them are the offspring of Sayyiduna Ismail عليه السلام. Therefore, all the Arabs are called Banu

Ma' as Sama on the basis of the majority.[1]

SOME WORDS ABOUT THREE PROPHETS عليهم السلام IBRAHIM, LUT, YUSUF

(٥٧٠٥) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نَحْنُ اَحَقُّ بِالشَّكِّ مِنْ اِبْرَاهِيْمَ اِذْ قَالَ رَبِّ اَرِنِيْ كَيْفَ تُحْيِ الْمَوْتٰى وَيَرْحَمُ اللّٰهُ لُوْطًا لَقَدْ كَانَ يَأْوِيْ اِلٰى رُكْنٍ شَدِيْدٍ وَلَوْ لَبِثْتُ فِي السِّجْنِ طُوْلَ مَا لَبِثَ يُوْسُفُ لَاَجَبْتُ الدَّاعِيَ۔ (متفق عليه)

5705. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "We are more rightful than Ibrahim عليه السلام to doubt when he said:

رَبِّ اَرِنِيْ كَيْفَ تُحْيِ الْمَوْتٰى

{My Lord, show me how you give life to the dead}. (2:260)

And, may Allah have mercy on Lut عليه السلام who did hope for some strong support for refuge (11:80).

And, if I had been in prison as long as Yusuf عليه السلام was, then I would surely have responded (positively) to the one inviting me out."[2]

COMMENTARY: The doubt of which this hadith speaks as having overtaken Ibrahim عليه السلام is mentioned in this verse:

وَاِذْ قَالَ اِبْرَاهِيْمُ رَبِّ اَرِنِيْ كَيْفَ تُحْيِ الْمَوْتٰى ط قَالَ اَوَلَمْ تُؤْمِنْ ط قَالَ بَلٰى وَلٰكِنْ لِّيَطْمَئِنَّ قَلْبِيْ ط

{And (recall) when Ibrahim said, "My Lord! Show me how you give life to the dead?" He asked, "Do you not believe?" He said, "Yes, but that my heart may rest at ease.} (2:260)

When this verse was revealed, some of the sahabah رضى الله عنهم spoke with a view to show the merit of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saying that he did not have any doubt of this kind. When the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم heard them, he corrected them. 'We have more right to doubt them. "We have more right to doubt than Ibrahim عليه السلام had." In other words, he conceded that both of them could have this kind of doubt though it is an improbable proposition for them to doubt in this way, because al the Prophet عليه السلام are perfect examples of faith and conviction. They are, by nature, preserved from doubt of any kind. Hence, the meaning of the words of he Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is that this particular verse does not express any doubt about resurrection of the dead, Rather, prophet Ibrahim عليه السلام had been convinced firmly of that. All he intended was to raise the degrees of his awareness and conviction. He wished to progress from (علم اليقين) knowledge of certainty to (عين اليقين) eye of certainty (102:5%7) which he described as (ليطمئن قلبى) 'my heart may be at peace.' He merely wanted his belief to be coupled with observation so that peace of heart may become stranger.

It was to make the sahabah رضى الله عنهم understand that if Prophet Ibrahim عليه السلام could be said to have had doubt, then such doubt could have certainly made inroads into our hearts to. "Thus if doubts and uncertainty do not come to our minds, then you must know that Ibrahim عليه السلام, too, was like us, well set at the degree of perfect faith and Divine awareness. No kind of doubt or uncertainty had encroached his mind."

There also is an explanation that when prophet Ibrahim عليه السلام told the king Nimrud and his subject, 'My Lord given life and causes death." (2:258) he also requested his Lord to how them how he did it so that everyone may have an observation of it with the eye of certainty.

This saying of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم implicitly expresses the excellence and merit of Prophet Ibrahim عليه السلام over the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم though it is confirmed that he himself excels over every other Prophet عليه السلام. the scholars say that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had expressed the excellence of Prophet عليه السلام out of humility and before the revelation declaring him the chief of all mankind, and more excellent than all else. This explanation applies to every other hadith that seems to conceal his excellence.

MERCY ON YOU: As for Prophet Lut عليه السلام hoping for strong support for refuge, it means strong and powerful people. The people of Prophet Lut عليه السلام were very wicked and deeply sinful. They indulged in homosexuality and instead of paying heed to him, they transgressed beyond limit and ridiculed him. When they exceeded, Allah sent His an gels to punish them in their city Sudum. They came in the garb of human beings as guest of prophet Lut عليه السلام. They were young men, very beautiful. On seeing them. Prophet Lut عليه السلام was very worried that his wicked people might do to his guests. He was not told at once that his guests were angels.

The masses soon learnt of the arrival of the guests. They come to prophet Lut عليه السلام and demanded that he hand over to them his guests. He did his best to frustrate their evil desires. When he saw that the people were unmoved, he become dejected and forlorn, and he said,

لَوْ أَنَّ لِي بِكُمْ قُوَّةً أَوْ آوِي إِلَىٰ رُكْنٍ شَدِيدٍ

(would that I had power against you, or might, have some strong support for refuge) (11:80)

It is this wish that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم alluded and exclaimed, "May Allah have mercy on Lut عليه السلام!" He sought human support though the real support is Allah's. It is His power and protection. It is the style of the speaking of the Arabs that when someone falls short in doing something or saying something or does or says what he ought not to have said due done, then they remark. "May Allah be merciful to you!" Or. May Allah forgive you!" This gives rise to the question whether the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم meant that prophet Lut عليه السلام fell short of something and did not rely on Allah's power that he sought refuge of a strong support" (we seek refuge in Allah from such thought). The answer is that he certainly did not seek support of others than Allah. It is wrong to think so and it is also contrary to the ways of the Prophet عليه السلام and it is disrespectful to them.

Prophet Lut عليه السلام had not forgotten Allah and had not sought refuge of someone else. He was extremely worried and in a pitiable condition and he expressed the hope. "May Allah help me and give me enough strength to teach these wicked people a lesson."

Then his Lord helped him. The angels who had come in the form of young beautiful men confided to him that they had been sent by Allah to punish the wicked people.

As for the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saying, he forbade that anyone dead or alive should be backbited and his faults be picked so naturally we cannot imagine that he would say any such ting about a Prophet (Lut) عليه السلام as will be like degrading him, or showing him as weak. His meaning was Prophet Lut عليه السلام was a human being and in the difficult times, his human nature prompted him to wish that the wicked people should be punished and he sought support of a strong power and wished for human help.

The action of his teaches us that in such trying circumstances we may seek help because of our links with the world of means. We may use monetary, material and worldly means though we rely only on the Lord of the worlds and we recognize only His help and support.

However, the question remains: why did the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم begin his saying about Prophet Lut عليه السلام with (يرحم الله) 'May Allah have mercy.? He did it to preclude anyone from presuming that this event of Prophet Lut عليه السلام is derogatory and below his dignity. Using such words in the beginning of a statement is also a form of supplication and of respect, or it is to retain the rank of the person spoke of.[1]

The Quran uses it when addressing the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم:

{Allah forgive you (O Prophet)! Why did you permit them (to stay behinmd)...} (9:43)

If I was I prison so long: The last portion of the hadith is about the patience of Prophet Yusuf عليه السلام. His life story begins when the Aziz (minister) of Egypt bought him as his slave. He brought him home but did not treat him like a slave. He kept him as a son making him responsible for household affairs. Yusuf عليه السلام was young and extremely handsome and chaste, but the wife of the aziz could not check herself and was infatuated with him. However, he kept himself aloof and did not succumb to her advances He was from a family of Prophets عليهم السلام and Allah had chosen him to be one. She tried to seduce him in many ways but when she could not attract him, she began to compel him, but Allah preserved him from evil. Finally, her husband got wind of her wickedness, but he protected her from blame and praised Yusuf عليه السلام.

Anyway, her motives could not be concealed for long. The women of the royal family learnt of her obsession for he slave little by little and began to gossip. She was embarrassed and thought of a way to get even with them. She invited the woman of the royal family to a banquet. When they were seated and had picked up their knives to cut fruit, she called Yusuf عليه السلام. He obeyed and came out to them to receive her instructions. When the women saw him, they were tantalized and instead of cutting the fruit, they cut of their own hands. The wife of the Aziz was elated and said proudly. "He is the one for whom you blamed me." She confessed that she had tried to seduce him but in vain and said, "If he does not submit to my advances then he will go to prison."

Finally, the Aziz put him in prison for come period in spite of knowing well that he was innocent. He hoped that the episode would be forgotten in this way. Yusuf عليه السلام was in the cell for nine years. Meanwhile the king of Egypt, the pharaoh, learnt of his glorious virtue and powers. He issued a command for his release, but he declined to come out unless his innocence was established. It is about this that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If I was in place of Yusuf عليه السلام I would have accepted the command to come out of the prison without hesitation, or any condition."

Clearly, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم praised him highly with these words. His patience was remarkable. Having been in prison for a long time, he was not in a hurry to get out without aving his innocence established. It was only his greatness and exemplary character. he Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم praised Yusuf عليه السلام patience but himself displayed immense umbleness, for he himself was no less patient. Rather the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم patience our hadowed the achievements of all other Prophets عليهم السلام.[1]

PROPHET MUSA عليه السلام ANNOYED BY BANU ISRA'IL

(٥٧٠٦) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ مُوْسٰى كَانَ رَجُلًا حَيِيًّا سِتِّيْرًا لَا يُرٰى مِنْ جِلْدِهٖ شَيْءٌ إِسْتِحْيَاءً فَآذَاهُ مَنْ آذَاهُ مِنْ بَنِيْ إِسْرَائِيْلَ فَقَالُوْا مَا تَسَتَّرَ هٰذَا التَّسَتُّرَ إِلَّا مِنْ عَيْبٍ بِجِلْدِهٖ إِمَّا بَرَصٌ أَوْ أُدْرَةٌ وَإِنَّ اللّٰهَ أَرَادَ أَنْ يُبَرِّئَهُ فَخَلَا يَوْمًا وَحْدَهُ لِيَغْتَسِلَ فَوَضَعَ ثَوْبَهُ عَلٰى حَجَرٍ فَفَرَّ الْحَجَرُ بِثَوْبِهٖ فَجَمَحَ مُوْسٰى فِيْ أَثَرِهٖ يَقُوْلُ ثَوْبِيْ يَا حَجَرُ حَتّٰى انْتَهٰى إِلٰى مَلَأٍ مِنْ بَنِيْ إِسْرَائِيْلَ فَرَأَوْهُ عُرْيَانًا أَحْسَنَ مَا خَلَقَ اللّٰهُ وَقَالُوْا وَاللّٰهِ مَا بِمُوْسٰى مِنْ بَأْسٍ وَأَخَذَ ثَوْبَهُ وَطَفِقَ بِالْحَجَرِ ضَرْبًا فَوَاللّٰهِ إِنَّ بِالْحَجَرِ لَنَدَبًا مِنْ أَثَرِ ضَرْبِهٖ ثَلٰثًا أَوْ أَرْبَعًا أَوْ خَمْسًا (متفق عليه)

5706. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "surely, Musa عليه السلام was very shy. He kept himself covered, nothing of his body was ever seen because of his modesty. Some of the Banu Israi'il harassed him, alleging, 'He conceals his body to this extent only because of a defect on his skin – perhaps leprosy, scrotal hernia or some other malady.' But, Allah decided to absolve him of what they allege. Thus, one day when Musa عليه السلام secluded himself to have a both, he placed his garments on a stone but the stone fled with his garments. Musa عليه السلام pursued the stone, calling out, 'My garments, O stoned My garments, O Stone!' He ended up at a company of Banu Isra'il and they observed him naked, the best of men of Allah's creation. So, they said (in one voice) 'By Allah, there is nothing wrong with Musa!' He took his garments and beat the stone with his staff. By Allah, the stone has three, four or five marks of the beating on it."[2]

OMMENTARY: The Banu Isra'il persecuted and insulted prophet Musa عليه السلام in many 'ays. Apart from the incident mentioned in the hadith, they refused to give up idol-worship, accept the Torah, to enter Bayt-ul-Maqdis or to be satisfied with mann and salwa (manna a veetish liquid and quails). They left no stone unturned to annoy him with their words and eeds. Prophet Musa عليه السلام was, however, determined and unnerved. He patiently ontinued to convey Allah's message to them and to try to guide them to the right path. It 'as a mighty blessing of Allah that he always came out successful and with honours.

nstead of lauding prophet Musa's modesty, they alleged that he had bodily defect. But, as his hadith discloses, he was cleared of that allegation, too certainly, Allah proves as pure nd perfect such of His salves as are engaged in service to His religion and absolves them f any shortcoming with which his antagonists blame them. In this way, Allah causes his ncere slave to rise and be honoured in the sight of the ignorant people.

As for the stone, it had as many marks on it as many times prophet Musa عليه السلام struck it. Some authorities say that Allah commanded him to pick up the stone and keep it with him. Later, when he come with the Banu Isra'il to Tiyah (the sina'I desert), he struck it with his staff once or many times and twelve springs gushed forth from it, This miracle of Prophet Musa عليه السلام is mentioned in the Quran (2:60): when they came to the desert to sina the Banu Israi'il were perturbed on not finding water. So at the command of Allah, Prophet Musa عليه السلام struck a rock of a mountain so that twelve springs gushed forth for the twelve tribes of Banu Israil, one for each.

This rock of the mountain means the same stone that had fled with the garments of Prophet Musa عليه السلام.

Two of the miracles are known from this hadith. (i) The lifeless stone began to move and run. And, (ii) the staff of Prophet Musa عليه السلام leaving marks on the stone when he struck it with it.

We also learn that is permitted to have a both in a secluded place without clothes on. But, it is better cover one's private parts and the rest of the star while having a bath even in a private place.

It is also known tat the Prophet عليه السلام and the awliyas are troubled by the harassment of the rude and opponents but they persevere.[1]

5707. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "While Ayyub عليه السلام was having a bath in the nude, some golden locusts came down on him. So, Ayyub عليه السلام began to collect them in his garment. His Lord asked him, 'Ayyub, have I not made you independent of what you see? He said, of course, by your Might. But, I cannot do without Your blessing."[2]

COMMENTARY: Prophet Ayyub عليه السلام possibly had a lower wrapper round him when he was having a bath, or had nothing on him while had the bath in a secluded place as Prophet Musa عليه السلام was said to have done. While it is not disallowed, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم has said that it is better to be modest before one's Lord and not bathe oneself in the nude even in a secluded place. This is part of noble manner.

He collected the golden locusts in a garment lying by him.

Allah was not angry at him to collecting the golden locusts, but the addressed him out of love and mercy. Prophet he addressed him out of love and mercy. Prophet Ayyub عليه السلام did not collect them out of great but to benefit from the blessing and to give thanks.

5708. Sayyiduna Abu Huryarah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that a man among the Muslims and a man among the Jews abused one another. The Muslim said. "By Him who has chosen Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم over all the people of the world!" The Jew countered, "By Him who has chosen Musa علیہ السلام over all the people of the world!" The Muslim (flew into a rage and) slapped the Jew. So, the Jew went to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and complained to him about that which has transpired between him and the Muslim. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had the Muslim brought to him and asked him what had happened. He reported about it and the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said "Do not regard me as superior, to Musa علیہ السلام. On the day of resurrection (when the trumpet is blown), all mankind will become unconscious and I will be unconscious along with them. Then, I will be the first of them to gain consciousness, but I will se that Musa علیہ السلام has held the side of the throne. I will not be able to say whether he too had become unconscious and had regained consciousness ahead of me, or he is one of those whom Allah has exempted (from becoming unconscious)."[2]

According to another version, he said, "I will not be able to say whether his reckoning had taken place when he had fallen unconscious on the day at Toor, or had been resurrected before me. And, I say not that anyone is more excellent tam Yunus علیہ السلام ibn Matta."

5709. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed narrated that he said, "Do not distinguish between the prophet."[3]

regard some of the Prophets of Allah, the Moot High, as more excellent than others."[1]

COMMENTARY: Allah has said in he Quran:

{I have chosen you above mankind.} (7:144. addressed to Prophet Musa) عليه السلام

This refers to the time of Prophet Musa عليه السلام Allah had declared him to be the best of his time. But, the Jew declared that he was the most superior at al times. In this way, he said that Prophet Musa عليه السلام was better than the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم too. This infuriated the Muslim with whom the Jew had argued.

As for the words that Allah has exempted him perhaps, this might have been deduced from the following verse in which the angels are exempted.

{And the trumpet shall be blown, so all who are in the heavens and all who are on the earth shall swoon, except whom Allah will} (39:68)

So just as the angels will not swoon and are exempted.

"In either case, therefore, whether he recovers from swerving before me or he is exe..ipted, he is definitely more excellent than me on that day. So it is meaningless to say that I am superior to him." However, we must say that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was being un assuming. He spoke of Prophet Musa عليه السلام as more excellent out of humility. The truth, however, is that Prophet Musa عليه السلام might have had a partial excellence on that day, at the most, wnich does not deny an absolute excellence of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

Besides the foregoing words of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم were spoken when the revelation was not received in which it is declared that the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is more excellent than every on else. Once the revelation was received, it is established without any semblance of doubt that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم excellence is confirmed over all else.

As for prophet Musa عليه السلام losing consciousness at mount Tur, he had wished to see Allah when he was there. Allah told him that he would not be able to see Him, but that He would throw this light on a mountain. If it is able to endure the light then Prophet Musa عليه السلام might express his desire. But, when Allah cast His Light on the mountain, that portion of it crashed into pieces, and Prophet Musa عليه السلام tell unconscious.

It is to this swooning that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم referred. If prophet Musa عليه السلام will not sworn on the day of resurrection then that exemption will perhaps be because he had swooned already at Mount Tur.

It must be understood that the swooning mentioned here (on the day of resurrection) is not the one that means death and annihilation which will take place in the beginning of the Last Day after the trumpet is blown become at that time neither of these two Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم will be there. So that swooning or death and annihilation will not be over them (for they are dead already). Besides, after this death there will be resurrection, not recovering or regaining consciousness. As for the resurrection after death, the first person to be resurrected will be the Prophet (in the gathering place). Hence the swooning that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم mentions in this hadith is the one after resurrection in the place of gathering. All people will fall down after swooning.

fter that, when people regain consciousness, the first person to recover will be the ophet صلى الله عليه وسلم but he will see that Prophet Musa عليه السلام is already standing, his hand olding the Throne. This will imply:

(i) Either he was not among those who had lost consciousness,

O NOT GIVE ME SUPERIORITY: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم words, "Do not give me iperiority above Musa do not mean that there is no difference of rank and degrees etween the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and that Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم may not be garded as more excellent than prophet Musa عليه السلام or any other Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. ather, they means that no Prophet عليه السلام, not even prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم, should called superior in such a way that the one with whom he is compared is belittled or erided. While one of them is extolled the other is underestimated. Not only is this out of eping with the excellence of the Prophets عليهم السلام but it also creates discard and hatred etween the different ummahs.

ne Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم words also mean that superiority of any Prophet عليه السلام should not expressed in such a way that the one with whom he is compared is divested of all erits. Moreover, all Prophets عليهم السلام are at par as for as prophethood is concerned and ery Prophet عليه السلام has an equal position, so none of them should be called superior in rms of prophethood.

ne Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم words that none is superior to Yunus عليه السلام ibn Matta: Matta was e name of the father of Prophet Yunus صلى الله عليه وسلم as stated in the Qamus. But, it is entioned in Jami-al-Usool that it was his mother's name. He is named here particularly ecause he did not show perfect resolve and determination. Rather, when his people sobeyed him and caused him hardship, he became impatient and angrily. Went away om them. He sat down in a boat. Given this, some people could suppose that any other ophet عليه السلام might be given superiority over him. However, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم smissed such in idea. He taught his ummah to keep away from such thought because at would amount to degrading him.[1] ne words 'do not regard some of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم of Allah as more excellent than hers are as explained previously.

(ii) That could compare a Prophet عليه السلام unfavourably in the fold of Prophethood itself.

(iii) This might have been disallowed before the verse was revealed in which the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is given more excellence. This revelation abrogates the disallowance and it is clear that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is more excellence than all the Prophet عليه السلام. It is correct, therefore, to call him superior to any of the Prophet عليه السلام.

the version of the Mishkat the words (لاتفضلوا بين انبياء الله) are (تفضلوا) to mean do not differentiate etween Allah's Prophet عليه السلام. This will be said to be along the lines of Allah's words:

لَا نُفَرِّقُ بَيْنَ اَحَدٍ مِّنْهُمْ

(٥٧١٠) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَايَنْبَغِيْ لِاَحَدٍ اَنْ يَقُوْلَ اِنِّيْ خَيْرٌ مِنْ يُوْنُسَ بْنِ مَتّٰى مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ لِلْبُخَارِيِّ قَالَ مَنْ قَالَ اَنَا خَيْرٌ مِّنْ يُوْنُسَ بْنِ مَتّٰى فَقَدْ كَذَبَ

5710.Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, 'It does not behave anyone to say (about me) that I am better than Yunus عليه السلام ibn Matta."[1]

According to another version, he said, "He who says (about me) that I am better tha. Yunus عليه السلام ibn Matta has indeed lied."[2]

COMMENTARY: This hadith can mean that no one should say that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is better than Prophet Yunus ibn Matta. But, it could also mean that none should ca himself better than Prophet Yunus عليه السلام ibn Matta.

Such a person is a liar if he means the first thing but if he call himself better than proph Yunus عليه السلام then, indeed, he is a disbeliever. The ulama say unanimously that anyo who regards himself superior to a Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم or a Messenger عليه السلام is a disbelieve As for the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saying that none should call him better than Prophet Yun عليه السلام ibn Matta, he spoke these words in a humble way. So this hadith does not contrad the hadith:

{I am the chief of the progeny of Aadam (عليه السلام) and there is no beast about it}

This statement is one of facts and an expression of gratitude.

Why Prophet Yunus عليه السلام was singed out in this hadith has been mentioned ion tl comments to the previous hadith.

(٥٧١١) وَعَنْ اُبَيِّ بْنِ كَعْبٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ الْغُلَامَ الَّذِيْ قَتَلَهُ الْخَضِرُ طُبِعَ كَافِرًا وَلَوْ عَاشَ لَاَرْهَقَ اَبَوَيْهِ طُغْيَانًا وَكُفْرًا (متفق عليه)

5711. Sayyiduna Ubayy ibn Ka'b رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The boy whom Khidr صلى الله عليه وسلم had killed had the disposition of an infidel. If he had lived, he would have caused his parents to plunge into disbelief."[3]

COMMENTARY: According to another hadith (كل مولود يولد على فطرة الاسلام) (every new born is bo on the nature of Islam).

So, this hadith means that the boy whom Sayyiduna Khidr عليه السلام had killed was destin to die as a disbeliever.

To be born on the disposition of Islam is to be receptive to guidance and to be able to acc Islam. But, later on in life, outside influences may divert the child to the wrong path and i may not retain the inborn disposition.

Khidr is spelt in Arabic with different marks. This is the epithet. His real name was Lyan ibn Malkan (or Balyan ibn Malkan). Some authorities have said that he was the brother of Prophet Ilyas عليه السلام. some have written that he was a son of Prophet Aadam عليه السلام. some others have said that he was through Yafit a descendant of Prophet Nuh عليه السلام, saying also that his father was one of the kings.

It is also stated that he lived in the time of Prophet Ibrahim عليه السلام,

According to a common belief, he was a Prophet, has a long life, is concealed to people generally and will remain alive till the last Day. Because he die drink the water of life. but, some prominent scholars of hadith have denied that he has a perpetual life, among them are Bukhari رحمه الله, Ibn Mubarak رحمه الله and others, yet a majority of the scholars, the Sufis and the righteous people hold that he is alive. Besides, it is generally reported that Khidr عليه السلام has met some righteous men and spoken to them, and he is said to be present at places where god and piety is practiced. He is mentioned often in the life accounts of the mashaykh and strange incidents are recalled.

The Ghawth-uth-thaqalayn, Shaykh Abdul Qadir Jilani رحمه الله, was once speaking on a topic in the light of a Prophetic hadith. Suddenly he saw Sayyiduna KHidr عليه السلام pas by a amr, and said:

قف يا اسرائيلى واسمع كلام محمدى

"Stop O Israili (khidr))! Listen to the words of Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم.

It is report ed that in those days, whichever of the mashaykh met Khidr عليه السلام, he (khidr) advised him to attend the gathering of Abdul Qadir Jilam رحمه الله because of the blessing that descended thee. Success and good fortune were the lot of those who attended his gatherings.

WHY CALLED KHIDR

(٥٧١٢) وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ إِنَّمَا سُمِّيَ الْخَضِرُ لِأَنَّهُ جَلَسَ عَلَى فَرْوَةٍ بَيْضَاءَ فَإِذَا هِيَ تَهْتَزُّ مِنْ خَلْفِهِ خَضْرَآءَ (رواه البخارى)

5712. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Khidr was so named only because he sat on a barren white land, it turned green with plantation because of his sitting on it."[1]

COMMENTARY: Khidr or Khadir means 'green,' verdant, 'vegetables'.

MUSA عليه السلام & THE ANGEL OF DEATH

(٥٧١٣) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ جَآءَ مَلَكُ الْمَوْتِ إِلَى مُوْسَى بْنِ عِمْرَانَ فَقَالَ لَهُ أَجِبْ رَبَّكَ قَالَ فَلَطَمَ مُوْسَى عَيْنَ مَلَكِ الْمَوْتِ فَفَقَأَهَا قَالَ فَرَجَعَ الْمَلَكُ إِلَى اللّٰهِ تَعَالَى فَقَالَ إِنَّكَ أَرْسَلْتَنِي إِلَى عَبْدٍ لَكَ لَا يُرِيْدُ الْمَوْتَ وَقَدْ فَقَأَ عَيْنِي قَالَ فَرَدَّ اللّٰهُ إِلَيْهِ عَيْنَهُ وَقَالَ ارْجِعْ إِلَى عَبْدِي فَقُلِ الْحَيٰوةَ تُرِيْدُ فَإِنْ كُنْتَ تُرِيْدُ الْحَيٰوةَ فَضَعْ يَدَكَ عَلَى مَتْنِ ثَوْرٍ فَمَا تَوَارَتْ يَدُكَ مِنْ شَعْرِهِ فَإِنَّكَ تَعِيْشُ بِهَا سَنَةً

[1] Bukhari # 3402, stories of the Prophet, Ibn Kathir (p 247 etc) stories from the Quran Scoharvi (P 393 etc) both DArul Isha'at Karachi,

قَالَ ثُمَّ تَمُوْتُ قَالَ فَالْاٰنَ مِنْ قَرِيْبٍ رَبِّ اَدْنِنِيْ مِنَ الْاَرْضِ الْمُقَدَّسَةِ رَمْيَةً بِحَجَرٍ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَاللّٰهِ لَوْ اَنِّيْ عِنْدَهُ لَاَرَيْتُكُمْ قَبْرَهُ اِلٰى جَنْبِ الطَّرِيْقِ عِنْدَ الْكَثِيْبِ الْاَحْمَرِ۔ (متفق عليه)

5713. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The angel of death (Izra'il) came to Musa عليه السلام ibn Imran. He said to him. 'Respond to your Lord's call, but Musa slapped the angel of death with his fist on his eye, knocking it out so, the angel returned to Allah, the Glorious, and complained, 'You did send me to one of your slaves but he does not wish to die and he has blinded me in the eye." Allah restored his eye and commended him.' Return to My slave and ask him whether it is life that he desires. If it is so, instruct him to place his hand on an ox'e back. He will than live one year for every hair under his hand (or both his hand). He (Musa) asked, "what after, that?' He said, "when, you will die, He said, 'Then, now! Promptly! My Lord, get me near the sacred territory (as Bayt-ul-Maqdis) a stones; throw from it."

Allah's Messenger said, "By Allah, were I near it, I would surely have shown you his grave beside the road close to the red hillock (or mound)."[1]

COMMENTARY: The last wish expressed by prophet Musa عليه السلام before his death was, "My Lord, get me near Bayt-ul-Maqdis" because he desired to be buried there. In these days, that place was the most excellent and the best of all. There are graves of the Prophet's عليه السلام in Bayt ul Maqdis. He emphasized his desire by saying, "a stone throw from it."

He wished to be buried near Bayt-ul-Maqdis, but not within it because, in that case, his grave would become very prominent and a haunt or homage payers. Then people might go astray and fall into mischief.

As for the red hillock, it is near Ariha. It is the area of the valley nearest to Tiyah.

We learnt from this hadith that it is mustahab to be buried near the graves of righteous people and at blessed placed.

FALSE REASONING: Some people reject this hadith arguing

(i) what does it not mean that the angel of death lost his eye?

(ii) How is it possible for a human being to slap the angel of death when he comes to take the soul?

(iii) This incident suggest that death was disliked and considered as undesirable and it was desired to live longer in the world.

(iv) This does not behave one who is a great Prophet and Messenger عليه السلام

These arguments are answered by this interpret action of the hadith as is given in the lines that follow.

The angel of death came to prophet Musa عليه السلام in human form.

Prophet Musa عليه السلام did not recognize him as the angel of death who had come to take his soul.

He did not like that a stranger should in trade into his hours.

When he called him to death, Prophet Musa عليه السلام was afraid that the intruder might kill him.

So he got angry and hit him in self defence.

Since the angel was in human form, so human weakness was seen on him and he lost an eye because of the terrible blow given him by Prophet Musa عليه السلام.

Prophet Musa عليه السلام also found him to be a liar because he claimed to extract souls.

Obviously, no human being can extract souls.
So, he was enraged at the perjurer.
Anger should be shown for Allah's sake when anyone lies.
Therefore, no objection should be raised on Prophet Musa's عليه السلام conduct. This is why no questions were put to him by the Lord.
Even after Prophet Musa عليه السلام anger the angel did not resume his angelic form. He departed without disclosing his identity.
Then Allah put the angel back to his own original appearance as an angel. He was cleared of the defect that had come over his human form.
The angel had drown his own conclusions that Prophet Musa عليه السلام was displeased at the mention of death and did not wish to die. He reported according to Allah. But Allah knew the facts.
Allah sent the angel back to Prophet Musa عليه السلام with a call to death in an extraordinary form.
At the same time, Prophet Musa عليه السلام had realized that this affair concerned the higher world because the intruder had disappeared suddenly.
So, when the angel of death came to him again with news of death, his manner of speech depicted a complete change. He showed a warm reception promptly and departed to the friend of High.
It is said that Prophet Musa عليه السلام was quick tempered. He never tolerated anything against his principle and temperament. When he had gone to Mount Tur or Hawrab to receive the Torah, he had deputed his brother, Prophet Harun عليه السلام to oversee the Banu Isra'il. He was away for more than a month and the Banu Isra'il got the opportunity to play their tricks. They were depued by an evil man, Samiri, into worshipping a calf. Prophet Harun عليه السلام did his best to dissuade them from their polytheistic learning but his preaching fell on deaf ears. When prophet Musa عليه السلام returned and found them worshipping the calf, he flew into a rage and held Prophet Harun صلى الله عليه وسلم by his hair in head and beard thinking that he had not made the people desist. Prophet Harun عليه السلام enlightened him with the facts and pacified him.
In short, the soundness of this hadith is unquestionable. We must believe in what it says If we do not understand anything of it, we must regard it as our own weakness. The foregoing explanation should have answered the question comprehensively.

DESCRIPTION OF THE PROPHETS عليهم السلام

(٥٧١٤) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ عُرِضَ عَلَيَّ الْاَنْبِيَاءُ فَإِذَا مُوْسٰى ضَرْبٌ مِّنَ الرِّجَالِ كَاَنَّهٗ مِنْ رِجَالِ شَنُوْءَةَ وَرَاَيْتُ عِيْسَى بْنَ مَرْيَمَ فَإِذَا اَقْرَبُ مَنْ رَاَيْتُ بِهٖ شَبَهًا عُرْوَةُ بْنُ مَسْعُوْدٍ وَرَاَيْتُ اِبْرَاهِيْمَ فَإِذَا اَقْرَبُ مَنْ رَاَيْتُ بِهٖ شَبَهًا صَاحِبُكُمْ يَعْنِيْ نَفْسَهٗ وَرَاَيْتُ جِبْرَئِيْلَ فَإِذَا اَقْرَبُ مَنْ رَاَيْتُ بِهٖ شَبَهًا دِحْيَةُ بْنُ خَلِيْفَةَ (رواه مسلم)

5714. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم were introduced to me. Behold, Musa عليه السلام was of a light body as through a man of Banu Shanu'ah, And I saw Easa ibn Maryam and, of those people whom I have seen, he resembled most urwah ibn Mas'ud. And I saw

Ibrahim عليه السلام, and of those whom I have seen, he looked most like your (this) companion" – he meant himself ' – and I saw JIbril عليه السلام, and of those whom I have seen, he is very much like Diryah ibn Khalifah.[1]

COMMENTARY: This hadith is about the Miraj or the night of ascension to the heavens. I the Masjid Aqswa (in Jerusaalem) or in the heaven, he met these Prophet's Their souls wit the bodies that they possessed in this world were introduced to him. He described them t his sahabah رضي الله عنهم comparing them to the people they knew.

The tribe Shanu'ah belongs to Yemen. Its people are lean. Bihyah is a well-knov companion of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. He was very handsome and JIbril عليه السلام often came i his appearance to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

5715. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "I saw during the night of the miraj, or ascension to the heaven, Musa عليه السلام, aman of brownish colour, tall, curly haired as though he belonged to Banu Shanu'ah (having a similar body and built). And, I saw Easa عليه السلام, a man of medium height (and neither fat not lean) with a reddish fair colour and long hair. And I saw Maalik, the keeper of hell and the dajjal."

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم seeing them was among the tokens of Allah that He showed him (on that night). 'So, be not in doubt that he did meet them."[2]

COMMENTARY: The Arabic word (جعد) means curly haired. Its opposite is (سبط). But Shayk Abdul Haq Dahlawi رحمه الله said that the word (جعد) also means 'strong and robust.' Short, compact.[3] He also say that in this hadith too it is used in this letter sense to mean prophet Musa عليه السلام was strong and compact in body. He said that the next hadith corroborates his statemer when it says that Prophet Musa عليه السلام was (رجعل اشعر) and the word (رجل) is applied to ha that are not curly.

The words in the hadith (فى ايات ارهن الله اياه) 'the tokens of Allah that H showed him" are not pa of the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم saying.

And the final sentence (فلا تكن فى مرية من لقائه) (so be not in doubt that he did meet him) concerns th initial words of the hadith in which Prophet Musa عليه السلام mentioned, and refers to the vers of the Quran:

وَلَقَدْ اٰتَيْنَا مُوْسَى الْكِتٰبَ فَلَا تَكُنْ فِىْ مِرْيَةٍ مِّنْ لِّقَآئِهٖ

{And certainly we gave Musa the Book – so (O Muhamad) be not in doubt in your meting him[4] (Musa during the night of Mi'raj)} (32:23)

[2] Bukhari # 3239, Muslim # 165-267, Musnad Ahmad 1-245. The last sentence thus to the verse (32:23).

[4] It is also translated 'be not in doubt about receiving it (the Book) see Ma'ariful Quran v7, 78 Muf Muhamms shafi رحمه الله Muktaba Darul Uloom, Karachi.

This means "The fact that you met prophet Musa عليه السلام on the night of the mi'raj is undeniable. There is no doubt about it and no ambiguity at all concerning it.
Thus, it is emphasized that since the Quran also says so, it is beyond shadow of doubt that the Prophet (E met Prophet Musa عليه السلام on the night of the miraj. Let no one entertain any doubt about it.

THE NIGHT OF THE MIRAJ & MEETING THE PROPHETS عليهم السلام & RETURNING THE BOWL OF WINE

(٥٧١٦) وَعَنْ اَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَيْلَةَ اُسْرِيَ بِي لَقِيْتُ مُوْسٰى فَنَعَتَهُ فَاِذَا رَجُلٌ مُضْطَرِبٌ رَجِلُ الشَّعْرِ كَاَنَّهُ مِنْ رِجَالِ شَنُوْءَةَ وَلَقِيْتُ عِيْسٰى رَبْعَةً اَحْمَرَ كَاَنَّمَا خَرَجَ مِنْ دِيْمَاسٍ يَعْنِي الْحَمَّامَ وَرَاَيْتُ اِبْرَاهِيْمَ وَاَنَا اَشْبَهُ وَلَدِهٖ بِهٖ قَالَ فَاُتِيْتُ بِاِنَائَيْنِ اَحَدُهُمَا لَبَنٌ وَالْاٰخَرُ فِيْهِ خَمْرٌ فَقِيْلَ لِي خُذْ اَيَّهُمَا شِئْتَ فَاَخَذْتُ اللَّبَنَ فَشَرِبْتُهُ فَقِيْلَ لِي هُدِيْتَ الْفِطْرَةَ اَمَا اِنَّكَ لَوْ اَخَذْتَ الْخَمْرَ غَوَتْ اُمَّتُكَ (متفق عليه)

5716. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "On the night of the mi'raj, I met Musa عليه السلام." Then he described him, saying, "He was mudtrarab man" (which could mean that he was tall, or lean, or trembling because of fear of Allah). "His hair were neither curly nor very straight, as though a man of (the tribe of) shanu'ah. And, I met Easa عليه السلام. He was of medium height and had a red complexion. It was though he had come out of a damas (meaning, a hot bath). And, I saw Ibrahim عليه السلام. Of His progeny, I resemble him most."
He said also, "I was brought two vessels, one of them had milk and the other had wine and I was told, 'Take whichever one of the two you wish." I picked the (One that had) milk and I drank it. I was then told, 'You are guided to fitrah (or true religion). Know, if you had taken wine your ummah would have gone astray."[1]

COMMENTARY: The ulama have said about mudtarab could be tall, lean, or fearing Allah and trembling because of it.
The words (رجل الشعر) with a kasrah or a sukkun on (ج) signify hair that are neither curly nor straight. They have a light wave. But, Mulla Ali Qari رحمه الله has said that the hair tend to be curly. He has chosen this meaning because it agrees with the previous hadith.
Prophet Easa عليه السلام complexion was red tending more on red than white. He looked fresh and bright.
The preposition (فى) - in is used with {(خمر) - 'wine'} but not with {(لبن) - 'milk'}. This is only variation of speech But, some people say that it indicates that wine was less in quantity.
In presenting these two things. The objective was to demonstrate the Prophet excellence and merit. He also opted for that which guaranteed what is god and better. He reject ed that which was bad.
Milk is a natural choice and is innate to man. It is pure and a natured nourishment. In the higher world, milk represents guidance and the original status in which human beings are created. It shows that examples and forms of the things of this world are found in the higher world. Appropriate meaning are adopted from them. It is stated in book of interpretation of dreams that if anyone sees milk or sees himself drinking milk then it is interpreted as 'knowledge, religion and guidance.' Seeing wine, on the other hand, is the reverse of it. It is the root of all evils, wickedness and mischief.[1]

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was told that if he had chosen the bowl or vessel of wine then his ummah would have gone astray. But, he was not told that he would go astray because he is pure and is preserved form falling into evil.

This hadith tells us that if a leader, whether a religious leader or a king or ruler, is steadfast and determined his followers or subjects will follow suit and be on the right path.

PROPHETS علیہم السلام CONTINUE TO DO GOOD DEEDS AFTER DEATH

(٥٧١٧) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ سِرْنَا مَعَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بَيْنَ مَكَّةَ وَالْمَدِيْنَةِ فَمَرَرْنَا بِوَادٍ فَقَالَ اَيُّ وَادٍ هٰذَا فَقَالُوْا وَادِى الْاَزْرَقِ قَالَ كَاَنِّيْ اَنْظُرُ اِلٰى مُوْسٰى فَذَكَرَ مِنْ لَوْنِهٖ وَشَعْرِهٖ شَيْئًا وَاضِعًا اِصْبَعَيْهِ فِيْ اُذُنَيْهِ لَهٗ جُؤَارٌ اِلَى اللّٰهِ بِالتَّلْبِيَةِ مَارًّا بِهٰذَا الْوَادِيْ قَالَ ثُمَّ سِرْنَا حَتّٰى اَتَيْنَا عَلٰى ثَنِيَّةٍ فَقَالَ اَيُّ ثَنِيَّةٍ هٰذِهٖ قَالُوْا هَرْشٰى اَوْ لِفْتٌ فَقَالَ كَاَنِّيْ اَنْظُرُ اِلٰى يُوْنُسَ عَلٰى نَاقَةٍ حَمْرَاءَ عَلَيْهِ جُبَّةُ صُوْفٍ خِطَامُ نَاقَتِهٖ خُلْبَةٌ مَارًّا بِهٰذَا الْوَادِيْ مُلَبِّيًا (رواه مسلم)

5717. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated: We traveled (once) with Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم between Makkah and Madinah. We come to a desert (the Arabic has – wadi). He asked; Which Wadi is it?" they the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم said, "It is as though I see Musa." Then, he said something about his colour and his fair, and resumed the hadith, 'He has put his two fingers in his ears and weeps and implores Allah while calling the talbiyah (at your service – laayk...) as he passes through this wadi."

We travelled further till we came to a mountain pass. He asked, "whichi mountain pass is it?" They said, "Harsha or lift (هرشی أو لفت). He said, "It is as though I see Yunus علیہ السلام on a red she camel, wearing a thick woolen cloak. His she camel's rein is of palm fibre. He passes through this wadi calling the talbiyah."[2]

COMMENTARY: We know from this hadith that the Prophets علیہم السلام continue to perform good deeds even after they die. We also learn of the importance of hajj (Pilgrimage). Hence whatever is capable of performing hajj must not neglect this obligation.

The Prophets علیہم السلام are like the martyrs. They are alive like the martyrs. In fact, they are more excellent h an the martyrs.

Secondly, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had not recalled his mi'raj and had not said that he saw them with his open eyes but he was recalling his dream in which he had seen these Prophets علیہم السلام. The dream of a Prophet علیہ السلام is as true as anything seen by anyone's open eye.

Shaykh Abdul Haq Dahlawi رحمہ اللہ has said that it is agreed that all the Prophets علیہم السلام are alive in the true sense and as perceived in the world but their life is invisible to normal eyes. In that case, it is also true that Allah let his dear Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم see those Prophets عليهم السلام with his open eyes.

(٥٧١٨) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ خُفِّفَ عَلٰى دَاوٗدَ الْقُرْاٰنُ فَكَانَ يَاْمُرُ بِدَوَابِّهٖ فَتُسْرَجُ فَيَقْرَأُ الْقُرْاٰنَ قَبْلَ اَنْ تُسْرَجَ دَوَابُّهٗ وَلَا يَاْكُلُ اِلَّا مِنْ عَمَلِ يَدَيْهِ (رواه البخاری)

5718. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Recitation of the Zabur was made easy for Dawud علیه السلام. He would give instructions for his beasts to be saddled and before they had been saddled he would complete the recital of the Zabur. And, he ate only from the earning of his hands."[1]

COMMENTARY: The hadith does not say how many animals Prophet Dawud علیه السلام had and how much time is took to saddle them. Of course, it was not a very long time as would be enough for anyone else to recite the entire Zabur. Prophet Dawud علیه السلام possessed this ability as an extraordinary distinction. Allah causes time to prolong or to shorten for his chosen slaves.

It is said of Sayyiduna Ali رضی الله عنه, the amir ul Mu'minun, that he would begin recital of the quran when he put his foot on a stirrup of his beast and he completed its recital by the time he put his other foot in the second stirrup and sat on the beast.

Prophet Dawud علیه السلام was also a king and ruler. In spite of that he worked for a living.

JUDGEMENT IN CASE BY FATHER & SON DIFFERED

(٥٧١٩) وَعَنْهُ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ كَانَتِ امْرَأَتَانِ مَعَهُمَا ابْنَاهُمَا جَاءَ الذِّئْبُ فَذَهَبَ بِابْنِ اِحْدٰهُمَا فَقَالَتْ صَاحِبَتُهَا اِنَّمَا ذَهَبَ بِابْنِكِ وَقَالَتِ الْاُخْرٰى اِنَّمَا ذَهَبَ بِابْنِكِ فَتَحَاكَمَتَا اِلٰى دَاوٗدَ فَقَضٰى بِهٖ لِلْكُبْرٰى فَخَرَجَتَا عَلٰى سُلَيْمَانَ بْنِ دَاوٗدَ فَاَخْبَرَتَاهُ فَقَالَ ائْتُوْنِيْ بِالسِّكِّيْنِ اَشُقُّهٗ بَيْنَكُمَا فَقَالَتِ الصُّغْرٰى لَا تَفْعَلْ يَرْحَمُكَ اللّٰهُ هُوَ ابْنُهَا فَقَضٰى بِهٖ لِلصُّغْرٰى (متفق علیه)

5719. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "There were two women each of whom has a son. A wolf carried away the son of one of them. Her companion said, 'It has carried away your son.' But the other insisted, 'It is your son that the wolf has carried away.' So they took their case to Dawud علیه السلام (for judgement) and he decided in favour of the elder one. Then, they went to Sulayman ibn Dawud علیهما السلام and informed him (of their sidpute). He said, 'Get me a knife that I might divide him between the two of you.' The younger one pleaded, 'Do not do that. May Allah have mercy on you! He is her son!' So, he decided in the favour of the younger (t whom he gave the child)."[2]

COMMENTARY: Perhaps the women may have been neighbours and their sons may have been of like age and appearance, Or, each of the two woman may have known whose child it was that the wolf had carried away.

Prophet Dawud عليه السلام decided that the wolf had taken away the child of the younger women, so the surviving child belonged to the older woman. He may have decided because the surviving boy may have been in the custody of the older woman, or he may have resembled her. In the former case, he had relied on Shari'ah, for when proof is wanting is cases of ownership, custody is evidence of ownership. In the latter case he has acted as a physiognomies. Or, some other reason may have prompted him to decide as he did. In any case however, he made an independent judgement and had not received a revelation to guide him, in which case Prophet Sulayman عليه السلام would not have overruled his judgment.

Prophet Sulayman عليه السلام adopted an entirely different approach. He appealed to the emotion of the real mother who could not allow her child to be killed. She preferred to miss him and suffer herself but the child should not be hurt. When he pronounced his judgement, she trembled and surrendered her right. Prophet Sulayman عليه السلام has no doubt thereafter about who the real mother was. The older one might have than conceded t hat eth child belonged to the younger woman.

The reason Prophet Sulayman عليه السلام revoked the judgement of Prophet Dawud عليه السلام, though a Prophet عليه السلام judgement cannot be revoked, is that he had not pronounced a final judgement but it was an administrative measure taken to put off the dispute. Also, perhaps their Shari'ah permitted turning aside a judgement. (otherwise, even an independent judgement of a Prophet عليه السلام cannot be overturned.)[1]

FORGOT TO SAY INSHA ALLAH

5720.Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Sulayman عليه السلام resolved, 'I shall visit tonight (my) ninety wives – according to another version, he resolved, '(my) are hundred wives – all of whom will give birth to a horseman (meaning a brave fighter) who will wage jihad in Allah's cause. (He omitted to say insha Allah when he resolved though it was a resolve in Allah's path) so, an angel reminded him, 'Say, insha Allah!' But, he forgot and did not say so. Then, he visited (all of) them but none of them conceived save one wife who gave birth to half a man (meaning, malformed child)."

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم added, "By Him in whose hand is Muhammad's hand, if he had said, 'Insha Allah.' They all would have striven in Allah's cause as horsemen."[2]

COMMENTARY: We know from this hadith how important it is to say insha Allah (if Allah wills) before doing anything and while resolving to do something. It is a prayer, "I will do this task, If Allah wishes then it will be accomplished." It is necessary to say so because nothing is accomplished without Allah's wish. This is why the angel reminded him to say, 'insha Allah, "There still was time.

Shaykh Abdul Haq رحمه الله said that he not only forgot to say Insha Allah but even after the angel reminded him. Prophet Sulayman عليه السلام did not say it.

Mulla Ali Qari رحمه الله, avoid that when the angel reminded him, even then Prophet Sulayman عليه السلام did not say insha Allah because he thought that since he had recalled the words in his mind it was not necessary to speak them out. According to another version, he was made to forget that in the case of possessors of Divine awareness, both mind and tongue should say insha Allah together.

The concluding words of the hadith suggest that omission to say insha Allah was regarded as Prophet Sulayman's عليه السلام lapse. So, he then made amends by repenting and seeking forgiveness of Allah. This is as staged in the quran.

The hadith affirms that it is mustahab to say insha Allah when making a resolve to do something, like, "I shall do that work, insha Allah." This will get Allah's help and blessings to discharge it will and easily. This is as commanded by the quran.

{And say not of anything, 'I am gong to do that tomorrow." Except (by the adding) "if Allah will!"} (18:23-14)

This hadith tells us that Sayyiduna Sulayman عليه السلام possessed immense virility. If this kind of sexual potency is high in men then it is commendable. If it is low then that is regarded as a defect.

SUNNAH OF PROPHETS عليهم السلام TO EARN FOR ONE'S LIVING

(٥٧٢١) وَعَنْهُ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ كَانَ زَكَرِيَّاءُ نَجَّارًا (رواه مسلم)

5721. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger said, "Zakariya was a carpenter."[1]

COMMENTARY: This hadith, like the one about Prophet Dawud عليه السلام affirms that it is the sunnah of the Prophets عليهم السلام affirms that it is the sunah of the Prophets عليهم السلام to earn one's own livelihood, (see hadith # 5818)

NEARNESS OF PROPHET EASA عليه السلام & MUHAMMAD صلى الله عليه وسلم

(٥٧٢٢) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَنَا أَوْلَى النَّاسِ بِعِيسَى ابْنِ مَرْيَمَ فِي الْأُولَى وَالْآخِرَةِ

5722. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah صلى الله عليه وسلم narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "I am the nearest of all people to Easa ibn Maryam عليهما السلام, in this world and the next (or I the beginning and in the end). The Prophets عليهم السلام are brothers from their father's side their mothers being different, but their religion is one There has been no prophet between (the two of) us."[2]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was nearest to Prophet Easa عليه السلام in the sense that there was no prophet between them and Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Easa was the one who had given a clear tiding of his coming after him He also initiated the preface of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم religion and Shari'ah and in the final days he will be the deputy and khalifah of the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

The Prophets عليهم السلام are step-brothers of each other because there is a peculiar relationship between them. Their father is the same because their mission is common which is to guide Allah's creation. Their different mothers are their different Shari'as.

Their religion, however, is one. Though their Shari'ah may be different yet their common religion is monotheism.[1]

(٥٧٢٣) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كُلُّ بَنِيْ اٰدَمَ يَطْعَنُ الشَّيْطٰنُ فِيْ جَنْبَيْهِ بِإِصْبَعَيْهِ حِيْنَ يُوْلَدُ غَيْرَ عِيْسَى ابْنِ مَرْيَمَ ذَهَبَ يَطْعَنُ فَطَعَنَ فِي الْحِجَابِ (متفق عليه)

5723. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Every descendant of Aadam عليه السلام is poked by the devil on his sides with his two fingers at birth, but not Easa ibn Maryam عليه السلام. He went to poke him but could poke only the covering on him, (instead)."[2]

COMMENTARY: Prophet Easa عليه السلام was safe from being hurt by the devil. His grandmother meaning Sayyidah Maryams عليها السلام mother - had prayed to Allah:

{....and I have named her Maryam and I seek protection for her and for her progeny with you from the accursed devil.} (3:36)

As for the covering (حجاب), it is the wrapper in which a new-born is wraped called in Arabic (مشيمه). The devil tried to poke his finger on the sides of Prophet Easa عليه السلام but his fingers could not make it to his body. So Prophet Easa عليه السلام was safe from harm at the devil's hands.

Similarly, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was exempt from being hurt by the devil at birth. Like Prophet Easa عليه السلام, he too was protected from the devil poking at his sides at birth.

5724. Sayyiduna Abu Musa رضي الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Many among men have attained perfection, but none of the woman were perfect except Maryam عليها السلام bint Imran and Aasiyah wife of Fir'awn. And the excellence of Ayshah over women is like that of thasid over all food." (what is, excepting the two Maryam and Aasiyah)[1]

COMMENTARY: This hadith names two women Sayyidah Maryam عليها السلام bint Imran, the mother of Prophet Easa عليه السلام, and Aasiyah wife of Fir'awn as the most excellent of all women of the world, past and present, for all times. They are more excellent than even Sayyidah Fatimah رضي الله عنها (daughter of the Prophet) صلى الله عليه وسلم Sayyidah Khadijah رضي الله عنها (her mother and the first wife of the Prophet) صلى الله عليه وسلم Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها (wife of the Prophet) صلى الله عليه وسلم and his other wives رضي الله عنهن.

However, it is not so. Therefore this hadith is interpreted to mean that the two women named in the hadith are given more excellence than the women preceding the ummah of Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم. (Those two women also belonged to the previous times.)

It is also possible that this saying of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم pertains to the time before he had received the revelation disclosing he excellence of Sayyidah Fatimah رضي الله عنها, Sayyidah Khadijah رضي الله عنها and Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها and their perfection.

Another possibility is that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had excluded these perfect women of his ummah and spoken of the excellence of those two women over all the other women. He meant that Sayyidah Maryam عليها السلام bint Imran and Aasiyah were more excellent than the women apart from the perfect women of his ummah (Sayyidah Fatimah, Khadijah and Ayshah رضي الله عنها.

This deduction is based on t hose other ahadith in which the merit of Sayyidah Fatimah رضي الله and the others is mentioned. For example, according to one hadith, "Fatimah Zehra is the chief of all women of paradise."

As for the last portion of the hadith about the superiority of Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنه, there can be many explanations.

(i) The reference to women means all the women of the world without exception, Or,

(ii) The two women named in the hadith Sayyidah '(Maryam عليها السلام bint Imran and Aasiyah wife of Fir'awn) are exempted and all other women are included and the translation accommodates this possibility. Or,

(iii) It means the women of paradise. Or,

(iv) It refer to the women of this ummah. Or,

THARID: Tharid is the food in which bread is crushed and mixed with stew. In those days, the most favorite dish of the Arabs was tharid which is very soft, delicious, quickly digested and very nourishing.

THE MOST EXCELLENT: The ulama differ on which of the three women Sayyidah Ayshah, Khadijah and Fatimah رضي الله عنها is most excellent.

Imran Abu Hanifrah رحمه الله said that after Sayyidah Khadijah رضي الله عنها Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنه is the most excellent of all women of the world.

[1] Bukhari # 3411, Muslim # 70.2431, Tirmidhi # 1834 (1841) Ibn Majah # 3280, Nasa'I # 3947, Musnad Ahmad 3-156 264.

Ibn Hajar رحمه الله said that Sayyidah Fatimah رضی الله عنہا is more excellent than Sayyidah Khadijah رضی الله عنہا and Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنہ.

When Subki رحمه الله was asked, he said that in his view the most excellent in Sayyidah Fatimah رضی الله عنہا bint Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم followed by her mother Sayyidah Khajijah رضی الله عنہا and then Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنہا.

The compiler of the book gave the final verdict that it is deduced from some versions tr. nsmitted by Ibn Shaybah رحمه الله that Sayyidah Fatimah رضی الله عنہا is the chief of all women of paradise after Sayyidah Maryam علیها السلام bint Imran, Aasiyah wife of Fir'awn and Sayyidah Khadijah علیها السلام. And, Sayyidah Khadijah رضی الله عنہا is superior to Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنہ.

Subki رحمه الله has cited the ulama of his times to say that Sayyidah Fatimah رضی الله عنہا Sayyiduna hasn رضی الله عنہ and Sayyiduna Husayn رضی الله عنہ being the dearest of the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم, are more excellent than the four caliphs (Abu Bakr, Umar, Uthman and Ali) رضی الله عنہ, but this excellence is not absolute because the four caliphs are deserving of more reward and so more excellent than Sayyidah Fatimah رضی الله عنہا, Sayyiduna Husayn رضی الله عنہ. this is as staeted b Ibn hajar رحمه الله in his sharh (commentary) of Shama'il Tirmidhi.

Therefore, just as the four caliphs and the dear children of the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم excel over one another in their peculiar fields and positions, so too of the foregoing women (Sayyidah Khadijah رضی الله عنہا Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنہا and Sayyidah Fatimah) رضی الله عنہا, none has more excellence over the other in an absolute manner in all fields. Rather each of the three of them is more excellent than the other in different aspects.

Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنہا stands our above the others is respect of the revelation that t eh Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم oft en received when he was on her bed or in her room.

Sayyidah Fatimah رضی الله عنہا was part of the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم life and attention.

Sayyidah Khadijah رضی الله عنہا is more superior in the sense that she was the first wife of the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم she helped and supported the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم more than anyone else. Most of the children of the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم were born to her.

Sayyidah Maryam bint Imran and Aasiyah were more excellent than the women of their times.

WHERE WAS ALLAH?

(٥٧٢٥) وَعَنْ اَبِي رَزِيْنٍ قَالَ قُلْتُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اَيْنَ كَانَ رَبُّنَا قَبْلَ اَنْ يَّخْلُقَ خَلْقَهُ قَالَ كَانَ فِي عَمَاءٍ مَا تَحْتَهُ هَوَاءٌ وَمَا فَوْقَهُ هَوَاءٌ وَخَلَقَ عَرْشَهُ عَلَى الْمَاءِ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ قَالَ يَزِيْدُ بْنُ هَارُوْنَ الْعَمَاءُ اَيْ لَيْسَ مَعَهُ شَيْءٌ۔

5725. Sayyiduna Abu Razin رضی الله عنہ narrated that he asked, "O Messenger of Allah, where was our Lord before He created His creation?" He said, "He was in space. There was no air below Him and no air above Him. And He created His Throne on Water."[1]

COMMENTARY: The (عما) truly means 'a cloud' either light or dense. Here, this meaning cannot apply. So Allah was said to be in space. This is only an indication, for, no one can comprehend the real answer of the question.

There was no air above or below Him. So, before the creation, he was alone. Nothing else was there.

Some authorities say that the preceding phrase (was in (عماء) suggest there was a place for Allah, so the next phrase was added to clarify that (عماء) does not mean 'a cloud' for it does need air above and below it, but here air was not present, so a cloud cannot exist without air. Hence, the suggestion that there was a place for Allah is incorrect. In short here (عماء) does not mean a cloud and there was no air and Allah existed by Himself requiring no place for Himself.

Allah created his Throne on water. One of the scholars has explained that the man who asked the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم really wanted to know where Allah's Throne was before He created the creation? The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told him that the Throne was on water. This has been mentioned previously (hadith # 5498)

ABOUT THE SKIES

5726. Sayyiduna Abbas ibn Muttalib رضی الله عنه narrated that he was sitting at Batha with a number of people. Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم was among them. A cloud passed overhead and they looked at it. Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم asked, What do you call it?" they submitted "Cloud (سحاب) sahab". He said, "And muzn (مزن) – rain clouds, too." They confirmed, "Muzn." And anan (عنان) – clouds." They confirmed, "Anan,"

Then he asked, "Do you know the distance between the heaven and earth?" hey submitted, "No, we do not know." He said, "The distance between them is seventy one, seventy two or seventy three years. And the heaven above it is likewise distant." And he enumerated the seven heavens (in like manner).. "Then above the seventh heaven is an ocean and the distance between its surface and bottom is as between heaven and heaven. Above that the eight (angels resembling) mountain goats. The distance between the loaf and hounds (of each of them) is as the distance between heaven and heaven. Above that is Allah."[1]

COMMENTARY: The flow of the hadith suggest that Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ had not embraced Islam at that time. So, too, the people with whom he was sitting had not embraced Islam. It seems that all of them belonged to Makkah and since the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was among them, they had perhaps embraced Islam, but, again, if they had not become Muslim, then the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was there to preach to them. He may have seen them together in Makkah and had gone to them to preach.

As for the distance between heaven and earth, it is a narrator who was not certain what exactly the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had said (71, 72 or 73). Moreover, the number does not make it specific but only show that the distance is vast. Hence, this hadith does not contradict another which say that the distance between earth and heaven is five hundred years, and as much between two heavens.

There is an ocean above the seventh heaven. According to another tradition: Allah created His Throne and a vest ocean below it. That ocean is flowing.

The words that Allah is above the Throne imply that He is very High, Mighty and Glorious. These words describe the greatness of kingdom which his supreme. These words do not mean to place Him on the throne or at a particular point and in a direction. He is every where. But, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used the used the words to which the human mind is accustomed. He means that Allah is Great, Higher than everything and every thing is under His command and His power. It is as the Quran says:

{while Allah is encompassing them from all around} (85:20)

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم spoke in this w2ay to lead his listeners to ponder on the creation of the universe and its working. They were encouraged to think of the creator so that might turn away from idol worship and false beliefs.

ALLAH'S THRONE

5727. Sayyiduna Jubayr ibn Mut'im رحمه الله narrated that a villager came to Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم and submitted, "Human lives are in distress (because of drought), Children are starving, property is being lost, animals are perishing. So, pray to Allah to let us have rain. We make you our intercessor with Allah and Allah as Shafi with you." The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم exclaimed. "Subhan Allah (Allah is without blemish). Subhan Allah!" He did not cease to glorify (Allah) till that (anxiety) was apparent on the faces of his sahabah رضى الله عنه. Then, he said, :"Woe to You! Allah is never made shafi (an intercessor) with anyone. Allah's glory is greater than that woe to you! Do you not know how great is Allah? His Throne has encompassed the heavens in this way (and he placed his fingers over his palm to show a done). It creaks with Him as a saddle (of a camel or horse) does with a rider."[1]

COMMENTARY: We make Allah as shafi' with you means to make Him an intercessor with you. The villager's meaning was 'we make you and your goodness our intercessor with Allah. We make you our shafi and call upon you to pray to Allah that He have mercy on us and send down on us rain. Also, 'we are hopeful that Allah let you be observant of our plight. May He cause you to recommend us...' But, the villager did not adopt a proper method to express his wish. He was confused and uttered such words as he faltered in saying what he wanted to say and it seemed that he was making Allah an intercessor with the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and was associating him with Allah. As it is, Allah does not take an associate with Him as He says:

{You have no authority in the matter.}[2] (3:128)

مَنْ ذَا الَّذِي يَشْفَعُ عِنْدَهُ إِلَّا بِإِذْنِهِ

{who can intercede with Him without His permission.} (2:255)

Therefore, this villager's words displeased the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم very much. He cautioned the man by calling (سبحان الله) repeatedly (Allah is without blemish). Seeing him, the sahabah رضى الله عنهم were taken aback and became afraid. Fear of Allah griped them and their faces became pale. When the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم observed their condition, he stopped saying subhan Allah (سبحان الله) and left the villager alone..

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم explained the greatness of Allah to the villager in a way that he could understand. He said that even the huge throne creaked. This was only by way of an example (an allegorical statement).

ANGELS WHO HAVE CARRIED THE THRONE

(٥٧٢٩، ٥٧٣٠) وَعَنْ زُرَارَةَ بْنِ اَوْفٰى اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لِجِبْرَئِيْلَ هَلْ رَاَيْتَ فَانْتَفَضَ جِبْرَئِيْلُ وَقَالَ يَا مُحَمَّدُ اِنَّ بَيْنِيْ وَبَيْنَهٗ سَبْعِيْنَ حِجَابًا مِنْ نُوْرٍ لَوْ دَنَوْتُ مِنْ بَعْضِهَا لَاَحْتَرَقْتُ هٰكَذَا فِي الْمَصَابِيْحِ وَرَوَاهُ اَبُوْنُعَيْمٍ فِي الْحِلْيَةِ عَنْ اَنَسٍ اِلَّا اَنَّهٗ لَمْ يَذْكُرْ فَانْتَفَضَ جِبْرَئِيْلُ۔

5729. Sayyiduna zur'arah ibn Awfa رحمه الله narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم asked Jibril عليه السلام, "Have you seen your Lord?" Jibril عليه السلام trembled and said, "O Muhammad between Him and we are seventy screens of nur (Light). Were I to approach one of them, I would be burned."[2] (This is as in the Masabih).

5730. Sayyiduna Anas رضى الله عنه are narrated it without the words that Jibril عليه السلام trembled. (this is transmitted in al-Hilyah by Abu Nu'aym)

COMMENTARY: Zurarah رحمه الله was a great tabi'I (successor of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم companion) رضى الله عنهم. He was the chief judge of Busrah and a distinguished scholar of his time as also one of the Shaykhs. He had heard ahadith from Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه and Abu Hurahrah صلى الله عليه وسلم.

He was fearful of Allah and f reckoning is the hereafter. This was reflected in his life. He was once leasing the congregational salah of fajr and when he came to the verse

{For when the trumpet is sounded,} (74:8)

he shrieked and fell down and died on the spot. This happened in the times of the Khilafah of Walid ibn Abdullah Malik in 73 AH.

Mulla Ali Qari رحمه الله said, however that Sayyiduna Zararah رضى الله عنه was a sahabi and he died in the time of Sayyiduna Uthman.رضى الله عنه.

Jibril عليه السلام trembled on thinking of his ability of see Allah, if that was possible, it would necessitate nearness to Allah in a perfect way. He wondered, "If that nearness was available to me, how would I fare?"

This question of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم establishes that the vision of Allah is a possibility in the hereafter. If it was not possible then the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم would not have asked this question. However, we have pointed out previously that the ulama differ on whether the angels and the jinn will see Allah in the hereafter or not.

As for the screens between him and Allah, hey veil only the creatures, for the creator can never be covered with veils. Only the created beings are overcome and suppressed.

(٥٧٣١) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ خَلَقَ اِسْرَافِيْلَ مُنْذُ يَوْمِ خَلَقَهٗ

5731. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Indeed Allah created Israfil علیہ السلام. Since the day he created him, he has been keeping his feet in line without even raising his glance. There are seventy (screens of) nur (Light) between him and the Lord Blessed and Glorious, not one of which he may approach without being burned."[1]

COMMENTARY: Israfil علیہ السلام does not look here and there and is constantly concentrating on the trumpet. He is ready to obey the command to sound the trumpet.

MERIT OF HUMAN BEINGS

(٥٧٣٢) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَمَّا خَلَقَ اللّٰهُ آدَمَ وَذُرِّيَّتَهُ قَالَتِ الْمَلٰئِكَةُ يَارَبِّ خَلَقْتَهُمْ يَأْكُلُوْنَ وَيَشْرَبُوْنَ وَيَنْكِحُوْنَ وَيَرْكَبُوْنَ فَاجْعَلْ لَهُمُ الدُّنْيَا وَلَنَا الْاٰخِرَةَ قَالَ اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى لَا أَجْعَلُ مَنْ خَلَقْتُهُ بِيَدَيَّ وَنَفَخْتُ فِيْهِ مِنْ رُّوْحِيْ كَمَنْ قُلْتُ لَهٗ كُنْ فَكَانَ - رَوَاهُ الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِيْ شُعَبِ الْاِيْمَانِ

5732. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "when Allah created Aadam علیہ السلام and his progeny, the angels submitted, 'O Lord, you have created them who eat and drink, merry and ride (on diverse conveyances). So, let them have (the blessing of) the world and let us have (the blessings of) the hereafter." Allah, the Exalted, said, 'I shall not cause one whom I have created with My hand and in whom I have blown my spirit to be at pass with one to whom I said (Arabic) Be and he came into existence."[2]

COMMENTARY: The angels regarded themselves like human beings and of the same rank. But, Allah let them know that it was not so. The two different creations cannot be equal. The angels were created on a command while human beings were created through Aadam علیہ السلام as the progenitor of mankind. His wife was created from him. Their race will continue to exist and grow till this world lasts The essence of the angels is simple unblended while the essence of mankind is a compound and mankind is given the ability to receive guidance and also to choose the stray path. Man can adopt the Divine attribute of majesty as well as of glory. Hence, the creation that has been given this kind of.ability cannot bed compared with another that lacks this ability. Besides man is much higher than the angel in nobility and nearness (to Allah). The angel is created as an innocent being, so is not liable to receive punishment but, at the same time, the angel is also deprived of bounties. In contrast, man can choose the path of piety and of evil. So, if he follows the right path of piety then he deserves blessings in both the world but if he fails in his responsibility and takes the evil path then he becomes liable to punishment in both the worlds.

In conclusion, we may elaborate that eh words about Allah blowing His spirit into man are merely to esteem the spirit as noble. It is like saying BaytAllah then (bayt) the House is ascribed to Allah (though He is not limited to any place). The House is esteemed.

(٥٧٣٣) عَنْ اَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَلْمُؤْمِنُ اَكْرَمُ عَلَى اللّٰهِ مِنْ بَعْضِ مَلآئِكَتِهِ۔ (رواه ابن ماجة)

5733. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger said, "The believer (who is perfect, like the prophets and the awliya or friends of Allah) is more esteem able in Allah's sight than some of His angels."[1]

COMMENTARY: Some of Allah's angels to which this hadith refers could be the chief angels or any of those common angels who are exclusive in some way or the other. Teebi رحمہ اللہ said that the 'believer' refers to the common group of believers and some of the angels' also are the common group of angel.

Muhyussunnah رحمہ اللہ said, "It is better to say that the common believers are more esteemed than the common angels and the outstanding believers are more esteemed than the outstanding angels." Allah says in the noble Quran:

اِنَّ الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا وَعَمِلُوا الصّٰلِحٰتِ اُولٰٓئِكَ هُمْ خَيْرُ الْبَرِيَّةِ

{Surely those who believe and do righteous deeds, those – they are the best of creatures} (98:7)

The ahl us-sunnah wa al-jama'ah deduce from this that man is more excellent than the angels. However, some authorities say that it is not enough to say that man is more excellent then the angels, but one must make it clear in detail so that every one of mankind as a whole is not understood to be superior to the angels and it must be defined clearly who is classed among the masses and who is grouped with the prominent. Thus the chief of prominent among the believers comprise Allah's Messenger and prophet علیہم السلام and among the angels they comprise Mika'il علیہ السلام Jibril علیہ السلام, Israfil علیہ السلام and others. The general body of the believers in clued the perfect delivers like the righteous caliphs, awliya and the ulama.

There is another hadith transmitted through two lines of transmission by Ibn Majah:

المؤمن اعظم حرمة من الكعبة

'The believer deserves to be honoured more than the ka'bah.'

THE DAY OF CREATION

(٥٧٣٤) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ اَخَذَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِيَدِيْ فَقَالَ خَلَقَ اللّٰهُ التُّرْبَةَ يَوْمَ السَّبْتِ وَخَلَقَ فِيْهَا الْجِبَالَ يَوْمَ الْاَحَدِ وَخَلَقَ الشَّجَرَ يَوْمَ الْاِثْنَيْنِ وَخَلَقَ الْمَكْرُوْهَ يَوْمَ الثُّلٰثَاءِ وَخَلَقَ النُّوْرَ يَوْمَ الْاَرْبِعَاءِ وَ بَثَّ فِيْهَا الدَّوَابَّ يَوْمَ الْخَمِيْسِ وَخَلَقَ اٰدَمَ بَعْدَ الْعَصْرِ مِنْ يَوْمِ الْجُمُعَةِ فِيْ اٰخِرِ الْخَلْقِ وَ اٰخِرِ سَاعَةٍ مِّنَ النَّهَارِ فِيْمَا بَيْنَ الْعَصْرِ اِلَى اللَّيْلِ۔ (رواه مسلم)

5734. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم took him by the hand and said, "Allah created the soil (meaning the earth) on Saturday. And He created in it the mountains on Sunday. And, He created the trees on Monday. And, He created its disliked things on Tuesday. And, He created the nur (Or light) on Wednesday. And, He spread the beasts in it on Thursday. And, He created Aadam علیه السلام after on Friday as the last of the creation and he last hour of the day (which was) between asr and the right."[1]

(Asr is the afternoon and also the salah at this time.)

COMMENTARY: The Arabic words (يوم السبت) mean 'Saturday' and refer to the very last portion of this day when the day ends. In Arabic it is (عشية الاحد), the inception of the night before Sunday. In this sense, it is a part of Sunday. (According to the lunar calendar, night precedes day so it is Sunday but according too the solar calendar, it is the might of Saturday. In this may, 'tonight' courses confusion).

Therefore this tradition conforms to the verse of the Quran:

[Indeed, we created the heaven and the earth and all between them in six day.] (30:38)

As for creating nur on Wednesday, this is how it is in Muslim and the correct versions of Mishkah with (ر). but in the version of Mishkah, it is with (ن) the word being (النون) instead of (النور) meaning fish instead of light. So, perhaps, both these things were created on Wednesday. Friday was the day when all things were finally created and assembled on earthy. Hence, the day is called (جمعه) (jumuah) from {(جمع) - to assemble}. The last portion of it saw the completion of the creation with Aadam علیه السلام being created. This is why the last portion of this day (from asr or afternoon till commencement of the night) is blessed and prayers are answered at this time. The ulama hold that at these final moments of Friday, Allah grants prayers.

5735. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and his sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم were seated once when clouds appeared overhead. Allah's Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم asked (them), "Do you know what these are?" They submitted, "Allah and His Messenger know* better." He said, "These are anan (clours), they are the carriers of water of the earth. Allah directs them to the people who neither thank Him nor pray to Him." Then, he asked, "do you know what is above you?" They submitted," Allah and His Messenger know better." He said, "It is (the heaven called) taqi that is an elevated protected ceiling and a sea (without support) that will not fall" The, he asked, "do you know how much distance separates you and the heaven?" they submitted, "Allah and His Messenger now better." He said "Between you and it is a distance of five hundred y ears." Then he asked, "Do l you know that lies above it?" They submitted, "Allah and His Messenger know better." He said, "there are two heaven separated by a distance of five hundred years." Then, he spoke in this manner till he counted seven heavens, saying that the distance between every two heavens being like the distance between the heaven and earth. Then, he asked. "Do you know what is above that?" They submitted, "Allah and His Messenger know better. He said, "Indeed, above that is the Throne. The distance between it and the (last or seventh) heaven is a distance like that between every two heavens." The, he asked, "Do you know* what lies below you?" they submitted, "Allah and His Messenger know better." He said, "It is he earth. "then, he asked, "Do you know what is under it?" They submitted, "Allah and His Messenger know better." He said, "There is under is another earth, a distance of five hundred years separating them." He continued till he had counted seven earth, every two of them being separated by a distance of five hundred years. Then, he said, "by Him who has the souls of Muhammad in His hand, were you to throw down a rope to the lowest earth, it would come down to Allah." Then, he recited.

[He is the first and the Last, and the Manifest and the Hidden. And He know all things.][1] (53:3)

Tirmdhi says that some scholars say that 'the rope would come down to Allah' means 'It would reach His knowledge, His power and His sovereignty. They are omnipresent, but His is on the Throne just as He describes Himself in His Book.'[1]

COMMENTARY: The clouds and described as carriers of water with the word (روايا) which is the plural of (راوية): meaning 'the camel hat is employed to draw water." The clouds too pour down water to irrigate the land.

In spite of that, the people who benefit from rain do not express gratitude to Allah. Rather, they ascribe partners to Him and attribute to others the blessings they receive. Also, they do not supplicate Allah but all upon their deities. However, Allah continues to be merciful to them. He lets them have what they need and keeps them safe.

Raqi (رقيع) is the name given to the first heaven. Some scholars say, however, that every heaven is called raqi.

Allah has created the heaven is such a way that there is no likelihood of it falling down or being damaged in any way whatever. It is suspended in vacuum like a wave of water. There is no pillar or any support holding it is place.

All the earths are as for away from each other as are the heavens away from each other. Those who say that the earths are joined to each other and there is not any noticeable distance between them rely on the use of the singular tense of earth in the Quran though the plural tense is used for heaven. This is contrary to the hadith. Perhaps the Quran uses the singular tense for earth because those who live on it are concerned only with it not with the other earths. But, it is not the same with the heavens. All the creature on this earth benefit from every heaven above them and are so concerned with all heaven above them.

As for the rope coming down to Allah when it is dropped, it is as explained by Tirmidhi. It will come within His knowledge, power and sovereignty, this means that Allah's knowledge. His authority and His domain embrace it, and enforce it. In these words the Prophet made it clear that Allah being on the Throne does not presuppose that His knowledge, power and sovereignty are limited only to the heavens. Rather, the heights of the heavens and the depth of the earth are equally embraced by Him His knowledge. Power and sovereignty extends equally on the surface of the earth and lower down is its depths as it does in the heavens. It is perhaps to bring out this reality that it is said, 'The mi'raj of Sayyiduna Yunus عليه السلام was his being lodged in the belly of a fish just as the mi'raj of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was accomplished in the heavens."

Tirmidhi has pointed out that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم recited the verse (57:3) to explain the words about the rope reaching down to Allah. The words (بكل شئ عليم) describe His knowledge being all-comprehensive. The words (هو الاول والآخر) say that He is All-powerful. He is the First in whose hand is everything. Whatever exists comes into existence from nothing by His power. And, He is the Last. All creation will perish but He will remain and continue to exist.

The next words (والظاهر والباطن) and the Manifest and the Hidden speak of His authority. He is so very manifest that everything is under His domination and authority. No one can dictate to Him so the subject all things as He likes. And He is invisible to all creation from their sight and perception, yet He is the Hope and support of all of them. He is Aware of their unseen condition. No one's secret is concealed from Him.

His glory is on the Throne just as He describes Himself in His Book. This refers to the verse:

اَلرَّحْمٰنُ علی العرش استوی

{The compassionate who as positioned Himself on the throne (of power and glory} (20:5)

[1] Tirmidhi (observation after ahadith) # 3298 (3309)

This verse would not cause anyone to doubt that Allah is positioned at any one place. Th verse really means that His knowledge, power and authority are manifest.[1]

(٥٧٣٦) وَعَنْهُ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ كَانَ طُوْلُ اٰدَمَ سِتِّيْنَ ذِرَاعًا سَبْعَ اَذْرُعٍ عَرْضًا۔

5736. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Aadam's height was sixty cubits and he was seven cubits broad."[2]

COMMENTARY: The Arabic word is (ذراع). It is an arm's length, from elbow to the wr This word is also used for a yard. As for the arm, it refers to the arm of the people aroun a normal arm as we know.

THE NUMBER IS PROPHET عليه السلام

(٥٧٣٧) وَعَنْ اَبِیْ ذَرٍّ قَالَ قُلْتُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اَیُّ الْاَنْبِيَاءِ كَانَ اَوَّلَ قَالَ اٰدَمُ قُلْتُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ وَنَبِیٌّ كَانَ قَالَ نَعَمْ نَبِیٌّ مُكَلَّمٌ قُلْتُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ كَمِ الْمُرْسَلُوْنَ قَالَ ثَلٰثُمِائَةٍ وَبِضْعَةَ عَشَرَ جَمًّا غَفِيْرًا وَفِیْ رِوَايَةٍ عَنْ اَبِیْ اُمَامَةَ قَالَ اَبُوْذَرٍّ قُلْتُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ كَمْ وَفَاءُ عِدَّةِ الْاَنْبِيَاءِ قَالَ مِائَةُ اَلْفٍ وَاَرْبَعَةٌ وَعِشْرُوْنَ اَلْفًا الرُّسُلُ مِنْ ذٰلِكَ ثَلٰثُمِائَةٍ وَخَمْسَةَ عَشَرَ جَمًّا غَفِيْرًا۔

5737. Sayyiduna Abu Dharr رضی اللہ عنہ narrated, "I asked, O Messenger of Allah, who was the first of the Prophet عليه السلام? He said, 'Aadam عليه السلام, I asked, 'O Messenger of Allah, and was he a Prophet?' He said, 'Yes! A prophet with whom Allah spoke.' I asked, 'O Messenger of Allah, how many Messenger were there (among them)? He said, 'Three hundred and en plus a large number."

According to another version by Sayyiduna Abu Umamah رحمہ اللہ (a tabi'i) Sayyiduna Abu Dharr رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he asked, "O Messenger of Allah, what is the complete number of prophet (inclusive of Messengers among them)?" He said, "One hundred and twenty four thousand of whom three hundred and fifteen were Messenger, is a large number."[3]

COMMENTARY: Prophet Aadam عليه السلام was not merely the father of mankind and th guide but he also was their prophet and Messenger. There is no doubt that he was a Proph He also brought Allah's messages for the human beings through revelation from Allah. The very messages from his scriptures and his Shari'ah. In this sense, he was not only a proph but he also was a Messenger, for he received both the scriptures and a Shari'ah.

The difference between a rasul (Messenger) and a nabi (Prophet) is that the former is prophet who has been granted a new Shari'ah and Book the responsibility to convey is Allah's creatures. The latter is every prophet whether he has been given a new Shari'ah ar Book or not and he follow the preceding Shari'ah and Book, and he may or may not hav been made responsible to convey the message.

As for the number of Prophets عليهم السلام this hadith says that they were one hundred ar twenty four thousand but another puts the figure at two hundred and twenty four thousand. The ulama say that this issue should not be probed deeply and no definite number should be suggested. We must believe that only Allah knows the exact number and we must believe in all His Prophet and Messengers. In this way, none of them will be left out and no one who is not a prophet will be included as one.

HEARING IS NOT THE SAME AS SEEING

5738. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Hearing of something is not the same as seeing with the eyes indeed, Allah, the exalted, informed Musa علیہ السلام of what his people had done regarding the (worship of the) calf but he did not cast down the tablets yet when he saw (with his eyes when he came to them) what they had begun to do, he threw down the tablets and they broke."[1]

COMMENTARY: It is an appropriate adage that seeing is believing. A person is not as much impressed or hurt on hearing a news as he is on seeing it. The example cited by the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم of Prophet Musa علیہ السلام is worthwhile. When he went to Mount Tur to converse with Allah and to receive from Him the Divine law (the Torah) for the Banu Isra'il, his people on the lower level in the wadi Seena followed the wicked man Samiri who led them to worship the calf.

Allah informed Prophet Musa علیہ السلام about it. He was grieved and angry on hearing of it, but when he returned to his people and saw them involved in worship of the calf, his anger knew no bounds. In his rage he hurled down the tablets on which the Tarah was inscribed. They broke into places. He meant to say that the Divine Command can benefit only those who believe, so there was no use retaining the tablets for the disbelievers.

However, that did not mean that the commands were repealed. Rather, they stood as they were and the Torah was retained.

CHAPTER – XVIII[1]

THE EXCELLENT QUALITIES OF THE CHIEF OF THE MESSENGER صلى الله عليه وسلم

بَابُ سَيِّدِ الْمُرْسَلِيْنَ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

The Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم merits and excellences are uncountable. NO tongue or pen can enumerate all his virtues and good qualities. However, the compiler of the Mishkah has put together ahadith about some of his excellences in this chapter.

All the ulama say unanimously that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is the chief of all the children of Prophet عليه السلام Aadam and the most excellent of all the prophets عليهم السلام. Prophet Ibrahim عليه السلام is the next most excellent of all the Prophets عليهم السلام and, after him, Prophet Musa عليه السلام. But, nothing is knows from the ulama clearly about who is the one after him. But, some of them name Prophet Easa عليه السلام, followed by Prophet Nuh عليه السلام. The ulama say that these five Prophet عليه السلام are the most resolute of all the Prophets. They have been steadfast, patient and resolute in the path of truth.

THE PROPHET'S صلى الله عليه وسلم EXCELLENT LINEAGE

(٥٧٣٩) عَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بُعِثْتُ مِنْ خَيْرِ قُرُوْنِ بَنِيْ اٰدَمَ قَرْنًا فَقَرْنًا حَتّٰى كُنْتُ مِنَ الْقَرْنِ الَّذِيْ كُنْتُ مِنْهُ۔ (رواه البخاری)

5739. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah صلى الله عليه وسلم narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "I have been sent through the best of generations of the descendants of Aadam عليه السلام, generation after generation till I was brought into existence in the present generation."[2]

COMMENTARY: The best of generations were his forefathers, They were the best people of their times. Examples are prophet Isma'il and his children. After him, was Kinanah and his children. Then Hashim and his children. His forefathers traced upto Prophet aadam عليه السلام were all noble men of their times. They were honourable, glorious and excellent.

MORE ON IT

(٥٧٤٠) وَعَنْ وَاثِلَةَ بْنِ الْاَسْقَعِ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ اصْطَفٰى كِنَانَةَ مِنْ وُلْدِ اِسْمٰعِيْلَ وَاصْطَفٰى قُرَيْشًا مِنْ كِنَانَةَ وَاصْطَفٰى مِنْ قُرَيْشٍ بَنِيْ هَاشِمٍ وَاصْطَفَانِيْ مِنْ بَنِيْ هَاشِمٍ۔ رَوَاهُ مُسْلِمٌ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ لِلتِّرْمِذِيِّ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ اصْطَفٰى مِنْ وُلْدِ اِبْرَاهِيْمَ اِسْمٰعِيْلَ وَاصْطَفٰى مِنْ وُلْدِ اِسْمٰعِيْلَ بَنِيْ كِنَانَةَ۔

5740.Sayyiduna Wathilah ibn Asqa رضى الله عنه narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم say, "Indeed, Allah chase kinanah from the offspring of Isma'il عليه السلام

ınd He chose Quraysh from Kinanah and from the Quruysh He chose the Banu Hashim. He then chose me from the Banu Hashim."[1]

According to another version (in Tirmidhi): "Surely, Allah chose from the children of Ibrahim عليه السلام, Isma'il عليه السلام and He chose from the children of Ismai'l, Banu Kinanah."[2]

MMENTARY: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was on offspring of Sayyiduna Isma'il عليه السلام. The ı of Sayyiduna Isma'il عليه السلام, Qaydhar had a son Adnan. The offspring of Adnan nprise all the noted tribes of Banu Ismail. This is why the Arabs Musta'ribah Banu Ismail called Adnani or children of Adnan.

nan had a son Ma'add who had a son Nizar. He had four sons who are well-known, two them Rabi'ah and Mudar were more prominent. They were the ancestors of the large bes of the Arab peninsula.

ıdar's children included lower down the tree kinanah. His children comprised the most ll-known tribe among the tribes of Mudar Kinanah had a son Nadar who had Maalik ıo had Fihr whose title was Quraysh. His children had many tribes all of whom were led Quraysh. They were diversified in groups and various regions. They were neither ified not under a proper administration.

en, Qusayy ibn Kilab came into light. He took great pains to organize all the Quraysh bes, He brought them together and created in them a sense of awakening. The result was ıt the Quraysh dominated not only Makkah but also all of the Hijaz. This is why some ople suggest that Quraysh was the title of Qusayy ibn KIlab because the word Quraysh ش) is derived from (قرش) which means to assemble, to gather together and to organize.

ıwever, it is better known that Qurysh is a sea animal that is very strong and powerful. ı Abbas also reported that the Quraysh are so-called because Qurysh (Qarsh (قرش) is a ry dangerous fish that swallows all other fish. No other fish can hurt it. The Qamoos also es this reason why the Qurysh are so-called.

ıen Islam come into focus the most known, honoured and dominant branch of the ıraysh was Banu Hashim. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was born among them. His genealogy raced in this manner:

> Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم ibn Abdullah ibn Abdul Muttalib ibn Hashim ibn Abd Munaf ibn Qusayy ibn Kilab ibn Murrah ibn Ka'b ibn Lu'ayy ibn Ghalib ibn Fihr ibn Malik ibn Nadr ibn Kinanah ibn Khuzaymah ibn Mudrikah ibn Ilyas ibn Mudar ibn Nizar ibn Ma'add ibn Adnan.

e generously table hereafter is not reliably reported.

is detailed reproduction makes the hadith very clear. Allah caused Banu Kinanah to be most distinguished of the descendants of Prophet Isma'il عليه السلام. Then He caused the ıraysh to be the most powerful of he Banu Kinanah. Of the Quraysh, Allah caused Banu ıshim be the Most prominent and He made Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم to be the ost excellent of the Banu Hashim.

erefore, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is the cream of all the distinguished and great men of his scent.

PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم WILL BE THE CHIEF ON THE DAY OF RESURRECTION

(٥٧٤١) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَنَا سَيِّدُ وَلَدِ اٰدَمَ يَوْمَ الْقِيٰمَةِ وَ اَوَّلُ مَنْ يَنْشَقُّ عَنْهُ الْقَبْرُ وَ اَوَّلُ شَافِعٍ وَاَوَّلُ مُشَفَّعٍ۔ (رواہ مسلم)

5741. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "I shall be the chief of the descendants of Aadam on the day of resurrection. (I shall be) the first for whom the grave will be split open. (I shall be) the first to intercede and the first whose intercession will be approved.[1]

COMMENTARY: On the day of resurrection, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم will be the epitome of all human perfectness and greatness. No one else will have a higher rank and no one else will be worthy of leadership. He is the chief of all men in both the worlds. This hadith speaks specifically of the day of resurrection because on this day, no one will demur and no one will challenge him, while in this world the disbelievers and the hypocrites opposed him during his lifetime and continue to oppose his teachings even after his death.

This hadith confirms, if one read between the lines, that he is more excellent than the angels too. Previously we have commented on the hadith about not giving excellence to one Prophet over another and not giving him excellence over prophet Musa عليه السلام and Prophet Yunus عليه السلام. (see hadith 5708, 5709, 5710)

UMMAH OF MUHAMMAD صلى الله عليه وسلم WILL BE THE LARGEST OF ALL UMMAHS

(٥٧٤٢) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَنَا اَكْثَرُ الْاَنْبِيَاءِ تَبَعًا يَوْمَ الْقِيٰمَةِ وَاَنَا اَوَّلُ مَنْ يَقْرَعُ بَابَ الْجَنَّةِ۔ (رواہ مسلم)

5742. Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "I will be the Prophet among all Prophets who will have the greatest number of followers on the day or resurrection. And, I will be the first (of them) to knock at the gate of paradise."[2]

COMMENTARY: The large number of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ummah has been mentioned in a previous hadith too. His ummah in paradise will be two third of all dwellers of paradise.

This means that if anyone has a large number of followers then that is a sign of his greatness. This is why Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله is regarded as of a higher rank. His school of thought has more followers than any other. And likewise, among the reciters of the Quran, Imam Aasim رحمه الله has a higher rank. There are more people observing his recital in the science of tajweed.

DOOR OF PARADISE WILL BE OPENED FIRST FOR THE PROPHET عليه السلام

(٥٧٤٣) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اٰتِىْ بَابَ الْجَنَّةِ يَوْمَ الْقِيٰمَةِ فَاَسْتَفْتِحُ فَيَقُوْلُ الْخَازِنُ مَنْ اَنْتَ فَاَقُوْلُ مُحَمَّدٌ فَيَقُوْلُ بِكَ اُمِرْتُ اَنْ لَا اَفْتَحَ لِاَحَدٍ قَبْلَكَ۔ (رواہ مسلم)

5743.Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "On the day of resurrection, I shall come to the gate of paradise and seek to get it opened. The keeper will ask, "who are you? I shall say, 'Muhammad !' He will say, 'I have been commanded (to open it) for you but not for anyone before you."[1]

FIRST TO INTERCEDE

(٥٧٤٤) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَنَا اَوَّلُ شَفِيْعٍ فِي الْجَنَّةِ لَمْ يُصَدَّقْ نَبِيٌّ مِنَ الْاَنْبِيَاءِ مَاصُدِّقْتُ وَاِنَّ مِنَ الْاَنْبِيَاءِ نَبِيًّا مَاصَدَّقَهُ مِنْ اُمَّتِهِ اِلَّا رَجُلٌ وَاحِدٌ۔ (رواه مسلم)

5744. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "I shall be the first to intercede in paradise (for my ummah to get them to be admitted and to get their ranks raised). No Prophet has received as much confirmation as I have received. And, indeed, among the prophet, there was a Prophet in whom no one of his ummah but one man believed."[2]

THE SEAL OF THE PROPHETS علیہم السلام

5745. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "My example when compared to the Prophet is like a castle that is constructed beautifully, rearing out space of one brick. Those who looked and went round it were delighted with its beautiful construction except for the unfilled space of that brick. I was the one who has filled up that space of the brick. I was the one who has filled up that space of the brick. With me, the construction (of the castle) is complete and with me the Messengers are compete."

According to another version: "So, I am the brick and I am the seal of the Prophets"[3]

COMMENTARY: This hadith is a perfect evidence that the series of Prophets علیہم السلام that Allah has began with Prophet Adam علیہ السلام concluded with Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. After him, neither has any prophet or Messenger come nor will any of them came in future in this world.

The previous Prophets علیہم السلام had prepared the castle of religion and only it had to be perfected which was accomplished by the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. The religion is now perfect and the Shari'ah is complete. There remains no need of any prophet to came.

THE QURAN IS THE GREATEST MIRACLE

(٥٧٤٦) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا مِنَ الْاَنْبِيَآءِ مِنْ نَبِيٍّ اِلَّا قَدْ اُعْطِىَ مِنَ الْاٰيَاتِ مَا مِثْلَهٗ اٰمَنَ عَلَيْهِ الْبَشَرُ وَاِنَّمَا كَانَ الَّذِىْ اُوْتِيْتُ وَحْيًا اَوْحَى اللّٰهُ اِلَىَّ فَاَرْجُوْ اَنْ اَكُوْنَ اَكْثَرَهُمْ تَابِعًا يَوْمَ الْقِيٰمَةِ (متفق عليه)

5746. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "there is no Prophet among the Prophet who has not been given enough of a miracle as you encourage men to believe. And what I have been given is a revelation from Allah (which will remain forever). I hope that (because of that) I will have the largest number of followers on the day of resurrection of all the prophet."[1]

COMMENTARY: Every Prophet علیہ السلام whom Allah sent to any people was given by Him miracle to support his claim to prophethood. On seeing something that defied reasoning an was contrary to custom, every intelligent person believed in the Prophet's truth and missior However, the miracle of the Prophet علیہ السلام remained as long as he was alive. For instanc Prophet Musa علیہ السلام was given the miracles of the 'staff' and the 'white hand' (white to th beholders; white without evil – he Quran 7:108, 20:22, 26:33). The magicians of his time wh had a field day in that age submitted to him as did many people on seeing his miracles. The were convinced of his prophethood. Then, in the age of Prophet Easa علیہ السلام, the science c medicine was a its peak and physicians were noted for their ability to cure, Prophet Easa علیہ السلام was given the miracle whereby he revived the dead and cured the lepor and restored th eyesight of the born blind. His miracle outdid the science of medicine. (The Quran 3:49, 5:11(However, neither the miracle of Prophet Musa علیہ السلام not that of Prophet Easa علیہ السلام remained after their death. The miracles disappeared with them.

In comparison to them, the miracle given to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم in the form of the Qura is of a perpetual nature. In his times, eloquence was at its peak. The Arabs boasted that a other people were dumb before their eloquence. Hence, the Quran was revealed to th Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. Its eloquence and fluency amazed the greatest of their eloquent scholar and literacy men. The best of their words were brought to naught before the Quran' eloquence. They could not produce anything matching the Quran even after sittin together and doing their utmost.

Allah has preserved this great miracle till the last day. It has been presenting testimony t the truth of the chief of the Messengers in every age and will continue to do so.

This is why the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم declared emphatically that his miracle will subsist till th Last Day and people will continue to believe. Hence, on the day of resurrection, th believers who are convinced of his mission as Prophet and Messenger and of his miracle the Quran, will form a large majority.[2]

IVE CHARACTERISTICS OF THE PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم EXCLUSIVE FOR HIM

بِالرُّعْبِ مَسِيْرَةَ شَهْرٍ وَجُعِلَتْ لِيَ الْأَرْضُ مَسْجِدًا وَطَهُوْرًا فَأَيُّمَا رَجُلٍ مِنْ أُمَّتِيْ أَدْرَكَتْهُ الصَّلٰوةُ فَلْيُصَلِّ
أُحِلَّتْ لِيَ الْمَغَانِمُ وَلَمْ تَحِلَّ لِأَحَدٍ قَبْلِيْ وَأُعْطِيْتُ الشَّفَاعَةَ وَكَانَ النَّبِيُّ يُبْعَثُ إِلٰى قَوْمِهٖ خَاصَّةً وَبُعِثْ
إِلَى النَّاسِ عَامَّةً۔ (متفق عليه)

47. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger (E0 said, "I have been /en five (such) things that none (of the Prophet or Messengers) before me has en given. (They are:)

1. I have been helped by fear (that is instilled in the hearts of the enemies) as for away as a month's journey.
2. The entire earth has been made for me a mosque (so a place of offering the salah) and a means of obtaining purity. Thus any man of my ummah of salah comes. (If he does not find water, he may make tayamum which is dry ablution).
3. The booty (of war) has been made lawful to me but was not made lawful to anyone before me.
4. I have been given the right to intercede (which is a mighty intercession generally). And,
5. The Prophets were sent to their own ummahs (people) particularly, but I have been sent to all mankind (everyone on earth)."[1]

MENTARY: the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that Allah has given him help and victory in a way that his enemies are overawed even when they are as for away as one month to l. They flee merely on hearing of him.

second characteristic is that previously it was not proper to offer salah and worship ever one licked. The earlier people could engage in worship at only the specified s. But, for the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم ummah all the earth is a place of worship except s, bathroom, graveyards and such places as are known to be impure.

e some way, the previous umahs could obtain purity only by using water. However, rophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم ummah is permitted to use pure dust or soil to make tayammum if r is not available or cannot be used for a reason valid in Shari'ah.

Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم ummah is allowed to take the spoils. As for the previous ummahs, if poils were anything other than animals, they were heaped at one place till a fire descended heaven and devoured all that and returned. If here were livestock and animal in the s, they would go to only those people who had snatched them from he enemy and took ession of them. Their prophet and Messenger would get nothing of them.

ever, prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم is allowed both the Khums (which is one-fifth of poils) and the safi. The safi is he choicest thing in the spoils which the Prophet صلى الله عليه ook for himself. Examples of Safi include a sword and such other things.

Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم will be honoured as the chief intercessor on the day of resurrection.

He will be offered all opportunities and places of intercession. We have spoken on this in detail in the chapter on intercession (from hadith # 5511 to 5611).

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has been sent to all people everywhere and to every era. He has been sent not to mankind alone but also to the jinns. He conveyed Allah's message not only to mankind but also guided the jinns. This is why he is called (رسول الثقلين) resul uth thaqalayn[1] (Messenger to the two dependants). Perhaps his mission to the jinns was not disclosed till after this hadith was narrated.

(٥٧٤٨) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ فُضِّلْتُ عَلَى الْاَنْبِيَاءِ بِسِتٍّ اُعْطِيْتُ جَوَامِعَ الْكَلِمِ وَنُصِرْتُ بِالرُّعْبِ وَاُحِلَّتْ لِيَ الْغَنَائِمُ وَجُعِلَتْ لِيَ الْاَرْضُ مَسْجِدًا وَطَهُوْرًا وَاُرْسِلْتُ اِلَى الْخَلْقِ كَافَّةً وَخُتِمَ بِيَ النَّبِيُّوْنَ۔ (رواه مسلم)

5748. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "I have been bestowed excellence over the Prophets in six ways: I am given such words as are brief but comprehensive in meaning. I am helped by fear (cast in the hearts of the enemies). Spoils are made lawful to me. The earth (all of it) is made for me a mosque (where my ummah may worship) and a means of obtaining purity. I am sent to all mankind (as their prophet). And, with me the series of Prophet culminate s."[2]

COMMENTARY: Being given brief but comprehensive words is to be bestowed the ability to convey commands of religion and guidance and other messages on worldly and religious affairs in a compact and complete manner. The saying of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم include a very large number of (Arabic) succinct messages in few words. By way of example, we present some of them:

(2) (ومن حسن اسلام المرء تركه ما لا يعنيه) The beauty of anyone's Islam lies in abandoning what is of an concern to him.
(3) (الدين النصيحة) religion is wishing well for others.

Some of the scholars have compiled such ahadith diligently and with great effort.

Some exponents say that (جوامع الكلم) brief comprehensive words mean the noble Quran. In brief sentences much is conveyed. However, the first explanation is more correct, become the same message is given in another hadith (اختصر لي الكلام) and it means: "brief words have been chosen for me." Thus (جوامع الكلم) refers to the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم sayings.

After the Prophet's death, revelation has ceased to come down. There will be no other prophet or Messenger, for the religion is now perfected. Before the Last Day. Prophet Easa عليه السلام will descend to strengthen and spread this religion.

KEYS TO TREASURES

(٥٧٤٩) وَعَنْهُ أَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ بُعِثْتُ بِجَوَامِعِ الْكَلِمِ وَنُصِرْتُ بِالرُّعْبِ وَبَيْنَا أَنَا نَائِمٌ رَأَيْتُنِي أُتِيتُ بِمَفَاتِيحِ خَزَائِنِ الْأَرْضِ فَوُضِعَتْ فِي يَدِي۔ مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ۔

5749. Sayyiduna Abu Hrayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "I have been sent with words that the bri:f but thorough. And, I have been helped by fear (instilled in the hearts of enemies). And, while I was asleep, I saw that keys of the treasures of he earth were brought to me and they were put in my hand."[1]

COMMENTARY: The final portion of the hadith means that Allah gave the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم flad tidings through his dream that He has made it easy for him and his ummah to conquer vast territories and get their t reassures. The treasures and the minerals in mines including gold, silver and other previous metals.

GRANT FOR THE PROPHET'S UMMAH

(٥٧٥٠) وَعَنْ ثَوْبَانَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ اللّٰهَ زَوَى لِيَ الْأَرْضَ فَرَأَيْتُ مَشَارِقَهَا وَمَغَارِبَهَا وَإِنَّ أُمَّتِي سَيَبْلُغُ مُلْكُهَا مَا زُوِيَ لِي مِنْهَا وَأُعْطِيتُ الْكَنْزَيْنِ الْأَحْمَرَ وَالْأَبْيَضَ وَإِنِّي سَأَلْتُ رَبِّي لِأُمَّتِي أَنْ لَا يُهْلِكَهَا بِسَنَةٍ عَامَّةٍ وَأَنْ لَا يُسَلِّطَ عَلَيْهِمْ عَدُوًّا مِنْ سِوَى أَنْفُسِهِمْ فَيَسْتَبِيحَ بَيْضَتَهُمْ وَإِنَّ رَبِّي قَالَ يَا مُحَمَّدُ إِنِّي قَضَيْتُ قَضَاءً فَإِنَّهُ لَا يُرَدُّ وَإِنِّي أَعْطَيْتُكَ لِأُمَّتِكَ أَنْ لَا أُهْلِكَهُمْ بِسَنَةٍ عَامَّةٍ وَأَنْ لَا أُسَلِّطَ عَلَيْهِمْ عَدُوًّا مِنْ سِوَى أَنْفُسِهِمْ فَيَسْتَبِيحَ بَيْضَتَهُمْ وَلَوِ اجْتَمَعَ عَلَيْهِمْ مَنْ بِأَقْطَارِهَا حَتّٰى يَكُوْنَ بَعْضُهُمْ يُهْلِكُ بَعْضًا وَيَسْبِي بَعْضُهُمْ بَعْضًا۔ (رواہ مسلم)

5750.Sayyiduna Thawban رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Allah brought together the earth for me (like within a palm). Then I saw it from east to west. So, I an say with certainty that my ummah with get dominance over the territories that were brought together for me. I am given the two treasures: the red and the wri:e (meaning, gold and silver). I prayed to my Lord for my ummah that He should not destroy them by a general famine, and that He should not let an enemy, other than their own people, subjugate them and uproot them. And, indeed my Lord said, 'O Muhammad when I decree something, it is not revoked. And, I have given you for your ummah (an assurance) that I shall not destroy them by a general famine and shall not let an enemy, other than their own people, subjugate them and uproot them even though all their enemies (throughout the world) wore to write against them from different regions of the world, unless some of them destroy some others and take each other as captives."[2]

COMMENTARY: The red and the white refer to gold and silver. The kingdoms of Chosroes and Caesar (of Persia and Byzantine, respectively) are meant, This came true and the Muslims conquered both these territories.

Allah has preserved all Muslims from two things forever,

(i) All Muslims as a whole will never face famine to the extent that they perish.

(ii) All Muslims as a whole will never be wiped out by non-Muslim enemies.

However, if Muslims destroy themselves by in-fighting and killing and disgracing each other, that will be a different thing. Their common enemy might then take advantage of the situation.

THE UNANSWERED PRAYER FOR THE UMMAH

(٥٧٥١) وَعَنْ سَعْدٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَرَّ بِمَسْجِدِ بَنِيْ مُعَاوِيَةَ دَخَلَ فَرَكَعَ فِيْهِ رَكْعَتَيْنِ وَصَلَّيْنَا مَعَهُ وَدَعَا رَبَّهُ طَوِيْلًا ثُمَّ انْصَرَفَ فَقَالَ سَاَلْتُ رَبِّيْ ثَلَاثًا فَاَعْطَانِيْ ثِنْتَيْنِ وَمَنَعَنِيْ وَاحِدَةً سَاَلْتُ رَبِّيْ اَنْ لَّا يُهْلِكَ اُمَّتِيْ بِالسَّنَةِ فَاَعْطَانِيْهَا وَسَاَلْتُ اَنْ لَّا يُهْلِكَ اُمَّتِيْ بِالْغَرَقِ فَاَعْطَانِيْهَا وَسَاَلْتُهُ اَنْ لَا يَجْعَلَ بَاْسَهُمْ بَيْنَهُمْ فَمَنَعَنِيْهَا۔ (رواه مسلم)

5751. Sayyiduna Sa'd رضی اللہ عنہ narrated, "Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم passed by the mosque of (a tiibe of the ansar), Banu Mu'awiyah. He entered it and offered two raka'at salah in it. We too offered the salah with him. He then made a lengthy supplication to his Lord. Then, he turned around and said, 'I prayed to my Lord for three things and two things. He has given to me but He has refused to give one. I asked my Lord that He should not destroy my ummah by famine. So, He granted me that (my prayer). I asked my Lord that He should not destroy my people by drowning. So He grant ed me that, I asked Him that He should not cause them to fight each other, but He denied me that."[1]

COMMENTARY: It was time for a prescribed salah when the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was nea the mosque of Banu Mu'awiyah. He supplicated Allah for three things, for his umma either during the last sitting posture of the salah or after offering the salutation. Since on of his supplications was not accepted, it follows that even prayers of Prophet علیہ السلام ma not be granted some times, (see also hadith # 5754).

THE PROPHET صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم IS MENTIONED IN THE TORAH

5752. Sayyiduna Ata ibn Yasar رضی اللہ عنہ (a well-known tabi'i) narrated that he met Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Amr ibn Aaas رضی اللہ عنہ and requested him, :Inform me of the description of Allah's Messenger as given in the Torah." He said, "Of course, by Allah indeed, he is described in the Torah with some of his description in the Quran. And, he quoted:

يَاَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ اِنَّا اَرْسَلْنٰكَ شَاهِدًا وَّمُبَشِّرًا وَّنَذِيْرًا

[{O Prophet! Surely, we have sent you as a witness and a bearer of glad tidings and a warner} (33:45) and a protector of the ummis (unlettered). You are My slave and My Messenger. I have named you Al-Mutawakkil (one who trust) is not harsh, rude and vociferous in the markets, one who will not repel evil wit h evil, but will pardon and forgive. And Allah will not take away his soul till He sets right through him the drifting creed till they say: (لا اله الا الله) – 'there is no god but Allah' – and he open thereby blind eyes and deaf ears and incorrigible (neglectful) hearts].[1]

5753. Sayyiduna transmits a similar hadith from Ata رحمہ اللہ on the authority of Ibn Salaam رضی اللہ عنہ.[2]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Amr ibn Aas رضی اللہ عنہ was a great scholar, a renowned reciter of the Quran who had committed it to memory and a companion of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, He was a good scribe. He had a good knowledge of the earlier Divine Books too like the Torah and Injil. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had permitted him to record his ahadith. So, he wrote down whatever he heard from the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, which is why he, like Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ, has narrated many ahadith. Many of the tab'un (epigones) have narrated ahadith from him.

Since he was qualified, Sayyiduna Ata ibn Yasar رحمہ اللہ asked him about the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم description in the Torah and he enlightened him. He began to describe in the words of the Quran then followed with the description as in the Torah about the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم coming. The word ummis (unlettered) refers to the people of Arabia. They are called the ummis because most of them did not know to read and write.

Or, they are called ummi in relation to Um al-Qura (a name of Makkah) where they lived. Furthermore, the Arabs are singled out because the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم belonged there and he was sent to the Arabs first to preserve them from the dominance of non-Arabs. He was to arm them, before anyone else sought them, with the weapon of religion, faith and manners. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم presence was a perfect protection for all the people from the devil's temptation and the soul's Mischief. Some scholars say that 'protection' refers to the people of the Prophet's time being safe from Divine punishment and perishing as long as he was among them. It is as the noble Quran says:

{But Allah was not going to chastise them while you were among them.} (8:33)

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم is described as one who will not make noise in the markets. Markets are mentioned only because people generally forget themselves here and put aside their seriousness. It includes otherwise to any public place.

THE PROPHET'S صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم THREE SUPPLICATIONS FOR THE MUSLIMS

صَلَّيْتَ صَلٰوةً لَمْ تَكُنْ تُصَلِّيْهَا قَالَ اَجَلْ اِنَّهَا صَلٰوةُ رَغْبَةٍ وَرَهْبَةٍ وَاِنِّيْ سَاَلْتُ اللّٰهَ فِيْهَا ثَلٰثًا فَاَعْطَانِيْ

هِمْ فَاَعْطَانِيْهَا وَسَاَلْتُهُ اَنْ لَّا يُذِيْقَ بَعْضَهُمْ بَاْسَ بَعْضٍ فَمَنَعَنِيْهَا۔ (رواه الترمذی و النسائی)

5754. Sayyiduna Khabbab ibn Arat رحمہ اللہ said, "Allah's Messenger اللہ علیہ وسلم offered a salah with us and made it lengthy. So, some of us asked, 'O Messenge Allah, you have led us in a salah as you have never before offered.' He s "certainly. this was a salah of want and of fear. And, I prayer to Allah in it for th tings. He granted me two but denied me one. I prayed to Him that He should destroy my umah by famine and He grant ed me that (Prayer). And, I prayed to H that He should not let an enemy alien to them subjugate them, and He granted that (prayer). And, I prayed to Him not to let them taste the fear (or tyranny) of e other, but He denied me that (Prayer)."[1] (see also hadith # 5751).

PROTECTED FROM THREE THINGS

ثِ خِلَالٍ اَنْ لَّا يَدْعُوَ عَلَيْكُمْ نَبِيُّكُمْ فَتَهْلِكُوْا جَمِيْعًا وَاَنْ لَّا يَظْهَرَ اَهْلُ الْبَاطِلِ عَلٰى اَهْلِ الْحَقِّ وَ

لَا تَجْتَمِعُوْا عَلٰى ضَلَالَةٍ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

5755. Sayyiduna Abu Maalik Ash'ary رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Surely, Allah, Mighty and Glorious, has preserved you from three things

- that your prophet should not invoke a curse on you asking that all of should, perish,
- that followers of falsehood should not dominate those who pursue truth, and
- that you must not, all of you unite on the wrong path."[2]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم prayer for Muslims is that even if their en outnumber them and are stronger then them, they should not be able wipe then According to Hakim, Sayyiduna Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم sai my ummah, some people will always dominate with the Truth till the day of resurrect

According to Ibn Majah. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Some people of my ummah will remain faithful to Allah's command always. Their enemy will never be able to cause them harm."

He also prayed for hem that they must not unite on falsehood. This means that all Muslims can never unite on a false belief or ideology. It is possible that some of them might follow un Islamic principles to serve their selfish ands sometimes and they might declare that to be lawful. However all of them or all Muslim leaders will not succumb to on un Islamic principle or belief.

This portion of the hadith is evidence that unanimity as proof. And unanimity means that the mujtahids and distinguished ulama of their time are agree and at one of any command or principle of Shari'ah.

MUSLIMS WILL ALWAYS UNITE AGAINST COMMON ENEMY

(٥٧٥٦) وَعَنْ عَوْفِ بْنِ مَالِكٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَنْ يَجْمَعَ اللّٰهُ عَلٰى هٰذِهِ الْأُمَّةِ سَيْفَيْنِ سَيْفًا مِنْهَا وَسَيْفًا مِنْ عَدُوِّهَا۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

5756. Sayyiduna Awf ibn Maalik رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Allah will not let two swords to join together against this ummah, a sword of their own and a sword of their enemy."[1]

COMMENTARY: Muslims will never be eliminated. If will never happen that they are faced with in-fighting and mutual discord and at the same time they have to cope with a common enemy who attacks them.

Turpushti رحمہ اللہ has interpreted the hadith to mean that whenever Muslims begin to fight each other. Allah will cause an enemy to subdue them and his tyranny will bring the Muslims back to their inherent unity. They will cease to fight each other and become friends.

Teebi رحمہ اللہ has written that Allah will not subject the Muslims to two fighting's a one time. Whenever they encounter a non-Muslim enemy, they will set aside their common differences and repulse the alien enemy.

THE PROPHET'S صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم NOBLE DESCENT

(٥٧٥٧) وَعَنِ الْعَبَّاسِ أَنَّهُ جَاءَ إِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَكَأَنَّهُ سَمِعَ شَيْئًا فَقَامَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَلَى الْمِنْبَرِ فَقَالَ مَنْ أَنَا فَقَالُوْا أَنْتَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ قَالَ أَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللّٰهِ بْنِ عَبْدِ الْمُطَّلِبِ إِنَّ اللّٰهَ خَلَقَ الْخَلْقَ فَجَعَلَنِيْ فِيْ خَيْرِهِمْ ثُمَّ جَعَلَهُمْ فِرْقَتَيْنِ فَجَعَلَنِيْ فِيْ خَيْرِهِمْ فِرْقَةً ثُمَّ جَعَلَهُمْ قَبَائِلَ فَجَعَلَنِيْ فِيْ خَيْرِهِمْ قَبِيْلَةً ثُمَّ جَعَلَهُمْ بُيُوْتًا فَجَعَلَنِيْ فِيْ خَيْرِهِمْ بَيْتًا فَأَنَا خَيْرُهُمْ نَفْسًا وَخَيْرُهُمْ بَيْتًا۔ (رواه الترمذی)

5757. Sayyiduna Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he come to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم after having heard something (about the infidels casting aspersions on the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and asking why Allah chose him instead of the notables of Makkah and informed him about it). The prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم stood up on the pulpit and asked, "Who am I?" They submitted, "You are Allah's Messenger." He said, "I am Muhamad ibn Abdullah ibn Abdul Muttalib. Allah created the entire creation (mankind and jinn) and (among them) He created me as the best of them. Then He caused them (the best of mankind) to be in two groups (the Arabs and the non-Arabs) and he created me in the best (of the better group). Then He made them (of the superior) into tribes and created me in the best of the tribes (the Quraysh). Then, He made them into families and created me I the best of the families and created me in the best of the families (the Banu Hashim). So, I am the best of them (among mankind and among the Arabs) both family wise and as an individual."[1]

COMMENTARY: In these words, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم made clear to every one tha become of his excellent lineage and superior family back ground, he was the mo: deserving of being the last prophet of Allah and of receiving His last Book. It was Divir wisdom that one who assumed prophethood and messengership should be of a hig standard as regards lineage and family background but it is not necessary for a prophet t have a high family descent. It is merely to silence the people who argue that they we noble and had a better ancestry. The foolish infidels were very loud about it when th Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was commissioned. They argued that one of their nobles was best suite to receive Allah's last Book and to become His Prophet. However, as for as prophethood concerned, this itself is a great honour and a sign of nobility. Any kind of dignity ar greatness is meaningless before prophethood which does not depend on a high descer And, there is no other qualification besides simply Allah blessing. He may choose anyo He likes for this hour and place. It is as the Quran says:

اَللّٰهُ اَعْلَمُ حَيْثُ يَجْعَلُ رِسَالَتَهٗ

[Allah known best where to place His message.][2]

وَاللّٰهُ يَخْتَصُّ بِرَحْمَتِهٖ مَنْ يَّشَآءُ وَاللّٰهُ ذُو الْفَضْلِ الْعَظِيْمِ

وَكَانَ فَضْلُ اللّٰهِ عَلَيْكَ عَظِيْمًا

And the grace of Allah on you has always been great

PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم WAS CONFIRMED EVEN BEFORE PROPHET AADAM عليه السلام WAS CREATED

5758. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah صلى الله عليه وسلم narrated that they (the sahabah) رضی الله عنهم asked, "O Messenger of Allah, when was prophethood bestowed on you?" He said, "When Aadam عليه السلام was between soul and body." (He was without spirit but only with his body)[3]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was chosen for his mission as early as before th

(٥٧٥٩، ٥٧٦٠) وَعَنْ الْعِرْبَاضِ بْنِ سَارِيَةَ عَنْ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَنَّهُ قَالَ اِنِّيْ عِنْدَ اللّٰهِ مَكْتُوْبٌ خَاتِمُ النَّبِيِّيْنَ وَاِنَّ اٰدَمَ لَمُنْجَدِلٌ فِيْ طِيْنَتِهٖ وَسَاُخْبِرُكُمْ بِاَوَّلِ اَمْرِيْ دَعْوَةُ اِبْرَاهِيْمَ وَ بِشَارَةُ عِيْسٰى وَرُؤْيَا اُمِّيَ الَّتِيْ رَاَتْ حِيْنَ وَضَعَتْنِيْ وَقَدْ خَرَجَ لَهَا نُوْرٌ اَضَاءَ لَهَا مِنْهُ قُصُوْرُ الشَّامِ رَوَاهُ فِيْ شَرْحِ السُّنَّةِ وَرَوَاهُ اَحْمَدُ عَنْ اَبِيْ اُمَامَةَ مِنْ قَوْلِهٖ سَاُخْبِرُكُمْ اِلٰى اٰخِرِهٖ۔

5759. Sayyiduna Irbad ibn Sariyan رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "I was recorded as the seal of the Prophets عليهم السلام by Allah when yet Aadam عليه السلام was in (the form of) his unneeded clay. Let me tell you about my first state. It was supplication of Ibrahim عليه السلام, the glad tidings of Easa عليه السلام and the dream of my mother when she gave birth to me. A light shone before her whereby the castles of Syria were brightened for her."[1]

5760.Sayyiduna Abu Umamah رضى الله عنه narrated this hadith from: 'Let me tell you..." till the end of it.[2]

OMMENTARY: The Arabic word about prophet Aadam's عليه السلام state is (طينه) and means 'a mp of clay' Naturally disposition is also called (طينت) the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was decreed to ecome a Prophet even before the mould of Prophet Aadam عليه السلام has formed. The mould as being shaped.

here was no reason why the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم mission was decreed in advance apart rm letting the angels know that he was destined to become the last Prophet. The souls, o, were to be informed of his mission.

ccording to one hadith, the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم name is inscribed on the throne, the eaven, in paradise at various places, on the chest of the large eyed maidens of paradise ur ayn), on the eye-lashes of the angels. Some scholars say that the spirit of the Prophet صلى الله عليه و used to train and correct all spirits in eh world of the spirits. When he came to e world, he himself engaged in the same work as a guide and teacher of all human eings. It is established without any doubt whatsoever that all the souls had come into xistence long before their bodies were created.

he Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم also confirmed that not only was his coming decreed before the reation of Prophet Aadam عليه السلام and the higher world had known it, but also the prophet عليه السلام in this world had conveyed tidings of his coming and of his high rank. Evidence for at is the prayer of Prophet Ibrahim عليه السلام that he had made while raising the structure of e Ka'bah. It is reproduced in the Quran in these words:

Bahaqi in Shar us sunah # 3629.
Musnad Ahmad 4-127.

رَبَّنَا وَابْعَثْ فِيهِمْ رَسُولًا مِّنْهُمْ يَتْلُوا عَلَيْهِمْ آيٰتِكَ وَيُعَلِّمُهُمُ الْكِتٰبَ وَالْحِكْمَةَ وَيُزَكِّيهِمْ إِنَّكَ أَنْتَ الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ

[Our Lord! And raise up in their midst a Messenger from amongst them who shall recite to them your revelations, and shall teach hem the Book and the wisdom, and shall purify them. Surely you, only you, are the Mighty, the wise!] (2:129)

Similarly long before he come Prophet Easa عليه السلام had given glad tidings to the Banu Isra of his coming. The Quran says:

وَمُبَشِّرًا بِرَسُولٍ يَأْتِي مِنْ بَعْدِي اسْمُهُ أَحْمَدُ

[..and giving glad tidings of a Messenger who shall come after me, whose name shall be Ahmad] (61:6)

The fact that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم mother saw dreams giving glad tidings and, at the tin of his birth, she experienced wonderful and amazing things is evidence that the nur (Ligh of his prophethood and messenger ship had appeared even before he was sent.

As for the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم mother seeing the castles of Syria, She may have seen them a dream or during awakening. In the former case, she may have dreamt some time befo his birth. According to a hadith when the time of the birth of the prophet drew near, sh saw in a dream that an angel told her that she had a prophet in her womb.

In the second case, she had the vision at the time of his birth. Some tradition say that at th time of his birth, such light issued forth from his mother Sayyidah Amnah رضى الله عنه that th castles and houses of Syria were seen clearly. This was an indication that the child prophethood would throw its light all over the world from east to west and the darkness disbelief would face away.

(٥٧٦١) وَعَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَنَا سَيِّدُ وَلَدِ آدَمَ يَوْمَ الْقِيٰمَةِ وَلَا فَخْرَ وَبِيَدِي لِوَاءُ الْحَمْدِ وَلَا فَخْرَ وَمَا مِنْ نَبِيٍّ يَوْمَئِذٍ آدَمُ فَمَنْ سِوَاهُ إِلَّا تَحْتَ لِوَائِي وَأَنَا أَوَّلُ مَنْ تَنْشَقُّ عَنْهُ الْأَرْضُ وَلَا فَخْرَ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

5761. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "I shall be the chief of the descendants of Aadam عليه السلام on the say of resurrection. There is no boast about it. In my hand will be the standard of praise. There is no boast about it. On that day, no prophet, whether Aadam عليه السلام or any other, but will be under my standard. And, I shall be the first for whom the earth will be cleft open (and I shall arise). And, there is no boast about it."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "There is no boast about it" to mean thereb that he was not being arrogant or proud about it. Rather, he was acknowledging th blessing and being grateful for it in the light of the words of Allah:

وَأَمَّا بِنِعْمَةِ رَبِّكَ فَحَدِّثْ

{And as for the blessing of your Lord proclaim it.} (93:11)

e also let the blessings be known so that the people may esteem his worth and believe in and thereby their faith may gain strength.

ıe word (لواء) is a banner or a standard or a flag. It is used also for a spear. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم would be distinguished on the day of resurrection for having praised and glorified llah. Pitching a spear or raising a standard banner or flag is to demonstrate someone's me and renown. Allah will open the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم heart in such a way that he will be ıspired to praise Allah in a unique way as no one else will have done.

he Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is associated with (حمد) praise. His name is (محمد) and (احمد) luhammad and Ahmad (which are derived from (حمد) praise He is the one of (مقام محمود) – raiseworthy station.

PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم IS ALLAH'S HABIB (DEAR)

(٥٧٦٢) وعن ابن عباس قال جلس ناس من أصحاب رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم فخرج حتى إذا دنا منهم سمعهم يتذاكرون قال بعضهم إن الله اتخذ إبراهيم خليلا وقال آخر موسى كلمه تكليما وقال آخر فعيسى كلمة الله وروحه وقال آخر آدم اصطفاه الله فخرج عليهم رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم و قال قد سمعت كلامكم وعجبكم إن إبراهيم خليل الله وهو كذلك وموسى نجي الله وهو كذلك وعيسى روح الله وكلمته وهو كذلك وآدم اصطفاه الله وهو كذلك ألا وأنا حبيب الله ولا فخر وأنا حامل لواء الحمد يوم القيمة تحته آدم فمن دونه ولا فخر وأنا أول شافع وأول مشفع يوم القيمة ولا فخر وأنا أول من يحرك حلق الجنة فيفتح الله فيدخلنيها ومعي فقراء المؤمنين ولا فخر وأنا أكرم الأولين والآخرين ولا فخر. (رواه الترمذي والدارمي)

5762. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه narrated that some of the companions of Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم were sitting together. He came out (from his room) and, as he approached them, he heard them conversing. One of them said, "Surely Allah has chosen Ibrahim عليه السلام as a Khalil (friend)." Another said, "Musa عليه السلام spoke to him directly." Someone else exclaimed. "Easa عليه السلام is Allah's word and His spirit." Yet another said, "Aadam عليه السلام! Allah chose him!"

Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم came to them and said, :Indeed, I have heard your conversation and your.amazement that Ibrhim عليه السلام was the friend of Allah. That is so! And, Musa عليه السلام was the confident of Allah. That is so! And, Easa عليه السلام was the spirit of Allah and His word. That is so! And, Aadam عليه السلام was Allah's chosen one. Hat is so! Know, and I am the habib (dear one) of Allah (and He loves me). There is no boast about it!

On the day of resurrection, I shall be the holder of the standard of praise (حمد) under which will be Aadam عليه السلام and other besides him. There is no boast about it! And, I shall be the first intercessor and the first whose intercession will be accepted on the day of resurrection. There is no boast about it! And, I shall be the first to knock at the chain of the (gate of) paradise, so Allah will open it for me and admit me into it. With me will be the poor people among the believer. There is no boast about it! And, in the sight of Allah, I am the noblest among the earliest and the later ones, no boast!"[1]

COMMENTARY: the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "I am the habib of Allah!" Some of exponer have written that both khalil and habib mean friend, but habib is a dear friend while kha is (just) a friend.

Mulla Ali Qari has written that khalil is a friend whose friendship is prompted by a ne while habib has no other objective beyond being friends.

It must be borne in mind that, as it is, all Prophet عليه السلام and Messengers صلى الله عليه وسلم and, fact, all believers and friends and dear ones of the Lord, But, there are degrees of friendsh and love. This discussion is about the highest and the best friendship. The chief eviden tat the highest degree of friendship is the one the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had with Allah lies this verse of the quran.

قُلْ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ تُحِبُّونَ اللّٰهَ فَاتَّبِعُونِي يُحْبِبْكُمُ اللّٰهُ

{Say, "If you love Allah then follow me. Allah will love you." (3:31)

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم will be the first person to enter paradise. Then among the believe the first to enter paradise will be the poor and indigent mahajirs and ansars. They will according to their ranks, some before other. According to another hadith, the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The poor people of my ummah will enter paradise before the rich by fi hundred years. "[2]

This is evidenced that a patient preserving poor man is better than a grateful rich man.

According to the Sufis, faqr (poverty is not hunger and need. Rather, it is to be needy on of Allah and not to ask him for anything but only His pleasure.

Imam Thawri رحمه الله said that faqr or poverty is to be content even when one does not ha property and means, and when one does have property, one spends it.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم sought refuge from poverty of the soul but praised richness of t soul. Hence, the main thing is Allah's pleasure. whatever one's condition - poverty richness -, if it deprives one of Allah's pleasure then it is bad. However, generally, weal keeps one involved in evil and sin while poverty keeps one safe from sin and evil. This why Allah kept most prophets عليه السلام and the awliya رحمه الله in poverty. Their poverty was means of raising their standing, degrees and ranks our argument is that since a po disbelievers punishment in hell will be lighter than a rich disbelievers, it follows th poverty will also weigh in favour of a poor Muslim in paradise.

(٥٧٦٣) وَعَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ قَيْسٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ نَحْنُ الْاٰخِرُوْنَ وَنَحْنُ السَّابِقُوْنَ يَوْمَ الْقِيٰمَةِ وَاِنِّيْ قَائِلٌ قَوْلًا غَيْرَ فَخْرٍ اِبْرَاهِيْمُ خَلِيْلُ اللّٰهِ وَمُوْسٰى صَفِيُّ اللّٰهِ وَاَنَا حَبِيْبُ اللّٰهِ وَمَعِيَ لِوَاءُ الْحَمْدِ يَوْمَ الْقِيٰمَةِ وَ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ وَعَدَنِيْ فِيْ اُمَّتِيْ وَاَجَارَهُمْ مِنْ ثَلٰثٍ لَا يَعُمُّهُمْ بِسَنَةٍ وَلَا

5763. Sayyiduna Amr ibn Qays رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "We are the last (in terms of being the last to come to this world) but we shall be the over takers (or the first to enter paradise) on the day of resurrection (with our High ranks). And, I say a word without boasting (for it is a fact); Ibrahim علیہ السلام is the friend of Allah, Musa علیہ السلام is Allah's chosen one and I am Allah's beloved one (Habib). And, on he day of resurrection, he standard of praise will be with me (at the maqam Mahmood or the praiseworthy station). And, indeed, Allah has promise me concerning my ummah that He would protect them from three things:

i. He will not afflict them with a general famine (causing all of them to suffer).
ii. NO enemy will eliminate them.
iii. And, He will not let all of them go astray together."[1]

THE PROPEHT صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم IS LEADAER & SEAL OF PROPHET

(٥٧٦٤) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اَنَا قَائِدُ الْمُرْسَلِيْنَ وَلَا فَخْرَ وَاَنَا خَاتِمُ النَّبِيِّيْنَ وَلَا فَخْرَ وَاَنَا اَوَّلُ شَافِعٍ وَ مُشَفَّعٍ وَلَا فَخْرَ۔ (رواه الدارمی)

5764. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "I shall be the leader of (all) the Messengers علیہم السلام (and Prophets علیہم السلام on the day of resurrection). No beast. And, I am the one to set a seal to prophethood. (There will be no prophet or Messenger after me.) No boast. And, I will be the first to make intercession and will be the first whose intercession will be accepted. No boast."[2]

(٥٧٦٥) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَنَا اَوَّلُ النَّاسِ خُرُوْجًا اِذَا بُعِثُوْا وَاَنَا قَائِدُهُمْ اِذَا وَفَدُوْا وَاَنَا خَطِيْبُهُمْ اِذَا اَنْصَتُوْا وَاَنَا مُسْتَشْفِعُهُمْ اِذَا حُبِسُوْا وَاَنَا مُبَشِّرُهُمْ اِذَا اَيِسُوْا اَلْكَرَامَةُ وَالْمَفَاتِيْحُ يَوْمَئِذٍ بِيَدِيْ وَلِوَاءُ الْحَمْدِ يَوْمَئِذٍ بِيَدِيْ وَاَنَا اَكْرَمُ وُلْدِ اٰدَمَ عَلٰى رَبِّيْ يَطُوْفُ عَلَيَّ اَلْفُ خَادِمٍ كَاَنَّهُمْ بَيْضٌ مَكْنُوْنٌ اَوْ لُؤْلُؤٌ مَنْثُوْرٌ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَالدَّارِمِيُّ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

5765. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "I shall be the first to come out (of the grave) When mankind are resurrected. And I shall be their leader when are presented (before Allah). And, I shall speak for them when they are silent. And I shall intercede for them when asked after they are rest rained. And, I shall give them glad tidings (of forgiveness and mercy) when they despair. On that day, honour and keys (to paradise) will be in my hand. And, on that day, the banner of praise will be in my hand. And, I shall be the most honourble of the offspring of Aadam علیہ السلام in the sight of my Lord. Thousand of servant will be moving around me as though they were concealed eggs or scattered pearls."[3]

COMMENTARY: People will be absolutely quiet in the gathering place. They shall t terrorized and deeply worried. NO one will dare to utter a word or present an excuse. Th Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم will step forward and put in a word on behalf of everyone. He will mal intercession for everyone. Leave aside the common people even the Prophet عليه السلام will n speak. He will praise Allah as He is worthy. Only he will be permitted to speak as th Quran says:

هٰذَا يَوْمُ لَا يَنْطِقُوْنَ وَلَا يُؤْذَنُ لَهُمْ فَيَعْتَذِرُوْنَ

{This is the day they shall not speak, nor shall be given leave, so that they might excuse themselves} (77L:35, 36)

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is exempted from that. Or, in the beginning, no one will t permitted to speak but, later the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم will be allowed to speak. Or, this vers applies only to the disbelievers.

The people will despair after, being terrified as they are, they will have approached all th prophets, one by one but none of them will make bold to speak on their behalf. Proph Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم will then intercede for them with Allah. In this way he will get te relief from their despair.

The reference to concealed eggs is to be eggs of the ostrich. These eggs are a symbol c cleanliness. These eggs are pure white with a reddish tings so they look very beautiful.

However, it is stated in Majma'al Bihar that 'concealed eggs' are oyster shells that are sa from hands and sights of people. So they are very beautiful.

This means that the servants in attendance on that day will look very god because of the cleanliness and handsome appearance.

As for the scattered pearls, they look very good when they are not in a string. So, thos servant all in a string. So, those servants all around the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم will look ve beautiful and present a great sight.

THE PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم WILL STAND TO THE RIGHT OF THE THRONE

(٥٧٦٦) وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ فَأُكْسٰى حُلَّةً مِّنْ حُلَلِ الْجَنَّةِ ثُمَّ أَقُوْمُ عَنْ يَمِيْنِ الْعَرْشِ لَيْسَ أَحَدٌ مِنَ الْخَلَائِقِ يَقُوْمُ ذٰلِكَ الْمَقَامَ غَيْرِيْ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةِ جَامِعِ الْأُصُوْلِ عَنْهُ أَنَا أَوَّلُ مَنْ تَنْشَقُّ عَنْهُ الْأَرْضُ فَأُكْسٰى۔

5766. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "I shall be given to wear garments of paradise. Then, I shall stand at the right of the Throne. No one of the creatures will stand at this place other than I."[1]

Another version by him is: 'I shall be the first for whom the earth will be split open and I shall be given to wear..."[2]

WASILA FOR THE PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم

(٥٧٦٧) وَعَنْهُ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ سَلُوا اللّٰهَ لِيَ الْوَسِيْلَةَ قَالُوْا يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ وَمَا الْوَسِيْلَةُ قَالَ

أَعْلَى دَرَجَةٍ فِي الْجَنَّةِ لَا يَنَالُهَا إِلَّا رَجُلٌ وَاحِدٌ وَأَرْجُوا أَنْ أَكُونَ أَنَا هُوَ۔ (رواه الترمذى)

5767. Sayyiduna Abu Hurahrah رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Ask Allah that He may grant me the Walsilah." They (the sahabah) رضى الله عنهم asked, "O Messenger of Allah, what is the Wasilah?" He said, "the highest rank in paradise. No one will get to it, but only one man. And, I hope that I may be the one."[1]

:OMMENTARY: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم instruct ed his ummah to pray to Allah to grant he wasilah to him. He may have done so our of his need, or out of humility, or to have hem make this prayer constantly. IN that way they themselves would benefit and get the eward, too.

'he Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم may also have intended to guide them thereby to demonstrate their nutual love. Every Muslim must pray for elevation of rank of his relative and friend.

'he Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم expressed in a modest way and to observe etiquette before the lord hat he hoped he would be the exclusive man. It is known, otherwise, that the highest rank f paradise which is described as wasilha is reserved for him alone.

(٥٧٦٨) وَعَنْ أُبَيِّ بْنِ كَعْبٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ إِذَا كَانَ يَوْمُ الْقِيٰمَةِ كُنْتُ إِمَامَ النَّبِيِّيْنَ وَخَطِيْبَهُمْ وَصَاحِبَ شَفَاعَتِهِمْ غَيْرَ فَخْرٍ۔ (رواه الترمذى)

5768. Sayyiduna Ubayy ibn Ka'b رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet (E0 said, "when it is the day of resurrection, I shall be the Imam of the Prophets عليهم السلام and their speaker and the one who will intercede on their behalf. No beast."[2]

PROPHET IBRAHIM عليه السلام & PROPHET MUHAMMAD صلى الله عليه وسلم

(٥٧٦٩) وَعَنْ عَبْدِ اللّٰهِ بْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ لِكُلِّ نَبِيٍّ وُلَاةً مِّنَ النَّبِيِّيْنَ وَإِنَّ وَلِيِّيْ أَبِيْ وَخَلِيْلُ رَبِّيْ ثُمَّ قَرَأَ إِنَّ أَوْلَى النَّاسِ بِإِبْرَاهِيْمَ لَلَّذِيْنَ اتَّبَعُوْهُ وَهٰذَا النَّبِيُّ وَالَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا وَاللّٰهُ وَلِيُّ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ۔ (رواه الترمذى)

5769. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Mas'ud صلى الله عليه وسلم narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Surely, for every prophet there is a friend among the Prophet. My friend is my father – the friend of my Lord." Then he recited:

5770.Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Allah has sent me that I may perfect good qualities of character and complete good deeds."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم words imply: "That I may guide Allah's creatures and lead them to perfect ness in outward dealings and habits and internal morals."

TORAH'S REFERENCE TO THIS UMMAH

5771. Sayyiduna Ka'b رحمه الله (a tabi'i) related form the torah, saying, "Muhammad (will be) Allah's Messenger. His chosen slave. He will not be rude, coarse or vociferous in the markets He will not return evil with evil, but he will forgive and pardon. His birth will be in Makkah and his emigration will be to Taybah (Madinah) and his rule will be in Syria. His ummah will be deeply devoted to praising Allah. They will praise Allah in ease and in difficulty. Hey will praise Allah while alighting or stopping over, and will declare His greatness whenever ascending (or on every rising ground). They will determine (hour of salah by) the sun's movement and offer salah at its hour. They will fusten their lower garments at their waists. They will make ablution at their limbs. Their mu'adhdhin will call out (for salah) in the open. Their rows will be alike in war and in (congregational) salah. They will be soft spoken (in worship) at night like the buzzing of the bees."[2]

COMMENTARY: The rule being in Syria means that the results of religion and prophethood will be seen there. The banner of Allah will be raised there though jihad. Indeed, it is a fact that Islam's message reached this place most of all. Muslim had to wage jihad most in this place. Apart from that, the message of Islam has spread all over the world. Also, the caliphate functioned from Syria in the time of Mu'awiyah رضی الله عنه and the Banu Umayyah

As for determining hours of salah by the movement of the sun, the Muslims calculate these hours and times of other worship from sunrise to sunset and at the declension of the sun during day time. They observe their worship of Allah at proper hours.

Abdullah ibn Abu Awfa رضی الله عنه has narrated (as transmitted by Haakim) in a marfu form, "The best of Allah's slaves are they who watch for the movements of the sun, moon and stars to determine hours of worship of Allah."

(٥٧٧٢) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ سَلَامٍ قَالَ مَكْتُوْبٌ فِي التَّوْرٰةِ صِفَةُ مُحَمَّدٍ وَّعِيْسَى بْنُ مَرْيَمَ يُدْ فَنُ مَعَهُ قَالَ اَبُوْمَوْدُوْدٍ وَقَدْ بَقِيَ فِي الْبَيْتِ مَوْضِعُ قَبْرٍ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

5772. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Salaam رضی اللہ عنہ said, "The description of Muhamamd صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم is written in the Torah. (It is) also (written) that Essa ibn Maryam علیہ السلام will be buried next to him."

Abu Hawdud رضی اللہ عنہ (a narrator of this hadith) said, "Space for a grave is retained in the house (of Sayyidah Ayshah) رضی اللہ عنہ"[1]

COMMENTARY: IN the house (meaning, the room), the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ and Umar رضی اللہ عنہ are buried in such a way that the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم grave is in the front, Abu Bakr's رضی اللہ عنہ head is in line with the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم chest and Umar's رضی اللہ عنہ head is in line with the chest of Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ. There is space for one grave next to Umar's رضی اللہ عنہ grave. Many of the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم hoped to be buried in that place, but that could not be done. It is Divine wisdom to keep this place vacant so that Prophet Eesa علیہ السلام may be buried here in the Last Days.

According to a tradition: "when he will be in the final days of his life, Prophet Eesa علیہ السلام will go to Makkah to perform hajj. While returning, he will die between Makkah and Madinah. His body will be brought to Madinah and he will be buried in the rawdah next to Umar رضی اللہ عنہ. Thus the two sahabis will rest in their graves between the two Prophet till the Last Day"

(٥٧٧٣) عَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ تَعَالٰى فَضَّلَ مُحَمَّدًا صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَلَى الْاَنْبِيَآءِ وَعَلٰى اَهْلِ السَّمَآءِ فَقَالُوْا يَا اَبَا عَبَّاسٍ بِمَ فَضَّلَهُ اللّٰهُ عَلٰى اَهْلِ السَّمَآءِ قَالَ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ تَعَالٰى قَالَ لِاَهْلِ السَّمَآءِ وَمَنْ يَّقُلْ مِنْهُمْ اِنِّيْ اِلٰهٌ مِنْ دُوْنِهِ فَذٰلِكَ نَجْزِيْهِ جَهَنَّمَ كَذٰلِكَ نَجْزِى الظّٰلِمِيْنَ وَقَالَ اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى لِمُحَمَّدٍ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّا فَتَحْنَا لَكَ فَتْحًا مُّبِيْنًا لِيَغْفِرَ لَكَ اللّٰهُ مَا تَقَدَّمَ مِنْ ذَنْبِكَ وَمَا تَاَخَّرَ قَالُوْا وَمَا فَضْلُهُ عَلَى الْاَنْبِيَآءِ قَالَ قَالَ اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى وَمَا اَرْسَلْنَا مِنْ رَّسُوْلٍ اِلَّا بِلِسَانِ قَوْمِهٖ لِيُبَيِّنَ لَهُمْ فَيُضِلُّ اللّٰهُ مَنْ يَّشَآءُ الْاٰيَةَ وَقَالَ اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى لِمُحَمَّدٍ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَمَا اَرْسَلْنٰكَ اِلَّا كَآفَّةً لِّلنَّاسِ فَاَرْسَلَهُ اِلَى الْجِنِّ وَالْاِنْسِ۔

5773. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah, exalted, gave to Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم excellence over the Prophets علیہم السلام and over the dwellers of heaven.

Some people asked, "O Abu Abbas, in what manner has Allah given him, excellence over the dwellers of heaven?" He said that Allah, the Exalted, says to the dwellers of heaven:

---

وَمَنْ يَّقُلْ مِنْهُمْ اِنِّيْ اِلٰهٌ مِّنْ دُوْنِهٖ فَذٰلِكَ نَجْزِيْهِ جَهَنَّمَ كَذٰلِكَ نَجْزِي الظّٰلِمِيْنَ

{And whosoever of them should say, "Surely I am a god besides him," such a one we would recompense with hell. Thus do we recompense the evildoers} (21:29)
And, Allah the Exalted, said to Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم:

{Surely, we have granted you a manifest victory, that Allah m ay forgive you of your fault that which is past and that which is to come} (48:1-2)
They asked, "And in what manner is he more excellent than the Prophet عليه السلام? He said that Allah, the Exalted, says:

وَمَا اَرْسَلْنَا مِنْ رَّسُوْلٍ اِلَّا بِلِسَانِ قَوْمِهٖ لِيُبَيِّنَ لَهُمْ فَيُضِلُّ اللّٰهُ مَنْ يَّشَآءُ

{And we have sent no Messenger but with the language of his people that he might make (the message) clear for them. Then Allah sends whom He will astray and guides whom he will...} (14:4)
And Allah, the Exalted, said to Muhammad:

وَمَا اَرْسَلْنٰكَ اِلَّا كَآفَّةً لِّلنَّاسِ

{And we have not sent you save as a bearer of glad tidings and a Warner to all mankind} (35:28)
So, indeed, He sent him to the jinns and mankind.[1]

COMMENTARY: the exegetes have interpreted the words; {that Allah may forgive you..} (48:1-2) in different ways. The best of their explanation is that these words of the Quran may not be taken in their literal sense. Rather, they express perfect love and kindness to him and speak of his exclusive distinction. For example, when a master is extremely pleased with slave's obedience and expresses his pleasure, he says to him "Go, I have forgiven you perfectly... You are not blamed" The slave may never have committed any wrong in fact.

The verse of the Quran (34:28) mentions only mankind, but Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه says that they mean that Allah has sent the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to both mankind and jinn. The reason is that man is the noblest of creatures, so both are covered. This is clear from other verses of the Quran and from the ahadith too. This verse makes clear that the Prophet's mission is universal and not limited to any people or region. This rejects the contention of the people of the Book that he was sent only to the Arabs.

WHAT MADE HIM SURE THAT HE IS A PROPHET

اَبَا ذَرٍّ اَتَانِيْ مَلَكَانِ وَاَنَا بِبَعْضِ بَطْحَاءِ مَكَّةَ فَوَقَعَ اَحَدُهُمَا اِلَى الْاَرْضِ وَكَانَ الْاٰخَرُ بَيْنَ السَّمَاءِ
وَالْاَرْضِ فَقَالَ اَحَدُهُمَا لِصَاحِبِهٖ اَهُوَ هُوَ قَالَ نَعَمْ قَالَ فَزِنْهُ بِرَجُلٍ فَوُزِنْتُ بِهٖ فَوَزَنْتُهٗ ثُمَّ قَالَ زِنْهُ بِعَشَرَةٍ

فَرَجَحْتُهُمْ كَأَنِّيْ اَنْظُرُ اِلَيْهِمْ يَنْتَثِرُوْنَ عَلَيَّ مِنْ خِفَّةِ الْمِيْزَانِ قَالَ فَقَالَ اَحَدُهُمَا لِصَاحِبِهٖ لَوْ وَزَنْتَهُ بِاُمَّتِهٖ لَرَجَحَهَا۔ (رواهما الدارمى)

5774. Sayyiduna Abu Dharr Ghifari رضى الله عنه narrated that he submitted. "O Messenger of Allah, how did you know that you are a prophet and were confident of it? He said, "O Abu Dharr, I was at a place in the valley (Batha) of Makkah, when two angels come to me. One of them descended on the earth and the other stayed (where he was) between heaven and earth. One of them asked his companion, 'Is he the one?" He said, "Yes' so, he (the first) said, 'weigh him against a man.' I was weighed against him and I turned out heavier than the man. Then he said, 'weigh him against ten men.' I was weighed against them and I was heavier than them. Then he said, 'weigh him against one hundred man.' So I was weighed against them and I was heavier. He then said, 'weigh him against one thousand man.' So, I was weighed against them and I came out heavier than them. It was as though I saw them tumbling over me because of the lightness of the pan (that rose high unbalancing them). Then, one of them said to his companion, 'were you to weigh him against his ummah, he would outweigh them."[1]

(٥٧٧٥) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كُتِبَ عَلَيَّ النَّحْرُ وَلَمْ يُكْتَبْ عَلَيْكُمْ وَاُمِرْتُ بِصَلٰوةِ الضُّحٰى وَلَمْ تُؤْمَرُوْا بِهَا۔ (رواه الدار قطنى)

5775. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The sacrifice is made obligatory for me while it is not prescribed for you. (I have to observe it in every condition whether I own he required finance or not but you are bound only when you are financially capable of doing it,) I am commanded to offer the salah of duha (forenoon) but you are not commanded. (It is merely supererogatory for you)."[2]

CHAPTER - XIX

NAMES OF THE PROPHET صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم & HIS DESCRIPTION

بَابُ أَسْمَاءِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَصِفَاتِهِ

This chapter covers the names of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and his looks, meaning, height, countenance, etc.

HOW MANY NAMES: The prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم has many names. Some are mentioned in the Quran, some in the earlier heavenly Books, some heaven been mentioned by the Prophets علیہم السلام and some are recounted in the ahadith.

How many they are is not known for certain. According to Muwahib Ladunyah, there are many of the names and epithets of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم in the Quran. Some ulama have collected ninety-nine names, the same number as Allah's names.

Qadi Iyad رحمہ اللہ has said that Allah has given thirty of His names to his dear Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم.

Some scholars have written that if we pick out the names of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم from the earlier heavenly Books and the Quran and the hadith, they number three hundred. According to another opinion, their number is four hundred.

Qadi Abu Bakr ibn al-Arab رحمہ اللہ, a great scholar of he maaliki school of thought, writes that some suffi say that Allah has one thousand names and His dear prophet also has one thousand names. The meaning of names is the attributes by which the Prophet is descried. Every attribute and description gives one name.

Suyuti رحمہ اللہ compiled a book on the names of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم Teebi رحمہ اللہ has enumerated twenty two names and he has thrown light on them.

As for the compiler of the Mishkah, he has reproduced only two traditions giving many names of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم.

THE REAL NAME: The real name of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم that is most commonly known and by which he is addressed is MUHAMMAD. His grandfather, Abdul Muttalib, had given him this name. It is reported that someone asked him "why have you not name your grandson after your ancestors? And, why have you given him a name that is new to your clan and no one among them had ever used it?" He said, "I have given this name to my grandson in the hope that people all over the world may praise him."

According to another version, he said, "In order that Allah may praise him in the heavens had the earthlings too may have their tongues moist with praise."

According to a tradition, much before the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم birth, Abdul Muttalib dreamt that a chain made of silver emerged from his back, one of whose loops went up to the heaven, another to the limits of the east and another to the limits of the west. Then it changed into a strong tree. Light and radiance spread on its leaves and people from the east to the west gathered under its leaves. On awakening, he related his dream to the people. Some interpreters of dream congratulated him, saying. "A boy will be born as your descendant who will be obeyed from east to west and will be praised in the heavens and the earth.(Thus, when his grandson was born, he named him MUHAMMAD.

The Prophets صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم mother, Aaminah رضی اللہ عنہ, too, dreamt during her pregnancy that someone said to her, "You have conceived a leader and Prophet of these people when he is born call him MUHAMMAD."

It is stated in tradition that before the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was born, no one was named Muhammad. However, when the Prophet of the Book read in their heavenly Books that a Prophet was to arise whose name will be Muhammad who would be the last Prophet of Allah, four men hoped that they should have him in their family and named their new born sons MUHAMMAD. However, even these four names cannot be said to have preceded the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم name, because these four men, too, had first heard of the name of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and then they gave it to their sons.

SECTION I — الفصل الأول

(٥٧٧٦) عَنْ جُبَيْرِ بْنِ مُطْعِمٍ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ إِنَّ لِيْ أَسْمَاءً أَنَا مُحَمَّدٌ وَأَنَا أَحْمَدُ وَأَنَا الْمَاحِيْ الَّذِيْ يَمْحُوا اللّٰهُ بِيَ الْكُفْرَ وَأَنَا الْحَاشِرُ الَّذِيْ يُحْشَرُ النَّاسُ عَلٰى قَدَمِيَّ وَأَنَا الْعَاقِبُ وَالْعَاقِبُ الَّذِيْ لَيْسَ بَعْدَهُ نَبِيٌّ. (متفق عليه)

5776. Sayyiduna Jubayr ibn Mut'in رضى الله عنه narrated that he heard the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم say, "I have names. I am Muhammad. I am Ahmad, I am al-Mahi by whom Allah erases disbelief. And I am al-Hashir at whose feet people will be gathered (or behind whom people will gather). And I am al-Aaqib, and al-Aaqib is he after whom there is no Prophet."[1]

COMMENTARY: Some versions have the name Mahmood, too, with Muhammad and Ahmad. All three of them and derived from one root (حمد) hmd. 'Mahmood' means one who is praised in this world as well as the next.

'Muhammad' is one who is praised tremendously.

'Ahmad' is he who is praised by the preceding people and the later ones preceding people and ones later ones. He is praised most in the previous heavenly Books.

'Ahmad' also means one who holds the banner of praise and who praises his Lord to such a large extent and in such a good way that no one else knows as much. This will happen on the day of resurrection at the Maqam Mahmood.

Mahi is he who erases. Allah erased disbelief most by the Prophet propagation of religion. Aaqib is one who comes after everyone, the last. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has come after all Messengers and prophets in this world. No prophet or Messenger will come after him.

(٥٧٧٧) وَعَنْ أَبِيْ مُوْسَى الْأَشْعَرِيِّ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُسَمِّيْ لَنَا نَفْسَهُ أَسْمَاءً فَقَالَ أَنَا مُحَمَّدٌ وَأَحْمَدُ وَالْمُقَفِّيْ وَالْحَاشِرُ وَنَبِيُّ التَّوْبَةِ وَنَبِيُّ الرَّحْمَةِ. (رواه مسلم)

5777. Sayyiduna Abu Musa Ash'ary رضى الله عنه said, "Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم used to name himself with different names before us. He would say, 'I am Muhammad, Ahmad, Al-Muqaffi (who has followed other Prophets) عليهم السلام. Al-Hashir (who will gater all people in the hereafter), Nabiy Ut-Tawbah (Prophet of repentance) and Nabiy ur-Rahmah (Prophet of mercy)."[2]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم called himself 'Prophet of repentance' because the creatures repented at his hands and absolved themselves of their previous life of disbelief and hypocrisy, or sin and disobedience resolving to obey Islam in a perfect way, henceforth.

It could also be that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم made repentance and sought forgiveness very often and he turned to Allah as a basic principle of his life, so he called himself the 'Prophet of repentance.'

Moreover, it was only because of him that if a Muslim made a repentance orally with a sincere heart, Allah accepted their spoken repentance. On the other hand people of the past ummahs were not forgiven until they were awarded punishment for their sins either execution or some other form. Hence, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was nabiy ut-tawbah (Prophet of repentance.)

As for the name 'Prophet of mercy,' this is derived from the Quran:

وَمَآ اَرْسَلْنٰكَ اِلَّا رَحْمَةً لِّلْعٰلَمِيْنَ

{And we have not sent you but as a mercy to the worlds} (1:107)

REVILERS REMOVED

(٥٧٧٨) وَعَنْ اَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَلَا تَعْجَبُوْنَ كَيْفَ يَصْرِفُ اللّٰهُ عَنِّيْ شَتْمَ قُرَيْشٍ وَلَعْنَهُمْ يَشْتِمُوْنَ مُذَمَّمًا وَيَلْعَنُوْنَ مُذَمَّمًا وَاَنَا مُحَمَّدٌ ـ (رواه البخاری)

5778. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم asked, "Does it not amaze you how Allah preserves me from the reviling of the Quraysh and their cursing? They revile {(مذمم) - mudhammam} the blameworthy and they curse (مذمم) the blameworthy, but I am (محمد) Muhammad (who is praiseworthy)."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Arabic word (مذمم) 'blameworthy' is the opposite of (محمد) 'MUHAMMAD' the wicked quraysh, in their hatred for the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, called him (مذمم) Mudhammam which means blameworthy. They reviled and cursed him using this name, mudhammam. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم comforted his sahabah رضی الله عنهم and advised them not to be provoked by the conduct of the Quraysh. Allah has preserved him from their reviling and cursing.

5779. Sayyiduna Jabir ibn Sumarah رضی الله عنه narrated that the head and beard of Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم had turned gray from their front portion. When he applied oil to his hair, this was not visible, but when his head was unkempt, this was visible And, he had a thick beard.

A man remarked (On hearing him), "His face was like a sword (bright)" Jaabir صلی الله علیه وسلم said 'No! Rather, it was like the sun and the moon and it was round. And, I did see the seal (of prophethood) near his shoulder looking like a pigeon's egg being of the same colour as his body"[1]

COMMENTARY: the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم has very few grey hair. So, when he applied oil to his hair, the grey hair were concealed in the black. During his last days, too, when he had grown old, he had not more than twenty grey hair on his head and beard. Rather, one version puts their number as fewer than that.

His beard was thick. One version says (كث اللحية): 'he was thick-bearded.'

It is known with certainty how long his hair were.[2]

However, the length of the beards of his sahabah رضی الله عنهم and other religious men is known. For instance Sayyiduna Ali رضی الله عنه had a dense and long beard so that his chest remained covered with it up to his shoulders. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه did not let his beard go beyond one fist down. As for shaykh Abdul Qadir Jilani رحمه الله, his beard to was very long and thick.

In short, it is not proper to keep a beard shorter than a fist in length. Regarding having a longer beard, the traditions differ.

FACE LIKE SWORD: Someone compared the Prophet's صلی الله علیه وسلم face with a sword in brightness, but that might also suggest that it was long. So, Jabir رضی الله عنه made it clear that his face was round. Also, it was not absolutely round like the moon or the sun. It was neither absolutely round not absolutely long. Rather, it was nearer round. There are different ways in which it is expressed in ahadith: (لم يكن بالمكلثم) not absolutely round or absolutely long.

(وكان وجهه قطعة قمر): like a piece of moon.

According to a version, his face was bright like the full moon. Another version says that when he was happy, his face was like a mirror so that is reflected the wall brightly.

According to Mawahib Laduniyan, people have coined these similitude's according to their understanding and current style. But, as for as the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم features are concerned, nothing resembles his features.

SEAL OF PROPHETHOOD: According to another tradition, the seal of prophethood was between the shoulders of the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم It was nearer to the left shoulder.

It did not look like a stain or an unseemly blot. It was of the same colour as his body, so it did not stand out.

THE REALITY OF THE SEAL OF PROPHETHOOD: The seal of Prophethood was on the Prophet's صلی الله علیه وسلم body since his birth. It was like a pigeons egg, round slightly raised on the body between his shoulders. This slight bulge is called (خاتم نبوت) Khatim nabuwah (or seal of prophethood). It is also the symbol of his office. There are different traditions about it size and colour. However, the gist of these is:

[2] See Tirmidhi, ahadith # 3655 to 3658, "The way of the Holy Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم Dr Muhammad Abdul Hr Ansari

Its size was not constant, but varied, increasing and decreasing.
Its colour kept changing.
INSCRIPTION: There are also different traditions about what was written on this seal o prophethood, or not written at all some tradition have:

(i) Muhammad is Allah's Messenger (محمد رسول الله)

(ii) (وحده لا شریک له توجه حیث کنت فانک منصور) He (Allah) is along. He has no partner look at i from wherever you are, you are helped.

It is reported that the seal of prophethood had so much shine on it that eyes could no stand it for long.
IN THE PREVIOUS BOOKS: The seal of prophethood is also mentioned in the previou Divine Books, the torah, Injil, etc. When the Prophets عليهم السلام gave tidings of the Las Prophet عليه السلام, they were particular to mention this symbol on his back.
Haakim رحمه الله, has transmitted in Mustadrak a tradition narrated by Wahb ibn Munabbil that there had never been a prophet or Messenger عليه السلام who did not have the symbol c prophethood (meaning, the seal) on his right arm, but the symbol of our Master صلى الله عليه وسلم was on his back between his two shoulders. It was like a seal that is applied to proclamation or a document. When it is compared to ordinary, everyday things, it is don to make people understand it, otherwise, in reality, it in such a great and unusual Divin symbol that only Allah knows its nature.

(٥٧٨٠) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ سَرْجِسٍ قَالَ رَأَيْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَ اَكَلْتُ مَعَهٗ خُبْزًا وَلَحْمًا اَوْقَالَ ثَرِيْدًا ثُمَّ دُرْتُ خَلْفَهٗ فَنَظَرْتُ اِلٰى خَاتِمِ النُّبُوَّةِ بَيْنَ كَتِفَيْهِ عِنْدَ نَاغِضِ كَتِفِهِ الْيُسْرٰى جُمْعًا عَلَيْهِ خِيْلَانٌ كَاَمْثَالِ الثَّآلِيْلِ۔ (رواہ مسلم)

5780.Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Sarjis said, "I (visited and) saw the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and ate bread and meat." Or he said, "tharid with him. Then I went behind him and looked at eh seal or prophethood between his shoulders near the soft bone of his left shoulder blade, like fist with moles similar to wants."[1]

KINDNESS TO CHILDREN

(٥٧٨١) وَعَنْ اُمِّ خَالِدٍ بِنْتِ خَالِدِ بْنِ سَعِيْدٍ قَالَتْ اُتِيَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِثِيَابٍ فِيْهَا خَمِيْصَةٌ سَوْدَاءُ صَغِيْرَةٌ فَقَالَ ائْتُوْنِيْ بِاُمِّ خَالِدٍ فَاُتِيَ بِهَا تُحْمَلُ فَاَخَذَ الْخَمِيْصَةَ بِيَدِهٖ فَاَلْبَسَهَا قَالَ اَبْلِيْ وَاَخْلِقِيْ ثُمَّ اَبْلِيْ وَاَخْلِقِيْ وَكَانَ فِيْهَا عَلَمٌ اَخْضَرُ اَوْ اَصْفَرُ فَقَالَ يَا اُمَّ خَالِدٍ هٰذَا سَنَاهُ وَهِيَ بِالْحَبَشِيَّةِ حَسَنَةٌ قَالَتْ فَذَهَبْتُ اَلْعَبُ بِخَاتِمِ النُّبُوَّةِ فَزَبَرَنِيْ اَبِيْ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ دَعْهَا۔ (رواہ البخاری)

5781. Sayyiduna Umm Khalid رضى الله عنها daughter of Sayyiduna Khalid ibn Sa'eed رضى الله عنه narrated that some garments were brought to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم (as a gift). They included a small black hemed cloak. He said, "Call Umm Khalid to me!" She was taken to him duly carried. He took the cloak in his hand and put it on her and said (as he usually prayed for anyone who cure a new garment), "Wear it and tear it. Wear it again and tear it out." (He prayed in this way For her to live long).

It had green or yellow marks on it. He said, "This is saraah which means 'good' in the Abyssinian language."
She added, "I played with the seal of prophethood and my father rebuked me, but Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, 'Let her alone!" (She was a child then.)[1]

5782. Sayyiduna Anas رضى الله عنه said that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم was neither very tall nor short. Neither was he very fair nor dark. Neither was his hair very curly nor straight. Allah commissioned him (as Prophet) when he was exactly forty years old. He stayed in Makkah for ten years and in Madinah ten years. And Allah ceased him to die when he was sixty years old. And (at this age), there were not in his head and beard twenty grey hair.
According to another version: He described the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. He said, "He was of average height among the people, neither tall nor short. He had a fair complexion." And, he added, "The hair of Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم come up to half of his ears."
According to another version: (He said that his hair were) between his ears and his shoulders.
According to another version by Bukhari: He said, "He had a large head and large feet. I have not seen the like of him before him or after him. He had large wide palm.
According to another version: He said, "His feet and palms were hard and thick."[2]

OMMENTARY: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم height was average inclined to tallness. Some ersions say that if he stood among some people, he looked taller than them even if there ere tall people present. This does not mean that he was very tall. Rather, it means that he as distinguished. Allah had given him a great personality so that he stood out and was onspicuous among people. Even among tell people. Allah made him seen.

Bukhari # 3071.
Bukhari # 3547, 3548, Muslim # 113. 2347.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was not so very write that the redness of his complexion would be lost into it. He was also not dark wheatish, but his complexion was radish white.
His hair were not very curly as the hair of he Ethiopians. They were between the extremes but tending to curl.
As for the Prophet's life in Madinah, he lived there for ten years. There is no disagreement about it But, opinions differ on how long he stayed in Makkah after he was commissioned (as Prophet). The most plausible report is that he was in Makkah for thirteen years after beginning his mission. This means that his life was sixty three years. The narrator of the hadith under discussion has rounded off the thirteen years and means that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم stayed in Makkah after becoming Prophet for about ten years nd so he lived about sixty years (ignoring the three years). They were not particular in those days to mention fractions.
As for the length of his hair, when they were oiled and combed, they looked long. Without oil and combing, they seemed short. It is stated in najma ul bihar that when he did not have the hair trimmed for a length of time, they looked long but after they were cut short, their length decreased. Thus, it depends on how anyone saw him. He reported according. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to have a haircut from time to time, but we hav no confirmation from any tradition that he ever had his hair shaved completely apart from the occasions when he performed hajj and umrah. He had his head shaved as part of the rites of these pilgrimages.
Large, fleshy feet are sign of bravery and steadfastness. If the head is large, it symbolizes leadership and intelligence. The Arabs hanoured people who had a large head. A small head is a defect and means little sense.
The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم also had heavy and fleshy large palms. This also is a sign of strength and courage.

(٥٧٨٣) وَعَنِ الْبَرَاءِ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَرْبُوْعًا بَعِيْدُ مَابَيْنَ الْمَنْكِبَيْنِ لَهٗ شَعْرٌ بَلَغَ شَحْمَةَ اُذُنَيْهِ رَاَيْتُهٗ فِيْ حُلَّةٍ حَمْرَاءَ لَمْ اَرَ شَيْئًا قَطُّ اَحْسَنَ مِنْهُ مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ لِمُسْلِمٍ قَالَ مَارَاَيْتُ مِنْ ذِيْ لِمَّةٍ اَحْسَنَ فِيْ حُلَّةٍ حَمْرَاءَ مِنْ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ شَعْرُهٗ يَضْرِبُ مَنْكِبَيْهِ بَعِيْدُ مَابَيْنَ الْمَنْكِبَيْنِ لَيْسَ بِالطَّوِيْلِ وَلَا بِالْقَصِيْرِ۔

5783. Sayyiduna Bara رضی الله عنه said that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم was of average height, bread shouldered. He had dense hair that reached his ear-lobes. He had seen him wear a red (striped) government and had not seen any thing more beautiful than he.
According to another version transmitted by Muslim: He said that he had not seen anyone with a lock of hair, long and hanging, and in red clothing more beautiful than Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم. His hair came down to His shoulders. He was broad shouldered and was neither tell nor short.[1]

COMMENTARY: The scholars of hadith have thoroughly examined the traditions and biography and assert that garments mean that the lower garment he was wearing and the cloak he had no him had red stripes on them. Similarly, the ahadith the mention green garments also mean green garments also men green stripes on the lower garment and cloak. The Arabic language has three words for hair on the head. They are:

(i) (جمه) hair that hang beyond the ear lobe up to the shoulders. But, sometimes it is applied to hair generally, whether short or long.

(ii) (لمه) hair that go beyond the earlobes but not up to the shoulders.

(iii) (وفره) hair that go up to the earlobes, not beyond.

(٥٧٨٤) وَعَنْ سِمَاكِ بْنِ حَرْبٍ عَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ سَمُرَةَ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ضَلِيْعَ الْفَمِ أَشْكَلَ الْعَيْنِ مَنْهُوْشَ الْعَقِبَيْنِ قِيْلَ لِسِمَاكٍ مَا ضَلِيْعُ الْفَمِ قَالَ عَظِيْمُ الْفَمِ قِيْلَ مَا أَشْكَلُ الْعَيْنِ قَالَ طَوِيْلُ شَقِّ الْعَيْنِ قِيْلَ مَا مَنْهُوْشُ الْعَقِبَيْنِ قَالَ قَلِيْلُ لَحْمِ الْعَقِبِ۔ (رواه مسلم)

5784. Sayyiduna Simak ibn Harb رحمه الله reported that Sayyiduna Jabir ibn Sumarah رضی الله عنه said, "Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم had a dali mouth, ashkal eye (redress in white) and manhoosh ankles. "Simak رحمه الله was asked, "What is dali mouth?" He said, "A large mouth." He was asked, "what is ashkal eyes?" He said, "Their range of sight was long." He was asked, "what is manhooh ankles?" He said, "Little flesh on ankles."[1]

COMMENTARY: Among the Arabs, if a man has a large mouth, it is considered praiseworthy. If it is small then that is a shortcoming some people say that a large mouth implies fluency and eloquence in speech.

The meaning of ashkal eyes is having redness in eh white of the eyes. The which Simak رحمه الله has said is an error. It does not mean a long range of eye- sight. The linguists give the same meaning as we have: redness in the white of the eyes.

(٥٧٨٥) وَعَنْ أَبِي الطُّفَيْلِ قَالَ رَأَيْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ أَبْيَضَ مَلِيْحًا مُقَصَّدًا۔ (رواه مسلم)

5785. Sayyiduna Abu Tufayl رضی الله عنه said, "I saw Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم. He was white handsome and of a moderate build."[2]

PROPHET صلی الله علیه وسلم NEVER USED A DYE

(٥٧٨٦) وَعَنْ ثَابِتٍ قَالَ سُئِلَ أَنَسٌ عَنْ خِضَابِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ إِنَّهُ لَمْ يَبْلُغْ مَا يَخْضِبُ لَوْ شِئْتُ أَنْ أَعُدَّ شَمَطَاتِهِ فِيْ لِحْيَتِهِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ لَوْ شِئْتُ أَنْ أَعُدَّ شَمَطَاتٍ كُنَّ فِيْ رَأْسِهِ فَعَلْتُ۔ مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ لِمُسْلِمٍ قَالَ إِنَّمَا كَانَ الْبَيَاضُ فِيْ عَنْفَقَتِهِ وَفِي الصُّدْغَيْنِ وَفِي الرَّأْسِ نَبْذٌ۔

5786. Sayyiduna Thabit رضی الله عنه said that Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه was asked about the hair dye of Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم. He said, "The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم has not reached the age when a dye should be used. If a wished to count. I could count the number of grey hair in his beard."

According to another version: "If I wished to count the grey hair in his head, I could have done so.

According to another version: "There were a few grey hair above his chin (on the beard), on temples and on his head."[1]

[2] Muslim # 99. 2340

COMMENTARY: the age of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم when he died could, at most, be called the beginning of old age. He did not have many grey hair that he could have need for a dye. The few that had grown were not noticeable.

PALM WERE SOFT SWEAT WAS FRAGRANT

5787. Sayyiduna Anas رضى الله عنه narrated: "Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم had a clear complexion. (The drops of) his sweat matched pearls. When he walked, he bent forward I had not touched brocade or silk that was softer than the palm of Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم. And I had not smelt musk or ambergris sweeter than the fragrance of the body of Allah's Messenger."[2]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم manner of walking and his pace were dignified and reflected his humility. If looked as though he was cooing down from an elevated place into a declivity. Also, it was the manner of valiant, strong man taking steps forward. His walk was not unsteady and he did not drag his feet.

(٥٧٨٨) وَعَنْ أُمِّ سُلَيْمٍ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يَاتِيْهَا فَيَقِيْلُ عِنْدَهَا فَتَبْسُطُ نِطَعًا فَيَقِيْلُ عَلَيْهِ وَكَانَ كَثِيْرَ الْعَرَقِ فَكَانَتْ تَجْمَعُ عَرَقَهُ فَتَجْعَلُهُ فِي الطِّيْبِ فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَا أُمَّ سُلَيْمٍ مَا هٰذَا قَالَتْ عَرَقُكَ نَجْعَلُهُ فِيْ طِيْبِنَا وَهُوَ مِنْ أَطْيَبِ الطِّيْبِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ قَالَتْ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ نَرْجُوْ بَرَكَتَهُ لِصِبْيَانِنَا قَالَ أَصَبْتِ۔ (متفق عليه)

5788. Sayyidah Umm Sulaym رضى الله عنها said that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to visit her and have a nap in her house. She used to spread out a leather cloth on which he had his nap. He used to perspire profusely. She collected his perspiration and put it in the perfume. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked, "O Umm Sulaym, what is this?" she said, "It is your perspiration that we mix with our perfume. It is the most fragrant perfume."

According to another version: She said, "O Messenger of Allah, we hope for your blessing on our children (thereby)." He said, "You did the correct thing."[3]

COMMENTARY: Sayyidah Umm Sulaym رضى الله عنها was mother of Sayyiduna Anas رضى الله عنه who was a dear servant of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Allah had enabled that to love Him, His religion and His Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. she was a very intelligent and a learned woman. She had a faster relationship with the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم which is why he visited her to have a

5789. Sayyiduna Jabir ibn Samurah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated. "I offered the salah of Zuhr with Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. Then he went out to (go to) his family. I went out with him, too. Some children met him and he began to stroke their cheeks, one after the other, Then he stroked my cheeks and (from that) I sensed a coolness and a fragrance in his hand as though he had just brought it out of a scent container."[1]

COMMENTARY: In the words 'then he stroked my cheeks,' the word cheek is in the singular form in some copies of the book.

The hadith speaks of the fragrance of the body of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. Even if he did not use an extra scent, his body did emit a sweet odour. However, he did often use a scent also so that he may be most fragrant when meeting the angels to receive the revelation and when being with the Muslims.

The hadith of Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ Give yourself my name in is # 4750.

And of Sa'ib ib Yazid رضی اللہ عنہ I hared at the seal of prophethood is # 476.

(٥٧٩٠) عَنْ عَلِيِّ بْنِ أَبِيْ طَالِبٍ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَيْسَ بِالطَّوِيْلِ وَلَا بِالْقَصِيْرِ ضَخْمَ الرَّأْسِ وَاللِّحْيَةِ شَثْنَ الْكَفَّيْنِ وَالْقَدَمَيْنِ مُشْرَبًا حُمْرَةً ضَخْمَ الْكَرَادِيْسِ طَوِيْلَ الْمَسْرُبَةِ إِذَا مَشٰى تَكَفَّأَ تَكَفُّؤًا كَأَنَّمَا يَنْحَطُّ مِنْ صَبَبٍ لَمْ أَرَ قَبْلَهٗ وَلَا بَعْدَهٗ مِثْلَهٗ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ صَحِيْحٌ۔

5790.Sayyiduna Ali ibn Abu Talib رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was neither tall nor short. His head and beard were large. His palms of the hands and feet were hard and thick. His complexion was reddish white. He had large joints. The hair on his breast was a fine, long line up t his naval. When he walked, he leaned forward as though he descended down a slope. (Ali رضی اللہ عنہ said that) he had never seen anyone like him before him or after him.[2]

COMMENTARY: The walk as though he was coming down a declivity was like a strong, brave man's walk as explained previously (comments on hadith # 5787). He took resolute steps forward.

It is also explained that his walk was a humble persons walk. There was no arrogance on it.

(٥٧٩١) وَعَنْهُ كَانَ إِذَ وَصَفَ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَمْ يَكُنْ بِالطَّوِيْلِ الْمُمَغَّطِ وَلَا بِالْقَصِيْرِ الْمُتَرَدِّدِ وَكَانَ رَبْعَةً مِّنَ الْقَوْمِ وَلَمْ يَكُنْ بِالْجَعْدِ الْقَطَطِ وَلَا بِالسَّبْطِ كَانَ جَعْدًا رَجِلًا وَلَمْ يَكُنْ بِالْمُطَهَّمِ وَلَا بِالْمُكَلْثَمِ وَكَانَ بِالْوَجْهِ تَدْوِيْرٌ اَبْيَضُ مُشْرَبٌ اَدْعَجُ الْعَيْنَيْنِ اَهْدَبُ الْاَشْفَارِ جَلِيْلُ الْمُشَاشِ وَالْكَتِدِ اَجْرَدُ ذُوْ مَسْرُبَةٍ شَثْنُ الْكَفَّيْنِ وَالْقَدَمَيْنِ اِذَا مَشٰى يَتَقَلَّعُ كَاَنَّمَا يَمْشِيْ فِيْ صَبَبٍ وَاِذَا الْتَفَتَ الْتَفَتَ مَعًا بَيْنَ كَتِفَيْهِ خَاتَمُ النُّبُوَّةِ وَهُوَ خَاتِمُ النَّبِيِّيْنَ اَجْوَدُ النَّاسِ صَدْرًا وَ اَصْدَقُ النَّاسِ لَهْجَةً وَاَلْيَنُهُمْ عَرِيْكَةً وَاَكْرَمُهُمْ عَشِيْرَةً مَنْ رَاٰهُ بَدِيْهَةً هَابَهٗ وَمَنْ خَالَطَهٗ مَعْرِفَةً اَحَبَّهٗ يَقُوْلُ نَاعِتُهٗ لَمْ اَرَ قَبْلَهٗ وَلَا بَعْدَهٗ مِثْلَهٗ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

5791. Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ described the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم saying. He was neither very tall nor very short, but was of a moderate height. His hair were neither very curly nor very straight, but between them. He was not fat. His face was not very round, yet had a roundish look. He was reddish white with vide black eyes and long eyelashes He had large joints and broad shoulders.

He was not hairy except for some hair on his chest (forming a fine line up to his navel). The palms of his hands and his feet were hard and thick. When he walked, he put down his feet firmly (on the ground) raising them as though he walked down a slope. If he looked at anyone, he turned completely (not giving merely a side glance).

Between his shoulders was the seal of prophethood and he was the seal of Prophet علیہ السلام. He was the best of men at heart (generous) and the most truthful of all men. He was very mild and the noblest and most honoured. If anyone saw him all of a sudden, he was overcome with awe. And he who c hose his company, loved him.

He[1] who describes him, admits, 'I have not seen the like of him before or since. May blessings of Allah and peace be on him."[2]

COMMENTARY: This hadith says that he was not hairy... The word used is (اجرد) instead of (اشعر). The latter implies hair all over the body while the former means hair here and there on the body. So, it reconciles this hadith with those that say: he had some hair on limbs other than chest and naval too.

If the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had to see anyone to his right or left or to pay attention to someone, he did not merely cast a side glance. Rather, he turned to him with full attention. He did not just turn a stiff neck, but turned his face calmly with compassion to the side at which he had to look, or he turned his entire body to that side. In this way, he gave his full attention where he was required to give.

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was very generous. He was driven by a natural sentiment, sincerity and compassion but not ostentation or compulsion. Mulla Ali Qari رحمہ اللہ has said that if (اجود) is supposed to be derived from (جرءت) them it would mean that he was generous at heart and bold. He did not feel hurt if anyone of his companions or a nomadic villager spoke roughly or harshly. If (اجرد) is said to be derived from (جرر) then it means that he never hesitated in giving anything to anyone, be it property. Knowledge, manners, teaching or training.

He was truthful. No one was truer than he was. The word (لهجه) may also imply that his speech was very dignified. His tone was polite and his tongue was very clear and he spoke distinctly.

If anyone had not known him and meets him for the first time, then he was inspired with reverence and he began to fear him. However, after a brief companionship, he could become familiar and would begin to love him.[1]

PROPHET'S FRAGRANCE LASTED AFTER HE HAD WALKED AWAY

(٥٧٩٢) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَمْ يَسْلُكْ طَرِيْقًا فَيَتْبَعُهُ اَحَدٌ اِلَّاعَرَفَ اَنَّهُ قَدْ سَلَكَهُ مِنْ طِيْبِ عَرْفِهِ اَوْقَالَ مِنْ رِيْحِ عَرَقِهِ۔ (رواه الدارمی)

5792. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that never did the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم walk along a path without the next passerby detecting that he had preceded him because of his sweet fragrance.

Or, he said, "...owing to the fragrance of his perspiration."[2]

COMMENTARY: The word 'or, he said' one spoken by sub-narrator who was unsure whether was told. The meaning in either case is identical.

The word (عرف) simply means 'smell' or 'odour' whether sweet or bad, but it is generally used for sweet odour. Anyway, the hadith tells us that whenever the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم passed by, the surroundings were filed with his sweet fragrance, either of his body or of his perspiration. Anyone who followed him could say from the peculiar odour that the holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had gone by that path before him. This fragrance was from his own fself ar.d not of any scent that one uses.

HE WAS LIKE THE RISING SUN

(٥٧٩٣) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ عُبَيْدَةَ بْنِ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ عَمَّارِ بْنِ يَاسِرٍ قَالَ قُلْتُ لِلرُّبَيِّعِ بِنْتُ مُعَوِّذِبْنِ عَفْرَاءِ صِفِيْ لَنَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَتْ يَا بُنَيَّ لَوْ رَاَيْتَهُ رَاَيْتُ الشَّمْسَ طَالِعَةً۔ (رواه الدارمی)

5793. Sayyiduna Abu Ubaydah رحمہ اللہ, son of Sayyiduna Muhammad ibn Ammar ibn Yasir رضی اللہ عنہ said that he requested Sayyidah Rubayyi رضی اللہ عنہ bint Mu'awwidh ibn Arfa رضی اللہ عنہ, Describe to us Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم." She said, "O my son, if you had seen ; im, you would have seen the sun rising."[3]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was so very impressive and radiant that seeing him was like seeing the bright sun.

MORE BEAUTIFUL THAN MOON

(٥٧٩٤) وَعَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ سَمُرَةَ قَالَ رَأَيْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيْ لَيْلَةٍ إِضْحِيَانٍ فَجَعَلْتُ أَنْظُرُ إِلَى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَإِلَى الْقَمَرِ وَعَلَيْهِ حُلَّةٌ حَمْرَاءُ فَإِذَا هُوَ أَحْسَنُ عِنْدِيْ مِنَ الْقَمَرِ۔ (رواه الترمذی والدارمی)

5794. Sayyiduna Jabir ibn Samurah رضی اللہ عنہ said, "I saw the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم on a moonlit night. I would now look at him and now at the moon. He had on him a red (striped) robe. Indeed, he was more beautiful in my sight than the moon."[1]

COMMENTARY: the moon's beauty is only to the sight, but the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم beauty was to the eye as well as real and intrinsic. Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ gave vent to his inner love when he qualified his words with 'in my sight.' Indeed, then Prophet beauty was moon in everyone's sight.

(٥٧٩٥) وَعَنْ أَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ مَارَأَيْتُ شَيْئًا أَحْسَنَ مِنْ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَأَنَّ الشَّمْسَ تَجْرِيْ مِنْ وَجْهِهٖ وَمَارَأَيْتُ أَحَدًا أَسْرَعَ فِيْ مَشْيِهٖ مِنْ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَأَنَّمَا الْأَرْضُ تُطْوٰى لَهٗ إِنَّا لَنَجْهِدُ أَنْفُسَنَا وَإِنَّهٗ لَغَيْرُ مُكْتَرِثٍ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

5795. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated, "I have not seen anything more beautiful than Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. It looked as though the sun sailed (its path) in his face. And, I have not seen anyone walk faster than Allah's Messenger. It looked as though the land is rolled up for him, while we had to exert ourselves (walking with him), but he walked effortlessly."[2]

COMMENTARY: The sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم had to strain themselves to keep pace with the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم who walked his normal pace yet remained ahead of them. Indeed, this was his miracle.

LAUGH WAS ONLY A SMILE

(٥٧٩٦) وَعَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ سَمُرَةَ قَالَ كَانَ فِيْ سَاقَيْ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حُمُوْشَةٌ وَكَانَ لَا يَضْحَكُ إِلَّا تَبَسُّمًا وَكُنْتُ إِذَا نَظَرْتُ إِلَيْهِ قُلْتُ أَكْحَلُ الْعَيْنَيْنِ وَلَيْسَ بِأَكْحَلَ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

5796. Sayyiduna Jabir ibn samurah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the calves of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم were slender and delicate. He did not laugh but merely smiled. When he (Jabir) looked at him, he presumed that he had applied collyrium, but he had not applied collyrium.[3]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم eyes were naturally filled with collyrium. They looked beautiful.

SECTION III الفصل الثالث

TEETH OF THE PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم

(٥٧٩٧) عَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَفْلَجَ الثَّنِيَّتَيْنِ إِذَا تَكَلَّمَ رُئِيَ كَالنُّوْرِ يَخْرُجُ مِنْ بَيْنِ ثَنَايَاهُ۔ (رواه الدارمی)

5797. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه said, "The front two teeth of Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم (were broad and) had space between them. When he spoke it seemed as though light emitted from (each if) these two teeth."[1]

COMMENTARY: The front two upper and two lower teeth are called (ثنیان) and (ثنایا) thayan and thanaya. The first word is a dual form and he second is he plural. The two teeth to the right and left of each of them are called (رباعیات) raba'yat.

The hadith discloses that the two front teeth were not joined to one another but had space between them. Not only the upper two teeth, but the two lower teeth also had space between them.

(٥٧٩٨) وَعَنْ كَعْبِ بْنِ مَالِكٍ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا سُرَّ اسْتَنَارَ وَجْهُهُ حَتّٰى كَانَّ وَجْهَهُ قِطْعَةُ قَمَرٍ وَكُنَّا نَعْرِفُ ذٰلِكَ۔ (متفق علیه)

5798. Sayyiduna Ka'b ibn Maalik رضی الله عنه narrated that: The face of Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم lit up when he was pleased so that it looked as though it was a piece of the moon. We understood from that (how he felt)."[2]

DESCRIPTION IN THE TORAH

(٥٧٩٩) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ اَنَّ غُلَامًا يَهُوْدِيًّا كَانَ يَخْدُمُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَرِضَ فَاَتَاهُ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَعُوْدُهُ فَوَجَدَ اَبَاهُ عِنْدَ رَاسِهٖ يَقْرَءُ التَّوْرٰته فَقَالَ لَهُ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَا يَهُوْدِيُّ اُنْشِدُكَ بِاللّٰهِ الَّذِيْ اَنْزَلَ التَّوْرَاةَ عَلٰى مُوْسٰى هَلْ تَجِدُ فِي التَّوْرَاةِ نَعْتِيْ وَصِفَتِيْ وَمَخْرَجِيْ قَالَ لَا قَالَ الْفَتٰى بَلٰى وَاللّٰهِ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اِنَّا نَجِدُلَكَ فِي التَّوْرٰةِ نَعْتَكَ وَصِفَتَكَ وَمَخْرَجَكَ وَاِنِّيْ اَشْهَدُ اَنْ لَّا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَاِنَّكَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِاَصْحَابِهٖ اَقِيْمُوْا هٰذَا مِنْ عِنْدِ رَاسِهٖ وَلُوْا اَخَاكُمْ رَوَاهُ الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِيْ دَلَائِلِ النُّبُوَّةِ۔

5799. Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه said that a boy who was a Jew used to serve the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم (as his servant). He fell ill. So he Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم paid him a sick visit. He found his father sitting by his head reciting the Torah. (It was as the Muslims recite surah Yasin from the quran to one who is experiencing the pangs of death.) Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said to him, 'O Jew I adjure you by Allah who revealed the Torah to Musa, do you find in the torah my mention or description and my coming forth (from my native land)?" He said, "No!" But, the boy interjected, "Of course, by Allah! O Messenger of Allah, we do find you in the Torah. Your mention, your description and your coming forth. And, I do testify that there is no god but Allah and that you are Allah's Messenger."

So, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said to his companions, "Get this one away from beside his head. And become guardian of your brother (in religion so look afer his burial, etc he dies)."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم words 'my coming forth1 could refer to his emigration from Makkah to Madinah (where he come). Or, they could refer to his being commissioned as Prophet.

The words (نعت) and (صفت) are synonyms meaning description. Here, (نعت) means his intrinsic qualities while (صفت) means his apparent and seen attributes.

PROPHET صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم COMING IS ALLAH'S MERCY

(۵۸۰۰) وَعَنْ اَبِیْ هُرَیْرَةَ عَنِ النَّبِیِّ صَلَّی اللّٰهُ عَلَیْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَنَّهُ قَالَ اِنَّمَا اَنَا رَحْمَةٌ مُهْدَاةٌ رَوَاهُ الدَّارِمِیُّ وَالْبَیْهَقِیُّ فِیْ شُعَبِ الْاِیْمَانِ۔

5800.Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Indeed, I am but a mercy that has been bestowed (by Allah)."[2]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم words mean; My coming, my mission as a Messenger and the religion that I have brought are the great mercy of Allah. He has bestowed the mercy as a bounty to the people of the earth. Those who took His gift are successful. Those who did not accept it failed miserably. The message of this hadith conforms to the verse of the Quran.

وَمَا اَرْسَلْنٰكَ اِلَّا رَحْمَةً لِّلْعٰلَمِیْنَ

(And we have not sent you (O Prophet) but as a mercy to the worlds} (21:107)

This hadith also brings out the greatness and nobility of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم ummah. The reason is clear: the Divine gift is sent only to those people who are great and noble.

CHAPTER - XX

CHAPTER & HABITS OF THE PROPHET بَابٌ فِي أَخْلَاقِهٖ وَشِمَائِلِهٖ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

The word in the chapter heading is (اخلاق). It is the plural of (خلق) and means: natural disposition, inborn quality.
And (شمائل) is the plural of (شمال) which means; natural disposition, character, temper habit.

UNMATCHED GOOD CHARACTER

(٥٨٠١) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ خَدَمْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَشْرَ سِنِيْنَ فَمَا قَالَ لِيْ أُفٍّ وَلَا لِمَا صَنَعْتَ وَلَا أَلَا صَنَعْتَ. (متفق عليه)

5801. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he served the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم for ten years during which he never chided him, 'Fie!" And he never (scolded him), 'why did you do it?" and never, "why did you not do it?"[1]

COMMENTARY: The version in Muslim says nine years (instead of ten). When the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم emigrated form Makkah and came to Madinah, Anas رضی اللہ عنہ was eight years old, or ten. His mother and some of her relative who were ansar brought him to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and left Anas رضی اللہ عنہ with him to serve him. From that day in till the death of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم ten years later, he remained in his service. During this long period, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم never even said 'Oof' to him, leave aside scolding him (اف): Different diacritical marks and placed on this word. It escape one's mouth when one is faced with a disliked or an unpleasant situation.
Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ was never rebuked by the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم for dereliction of duty or for doing something on his own. However, this concerns worldly affairs and personal service. It does not concern religious duties and obligations because any neglect or excess in that cannot be condoned.
Teebi رحمہ اللہ said that the excellence of Anas رضی اللہ عنہ is also disclosed form this hadith. He never procrastinated and never failed to obey the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. However, the correct meaning of the hadith is as mentioned in the lines preceding this paragraph.

KINDNESS & OVERLOOKING

5802. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ said, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was the best of men in character. One day, he sent me on an errand. But, I declared, 'By Allah, I shall not go! In my heart, however, I did resolve that I would go to obey the command of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم to me. So, I went out and passed by some boys who were playing in the street (and I paused to watch them). Behold! Allah's Messenger came there soon and hold me by the nape. I (turned and) looked at him and he was smiling and asked, 'O Unays! Will you to go where I instructed you go go?' I submitted, 'Yes, I am going. O Messenger of Allah."[1]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ recalled this event of his very early days of service when he was of a childhood age. He did not the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم looked at his refusal generously because of his childhood and did not reprimand him.

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم called him Unays out of love and compassion. It the diminutive from of 'Anas' to emphasize his smallness and love for him.

EXEMPLARY TOLERANCE

(۵۸۰۳) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ كُنْتُ اَمْشِيْ مَعَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بُرْدٌ نَجْرَانِيٌّ غَلِيْظُ الْحَاشِيَةِ فَاَدْرَكَهُ اَعْرَابِيٌّ فَجَبَذَهُ بِرِدَائِهِ جَبْذَةً شَدِيْدَةً وَرَجَعَ نَبِيُّ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيْ نَحْرِ الْاَعْرَابِيِّ حَتّٰى نَظَرْتُ اِلٰى صَفْحَةِ عَاتِقِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَدْ اَثَّرَتْ بِهَا حَاشِيَةُ الْبُرْدِ مِنْ شِدَّةِ جَبْذَتِهِ ثُمَّ قَالَ يَا مُحَمَّدُ مُرْ لِيْ مِنْ مَالِ اللّٰهِ الَّذِيْ عِنْدَكَ فَالْتَفَتَ اِلَيْهِ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ثُمَّ ضَحِكَ ثُمَّ اَمَرَ لَهُ بِعَطَاءٍ۔ (متفق علیہ)

5803. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ said, "I was walking with Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم who was wearing a (striped) cloak with a coarse fringe and it was from Najran (Of Yemen). A villager come across him and nabbed the cloak with such a force that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was pulled towards the villager's chest. I saw that, because of his forceful pull, the neck of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was marked by the fringe of the cloak. Then he demanded, 'O Muhammad, give instructions that I should be given something from the property of Allah that you have! Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم turned towards him. Then, he smiled (Kindly) and the commanded that something should be granted to him."[2]

COMMENTARY: According to another version, the villager added, after 'the property of Allah that you have; (مال اللہ الذی عندک)

(It is not that I ask from your own property or from father's property) And, it is zakah from Allah's property that I mean.

This hadith shows how kind and forbearing that Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was. How great was the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم! The villager was utterly ignorant, bad-mannered and uncivil. He presented his petition in a very rude way.

We learn from this hadith that the rulers must show patience when their subjects hurt them. It is also the demand of wisdom that they should bestow something to someone and preserve their dignity.

5804. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was the best of men, the most generous of men and the bravest of men. One night, the people of Madinah heard a frightening sound (as of an approaching enemy) and went in the direction in which it originated but they met the Prophet who had preceded them towards that sound (and had returned form there). He comforted them, "Do not fear! Do not fear!" He was riding a horse of Abu Talhah رضی اللہ عنہ that was bare backed, having no saddle on it. On his neck was a sword. He remarked 'I found it (swift) running like a river."[1]

COMMENTARY: According to one tradition, the horse was that day Therefore, it became swift and no other horse could overtake it. So, this was one of the miracles of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم that the condition of the horse changed after the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم rode it for a little while.

It is not only bravery but also mustahab to advance towards suspicious movements of an enemy or of any other nature. One may even proceed alone. However, one must be sure that there is no risk to life.

This hadith also proves that it is allowed to borrow, or ride a borrowed horse or any beast too urge jihad. It is also mustahab to keep the sword on the neck.

NEVER TURNED DOWN REQUEST FOR HELP

(٥٨٠٥) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ مَاسُئِلَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ شَيْئًا قَطُّ فَقَالَ لَا ۔ (متفق علیه)

5805. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ said, "Never was Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم asked for anything and he said, 'No."[2]

COMMENTARY: Ibn Hajar رحمہ اللہ said that if the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had I his possession what anyone asked for, he gave it to him promptly. If he did not have it and could not procure it for the person who asked, he did not give a point blank refusal. Rather, he observed silence or excused himself politely or made a supplication for the rationed, under no circumstances did he decline outright.

Shaykh izzud din said that he never said 'No' simply to rebuff the petitioner. It is a different thing if he could not meet the request and he used the word to present his excuse. For instance, he said once: (لا اجد ما احملکم علیه) (I have no beast to offer you to ride).

The poet Fazraq has composed a couplet about it:

ما قَالَ لا قط الا فی تشهده   لو لا التشهد كانت لاؤه نعم

Another Persian poet has said the same thing:

نه رفت کلمۂ لا برزبان او ہرگز   مگر باشہد ان لا اله الا الله

They both bring out the point that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم never said, 'No' except in his tashhahhud (testimony about Allah's unity): I bear testimony that "There is no God but Allah."

GENEROUS GRANT WITHOUT TEAR OF POVERTY

(٥٨٠٦) وَعَنْ أَنَسٍ أَنَّ رَجُلًا سَأَلَ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ غَنَمًا بَيْنَ جَبَلَيْنِ فَأَعْطَاهُ إِيَّاهُ فَأَتَى قَوْمَهُ فَقَالَ أَيْ قَوْمِ أَسْلِمُوْا فَوَاللّٰهِ إِنَّ مُحَمَّدًا لَيُعْطِي عَطَاءً مَا يَخَافُ الْفَقْرَ۔ (رواه مسلم)

5806. Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه said that a man asked the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم for so many sheep as may fill the valley between two mountains. He gave him all of that. He came to his people and said, 'O my people, embrace Islam, for by Allah, Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم gives so much that he does not fear poverty."[1]

COMMENTARY: Perhaps the petitioner had not imagined that he would get all that so very easily.

When the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم gave him, he was non-plussed. He realized Muslim to rely on Allah and to be content and to practice abstinence. Hence he advised his people to embrace Islam, for, prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم does not worry about poverty and want.

PERSISTENT DEMAND OF THE VILLAGERS

5807. Sayyiduna Jubayr ibn Mut'im رضی الله عنه said that he was traveling with Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم having returned from Hunayn. (On their way, somewhere,) the villagers intercepted him and pestered him with requests forcing him back against an acacia tree where his cloak was entangled in the tree. So, the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم paused and said, "Let me have my cloak. If I had quadrapeds (sheep and camels, etc) as many as these thorny trees, then, too, I would disburse them among you. Then, you would not find me niggardly, not a liar (making false promises) and not faint-hearted (as my withhold from giving you)."[2]

COMMENTARY: The Battle of Hunayn was fought immediately after he conquest of Makkah. The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم had to fight it with the Banu Hawazin and Banu Thaqif and their allies all of whom inhabited a place between Makkah and Ta'if. Initially, the Muslims faced stiff resistance but finally gained a decisive victory.

The Muslim took six thousand captives and a large booty that comprised of forty four thousand camels. More than forty four thousand sheep and four thousand ooqiyah silver. The Muslim army was made up of ten thousand sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم from Madinah both ansars and Muhajirs and the two thousand Makkans who had embraced Islam at the conquest of Makkah.

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had the entire booty kept in custody at Ja'rarah near the battlefield. And, he led the army to put down the uprising of the people of Ta'if. After successfully suppressing the uprising, he returned to Ja'ranah and began to distribute the booty that was stored there. He gave away most of it to the people of Makkah to win over their hearts. He also gave some of it to the other deserving ones. The case of the man who was given all that he asked (hadith # 5806) relates to this booty. When he departed from there, he had distributed all the property. So when he met the villagers on the way, he could not meet their demand. Also, he could not refuse them outright and hurt their feelings. However, when they persisted and were very demanding, he spoke to them as the hadith tells us. He assured them that he had given away all property and if he did have anything he would not disappoint them. He stressed that he was not lying and was not scared of poverty if he would have nothing.

These words of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم are evidence that if anyone does not know you then it is proper to tell him of your virtues to create confidence in him. This is allowed.

OBLIGING THE POOR

(٥٨٠٨) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ كَانَ النَّبِیُّ صَلَّی اللّٰہُ عَلَیْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا صَلَّی الْغَدَاۃَ جَاءَ خَدَمُ الْمَدِیْنَةِ بِاٰنِیَتِهِمْ فِیْهَا الْمَاءُ فَمَا یَاْتُوْنَ بِاِنَاءٍ اِلَّا غَمَسَ یَدَہٗ فِیْهَا فَرُبَّمَا جَاؤُہٗ بِالْغَدَاۃِ الْبَارِدَۃِ فَیَغْمِسُ یَدَہٗ فِیْهَا۔ (رواہ مسلم)

5808. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that whenever Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had offered the salah of fajr, the servants (of the people) in Madinah brought their vessels containing water. So, whoever brought a vessel, he did dip his hand into it (to please them and let them have blessings thereby). Often, they would bring them on a cold morning and he would dip his hand into them.[1]

COMMENTARY: This hadith speaks of the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم kindness and compassion for his ummah. He loved them. It also guides that one must also endure difficulty and hardship if by that, one can be of help to the creatures.

PROPHET'S صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم COMPASSION FOR THE POOR

(٥٨٠٩) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ كَانَتْ اَمَةٌ مِنْ اِمَاءِ اَهْلِ الْمَدِیْنَةِ تَاْخُذُ بِیَدِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰہِ صَلَّی اللّٰہُ عَلَیْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَتَنْطَلِقُ بِهٖ حَیْثُ شَاءَتْ۔ (رواہ البخاری)

5809. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ said, "One of the several female slaves of the people of Madinah used to hold the hand of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم (whenever she was upset) and she then took him (by his hand) where she wished."[2]

COMMENTARY: If she deemed it necessary, she took him out of Madinah and told him of heir anxiety. This shows how much concerned the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was for his ummah. He loved them and was most humble with them.

(٥٨١٠) وَعَنْهُ أَنَّ امْرَأَةً كَانَتْ فِيْ عَقْلِهَا شَيْءٌ فَقَالَتْ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ إِنَّ لِيْ إِلَيْكَ حَاجَةً فَقَالَ يَا أُمَّ فُلَانٍ أُنْظُرِيْ أَيَّ السِّكَكِ شِئْتِ حَتّٰى أَقْضِيَ لَكِ حَاجَتَكِ فَخَلَا مَعَهَا فِيْ بَعْضِ الطُّرُقِ حَتّٰى فَرَغَتْ مِنْ حَاجَتِهَا. (رواه مسلم)

5810.Sayyiduna Anas رضي الله عنه narrated that a woman had a unbalanced mind. She submitted, "O Messenger of Allah, I need something from you." He said, "O Umm Fulaan (mother of so and so)! Choose a place (where you wish to tell me). I shall do what you wish (and listen to your problem)." Then, he accompanied he (where she took him) to a road till she got what she needed land told him what her problem was).[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was not all alone with the woman as one can be in a house, there were people around and those living there but they had kept their distance (and narrated this hadith).

PRAISEWORTHY CHARACTERISTICS

(٥٨١١) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ لَمْ يَكُنْ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَاحِشًا وَلَا لَعَّانًا وَلَا سَبَّابًا كَانَ يَقُوْلُ عِنْدَ الْمَعْتِبَةِ مَا لَهُ تَرِبَ جَبِيْنُهُ. (رواه البخاري)

5811. Sayyiduna Anas رضي الله عنه said that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم was neither indecent in speech nor given to abuse anyone. If he admonished anyone, he only said, "What is wrong with him? May his forehead become full of dust!"[2]

COMMENTARY: the word (فحش) – fahsh) translated 'indecent; actually means to transgress or go beyond limit in saying something or in giving a reply Mostly it is used to refer to sexual intercourse shamelessly, like abusing someone's parents. This word is used for excesses, grave since, evil habits and adultery.

The word (لعن) (la'n) translated 'abuse' is to 'drive away,' deprive, 'degrade' or revile. When used for an act of Allah, it means that He puts away, deprives of His mercy. If used as from a creature then it is a curse and a prayer against someone calling for him to be deprived a Divine mercy. It is a grave sin to make this prayer against one who does not deserve it and if it is done repeatedly then it is a grave sin. The ulama say unanimously that it is forbidden and unlawful to cure a specified person even if he is a disbeliever. But, if it is known for certain of anyone that he had died as a disbeliever, like Abu Jahl, then it is not forbidden to curse him. Similarly, if some people are involved in evil and sin, then it is not forbidden to curse them as a group, like 'Allah's curse be on the disbelievers, the wrong doers, the tyrants, those who devour interests, and the like.

There are two kinds of (لعنة) – curse.

(i) Deprival of Allah's mercy and of admittance to paradise, and calling for perpetual punishment which is consignment to hell. This is exclusive for the disbelievers.

(ii) Deprival of Allah's particular mercy, of nearness to Him and of the rank of the foremost, choicest people, this prayer is made against sinners and evildoers of certain degrees.

If this difference between the two kinds is borne in mind, then many doubts would be set at rest.

"May his forehead become dusty." When the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was displeased, these words were the only expression of his displeasure. Even when saying so, he did not address the persons directly but he used the third person pronoun.

The some meaning is expressed by the words. 'May his nose be covered with dust!' Both these expressions allow for one of two meanings. They may be a figurative expression of imprecations, or they may mean a supplication and a figurative expression of worship and prostration because one who worships and prostrates himself has his forehead and nose cling to dust, and these expressions would mean

May Allah cause your face to prostrate itself before him!

PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم DID NOT CURSE EVEN HIS ENEMIES

(٥٨١٢) وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قِيْلَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ ادْعُ عَلَى الْمُشْرِكِيْنَ قَالَ إِنِّيْ لَمْ أُبْعَثْ لَعَّانًا وَإِنَّمَا بُعِثْتُ رَحْمَةً۔ (رواه مسلم)

5812. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that someone submitted, "O Messenger of Allah, do invoke a curse on the polytheists." He said, "I am not sent as one who invokes curses. Rather I am sent only as a mercy."[1]

COMMENTARY: The prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم made it clear that he is instrumental is bringing mercy to the worlds irrespective of believers and disbelievers. It is as the Quran says:

وَمَا أَرْسَلْنٰكَ إِلَّا رَحْمَةً لِّلْعٰلَمِيْنَ

{And we have not sent you (O Prophet), but as a mercy to the world} (21:107)

In that case, how may he be expected to curse the disbelievers howsoever antagonistic they be? It is very clear that he Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم brings mercy to the believers. As for those who do not believe, he is the means of mercy to them in the sense that, though they disobey Allah and His Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم and are rebellious, his being is responsible for wording of punishment from them in this world. It is as Allah say:

وَمَا كَانَ اللّٰهُ لِيُعَذِّبَهُمْ وَأَنْتَ فِيْهِمْ

{....but Allah was not going to chastise them while you (O Prophet(were among them} (8:33)

In fact, Allah did not restrict this favour up to the life of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. He let is continue forever, He decreed that a universal,. Complete punishment will not grip the people till the Last Day. As against this, the previous ummahs were destroyed completely and wiped off because of the curse invoked by their Messengers عليه السلام. Not even a semblance of them remained.

Teebi رحمه الله explained these words to mean! "I have not come to put anyone away from Allah's mercy. Rather, my mission is to bring people nearer to Allah's mercy by guiding them and by presenting the best of manners. Therefore, I may not be expected to invoke curses on the disbelievers."

PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم WAS VERY MODEST

(٥٨١٣) وَعَنْ أَبِيْ سَعِيدِ نِ الْخُدْرِيِّ قَالَ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَشَدَّ حَيَاءً مِنَ الْعَذْرَاءِ فِيْ خِدْرِهَا فَإِذَا رَاٰى شَيْئًا يَكْرَهُهُ عَرَفْنَاهُ فِيْ وَجْهِهٖ۔ (متفق عليه)

5813. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed Khudri رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was more modest than a virgin observing the veil. When anything happened which he did not approve, they detected signs of that on his face.[1]

COMMENTARY: the virgin veiled girl remains indoors and is more modest than the virgin who does not observe the veil and does not confine herself indoors. The Arabic words (خدر) is a veil.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم face was quick to reflect anything naturally disliked or contrary to Shari'ah. The Sahabah رضى الله عنهم realized that promptly and tried to correct the mistake. In that way, his displeasure was removed.

However, this was possible only when the displeasure was caused by a natural factor or something makruh and disliked by Shari'ah, Nawawi رحمه الله said that when such a disliked thing happened, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not say so in words but his displeasure was apparent on his face. The sahabah رضى الله عنهم could read it on his face.

This hadith highlights the merits of modesty. It also teaches us that this attribute must be strengthened as much as possible. But, it must not hinder discharge of an obligation to, anyone or in shari'ah and must not cause any kind of loss.

NEVER LAUGHED WITH MOUTH OPEN

(٥٨١٤) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ مَارَاَيْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مُسْتَجْمِعًا قَطُّ ضَاحِكًا حَتّٰى اَرٰى مِنْهُ لَهَوَاتِهٖ وَاِنَّمَا كَانَ يَتَبَسَّمُ۔ (رواه البخارى)

5814. Sayyiduna Ayshah رضى الله عنها narrated: I never saw the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم laugh so outrageously (with his mouth vide open) that I might see his uvula. He merely smiled (for a laugh).[2]

COMMENTARY: Some people laugh their hearts out, hilariously. Their mouths are vide open so that their uvula and throat are visible. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم never laughed in this manner. Often he smiled on a happy occasion, though sometimes, he laughed lightly. We have spoken on that in a previous chapter on the relative subject. (Book XXIV, Chapter VII, Laughing, hadith # 4745 to 4749.)

MANNER OF TALKING

(٥٨١٥) وَعَنْهَا قَالَتْ إِنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَمْ يَكُنْ يَسْرُدُ الْحَدِيْثَ كَسَرْدِكُمْ كَانَ يُحَدِّثُ حَدِيْثًا لَوْ عَدَّهُ الْعَادُّ لَاَحْصَاهُ۔ (متفق عليه)

5815. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها said, "Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم did not speak briskly like your jabber. Rather, he spoke in a distinct way so that one who wished could count his words."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophets صلی الله علیه وسلم manner of speech was very clear and pleasant. He was dignified and serious. He spoke with pauses and his sentences were well spaced. His words could be counted. He did not speak ceaselessly and rapidly. The listeners could understand him easily and they had no doubts about his words.

HELPED IN HOUSEHOLD WORK

(٥٨١٦) وَعَنِ الْاَسْوَدِ قَالَ سَأَلْتُ عَائِشَةَ مَاكَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَصْنَعُ فِيْ بَيْتِهٖ قَالَتْ كَانَ يَكُوْنُ فِيْ مِهْنَةِ اَهْلِهٖ تَعْنِيْ خِدْمَةَ اَهْلِهٖ فَإِذَا حَضَرَتِ الصَّلٰوةُ خَرَجَ إِلَى الصَّلٰوةِ۔ (رواه البخاری)

5816. Sayyiduna Aswad (ibn Yazid) رحمه الله said, "I asked Ayshah رضی الله عنه, 'what did the prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم do in his house?' She said, "He would occupy in mahnah which is to help his family with household chores. When it was time of salah, he went out to (offer) the salah."[2]

COMMENTARY: The word in the text (مهنة) mahnah or mihnah is 'to Serve' 'be of service; and 'be occupied in work.' Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها has also defined the word: 'was of service to his family' Examples are milking the sheep, mending sandals, patching garments, and so on.

To attend to household chores and to help the family members are what the Prophet علیه السلام did. It is a sunnah of the Prophet علیه السلام did. It is a sunah of the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم and the righteous to work at home.

Sayyiduna Aswad was a prominent tabi'i. He was alive in the time of the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم and did see the righteous caliphs and did list en to ahadith from the tongue of the distinguished sahabah رضی الله عنهم (companions). He was a highly devoted worshipper, an ascetic and a possessor of great qualities, He had the great good fortune and opportunity to perform eighty pilgrimage – hajj and umrah. He fasted regularly till his death and recited the Quran from cover to cover twice every night. He was a high-ranking faqih (jurist) and narrated many ahadith.

NEVER SEIZED REVENGE

(٥٨١٧) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ مَاخُيِّرَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بَيْنَ اَمْرَيْنِ قَطُّ إِلَّا اَخَذَ اَيْسَرَهُمَا مَالَمْ يَكُنْ إِثْمًا فَإِنْ كَانَ إِثْمًا كَانَ ابْعَدَ النَّاسِ مِنْهُ وَمَا انْتَقَمَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِنَفْسِهٖ فِيْ

شَيْءٍ قَطُّ إِلَّا أَنْ يُنْتَهَكَ حُرْمَةُ اللّٰهِ فَيَنْتَقِمُ لِلّٰهِ بِهَا۔ (متفق عليه)

5817. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها narrated, "Allah Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم was never given choice between two things but he selected the easier and lighter of the two as long as it did not involve a sin. If it was a sin, then he was the farthest away from it of all people. And, Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم never took vengeance on his own account for anything. But, if what Allah has forbidden was violated then he seized revenge for it for Allah's sake."[1]

COMMENTARY: Being given choice of one of two things presupposes the choice is given by Allah or by the people. Clearly Allah will not give a choice in which a sin is involved Besides, the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم is innocent. So, it may be like the choice Allah gave the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم to live in the world and to have the treasures of the world - or to be content with what is provided for the necessaries of life. He chose the second thing. He did not choose the first because though by itself it is not a sin get it may lead one away from worship if one continues to occupy oneself in the world.

If the choice is given by the people that can be given by the disbelievers or by the Muslims. In the former case, the choice will definitely involve a sin.

In the latter case, anything that could lead to a sin has been classed a sin. Examples are choice between mujahadah (struggle, effort and iqtisad (moderation). Now, though mujahadah is not a sin, yet if one goes to the extremes and practices severity it may lead to destruction. In this case, mujahadah is disallowed.

The choice between two things as given by Allah might also be give to the Prophet (صلی الله علیه وسلم not for himself but for other. For example, he might be asked to choose one of two (or more) kinds of punishment to his ummah for a certain sin. The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم would choose a lighter punishment. Or, if he was given a choice to kill the infidels in his custody or levy a jizyah and protect their lives and property, he would spare their lives and properties and ask them to pay the jizyah (which is a head tax imposed by Islam on the people of the Book living in an islamic state, after which their lives and properties are protected).

Also, Allah gave him choice between mujahadah in worship of Him and iqtisad. He chose iqtisad (moderation instead of struggle).

Ibn Hajar رحمه الله said that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم never avenged himself for any wrong or crime, against him, or for anything done against his wishes. It should not cause us to ask why then he had many of those people killed who had caused him harm. Actually, they were sentenced to death because they also had perpetrated that which Allah has forbidden and they had transgressed the limits when antagonizing Islam and had become liable to punishment for the sake of Allah.

THE PROPHET صلی الله علیه وسلم NEVER SEAT ANYONE

5818. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها said that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیہ وسلم did not ever beat anyone with his hand, neither a woman nor a servant. But he did engage in jihad in Allah's path. And never was any wrong done to him for which he seized vengeance from the person who did that except when what Allah has forbidden was violated. In this case, he did as seek revenge for the sake of Allah.[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی الله علیہ وسلم did not beat anyone but he is said to have struck the riding beast sometime,

He never beat a servant and a woman, these two classes are generally considered weak and are often prone to man's anger. Both of them should not be belittled and neglected. However, under some circumstances and subject to some conditions, it is permitted to give them a light beating, but, even then, it is beer to refrain from beating them.

This must not be cited as evidence for not beating the children because it is of prime concern that they should be brought up and trained strictly. There is no reason to be lenient in this regard. A person beat his children or a servant is to satisfy one's ego. The real thing is that:

- it is better to beat one's children to correct them when they are wrong.
- It is better to pardon the two (women and servant) in order to curb one's ego.

Jihad in Allah's path is against His enemies. Hence, when so engaged, the Prophet صلی الله علیہ وسلم made no concessions and did not pardon anyone. It is the Battle of Uhud, he killed Allah's enemy Ubayy ibn Khalaf with his own hands.

Jihad in Allah's path in not merely against His enemies. It is also the imposition and enforcement of he hudood and tazirat (prescribed punishment and discretionary punishments).

SECTION II الفصل الثانی

TREATMENT OF SERVANTS

(٥٨١٩) عَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ خَدَمْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَاَنَا ابْنُ ثَمَانِ سِنِيْنَ خَدَمْتُهُ عَشْرَ سِنِيْنَ فَمَا لَامَنِيْ عَلٰى شَيْءٍ قَطُّ اُتِيَ فِيْهِ عَلٰى يَدَيَّ فَاِنْ لَامَنِيْ لَائِمٌ مِنْ اَهْلِهِ قَالَ دَعُوْهُ فَاِنَّهُ لَوْ قُضِيَ شَيْءٌ كَانَ هٰذَا لَفْظُ الْمَصَابِيْحِ وَرَوَاهُ الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِيْ شُعَبِ الْاِيْمَانِ مَعَ تَغَيُّرٍ۔

5819. Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه said, "I began to serve Allah's Messenger when I was eight years old. I served him for t en years (which was his total stay in Madinah). He never blamed me for anything wrong that befell at my hand. If a blaming one from his family blamed me, he would say, 'Leave him alone! If anything is decreed it will take place."[2]

This is as in the Masahih, but Bayhaqi has a slightly different wording.

COMMENTARY: If anything is lost, broken or destroyed that is under the Divine decree even if it happened at someone's hand or for some apparent reason. There is no point in blaming anyone.

According to another hadith, "If a female slave or servant breaks something, do not beat her because everything will perish. There is a term for it."

(٥٨٢٠) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ لَمْ يَكُنْ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَاحِشًا وَلَا مُتَفَحِّشًا وَلَا سَخَّابًا فِي الْأَسْوَاقِ وَلَا يَجْزِيْ بِالسَّيِّئَةِ السَّيِّئَةَ وَلٰكِنْ يَعْفُوْ وَيَصْفَحُ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

5820. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها said, "Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم was not indecent of speech by nature nor lewd on purpose. He was never vociferous in the markets. And, he never repaid evil with evil, but he forgave and pardoned (outwardly and inwardly in like with Allah's words (فاعف عنهم واصفح ان الله يحب المحسنين) Forgave them then, and pass (them) over. Surely, Allah loves the charitable – 5:13)[1]

(٥٨٢١) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ يُحَدِّثُ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّهُ كَانَ يَعُوْدُ الْمَرِيْضَ وَيَتْبَعُ الْجَنَازَةَ وَيُجِيْبُ دَعْوَةَ الْمَمْلُوْكِ وَيَرْكَبُ الْحِمَارَ وَلَقَدْ رَاَيْتُهُ يَوْمَ خَيْبَرَ عَلٰى حِمَارٍ خِطَامُهُ لِيْفٌ۔ رَوَاهُ ابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَالْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِيْ شُعَبِ الْاِيْمَانِ۔

5821. Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه said of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم recalling his excellent manners and habits). "He used to visit the sick, to follow the funeral (Procession), to accept a slave' invitation and to ride on a donkey. I did not see him on the day of Khaybar (riding) on a donkey whose rein was of palm fibres."[2]

COMMENTARY: The slave's invitation was extrended after getting permission nfrom his master. It follows naturally that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم never refused any invitation from anybody.

This hadith recounts the praiseworthy attributes of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم He was humble and was kind and loving to all men without distinction. He never was boastful. When necessary, he did not why form riding a donkey particularly in the Battle of Khaybar when it was a day to demonstrate e ones greatness, he rode a donkey. This shows that there was no egoism in him, no false show of greatness and no pretence.

(٥٨٢٢) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَخْصِفُ نَعْلَهُ وَيَخِيْطُ ثَوْبَهُ وَيَعْمَلُ فِيْ بَيْتِهِ كَمَا يَعْمَلُ اَحَدُكُمْ فِيْ بَيْتِهِ وَقَالَتْ كَانَ بَشَرًا مِنَ الْبَشَرِ يَفْلِيْ ثَوْبَهُ وَيَحْلُبُ شَاتَهُ وَيَخْدُمُ نَفْسَهُ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

5822. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها said, "Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم used to mend his sandals, sew his garments and toil in his house as one of you toils in his house." She added, "He was a human being among human beings. He searched his garment for lice, milked his sheep and looked after himself. (This means that he generally did his own work and seldom asked others to do it).[3]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to examine now and then whether lice had fallen into his clothing. So, this does not contradict the tradition that says that lice did not trouble him. Recording to Mawahib Laduniyah, lice was never found on his clothing or body, at all.

According to Imam Fakhruddin Razi رحمه الله never did a fly land on the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم body and never did a mosquito or any other insect trouble him.

As for the description of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم as a human being among human beings, Teebi رحمه الله said that Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها spoke these words as a prelude to the next words. She has in mind the accusation of the disbelievers that if he was a prophet then he would not live or ordinary people but as a king who demonstrates his majesty and glory. The Quran has referred to this accusation of the disbelievers thus:

مَالِ هٰذَا الرَّسُوْلِ يَاكُلُ الطَّعَامَ وَيَمْشِىْ فِى الْأَسْوَاقِ

{What kind is this Messenger? He eats food and walks in the streets} (25:7)

It is to reject the disbelievers that Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها said that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was one of the creature of Allah, and a human being like any other of the children of Prophet Aadam رضي الله عنه. The only difference between him and the rest is that Allah has chosen him as His Prophet and Messenger, made him high with the highest values of mankind and gave him the best of manners as make him as example of nobility of mankind. The Quran sys of him:

قُلْ إِنَّمَا اَنَا بَشَرٌ مِّثْلُكُمْ يُوْحٰى إِلَىَّ

{Say: I am but a human being like you, it has been revealed to me..} (18:110)

These can be no better example of one who is so noble and distinguished as to be at the highest standard yet lived like a common man. His life was very simple like any ordinary creature of Allah. Spiritually he traveled up to the heavens and the height of the throne but physically he was humble like the creatures of dust. He mingled with the masses and lived like them and toiled as they did. He was kind and sympathetic to them and helped and cooperated with them. This is an example of his noble manners. In this way he also taught others that humility should be considered as the height of character and morals.

That he conveying of Allah's message to the creatures should be regarded as a responsibility which cannot be discharged without being in touch with the people. This can be done only by relieving oneself of egoism and pride and abstaining form ostentation. One must present oneself as a common man.

MINGLING WITH PEOPLE

(٥٨٢٣) وَعَنْ خَارِجَةَ بْنِ زَيْدِ بْنِ ثَابِتٍ قَالَ دَخَلَ نَفَرٌ عَلٰى زَيْدِ بْنِ ثَابِتٍ فَقَالُوْا لَهُ حَدِّثْنَا اَحَادِيْثَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ كُنْتُ جَارَهُ فَكَانَ إِذَا نَزَلَ عَلَيْهِ الْوَحْيُ بَعَثَ إِلَيَّ فَكَتَبْتُهُ لَهُ فَكَانَ إِذَا ذَكَرْنَا الدُّنْيَا ذَكَرَهَا مَعَنَا وَإِذَا ذَكَرْنَا الْاٰخِرَةَ ذَكَرَهَا مَعَنَا وَإِذَا ذَكَرْنَا الطَّعَامَ ذَكَرَهُ مَعَنَا فَكُلُّ هٰذَا أُحَدِّثُكُمْ عَنْ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ. (رواه الترمذى)

whenever he received a revelation he would send for me and I would (go to him and) write it down for him. (It was his habit that) when he conversed about this world, he spoke of it along with us. When we conversed about the hereafter, he spoke of it alongwith us. And, when we spoke about food. He too spoke about it along with us.

I narrate to you all this about Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم."[1]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Zayd رضی الله عنه was very near to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم both spiritually and physically. He was more aware of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم life then anyone else. He discloses that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم maintained very close social ties with the people. He was familiar with them and joined them in their conversation over a wide range of subjects. They never broached anything disliked and blameworthy. That could not be done in his presence and he could not be expected to attend such a gathering where disliked topics could be raised. This hadith, therefore, does not contradict the hadith:

انه صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كان يخزن لسانه الا فيما يعنيه وان مجلسه علم

"The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم kept his tongues in check except when it was necessary to speak. Surely, his assembly was of learning."

Often, topics of the world do provide beneficial knowledge of different aspects. Hence every gathering will be called on assembly of learning even if worldly topics are discussed, but they provide beneficial knowledge of various kinds.

If a gathering discusses affairs of the world and not of religion and lacks any benefit, then the attendance of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم will mean that he and sahabah رضی الله عنهم discussed such things as are permissible. He did so to let them know that such meetings and discussions are allowed. It was Wajib (obligatory) for the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to join in such discussions.

In conclusion Zayd رضی الله عنه confirmed that the hadith he narrated was authentic. He thereby fulfilled the conditions that apply to narration of ahadith.

SHAKING HANDS & MANNER OF SITTING

(٥٨٢٤) وَعَنْ أَنَسٍ أَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ إِذَا صَافَحَ الرَّجُلَ لَمْ يَنْزِعْ يَدَهُ مِنْ يَدِهِ حَتّٰى يَكُوْنَ هُوَ الَّذِيْ يَنْزِعُ يَدَهُ وَلَا يَصْرِفُ وَجْهَهُ عَنْ وَجْهِهِ حَتّٰى يَكُوْنَ هُوَ الَّذِيْ يَصْرِفُ وَجْهَهُ عَنْ وَجْهِهِ وَلَمْ يُرَ مُقَدِّمًا رُكْبَتَيْهِ بَيْنَ يَدَيْ جَلِيْسٍ لَهُ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

5824. Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه said that when Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم shook hands with a man, he did not take away his hand until the man took away his hand. And he did not turn away his face from the man's face until the man turned away his face. And he was never seen with his knees stretched in front of the person with whom he was sitting.[2]

COMMENTARY: These two characteristics of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم of not taking away his hand from the man's hand after a handshake and his sight from him till he preceded in doing 60 speak highly of his humility and forbearance.

He did not sit ahead of his neighbour but he always sat in line with the others and never stretched his knees in front of, or before, anyone sitting with him.

Some exponents say that in keeping with manners of sitting, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم never sat down with his knees raised in the company of other people.

Some others have said that the words mean; 'he did not stretch his feet wive in front of anyone.

This hadith t reaches us to respect our Muslim brothers whether they are junior to us or senior in rank.

NEVER KEPT ASIDE ANYTHING FOR HIMSELF

5825. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ said that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم never kept aside anything for the morrow.[1]

COMMENTARY: He had perfect trust Allah. He relied completely on the mercy of Allah, so he never kept anything aside for the next day.

However, he did store for his famiy whatever hey would need for one year. He was apprehensive lest they lose patience at the time of need and become anxious.

PROPHET صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم OBSERVED LONG SILENCE

(٥٨٢٦) وَعَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ سَمُرَةَ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ طَوِيْلَ الصَّمْتِ رَوَاهُ فِيْ شَرْحِ السُّنَّةِ۔

5826. Sayyiduna Jabir ibn Samurah رضی اللہ عنہ said that Allah's Messenger رضی اللہ عنہ was given to observe silence very often.[2]

COMMENTARY: He spoke little. He spoke only when necessary otherwise he maintained silence. Bukhari, Muslim and others have transmitted a hadith:

من كان يومن بالله واليوم الاخرة فليقل خيرا وليسكت

'He who believes in Allah and the Last Day must speak what is god, otherwise he must keep quiet."[3]

Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ used to say:

ليتنى كنت اخرس الاعن ذكر الله

"Would that I were dumb except for mention and remembrance of Allah."

MANNER OF PROPHET SPEECH

(٥٨٢٧) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ كَانَ فِيْ كَلَامِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ تَرْتِيْلٌ وَ تَرْسِيْلٌ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

5827. Sayyiduna Jabir (ibn Abdullah) رضی اللہ عنہ said that the speech of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was distinct and with paused (unhurried).[4]

COMMENTARY: His words were clear and well separated. He did not speak hurriedly.

The words used are (ترتيل) and (ترسيل), so it seems that (ترتيل) refers to his recital of the Quran: to read gracefully and distinctly, in tonation (of the Quran) with measured voice.[1]
And (ترسيل) refers to his general conversation.

(٥٨٢٨) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ مَاكَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَسْرُدُ سَرْدَكُمْ هٰذَا وَلٰكِنَّهُ كَانَ يَتَكَلَّمُ بِكَلَامٍ بَيِّنَةٍ فَصْلٌ يَحْفَظُهُ مَنْ جَلَسَ إِلَيْهِ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

5828. Sayyiduna Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا said, "Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم did not talk unceasingly and rapidly like your talking, but he spoke distinctly and spaced out his words. Thus, whoever sat with him could retain them in memory."[2]

SMILING LIPS

(٥٨٢٩) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ الْحَارِثِ بْنِ جَزْءٍ قَالَ مَارَأَيْتُ أَحَدً أَكْثَرَ تَبَسُّمًا مِنْ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

5829. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Harith ibn Jaz رضی اللہ عنہ said, "I have not seen anyone smiling more often than Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم did."[3]

AWAITING THE REVELATION

(٥٨٣٠) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ سَلَامٍ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا جَلَسَ يَتَحَدَّثُ يُكْثِرُ أَنْ يَّرْفَعَ طَرْفَهُ إِلَى السَّمَاءِ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

5830.Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Salaam رضی اللہ عنہ said that whenever Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم talked while sitting, he often raised his eyes to the sky.[4]
(He waited for Jibril علیہ السلام and the revelation.)

COMMENTARY: Even while conversing with anyone, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had his sight toward the sky. He hoped Jibril علیہ السلام would come to him bringing the revelation.

PROPHET'S SON رضی اللہ عنہ IBRAHIM

(٥٨٣١) عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ سَعِيْدٍ عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ مَا رَأَيْتُ أَحَدًا كَانَ أَرْحَمَ بِالْعِيَالِ مِنْ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ إِبْرَاهِيْمُ ابْنُهُ مُسْتَرْضِعًا فِي عَوَالِي الْمَدِيْنَةِ فَكَانَ يَنْطَلِقُ وَنَحْنُ مَعَهُ فَيَدْخُلُ الْبَيْتَ وَإِنَّهُ لَيُدَّخَنُ وَكَانَ ظِئْرُهُ قَيْنًا فَيَأْخُذُهُ فَيُقَبِّلُهُ ثُمَّ يَرْجِعُ قَالَ عَمْرٌو فَلَمَّا تُوُفِّيَ إِبْرَاهِيْمُ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ إِبْرَاهِيْمَ ابْنِيْ وَإِنَّهُ مَاتَ فِي الثَّدْيِ وَإِنَّ لَهُ لَظِئْرَيْنِ تُكَمِّلَانِ رَضَاعَهُ فِي الْجَنَّةِ۔

5831. Sayyiduna Amr ibn Sa'eed reported that Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated, "I never saw anyone more compassionate to the family than Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. His son, Ibrahim رضی اللہ عنہ (whose mother was Mariyah Qutbiyah) رضی اللہ عنہ was being suckled (by a faster mother) in Awali of Madinah. He would go there other. We would go with him and he would enter the house that was full of smoke (because) the child's faster father was blacksmith. (His kiln used to fill the house with smoke, but love of his son drone the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم into the smoke filled house.) He would take the child (in his arms), kiss him and return (after making some enquiries)."

Sayyiduna Amr رضی اللہ عنہ (narrated further from Sayyiduna Anas) رضی اللہ عنہ "when Ibrahim رضی اللہ عنہ died, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, 'Ibrahim is my son who has died while he was beings suckled. Two faster mothers are appointed for him. They will complete his suckling in paradise."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Arabic word (ظئر) stands for faster.-mother. Her husband, the faster father is also called (ظئر). The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم son, Ibrhaim رضی اللہ عنہ was entrusted to a faster mother as was the ancient custom of the Arabs. Her name was Umm Sayf and her husband was Abu Sayf who was a blacksmith. When Ibrahim رضی اللہ عنہ died he was being suckled and he was an infant of sixteen or seventeen months. He was he son of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم so because of his blessings, Allah elevated him in rank, and not only did He admit him to paradise straightaway but also appointed for him two faster mother in paradise. They were assigned the task of suckling him till his period of sucking him till his period of suckling (two years) was completed.

PROPHETS CHARACTER IMPRESSED IN JEW

(٥٨٣٢) وَعَنْ عَلِيٍّ اَنَّ يَهُوْدِيًا كَانَ يُقَالُ لَهُ فُلَانٌ حَبْرٌ كَانَ لَهُ عَلٰى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ دَنَانِيْرُ فَتَقَاضَى النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ لَهُ يَا يَهُوْدِيُّ مَا عِنْدِيْ مَا اُعْطِيْكَ قَالَ فَاِنِّيْ لَا اُفَارِقُكَ يَا مُحَمَّدُ حَتّٰى تُعْطِيَنِيْ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذًا اَجْلِسُ مَعَكَ فَجَلَسَ مَعَهُ فَصَلّٰى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الظُّهْرَ وَالْعَصْرَ وَالْمَغْرِبَ وَالْعِشَاءَ الْاٰخِرَةَ وَالْغَدَاةَ وَكَانَ اَصْحَابُ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَتَهَدَّدُوْنَهُ وَيَتَوَعَّدُوْنَهُ فَفَطِنَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَصْنَعُوْنَ بِهٖ فَقَالُوْا يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ يَهُوْدِيٌّ يَحْبِسُكَ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنَعَنِيْ رَبِّيْ اَنْ اَظْلِمَ مُعَاهِدًا وَغَيْرَهُ فَلَمَّا تَرَجَّلَ النَّهَارُ قَالَ الْيَهُوْدِيُّ اَشْهَدُ اَنْ لَّا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَاَشْهَدُ اَنَّكَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ وَشَطْرُ مَالِيْ فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ اَمَا وَاللّٰهِ مَا فَعَلْتُ بِكَ الَّذِيْ فَعَلْتُ بِكَ اِلَّا لِاَنْظُرَ اِلٰى نَعْتِكَ فِي التَّوْرٰةِ مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ مَوْلِدُهُ بِمَكَّةَ وَمُهَاجَرُهُ بِطِيْبَةَ مُلْكُهُ بِالشَّامِ لَيْسَ بِفَظٍّ وَلَا غَلِيْظٍ وَلَا سَخَّابٍ فِي الْاَسْوَاقِ وَلَا مُتَزَيٍّ بِالْفُحْشِ وَلَا قَوْلِ الْخَنَا اَشْهَدُ اَنْ لَّا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَاَنَّكَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ وَهٰذَا مَالِيْ فَاحْكُمْ فِيْهِ بِمَا اَرٰكَ اللّٰهُ وَكَانَ

الْيَهُودِيُّ كَثِيْرَ الْمَالِ رَوَاهُ الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِي دَلَائِلِ النُّبُوَّةِ۔

5832. Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that there was a Jew (in Madinah). He was (a scholar) called so and so scholar (hibr). Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم owed him some dinars. He demanded repayment from the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. He said to him, "O Jew, I have nothing that I may give you (in payment)." He said, "Then I shall not separate from you, O Muhammad, till you repay me." So Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "In that case, I shall sit with you." And, he sat down.

Then, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم offered the salahs of Zhr, asr, maghrib, ishas and (in the morning) fajr. The sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم (observed this and had become very angry and they) threatened and warned him. Alah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم understood what they were doing (and his dislike for that was apparent on his face. They realized his displeasure so) they submitted, "O Messenger of Allah, a Jew has held you back..." so Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "My Lord has forbidden me to do wrong to one with whom a convent is finalized, or to anyone else."

As the day advanced, the Jew said, "I testify that there is no God but Allah and I testify that you are Allah's Messenger. Half of my property I give in Allah path. And, know by Allah, I did not do what I did to you except to verify your description as found in the Torah. (It says:) 'Muhammad ibn Abdullah will be born in Makkah, will emigrate to Taibah (Madinah) and will have his kingdom in Syria. He will not be harsh and rude, and vociferous in the markets. He will not be marked by vulgarity or indecent speech. I testify that there is no God but Allah and I testify that you are Allah's Messenger. As for this my property, decide about it in he light of what Allah has directed you." And the Jews was very affluent.[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم offered the salah of fajr which means that he remained seated with the Jew all day and all night. Neither did he sleep nor did he rest. Perhaps this took place in the Masjid Nabawi but it is also possible that it took place somewhere else. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم may have been there and the Jew may have come up to him. Then he sat there with the Jew, all day and all right.

The wording not to do wrong to one with whom one has convented and with anyone else is a specific statement moving to a general one. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم first mentioned the covenant specifically. The Jew was one of the dhimmis who had been extended protection. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم meant to say, "If I move away from him and refuse to sit with him without repaying his debt to him then that would amount to wronging him. And Allah has forbidden me t o do that." Then he enlarged the scope of it, saying, 'Not merely this one but I am forbidden to be unjust to anyone at all, whether a covenant is made with him or not.

Against the normal procedure of moving from the general to the specific, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم mentioned the specific before mentioning the general. This was necessary in this case. Moreover, he made it clear that if a Muslim is wronged then he may be compensate ed by giving him the pieties of the wrongdoer and thus please him. But if a disbeliever is wronged then pious deeds cannot be given to him. So, it becomes impossible to obtain his pleasure. Neither can pious deeds be given to him not can they be of use to him in any way. Hence, on the day of resurrection of such a person with whom a covenant is made complains against a Muslim of wrongdoing then it will become very difficult for the Muslim to please him.

This is why the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم decided to make this difficulty known and he named first the one with whom a covenant stands. Then he mentioned everyone else in a general way.

When the Jew restrained the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم for not being able to repay the debt, none of the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم came forward to pay it on behalf of him. There could be two reasons for that:

(1) They too were unable to make a payment.

(2) The Jew refused to accept any payment from them because he wished to verify the description of the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم in the Torah.

Finally, the Jew said, "This my property..." He may have pointed out to his property or to the place where it was. Then, he authorized the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم to use the property according to Allah's pleasure for the benefit of religion.

In the beginning he gave away half of his property. But, when faith made strong home in his heard he offered all his property and his son life too in Allah's path.

KINDNESS TO THE POOR & NEEDY

(٥٨٣٣) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ اَبِي اَوْفٰى قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُكْثِرُ الذِّكْرَ وَيُقِلُّ اللَّغْوَ وَيُطِيْلُ الصَّلٰوةَ وَيُقَصِّرُ الْخُطْبَةَ وَلَا يَاْنَفُ اَنْ يَّمْشِيَ مَعَ الْاَرْمِلَةِ وَالْمِسْكِيْنِ فَيَقْضِيَ لَهُ الْحَاجَةَ۔ (رواه، والنسائی والدارمی)

5833. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Abu Awfa رضی اللہ عنہ said that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم engaged in dhikr (remembrance of Allah) very often, but he occupied in idle talk very rarely. He prolonged the salah but shortened the sermons. He never hesitated to walk with a widow or a poor person and he got them what they needed.[1]

COMMENTARY: The dhikr is mention and remembrance of Allah and of everything that concerns or leads to it. It is a fact that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم engaged in mention of Allah very often or in different ways all the time and every moment.

Idle or vain talk cover everything other than dhikr and concerns the world. In fact, every affair of the world even if there is some wisdom in it is also idle talk compared to true dhikr. This is why Imam Ghazali رحمہ اللہ had said:

ضیعت قطعة من العمر العزیز فی تالیف البسیط والوسیط والوجیز

"I have misued part of my life in writing my basit, wasit, and wajiz books." (simple, average and brief.)

Though such affairs of the world ad are not devoid of wisdom do not fall under the classification of idle or vain talk, yet they are grouped wit h idle and vain because of their outward form and their origin, and keeping aside their reality. It is to support this interpretation that the Sufis رحمہ اللہ say:

"The good deeds of the pious are the evil deeds of the near ones."

It is also wrong to take (لغو) in its real meaning 'vain,' uselêss, 'idle ' etc. because never did the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم engage in such talk and neither can it be imagined. Allah has described the believers as abstaining from it. So how may we think of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم engaging in it.

وَالَّذِيْنَ هُمْ عَنِ اللَّغْوِ مُعْرِضُوْنَ

{And those who from (everything) vain turn away...} (23:3)

Some authorities say that the word (عدم) – little, seldom rarely) is used here in the sense of 'never' (عدم) – lacking). They cite the verse of the Quran:

قَلِيْلًا مَّا يُؤْمِنُوْنَ

{So, they believe just in very little things (meaning, only what is common to Islam and Judaism)} (2:88) Mufti Muhammad Taqu Usmani: The meanings of the Noble quran.

Though this opinion eliminates many disputes about the word (لغو) – vain, idle), yet it is not appropriate to the syntax of the hadith because the word (تكثر) – much, very often) demands the same meaning for (يقل) – seldom, rare) as used in the hadith.

As for prolonging salah and making the sermon brief, it refers particularly to the salah of Friday. The prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used concise but comprehensive words in his sermon of Friday. Every sentence had few words but conveyed a wide meaning. However, when he had to offer much advice, he delivered a long, detailed sermon too. Normally, his sermon was shorter than his salah. Moreover, we have read a hadith in the chapter on Friday (the sermon & the Friday salah # 1406):

"Surely the length of the salah of a man and the brevity of his sermon are a sign of his understanding." (Muslim 47-869)

Salah is the mi'raj of the believer and an occasion of prayer to his Lord, so, it must be lengthened. The sermon invites the people to the truth which calls for eloquence and fluency. People might be led to believe that there is ostentation in the delivery. Hence, it must be shortened. That would be better.

(٥٨٣٤) وَعَنْ عَلِيٍّ اَنَّ اَبَا جَهْلٍ قَالَ لِلنَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّا لَا نُكَذِّبُكَ وَلٰكِنْ نُكَذِّبُ بِمَا جِئْتَ بِهٖ فَاَنْزَلَ اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى فِيْهِمْ فَاِنَّهُمْ لَا يُكَذِّبُوْنَكَ وَلٰكِنَّ الظّٰلِمِيْنَ بِاٰيٰتِ اللّٰهِ يَجْحَدُوْنَ - (رواه الترمذى)

5834. Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه narrated that Abu Jahl said to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم "We do not belie you, but we reject that which you have brought as false. So, Allah the exalted revealed about them:

فَاِنَّهُمْ لَا يُكَذِّبُوْنَكَ وَلٰكِنَّ الظّٰلِمِيْنَ بِاٰيٰتِ اللّٰهِ يَجْحَدُوْنَ

{Though in truth they belie not you, yet the evildoers in fact deny the revelations of Allah.}[1] (6:33)

COMMENTARY: Abu Jahl rejected "that which you have brought.' These are the revelation meaning the Book of Allah and the Shari'ah. He said, "We belie you because we do not regard your Book and Shari'ah as true. If you take these things away, then we have no quarrel with you. But, this accursed one could not realize that if Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم did not lie in worldly matters as the Quraysh too admitted then why would he lie in religious matters and news of the hereafter why would he call them towards falsehood. The truth was that the chiefs of the quraysh of Makkah were spiteful and hostile to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. They were jealous because this orphan and ummi was raised to a very high rank. How could they who possessed riches and power obey him? This spite, hostility and jealously get them to say things that were very unreasonable.

Tafsir Kashaf - the exegesis of the Quran presents two meaning of the verse quoted in the hadith (6:33).

(1) O Muhammad, these infidels who belie you and refuse to believe, do not refute you but, in fact, they repudiate the revealed verses of Allah and His religions. The example of this is a slave of his master whom people trouble because of his unusual doings. The master tells him that the people do not trouble him but actually trouble the master himself. The master says, 'I will teach them a lesson."

(2) O Muhammad, these infidels do not belie you. Rather, they regard you as true and trustful and they cite your examples truthful. They actually belie Allah's verses and His religion. This meaning is more compatible with the hadith.

(٥٨٣٦،٥٨٣٥) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَا عَائِشَةُ لَوْ شِئْتُ لَسَارَتْ مَعِيَ جِبَالُ الذَّهَبِ جَاءَنِيْ مَلَكٌ وَإِنَّ حُجْزَتَهٗ لَتُسَاوِي الْكَعْبَةَ فَقَالَ إِنَّ رَبَّكَ يَقْرَأُ عَلَيْكَ السَّلَامَ وَيَقُوْلُ إِنْ شِئْتَ نَبِيًّا عَبْدًا وَإِنْ شِئْتَ نَبِيًّا مَلِكًا فَنَظَرْتُ إِلَى جِبْرَئِيْلَ عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ فَأَشَارَ إِلَيَّ أَنْ ضَعْ نَفْسَكَ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ فَالْتَفَتَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِلَى جِبْرَئِيْلَ كَالْمُسْتَشِيْرِ لَهٗ فَأَشَارَ جِبْرَئِيْلُ بِيَدِهٖ أَنْ تَوَاضَعْ فَقُلْتُ نَبِيًّا عَبْدًا قَالَتْ فَكَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بَعْدَ ذٰلِكَ لَا يَأْكُلُ مُتَّكِئًا يَقُوْلُ آكُلُ كَمَا يَأْكُلُ الْعَبْدُ وَأَجْلِسُ كَمَا يَجْلِسُ الْعَبْدُ۔ (رواه في شرح السنة)

5835. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said (to her), 'O Ayshah, if I had wished, mountains of gold will move with me. An angel had come to me. Its waist was as high as the Ka'bah. He said, 'Your Lord has conveyed to you salaam (greeting of peace on you). And offers you that you may be a Prophet and a slave, or a prophet and a king. I looked at (the angel) Jibril عليه السلام (a questioning look). He gestured that I should humble myself (and choose a life of hardship and poverty, not of leisure).[1]

5836. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه version has Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم turned to Jibril عليه السلام (On receiving the message) as though seeking his advice. Jibril عليه

السلام made a gesture with hand (indicating the earth) to say that he should humble himself. "So I said, 'Prophet and slave!

Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها said, "After that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم never ate reclining. He said, 'I eat like a slave eats and I sit as a slave sits."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم was advised to choose humbleness in the world. But, this means a high rank with Allah. As against this, kingship and affluence leads to rebellion and forgetting Allah. These people become arrogant and ungrateful

Jibril علیه السلام gave this advice on the basis of the general trend. This is why most of the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم, ulama (scholars) and righteous people chose life of poverty and hardship. They always preferred a life of hard work and toil to riches and luxury.

اَللّٰهُمَّ اجْعَلْنَا مِنْهُمْ وَاحْشُرْنَا مَعَهُمْ

The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said that he ate like a slave. He was not particular patience and expressed gratitude. He did not crave for rich and good kind of food and did not feel a dislike for poor kind of food.

He said that he sat as a slave sits with folded legs as one sits while offering salah. This is a best manner of sitting. Or, it is a sitting posture with one knees raised as one sits while eating. The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم generally sat in this manner.

CHAPTER - XXI

THE MISSION OF THE PROPHET صلی الله علیه وسلم & THE BEGINNING OF THE REVELATION

بَابُ الْمَبْعَثِ وَبَدْءِ الْوَحْيِ

The Arabic word in the caption is (المبعث) al-mab'ath refers to (بعث) - ba'ath) and the period of ba'ath And ba'ath means 'to raise,' 'to send.' In this place, it means: Allah sent Muhammad as His prophet and Messenger to all His creatures.

The word (بدء) - bada'c) mean 'begin. 'initiate,' 'commence.'

Some versions have (بدو) instead of (بدء). It means 'to appear.' 'to manifest.' Though both convey the some meaning yet the first version is correct.

The word (وحی) (wahy) means basically 'pointation,' 'to write,' to allude.' 'to hint' 'to talk softly,' 'to send a message'. 'to cast' and 'to inspire.' It is stated in Mashariq ul-Anwar that (وحی) wahy is 'to send a secret message swiftly.

There were different form of wahy (Allah's Message and guidance) to the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم and other Prophets علیهم السلام. some if them were honoured with direct conversation with Allah, like Prophet Musa علیه السلام. This is known from the Quran. The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم too was honoured in this way on the eight of the mi'raj.

The second form of wahy was through the angels as messengers. Jibril علیه السلام used to bring Allah's message and guidance. He delivered that message just as it was, word for word, Generally this from of wahy took place.

The third form of wahy was inspiration. Allah put the message in the heart (of the inspired). The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said, for instance: (القی فی روعی) "It was put in my heart." It is said that most of the wahy received by Prophet Dawud عليه السلام was of this form.

This much is about the wahy that was sent to the Prophets عليهم السلام. but, the Quran also refers to wanhy sent to others than the Prophet's عليه السلام. In such cases wahy (revelation) means ilham (inspiration) as stated in the Quran:

وَاَوْحَيْنَا اِلٰى اُمِّ مُوْسٰى

{And we inspired the mother of Musa..." (28:7)

Also, the word (وحى) wahy is used in the sense of (امر) command. For example, the Quran says:

وَاَوْحَيْتُ اِلَى الْحَوَارِيّٖنَ

{And I commanded the disciples....} (5:111) or:
{And, I enjoined upon the disciples...}[1]

Furthermore, wahy also means 'to make it natural.' 'a disposition; Allah sys:

وَاَوْحٰى رَبُّكَ اِلَى النَّحْلِ

{And your Lord put it in the nature of the bee - or, inclined the bee- ... (to do)...}[2] (16:68)

SECTION I — اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

BEGINNING OF MISSION OF PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم

(٥٨٣٧) عَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ بُعِثَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِاَرْبَعِيْنَ سَنَةً فَمَكَثَ بِمَكَّةَ ثَلٰثَ عَشَرَةَ سَنَةً يُوْحٰى اِلَيْهِ ثُمَّ اُمِرَ بِالْهِجْرَةِ فَهَاجَرَ عَشْرَ سِنِيْنَ وَمَاتَ وَهُوَ ابْنُ ثَلٰثٍ وَسِتِّيْنَ سَنَةً۔ (متفق عليه)

5837. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه said that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم was chosen for his mission at the age of forty. He stayed in Makkah for thirteen years during which he received revelation regularly. Then he was instructed to emigrate. So, he emigrated (to Madinah) for ten years before he died at the age of sixty three.[3]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم age was as stated in this hadith but other reports have been given too. For instance, Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه himself gave the Prophet's age as sixty five in another hadith (5838) Anas رضى الله عنه said that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was sixty years old when he died (see hadith 5839) following). It seems that both of them have brought the figures to the nearest round number.

BEGINNING OF REVELATION

(٥٨٣٨) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ اَقَامَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِمَكَّةَ خَمْسَ عَشْرَةَ سَنَةً يَسْمَعُ الصَّوْتَ وَيَرَى الضَّوْءَ سَبْعَ سِنِيْنَ وَلَا يَرٰى شَيْئًا وَثَمَانَ سِنِيْنَ يُوْحٰى اِلَيْهِ وَاَقَامَ بِالْمَدِيْنَةِ عَشْرًا وَتُوُفِّيَ وَهُوَ ابْنُ خَمْسٍ وَسِتِّيْنَ سَنَةً۔ (متفق عليه)

5838. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه said, "Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم stayed in Makkah for fifteen years (after being commissioned). For seven (of these) years, he heard the voice (of Jibri) علیه السلام calling, 'O Muhammad) and saw the light (of a mysterious kind in the dark) but did not see anything (in the light). And, for (the remaining) eight years, he received revelations, Then, he stayed in Madinah ten years and died (there at the age of sixty five."[1]

COMMENTARY: We have spoken against the previous hadith on the age of the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم being (sixty three or) sixty five. As for his stay in Makah after becoming prophet, this hadith puts it at fifteen years while the previous said that it was thirteen years. We say the same thing here as we had said previously (# 5837) about his age that Ibn Abbas had rounded off the figures in both cases.

This hadith sys that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم heard voices and saw light after being commissioned in Makkah for the initial seven years of the fifteen he stayed in Makkah. However, historical accounts and some other ahadith assert that this happened before he became prophet and began his mission. The wisdom behind that was that he may be familiar with the world of the angels and should not find it unbearable afterwards.

PROPHET'S AGE AT DEATH

(٥٨٣٩) وَعَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ تَوَفَّاهُ اللّٰهُ عَلٰى رَأْسِ سِتِّيْنَ سَنَةً۔ (متفق علیه)

5839. Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه said, "Allah took him (meaning, the Prophet) صلی الله علیه وسلم when he had completed sixty years of his life."[2]

AGES OF THE PROPHET صلی الله علیه وسلم & THE RIGHTEOUS CALIPHS

(٥٨٤٠) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قُبِضَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَهُوَ ابْنُ ثَلٰثٍ وَسِتِّيْنَ وَاَبُوْ بَكْرٍ وَهُوَ ابْنُ ثَلٰثٍ وَّ سِتِّيْنَ وَعُمَرُ وَهُوَ ابْنُ ثَلٰثٍ وَّسِتِّيْنَ رَوَاهُ مُسْلِمٌ قَالَ مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ اِسْمٰعِيْلَ الْبُخَارِيُّ ثَلٰثٌ وَّ سِتِّيْنَ اَكْثَرُ۔

5840.Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه said, "The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم died when he was sixty three years old, Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه too, when he was sixty three years old and Umar, too, when he was sixty three years old."[3]

And, Muhammad ibn Isma'il Bukhari رحمه الله said, "Sixty three (years) is (given as the age of the Prophet's death) in most ahadith)."

COMMENTARY: As stated previously, the most correct reports of the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم age is that he was sixty three years old when he died. As for Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه, all traditions say that he two died when he was sixty three years old. His caliphate lasted two years and four months. He was younger than the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم by same number of months as he survived after him. ,

There are different reports of the age of Umar رضی الله عنه but en most correct is that he lived for sixty three years. Some traditions say fifty nine years. The compiler of Mishkah has written: "The slave Abu Lulu who belonged to Mughirah ibn Shu'bah رضی الله عنه hit Umar رضی الله عنه with a dagger on Wednesday, 26th Dhul HIjjah 23 AH in Madinah and wounded him. Then, on Sunday 10th Muharram 14AH Umar رضی اللہ عنہ was buried. He was sixty three years ld at that time." This statement is most correct. His caliphate lasted ten years and six months.

According to waqidi, Sayyiduna Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ w martyred by an Egyptian rebel Aswaad Tajibi on Friday, 18th Dhull HIjjah 35 AH. He was buried on Saturday in Jannat ul baqi. He was eight two years old on that day. Some people say that he was eighty eight years old. Some other traditions are also narrated about him. His caliphate was spread over nearly twelve years (some days fever than that).

Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ become caliph on the day Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ was martyred. On Friday, 17th Ramadan 40 AH, Abdur Rahman ibn Muljim attacked him in Kufah and he was wounded seriously. Three days later he handed over his soul to its Greater. He was buried in Najaf at the age of sixty three. His caliphate lasted a few days more than four years and nine months.

Imam Bukhari رحمہ اللہ said that most statement agree that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was sixty three years old. Reports about his age being otherwise are fewer like sixty years. Hence, this report (of 63 years) is accepted as more correct. As for as his birth is concerned, the most authentic report is hat he was born in the year of feel (elephant). Qadi Iyad said that historians and the ulama are unanimous about it. Besides that also agree that he was born in Rabi ul-Awwal on a Monday, but they differ on the date beings twelfth, eighteenth or tenth. His death also occurred in Rabi ul-Awwal or the twelfth, Monday in the midmorning (or time of duha).

HOW THE WAHY REVELATION BEGAN

The prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The angel then held me and sqeezed me so hard that I felt pain. Then he let me go and asked me again, 'Read I said again that I am unread. The angel again took me in his grip and squeezed me as hard as before causing me severe pain. Then he released me and said, 'Read', I repeated that I was unread. He took me a third time and embraced me very hard (choking me till I could bear no more). On releasing me, he said (this time):

اِقْرَأْ بِاسْمِ رَبِّكَ الَّذِيْ خَلَقَ خَلَقَ الْاِنْسَانَ مِنْ عَلَقٍ اِقْرَأْ وَرَبُّكَ الْاَكْرَمُ الَّذِيْ عَلَّمَ بِالْقَلَمِ عَلَّمَ الْاِنْسَانَ مَا لَمْ يَعْلَمْ

[Read in the name of your Lord who created – created man (and everything) from a blood-clot. Read and your Lord is Most Bountiful who taught by the pen – taught men that (which) he knew not.] (96:1-5)

(Then the angel disappeared.) Allah' s Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم then returned home with these verses, his heart beating hard. (According to one version: the veins on his shoulders and neck were swollen). He said to Khadijah رضی اللہ عنہا, 'Cover me up with a blanket! Cover me upon. (He used the plural form (زملونی) so they covered him up (فزملوہ) and gradually his heart beat was normal (and his physical condition improved). Then he recounted to Khadijah everything that had happened and said, 'I fear for my life.' She comforted him, 'you should not worry. By Allah, He shall never let you down. You join ties of relationship, are truthful., carry the burden of the tired, help and needy, car for the guest and cooperate with people who are afflicted by ups and downs and are wronged.' Khadijah رضی اللہ عنہا then took him to her paternal cousin, waraqah ibn Nawfal. (He had converted to Christianity during the jahiliyah and was a scholar of the Herbew language. He used to write down the Injeel into Habrew. He had grown old and had last his eyesight). She said to him, 'O cousin, listen to what your nephew says: Waraqah asked him, 'O nephew, what do you see?' Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم recounted to him his experience in detail. Waraqha said, 'It is the names (the same angel) whom Allah had sent to Musa علیہ

السلام, would that I were young when you become a Prophet! Would that I were alive when your people expel you (from Makkah)!
Allah's Messenger رضى الله عنه asked in amazement, 'Will they drive me out?" He said, Yes! Whenever a Prophet has brought a message like the one you have brought he was always opposed. (According to one version: the disbelievers were hostile to him and persecuted him) If I am there during those days I will be of utmost help to you.' But, he died a few days thereafter. (At the same time,) revelation was interrupted (for about three years).[1]

5842. (Bukhari;s version also has) The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was deeply grieved on that account. We have learnt of it (from many ahadith). Many a morning, he ascended a mountain to throw himself down, but Jibril عليه السلام came suddenly every time he went up the peak of a mountain to jump down from it and assured him, 'Muhammad (اِنَّكَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ حَقًّا) (surely, you are Allah's Messenger)!' This calmed him down and set his heart at peace.[2]

COMMENTARY: Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها described the beginning of revelation either on hearing it from the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم directly or on learning of it from one of the sahabah رضى الله عنهم because she herself was not born at that time.

The scholars say that the Prophet used to see true dreams six months before he was commissioned. True dreams are when Allah makes the person get the reflection of those things on his mind and heart and feelings. Those things are to occur later or have occurred but he is unaware of them. Just as a persons; hear and mind, and perception and feelings are alert when he is awake, so too this sleeping person's perception and feelings become alert on the command of Allah. The result is that when he awakes he sees it occur exactly in the same way or becomes aware of it. This things happen only on the command of Allah the High and so it is not at all impossible in practical life. Everything is under the power and ability of Allah the Omnipotent, and His command and action can never be obstructed by sleep or anything else.

THE CAVE: Hira is a well known mountain in the outskirts of Makkah. It is also called Jabl Thawr. The Ka'bah is seen from its peak. Perhaps this is why the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had chosen its cave to worship Allah in solitude. It is said that when the ka'bah was attacked by Abraha and his men riding on elephant, Abdul Muttalib, too, had sought refuge at this mountain and had engaged in supplication at this place.

The scholars of hadith have written exhaustively on the subject of solitude and seclusion. Allah's pious slaves and those possessed of Divine awareness have been observing it throughout ages. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, too, was made to practice it before assuming his mission. When one is alone, the heart and mind are at peace perfectly and so receptive. They are enabled to concentrate on Allah and they are cut off from worldly worries, pursuits and desires. They are able to remember Allah and worship Him with humility, submissiveness, hope and fear. They can concentrate and feel the radiance of their experience.

However, it does not follow that seclusion is ideal always and commended by Shari'ah. Rather, just as seclusion is beneficial so is associating and intermingling profitable. Which of the two courses is ideal depends on the circumstances. If evil is outspread and mingling with people might divert a person from piety and they are unwilling to listen to advice and preaching then seclusion is better. If there is no risk to religion and people need to be taught and guided to piety then it is better to stay with, and among, them.

TAHANNUTH: This words stands for worship in the nights as explained by Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها herself, or by one of the sub-narrator: 'spending many nights at a stretch in worship...' Of course days are included. Only nights are mentioned because being secluded and alone in more appropriate at night. It was not for long that he devoted himself to worship but a few days and nights. This is why the words 'at a stretch' are appended. However, some authorities have not rejected the possibility that it means very often because a continuity is mentioned only when it stretches over an extraordinarily long period and for many days together.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم stayed in the cave till he wished to go home and attend to the needs of the people of his family. One version has the word (يرجع) 'to return' instead on (ينزع) 'to long to see one's people.'

Moreover, he took with him provision for some days in the cave. When that was exhausted he came home and took enough of fresh provision to last a few more nights. Thus, hunger was removed so that it might not hinder him from worship and he may concentrate. Clearly it does not belie tawakul (which is to place trust in Allah) to keep necessary provision with oneself.

The scholars say that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم secluded himself in the cave for one month every year. This was the month of Ramadan.

Opinion differ on which of the previous Shari'ahs, if any, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم followed, or pursued a course of action that he considered as correct. Many scholars say that he followed the Shariah of Prophet Ibrahim عليه السلام. This is why one version of this hadith has the word (يتحنث) instead of (يتحنف) which means the hannaf of harif path which is the religion of Prophet Ibrahim عليه السلام. However, the most correct thing is that he did not follow any religion. Rather Allah had given him insight that led him to pious and good deeds so he did that which Allah approved.

As for his worship, it was made up of dhikr (remembrance of Allah) and physical effort, not of contemplation and reflection.

UMMI: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said to the angel, 'I am unread,' or ummi. He meant that he was unable to read well. Or, these words escaped his tongue out of fear on seeing an angel all of a sudden. He did not give this reply because he was an ummi and was really unable to read. It was not so. Umi is unread but it does not preclude him from reading after anyone prompts and reaches him, particularly if he is eloquent and intelligent. Or course, an ummi cannot read or copy what is written down by looking at it. According to the Qamoos, an umi is one who cannot write and read what is written.'

Some versions say that Jibril عليه السلام gave to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم a silken scripture that was studded with jewels. He asked him to read it but he said, "I do not know to read." He said that he could not see anything written down on the silken pages, 'What may I read?" Therefore, keeping this tradition before us, we can determine definitely the meaning of the words, 'I am unread' or "I do not know how to read."

When the angel squeezed the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, he felt pain because of the force applied. But, the aim of the angel was to transfer I the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم being the angelic light and in his heart awareness of wahy or revelation. This was meant to give the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم strength and power to bear the might of Divine revelation. This meaning and interpretation holds good if the Arabic word in the text is red (جهد) jahd. But, if it is read (جُهد) juhd then it will imply that the angel too had to endure great hardship.

WE CREATED EVERYTHING: These words of the Quran: He who created you (and everything). Make clear that you must not rely on your capacity and strength, or on someone else's help. Reliance must be placed on Allah alone in oil cases and help must be sought only from Him because He has created everyone. He alone is powerful over all things.

THE FIRST SURAH: Which of the surahs of the Quran was revealed first of all? It is evident from this hadith, and the majority of the ulama and exegetes hold that the surah al-Alaq (Iqra (اقرا) whose initial verses are quoted in this hadith was the first surah reveled. But, some scholars contend that surah al-Muddathhir was the first surah. This opinion is weak and so untenable. But, Mulla Ali Qari رحمه الله has reconciled the two opinions very adeptly. He said, "I say that the surah al-Alaq (العلق) is the first surah revealed while al-Muddaththir is the additional first surah." He means that after the first revelation with surah al-Alaq, the series of revelation was broken for some period. When it commenced again, the surah al-Muddaththir was the first revealed surah. In passing, it is pertinent to say that this is the opinion of those scholars who maintain that (بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم) is not part of the surah but is revealed to distinguish two different surahs, and to separate them.

PEN: The word pen could mean the one that obeyed Allah's Command and recorded all branches of knowledge from the first to the last and was the first means to write down all Divine Books. It could also mean the pen as we know it, which represents the pen of nature in the human world by which man enlarges on the knowledge and wisdom granted by Allah to disclose myriads of sciences.

Allah taught man whatever he knew not. It was beyond man to acquire knowledge of things that come into existence every moment. It is only the light of knowledge and wisdom that Allah has granted that raises him to the heights of learning.

It is possible that here man means the perfect, man, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم In this case, it refers to Allah's words:

وَعَلَّمَكَ مَا لَمْ تَكُنْ تَعْلَمُ وَكَانَ فَضْلُ اللّٰهِ عَلَيْكَ عَظِيْمًا

[And he has taught you what you know not Allah's bounty upon you is ever great]
(4:113)

FEARED FOR LIFE: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم feared for his life. This could be for one of many reasons. He found himself facing a new situation suddenly and worried whether he would manage to handle it. Would he be able to endure persecution at the hands of the people? He was worried that he would have to part from this native city and the vicinity of the ka'bah

SAYYIDAH KHADIJAH رحمها COMFORTED HIM: She recounted to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم his good qualities. He carried other people's burden and looked after his family. The Arabic word (كل) kall) stands for burden as well as family. Hence, the whole will read: one of your great attributes is that you spend on your family and words and carry the burden of their responsibilities willingly. You are not discouraged by the effort you have to make for this even if they sever ties of kinship with you.

Carrying burden of other people also includes spending on the poor, weak, orphans and widows.

She also said: You earn to help the poor and needy. But with a slight change of the vowels (from (ت of (تكسب) to (ت)) it would mean; you help the poor and needy to earn their living. However, the those in either case is the spend on pious work. Some people say that it means: 'You spend on the poor." They maintain that (معدوم) means "the poor only.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم helped people out of their difficulties. He cooperated with them in this matter. For example, if anyone was in debt or unable to pay the diyah[1] imposed on him then the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم get him out of trouble. These are the real difficulties (from the words (نوائب الحق) meaning natural ones. So, it is better and desired to help such an afflicted person who is naturally helpless. It anyone brings on himself an affliction by his own doings like by being spendthrift then to help him out of his predicament is not classed as a recommended deed.

Sayyiduna Khadijah رضی الله عنها recounted to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم his good habits. This is evidence that a person's god habits and noble character preserve him from falling into disaster and affliction. Allah grants peace and safety by virtue of these pious characteristics. This is why Sayyidah Khadijah رضی الله عنها spoke in this manner. She was very wise and foresighted. She was the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم companion for a long time as his wife and she was the first to believe in him and no one else shares with her this distinction.

We learn from this hadith that when reasoning demands it is allowed to praise anyone on his face. And, if anyone on his face, And, if anyone is fearful then must be comforted and old of means of peace and security.

This hadith reveals that the Prophet poverty was of his own liking and his own choice, not to his dislike and worry. Its true objective was generosity and compassion to the highest degree. We also learn that even before he become prophet, he possessed these good qualities. Thus, they were ingrained in him naturally and by birth.

WARAQH: Warqah ibn Nawfal was the paternal cousin of Sayyidah Khadijah رضی الله عنها. She was the daughter of Khuwaylid ibn Asad ibn Abdul Uzza. Waraqah was the son of Nawfal ibn Asad ibn Abdul Uzza. Waraqah belonged to the idolaters of Makah but had become a Christian during the jahiliyah. Then he gain mastery over the injil (Bible) and translated it into Arabic. With the advent of the signs of prophethood, when Sayyidah Khadijah رضی الله عنها took the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to him, waraqah had become very infirm and had lost his eyesight.

Sayyidah Khadijah رضی الله عنها described the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to Waraqha as his nephew. She did this out of respect for his old age otherwise he was not his nephew. Besides it was a custom among the Aras to call each other 'uncle' or 'nephew.'

NAMUS: The word namus is applied to the king's confident and trustworthy man. So on this basis, the people of the Book called Jibril عليه السلام, the namus. Some authorities say that the words namus is given to one who is trusted with good secret s while jamus to him who is a keeper of secrets of an evil nature.
Since Waraqah was a Christian it would have been more appropriate if he had described the Namus whom Allah had sent with revelation to Prophet Essa عليه السلام. But, he was biased and instead of mentioning Prophet Easa عليه السلام, he named Prophet Musa عليه السلام because he w a more illustrious Prophet from the point of view of amore compact Book and Shari'ah that were given to him.
The words of waraqah that he would help the Prophet if he were alive when his people opposed him prompt the ulama and exponents of ahadith to assert that had believed in the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, but, they differ on whether he was a sahabah or not. If his words and meeting relate to after the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم mission began and was announced then clearly waraqah will be called a shabi but if they relate to the very initial period of the disclosure of Prophethood, then Waraqah will not be called a sahabi.
Mulla Ali Qari رحمه الله has cited the Qamus to say that opinions differ on whether Waraqah was a believer and had embraced Islam.
After the first revelation mentioned in this hadith, establishing and disclosing his prophethood, there was a pause in the descent of revelation. Some authorities say that the pause last ed three years, some put it at six months and some at two months and a half.
Ibn Hajar رحمه الله writes that pause in receipt of revelation does not mean that Jibril عليه السلام, too stopped coming to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. the pause was only in the coming down of the Quran. Jibril عليه السلام continued to from but did not bring the Quran.
The wisdom in suspending the revelation was to eliminate completely the traces of fear with which the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was overcome after the first revelation. This was replaced by a desire and longing.

FIRST VERSES AFTER PAUSE WAS OVER

(٥٨٤٣) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ أَنَّهُ سَمِعَ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُحَدِّثُ عَنْ فَتْرَةِ الْوَحِيْ قَالَ فَبَيْنَا أَنَا أَمْشِيْ سَمِعْتُ صَوْتًا مِّنَ السَّمَاءِ فَرَفَعْتُ بَصَرِي فَإِذَا الْمَلَكُ الَّذِيْ جَاءَ نِيْ بِحِرَاءٍ قَاعِدٌ عَلٰى كُرْسِيٍّ بَيْنَ السَّمَاءِ وَالْأَرْضِ فَجُئِثْتُ مِنْهُ رُعْبًا حَتّٰى هَوَيْتُ إِلَى الْأَرْضِ فَجِئْتُ أَهْلِيْ فَقُلْتُ زَمِّلُوْنِيْ زَمِّلُوْنِيْ فَزَمَّلُوْنِيْ فَأَنْزَلَ اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى يٰأَيُّهَا الْمُدَّثِّرُ قُمْ فَأَنْذِرْ وَرَبَّكَ فَكَبِّرْ وَثِيَابَكَ فَطَهِّرْ وَالرُّجْزَ فَاهْجُرْ ثُمَّ حَمِيَ الْوَحْيُ وَتَتَابَعَ۔

5843. Sayyiduna Jabir رضى الله عنه narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger ()E) described the fathrat ul wahy (pause in the revelation). He said, "I was walking when I heard a voice from the heaven. I raised my eyes and, behold! There was the angel who had come to me at (the cave of) Hira. He was seated on a throne between heaven and earth. I was so very overawed that I fell down on the ground and returned to my family and said, 'wrap me up! Put a blanket over me" Then Allah, the Exalted, sent down:

يَآيُّهَا الْمُدَّثِّرُ ٥ قُمْ فَاَنْذِرْ ٥ وَرَبَّكَ فَكَبِّرْ ٥ وَثِيَابَكَ فَطَهِّرْ ٥ وَالرُّجْزَ فَاهْجُرْ

{O you enwrapped in your mantle, arise and warn! And your Lord do magnify, and your garments do purify, and defilement to shun] (74:1-5)
Thereafter, revelation became hot and care continuously."[1]

COMMENTARY: The words 'And warn (the creatures)' mean that he should warn the disbelievers of the punishment of hell. Perchance they night give up disbelief and idolatry and pursue the right path of faith and Islam. He was directed to give glad tidings of reward to the faithful so that they may be induced to do more of the good deeds.

And, he should magnify his Lord. He alone is the possessor of greatness and night. Hence, "regard Him as worthy of honour and prostrate yourself before Him. Do not associate anyone else with Him in greatness and might. If you are confronted with something from others then say 'Alahu Akbar (Allah is the Greatest) It is reported that on receiving this command, the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم called out Allah Akbar spontaneously. Then, Sayyidah Khadijah رضی الله عنها too raised the takbir (Allah Akbar).

He was overjoyed and satisfied. He was convinced that he had received those words as a revelation from Allah.

To keep garments pure is to keep them clean and preserve them from impurity. Some have said that it means to shun had habits and traits

The words 'to shun defilement' mean: keep away from polytheism and sin forever, constantly. '

It is also said that the narrator observed brevity and omitted to recite the next verses:

وَلَا تَمْنُنْ تَسْتَكْثِرُ ٥ وَلِرَبِّكَ فَاصْبِرْ

[And how not favour seeking more in gain! Show not favour seeking more in gain! And for the sake of your Lord, be patient!] (74:6-7)

The same tradition is narrated in Tafsir Madarik in the word of Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه in this way:

The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "I was on the mountain Hira when someone called me, 'O Muhammad! Surely, you are Allah's Messenger.' I looked around and then raised my eyes and behold! The angel had called me. He was sitting on a throne between heaven and earth. I was startled on seeing him and I went back to Khadijah. I asked her to put a blanket over me. She wrapped me with a blanket. Then Jibril علیه السلام come and recited to me:

يَآيُّهَا الْمُدَّثِّرُ الخ

The rest of the hadith is as narrated previously.

THE MANNER OF THE REVELATION

فَيُفْصِمُ عَنِّي وَقَدْ وَعَيْتُ عَنْهُ مَا قَالَ وَاَحْيَانًا يَتَمَثَّلُ لِي الْمَلَكُ رَجُلًا فَيُكَلِّمُنِي فَاَعِي مَا يَقُوْلُ قَالَتْ عَائِشَةُ وَلَقَدْ رَاَيْتُهُ يَنْزِلُ عَلَيْهِ الْوَحْيُ فِي الْيَوْمِ الشَّدِيْدِ الْبَرْدِ فَيَفْصِمُ عَنْهُ وَاِنَّ جَبِيْنَهُ لَيَتَفَصَّدُ عَرَقًا۔ (متفق عليه)

Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا said, Even on a day of severe cold. I saw that when revelation come to him and when it ended, perspiration poured down his forehead."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم described the first kind of revelation of very severe. It was difficult to pick its words, meaning and objective, become the articulation was in an uncustomary manner. The other from was in human speech and easy to understood.

ANGEL IS HUMAN FORM:when Jibril علیہ السلام come in human form, he generally took the appearance of the shabi, Diyyah Kalbi رحمہ اللہ.

COM PATIBILITY:the ulama say that in order to benefit and to gain more, it is essential that the speaker and the listener should be compatible with one another so that one is not scared of the other. Since Jibril's علیہ السلام angelic form and spiritual form overwhelmed the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, so the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was brought out of his human form for some time. The result was that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم gained compatibility with Jibril علیہ السلام on the angelic level. This is the first kind of revelation to which the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم referred. Sometimes it was the other way about and Jibril علیہ السلام was brought out of the angelic world into the human world for some time. In this kind they were compatible on the human level. This is the second kind of revelation which the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم described.

However, this piece is correct if the ringing of a bell (صلصلة الجرس) to which the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم has referred is the sound of the revelation itself. This is deduced form the hadith. But, some authorities say that the sound resembling the ringing of a bell was the voice of Jibril علیہ السلام himself. It was heard from him before he conveyed the revelation so that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم might be prepared to receive the revelation and he may resolve to hear only the words of revelation and nothing else may get into his hearing. This is why the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم found the first kind of revelation every taxing. All his energy and mental powers were devoted solely to receiving the revelation.

As for Sayyidah Ayshah's رضی اللہ عنہا saying that after revelation ended, the Prophet perspired profusely, this seems to happen at the end of the first kind of revelation. However, it is possible that this happened after both kind of revelation ended.

PROPHET'S صلى الله عليه وسلم CONDITION WHEN REVELATION WAS RECEIVED

(٥٨٤٥) وَعَنْ عُبَادَةَ بْنِ الصَّامِتِ قَالَ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا أُنْزِلَ عَلَيْهِ الْوَحْيُ كُرِبَ لِذٰلِكَ وَتَرَبَّدَ وَجْهُهُ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ نَكَسَ رَأْسَهُ وَنَكَسَ أَصْحَابُهُ رُؤُسَهُمْ فَلَمَّا أُتْلِيَ عَنْهُ رَفَعَ رَأْسَهُ (رواه مسلم)

5845. Sayyiduna Ubadah Ibn Samit رضى الله عنه said that when revelation came down to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم he was worried because of that and his face changed colour and he (looked) stern.

According to another version: (When revelation descended in him) the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم lowered his head and his sahabah رضى الله عنهم lowered his head and his sahabah رضى الله عنهم lowered their heads (meaning, those of them who were around). When it ceased to come down on him, he raised his head (and they followed suit).[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet's worry on receiving the revelation was on account of the responsibility placed on him thereby. He had to retain it is his mind verbatim and then he had to pass it on to other people. This responsibility exhausted him. It is for this reason that Allah says:

لَا تُحَرِّكْ بِهٖ لِسَانَكَ لِتَعْجَلَ بِهٖ إِنَّ عَلَيْنَا جَمْعَهٗ وَقُرْاٰنَهٗ

{(O Prophet) Move not your tongue therewith to make haste with it (the Quran to retain it). Surely upon us rests the collection thereof and the reciting thereof.} (75:16-17)

Or, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was upset and worried because of the verses of the Quran warning of punishment. He thought of his ummah and how they will fare.

The Sahabah رضى الله عنهم also lowered their heads. Perhaps it was because of their associate ion with him to such an extent that they naturally got the same sentiments that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was experiencing. Or, they saw him lowering his head, so emulated him and lowered their heads too.

THE FIRST INVITATION TO ISLAM

(٥٨٤٦) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ لَمَّا نَزَلَتْ وَأَنْذِرْ عَشِيْرَتَكَ الْأَقْرَبِيْنَ خَرَجَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حَتّٰى صَعِدَ الصَّفَا فَجَعَلَ يُنَادِيْ يَا بَنِيْ فِهْرٍ يَا بَنِيْ عَدِيٍّ لِبُطُوْنِ قُرَيْشٍ حَتّٰى اجْتَمَعُوْا فَجَعَلَ الرَّجُلُ إِذَا لَمْ يَسْتَطِعْ أَنْ يَّخْرُجَ أَرْسَلَ رَسُوْلًا لِيَنْظُرَ مَا هُوَ فَجَاءَ أَبُوْ لَهَبٍ وَقُرَيْشٌ فَقَالَ أَرَأَيْتُمْ إِنْ أَخْبَرْتُكُمْ أَنَّ خَيْلًا تَخْرُجُ مِنْ صَفْحِ هٰذَا الْجَبَلِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ أَنَّ خَيْلًا تَخْرُجُ بِالْوَادِيْ تُرِيْدُ أَنْ تُغِيْرَ عَلَيْكُمْ أَكُنْتُمْ مُصَدِّقِيَّ قَالُوْا نَعَمْ مَا جَرَّبْنَا عَلَيْكَ إِلَّا صِدْقًا قَالَ فَإِنِّيْ نَذِيْرٌ لَّكُمْ بَيْنَ يَدَيْ عَذَابٍ شَدِيْدٍ قَالَ أَبُوْ لَهَبٍ تَبًّا لَكَ أَلِهٰذَا جَمَعْتَنَا فَنَزَلَتْ تَبَّتْ يَدَا أَبِيْ لَهَبٍ وَتَبَّ (متفق عليه)

5846. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه narrated that the verse:

{And worn your clan the nearest kin.} (26:214)

When it was revealed, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم went out and ascended (the mount) As-Safa. There he called, "O Banu Fhr! O Banu Adi!" (In this way), he called all the clans of the Quraysh till they had assembled, so much so that if anyone could not come out, he sent a representative to find out what it was about. Abu Lahab and (all) the Qurysh had come. Then he asked. "What do you say: were I to tell you that cavaliers were approaching from the side of this mountain" - or, according to a version: "in the wadi with intention to make a raid on you, will you believe me?" They said, "Yes we have found you to be truthful always." He said, "(Listen!) I am a warner to you of a harsh punishment awaiting (you)." Abu Lahab exclaimed. "May you break you hands! In this for which you brought us together?" On that, a revelation come down:

تَبَّتْ يَدَا أَبِي لَهَبٍ وَتَبَّ

{Perished are the hands of Abu Lahab and perished is he}[1] (111:1)

COMMENTARY: The word (يد) 'hands' is either superficial or means the entire body. Normally, hands represent the limbs of a person. There is another example in the Quran:

ذٰلِكَ بِمَا قَدَّمَتْ يَدَاكَ

{All this is due to what your hands sent ahead...} (22:10)

Some traditions mention that Abu Lahab had a stone in each hand at that time. He become furious on hearing the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and threw the stones at the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. In this case, the verse would mean:

{May the hands of Abu Lahab perish and may he perish!} (111:1)

FROM MA'ARIFUL QURAN: Abu Lahab (father of flame) was nickname of Abd ul Uzza, a son of Abdul Muttalib. His name smacks of paganism.[2]

FATE OF THE PERSECUTORS

(٥٨٤٧) وَعَنْ عَبْدِ اللّٰهِ بْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ قَالَ بَيْنَمَا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُصَلِّي عِنْدَ الْكَعْبَةِ وَجَمْعُ قُرَيْشٍ فِيْ مَجَالِسِهِمْ إِذْ قَالَ قَائِلٌ أَيُّكُمْ يَقُوْمُ إِلَى جَزُوْرِ آلِ فُلَانٍ فَيَعْمَدُ إِلَى فَرْثِهَا وَدَمِهَا وَسَلَاهَا ثُمَّ يُمْهِلُهُ حَتّٰى إِذَا سَجَدَ وَضَعَهُ بَيْنَ كَتِفَيْهِ فَانْبَعَثَ أَشْقَاهُمْ فَلَمَّا سَجَدَ وَضَعَهُ بَيْنَ كَتِفَيْهِ وَثَبَتَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ سَاجِدًا فَضَحِكُوْا حَتّٰى مَالَ بَعْضُهُمْ عَلٰى بَعْضٍ مِنَ الضِّحْكِ فَانْطَلَقَ مُنْطَلِقٌ إِلٰى فَاطِمَةَ فَأَقْبَلَتْ تَسْعٰى وَثَبَتَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ سَاجِدًا حَتّٰى أَلْقَتْهُ عَنْهُ وَأَقْبَلَتْ عَلَيْهِمْ تَسُبُّهُمْ فَلَمَّا قَضٰى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الصَّلٰوةَ قَالَ اللّٰهُمَّ عَلَيْكَ بِقُرَيْشٍ ثَلٰثًا وَكَانَ إِذَا دَعٰى دَعٰى ثَلَاثًا وَإِذَا سَأَلَ سَأَلَ ثَلٰثًا اَللّٰهُمَّ عَلَيْكَ بِعَمْرِو بْنِ هِشَامٍ وَعُتْبَةَ بْنِ رَبِيْعَةَ وَشَيْبَةَ ابْنِ رَبِيْعَةَ وَالْوَلِيْدِ بْنِ عُتْبَةَ وَأُمَيَّةَ بْنِ خَلَفٍ وَعُقْبَةَ بْنِ أَبِيْ مُعَيْطٍ وَعُمَارَةَ بْنِ الْوَلِيْدِ قَالَ عَبْدُ اللّٰهِ فَوَاللّٰهِ لَقَدْ رَأَيْتُهُمْ صَرْعٰى يَوْمَ بَدْرٍ ثُمَّ سُحِبُوْا إِلَى الْقَلِيْبِ قَلِيْبِ

بَدْرٍ ثُمَّ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَ أُتْبِعَ أَصْحَابُ الْقَلِيْبِ لَعْنَةً۔ (متفق عليه)

5847. Sayyiduna Abdullahibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ narrated: while Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was offering salah in the ka'ah and the (chief of the) Quraysh were assembled there, one of them suggested, "which of you will get up and go to (that neighborhood to) the sacrificial camel of so and so family, get its entrails, its blood, its skin over the fetus and wait for him to prostrate himself, then put all that on his shoulders?"

The most wretched of them (Uqbah ibn Abu Mu'ayt or Abu Jahl) went off (brought all the filth). When the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم prostrated himself, he put that between his shoulders. He remained in prostration and they laughed their hearts out falling on each other. Someone rushed out and informed Fatimah رضی اللہ عنہ. She came hurriedly. He was in prostration till she threw the filth away from him turned to them and gave them a piece of her mind.

When Allah's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم finished his salah, he prayed thrice:

اَللّٰهُمَّ عَلَيْكَ بِقُرَيْشٍ

"O Allah (I complain to you about the quraysh ruin them.."

When he supplicated Allah, he repeated it thrice and when the asked, he did it thrice. He prayed:

"O Allah, ruin Amr ibn Hisham, Utbah ibn Rabi'ah,.Shaybah ibn Rabi'ah, Walid ibn Utbah, Umayyah ibn Khalaf, Uqbah ibn Abu Mu'ayt and Umarah ibn Walid."

Abdullah رضی اللہ عنہ added: By Allah, I did see them lying face down were dragged to the well -the well of Badr.

Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The who are thrown in the well are accused."[1]

COMMENTARY: The scholars of the hadith say that the wretched man who had volunteered to throw rubbish on the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was Abu Jahl.

It is also reported that one of them had pointed out to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم offering the salah and remarked:

الا ينتظرون الى هٰذا المرائى

"Will you not look at this show off?"

Sayyidah Fatimah رضی اللہ عنہا was very young when this happened. When she was born the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was forty-one years old. She was bold even at her young age and came swiftly to help the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم she removed the filth from the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم shoulder and then took the chiets of the Quraysh to task. None of them dared to stop her.

The names that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم took and cursed them were the worst enemies of Allah's religion and His Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. They were the chiefs of the quraysh and were in the forefront to persecute the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. But, he remained patient. Rather, he persevered for a long time, but when Allah decreed their downfall, he cursed them. Each of them met the evil consequence of his doing.

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم initially told his sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم that they who were thrown into the well are accursed. Then he addressed the wretched ones and said, "O denizens of the well, have you found the promise of your Lord true? Indeed, I did find the promise He made to me to be true."

These concluding words of the hadith are not reproduced here but have been quoted in a hadith in the Book of Jihad.

When we say that eth chiefs of the Quraysh net this fate, we means most of them, some of them, like Umrah ibn Walid, did not participate in the Battle of Badr. He died in Ethiopia. Uqbah ibn Mu'ayt managed to keep away from the Battle of Badr but was latter consigned to death very painfully. Umayyah ibn Khalaf was killed in the Battle of Badr but his corpse had swollen to such an extent that he could not be dragged to the well because of its weight. These things may be read in books of seerah and history.

IMPURITY & SALAH: When the idolaters threw impurity on the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, he did not abandon his salah but he completed it. The reason is that till then blood and such things as well as the slaughter of the idolaters was not prohibited. So the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم salah was not voided. The same things applied to wine before it was prohibited. If any of it fell on clothing, they could be worn to offer salah which was valid.

PERSEVERANCE IN THE FACE OF HARSHEST PERSECUTION

(٥٨٤٨) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ اَنَّهَا قَالَتْ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ هَلْ اَتٰى عَلَيْكَ يَوْمٌ كَانَ اَشَدَّ مِنْ يَوْمِ اُحُدٍ فَقَالَ لَقَدْ لَقِيْتُ مِنْ قَوْمِكِ وَكَانَ اَشَدَّ مَا لَقِيْتُ مِنْهُمْ يَوْمَ الْعَقَبَةِ إِذْ عَرَضْتُ نَفْسِيْ عَلَى ابْنِ عَبْدِ يَالَيْلَ بْنِ كُلَالٍ فَلَمْ يُجِبْنِيْ إِلٰى مَا اَرَدْتُ فَانْطَلَقْتُ وَاَنَا مَهْمُوْمٌ عَلٰى وَجْهِيْ فَلَمْ اَسْتَفِقْ إِلَّا بِقَرْنِ الثَّعَالِبِ فَرَفَعْتُ رَأْسِيْ فَإِذَا اَنَا بِسَحَابَةٍ قَدْ اَظَلَّتْنِيْ فَنَظَرْتُ فَإِذَا فِيْهَا جِبْرَئِيْلُ فَنَادَانِيْ فَقَالَ إِنَّ اللّٰهَ قَدْ سَمِعَ قَوْلَ قَوْمِكَ وَمَا رَدُّوْا عَلَيْكَ وَقَدْ بَعَثَ إِلَيْكَ مَلَكَ الْجِبَالِ لِتَاْمُرَهُ بِمَا شِئْتَ فِيْهِمْ قَالَ فَنَادَانِيْ مَلَكُ الْجِبَالِ فَسَلَّمَ عَلَيَّ ثُمَّ قَالَ يَا مُحَمَّدُ إِنَّ اللّٰهَ قَدْ سَمِعَ قَوْلَ قَوْمِكَ وَاَنَا مَلَكُ الْجِبَالِ وَقَدْ بَعَثَنِيْ رَبُّكَ إِلَيْكَ لِتَاْمُرَنِيْ بِاَمْرِكَ إِنْ شِئْتَ اَنْ اُطْبِقَ عَلَيْهِمُ الْاَخْشَبَيْنِ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بَلْ اَرْجُوْا اَنْ يُّخْرِجَ اللّٰهُ مِنْ اَصْلَابِهِمْ مَنْ يَّعْبُدُ اللّٰهَ وَحْدَهُ لَا يُشْرِكُ بِهٖ شَيْئًا۔ (متفق عليه)

5848. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها narrated that she asked. "O Messenger of Allah, have you faced a day more severe than the day of Uhud?" He said, "indeed, I did face much (persecution) from your people, the severest that I faced from them was on the day of Al-Aqabah. I had came to Ibn Abd Yall ibn Kulal (and presented to him Islam) but he did not accept what I presented. So, I set out (from him), grieved and (walked ahead) following my nose unmindful of my bearing until I came to Qarn ath-Tha'alib (where I regained my senses). A cloud overshadowed me. And, I looked and behold! Jibril عليه السلام was inside. He called me and said, 'Surely, Allah has heard what your people have said. He has heard their rejection of your call. He has sent to you the angel of the mountains that you may command him to do what you wish about them.'

Then, the angel of the mountains called me and offered me salaam (greeting) He said, 'O Muhammad, indeed, Allah has heard what you people have said, I am the angel of the mountains. Allah has sent me to you that if you wish, you may command me to cover them with (the two mountains) Al-Almshabayn. (inverting them over them)."

Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said further that he said to him, "Rather, I (do not wish them to perish, but I) hope that Allah may raise form their loins such people who will worship Allah alone and will not associate anything with Him (They will not associate with Him neither in an unseen manner nor openly.)"[1]

COMMENTARY: Aqabah is the pass between two mountains. Here, however, it is the place in Mina. The jamarat ul-aqabah is face here by the pilgrims.

It was the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم practice to invite people to Islam during the pilgrimage and when they gathered on occasions and festivals. He conveyed to them Allah's message, exhorted them to do good and impressed on the that they should abstain from evil. He also warned them of Allah's punishment.

He did the some thing at Al-Aqabah before a number of people who had gathered there. He invited all tribes to embrace Islam. Then he came to Banu Thaqif for the same purpose and preached to their chief. Ibn Abd Yalil. Not only did they declined to listen to him, they set their rogues after him. They harassed and reveled. Him. Most of all, they hurled stones at him causing him to bleed profusely.

On the one hand, they turned down the invitation to religion and on the other they mercilessly persecuted the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم causing him to bleed all over the body. This treatment confused him terribly. He lost his way and forge where he was headed, In this state of utter perturbation he walked aimlessly hither and thither. Gradually, as he calmed down, he realized that he was at Qarn ath-Tha'alib. This place is the miqat for the pilgrims from Najd (where they assume the ihram or sacred state of the pilgrims). It is also called qarn manazil.

It was here that Jibril عليه السلام and the angel of the mountains met the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم with Allah's message. But, in spite of having faced severe torment at their hands, he showed mercy. He pleaded that perhaps their offspring would believe and become Muslims.

WOUNDED AT UHUD

(٥٨٤٩) وَعَنْ أَنَسٍ أَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كُسِرَتْ رَبَاعِيَتُهُ يَوْمَ أُحُدٍ وَشُجَّ فِيْ رَأْسِهِ فَجَعَلَ يَسْلُتُ الدَّمَ عَنْهُ وَيَقُوْلُ كَيْفَ يُفْلِحُ قَوْمٌ شَجُّوْا رَأْسَ نَبِيِّهِمْ وَكَسَرُوْا رَبَاعِيَتَهُ. (رواه مسلم)

5849. Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه narrated that at the battle of Uhud one of the four teeth (called the rabaiyah) of Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم was broken and he suffered a wound on his head. As he wiped off blood from himself, he continued to say. "How may a people hope to prosper after having sounded the head of their prophet and broken one of his raba'iyah?"[2]

COMMENTARY: The rabi'yah are the two upper and two lower teeth between the front (thnayah) and anyab (canine) teeth. The right of the two lower teeth of the Prophet E) was broken. His lower lip too was cut The tooth did not dislodge completely but was chipped. The man who had struck the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and done this harm was Uqbah ibn Abu Waqqas, brother of the well known sahabi Sa'd ibn Abu Waqqas رضی الله عنه. Opinions differ on whether Uqbah embraced Islam and become a sahabi or not. It is said that everyone of his descendants lost his front tooth when he attained majority without any apparent reason. Some versions mention that the Prophet's forehead was wounded instead of his head. It is also reported that precisely when the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was hurt, a roc dropped from the mountain on the man who had hit the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and he was rendered to piece.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم also suffered other hardships in the Battle of Uhud. The infidels had dug many trenches on the battlefield and had concealed them with hay and grass. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم fell in one of those with his horse. Sayyiduna Talhah ibn Ubaydullah ran up to him and carried him out of the pit. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said (اوجبه طلحه) 'Talha has made his admittance to paradise certain."

Also, the helmet he was wearing broke and two of his edges pierced the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم cheek. They were deeply set so that when Sayyiduna Abu Ubaydah Ibn Tarrah رضى الله عنه pulled them with his teeth, his teeth broke and dislodged. Sayyiduna Maalik ibnSinan رضى الله عنه stepped forward and sucked the blood from the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم wound until it was cleaned. The prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم prayed for him too, "He who sucked my blood as it poured and thereby cleaned it is assured of paradise."

Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه brought water in his helmet to lean the wound on his head. Sayyidah Fatimah رضى الله عنها took a piece of saddle cloth, burnt it down and filed the wound with its ashes to stop bleeding.

Some traditions state that when the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم temperament become uneasy because of the wounds, as human nature does, this verse was revealed:

لَيْسَ لَكَ مِنَ الْأَمْرِ شَيْءٌ أَوْ يَتُوبَ عَلَيْهِمْ أَوْ يُعَذِّبَهُمْ فَإِنَّهُمْ ظَالِمُونَ

(Not for you (but for Allah), is the decision: whether He turn in mercy to them, or punish them: for they are indeed wrong doers} (3:128)

It is reported that when the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم wounds bled he began to wipe them to prevent any drop of it falling on the ground. He said at the same time, 'If even one drop of my blood falls on the ground then no one can prevent. Heavenly punishment from descending on the disbelievers."

According to one tradition, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم received seventy blows with the sword on his face but Allah made all those strikes ineffective.

ALLAH PUNISHES ONE WHO IS KILLED BY HIS MESSENGER صلى الله عليه وسلم

(٥٨٥٠) وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اشْتَدَّ غَضَبُ اللّٰهِ عَلَى قَوْمٍ فَعَلُوْا بِنَبِيِّهِ يُشِيْرُ إِلَى رَبَاعِيَّتِهِ اِشْتَدَّ غَضَبُ اللّٰهِ عَلَى رَجُلٍ يَقْتُلُهُ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ۔ (متفق عليه)

5850.Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Allah's severest anger is on those people who did this their prophet (and he pointed to his tooth broken by the infidels in the Battle of Uhud). Allah's severest anger is on a man whom Allah's Messenger kills in Allah's path."[1]

COMMENTARY: Anyone killed in jihad by Allah's Messenger will be subject to Allah's Messenger severest punishment. This condition of jihad excludes one who is punished under a prescribed punishment (huddood) or retaliation (Qisas). Such a one does not fall order he purview of this warning.

As for he words 'Allah's Messenger they could refer to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم himself or to all the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

If anyone is killed by a Messenger of Allah then it is a clear evidence that he is not eligible to be forgiven under any circumstances what so ever and no latitude can be given to him. He was deserving of being killed and is liable to be sent to hell.

THE FIRST REVELATION

(۵۸۵۱) عَنْ يَحْيَى بْنِ اَبِيْ كَثِيْرٍ قَالَ سَاَلْتُ اَبَاسَلَمَةَ بْنِ عَبْدِالرَّحْمٰنِ عَنْ اَوَّلِ مَانَزَلَ مِنَ الْقُرْاٰنِ قَالَ يٰۤاَيُّهَا الْمُدَّثِّرُ قُلْتُ يَقُوْلُوْنَ اِقْرَاْ بِاسْمِ رَبِّكَ قَالَ اَبُوْسَلَمَةَ سَاَلْتُ جَابِرًا عَنْ ذٰلِكَ وَقُلْتُ لَهٗ مِثْلَ الَّذِيْ قُلْتَ لِيْ فَقَالَ لِيْ جَابِرٌ لَا اُحَدِّثُكَ اِلَّا بِمَا حَدَّثَنَا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ جَاوَرْتُ بِحِرَاۤءٍ شَهْرًا فَلَمَّا قَضَيْتُ جِوَارِيْ هَبَطْتُ فَنُوْدِيْتُ عَنْ يَمِيْنِيْ فَلَمْ اَرَ شَيْئًا وَنَظَرْتُ عَنْ شِمَالِيْ فَلَمْ اَرَ شَيْئًا وَنَظَرْتُ عَنْ خَلْفِيْ فَلَمْ اَرَ شَيْئًا فَرَفَعْتُ رَاْسِيْ فَرَاَيْتُ شَيْئًا فَاَتَيْتُ خَدِيْجَةَ فَقُلْتُ دَثِّرُوْنِيْ فَدَثَّرُوْنِيْ وَصَبُّوْا عَلَيَّ مَاۤءً بَارِدًا فَنَزَلَتْ يٰۤاَيُّهَا الْمُدَّثِّرُ قُمْ فَاَنْذِرْ وَرَبَّكَ فَكَبِّرْ وَثِيَابَكَ فَطَهِّرْ وَالرُّجْزَ فَاهْجُرْ وَذٰلِكَ قَبْلَ اَنْ تُفْرَضَ الصَّلٰوةُ (متفق عليه)

5851. Sayyiduna Yahya ibn Abu Kathir رحمه الله said, 'I asked Abu Salamah ibn Abdur Rahman رضى الله عنه about the first revelation from the Quran. He said, 'It was (يايها المدثر) O you enwrapped...(74)'

I said, 'They say that it was (اقرا باسم ربک) Recite, in the name of your Lord...(96:1-5)

Abu Salamah رضى الله عنه said, 'I had asked Jabir رضى الله عنه about that and had said to him like what you have now told me (because he too had said that it was Muddaththir). So, Jabir said to me that he would not narrate to me except what Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم had told them. He had said:

[I stayed for one month in Hira. On finishing the period of stay. I descended. I was called. So I looked to my right, but found nothing. Then, I looked to my left, but did not see anything. Then, I looked behind me, but saw nothing. So, I raised my head, I saw something (and was frightened, for, it was an angel). I went to Khadijah and said: wrap me up They wrapped me up and poured cold water over me (to calm me down. Then, this (revelation) descended:

يٰۤاَيُّهَا الْمُدَّثِّرُ قُمْ فَاَنْذِرْ وَرَبَّكَ فَكَبِّرْ وَثِيَابَكَ فَطَهِّرْ وَالرُّجْزَ فَاهْجُرْ

{O you enwrapped in your mantle! trise and warn! And your Lord do magnify, and your garment do purify, and defilement do shun!} (74:105)]

That was before salah was prescribed.'[1]

COMMENTARY: It seems that the narrated had forgotten the true position and the background of the question. This is why he has narrated the hadith in this way. It is a fact that the first revelation was (یاایها المدثر). Of course, after that, revelation was suspended for some time and when it was resumed, the first portion was (اقراباسم ربک) surah al-Muddaththir. This is as in the hadith of Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا (# 5841). The sura al-Mudaththir was the first revelation after the pause (or fatrah). It is not really the first but first when revelation was resumed.

We have also seen the hadith of Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ (# 5844) That also makes it clear that surah al muddaththir is the first revelation after the fatrah (pause) and, overall, it is the second.

We might also say that the narrator of this hadith, under discussion had chosen to be brief. He omitted to mention (اقراباسم ربک) surah al-Alaq and only mentioned what happened after the fatrah or pause.

CHAPTER – XXII

THE SIGNS OF PROPHETHOOD بَابُ عَلَامَاتِ النُّبُوَّةِ

The word (علامات) in the caption is the plural of (علامة) which means 'a sign,' particularly one which is posted at the edge of a road. It is a sign post guiding travelers to their destination. Two other words (معلم) and (علم) also mean the same thing.

However, the word (علامات) is used here to mean the signs that speak of the prophethood of Prophet (Muhammad) صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. They point out to his personal attribute s, manners and peculiarities, to his merits and his description, and to his deeds and his circumstance. And sensible person may compare them with his life and derive the conclusion that he is, indeed, the Prophet and Messenger.

The description of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم in the previous heavenly Books are also of the some category.

MIRACLES: All the miracles that were performed at his hands are sign of his prophethood. Therefore, we cannot understand why the compiler of Mishkah has created two chapters:

(i) Signs of Prophethood.

How has he differentiated between the 'signs' and the 'miracles'? Both are made up of uncustomary signs and happening.

The exponents of the Mishkah have been unable to decipher a sound reasoning for this.

SECTION I الفصل الاول

SPLITTING OF THE HEART

(٥٨٥٢) عَنْ اَنَسٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَتَاهُ جِبْرَئِيْلُ وَهُوَ يَلْعَبُ مَعَ الْغِلْمَانِ فَاَخَذَهُ فَصَرَعَهُ فَشَقَّ عَنْ قَلْبِهِ فَاسْتَخْرَجَ مِنْهُ عَلَقَةً قَالَ هٰذَا حَظُّ الشَّيْطَانِ مِنْكَ ثُمَّ غَسَلَهُ فِيْ طَسْتٍ مِنْ ذَهَبٍ بِمَاءِ زَمْزَمَ ثُمَّ لَاَمَهُ وَاَعَادَهُ فِيْ مَكَانِهِ وَجَاءَ الْغِلْمَانُ يَسْعَوْنَ اِلٰى اُمِّهِ يَعْنِيْ ظِئْرَهُ فَقَالُوْا اِنَّ مُحَمَّدًا قَدْ

قِيْلَ فَاسْتَقْبَلُوْهُ وَهُوَ مُنْتَقِعُ اللَّوْنِ قَالَ أَنَسٌ فَكُنْتُ أَرَى أَثَرَ الْمِخْيَطِ فِيْ صَدْرِهِ (رواه مسلم)

5852. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that (this account concerns the childhood of) Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم (when he was with hi faster mother and) was playing with (other) children Jibril () come and took hold of him, threw him down (face up) and split open his heart. Then he took out of it a clot of blood and said, "This is the devil's portion in you." (Now, the devil will have no opportunity to try to overpower you). Then he washed the heart with the water of zamzam in a gold dish, mended it and replaced it where it was. The children (panicked and) ran to his mother, meaning his faster-mother (Halimah) رضی اللہ عنہ and exclaimed, "Muhammad has been killed." They (meaning Halimah رضی اللہ عنہ and her neighbours) come to him and found him looking worried (but otherwise sound).

Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ added. :"I used to observe the mark of the stitches of his chest.[1] and the translation:

COMMENTARY: In the jami ul-Usool, the words (استخرجہ) 'brought out' are found after (قلبہ) 'from his heart.' The entire sentence is:

فشق عن قلبه واستخرجه فاستخرج منهُ علقه

"Then he split open his (breast from near his) heart and took out the heart and from it a clot of blood."

The gold dish was used to recognize the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم greatness and nobility. As for the prohibition and dislike of the use of gold, it is in this world. The objective of the prohibition is to put people to a trial. There are many things in this life from which they must abstain in order that they might go through a trial. Those who emerge successful will get the some things as reward in the hereafter. Not only will gold be permitted in the hereafter but all the vessels of paradise will also be of gold. The splitting of the breast of heart on this occasion or on the night of ascension does not concern this world. Rather, it concerns the unseen world and the circumstances of the next world. Moreover, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had not used the vessel of gold himself. Rather, the angels had used it. They are not subject to commands and rulings as we are. Moreover, this event portions the time when commands and rulings had not been imposed. Lawfulness or unlawfulness from the point of Shari'ah had not been made known.

This hadith is evidence that the water of zamzam is the best of all water. It is better than the water of paradise, too. But better than zamzam is the water that bubbled out of the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم fingers a miracle because it came out from the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم fingers and had the effects of his noble body. On the other hand, the water of zamzam was discovered after Prophet Isma'il علیہ السلام rubbed his heals on the ground (or, after Jibril علیہ السلام struck his wing).

This hadith and others like it are such that they must be accepted as they are. It is neither allowed nor necessary to try to find explanations are far fetched meanings for them. Even if human mind cannot grasp them, it is enough that they concern the working of the Omnipotent Allah, and the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم has informed us about the. His truthfulness can never be questioned. He is the truthful whose truth is confirmed.

WHY WAS IT DONE: It was Divine wisdom to have the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم unseen inside bright and pur and his heart fine and radiant so that there should be no obstacle to absorbing the light of Divine revelation. Also, his mind and heart should be prepared to bear the burden of the responsibility of messenger ship, and the devil's promptings should have no influence on him. Also, the devil may be unsuccessful in making him negligent and may despair of doing that. This is clear from the words of Jibril علیہ السلام:

هٰذا حظ الشيطان منك

"This is the devil's portion in you."

FOUR TIMES HEART WAS SPLIT: The Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم heart was split four times.

(2) When he was ten years old.
(3) When prophethood was bestowed on him.
(4) On the night of mi'raj (or the ascension to the heavens when Jibril علیہ السلام came to take him.

OTHER PROPHETS TOO: The ulama differ on whether the heart was taken out and washed of all the Prophets; علیہ السلام or only of Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. The tradition of Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ about the taboot and the sakinah discloses that there was (among other souvenirs) a dish in the taboot in which the hearts of the Prophet علیہ السلام were washed. This tradition upholds the view of those ulama who say that, like the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, the breasts of other Prophet علیہ السلام were split and their hearts were washed.

(٥٨٥٣) وَعَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ سَمُرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنِّيْ لَا عْرِفُ حَجَرًا بِمَكَّةَ كَانَ يُسَلِّمُ عَلَيَّ قَبْلَ اَنْ اُبْعَثَ إِنِّيْ لَاعْرِفُهُ الْاٰنَ۔ (رواه مسلم)

5853. Sayyiduna Jabir ibn Samurah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Indeed, I know a stone in Makkah that used to greet me (with salaam) even before I was assigned the mission (of prophethood). And, indeed, I recognise it now (too)."[1]

COMMENTARY: Whenever the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم passed by that particular stone, he heard from it a voice, saying (السلام علیک یارسول اللہ) "As-salaam u alaykum, O Prophet of Allah" Some scholars of hadith say that the stone is the hajr aswad (Black Stone - in the ka'bah). Some others say that is the (زقاق حجر) zaqqaq ul hajr. It is still found in Makkah. It lies at a place between the Masjid Haram and the home of Sayyidah Khadijah رضی اللہ عنہ

Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said to her. "After Jibril (علیہ السلام) came to me with tidings of my prophethood, any tree or stone that I come across, greeted me: (السلام علیک یارسول اللہ) "As salaamu alayka (peace be on you) "Messenger of Allah."

SPLITTING OF THE MOON

[1] Muslim # 2-2277, Tirmidhi # 3624 (3645)

الْقَمَرَ شِقَّتَيْنِ حَتَّى رَأَوْا حِرَآءَ بَيْنَهُمَا۔ (متفق عليه)

5854. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ said that the People of Makkah (the disbelievers) asked Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم to show them a sign. He showed them the moon in two pieces (after pointing to it with his hand) so much so that they could see Hira between them.[1]

(٥٨٥٥) وَعَنِ ابْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ قَالَ انْشَقَّ الْقَمَرُ عَلَى عَهْدِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِرْقَتَيْنِ فِرْقَةٌ فَوْقَ الْجَبَلِ وَفِرْقَةٌ دُوْنَهُ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِشْهَدُوْا۔ (متفق عليه)

5855. Sayyiduna Ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that in the time of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم the moon was split (from the middle) in two halves, one half was above the mountain and the other below it. Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Tastify (to my prophethood)."[2]

COMMENTARY: The word 'testify' is replaced by some 'came and look at this miracle' in this case (شهدوا) will be said to be derived from (شهادہ) instead of (شهود).

There is no doubt whatsoever in this miracle of the splitting of the moon. A large number of the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم have narrated it, as also innumerable tabi'un. Thereafter, countless ulama and scholars of hadith have transmitted the traditions.

Allamah Ibn Subki رحمہ اللہ has written in sharh Makhtasar Ibn Hajib that the tradition of the splitting of the moon a mutawatar. Bukhari, Muslim and others have transmitted it through so many lines of transmission that there can be no doubt about it at all. Besides, the Quran, too, it is greatest evidence. The exegetes say unanimously that it is confirmed by these verses:

اِقْتَرَبَتِ السَّاعَةُ وَانْشَقَّ الْقَمَرُ * وَاِنْ يَّرَوْا اٰيَةً يُّعْرِضُوْا وَيَقُوْلُوْا سِحْرٌ مُّسْتَمِرٌّ *

{The Hour has down nigh, and the moon was split asunder. And yet if they see a sign, they turn away and say, "A continuous sorcery."} (54:1-2)

There versed do not refer to the splitting of the moon on the Qiyamah on the day of resurrection because of the words:

اِنْ يَّرَوْا اٰيَةً يُّعْرِضُوْا الخ

Many other religions and many philosophers have rejected this miracle on the ground that in the heavenly bodies no miracle and out of the customary is ever possible .We must bear in mind that Allah is the Creator of everything including the heavenly bodies and He is Omnipotent. Everything works on His command. He can do anything He likes with everything. He will roll up the heavens on the Last Hour.

The idea that the out of the customary cannot take place in the sky and heavenly bodies has been proven wrong after due research. Man has traveled to the moon and this achievement lends support to the possibility of the moon splitting.

The moon was split on the demand of some people. This happened at night, of course, and for a short while. So, all people everywhere cannot possibly have seen it. Most of the people where it was night may have been asleep. Besides, the moon is not seen all over the world at the some time.

Some outsiders who had come to Makkah and then returned to their native places informed their fellow citizens there of his occurrence. This is reported in Islamic history continuously since then though other people may deny it. However, some of them also report it. For instance, the king of vihar in Malabar embraced Islam only because of the observance or confirmation of this event.[1]

[1] We reproduce have the relative portion from the Ma'ariful Quran v6 pp 238-242) Mufti Muhammad Shafi رحمه, (English translation Muktaba Darul Uloom, Karachi.)

The disbelievers of Makkah asked the Messenger of Allah to produce a proof in support of his claim, and he, with the dispensation of Allah, split the moon into two parts. This miracle is verified by the concluding part of verse 1: 'and the moon has been split asunder. The incident has been criticism against the Miracle of Moon-Splitting.

The critics have raised two types of criticism against the miracle; One is based on the assumptions of Greek philosophers, and the other is based on layman's thinking.

The deviant Greek philosophers assume that it is not possible for the heaven and other celestial bodies to split or crack, and rejoin. But this is merely in idea unsubstantiated by any solid or concrete proof. Whatever proof or evidence he philosophers have advanced in flimsy, shaky, inadequate and unsubstantial. The Islamic philosophers [mutakallimin] have broken down their arguments and have shown that they are baseless, false and absurd. They could not prove by any rational argument that moon-splitting is impossible. Indeed illiterate people regard every unusual thing as impossible. Obviously, the very meaning of mujizah or a prophetic miracle is that it is an unusual even that is abnormal and out of general habit, which cannot be performed by common people. Any ordinary work which can be performed at any time cannot be called mu'jizah or miracle.

The other criticism based on a layman's thinking is that if such a wonderful event had taken place, its knowledge would have been commonplace and would have found its mention in the books of history, but they say that they have found no such thing recorded.

Such a thinking is too simplistic which lacks careful analysis. A careful analysis shows that the event had occurred in Makakh at night. At that particular moment, in many parts of the world it must have been day time where and when the question of witnessing this event does not even arise. In many other countries, it must have been middle of the night, or last part of the night when the people normally sleep. Furthermore people who are awake also do not stare at the moon all the time. Splitting of the moon would not make any difference on the moonlight spared on the earth, so that it would attract people's attention. The event took place suddenly the lasted for a short while. It is a daily experience that in particular countries at different time lunar eclipse take place. Nowadays a forecast is made about its occurrence well in advance, yet there are hundreds of thousands of people who are absolutely unaware of it. Can this be the proof that the lunar eclipse did its occurrence cannot be denied or refuted when the travelers arrived and were asked about it, they all confirmed that they did se the two parts of the moon; (Ibn Kathir)

Besides, the event is recorded in the famous and reliable history book of India called. Tarikh-e-Farishtah.' It has been mentioned in this book that the Maharajah, a native ruler, of Malabar had witnessed this phenomenon hat night with his own eyes, and had it entered in his diary. This incident was the cause of his embracing Islam. Earlier on the narratives of Abu Dawud Tayalisi and Baihaqi were quoted about the pagans of Makkah themselves who inquired from the people arriving from the neighboring parts of the country and they confirmed and verified that they had seen it. Allah, the Pure and the Exalted, know best.

ABU JAHL FACED TRENCH OF FIRE

(٥٨٥٦) وعن أبي هريرة قال قال أبو جهل هل يعفر محمد وجهه بين أظهركم فقيل نعم فقال واللات والعزى لئن رأيته يفعل ذلك لأطأن على رقبته فأتى رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم وهو يصلي زعم ليطأ على رقبته فما فجئهم منه إلا وهو ينكص على عقبيه ويتقي بيديه فقيل له ما لك فقال إن بيني وبينه لخندقا من نار وهولا وأجنحة فقال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم لو دنا مني لاختطفته الملائكة عضوا عضوا۔ (رواه مسلم)

5856. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Abu Jahl asked (in a derogatory tone). "Does Muhammad make his face dusty in your presence?" It was said, "Yes" So, he asserted, "by Laat and Uzza, if I see him do that, I shall trample his neck." So he come to Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم while he was offering salah having resolved to trample his neck but he has not advanced when he suddenly stopped and went backwards on his heels (to his own people) and seemed to put back something with his hand (and was awe-stricken). Someone asked him, "What has happened to you?" He said, "I see a trench of fire between him and me This inspires fear. And (I see) wings!" (They were angels) Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "If he had come near to me, the angels would have cut him limb by limb."[1]

TURNED OUT AS FORETOLD

(٥٨٥٧) وعن عدي ابن حاتم قال بينا أنا عند النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم إذ أتاه رجل فشكا إليه الفاقة ثم أتاه الآخر فشكى إليه قطع السبيل فقال يا عدي هل رأيت الحيرة فإن طالت بك حيوة فلترين الظعينة ترتحل من الحيرة حتى تطوف بالكعبة لا تخاف أحدا إلا الله ولئن طالت بك حيوة لتفتحن كنوز كسرى ولئن طالت بك حيوة لترين الرجل يخرج ملأ كفه من ذهب أو فضة يطلب من يقبله فلا يجد أحدا يقبله منه وليلقين الله أحدكم يوم يلقاه وليس بينه وبينه ترجمان يترجم له فليقولن ألم أبعث إليك رسولا فيبلغك فيقول بلى فيقول ألم أعطك مالا وأفضل عليك فيقول بلى فينظر عن يمينه فلا يرى إلا جهنم وينظر عن يساره فلا يرى إلا جهنم اتقوا النار ولو بشق تمرة فمن لم يجد فبكلمة طيبة قال عدي فرأيت الظعينة ترتحل من الحيرة حتى تطوف بالكعبة لا تخاف إلا الله وكنت فيمن افتتح كنوز كسرى بن هرمز ولئن طالت بكم حيوة لترون ما قال النبي أبو القاسم صلى الله عليه وسلم يخرج ملأ كفه۔ (رواه البخاري)

5857. Sayyiduna Adi Ibn Hatim رضی الله عنه narrated that he was sitting with the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم. A man came to him and complained to him of his poverty. Then another came and complained to him of highway robbery.

Then he said, "O Adi, have you seen Hira? If you live long, you will see a woman setting out from Hira till she circumambulates the Ka'bah. She will fear no one but Allah. If you live long, (you will see) the treasures of kisra will be conquered. And, if you will long, you will see that a man comes out with a handful of gold or silver seeking will find no one to take it from him. And, indeed, one of you will meet Allah on the day he meets him, there being no interpreter between him and Allah. He will ask him, 'Did I not send to you a Messenger who conveyed the message to you?' He will submit, 'Of course (you did send). He will then ask, 'Did I not give you wealth and raise you high?" He will submit, 'Of course (you did). And will look to his right and see nothing but hell. Then he will look to his left and see nothing but hell.

Preserve yourselves from the fire (of hell), even if it is with half a date (in charity). And, if anyone does not have even that much, then a good word (kindness and politeness) should do it."

Sayyiduna Adi رضی اللہ عنہ said (After narrating this hadith). "Indeed, I did see a woman travel (alone) from Hira till she circumambulated the Ka'bah without fearing anyone besides Allah. And, I was among those who conquered the treasures of Kisra ibn Hurmuz (ibn Newshirwan, the king of Persia). And, now, if you have a long life, you shall see that the Prophet Abu al-Qasim صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said about one coming out with his h and full (of gold or silver to give away but find no one to take it)."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم foretold three things that would happen.

(1) The Arabs will experience perfect peace and security and there would be no crime in Arabia.

(3) The Islamic countries will prosper economically. People will find no one the receive their zakah. There will be no needy person in the Islamic states.

Of these three assumptions, the narrator of the hadith Adi ibn Hatim رضی اللہ عنہ observed the two coming out true. The thirds, as some ulama say will occur in the time of Prophet Easa علیہ السلام towards, the last days of the world. Some other ulama say that it has transpired in the era of Umar ibn Abdul Aziz. رحمہ اللہ In his time, everyone was well-off so that there was no one to receive charity.

While the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم enlightened the two who had brought their complaints he spoke his words to Adi رحمہ اللہ who was present in the company. He meant that the other sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم may hear too.

After he spoke of the prosperity to come, he cautioned Muslims not to become negligent when they are free of worldly cares and are affluent. The luxury obtained by worldly riches leads to difficulty in the hereafter and regret. But, if they are used for worldly comfort as well as on pious causes then there is ease in both the worlds. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم gave good tidings of paradise and at the same time warned of chastisement. He gave the Muslims glad tidings of affluence and warned them of the severity of the Last Day.

On the day of resurrection, Allah and His creature will speak directly. The creature will be brought before Him.

Allah will remind His creature that he had bestowed wealth on him in the world. He will ask rhetorically to emphasize that He had favoured him. The man will find himself surrounded by hell. The only way out will be over the narrow bridge, sirat. If he had been pious in the world and Allah favours him, then he will manage to pass over it.
Allah says:

{And there is not one of you but shall come to it, that for your Lord is (a matter) decreed, decided. Then we shall deliver those who fear (Allah)...} (19:71)

This is why Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Guard yourself against hell.) The best way to do it is through charity too. If that cannot be done then be police and have a good word to please others, provided, of course, that does not infringe religion.

BELIEVERS MUST BE PREPARED TO ENDURE HARDSHIP

(٥٨٥٨) وَعَنْ خَبَّابِ بْنِ الْأَرَتِّ قَالَ شَكَوْنَا إِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَهُوَ مُتَوَسِّدٌ بُرْدَةً فِي ظِلِّ الْكَعْبَةِ وَلَقَدْ لَقِيْنَا مِنَ الْمُشْرِكِيْنَ شِدَّةً فَقُلْنَا أَلَا تَدْعُوا اللّٰهَ فَقَعَدَ وَهُوَ مُحْمَرٌّ وَجْهُهُ وَقَالَ كَانَ الرَّجُلُ فِيْمَنْ كَانَ قَبْلَكُمْ يُحْفَرُ لَهُ فِي الْأَرْضِ فَيُجْعَلُ فِيْهِ فَيُجَاءُ بِمِنْشَارٍ فَيُوْضَعُ فَوْقَ رَأْسِهِ فَيُشَقُّ بِاثْنَيْنِ فَمَا يَصُدُّهُ ذٰلِكَ عَنْ دِيْنِهِ وَيُمْشَطُ بِأَمْشَاطِ الْحَدِيْدِ مَادُوْنَ لَحْمِهِ مِنْ عَظْمٍ وَ عَصَبٍ وَمَا يَصُدُّهُ ذٰلِكَ عَنْ دِيْنِهِ وَ اللّٰهِ لَيَتِمَّنَّ هٰذَ الْأَمْرُ حَتّٰى يَسِيْرُ الرَّاكِبُ مِنْ صِنْعَاءَ إِلٰى حَضَرَمَوْتَ لَا يَخَافُ إِلَّا اللّٰهَ أَوِ الذِّئْبَ عَلٰى غَنَمِهِ وَلٰكِنَّكُمْ تَسْتَعْجِلُوْنَ۔ (رواه البخارى)

5858. Sayyiduna Khabbab ibn Al-Arat رضى الله عنه said, "We complained to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم when he was lying down in the shade of the Ka'bah with a striped cloak as a pillow. (We complained that) the (polytheists and the) idolaters persecuted us. We requested him to make supplications to Allah. His face become red. He sat up and said, 'people have gone before you when a pit was dug for a man in the earth. He was cast into it. A saw was brought and kept on his head and it was severed into two. But, that did not deter him from his religion. And there also was one whose body was combed with iron combs below his flesh in bone and sinew. But that did not deter him from his religion. And there also was one whose body was Combed. By Allah, this affair will come to a perfection to the extent that a rider will travel from sanah to Hadramowt, not fearing anything but Allah, or that a wolf might tear into his sheep. But you make haste.'[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet's face turned red because of his internal distress on hearing the complaint of the sahabah رضى الله عنهم about the persecution at the hands of the idolaters. Also, he did not like that they should be impatient and this is borne out by what he said afterwards.

Sana' was a village in the suburb of Damascus. It is also the name of the capital of Yemen. There is plenty of water and greenery in Yemen.

Hardramawt was a place in Yemen, it is the name of a large territory to the east of Aden made up of many cities and habitations. At one time, this used to be name of the righteous and the men of Allah. There were so many of them and so many of them were born here that it used to be said (حضر الموت منبت الاولياء) hadramawt is the growing place of the awliya (friend of Allah).

This place was called Hadramawt because the glorious Prophet Salih عليه السلام had died here. When he was dying, he said (حضر الموت) hadra mawt (death has come) From that very time, it came to be called Hadramawt. Some others have named the Prophet Jarjis عليه السلام as the one who died here and since then the place got the name Hadramawt.

As for the sheep being safe from the wolf, this does not really mean what it says. It is not possible by habit. Of course, in the time of Prophet Easa عليه السلام when he descends, there will be peace and security and wolves will refrain from attacking.

In this hadith, however, the meaning is that there will be complete peace and people will be safe from each other.

DREAM & PRAYER

(٥٨٥٩) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَدْخُلُ عَلٰى اُمِّ حَرَامٍ بِنْتِ مِلْحَانَ وَكَانَتْ تَحْتَ عُبَادَةَ ابْنِ الصَّامِتِ فَدَخَلَ عَلَيْهَا يَوْمًا فَاَطْعَمَتْهُ ثُمَّ جَلَسَتْ تَفْلِيْ رَأْسَهٗ فَنَامَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ثُمَّ اسْتَيْقَظَ وَهُوَ يَضْحَكُ قَالَتْ فَقُلْتُ مَايُضْحِكُكَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ قَالَ اُنَاسٌ مِنْ اُمَّتِيْ عُرِضُوْا عَلَيَّ غُزَاةً فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ يَرْكَبُوْنَ ثَبَجَ هٰذَا الْبَحْرِ مُلُوْكًا عَلَى الْاَسِرَّةِ اَوْ مِثْلَ الْمُلُوْكِ عَلَى الْاَسِرَّةِ فَقُلْتُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ ادْعُ اللّٰهَ اَنْ يَّجْعَلَنِيْ مِنْهُمْ فَدَعَالَهَا ثُمَّ وَضَعَ رَأْسَهٗ فَنَامَ ثُمَّ اسْتَيْقَظَ وَهُوَ يَضْحَكُ فَقُلْتُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ مَايُضْحِكُكَ قَالَ اُنَاسٌ مِّنْ اُمَّتِيْ عُرِضُوْا عَلَيَّ غُزَاةً فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ كَمَا قَالَ فِي الْاُوْلٰى فَقُلْتُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ ادْعُ اللّٰهَ اَنْ يَّجْعَلَنِيْ مِنْهُمْ قَالَ اَنْتِ مِنَ الْاَوَّلِيْنَ فَرَكِبَتْ اُمُّ حَرَامٍ الْبَحْرَ فِيْ زَمَنِ مُعَاوِيَةَ فَصُرِعَتْ عَنْ دَابَّتِهَا حِيْنَ خَرَجَتْ مِنَ الْبَحْرِ فَهَلَكَتْ۔ (متفق عليه)

5859. Sayyiduna Anas رضى الله عنه said that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم used to visit Sayyidah Umm Haram bint Milhan رضى الله عنه. She was the wife of Sayyiduna Ubadah ibn Samit. (Accordingly)one day when he visited her, she gave him food and then sat examining his head for lice. Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم went to sleep. When he woke up, he was laughing. She said, :"I asked what makes you laugh, O Messenger of Allah? He said, 'some people of my ummah were shown to me waging battle in Allah's path sailing on the sea as though kinds on thrones' - or, he said, 'like king on thrones.' I submitted, 'O Messenger of Allah, pray to Allah that He may cause me to be among them.' He prayed for me. After that, he put down his head and went to sleep. Again, when he awoke, he was laughing. I asked him, 'O Messenger of Allah, what is it that makes you laugh?' He said, 'Some of my ummah were presented to me fighting a battle in Allah's path...' and he spoke as he had spoken before. I submitted, 'O Messenger of Allah, pray to Allah that He should make me one of them.' But, he said, 'You are (already) among the first."

Indeed, Sayyidah Um Haram رضی الله عنه sailed on the sea in the time of Sayyiduna Mu'awiyah (ibn Abu Sufyan) رضی الله عنه but as she landed on the shore (and rode her beast). She fall down from her riding beast and was martyred (in Allah's path.[1] COMMENTARY: Sayyidah Umm Haram رضی الله عنه was the daughter of Milhan ibn Khalid. She belonged to the tribe Banu Najar. She was the maternal aunt of Sayyiduna Anas (R, sister of his mother Sayyidah Umm Sulaym رضی الله عنه. They were both maternal aunts of the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم through fosterage or some other kind of relationship.

Imam Nawawi رحمه الله has written that the ulama say that Sayyidah Um Haram رضی الله عنه was a mahrm of the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم. This is why he would go to her in the afternoon and have a nap at her home. However, the ulama differ on their kind of relationship that made them mahrm of one another.

Sayyidah Umm Haram رضی الله عنها had embraced Islam and had pledged allegiance to the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم. In the time of Uthman رضی الله عنه she set out for jihad along with her husband. Ubadah ibn Samit رضی الله عنه who was a distinguished ansar sahabi. She reached Rome and attained martyrdom there.[2]

LICE: We have spoken exhaustively on this subject previously. The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم had no lice on his body. She merely wished to clean his hair and to verify whether lice had grown in his hair.

ON THRONES: The words in the hadith 'as though kings' or 'like kings...' are spoken by a narrator to say that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said one of these phrases. There is no noticeable difference in the meaning. The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم compared the surface of the sea to the surface of the earth and a ship to a throne. He meant to say that though people will be risking their lives yet their objective will be sincere and motivated by faith and desire to please Allah. So they will not be fearful. They will be mentally calm and peaceful. In their boasts they will regard themselves as safe as a king in his protected palace.

MORE NAVAL EXPEDITIONS: The fact that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said to Umm Haram رضی الله عنه that she was on the first expedition by sea shows that his second dreams was about other people. It means that such expeditions will continue to be carried on. The rank of those who participated in the first batch was higher than the rank of the following bathes.She had proceeded in the time of Mu'awiyah رضی الله عنه not when he was a caliph but when he was governor of Syria. The caliph of that time was Uthman رضی الله عنه. This should cause no confusion.

BEAUTY OF MUHAMMAD'S WORDS

5860. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ said that Dawud come to Makkah. He belonged the Azd Shanu'ah. (This was the early period of Islam) He used to cast spells to drive away the jinn (from one possessed). From the foolish ones among the Makkans, he heard that Mahammad had gone and (meaning that he was possessed by a jinn). So, he said, "If I see this man, perhaps Allah will cure him at my hand."
Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ added, "So, he met him and said, 'O Muhammad! practice incantation to expel the jinn. Do you want me (to cure you)? Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, 'All praise belongs to Allah. We praise him and we seek His help. He shown Allah guides, none can lead astray and he whom he lets go astray. None can guide. I bear testimony that there is no God but Allah alone. He has no partner. And, I bear testimony that Muhammad is His slave and His Messenger. To proceed...' But, he put in 'Repeat to me these your words.' So, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم repeated them three times. Then he (Dimad) said, 'I have heard the words of the soothsayers, the chants of the sorcerers, the poetry of the poets. But, I have never heard anything like these your words. They have reached the depths of the sea (of knowledge and eloquence in their effect on the listeners). Let me have your hand. I pledge allegiance to you and I embrace Islam."
Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ said, "He pledged allegiance to him."[1]
Some texts of the Masabih have 'Naus' instead of "qamus' in his words, and balaghnaa instead of 'balaghna.'

COMMENTARY: Some peopie have written Dimam instead of Dimad. Shanu'ah is a large tribe of Yemen, and Azd is its branch.

Dimad was a physician, as he was an incantor. On the whole he was a knowledgeable man, but incantation or casting spells was his specialized profession. He had known the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم even before he was commissioned. Therefore, when he come to Makkah after his Prophethood was announced and the evil idolaters cast aspersions on his mental state or that he was possessed, Dimad volunteered to treat him because of the previous familiarity. So, he come to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم who decided not to give the lie to him straightway but to present to him the message of Allah in such a way that he would himself see that there was nothing wrong with the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. He began to deliver a sermon, but he had barely finished praising Allah when Dimad was impressed and requested that the prelude must be repeated. There was no need to go ahead with the sermon. Dimad رضی اللہ عنہ accepted that he was Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and embraced Islam. Thus he was among those fortunate ones who become Muslim in the earliest stage of Islam. رضی اللہ عنہ (May Allah be pleased with him)

In conclusion, the words (قاموس) or (ناموس) are found in different versions. Generally (قاموس البحر) is said to be correct. The word (قاموس) is not found in most dictionaries and a third word is also found sometimes (قاموس)

5861. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه narrated that Abu Sufyan ibn Harb told him this account by word of mouth: During the period of peace (of Hudaybiyah) between Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم and me (when I was not a Muslim but the chief oaf the enemies). I set out o a journey. While I was in Syria, a letter arrived form the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم to Heraclius. Dihya kalbi brought it and gave it to the governor of Busra. The governor of Busra delivered it to Heraclius.

Heraclius asked, 'Is here anyone from the people of this man who claims to be a Prophet?" They (his couriers) said, "Yes" So, I was called alongwith some men of the Quraysh. (He was told that we had come with a trade caravan, and we were twenty men who were presented to him.)

We were presented to Heraclius and he made us sit facing him. He asked, 'Who among you is the closest in relation to this man who claims to be a prophet?" I said, "I am him and made my companions sit behind me. He summoned his interpreter and commanded him, "Inform them that I will ask this man about the man who lays claims to prophethood. Tell them that if he lies tone, they must belie him."

Abu sufyan (interrupted his narration and) said, "By Allah, if I was not afraid of being labeled a liar, I would have been false to him." (Then he continued his narration:)

He said to his interpreter. "Ask him now his descent is rated among you?' I said, "He is a man of noble descent among us."
He asked, 'Has any of his forefathers been a king?" I said, "No."
He asked, "Have you thought of anything that he had said before what he says now as falsehood?" I said, "No"
He asked, "And who follow him? The nobles among the people, or their weaker ones?" I said, "Rather, their weaker ones."
He asked, "Do they increase in number of decrease?" I said, "Rather, they keep increasing."
He asked, "Has anyone renegade from his religion after accepting it because of being displeased with him?" I said, "No."
He asked, "Have you fought with him?" I said, "Yes,"
He asked, "How has your fighting with him fared?" I said, "the fighting between him and us is even. Sometimes he dominates us and sometimes we dominate him (The Arabic text is: war between us is (Arabic) sijala.' According to Lane's Lexicon 'war between them consists of portions, in such a manner that a portion there of is against these and another is against these. Or, 'the victory in war is shared by turns among those engaged therein.)[1]
He asked, "Does he commit treachery?" I said, "No, But we do have a pact with him (Peace of Hudaybiyah). We cannot say what he will do now."
Abu Sufyan confided (to Ibn Abbas) رضی الله عنه. "By Allah, he allowed me no opportunity of adding a comment except to this response."
He asked, "Has anyone else spoken before as he does now? (Excepting the known Prophet Ibrahim عليه السلام, Ismail عليه السلام and other and Easa عليه السلام, has anyone of you claimed to be a Prophet??) I said, "No."
Then, he said to the interpreted that he should say to me, "I asked you about his lineage among you and you said that he had a high lineage among you, Indeed, messenger are always s of high, noble descent, among their people. I asked you about his forefathers: had any of them been a king. You said that none had been a king. If there had been any then I would have presumed that he craved for their kingdom. I t hen asked you whether the weak or the nobles followed him and you said they were the weak. Indeed, only such manner of people as you describe follow a prophet. I next asked you whether you thought of him to have lied any time before he claimed as he does. You said, 'No' Indeed, he is not one who about men. So he will not lie about Allah. I asked you whether any of his followers abandoned his religion after embracing it on being displeased with him and you said that no one had abandoned his religion. Indeed, it is with faith that once the heart tastes it, it does not throw it out afterwards. I asked you whether they increased in number or decreased and you said that they increased. This is with faith till it is perfect. I asked you whether you fought with him and you said that the battles between him and you were poised here and there. This is how (prophet and) Messengers are tried, but the result is always in their favour. I asked you if he was ever treacherous and you said that he was not. Indeed, the Messenger never (lie and never) commit treachery. I asked you whether anyone had made the claim, as he has, before him. You said that none has done so If anyone had made a like claim, I might have thought that he was trying imitate what was done previously.

Then, he asked, "What does he command you to do?" we said, "He requires us to offer salah, pay zakah, join ties of kinship, observe chastity (and abstain from the forbidden)."

He said, "If your answers are (correct and) true, then, indeed, he is a prophet, I had known that he would arise but had not thought that he would arise among you If I know that I would reach him I would love to meet him. If I were to reach him, I would wash his feet, His sphere of rule will extend to the land that is under my feet (Byzantine and Syria)."

Then, he asked for the letter of Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم and he read it.[1]

This hadith has been narrated complete previously (# 3426).

COMMENTARY: Teebi رحمه الله said that the meaning of the initial words of Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه is that Abu Sufyan told him of the events directly face to face. Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه did not hear this report from anyone else. Besides, there was no one else here at that time as is apparent from his words (حدثنى) narrated to me.

The peace treaty of Hudaybiyah was concluded in 6AH for a period of ten years. But, the infidels of Makah violated it by killing some allies of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم who belonged to the tribe of Khaza'ah As a result, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was compelled to fight with them. This battle led to the liberation of Makkah in 8 AH.

Heraclius was the sovereign of the Byzantine empire. It comprised the entire Europe, Egypt and Asia Minor. It was divided into two in the early fourth century of the Greg onion calendar. The capital of the western section continued to be Ruma of Italy and of the eastern section was Constantinople. The sovereign of each of the two divisions continued to be called Qaysar or Caesar. The ruler of the eastern section was called Qaysar of Rome. His dominion included Egypt, Ethiopia, Palestine, Syria, Asia Minor and Belkan. The western section was powerless against the eastern.

However, a rebellion in the eastern section of about the time of the birth of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم deposed the Qaysar of that time and he was killed. Then Heraclius replaced him. He was a Christian like his subject. He was the first king to wint coins with his seal in a proper shape. He is also the first Christian to have churches built.

Among the people and leaders the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم invited to Islam, he wrote to he Qaysar of Rome, too. He was the Heraclius, ruler of Constantinople.

Busra was a city in Syria. It was part of the kingdom of Constantinople under the Qaysar of Rome. Its governor had close links with the king. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, therefore, sent his letter at the hands of Dihya Kalbi رضى الله عنه to the king via this governor.

The ulama say that a man's close relative can speak more of his nobility and lineage than anyone else. So such a person was chosen for the enquiry.

Heraclius put the colleagues of Abu Sufyan behind him so that (their eyes should disclose any lies spoken by Abu Sufyan and) they may not hesitate to belie him. Also, they may not make any gestures to him.

Abu Sufyan confessed while narrating the experience to Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه that if he was not worried that his colleagues would disclose to the people of Makkah on returning there that he had lied during the questioning then he would have given vent to his feelings against the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم Of course, those people too would have been happy at his lying but eventually they would have known him to e a liar. This would have stained his reputation.

However, Mulla Ali Qari رحمه الله said that his words mean: "If I was not afraid that my colleagues would let the cat out of the bag and let the Heraclius known that I had lied. I would have surely spoken against the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم."
When he described the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم as a man of noble descent, this also meant that he had a good character and noble manners by birth, So, it means that he belonged to a decent family, Banu Hashim who were the most excellent among the Quraysh. Buhari has the word (نسب) instead of (حسب). The latter word means 'good pedigree' and the former means lineage.
As for those following the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم whether they were the noble and hnourable or the weaker ones, this is in terms of worldly standards. Actually, they are the Banu Hashim like Ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه Ali رضي الله عنه, Hamzah رضي الله عنه, etc and other greats of the Quraysh like Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه, Umar رضي الله عنه, Uthman رضي الله عنه and other prominent sahabah رضي الله عنهم. they had embraced Islam well before this meeting between Heraclius and Abu Sufyan.
If Abu Sufyan said that the weak, poor and young people following him then he spoke of the majority.
Heraclius said that only the poor and weak in eh society follow the Messenger. Then rich have no time for that unless hey find themselves helpless.
He also said that a man who does not speak lies to people will never lie about Allah. How will he lie that he is Allah's Messenger?
Heraclius said that faith is then perfected. Its followers keep increasing and its basic and essential commands are promulgated gradually. Finally, religion becomes perfect. Its followers triumph and are supreme.
This is what happened to the religion of Islam. On the one had Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم worked strenuously for the cause of Islam so that more and more people joined its folds. On the other, commands of Islam came down continuously for salah, zakah, fasting, hajj etc. Finally, Allah let the Muslims dominate effectively over others during he final life of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and the Perfected the religion, and revealed the verse:

اليوم اكملت لكم دينكم واتممت عليكم نعمتي

{This day I have perfected your religion for you and completed My blessings on You.} (5:3)

Heraclius did not think that the last Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم would arise among the Arabs. After Prophet Ibrahim عليه السلام most of the Prophets عليهم السلام have been from their people, descendants of Prophet Ishaq عليه السلام. So, he thought that the last of them will also be his descendant and not offspring of Prophet Isma'il عليه السلام the forefather of the Arabs.
Heraclius had studied the previous heavenly Books and was learned in them. This is why he told Abu Sufyan that if what he said was true that Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم was the Prophet. He had recognized the signs, so he had no doubt about it. Besides, he also was as astrologer and a sooth sayer He know from that too that the signs of Prophethood were found in Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم.
According to a hadith transmitted by Bukhari رحمه الله on the authority of Ibn Natur the ruler of Bayt ul Maqdis, when Heraclius was staying there, he woke up one morning very worried and upset. Someone asked him why he was very married and concerned, he said,

'I found in the stars tonight that the king of the circumcised people will overpower and subjugate all the countries." He then made inquiries about the people who are accustomed to circumcise. He was told that this custom persisted among the Arabs.[1]

However, this reflects the misfortune of Heraclius that in spite of knowing the truth of the prophet by virtue of his knowledge and wisdom, he deprived himself of belief. He could not use his knowledge and foresight to his benefit. Not only did he fail to embrace Islam but he also opposed the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and his sahabah رضي الله عنهم. Innumerable times he dispatched his well-trained and strong army against the mujahids of Islam. Often citizens of the Islamic cities had to resist his cruel armies. However Allah's help was always with the Muslims, so each time his roman army was vanquished convincingly. Very few of them could return to their native all his life in putting down the power of the Muslims, but Allah subjugated him to the Muslim power always. He died finally without realizing his evil designs. Large portions of his country fell to the Muslim, among them Syria too.

His son succeeded him, but he too could not keep his kingdom intact. After his death, his kingdom fell apart completely.

Later one of their people, the Turks were inspired by Allah to embrace Islam. They used their immense courage and bravery and strong faith to defeat the combined Christian force of that time and to protect Islam from the disbelievers and polytheists They also eliminated the rafidiyah who called themselves Muslims.

Allah enabled the Turks to build the two sacred Harams (at Makah and Madinah) and to serve and protect them.

They were the custodians of the Masjid Haram in Makkah and the Masjid Nabawi in Madinah and they served the people of the two cities and helped them financially. They respected the ulama sincerely and in an unmatched manner. Clearly, one whom Allah guides none can mislead and one whom He lets go astray, none can guide. There was the Heraclius who know well everything about the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم but his true knowledge of him was of no use to him because his real ambition was to continue to sit on the throne and to retain wealth and property His love for worldly possessions and power had overshadowed the truth which he did know. So, he was deprived of Allah's help and guidance and become eligible for everlasting wretchedness.

There were, on the other hand, his subjects (the Turks) who earned perpetual bliss and were blessed with faith and Islam. They also became a world power to be reckoned with and an exemplary form of ruler.

However, we must not overlook the virtues of Heraclius, when he received the epistle of the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, he read with interest and attention. He held it with respect and honour. He also was very careful to preserve it.

On the other hand, the king of Persia, the Kisra or Chosroes, was very disrespectful, He tone it to pieces but Allah punished him and tore down his kingdom to pieces and his children become homeless. None of his offspring could even look at a crown.

According to a hadith in Bukhari Heraclius convened the assembly of his advisors and ministers. He spoke to them from inside his upper chamber of ward off any possible adverse reaction. He referred to the letter, saying. "I have it from Ahmad. Indeed, he is the Prophet whom we await and is mentioned in our Books. We recognize him from the signs and know the time of his coming. So, become Muslims and obey him you will be successful in both the worlds.." They rejected his advice and ran towards the exit doors but found them locked. Sensing danger, Heraclius asked them to return and took un about turn, saying, 'O men, I spo9ke these words only to see where you stand, to try you and to test the strength of your faith. I am now convinced of your faithfulness." They bowed down into prostration. The doors were unlocked and they dispersed.[1]

[1] Bukhari # 7, Herecluss was on a visit there and was told that the Jews practiced circumcision. Then it was disclosed that the Arabs also observed it.

HAD HE BELIEVED: Some people have said that Heraclius had believed. They cite various aathar and conjectures, But, it is a fact that he had not believed. He was an infidel and a polytheist till his death. According to a tradition in Musnad Ahmad رضی اللہ عنہ, he wrote from Tabuk to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, "I am a Muslim." But, the Prophet علیہ السلام said, "He is a liar. He is a Christian."

The example of Heraclius is enough evidence that knowledge and wisdom are not enough to get guidance unless Allah enables and one's inherent nature guides right to accept the truth.

عشق کاریست کہ موقوف ہدایت باشد

We also learn that love of the world and great for position are he greatest obstacles to the path of Truth.[2]

CHAPTER - XXIII

THE MI'RAJ (OR, NIGHT JOURNEY TO THE HEAVENS)

بَابٌ فِي الْمِعْرَاجِ

Mi'raj is the word derived from (عروج) urooj. It means 'to rise.' 'to ascend.' Hence, mi'raj (معراج) is a means 'to ascend,' 'to go up,' which is a staircase.

Allah, the Exalted, let the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم visit the heavens and showed him His signs there, This is why it is called the miraj as though the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم climbed up the staircase. He went up it to the heaven. According to one tradition, mi'raj is the staircase whereby the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم began his journey of the higher world. The staircase was placed for him. He climbed up it to the heaven. It is the same staircase which the angels use to go up and down the heaven. He souls of the children of Aadam علیہ السلام are also taken up by it.

WHEN DID MI'RAJ TAKE PLACE: Most of the ulama say that mi'raj or the ascension to the heavens took place in the twelfth year of prophethood, which was one year before the hijrah, in the month of Rabi ul-awwal. Some scholars say that it took place on the 27th Ramadan. Some other put the date at 27th Rajab and this date is commonly known to the masses. There are some authorities who say that it took place three years before hijrah and some five years before hijrah.

MI'RAJ & ISRA': Isra' (journey) is the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم journey on that night (of mi'raj) from the Masjad Haraam (house of Allah) to the Masjid Aqsa. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم journey from Masjid Aqsa (Bayt ul Maqdis) to the heaven is called the mi'raj. As for isra,' it is known at true from the test of the Quran. If anyone denies it, then that is tantamount to going out of the folds of Islam. As for mi'raj. It is confirmed by ahadith coming down to us in succession, continuously. If anyone rejects it, then he is misled and a bid'ati (or an innovator).

IN DREAM OR WHILE AWAKE:the ulama differ on the nature of the mi'raj whether it was experienced when he was awake or it was shown to him in a dream? They also differ on how many times it happened: once or more than once? Or, it was experienced once while he was awake, and many more times during sleep shown in dreams? Or if it was sown to him in a dram too, then was that the real experience, or was it a prelude to the real experience in awakening to condition him spiritually and psychologically to the higher world before he was taken on a visit physically to the heavens? Even in the initial stages of prophethood, true dreams were shown to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم as a means to accustom him to why (or revelation) and to the higher world.

The ulama have differing opinions also on whether the isra (which is the journey from Masjid Haraam to Masjid Aqsa) was a physically experience while the mi'raj for the journey from there to the higher world) was merely a spiritual experience?

Be that as it may, we circumvent the debate and arguments for and against these postulations and suffice to assert that the more correct opinion is:

(i) The mi'raj took place once.

(ii) It was experienced in awakening with body and soul.

(iii) He was taken first from Masjid Haraam to Masjid Aqsa and then from there to the heavens.

(iv) There he was taken round some particular places where Allah willed him to visit.

This is the opinion of a majority of the jurists, scholars, scholars of hadith, scholastic philosophers and the mystics (meaning: the fuqaha, ulama, muhaddithin, mutakallimin and Sufis). Besides, there are many ahadith and saying of the sahabah رضي الله عنهم,which are very strong and leave no room for doubt whatsoever. It is worth pondering that if the mi;raj was seen only in a dream then it would not have been mentioned in such an unusual manner and there would not have been the lengthy discussions about it as is now being done. Also, there would not have been the mischief in which people now engage, nor would it have caused people to abandon their faith.

PRIVILEGE OF THE PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم ONLY: The physical mi'raj or the ascension to heaven was the exclusive honour of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. No other prophet or Messenger عليه السلام has received this distinction and honour. Allah only allowed this out of the customary honour to His last Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم to establish his greatness Hence we must look at this event in this very light and it is futile to measure it with our intelligence and conjecture. It cannot be explained by reasoning and is beyond whose who are slaves of their minds. This is purely an issue of belief and conviction. We must believe in it sincerely and leave its reality and nature to Allah's knowledge. This is true worship. In fact, everything connected with prophethood, revelation, miracles to outside the scope of intelligence and deduction If anyone says that unless he understands these thins he would not believe in them, then the deprives himself of his share of faith. However, the awliya (who are friends of Allah) and those possessed of Divine awareness do attain a certain station of awareness and knowledge after which they become capable to the extent that they know some of the facts of these things. Those people who have not attain this station of Divine awareness and knowledge, faith demands of them that they should unfalteringly believe what Allah and His Messenger say and must have faith in that with a single mind determination.

5862. Sayyiduna Qatadah رحمه الله reported that Sayyiduna Anas ibn Maalik رضی الله عنه narrated on the authority of Sayyiduna Maalik ibn Sa'sa;ah رضی الله عنه that Allah's

Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم recounted to them the account of the night when he was taken up to the heavens (meaning, both isra and mi'raj). He said: while I was lying down in the Hatim (or, he said the hijr), the one who had to come, came to me. (He was an angel) He made a split from here to here, meaning, from the vein of the throat to the hair below the navel.

They took out my hart. Then I was brought a dish of gold filed with faith and wisdom. My heart was washed, filed up and replaced (where it belonged).

According to another version: It was washed inside with zamzam water and filled up with faith and wisdom.

Then, I was brought an animal smaller than the mule and larger than the donkey. It was white, and it was the Buraq. Its step landed to a distance equal to the range of its vision.

I mounted on it. Jibril عليه السلام came with me up to the lowest heaven and asked for the gate to be opened. He was asked, 'Who are you?" He said 'I am Jibril." He was asked, "who is with you?" He said, "Muhammad," He was asked, "Has he been called?" He said "Yes!" It was said, "Welcome! An excellent arrival!" The gate was opened.

I entered and behold! There was Aadam عليه السلام. Jibril عليه السلام said, "This is y or father, Aadam. Offer him salaam.' I did offer him my salaam and he reciprocated it and said, 'welcome to the righteous son and the good Prophet."

Jibril عليه السلام then resumed the climb up with me till he came to the second heaven where he asked for the gate to be opened and was asked, "who are you?" He said, "Jibril." Then he was asked, "And who is with you?" He said, "Muhammad!" He was asked, "Has he been called?" He said "Yes." It was said, "Welcome! An excellent coming!" The gate was opened; when I entered, behold! Yahya عليه السلام and Eesa عليه السلام who were maternal cousins, were there Jibril عليه السلام said, "They are Yahya and Easa. Offer them slaam." So I offered them the salaam and they reciprocated it. They said, "Welcome to the righteous brother and the righteous Prophet."

Then, he ascended with me to the third heaven and asked for it to be opened. It was asked, "who is there?" He said, "Jibril." Again, it was asked, "who is with you?" He said, "Muhammad." He was asked whether I had been summoned and he said, "Yes!" It was said "Welcome! An excellent coming!" And it was opened when I entered, behold! Yusuf عليه السلام was there. Jibril عليه السلام said, "This is Yusuf. Offer him salaam!" I did so. He reciprocated my salaam and said, "Welcome to the righteous brother and the righteous Prophet!"

Then he took me up to the fourth heaven and asked for it to be opened. He was asked, "Who is there?" He said, "Jibril." He was asked, "who is with you?" He said, "Muhammad." He was asked "Has he been called?" He said, Yes!" It was said, welcome! An excellent coming!" The gate was opened and I entered it. Behold Idris عليه السلام was there. He said, "This is Idris. Offer him salaam!" I greeted him with salaam. He reciprocated it and said, "Welcome! Righteous brother and excellent Prophet!"

Then, he ascended with me to the fifth heaven and asked that it should be opened. He was asked, "Who are you?" He said, Jibril." He was asked, "who is with you?" He said, "Muhammad." He was asked, "Has he been called?" He said, "Yes!" It was said, "welcome! An excellent coming!" And it was opened. When I entered it, behold! Harun عليه السلام was there! He said, "This is Harun, give him salaam! Said, "This is Harun, give him salaam." So I offered him salaam and he reciprocated it and remarked. "Welcome to the righteous brother and righteous Prophet !"

Then, he took me up till he come to the sixth heaven and asked for it to be opened. It was asked, "who are you?" He said, "Jibril" Then he was asked, "Who is with you?" He said, "Muhammad." He was asked, "Has he been called?" He said, Yes, it was said, "Welcome! An excellent coming!" The gage was opened and when I entered, behold! There was Musa عليه السلام. He said, "This is Musa. Offer him salaam." So, I offered him salaam and he reciprocated it and exclaimed, "welcome to the righteous brother and the righteous Prophet!" As I went past him, he wept. He was asked, "why do you weep? He said, "I weep because a young man will be sent after me but more members of his ummah will enter paradise than those of my ummah."

Then I was taken by him (Jibril) عليه السلام to the seventh heaven. He asked for it to be opened and was asked, "who are you?" He said, "Jibril" He was asked, "Who is with you?" He said, "Muhammad" He was asked," was he called?" He said, "Yes." It was said, "Welcome An excellent coming!" When I entered, behold there was Ibrahim عليه السلام. He said, "This is your father Ibrhaim. Offer him salaam." So, I offered him slaam and he reciprocated the salaam. He said, "Welcome to the righteous son and the righteous Prophet."

Thence I was taken to the sidrat ul-muntaha (or the late tree of the limits). Its fruit were like the earthenware vessels of Major and the leaves were like ears of the elephants. He said "This is sidrat ul muntaha." I saw four rivers, two of them were concealed two were visible. On my asking what they were, Jibril عليه السلام said, "The two concealed rivers are rivers in paradise and the two visible ones are the Nile (an Neel) and the Emphrates (al-faraat)."

Then I was taken up to al-bayt al mamur (the Frequented House).

Then, I was presented a vessel of wine and a vessel of milk and a vessel of honey. I took (the vessel of) milk. He said, "This is al-fitrah (or the natural religion). You are on it and your ummah."

Then worship was prescribed for me of fifty salah everyday. Then I returned and passed by Musa عليه السلام. He asked me. "what have you been commanded?" I said, "I have been commanded to observe fifty salah every day." He said, "Your ummah will not be able to offer fifty salah every day. Indeed. By Allah. I have tried people before you and did try to persuade the Banu Isra'il the most severe kind of persuasion. Go back to your Lord and request Him for a reduction for your ummah." So I returned. Ten were reduced for me.

Then, I came back to Musa عليه السلام but he said again like he had said before. So, I returned and ten (more) were reduced. I came back to Musa but again he said the like of it and I returned and (another) ten were removed. I came back to Musa عليه السلام, but he insisted as he had done before. So, I returned. Ten (more) were reduced. I was commanded to offer ten salah every day. I came back to Musa عليه السلام, but he said the same thing that he had been saying. So, I returned and was commanded to offer five salah everyday.

I came back to Musa عليه السلام and he asked, "what have you been commanded?" I told him, "I have been ordered to offer five salah every day." He said, "Indeed, your ummah will not be able to offer five salah every day. Indeed, I have tried people before you and worked hard very devotedly to prevail over the Banu Isra'il (but in vain). Go back to your Lord and request Him to make it lighter for your people." But I said, "Indeed, I have asked my Lord so much that I am ashamed (to ask for more), but I am pleased and I do submit."

Then, as I moved ahead, a crier called, "I have imposed what I have prescribed and have softened that on My slaves."[1]

COMMENTARY: There is a crescent shaped enclosure to the south of the ka'bah. It is called the hatim or the hijr. Originally, it is a part of the ka'bah the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was resting here when Jibril علیہ السلام came to take him to the journey of isra and mi'raj.

His chest was split to fill his heart will knowledge and awareness. Previously, it was done during his childhood to remove from it the portion whereby the devil leads astray or the human self misleads.

As for faith being filled in the dish this is either a figurative manner of speech or faith was given a physical form and filled in the dish. It is like deeds that will be given form on the day of resurrection so that they might be weighed.

BURAQ: The beast that was placed at the disposal of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم to ride was called the Buraq. The name is derived from the word (برق) barq which is lightning. This animal traveled at the speed of lightning and was bright like light. Its speed is said to be such that each step it took landed to the last limit of its vision. Some people deduce from it that it must have reached the lowest heaven with its first step, this being because from the earth the limit of one's vision is the sky itself. On this basis, it must have taken seven steps to travel the seven heavens.

Some authorities have said that the same buraq was kept for all the Prophets علیہم السلام to ride. Some others have said that each Prophet had a separate buraq for himself according to his requirement. It is like there being a separate pond for every Prophet علیہ السلام in the hereafter in keeping with his rank and standing. Indeed it is obvious from this hadith that this buraq was reserved for the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم.

He said that he was made to ride it. So it means that he could do it only with Allah's help and power. Or, Jibril علیہ السلام used his angelic strength to make him ride the buraqi and this cannot be ruled out because jibril علیہ السلام himself was the means of conveying revelation to him from Allah and the blessings of Allah too. He was his companion, too, during the mi'raj and a servant to help him and give him comfort.

According to a tradition, Jibril علیہ السلام had held the stirrup of the buraq and Mikail علیہ السلام had held its reins.

COME TO THE LOWEST HEAVEN: The words of the hadith are that he entered the heaven on his beast. Those who say that the miraj and the isra (which is known as lalatul isra, night of isra) took place on separate nights cite this hadith because it does not say anything about the journey to Bayt ul-Maqdis. Hence that journey took place on some other night.

STAIRCASE OR BUR'AQ: Did the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم reach the heaven riding on the buraq or did he limb the staircase? This hadith suggests that he went there on the buraq but another says that he used the staircase to reach the heaven. Mula Ali Qari رحمہ اللہ has deduced that the narrator has resorted to brevity. He has preferred concise reporting instead of a fuller, detailed narration. The fuller hadith sys that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم went to Bayt ul Maqdis on the buraq. He fathered the buraq on the same loop on which other prophet صلی اللہ

عليه‌وسلم before him had fastened their buraqs. After he finished what he was to do at Bayt ul-Maqdis (Like leading the Prophets عليهم‌السلام in salah), he climbed up towards the heaven. It is very possible that he went up by the staircase leaving the buraq at the gate of Baytul-Maqdis (Masjid Aqsa). The narrator has skipped over these details and sufficed himself to speak only of the journey to heaven.
It is also possible that the Prophet صلى‌الله‌عليه‌وسلم went up to heaven on the staircase riding the buraq. This is as some ulama say. With this explanation all version stand reconciled.
WHO IS THERE? JIBRIL: This means that there truly are gates in the heaven and gate keepers them. It is also said that those doors are on the front of Baytul-Maqdis. We also learn form this hadith that if anyone knocks at a door or calls out and someone inside asks "Who is there" then it is not enough to say. "I" as people generally do. This is disallowed. Rather, the visitor must give his name for example. "I am Zayd."
GREET THEM: The ulama say that Jibril عليه‌السلام had advised the prophet صلى‌الله‌عليه‌وسلم to offer salaam so that he may precede the others as a sign of humbleness otherwise he was at such a station as no one might even hope to achieve. Besides, he was standing while going past them while the those Prophets عليهم‌السلام were sitting. So, one who is standing must precede in offering salaam even if he is superior to one who is sitting. Hence, one should not wrack one's brains on why did he precede in greeting them though he is more excellent?
WELCOME TO THE RIGHTEOUS SON: Not only Prophet Aadam عليه السلام but al the prophet عليه‌السلام gave a similar welcome to the Prophet عليه‌السلام when he visit the heavens. The (صالح or he righteous in one who gives all rights of Allah and all the creatures of Allah. This quality embraces all virtues and goodness. In the Quran, too. Allah has described the true attribute of the Prophet as (صلاح) or (صالح). He says:

وكل من الصالحين

{....each one of them was of the righteous} (6:85)

{....and each one we made righteous.} (21:85)

PROPHET MUSA'S LAMENT: The ulama say about the regret of Prophet Musa عليه‌السلام that the ummah of Prophet Muhammad صلى‌الله‌عليه‌وسلم would outnumber his own ummah in paradise, he wept because the members of his ummah disobeyed Allah though he had left no stone unturned to bring them to the right path. They were stubborn and unyielding. Not only did hey hurt themselves but also caused him to lose some reward and miss a higher rank. If they had listened to him and been obedient, he too would have received a better reward. The reward that the right doer receives is also given to one who leads him to right doing. So, he regretted that he missed a higher reward because of them.
Some authorities say that Prophet عليه‌السلام Musa had pity on his ummah. Their plight was deplorable. They had unusually long lives. But they did not profit from that. They were strong and healthy but they wasted all that. The ummah of Muhammad E) had shorter lives and were weak but they obeyed their prophet صلى‌الله‌عليه‌وسلم. He hoped that by virtue of that meeting Allah would have mercy on his ummah and not be very severe on them.
Some authorities said that he wished to please the Prophet صلى‌الله‌عليه‌وسلم by saying that more of his ummah would enter paradise than his own. He praised the Prophet صلى‌الله‌عليه‌وسلم that while others could not achieve in longer lives, his ummah earned that in shorter life.

DID THEY HAVE THEIR BODIES: The ulama say that while the bodies of these Prophets عليه السلام are in their graves, Allah caused the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to meet them, their souls being in the replicas of their bodies. But, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم met Prophet Easa عليه السلام in his real body in the heaven, because he has been taken up to heaven in his body alive. He also saw Prophet Idris عليه السلام in his real body because he too has been carried to heaven in his body alive.

It may also be that Allah gathered these Prophet عليه السلام in their elementary bodies in the Masjid Aqsa (Baytul-Maqdis) and in the heavens. This was an honour for the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Nothing is impossible for Allah. He may have taken the bodies of these Prophets عليهم السلام from their graves for one night to Baytul Maqdis and the heavens. Then he may have returned them to their graves.

WHY NOT ALL: A question arises why was the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم made to meet only these few Prophets? Also, why was each of those he met associated with a different heaven? The u lama have explained that the wisdom in meeting these Prophet عليه السلام was related to that which the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم would face in his life gradually.

He met Prophet Aadam عليه السلام on the first heaven. He was the first Prophet and the first father of every human being. So the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم first meeting was with him. This meeting indicates to hijrah or emigration. Prophet Aadam عليه السلام had to move out of the heaven an paradise because of his enemy. Iblis. So, too, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had to leave Makkah because of his enemies to Madinahy. This suppuration from the original place proved difficult to bear to both of them.

In the second heaven, he met Prophet Easa عليه السلام. HE was the nearest to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in time and he will come down from the heaven during the closing period of he creation and will eliminate the dajjal. As a revivalist of this ummah, he will promote the Shari'ah of Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم. He will be the one who will bring all he people to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم on the day of resurrection and request him to make intercession. This is the significance of the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم meeting with Prophet Easa عليه السلام.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم also met Prophet Yahya عليه السلام at the same time at which he met Prophet Easa عليه السلام because both of them were related.

He met Prophet Yusuf عليه السلام in eh third heaven. After Prophet Easa عليه السلام, the nearness to Prophet Yusuf عليه السلام is most marked for the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. When his ummah will enter paradise, they will be as beautiful and glorious in appearance as Prophet Yusuf عليه السلام.this meeting was a foreboding of similar treatment to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم as the hands of his relatives as was given to prophet Yusuf عليه السلام by his brothers. But, eventually, he would overcome their apposition and forgive them. At the fourth heaven, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم met Prophet Idris عليه السلام. Allah has said about him:

{And we raised him to lofty place.} (19:57)

He was kept at the fourth heaven because it is the central and a mean between the seven. He was the inventor of writing and the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم wrote letters to kings and rulers inviting them to Islam: hence, their connection.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم met Prophet Harun عليه السلام at the fifth heaven. He was the brother of Prophet Musa عليه السلام and his helper in inviting people to religion. So, he was kept at the fifth heaven near to Prophet Musa عليه السلام who was at the sixty heaven because he was (كليم الله) – kalimaullah with whom Allah spoke directly. This merit was why he is placed in the sixty heaven above the other Prophets عليهم السلام, Just as he had gone to Syria to fight with the giants (to tyrants)[1] and Allah gave him victory so too the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was to invade Syria to fight with the enemies of Islam. Accordingly, he went there for the Battle of Tabuk and the ruler of Dumatah abjandal agreed to pay the jizyah (tribute). Peace was concluded on this surrender. Moreover, after prophet Musa عليه السلام, Prophet Yusha عليه السلام conquered Syria. This was duplicated after the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم by Umar رضى الله عنه who was instrumental in conquering the whole of Syria.

Prophet Ibrahim عليه السلام is the most superior of all Prophets after Prophet Muhamamd صلى الله عليه وسلم. So, he resides in the seventy heaven. He is also the builder of the ka'bah. So their meeting precedes the hajj of the House of Allah by the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم before his death and the conquest of Makkah at his hands.

ONLY THESE: The ulama say that while it may have been found enough to have the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم meet only these Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, it is also possible that he met the rest of them too but only these few are mentioned. They may have been present at their respective places in different heavens in keeping with their ranks and standing.

SIDRATUL MUNTAHA: It is a lote tree on the seventh heaven having its roots in the sixty heaven. The word sidrah means lote tree and muntaha is the limit beyond which no one goes, or the upper realm.[2]

Whatever goes up from the earth stops at sidratul muhtaha. Then it is taken up (in some way). In the same way whatever comes down from Malaul ala (Arabic) – the 'exalted assembly' or 'the heavenly beings.'[3]

Steps at sidratul muntaha. Then, it is brought down. In other words, this is the point beyond which even angels cannot go.

However, our beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had the honour to go past this point. No one else has had this honour.

LEAVES LIKE ELEPHANT EARS: The word (فيلة) in the relative Arabic sentence is the plural of (فيل) elephants, on the form of (ديكة) the plural of (ديك) 'hen' the comparison of the fruit and leaves of sidratul munhtaha to large vessels and to ears of elephants is only to describe them to the people. Actually, the height or breadth of the tree cannot be described in words nor can the sizes of its fruit and leaves be illustrated.

Jibril عليه السلام said to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that they had came to the sidtarul muntaha. In these words he acquainted him with the place and complimented him on arriving there where the knowledge of all creatures ends and no one other than him will go further. He also made it known to him that he would not be able to accompany him beyond that point as he was not permitted to cross it.

CONCEALED RIVERS: Teebi رحمه الله says about these words that one of the concealed rivers is salsabeel and the other is kawthar. They are called 'concealed' because they flow in paradise and do not emerge out of there.

[3] 38:"69 (Surah Saad)

Some others say that they are so-called because they cannot be comprehended by human intelligence.

NILE & EUPHRATES: It seems that the two visible or apparent rivers are the some Nile of Egypt and the Euphrates of Iraq about which a hadith discloses that their source is the sidratul muhtaha and they flow from there to he earth to these two places.

However, some authorities say that these two rivers are merely likened to the two of the world because of their sweetness and purity and advantage similar to the river of paradise. They also say that it simply is that they are namesakes of the neel and faro at of paradise.

BAYT UL MA'MUR: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that he was then taken to Bayt ul-Ma'mur. It is the also the house of Allah (the populated House)[1] on the seventy heaven. It is the ka'bah of the angel. It is parallel to the Ka'bah on earth. If it were to drop then it soul land on the ka'bah of the earth. We will read about it in a hadith to follow.

MILK IS FITRAH: Fitrah is the religion of Islam Allah has placed it in the instinct of every new born. There is compatibility in milk and fitrah or the religion of Islam. Just as the religion of Islam is the essence of man's spiritual and religious creation so too milk is the basics requirement of his physical growth. This is why religion and knowledge are compared to milk in the higher world. The ulama say that if anyone dreams that he consumes milk then it means that he will gain much from religion and knowledge and acquire much of them.[2]

WILL BE ON FITRAH: When the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم chose milk, Jibril عليه السلام gave him tidings that he and his ummah would follow religion and knowledge. Against this, wine is the root cause of all evil. The Prophet did not touch it whereby he prevented his ummah from pursuing the evil path. According to one hadith. Jibril عليه السلام had also said to him, "If you had picked up the bowl of wine, hen your ummah would have become accustomed to every kind of evil."

It must be born in mind that when the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was taken for the mi'raj wine was not disallowed at hat time. More particularly the case of the wine of heaven is very different but, in spite of that, if anything is likened to evil and called anything is likened to evil and called bad in the higher world, that is wine itself.

HONEY: As for honey, though it is fine and pure and a means of cure, it does not overshadow milk. Rather, it is interior to milk. A hadith that follows does not even mention honey but speaks only of bowls of wine and milk. While the hadith under discussion (5842) seems to suggest that these bowls were presented to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم at sidratul muntaha yet the other hadith (to follow # 5863) says that they were offered to him at Bayt ul-Maqdis. On this basis the ulama deduce that these vessels or bowls* were presented to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم twice. The first time, in Masjid Aqsa after the salah, only two bowls were presented one each of milk and wine. This is what the next hadith says. The second time, in the heaven near sidratul muntha, three bowls were presented to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم one each of milk, honey and wine (as this hadith says.

RETURN TO YOUR LORD & ASK FOR A REDUCTION: Khattabi رحمه الله said that Prophet Musa عليه السلام sent the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم again and again to get a reduction in the number of (prescribed) salah from Allah because he had known that the command was not final and obligatory. There was a possibility of concession. If he had not known it then he would not have advised the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to seek a reduction. This is borne out from the fact that Allah accepted the request for a reduction every time it was presented. If the command was absolute them Allah would not have acceded to the request. It a command is absolute than there is no question of revising it.

Mulla Ali Qari رحمه الله has referred to this opinion of Khatabi رحمه الله on the authority of Teebi رحمه الله. Then he has given his own opinion that Khatabi's رحمه الله deduction is not sound. He says that the request for a reduction is itself evidence that the command was absolute and unequivocal. If anything is not obligatory than the need to request for a concession does not arise.

Hence the correct thing is that Allah had prescribed fifty salah to be offered every day. Then he had mercy on his creatures and accepted the request for a deduction and abrogated the command. Then, He prescribed five times salah every day. There are examples of other commands too in which changes were made or which were annulled.

5863. Sayyiduna Thabit Banani رحمه الله narrated on the authority of Sayyiduna Anas (ibn Maalik) رضی الله عنه that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "The Buraq was brought to me. It was a white and long animal. It was larger than a donkey but smaller than a mule. It put its hoof down as for away as the limit of its vision. I mounted it and it traveled with me till it landed at Bayt ul-Maqdis (Jerusalem). I tied it there to the (same) ring to which the Prophet علیه السلام (before me) had tied their beasts. Then I entered (the mosque) the offered two raka'at salah. When I came out afterwards, Jibril علیه السلام came to me with a vessel of wine and a vessel of milk .I took milk and Jibril علیه السلام said, "you have picked fitrah (which is true religion).

Then he ascended with e mot the lowest heaven." Here, he said something similar to what he said before (hadith # 5862 – about the gates). Then, he went on to say: "Behold, I was with Aadam علیه السلام. He welcomed me and prayed for me to be happy." (the second heaven is not mentioned).

"Then, he ascended with me to the third heaven,' saying the same things as at the first. And, he continued. "Behold. I was with Yusuf علیه السلام. He was given half of the beauty. He welcomed me and prayed for me to be happy." Here again it is the same of similar narration as the previous (# 5862) but he did not say anything about prophet Musa علیه السلام weeping, till he said of the seventh heaven: "Behold, I was with Ibrahim علیه السلام He was reclining himself on the Bayt ul-Mamur (or the frequented house). Seventy thousand angels enter it every day and do not return to it.

Then, he took me to the sidratul muntaha (which is the late tree of the boundary). Its leaves are like ears of elephants and its fruits are like vessels of earthenware. When that which shrouds it al Allah's command, it changes and none of Allah's creatures is able to describe it, concerning its beauty.

Then Allah revealed to me that which He revealed and He prescribed for me fifty salah every day and night. Then, I came down and when I was with Musa علیه السلام, he asked me, 'what did your Lord prescribe for your ummah? I said, 'fifty salah every day and night.' He advised me, 'Go back to your Lord and request Him to make it softer to your ummah. They will not be able to do it, for I had tested (my ummah) and have had an experience with the Banu Isr'ail. So, I came back to my Lord and pleaded for a reduction and he reduced five salah, but he (Musa) علیه السلام sent me back after I told him of he reduction, to get a further reduction. So, it did not stop my going back to my Lord from Musa علیه السلام till Allah said, 'O Muhammad, these are five salah every day and night but against each salah are ten (as reward) So, they are fifty salah. And, if anyone resolves to do a good deed which he does not do, I shall record for him one deed. And, if he does it, then I shall record for him ten. And, he who resolves to commit a wrong which he does not commit, then I shall record nothing against him. If he commits the wrong, then I shall record only one evil deed against him.'

Then I came down till I was Musa عليه السلام and informed him. He said, 'go back to your Lord and request him for a further reduction. (your ummah are incapable of it.) But, I told him that I was ashamed of going to him again. I had gone to him so many times."[1]

COMMENTARY: Mulla Ali Qari رحمه الله said that all the ulama agree that the isra or the journey up to the Masjid Aqsa did take place. No one at all has doubted or questioned its validity. However Some people deny the reality of the mi'raj, like the mu'tazallah. The reason they disagree is the thinking of the ancient ulama that anything contrary to practice or custom cannot happen in the heaven.

The two raka'at salah that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم offered in the Masjid Aqsa was the tahiyatul masjid salah. (It is an optional salah offered on entering the mosque if there is ample time to offer it and if it is not an hour when it is disallowed to offer it. It is like a greeting for the mosque.)

However, the more correct thing is that this was the salah in which the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم led the other Prophets عليهم السلام who were brought to Bayt ul-Maqdis to honour the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. The narrator resorted to brevity and did not mention this fact of the salah, or he forget to mention it. This omission is like the omission in the previous hadith about not mentioning the visit to Bayt Maqdis before the mi'raj.

MILK &WINE: Of the two bowl presented to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم he chose milk. Honey is not mentioned here so either it was not offered to the narrator omitted to mention it. See comments on the previous hadith (# 5862) on this aspect of the subject.

TO HEAVEN: The words 'he ascended with me to heaven' could also be 'we were made to ascend..." 'Allah caused JIbril عليه السلام and me to climb to heaven! Or, JIbril took him to heaven. Or, 'we were taken to the heaven.' (These are different possibilities depending on the vowel points of letters or diacritical marks).

YUSUF عليه السلام: Prophet Yusuf عليه السلام was given half of the beauty. Some say that of the total beauty the people of his time had, he was given half the beauty. Some others say that he was given half the beauty of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم himself. This means that he was not more beautiful than our Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. They point out that the beauty of Prophet Yusuf عليه السلام is not compared anywhere with a mirror reflecting him beauty on a wall and allowing for the image of whatever is in front of it to be seen in the reflection. But, this kind of a comparison is made for Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم. It is another thing that Allah had concealed much of his beauty from the sahabah رضى الله عنهم otherwise no one could not stood the vision and none would have been able to see him. Prophet Yusuf's عليه السلام beauty was visible for everyone to see.

Shaykh Abdul Haq Muhaddith Dahlwi رحمه الله said that whatever is reported about the beauty of Prophet about the beauty of Prophet Yusuf عليه السلام suggests that his beauty was unmatched. It is corroborated in a hadith about the miraj that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "On that night, I was given the opportunity to se and meet a man who was the best of nature's creation and was blessed with the best beauty of all of Allah's creation. It was like the moon that outshines all the stars." At the same time, there is the hadith of Anas رضی اللہ عنہ transmitted by Tirmidhi "Allah has not sent a Prophet or a Messenger who is not beautiful and sweet voiced and the best of them is your Prophet." As for the hadith about the mi'raj quoted by Shaykh Abdul Haq Dahlawi (RH, we may say that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had excluded himself when he spoke the words about Prophet Yusuf's علیہ السلام beauty. We deduce this from the axiom what the speaker is excluded from the generalization of his address.

Shaykh Ibn Hajar Makki رحمہ اللہ has written in his sharh Shama'il Tiormidhi:

"Belief I the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم requires one to have the conviction that no one else possesses as much beauty and look as was bestowed on the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. It is like the merits and perfection of the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم inner nature that no one else possesses. So it follows naturally that his outward life and character were also unique and unmatched because anyone's outward is an image of his inner nature. It is enough to say about his outward and inner beauty that apart from the rank of Divinity, all other degrees of merit and perfection are known for him leave aside anyone being more outstanding than him, there has never been nor will ever be anyone as perfect as he was.

SIDRATUL MUNTAHA:"Whatever covered the sidratul muntaha covered it." What was it? Some people say that the wings of the angels overhead had thrown their light on the tree. Some others suggest that the light of Allah's glory and might fell on it as though golden butterflies concealing the whole tree. Yet others say that golden moths, butterflies and other coloured wonderful and amazing things indescribable and unknown to us had covered the sidtratul muntaha.
Here, Allah sent to him some revelation. He was rear the sanctuary of Allah and saw, through the mighty veil, the glory of the Nur (light) of the Creator of heavens and earth. He was honoured with direct conversation and prompt revelation. What was that? NO one but Allah and His Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم know about it. It is better to let it be uninvestigated as it is. No surmise or suggestions should be made.
SALAH: Allah reduced five salah per day for his ummah for his sake. While this hadith says that the reduction in fifty salah was done five at a time, the previous says that ten were deducted at each request leaving five in the end. So, either five and five were deducted at every plea making a deduction of ten each time, or the previous hadith (# 5862) puts the ten deductions together to avoid a lengthier narration and make it brief. This is indicated in the words of he Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم in this hadith, "Then I came to Musa علیہ السلام and told him that a reduction of five salah has been made for me."
TENFOLD REWARD:A person may perform only one good deed but his record of deeds will be credited by ten good deeds. Allah has given tidings of this in he Quran.

مَنْ جَآءَ بِالْحَسَنَةِ فَلَهُ عَشْرُ اَمْثَالِهَا

{He who brings one good, for him, there are, then, ten like thereof} (6:160)

This additional reward is the minimum addition for a good deed anywhere outside the sacred territory of the Haram. It is known from other ahadith that, under some circumstances, this reward is manifold -more than ten times. Even seven hundred times. Rather, depending on truth and sincerity, it may be more than seven hundred times too.

In comparison, when anyone intends to do an evil deed but fails to do it, either for no reason at all or because of some good reason, then his record of deeds will have no entry made into it, provided that intention was a superficial one and he had not made a resolute effort towards it. If he had made a firm resolution to do the evil deed and did not do it, then it will be seen what prevented him from carrying on his resolve. If he resisted from committing the sin because of fear of Allah and he abandoned his evil intention merely to please in his record of deeds.

WHEN EVIL IS PERPETRATED: When a pious deed is done, ten are credited for eh doer, but when an evil deed is perpetrated a only one evil act is recorded. Evil is never multiplied. Allah says:

{And he who brings an evil will not be rewarded except its like. And they will not be wronged} (16:160)

The words that they will not be wronged make it clear that evil should not be augmented and this is Allah's justice. On the other hand multiplying (reward of) piety is Allah's favour.

5864. Sayyiduna Ibn Shihab رضی الله عنه (Zuhri, a tabi'i) reported on the authority of Sayyiduna Anas (ibn Maalik) (R0 that Sayyiduna Abu Dharr رضی الله عنه used to narrate that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said: While I was in Makkah. The roof of my house was cleft and Jibril علیه السلام came down. He opened my breast and washed it with the water of zamzam. Then he brought a gold dish which was full of wisdom and faith which he emptied into my breast and replaced it duly closed. Then he took me by hand and ascended with me to the heaven. When we were at the first heaven, Jibril علیه السلام asked the keeper of the heaven to open it. He asked, "who are you?" He said, 'I am Jibril." He asked, "Is there anyone with you?" He said 'Yes Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم is with me" He asked, "Has he been called?" He said, "Yes" so, the gate was opened and we went up into the heaven above earth (to the lowest heaven). There was a man to whose right was a multitude and to whose left was a multitude. When he looked towards his right, he laughed and when he looked to his left, he wept. He said,

"Welcome to the righteous, Prophet and the righteous son."

I asked Jibril علیه السلام, "who is he?" He said, "He is Aadam علیه السلام. This multitude to his right and to his left are souls of his offspring. Those on the right among them are the inhabitants of paradise and the multitude that is to his left are the people of the Fire. So, on looking to his right, he laughs and on looking to his left, he weeps."

Then he ascended with me to salah. I returned with them but as I passed Musa علیه السلام, he asked me, "what has Allah prescribed for you and your umma?" I told him of the fifty salah. He said, "Go back to your Lord, for your ummah will not be able to observe it." He sent me back and half of them were waived. Oncoming back to Musa علیه السلام, I told him that half of them had been waived, but he urged me, "Go back to your Lord. Your ummah are incapable of it." So, I went back to Allah and He said, "They are five and they are like fifty, for, the word is never changed with me." I came to Musa and he urged me, "Return to your Lord." I said, "I am ashamed to go back to my Lord." Then he come with me up to sidratul muntaha which was covered with colours that I cannot describe.

Then I entered paradise. There are mountains of pearls and its soil is musk.[1] the second heaven and said to its keeper, "Open!" the keeper asked... (the some questions and answers followed) and the gate was opened.
Anas رضی اللہ عنہ interposed here that he found in the heavens Aadam علیہ السلام, Idris علیہ السلام, Musa علیہ السلام, Easa علیہ السلام and Ibrahim علیہ السلام without specifying their places except that he said that he found Aadam علیہ السلام in the lowest heaven and Ibrahim علیہ السلامin the sixty. Anas also said that when Jibril and the Prophet passed Idris علیہ السلام. (And, the Prophet's saying is resumed:) He said, "welcome to the righteous Prophet and the righteous brother." I asked, "who is he?" He said, "Idris," (Then, in like manner they met Prophet Musa علیہ السلام, Easa علیہ السلام and Ibrahim علیہ السلام.
Ibn Shihab Zuhri (the sub narrator) said that Ibn Hazm reported from Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ and Abu Habbah Ansari that the Prophet than said: Then, I was taken up till I was at such a height that I heard the creaking of the pens.
Ibn Hazm and Anas ibn Maalik رضی اللہ عنہ continued to saying of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم Allah prescribed for my ummah fifty.

COMMENTARY: The word (فرج) is spelt indifferent ways and is either passive voice or active, but it gives the same meaning: "Jibril علیہ السلام opened or cleft the roof and came in."
The different traditions give different places from where the journey of isra and mi'raj began. The places mentioned include Hatim, Hijr, Shu'ab Abu Talib, and while he was resting on a bed in the house of Sayyidah Umm Hani رضی اللہ عنہا this last tradition is more known.
The compiler of Fath Bari has given an explanation that is most acceptable. [the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was sleeping in the house of Sayyidah Umm Hani رضی اللہ عنہ which was in shu'ab Abu Talib. JIbril علیہ السلام split open its roof and come near the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. He wake him up and took him to the ka'bah at the Hatim and hajr, He lied down in the hatim and, since he was sleepy, went to sleep. Jibril علیہ السلام woke him up again. After splitting the breast and replacing it when the work was done, the brought him to the gate of the Masjid Haram. He was made to mount the buraq and taken to Masjid Aqsa. Thus the journey of isra and mi'raj began at the house of Sayyidah Umm Hani رضی اللہ عنہ. He called it 'my hours' beaue that night he was staying there.][2]
While a previous hadith (# 5862) says that his heart was washed in a gold dish, faith and knowledge were filled in it and it was replace, this hadith says that the gold dish was brought with wisdom and faith and inverted in the breast. The sequence was taken out and washed with zamzam water and faith and wisdom were filled into it.
Then the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was led by Jibril علیہ السلام by the hand and taken up to the heaven. Neither is the buraq mentioned nor Masjid Aqsa. This is why some people say that the journeys of isra and mi'raj are two different things and were accomplished on different nights. The buraq was used for the isra while the staircase served for the mi'raj.
OFFSPRING OF AADAM علیہ السلام: The ulama say that the souls of the believers rest in the illiyun and of the infidels are restrained in the sijjin. The question arises, therefore, how they could be in the heaven to the right and left of Sayyiduna Aadam عليه السلام at the place? It is suggested that they are brought before him at some time and may have been there wherl the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم met Prophet Aadam صلى الله عليه وسلم, by a coincidence. Or, he may have seen the souls of those who had not been born till then and they may not have been in their bodies, and their respective places of residence may have been to the right and left of Prophet Aadam عليه السلام who may have known their ultimate fate – those to the right would be pious in the world and deserve paradise and those to the left would make themselves liable for hell.

IBRAHIM عليه السلام: With the exception of this tradition of Sayyiduna Anas رضى الله عنه from Shihab رحمه الله and form another sub-narrator Sharik رحمه الله, all other ahadith say that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم met Prophet Ibrahim عليه السلام on the seventy heaven (not the sixty) If we say that the mi'raj took place more than once then these variations are reconciled. But, if it has taken place only once, as the many reports confirms, then the most correct tradition is that the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saw Prophet Ibrahim عليه السلام reclining on the Bayt ul Ma'mur which is in the seventy heaven as unanimously agreed. Besides, the narrator has mentioned that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم visited every heaven and met the Prophets Aadam عليه السلام, Idrim عليه السلام and the others without specifying their stations (or the heaven where he met them). This itself is evidence that the most reliable tradition is the one that is clear on the stations Of each Prophet عليه السلام on which heaven he will met the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. the difference that we find in he heavens on which each Prophet will be found is because of the doubts that the narrators had in their minds. It is also possible that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم met Prophet Ibrahim عليه السلام on both the sixth and the seventh heavens.

CREAKING OF PENS: This is the place (صريف الاقلام) sarif ul Aqlam where the scribbling of pens is heard as write. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was at the place where the pens were occupied in recording the decree, the angel were busy in writing down the commands of Allah on the preserved Tablet. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم heard the sound of the writing instruments.

Some ulama say that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم meant that he was taken to a place and honoured thereby where the Divine decree for all the creation is enforced. It is the central office where decisions are passed on. In a way. The secrets of the universe were disclosed to him. No one else had been there before him. As for the pens and the writing instruments, only Allah known what kind they were are what their nature was. There is no point is trying to probe this question. Suffice it to say that it is a writing instrument and it may be of any kind. We must believe that it is some kind of a pen and writing instrument, but Allah's knowledge.

MY WORD CHANGES NOT: These words of Allah could mean two things.

(1) As for as reward is concerned, I have raised five salah to fetch the reward of fifty salah. This will not change.

(2) I have accepted your repeated requests for a reduction and brought the fifty salah down to fie. Now there cannot be any more change.

I AM ASHAMED TO ASK FOR MORE: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that since Allah has asserted, "There will not be any change in My word," he felt ashamed to approach his again for a concession. Also, he has obtained a reduction every time and taken leave each time. He did not think it proper to continue to make another request. So he told prophet Musa عليه السلام that he would not go any more.

MOUNTAIN OF PEARLS: He observed there mountains of pearls. According to another tradition of Muslim, he said, "I was going round paradise. Suddenly, I saw a river at each of whose banks were domes of hollow pearls."

He also saw that the soil of paradise was musk. It goes out a sweet smell as though musk was throwing its fragrance. Or, it literally means that its soil is musk itself. According to a hadith, "The sweet smell of the soil of paradise is perceived up to a distance that takes five hundred years to cover."

AT SIDRAT UL-MUNTAHA

(٥٨٦٥) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ قَالَ لَمَّا أُسْرِيَ بِرَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ انْتُهِيَ بِهٖ إِلٰى سِدْرَةِ الْمُنْتَهٰى وَهِيَ فِي السَّمَآءِ السَّادِسَةِ إِلَيْهَا يَنْتَهِيْ مَا يُعْرَجُ بِهٖ مِنَ الْأَرْضِ فَيُقْبَضُ مِنْهَا وَإِلَيْهَا يَنْتَهِيْ مَا يُهْبَطُ بِهٖ مِنْ فَوْقِهَا فَيُقْبَضُ مِنْهَا قَالَ إِذْ يَغْشَى السِّدْرَةَ مَا يَغْشٰى قَالَ فَرَاشٌ مِنْ ذَهَبٍ قَالَ فَأُعْطِيَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ثَلٰثًا أُعْطِيَ الصَّلَوَاتِ الْخَمْسَ وَأُعْطِيَ خَوَاتِيْمَ سُوْرَةِ الْبَقَرَةِ وَغُفِرَ لِمَنْ لَا يُشْرِكُ بِاللّٰهِ مِنْ أُمَّتِهٖ شَيْئًا الْمُقْحِمَاتُ۔ (رواه مسلم)

5865. Sayyiduna Abdullah (ibn Mas'ud) رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that when Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was taken up to heaven (on the right journey), he came up to sidratul muntaha which is in the sixth heaven. At this point, what ever is taken up from the earth terminates (and taken further up without any sort of visible means). And, so , too, whatever is sent down from above terminates at this point and then taken down from it. He said about:

إِذْ يَغْشَى السِّدْرَةَ مَا يَغْشٰى

{When that which shrouds shrouded the late-tree} (53:16)

"That are the golden butterflies."

He said that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was given three things:

1. He was given the five times salah.
2. He was given the concluding verses of surah al-Baqarah.
3. He was given (on assurance of) forgiveness of grave sins to one who has never ascribed a partner to Allah.[1]

COMMENTARY: Some commentator say that one the sub-narrators has erred in saying that the sidrat ul muntaha is at the sixth heaven because, in the original hadith, Ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ has said that it is in the seventh heaven. Qadi رحمہ اللہ says; It is more correct that sidrat ul-muntaha

Is in the seventh heaven. A majority of the narrators say so.

Another great scholar of hadith, Khalil رحمہ اللہ said that sidrat ul muntaha is in the seventy heaven which covers all heavens and paradise.

Imam Nawawi رحمہ اللہ says that if we concede that sidratul muntaha is in the sixth heaven and not narrator of this hadith has erred then since the roots of sidratul muntaha are in the sixth heaven, he has gone by it while its complete trunk and branches are in the seventy, so most of the narrators put it seventh, so most of the narrators put it there.

TERMINATES AT SIDRATUL MUNTAHA: Whatever ascends from earth, like deeds and souls of mankind carried by the angels, are grasped and held at the sidrat ul muntaha. The angels, too are not permitted to proceed beyond it, so Allah takes them up from here.with His own power without the means of the angels. In the same way, everything that descends from Allah to the earth, like His commands, stops at sidratul muintaha. The angels appointed for the purpose pick then up and deliver them to their destination.

The last limit of the knowledge and sciences of eh creatures, and of the ascending of the angels is sidratul muntaha. Not even the chief angels are permitted to proceed beyond or above it. Only the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has the destination of being allowed beyond it. In fact, he was taken to where none of the creatures has gone.

COVERED THE SIDRAH: The next portion is he verse of the Quran:

إِذْيَغْشَى السِّدْرَةَ . . . الخ

(When that which shrouds shrouded the lote tree) (53:16)

Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضى الله عنه recited it because it is appropriate to sitdat ul muntaha that is mentioned here. Indeed, Allah Himself did not disclose that which cover sidratul muntaha and this shows that one had been able to decipher its reality and say how much it is and what kind it is. This is done to impress its greatness and is large number. This is also clear form the previous hadith (# 5864) quoting the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم:

According to another tradition, an angel stands on each of its leaves chanting Allah's glory. Yet another tradition says that green coloured birds perch on it in large numbers, of which some people say that they are souls of Prophets عليهم السلام and awliya.

Ibn Mas'ud رضى الله عنه compared them to golden butterflies. He did not mean that they actually are butterflies. He did not mean that they actually are butterflies or moth. The brightness of the feet of the numerous angels gives the impression that they are golden butterflies. Covering the whole of the sidratul-muntaha. It alludes to the amazement of the angels at the soured nur (light) of Allah descending on the sidrah.

Another tradition compares them to (جراد من ذهب) golden locust. This companion arises from the nature of a swam of locusts that camouflage the tree under them. As for gold, it is comparison for the shine and brightness or the moths or butterflies or locusts may actually be of gold. Nothing is impossible for Allah.

THREE THINGS: Actually, on this night, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was given a large portion of knowledge, awareness and mystic secrets together with tremendous blessings. They are unlimited and uncountable. The three things that Ibn Mas'ud رضى الله عنه has mentioned are specifically concerned with the ummah for their good. He mentioned them because of their extraordinary them because of their extraordinary significance.

CLOSING VERSES OF AL-BAQARAH: They are from the words (امن الرسول) to the end of the surah (verses 285 and 286). Allah gave an assurance that he would accept these prayers that from part of these two verses. This was reconfirmed when, as a tradition in sahih Muslim says: One day Jibril عليه السلام was sitting with the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم when he heard a sound above him (as though a door was opened). He looked up and said to the Prophet صلى

الله عليه وسلم "This is an angel who has come to earth (for the first time). Never before has he come here." Then, the arriving angel greeted the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and said, "I have brought glad tidings to you. Two nurs (Lights) have been bestowed on you as had not been granted to any Prophet عليه السلام before you. They are: Fatihat ul-Kitab (or surah al Fatihah) and the last verses of surah al-Baqarah. For every letter you recite from either of them you will earn (reward and acceptance of your supplication) for that."[1]

This was one of the great gifts given to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم on the night of the miraj salah is another taken of that night.

This tradition in Muslim and other books of hadith reflects the significance of the gift bestowed on him that night. Hence, there should arise no question about the two traditions being different.

However, are question does arise. Surah al-Baqarah is a Madinan surah (which means that it was revealed in Madinah) while the miraj took place before the hijrah. In Makkah This means that these verses cannot be Madinan, but are Makkan, The exegetes and the scholars of hadith say that the surah al Baqarah is called Madinah but not necessarily all of it was revealed in Madinah. In fact, apart from these two last verses, all the other verses of surah al-Baqarh were revealed in Madina.

Ibn Maalik رحمه الله has reported from Hasan رحمه الله, Ibn Sirin رحمه الله and Mujahid رحمه الله that Allah revealed surh al-Baqarah to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم on the night of mi'raj directly without the means of channel of Jibril عليه السلام. This means that these people consider the entire surah al-Baqarah to be Makkan. However, the majority of exegetes and scholars contend that the entire surah al-Baqarah is Madinan. In the light of this opinion, we will say of the last two verses being bestowed during the mi'raj that they were not bestowed in their actual words, but that tidings were given that the supplication will be granted to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and whoever make it as given in these words from (غفرانك) to the end of the verses.

Besides on assurance was given on the night of miraj that the ummnah of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم could e forgiven even their major sins. In other words, Allah would pardon whom so ever he wished for his grave sins provided he did not associate anything with him Allah says:

إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يَغْفِرُ أَنْ يُشْرَكَ بِهِ وَيَغْفِرُ مَا دُونَ ذَٰلِكَ لِمَنْ يَشَاءُ

{Surely, Allah will not forgive the act of anything being joined with him, but besides that, He will for give whom He pleases.} (4:48)

Obviously, it does not mean that the perpetrator of a major sin is at liberty and is forgiven outright whatever he does. Rather, the Shari'ah has prescribed punishment to a believer who commits a major sin. However, pardon and forgiveness depends on Allah's will and this is an exception known to everyone. It is not necessary to spell it out in laws of Shari'ah.

Ibn Hajar رحمه الله said that forgiveness of major sins means that none of the monotheist believers will abide in hell perpetually, howsoever. But, the polytheists will abide in hell externally.

However, Mulla Ali Qari رحمه الله differs form Ibn Hajar رحمه الله. He says that in that case this ummah will have no distinction. Also, its high rank will not become obscure so, it will be more correct to say that forgiveness will include most members of the ummah of Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم. In comparison to the other ummah, the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم ummah will have the distinction that most of its members will be forgiven because of Allah's mercy and they will not undergo punishment in hell. This is why this ummah is called ummat ul marhumah (the people who are shown mercy).

(٥٨٦٦) وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَقَدْ رَأَيْتُنِي فِي الْحِجْرِ وَقُرَيْشٌ تَسْأَلُنِي عَنْ مَسْرَايَ فَسَأَلَتْنِي عَنْ أَشْيَاءَ مِنْ بَيْتِ الْمَقْدِسِ لَمْ أُثْبِتْهَا فَكُرِبْتُ كَرْبًا مَا كُرِبْتُ مِثْلَهُ فَرَفَعَهُ اللّٰهُ لِي أَنْظُرُ إِلَيْهِ يَسْأَلُوْنِي عَنْ شَيْءٍ إِلَّا أَنْبَأْتُهُمْ وَقَدْ رَأَيْتُنِي فِي جَمَاعَةٍ مِنَ الْأَنْبِيَاءِ فَإِذَا مُوْسٰى قَائِمٌ يُصَلِّي فَإِذَا رَجُلٌ ضَرْبٌ جَعْدٌ كَأَنَّهُ مِنْ رِجَالِ شَنُوْءَةَ وَإِذَا عِيْسٰى قَائِمٌ يُصَلِّي أَقْرَبُ النَّاسِ بِهِ شَبَهًا عُرْوَةُ بْنُ مَسْعُوْدٍ الثَّقَفِيُّ وَإِذَا إِبْرَاهِيْمُ قَائِمٌ يُصَلِّي أَشْبَهُ النَّاسِ بِهِ صَاحِبُكُمْ يَعْنِي نَفْسَهُ فَحَانَتِ الصَّلٰوةُ فَأَمَمْتُهُمْ فَلَمَّا فَرَغْتُ مِنَ الصَّلٰوةِ قَالَ لِي قَائِلٌ يَا مُحَمَّدُ هٰذَا مَالِكٌ خَازِنُ النَّارِ فَسَلِّمْ عَلَيْهِ فَالْتَفَتُّ إِلَيْهِ فَبَدَأَنِي بِالسَّلَامِ. رَوَاهُ مُسْلِمٌ وَهٰذَا الْبَابُ خَالٍ عَنِ الْفَصْلِ الثَّانِي.

5866. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Indeed, I did find myself in the Hijr as the Quraysh shot questions at me about my night journey. They asked about things associated with Jerusalem of which I was unsure. So, I become anxious as I has never been before. But, Allah brought it in front of me. Whatever they asked, I informed them without hesitation. Indeed, I did find myself in the company of the Prophets عليهم السلام. Musa عليه السلام was offering salah. He was a strong man like those of Shanu'ah. And Easa عليه السلام stood in salah. (This our) Urwah ibn Mas'ud Thaqafi is nearest to him in resemblance. And, Ibrahim عليه السلام also stood offering salah. The one most closely resembling him in (this your companion," meaning himself. "The hour of salah came and I led them a their imam (in the congregation). When I finished, someone said, 'O Muhammad, this is Maalik, the keeper of hell. Offer him salaam!' But, I turned to greet him, he preceded me in giving me a salutation." (This was before he began my journey or after I reached the heavens.)[1]

COMMENTARY: He saw himself among other Prophets عليهم السلام and this was in Baytul Maqdis before his ascension to the heaven after his departure from Makkah. (This was brought before his eyes when he was questioned about his visit to Bayt ul-Maqdis and the heavens).

This seeing, according to the unanimous view of the ulama, is not the same as his seeing in the heavens. He had seen the Prophets عليهم السلام once in the Bayt ul-Maqdis before traveling to the heavens. The second time he saw them in the heavens and met them. Some authorities say that seeing them in the heavens was seeing their souls, for they were not there with their bodies. Their souls were assembled there. However, Prophet Easa عليه السلام is an exception because he was taken up (alive) with his body and he is present in the heaven. Some people say the same thing about prophet Idris عليه السلام.

As for the salah of the Prophets عليهم السلام at Bayt ul-Maqdsi, it is possible that only the souls offered the salah. But, it is also possible that their bodies and soul together offered the salah. The second possibility is nearer reality, because, as we have stated previously, the Prophet عليه السلام are alive and are with Allah. He has forbidden the earth to devour the bodies of the Prophets عليهم السلام they lie in their graves in the same position as they were buried. Their bodies are unlike other people 's bodies, not dense but fine like souls. Therefore, nothing prevents them from gathering in the heavenly world and every where because of the power of the Omnipotent Allah. The word of this hadith that prophet Musa عليه السلام and prophet Easa عليه السلام offered salah corroborate this statement that when the Prophets عليه السلام offered salah in the Bayt Maqdis, they had their bodies and souls together. This is obvious because salah is offered requiring the limbs to move into several postures, not merely with the soul.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم led the Prophets عليهم السلام in congregational salah in the Masjid Aqsa., then they were sent to heavens to receive the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Or, after the salah in the Masjid Aqsa, their souls were transferred to the heavens to receive the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. He met them there. However, Prophet Easa عليه السلام and Prophet Idris عليه السلام were in the heavens with their bodies.

It is also possible that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم led the Prophets عليه السلام is salah and joined them and returning from sidratul munhtaha.

We must remember that Allah is powerful and able to do anything and nothing is impossible for him. He demonstrated His power as He wiled. If the awliya are enabled by him to be seen by different people in different appearances (as is known of some of them), then why can such a thing not happen with the Prophet عليه السلام? In fact, miracles and wonders are such things as defy intelligence and take place by Allah's power.

Prophet Musa عليه السلام was a strong man. The Arabic word is (جعد) and this is one meaning of the word.

SALAH IS MI'RAJ: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم led the Prophets عليهم السلام in salah when it was the hour of salah. Their offering salah on that occasion shows that salah in fact is the mi'raj of he believer. It is the form of worship that causes the creature to meet his creator. It gets him the highest rank of servitude. It is the most pleasing from the worship to the devoted, loving slaves of Allah. It seems from this hadith that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم led the Prophets عليهم السلام in salah at Masjid Aqsa before ascending to the heavens. It is also possible that the (whole thing about) leading the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم took place in the heavens too. But, the hadith itself says nothing about the salah in the heavens. It only say that it was observed in Bayt ul-Maqdis.

As for the nature of the salah, it was either a tahiyyah (salah of greeting) or a singular salah that was exclusive to the occasion of the mi'raj.

A question arises: why did the Prophet offer a salah during this journey the higher world? The entire occasion from Makkah to mi'raj concerns the spiritual world beyond ours which does not impose a responsibility to worship and perform deeds. The answer is that, for one, the Prophets عليهم السلام are alive with their real and worldly lives. Perhaps they are made responsible to observe salah and worship because they are alive.

Secondly, while the obligation to observe salah and worship ceases in that world, yet the deeds continue to be there and are not abrogated.

GREETING: The angel took the initiative in offering salaam (greetings) to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. The keeper of hell was impressed and overawed by the Prophet's Qualities, rank and highness, he offered salaam before the Prophet could. It seems that this took place in the heaven.

ANOTHER HADITH ABOUT BAYT UL-MAQDIS

(٥٨٦٧) عَنْ جَابِرٍ اَنَّهُ سَمِعَ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ لَمَّا كَذَّبَنِي قُرَيْشٌ قُمْتُ فِي الْحِجْرِ فَجَلَّى اللّٰهُ لِي بَيْتَ الْمُقَدَّسِ فَطَفِقْتُ اُخْبِرُهُمْ عَنْ اٰيَاتِهِ وَاَنَا اَنْظُرُ اِلَيْهِ (متفق عليه)

5867. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم say, "when the quraysh blamed me of falsehood (on the night of the mi'raj and about my visiting the Bayt ul-Maqdis), I stood up in the Hijr and Allah ade Bayt ul Maqdis visible tome. So, I looked at it and continued to inform them of the signs and symbols (as they asked me their questions)."[1]

COMMENTARY: When the Quraysh asked him to prove his visit to Bayt ul-Maqdis by describing it to them, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم could not answer their searching, minute questions. So Allah made it possible for him to see it again and answer their questions about it. Or, as in a tradition of Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه, "The Masjid Aqsa was carried and brought before my eyes was carried and brought before my eyes and placed near Dar Aqil." In truth, this is a perfect example of a miracle. It is the throne of Bilquis was brought before Prophet Sulayman عليه السلام.

CHAPTER CONCLUDES WITHOUT HADITH OF VISION OF ALLAH: The chapter on the mi'raj concludes. But, the compiler of Mishkah has not presented in it any hadith about the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم attendance before Allah and seeing Him. The fact is that the ulama differ on whether the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was granted a vision of Allah on the right of the mi'raj or not. And, if he was granted a vision was it with his normal eyes in the head or with the eyes of the heart. Seeing with the eyes of the heart is not the some as knowing. Some people including some of the sahabah رضى الله عنهم and tabi'un رحمه الله contend that, on the night of mi'raj, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was granted Allah's vision but, with the eyes of his heart, not with his normal eyes. However, a majority of the sahabah رضى الله عنهم, Tabiun رحمه الله and ulama hold that he saw Allah with his normal eyes. The question has been discussed in the relative chapter (vision of Allah, Chapter XIV).

CHAPTER - XXIV

MIRACLES

The word (معجزات) is the plural of (معجزه). It means 'an event at variance with the usual course (of nature) or an event breaking through, or infringing. The usual course (of nature).'[1]
They are such thing as are contrary to custom. Allah enables His prophet or Messenger to demonstrate it and others are unable to do it or emulate them.
The word (معجزه) is derived from (عجز) which means 'to be weak or powerless or impotent,' or to be helpless.' It is the opposite of "being able.' The word (معجز) is also derived from it and it means 'one who makes helpless or disables.' And he himself shows a miracle.
In order to establish the veracity of His Prophets and Messengers and as evidence of their and messenger ship, Allah demonstrates at their hands events that are uncustomary. They are called mu'jizat (miracles). They are so-called because the ummah of the Prophet or Messenger who produced it are unable to demonstrate anything like it or to undo it. If anyone decides to make the mu'jizah (or, miracle) ineffective then he cannot do it.
Shaykh Abdul Haq Muhaddith Dahlawi رحمه has written: The word Mu'jizah is derived from (اعجاز) I'jaz which means to render helpless, important. Mujizah or miracle is that which is contrary to custom and which establishes the claim to prophethood and messenger ship. The uncustomary things that are demonstrated before prophethood are not mu'jizat (miracle). Rather, they are called (ارهاصات) irhasat which is the plural of (ارهاصه) irhasa. It means to solidify or erect a lace with block sand and stone. (The dictionary meaning is sign(s), taken(s), Symbol (s).]
In other words, the uncustomary events demonstrated before prophethood strengthen the edifice. they lay the ground for prophethood and make it strong.

KIND OF UNCUSTOMARY EVENTS

There are different kinds of uncustomary events that are at variance with nature and contrary to the general practice. They are regarded as marvels. There are different aspects of them and so the are of different kinds. Different names are given to these kinds. IN this way they are distinguished from each other. These kinds are:

(1) That which is demonstrated at the hands of a prophet or Messenger. It is called a mu'jazah (miracle).

(2) That which is displayed by an ordinary Muslim. It is called (معونة) mu'unah which means: help, support, succors.

(3) That which is brought about by the awliya of Allah. It is called (كرامة) karamah are means: charisma.

(4) That which is perpetrated by the disbelievers and the sinners. It is called (استدراج) istidraj. It means: enticement, luring, baiting.

Thus, excepting the first kind, the other three are not concerned with claim to prophethood. Hence, none of these three may be called mu'jizaqh (miracle) because a mu'jizah is the uncustomary event at the hands of one who a claim to prophethood.

SORCERY IS NOT CONTRARY TO CUSTOM

Magic, sorcery and sleight of hands cannot called events of an uncustomary nature. The reason is that these things depend on the obvious and the seen and anyone with some dexterity can become proficient in these things.

Anything that depends on the apparent means and is demonstrated thereby does not qualify as 'contrary to the customary.

This is why medicines and other kinds of medical treatments that heal and cure cannot be termed to be contrary to the customary' or 'at variance with nature.' If anyone describes them in this manner than he says so because of the apparent working.[1]

SECTION I ‏اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ‏

AT THE CAVE THAWR

(٥٨٦٨) عَنْ اَنَسِ بْنِ مَالِكٍ اَنَّ اَبَابَكْرِنِ الصِّدِّيْقَ قَالَ نَظَرْتُ اِلٰى اَقْدَامِ الْمُشْرِكِيْنَ عَلٰى رُؤُسِنَا وَنَحْنُ فِى الْغَارِ فَقُلْتُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ لَوْ اَنَّ اَحَدَهُمْ نَظَرَ اِلٰى قَدَمِهٖ اَبْصَرَنَا فَقَالَ يَا اَبَابَكْرٍ مَاظَنُّكَ بِاِثْنَيْنِ اللّٰهُ ثَالِثُهُمَا (متفق عليه)

5868. Sayyiduna Anas ibn Maalik رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Abu Bakr As-Siddiq رضی اللہ عنہ said, "I looked at the feet of the idolaters above our heads while we were (concealed) in the case. I submitted. "O Messenger of Allah, should any of them look at his feet, he would detect us.' He assured (me), 'O Abu Bakr, what is your opinion of two men, with whom Allah is the third?"[2]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ had set out from Makkah on the emigration to Madinah. On the way, they stopped at the cave Thawr on the heights of the Mount Thawr outside Makkah for three days. It is about three hundred and fifty miles to the south east of Makkah. When Allah commanded the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم to depart from his native land Makkah and go to Madinah, the idolaters got wind of his departure. So, they launched a search. The search parties were under instruction to bring Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم back to Makkah somehow or the other. The prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم (who had learnt of the chase through the son of Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ took refuge in the cave of mount Thawr with his companion of the journey Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ. One of the search parties come up to the mouth of the cave from whose inside they could be seen. If anyone had looked down towards his feet than he would have seen the inmates of the cave. Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ was apprehensive and whispered to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم his fears. He comforted him, saying that Allah was with them. "He will protect us." Indeed, Allah did help them. The idolaters lost hope and did not even look at the cave because they had no opportunity for it. This was clearly a miracle of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and a manifestation of Allah's power. Teebi رحمہ اللہ has written that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم also made a supplication to Allah, "O Allah, take away the eye-sight of these idolaters." Thus, Allah made them such unseeing that though they moved around the cave yet they were unable to see the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه inside the cave.

According to some traditions, the pigeons had laid their eggs at the mouth of a cave and the spiders had built their web over it. This was a miracle, too.

MIRACLE DURING THE EMIGRATION

(٥٨٦٩) وَعَنِ الْبَرَآءِ بْنِ عَازِبٍ عَنْ اَبِيْهِ اَنَّهُ قَالَ لِاَبِيْ بَكْرٍ يَا اَبَا بَكْرٍ حَدِّثْنِيْ كَيْفَ صَنَعْتُمَا حِيْنَ سَرَيْتَ مَعَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اَسْرَيْنَا لَيْلَتَنَا وَمِنَ الْغَدِ حَتّٰى قَامَ قَائِمُ الظَّهِيْرَةِ وَخَلَا الطَّرِيْقُ لَا يَمُرُّ فِيْهِ اَحَدٌ فَرُفِعَتْ لَنَا صَخْرَةٌ طَوِيْلَةٌ لَهَا ظِلٌّ لَمْ يَاْتِ عَلَيْهَا الشَّمْسُ فَنَزَلْنَا عِنْدَهَا وَسَوَّيْتُ لِلنَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَكَانًا بِيَدِيْ يَنَامُ عَلَيْهِ وَبَسَطْتُ عَلَيْهِ فَرْوَةً وَقُلْتُ نَمْ يَارَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ وَاَنَا اَنْفُضُ مَاحَوْلَكَ فَنَامَ وَخَرَجْتُ اَنْفُضُ مَاحَوْلَهُ فَاِذَا اَنَا بِرَاعٍ مُقْبِلٍ قُلْتُ اَفِيْ غَنَمِكَ لَبَنٌ قَالَ نَعَمْ قُلْتُ اَفَتَحْلِبُ قَالَ نَعَمْ فَاَخَذَ شَاةً فَحَلَبَ فِيْ قَعْبٍ كُثْبَةً مِنْ لَبَنٍ وَمَعِيْ اِدَاوَةٌ حَمَلْتُهَا لِلنَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَرْتَوِيْ فِيْهَا يَشْرَبُ وَيَتَوَضَّاءُ فَاَتَيْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَكَرِهْتُ اَنْ اُوْقِظَهُ فَوَافَقْتُهُ حَتّٰى اسْتَيْقَظَ فَصَبَبْتُ مِنَ الْمَاءِ عَلَى اللَّبَنِ حَتّٰى بَرَدَ اَسْفَلُهُ فَقُلْتُ اشْرَبْ يَارَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ فَشَرِبَ حَتّٰى رَضِيْتُ ثُمَّ قَالَ اَلَمْ يَاْنِ لِلرَّحِيْلِ قُلْتُ بَلٰى فَارْتَحَلْنَا بَعْدَ مَامَالَتِ الشَّمْسُ وَاتَّبَعَنَا سُرَاقَةُ بْنِ مَالِكٍ فَقُلْتُ اُتِيْنَا يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ فَقَالَ لَاتَحْزَنْ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ مَعَنَا فَدَعَا عَلَيْهِ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَارْتَطَمَتْ بِهِ فَرَسُهُ اِلٰى بَطْنِهَا فِيْ جَلَدٍ مِنَ الْاَرْضِ فَقَالَ اِنِّيْ اَرٰكُمَا دَعَوْتُمَا عَلَيَّ فَادْعُوْا لِيْ فَاللّٰهُ لَكُمَا اَنْ اَرُدَّ عَنْكُمَا الطَّلَبَ فَدَعَالَهُ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَنَجَا فَجَعَلَ لَا يَلْقٰى اَحَدًا اِلَّا قَالَ كُفِيْتُمْ مَا هٰهُنَا فَلَا يَلْقٰى اَحَدًا اِلَّا رَدَّهُ۔ (متفق عليه)

He drink it so that I was pleased. Then he asked, 'Of course! We proceeded after the sun has passed the meridooan (and the day was relatively cool).

Suraqah ibn Maalik was pursuing us (and I saw him) and I submitted, 'O Messenger of Allah, we have been found out." But, he said, 'Grieve not! Allah is with us. (لاتحزن ان الله معنا)[1].

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then prayed against him. So, his horse began to be swallowed with him in hard ground (and went down) up to its belly and he pleaded, 'I realize that both of you have prayed against me. Now pray for me. I call upon Allah as witness that I shall divert the search from you.' So, the Prophet prayed for him and he was extricated. Thereafter, he never met anyone (of the search parties) but assured them, 'I have searched the place). He did not encounter anyone without turning him back."[2]

COMMENTARY: The words 'did not like to awaken him and waited for him to wake up;...may also be translated 'and I lied down to a side...' The Arabic being (فوافقه). Both interpretations are allowable.

As for pouring water into milk, the Arabs used to do it in order to counter the heat of milk. So, Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه did the same thing so that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم milk became appreciably cool.

When the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم drank the milk, Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه was pleased that he was satiated. This is a sign of his love for him.

As for the sheep, the owner's permission was not sought. How may the milk then be used? The answer is that the sheep may have belonged to Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه friend and reliable confidant. So, he was sure of his willing permission. Besides, a second reason is that among the Arabs the shepherd always had the owners. Standing permission to draw the milk of the sheep for any traveler or needy person he met on the way. Another answer is that he may have paid for the milk.

Suraqah ibn Maalik was one for those whom the quraysh of Makah had charged with chasing and bringing back the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. They had offered one hundred camels as reward to anyone who handed him over to them. This man, Suraqahibn Maalik became a Muslim after the conquest of Makkah رضى الله عنه,

As for Suraqah sinking into hard earth, another tradition says that suraqah was swallowed by the earth three times and released as many times after the Prophet's prayer. Each time be breached his word on being extricated and tried to arrest the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, but the third time he abandoned his evil designs. He also sent back everyone who had come to look for the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

This hadith discloses the miracles of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and also the merits of Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه. It also teaches us a few things:

(2) A vessel of some kind must be carried while traveling to be used for drinking and cleansing and to make ablution.

(3) One must place complete trust in Allah. Only in this manner can the best result be had.

ABOUT THE ISLAM OF IBN SALAAM رضی اللہ عنہ

(٥٨٧٠) وَعَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ سَمِعَ عَبْدُ اللّٰهِ بْنِ سَلَامٍ بِمَقْدَمِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَهُوَ فِي أَرْضٍ يَخْتَرِفُ فَأَتَى النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ إِنِّي سَائِلُكَ عَنْ ثَلٰثٍ لَا يَعْلَمُهُنَّ إِلَّا نَبِيٌّ فَمَا أَوَّلُ أَشْرَاطِ السَّاعَةِ وَمَا أَوَّلُ طَعَامِ أَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ وَمَا يَنْزِعُ الْوَلَدَ إِلَى أَبِيْهِ أَوْإِلَى أُمِّهِ قَالَ أَخْبَرَنِي بِهِنَّ جِبْرَئِيْلُ اٰنِفًا أَمَّا أَوَّلُ أَشْرَاطِ السَّاعَةِ فَنَارٌ تَحْشُرُ النَّاسَ مِنَ الْمَشْرِقِ إِلَى الْمَغْرِبِ وَ أَمَّا أَوَّلُ طَعَامٍ يَأْكُلُهُ أَهْلُ الْجَنَّةِ فَزِيَادَةُ كَبِدِ حُوْتٍ وَإِذَا سَبَقَ مَاءُ الرَّجُلِ مَاءَ الْمَرْأَةِ نَزَعَ الْوَلَدَ وَإِذَا سَبَقَ مَاءُ الْمَرْأَةِ نَزَعَتْ قَالَ أَشْهَدُ أَنْ لَّا إِلٰهَ إِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَأَنَّكَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ إِنَّ الْيَهُوْدَ قَوْمٌ بُهْتٌ إِنَّهُمْ أَنْ يَعْلَمُوْا إِسْلَامِي مِنْ قَبْلِ أَنْ تَسْئَلَهُمْ يَبْهَتُوْنِي فَجَاءَتِ الْيَهُوْدُ فَقَالَ أَيُّ رَجُلٍ عَبْدُ اللّٰهِ بْنِ سَلَامٍ فِيْكُمْ قَالُوْا خَيْرُنَا وَ ابْنُ خَيْرِنَا وَسَيِّدُنَا وَابْنُ سَيِّدِنَا قَالَ أَرَأَيْتُمْ أَنْ أَسْلَمَ عَبْدُ اللّٰهِ بْنِ سَلَامٍ قَالُوْا أَعَاذَهُ اللّٰهُ مِنْ ذٰلِكَ فَخَرَجَ عَبْدُ اللّٰهِ فَقَالَ أَشْهَدُ أَنْ لَّا إِلٰهَ إِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَ أَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ فَقَالُوْا شَرُّنَا وَابْنُ شَرِّنَا فَانْتَقَصُوْهُ قَالَ هٰذَا الَّذِي كُنْتُ أَخَافُ يَارَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ (رواه البخاری)

5870. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn salaam heard of the arrival of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم (to Madinah) while gathering fruit in a garden. So, he went to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and said, "I shall ask you about three things that only a Prophet can know (so I may ascertain the signs of prophethood in you):

1) What is he first sign of the Last Hour?
2) What is the first food that the dwellers of paradise will eat?
3) What makes a child resemble its father or its mother?"

He said, "Jibril علیہ السلام has just informed me of these things. The first sign of the Last Hour will be a fire that will drive mankind from the east to the west. The first food that the dwellers of paradise will eat will be the ligament of the liver of a fish. And, when the man's seven precedes (or prevails over) the woman's gamete, he gets the child to resemble him, and when the women's ovum precedes (or prevails over) the man's semen she gets the child to resemble her."

He (Abdullah) said, "I testify that there is no God but Allah and that you are Allah's Messenger." And, he added, 'O Messenger of Allah, the Jews are given to slander. If they learn of my embracing Islam before you ask them they will slander me." Than (on his calling or incidentally) some Jews came (and Abdullah want away out of sight of them) This Abdullah! What is your assessment of this man among you?" They said, "He is he best of us, the son of the best of us (He is) our chief and the son of our chief." He asked, "and say how would you react if he embraces Islam?" They exclaimed, "May Allah preserve him from such a thing! (They meant, 'We seek refuge form that!)

On that, Abdullah came out (before them(and declared, "I testify that there is no God but Allah and that Muhammad is Allah's Messenger." They exclaimed

(vociferously on hearing this). "He is the worst of us, he son of the worst of us," and they picked faults in him. He (Abdullah) said (when they accused him). "This is that which I feared, O Messenger of Allah!"[1]

COMMENTARY: When Abdullah ibn Salaam رضی اللہ عنہ heard of the arrival of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم in Madinah, he put aside whatever he was doing and hurried to meet him. He had road about the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم in the Torah and was awaiting his coming eagerly.

Abdullah ibn Salaam رضی اللہ عنہ was a descendent of Prophet Yusuf علیہ السلام. He was one of the chiefs of the Jews of Medinah. He was very intelligent and wise man, a scholar of Torah and he had studied it very minutely. He met the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم immediately he learnt of his arrival and embraced Islam. Then he became a great distinguished sahabi رضی اللہ عنہ.

He asked about there things which only a Prophet could inform, or such a person whom a prophet had disclosed, or one who had leant of them from the Book. Then fact is that Abdullah ibn salaam himself know the answers. His intention was to verify the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم claim . The answer from the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم were a miracle in his favour. He was satisfied and convinced. This is why this hadith is placed in this chapter about miracles.

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم informed Abdullah ibn Salaam that Jibril علیہ السلام had conveyed to him the answers. He did so to remove from Abdullah's mind any notion that the People of the Book had informed him a forehand. He also wanted Abdullah to grasp the answers and to know that revelation descended on him and Jibril علیہ السلام brought it.

Resemblance of a child to its parents depends on whether the semen or the ovum 'precedes the other,' Or, as some translate, 'dominates the other.' This is also stated in a previous hadith in the chapter on bath: (Hadith # 434 'resembles depends on which prevails or precedes.' The Arabic word (سبق) accommodates bath meanings.

MIRACLE BEFORE BATTLE OF BADR BY POINTING PLACES

(٥٨٧١) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ إِنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ شَاوَرَ حِيْنَ بَلَغَنَا إِقْبَالُ أَبِي سُفْيَانَ وَقَامَ سَعْدُ بْنُ عُبَادَةَ فَقَالَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ وَالَّذِيْ نَفْسِيْ بِيَدِهٖ لَوْ أَمَرْتَنَا أَنْ نُخِيْضَهَا الْبَحْرَ لَأَخَضْنَاهَا وَلَوْ أَمَرْتَنَا أَنْ نَضْرِبَ أَكْبَادَهَا إِلَى بَرْكِ الْغِمَادِ لَفَعَلْنَا قَالَ فَنَدَبَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ النَّاسَ فَانْطَلَقُوْا حَتّٰى نَزَلُوْا بَدْرًا فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ هٰذَا مَصْرَعُ فُلَانٍ وَيَضَعُ يَدَهٗ عَلَى الْأَرْضِ هٰهُنَا وَهٰهُنَا قَالَ فَمَا مَاطَ أَحَدُهُمْ عَنْ مَوْضِعِ يَدِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ۔ (رواه مسلم)

5871. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ said that when they got information of the approach of Abu sufyan, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم consulted them. Sa'd ibn Ubadah رضی اللہ عنہ stood up and submitted. "O Messenger of Allah, by him in whose hand my soul is, of you commanded us to plunge them (meaning, our animals) into the sea, we would do it surely. And, if you commanded us to drive their livers (meaning of our animals) to Bark al-Ghimad, we would do it surely."

Anas رضی اللہ عنہ said t hat Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم then exhorted all the people (muhajirs and ansars to fight) and they went aheads till they halted at Badr. (This place was selected for the battle.) Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "This is were so and so will be killed..." He put his hand on the ground at different places. Anas رضي الله عنه said, "None of them escaped the place indicated by the hand of Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم."[1]

COMMENTARY: Abu Sufyan one of the chiefs of Makkah was returning from Syria with his trade caravan to Makkah. They were only twelve men but they had too much merchandise with them. The Muslims of Madinah learnt of this trade caravan and decided to put a strong economical and financial pressure on the Makkans. However, Abu Sufyan got wind of the idea of the Muslims. So, he diverted the caravan along the coastal route and so went out of the range of the Muslims.

At the same time, the people of Makkah also learnt of the intentions of the Muslims. So they resolved to wage a decisive battle against the Muslims. Abu Jahl climbed up the roof of the Ka'bah and incited the Makkans against the Muslims and provoked them to fight with them.

Abu Jahl advanced with a large, colossal army well equipped. On the way, some people tried to dissuade him from going ahead because their carawan had taken a detour and was safe from the Muslims but the time of his downfall was decreed and he paid no heed to counsel and arrived at Badr.

Meanwhile, Jibril عليه السلام came and said to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that Allah had assured him of one of two things: the trade caravan of victory over the enemy in battle, He consulted his sahabah رضي الله عنهم particularly to find out the mind of the ansars because their pledge of allegiance did not include the clause that they would participate in jihad and offer their lives and property of Allah's cause. The pledge taken from them was that they would protect the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم from those people who attack him. But, in that case, no one had launched an offensive. The Muslims themselves had contemplated intercepting Abu Sufyan's trade caravan. The people of Makkah had used this pretext to advance and invade Madinah Hence, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم sought the advice of the people of Madinah, the ansars.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم got a very encouraging response form the ansars. Not only on this occasion, but on every succeeding time of need, they always stood with the Prophet and the muhajirs with full favour.

This steps of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is also a lesson for the ummah. They are encouraged to consult each other in a situation confronting them and to seek advice of the wise.

One of the chiefs of the ansars, Sa'd ibn Ubadah رضي الله عنه stood up and assured the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم of their cooperation. He expressed their willingness to go for off lands to fight the enemy if he commanded them to go, even if they had to plunge their animals into the seas.

Bark al-Ghimad was a distant place situated in Yemen, or on the other side of hijr, or towards the end of its populace.

The expression 'to drive their livers' means 'to drive the beasts very fast.'

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم foretold, and this is are his miracles, the names of the enemies who would die in the battle. He pointed the places where they would fall. He named them one after the other. Indeed, it happened as he had said, the men he had named were killed at the spot he had indicated.

PROPHET'S صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم PRAYER ON THE DAY OF BADR

(٥٨٧٢) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ وَهُوَ فِيْ قُبَّةٍ يَوْمَ بَدْرٍ اَللّٰهُمَّ اَنْشُدُكَ عَهْدَكَ وَ وَعْدَكَ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنْ تَشَأْ لَا تُعْبَدْ بَعْدَ الْيَوْمِ فَاَخَذَ اَبُوْبَكْرٍ بِيَدِهٖ فَقَالَ حَسْبُكَ يَارَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اَلْحَحْتَ عَلٰى رَبِّكَ فَخَرَجَ وَهُوَ يَثِبُ فِي الدِّرْعِ وَهُوَ يَقُوْلُ سَيُهْزَمُ الْجَمْعُ وَيُوَلُّوْنَ الدُّبُرَ۔ (رواه البخاری)

5872. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم prayed on the day of Badr while he was in a tent:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اَنْشُدُكَ عَهْدَكَ وَ وَعْدَكَ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنْ تَشَأْ لَا تُعْبَدْ بَعْدَ الْيَوْمِ

"O Allah the promise that you had made to me, do fulfil it.
O Allah, if thee few people are eliminated (today) than you will not be worshipped (as no Muslim will survive after today."
Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ took him by his hand and submitted (seeing him go through an extremely submissive state), "O Messenger of Allah, that is enough for you. You have entreated you Lord earnestly."
Finally, he regained spiritual peace and), wearing a coat of mail, hurried out. He recited:

سَيُهْزَمُ الْجَمْعُ وَيُوَلُّوْنَ الدُّبُرَ

{Soon shall the multitude be routed and they shall t urn their backs}[1] (54:45)

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم referred to Allah's promise in the verse:

وَاِذْ يَعِدُكُمُ اللّٰهُ اِحْدَى الطَّآئِفَتَيْنِ اَنَّهَا لَكُمْ

{When Allah promise you on of the two hosts should be yours} (8:7)

Of course, he had no doubt that Allah his promise, but he made a supplication in obedience to Allah's command to see His help always. Besides that knowledge itself demanded of him that he should fear Allah and the Prophets علیہ السلام are no exceptions They too fear Allah. So, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was fearful lest he do something as might hinder victory and Allah might withhold His assurance.

Besides, Allah had promised one of the two hosts, but the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم prayed that His promise should be fulfilled on the day of Badr because Allah had not specified the time.

We must also ear in mid that perhaps the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was Allah's words:

وَاللّٰهُ هُوَ الْغَنِيُّ الْحَمِيْدُ * اِنْ يَّشَاْ يُذْهِبْكُمْ وَيَاْتِ بِخَلْقٍ جَدِيْدٍ

(1) {And Allah! He is self sufficient, the praiseworthy. If he will, he can put you away and bring a new creation} (35: 15-16)

اِنَّ اللّٰهَ لَغَنِيٌّ عَنِ الْعٰلَمِيْنَ

(2) {Surely, Allah is Independent of (His) creatures} (29:6)

He may have had these words of Allah in mind in which He has declared His complete and perfect unconcern and independence. So, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم may have prayed to Allah with these words of Allah in mind.

Imam Ghazzali رحمه الله has written that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم perception was Perfect. His awareness of Allah's Independence was wide embracing. This is why he made supplication for victory, in spite of Allah's promise, very imploringly. Abu Bakr's sight was Allah's promise. So, he did not find it necessary to make more supplication.

There also is a reason why the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم made supplication to Allah and did it very beseechingly and submissively in spite of relying on His promise. His objective was to give strength to the hearts of the sahabah رضى الله عنهم who were the warriors that they should become steadfast and he encouraged, for, they know that his prayer was answered without fail, particularly when it was made humbly and imploringly.

When Allah's promise was renewed and redoubled that the enemy will be routed and will turn back, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم hope became strong and he become happy that Muslims will triumph. He recited the verse (54:45) in a loud voice to convey the tidings to the Muslims, and came out of his tent. This news that no one but Allah know, he conveyed to the Muslims and this was a miracle.

JIBRIL'S عليه السلام PARTICIPATION IN THE BATTLE

(٥٨٧٣) وَعَنْهُ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ يَوْمَ بَدْرٍ هٰذَا جِبْرَئِيْلُ اٰخِذٌ بِرَاسِ فَرَسِهٖ عَلَيْهِ اَدَاةُ الْحَرْبِ۔ (رواه البخارى)

5873. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said on the day of Badr. "This is JIbril عليه السلام. He is holding his horse's head (meaning rains). He has the equipments of war on him (ready to fight)."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet's seeing Jibril عليه السلام in the Battle of Badr to help the Muslims triumph over the idolaters was a miracle.

Badr is the name of a well. It is about four manzils (or stages) away from Madinah on the road to Makkah, It was near this well that this first battle was fought between the infidels of Makkah and the people of Islam. It was on Friday, 17th Ramadan 2 AH.

HEAVENLY REINFORCEMENT

5874. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه narrated: on this day (meaning, the day of Badr), when one of the Muslims was chasing one of the idolaters who was running away, he heard the swish of a whip above him and (he heard) the voice of a horsemen, saying (اقدم حیزوم) "Forward, Hayzum." He saw that the idolater in front of him fell down on his back. He also observed that his nose was cut and his face was split as though with a slash of a whip. That portion had turned green (and black).

The ansari came and reported it to Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. He said, "You speak the truth. That was from the reinforcement from the third heaven." That day they killed seventy (Infidels), and took seventy captives.[1]

COMMENTARY: With certain changes in the vowels the word (اقدم) aqdim in a war cry to show bravery and encourage the warriors, otherwise it mean 'forward!' as in the translation. Hayzum is the name of the horse of Jibril علیہ السلام. This is as stated in the Qamus. But some others say that it is the name of someone else's horse.

The feat of an angel that was disclcsed tone of the Muslims in the Battle of badr was actually the Karamah (charisma of the sahabi رضی اللہ عنہ since a sahabi's karamah is a from of the mu'jizah (miracle) of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم particularly when it was demonstrated in the Prophet's presence, so it has been placed in his chapter of Miracles. This is not in appropriate.

We may also say that a truthful sahabi رضی اللہ عنہ gave the information and the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم confirmed it which only he could do because of the knowledge he had as Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, so this information is regarded as a miracle. This too is correct (and placed in this chapter).

HELP OF ANGELS IN THE BATTLE OF UHUD

(٥٨٧٥) وَعَنْ سَعْدِبْنِ اَبِيْ وَقَّاصٍ قَالَ رَاَيْتُ عَنْ يَمِيْنِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَعَنْ شِمَالِهِ يَوْمَ اُحُدٍ

رَجُلَيْنِ عَلَيْهِمَا ثِيَابٌ بِيْضٌ يُقَاتِلَانِ كَاَشَدِّ الْقِتَالِ مَا رَاَيْتُهُمَا قَبْلُ وَلَا بَعْدُ يَعْنِيْ جِبْرَئِيْلَ وَمِيْكَائِيْلَ۔ (متفق علیہ)

5875. Sayyiduna Sa'd ibn Abu Waqqas رضی اللہ عنہ said, "I saw to the right of Allah Messenger's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and to his left two men clad in white, on the day of Uhud. They fought as vigorously as can possibly be. I had neither seen them before nor did I see them afterwards." Meaning (that they were) Jibril علیہ السلام and Mika'il علیہ السلام[2].

COMMENTARY: The narrator has himself elaborated that the two men were and angels Jibril علیہ السلام and Mika'il علیہ السلام. He may have made his own conclusion or may have heard from the Prophet علیہ السلام.

BROKEN LEG RESTORED

(٥٨٧٦) وَعَنِ الْبَرَاءِ قَالَ بَعَثَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ رَهْطًا اِلَى اَبِيْ رَافِعٍ فَدَخَلَ عَلَيْهِ عَبْدُاللّٰهِ بْنُ عَتِيْكٍ

بَيْتَهُ لَيْلًا وَهُوَ نَائِمٌ فَقَتَلَهُ فَقَالَ عَبْدُاللّٰهِ بْنُ عَتِيْكٍ فَوَضَعْتُ السَّيْفَ فِيْ بَطْنِهِ حَتّٰى اَخَذَ فِيْ ظَهْرِهِ فَعَرَفْتُ اَنِّيْ

قَتَلْتُهُ فَجَعَلْتُ اَفْتَحُ الْاَبْوَابَ حَتّٰى انْتَهَيْتُ اِلٰى دَرَجَةٍ فَوَضَعْتُ رِجْلِيْ فَوَقَعْتُ فِيْ لَيْلَةٍ مُقْمِرَةٍ فَانْكَسَرَتْ

سَاقِيْ فَعَصَبْتُهَا بِعِمَامَةٍ فَانْطَلَقْتُ اِلٰى اَصْحَابِيْ ...... فَانْتَهَيْتُ اِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَحَدَّثْتُهُ

فَقَالَ اُبْسُطْ رِجْلَكَ فَبَسَطْتُ رِجْلِيْ فَمَسَحَهَا فَكَاَنَّمَا لَمْ اَشْتَكِهَا قَطُّ۔ (رواہ البخاری)

5876. Sayyiduna Bara رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم sent a raht, (which is a company of men up to ten) to Abu Rafi (a Jew). Abdullah ibn رضی اللہ عنہ Ateek entered his house at night when he was asleep and killed him. Abdullah ibn Ateek رضی اللہ عنہ said, "I thrust the sword in his belly till it emerged from his back. I was sure that I had killed him and I began to open the doors till I came to the stairs. I put my foot on it but I feel down and broke my leg in a moonlit night. I tied it with my turban and came back to my companions. Then I went to my companions. Then I went to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and reported to him what had transpired. He said, 'Stretch out your leg.' So, I stretched it out and he stroked it with his hand. It become as though I never had any complaint with it."[1]

COMMENTARY: Abu Rafi was a Jew trader. His kunyah was Abu al-Huqayq. He was a very wicked man and an enemy to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. He has caused immense trouble to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. He had caused immense trouble to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and has composed satire against him. As a final resort and finding no alternative, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم sent Abd-llah ibn Ateeq صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم as leader of a small company to arrest or kill him. They were young men of the ansars He was in his fortress. The incident in detail and hero Abdullah had first reconnoitered Abu Rafi's fortress. Even Bukhari has transmitted a faller hadith (# 3022).

While returning, Abdullah broke his leg when he fell down. However, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم passed his hand over it and the damage was undone. This was a miracle of Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم.

BLESSING IN FOOD AT AHZAB

5877. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated: On the day of the Khandaj (Battle of the Trench). We were digging (to keep the enemy away). A huge piece of rock hindered our work (as it refused to break). They (the sahabah) went to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and submitted. "A huge rock has appeared in the trench hindering our digging." He said, "I shall go down," and he stood up. At that time he had a stone tied on his belly (to word off the pangs of hunger), for, we were hungry not having tasted food for three days.

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم took the pick and struck it. It became a pile of dust crumbling down. I am home to my wife (Suhaylah bint Ma'udh Ansari) and asked her, "Do you have anything (to eat), for, I have seen that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم is very hungry." She brought out a beg that had one sa' of barley. We had a domesticated lamb that I slaughtered and she ground barley. We put the meat in the pot. Then, I went to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and told him quietly that we had slaughtered a small lamb and my wife had ground one sa' (to my home) and bring some people along. But, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم announced aloud. "O You occupied of the trench. Come! Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said (to me). "Do not take off your pot and do not back your dough till I came." When he arrived and I brought the dough to him, he spat in it and prayed for blessing in it. Then he went to our pot and spat, invoking a blessing, and said, "Call a woman (referring to my wife) to bake along with you and draw scoops from your pot without taking it away from its fireplace." There were one thousand people. I swear by Allah, they ate the food. When they departed and they has left some, our pot was bubbling as before and our dough was being baked as before. (It seemed that nothing was eaten at all.)[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم called those engaged in digging the trench to a meal that Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ had prepared. He used the word (سور) which is a Persian word meaning 'a wedding meal.' Apart from this, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم often used other Persian words on different occasions.

The blessing of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم were behind the little food being more than enough for one thousand men. It remained as it was after they had eaten. In fact, his blessings are the source of all blessings. All that is in the universe subsists because of his blessings صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. Many similar miracles are enumerated in ahadith, books of history and Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم biography. Examples are: little food increasing in quantity,

- Water bubbling from fingers,
- Small quantity of water becoming plentiful,
- Food giving out sound of glorification of Allah.
- Trunk of palm tree weeping, and so on.

The ulama have collected these miracles in their books. The best of these is the Da'ail Nabuwah of Bayhaqi رحمہ اللہ.

TIDINGS ABOUT AMMAR IBN YASAR رضی اللہ عنہ

(٥٨٧٨) وَعَنْ أَبِي قَتَادَةَ أَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لِعَمَّارٍ حِيْنَ يَحْفُرُ الْخَنْدَقَ فَجَعَلَ يَمْسَحُ رَأْسَهُ وَيَقُوْلُ بُؤْسَ ابْنُ سُمَيَّةَ تَقْتُلُكَ الْفِئَةُ الْبَاغِيَةُ۔ (رواه مسلم)

---

5878. Sayyiduna Abu Qatadah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Ammar (ibn Yasir) رضی اللہ عنہ was digging the trench and Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم wiped his head repeatedly and went to saying. Alas, O son of Sumayyah! A party of the rebels will kill you."[1]

COMMENTARY: Sayyidah Syumayyah رضی اللہ عنہ was a sahabiyan (a women companion). She had embraced Islam at the very outset. Like other Muslims, she too was persecuted by the infidels of Makkah. Though a woman, she endured their cruelty and did not step back from religion a wee bit. Ultimately. Abu Jahl displayed his basest self and stooped as low as a strike her private parts with a dagger had martyred her. Sayyiduna Ammar ibn Yasir رضی اللہ عنہ was the august son of this valiant women.

He was engaged in digging the trenches with other sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم when the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم saw him and at the same time and knower of the unseen Allah disclosed to him Ammar's رضی اللہ عنہ fate. So, he had compassion on him and told him how he would fare. "A group of rebels will rise up against the ruling khalifah and kill you, O Ammar."

HADITH PROVED TRUE: These words of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم were proved true. Ammar ibn Yasir رضی اللہ عنہ martyred at the hands of the supporters of Mu'awiyah رضی اللہ عنہ in the battle of Siffin against Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ on whose side he participated. The words of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم that Ammar رضی اللہ عنہ would be martyred by the rebels prove that Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ was on the right side. Those who martyred him were the men of Mu'awiyah رضی اللہ عنہ.

According to one tradition when Ammar رضی اللہ عنہ was martyred, Amr ibn Aas رضی اللہ عنہ who was on the side of Mu'awiyah رضی اللہ عنہ told him that Ammar's martyrdom was very disturbing. Mu'awiyah رضی اللہ عنہ asked, "How is it disturbing?" Amr رضی اللہ عنہ recounted to him the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم words to Ammar رضی اللہ عنہ that the rebels would kill him. To this Mu'awyah رضی اللہ عنہ retorted, "When did we kill him? It was Ali who killed him. He had brought him to battle."

It is also stated in a tradition that Mu'awiyah رضی اللہ عنہ interpreted the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم words to mean, "Ammar! A party of those who demand will kill you." He meant those people who seek a retaliation and blood money will kill Ammar رضی اللہ عنہ. Mu'awiyah رضی اللہ عنہ said that the word translated as 'rebels' (باغیۃ) means 'to search,' 'to seek,' 'to demand,' contending that it was not derived form (بغی) here in this case, but is derived from (بغاء). The former means 'rebellion' While the latter means 'searching'... Accordingly Mu'awiyah رضی اللہ عنہ used to say:

نحن فئة باغية طالبة لدم عثمان

"We are the party who demand blood money of Uthman's blood."

But, this is not an interpretation but an interpolation.

In fact, according to some traditions, when Amr ibn Aas رضی اللہ عنہ presented his anxiety, Mu'awiyah رضی اللہ عنہ rebuked him. "You are strange. You worry about a man who is your inferior. Why do you hesitate?"

However, Mulla Ali Qari رحمہ اللہ said on the authority of Shaykh Akmal uddin that both these things are lies forged against Mu'awiyah رضی اللہ عنہ. Neither did he misconstrue the hadith nor did he speak demeaning words about Sayyiduna Ammar رضی اللہ عنہ.

BELT & BRACES

There is no doubt at all that this hadith asserts that in the confrontation between Sayyiduna Ali رضي الله عنه and Sayyiduna Mu'awiyah رضي الله عنه, Sayyiduna رضي الله عنه Ali was right. All those who gave up obedience to him and prepared for battle drew out of the folds. However, this does not mean that people should curse and ridicule Mu'awiyah رضي الله عنه. The most correct approach for hose with perfect faith and sound belief is to keep quiet in this delicate issue. The differences between the two men must be left to Allah. Mu'awiyah رضي الله عنه was a great sahabi and was a respectable member of the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم assembly. If anyone speaks inappropriate words about him then it is tantamount to speaking ill of a sahabi رضي الله عنه which is to invite Allah's wrath and punishment.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has said about all his sahabah رضي الله عنه, "O people! Fear Allah concerning my sahabah. Do not ever blame them. He who befriends my sahabah befriends them because of his love for me. And, he who hates my sahabah, hates them because of his dislike of me. He who annoys my sahabah (by word or deed) truly annoys me, and he who annoys me is as though he annoys Allah. Of course, he who annoys Allah will soon be punished by Allah."[1]

This is a hadith of Tirmidhi.

Even in this book there are many ahadith on the same subject in the chapter on the merits of the sahabah رضي الله عنهم. Moreover, there are many ahadith that assert that it is better to adopt silence (on this subject). Of them, the following hadith should suffice by itself:

من سكت سلم ومن سلم نجا

"He who keeps quoits remains safe. And he who is safe, is delivered."[2]

Apart from this, there are some ahadith that highlight the merits of Mu'awiyah رضي الله عنه, too. An example in the hadith that we read in the chapter on the signs of the Prophethood. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "such members of my ummah were presented to me as will wage jihad in Allah's path traveling on the surface of the sea as kings sitting on thrones.."[3]

The man in whose time Muslim set out by sea to fight in Allah's cause was Mu'awiyah رضي الله عنه. In short, one must refrain from speaking ill of Mu'awiyah رضي الله عنه, disliking him and reviling him. This is what the rawafid do. May Allah preserve us from doing such a thing. Some sunnis to fall into this mischief because of their ignorance. They use very derogatory language for the sahabah رضي الله عنهم and hold a very adverse opinion about them.

Mulla Ali Qari رحمه الله has very clearly termed this case between Sayyiduna Ali رضي الله عنه and Sayyiduna Mu'aiwyah رضي الله عنه as an error in ijtihad (which is independent judgement). He has discussed this in sharh Fiqh Akbar. Therefore, the sunnis must be very careful about it. They must keep their hearts free of hatred for any sahabi رضي الله عنه whether he belongs to the ahl ul-bayt رضي الله عنه (People of the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم household) or to the general body of the sahabah رضي الله عنهم. Moreover, they must observe silence in the light of the words of the Prophet:

ليحجزك عن النّاس ما تعلم من نفسك

"That you must desist from accusing people after what you know of yourself."[1]
Also, we are commanded concerning common people:

وَلَا تذكر الناس الا بخير

"Do not speak of people except with a good opinion."
If that is the case concerning the common people, then the sahabah رضی الله عنهم are more deserving that we should not speak disparagingly of them. They should not be blamed at all. We must also remember that Allah has said of these sacred people:

وَنَزَعْنَا مَا فِيْ صُدُوْرِهِمْ مِنْ غِلٍّ إِخْوَانًا عَلٰى سُرُرٍ مُتَقٰبِلِيْنَ

{And we shall have removed whatever rancour may have been in their hearts, and they will be (seated as brethren upon couches, set face to face} (15:47)
Given that, is it not unfortunate that we soil our tongues by blaming and reviling these great people?

WHEN THE AHZAB RETREATED

(٥٨٧٩) وَعَنْ سُلَيْمَانَ بْنِ صُرَدٍ قَالَ قَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حِيْنَ أُجْلِيَ الْأَحْزَابُ عَنْهُ الْآنَ نَغْزُوْهُمْ وَلَا يَغْزُوْنَ نَحْنُ نَسِيْرُ إِلَيْهِمْ۔ (راوه البخاری)

5879. Sayyiduna Sulayman ibn Surd رضی الله عنه narrated that , after the enemy retreated from the Battle of Ahzab, the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Now, we shall fight with them. They wil not attack us, but we shall go to them"[2]

COMMENTARY: This hadith pertains to the Battle of the Khandaq (or the Trenches also called the Ahzab). The infidels had raided Madinah with their combined forces, including the Jews, forming a confederacy. Their numerical strength was very great. The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم and his sahabah رضی الله عنهم had dug trenches around Madinah to protect it from invasion. The Qurysh were led by abu Sufyan and the other idolaters and infidels were led by their respective chiefs. They had besieged Madinah for one month from the other side of the trenches. There was no fighting except for an occasional arrow shooting as stone throwing. Then Allah sent down His help. He sent the angels and they caused unrest among the enemy. A high velocity wind and cyclone uprooted their tents and instilled terrible fear in their hearts so that they dispersed helter skater.
The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم gave tidings on this occasion that the idolaters had lost hope and would never regain strength to attack the Muslims He said that the Muslim would take the war to the enemy's front hence forth. This came out true. The infidels never again invaded Madinah. Rather, Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم led the Muslims to Makkah and elsewhere. They emerged victorious wherever they went to fight.

5880.Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that on returning from the Battle of the Trench, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم put aside his armour and intended to have a both or) bathed. But, Jibril علیہ السلام came to him while he was removing the dust off his head and said, You have, indeed, out aside your armour, but by Allah I have not put them aside. Go out against them." The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم asked, "where?" He indicated, "to the Banu Qurayzah." So, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم (Put on his armour and) went out with his sahabah) رضی اللہ عنہ to them.[1]

5881. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ said, "It is as though I see the dust rising in the alley of Banu Ghanm because of the horse-riders with Jibril علیہ السلام when Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم went to Banu Qurayzah."[2]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم bathed (واغتسل). This actually means that he had intended to have a bath and was about to go to the bathroom Jibril علیہ السلام came at that time. According to another version, he was having a bath when Jibril علیہ السلام came. As for removing dust, the pronoun (هو) 'he' could refer to either the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم or to Jibril علیہ السلام.

In short, the advance towards Banu Qurayzah to fight with them took place immediately after the Battle of the Trench.

BANU QURAYZAH: They were the Jews who resided about three miles outside Madinah. They had there large houses and a strong fort. They had violated their pledge and supported the enemy in the battle of Trench to rout the Muslims but failed in their conspiracy. Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم set out against them and defeated them.

GHUNM: They are a tribe of the ansars. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم passed through their locality when advancing with his sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم to Banu Qurayzah. If seems that the lanes and alleys of this people were desert ed at that time. This is why Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ concluded that the dust ahead of him in the lane rose because of the angels riding on their horses. Perhaps Jibril علیہ السلام was their leader, walking ahead of them or along with the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم.

The miracle of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم as known from his hadith is:

(i) Jibril علیہ السلام coming with the angels clad in his armour to fight with the enemies of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم.

WATER POURED FORTH BETWEEN FINGERS OF THE PROPHET صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم

(٥٨٨٢) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ عَطِشَ النَّاسُ يَوْمَ الْحُدَيْبِيَّةِ وَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بَيْنَ يَدَيْهِ رَكْوَةٌ

فَتَوَضَّأَ مِنْهَا ثُمَّ أَقْبَلَ النَّاسُ نَحْوَهُ قَالُوا لَيْسَ عِنْدَنَا مَاءٌ نَتَوَضَّأُ بِهِ وَنَشْرَبُ إِلَّا مَا فِي رَكْوَتِكَ فَوَضَعَ النَّبِيُّ
صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَدَهُ فِي الرَّكْوَةِ فَجَعَلَ الْمَاءُ يَفُوْرُ مِنْ بَيْنِ أَصَابِعِهِ كَأَمْثَالِ الْعُيُوْنِ قَالَ فَشَرِبْنَا وَ
تَوَضَّأْنَا قِيْلَ لِجَابِرٍ كَمْ كُنْتُمْ قَالَ لَوْ كُنَّا مِائَةَ أَلْفٍ لَكَفَانَا كُنَّا خَمْسَ عَشْرَةَ مِائَةً۔ (متفق علیہ)

5882. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that on the day of Hudaybiyan, the people of Hudaybiyah, the people became very thirsty (because of extreme shortage of water). At that time) Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had a small pot with him from which he had performed ablution. (There remained very little water in it) The people came to him and informed him that they had no water to perform ablution and to drink except what remained in his small pot. So, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم put his had into the small pot (or on its mouth and the water began to pour out between his fingers like springs.
Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ said, "We drank had made ablution."
Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ was asked, "How many were you?" He said, "If we had been one hundred thousand them it would have sufficed us. (As it is,) we were fifteen hundred people."[1]

COMMENTARY: How fortunate were these people! They are enviable! Certainly, they have gained innumerable outward and inward purities because of that. There is no water better than that water neither on earth nor in the heavens.

Jabir's رضی اللہ عنہ words that if they were one hundred thousand that water would have sufficed them actually express amazement at the question. A miracle is a miracle and there is no sense in asking about how many people it covers. There is no limit to it. Then he gave their exact number as fifteen hundred because these figure are more emphatic than one thousand and five hundred.

There were different groups of sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم at Hudaybiya divided by the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, each group comprising one hundred sahabah رضی اللہ عنہ. Perhaps this is why Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ said fifteen hundred to refer to the fifteen groups of one hundred each.

BLESSINGS OF SALIVA GOT WATER

(٥٨٨٣) وَعَنِ الْبَرَاءِ بْنِ عَازِبٍ قَالَ كُنَّا مَعَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَرْبَعَ عَشْرَةَ مِائَةً يَوْمَ الْحُدَيْبِيَةِ
وَالْحُدَيْبِيَةُ بِئْرٌ فَنَزَحْنَاهَا فَلَمْ نَتْرُكْ فِيْهَا قَطْرَةً فَبَلَغَ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَأَتَاهَا فَجَلَسَ عَلَى شَفِيْرِهَا
حَتَّى ارْتَحَلُوْا۔ (رواہ البخاری)

5883. Sayyiduna Bara ibn Aazib رضی اللہ عنہ said, 'We were fourteen hundred people along with Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم on the day of Hudaybiyah. There was a well at Hudaybiya whose water we had used up. Not even one drop of it remained in it. (This caused consternation to the people.) When this was conveyed to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم when this was conveyed to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, he came to it and sat down at its corner. He asked for a vessel of water, performed ablution, rinsed his mouth and made a supplication. Then, he poured the water into the well. After that, he said, 'Leave it for some time.' Then, (after some time) they drew enough water for themselves and their animals until they departed."[1]

---

COMMENTARY: The hadith (# 5882) gave the number of sahabah at Hudaybiyah as fifteen hundred while this hadith of Bara رضی اللہ عنہ gives it as fourteen hundred. So, they were between these two numbers. The previous narrator rounded up at the nearest highest and this one at the lower figure. Or, the numbers at the well may have fluctuated. Or, the narrators had merely estimated the sahabah at the well and their estimation differed.
The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم asked the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم to wait for some time before pulling out water. He may have hoped for his supplication to be granted gradually.

5884. Sayyiduna Awf رحمہ اللہ (atabi'i) reported from Sayyiduna Abu Raja رحمہ اللہ (also a tabi'i) that Sayyiduna Imran ibn Husayn رضی اللہ عنہ (a sahabi) narrated: we were with the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم on a journey. On the way the People complained to him of thirst (because there was no water). So, he got down (from his beast). He called for so and so (whose name awf رحمہ اللہ forgot though Abu Raja رحمہ اللہ had given him the man's name) and he called for Ali رضی اللہ عنہ. He instructed when, to 'Go and search for water.' So, they went off. They met a woman riding, two leather bags or two water skins one on each side: of her. They brought her to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. She was asked to dismount (or, her bags or skins were brought down) from her camel.
The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had a vessel brought and had water poured into it from the mouths of the bags (or skins). Then it was announced to the people. 'Drink and serve (and collect according to your needs). So everyone drank (and filed his container).
He added: Then, the forty of us thirsty men drank till we had drink enough. And we filled all the skins and small vessels that we had (with us). And, by Allah, when we were stopped (meaning, we had drawn from it water and moved away), it seemed to us that they (the skins or begs) were fuller than they had been when we had begun (to draw).[2]

COMMENTARY: The woman had more water with her when she departed than when she had come.

Another version of this hadith which is lengthier concludes with the words that when she was going back to her family, the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم gave her provision and grain too. When she arrived home, she related her experience to her people and said, "That men is either a great sorcerer the like of whom is not found in the heaven and earth or he is a true Prophet."

(٥٨٨٥) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ سِرْنَا مَعَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حَتّٰى نَزَلْنَا وَادِيًا اَفْيَحَ فَذَهَبَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقْضِيْ حَاجَتَهٗ فَلَمْ يَرَ شَيْئًا يَسْتَتِرُ بِهٖ وَاِذَا شَجَرَتَيْنِ بِشَاطِئِ الْوَادِيْ فَانْطَلَقَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِلٰى اِحْدٰهُمَا فَاَخَذَ بِغُصْنٍ مِنْ اَغْصَانِهَا فَقَالَ انْقَادِيْ عَلَيَّ بِاِذْنِ اللّٰهِ تَعَالٰى فَانْقَادَتْ مَعَهٗ كَالْبَعِيْرِ الْمَخْشُوْشِ الَّذِيْ يُصَانِعُ قَائِدَهٗ حَتّٰى اَتَى الشَّجَرَةَ الْاُخْرٰى فَاَخَذَ بِغُصْنٍ مِّنْ اَغْصَانِهَا فَقَالَ انْقَادِيْ عَلَيَّ بِاِذْنِ اللّٰهِ فَانْقَادَتْ مَعَهٗ كَذٰلِكَ حَتّٰى اِذَا كَانَ بِالْمَنْصَفِ مِمَّا بَيْنَهُمَا قَالَ الْتَئِمَا عَلَيَّ بِاِذْنِ اللّٰهِ فَالْتَأَمَتَا فَجَلَسْتُ اُحَدِّثُ نَفْسِيْ فَحَانَتْ مِنِّيْ لَفْتَةٌ فَاِذَا اَنَا بِرَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مُقْبِلًا وَاِذَا الشَّجَرَتَيْنِ قَدْ اِفْتَرَقَتَا فَقَامَتْ كُلُّ وَاحِدَةٍ مِّنْهُمَا عَلٰى سَاقٍ۔ (رواه مسلم)

5885. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه said, "We were traveling with Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم and when we came to a large spacious plain, we alighted. Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم went to relieve himself but did not find anything behind which he might conceal himself. There were two trees at the edge of the plain, so Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم went to one of them. He held one of its branches and said, 'Follow me at Allah's command.' Indeed, it followed him as a camel (follows its driver) with submissive following of its guide. He came (with it) to the other tree. He held one of its branches and said, 'Follow me at Allah's command.' So, it followed him in the same manner. Then he stood between them and said, 'Come close tone another at Allah's command.' So, they came closer. (He set down behind their covering)

I sat wondering to myself. Then, I saw Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم coming, and behold: the two trees had moved apart from one another and each of them stood on its trunk at its respective place."[1] wrote me off, saying that salamah is killed. But, I went to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم who blew on it three times and I have had no trouble with it till now."[1]

NEWS OF DEATHS IS DISTANT LAND

(٥٨٨٧) وَعَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ نَعَى النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ زَيْدًا وَجَعْفَرًا وَابْنَ رَوَاحَةَ لِلنَّاسِ قَبْلَ أَنْ يَأْتِيَهُمْ
خَبَرُهُمْ فَقَالَ أَخَذَ الرَّايَةَ زَيْدٌ فَأُصِيبَ ثُمَّ أَخَذَ جَعْفَرٌ فَأُصِيبَ ثُمَّ أَخَذَ ابْنُ رَوَاحَةَ فَأُصِيبَ وَعَيْنَاهُ
تَذْرِفَانِ حَتّٰى أَخَذَ الرَّايَةَ سَيْفٌ مِنْ سُيُوفِ اللّٰهِ يَعْنِي خَالِدَ بْنَ الْوَلِيدِ حَتّٰى فَتَحَ اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِمْ۔ (رواه البخاری)

5887. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ said that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم announced the martyrdom of Zayd رضی اللہ عنہ, Ja'far رضی اللہ عنہ and Ibn Rawahah to the people before news about them had come to them. He said, "Zayd took the standard and was martyred. Then Ja'far took it and was martyred. Then Ibn Rawahah took it and was martyred." Tears were shed by his eyes.
(Then, he said,) "Finally, he took the standard is a sword of the sword of Allah" - meaning, Khalid ibnWalid" till Allah granted them victory."[2]

COMMENTARY: This refers to the Battle of Mu'tah in Syria. It was fought in 8 AH against the Byzantines. When the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had sent the army, he had nominated the three prominent sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم to take over in respective order the command of the army if their commander Zayd ibn Harith رضی اللہ عنہ was martyred. This is what happened and Khalid ibn Walid رضی اللہ عنہ finally took over. .

Mu'tah is at a distance of one month's journey. This clearly was a miracle of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. This hadith is evidence that news of death many be conveyed to the people.

SWORD OF ALLAH: A sword of Allah means a brave man of Allah. This is why he got the sobriquet Sayf Allah (Allah's sword). Khalid ibn Walig رضی اللہ عنہ was bold, brave and courageous. It is said that he killed one thousand enemies single handed and on that day he broke as many as eight swords.

As for victory of the Muslims, the scholars differ on whether it means defeating the enemy convincingly and collecting booty too, or succeeding in defending themselves by resisting the very strong enemy courageously and returning safe and sound.

Shaykh Abdul Haq has written that the Muslims had Allah's help on their side. The Muslims were protected from defeat and subjugation.

5888. Sayyiduna Abbas رضی الله عنه said that he had participated in the Battle of Hunayn with Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم. When fighting between the Muslims and the infidels became fierce (and tense). The Muslims showed their backs. But Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم began to urge his mule towards the infidels (fearlessly). Abbas رضی الله عنه was holding the reins of his she-mule to keep it lest it penetrate (the enemy ranks) quickly. And, Abu Sufyan ibn Harith رضی الله عنه (the Prophet's paternal cousin whose name was Mughirah ibnHarith ibn Abdul Muttalib) was holding the stirrup of Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم (out of reverence and love and to guard him).

Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Abbas, call the ashab-us-samurah (the sahabah رضی الله عنهم who had pledged allegiance, called Bayt ur-Ridwan, at Hudaybiyah)." Abbas رضی الله عنه had aloud voice. He said, "I called at the top of my voice, 'where are the ashab-us samurah?" (have they forgotten their pledge?) By Allah they turned back on hearing my voice as cows hurry back to their young." They exclaimed, "At your service! At your service!"

Then (with renewed vigour), they fought with the infidels. The ansar raised the call (to spur each other), 'O Company of the ansar. O company of the ansar!' (Be brave!) Afterwards this call was restricted to Banu Harith ibn Khazrahj (who were the harith ibn Khazraj (who were the offspring of the ansar – O children of Harith, O children of Harith!)

Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم watched their fighting sitting on his (white she) mule like a strong, controlling rider (or, as some interpret the word (المتطاول) – like one stretching out his neck). He said, "This is when fighting is at its peak!" Then, he took some pebbles and threw them on the faces of the infidels saying (شاهت الوجوه) "By the Lord of Muhammad, the infidels are defeated!"

(Abbas رضی الله عنه said:) "By Allah, barely had he thrown the pebbles at them then I observed their power sap and their affair in disorder."[1]

COMMENTARY: Hunayn is a place between Makkah and Ta'if beyond Arafat. After the conquest of Makkah, a fierce fighting took place here between the Muslims place here between the Muslims and the residents of this region, namely, the Hawazin and Thaqif. Initially, the Muslims had to endure a severe onslaught suddenly before dawn when it was dark. Then panicked and the first to desert were those people of Makkah who had embraced Islam lately at the conquest to Makah. Their retreat caused many ansar and muhajir sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم to disperse here and there. Their aim was to get help from the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and they returned to him again and again but it seemed as though they had retreated. In reality, neither had they shown their backs nor had they fled. Anyway, there was such a disorder that the battle could have gone against the Muslim. But the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم bravely and steadfast ness coupled with a wise strategy with Allah's help enabled the Muslims to steady themselves and to defeat the enemies.

The she mule that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم rode in this battle was named Daldal. A polytheist, Farwah ibn Naffa than (Judhamah) had sent it as a gift to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. This means that a polytheist's gift may be accepted. But according to some ahadith, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had returned the gifts of some polytheists. So, some scholars say that his accepting the gift (of Daldal) abrogates the action of not accepting gifts of the polytheist, but this idea is fore fetched because it is not established which action preceded and which followed. Most scholars say that rejection is not abrogated. The polytheist whose gift the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم accepted was expected to accept Islam and to benefit the Muslims, He did not accept gifts of such polytheists whose case was different.

Samurah is the gun-acasia tree. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had taken a pledge of allegiance and willingness to lay down their lives under a tree. It was a gum acacia tree and the pledge is known as bay predawn (pledge of Radwan). The sahabah صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم who had given this pledge are called ashab us samurah.

The prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم instructed Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ to call the ashab us samurah. They were to e reminded thereby that it was the time of their trial. They were called upon to lay down their lives in Allah's path andin order to support His Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. They were called upon to honour their pledge.

This hadith mentions two miracles of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. (1) He gave tidings in advance that the infidels will be defeated.

He threw some pebbles on the faces of the infidel so they retreated from the battle field.

(٥٨٨٩، ٥٨٩٠) وَعَنْ اَبِي اِسْحَاقَ قَالَ قَالَ رَجُلٌ لِلْبَرَآءِ يَا اَبَا عُمَارَةَ فَرَرْتُمْ يَوْمَ حُنَيْنٍ قَالَ لَا وَاللّٰهِ مَا وَلّٰى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَلٰكِنْ خَرَجَ شُبَّانُ اَصْحَابِهٖ لَيْسَ عَلَيْهِمْ كَثِيْرُ سِلَاحٍ فَلَقُوْا قَوْمًا رُمَاةً لَا يَكَادُ يَسْقُطُ لَهُمْ سَهْمٌ فَرَشَقُوْهُمْ رَشْقًا مَا يَكَادُوْنَ يُخْطِئُوْنَ فَاَقْبَلُوْا هُنَاكَ اِلٰى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَرَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَلٰى بَغْلَتِهِ الْبَيْضَاءِ وَاَبُوْ سُفْيَانَ بْنُ الْحَارِثِ يَقُوْدُهٗ فَنَزَلَ وَاسْتَنْصَرَ وَقَالَ اَنَا النَّبِيُّ لَا كَذِبْ۔ اَنَا ابْنُ عَبْدِ الْمُطَّلِبْ۔ ثُمَّ صَفَّهُمْ رَوَاهُ مُسْلِمٌ وَلِلْبُخَارِيِّ مَعْنَاهُ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ لَهُمَا قَالَ الْبَرَاءُ كُنَّا وَاللّٰهِ اِذَا احْمَرَّ الْبَاْسُ نَتَّقِيْ بِهٖ وَاِنَّ الشُّجَاعَ مِنَّا لَلَّذِيْ يُحَاذِيْ بِهٖ يَعْنِي النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ۔

encountered some archers of the enemy. Their arrow never fell on the ground (meaning that they never missed their target and they were the Banu Hawazin). They short their arrows at them (meaning, the young companions) and their arrows never failed to hit anyone. So, they went to Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم who was mounted on his white mule (Daldal). Abu Sufyan ibn Harith was standing in front of him (holding the reins). He dismounted (seeing the anxious condition of his shabah) رضى الله عنه and supplicated (Allah) for (help and) victory. He also declared (in on audible voice).
I am the Prophet No lies (about it).
I am the offspring of Abdul Muttalib!
Then (when the Muslim army regained confidence and the young sahabah were assembled), he rearranged them in rows."[1]

5890.Sayyiduna Bara رضى الله عنه said, "By Allah, when the battle became fierce (and we found a heavy pressure on us, we sought refuge with him. The bravest of us was the one who stood next to him, meaning, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم."[2]

COMMENTARY: Since the man had asked whether they had turned their backs on the enemy at hunayn, the question could have included the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم too. So, Sayyiduna Bara ibn Azib رضى الله عنه made it clear at the outset that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had a not done so. Then he clarified the position about the others. The young sahabah رضى الله عنهم had, at the most, made a tactical retreat to word off the archers since they themselves lacked matching weapons. There was no point in risking their lives. So, this move is not the same thing as turning away. The previous hadith of Sayyiduna Abbas رضى الله عنه speaks of the initial impression that the Muslims seemed to flee. The point is that they rallied round quickly and made a concentrated effort for a dissolve assault.

As for holding the reins of the mule, both Abbas رضى الله عنه and Abu Sufyan ibn Harith رضى الله عنه may have taken turns to hold it and the stirrup.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم declared "I am the Prophet ..." These words in Arabic seem to rhyme but the Prophet عليه السلام did not speak in that way on purpose. The words happened to come out of his tongue in this way without resolve. So, they cannot be said to be a poem or versified words. Besides, he has named his grandfather Abdul Muttalib not his father, Abdullah. The reason is that Abdul Muttalib was more known and more respected. He spoke these words not in praise of himself but in the vein of warriors who speak on a battlefield before their enemies to display their courage and power.

Hence, it is proper to speak about oneself in this manner on such occasions.

The words of the hadith about the bravest of men being next to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم mean that a coward would have fled from ground rather than stand next to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. He was strong and firmly rooted against the enemy He was extremely courageous and had complete faith in Allah.

This hadith mentions the miracle of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. He got down from his mule and prayed to Allah to grant them victory (and he threw pebbles on he faces of the enemy). This resulted in the strong enemy's humiliating defeat.

MIRACLE THROUGH PEBBLES

(٥٨٩١) وَعَنْ سَلَمَةَ ابْنِ الْأَكْوَعِ قَالَ غَزَوْنَا مَعَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حُنَيْنًا فَوَلّٰى صَحَابَةُ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَلَمَّا غَشُوْا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نَزَلَ عَنِ الْبَغْلَةِ ثُمَّ قَبَضَ قَبْضَةً مِنْ تُرَابٍ مِنَ الْأَرْضِ ثُمَّ اِسْتَقْبَلَ بِهٖ وَجُوهَهُمْ فَقَالَ شَاهَتِ الْوُجُوْهُ فَمَا خَلَقَ اللّٰهُ مِنْهُمْ اِنْسَانًا اِلَّا مَلَأَ عَيْنَيْهِ تُرَابًا بِتِلْكَ الْقَبْضَةِ فَوَلَّوْا مُدْبِرِيْنَ فَهَزَمَهُمُ اللّٰهُ وَقَسَمَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ غَنَائِمَهُمْ بَيْنَ الْمُسْلِمِيْنَ۔ (رواه مسلم)

5891. Sayyiduna Salmah ibn Akwa رضی الله عنه said, "We had participated in the Battle of Hunayn along with Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم. When some of his sahabah رضی الله عنهم turned back and Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم was surrounded, he dismounted from his mule and picked up a handful of earth from the ground (with some pebbles too). Then he turned towards them and threw it on their faces, saying: (شاهت الوجوه) 'The faces were ugly!' (Or, 'May the face turn ugly')

So, not a man among them whom Allah had created remained without his eyes being filled with earth because of that handful. They took to their heels (in defeat). Allah routed them. Then Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم divided the war booty among the Muslims."[1]

COMMENTARY: This hadith mentions three miracles of the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم.

(1) The handful of dust that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم threw reached the eyes of all the enemy.
(2) The handful filled their eyes though they were four thousand men.
(3) The large army of the enemy was defeated only because of the earth and pebbles.

[1] Muslim # 81-1777,

5892. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه said, "We participated in the Battle of Hunayn along with Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم He said of one of the men who were with him (before the battle began) and who professed to be a Muslim, 'He will be an inmate of hell. When fighting began, this was fought very boldly and got multiple wounds. So, someone came and submitted (in astonishment), 'O Messenger of Allah, what do you say about the man of whom you had said that he was an inmate e of hell? He has fought bravely in the path of Allah and had received many mounds." He repeated, 'Indeed, he will be an inmate of hell.' Some people nearly had doubts. Meanwhile, the man could not endure the pain his wounds caused him. He put his hand into his quiver, pulled out an arrow and stabbed himself with it. (on seeing that,) some of the Muslim men went quickly to Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم and submitted, 'O Messenger of Allah, Allah has proved your saying to be true! That man has stabbed himself and taken his own lie."
Allah's Messenger said, 'Allah is most great. I testify that I am Allah's slave and Messenger. Arise Bilal and proclaim that only a believer will enter paradise and that Allah will help this religion even through a sinner."[1]

COMMENTARY: This incident is placed with the Battle of Hunayn. But, in Muwahib Laduniyah it is mentioned as occurring at the Battle of Khaybar. Bukhari also mentions it there. Perhaps such an incident took place an both occasions. The man whom this hadith mentions was named Qurman. He was a hypocrite unknown to others.

Most of the versions in Bukahri say that he pulled out more than one arrow from his quiver and thrust them into his chest. According to one of Bukhari's version he planted award in the ground and pressed his chest heavily on its edge till he died. Perhaps he died, Perhaps, he used the arrows first and then attempted suicide with the sword. He was a sinner when he died, or because he committed suicide be died as a sinner.

Allah helps this religion with a sinner, too. The word sinner applies to (1) a hypocrite, (2) one who does good work that people might see him, (3) one who does good deeds as well as bad deeds, or, (4) one who does good deeds all his life but before he dies he does something bad whereby his life ends miserably.

Perhaps this is why the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم made Bilal رضي الله عنه make the announcement. It is also possible that Bilal's رضي الله عنه proclamation had nothing to do with this incident. It was made to teach that oral claims are not always backed by facts. A man may show himself tobe pious and even do pious deeds but he may have an evil intention in his mind. This man's outward conduct may be beneficial to religion. An outstanding example of this is those people whose objective is to make money and amass worldly gains and, with this in mind write and compose religious books, teach religion, call the adhan, lead congregational salah as imam, deliver sermons, build mosques and madrasahs etc. such people seems to be doing good deeds and serving and furthering religion, Islam and Muslims get tremendous benefit from them. Religion and people get strength from them. But, they themselves get no reward or credit for their deeds.

SUICIDE LEADS TO HELL: This hadith is evidence that one who commits suicide will go to hell. The ulama say that if he is a believer and is faithful then he will not remain in hell forever. It is the same as a believer who kills another believer willfully. There someone else's life is taken and, in this case, he takes his own life. The Quran says that one who hills a believer will abide in hell forever. But the ulama gave read it with commands in other verses of the Quran and in the ahadith to interpret that he will not abide in hell forever. Those of the scholars of hadith who belong to the zawahif faction maintain that one who commits suicide will remain in hell forever even if he is a believer. They say that punishment in hell perpetually is not restricted to the infidels alone. However, This opinion is questionable. It contradicts the contention of the ahlu ssunnah wa al-jama'ah.

5893. Sayyiduna Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that a spell was cast on Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم so that he imagined that he had done something which he had not truly done, so much so that one day when he was with her, he made supplication after supplication to Allah. Afterwards, he said, "Do you know, Ayshah, Allah has disclosed to me what I enquired of Him in supplication. Two angels came to me (in the garb of human beings). One of them sat down by my head and the other next to my feet. One of them asked his companion, 'what is wrong with this man?' He said, 'A spell is cast on him.' The first one asked, 'Who has cast a spell on him?' He said, 'Labid ibn Asim, the Jew.' He asked, 'In what (he has put it)?" He said, 'In a comb and the falling hair caught by a comb and the spat he of a male palm tree.' He asked, 'where is it lying/" He said, 'In the well Dharwan (in Madinah itself).'
So, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم went with some of his sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم to the well. Throne , he said, 'This is the well that I was shown. It, water was like red henna and its spikes of the palm tree (which were immersed into it) were like the heads of the devils. He brought them out."[1]

COMMENTARY: Some exponent have said that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to forget what he had done and not done. This forgetfulness concerned only worldly affairs. It never happened in any religious duty and obligations. The word used for his mental reaction is (یخیل). The same word is used in the Quran for Prophet Mus علیہ السلام.

يُخَيَّلُ إِلَيْهِ مِنْ سِحْرِهِمْ أَنَّهَا تَسْعٰى

{...by their sorcery, seemed to him as though they were gliding} (28:66)

The fact was that eh ropes were not gliding. Rather, it was the sleight of hand or conjuring tricks of the disbelievers. Or them, had contrived before hand by instating mercury of quick silver into the ropes. Then the sun's heat caused them to vibrate and oscillate.

According to another hadith, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was unable to have sexual intercourse with his wife when he desired to go to any one of them. It must be known that sorcery too is an illness like the other illness. The Prophet عليه السلام were human beings and prone to illnesses, so they were prone to this illness of sorcery too. It does not imply any weakness in their prophethood.

In this case, there was wisdom in it to show that if the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم the noblest of the creatures could not be immune from being Dewitched then how can others be safe from it. Also, the contention of the infidels was proved wrong when they said that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was a sorcerer, for a sorcerer is never himself a prey to sorcery since he was bewitched," he cannot have been a sorcerer.

This incident of a spell being cast on the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم took place in Dhul HIjjah 6 AH when he had returned to Madinah from Hudaybiyah where the peace treaty was concluded. The ulama رحمه الله say that the effect on him lasted for forty days. But, one tradition puts it at six months and according to yet another, one full year. We might say that the effect of sorcery lasted with full force for forty days. Some of its effect continued for six months and it died off gradually in one year. Allah disclosed its reality and gave relief from it.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم prayed to Allah again and again. He beseeched Allah continuously. This means that if one faces something displeasing and hurting and if a trial or hardship befalls one than one may turn to Allah and pray to be delivered from it. This is mustahab.

The ulama say that Allah inspires His close and dear creatures to make supplication when the time of acceptance of it is opportune. As for the common people, they are left to pray till their supplication is answered.

As for Labid ibn A'sam, some authorities say that though his name is mentioned, it is his daughters who had cast the spell. The angel disclosed, as it were, that the daughters of Labid had bewitched and prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. They have arrived at this conclusion from the words of surah al-Falaq:

وَمِنْ شَرِّ النَّفّٰثٰتِ فِي الْعُقَدِ

{And from the evil of women blowers on knots,} (113:4)

Qadi رحمه الله said refuge is sought from their evil because a Jew cast a spell on the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم by tying eleven knows on the string of a bow and put it in the well. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم fell ill because of it. Allah revealed the two surahs al-Falaq and an-Naas (113th and 114th), and Jibril عليه السلام disclosed to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم the well where the string was buried. He sent Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه to bring that and the two surahs were recited on it. As Ali رضى الله عنه recited one verse one knot was opened automatically. In this way all the knots were untied. However, it seems that the traditions mentioned by Qadi رحمه الله: refers to a different incident, Or, the same incident may have had two different people casting spells on the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. They were Labid himself and his daughters too. In this way, Allah made his reward two fold by subjecting him to two magic spells.

The bark of the palm tree are described as the heads of the devils because they looked very ugly from the spells blown on them and from remaining immersed in waler or being buried in moist soil. The Arabs say that the head of the devil is very ugly and very terrifying.

Some authorities say that the 'heads of the devil's stand for a frightening snake.

Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه has also narrated a hadith about this incident. He said that after the place was disclosed, the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم sent Sayyiduna Ail رضی الله عنه and Sayyiduna Ammar رضی الله عنه to get out those things on which the knots were tried and the spell was locked at the well Dharwan. When they extracted the Dark of the palm tree, they found in its wrapping a wax reproduction of the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم. Needles were poked on the max replica a string that had eleven knots on it was tied on it.

Then jibril علیه السلام brought down the Mu'awwadhatayn (which are the two last surahs of the Quran al-falaq and an-Nass). These two surahs were recited and at every verse one knot was untied. Whenever a needle was drown out, the prophet felt some relief. It this way all the needles were drawn out. The exponents have commented that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم might have gone two with the two sahabah رضی الله عنهم and instructed Ali رضی الله عنه and Ammar رضی الله عنه to pull out the things from the well.

According to other traditions, after the disclosure of the sorcery and the sorcerer, the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم did not proceed against the Jew. He took no action against him, nor did he say anything to him. All he said, was, "I do not like to create mischief."

The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم did not air his grievances.[1]

[1] See also the Ma'ariful Quran Mufti Muhammad Shafi رحمه الله (English translation). Vol 8 pp 918-936. This subject and the issue of sorcery cast on the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم have been created comprehensively. A full commentary on the two surahs, notwithstanding.

قَوْمًا يَقْرَؤُوْنَ الْقُرْاٰنَ لَا يُجَاوِزُ حَنَاجِرَهُمْ يَمْرُقُوْنَ مِنَ الْإِسْلَامِ مُرُوْقَ السَّهْمِ مِنَ الرَّمِيَّةِ

5894. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed Khudri رضی الله عنه narrated: while we were with Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم (at Ja'ranah) and he was dividing shares (of he booty collected from the Battle of Hunayn), Dhul Khuwaysirah, a man belonging to Banu Tamim came to him. He said, "O Messenger of Allah, be just" He said, "woe to you! Who will be fair and just if I am not? If I do not dispense justice, you will be derived and will be a loser." Umar رضی الله عنه deprived and will be loser." Umar رضی الله عنه submitted, "Permit me to cut off his head." He said, "Leave him alone. He will have followers in comparison with whose salah one of you will think little of his own salah and in comparison with whose salah one of you will think little of his own salah and in comparison with whose fasting one of you will think little of his own fasting. They will recite the Quran but it will not go beyond their clavicles. They will slip out of religion as an arrow flies through the game (at which it is shot). So one may look at its (arrow's) head, at its risaf (solid part), at its nadiy which is its qadh (shaft), or at its Qadhadh (feathers - these being parts of the arrow), but there will be no trace of (anything at all though it will have passed through) excrement and blood.

Their sign (by which they will be known) is a black man one whose arms will shake like a woman's breast, or like a lump of flesh. (This is why he will be called Dhul Thadyah). They will rise against the best section of the people (meaning Sayyiduna Ali رضی الله عنه and his followers)."

Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed رضی الله عنه said, "I bear witness that I had heard this narration from Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم and I bear witness that Ali ibn Abu Talib رضی الله عنه fought with them and that I was on his side. He had ordered concerning the man that he should be traced. So, he was brought (to him) and I observed hat he was exactly as the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has described him."

According to another version: A man with depressed eyes, a raised brow. A dense beard, high cheekbones and a shaven head came (to the Prophet) صلى الله عليه وسلم. He said, "O Muhammad fear Allah!" He said, "Who will obey Allah, if I disobey Him? (Being His prophet, I am expected to obey him more than anyone else.) Allah has made me as amin (a trustee) over the people of the earth and none of you has made me a trustee." A man (Umar) رضی الله عنه asked if he might kill him, but he forbade him to do so. When he went back, he said, "Surely, from this man's progeny a people will arise who will recite the Quran but it will not go beyond their throats. They will turn away from Islam as an arrow flies through the game (at which it is shot). They will slay the adherents of Islam but spare the idol worshippers (through it will be more necessary to fight with them and to align with the Muslims). If I come across them, I shall certainly eliminate the just as the Aad were exterminated."[1]

COMMENTARY: Dhul Khuwaysirah was a hypocrite. He turned out to be the brains behind the faction that rebelled and dissociated itself from the amir ul-mumneen.

[1] Bukhari # 3610, Muslim # 148-1064 (Also: Bukhari # 4351, 3344, etc. Muslim # 143, 144-1064 etc. Ibn Majah # 169, 171 Musnad Ahmad 3-56).

Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ. It was as foretold by the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. This faction came to be known as the Khwarij. The following verse of the Quan is revealed concerning him:

وَمَنْ يَلْمِزُكَ فِي الصَّدَقَاتِ

{And of them are some who blame you in respect of alms} (9:58)

He was not the chief of the khawarij because they made their appearance in the time of Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ. But he was an advocate of that faction.

The booty that was collected from the Battle of Hunayn was distributed by the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم among the Muslims according to the needs of every person. The hypocrite, Dhul Khawysirah did not like this method of distribution so he gave vent to his feelings before the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. He wanted an equal distribution. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم told him that he had been just in distributing the booty. Justice did not mean that everyone should get an equal portion irrespective of his need. Someone may need more and somebody's; need may be less. To later to people's needs is also justice. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم made it clear to this man. "I have been sent as mercy to the worlds to be just and fair to everyone. It anyone finds fault with my justice then he is destined to be disappointed and deprived. Your success was assured if you had relied on my justice, but you have no faith in my fairness. Since you think that I am unjust, so, according to your own doing you are disappointed and deprived.

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم disallowed Sayyiduna Umar صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم to kill this man but according to another version, he expressed his resolved that if he came across this man's followers, he would kill them. The point is that those people would be creating mischief by taking up weapons and making the life of the Muslims miserable. As for disallowing Sayyiduna Umar رضی اللہ عنہ, it was a different case. Only one person had demonstrated his evil intentions and hypocrisy, but this mischief spread in the time of Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ who fought with the evil man and consigned many to death.

Moreover, it is more correct to say that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم forbade Umar رضی اللہ عنہ to strike the hypocrite because of his (Prophet's) kind manners and forbearance. He never retaliated for his man sake though this man had done everything possible to show animosity to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. He led accused him of being unjust and had advised him to fear Allah. This behaviors warranted severe action against him. In fact, even today if anyone utters such words or expresses similar thoughts about the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم than he ought to be accused to disbelief and apostasy, but the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم did not take him to task for it and did not allow anyone to punish him.

IN COMPARABLE WORSHIP: the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said about the khawarij that their salah and fasting will look very sincere and they will look perfect followers of Shari'ah. They will recite the Quran punctiliously and will impress the masses with their religion. But, all this will superficial: It will be an out words show and insincere. When they have laid the ground, and become a powerful section, they will show their true colours. They will disobey the imam of come out of the folds of Islam in the same way as an arrow shoots out of the game from the other side. They will have no trace of religion on them once they abandon it.

The ulama say that this fast sentence of the hadith affirms that the khawarij are disbelievers. Buy, Khawarij and disbelievers. But, Khatabi رحمہ اللہ said that it does not mean that they will abandon religion outright. Rather, they will rebel against the imam of the times.

The man is described as having shaved his head. So his appearance was notable different to the features of the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم most of whom grew hair on their head. They did not shave their hair except after performing hajj (and umrah). However, it is said about Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ that he often shaved his hair on head. His reasoning was that the hair on head might prevent water from reaching the scalp during the purifying bath.
As for the people of Aad, they were not killed but a violent mind and cyclone had destroyed them completely.

ISLAM OF MOTHER OF ABU HURAHRAH رضی اللہ عنہ

(٥٨٩٥) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ كُنْتُ اَدْعُوْا اُمِّيْ اِلَى الْاِسْلَامِ وَهِيَ مُشْرِكَةٌ فَدَعَوْتُهَا يَوْمًا فَاَسْمَعَتْنِيْ فِيْ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا اَكْرَهُ فَاَتَيْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَ اَنَا اَبْكِيْ فَقُلْتُ يَارَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اُدْعُ اللّٰهَ اَنْ يَهْدِيَ اُمَّ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ فَقَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ اهْدِ اُمَّ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ فَخَرَجْتُ مُسْتَبْشِرًا بِدَعْوَةِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَلَمَّا صِرْتُ اِلَى الْبَابِ فَاِذَا هُوَ مُجَافٌ فَسَمِعَتْ اُمِّيْ خَشْفَ قَدَمَيَّ فَقَالَتْ مَكَانَكَ يَا اَبَا هُرَيْرَةَ وَ سَمِعْتُ خَضْخَضَةَ الْمَآءِ فَاغْتَسَلَتْ فَلَبِسَتْ دِرْعَهَا وَ عَجِلَتْ عَنْ خِمَارِهَا فَفَتَحَتِ الْبَابَ ثُمَّ قَالَتْ يَا اَبَا هُرَيْرَةَ اَشْهَدُ اَنْ لَّا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَاَشْهَدُ اَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا عَبْدُهٗ وَرَسُوْلُهٗ فَرَجَعْتُ اِلَى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَاَنَا اَبْكِيْ مِنَ الْفَرَحِ فَحَمِدَ اللّٰهَ وَقَالَ خَيْرًا۔ (رواہ مسلم)

5895. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ said, "I used to call my mother who was a polytheist to Islam. One day I called her (as usual) and she made me hear such a thing about Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم as caused me immense pain (and I cannot repeat them). I came to Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم while I was weeping (because I could not say anything to my mother). I said, 'O Messenger of Allah, pray to Allah that He may guide the mother of Abu Hurayrah' So he prayed, 'O Allah, guide the mother of Abu Hurayrah.' Then, I returned with high hopes in the Prophet's prayer. I came (home) to the door and found it closed. She had heard the sound of my footsteps and said (for me to hear), 'Stay at your place, Abu Hurayrah."(Do not enter.) I could hear the splashing of water. She had had a bath, put on her clothing but in her haste forgot to put on he head-covering. She opened the door an declared, 'O Abu Hurayrah, I testify that there is no God but Allah. And I testify that Muhammad is His slave and his Messenger.' I was very happy and) returned to Allah's Messenger weeping out of happiness. He praised Allah (and thanked him) and spoke some good words."[1]

COMMENTARY: It is not only when a person is sad that he weeps. Even when he is happy, he drops tears of joy. Someone has said a wonderful thing:

Shedding tears of joy is because sorrow wishes to depart in the form of tears.

The good words that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم spoke could be tidings and prayer. He may have meant that Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه could expect a good reward because of his mother's embracing Islam.

This is another of the miracles of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم His prayer got a hardened polytheist to became a Muslim.

ABU HURAYRAH رضی اللہ عنہ NARRATED MANY AHADITH BECAUSE OF PROPHET'S صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم BLESSINGS

(٥٨٩٦) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ إِنَّكُمْ تَقُوْلُوْنَ أَكْثَرَ أَبُوْهُرَيْرَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَاللّٰهُ الْمَوْعِدُ وَإِنَّ إِخْوَتِيْ مِنَ الْمُهَاجِرِيْنَ كَانَ يَشْغَلُهُمُ الصَّفْقُ بِالْأَسْوَاقِ وَإِنَّ إِخْوَتِيْ مِنَ الْأَنْصَارِ كَانَ يَشْغَلُهُمْ عَمَلُ أَمْوَالِهِمْ وَكُنْتُ امْرَأً مِسْكِيْنًا أَلْزَمُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَلَى مِلْءِ بَطْنِيْ وَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَوْمًا لَنْ يَبْسُطَ أَحَدٌ مِّنْكُمْ ثَوْبَهُ حَتّٰى أَقْضِيَ مَقَالَتِيْ هٰذِهٖ ثُمَّ يَجْمَعَهُ إِلٰى صَدْرِهٖ فَيَنْسٰى مِنْ مَقَالَتِيْ شَيْئًا أَبَدًا فَبَسَطْتُ نَمِرَةً لَيْسَ عَلَيَّ ثَوْبٌ غَيْرَهَا حَتّٰى قَضَى النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَقَالَتَهُ ثُمَّ جَمَعْتُهَا إِلٰى صَدْرِيْ فَوَالَّذِيْ بَعَثَهُ بِالْحَقِّ مَا نَسِيْتُ مِنْ مَقَالَتِهٖ ذٰلِكَ إِلٰى يَوْمِيْ هٰذَا۔ (متفق عليه)

5896. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ said (to the tabi'un or the,younger sahabah) رضی اللہ عنہ, "You assume that Abu Hurayrah narrates much from the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم (First of all) Allah's promise (is true and we have to stand before him for reckoning). And (besides that), my brother among the muhajirs were occupied in the markets in buying and selling and my brothers among the ansar were hared at work with their properties (tending to gardens and fields). As for me, I was a poor man content with whatever filled my stomach and I stayed with Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم constantly. One day, the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, 'If any of you spreads out his garment till I finish this that I am saying (meaning the prayer) and thereafter gathers it to his breast, then he will never forget anything of what I say (not even part of it). Forthwith, I spread out a woolen garment, here being no other garment on me, till the Prophet finished what he was saying. After that I gathered it to my breast. By Him who has sent him with the Truth, I have not forgotten any of his saying till today."[1]

COMMENTARY: Allah's promise to which Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه referred is the day of resurrection. He meant, 'If I lie then the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم has said that one who forges a lie against him must find his place in hell."

He narrated more ahadith than any other sahabi رضی اللہ عنہ,because he kept constant company of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. The others came to him for certain hours because they attended to their various occupations. He did not have even a house to care for. All he needed was food to survive.

Besides, he had a mental capacity to retain the sayings of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. He got this by following the instructions of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم as outlined in this hadith. It was the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم desire that his umah should remember his ahadith and convey then to succeeding generations. So he supplicated Allah for that and instructed his sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم who were present there to spread out their garment till he finished praying and then garment till he finished praying and then gather it to their bosom.

Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ followed these instructions. The prayer was memory and heart became repositories of the ahadith of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم.

PRAYER FOR TAVIR رضی اللہ عنہ

(٥٨٩٧) وَعَنْ جَرِيْرِ بْنِ عَبْدِاللهِ قَالَ قَالَ لِي رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَلَا تُرِيْحُنِيْ مِنْ ذِي الْخَلَصَةِ فَقُلْتُ بَلٰى وَكُنْتُ لَا اَثْبُتُ عَلَى الْخَيْلِ فَذَكَرْتُ ذٰلِكَ لِلنَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَضَرَبَ يَدَهُ عَلٰى صَدْرِيْ حَتّٰى رَاَيْتُ اَثَرَ يَدِهٖ فِيْ صَدْرِيْ وَقَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ ثَبِّتْهُ وَاجْعَلْهُ هَادِيًا مَهْدِيًّا فَمَا وَقَعْتُ عَنْ فَرَسِيْ بَعْدُ فَانْطَلَقَ فِيْ مِائَةٍ وَخَمْسِيْنَ فَارِسًا اَحْمَسَ فَحَرَّقَهَا بِالنَّارِ وَكَسَرَهَا (متفق عليه)

5897. Sayyiduna Jarir ibn Abdullah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said to me, 'why do you not let me have relief from Dhul Khalasah (by smashing it)?' I submitted, 'Of course (I would do it and relieve you of it).' But I am unable (to keep steady and horseback (and I keep falling off a horses back). I mentioned that to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم (since I could smash Dhul Kalasah only if I ride till there on horse back). So, he hit his hand on my chest so hard that I could feel the blow deep inside my body. Ten, he prayed: 'O Allah, cause him to be steady and to sit firm. Make him a guide who himself is well guided."
He narrated (further), After that, I never fell down from my horse." Then, he took one hundred and fifty horsemen of Ahmas there and burnt it and broke it up. (That relieved the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم from the temple.)[1]

COMMENTARY: Dhul khalasah or dhul khulusah was a temple where idol worship was carried on by the Arab tribe Khath'am. It was also called Ka'bah al-Yamamah. It had a large idol called Khalasah and many people worshipped it. Obviously, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم found it very dist ressing. So, he assigned the task of destroying it to Jarir to be relieved of the distress.
When the sacred and perfect people observe that other than Allah are worshipped and Shari'ah is violated they are grieved and feel hurt.
Ahmas is derived from Hamasah. It means 'bold courageous. The six tribes of the Quraysh who were known for their courage and warlike qualities were called Ahmas.
The hadith concludes with the words of a sub-narrator who spoke of Jarir رضی اللہ عنہ having taken along with him one hundred and fifty men of Ahmas. However, some authorities say that Jarir رضی اللہ عنہ himself spoke these words using the third person pronoun.

THE EARTH REFUSED TO TAKE AN APOSTATE SCRIBE

(٥٨٩٨) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ اِنَّ رَجُلًا كَانَ يَكْتُبُ لِلنَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَارْتَدَّ عَنِ الْاِسْلَامِ وَلَحِقَ بِالْمُشْرِكِيْنَ فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ الْاَرْضَ لَا تَقْبَلُهُ فَاَخْبَرَنِيْ اَبُوْطَلْحَةَ اَنَّهُ اَتَى الْاَرْضَ الَّتِيْ

5898. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that a man who used to write down (the wahy) for the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم apostatized from Islam and joined the polytheists. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Surely the earth will not accept him."
Abu Talhah رضی اللہ عنہ (the step father of Anas) رضی اللہ عنہ informed Anas رضی اللہ عنہ that he had come to the land in which he (the scribe) had died and found him spurned out of a grave. He asked, what is the reason for this ?" The people said, "We buried him many times but the earth did not accept him."[1]

COMMENTARY: That man was first a Christian before he became a Muslim. Since he could read and write, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم assigned him the task of a scribe to record the wahy or revelation. However he apostatized and reverted to Christianity, joining the opponents of Islam
The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was distraught with it and the words came out on his tongue spontaneously about the earth spurning him. The polytheists buried him but by morning his corpse was lying outside the grave. They alleged. "This is the work of Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and his companionsرضی اللہ عنہم." So they reburied him in a deeper grave but, again, he was outside the grave the next morning. Finally, they realized that no man could have done it. PUNISHMENT IN THE GRAVES

(٥٨٩٩) وَعَنْ أَبِي أَيُّوبَ قَالَ خَرَجَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَقَدْ وَجَبَتِ الشَّمْسُ فَسَمِعَ صَوْتًا فَقَالَ يَهُوْدٌ تُعَذَّبُ فِيْ قُبُوْرِهَا۔ (متفق عليه)

5899. Sayyiduna Abu Ayyub رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم came out (of his house one evening) after the our had sat. He heard a sound and said, "The Jews are being punished in their graves."[2]

COMMENTARY: the exponents of the hadith say that the sound could be that of the angels who are deputed in the grave to cal out, or it could be that of the Jews being punished in the grave. The wording of the hadith seems to accommodate the second meaning.
The hadith is evidence that punishment is awarded in the grave. This is another of the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم miracles that he learnt of the punishment in the grave.

WINDSTORM WAS SIGN OF HYPOCRITE'S DEATH

(٥٩٠٠) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَدِمَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مِنْ سَفَرٍ فَلَمَّا كَانَ قُرْبُ الْمَدِيْنَةِ هَاجَتْ رِيْحٌ تَكَادُ أَنْ تَدْفِنَ الرَّاكِبَ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بُعِثَتْ هٰذِهِ الرِّيْحُ لِمَوْتِ مُنَافِقٍ فَقَدِمَ الْمَدِيْنَةَ فَإِذَا عَظِيْمٌ مِنَ الْمُنَافِقِيْنَ قَدْ مَاتَ۔ (رواه مسلم)

5900.Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that (once) the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was returning to Madinah from a journey. When he was near Madinah, a violent wind arose such that it could nearly bury a rider (in the earth). Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "This wind has been sent because of the death of a hypocrite." Indeed, when he came to Madinah, one of the chief of the Hypocrites had died.[1]

COMMENTARY: Some scholars have named the hypocrite as Ri'fa'ah ibn Durayd. This happened when the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was returning from the Battler of Tabuk. Other give his name as Rafi and this happened when the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was returning from the Battle of Musaliq.

The cyclonic wind was nature's demonstration of the terror and utter deprival which a hypocrite experiences when he dies. It was also a sign that such people will face a terrible punishment in the next world.

MIRACLE WHEREBY MADINAH WAS SAFE

(٥٩٠١) وَعَنْ أَبِي سَعِيْدِنِ الْخُدْرِيِّ قَالَ خَرَجْنَا مَعَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حَتّٰى قَدِمْنَا عُسْفَانَ فَأَقَامَ بِهَا لَيَالِيَ فَقَالَ النَّاسُ مَا نَحْنُ هٰهُنَا فِي شَيْءٍ وَإِنَّ عِيَالَنَا لَخُلُوْفٌ مَا نَأْمَنُ عَلَيْهِمْ فَبَلَغَ ذٰلِكَ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ وَالَّذِيْ نَفْسِيْ بِيَدِهٖ مَا فِي الْمَدِيْنَةِ شِعْبٌ وَلَا نَقْبٌ إِلَّا عَلَيْهِ مَلَكَانِ يَحْرُسَانِهَا حَتّٰى تَقْدَمُوْا إِلَيْهَا ثُمَّ قَالَ إِرْتَحِلُوْا فَارْتَحَلْنَا وَأَقْبَلْنَا إِلَى الْمَدِيْنَةِ فَوَالَّذِيْ يُحْلَفُ بِهٖ مَا وَضَعْنَا رِحَالَنَا حِيْنَ دَخَلْنَا الْمَدِيْنَةَ حَتّٰى أَغَارَ عَلَيْنَا بَنُوْ عَبْدِ اللّٰهِ بْنِ غَطْفَانَ وَمَا يُهَيِّجُهُمْ قَبْلَ ذٰلِكَ شَيْءٌ۔ (رواہ مسلم)

5901. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed Khudri رضی اللہ عنہ said, "We travelled with the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم (from Makah to Madinah). When we came to Usfan (32 miles from Makkah), he stayed there some nights. Some people (the hypocrites and the weaker men in religion became anxious and) said, 'why are we here for no reason. Our children are alone and we are not sure of their safety. This was conveyed to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and he said, 'By him is whose hand is my soul, there is no road in the city or path between houses in Madinah that does not have two angels who will guard it till you return (to it).'

Then he gave command to began (the return) journey. So, we returned and we came to Madinah. Then, by Him in whose name oaths are sworn, we had barely unloaded our beasts on coming to Madinah that the Banu Abdullah ibn Ghatafan attacked us, but nothing had provoked them to do so before that."[2]

COMMENTARY: The words (شعب) Sha'b and (نقب) naqab means 'ravine' and 'mountain road' respectively. But, in this hadith they mean as in the translation. This is as in another hadith (انقاب المدینۃ); streets and lanes of Madinah where the angle sit keeping away plague and the dajjal. The Banu Abdulah ibn Ghatafan was a tribe. As long as the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and those sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم who had accompanied him on the journey were away from Madinah, it was very safe. This is what he had assured them as a miracle. No enemy dared attack Madinah. When they came to Madinah, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم news came true. When they came to Madinah, the enemy attacked them. Though they could have caused havoc in the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم absence, they were precluded to attack an unseen hand.

PRAYER FOR RAIN GRANTED

(٥٩٠٢) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ اَصَابَتِ النَّاسَ سِنَةٌ عَلٰى عَهْدِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَبَيْنَا النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَخْطُبُ فِيْ يَوْمِ الْجُمُعَةِ قَامَ اَعْرَابِيٌّ فَقَالَ يَارَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ هَلَكَ الْمَالُ وَجَاعَ الْعِيَالُ فَادْعُ اللّٰهَ لَنَا فَرَفَعَ يَدَيْهِ وَمَا نَرٰى فِي السَّمَآءِ قَزَعَةً فَوَالَّذِيْ نَفْسِيْ بِيَدِهٖ مَا وَضَعَهَا حَتّٰى ثَارَ السَّحَابُ اَمْثَالَ الْجِبَالِ ثُمَّ لَمْ يَنْزِلْ عَنْ مِنْبَرِهٖ حَتّٰى رَاَيْتُ الْمَطَرَ يَتَحَادَرُ عَلٰى لِحْيَتِهٖ فَمُطِرْنَا يَوْمَنَا ذٰلِكَ وَمِنَ الْغَدِ وَمِنْ بَعْدِ الْغَدِ حَتَّى الْجُمُعَةِ الْاُخْرٰى وَقَامَ ذٰلِكَ الْاَعْرَابِيُّ اَوْ غَيْرُهٗ فَقَالَ يَارَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ تَهَدَّمَ الْبِنَآءُ وَغَرِقَ الْمَالُ فَادْعُ اللّٰهَ لَنَا فَرَفَعَ يَدَيْهِ فَقَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ حَوَالَيْنَا وَلَا عَلَيْنَا فَمَا يُشِيْرُ اِلٰى نَاحِيَةٍ مِنَ السَّحَابِ اِلَّا انْفَرَجَتْ وَصَارَتِ الْمَدِيْنَةُ مِثْلَ الْجَوْبَةِ وَسَالَ الْوَادِيْ قَنَاةُ شَهْرًا وَلَمْ يَجِئْ اَحَدٌ مِنْ نَاحِيَةٍ اِلَّا حَدَّثَ بِالْجَوْدِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ قَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ حَوَالَيْنَا وَلَا عَلَيْنَا اَللّٰهُمَّ عَلَى الْاٰكَامِ وَالظِّرَابِ وَبُطُوْنِ الْاَوْدِيَةِ وَمَنَابِتِ الشَّجَرِ قَالَ فَاَقْلَعَتْ وَخَرَجْنَا نَمْشِيْ فِي الشَّمْسِ۔ (متفق عليه)

5902. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ said "(Once) in the time of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, the people were faced with famine (because of severe draught). The Prophet was delivering the sermon on a Friday. A villager stood up and interrupting him) submitted, 'O Messenger of Allah, the properties (meaning the animals, fields, crop are being lost and the children are hungry (and restless). Pray to Allah for us; He raised his hands." (Anas رضی اللہ عنہ said) "We could not find a semblance of a cloud in the sky. But, by Him in whose hand is my soul, he had not yet put his hands down when clouds came like mountains and before he came down the pulpit, I saw rain drop on his beard. It rained that day, the next and the next and so till the next Friday. (People suffered on account of that) Then (during the sermons on Friday), that villager or someone else stood up and pleaded, 'O Messenger of Allah, houses are damaged, properties are submerged. Do pray to Allah for us (that rain may stop.' He raised his hands and prayed. 'O Allah, found about us (on fields and gardens) but not on us (and not on our houses). Whichever section of clouds he pointed to they dispersed. Madinah was like an opening (which was without clouds though there were clouds though there were clouds around it pouring down outside Madinah). The (surrounding) streamed called Qanah flowed for one moth. Whoever arrived from the surrounding spoke of abundant rain.

According to another version; "He prayed, 'O Allah, on our surrounding. Not on us! O Allah, on the blocks, mountains, streambeds and plantations (fields and gardens)." Anas رضی اللہ عنہ added, "It stopped and we went out walking in the sun." (The clouds above disappeared.)[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had not come down from the pulpit and before he could go out of the mosque, if began to rain.

Imam Nawawi رحمہ اللہ said that this hadith teaches us that when it rains heavily and damages houses, etc. it is mustahab to make this supplication: 'O Allah, do not let it rain on our houses." But it is not prescribed that one should offer salah or go outside habitation to the wilderness to make this prayer (as one does for the salah of istisqa or prayer asking for rain).

MIRACLE OF THE PALM TREE

(٥٩٠٣) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا خَطَبَ اسْتَنَدَ إِلَى جِذْعِ نَخْلَةٍ مِنْ سَوَارِيْ الْمَسْجِدِ فَلَمَّا صُنِعَ لَهُ الْمِنْبَرُ فَاسْتَوٰى عَلَيْهِ صَاحَتِ النَّخْلَةُ الَّتِيْ كَانَ يَخْطُبُ عِنْدَهَا حَتّٰى كَادَتْ أَنْ تَنْشَقَّ فَنَزَلَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حَتّٰى أَخَذَهَا فَضَمَّهَا إِلَيْهِ فَجَعَلَتْ تَئِنُّ أَنِيْنَ الصَّبِيِّ الَّذِيْ يُسَكَّتُ حَتّٰى اسْتَقَرَّتْ قَالَ بَكَتْ عَلٰى مَاكَانَتْ تَسْمَعُ مِنَ الذِّكْرِ۔ (رواه البخاری)

5903. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه narrated that whenever the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم delivered a sermon (in the Masjid Nabawi), he leaned on the trunk of a palm tree which served as a pillar of the mosque. But, when the pulpit was made for him and he stood on it (to deliver a sermon), the palm tree by which he delivered the sermon began to shriek so much that it nearly split (because of losing the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم company). So, the Prophet got down, took it in an embrace (to console it) and it began to sab like a child who is being comforted before it (stopped and) became quit. He said, 'It was weeping because (it was deprived) of the dhikr (or mention of Allah) which it used to hear."[1]

COMMENTARY: The pillars of the Masjid Nabawi used to be the trunks of palm trees before the pulpit was made, the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم used to lean on one of these pillars to deliver the sermon. When the pulpit was ready and he began to use it, the trunk beside which he used to deliver the sermon began to weep because of being deprived of his good fortune. Thereafter, this pillar came to be called (اسطوانہ حنانہ) ustawah hanahah or 'the weeping column or pillar.

This hadith is transmitted by very many sahabah رضی الله عنه. So there is no doubt at all of its authenticity. Some scholars call it mutawair. It was a great miracle of the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم. The sahabah رضی الله عنهم heard it weep in the Masjid Nabawi.

Hasan Busri رضی الله عنه used to weep profusely whenever he narrated this hadith. He would say, 'O people, a dried piece of wood wept for the (ongoing and love of the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم. You should be more restless desiring his sight and meeting."[2]

LIAR LOST USE OF ONE HAND

(٥٩٠٤) وَعَنْ سَلَمَةَ بْنِ الْأَكْوَعِ أَنَّ رَجُلًا أَكَلَ عِنْدَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِشِمَالِهِ فَقَالَ كُلْ بِيَمِيْنِكَ قَالَ لَا أَسْتَطِيْعُ قَالَ لَا اسْتَطَعْتَ مَا مَنَعَهُ إِلَّا الْكِبْرُ قَالَ فَمَا رَفَعَهَا إِلٰى فِيْهِ۔ (رواه مسلم)

[2] See The life Prophet Muhamamd, Ibn Kathir p 842 (Drul Isha'at, Karachi) Siratun Nabi, Numani & Nadvi v3 p429 (Darul Isha'at Karachi) saying that eleven sahabah رضی الله عنهم narrated it.

5904. Sayyiduna Salamah ibn Akwa رضی اللہ عنہ said that one man ate with his left hand in the presence of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. He said (by way of guidance). "Eat with your right hand." But (instead of receiving guidance), he said, "I am unable (to eat with the right hand)." The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "May you never be able!" Nothing had prevented the man but pride.
He (the narrator) said, "He never raised it to his mouth (after that)."[1]

COMMENTARY: That man had no reason for not using his right hand for eating but false pride. As a result, he last use of it forever.

5905. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ said that once the people of Madinah (had a frightening experience when they heard a loud noise. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم mounted a horse of Abu Talhah رضی اللہ عنہ that was very slow. It moved in short steps. He went in the direction of he alarm). When he returned, he said, "I found your this horse like a great river (very swift)." After that no horse could match it (in swiftness).
According to another version: After that day , it was never outpaced.[2]

INCREASE IN QUANTITY OF DATES

(٥٩٠٦) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ تُوُفِّيَ اَبِيْ وَعَلَيْهِ دَيْنٌ فَعَرَضْتُ عَلٰى غُرَمَائِهِ اَنْ يَّاْخُذُوا التَّمْرَ بِمَا عَلَيْهِ فَاَبَوْا فَاَتَيْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقُلْتُ قَدْ عَلِمْتَ اَنَّ وَالِدِيْ قَدِ اسْتُشْهِدَ يَوْمَ اُحُدٍ وَتَرَكَ دَيْنًا كَثِيْرًا وَاِنِّيْ اُحِبُّ اَنْ يَّرَاكَ الْغُرَمَاءُ فَقَالَ لِيْ اِذْهَبْ فَبَيْدِرْ كُلَّ تَمْرٍ عَلٰى نَاحِيَةٍ فَفَعَلْتُ ثُمَّ دَعَوْتُهُ فَلَمَّا نَظَرُوْا اِلَيْهِ كَاَنَّهُمْ اُغْرُوْا بِيْ تِلْكَ السَّاعَةِ فَلَمَّا رَاٰى مَا يَصْنَعُوْنَ طَافَ حَوْلَ اَعْظَمِهَا بَيْدَرًا ثَلٰثَ مَرَّاتٍ ثُمَّ جَلَسَ عَلَيْهِ ثُمَّ قَالَ ادْعُ لِيْ اَصْحَابَكَ فَمَا زَالَ يَكِيْلُ لَهُمْ حَتّٰى اَدَّى اللّٰهُ عَنْ وَالِدِيْ اَمَانَةً وَاَنَا اَرْضٰى اَنْ يُّؤَدِّيَ اللّٰهُ اَمَانَةَ وَالِدِيْ وَلَا اَرْجِعُ اِلٰى اِخْوَاتِيْ بِتَمْرَةٍ فَسَلَّمَ اللّٰهُ الْبَيَادِرَ كُلَّهَا وَحَتّٰى اَنِّيْ اَنْظُرُ اِلَى الْبَيْدَرِ الَّذِيْ كَانَ عَلَيْهِ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَاَنَّهَا لَمْ تَنْقُصْ تَمْرَةٌ وَّاحِدَةٌ۔ (رواه البخاری)

5906. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ said "My father died leaving behind an unpaid debt. I offered his creditors to take dates that we possessed I repayment of his debt but they declined. I went to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and submitted. 'You know that my father was martyred at the Battle of Uhud leaving a large unpaid debt. I wish that the creditors should see you (with me in which case they might show some leniency). He said, 'Go and put all dates in separate graps. I did that invited him.

When they (meaning the creditors) saw him, they appeared to be more demanding on me (imagining that he would request them to give me some concession or more time so they hoped to forestall any such plea). He observed their attitude and (without saying anything to them) he went round the largest heap three times and sat down beside it. Then, he said, 'Call you creditors to me.' On his command, I continued to measure out to them till Allah repaid (to them) on my father's behalf all his debt. Though I would have been satisfied that Allah should repay my father's debt leaving no a date for me to take back to my sisters, yet Allah preserved all the heaps untouched (as a miracle of the Prophet) صلى الله عليه وسلم. As for the heap by which the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had sat, it appeared as though it had not decreased by even one date. (That being so the other heaps ought to have been preserved in a more perfect way.)"[1]

COMMENTARY: The father of Sayyiduna Jabir ()R) had left behind many daughters so he had not expect ed that after paying the creditors, there would remain any date for himself or for his sisters, But, by virtue of the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم miracle al dates remained as they were without any decrease, and the debt was cleared too. (Bukahri # 4053 has that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم measured out of the creditors himself).

MIRACLE OF CLARIFIED BUTTER

(٥٩٠٧) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ إِنَّ أُمَّ مَالِكٍ كَانَتْ تُهْدِىْ لِلنَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيْ عُكَّةٍ لَهَا سَمْنًا فَيَاتِيْهَا بَنُوْهَا فَيَسْأَلُوْنَ الْأُدُمَ وَلَيْسَ عِنْدَ هُمْ شَيْءٌ فَتَعْمِدُ إِلَى الَّذِىْ كَانَتْ تُهْدِىْ فِيْهِ لِلنَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَتَجِدُ فِيْهِ سَمْنًا فَمَا زَالَ يُقِيْمُ لَهَا أُدُمَ بَيْتِهَا حَتّٰى عَصَرَتْهُ فَأَتَتِ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ عَصَرْتِيْهَا قَالَتْ نَعَمْ قَالَ لَوْ تَرَكْتِيْهَا مَازَالَ قَائِمًا۔ (رواه مسلم)

5907. Sayyiduna Jabir رضى الله عنه narrated that Sayyidah Umm Maalik رضى الله عنه used to present to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم clarified butte in a skin belonging to her. Her sons would came to her and demand (something to eat with bread like) seasoning when they had nothing else. She would go to the skin from which she used to present (clarified butter). There she found clarified butter in it. In this way she got seasoning for her household till she squeezed it fall out). She went to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم (and informed him of her predicament). He asked 'Did you squeeze it?' She said, 'Yes' He said, 'If you had left it alone, then it would have remained as it was.'[2]

BLESSING IN FOOD

5908. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated: "Abu Talhah رضی اللہ عنہ (my step father) said to (my mother) Umm Sulaym رضی اللہ عنہ, 'I heard the voice Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and it was weak. I perceive hunger to be behind it. Do you have anything? She said, 'Yes!' She brought out some leaves (of bread) lf barley. Then she took out a head-covering of hers and wrapped the bread in part of it. Then putting it under my arm, she wound part of it round my head. Then she sent me to Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. I went (to him) with it and found Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم in the mosque. There were some people with him. I offered salaam to them. Allah Messenger asked me, 'Has Abu Talhah sent you?' I said, 'yes' He asked, 'with food?' I said, 'Yes' Then, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said to those with him, 'Get up!' He set off and I walked in front of him. (This was as servants and hoots lead guest. Or it was to go ahead and inform Abu Talha) رضی اللہ عنہ

When I came to Abu Talhah رضی اللہ عنہ I informed him (of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم arrival). So, Abu Talhah رضی اللہ عنہ said, 'O Umm Sulaym, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم has arrived with same people but we have nothing with which to serve them.' She said, 'Allah and His Messenger know best.' Abu Talhah رضی اللہ عنہ stepped forward to meet Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. Then he came together with Abu Talhah رضی اللہ عنہ and said, 'Bring to me, Umm Sulaym, whatever you have.

She brought that bread and Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم instructed that it should be broken into small pieces. Umm Sulaym رضى الله عنه squeezed a skin and put seasoning on it. Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said about it what Allah willed him to say. Then he said (to me or Abu Talhah رضى الله عنه or generally) 'let ten enter.' They came, ate till they were satiated and went away. He asked for groups of ten, followed by each other. So, they came (one after little food) to satiation point. They were seventy or eighty men in all."

According to another version (in Muslim): 'He said, 'Let said, 'Eat and take the name of Allah.' They ate until he did that with eighty people. After that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and the people of the house ate. (Evèn after that there remained something. And) he left something over."

According to another version (in Bukhari): 'He said, 'Come in ten at a time.' He counted forty. Then the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ate. I looked carefully whether it had decreased at all."

Another version (in Muslim) is: 'He took the residue and put in together and invoked a blessing on it. It returned to what it had been and he said, 'Take it (and eat it later)."[1]

COMMENTARY: This miracle at Abu Tahah's رضى الله عنه house in similar to the other one that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم demonstrated with Jabir رضى الله عنه (h # 5877, 5906 5907). This too was performed during the Battle of the Trench (like hadith # 5877). The mosque where Anas رضى الله عنه found the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was situated near the trench. It means the place that he had set aside for salah while the digging was carried on.

Though Sayyidah Umm Sulaym رضى الله عنه had sent Anas رضى الله عنه, the idea was that of Abu Tahah رضى الله عنه. So he did confirm to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that he had sent him.

After getting this confirmation, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked him whether he had sent him to invite him to a meal.

The scholars say that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had received a revelation that Anas رضى الله عنه carried only a few loaves of bread so he decided to go to their home. He also intended to demonstrate the miracle of multiplying the bread for all the sahabah رضى الله عنه. Another miracle was to reward Abu Talhah رضى الله عنه and his family for their sincerity and invoke blessing on them. So, he took the sahabah رضى الله عنهم to their home.

When Abu Talhah رضى الله عنه expressed anxiety on receiving many guests while they had little food, Sayyidah Umm Sulaym رضى الله عنه comforted him Saying that there surely was wisdom in the action of the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم only Allah and His Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم know what it was. There was blessing for them in his visiting their house wit h the sahabah رضى الله عنه. Obviously, she had foreseen that the Prophet's visit was to demonstrate a miracle, and this shows that she was religious minded, wise and had a strong faith and conviction. This was the marvel of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that a woman of his time had a conviction stronger than many men of our time.

(May Allah be pleased with her and with the people of he age. And way he case us to be among their kind. O Lord of the world, accept our prayer!)

---

As for the words that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that Allah willed him to say, he prayed for blessing. Or, he invoked the names of Allah and blew on the food. According to one tradition, he recited: (بسم الله اللهم اعظم فيها البركة)

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم invited ten men at a time because the dish in which food was placed could allow only so many to eat comfortably. Or, as some say, there was room in the house for only so many people. Hence, he did not permit al of them to come at once.

As for the number of guests being seventy or eighty, Ibn Hajar رضی اللہ عنہ has said that the other version gives the number as eighty. Besides, the narrator may have rounded off the number to the nearest whole number.

Another vision puts and number at forty. Perhaps this concerns a different incident, or the eighty men may have been served in to stages. First, forty may have partaken, ten at a time. Then a second batch of lat e arrivals may have eaten in the same manner. Or, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم may have summoned them later. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم perhaps ate after the first forty. In this way, his blessing was available to both batches.

WATER SPOUTED BETWEEN FINGERS

5909. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ said that when the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was at az-Zawra (near Madinah) a vessel was brought to him. He put his hand in the vessel and water began to spout between his fingers. All the people there performed ablution (with that water).

Sayyiduna Qatadah رحمہ اللہ (a tabi'I who narrated this hadith from Anas رضی اللہ عنہ said, "I asked Anas رضی اللہ عنہ, 'How many people were you?' He said, 'There hundred, or about three hundred.'[1]

COMMENTARY: (See also hadith # 5882) Water poured out from the fingers as Mazani رحمہ اللہ said and most ulama say as confirmed in the hadith # 5910 (I saw water spout from His finger). This is a miracle indeed and is stronger than Prophet علیہ السلام Musa's miracle of getting springs to flow from a rock after striking it with his staff.

Another opinion is that Allah blessed the water that was in the vessel so it increased when he put his hand in it. Then it flowed out from between his fingers.

WATER FROM FINGERS & FOOD GLORIFYING ALLAH

(٥٩١٠) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ ابْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ قَالَ كُنَّا نَعُدُّ الْاٰيَاتِ بَرَكَةً وَاَنْتُمْ تَعُدُّوْنَهَا تَخْوِيفًا كُنَّا مَعَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي سَفَرٍ فَقَلَّ الْمَاءُ فَقَالَ اطْلُبُوا فَضْلَةً مِنْ مَاءٍ فَجَاءُوْا بِإِنَاءٍ فِيهِ مَاءٌ قَلِيلٌ فَاَدْخَلَ يَدَهُ فِي الْإِنَاءِ ثُمَّ قَالَ حَيَّ عَلَى الطَّهُوْرِ الْمُبَارَكِ وَالْبَرَكَةُ مِنَ اللّٰهِ وَلَقَدْ رَاَيْتُ الْمَاءَ يَنْبَعُ مِنْ بَيْنِ اَصَابِعِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى

اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَلَقَدْ كُنَّا نَسْمَعُ تَسْبِيْحَ الطَّعَامِ وَهُوَ يُؤْكَلُ۔ (رواه البخارى)

5910.Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ said, "We (the sahabah) used to regard the signs[1] as a means of blessings. But you take them to be something to instil fear (in the rejecters). We were traveling with Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم once when water became scarce. He said, 'See if you have any water remaining.' They brought to him a vessel with a little water. He put his hand into it, saying, 'Come (quickly) to the blessed purifying water. The blessing (that comes down) from Allah. I did see water spout between the fingers of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and we have heard often food glorifying Allah when it was eaten."[2]

COMMENTARY: the word (ایات) aayat translated 'signs' could mean the verses of the Quran or the miracles that Allah showed at the hands of His prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. In the present context, the latter is more correct.

The signs may mean to warn the disbelievers but they also are meant to give glad tidings to believers. Bring them blessings and strengthen their faith. This is as stated by Shaykh Abdul Haq رحمہ اللہ on the authority of Teebi رحمہ اللہ.

Mulla Ali Qari رحمہ اللہ has said that (ایات) (aayat) 'signs' mean miracles and wonders and nothing else. He has made it clear that it is incongruous to take the meaning of verses of the Quran here.

It is evident from this hadith that water issued forth freely from his fingers. This is what most of the ulama assert. Therefore, this miracle of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم is referred to the miracle of water flowing out in streams from a rock as demonstrated by Prophet Musa علیہ السلام.

The opinion that water had not emerged from the fingers is unacceptable, and that the water in the vessel had increased to such an extend that it spouted between the fingers of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم (when it was in the vessel). It is an unnecessary interpretation of the words of the hadith because the hadith is very straightforward. As for the question, why was it necessary to have some water in the vessel, for the miracle could have been demonstrated even without water, there surely is some wisdom in it. Our minds cannot fath on it. Even Scholars have failed to unearth it. So, it is better to adopt silence and leave the matter to Allah.

The hadith also mentions that food glorified Allah. It is like another hadith: The prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم picked up some pebbles and they began to glorify Allah in his hand. They heard them glorify Allah with their ears.

ANOTHER MIRACLE WHEN WATER SPRANG ABUNDANTLY

(۵۹۱۱) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ قَتَادَةَ قَالَ خَطَبَنَا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ اِنَّكُمْ تَسِيْرُوْنَ عَشِيَّتَكُمْ وَلَيْلَتَكُمْ وَتَاْتُوْنَ الْمَآءَ اِنْ شَآءَ اللّٰهُ غَدًا فَانْطَلَقَ النَّاسُ لَا يَلْوِيْ اَحَدٌ عَلٰى اَحَدٍ قَالَ اَبُوْ قَتَادَةَ فَبَيْنَمَا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَسِيْرُ حَتَّى ابْهَارَّ اللَّيْلُ فَمَالَ عَنِ الطَّرِيْقِ فَوَضَعَ رَأْسَهُ ثُمَّ قَالَ احْفَظُوْا عَلَيْنَا صَلٰوتَنَا فَكَانَ اَوَّلُ مَنِ اسْتَيْقَظَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَالشَّمْسُ فِيْ ظَهْرِهٖ ثُمَّ قَالَ ارْكَبُوْا

5911. Sayyiduna Abu Qatadah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم delivered a sermon to them (during a journey), saying, 'You will travel in the early part of the night and its last moments (meaning all night) and come to water tomorrow in she Allah (if Allah wills)." (He alluded to the water that they would get as a miracle). The people ten walked ahead (lost in their own thoughts unmindful of each other (for, everyone was concerned with only one thirty – water, the sooner they got to it the better).

Abu Qatadah said that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم was also going ahead. When it was past midnight, he turned aside from the path, laid down his head and gave instructions, 'Be careful of our salah (lest we miss it by oversleeping)." (But, the same things happened everyone overslept beyond the hour of the salah of fajr). The first to awake was Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم when the heat of the sun fell on his back. He said (on awkenign the others). "Ride ahead!"

(Abu Qatdah رضی الله عنه continued to say) "We mounted out beast and traveled till the sun had risen in the sky (one bow's length or more). He dismounted, called for the vessel with some water for ablution that I had and performed ablution from it in a briefer from than normally (He washed the limbs only once instead of thrice.)

There remained some water in it,so he said, 'Preserve your ablution (water in the) vessel for us. It will be something to remember (as a miracle). Then Bilal رضی الله عنه called the adhan (call to salah) and Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم offered two raka'at (sunnah) and than led the fajr salah (to redeem with us the one we had missed).

Then, he mounted and we mounted along with him till we reached the people (of our caravan who had preceded us). The day had advanced and it was hot everywhere. They began to complain, 'O Messenger of Allah, we are dying of thirst!' He comforted them, 'you will not die.' He asked for the vessel with (some) ablution water to be brought.

Then, he began to pour water and I took over the task of distribution of water to them. On seeing that water was available in the ablution vessel, the people crowded around it. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said (on seeing them in an unruly manner). 'Behave yourselves! BE disciplined! Every one of you will get enough water.' So they became peaceful and orderly and Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم resumed pouring water and I resumed the distribution of water to them. Then only he and I were left. So he poured water and said, 'Drink!" I said, I shall not drink till you drink, O Messenger of Allah.' He said, 'The one who served water to the people is the last of them.'[1]

So I drank and then he drank.

Then the people came to the watering place well satisfied with the water they had drunk, and will comforted."[2]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not redeem the salah of fajr at the very place where he awoke. The reason could be that he wished to find a place where water was available. Or, when they awoke, it may not have been a proper time to offer salah, so he may have wished to delay the salah further to get past the disliked time, and he moved ahead. This is borne out by the words of the hadith: 'we mounted an traveled till the sun had risen.' Moreover, one must instantly get out from the place where obedience to Allah's command was obstructed or where something forbidden was perpetrated even if it was not done intentionally. Before redeeming the salah of fajr, the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did offer the two raka'at sunnah of fajr. Hence, if anyone misses the salah of fajr for some reason and he redeems it before zawal (declension of the sun) then he must first redeem the sunnah. However, if anyone has not missed the ford, salah of fajr but only the sunnah, then the sunnah will not be redeemed. Imam Muhammad رحمه الله said that even if only the sunnah are missed then they must be redeemed after sunrise and before zawal. As for after the zawal, none of the imams contends that sunnah may be redeemed then.

Since the salah of fajr was redeemed in a congregation, we may presume that the sahabah رضي الله عنهم, too, had their own ablution vessel - each of them. So they performed a brief ablution and joined the congregation. It is also possible that they made tayammum (or dry ablution) because they had no water to make ablution. The hadith is silent on this subject and says nothing on whether they performed ablution of tayammum .

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, 'You will not die.' He comforted the sahabah thereby that they should not worry. Alah would sent water for them from unknown sources. This was either tidings of the water or a supplication. May Allah preserve you from being destroyed! May He provide you water!

BLESSING IN FOOD AT TABUK

فَدَعَا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِالْبَرَكَةِ ثُمَّ قَالَ خُذُوْا فِيْ اَوْعِيَتِكُمْ فَاَخَذُوْا فِيْ اَوْعِيَتِهِمْ حَتّٰى مَاتَرَكُوْا فِي الْعَسْكَرِ وِعَاءً اِلَّا مَلَأُوْهُ قَالَ فَاَكَلُوْا حَتّٰى شَبِعُوْا وَ فَضَلَتْ فَضْلَةٌ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَشْهَدُ اَنْ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَاَنِّيْ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ لَا يَلْقَى اللّٰهَ بِهِمَا عَبْدٌ غَيْرَشَاكٍّ فَيُحْجَبُ عَنِ الْجَنَّةِ۔ (رواه مسلم)

5912. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that, on the day of Tabuk, the people suffered severe hunger, and Umar ()E) submitted, "O Messenger of Allah, instruct them to bring the provision that has remained with them and pray to Allah for a blessing for them on that (provision)." He said, "Yes" and asked for a leather piece of cloth to be brought. It was then spread out and he instructed that the provision that were left should be brought. Someone brought a handful of millet, someone a handful of dates, someone crumbs (Of bread) so that a little food was put together on the leather cloth.

Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم than prayed for a blessing. Then he said (to the people).Take what you wish in your utensils." They took in their utensils, so much so that they did not spare any utensil with the army without filling it. Then they ate till they were full. (They were about one hundred thousand men). Some provision remained after that.

Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم then bore the testimony: 'I bear witness that there is no God but Allah and that I am Allah's Messenger. He who meets Allah having given these two testimonies harbouring no doubt whatsoever in his mind will not be prevented from paradise."[1]

COMMENTARY: Tabuk is aboaut 465 miles form Madinah. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had advanced to it with his army in Rajab 9 AH. There were one hundred thousand warriors with the army and this was the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم last battle.

Since most of the warriors were hungry and some of them may have possessed leftovers or excess provision. So, Sayyiduna Umar رضی الله عنه requested the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that he may invoke blessing on that little in order that it might multiply and cater to the needs of all the warriors. Actually, the fuller tradition is: Ibn Mas'ud رضی الله عنه narrated that A'mash felt that people were hungry during the Battle of Tabuk so he submitted. 'O Messenger of Allah, if you permit us to slaughter our riding beasts, we may eat their meat and use their flesh." He gave them his permission, but Umar رضی الله عنه submitted, "O Messenger of Allah that would leave us with fewer riding beasts. I request you to have all left over provision brought to you so that you may pray to Allah for blessing on that. Allah will bless that." The rest of the hadith is similar.[2]

The hadith concludes with the words that mean that if anyone testifies to Allah's unity and to the messenger ship of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم sincerely with perfect faith and conviction, nursing no doubt whatsoever, and dies in this manner then nothing will prevent his entry into paradise.

(٥٩١٣) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عُرُوْسًا بِزَيْنَبَ فَعَمِدَتْ اُمِّي اُمُّ سُلَيْمٍ اِلٰى تَمْرٍ وَّ سَمْنٍ وَّاَقِطٍ فَصَنَعَتْ حَيْسًا فَجَعَلَتْهُ فِيْ تَوْرٍ فَقَالَتْ يَا اَنَسُ اِذْهَبْ بِهٰذَا اِلٰى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقُلْ بَعَثَتْ بِهٰذَا اِلَيْكَ اُمِّي وَهِيَ تُقْرِئُكَ السَّلَامَ وَ تَقُوْلُ اِنَّ هٰذَا لَكَ مِنَّا قَلِيْلٌ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ فَذَهَبْتُ فَقُلْتُ فَقَالَ ضَعْهُ ثُمَّ قَالَ اذْهَبْ فَادْعُ لِيْ فُلَانًا وَفُلَانًا وَ فُلَانًا رِجَالًا سَمَّاهُمْ وَادْعُ لِيْ مَنْ لَقِيْتَ فَدَعَوْتُ مَنْ سَمّٰى وَمَنْ لَقِيْتُ فَرَجَعْتُ فَاِذَا الْبَيْتُ غَاصٌّ بِاَهْلِهٖ قِيْلَ لِاَنَسٍ عَدَدُكُمْ كَمْ كَانُوْا قَالَ زُهَاءَ ثَلٰثِمِائَةٍ فَرَاَيْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَضَعَ يَدَهٗ عَلٰى تِلْكَ الْحَيْسَةِ وَتَكَلَّمَ بِمَا شَآءَ اللّٰهُ ثُمَّ جَعَلَ يَدْعُوْا عَشَرَةً عَشَرَةً يَاْكُلُوْنَ مِنْهُ وَ يَقُوْلُ لَهُمْ اُذْكُرُوا اسْمَ اللّٰهِ وَلْيَاْكُلْ كُلُّ رَجُلٍ مِمَّا يَلِيْهِ قَالَ فَاَكَلُوْا حَتّٰى شَبِعُوْا فَخَرَجَتْ طَآئِفَةٌ وَ دَخَلَتْ طَآئِفَةٌ حَتّٰى اَكَلُوا كُلُّهُمْ قَالَ لِيْ يَا اَنَسُ اِرْفَعْ فَرَفَعْتُ فَمَا اَدْرِيْ حِيْنَ وَضَعْتُ كَانَ اَكْثَرَ اَمْ حِيْنَ رَفَعْتُ (متفق عليه)

5913. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم married Sayyidah Zaynab رضی اللہ عنہ. My mother, Um sulaym, رضی اللہ عنہ made hays with dates, butter and cheese (or curd). Then, putting it in a bow, she said, "Anas, go with this to Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and say. 'May mother has sent me to you with this and has conveyed salaam to you. She says that we have sent very little to you as a gift." I went to him and conveyed the message. He said, "Put it down." Then, he said, "Go and invite him' and him' and him." Naming some men, "And whoever you meet." Hence, I invited everyone he had named and whoever I met. When I came back, I found the house full of people.

(someone asked Anas رضی اللہ عنہ how many people there were?) There were about three hundred men.

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم put his hand on that little hays and spoke such words as Allah willed him to speak. Then, he invited them to eat in groups of then, saying to them, "Mention the name of Allah and eat from what is nearest to you." When, they (ten) had eaten till they were full, they went out and another batch came in. This (continued), till all of them had eaten.

He instructed me, "O anas, pick up (the vessel)." I picked it up and I could not determine whether it was more than when I had brought it, or lesser.[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had named the three men but Anas رضی اللہ عنہ forgot them. So these words are his own, not the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم: 'named them...'

Though he said that he could not determine whet her the hays had decreased or increased after people has eaten from it yet there is no doubt that the blessing that increased the little gift continued to have their effect on the food. Definitely the quantity had increased.

Some people say that the wedding feast of Sayyidah Zaynab رضی اللہ عنہا consisted of the hays that Anas رضی الله عنه had brought. Other traditions say however a that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم had slaughtered a goat for the wedding feast and meat and bread were served to one thousand guests. So, either together or were served at different times. Mulla Ali Qari رحمه الله said the hays was only gift from the mother of Anas رضی الله عنه while the meat and bread were served as a wedding feast at another time.

CAMEL BECOME SWIFT

(٥٩١٤) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ غَزَوْتُ مَعَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَاَنَا عَلٰى نَاضِحٍ قَدْ اَعْيٰى فَلَا يَكَادُ يَسِيْرُ
فَتَلَاحَقَ بِي النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ مَا لِبَعِيْرِكَ قُلْتُ قَدْ عَيِيَ فَتَخَلَّفَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ
وَسَلَّمَ فَزَجَرَهُ فَدَعَا لَهُ فَمَا زَالَ بَيْنَ يَدَيِ الْاِبِلِ قُدَّامَهَا يَسِيْرُ فَقَالَ لِيْ كَيْفَ تَرٰى بَعِيْرَكَ قُلْتُ بِخَيْرٍ قَدْ
اَصَابَتْهُ بَرَكَتُكَ قَالَ اَفَتَبِيْعُنِيْهِ بِوُقِيَّةٍ فَبِعْتُهُ عَلٰى اَنَّ لِيْ فَقَارَ ظَهْرِهٖ اِلَى الْمَدِيْنَةِ فَلَمَّا قَدِمَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى
اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الْمَدِيْنَةَ غَدَوْتُ عَلَيْهِ بِالْبَعِيْرِ فَاَعْطَانِيْ ثَمَنَهُ وَرَدَّهُ عَلَيَّ۔ (متفق عليه)

5914. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه narrated: I went with Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم to a battle. I was riding a camel that was used for drawing water. It has fatigued to such an extent that it could go on with difficulty. (At the point) the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم was besides me and asked me, "what is wrong with your camel?" I said, "It has become tired." So, Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم went behind it and urged it on also making a supplication for it. Then, it did not cease to outstrip the other camels. He asked, "How do you find your camel?" I submitted, "Very good! It has received your blessing." He asked "Will you sell it to me for a wuqiyah (forty dirhams)?" So, I sold it to him on condition that it shall be mine till (I took the camel to him in the morning and he paid me its price, but returned the camel to me (out of kindness).[1]

COMMENTARY: This hadith is evidence that it is permitted to place a condition favourable to the seller when contracting to sell something. But, according to the ruling and law, it is not allowed which means that either this hadith is abrogated by the ruling, to the aforementioned condition was not part of the contract to sell and buy. Rather, it was concession to Jabir رضی الله عنه on his request or a favour granted to him by the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم himself. However, this explanation does not conform to the text of the hadith.

THREE MIRACLES AT THE BATTLE OF TABUK

(٥٩١٥) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ حُمَيْدٍ السَّاعِدِيِّ قَالَ خَرَجْنَا مَعَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ غَزْوَةَ تَبُوْكَ فَاَتَيْنَا وَادِيَ
الْقُرٰى عَلٰى حَدِيْقَةٍ لِامْرَأَةٍ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اخْرُصُوْهَا فَخَرَصْنَاهَا وَخَرَصَهَا رَسُوْلُ
اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَشَرَةَ اَوْسُقٍ وَقَالَ اَحْصِيْهَا حَتّٰى نَرْجِعَ اِلَيْكِ اِنْ شَاءَ اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى وَانْطَلَقْنَا حَتّٰى قَدِمْنَا
تَبُوْكَ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ سَتَهُبُّ عَلَيْكُمُ اللَّيْلَةَ رِيْحٌ شَدِيْدَةٌ فَلَا يَقُمْ فِيْهَا اَحَدٌ فَمَنْ
كَانَ لَهُ بَعِيْرٌ فَلْيَشُدَّ عِقَالَهُ فَهَبَّتْ رِيْحٌ شَدِيْدَةٌ فَقَامَ رَجُلٌ فَحَمَلَتْهُ الرِّيْحُ حَتّٰى اَلْقَتْهُ بِجَبَلَيْ طَيِّءٍ ثُمَّ اَقْبَلْنَا

حَتّٰى قَدِمْنَا وَادِيَ الْقُرٰى فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الْمَرْأَةَ عَنْ حَدِيْقَتِهَا كَمْ بَلَغَ ثَمَرُهَا فَقَالَتْ عَشْرَةَ أَوْسُقٍ۔ (متفق عليه)

5915. Sayyiduna Abu Humayd Sa'idi رضى الله عنه narrated: we set out with Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم (from Madinah) for the Battle of Tabuk. When we reached the Wadi al-Qura (three days journey from Madinah), we passed a garden belonging to a woman. Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم, "Make an estimate of its fruit." We made an estimate (everyone giving his idea), and Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم made an estimate at ten wasq (camel loads). He said (to the woman), "weight it (when the fruit is picked) and tell us of it when we return insha Allah." And, we moved ahead till we came to Tabuk.

There, Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Tonight, you will face a violent wind. Let no one get up when it blows and those who have camels (with them) must fetter them firmly. (This is a precautionary measure) indeed, a violent mind did blow and when a man stood up (disregarding the advice), he was carried away by the wind and thrown between the two mountains of Tayyi.

Then we set out (on our return journey after the battle) till we came to the Wadi al-Qura. Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم asked the woman about her garden how much the fruit had weighed? She said, "ten wasq(or camel-loads)."[1]

COMMENTARY: Tayyi is the name of the forefather of a well-known tribe also known as Tayyi They used to reside in ancient yemen. The well known Hatim Tayyi belonged to this tribe. This area is now part of Saudi Arabia in its region of Najd. It is known as Muntaqah Thawr.

The miracles mentioned in this hadith are:

(1) the weight of fruit in the garden of which the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم gave a correct estimate.

(2) The warning that violent winds would blow that night, there being no signs of that when he gave the warning.

(3) The men who did not heed the warning was carried away and thrown at a distant place.

These three miracles were demonstrated to convince the hypocrites who were in the army. They were also shows to strengthen the faith of the believers. They were proof of the truth of the prophethood.

CONQUEST OF EGYPT WAS FORETOLD

(٥٩١٦) وَعَنْ أَبِيْ ذَرٍّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّكُمْ سَتَفْتَحُوْنَ مِصْرَ وَهِيَ أَرْضٌ يُسَمّٰى فِيْهَا الْقِيْرَاطُ فَإِذَا فَتَحْتُمُوْهَا فَأَحْسِنُوْا إِلٰى أَهْلِهَا فَإِنَّ لَهَا ذِمَّةً وَرَحِمًا أَوْقَالَ ذِمَّةً وَصِهْرًا فَإِذَا رَأَيْتُمْ رَجُلَيْنِ يَخْتَصِمَانِ فِيْ مَوْضِعِ لَبِنَةٍ فَاخْرُجْ مِنْهَا قَالَ فَرَأَيْتُ عَبْدَالرَّحْمٰنِ بْنِ شُرَحْبِيْلَ بْنِ حَسَنَةَ وَأَخَاهُ رَبِيْعَةَ يَخْتَصِمَانِ فِيْ مَوْضِعِ لَبِنَةٍ فَخَرَجْتُ مِنْهَا۔ (رواه مسلم)

5916. Sayyiduna Abu Dharr رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "surely, you will conquer Egypt. It is a land were the qirat is mentioned (for its currency). When your conquer it, be kind in your treatment of its inhabitants, for, they are under protection and have a relationship" – or, he said 'Under protection and have marriage ties.
When you people see two men quarrelling in a brickwork, you (O Abu Dharr) get away from there."
He (Abu Dharr) رضى الله عنه said, "I saw (while I was in Egypt) Abdur Rahman ibn Shurahbil ibn Hashnah and his brother Rabi'ah querell in a brickwork. So, I left it.:"[1]

COMMENTARY: Qirat was a coin valued at one carat or twenty fourth part of an ounce. It was a valid currency in Egypt. It was a currency of exchange in other countries too but its value differed. For instance, in Makkah it was one-twenty fourth of a dinar. In Iraq it twentieth part of a dinar. By saying that the Egyptians mentioned the Qirat, he not only introduced the currency of Egypt. But also disclosed that its inhabitants who were Qubtis co-opts) disbelievers were rude and had a bad temperament. They had the word qirat on their tongue. But, those people who are high natured and kind hearted do not have base thing on their tongues.

In spite of their roundness, they should be shown kind treatment, even though they might cause trouble. You should forgive them.

There were ties with them. They were under protection and had a relationship by marriage. Because of Ibrahim son of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم they had these special ties, for, Ibrhim's mother was on Egyptian. She was Mari'ah رضى الله عنه Qubti. Also our grandfather Isma'il's عليه السلام mother Sayyidah Hajarah عليها السلام (Hajar) was Egyptian protection was offered because of Sayyidah Hajarah عليها السلام and marital kinship was through Sayyidah Mari'ah رضى الله عنها.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said about two men quarreling in Egypt they dispute over little things like so much as a brick's space. The first verb when you see is (رايتم) in the plural but the command to leave them is in the singular form to only Abu Dharr رضى الله عنه. this shows the particular kindness the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had for him. However, it is possible that the command too may have been in the plural form.

Egypt was conquered in the time of Sayyiduna Umar رضى الله عنه, Sayyiduna Abu Dharr رضى الله عنه had seen two men quarrel over the space of one brick. So he quit Egypt forthwith and came back home. This had happened in the time of Sayyiduna Uthman رضى الله عنه.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had learnt from the unseen that it is the characteristic of the Egyptians to quarrel over petty things. They are bickering, mischievous. He foretold that Muslims and Islam would suffer much at their hands.

They had rebelled against the Uthmania caliphate and raided Madinah. They assassinated Uthman رضى الله عنه. Then they killed their governor Muhammad ibn Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه who had been appointed by Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had known these things beforehand. This is why he had instructed Abu Dharr رضى الله عنه to leave the place when he should see them bickering. He should cease to have contact with them.

Abu Dharr رضى الله عنه obeyed this command. He did indeed see them quarrelling over the space of brick.

THE FATE OF THE HYPOCRITES

(٥٩١٧) وَعَنْ حُذَيْفَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ فِيْ أَصْحَابِيْ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ قَالَ وَفِيْ أُمَّتِيْ إِثْنَا عَشَرَ مُنَافِقًا لَا يَدْخُلُوْنَ الْجَنَّةَ وَلَا يَجِدُوْنَ رِيْحَهَا حَتّٰى يَلِجَ الْجَمَلُ فِيْ سَمِّ الْخِيَاطِ ثَمَانِيَةٌ مِنْهُمْ تَكْفِيْهِمُ الدُّبَيْلَةُ سِرَاجٌ مِنْ نَّارٍ يَظْهَرُ فِيْ أَكْتَافِهِمْ حَتّٰى تَنْجُمَ فِيْ صُدُوْرِهِمْ رَوَاهُ مُسْلِمٌ وَسَنَذْكُرُ حَدِيْثَ سَهْلِ بْنِ سَعْدٍ لَأُعْطِيَنَّ هٰذِهِ الرَّايَةَ غَدًا فِيْ مَنَاقِبِ عَلِيٍّ رَضِيَ اللّٰهُ عَنْهُ وَحَدِيْثَ جَابِرٍ مَنْ يَّصْعَدُ الثَّنِيَّةَ فِيْ جَامِعِ الْمَنَاقِبِ إِنْ شَآءَ اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى۔

5917. Sayyiduna Hudhayfah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet رضی اللہ عنہ said, "There are among my sahabah (companions)" – but according to another versions "in my ummah (People) twelve hypocrites who will neither enter paradise nor perceive its odour till a camel passes through a needle's eye. Al-Dubaylah which is a flame of fire will be enough for them. It will appear on their shoulders and reach up to their breasts."[1]

COMMENTARY: Just as a camel cannot go through the eye of a needle so too, these hypocrites will not enter paradise. The Qu'ran says the same things about the disbelievers:

وَلَا يَدْخُلُوْنَ الْجَنَّةَ حَتّٰى يَلِجَ الْجَمَلُ فِيْ سَمِّ الْخِيَاطِ

{...nor will they enter the Garden (paradise) until the camel goes through the needle's eye....} (7:40)

The word 'ummah' may be applied to the hypocrites too, if it is used in the sense of the ummah that is invited or the mankind in general to whom the invitation (to join Islam) is extended. It is part of the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم mission. But, the word 'sahabah' cannot be applied to the hypocrites. So the words, "There are among my sahabah twelve hypocrites" refer to them as sahabah on their outward appearance and behavior. They recited the kalimah and mingled with the sahabah though inwardly they harboured hypocrisy. In this sense we may say the same thing about ummah that it means the ummah that has responded to the invitation.

According to another hadith of Hudhayfah رضی اللہ عنہ, these hypocrites were fourteen in number, but two of them had repented. The other twelve remained hypocrites. They died as hypocrites.

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had named these hypocrites to some of his close sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم so that they may beware of their nefarious designs. They causes much destruction to Islam and history is replete with their accounts. Their wicked designs reached the peak when they conspired to kill the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم on the return journey after the Battle for Tabuk. But, Allah preserved him.

Dubaylah is a tumour. It causes death very often.

It is also said to be an ulcer from plague. The root word also means 'trial' and 'hardship.'

The words that it will grow on the shoulders and reach the breast seem to belong to a narrator who volunteered to explain the dubaylah, in the hadith.

According to another hadith, Sayyiduna Hudhayfah رضی اللہ عنہ confirmed that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had named at these hypocrites to him. He had also informed him how they would die. He said, "Indeed, they died just as the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had disclosed to me."
We shall mention the hadith of sahl ibn Sa'd رضی اللہ عنہ.. # 989, and of Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ.. # 6229, in Allah wills.

ABOUT THE MONK BAHIRA

(٥٩١٨) عَنْ اَبِيْ مُوْسٰى قَالَ خَرَجَ اَبُوْطَالِبٍ اِلَى الشَّامِ وَخَرَجَ مَعَهُ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيْ اَشْيَاخٍ مِنْ قُرَيْشٍ فَلَمَّا اَشْرَفُوْا عَلَى الرَّاهِبِ هَبَطُوْا فَحَلُّوْا رِحَالَهُمْ فَخَرَجَ اِلَيْهِمُ الرَّاهِبُ وَكَانُوْا قَبْلَ ذٰلِكَ يَمُرُّوْنَ بِهٖ فَلَا يَخْرُجُ اِلَيْهِمْ قَالَ فَهُمْ يَحُلُّوْنَ رِحَالَهُمْ فَجَعَلَ يَتَخَلَّلُهُمُ الرَّاهِبُ حَتّٰى جَآءَ فَاَخَذَ بِيَدِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ هٰذَا سَيِّدُ الْعٰلَمِيْنَ هٰذَا رَسُوْلُ رَبِّ الْعٰلَمِيْنَ يَبْعَثُهُ رَحْمَةً لِّلْعٰلَمِيْنَ فَقَالَ لَهٗ اَشْيَاخٌ مِنْ قُرَيْشٍ مَاعِلْمُكَ فَقَالَ اِنَّكُمْ حِيْنَ اَشْرَفْتُمْ مِنَ الْعَقَبَةِ لَمْ يَبْقَ شَجَرٌ وَلَا حَجَرٌ اِلَّا خَرَّ سَاجِدًا وَلَا يَسْجُدَانِ اِلَّا لِنَبِيٍّ وَاِنِّيْ اَعْرِفُهٗ بِخَاتَمِ النُّبُوَّةِ اَسْفَلَ مِنْ غُضْرُوْفِ كَتِفِهٖ مِثْلَ التُّفَّاحَةِ ثُمَّ رَجَعَ فَصَنَعَ لَهُمْ طَعَامًا فَلَمَّا اَتَاهُمْ بِهٖ وَكَانَ هُوَ فِيْ رَعْيَةِ الْاِبِلِ فَقَالَ اَرْسِلُوْا اِلَيْهِ فَاَقْبَلَ وَعَلَيْهِ غَمَامَةٌ تُظِلُّهٗ فَلَمَّا دَنَا مِنَ الْقَوْمِ وَجَدَهُمْ قَدْ سَبَقُوْهُ اِلٰى فَيْءِ شَجَرَةٍ فَلَمَّا جَلَسَ مَالَ فَيْءُ الشَّجَرَةِ عَلَيْهِ فَقَالَ انْظُرُوْا اِلٰى فَيْءِ الشَّجَرَةِ مَالَ عَلَيْهِ فَقَالَ اُنْشِدُكُمُ اللّٰهَ اَيُّكُمْ وَلِيُّهٗ قَالُوْا اَبُوْطَالِبٍ فَلَمْ يَزَلْ يُنَاشِدُهٗ حَتّٰى رَدَّهٗ اَبُوْطَالِبٍ وَبَعَثَ مَعَهٗ اَبُوْبَكْرٍ بِلَالًا وَزَوَّدَهُ الرَّاهِبُ مِنَ الْكَعْكِ وَالزَّيْتِ۔ (رواه الترمذى)

5918. Sayyiduna Abu Musa رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Abu Talib set forth for Syria (with a trade caravan) the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم (who was then twelve years old) also traveled with him, as did some elders of the Quraysh. When they came near the monk's hermitage, they alighted and unfastened their belongings The monk (Bahria, by name) came to them although never before did he come to them when they passed by him (and halted there). As they unpacked their saddles, he mingled among them (looking for someone) till he came to Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and held his hand, saying, "He is the chief of the universe. He is the chief of the universe. He is t eh Messenger of the Lord of the worlds." The elders among the Quraysh asked him how he could say that and he answered, "while you were coming through the mountain pass, none of the trees and stones missed prostrating itself before him and these (two) do not prostrate themselves but before a Prophet. And I recognize him by the seal of prophethood on the upper bone of his shoulder, firm like an apple"

Then he went away and prepared a meal for them. When he came back with it, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had gone to graze the camels and he said, "lend for him. (He is my chief guest)" So, he returned while a small cloud cast its shade over him. When he was there, the people had preceded him into the shade of a tree. When he sat down (outside the shade), the tree bowed down towards him and threw its shade on him. The monk pointed out, "Observe the tree how it bows down to him! I call upon you by Allah to tell me who among you is his guardian." They said, "Abu Talib." And he did not cease to adjure him to send him back until Abu Talib sent him back. And Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ sent Bilal رضی اللہ عنہ along with him. The monk gave him provision of coarse bread and olive oil.[1]

COMMENTARY: According to some versions after saying that he recognized the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم by the seal of Prophet hood, the monk stood up and embraced the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. then he asked the men of the caravan about the life of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, how he spends his hours, etc. then he confirmed that their answers are corroborated by his knowledge from their books.

When the tree bowed down to provide shade to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم it did so out of respect because the cloud had already given him shade. Or, the cloud had moved away. Any way this was a demonstration of the Prophet)صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم miracle, as was the cloud overhand. The ulama رحمہ اللہ say that this did not happen always. The cloud cast its shade whenever it was necessary.

The monk pointed to the man that they should observe and ponder how the tree inclined towards the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم to show respect and throw shade. They should see with their minds eye because they were seeing with their normal eye anyway.

However, it is a fact that they who had ignored their inherent disposition and wandered in the web of ignorance and adamancy, had their mind's eyes prejudiced. The result was that they saw the miracle but were unreceptive t o the light of guidance. They did see al the signs pointing to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم truthfulness but they were deprived of seeing with the mind's eye as might be helpful to them and might have put them on the right course. The Quran says:

وَتَرَاهُمْ يَنْظُرُوْنَ إِلَيْكَ وَهُمْ لَا يُبْصِرُوْنَ

{And you see them looking at you while they do not see} (7:198)

ABU TALIB SENT THE PROPHET صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم BACK: Finally, Abu Talib agreed to send the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم back home. The fact is that Busra was a colony of the Roman empire. They were Christians. Their priests had foretold the coming of the last Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. The royalty became worried and panicked. They conspired to rip his influence in the bud before he could do anything. The monk Bahira was a true scholar of the heavenly Books and he also was a believer in the last Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. hence, when he recognized the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, he insisted upon Abu Talib that he should send him back to Makkah since he was afraid of the roman. If the kings men learnt of him, they would arrest him and take him away and kill him.

Indeed, Tirmidhi and Haakim have transmitted the tradition that as soon as Abu Talib travelled for trade purposes toward Syria taking (his nephew) the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم along with him, the Roman officers, numbering seven, initiated a chase to kill the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. Their chase landed them at Bahira's hermitage. He asked them. Why are you here ?" They told him that they had learnt that the Prophet was on a journey. They were looking out for him and had their sentries posted all around. They said, "when he comes within our territory we shall kill him." Bahira asked them, "Tell me, if Allah has decreed anything then can anyone defeat it?" they conceded, "No!" So, Bahira said, "I tell you honesty hat the man you are after will be the greatest Messenger of Allah. No power in the world can harm him. So, desist from your wicked ideas. Rather, you should submit to him and obey him. You must love him."

The monk gave him as provision coarse bread and olive oil. Some authorities say that the bread was made of flour mixed with milk and sugar. The olive oil was to apply on the bread.

Tirmidhi رحمه الله has pointed out about this hadith that its line of transmission is sound. Its narrators are approved by Bukhari and Muslim, or by either of these two.

However, the reference to Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه and Bilal رضی الله عنه is not part of the original hadith. Perhaps one of the narrators has included their names by oversight. At that time the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم was twelve years old. Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه as younger to him by two y ears or two and a half years. And, Bilal رضی الله عنه was not born till then perhaps. Hence, it is meaningless to say that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم was sent with these two men. This is why Dhahabi رحمه الله has termed this hadith as da'if (weak) but some authorities do not agree with him.

Hafiz Ibn Hajar رحمه الله has said of his hadith that its narrators are trustworthy. Not one of them is rejected. Apart from the portion about Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه and Bilal رضی الله عنه being sent hoe with the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم, it is established that this hadith is sound. As for the aforementioned portion, it is not part of the original tradition. One of the narrators has committed an error.

TREES & STONES GREETED

(٥٩١٩) وَعَنْ عَلِيِّ بْنِ اَبِيْ طَالِبٍ قَالَ كُنْتُ مَعَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِمَكَّةَ فَخَرَجْنَا فِيْ بَعْضِ نَوَاحِيْهَا فَمَا اسْتَقْبَلَهٗ جَبَلٌ وَلَا شَجَرٌ اِلَّا وَهُوَ يَقُوْلُ السَّلَامُ عَلَيْكَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ۔ (راوہ الترمذی والدارمی)

5919. Sayyiduna Ali ibn Abu Talib رضی الله عنه narrated. I was with the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم in Makkah. We went out into one of its suburbs. Whichever mountain (meaning rock) and tree that lay in his path greeted him, 'as-salaamualayka ya rasul Allah 9peace be on you, O Messenger of Allah).'[1]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Ali رضی الله عنه also heard the stone and tree greet eh Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم. So this was both a miracle and wonder (mu'jizah and karam ah). The former concerned the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم and the latter concerned Sayyiduna Ali رضی الله عنه.

In might also have been that he did not hear but the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم informed him.

MIRACLE WITH THE BURAQ

(٥٩٢٠) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اُتِيَ بِالْبُرَاقِ لَيْلَةَ اُسْرِيَ بِهٖ مُلْجَمًا مُسْرَجًا فَاسْتَصْعَبَ عَلَيْهِ فَقَالَ لَهٗ جِبْرَئِيْلُ اَبِمُحَمَّدٍ تَفْعَلُ هٰذَا فَمَا رَكِبَكَ اَحَدٌ اَكْرَمُ عَلَى اللّٰهِ مِنْهُ قَالَ فَارْفَضَّ عَرَقًا۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

5920.Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه narrated that the Buraq was brought to the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم on the night of isra (when he was taken up to the heavens). It was bridled and saddled. It showed some resistance (causing difficulty to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم to mount). So, Jibril علیہ السلام asked it.: Will you do the with Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم? NO one more noble than he in Allah's sight has mounted you."

The narrator added: "these words caused it to perspire heavily."
Tirmidhi has termed this hadith as gharib.[1]

COMMENTARY: Other Prophet's علیہ السلام had also mounted the buraq. This question has been discussed previously (see comments to hadith # 5862 etc)
The commentators say that the buraq was not showing resistance but was not showing resistance but was filled with joy at having the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم as its rider. So it could not contain itself. Jibril علیہ السلام book it for its obstinacy and reprimanded it causing it to pour perspiration.

HOLE IN A STONE

(٥٩٢١) وَعَنْ بُرِيدَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَمَّا اِنْتَهَيْنَا اِلٰى بَيْتِ الْمَقْدِسِ قَالَ جِبْرَئِيْلُ بِاِصْبَعِهٖ فَخَرَقَ بِهَا الْحَجَرَ فَشَدَّ بِهِ الْبُرَاقَ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

5921. Sayyiduna Buraydah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "when we came to Baytul Maqdis, Jibril علیہ السلام made a gesture with his finger. Thereby he drilled a hole in a stone and tied the buraq to it."[2]

COMMENTARY: In the hadith (#5863) of Anas رضی اللہ عنہ in the chapter of miraj. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that Jibril علیہ السلام tied the buraq to a rink where the previous Prophet علیہ السلام did with it. Perhaps it was the same ring (or hole) that had closed with time and Jibril علیہ السلام me opened it by pointing his finger to it.

CAMEL'S COMPLAINT

(٥٩٢٢) وَعَنْ يَعْلَى بْنِ مُرَّةَ الثَّقَفِيِّ قَالَ ثَلٰثَةُ اَشْيَاءَ رَاَيْتُهَا مِنْ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بَيْنَا نَحْنُ نَسِيْرُ مَعَهٗ اِذْ مَرَرْنَا بِبَعِيْرٍ يُسْنٰى عَلَيْهِ فَلَمَّا رَاٰهُ الْبَعِيْرُ جَرْجَرَ فَوَضَعَ جِرَانَهٗ فَوَقَفَ عَلَيْهِ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فقال اَيْنَ صَاحِبُ هٰذَا الْبَعِيْرِ فَجَاءَهٗ فَقَالَ بِعْنِيْهِ فَقَالَ بَلْ نَهَبُهٗ لَكَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ وَاِنَّهٗ لِاَهْلِ بَيْتٍ مَالَهُمْ مَعِيْشَةٌ غَيْرُهٗ قَالَ اَمَّا اِذَا ذَكَرْتَ هٰذَا مِنْ اَمْرِهٖ فَاِنَّهٗ شَكٰى كَثْرَةَ الْعَمَلِ وَقِلَّةَ الْعَلَفِ فَاَحْسِنُوْا اِلَيْهِ ثُمَّ سِرْنَا حَتّٰى نَزَلْنَا مَنْزِلًا فَنَامَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَجَاءَتْ شَجَرَةٌ تَشُقُّ الْاَرْضَ حَتّٰى غَشِيَتْهُ ثُمَّ رَجَعَتْ اِلٰى مَكَانِهَا فَلَمَّا اسْتَيْقَظَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ذَكَرْتُ فَقَالَ هِيَ شَجَرَةٌ اسْتَاْذَنَتْ رَبَّهَا فِيْ اَنْ تُسَلِّمَ عَلٰى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَاَذِنَ لَهَا قَالَ ثُمَّ سِرْنَا فَمَرَرْنَا بِمَاءٍ فَاَتَتْهُ امْرَاَةٌ بِابْنٍ لَهَا بِهٖ جِنَّةٌ فَاَخَذَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِمَنْخَرِهٖ ثُمَّ قَالَ اخْرُجْ فَاِنِّيْ مُحَمَّدٌ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ ثُمَّ سِرْنَا فَلَمَّا رَجَعْنَا مَرَرْنَا

Then (I saw a second miracle), as we travelled on till we alighted at a manzil (halt or leg of journey) the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم lay down to sleep. A tree came tearing through the earth and bowed down to cover him and returned of its place When Allah's Messenger awoke, I informed him of this thing. He said, 'This is ht e tree that had sought its Lord's permission to offer salaam to Allah's Messenger and He granted it His permission.'

We resumed our 'journey and (I saw the third miracle) we came to a watering place (meaning as inhabited locality) A woman come to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم wither son who was possessed. He held his nose and said, 'Get out! I am Muhammad Allah's Messenger.'

Then we resumed our journey. Later on our return when we were at that watering place, he asked her about the child. She said, 'By him who has sent you with the truth, we have not seen in him anything to cause un anxiety, since you had departed."[1]

ANOTHER CHILD POSSESSED BY JINN

(۵۹۲۳) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ إِنَّ امْرَأَةً جَاءَتْ بِابْنٍ لَهَا إِلَى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَتْ يَارَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ ابْنِيْ بِهِ جُنُوْنٌ وَإِنَّهُ لَيَأْخُذُهُ عِنْدَ غَدَائِنَا وَعَشَائِنَا فَمَسَحَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ صَدْرَهُ وَدَعَا فَثَعَّ ثَعَّةً وَخَرَجَ مِنْ جَوْفِهِ مِثْلُ الْجِرْوِ الْأَسْوَدِ يَسْعٰى۔ (رواه الدارمی)

5923. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that a woman brought to Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم her son. She submitted. "O Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم her son. She submitted. 'O Messenger of Allah. My son is possessed. It seizes him at our breakfast and dinner (first and last meals)." Allah Messenger stroked the child's breast and prayed for him. The boy vomited much once and something resembling a black puppy emerged from his belly running out.[2]

5924. Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه narrated that Jibril عليه السلام came to the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم when he was sitting very grieved, covered with blood from the wounds inflicted by the pecple of Makkah (at Uhud). He said, 'O Messenger of Allah, do you like that I show you a sign? (This will convince you. The hardships that you endure raise your rank). He said, "Yes" So, he said, looking at a tree behind him, "Call it!" He called it. It came and stood before him. Then, he said, "Command it and it will return." He commanded it and it went back.

Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "It suffices me! It suffices me!"[1]

COMMENTARY: The infidels of Makkah had been rude to the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم and had caused him hardship at the Battle of Uhud. They wounded him at his cheek and he lost a tooth. When the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said to JIbril عليه السلام. "It suffices me." He meant that Allah as given him is enough. He found himself comforted. When a miracle is shown, it strengthens one's faith and provides comfort and removes grief. The some may be said of a wonder a anything that is contrary to the customary. Anyone who is persecuted by an enemy must bear it patiently .This gets him a high reward.

TESTIMONY OF A TREE

(٥٩٢٥) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ كُنَّا مَعَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيْ سَفَرٍ فَاَقْبَلَ اَعْرَابِيٌّ فَلَمَّا دَنَا قَالَ لَهٗ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ تَشْهَدُ اَنْ لَّا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَحْدَهٗ لَا شَرِيْكَ لَهٗ وَاَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا عَبْدُهٗ وَرَسُوْلُهٗ قَالَ وَمَنْ يَّشْهَدُ عَلٰى مَاتَقُوْلُ قَالَ هٰذِهِ السَّلَمَةُ فَدَعَاهَا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَهُوَ بِشَاطِئِ الْوَادِيْ فَاَقْبَلَتْ تَخُدُّ الْاَرْضَ حَتّٰى قَامَتْ بَيْنَ يَدَيْهِ فَاسْتَشْهَدَهَا ثَلٰثًا فَشَهِدَتْ ثَلٰثًا اَنَّهٗ كَمَا قَالَ ثُمَّ رَجَعَتْ اِلٰى مَنْبَتِهَا۔ (رواه الدارمی)

5925. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه narrated: We were with the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم on a journey. A villager came (near the army) and when he was closer. Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم asked him, "Do you bear testimony that there is no god but Allah who is alone and has no partner, and that Muhammad is His slave and His Messenger?" the villager retorted," Does anyone testify to what you say (besides human beings)?" He said, "this salamah tree!" (It is a plant or the mimosa tree.) And Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم called it and it was (or he was) at the edge of the ravine. It came towards him cutting through the earth and stood before him. He commanded it to testify three times and it testified three times that what he had said was true. Then it returned to its base.[1]

TESTIMONY OF THE CLUSTER OF PALM TREE

(٥٩٢٦) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ جَآءَ اَعْرَابِيٌّ اِلٰى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ بِمَا اَعْرِفُ اَنَّكَ نَبِيٌّ قَالَ اِنْ دَعَوْتُ هٰذَا الْعِذْقَ مِنْ هٰذِهِ النَّخْلَةِ يَشْهَدُ اَنِّيْ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ فَدَعَاهُ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَجَعَلَ يَنْزِلُ مِنَ النَّخْلَةِ حَتّٰى سَقَطَ اِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ثُمَّ قَالَ ارْجِعْ فَعَادَ فَاَسْلَمَ الْاَعْرَابِيُّ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَصَحَّحَهُ

5926. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that a villager came to Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and asked, "How may I know* definitely) that you are Prophet ?" He said, "If I call the cluster on this palm tree, then it will testify that I am indeed Allah's Messenger!"

Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم then called it and it began its descent from the palm-tree till it dropped beside the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. (It gave the testimony) And then he said, "Return!" So, it went back and the villager embraced Islam.[2]

A WOLF SPOKE TO A SHEPHERD

(٥٩٢٧) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ جَآءَ ذِئْبٌ اِلٰى رَاعِيْ غَنَمٍ فَاَخَذَ مِنْهَا شَاةً فَطَلَبَهُ الرَّاعِيْ حَتّٰى انْتَزَعَهَا مِنْهُ قَالَ فَصَعِدَ الذِّئْبُ عَلٰى تَلٍّ فَاَقْعٰى وَاسْتَثْفَرَ وَقَالَ قَدْ عَمَدْتُ اِلٰى رِزْقٍ رَزَقَنِيْهِ اللّٰهُ اَخَذْتُهُ ثُمَّ انْتَزَعْتَهُ مِنِّيْ فَقَالَ الرَّجُلُ تَاللّٰهِ اِنْ رَاَيْتُ كَالْيَوْمِ ذِئْبٌ يَتَكَلَّمُ فَقَالَ الذِّئْبُ اَعْجَبُ مِنْ هٰذَا رَجُلٌ فِي النَّخَلَاتِ بَيْنَ الْحَرَّتَيْنِ يُخْبِرُكُمْ بِمَا مَضٰى وَمَا هُوَ كَائِنٌ بَعْدَكُمْ فَقَالَ فَكَانَ الرَّجُلُ يَهُوْدِيًّا فَجَآءَ اِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَاَخْبَرَهُ وَاَسْلَمَ فَصَدَّقَهُ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ثُمَّ قَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّهَا اَمَارَاتٌ بَيْنَ يَدَيِ السَّاعَةِ قَدْ اَوْشَكَ الرَّجُلُ اَنْ يَّخْرُجَ فَلَا يَرْجِعُ حَتّٰى يُحَدِّثَهُ نَعْلَاهُ وَسَوْطُهُ بِمَا اَحْدَثَ اَهْلُهُ بَعْدَهُ۔ (رواه فی شرح السنة)

5927. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that a wolf (intruded into a grazing ground of sheep and came to a shepherd and snatched a sheep. The shepherd chased it and wrested the sheep from the wolf. The wolf climbed a hillock and sat on its launches keeping its tail between its legs. Then, it said, "I had resolved to take my provision that Allah had bestowed on me. I took it. But, you grabbed it from me."

The men remarked (to the wolf), "By Allah, the miracle that I have seen today - never have I seen anything like it before! A talking wolf!"

The wolf spoke again, saying, "More marvelous than this is the state of the man who lives among the palm trees between the two harrah (الحرّتين) - the two lava plains of Madinah) He tells you what has transpired (before you) and will take place after you. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ added: The man (meaning, the shepherd) was a jew. He came to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and informed him (of his experience with the wolf) and embraced Islam.

The prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم confirmed his statement and said, "these are portents of the last Hour before it comes. The time till come when a man will go out (of his house) ad he will not return before his sandals and his whip will tell him of the things his family may have done during his absence."[1]

COMMENTARY: Turpushti رحمہ اللہ has given the name of his shepherd who became a Muslm and also a sahabi رضی اللہ عنہ as Ahbar ibn Aws Khuza'I رضی اللہ عنہ because of this incident, he came to be called (مکلم الذئب) speaker with the wolf However, the words of the hadith that the shepherd was Jew reject the possibility that Ahbar ibn Aws رضی اللہ عنہ was a Khaza'I because none of the Khaza'I who desert ed his tribe and converted to Jadassm. In this case Turpushti's contention will not be rejected.

The two harrah or the two lava plains. Are the two black pebbled plains on the east and west of Madinah.

That which has transpired are the news of the past ummah. And what will take place are the important news and events which will happens in future. They also include a description of the hereafter.

SOURCE OF BLESSING

(٥٩٢٨) وَعَنْ اَبِي الْعَلَاءِ عَنْ سَمُرَةَ بْنِ جُنْدُبٍ قَالَ كُنَّا مَعَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نَتَدَ اوَلُ مِنْ قَصْعَةٍ مِنْ غُدْوَةٍ حَتّٰى اللَّيْلِ يَقُوْمُ عَشَرَةٌ وَيَقْعُدُ عَشَرَةٌ قُلْنَا فَمَا كَانَتْ تُمَدُّ قَالَ مِنْ اَيِّ شَيْءٍ تَعْجَبُ مَاكَانَتْ تُمَدُّ اِلَّا مِنْ هٰهُنَا وَاَشَارَ بِيَدِهٖ اِلَى السَّمَاءِ۔ (رواہ الترمذی والدارمی)

5928. Sayyiduna Abu Ala رحمہ اللہ (a tabi'i) reported that Sayyiduna Samurah ibn Jundub رضی اللہ عنہ narrated: we were with the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم (when the miracle was demonstrated) and we ate from a large bowl, ten would get up and ten would sit down from morning till evening (meaning, all day) by turns.

Samurah رضی اللہ عنہ was asked, "How was the bowl refilled?" He asked in amazement "At what are you astonished? It was not refilled but from here," pointing with his hand to the heaven.[2]

COMMENTARY: When Samurah رضی اللہ عنہ was asked about the bowl: from what source it got the food, he gave his answer to Abu Ala رحمہ اللہ but it was meant to b heard by all the tabi'un present there at the time and later inquisitive ones: There cannot be an apparent source, but only a miracle can make it possible. It was only between Allah and His Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. He prayed and touched the bowl, and Allah sent down the blessing. Food was added to the bowl from invisible sources. This is as the Quran says:

MIRACLE OF GRANTED SUPPLICATION IN THE BATTLE OF BADR

(٥٩٢٩) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ خَرَجَ يَوْمَ بَدْرٍ فِيْ ثَلٰثِمِائَةٍ وَخَمْسَةَ عَشَرَ قَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنَّهُمْ حُفَاةٌ فَاحْمِلْهُمْ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنَّهُمْ عُرَاةٌ فَاكْسُهُمْ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنَّهُمْ جِيَاعٌ فَاشْبِعْهُمْ فَفَتَحَ اللّٰهُ لَهُ فَانْقَلَبُوْا وَمَا مِنْهُمْ رَجُلٌ اِلَّا وَقَدْ رَجَعَ بِجَمَلٍ اَوْجَمَلَيْنِ وَاكْتَسَوْا وَشَبِعُوْا۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

5929. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Amr رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم advanced for the Battle of Badr with three hundred and fifteen men and made the supplication:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنَّهُمْ عُرَاةٌ فَاكْسُهُمْ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنَّهُمْ جِيَاعٌ فَاشْبِعْهُمْ

[O Allah! (These my sahabah have come out in Your path to fight(They are barefoot. Give them mounts. O Allah! They are naked (apart from the waist-wrapper), clothe them. O Allah! They are hungry, satiate them (both outwardly and inwardly).]
(Then, they will be strong enough and be prepared to obey and worship you.)
Thus, Allah gave him victory (against the idolaters of Makkah, seventy of them were killed and seventy taken captive). They (the mujahid or warriors of Islam) returned in such a way that not one of them went back without a camel or two, without clothing and without having had sufficient to eat.[1]

COMMENTARY: The hadith means to say that the Muslim army collected a heavy booty from the enemy who were defeated convincingly. There were camels, clothing and provision. The Muslim warriors got a generous share from that.

Every prayer of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was answered. If a prayer is answered in such a rapid and complete manner then it is a miracle and a wonder. This was a because of the utmost patience shown by the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and his sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم in the face of difficulties and anxieties in Allah's path.

According to one hadith:

اِنَّ الصَّبْرَ عَلٰى مَا يَكْرَهُ فِيْهِ خَيْرٌ كَثِيْرٌ

"surely patience on the face of difficulties and trying circumstances makes one eligible for all kinds of good and advantages."

Moreover, this was the prompt return for their patience. They earned it in this world while the real reward they will bet later on. They will get it in the hereafter. (وَالْآخِرَةُ خَيْرٌ وَّاَبْقٰى) {....the hereafter is better and more enduring.} (87:17)

TIDINGS & GUIDANCE

(٥٩٣٠) وَعَنِ ابْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ عَنْ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اِنَّكُمْ مَنْصُوْرُوْنَ وَمُصِيْبُوْنَ وَمَفْتُوْحٌ لَكُمْ فَمَنْ اَدْرَكَ ذٰلِكَ مِنْكُمْ فَلْيَتَّقِ اللّٰهَ وَلْيَأْمُرْ بِالْمَعْرُوْفِ وَلْيَنْهَ عَنِ الْمُنْكَرِ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

5930.Sayyiduna Ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said (about what would occur and the benefits the Muslims would derive). "You will be helped and you will be given spoils. You will be granted victory (and conquer large areas and rich cities). So who so among you gets that should fear Allah, enjoin that which is reputable and forbid what is disreputable.[1]

COMMENTARY: the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم has guided his ummah to a just path in this saying. NO one may go to the extremes after his victory and become neglectful on procuring riches, fame and high office. He should not become proud and arrogant, nor may he turn extravagant and wasteful. Also, he should not get it into his head and become an egoist tyrant, oppressor and unjust. If he goes these ways hen he will invite Allah's wrath on himself.

In this saying, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم has directed the Muslims t o this verse of the Quran:

اَلَّذِيْنَ اِنْ مَّكَّنّٰهُمْ فِي الْاَرْضِ اَقَامُوا الصَّلٰوةَ وَاٰتَوُا الزَّكٰوةَ وَاَمَرُوْا بِالْمَعْرُوْفِ وَنَهَوْا عَنِ الْمُنْكَرِ

{Those who if we establish them in the land, will establish the salah and pay the zakah and enjoin good and forbil evil} (22:41)

POISONED FORELEG INFORMS PROPHET صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم

5931. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that a Jewess of Khaybar put poison in a roasted sheep and presented it to Allah's Messengers. He picked up a foreleg and ate a little from it. Some of his sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم ate (from the mean) along with him. Then (suddenly), Allah Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم commanded, :"Restrain your hands!" (Do not eat from this.)

He asked for the Jewess to be brought. He called her and said, "you have poisoned the sheep." She asked, "Who has informed you? (Did your Allah tell you, or any of the creatures?)" He said, "This what is in my hand informed me." Pointing to the foreleg. She conceded, "Yes, I thought that if he is a prophet, nothing will harm him. If he is not a prophet then we shall be rid of him."

Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم forgave her and let her off without punishment.

These of the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم who had eaten from it died (one of them was Bishr) رضی اللہ عنہ. Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم has himself cupped on the upper arm, for, he had eaten some of the sheep.

Abu Hind (whose name was Yasar Hajjam) who was the freedman of the tribe of the ansar, Banu Bayadah, cuped him with a horn and the edge of a knife.[1]

COMMENTARY: The name of the Jewess was zeenat Harith. She was the wife of salaam ibn Mashkum According to another tradition, the had found out the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم favourite portion of sheep. So, she slaughtered the kid that she had domesticated. She roasted it and selected a virulent poison for the roasted sheep to be presented to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم so that its rapid action may eliminate the eater.

She put much of it in the foreleg and shoulder piece. Then she presented the sheep to the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and his sahabah رضى الله عنه

She knew that poison does not act on the prophet عليه السلام to kill them. She also now that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم would not die before achieving religion of Islam. As for the veracity of this opinion, during he illness that took his life, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was asked whet her the poison served to him at khaybar was causing his death, he said, "no harm can befall me besides what is recorded for me in destiny and what Allah wills."

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم forgave the woman. She was not punished and she embraced Islam. Sulayman Taymi رحمه الله has written in Al-Muighazi against this tradition that after the word: (لن يضره) "it will not harm him" (if he a prophet), she also said:

وَإِنْ كُنْتَ كَاذِبًا أَرَحْتُ النَّاسَ مِنْكَ وَقَدِ اسْتَبَانَ لِي أَنَّكَ صَادِقٌ وَأَنَا أُشْهِدُكَ وَمَنْ حَضَرَ عَلَى دِيْنِكَ

أَنْ لَا إِلٰهَ إِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَأَنَّ مُحَمَّدٌ عَبْدُهُ وَرَسُوْلُهُ

"If you are a liar than I shall rid the People of you. But, indeed, it became clear to me that you are truthful (and a Prophet). I call you and whoever follows your religion to bear witness that there is no one worthy of worship besides Allah and that Muhammad is His slave and His Messenger."

However, Teebi رحمه الله pointed out one tradition according to which she was killed at the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم orders. He explains that she was pardoned but one of the sahabah رضى الله عنهم died because of the poisoned morsal of food he eaten before the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had restrained them so she was killed in retaliation for his death. The sahabi was Bishr ibn Bara ibn Ma'rur رضى الله عنه.

5932. Sayyiduna Sahl ibn Hanzaliyah رضی الله عنه narrated that they (meaning the sahabah) رضی الله عنه traveled with Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم for the Battle of Hunayn and the journey stretched considerably (because they did not halt anywhere) till night fall. A horse rider came (just as they were about to alight) and submitted. "O Messenger of Allah, I went up a certain (saying, such and such) mountain and (while reconnoitering. I) saw the Hawazin assembled with their women and animals." (He used the idiom (علی بکرة ابیهم) - on their fathers' camel to mean all of them). They were collected at Hunayn." Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم smiled and said, "Insha Allah Ta'ala (if Allah, Most High, will), all that will be the booty of the Muslims tomorrow!" After that, he asked, "who will stand guard for us tonight?" Anas ibn Abu Marthad رضی الله عنه Ghanawi Offered, "I O Messenger of Allah." He said, "Go forward towards this mountain till you are at its peak."

In the morning. Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم went to his place of worship (as set aside previously and offered two raka'at sun nah salah and then asked, "Hav e you seen any sign of your horsemen?" A man said, "O Messenger of Alah wehave not observed him (his movement on heard any sound)." Meanwhile, the iqamah was congregation (it being the call that it was being established). Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم led the salah but (was so worried that) he cast a glance towards the mountain pass (now and the) while offering the salah. When he finished he said, "Be pleased! Your horseman has come indeed."

They began to look between the trees towards the mountain pass. Behold, he was coming! He came and stood before Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم. He submitted, "I went till I was at the peak of the mountain where Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم had commanded me to go. In the morning, I descended down into both the passes (after having stood guard all night). But, I did not see anyone." Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم asked him, "Did you came down your horse in the night?" He said, "No except to offer salah or to relieve myself." Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "In that case, you will not be blamed after this night if you do not do anything."[1]

COMMENTARY: The word (بکرة) is applied to a young camel. The phrase (علی بکرة ابیهم) on the camel of their father' is an Arabic idiom. It applies to those people who gather together at one place leaving no one behind. The background of it is that at some time some Arabs prepared to go somewhere. When they set out, everyone of them took away any stranded camel he found on the way and mounted it. That was not his property, but his father's property. In this way, they arrived at their destination. There was no one among them who did not take a camel. Thereafter, this idiom came into use for people who came together at once place.

Qadi رحمه الله said that this phrase is used as an idiom. Once an Arab tribe was driven out of their homes because of a tragedy or an unforeseen event. They moved out bag and baggage, leaving nothing behind. They took their camel too with them. Hence, it was said of them:

جَاؤُا عَلٰى بَكْرَةِ اَبِيْهِمْ

"They have brought even their father's camel."

Soon this phrase was used for all such people who came with their belongings, their family whether they had a camel with them or not.

It is also said that a man traveled everywhere with all his children on a camel. Hence, the phrase was applied thereafter for such people

As for the very last sentence, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم gave tidings to Anas ibn Morahad رضى الله عنه that his performance that night was enough in Allah's eyes. A great amount of reward and a high degree of excellence was recorded for him, so much that if he did not again perform any voluntary and supererogatory deed, he should not worry about high tank and merit in the next world. Thus the words of the hadith about not doing any thing refer to supererogatory actions and not to the obligatory deeds which are never condoned.

Some authorities say that here (عمل) 'deed' refers to jihad. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم commanded his performance of that night which he spent in keeping watch selflessly. Thus if he did not participate in jihad after that, then there was no harm.

He said to me, 'Take them and place them in your tiffin carrier. Whenever you wish to eat, take them by putting your hand into it, but do not overturn and empty them (out of your tiffin carrier). 5934. Sayyiduna ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that one night the Quraysh held mutual consultations in Makkah (in the Dar un-Nadwa. The devil also joined them in the garb of a Shaykh of Najd some(of them) suggest 'When it is morning, tie him up" – by 'him' they meant the Prophet علیہ السلام. Others opined, "Rather, kill him." Yet other said, "Expel him."
Allah informed his Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم about that (And, he commanded him to make Ali رضی اللہ عنہ sleep on his bed and to begin his emigration that very night with Abu Bakr) رضی اللہ عنہ So, Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ slept on the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had that night. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم came out of Makkah till he came to the cave (with Abu Bakr) رضی اللہ عنہ.

[2] See 'The life of Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, Ibn Kathir p 839/40. Abu Dawud رضی اللہ عنہ said, :I faced three calamities in my life; death of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, martyrdom of Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ and loss of my lunchbox. He had consumed about 200 wasq dates from it. A similar wording is found also in 'Siratun Nabi.' Shibli Numani p 465. and the account gives the number of dates at Awenty one. (Both books published by Darul Isha'at, Karachi).

As for the idolaters, they spend the night standing guard on Ali رضی اللہ عنہ presuming that he was the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. In the morning, they intruded (into the house) to his bed, perturbed). Allah had reversed their mischief on themselves. They asked, 'Where is this your companion?" He said, "I now not." They (seemed what might have happened and) began to follow his tracks till they came to the mountain where they found his tracks confusing. Then they climbed of the mountain and went by the cave. (They assumed that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was in the cave). At the mouth of the cave, they saw a spider; web. So, they lamented. "If he had gone into it, the spiders web would not have been here at its mouth." (They remained in it for three nights (and days).[1]

COMMENTARY: When the Makkan learnt that he call to Islam had spreed successfully to Madinah, they were very upset. To check its spread they had to take effective measures and to this and they put their heads together. Their chiefs assembled in dar un nadwah. Just as they were to commence, Iblis arrive there as an experienced old man. Hew said, "I am form Najd, I learnt of your meeting and decided to join you. Of course, none for you is more clever and wise then I and none is more well wishing." They wer impressed and let him sit among them honourably.

The proceedings of their meeting began and different people gave different suggestions.

Abu al-Bakhtari suggested that Muhammad should be locked in a dungeon with only a small opening to know food to him and let him die in isolation. The shaykh of Najd vetoed this suggestion saying that his family and clan would retaliate and resort to fighting against them till they had him released.

Shaam ibn Amr said that this man should be disgraced and placed on a camel and exiled from Makkah. The Shaykh rejected this idea, saying "You might find yourself safe for some time but he will become a power to be reckoned with when he wins supporters elsewhere."

Then the accursed Abu Jahl proposed that one Young man from each tribe and clan should came forward with his sword and they should join together and attack this man all at once and eliminate him. His people will find it impossible to avenge all of them and will be compelled to settle for aliyat or blood money. This could be paid to them from the pool collected by the rest of tribes. Iblis - the shaykh of Najd commended this idea. He suggested that they should act accordingly.

The chiefs then conspired to surround the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم House by night and kill him in he morning.

However, Allah disclosed their evil conspiracy to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and he made Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ sleep on his bed. He himself set out with intention to emigrate to Madinah.

The Qurah says:

وَإِذْ يَمْكُرُ بِكَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لِيُثْبِتُوكَ أَوْ يَقْتُلُوكَ أَوْ يُخْرِجُوكَ

(And when those who disbelieve devised against you that they might confine you or slay you that they might confine you or slay you or expel you...) (8:30)

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم asked Sayyiduna رضی اللہ عنہ Ali to sleep on his bed and himself went out of Makkah in the night with Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ to the mountain thawr in its cave. The blood thirsty Quraysh had surrounded his house at that time. They saw him dome out. Spoke to him but he went away safe before their eyes. This was nothing short of an exceptional miracle. Details may be read in books of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم biography and of history.[1]

THE CHASE: When they found out that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was not there and Ali رضى الله عنه was lying on his bed. They were flabbergasted. They launched a search and fooled the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم tracks which took them to the mountain Thawr. Then they climbed up and came to the cave in which the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه had taken shetter. Its entrance was just one span wide and one cubit long. Allah sent two pigeons who laid eggs at the entrance to its inner side. Also a spider spun its web at the entrance of the cave. The search party of the infidels could not conceive that anyone would enter the cave with its entrance blocked in this manner, so they retraced their steps in utter disappointment.

According to one tradition, if these people had looked down at their feet, when they were standing at the entrance, they would have seen easily the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه inside the cave. Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه had seen them standing overhead and he became anxious on account of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. so, he told the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم of his apprehensions to which he asked him, "what do you think of two men whose third companion is Allah?" Indeed, Allah helped them by preventing the infidels from looking inside the cave. The looked all around but not at the mouth of the cave where they stood. Allah made them sightless.

EXEGESIS: The Tafsir Bahr ul Ulooom writes against the verse:

إِذْ يَقُولُ لِصَاحِبِهِ لَا تَحْزَنْ إِنَّ اللَّهَ مَعَنَا

{....when he said to his companion, "Grieve not, surely Allah is with us} (9:40)

The word (صاحب) companion in this verse refers to Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه who had accompanied the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم on the night of hijrah (emigration) when the infidels of Makkah had resolved to slay the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Both of them concealed themselves in the cave Thawr. When the infidels of Makkah came looking for them up to the mouth of the cave, he said to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that if any of them glanced at his feet than he would definitely se them to. The prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم comforted him, "There is nothing to worry. Allah is with us." He also asked him "Abu Bakr, what do you say of the two men whose third companion is Allah?" It is established hereby that if a person rejects that Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه was a shabi (companion) then he is a disbeliever because he rejects a positive declaration of the Qurah. As for the other sahabah رضى الله عنهم (companions), any who rejects their status as companion, does not became a disbeliever but is a mubtdi (an innovator).[2]

ANOTHER TRADITION: Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها tradition about the hijrah says about the hijrah says about her parents. "They were religious minded form the time they had attained puberty and sense. There never was a day when Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم did not visit us in the morning and in the evening. When the infidels of Makkah went to the limits in persecuting the Muslims, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said to my father, Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه "I have been shown your place of emigration. It is between two lave plains, a land of gardens of palm trees.' Thereafter, the Muslims began their emigration gradually at the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم command to Madinah. Even those Muslims who had emigrated to abysinia went to Madinayh. Hence, Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه too, made preparations to emigrate to Madinah, but the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, 'Abu Bakr, do delay your departure, for I expect that I, too, will get permission to emigrate. 'since that day Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه stayed close to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. He also had two camels stand by to take them to Madinah at short notice. They were kept prepared for four months beforehand. Then one afternoon, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم came to our home and informed him that Allah had permitted him to emigrate to Madinah. So Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه gave him a camel and set aside for me and Asma رضى الله عنه provision of the journey. They on the same day, 1st Rabi ul-Awwal 14th year of Prophet hood, Thursday, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم came out of his home eat night and came to our house. To Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه Then, both of them event and concealed themselves in a cave of the mountain thawr. Suddenly an acacia tree grew at its entrance. The mild pigeons laid there eggs there and the spider spun its web. The infidels of Makkah were convinced that under these circumstances no one could have gone into the cave. So they turned back dejected."

Furthermore, when the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه departed from Makkah in the dark of the night, Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه walked now ahead of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, now behind him in order to protect him. At the cave, he requested the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to wait outside. He went in and cleaned it before taking the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم inside. They had entrusted their camels to a man of Banu wa'il with instructions to bringthem to the cave after the third night. He was paid a reasonable remuneration, and he was also hired to lead them up to Madinah.

Abdullah رضى الله عنه, the son of Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه, used to meet them in the night with news of the activities of the Makkans. After three nights, the two men set out to Madinah on their respective camels with their guide who took them by the unfrequented road along the sea coast. When they were in the territory of Bany Madlaj. Suraqah ibn Maalik came close to them. His intention was to get hold of both, or one, of them, alive or dead and be entitled to a handsome reward promises by the Quraysh. He was looking out for them and had found them here. When he was near to them, his horse stumbled suddenly and he fell down from the horse. He stood up quickly and mounted his horse and came so close to them that he cold here the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم speak Just as he was about to them, both forefeet of his horse were swallowed by the earth up to knees and he fell down on the earth face down. He got the cue and headed the warning and pleaded for pardon. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه stopped for him and he mashed. To offer them some provision for the journey. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not accept it but did forgive him, instructing hi not to disclose their whereabouts to anyone. Accordingly, he returned and whenever he found any infidel on the way looking for the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, he sent him back tactfully. Therefore, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه arrived in Madinah safely.

MIRACLE THAT REVEALED JEWISH DESIGNS

(٥٩٣٥) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ لَمَّا فُتِحَتْ خَيْبَرُ اُهْدِيَتْ لِرَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ شَاةٌ فِيْهَا سَمٌّ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِجْمَعُوْا لِيْ مَنْ كَانَ هٰهُنَا مِنَ الْيَهُوْدِ فَجَمَعُوْا لَهٗ فَقَالَ لَهُمْ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى

5935. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that when khaybar was conquered, a poisoned sheep was presented to Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. Then, Allah's Messenger said, "Bring to me all the Jews who are here (in Khaybar). So they were brought to him. Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said to them he would ask them something, so would hey tell him the truth about it. They said, "Yes, Abu al-Qasism" So, he asked, "Who is your father?" (He meant their ancestor - the progenitor of their tribe.) They named a name, but he said, "You lie! Rather, Your father is so and so." They confirmed, "You have spoken the truth and right."
Then he asked, "Well you tell me the truth about something of which I ask you?" They said, "Yes, Abu al-Qasim. If we are false then you shall know as you did know (when we lied) about our father." He asked them "Who are the inmates of hell?" They said, "We are the inmates of hell?" They said "We shall go in it for some time. Then you people will follows us (taking our place) in it." Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Be despised in it! By Allah, we shall never follow your people in it."
Again he asked them, "Will you speak the truth about something of which I ask you? He asked, "Did you insert poison in this sheep?" They confirmed, "Yes" He asked, "What leg you to do so?" They said, "We intended to get rid of you if you are a liar. But, if you are truthful (in what you say), then if would cause you no harm whatever."[1]

COMMENTARY: It was the peculiar manner in which the Jews addressed the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم 'O Abu al-Qasim!' these wretched people did not address him by his name 'Muhammad' صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. this blessed name in mentioned in the Torah and the Injil and was a clear evidence of his claim to prophet hood. Their deep prejudice and hostility prevented them from taking his name.

The Jews used to say that if they go to hell because of their bad deeds they would finally be taken out and admitted to paradise. But, the Muslims would be consigned to it forever. This their saying is also fund in the Quran.

لَنْ تَمَسَّنَا النَّارُ إِلَّا أَيَّامًا مَعْدُوْدَاتٍ

{the fire shall not touch us but for a n umber of days} (2:80)

This was their false belief and they gave their answer to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم question in this manner.

As for he poison. The Jews said that they used it to verify the truth of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم claim to prophet hood. If he was lying then he would have died of poison. But, this was only an excuse on their part. If they really had this native then they would have believed in him on observing that poison had no effect on him. In fact, they did not even cease to antagonize Islam and muslims.

WHAT IS TO HAPPEN TILL THE LAST HOUR

(رواه مسلم)

5936. Sayyiduna Amr ibn Akhtab Ansari رضى الله عنه narrated, "One day Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم led us in the salah of fajr. Then he went up the pulpit and delivered an address to us up to the time for the salah of zuhr when he got down and led us in the salah of zuhr. Thereafter, he ascended the pulpit and resumed the address to us up to the hour of the salah of asr when he descended and led us in the salah of asr. Thereafter, he climbed up the pulpit (and resumed the address) till sunset. (In the day-long sermon) he informed us of what will happen till the day of resurrection."

Then, Amr رضى الله عنه said, "The one among us who remembers most of these sayings is indeed the most learned."[1]

COMMENTARY: Amr ibn Akhtab رضى الله عنه is more knwn by his kunyan Abu Zahd A'raj رضى الله عنه. It is said that he had the good fortune to participate in thirteen battles with the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم stroked his head one day and prayed that he be beautiful its blessings were seen on him throughout his life of more than one hundred years. Till his death, his face was fresh like rose and he had only a few grey hair on his head and beard.

TREE TOLD PRESENCE OF JINNS

the (arrival of the) jinns on the night they were listening to the Quran. He said: Your father, meaning Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضى الله عنه, said to me that a tree informed about them."[1]

COMMENTARY: It was a miracle that a tree said, "O Messenger of Allah, the jinns have come to believe and to listen to the Quran.
Hence, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم event out to a deserted place. He saw the jinns and recited the Quran to them.

MIRACLE OF NAMING THE INFIDELS WHO WOULD BE KILLED IN BATTLE & OF SHOWING PLACES WHERE THEY WOULD FALL

(٥٩٣٨) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ كُنَّا مَعَ عُمَرَ بَيْنَ مَكَّةَ وَالْمَدِيْنَةِ فَتَرَاءَيْنَا الْهِلَالَ وَكُنْتُ رَجُلًا حَدِيْدَ الْبَصَرِ فَرَاَيْتُهُ وَلَيْسَ اَحَدٌ يَزْعَمُ اَنَّهُ رَاٰهُ غَيْرِيْ فَجَعَلْتُ اَقُوْلُ لِعُمَرَ اَمَا تَرَاهُ فَجَعَلَ لَا يَرَاهُ قَالَ يَقُوْلُ عُمَرُ سَاَرَاهُ وَاَنَا مُسْتَلْقٍ عَلٰى فِرَاشِيْ ثُمَّ اَنْشَاَ يُحَدِّثُنَا عَنْ اَهْلِ بَدْرٍ قَالَ اِنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يُرِيْنَا مَصَارِعَ اَهْلِ بَدْرٍ بِالْاَمْسِ يَقُوْلُ هٰذَا مَصْرَعُ فُلَانٍ غَدًا اِنْ شَآءَ اللّٰهُ وَهٰذَا مَصْرَعُ فُلَانٍ غَدًا اِنْشَآءَ اللّٰهُ وَهٰذَا مَصْرَعُ فُلَانٍ غَدًا اِنْشَآءَ اللّٰهُ قَالَ عُمَرُ وَالَّذِيْ بَعَثَهُ بِالْحَقِّ مَا اَخْطَئُوا الْحُدُوْدَ الَّتِيْ حَدَّهَا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ فَجُعِلُوْا فِيْ بِئْرٍ بَعْضُهُمْ عَلٰى بَعْضٍ فَانْطَلَقَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حَتّٰى انْتَهٰى اِلَيْهِمْ فَقَالَ يَا فُلَانَ بْنَ فُلَانٍ هَلْ وَجَدْتُّمْ مَاوَعَدَكُمُ اللّٰهُ وَ رَسُوْلُهٗ حَقًّا فَاِنِّيْ قَدْ وَجَدْتُّ مَاوَعَدَنِيَ اللّٰهُ حَقًّا فَقَالَ عُمَرُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ كَيْفَ تُكَلِّمُ اَجْسَادًا لَا اَرْوَاحَ فِيْهَا فَقَالَ مَا اَنْتُمْ بِاَسْمَعَ لِمَا اَقُوْلُ مِنْهُمْ غَيْرَ اَنَّهُمْ لَا يَسْتَطِيْعُوْنَ اَنْ يَرُدُّوْا عَلَيَّ شَيْئًا۔ (رواه مسلم)

5938. Sayyiduna Anas رضى الله عنه said: We were (travelling) with Umar رضى الله عنه (and when we were) between Makkah and Madinah we tried to sight the now moon (for the lunar month). I saw it because I had sharp eyesight, but nobody else said that he had seen it. I kept not seen it" (and tried to point out to him its location). He could not see it. Finally, he said, "If will se it while I lie on my back on my bed:
Then, he began to narrate to us about those (of the disbelievers) who had been (killed) at Badr. He said, "Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم had shown us one day before where the infidels would fall, saying. 'This is where so and so will be killed tomorrow, insha Alah. This is where so and so will be killed tomorrow, insha Allah. (He showed where their corpses would lie)"
Then Umar رضى الله عنه said, "By Him who sent him with the Truth, they did not fall outside the places that Allah's Messenger had specified. They were cast in to (this) well piled on top of each other and Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم came to them (at the well that was in disuse) and addressed those idolaters, so and so son of so and so! So and so, son of so and so! Did you find what Allah and His Messenger had promised you to be true? Indeed, I did find what Allah promised me to be true.

Umar (also said that when Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم addressed the corpses, he) asked, 'O Messenger of Allah, how may you address the bodies that are without souls? He said, 'You do not hear what I say better than them except that they are not capable of giving any reply to me at all."[1]

COMMENTARY: When he said that he would see it when he stretched on his bed, Umar رضی اللہ عنہ indicated that it was not necessary to make too much effort to sight the moon. Those who see it and testify to that are enough to establish its visibility.

This means that it is like wasting something previous of one puts in one's time and energy in something that is not necessary.

THAT WHICH CAME OUT TRUE TO THE POINT

(٥٩٣٩) وَعَنْ أُنَيْسَةَ بِنْتِ زَيْدِ ابْنِ أَرْقَمَ عَنْ أَبِيهَا أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ دَخَلَ عَلَى زَيْدٍ يَعُوْدُهُ مِنْ مَرَضٍ كَانَ بِهِ قَالَ لَيْسَ عَلَيْكَ مِنْ مَرَضِكَ بَأْسٌ وَلٰكِنْ كَيْفَ لَكَ إِذَا عُمِّرْتَ بَعْدِيْ فَعَمِيْتَ قَالَ أَحْتَسِبُ وَأَصْبِرُ قَالَ إِذَنْ تَدْخُلَ الْجَنَّةَ بِغَيْرِ حِسَابٍ قَالَ فَعَمِيَ بَعْدَ مَا مَاتَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ثُمَّ رَدَّ اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ بَصَرَهُ ثُمَّ مَاتَ۔

5939. Sayyidah Unaysah رضی اللہ عنہا bint Zayd ibn Arqam رضی اللہ عنہ narrated on the authority of her father (Zayd ibn Arqam) رضی اللہ عنہ that the prophet paid Zayd رضی اللہ عنہ a sick visit when he was sick. He said (to zayd) رضی اللہ عنہ, "You should not be worried with this illness of yours (because you shall recover), but how will you fare If you live after me and become blind?" He submitted, "I shall hope for my reward from Allah and show perseverance.' He said, "If that be so you will enter paradise without being subjected to reckoning.

One of the sub-narrators said, "He became blind after the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم died. Then Allah returned to him his sight. Then, he died."[2]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم words came out true word for word. If he had also told him that he would bet back his eyesight than zayd might not have been as patient but might not have been as patient but might have longed for his lost sight to be restored. He would not have attained the rank whereby he got Allah's help and support.

WARNING TO NARRATOR OF FALSE HADITH

(٥٩٤٠) وَعَنْ أُسَامَةَ بْنِ زَيْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ تَقَوَّلَ عَلَيَّ مَا لَمْ أَقُلْ فَلْيَتَبَوَّأْ مَقْعَدَهُ مِنَ النَّارِ وَذٰلِكَ أَنَّهُ بَعَثَ رَجُلًا فَكَذَبَ عَلَيْهِ فَدَعَا عَلَيْهِ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَوُجِدَ مَيِّتًا وَقَدِ انْشَقَّ بَطْنُهُ وَلَمْ تَقْبَلْهُ الْأَرْضُ۔ رَوَاهُمَا الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِيْ دَلَائِلِ النُّبُوَّةِ۔

5940.Sayyiduna Usamah ibn Zayd رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If anyone forges a lie against me, (knowingly) passing on what I have not said as mine then he must find his seat ready in hell.

That (he said) because he had sent a man somewhere but he spoke lies about him. So, Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم invoked a curse on him. The man was found dead (One day) with his belly split and (when he was buried) the earth did not take him.[1]

COMMENTARY: This means that the man will abide in hell forever, in other words anyone who intentionally forges a lie against the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم (and narrates false hadith) is a disbeliever.

MEASURING REMOVES MIRACLE OF BLESSING

(٥٩٤١) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ أَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ جَاءَهُ رَجُلٌ يَسْتَطْعِمُهُ فَأَطْعَمَهُ شَطْرَ وَسْقِ شَعِيْرٍ فَمَا زَالَ الرَّجُلُ يَأْكُلُ مِنْهُ وَامْرَأَتُهُ وَضَيْفُهُمَا حَتَّى كَالَهُ فَفَنِيَ فَأَتَى النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ لَوْ لَمْ تَكِلْهُ لَأَكَلْتُمْ مِنْهُ وَلَقَامَ لَكُمْ. (رواه مسلم)

5941. Sayyiduna Jabir رضى الله عنه narrated that a man came to Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم and requested him to give him food. He provided him with half wasq of barley. The man did not cease to eat from it along with his wife and their guests till he measured it after which it was exhausted. He came to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم (and told him what had happened). So, he said, "If you had not measured it, you would have remained for you (undiminished with my blessing)."[2]

FOOD COULD NOT BE SWALLOWED

5942. Sayyiduna Aasim ibn Kulayb رحمه الله (a tabi'i) reported form his father who narrate that on ansar sahabi رضى الله عنه said: we participated in a funeral with Allah's messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم. I observed him at the grave giving instructions to the grave digger. He said, 'Make it wide at the side of the feet and wider where the head will be placed..."

When (the burial was over and) he was returning, someone came to him and invited him on behalf of the widow of the dead man. He agreed and we went along with him. When food was served, he put in his hand and then he others put in their hands and ate. But, we observed Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم move the morsal that he had taken originally in his mouth (but not swallow it). Then he said, "I find it to be the meat of a sheep that has been slaughtered without permission of its owner." The women sent someone to explain, 'O messenger of Allah, I sent someone to buy for me a sheep at an-Naqi, where sheep are sold, but no sheep was available. Then I sent someone to my neighbour requesting him to sell me the sheep he had bought against the price he has paid. But, he was not there. Then, I sent someone to his wife. So she sent us the sheep."

Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Feed this food to the prisoners."[1]

COMMENTARY: Mula Ali Qari رحمه الله said that [the hadith seems to contradict the rulings of the jurists about food being served on the death of someone. According to Bazaziyah, the serving of food on the first day (which is when death has occurred). The third day and or the seventy day is makruh disapproved).

According to khulasah, it is not permitted to arrange a meal and invite the people on the third day of death (which is called soyam).

Zayl's رضي الله عنه has said that there is no harm in sitting together for three days (on the death of someone to mourn him), provided forbidden things are not perpetrated, like spreading put beddings, serving food, etc.

Ibn Hamman رحمه الله has said, to, that it is makruh for the relatives of the dead to invite people to a meal (on his death).

The jurists explain that meal are served on happy occasions but are incongruous on he death of some one.

Ibn Hammam رحمه الله said that for the relatives of the dead to serve food is bid'ah Sa'iyah (evil innovation).

Moreover, Imam Ahmad رحمه الله and Ibn Majah رحمه الله have transmitted the hadith of Sayyiduna Jarir ibn Abdullah رضي الله عنه. "We considered gathering of relatives of the deceased and serving food (for the guests) equivalent tc wailing over the dead."[2] (And it is prohibited to wail over the dead.)

Hence, in the light of this hadith (# 5942) of Aasim ibn Kulayb رضي الله عنه we might presume that he jurists forbid the serving of meal by the family of the deceased under certain circumstances, like when custom is followed or it is done to keep airs and graces. When people con to condole and overstay, the family of the dead are compelled to seve them even if they have to borrow money.

The basis of the juristic rulings could also be that expenses for the food are down from the legacy of the dead person. Some of the heirs may be minor , some may not be present and their permission had to be obtained, or someone draws the expenses from the legacy that has not been divided and handed over.

There are other reasons too because of which it is makruh tu prepare and serve food on someone's death, like doing it on specified dates.

[2] Ibn Majah # 1612, Musnad Ahmad

Qadi Khan also said that it is makruh to invite people to a meal when afflicted with sorrow. Such days are day s when grief is expressed and it is very inappropriate do to things that are done at times of happiness and joy. However, if he poor are fed with intention to consign reward to the dead person then it is a good deed, indeed.

Besides, if anyone leaves dying instructions that, after his death, food must be cooked ad served to guest s for a certain number of days, like three, then, according to sound traditions, this will is absolutely invalid, though some authorities have said that it will be valid if prepared from within one third of the value of the deceased's property left behind, and this opinion seems very proper}

This for we had summarized the opinion of Mula Ali Qari رحمه الله. However, it must not lead us to believe that he terms that it is permitted to arrange, prepare and serve food by the relatives of the dead in all situations and circumstances other than those mentioned here. Rather, even those cases mentioned here. Rather, even those cases should be examined relative to the forbidden and the disapproved. We shall observe that all kinds of such things presently customary among us (by whatever name they are called) are either forbidden are disproved, for one reason or many reasons.

As for this hadith, the jourists say that two cases are exceptions to their ruling of prohibiting food on the occasion of death of a relative. They are:

(i) serving food too the poor and needy to consign reward to the deceased person,
(ii) Serving food to those who participated in the funeral rites like bathing. Shrouding and burying and

Hence, we may say that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had accepted the invitation of th4 widow on this basis. He and the sahabah رضى الله عنهم had participated in the man's funeral rites.

NAQI: The narrator of the hadith has put in his words to say about Naqi. It was a place where sheep were bought and sold. It is about twenty miles from Madinah towards the wadi ateeq. It is distinct from baqi the graveyard in Madinah.

The sheep that the widow had received was not purchased properly. The owner was not present and his wife had sent it to the widow without his permission. At the most it could be termed Bay' Fuduli which means subject to the owner's approval of the transaction in his absence. The flesh therefore, was not permissible till hen, so it was a miracle that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was preserved from consuming it because of its doubtful nature.

FOR THE PRISONERS: The prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم directed that the food may be served to the prisoners. They were the war captives. they were poor people, most probably, and according to Teebi رحمه الله, hey were infidels

If they had waited for the owner to arrive, the food may have ratted. The prisoners had to be fed anyway. So the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم order that they should be fed.

The price of the sheep had to be paid to the owner by the widow. The food came under the classification of charity by her.

5943. Sayyiduna Hizam ibn Hisham رحمه الله reported on the authority of his father (Hisham) who reported from his (Hizanis) grandfather, Hubaysh ibn Khalid رحمه الله who was the brothers of Sayyidah Umm Ma'bab رضی اللہ عنہ he skid that when Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was commanded (by Allah) to leave Makkah, he went out as an emigrant to Madinah. He, Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ and Aamir ibn Fuhay'rah who was the freedman of Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ. Their guide was Abdullah ibn Laythi. They came across the two tents of Umm Ma'bad رضی اللہ عنہا (who lived in that desert ed place). They asked their for some meat and date s that they may buy some from her. But, they could get nothing of that from her because the people faced famine and shortage (of foodstuff). Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم(observed a sheep at the side of the tent and asked, "why is this sheep her, O Umm Ma'bad?" She said, "its weakness has kept her behind from the flock." He asked, "Does the have any milk?' She said, 'She is too worn out for that." He asked, 'Do you permit me to milk it?" She said "Maymy father and mother be ransomed to you, if you see any milk in it, do milk it."

Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had it brought to him and wiped her udders with his hand. He mentioned eh name of Allah the Most high, and prayed for Umm Ma'bad رضی اللہ عنہ that the might have a blessing in her sheep, It sprees its legs upon for him (as sheep do when they are milked). It gave a flow of milk (and its udders became heavy) and it ruminated. He asked for a vessel large enough to hold (milk to satiate) all the people and milked into it plenty (of milk) so that the froth appeared on the surface. He (first) gave her (Umm Ma'bad) رضی اللہ عنہا to drink till she had had enough. Then last of all, he drank himself (in the light of his own saying, 'One who serves drinks last of all).

Then (after a while), he milked it a second time till the vessel was full. Then he left it with her (Thus she may show the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم miracle to her husband). Then he got her pledge as a Muslim and they went away from her.[1]

There follows a lengthy discourse in the hadith.

COMMENTARY: Umm Ma'bad رضی اللہ عنہا was Aatikah bint Khalid Khuza'ah. She had embraced Islam at the hands of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم she was a strong resolute woman, strong hearted and intelligent. She lived alone in h wilderness. She used to sit outside her tent and would cater to the needs of the travelers.

The futher account is that when her husband Abu Ma'bad رضی اللہ عنہ came home, she related to him her experience with the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم in a very eloquent manner and descried him well Abu Ma'bad recognized him as the one of whom he had heard in Makkah, saying. "If I am able to go I shall go and serve him and keep his company."

According to a tradition, when the Quraysh of Makah failed to trace him, a jinn who was a Muslim climbed of a tree and began to recite poetry in a loud voice. The Makah heard him in amazement Their ears picked up his voice clearly but they could seen one. Part of the poetry was.

CHAPTER - XXV

CHARISMA بَابُ الْكِرَامَاتِ

The word (کرامات) (karamat) is the plural of (کرامۃ) (Karamah). It is the noun from the ikram and takreem meaning 'reverence.' The literal meaning of this word is 'to be clean' 'to be honourable.' 'to be generous' However the technical meaning of the word (کرامۃ) – karamah) kis 'contrary to custom,' 'unusual' or a chirsma or a Marvel. It is demonstrated by a very pious believer, but neither is a cliam to prophet hood attached is to nor is to aimed at silencing the disbelieving because this kind of a mender is performed by a prophet and is called a miracle. It is the field only of a Prophet.

The ahl us-sunnah confirm that karamah or chrisma are performed by pious people but the mu"tazillah do not agree that such a thing is possible.

The ahlus-sunnah wa al-jam'at are unanimous on the belief that a wali may execute a karamah. Wali is the pious person who possesses an awareness of Allah's being and attributes within the limits of human power. He is regular in obeying Allah and doing pious deeds and in abstaining from evil. He shun worldly luxury but is perfect in abiding by the sunnah in accordance with his rank.

If we reason out, it is not impossible for the awliya[1] to work out a chrisma because nothing is impossible for Allah. Just as he gets His prophets علیہ السلام to work out miracles so too He can get the dear ones of His Prophet علیہ السلام to work out chrisma and wonders, for they are true followers of His Prophet علیہ السلام, and are pious believers.

Besides both, the Quran and ahadith also affirm that such wonders can be performed by the awliya. These were demonstrate ed by the sahabah رضی الله عنهم and, after them, by the awliya among the tabi'un and their successors till today. They are reported continuously and have attained the degree of tawatir. There should arise no doubt in the minds of an impartial observer. For example, so many marvels and chrisma are attributed to Shaykh Abdul Qadir JIlani رحمه الله that they are uncountable and they are being reported continuously over generations. No sane person can deny them sometimes, they appeared in quick succession of each other.

VOLUNTARY & INVOLUNTARY: Some scholars say that a wali may not work out a chirsma knowingly after resolving to do it. Rather, it is demonstrated involuntarily. They say that it is has been demonstrated as miracle, like blessing in food, water pouring out of a finger, and so on, cannot also be shown as a chrisma. However, the correct thing is that a chrisma may be demonstrated at wali as also involuntarily. Also, even those things that have been demonstrated as miracles may be shown as charisma.

(٥٩٤٤) عن انس ان اسيد بن حضير وعباد بن بشر تحدثا عند النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم في حاجة لهما حتى ذهب من الليل ساعة في ليلة شديدة الظلمة ثم خرجا من عند رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم ينقلبان وبيد كل واحد منهما عصية فاضاءت عصا احدهما لهما حتى مشيا في ضوءها حتى اذا افترقت بهما الطريق اضاءت للاخر عصاه فمشى كل واحد منهما في ضوء عصاه حتى بلغ اهله (رواه البخاری)

5944. Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه narrated that Usayd ibn Hudayr رضی الله عنه and abbad ibn Bishr رضی الله عنه conversed with the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم about something of importance to them till much of the night had passed. It was a very dark night. When they departed from Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم and went away, each of them had a small staff in his hand. The staff of one of them (suddenly) emitted light enabling them to walk by its light. When their paths separated, the staff of the other also emitted light for him. Thus, each of the two walked by th3e light of his own staff till he came to his family (and his home).[1]

COMMENTARY: According to another version of Bukhari (# 465): Two of the sahabah of the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم took his leave on a dark night but were led by two lights resembling lamps... when they separated to go along their own respective path each of them was led by his own light till they were home.

HAPPENED AS HE SENSED

(٥٩٤٥) وعن جابر قال لما حضر احد دعاني ابي من الليل فقال ما اراني الا مقتولا في اول من يقتل من اصحاب النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم واني لا اترك بعدي اعز علي منك غير نفس رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم واني لا اترك بعدي اعز علي منك غير نفس رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم وان علي دينا فاقض

5945. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه said "when the Battle of Uhud was about to be fought, my father called me during the night and said, I do not se myself but as the first one to be killed among the sahabah رضی الله عنهم of the prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم. And, I will not leave behind anyone dearer to me that you apart from Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم. I owe a (heavy) debt. Do pay it and I instruct you to be kind and caring to you (nine) sisters.."
When it was morning, indeed, he was the first to be killed I buried him along with another in a grave."[1]

COMMENTARY: The prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم had given instructions during the Battl eat Uhud that two man should be buried in each grave. Accordingly, Jabir رضی الله عنه buried his fear in the same grave as Amr ibn Jamu رضی الله عنه (عمرو بن الجموع) who was his friends well as his brother in law (sister's husband).

We learn from this hadith, therefore, that, when it becomes necessary, two men may be buried in the same grave.

(٥٩٤٦) وَعَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمٰنِ بْنِ اَبِيْ بَكْرٍ قَالَ اِنَّ اَصْحَابَ الصُّفَّةِ كَانُوْا اُنَاسًا فُقَرَاءَ وَاِنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَنْ كَانَ عِنْدَهُ طَعَامُ اِثْنَيْنِ فَلْيَذْهَبْ بِثَالِثٍ وَمَنْ كَانَ عِنْدَهُ طَعَامُ اَرْبَعَةٍ فَلْيَذْهَبْ بِخَامِسٍ اَوْسَادِسٍ وَاِنَّ اَبَابَكْرٍ جَاءَ بِثَلٰثَةٍ وَانْطَلَقَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِعَشَرَةٍ وَاِنَّ اَبَابَكْرٍ تَعَشّٰى النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ثُمَّ لَبِثَ حَتّٰى صُلِّيَتِ الْعِشَاءُ ثُمَّ رَجَعَ فَلَبِثَ حَتّٰى تَعَشّٰى النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَجَاءَ بَعْدَ مَامَضٰى مِنَ اللَّيْلِ مَاشَاءَ اللّٰهُ قَالَتْ لَهُ اِمْرَاَتُهُ مَاحَبَسَكَ عَنْ اَضْيَافِكَ قَالَ اَوَ مَا عَشَّيْتِيْهِمْ قَالَتْ اَبَوْا حَتّٰى تَجِيْءَ فَغَضِبَ وَقَالَ وَاللّٰهِ لَا اَطْعَمُهُ اَبَدًا فَحَلَفَتِ الْمَرْاَةُ اَنْ لَّا تَطْعَمَهُ وَحَلَفَ الْاَضْيَافُ اَنْ لَّا يَطْعَمُوْهُ قَالَ اَبُوْبَكْرٍ كَانَ هٰذَا مِنَ الشَّيْطٰنِ فَدَعَا بِالطَّعَامِ فَاَكَلَ وَاَكَلُوْا فَجَعَلُوْا لَا يَرْفَعُوْنَ لُقْمَةً اِلَّا رَبَتْ مِنْ اَسْفَلِهَا اَكْثَرَ مِنْهَا فَقَالَ لِامْرَاَتِهٖ يَا اُخْتَ بَنِيْ فِرَاسٍ مَاهٰذَا قَالَتْ وَقُرَّةِ عَيْنِيْ اِنَّهَا الْاٰنَ لَاَكْثَرُ مِنْهَا قَبْلَ ذٰلِكَ بِثَلٰثِ مِرَارٍ فَاَكَلُوْا وَبَعَثَ بِهَا اِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَذُكِرَ اَنَّهُ اَكَلَ مِنْهَا مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ وَذُكِرَ حَدِيْثُ عَبْدِ اللّٰهِ بْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ كُنَّا نَسْمَعُ تَسْبِيْحَ الطَّعَامِ فِي الْمُعْجِزَاتِ۔

5946. Sayyiduna Abdur Rahman ibn Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه narrated that the ahlus-sufah were poor people. So the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "He who had food for two (people for his family) must take a third and he who has food for four must take a fifth or a sixth too (from among the ahl us suffah). Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه had his meal with the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم and remained there till after the salah of isha was offered. He stayed on even after that till the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had eaten his meal (alone or with others).

Then, after as much of the night as Allah had milled passed away, Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه came home. His wife asked him, "What kept you away so long from your guests?" He asked, 'What, have you not served them their meal?" She said, "They refused to partake till you came." He was infuriated and said, "By Allah, I shall never eat it." His wife too swore that she should never take it and the guests, too, swore that they would never eat it. Then Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه (realized his mistake and) said, "This was from the devil." And called for the food and ate, and they too ate (as also the people of his house). Never did they take a morsal to their mouths but the place from which is was picked up increased I quantity. (This amzed them.) so he asked his wife, 'O the sister of Banu Faras! What is this?" She said, "By the coolness of my eyes! It is now three times more than it was."

They are (to satisfaction). Then, he sent it to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. to. It is said that he ate from it.[1]

COMMENTARY: In the time of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم there was a platform next to the Masjid nabawi to the north of the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم room. It was called suffah. Those poor muhajirs who had no home and no family used to reside here day and night. This is why they were called ashab us suffah or ahl us suffah (the people of suffah). They were guests of the Muslims because the general body of the Muslims looked after them according to their own means and ability purely on the basis of moral and human sympathy. Outsiders, who visited Madinah and had no one with when to stay, made the suffah their abode. Among the ahlus suffah were Abu Dharr Ghifari رضى الله عنه Ammar ibn Yasir رضى الله عنه Salman Farsi رضى الله عنه, Suhayb رضى الله عنه Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه, Ibn Arat رضى الله عنه. Hudhayfah ibn Yaman رضى الله عنه, Abu Sa;eed Khudri Bashir ibn Inhisasiyah and Abu Miwayhibah and freedman of the Prophet [2]صلى الله عليه وسلم.

OR TAKE THE SIXTH: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم instructed, concerning the ahl us suffah that those who had food for four should take a fifth. But, if they can accommodate one more then they must take the sixth. Or, the sub narrator may have been unsure about whether the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Take the fifth' or 'Take the sixty.' The basis for this is that when food for two* is enough for three, food for four should suffice six. A tradition is Musnad Ahmad, Muslim, Tirmidhi and Nasa'i of Jabir رضى الله عنه in a marfu form is 'Food of one should suffice two, of two should suffice four, of four should suffice eight.[3]

Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه stayed with the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم till he had his meal. Either this statement has been repeated in the hadith because he mentioned it earlier, or it means that the first time the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not eat but only Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه ate. The second time, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had his meal and Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه waited on him. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم may have eaten with his guests from the suffah.

Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه swore that he would not touch food. Then, he realized his mistake and revoked his oath. He may done this on remembering the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم words. "If anyone swears about something but then finds that it is batter to revoke the oath and act against it, then he must revoke and oath and follow the better course. But he must make an expiation for his revoked oath." Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ did the same thing. He called for food and made on expiation.

Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ called his wife, 'the sister of Banu Faras' when he was amazed and wonderstruck. That was her ancestral tribe.

The wife of Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ exclaimed 'By the coolness of my eyes.' She spoke in loving tones to her beloved husband. This applies if she referred to her husband as 'the coolness of my eyes.' Some authorities, however, say that she meant the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم as the coolness of her eyes.

Coolness of the eye (قرة العين) is an Arabic idiom. It means sight of the beloved and the pleasure on the sight of the beloved . The word could be qurrah or qurrah. IN he former case, it is coolness of the eyes' and in the latter case it is 'peace to the eyes.

LIGHT OVER THE GRAVE OF THE NEGUS

(٥٩٤٧) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ لَمَّا مَاتَ النَّجَاشِيُّ كُنَّا نَتَحَدَّثُ أَنَّهُ لَا يَزَالُ يُرٰى عَلٰى قَبْرِهٖ نُوْرٌ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

5947. Sayyiduna Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا said, "When the Negus died, we began to tell each other that a light did not cease to be seen over his grave."[1]

COMMENTARY: The emperor of Ethiopia was called the najashi (نجاشی) of negus. He ruled over Ethiopia at the time of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم declaration of his mission. He was a Christian but the believed in the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and became a perfect Muslim. He was of immense help to the Muslims and Islam, and the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم held him in high esteem. When he died in Ethiopia and the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم learned of it he was grieved and leg his sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم in the funeral salah in absentia. Of the Negus.

Thereafter, it became known that a light shone over his g rave. The sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم who came from Ethiopia reported this when they arrived in Madinah. Since all people cannot agree to circulate a false news, this reporting is like a khabar mutawatir (a hadith handed down continuously by many people and it is t rue.

WHAT KIND OF LIGHT: The question arises: what does it mean that a light was seen over his grave? The light on the grave of the Negus was seen with naked eyes like a lamp, a moon or a sun. It is also possible the light on his grave could mean brightness, freshness or a spiritual glow.

INVISIBLE GUIDANCE TO THOSE WHO BATHED THE PROPHET صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم

(٥٩٤٨) وَعَنْهَا قَالَتْ لَمَّا أَرَادُوْا غُسْلَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالُوْا لَا نَدْرِيْ أَنُجَرِّدُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مِنْ ثِيَابِهٖ كَمَا نُجَرِّدُ مَوْتَانَا أَمْ نَغْسِلُهٗ وَعَلَيْهِ ثِيَابُهٗ فَلَمَّا اخْتَلَفُوْا أَلْقَى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِمُ النَّوْمَ حَتّٰى

5948. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا said that when (after he died) it was decided to bathe (the body of) the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم they asked (each other) whether they should remove his garments as they did with their deed (bodies, or to give him a bath with his clothes on. When they disagreed (on the issue), Allah cast sleep on them causing every man's his chin to drop on his breast and some speaker spoke to them from the corner of the house but they could not know who he was, "Give the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم a both while his clothes are on him." Then they go up and bathed him with his shirt on. They poured water over the shirt and rubbed him with the shirt.[1]

COMMENTARY: Nawawi رحمہ اللہ said that the shirt was taken off at the time of enshrouding the body of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. the tradition that says that the shirt was not taken of is weak.

SAFINAH'S رضی اللہ عنہ WORK OF WONDER

(٥٩٤٩) وَعَنِ ابْنِ الْمُنْكَدِرِ اَنَّ سَفِيْنَةَ مَوْلٰى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَخْطَأَ الْجَيْشَ بِاَرْضِ الرُّوْمِ اَوْ اُسِرَ فَانْطَلَقَ هَارِبًا يَلْتَمِسُ الْجَيْشَ فَاِذَا هُوَ بِالْاَسَدِ فَقَالَ يَا اَبَا الْحَارِثِ اَنَا مَوْلٰى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ مِنْ اَمْرِيْ كَيْتَ وَكَيْتَ فَاَقْبَلَ الْاَسَدُ لَهُ بَصْبَصَةٌ حَتّٰى قَامَ اِلٰى جَنْبِهِ كُلَّمَا سَمِعَ صَوْتًا اَهْوٰى اِلَيْهِ ثُمَّ اَقْبَلَ يَمْشِيْ اِلٰى جَنْبِهِ حَتّٰى بَلَغَ الْجَيْشَ ثُمَّ رَجَعَ الْاَسَدُ۔ (رواه في شرح السنة)

5949. Sayyiduna Ibn al Munkadir رحمہ اللہ (removed tabi'I) narrated that the freedman of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, Sayyiduna Safinah رضی اللہ عنہ happened to be left apart from the army in the land of the Byzantines, or was taken captive. Then he began to flee seeking the (muslim) army. He came across a lion (while fleeing, in the desert) and (keeping calm and undisturbed) said (using the lions kunyah). "O Abul Harith, I an the freedman of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and he recounted what had happened to him. The lion came forward wagging its tail (as animals do when showing obedience to someone) and stood beside him. Then every time it heard a (frightening) sound, it rushed towards it (to protect safinah, رضی اللہ عنہ, Then, (on coming back) it walked forward at his side till he came to the army. Then the lion returned (to its place).[2]

COMMENTARY: the words 'or was taken captive are spoken by one of the narrator who was doubtful whether safinah رضی اللہ عنہ had lost his way or was nabbed by the enemy.

Safinah رضی اللہ عنہ was not his name. It was his sobriquet. It is not known what his name was but he got this epithet in a journey when he was carrying on his back a heavy luggage to which more was added by other travelers when they got tired carrying their own but he continue undeterred. He took the load happily. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said to him to laud him:

أَنْتَ السَّفِيْنَةُ

Safinah is a ship. Since that day to came to be called safinah and people cold not know his read name. If anyone asked him, he would assert. "My name is what my master has given, me, Safinah."

LOOKING AT PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم GRAVE FOR RAIN

(٥٩٥٠) وَعَنْ أَبِي الْجَوْزَاءِ قَالَ قُحِطَ أَهْلُ الْمَدِيْنَةِ قَحْطًا شَدِيْدًا فَشَكَوْا إِلَى عَائِشَةَ فَقَالَتْ أُنْظُرُوْا قَبْرَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَاجْعَلُوْا مِنْهُ كُوًى إِلَى السَّمَاءِ حَتّٰى لَا يَكُوْنَ بَيْنَهُ وَبَيْنَ السَّمَاءِ سَقْفٌ فَفَعَلُوْا فَمُطِرُوْا مَطَرًا حَتّٰى نَبَتَ الْعُشْبُ وَسَمِنَتِ الْإِبِلُ حَتّٰى تَفَتَّقَتْ مِنَ الشَّحْمِ فَسُمِّيَ عَامَ الْفَتْقِ۔ (رواه الدارمی)

5950. Sayyiduna Abu al-Jawza رحمه الله narrated that (one because of severe draught) the people of Madinah faced unbearable famine. So, they complained to Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها (about it). She advised them, "Look at the grave of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and make opening (in the room's ceiling) towards the sky so that the ceiling does not obstruct (the view) between it and the sky."

So, they did it and were poured a rain such that herbage sprouted and camels grew heavy with fat. And it was named aam ul fatiq (Arabic) (or the year of gushing forth or opening of splitting open).[1]

COMMENTARY: The word (کوی) or (کوۃ) means a widow or ventilator in the wall or ceiling of a house. Sayyidah Aysha رضی الله عنه asked them to make some openings in such a way that there might not be any obstruction between the grave and the sky. Then the sky might see his grave and weep on recalling his death and pour down water.

It happened exactly as she said. When the opening were made, the sky saw the grave and began to weep causing rivers and canals to overflow.

The Quran also speaks of the sky weeping:

فَمَا بَكَتْ عَلَيْهِمُ السَّمَآءُ وَالْاَرْضُ

(So the heaven and the earth wept not for them..) (44:29)

These were the people who had invited the wrath of Allah, so the sky did not weep for them. Hence, those people who are dear to Allah, the sky would weep for them.

Some authorities say that making openings in the ceiling of the room housing the grave was actually to get a recommendation from the grave and to seek its intercession.

People used to pray for rain through the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم intercession during his life time. When he died and the people needed rain, Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها suggested this way to have Allah's mercy burst on them, and shower rain. Though she seemed to make the grace a means, yet in reality it was the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم himself whose intercession was aimed at. The opening were made to emphasise the seeking and make it more effective. It was done also to demonstrate the restless condition of the anxiety stricken worried people

The word fatiq in aam ul fatiq means 'to swell,' 'to inflate.' Some people say it is 'to split.' 'to spread.' Rain put on end to draught and famine. These was greenery everywhere. The animals had plenty of fooder They grew fat. Their bellies spread.

This means of getting rain is a charisma worked by Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنه. It is also miracle of the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم. Even otherwise the chrisma of the ummah are actually miracles of the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم.

THREE DAYS TO NO ADHAN IN MADINAH

(٥٩٥١) وَعَنْ سَعِيْدِ بْنِ عَبْدِالْعَزِيْزِ قَالَ لَمَّا كَانَ اَيَّامُ الْحَرَّةِ لَمْ يُؤَذَّنْ فِيْ مَسْجِدِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ثَلٰثًا وَلَمْ يُقَمْ وَلَمْ يَبْرَحْ سَعِيْدُبْنُ الْمُسَيِّبِ الْمَسْجِدَ وَ كَانَ لَا يَعْرِفُ وَقْتَ الصَّلٰوةِ اِلاَّ بِهَمْهَمَةٍ يَسْمَعُهَا فِيْ قَبْرِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ۔ (رواه الدارمی)

5951. Sayyiduna Saeed ibn Abdul Aziz رحمه الله (a taba tabi' meaning successor of the tabi'un meaning successor of the tabi'un and great just who transmitted ahadith only after assuring himself of their veracity) narrated that during the Battle of Harrah neigher was the adhan called nor was the iqamah sounded from the masjid un Nabi رضی الله عنه for three days (at a stretch). And, Sa'eed ibn Musayyib رضی الله عنه could not came out of the mosque (because people were barred from coming to be mosque). The only way he could know of the hour of salah was from an inarticulate utterance form the grave of the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم[1]

COMMENTARY: Harah[2] was a track of land outside Madinah covered with pebbles. The army of Yazid ibn Mu'awiyah aided Madinah from this side to the battle came to be known as the Battle of Harrah. They caused havoc and a great destruction. The people of Madinah went through very difficult time of killing and turmoil. It was among the most difficult times of the history of Islam. The fact that neither could adhan nor iqamah be called from the Masjid Nabawi for three days speak of how painful this event was.

Sa'eed ibn Husayyib رحمه الله was a high ranking tabi'I He was a prominent jurist and scholar of hadith. He was very pious and god fearing. He was very pious and god fearing. He had performed forty Hajj. He died in 93 AH.

MARVEL OF ANAS رضی الله عنه

(٥٩٥٢) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ خَلْدَةَ قَالَ قُلْتُ لِاَبِي الْعَالِيَةِ سَمِعَ اَنَسٌ مِنَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ خَدَمَهُ عَشْرَسِنِيْنَ وَدَعَالَهُ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَكَانَ لَهُ بُسْتَانٌ يَحْمِلُ فِيْ كُلِّ سَنَةٍ اَلْفَاكِهَةَ مَرَّتَيْنِ وكَانَ فِيْهَا رَيْحَانٌ يَجِيْءُ مِنْهُ رِيْحُ الْمِسْكِ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَ قَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

5952. Sayyiduna Abu Khaldah رحمه الله (a tabi'i) said that he asked Sayyiduna Abu al-Aaliyah رحمه الله (another renowned tabi'i), 'Did Anas رضی الله عنه hear anything from the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم? He said, "He (was fortunate e in that he) served the Prophet صلی

ﷺ for ten years. And the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had prayed for him so that a garden that he owned produced crops of fruit twice every year and there was basil in it that gave off the fragrance of musk."[1]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Abu Khaldah رحمہ اللہ meant to ask whether the traditions narrated by Sayyiduna Anass رضی اللہ عنہ were transmitted directly from the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم or through another narrator. (whether they were marfu or mursal?) of course, the mursal traditions are also accepted without demur if they are sound) There is a hint in this question that some people may have raised eyebrows at the traditions of Anas رضی اللہ عنہ Abu al-Aaliyah رحمہ اللہ was a respected tabi'i. He recounted to Abu Khaldah رحمہ اللہ the merits of Anas رضی اللہ عنہ. He had began to serve the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم at eh age of eight or ten and since then served him for ten years continuously very sincerely and faithfully. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was pleased with him and prayed for blessings on him. The result was that he had a long life. Much wealth and many children. He lived for one hundred and three years and had seventy three sons and twenty seven daughters. His gardens produced two corps of fruit in a year and their flowers emitted fragrance of musk. If follows that he had heard a treasure of ahadith from the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and narrated them as was expected of him.

SECTION III — اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

NAVAL OF SA'EED IBN ZAYD رضی اللہ عنہ

(٥٩٥٣) وَعَنْ عُرْوَةَ ابْنِ الزُّبَيْرِ اَنَّ سَعِيْدَ بْنَ زَيْدِ بْنِ عَمْرِو بْنِ نُفَيْلٍ خَاصَمَتْهُ اَرْوٰى بِنْتُ اَوْسٍ اِلٰى مَرْوَانَ ابْنِ الْحَكَمِ وَادَّعَتْ اَنَّهٗ اَخَذَ شَيْئًا مِنْ اَرْضِهَا فَقَالَ سَعِيْدٌ اَنَا كُنْتُ اٰخُذُ مِنْ اَرْضِهَا شَيْئًا بَعْدَ الَّذِيْ سَمِعْتُ مِنْ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَاذَا سَمِعْتَ مِنْ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ مَنْ اَخَذَ شِبْرًا مِّنَ الْاَرْضِ ظُلْمًا طُوِّقَهٗ اِلٰى سَبْعِ اَرَضِيْنَ فَقَالَ لَهٗ مَرْوَانُ لَا اَسْئَلُكَ بَيِّنَةً بَعْدَ هٰذَا فَقَالَ سَعِيْدٌ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنْ كَانَتْ كَاذِبَةً فَاَعْمِ بَصَرَهَا وَاقْتُلْهَا فِيْ اَرْضِهَا فَقَالَ فَمَا مَاتَتْ حَتّٰى ذَهَبَ بَصَرُهَا وَبَيْنَمَا هِيَ تَمْشِيْ فِيْ اَرْضِهَا اِذْ وَقَعَتْ فِيْ حُفْرَةٍ فَمَاتَتْ مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ لِمُسْلِمٍ عَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ زَيْدِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللّٰهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ بِمَعْنَاهُ وَاَنَّهٗ رَاٰهَا عَمْيَاءَ تَلْتَمِسُ الْجُدُرَ تَقُوْلُ اَصَابَتْنِيْ دَعْوَةُ سَعِيْدٍ وَاِنَّهَا مَرَّتْ عَلٰى بِئْرٍ فِي الدَّارِ الَّتِيْ خَاصَمَتْهُ فِيْهَا فَوَقَعَتْ فِيْهَا فَكَانَتْ قَبْرَهَا۔

'If anyone appropriate a span of land wrongfully, then (on the day of resurrection) Allah will put the seven layer of this earth round his neck (like a necklace). Marwan said to him, "I shall not ask you for any evidence after this." (Any way) Sa'eed رضی الله عنه (surrounded that piece of land and) said, 'O Allah, if she is lying, take away her eyesight and let her die in her own land!" Urwah رضی الله عنه said, "She did not die before losing her eyesight and while she was walking on her land She fell into a pit and died."[1]

According to another version in sahih Muslim narrated by Sayyiduna Muhammad ibn Zayd inb Abdulah ibn Umar رحمه الله, he saw her blind. She was walking by the feel of walls, saying, "the curse of Sa;eed has fallen on me." She came by a well (meaning, a deep pit) on the same by a well (meaning a deep pit) on the same land that she had claimed and fell into it. That was her grave.[2]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Sa'eed ibn Zayd رضی الله عنه was one of the ashrah mubashshirah, meaning the ten glorious sahabah رضی الله عنهم whom the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم had given glad tidings in this world of admittance to paradise. He was the brother in law of Sayyiduna Umar رضی الله عنه and a very pious righteous man credited with many marvels and his prayers were answered.

It cannot be known with certainty if Arwa was a sahabiyan or a tabi'i. she had sued Sa'eed رضی الله عنه before marwan who dismissed her suit on hearing the hadith from Sa'eed (R gave up the land which he woman had claimed and prayed that she may be punished for lying. When she fell into a pit and died, no one deemed it necessary to take her out and bury her in a grave. That very land which she had claimed became her grave.

MARVEL OF UMAR رضی الله عنه

(٥٩٥٤) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ أَنَّ عُمَرَ بَعَثَ جَيْشًا وَأَمَّرَ عَلَيْهِمْ رَجُلًا يُدْعٰى سَارِيَةَ فَبَيْنَمَا عُمَرُ يَخْطُبُ فَجَعَلَ يَصِيحُ يَا سَارِيَ الْجَبَلَ فَقَدِمَ رَسُولٌ مِّنَ الْجَيْشِ فَقَالَ يَا أَمِيرَ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ لَقِيْنَا عَدُوَّنَا فَهَزَمُوْنَا فَإِذَا بِصَائِحٍ يَصِيحُ يَا سَارِيَ الْجَبَلَ فَأَسْنَدْنَا ظُهُوْرَنَا إِلَى الْجَبَلِ فَهَزَمَهُمُ اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى۔ رَوَاهُ الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِي دَلَائِلِ النُّبُوَّةِ۔

5954. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه narrated that Sayyiduna Umar رضی الله عنه had sent an army (to Nahawand to the south of Hamdan in Iran). He appointed as its commander a man called sariyah. Then (One day) while Umar رضی الله عنه was delivering a sermon (in Masjid Nabawi) to the people, he began to shout. "O Sari, keep to the mountain!" (He meant: go back and let the mountain be behind you). Later, a man from the army came and said, "O commander of the faithful, we met our enemy and they defeated us when, behold! Someone shouted 'O Sani keep to the mountain!' So, we put our backs to the mountain. Then, Allah, the Glorious, defeated them."[3]

COMMENTARY: According to some version, the people asked him what is the point in addressing sariyah here? He is miles away in battle." He explained to them how to was shown the fighting and he observed that the army would be better off if they put the mountain behind them. Later when the man came and brought the commander latter, it was confirmed that they had heard the instruction of on a Friday.

This event discloses many marvels worked at Umar;s رضی اللہ عنہ hands.

(1) he observed the battlefield in Madinah hundreds of miles away from Nahawind where the battle was being fought.

(2) His voice was carried that for and everyone in the army heard it.

(3) Allah gave victory to the Muslims by virtue of Umar's blessings.

MARVEL OF KA'B AHBAR رضی اللہ عنہ

(٥٩٥٥) وَعَنْ نُبَيْهَةَ بْنِ وَهْبٍ اَنَّ كَعْبًا دَخَلَ عَلٰى عَائِشَةَ فَذَكَرُوْا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ كَعْبٌ مَامِنْ يَوْمٍ يَطْلَعُ اِلَّا نَزَلَ سَبْعُوْنَ اَلْفًا مِّنَ الْمَلٰٓئِكَةِ حَتّٰى يَحُفُّوْا بِقَبْرِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَضْرِبُوْنَ بِاَجْنِحَتِهِمْ وَ يُصَلُّوْنَ عَلٰى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حَتّٰى اِذَا اَمْسَوْا عَرَجُوْا وَهَبَطَ مِثْلُهُمْ فَصَنَعُوْا مِثْلَ ذٰلِكَ حَتّٰى اِذَا انْشَقَّتْ عَنْهُ الْاَرْضُ خَرَجَ فِيْ سَبْعِيْنَ اَلْفًا مِّنَ الْمَلٰٓئِكَةِ يَزُفُّوْنَهٗ۔

(رواہ الدارمی)

5955. Sayyiduna Nuayhah ibn Wahb رحمہ اللہ (a tabi'i) narrated that Sayyiduna Ka!b (Ahbar) رضی اللہ عنہ visited Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا once. Those present there mentioned Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم (referring to his life or his death). So, Ka'b رضی اللہ عنہ said, "Never does a day begin but seventy thousand angels descend and surround the grave descend and surround the grave of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. They beat their wings (to receive blessings from the grave) and invoke blessings on him. When it is evening, they ascend (to the heaven) and a like number descend and do the same things (till morning). This will not cease till the earth over his grave) is split open (On the day of resurrection) and he will (arise and) come .out (from his grave. Seventy thousand angels will lead him (to his Lord)."[1]

COMMENTARY: Ka'b Ahbar رحمہ اللہ was a tabi'I He was alive in the time of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم but did not (meet or) see him. He became a Muslim in the time of Umar رضی اللہ عنہ.

As for the angels descending, he may have learn of it from earlier heavenly books, or from elderly people and scholars of previous Books. Or, it may have been his own inspiration and observation. This last seems to be more correct and it demonstrates his charisma.

CHAPTER - XXVI

DEATH OF THE PROPHET صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم بَابُ وَفَاةِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

Most of he version of the Mishkah do not have caption after the word (باب) 'chapter'. One version, however, has (باب) chapter: Death of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. (The باب وفاة النبی صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم text that we follow in giving sources and numbering ahadith has the caption as given here.) The general practice is that if no caption is given then the ahadith in that chapter pertain to the previous chapter. But, have, the ahadith on a different subject.

ILLNESS: There are varying reports on when the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم illness began. According to one report, it began with a severe headache on the 27th or 28th of Safar 11AH. Then on the 28th Safar itself, his illness grew more serious.

According to another report, his illness began in early Rabi ul Awwal.

Ibn Jawzi رحمہ اللہ has written in al-Wafa that his illness began in Safar when ten days remained in the month and he died on 12th Rabi ul Awwal.

Sulayman Taymi رحمہ اللہ who is a trustworthy and very reliable narrator has asserted that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم illness commenced on Wednesday, 22nd Safar and he died on Monday, 2nd Rabi ul Awwal. Many ulama prefer this report on the basis of the accepted fact that Sayyidah Fatimah رضی اللہ عنہا had died exactly six months after his death and she had died in Ramadan.

However it is also a fact that many traditions place his death on 12th Rabi ul Awwal.

ILLNESS AGGRAVATED: The illness increased. He became restless and kept changing sides but did not find comfort. He said. "No one has as serious as illness as the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم have. Undoubtedly, we also receive more reward."

During his illness, he set free forty slaves. And, except for three days. All through his illness he offered every salah with the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم in congregational form. Some accounts say that he did not lead in seventeen salah for which he instructed Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ to lead the congregation.

LAST ADVICE: During his illness, the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم repeatedly exhorted the people. Do not neglect salah." And, "Be kind to your slaves, both male and female.

The day he died, he came out of his room into the mosque at the time of fajr. He offered the salah behind Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ who was leading the congregation. After the salah, he addressed the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم finally, saying, "O Muslims, I bid farewell to you. I place you under Allah's protection. He is your Best protector. I am parting from you an deem it necessary to exhort you to adopt taqwa (a God fearing, righteous attitude) and to always be pious."

DURING THE ILLNESS:some of the unusual things that happened during his illness include: on Thursday when he was suffering sever pangs of death, he intended to write down some instructions. He said to Abdur Rahman ibn Awf رضی اللہ عنہ, "Bring me a bone of a sheep's shoulder or a board. I wish to write down some instructions for Abu Bakr." As he was getting up to bring it, the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Leave it. I do not find it necessary. I am sure that Allah and the Muslims will not differ about Abut Bakr." (He meant that Allah will approve Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ as his khalifah and the Muslims will give him a pledge of allegiance unanimously)

Sayyiduna Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ said to Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ that he could recognize signs of impending death on the faces of the children of Abdul Muttalib. He feared that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم might not recover from his illness So, he advised him to request the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم for the caliphate. But Ali رضی اللہ عنہ said, "If I ask him and he declines, then will the people select me?" so, he did not make a request.

He had five or six or seven dinars during his illness. These were deposited with Sayyiduna Ayshsh رضی اللہ عنہ. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم commanded that those dinars should be given away in charity. He did not wish to leave behind anything at all.

DAY OF DEATH: It is difficult to say exactly how many days he was sick because the date of the beginning of his illness and of his death are not known with certainty. The ulama say that he remained ill for twelve or eighteen days. According to their strong opinion he died on 2nd Rabi ul Awwal 11 AH. Monday.

When some people could not be certain that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had died, Sayyidah Asma bint Umays رضی اللہ عنہ put her hand on the Prophet علیہ السلام body between his shoulders and disclosed, "Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم has departed from this fleeting world. The seal of prophet hood between his shoulders had been taken away." She was first married to Sayyiduna Ja'far ibn Abu Talib رضی اللہ عنہ. When he was martyred, Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ married her and when he died, Ali رضی اللہ عنہ married her.

Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضی اللہ عنہ, the mother of the believers, said, "I had placed my on t he chest of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم when he died to find out. After that, for many weeks, the fragrance of musk came from my hand though I had been washing it now and then.

It is stated in Shawahid un-Nabuwah that someone asked Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ, "what is behind your very excellent memory" HE said, "when I washed the body of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, I licked the water that collected on his eye lashes and drank it. I assume that is the reason why I have a good memory and understanding."

SHROUD: There are different versions and narrations about the shrouding of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. The correct one is which is attributed to Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہ. She said that he was enshrouded in three pieces of cotton cloth. There was no shirt and turban. But her narration too is interpreted in different ways.

Some people say that she means that the shirt and turban were apart from the three pieces. This means that his should consisted for five pieces of cloth. But, this does not seem reasonable.

The meaning given by others is correct that his shroud did not include a shirt and turban besides the three garments. There were only three pieces. They were the waist-wrapper, a winding sheet and a final all covering cloth. This shroud is musthab.

FUNERAL SALAH: The funeral salah of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was not offered in a congregational form. No one acted as imam. Rather, after bathing and shrouding the body, it was placed in the room where it was to be buried. People came in batches and everyone offered the funeral salah by himself and then they went out allowing others to came in till all men offered the salah. Then women came in batches and offered the salah in the same way and after them the children came in turn by turn and offered the salah one by one.

BURIAL: The grave was prepared in the room of Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا where the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم sul had taken leave of his body. Then he was buried. When the body was being lowered, the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم freedman, Sayyiduna Thaqranm رضی اللہ عنہ placed the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم cloak on the floor under his body. He said, "I cannot endure that, after him, anyone else should use it.: But, according to one report, the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم did not agree with the idea and removed it before throwing dust in the grave.

This is why the ulama say that it is makruh to spread or place anything in the grave under the corpse.
The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was buried on Wednesday night (which according to the solar calendar was Thursday night). But, according to another report, he was buried on Tuesday after sunset.
THE GRAVE: The grave for the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was (لحد) - (Lahd) niche. The opening was closed by erecting nine blocks. Its top was camel's hump called (سنم). Then pebbles were placed on it and water was sprinkled on it. This is why all the four imams say that it is mustahab to make a grave (مسنم) musannam, or convex or arched.

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

HAPPIEST MOMENTS FOR PEOPLE OF MADINAH

(٥٩٥٦) عَنِ الْبَرَآءِ قَالَ اَوَّلُ مَنْ قَدِمَ عَلَيْنَا مِنْ اَصْحَابِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مُصْعَبُ ابْنُ عُمَيْرٍ وَابْنُ اُمِّ مَكْتُوْمٍ فَجَعَلَا يُقْرِاٰنِنَا الْقُرْاٰنَ ثُمَّ جَآءَ عَمَّارٌ وَبِلَالٌ وَسَعْدٌ ثُمَّ جَآءَ عُمَرُ بْنُ الْخَطَّابِ فِيْ عِشْرِيْنَ مِنْ اَصْحَابِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ثُمَّ جَاءَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَمَا رَاَيْتُ اَهْلَ الْمَدِيْنَةِ فَرِحُوْا بِشَيْءٍ فَرَحَهُمْ بِهٖ حَتّٰى رَاَيْتُ الْوَلَائِدَ وَ الصِّبْيَانَ يَقُوْلُوْنَ هٰذَا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَدْ جَآءَ فَمَا جَآءَ حَتّٰى قَرَاْتُ سَبِّحِ اسْمَ رَبِّكَ الْاَعْلٰى فِيْ سُوَرٍ مِثْلِهَا مِنَ الْمُفَصَّلِ۔ (رواه البخاری)

5956. Sayyiduna Bara رضی اللہ عنہ narrated, "The first of those who came to us among the companions of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم were Mus'ab ibn Umayr رضی اللہ عنہ and Ibn Umm Maktum رضی اللہ عنہ they began to teach us the Quran. (They were sent by the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم before the jijrah with this objective). Then to came were Ammar (ibn Yasir) رضی اللہ عنہ. Bilal (ibn Rabah) رضی اللہ عنہ and Sa'd (ibn Abu Waqqas) رضی اللہ عنہ. They were followed by Umar ibn Khattab رضی اللہ عنہ who brought twenty of the companions of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم along with him.
Then, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم came (with Abu Bakr) رضی اللہ عنہ, I had not seen the people of Madinah as happy about anything (howsoever great in worldly terms) as they were at his arrival. I also saw the little girls and boys calling out happily. This who has came (to us) is Allah's "This who has came (to us) is Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم .
Before he did came I had leant (from the Quran) the mufassal (meaning from the likes of awsaf Mufassal) (سبح اسم ربک الاعلی) (surah 87) - or this wurha (87) along with similar surahs from the mufassal.[1]

COMMENTARY: This hadith is evidence that Surah al A'la (الاعلی) 87th Surha) is Makkan, But some authorities point out that its verses (14 and 15)

قَدْ اَفْلَحَ مَنْ تَزَكّٰى وَذَكَرَ اسْمَ رَبِّهٖ فَصَلّٰى

are about the sadaqatul fitr which became wajib together with the salah of eed in Madinah in 2Ah. So this surah al A'la (87) may not be called Makkah with certainty unless we say that this surah was revealed in Makkah with the exception of these two verses.

قَدْ اَفْلَحَ مَنْ تَزَكّٰى * وَذَكَرَ اسْمَ رَبِّهٖ فَصَلّٰى *

However, it is a fact that there is neither need to be doubtful or reason to exclude the two verses, because he surah was revealed I Makkah comp[lately. Later when the sadaqatul fitr and the salah of eed were made wajib, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم explained that these verses were about them. They spoke of their merit.

These two verses exhort Muslims to engage in monetary and physical worship (sadaqah, zakah and salah). They do not spell out the real objective. But, when sadaquatul fitr and salah of eed were made wajib, sunnah explained and specified the real objective.

ABU BAKR رضى الله عنه GOT THE HINT

(٥٩٥٧) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ سَعِيْدِ نِ الْخُدْرِيِّ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ جَلَسَ عَلَى الْمِنْبَرِ فَقَالَ اِنَّ عَبْدًا خَيَّرَهُ اللّٰهُ بَيْنَ اَنْ يُّؤْتِيَهٗ مِنْ زَهْرَةِ الدُّنْيَا مَاشَآءَ وَ بَيْنَ مَاعِنْدَهٗ فَاخْتَارَ مَاعِنْدَهٗ فَبَكٰى اَبُوْ بَكْرٍ قَالَ فَدَيْنَاكَ بِاٰبَائِنَا وَاُمَّهَاتِنَا فَعَجِبْنَا لَهٗ فَقَالَ النَّاسُ اُنْظُرُوْا اِلٰى هٰذَا الشَّيْخِ يُخْبِرُ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ عَبْدٍ خَيَّرَهُ اللّٰهُ بَيْنَ اَنْ يُّؤْتِيَهٗ مِنْ زَهْرَةِ الدُّنْيَا وَبَيْنَ مَاعِنْدَهٗ وَهُوَ يَقُوْلُ فَدَيْنَاكَ بِاٰبَائِنَا وَاُمَّهَاتِنَا فَكَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ هُوَالْمُخَيَّرَ وَكَانَ اَبُوْبَكْرٍ اَعْلَمَنَا۔ (متفق عليه)

5957. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed khudri رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم sat on the pulpit (during his illness that led to his death or, as per one tradition, five nights before his death) and said, "Allah has given choice to a slave (of his) that he may choose the worldly pleasures that Allah may wish to give him (or he may wish to have) or he may chose that which is with Allah (meaning the bounties of the hereafter). He chose that which is with Allah (and the reward of the hereafter). Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه wept (on hearing him) and said, "May our parents be ransomed to you!" Some people were surprised at him. Some others exclaimed, "Look at this Sahaykh! Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم speaks about one who is given choice by Allah to be given by him worldly pleasures or to be given that which is with him, but he pleads, 'May our parents be ransomed to you (O Messenger of Allah)." (the facts are that) Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم was give the choice," Abu Sa'eed said, "and Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه was the one who was he most knowledgeable among us."[1]

COMMENTARY: Such was the intelligence and understanding of Sayyiduna Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and promptly understood that he was speaking of himself. The time of their parting was near.

He put together the prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم serious illness and these words. And realized the only the pious slaves of Allah would choose the hereafter.

FAREWELL SALAH & FAREWELL ADDRESS

(٥٩٥٨) وَعَنْ عُقْبَةَ بْنِ عَامِرٍ قَالَ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَلَى قَتْلَى أُحُدٍ بَعْدَ ثَمَانِ سِنِيْنَ كَالْمُوَدِّعِ لِلْأَحْيَاءِ وَالْأَمْوَاتِ ثُمَّ طَلَعَ الْمِنْبَرَ فَقَالَ إِنِّيْ بَيْنَ أَيْدِيْكُمْ فَرَطٌ وَأَنَا عَلَيْكُمْ شَهِيْدٌ وَإِنَّ مَوْعِدَكُمُ الْحَوْضُ وَإِنِّيْ لَأَنْظُرُ إِلَيْهِ وَأَنَا فِيْ مَقَامِيْ هٰذَا وَإِنِّيْ قَدْ أُعْطِيْتُ مَفَاتِيْحَ خَزَائِنِ الْأَرْضِ وَإِنِّيْ لَسْتُ أَخْشٰى عَلَيْكُمْ أَنْ تُشْرِكُوْا بَعْدِيْ وَلٰكِنِّيْ أَخْشٰى عَلَيْكُمُ الدُّنْيَا أَنْ تَنَافَسُوْا فِيْهَا وَزَادَ بَعْضُهُمْ فَتَقْتَتِلُوْا فَتَهْلِكُوْا كَمَا هَلَكَ مَنْ كَانَ قَبْلَكُمْ (متفق عليه)

5958. Sayyiduna Uqbah Ibn Aamir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that like one who is taking leave of the living and the dead Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم offered salah (meaning funeral salah or prayed)[1]

For those who were martyred in the Battle of Uhud, eight years after the battle. Then he went up the pulpit and addressed the people, saying, "I am the one who precedes you and I am your witness. Your place where the promise will be fulfilled is the pond, which I can see now too while I am on the pulpit. I have been given the keys of the treasures of the earth. I do not fear for you that you would became idolaters (or polytheists) after I am gone. But, what I fear is that you should crave for worldly things." Some versions, add here that (You seek the world to such an extent that) "you fight (for authority, government and wealth, till) you destroy yourselves like those who were before you."[2]

COMMENTARY: Like one who moves to another place, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم bid farewell to the dead as well as the living. He offered the funeral salah over eh martyrs of Uhud a few days before his death. Then he sat on the pulpit and delivered an exhaustive sermon alluding to his death.

His message to the dead was that his prayers and istighfar for them would cease. To the living, he said that he would not be among them any were and there would no more be the radiance of a Prophet or messenger in the world.

FUNERAL SALAH OVER MARTYRS OF UHUD: Since the Hanafis regard funeral salah over martyrs as valid, they take the word 'salah' to mean funeral salah. But, the Shafi's say that there is no funeral salah over a martyr, so they read the word 'salah in its broad our meaning of invocation and istighfar.

PRECEDING OTHERS: The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said of ihmelf that he is the (فرط) farat before the others. A farat is one who goes ahead and prepares for those following him their lodging, boarding and other necessities. So, he was proceeding them to the next world to oversee reception of his ummah for their deliverance and intercession. He has to intercede for them on the day of gathering. So he will prepared himself to intercede for them.

WITNESS: The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that though he was leaving them, yet he would not be unaware for their affair. These things will be shown him regularly. Besides, he will bear witness to their obedience and acceptance of Islam.

[1] Means: funeral salah itself or merely made supplication (see comments)

POND KHWTHAR: It is the place in the hereafter where the pious and evil believer and hypocrite will be distinguished from each other. The bad will be sifted from the good. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم promise of intercession will be fulfilled there at the Pond kawthar. Only the believers will drink from there when he intercedes for them. This is what Mulla Ali Qari رضي الله عنه has written.

Shaykh Abdul Haq رحمه الله said, that the kawthar is the place of the fulfillment of the promise to see him at the gathering and of meeting him.

He said that he was looking at the Kawthar even while he was addressing them from the pulpit. It was brought before him by removing the screens of the hereafter. He was seeing it with his normal eyes.

KEYS: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that he had been given the keys to the treasures of the world. This means that , after his death, the warriors of the ummah will conquer many places whose people will embrace Islam. Their treasures will come to the hands of his ummah.

CRAVE FOR WORLD: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم expressed his fear that his ummah will become more interested in worldly belongings. He said that if Allah wills, they would remain firm on faith and belief, after his death. But, some wretehed ones among them, will return to the darkness of disbelief and polytheism. However, as a whole, the ummah will not go astray again. As time passes, their religious life might become adulterated and they might take too much interest in worldly pursuits. This will have adverse effects on your religious and social life. This is a warning to the ummah. They are told that it does not behave the faithful to incline to the pleasures of the worlds and to its blessing more than necessary. It should be their aim to seek the bounties of the hereafter which are everlasting. The Quran says of it:

وَفِيْ ذٰلِكَ فَلْيَتَنَافَسِ الْمُتَنَافِسُوْنَ

{And to this end, let the strivers strive.} (83:26)

Nawawi رحمه الله enumerates the miracle of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم as shown in this hadith.

(i) My ummah will own the treasures of the world. This came out true.
(ii) My ummah wil not apostate. Indeed Allah has preserved them from apostasy.
(iii) My ummah will began to take too much interest in the world. This is happening indeed.

LAST MOMENTS OF PROPHET'S صلى الله عليه وسلم LIFE

(٥٩٥٩) وَعَنْ عَآئِشَةَ قَالَتْ إِنَّ مِنْ نِعَمِ اللّٰهِ تَعَالٰى عَلَيَّ أَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ تُوُفِّيَ فِيْ بَيْتِيْ وَفِيْ يَوْمِيْ وَ بَيْنَ سَحْرِيْ وَنَحْرِيْ وَإِنَّ اللّٰهَ جَمَعَ بَيْنَ رِيْقِيْ وَرِيْقِهٖ عِنْدَ مَوْتِهٖ وَدَخَلَ عَلَيَّ عَبْدُالرَّحْمٰنِ بْنُ أَبِيْ بَكْرٍ وَ بِيَدِهٖ سِوَاكٌ وَأَنَا مُسْنِدَةٌ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَرَأَيْتُهٗ يَنْظُرُ إِلَيْهِ وَعَرَفْتُ أَنَّهٗ يُحِبُّ السِّوَاكَ فَقُلْتُ آخُذُهٗ لَكَ فَأَشَارَ بِرَأْسِهٖ أَنْ نَعَمْ فَتَنَاوَلْتُهٗ فَاشْتَدَّ عَلَيْهِ وَقُلْتُ أُلَيِّنُهٗ لَكَ فَأَشَارَ بِرَأْسِهٖ أَنْ نَعَمْ فَلَيَّنْتُهٗ فَأَمَرَّهٗ وَبَيْنَ يَدَيْهِ رَكْوَةٌ فِيْهَا مَاءٌ فَجَعَلَ يُدْخِلُ يَدَيْهِ فِي الْمَاءِ فَيَمْسَحُ بِهِمَا وَجْهَهٗ وَيَقُوْلُ لَا إِلٰهَ إِلَّا اللّٰهُ إِنَّ لِلْمَوْتِ سَكَرَاتٌ ثُمَّ نَصَبَ يَدَهٗ فَجَعَلَ يَقُوْلُ فِي الرَّفِيْقِ الْأَعْلٰى حَتّٰى قُبِضَ وَمَالَتْ يَدُهٗ۔

5959. Sayyiduna Ayshsh رضی اللہ عنہ said, "Of the favours for Allah bestowed on me is that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم died in my house, on my day and between my breast and elavicle. And Allah joined his saliva with mine when he died. Abdur Rahman ibn Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ) (my brother) came to visit me and he had siwak in his hand when I was supporting Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. I observed that he was looking at it (again and again). I understood that he always liked to use a siwak, so I asked him, 'May I take it for you?" he nodded, 'Yes!" (I got it for him and) he took it but it was too hard for him. So, I asked him, 'May I soften it for you and he nodded, 'Yes,' (I got it for him and) he took it but it was too hard for him. So, I asked him, 'May I soften it for you and he nodded, 'Yes.' I softened it and he brushed his teeth with it. There was a pitcher of water in front of him and he would put his hands into the water and wipe his face with them. And, he would say (لا الہ الا اللہ) 'There is no good but Allah. Surely, death has pangs.; Then he raised his hand and began to say, 'include me among the highest companions!' (فی الرفیق الاعلی), till he died and his hand dropped."[1]

COMMENTARY: During his illness, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم stayed continuously with Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا. But, she regarded herself more fortunate that the day he died was also the day when he would have been at her house if he was well for that day was her day. It is stated in Jam al-Usool that the day when his illness began with a headache was also her day and when his illness aggravated he was at the house of Sayyiduna Maymunah رضی اللہ عنہا. His noble wives gave him their willing permission to move to the house of Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا. The severity of his illness lasted twelve days and he died in the month of Rabi ul-Awwal on a Monday in the forenoon. The date in put by same people as 12th Rabi ul Awwal. Most traditions also give the date.

When the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم died, he was resting on Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا between her neck and chest. This points to her extreme nearness and love.

As for the tradition of Haakim رحمہ اللہ and Ibn Sa'd رحمہ اللہ through many lines of transmission that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم head was in the lap of Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ not one of their lines of transmission is without defect. Besides, even if we ignore those shortcoming, we might say that his head was in Sayyiduna Ali's رضی اللہ عنہ lap before his death.

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم saliva went into the mouth of Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا when she took the hard siwak from his mouth and softened it with her teeth. Then he used it, so that her saliva went into this mouth. In this way, she received his blessings. Of course, she did get them always but this was a great blessing right at the time of his death, because it was the limit and the apex of all blessings. She may also have meant that she received the blessing of the saliva at that time only and had not received it before that.

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم dipped his hands in water and wiped his face with them. Clearly, he must have had fever. A patient gets some relief in this way this also is a sign of servitude and humbleness. Every patient must do this when experiencing pangs of death. If he cannot do it himself, then his attendants must abide by this sunah. One of them must dip his hands in water and wipe the patients face with them, or put some drops of exercise mitigates the uneasiness. If the need is severe then it is wajib to do so.

The pangs of death are also faced by the Prophets علیہم السلام and pious people. Only Allah's favour makes it easy for them to breath pangs. Hence, it is necessary to seek refuge in Allah from the pangs of death for oneself and for a patient on his death bed.

According to another version, Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا said that she saw the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم enduring pangs of death. He dipped his hands in water in a jug lying near to hi and wiping therewith his face. These words of prayer were on his lips:

لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ اِنَّ لِلْمَوْتِ سَكَرَاتٌ

Or

لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ اِنَّ لِلْمَوْتِ سَكَرَاتٌ

(There is no God but Allah. Surely, death has its pangs.)
The meaning in each case is the same: 'O Lord, help me during the throes of death.
"Join me with ar-rafiqul a'a. Ar-Rafiq ul a'la (highest companions): rafiq is a collective noun. They are the Prophets who have already reached are highest iliyun. This is supported by the tradition in which these words of supplication are found; (meaning, with the Prophet) the Siddiqs, the shuhada and the salihim[1] for they only are true rafiq. Or Ar-rafiq ul-a'la mean the higher and the angelic world or the angels residing in the heavens.
Some authorities contend that ar rafiq ul-a'la mean Allah, the Mighty Lord. The word ar rafiq is also applied to Allah. There is a tradition:
"You are given choice by Him that if you like you may remain (some more day) in this world, or you may go to him (the True one)." The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said:

اِخْتَرْتُ الرَّفِيْقَ الْاَعْلٰى

"(I have chosen to go to Ar-Rafiq Us A'la)

PROPHETS ARE GIVEN CHOICE BEFORE DEATH

(٥٩٦٠) وَعَنْهَا قَالَتْ سَمِعْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ مَا مِنْ نَبِيٍّ يَمْرَضُ اِلَّا خُيِّرَ بَيْنَ الدُّنْيَا وَالْاٰخِرَةِ وَكَانَ فِيْ شَكْوَاهُ الَّذِيْ قُبِضَ اَخَذَتْهُ بُحَّةٌ شَدِيْدَةٌ فَسَمِعْتُهُ يَقُوْلُ مَعَ الَّذِيْنَ اَنْعَمْتَ عَلَيْهِمْ مِنَ النَّبِيِّيْنَ وَالصِّدِّيْقِيْنَ وَالشُّهَدَاءِ وَالصَّالِحِيْنَ فَعَلِمْتُ اَنَّهُ خُيِّرَ۔ (متفق عليه)

5960.Sayyiduna Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that, "I heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say, "Every Prophet who becomes ill is given choice between this world and the next." (He may choose to live in this world for some more time or to move to the next world. But every Prophet has rejected the life of the world) then when he suffered the illness that led to his death, his voice became hoarse (as happens before death) and I heard him pray, 'with those to whom you have bestowed favour among the prophets, the truthful, the martyrs and the righteous.' (They alone are the best companions) I knew thereby that he had been given the choice (and he has chosen the hereafter)."[2]

DAUGHTER'S GRIEF ON PROPHET'S DEATH

(٥٩٦١) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ لَمَّا ثَقُلَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ جَعَلَ يَتَغَشَّاهُ الْكَرْبُ فَقَالَتْ فَاطِمَةُ وَاكَرْبَ اَبَاهُ فَقَالَ لَهَا لَيْسَ عَلٰى اَبِيْكِ كَرْبٌ بَعْدَ الْيَوْمِ فَلَمَّا مَاتَ قَالَتْ يَا اَبَتَاهُ اَجَابَ رَبًّا دَعَاهُ يَا اَبَتَاهُ مَنْ جَنَّةُ الْفِرْدَوْسِ مَاْوَاهُ يَا اَبَتَاهُ اِلٰى جِبْرَئِيْلَ نَنْعَاهُ فَلَمَّا دُفِنَ قَالَتْ فَاطِمَةُ يَا اَنَسُ اَطَابَتْ اَنْفُسُكُمْ اَنْ تَحْثُوْا عَلٰى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ التُّرَابَ۔ (رواه البخاري)

5961. Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه said, "when (on the day he died) the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم condition worsened and he lost consciousness (again and again), Sayyidah Fatimah رضی الله عنها (became anxious and) exclaimed, 'what an agony, O Father! He said to her, "After today, your father will have no suffering.' When he died. She exclaimed. 'O my father! He responded to a Lord who called him! O my father! In paradise is his abode! O my father! We convey news to Jibril علیه السلام of your death! When he was buried, Sayyidah Fatimah رضی الله عنها asked, 'O Anas (and O sahabah) how have you people reconciled yourselves to scatter dust over Allah's Messenger?"[1]

On this occasion, Sayidah Fatimah رضی الله عنها recited with following:

مَاذَا عَلٰى مَنْ شَمَّ تُرْبَةَ اَحْمَدَا　　اِنْ لَّمْ يَشُمَّ مَدَى الزَّمَانِ غَوَالِيَا

MADINAH WAS GLOOMY

(٥٩٦٢) عَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ لَمَّا قَدِمَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الْمَدِيْنَةَ لَعِبَتِ الْحَبَشَةُ بِحِرَابِهِمْ فَرَحًا لِقُدُوْمِهِ رَوَاهُ اَبُوْدَاوُدَ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةِ الدَّارِمِيِّ قَالَ مَارَاَيْتُ يَوْمًا قَطُّ كَانَ اَحْسَنَ وَلَا اَضْوَءَ مِنْ يَوْمٍ دَخَلَ عَلَيْنَا فِيْهِ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَمَا رَاَيْتُ يَوْمًا كَانَ اَقْبَحَ وَلَا اَظْلَمَ مِنْ يَوْمٍ مَاتَ فِيْهِ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةِ التِّرْمِذِيِّ قَالَ لَمَّا كَانَ الْيَوْمُ الَّذِيْ دَخَلَ فِيْهِ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الْمَدِيْنَةَ اَضَاءَ مِنْهَا كُلُّ شَيْءٍ فَلَمَّا كَانَ الْيَوْمُ الَّذِيْ مَاتَ فِيْهِ اَظْلَمَ مِنْهَا كُلُّ شَيْءٍ وَمَا نَفَضْنَا اَيْدِيَنَا عَنِ التُّرَابِ وَاِنَّا لَفِيْ دَفْنِهٖ حَتّٰى اَنْكَرْنَا قُلُوْبَنَا۔

5962. Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه narrated, "when Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم came to Madinah, (All the people were extremely happy and demonstrated their happiness so much so that) the Ethiopians played with their spears to express their joy at his arrival."[2]

According to another version: He said, "I have never seen a day better and brighter than the day when Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم came to us (in Madinah). And, I have never seen a day worse and darker than the day on which Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم died."[1]

According to another version: He said, "when the day came on which Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم came to Madinah, everything in it (meaning, every house, and every place) was covered with brightness and light. But, when the day came on which he died everything in it was dark And barely had we brushed earth off our hands did our hearts changed."[2]

COMMENTARY: The day the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم arrived in Madinah was the day of gaining nearness and connected for those longing for the glorious arrival. Their desires and wishes were fulfilled. Their minds and hearts were joyous and their homes were radiant with the light of the prophethood. When the day arrived on which the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم departed from this world, they were engulfed with darkness. That was the day of separation. Their happiness separated from them.

The light seemed to fade away from their hearts. The characteristics of truthfulness, sincerity and faithfulness were not of the same calibre as had been when the Prophet was among them.

PLACE OF BURIAL

(٥٩٦٣) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ لَمَّا قُبِضَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِخْتَلَفُوْا فِيْ دَفْنِهٖ فَقَالَ اَبُوْبَكْرٍ سَمِعْتُ مِنْ رَّسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ شَيْئًا قَالَ مَا قَبَضَ اللّٰهُ نَبِيًّا اِلَّا فِي الْمَوْضِعِ الَّذِيْ يُحِبُّ اَنْ يُّدْفَنَ فِيْهِ اُدْفِنُوْهُ فِيْ مَوْضِعِ فِرَاشِهٖ- (رواه الترمذی)

5963. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها said that when Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم died, the sahabah رضی الله عنهم differed about (the site of) his burial. Then Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه said, "I had heard from Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم something about it. He had said, 'Allah does not take away the soul of a Prophet except where he (the Prophet) صلى الله عليه وسلم wishes to be buried. (Or, where Allah likes His Prophet) wishes to be buried. (Or, where Allah likes His prophet should be buried) so, bury him where he lay on his death bed."[3]

COMMENTARY: Some of the sahabah رضی الله عنهم said that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم should be buried in the graveyard Baqi. Some others proposed Masjid Nabawi. A few of them suggested Bayt ul Maqdis as the best place for his burial because most of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم were buried there. It is also possible that they differed on whether he should be buried or not at all.

There is another hadith in Tirmidhi that the sahabah رضی الله عنهم asked Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه whether the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم should be buried or not. He said, "At the very place where Allah has taken his soul. The place where his soul is taken is pure." The sahabah conceded that he was right. (so he was buried there.

SECTION III الفصل الثالث

PROPHET عليهم السلام ARE SHOWN THEIR PLACE IN PARADISE

(٥٩٦٤) عَنْ عَآئِشَةَ قَالَتْ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللهِ صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ وَهُوَ صَحِيْحٌ اَنَّهُ لَنْ يُّقْبَضَ نَبِيٌّ حَتّٰى يُرٰى مَقْعَدَهٗ مِنَ الْجَنَّةِ ثُمَّ يُخَيَّرُ قَالَتْ عَائِشَةُ فَلَمَّا نَزَلَ بِهٖ وَرَاْسُهٗ عَلٰى فَخِذِىْ غُشِىَ عَلَيْهِ ثُمَّ اَفَاقَ فَاَشْخَصَ بَصَرَهٗ اِلَى السَّقْفِ ثُمَّ قَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ الرَّفِيْقَ الْاَعْلٰى قُلْتُ اِذَنْ لَا يَخْتَارُنَا قَالَتْ وَعَرَفْتُ اَنَّهُ الْحَدِيْثُ الَّذِىْ كَانَ يُحَدِّثُنَا بِهٖ وَهُوَ صَحِيْحٌ فِىْ قَوْلِهٖ اَنَّهُ لَنْ يُّقْبَضَ نَبِيٌّ قَطُّ حَتّٰى يُرٰى مَقْعَدَهٗ مِنَ الْجَنَّةِ ثُمَّ يُخَيَّرُ قَالَتْ عَائِشَةُ فَكَانَ اٰخِرُ كَلِمَةٍ تَكَلَّمَ بِهَا النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَوْلُهٗ اَللّٰهُمَّ الرَّفِيْقَ الْاَعْلٰى۔ (متفق عليه)

5964. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها said that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم used to say when he was of sound health, "A prophet is not taken away without being shown his abode in paradise. Then he is given his choice (to stay more in the world or to come to the hereafter)." Sayyidah Ayshsh رضی الله عنها added that when death was near to him, his head was on her thigh and he fainted. On recovering, he started at the ceiling and said, 'O Allah, (I choose) arrafiqul a'la (the highest companions). She commented that it was clear that he was not choosing them (meaning, the life of the world).

She said, "And I understood his saying that he used to say when he was well in his words that a prophet is never at all taken away without being shown his abode in paradise and then given his choice."

Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها said, "The last words that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم spoke were. 'O Allah, (I chose) ar-rafiqul a'la.'[1]

COMMENTARY: The last words spoken by the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم were (اللهم الرفيق الاعلى) According to Suhayli رحمه الله, the first words he spoke were (الله اكبر) when he was with his foster mother. Sayyidah Halimah رضی الله عنها.

According to one tradition, when Allah had assembled all the souls before creation and got their pledge known as (عهد الست) then on His asking (الست بربكم) Am I not your lord? He was the first one to say (بلى) of course!

EFFECT OF POISON

(٥٩٦٥) وَعَنْهَا قَالَتْ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللهِ صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ فِىْ مَرَضِهِ الَّذِىْ مَاتَ فِيْهِ عَآئِشَةُ مَا اَزَالُ اَجِدُ اَلَمَ الطَّعَامِ الَّذِىْ اَكَلْتُ بِخَيْبَرَ وَهٰذَا اَوَانُ وَجَدْتُ اِنْقِطَاعَ اَبْهَرِىْ مِنْ ذٰلِكَ السَّمِّ۔ (رواه البخارى)

5965. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها said that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم used to say during his illness which led to his death, "O Ayshah, I do not cease to feel the pain form the (poisoned) food that I had eaten at Khaybar. And, now is the time when I sense that my aorta will be cut because of that poison."[2]

COMMENTARY: The poisoned food was the sheep that the Jewess had served the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم and his sahabah رضی الله عنهم at Khaybar, after the Muslims had conquered it. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had eaten some of it. (see comments to hadith # 5941). It was a miracle that he did not die but its effects remained and they were being felt now and then.

Then, in order that Allah may grant him the degree of martyrdom, He let poison show its effect during the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم final illness.
The death of Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه to occurred from the poison of a snake that had stung him very many years before in the cave Thawr on their first leg of emigration from Makkah to Madinah.

INTENTION TO WRITE DOWN SOMETHING DURING ILLNESS

(٥٩٦٦) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ لَمَّا حُضِرَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَفِي الْبَيْتِ رِجَالٌ فِيْهِمْ عُمَرُ ابْنُ الْخَطَّابِ قَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ هَلُمُّوْا اَكْتُبْ لَكُمْ كِتَابًا لَنْ تَضِلُّوْا بَعْدَهٗ فَقَالَ عُمَرُ قَدْ غُلِبَ عَلَيْهِ الْوَجَعُ وَعِنْدَكُمُ الْقُرْاٰنُ حَسْبُكُمْ كِتَابُ اللّٰهِ فَاخْتَلَفَ اَهْلُ الْبَيْتِ وَاخْتَصَمُوْا فَمِنْهُمْ مَّنْ يَّقُوْلُ قَرِّبُوْا يَكْتُبْ لَكُمْ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَمِنْهُمْ مَنْ يَّقُوْلُ مَا قَالَ عُمَرُ فَلَمَّا اَكْثَرُوا اللَّغَطَ وَالْاِخْتِلَافَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قُوْمُوْا عَنِّيْ قَالَ عُبَيْدُ اللّٰهِ فَكَانَ ابْنُ عَبَّاسٍ يَقُوْلُ اِنَّ الرَّزِيَّةَ كُلَّ الرَّزِيَّةِ مَا حَالَ بَيْنَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَبَيْنَ اَنْ يَّكْتُبَ لَهُمْ ذٰلِكَ الْكِتٰبَ لِاخْتِلَافِهِمْ وَلَغَطِهِمْ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةِ سُلَيْمَانَ بْنَ اَبِيْ مُسْلِمِ الْاَحْوَلِ قَالَ ابْنُ عَبَّاسٍ يَوْمَ الْخَمِيْسِ وَمَا يَوْمَ الْخَمِيْسِ ثُمَّ بَكٰى حَتّٰى بَلَّ دَمْعُهُ الْحَصٰى قُلْتُ يَا ابْنَ عَبَّاسٍ وَمَا يَوْمَ الْخَمِيْسِ قَالَ اشْتَدَّ بِرَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَجَعُهٗ فَقَالَ ائْتُوْنِيْ بِكَتِفٍ اَكْتُبْ لَكُمْ كِتَابًا لَا تَضِلُّوْا بَعْدَهٗ اَبَدًا فَتَنَازَعُوْا وَلَا يَنْبَغِيْ عِنْدَ نَبِيٍّ تَنَازُعٌ فَقَالُوْا مَا شَاْنُهٗ اَهَجَرَ اسْتَفْهِمُوْهُ فَذَهَبُوْا يَرُدُّوْنَ عَلَيْهِ فَقَالَ دَعُوْنِيْ ذَرُوْنِيْ فَالَّذِيْ اَنَا فِيْهِ خَيْرٌ مِّمَّا تَدْعُوْنَنِيْ اِلَيْهِ فَاَمَرَهُمْ بِثَلٰثٍ فَقَالَ اَخْرِجُوا الْمُشْرِكِيْنَ مِنْ جَزِيْرَةِ الْعَرَبِ وَاَجِيْزُوا الْوَفْدَ بِنَحْوِ مَا كُنْتُ اُجِيْزُهُمْ وَسَكَتَ عَنِ الثَّالِثَةِ اَوْ قَالَهَا فَنَسِيْتُهَا قَالَ سُفْيَانُ هٰذَا مِنْ قَوْلِ سُلَيْمَانَ۔ (متفق عليه)

5966. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه said that (three days before his death, meaning on Thursday) when his condition worsened (and death was near) and some people including Umar ibn Khattab رضى الله عنه were in the house (near his bed), the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said "Come I shall write down for you something so that you may not go astray after that." Umar suggested (to the people), "He is in severe pain and you have the Quran. Allah's Book is enough for you (to follow the straight path). But, the people who were there (and included members of the household and other sahabah رضى الله عنهم did not agree and some of them argued. "Get the writing materials and let Allahs' Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم write for you." Some others said the same things as Umar رضى الله عنه said, When they disputed much and they became noisy. Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم asked them to depart from him (giving up the idea of writing anything since they already had the sunnah and the Book).

Ubaydullah رضى الله عنه (a sub narrator of this hadith) said that Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه used to lament, "It was an appalling tragedy that came up between Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم and his writing down something for them, Because of their disagreement and agitation." (If they had been quiet, he would have written down some instructions for the good of all of us).

According to the version of Sulayman ibn Abu Muslim al-Ahwal رضى الله عنه (a trustworthy scholar), he said that Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه said, "Thursday! What a terrible) Thursday!" and he wept profusely so that his tears wet the pebbles (lying there).

He (Sulayman) asked "O Ibn Abbas, what about Thursday?" He said, "It is (the Thursday) when the ailment of Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم became worse and he said, 'Get me a shoulder blade that I may write down for you something after which you will never stray off the path.' The people differed among themselves and it was not right for them to differ in the present of a Prophet. They asked, "what is wrong with him? Is he departing (from us)? We must asks him (about his intention). They began to dispute with him. So, he commanded them (as a final course), 'Leave me to myself! Let me by alone! (Do not drag me in necessary things) for, I find myself in something that is better than that to which you divert me.' (Then they gave up their dispute and were attentive to him) He gave them three commands.

1) Expel the polytheists from the Arabian peninsula
2) Give respect to deputations and envoys (who come from other places) as I used to do.'

"But, he did not mention the third thing, or I forget it. Though he may have mention it." Sufyan (ibn Uynyah) رضى الله عنه said that the words 'he did not mention the third, or I forgot. Were spoken by sulayman رحمه الله (al-Ahwaal)[1]

COMMENTARY: Nwawi رحمه الله has written in Sharh Muslim that it is impossible that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was lying. It is also impossible that he would have altered any command of Shari'ah whether he was in sound health or he was ill. Also, he would never have desisted form preaching what Allah had commanded him to enforce, and to enforce what Allah had forbidden. .These were the detested things from which Allah made him innocent. So no one can imagine that he would disobey Allah.

Of course, it was not impossible that he would be afflicted with an illness that would not impair his rank of prophethood and messengership, nor alter his Shari'ah in any way. This is why when a spell was cast, he came under its effect. However, Allah preserved him even in that case and he did not say anything contrary to Shari'ah, nor change any of its commands. His mind, thought and deeds did not go against any religious or Shair'ah obligations.

As for the words of this hadith that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم intended that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم intended to write down some instructions but then did not get it done, there are different opinions about it.

(1) he wished to name a Khalifah and put it down in black and white so that there should be no dispute about it after him.

(2) He decided to pen down the significant commands of Shari'ah with an explanation so that the ulama may not differ later on in imposing them, and the ummah may be united on that.

This far is what Nawawi رحمه الله has said. But, Mulla Ali Qari رحمه الله has quoted him and criticized both these enjoining. As for the first, he said that it is for-fetched. It was not necessary to give written instructions for that. He could have simply named anyone as the Khalifah orally as he did name Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه to lead the congregational salah. In this way, he gave a practical indication that he (Abu Bakr should be his Khalifah (caliph). He also indicated in orally when he said (يابى الله والمؤمنون الا ابابكر) (Allah and the believers will accept none but Abu Bakr). However, we may say that the Prophet wished to write down guidelines for the appointment of caliphs after him, succeeding each other until the coming of Imam Mahdi and Prophet Easa عليه السلام. we might say that this did not materialize because Divine wisdom did not approve it. It was decreed that it should remain undermined and unknown. So the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم could not put it down in writing.]

About the second opinion, Mulla Ali Qari رحمه الله has said that as for as the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم own time was concerned, there was no question of disagreement among the sahabah رضى الله عنهم religious commands, They were united on these issues. As for differences cropping up after words that ought to be reconciled. The difference rising among people on religious issue was not merely a possibility but a definite certainty. In fact the Prophet had himself informed that it will take place. For instance, he had said: (اختلاف امتى رحمة) (Differences in my ummah are a mercy).

اَصْحَابِىْ كَالنُّجُوْمِ بِاَيِّهِمُ اقْتَدَيْتُمُ اهْتَدَيْتُمْ

(My companion is are like the stars whichever of them you follow you will be guided).

عَلَيْكُمْ بِالسَّوَادِ الْاَعْظَمِ

(You must follow al-swad al a'zam)[1]
– the great majority.

اِسْتَفْتِ قَلْبَكَ وَاِنْ اَفْتَاكَ الْمُفْتُوْنَ

(Ask your heartier a judgement even if the jurist have given their rulings).

All people cannot agree to a wrong things whereby there might be mutual discard in religion this is an impossibility. It is what the Quran also says:

وَلَا يَزَالُوْنَ مُخْتَلِفِيْنَ اِلَّا مَنْ رَّحِمَ رَبُّكَ وَلِذٰلِكَ خَلَقَهُمْ

{...but they cease not differing except those on whom your Lord has mercy.} (11:118-119)
Allah has created them for that very reason.

If the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had to give guidance to the ulama about the differences that would crop up among them after the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم times then he would not have waited till the last to do it, Rather, he would have given guidance to them at the time when he had told the sahabah رضى الله عنهم that differences would arise in his ummah.

Moreover, it is difficult to understand that the commands and guidance of religion were revealed over a period of twenty years then how was it possible to sum them up during the last days of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم life? How was it possible for him to put them together so that there would be no differences, about them in the future? Hence, this opinion cannot be accepted.

[1] The words in the has there. (Arabic)

Of course, we might say to some extent that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had intended to write down such commands and rulings as were enforced during earlier times but are not found in our Book and sunnah. Or, he might have intended to mention the divisions and sects and their portents in the manner of the Najiyah sect. And, he may have wished to elaborate on their conditions and consequences. These divisions in the ummah have came up later, like the mu'tazillah, Khawarij. Rawafid and all the bid'atis (innovators). But Divine wisdom did not approve it, so the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was unable to put down his guidance and commands in writing.

Umar رضى الله عنه said, "The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is suffering a severe ailment. Allah's Books is there to guide you as Allah Himself says:

اَعْتَصِمُوْا بِحَبْلِ اللّٰهِ جَمِيْعًا

{And hold fast, all together, by the rope (religion) that Allah (stretches out for you).}" (3:103)

As for the hadith and sunnah they too, are part of the quran. Their subject forms an explanation of the message of the Quran.

Therefore, Umar رضى الله عنه did not mean to interrupt the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Rather, he was addressing those people who had begun to debate and argue insisting that writing material should be brought to the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to unable him to write down a guidance. But, Umar صلى الله عليه وسلم wish was that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم should get rest and peace which he needed at that time. Besides, he had understood that the Prophet's command was not of an obligatory and mandatory nature but depended on the wishes of the sahabah رضى الله عنهم and they could act on it or not observe it. It was the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم practice that when his command was not an obligatory nature, he permitted the sahabah رضى الله عنهم to give their views. If they had any reservations then he did not take it binding on them to observe in but left it to their own judgement.

However, emery command of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that was of an obligatory nature had to be observed punctiliously, to at. He did leave it to the opinion of the sahabah رضى الله عنهم.

Besides it is also possible that Umar رضى الله عنه may have thought that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم would write a command that might prove very difficult for his sahabah رضى الله عنهم and they might go through extreme inconvenience. Thereafter, the ummah too would have the same problem and face a severe trial. So, he requested that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم should reconsider his decision. Indeed, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم abandoned his idea. An example of an order being reversed is found in the hadith (# 39) in the chapter on faith (Book I). The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had instructed Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه "Take these my sandals and whoever you meet.. was testifies that there is no god but Allah (لا اله الا الله)... give him tidings of admittance to paradise." He conveyed the tidings, fires of all to Umar صلى الله عليه وسلم, but he prevented Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه from conveying the tidings to anyone else and met the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and submitted. "O Messenger of Allah, (do not tell the people about it) they will rely on it and became lethargic in doing deeds." So, he rescinded his command to make the tidings public.

Apart from these possibilities, we might also say that in many issues, Umar رضى الله عنه agreement was pronounced by his disagreement. So in this case, too, we might take his statement to be an agreement or support. In this way, the blame of opposing (the Prophet) صلى الله عليه وسلم will be removed from him. This opinion is supported by the fact that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم abandoned his idea of writing instructions or exhortation. After listening to his views.[1]

WAS REQUESTED BY SOME TO WRITE INSTRUCTIONS: Some people say that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had not given this command on his own. Rather, some of the sahabah رضى الله عنهم had requested him to write down (some advice and instructions by way of) a will. So he was inclined to do so but when he saw that some other sahabah رضى الله عنهم. like Umar رضى الله عنه and his lie minded, were not in favour of it he dropped the idea outright.

Bayhaqi has written that Sufyan ibn Uyanah رضى الله عنه has narrated on the authority of reliable scholars and knowledgeable men that the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had intended at that time to name Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه as his caliphs. He decided to write down his decision. Then he gave up this idea relying on Divine decree to which the Muslim masses would not disagree. This statement is supported by his saying:

يَأْبَى اللّٰهُ وَالْمُؤْمِنُوْنَ إِلَّا أَبَابَكْرٍ

(Allah and he believers will never accept anyone as caliph beside Abu Bakr). This hadith is found in detail in chapter on merits of Abu Bakr in the chapter on merits of Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه (# 60210).

ALI'S رضى الله عنه NAME: The Shi'a say that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had intended to name Ali رضى الله عنه as his caliph and wished to write it down. But, they also say that he had already named him as his caliphs at Ghadir Khumm. If that is so, then what was the need write down further instructions about it?

GO AWAY FROM ME: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then asked the people to go away from him. In this way, he made it clear to them that he had decided not to write down anything on the conviction that the Book and the sunah are enough for their guidance.

Nawawi رحمه الله has written that either:

(i) The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم may have decided on his own to write down some instructions for his ummah for their betterment but on realizing that it was advisable not to write down, he did not go ahead with his idea; or,

(ii) He may have receive a revelation that he should write down something but another revelation revoked the first before it was put into effect.

Nawawi رحمه الله has written also that Umar صلى الله عليه وسلم showed exemplary presence of mind in declaring: (حسبكم كتاب الله) 'the Book of Allah suffices you.' He was worried lest the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم write down such commands as may be difficult for he Muslims to abide by. Then, since these commands would become final and stipulated, they would not allow for interpretation and ijtihad.[2]

Those who would fail to observe them will be liable to punishment. Besides, his words 'the Book of Allah suffices you" point to Allah's words:

مَا فَرَّطْنَا فِى الْكِتَابِ مِنْ شَىْءٍ

and

اَلْيَوْمَ اَكْمَلْتُ لَكُمْ دِيْنَكُمْ وَاَتْمَمْتُ عَلَيْكُمْ نِعْمَتِىْ

1. {We have not neglected anything in the Book (of decrees).} (6:38)
2. {This day have I perfected your religion for you and completed by blessing on you} (5:3)

IBN ABBAS رضی اللہ عنہ REGRET: Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ lamented that the disagreement and noise of the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم was such an appealing tragedy that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had to give up his decision to write down some commands and instructions. He meant that if they were quit, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم would have offered some valuable guidance for the ummah to lead them forever. It seems that his thinking was at variance with Umar رضی اللہ عنہ. Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ was in favour of letting the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم write down whatever he wanted to pen down. Bayhaqi رضی اللہ عنہ has written in Dala'il un-Nabuwah that Umar رضی اللہ عنہ did not wish to augment the trouble and pain through which the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was gong. If he had though it necessary to write something, then he would not have put off his decision on the disapproval of Umar رضی اللہ عنہ or anyone else because of Allah's command to him:

بَلِّغْ مَا أُنْزِلَ إِلَيْكَ مِنْ رَّبِّكَ

{Propagate what has been revealed to you. From your Lord} (5:67)

The prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم conveyed to the people whatever it was necessary to convey by every means at his disposal, even though the enemies of Islam opposed him tooth and nail. In fact, even on this occasion, he did not desist from giving such instructions as he deemed necessary (like exiling the Jews, and so on). As for writing other things, Umar رضی اللہ عنہ though that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم must not be troubled in the condition he was and the restlessness he was passing through. Besides, every command of religion and Sari'ah was incorporated in the Quran and hadith it is as Allah has said:

اَلْيَوْمَ اَكْمَلْتُ لَكُمْ دِيْنَكُمْ

{This day have I perfected your religion for you} (5:3)

This verse makes it clear that there is noting up to the Last Day for which a command or ruling is not given in the Book or sunnah either by deduction or in clear terms.

Umar رضی اللہ عنہ has also fathomed that he Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم intended to write a comprehensive document of commands and rulings that would leave no room for deduction and ijtihad. Thereafter, the scholars would never have an option to make ijtihad. Hence, he wished that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم should not burden himself and also the jurists should not be deprived of the honour of making ijtihad, so he suggested that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم may abandon his idea of writing down. Indeed, he did not reject Umar's رضی اللہ عنہ request and so commanded Umar's رضی اللہ عنہ and his supporters intelligence.

Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ wept profusely after lamenting the noise and commotion prevented the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم from writing what he had intended to write. His weeping may have been on remembering the death of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم or on regretting that the ummah suffered because they could not get the Prophet's guidance. It is more possible that he wept for the second reason.

As for the words of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم that he would write something after which they would not go astray, the ulama رضی اللہ عنہ say that these words are very explicit that he had intended to write down the commands of religion and Shari'ah. In an elaborate manner. (Clearly he had not intended to write about the caliphate.

The words, 'It was not right for them to differ in the Prophet's presence seem to have been spoken by Ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه. However, some authorities say that they are part of the saying of the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه cited them here by way of evidenced for his contention. The words; 'Is he departing from us?' are based on the translation of (اهجر) to leave,' 'to depart. Fath al-Bari has given many possibilities of this construction. The translation is made accordingly. Its subject is (الحيوة) the life which is understood in the text and put in parenthesis as (from us). Shaykh Abdul Haq رحمه الله has translated the passage:

> "(What condition of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم does this thing suggest?) Is his speech incoherent (because of severe illness)?"

In this case, the questions are said to be tag-questions giving a negative answer. They were put to silence those who insisted that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم must not write anything. They asked them, "Do you think that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is not conscious when he asks you for writing Material? Have the words escaped his tongue because of his severe illness? It is disrespectful to imagine such things about the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. so, obey him! Get him the writing material and let him write down what he wished to write."

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that he found himself in something better than that to which they diverted him. He meant that he was on the last leg of his journey to the hereafter. He was longing to meet his Lord and was immersed in the thought of the True Lord. "But, you people quarrel with each other noisily and divert my attention towards yourself. So do get up and depart from here."

Mulla Ali Qari رضي الله عنه has cited Khattabi رحمه الله and written about the hadith

اِخْتِلَافُ أُمَّتِيْ رَحْمَةٌ

"Disagreement among my ummah is mercy:" There are three kinds of disagreements in religion and Shari'ah:

(i) About the existence and unity of the Greater, meaning Allah, the Most High. This kind of disagreement (which is based on denial of Allah's existence and unity) is a clear disbelief.

(ii) About the attributes and will off Allah. This kind of disagreement (that is based on a rejection of Allah's attributes and will) is baid'ah, or innovation, and straying.

(iii) About interpretation of secondary or supplementary commands and rulings of religion and Shari'ah as accommodate various causes and meanings. It is this kind of difference that exists among the possessors of knowledge and jurists who are qualified to make ijtihad (or independent judgement). It is this kind that Allah has termed a mercy and a chrisma for the ulama and the mujtrahideen (scholars and those qualified to make independent judgment).

WHY DID THEY HESITATE: Mulla Ali Qari رحمه الله has also written on the authority of Mazri about a poser that when the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم gave a command, to his sahabah رضي الله عنهم who were around him during his illness, how did they find it proper to differ? Why did they not obey him promptly and why did they argue?

The explanation is that such commands whose observation are subject to external influences their nature may alter. Those who contend that all commands are binding and obligatory to observe do agree too that because of the influence, the obligatory nature of the commands changes into the recommended or preferable nature. It is the converse of the commands whom some regard as recommended but which became mandatory because of external influences.

Hence, it is possible that when the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم gave this command, he may have given such indications at the time as may have made it obvious implicitly that it was not binding to observe it. Rather, it was of a discretionary nature. Therefore, each of the sahabah رضى الله عنهم acted (relative to the command) at his own discretion. This is evidence that, when necessary, the sahabah رضى الله عنهم had recourse to ijtihad.

As for Umar's رضى الله عنه discretion that there should be no writing, he may have been convinced that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم command and intention were not mandatory.

EXPEL POLYTHEISTS: The Prophets صلى الله عليه وسلم instruction to expel the polytheists from the Arabian peninsula has been elaborated upon in chapter on 'the expulsion of the Jews from the Arabian Peninsula' (Block XVII jihad chapter XI ahadith # 4050 to 4054 and Umar Khattab رضى الله عنه departed them from Khaybar which was a final deportation). Similarly, the (جزيرة العرب) or Arabian peninsula is defined in the chapter on 'Evil promptings. (Book I faith, Chapter II, hadith # 72).

RESPECT TO FOREIGN REPRESENTATIVES: The second instruction of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was that they should receive foreign dignitaries and deputations warmly just as he used to do. They should accord them proper protocol in keeping with theirs status. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم gave this command so that the Islamic value and morals should be demonstrated. Secondly, the visitor should be pleased. Thirdly, other people may be impressed by this treatment and their hearts may be won over to Islam and the Muslims. The ulama say that this command of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم included both Muslim and non- Muslims.

FORGOT THE THIRD: Mulla Ali Qari رحمه الله has said on the authority of Nawawi رحمه الله that Sufyan ibn Uyaynah رحمه الله is not correct in attributing the words 'he did not mention the third, or I forgot it' to Sulayman al -Ahwal رحمه الله. In fact, the one who had assumed silence was Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه and he who said, "I have forgotten it" was Sa'eed ibn Jubayr رضى الله عنه who narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه. Then, Sulayman al-Ahwas رحمه الله narrated from him.

Shaykh Abdul Haq رحمه الله has stated in his sharh that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had observed silence. He says that Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه spoke these words, or the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not mention the third thing at all. Or, he did mention but Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه forgot it.

The scholars of hadith maintain that the third thing that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said was the command to prepare the equipment of the army of Usamah رضى الله عنه. He was engaged in that work before he was afflicted with his illness.

It is also possible that the third things was about forbidding grave worship. It is as in one tradition:

لَا تَتَّخِذُوْا قَبْرِىْ وَثَنًا يُعْبَدُ

(Do not take my grave as an idol lest it be worshipped."

5967. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated, 'Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ said to Umar رضی اللہ عنہ (sometime) after the death of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم 'came with me to Umm Ayman رضی اللہ عنہا that we may visit her just as Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to visit her.' So, we (three of us) came to her, She began to weep. The two of them said to her. 'what makes you weep? Do you not know that there is the best (of bounties and favour) with Allah for Allah's Messenger?" صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم But, she reminded them. 'I weep not because I know not this there is with Allah, the Most High, the best for Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, but I weep that (with his death) relation from heaven has terminated.' She thus moved them to weep and they too began to weep along with her."[1]

COMMENTARY: Sayyidah Umm Ayman رضی اللہ عنہا was the mother of Sayyiduna Usmah ibn Zayd رضی اللہ عنہ. She was freed from slavery by the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. Her name was Baraka and she was a slave of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم father, Abdulah, on whose death she became the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم slave when he inherited his father's property. He set her free. And gave her in marriage to Sayyiduna Zayd رضی اللہ عنہ who too had been a slave of Sayyidah Khadijah رضی اللہ عنہا. She had presented him to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم who set him free.
Sayyidah Umm Ayman رضی اللہ عنہا was a high ranked sahabiyah and the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم gave her tremendous respect. She, too left no stone unturned in loving Islam and the Muslims. At the battlefield she gave water to the warriors and looked after the wounded. She died twenty days after the death of Umar رضی اللہ عنہ.

5968. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed Khudri رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that during the illness that led to his death, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم came out (of his room) to them when they were in the mosque. He had a piece of cloth tied round his head (as people who have a headache do) and he was moving forward to the Pulpit He stood on it and they to came near (to him). He (praised and glorified Allah and) said, "By Him who has my soul in His hand, I am looking at the Pond from this place of mine (at the moment)." Then, he said, "A man was presented the (fleeting) world and its adornment but he chose (the everlasting) hereafter." Abu Sa'eed added that except for Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ no one got the hint, so tears dropped from his eyes and he wept, submitting. "No! We shall ransom you with our fathers, our mothers, our persons and our properties, O Messenger of Allah." Then he came down (the pulpit) and did not mount it ever again."[1]

COMMENTARY: According to some other traditions. Jibril علیہ السلام come to him and said that Allah says, "Allah gives you option to live longer in this world. He offers you the treasures of the world and will turn these mountains into gold and silver for you without diminishing the least from your rank and reward and bounties in the hereafter. Or, you may come to Him." The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم lowered his head (as one pondering). It is also reported that one of his slaves who was there and heard these words, said, "O Messenger of Allah what is wrong in that, If you live in this world some more time, we shall be comfortable with the wealth that is received because of you." The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم did not pay attention to the saying of the slave but looked up and asked Jibril علیہ السلام why was the offer made and said, "I wish to come there!" Thus, he chose the hereafter that has no end.

Indeed, some men possessed of Divine awareness say that if a wise man is given choice between two bowls one of which is earthen but durable and the other is golden but fragile, than he will chose the earthen bowl that is durable. If the choice is between a golden bowl that is durable and an earthen bowl that is fragile then only an insensible man would choose the insecure earthenware.

The hereafter is like the durable bowl of gold and this world is like the insecure and fragile bowl of earth ware.

The Quran sys about it:

وَالْاٰخِرَةُ خَيْرٌ وَّاَبْقٰى

{While the hereafter is hatter and more enduring.} (87:17)

5969. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ said, "when the surah (an-Nasr # 110)

إِذَا جَآءَ نَصْرُ اللّٰهِ وَالْفَتْحُ

{When come the help of Allah and victory...} was revealed, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ

[1] Darami # 77, Musnad Ahmad 3-91. Tirmidhi # 3859 (3679) including with some words of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم.

عليه وسلم called Sayyidah Fatimah رضي الله عنها and said to her, 'I have been given news of my death. So, she wept, and he said, 'Do not weep. You will be the first of my family to meet me." So, she laughed.
Some of the wives of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saw her (weep and then laugh) so they asked (her), 'O Fatimah, we saw you weep and then laugh?' She said, 'He informed me first that he had been given news of his death, so I wept. Then he asked me not to weep because I would be the first of his family to meet him, so I laughed.'
And Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, 'when the help of Allah came and the victory followed (which is the conquest of Makkah) and the people of Yemen have come, they being of he most tender hearted – faith is Yemeni and wisdom is (also) yemeni.'[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that surah an-Nasr announced his impending departure from this world because it news of Allah's help and of victory and of people joining Islam in large numbers. It also gives a command to glorify and praise Allah. He said that it could only mean that his mission was over. The task that he was assigned was complete and he had to prepare for his journey to the hereafter by glorifying and praising Allah and turning to Him perfectly.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told Sayyidah Fatimah رضي الله عنها that she would be the first to meet him not just to comfort her. Rather, he foretold her death after his and before anyone else of the people of his household. She would not have to bear the separation for long. Indeed, according to a sound report, she died six months after her father's death. But, other reports put her death at eight months, at three or two months and at seventy days after his death.

Some of the wives of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked Sayyidah Fatimah رضي الله عنها why she wept and then laughed. Though the plural tense is used, she was Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها who had asked. However, there may have been some of the other wives of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم along with her. According to some versions, Sayyidah Fatimah did not say why she wept and laughed but said, 'this is a secret between Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم and myself." But, after his death she discloses this secret.

YEMENIS: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that the People of Yemen have come. In these words, he referred to Sayyiduna Abu Musa Ash'ary رضي الله عنه and other people from yemen. They embraced Islam. Grammatically, these words are reflected in when Allah's help comes' – 'when the people of Yemen have explain the words in the surah:

وَرَاَيْتَ النَّاسَ يَدْخُلُوْنَ فِيْ دِيْنِ اللّٰهِ اَفْوَاجًا

{And you see the people entering Allah's religion in multitudes} (110:2)

The people whom the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saw entering Islam were the People of Yemen.

He praised them as tenderhearted. They are quick to accept advice, guidance and commands. Their hearts are receptive o sermons and more prepared to accept the truth. They are not indifferent and stony.

That faith is Yemeni means that the word eeman (faith) is derived from 'Yemen.' It is related to the country yemen not only in the literal sense but also in meaning. This sentence too praises the people of yemen. It expresses their perfect rank in faith, Islam, obedience and following.

The Yemenis are more competent in learning, They are wise. They have a particular mind to investigate and learn. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم referred to the various questions Abu Musa Ahsh'ry رضی الله عنه had asked about the pre-creations, hereafter, beginning of birth, and soon.

The hadith in which the questions of Abu Musa Ash'ary رضی الله عنه are mentioned is in the chapter the Beginning of creation XVII (hadith # 5698)
Some authorities content that faith and wisdom are attributed to Yemen because faith began in Makkah which is the land of Tihamah which again is also connected with Yemen. This is why Ka'bah is also called ka'bah yamaniyah.
Some others say that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم spoke these words in Tabuk which is part of Syria. From there Makkah and Madinah lie in the same direction as Yemen does. Thus though he referred to Yemen get he meant Makkah and Madinah.
Abu Ubayd رحمه الله said that by Yemen the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم meant the ansar of Madinah whose original land was yemen. In order to praise the ansar of Madinah effectively, he attributed faith and wisdom to yemen.
Anyway, this hadith aims to say that the people of Yemen have perfect faith. But, it does not negate the faith of anyone else. So there is no contradiction between this hadith and the one that says: (الایمان فی اهل الحجاز) (Faith is found among the people of Hijaz).
Besides, this saying is about those Muslims of Yeman who lived in the time of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, not the Muslims of all generations.
This saying is actually a part of another hadith. It is been reproduced here from the hadith.
WHAT IS HIKMAH: The word (حکمة) hikmah means intelligence and wisdom. Some say that it is to find out the reality of everything.
Teebi رحمه الله said that hikmah is to acquire much knowledge and to perform many deeds.
The Quran mentions hikmah thus;

وَمَنْ يُّؤْتَ الْحِكْمَةَ فَقَدْ اُوْتِيَ خَيْرًا كَثِيْرًا

{And whosoever is granted the wisdom, he, indeed has been granted the great good}
(2:269)

Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه said:

اَلْحِكْمَةُ تَزِيْدُ الشَّرِيْفَ شَرَفًا وَتَرْفَعُ الْعَبْدَ الْمَمْلُوْكَ حَتّٰى تُجْلِسَهٗ مَجَالِسَ الْمُلُوْكِ

(Hikmah increases the noble in honour and nobility and it raises a slave in rank till he is worthy of sitting with the kings).

Abau Hurayurah رضی الله عنه said that there are ten portions of hikmah. Nineof these lie in seclusion and one is in silence.

PROPHET'S صلى الله عليه وسلم WISH FOR ABU BAKR رضی الله عنه AS CALIPH

(٥٩٧٠) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ اَنَّهَا قَالَتْ وَارَأْسَاهُ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ذَاكِ لَوْ كَانَ وَاَنَا حَيٌّ فَاَسْتَغْفِرُ لَكِ وَاَدْعُوْ لَكِ فَقَالَتْ عَائِشَةُ وَاثُكْلَيَاهُ وَاللّٰهِ اِنِّيْ لَاَظُنُّكَ تُحِبُّ مَوْتِيْ فَلَوْ كَانَ ذٰلِكَ لَظَلِلْتَ اٰخِرَ يَوْمِكَ مُعَرِّسًا بِبَعْضِ اَزْوَاجِكَ فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بَلْ اَنَا وَارَأْسَاهُ لَقَدْ هَمَمْتُ اَوْ اَرَدْتُ اَنْ اُرْسِلَ اِلٰى اَبِيْ بَكْرٍ وَابْنِهٖ وَاَعْهَدَ اَنْ يَّقُوْلَ الْقَائِلُوْنَ اَوْ يَتَمَنَّى الْمُتَمَنُّوْنَ ثُمَّ قُلْتُ يَاْبَى اللّٰهُ وَيَدْفَعُ الْمُؤْمِنُوْنَ اَوْ يَدْفَعُ اللّٰهُ وَيَاْبَى الْمُؤْمِنُوْنَ۔ (رواه البخاری)

5970.Sayyiduna Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that she complained, "O my head!" (when she had headache). Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم comforted her, "If meaning, you death), took place while I am alive, I shall seek forgiveness for you and make supplication for you (to be raised in rank)." Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا said, "O my pain! By Allah, I think you hope for my death. If that takes place, you would spend that night with one of your wives (gong to her in the last part of that day).:" The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Rather, I should complain! I had resolved – or, had intended – to call for Abu Bakr and his son (your father and brother) and make him my caliph so that people may not begin to talk[1] - or may not hope for that office and began to claim leadership. Then I thought that Allah will not want anything else and the believers will present anything else." – or "Allah will prevent that anything else should happen and the believers will not want anything else."[2]

COMMENTARY: It seems that this thing happened during the illness of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. some scholars say that Sayyiduna Ayshsh رضی اللہ عنہ complained about her overall condition when she said 'O my head! Alluding to her death.

The next expression (واثكلياه), translated 'O my pain,.' Actually means death of a son or a friend. Here she refers to her own life. This word is used by the Arabs when they face an anxiety. Her words, 'You hope for my death' were playful and show the love between the two of them.

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said to her that she ought to look at his anxiety about his caliphs. He had learnt through revelation that his headache was a portent of his death, while her headache was coincidental and fortuitous. The similarity of their illness was an indication of their perfect love for one another.

PROPHET'S RESOLVE: When Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا complained of her fear of death to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, it was natural to think of who would fill the vacuum created by his death and lead the people through their religious and worldly affairs. The prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم gave a broad hint that Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ would be his khalifah (caliph). His intention was to please Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا thereby and to give her the glad tidings (that her father would be the caliph).

The Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم words at this moment mean that, once he nominated Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ as his caliph, people will have no cause to interfere.

Those words of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم may also be translated (besides what is given in the text). "Lest people say something." The implication in this case would be:

"This intention of mine is based on the reason t ht if I do not nominate Abu Bakr for the major caliphate (to lead people in their religious and worldly affairs) then people might say, 'Allah's Messenger thought it enough to nominate Abu Bakr for the minor caliphate (to act as imam for the salah). Why did he not nominate him for the major caliphate?' But, there is a word to the wise in the minor caliphate that the major caliphate follows automatically."

WHY DID HE NOT ENFORCE HIS IDEA: Then he did not implement his resolve because he knew that the decree of Allah would be exactly that Abu Bakr would be caliph after him. Secondly, the Muslims would endorse the caliphate of Abu Bakr willingly, having seen that he deputized as imam for congregational salah during the prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم illness. This is enough evidence that he was eligible - more than anyone else - to carry the burden of overall leadership (major caliphate).

Therefore, when it is according to Divine decree and the Muslims would not be prepared to opt for anyone else as caliph, there was no need to make a will for Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه as the caliph.

Indeed, that is what happened. When the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم died, Allah created an atmosphere congenial to selection of Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه as the first caliph. When some people differed to some extend, Sayyiduna Ali رضي الله عنه spoke in favour of Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه citing the minor caliphate (as imam of the congregation). He said, "since the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم elected Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه for our religious affairs, why may we not select him for our worldly affairs?' In fact, there can be no stronger evidence in favaour of the caliphate of Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه than this argument.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم words that the Muslims too will not agree on anyone else, give an obvious, strong indication of Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه as caliph. These words also refute those who do not regard Abu Bakr's رضي الله عنه caliphate as justified.

BEGINNING OF THE PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم FINAL ILNESS

(٥٩٧١) وَعَنْهَا رَجَعَ اِلَيَّ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ذَاتَ يَوْمٍ مِنْ جَنَازَةٍ مِنَ الْبَقِيْعِ فَوَجَدَنِيْ وَاَنَا اَجِدُ صُدَاعًا وَاَنَا يَاعَائِشَةُ وَارَأْسَاهُ قَالَ وَمَا ضَرَّكِ لَوْ مُتِّ قَبْلِيْ فَغَسَّلْتُكِ وَكَفَّنْتُكِ وَصَلَّيْتُ عَلَيْكِ وَدَفَنْتُكِ قُلْتُ لَكَاَنِّيْ بِكَ وَاللّٰهِ لَوْ فَعَلْتَ ذٰلِكَ لَرَجَعْتَ اِلٰى بَيْتِيْ فَعَرَّسْتَ فِيْهِ بِبَعْضِ نِسَائِكَ فَتَبَسَّمَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ثُمَّ بُدِئَ فِيْ وَجْعِهِ الَّذِيْ مَاتَ فِيْهِ. (رواه البخاری)

5971. Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها said, "Allah's Messenger رضي الله عنه returned to me one day from (the graveyard of Madinah) al-Baqi from a funeral (after burial). He found me suffering from a headache. I was saying. 'O My head!' He said, 'O Ayshsh, (do not worry about yourself) rather, I have a headache.' Then (very lovingly) he said, 'It will not hurt you if you die before me. I shall bathe you, should you and offer the (funeral) salah over you and bury you." I said 'But, I see you already, by Allah, were you to do all that you would, nevertheless, return to my house and spend the night in it with one of your other wives.

Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم smiled. But, thereafter the illness that led to his death began."[1]

COMMENTARY: If Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها had died during the lifetime of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, then certainly she would have had the good fortune and exceptional rank which she did not get by surviving him.

5972. Sayyiduna (Imam) Ja'far (sadiq) ibn Muhammad رحمه الله reported that his father (Imam Muhammad Baqir) رحمه الله narrated that a man of a Quraysh visited his father, (Imam) Ail Zayn ul-Aabideen) ibn Husayn رحمه الله (grandson of Sayyiduna Ali رضي الله عنه. He (Imam Ali Zayn-ul Aabideen) رحمه الله said to him, "Shall I narrate to you a hadith of Allah's Messenger [1] صلى الله عليه وسلم

The man (who visited him) agreed., 'Of course, do narrate to us the hadith of Abu al-Qasim (Muhammad) رضي الله عنه.

So, he (Imam Ali Zayn ul Aabideen) narrated: When Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم became ill, Jibril عليه السلام came to him (with Allah's Message) and said, 'O Muhammad, Allah has sent me to you to honour and esteem you exclusively, and to ask you of something that He knows better than you do; how are you feeling?" He said 'O Jibri . I find myself grieved and, O Jibril, I find myself distressed." He (departed anc) came to him the next day and spoke as he had spoken (on the first day) and the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم gave him the same answer as he had given on the first day. Then he came to him on the third day and spoke to him as he had spoken on the first day and he gave the same response as he had done (on the first day). And an angel came along with him (on the third day or later) by the name of Isma'il عليه السلام. He is the commander over one hundred thousand angels each of whom commands one hundred thousand angels. He sought permission to enter (and he gave permission) and asked about him. Jibril عليه السلام said "He is the angel of death (Izra'il) عليه السلام who has come too and seeks permission to enter, though he has never sought anyone's permission before nor will ever do so again from any human being, after you." He said, Let him come." So, he permitted him and he offered salaam and said, 'O Muhammad, Allah has sent me to you. If you command me to take your soul, I shall do it, but if you command me to spare it, I shall spare it." He asked, "Will you do that, O angel of death? He said, "Yes That is what I have been commanded. And I un commanded to obey you."

He (Zayd ul Aabideen) رحمه الله said that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم looked at JIbril عليه السلام and Jibril عليه السلام said, "Allah loves to meet you, O Muhammad." So, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said to the angel of death (without hesitation),"Do what you have been commanded to do." So, he took his soul.

When Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم died and condolence poured in (consoling the people of his household), they heard a voice from the corner of the house. The speaker said, "Peace be on you, O people of the house, and Allah's mercy and His blessings (and also those who are present here). In (the Book or the religion of) Allah, there is comfort for every distress. There is a recompense for everyone who perishes and amends for everything that passes away. So with the help of Allah, Observe taqwa (and guard yourselves) place hopes in Him. He indeed is the stricken (in difficulty) who is deprived of reward."

(Imam) Ali (Zayn ul-Aabideen) رحمه الله asked "can you imagine who he was? He was khidr [1]عليه السلام.

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told Jibril عليه السلام that he was grieved and distressed. This concerned his ummah's future. How they would fare and behave.

The ulama say about the angel Isma'il عليه السلام that he is the keeper of the lowest heaven.

The hadith does not mention when the angel of death, Izra'il عليه السلام came. Since his coming at that time was obvious so it is not mentioned. Or, he may have come after the arrival of Jibril عليه السلام and Isma'il عليه السلام exactly when Jibril عليه السلام announced his arrival and sought permission on his behalf.

Suyuti رحمه الله has cited a tradition from Bayhaqi itself that when Jibril عليه السلام come on the third day, he had with him the angel of death. There was with the two of them another angel in their called Isma'il عليه السلام He was appointed commander over seventy thousand angels each of whom commanded seventy thousand angels on their own.

In reference to the words of the hadith that the angel of death took the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم soul, Shaykh Abdul Haq رحمه الله writes that JIbril عليه السلام the angel of death and the third angel Ismail عليه السلام had the conversation with the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم when they finished the conversation, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was given some respite to enable him to narrate to his sahabah رضي الله عنهم this hadith. After that the angel of death took away his soul. Or, this entire happening of the unseen world was revealed to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم sahabah رضي الله عنهم who were present there as a Chrisma. One of them may have narrated it to Imam Ali Zayn ul aabiden رحمه الله who has identified him as a man of qurahsh. But, our own idea is that Khidr عليه السلام himself came to Zayn ul Aabideen رحمه الله in the garb of a man of Quraysh and narrated the hadith to him. This is why imam Ali Zayn ul-Aabideeen رحمه الله did not name the narrator directly.

According to one tradition narrated by Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضي الله عنها, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم repeated these words at the time of his death:

اَلصَّلٰوةَ وَمَا مَلَكَتْ اَيْمَانُكُمْ

"Be mindful of the salah and your slaves." The Arabic words in the hadith (In Allah there is comfort) (ان في الله عزاء) are interpreted in different ways. One opinion is that they really men 'In Allah's Book there is comfort.' There is guidance to tackle this situation in Allah's Book. As it were, these words refer to the words of the Quran:

وَبَشِّرِ الصَّابِرِيْنَ الَّذِيْنَ اِذَآ اَصَابَتْهُمْ مُّصِيْبَةٌ قَالُوْٓا اِنَّا لِلّٰهِ وَاِنَّآ اِلَيْهِ رَاجِعُوْنَ

{And give glad tidings to the persevering who, when an affliction befalls them, say, "Surely we belong to Allah and to Him we are to return"} (2:155-156)

Another opinion is that (في الله) have the word (دين) implicit to mean (في دين الله) that is, 'in Allah's religion there is comfort' in the form of patience and perseverance.

If the words are read as they are (في الله) then 'Allah has comfort...' He gives patience, comfort and consolation at the time of distress and trouble.

In the terminology of elocution, this is called (تجريد). Tajreed (abstraction). An example of this type of construction is:

رَاَيْتُ فِيْ زَيْدٍ اَسَدًا

"I saw in Zayd a lion."

It means Zayd was strong and courageous like a lion.

The concluding words of the hadith: 'There is a recompense for everyone who perishes and amends for everything that passes away," May also be; 'In Allah's religion or in Allah's Book there is enough teaching of the kind which if abided by, man may turn the most severe deprival or the greatest loss into a blessed recompense which is a reward and bounty in the hereafter."

The next words are 'observe (or adopt) taqwa with Allah's commands and decree willingly and with his help observe patience. Refrain from impatience and restlessness. These words as enough exhort one to put into practice these words of Allah.

وَاصْبِرْ وَمَا صَبْرُكَ اِلَّا بِاللّٰهِ

{And endure you patiently and yet your patience is but from Allah} (16:127)

According to another version, instead of the word (فاتقوا) observe taqwa there is the word (فثقوا) which would mean 'rely on Allah alone. (It is as in al Hism al-Haseen)[1]

This is reminiscent of Allah's saying:

---

[1] Al Hisn al Haseen p 358/9 (Ashiq Elahi's commentary) and 228/9 (Idris Mirathi) both Darul Isha'at Karachi.

وَتَوَكَّلْ عَلَى الْحَيِّ الَّذِي لَا يَمُوتُ

{And put your trust in the Ever-Living who dies not} (25:58)

Place hope in Him. Do not place hope in anyone else, for, hope may be placed in the one who is worshipped and no one but Allah is worshipped.

Have full hope for the reward against patience that is due to you from Allah.

If anyone is deprived of reward then he is the one who is really afflicted with difficulty, not the person who faces worldly hardship. The point is that if anyone preserves in the face of worldly difficulty then he can earn a large reward, but if anyone is impatient then he will receive no reward and will thus be deprived.

It should be clear that patience is valid in Allah's sight only if it is observed at their first strike of difficulty or grief. Sayyiduna Ail رضي الله عنه said, 'It was the explanation of the strange, unknown voice that emanated from a corner of the house." He said that the voice belonged to Khidr عليه السلام who had come to offer condolence to the people of the Prophet عليه السلام household and the sahabah رضي الله عنهم we deduce from the apparent context of the passage that "Ali" here means the amir ul mumineen, Sayyiduna Ali رضي الله عنه who was present there at that time. However, we cannot write off the possibility that he was the narrator of the hadith Imam Ali Zayn ul-Aabideen رحمه الله himself and he may have thrown light on the source of he voice while narrating the hadith.

MUSTADRAK & AL-HISN AL-HASEEN: Al-Hism al-Haseen has cited mustadrak (Haakim) for this tradition:

"When the soul of Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم departed to the higher world the angels offered condolence (from an invisible place) to the ahlul bayt رضي الله عنهم (People of the household of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and the sahabah رضي الله عنهم (his companions)." (The words of condolence are as in the text of the hadith, but we reproduce here he words of Al-Hisn al-Haseen p 278 translation of Mawlana Rafeq ibn Mawlana Ahmadd Hathuami, published by Dar ul Isha'at, Karachi).

> [Peace be on you and the mercy of Allah and His blessings. Surely, Allah grants sabr (patience) in all misfortunes and he along grants a substitute for anything lost. Hence, rely on Allah alone and have hope in Him alone, for only that person is a loser in the true sense of the word who loses (his) reward and thawaab.[1] And he peace of Allah be upon you and His mercy and His blessings]

Then, a second tradition is narrated:

[After the death of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, a grey haired, strong, handsome man came suddenly leaping over the shoulders of the people till he came near to the body of Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم He wept bitterly, turned towards the sahabah رضي الله عنهم and said:

"Surely in Allah's Book of Allah's religion there is comfort from every distress..."

Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه and Ali رضي الله عنه informed those present there that he was Khidr] عليه السلام[2]

This tradition also establishes that 'Ali' in the hadith is Sayyiduna Ali رضي الله عنه not Imam Ali Zayn ul-Aabideen رحمه الله.

---

[2] Both traditions are transmitted by Haakim. The first is narrated by Jabir رضي الله عنه and the second by Anas رضي الله عنه.

SECTION I الفصل الاول

THE PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم LEFT NO WILL AT ALL

(٥٩٧٣) عَنْ عَآئِشَةَ قَالَتْ مَاتَرَكَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ دِيْنَارًا وَّلَا دِرْهَمًا وَّ لَا شَاةً وَّلَا بَعِيْرًا وَّلَا أَوْصٰى بِشَيْءٍ۔ (رواه مسلم)

5973. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها said that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم did not leave behind (after his death) a dinar or a dirham, or a sheep or a camel. And, he did not make a will for anything whatsoever.[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم made no will of a monetary nature. He had no wealth or property and so the Question of a will did not arise. As for the land of Banu Nadir and Fidak and so on, he had made a sadaqah (charity) of it for all Muslim during his life time. He drew from that only enough he for maintenance of his family.

Nawawi رحمه الله has cited another tradition that when some people pointed out to Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها that it is being said that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had nominated Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه in his will, she expressed surprise and said, "When did he make a will? I was with him till he died resting all the while on my chest. If he had nominated Ali رضى الله عنه as his heir to receive his property or to act as guardian over that then who would have known more of it than I? They who say so are wrong. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not make anyone an heir."

The hadith speaks of monetary inheritance with its words (ولا اوصى بشئ) "And he did not make a will for anything..." the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not make a will for his property – neither one third of it nor more or less than that, because he had neither wealth nor property.

Also, he never made a will for Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه for anyone else, as the Shi'a have a wrong idea.

As for making a will concerning the Book of Allah had receiving deputations and envoys warmly, this is an entirely different matter. It does not contradict the words of this hadith that he did not make a will for anything (ولا اوصى بشيء)

Some books of Sirah say that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had many camel, ten she camels. They were kept in the outskirts of Madinah. People milked the she camels and brought their milk every night. Also he had seven sheep whose milk he drank. This tradition is not of any degree as may contradict the hadith under discussion. Besides, even if we say that the aforementioned tradition is sound (and sahih) then it will be believed that the camels etc were property of sadaqah. Their milk was served to the ahl us-suffah and other needy and poor people.

(٥٩٧٤) وَعَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ الْحَارِثِ اَخِيْ جُوَيْرِيَةَ قَالَ مَاتَرَكَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عِنْدَ مَوْتِهٖ دِيْنَارًا

---

وَّلَا دِرْهَمًا وَّلَا عَبْدًا وَّلَا اَمَةً وَّلَا شَيْئًا اِلَّا بَغْلَتَهُ الْبَيْضَاءَ وَسِلَاحَهُ وَاَرْضًا جَعَلَهَا صَدَقَةً۔ (رواه البخاری)

5974. Sayyiduna Amr ibn Harith رضی الله عنه brother of Sayyidah Juwayriyah رضی الله عنها (who was the mother of the believers), said that, at the time of his death, Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم did not leave behind a dinar or a dirham, neither male nor female slave - or any other thing. But, he had a white she mule (called daldal which the Muqawquis of Iskandariyah had presented to him). Some weapons and some land which he had given away as sadaqah.[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم had no slave or slave woman whom he may have owned as a property. The slaves of the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم mentioned in some ahadith may have been emancipated by him in his life time or they may have died before he died.

The weapons that he had were those that were in his personal use. They included swords, spears, helmets, armours spiked spears, sticks, etc. According to one tradition, he had only an armour at the time of his death and it was mortgaged with a jew.

These things mentioned in the hadith are apart from items of daily use like clothing and simple essential things in the house. They are not counted as wealth and property. It is known that he had left some clothing and other ordinary material of use.

The words that the prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم made a sadaqah of that mean all those things mentioned in hadith - mule, weapons and land, not merely the last named, land. But, Asqalani رحمه الله wrote that he had dedicated the revenue from the land to sadaqah. This means that the sadaqah or charity was waqf (endowment). In other words, the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم had set aside the revenue of his land as a perpetual charity during his life time. As long as the land remains, will continue to be consigned to the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم. As for the remaining things, they went to charity on his death necessary (as a sequeal to his death).

Allamah Kirmani رحمه الله writes in Sharh Bukhari that the land comprised half the land of wadi Qura. One fifth of the land of Khaybar and the portion of the land property of Banu Nadir that he had set aside for himself.

The sadaqah was made of all three things, not the land only. This is borne out by the hadith: 'We prophet do not leave inheritance, what we leave is sadaqah (charity)."

PROPHET'S صلی الله علیه وسلم HEIRS HAD NO SHARE

(٥٩٧٥) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَا يَقْتَسِمُ وَرَثَتِيْ دِيْنَارًا مَاتَرَكْتُ بَعْدَ نَفَقَةِ نِسَائِيْ وَمُؤْنَةِ عَامِلِيْ فَهُوَ صَدَقَةٌ۔ (متفق علیه)

5975. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "After my death, my heirs will not divide dinars (among themselves). Whatever I leave will all be sadaqah (charity) after providing maintenance to my wives and giving remuneration to the aamil (they who will succeed me.)"[2]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم gave a direct information that he would not leave any dinar or dirham. So, his heirs would have nothing to divide among themselves. Or, he meant that whatever he leaves would not go to his heirs. They should not share it. After that he gave he reason why it was disallowed.

His legacy would bear the maintenance for his wives and the remuneration of the officials who succeed him as his Khulafa. The remaining amount would be disbursed as sadaqah. It must be understood that wives of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم were not subject to the same commands as other woman who observe the iddah (or waiting period), because they were not allowed to remarry after his death. Hence, their expenses and maintenance had to be met from what he left.

As for the word (عامل) aamil, they were those who succeeded him as his caliphs. So his words may be said to mean:

"After me, my legacy should be used to pay the maintenance for my wives, and my caliphs may spend on their needs." The remainder would go to the poor and needy as charity, as he himself used to spend on that account.

.It must be mentioned there that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to meet the expenses on his wives from the income of Safaya. It was his share from the properties of Banu Nadir and included the land of Fidak. All the remaining portion of the income, he spent on the good of the Muslims.

After the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم death, Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ and Umar رضی اللہ عنہ observed this same procedure. But when Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ was caliph and trustee of the Property, being rich himself, he did not depend on the income of this property. So, he handed over all that property to his relatives Marwan and others. They continued to hold the land and property until Umar ibn Abdul Aziz رحمہ اللہ got that back from the heirs of these people and put them back to the same use as was the custom before Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ.

PROPHETS علیہم السلام DO NOT LEAVE INHERITANCE

(٥٩٧٦) وَعَنْ أَبِيْ بَكْرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا نُوْرَثُ مَا تَرَكْنَاهُ صَدَقَةٌ۔ (متفق علیہ)

5976. Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "We (Prophet) leave no inheritance. That which we leave is sadaqah."[1]

COMMENTARY: What the Prophets علیہم السلام leave is not inheritance and is not the property of the heirs. That is sadaqah for the poor and needy. The Sufis say that a faqir (poor man) is he who owns nothing. That which the Prophets علیہم السلام have seems to be theirs, but, in fact, it is a trust placed with them or an endowment or a sadaqah entrusted to them. This is why neither are they inherited nor is anyone their heir. Since they leave no inheritance, no one succeeding them or left behind by them has any opportunity to claim share from what they leave and be pleased with their death.

According to traditions, Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ narrated this hadith when Sayyidah Fatimah رضی اللہ عنہا demanded inheritance. He said to her, 'I am the Khalifah of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. I shall spend what he has left on the same causes on which he used to spend. And, I shall sympathise with you in the same manner as Allah's Messenger used to do, as for this hadith, I had heard it from Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم myself. He had said, 'The prophets do not leave an inheritance."

Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ said the same thing to the wives of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم who had demanded an inheritance.

He had not taken this decision on his own. Rather, he had consulted all the senior sahibah رضی

---

رضی اللہ عنہم. when all of them agreed unanimously that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم leave no inheritance, saying that they had heard the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say so, Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ took the decision.

PEOPLE WHO ARE SHOWN MERCY & WHO ARE PUNISHED

(٥٩٧٧) وَعَنْ أَبِي مُوسٰى عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَنَّهُ قَالَ إِنَّ اللّٰهَ إِذَا أَرَادَ رَحْمَةَ أُمَّةٍ مِنْ عِبَادِهٖ قَبَضَ نَبِيَّهَا قَبْلَهَا فَجَعَلَهُ لَهَا فَرَطًا وَسَلَفًا بَيْنَ يَدَيْهَا وَإِذَا أَرَادَ هَلَكَةَ أُمَّةٍ عَذَّبَهَا وَنَبِيُّهَا حَيٌّ فَأَهْلَكَهَا وَهُوَ يَنْظُرُ فَأَقَرَّ عَيْنَيْهِ بِهَلَكَتِهَا حِيْنَ كَذَّبُوْهُ وَعَصَوْا أَمْرَهٗ ۔ (رواه مسلم)

5977. Sayyiduna Abu Musa رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Surely, when Allah decides to show mercy to an ummah among His slaves, He takes away their prophet before them. He makes him an harbinger (who precedes to the destination to receive them). He goes ahead of them. But, when he (Allah) decides to destroy as ummah, He punishes them during his life time. He destroys them and the Prophet sees them (being destroyed). He cools his eyes by their destruction, because they had disbelieved him and disobeyed his commands."[1]

DESIRE TO LOOK AT THE PROPHET صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم

(٥٩٧٨) وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَالَّذِيْ نَفْسُ مُحَمَّدٍ بِيَدِهٖ لَيَأْتِيَنَّ عَلٰى أَحَدِكُمْ يَوْمٌ وَلَا يَرَانِيْ ثُمَّ لَأَنْ يَرَانِيْ أَحَبُّ إِلَيْهِ مِنْ أَهْلِهٖ وَمَالِهٖ مَعَهُمْ ۔ (رواه مسلم)

5978. Sayyiduna Abu Hurahray رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "By Him in whose hand is the soul of Muhammad, a day will come to you when one of you will not see me. Then, a glimpse of me will be dearer to him then his family and his property together with them."[2]

COMMENTARY: These words of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم could refer to seeing him during his life time. It is the love of the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم who would become eager to see him if they missed him any day.

They might also mean that even after his death, his ummah will continue to love him and believe in him with undiminished favour. They would cherish a keen desire to see him in their dream or in a state of awakening.

The second meaning seems nearer to the words of the hadith. It is this zeal that throws these lovers into ecstasy. They long to have a glimpse of their beloved Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم.

CHAPTER - XXVIII

MERIT OF QURAHSH & MENTION OF THE TRIBES بَابُ مَنَاقِبِ قُرَيْشٍ وَذِكْرِ الْقَبَائِلِ

The word manaqib is the plural of manqabh which means 'virtue.' 'commendable traits, excellence.

'Quraysh' is the name of a famous tribe of the Arabs. Lexically, (قریش) means a shark, a whale. Quraysh was the nickname of Nadr ibnKinanah (or, Fahr ibn Maalik ibn Nadr) whose progeny divided into innumerable branches and were called by the nickname of their forefather, Quraysh.

The word (قبائل) qaba'il is the plural of qabilah. It means tribes or 'children of a father,' Here, the mention of the tribes implies their characteristics, good traits and evil habits or acts.

SECTION I الْفَصْلُ الْأَوَّلُ

MERIT OF QURAYSH

(٥٩٧٩) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ النَّاسُ تَبَعٌ لِقُرَيْشٍ فِي هٰذَا الشَّأْنِ مُسْلِمُهُمْ تَبَعٌ لِمُسْلِمِهِمْ وَكَافِرُهُمْ تَبَعٌ لِكَافِرِهِمْ. (متفق عليه)

5979. Sayyiduna Abu Hurahrah رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "The people emulate the Quraysh in this matter (of religion). Their Muslims are leaders of (all non-Quraysh) Muslims and their disbelievers (are leaders) of (all non-Quraysh) disbelievers."[1]

COMMENTARY: The words 'this mater refer to religion (and Shari'ah) whether It is followed or not. The quraysh are precursors. This is in the sense that religion (of Islam) was introduced among the Quraysh and they were the first to believe and other people emulated them. Besides, the Quraysh were also the fiercest of enemies of Islam who opposed the religion before anyone and put up obstructions to the path of the believers. Others modeled themselves on their path.

Before the conquest of Makkah, all the people of 'Arabia had their eyes on the Quraysh of Makkah. They waited for them to embrace Islam. When, after the conquest of Makkah, the Quraysh become Muslims, all of the others came into the fold of Islam one after the other. This is evident from the surah an-Nasr (# 110).

In short, the Quraysh had the privilege of being leaders and examples both during the days of ignorance and after the spread of Islam. But, their leadership has the symbol of excellence and merit only in Islam, not when they were infidels.

Without applying the symbol of Excellence and merit, we may say that the saying of the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم is about their absolute leadership and rule whether in affairs of the world or matters of religion. Even during the days of ignorance, the Quraysh of Makkah were leader of all the tribes of Arabia not only form the worldly point of view but they also enjoyed distinction in religious matters, like being trustees of the house of Allah, keepers of its key, distributors of water, and so on.

Some scholars have said that the implication of 'this matter' is the major leadership and office of caliphate. This is mentioned explicitly in other ahadith. So, this saying calls for accepting the leadership of the Quraysh and obeying them. But if anyone does not abide by this saying of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and does not accept the leadership of the Quraysh and does not obey them, then in no way, does it deter the others from obeying the prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم command. His saying stresses that the Quraysh are qualified for leadership and can rule irrespective of anyone accepting and obeying them.

THE QURAYSH ARE LEADERS

(٥٩٨٠) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ النَّاسُ تَبَعٌ لِقُرَيْشٍ فِي الْخَيْرِ وَالشَّرِّ۔ (راوه مسلم)

5980.Sayyiduna Jabir رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said. "The people are emulators of the Quraysh in god and evil."[1]

COMMENTARY: The word 'good' in the hadith refers to Islam. And, the word 'evil' refers to disbelief. This is explained against the previous hadith # 5979).

EXCLUSIVELY PRIVILEGE OF THE QURAYSH FOR CALIPHATE

(٥٩٨١) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَا يَزَالُ هٰذَا الْاَمْرُ فِي قُرَيْشٍ مَا بَقِيَ مِنْهُمُ اثْنَانِ۔ (متفق عليه)

5981. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "This matter (of caliphate) will not cease to remain in the Quraysh even if two of them survive."[2]

(Or, the prerogative will be of the Quraysh even if there are two other man besides the caliph.)

COMMENTARY: Since the Quraysh are more worthy than others, caliphate must remain in them always. It is not allowed by Shari'ah to make anyone other than a Quraysh a caliph. There was unanimity on this issue in the time of the sahabah رضى الله عنهم. When some ansar sahabah رضى الله عنهم claimed right of the ansar to caliphate, the emigrant (or muhajir) sahabah رضى الله عنهم cited this hadith as evidence for their right.

In fact, to emphasize his words the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Even if two men survive." Caliphate will romain in the Quraysh. One of them will act as caliph and the other will be his subject. (Or, the words mean two man as the subjects of the caliph). In any case, a Quraysh will act as caliph.

Hawawi رحمه الله has written that it is not permitted to make a non Quraysh a caliph. There was unanimous agreement on this issue even after the sahabah رضى الله عنهم. Some of those who divert from the unanimous path of the ahl us-sunnah wa al-jama'ah, (meaning the innovators) and disagree with this ruling should know that the sahabah رضى الله عنهم were of one mind that caliphate should rest in the Quraysh.

Nawawi رحمه الله has also written that in this saying the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that this command will remain operative till the last days even when two men survive. And, whatever the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said has come out true. Till today, caliphate remains with the Quraysh and they are supreme.

However, Nawawis's رحمه الله conclusions are not borne out by facts. The caliphate of the Quraysh continued till his time but did not remai· ...ق in he entire Islamic world. For a little over two hundred years, the Quraysh were caliphs and imams over most of the Islamic regions and cities, but after that the cry of self government and independence replaced them with native rulers and kings.
We may say, therefore, that the saying of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is a command not a disclosure. Whoever follows Islam and has faith is bound to accept the Quraysh as his chief. He must obey them and not turn away from their leadership.
We may also say that this saying of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم must be understood by its obvious meaning, but with the proviso:
(ماقاموا الدين) - 'as long as they abide by the religion.'
This provisio is expressed in the next hadith (# 5982). In this case, the hadith would read:

"The office of caliphate will rest in the Quraysh as long as they keep to religion and keep it alive."

Indeed, this is what happened. As long as they kept the caliphate subservient to religion and occupied themselves in the service and propagation of Islam, they did not lose the office of the caliphate. But, when they became indifferent to religion and did not hesitate to perpetrate the unlawful and the forbidden, showing utter disrespect to religion, the reins of caliphate were snatched from their hands and given over to non Quraysh.

PRIVILEGE OF THE QURAYSH IS SUBJECT TO OBSERVING RELIGION

(٥٩٨٢) وَعَنْ مُعَاوِيَةَ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ إِنَّ هٰذَا الْأَمْرَ فِيْ قُرَيْشٍ لَا يُعَادِيْهِمْ أَحَدٌ إِلَّا كَبَّهُ اللّٰهُ عَلٰى وَجْهِهٖ مَا أَقَامُوا الدِّيْنَ۔ (رواه البخاری)

5982. Sayyiduna Mu'awiyah رضی الله عنه said, "I heard Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم say, 'This matter (caliphate) will remain in the Quraysh as long as they abide by Quraysh as long as they abide by religion. No one will antagonize them without Allah turning him upside down."[1]

COMMENTARY: The objective of caliphate is to establish religion so, as long as the Quraysh stick to that, Allah will let them lead others. But, when they become derelict, they will become liable to be thrown out. Some exponents say that establish salah).
Some authorities say that the aim of the hadith is to exhort the Quraysh to establish salah.

TWELVE CALIPHS FROM THE QURAYSH

(٥٩٨٣) وَعَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ سَمُرَةَ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ لَا يَزَالُ الْإِسْلَامُ عَزِيْزًا إِلَى اثْنَيْ عَشَرَ خَلِيْفَةً كُلُّهُمْ مِنْ قُرَيْشٍ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ لَا يَزَالُ أَمْرُ النَّاسِ مَاضِيًا مَا وَلِيَهُمُ اثْنَا عَشَرَ رَجُلًا كُلُّهُمْ مِنْ قُرَيْشٍ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ لَا يَزَالُ الدِّيْنُ قَائِمًا حَتّٰى تَقُوْمَ السَّاعَةُ أَوْ يَكُوْنَ عَلَيْهِمُ اثْنَا عَشَرَ خَلِيْفَةً كُلُّهُمْ مِنْ قُرَيْشٍ۔ (متفق عليه)

5983. Sayyiduna Jabir ibn Samurah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say, "Islam will not cease to be mighty till twelve caliphs pass away. All of them will Quraysh."

According to another version: "The affairs of the people will not cease to be smooth till they are ruled by twelve man, all of whom will be Quraysh."

According to another version: "Religion will not cease to be established till the Last Hour strikes and twelve caliphs rule over them, all of whom being Quraysh."[1]

COMMENTARY: Not only different opinions are expressed abut this hadith, but it also rises some questions. The hadith seems to suggest that there would be twelve caliphs succeeding each others immediately after the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم They will be pious men and there times will be prosperous and they will be just and kind to their subjects." But this was not so. There were among the Banu Murwan dynasty, such caliphs whose life and character bare no resemblance to religion and were not in consonance with its teachings. Their cruel and oppressive acts caused severe damage to Islam, and the Muslims, had to endure terrible problems.

Moreover, there is a sound hadith that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The caliphate will continue to be established for thirty years after me. There after, tyranny and oppression will be the order of the day through cruel kings." The ulama say that the governments that were established after thirty years cannot be called caliphate but were monarchies and authoritarian rule. Hence, this is a serious doubt. The ulama have offered various opinions to resolve this difficulty.

FIRST OPINION: The twelve caliphs are the twelve men who took the seat of caliphate, government and authority after the Prophet death. During their reign, the condition of the Muslims was good and the subjects were happy through some of these leaders were oppressive and very unjust. Terrible discord and termoil were witnessed in the time of walid ibn Yazid ibn Abdul Malik ibn Marwan who was the twelfth of these men. He became ruler on the death of his uncle Hisham ibn Abdul Malik. In the beginning, people accepted his rule. But after four years people revolted against him and killed him. From that day on, the situation changed and mischief spread in a heavily charged manner. This is what Qadi Iyad Maalik رحمہ اللہ said. Allama Ibn Hajar Asqalani رحمہ اللہ supported this opinion, saying that this is the most preferable. He said that this is borne out by these words reported in this very hadith in some version of it.

كُلُّهُمْ يَجْتَمِعُ عَلَيْهِ اَمْرُ النَّاسِ

"All of them whom the people supported unanimously"

It means they gave them pledge of allegiance unanimously and accepted their leadership. Though with dislike. The caliphs whom the hadith praises are not praised for their religion justice and truthfulness, Rather, it is for their administration and steadfastness in governing and unity and unanimity.

As for the sahih hadith in which the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم has said that the caliphate will last for thirty years, the word khalifah in it signifies Khalifah kubra (major caliphate) which in essence are the prophet's caliphs. This hadith, on the other hand, speaks of Khalifah amaarat (authoritarian caliphs). The amirs[2] after the khulafa reshideen[1] were also called caliphs figuratively.

Concerning this first opinion, though Allamah Ibn Hajar رحمه الله has commended it, the words of the hadith (لايزال الاسلام عزيزا) and (لايزال الدين قائما) do not accept this opinion because to be established) express explicit praise of the twelve caliphs, declaring that their times will see religion being established well, truth will prevail and they will just so that Islam will continue to be strong.

SECOND OPINION: The words in the Prophet's saying 'khulafa' (caliphs) refers to the just, pious and righteous caliphs who are truly worthy of being so called. In this sense, the words of the hadith will not imply necessarily that the twelve caliphs would succeed the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم immediately. The hadith perhaps really means to give their number as twelve and they may become caliphs in any age up to the Last Day. Toorpushti said that in the light of other ahadith on the subject as this hadith this opinion is better and appropriate.

THIRD OPINION: The twelve caliphs and amirs mentioned in this hadith are they who would succeed Imam Mahdi عليه السلام as caliphs and amirs. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم who is the true informer gave advance information that during the last days, such twelve Muslims having ancestral relationship with the Quraysh, will become trustees of the government of the Muslims leading them as caliphs. In their times religion will rise at its peak and the glory of Islam will be high. According to another hadith, when Mahdi رحمه الله dies, leadership will go to the hands of five men, one after the other who would be descendants of sabt akbar[2] meaning Imam Hasan رضى الله عنه. After them, the leaders would be five men in succession, being descendants of sabt asghar[3] meaning Imam Husayn رضى الله عنه. The last of them will nominate his successor who will be descendant of Imam Hasan رضى الله عنه. He will be the eleventh man to lead the people. When he dies, his son will succeed him as leader. This makes their number twelve. Each of them would be a just imam and a righteous guide. Who is himself well guided. Each would be just, religious and well wisher of his subjects, most concerned with the well-being of Islam and Muslims. If this hadith is sahih (sound), then it makes the second opinion strong and excellent. There also is the hadith of Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه in which he described Muslim qualities and merit adding, "Allah will remove and wipe off every grief and anxiety during Mahdi's رحمه الله time and with his justice put and end to every oppression and mischief. After him, leadership will go to twelve men, one after the other who will discharge their duty of caliphate for one hundred and fifty years."

FOURTH OPINION: The hadith means that the twelve caliphs will rule in their respective places at the same time, each claiming to be independent of the other, as autonomous caliphs. Their subject would be different groups of people. This opinion is lent support by the tradition that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The time will come after me when there will be caliphs and very many of them." In other words, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that there would be turmoil and widespread discard to the extent that at some time twelve caliphs would each claim to be the true caliphs. This implies that till then Muslims would be united as a single bloc, religion would continue to be established and Islam will continue to prosper as a mighty religion. With the rising of twelve claimants to caliphate chaos and discard strife and unrest would prevail. Muslims would be divided and at loggerheads with each other. However, according to first opinion, Muslims will be prosperous and united till the twelve caliphs have ruled and the upset would occur after their time.

The Sh'ia deduce form this hadith that the twelve caliphs would be from the ahl ul bayt (members of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم household). They may or may not get the office of caliphate even though they may deserve and be worthy of the office. According to them, the first caliphs was Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه followed by Imam Hasan رضى الله عنه, Imam Husayn رضى الله عنه, Sayyiduna Zayn ul Aabideen رحمه الله Sayyiduna Muhammad Baqir, Sayyiduna Ja'far Sadiq رحمه الله, Sayyiduna Musa Kazim رحمه الله, Sayyiduna Ali Rada رحمه الله, Sayyiduna Muhamamd Naqi رحمه الله, Sayyiduna Naqi رحمه الله, Sayyiduna Husayn Askari رحمه الله and Sayyiduna Muhammad Mahdi رحمه الله.[1]

SOME TRIBE OF THE ARABS

(٥٩٨٤) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ غِفَارٌ غَفَرَ اللّٰهُ لَهَا وَأَسْلَمُ سَالَمَهَا اللّٰهُ وَعُصَيَّةُ عَصَتِ اللّٰهَ وَرَسُوْلَهٗ (متفق عليه)

5984. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "(The tribe) Ghifar, may Allah forgive them (meaning, ghafarallahuilaha) (The tribe) Aslam, may Allah keep hem safe (meaning, slaamahallah), And (the tribe) Usayyah has disobeyed (asat) Allah and His Messenger."[2]

COMMENTARY: The Ghifar is a famous tribe of Arabia. Abu Dharr Ghifari رضى الله عنه belonged to this tribe. It is said that during the jahiliyah, its members used to rob the pilgrims. So it was looked upon the pilgrims. So it was looked upon with disdain. This is why the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم prayed to Allah for this tribe that he should erase the bad name it had earned and forgive its members. Then, they entered into the folds of Islam willingly. These words could also be constructed to mean that Allah has written off this tribe's conduct during the days of ignorance. They are forgiven because of their faith and Islam.
The Aslam is another tribe. They had embraced Islam willingly without resistance. So the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم prayed for them that Allah should keep them safe. Here, too, we may say that these words give information that Allah has given them security because they did not pick up weapons against the Muslims.
Usayyah is another of the tribes. They killed the Muslim reciters of the Quran treacherously of Bir Ma'unak. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was grieved and he prayed the qunoot calling cure on them. His words in the hadith merely inform bout them without referring to the prayer. But, the complaint itself sounds the curse and there is no prayer to make them more evil other than that since they were wicked, they may be disgraced in both the worlds[3].

MERIT OF SOME TRIBES

(٥٩٨٥) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قُرَيْشٌ وَّالْاَنْصَارُ وَ جُهَيْنَةُ وَ مُزَيْنَةُ وَاَسْلَمُ وَ غِفَارٌ وَ اَشْجَعُ مَوَالِيَّ لَيْسَ لَهُمْ مَوْلًى دُوْنَ اللّٰهِ وَ رَسُوْلِهٖ۔ (متفق عليه)

5985. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "the (Muslims among the) Quraysh the Ansar (of Madinah), the (Muslims of) Juhaynah, the (Muslim of) Muzaynah, the (Muslims of) Aslam, the (Muslim of) Ghifar and the (Muslim of) Ashja are my friends and supporters. They have no friends and helper other than Allah and His Messenger."[1]

COMMENTARY: The words (موالی) is the governing word of the (first person noun) speaker. The word (ولی) friends is its plural. According to one version, it is simply (موال) without the governing word (ی) my. In that case, the hadith would mean:

TWO ALLIES

(٥٩٨٦) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ بَكْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَسْلَمُ وَ غِفَارٌ وَ مُزَيْنَةُ وَجُهَيْنَةُ خَيْرٌ مِّنْ بَنِيْ تَمِيْمٍ وَمِنْ بَنِيْ عَامِرٍ وَ الْحَلِيْفَيْنِ بَنِيْ اَسَدٍ وَ غَطَفَانَ۔ (متفق عليه)

5986. Sayyiduna Abu Bakrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم sad, "The Aslam, the Ghifar, the Muzaynah nd he Juhaynah are better than the Banu Tamim, the Banu Aamir and the two allies: Banu Asad and Ghatafan."[2]

COMMENTARY: The Last two named are also tribes. They had pledged to be allies the above mentioned tribes are termed better because they precedes the others in Islam. Also, they had good characteristics.

PRAISE OF BANU TAMIM

(٥٩٨٧) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ مَازِلْتُ اُحِبُّ بَنِيْ تَمِيْمٍ مُنْذُ ثَلٰثٍ سَمِعْتُ مِنْ رَّسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ فِيْهِمْ سَمِعْتُهٗ يَقُوْلُ هُمْ اَشَدُّ اُمَّتِيْ عَلَى الدَّجَّالِ قَالَ وَجَاءَتْ صَدَقَاتُهُمْ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ هٰذِهٖ صَدَقَاتُ قَوْمِنَا وَكَانَتْ سَبِيَّةٌ مِّنْهُمْ عِنْدَ عَائِشَةَ فَقَالَ اَعْتِقِيْهَا فَاِنَّهَا مِنْ وُّلْدِ اِسْمٰعِيْلَ۔ (متفق عليه)

5987. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ said, "I have not ceased to love the Banu Tamim ever since I heard of their three virtues from Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم I heard him say (about them), "they will be the most courageous fighters among my ummah against the dajjal."
He also narrated (that their second virtue was observed) when they brought their sadaqah (meaning zakah), Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "These are the sadaqah brought by our people (Their third virtue was that) Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا had a woman captive who belonged to them. He (the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, 'Set free, for, she is a descendent of Isma'il'[3].

COMMENTARY: When the accursed dajjal makes his appearance, the members of Banu Tamim will fight him most courageously and punishing. They will do their best to disable him and will ahead of all others in rejecting and contradicting him. In these words there also is their information that Banu Tamim will be in large numbers even when the dajjal emerges. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم also honoured Banu Tamim when he called them 'our people'

The female captive (or slaev) belonged to Banu Tamim. So she was of Arab descent. The Arabs are children of Prophet Isma'il علیہ السلام so she too was descended from him. Actually, all Arabs are descended from Prophet Ismai'il علیہ السلام not merely Banu tamim, but the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used these particular words to honour and esteem the Banu Tamim.

SECTION II — اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِي

DO NOT HUMILIATE THE QURAYSH

(٥٩٨٨) وَعَنْ سَعِيْدٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَنْ يُّرِدْ هَوَانَ قُرَيْشٍ اَهَانَهُ اللّٰهُ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

5988. Sayyiduna Sa'd رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If anyone wishes that the Quraysh should be disgraced then he will be disgraced by Allah."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Quraysh should be honoured and respected in every case, all circumstances. To try to dishonour and disgrace them is to invite Allah's wrath. This applies whether they occupy the office of caliphate or not. They are close to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and this is their exclusive merit and honour.

PRAYER FOR THE QURAYSH

(٥٩٨٩) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَللّٰهُمَّ اَذَقْتَ اَوَّلَ قُرَيْشٍ نَكَالًا فَاَذِقْ اٰخِرَهُمْ نَوَالًا۔ (رواه الترمذی)

5989. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ said that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم prayed, "O Allah, you caused the Quraysh to initially taste punishment (by having them defeated at Badr and in the Battle of Ahzab when they opposed the true religion and antagonized your Messenger). Now (while they have embraced Islam and obeyed you Messenger so). Bestow on the last of them you favour and reward.[2]

EXCELLENCE OF TWO TRIBE OF YEMEN

(٥٩٩٠) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ عَامِرِنِ الْاَشْعَرِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نِعْمَ الْحَيُّ الْاَسْدُ وَالْاَشْعَرُوْنَ لَا يَفِرُّوْنَ فِي الْقِتَالِ وَلَا يَغُلُّوْنَ وَهُمْ مِنِّيْ وَاَنَا مِنْهُمْ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

5990.Sayyiduna Abu Aamir Al-Ash'ary رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said,. "How excellent are the (tribe) Asad and the Ash'ary! They donot flee while fighting (the infidels) and they do not cheat in the spoils (of war). They belong to me and I to them."[3]

COMMENTARY: Asad was the name of the father of a tribe of Yemen. The tribe also got his name. This tribe is also called Azd and Azd Shanu'ah. The ansar of Madinah are related to this tribe.

Ash'ar was the nickname of Amr ibn Harithah Asadi who was a distinguished man of Yemen. He too was the (founding) father of his tribe which got its name from his nickname, Ash'ary. The members of this tribe are also called Ash'ariyun and Ash;arun. The glorious sahabi, Abu Musa Ash'ary and people of his clan belonged to this tribe.
The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said of the members of these tribes." They belong to me." His means that they followed him and abided by his sunnah. Or that they were his friends and helpers.
He also said, "I belong to them," meaning. "I am too their friend and helper." In this way, he informed that the believers of these tribes were observing taqwa and abstinence.

AZD ARE AZD OF ALLAH

(٥٩٩١) وَعَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَلْأَزْدُ أَزْدُ اللّٰهِ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَيُرِيْدُ النَّاسُ أَنْ يَّضَعُوْهُمْ وَيَأْبَى اللّٰهُ إِلَّا أَنْ يَّرْفَعَهُمْ وَلَيَأْتِيَنَّ عَلَى النَّاسِ زَمَانٌ يَقُوْلُ الرَّجُلُ يَا لَيْتَ أَبِيْ كَانَ أَزْدِيًّا وَيَا لَيْتَ أُمِّيْ كَانَتْ أَزْدِيَّةً رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

5991. Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه narrated that Allahs' Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The (tribe) Azd are the Azd of Allah on earth (meaning His army and helpers of His religion). People wish to put them down, but Allah refuses everything except that He should raise them. A time will certainly come to the people when a man will lement (saying). 'would that my father was an Azd! Would that my mother was an Azd!."[1]

COMMENTARY: The tribe was distinguished by the title Azd of Allah (ازد الله). They were helper of Allah's religion and His Messenger, hence they were His army. In this title they were made exclusive and prominent.
Some authorities say that Azd of Allah (ازد الله) actually means (اسد الله) lion of Allah. These people were brave and courageous like a lion.
A time will come when these people and their tribe will gain such a strong foothold and eminence that other tribesmen would cherish the desire that they too belonged to this tribe.

A VERSION FOR THREE TRIBES

(٥٩٩٢) وَعَنْ عِمْرَانَ بْنِ حُصَيْنٍ قَالَ مَاتَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَهُوَ يُكْرِهُ ثَلٰثَةَ أَحْيَاءٍ ثَقِيْفٍ وَبَنِيْ حَنِيْفَةَ وَبَنِيْ أُمَيَّةَ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

5992. Sayyiduna Imran ibn Husayn رضی الله عنه said, 'when the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم died he was not happy with three tribes the Thaqif, the Banu Hanifah and the Banu Umayyah."[2]

COMMENTARY: There were certain members of these tribes who caused immense loss to Islam by furthering the cause of its enemies and by grieving the Muslims. Allah had informed His Messenger that such people would arise in these tribes as would handle the fire of turmoil.
The Thaqif is the tribe to which the notorious tyrant Hajjaj ibn Yusuf belonged.

The Banu Hanifah is known for the renegade mischief maker Musaylimah Kadhhab.

The Banu Umayyah had such men as Ubayulah ibn Ziyad. He was the governor of Kufah and Busrah for Yazid ibn Mu'awiyah. He commanded his army to martyr Imam Husayn رضی اللہ عنہ, the chief of the martyrs (سیدالشہداء) merely to appease his seniors. He was an extremely wretched and mean man. It is reported. That when the men of his army brought the blessed head of the chief of the martyrs Imam Husayn رضی اللہ عنہ from the battle field of Karbala to himj, he had the blessed head placed in a platter and continued to hit it with a stick. At the same time he blared out derogatory remarks about the beloved grandson of the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. But, he paid for his wickedness in a very harsh manner and very heavily. He was killed brutally in a battle and his head was severed from his body which was burnt down. His armymen brought his head to the city to the mosque and put it on the dais where his lackeys were already seated. Tirmidhi[1] has transmitted from Umarah ibn Umayr رضی اللہ عنہ that he said, "When the heads of Ubaydullah ibn Ziyad and his benchmen were placed in the mosque at Rahabah, I went there. The people exclaimed,

'It is here! It is here!' Indeed, there it was! A snake came suddenly and went into the nostrils of Ubaydullah ibn ziyad. After a while, it came out and disappeared. Again, the people shouted, 'It is here! It is here!' It went to the head and into the nostril. Then it came out and vanished, doing that two or three times."

We have commented only a the conduct of Ubaydullah ibn Ziyad as an example for the cruel member of the Banu Umayyah. If we see, his master Yazid ibn Mu'awiyah also belonged to this tribe and it was at his instance that the cruelty was perpetrated. Besides, others man of this tribe, too, had left no stone unturned in committing evil. Their greed for wealth and rule made them commit atrocities against Muslims and damage Islam All of them should be judged at par with Ubaydullah. According to another hadith, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم dreamt one night that some monkeys pranced and swung on the pulpit of the Masjid Nabawi. He named the Banu Umayyah when he interpreted his dream.

ABOUT TWO MEN OF THE BANU THAQIF

(٥٩٩٣، ٥٩٩٤) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيْ ثَقِيْفٍ كَذَّابٌ وَمُبِيْرٌ قَالَ عَبْدُاللّٰهِ بْنُ عِصْمَةَ يُقَالُ الْكَذَّابُ هُوَ الْمُخْتَارُ بْنُ اَبِيْ عُبَيْدٍ وَالْمُبِيْرُ هُوَ الْحَجَّاجُ بْنُ يُوْسُفَ وَقَالَ هِشَامُ بْنُ حَسَّانٍ اَحْصَوْا مَا قَتَلَ الْحَجَّاجُ صَبْرًا فَبَلَغَ مِائَةَ اَلْفٍ وَعِشْرِيْنَ اَلْفًا رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَرَوٰى مُسْلِمٌ فِي الصَّحِيْحِ حِيْنَ قَتَلَ الْحَجَّاجُ عَبْدَاللّٰهِ بْنَ الزُّبَيْرِ قَالَتْ اَسْمَاءُ اِنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حَدَّثَنَا اَنَّ فِيْ ثَقِيْفٍ كَذَّابًا وَمُبِيْرًا فَاَمَّا الْكَذَّابُ فَرَاَيْنَاهُ وَاَمَّا الْمُبِيْرُ فَلَا اِخَالُكَ اِلَّا اِيَّاهُ وَسَيَجِيْءُ تَمَامُ الْحَدِيْثِ فِي الْفَصْلِ الثَّالِثِ۔

5993. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, 'There will arise among the Thaqif a hardened liar and another who will cause severe dcstruction." Abdullah ibn Asmah رحمہ اللہ (a tabi'i) said the ulama say that the hardened liar was Al-Mukhtar ibn Abu Ubayd and the other who will unleash rampant destruction will be Al-Hajjaj ibn Yusuf.

tabi'un) said, "they calculated the number of people killed by Al-Hajjaj (ibn Yusuf) (not in battle but) in confinement after arresting them). It (the count) came to one hundred and twenty thousand."[1]

According to Muslim's version:

5994. When Al-Hajjaj killed Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Az-Zubayr رضی اللہ عنہ, Sayyidah Asma رضی اللہ عنہا (his mother and daughter of Abu Bakr) رضی اللہ عنہ said, "Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had said to us tnat the Thaqif would produce a habitual liar and another who would unleash widespread destruction. As for the great liar, we have seen him. And, as for the other who will cause unrestrained destruction, I think that there is no one else but you."[2]

The entire narration (of the destruction) will be recounted in section III (hadith#6003 and partly #6004)

COMMENTARY: 'Hajjaj ' (حجاج) is the intensive noun of Haaj (حاج). It mean one who argues or disputes.' He presents evidence.

Hajjaj ibn Yusuf is a notorious oppressor in the history of Islam. He had killed thousands of good and pious men unjustly. They included the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم and the tabi'un too. He also martyred Abdullah ibn Zubayr رضی اللہ عنہ and he put thousands of innocent men behind bars. Apart from those killed in battle, he slew of martyred one hundred and twenty thousand innocent people. It is said that as many as fifty thousand men were brought out of his prison together at one time, by way of example. (what to say of their total number) He was so stone hearted that his prisons had no roof. The prisoners were locked within four walls to endure the vagaries of weather in summer and winter, rain and sunshine.

Hajjaj ibn Yusuf Thaqafi was a trusted well-wisher of the umawi amir Abdul Malik ibn Marwan. He was a very influential man. Abdul Malik ibn Marwan had made him governor of Iraq and Khurasan. After the martyrdom of Abdullah ibn zubayr رضی اللہ عنہ Hajjaj became the governor of Hijaz too.

After Abdul Malik ibn Marwan, he continued to be governor of Iraq and khurasan in the time of walid ibn Abdul Malik. The pages of history books are replete with accounts of his savage acts, oppression and cruelty.

Hew died in mid-shawwal 95 AH at the age of fifty four years.

MUKHTAR: Mukhtar was the son of a glorious, respectable sahabi, Abu Ubayd ibn Mas'ud thaqafi رضی اللہ عنہ. He was born in the first year of hijrah and he did not have the good fortune of being the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم companion. Initially, he was known for his learning, merit, piety and a abstinence. But, gradually it transpired that he had an evil nature and had put on the garb of piety for furthering worldly ends. He bore animosity for the Ahlul-Bayt (the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم descendants and family member). Then, suddenly, he turned over a new leaf and claimed to love them. His seeming love for them became so strong that after the martyrdom of Imam Husayn رضی اللہ عنہ, he became hostile to the supporters of Yazid and killed many of them in retaliation for the blood of Imam Husayn. رضی اللہ عنہ His love of the world made him do novel things, He was the one to begin the uprising against Abdullah ibn Zubayr رضی اللہ عنہ in Iraq. Soon he created a large number of disciples pretending to have spiritual powers. At the same time as his circle of admirers multiplied, his belief weakened and he continue to go astay and submit to base desires. He conspired though falsehood and deceit to seize caliphate over the entire Islamic world and managed to take over Kufah as a first step towards his lafty ambitions. He also proclaimed himself a prophet. He made it appear that Jibril عليه السلام brought him Allah's revelation. Finally, the son of Abdullah ibn Zubayr رضى الله عنه Mus'ab ibn Zubayr رضى الله عنه, the governor of Busra for his father, invaded Kufah. Mukhtar put up a resistance but was defeated and was killed on 14h Ramadan 67AH. His deceit and falsehood prompted the ulama to count him as a great liar among several great liars.

Both Mukhtar and Hajjaj come under the purview of this hadith that the Thaqif wil produce a great liar and a great mischief monger.

PRAYER FOR GUIDANCE INSTEAD OF CURSE

(٥٩٩٥) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالُوْا يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اَحْرَقَتْنَا نِبَالُ ثَقِيْفٍ فَادْعُ اللّٰهَ عَلَيْهِمْ قَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ اهْدِ ثَقِيْفًا۔

5995. Sayyiduna Jabir رضى الله عنه narrated that the people complained. "O Messenger of Allah the arrow of the thaqif have burned us, so curse them." He prayed, 'O Allah, guide the Thaqif (to Islam and obedience)."[1]

SUPPLICATION FOR THE HIMYAR

(٥٩٩٦) وَعَنْ عَبْدِالرَّزَّاقِ عَنْ اَبِيْهِ عَنْ مِيْنَاءَ عَنْ اَبِىْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ كُنَّا عِنْدَ النَّبِىِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَجَاءَهُ رَجُلٌ اَحْسِبُهُ مِنْ قَيْسٍ فَقَالَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ الْعَنْ حِمْيَرًا فَاَعْرَضَ عَنْهُ ثُمَّ جَاءَهُ مِنَ الشِّقِّ الْاٰخَرِ فَاَعْرَضَ عَنْهُ فَقَالَ النَّبِىُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ رَحِمَ اللّٰهُ حِمْيَرًا اَفْوَاهُهُمْ سَلَامٌ وَاَيْدِيْهِمْ طَعَامٌ وَهُمْ اَهْلُ اَمْنٍ وَاِيْمَانٍ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِىُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ لَا نَعْرِفُهُ اِلَّا مِنْ حَدِيْثِ عَبْدِالرَّزَّاقِ وَيُرْوٰى عَنْ مِيْنَاءَ هٰذَا اَحَادِيْثُ مَنَاكِيْرُ۔

5996. Sayyiduna Abdur Razzaq رحمه الله (a jurist) reported from his father (Hammam ibn Nakha'I) رحمه الله who from Sayyiduna رضى الله عنه Mina رحمه الله who from Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه who narrated: "We were with the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم (one day). A man who I think belonged to the qays, came to him and submitted. 'O Messenger of Allah, curse the Himyar." He turned away from him. The man came before him from the other side, but he again turned away from him. He came before him from the other side but he turned away from him. (The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was willing to do as he said). Then the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم supplicated, 'Have mercy on the Himyar O Allah. Their mouths are peace (offering salaam – greetings). Their hands are food (serving it to people) And they are people of peace and faith.'[2]

Tirmidhi transmitted it and said it is a gharib hadith, and it is known from Abdur

Razzaq and none else. The traditions narrated by Mina are munkir.

COMMENTARY: The Himyar were accustomed to offer slaam very often and to feed people food, distributing it among many people. These are qualities of humility and generosity. This is a sign that they have attained the station of excellence and they give rights of follow men.

These people have perfect faith and are safe from every kind of trial and tribulations.

ABU HURAYRA'S رضی اللہ عنہ TRIBE DAWS

(٥٩٩٧) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ لِي النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مِمَّنْ اَنْتَ قُلْتُ مِنْ دَوْسٍ قَالَ مَا كُنْتُ أُرٰى اِنَّ فِيْ دَوْسٍ اَحَدًا فِيْهِ خَيْرٌ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

5997. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ said, "The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم asked me, 'From what tribe are you?' I said, 'I am from the Daws.' He said, 'I had not imagined that the Daws could have even one man with any good in him."[1]

COMMENTARY: These words laud Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ as the one good man in his tribe Daws.

ANIMOSITY TO ARABS IS ANIMOSITY TO THE PROPHET صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم

(٥٩٩٨) وَعَنْ سَلْمَانَ قَالَ قَالَ لِيْ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا تُبْغِضْنِيْ فَتُفَارِقَ دِيْنَكَ قُلْتُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ كَيْفَ أُبْغِضُكَ وَبِكَ هَدَانَا اللّٰهُ قَالَ تُبْغِضُ الْعَرَبَ فَتُبْغِضُنِيْ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَهٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

5998. Sayyiduna Salman رضی اللہ عنہ (Farsi) said that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said to him, 'Do no hate me lest you abandon you religion." He asked 'O Messenger of Allah, how can I hate you when through you Allah has guided us. (I cannot even think of hating you)." He said. "If you hate the Arabs that would be like hating me."[2]

COMMENTARY: Since the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was an Arab, if anyone dislikes the Arabs as a whole then he includes the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم among them. So we must refrain from disliking the Arabs under all circumstances.

It is possible that Sayyiduna Slaman Farsi رضی اللہ عنہ who was a non-Arab of Persian descent night have done or said something which could be construed to cast aspersion on the Arabs but he cannot be expected to really dislike or hate them. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم cautioned him so that he might desist from even giving a distant hint lest others interpret such a derogatory meaning in it.

DO NOT CHEAT OR DECEIVE THE ARABS

(٥٩٩٩) وَعَنْ عُثْمَانَ بْنِ عَفَّانَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ غَشَّ الْعَرَبَ لَمْ يَدْخُلْ فِيْ شَفَاعَتِيْ وَلَمْ تَنَلْهُ مَوَدَّتِيْ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ لَا نَعْرِفُهُ اِلَّا مِنْ حَدِيْثِ حُصَيْنِ بْنِ عُمَرَ وَلَيْسَ هُوَ عِنْدَ اَهْلِ الْحَدِيْثِ بِذٰلِكَ الْقَوِيِّ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

[1] Tirmidhi # 3838 (3864)

5999. Sayyiduna Uthman ibn Affan رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "He who betrays the Arabs will be deprived of my intercession and will not get my friendship."[1]

This hadith is gharib. We know it only from Husayn ibn Umar al-Ahmasi who is not regarded by scholars of hadith as strong.

COMMENTARY: Betraying anyone includes deceiving him, lying to him, not wishing him well and instigating other against him.

Intercession means here the exclusive kind, not the general intercession of which no one will be deprived.

'Friendship will not be got' could mean that he will not earn the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم friendship or he will be unable to think of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم as a friend.

Since Husain ibn Umar is not regarded as strong, this hadith is da'if (weak). However, were merits are concerned even da'if hadith is deemed reliable. Besides, this hadith is supported by many others that have come down to us in succession. Example are:

(i) Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that saying of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم:

حُبُّ الْعَرَبِ اِيْمَانٌ وَ بُغْضُهُمْ نِفَاقٌ

"Love for the Arabs is faith. Detesting them is hypocrisy"

(2) He also narrated from the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم:

حب قریش ایمان وبغضهم کفر وحب العرب ایمان وبغضهم کفر فمن احب العرب فقد احبنی

ومن ابغض العرب فقد ابغضنی۔

"To be friendly with the Quraysh is faith but to hate them is disbelief. To love the Arabs is faith but to have them is disbelief. He who loves the Arabs, loves me. He who dislikes them, dislikes me." (Tabarani)

(3) Sahl ibn Sa'd رضی اللہ عنہ narrated this hadith:

احبوا قریشا فانه منه احبهم احبا الله۔

"Be friendly with the Qurahsh. He who keep friendship with them, Allah will take him as a frined." (Tabarani)

(4) Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said:

احبوا الفقراء وجالسوهم واحبوا العرب من قلبك ويسرك من الناس ما تعلم من نفسك۔

"Love the poor. Sit with them. And love the Arabs with your heart. And you must keep away from finding faults in people after what you know of yourself." (Mustadrak Haakim)

Maalik رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that she had heard her master (Talhah) رضی اللہ عنہ say that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Among the signs of the Last Hour is the destruction of the Arabs."[1]

COMMENTARY: In this hadith the word 'Arabs' could mean the Arabs generally or the Muslim Arabs. When their numbers decline, take that as a portent for the approach of the Last hour. This suggest that the Arabs are natural leaders and all non Arabs are their followers.

It must be known that as the Last Day draws near only the evil and wicked will remain in this world. No one who recites the Kalimah will survive (meaning there will remain no believer in monotheism and in the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم

CALIPHATE IS THE RIGHT OF THE QURAYSH

(٦٠٠١) وَعَنْ اَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَلْمُلْكُ فِيْ قُرَيْشٍ وَالْقَضَاءُ فِي الْاَنْصَارِ وَالْاَذَانُ فِي الْحَبْشَةِ وَلْاَمَانَةُ فِي الْاَزْدِ يَعْنِي الْيَمَنَ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ مَوْقُوْفًا رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا اَصَحُّ۔

6001. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Kingdom (and caliphate) is the right of the Quraysh, judgement or administration of the Ansars, (calling the) adhan of the Ethiopians and fidelity of the Azd (Shanu'ah)." Meaning the Yemen is as a whole.[2]

Tirmidhi says: A hadith like it in mawquf from without tracing it to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم is more sahih than this (Both are narrated by Abu Hurahrah) رضی اللہ عنہ

COMMENTARY: The Arabic word (قضا) qada – judgement – means here to be a supervisor, so administrator, or who is aware. On the night of Aqabah (when the Ansar of Madinah pledged allegiance to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم appointed a naqib – meaning, nominated a chief – of very tribe of the ansar. He was assigned the task of propagating Islam, to invite people to embrace it. Thereafter he should look after the Muslim. These chiefs discharged their duties diligently and they received commendation from the Prophet. صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم

Some authorities have said that the word qada is used in its accepted meaning 'judgement' It is borne out by the fact that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم sent Mu'adh رضی اللہ عنہ, a glorious ansar sahabi to Yemen as a judge there. This opinion seems more plausible. It is more appropriate to the text.

As for adhan, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had Bilal رضی اللہ عنہ in mind when he said that it is the right of the Abyssinians. He was the chief of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم mu'adhdhins They discharge this duty better.

As for the word Azd is concerned, it could refer either to the famous tribe of Yemen Azd Shanu'ah or, as a narrator has put in the text of the hadith, 'meaning Yemen as a whole. According to one version, the people of Yemen are mild hearted, peaceful and believers.

In short, the hadith means that when delegating authority for these duties, the tribes named must given preference. They are more qualified for these respective duties.

SECTION III اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

ABOUT THE QURAYSH

(٦٠٠٢) عَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ مُطِيْعٍ عَنْ اَبِيْهِ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ يَوْمَ فَتْحِ مَكَّةَ لَا يُقْتَلُ قُرَشِيٌّ صَبْرًا بَعْدَ هٰذَا الْيَوْمِ اِلٰى يَوْمِ الْقِيٰمَةِ۔ (رواه مسلم)

6002. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Muti رحمه الله (a tabi and a chief of the Quraysh) reported from his father (Muti' ibn رضى الله عنه Aswad whose name was Aasi or Aas (but the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم changed it to Muti) that he narrated, "I heard Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم say on the day of the conquest of Makkah, 'No one of the Quraysh will be killed in custody after today till the day of resurrection."[1]

COMMENTARY: The ulama have expressed different opinions about this saying. Mulla Ali Qari رحمه الله has quoted Tibi رحمه الله to say that it is a prohibition. No Quraysh should be slain. Then he quoted Humaydi رحمه الله that never would an occasion arise after that day in which a Muslim Quraysh would apostate and remain stubborn on apostasy calling on himself the state's punishment to imprison him and then kill him on custody.

Indeed, after the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, there are examples of any Quraysh being killed after being imprisoned for his obstinacy in rejecting Islam and antagonizing it. But, here is not a single instance of a Quraysh apostatizing from Islam and obstinately refusing to repent.

Therefore, this saying of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم means that Allah will cause Islam to make itself firm in the hearts of the Quraysh Thereafter, none of them will apostate. Hence, no question will arise of anyone of them being imprisoned and killed.

This is lent support by the hadith:

ان الشيطان قد ايس من جَزِيْرَة العرب

"Indeed the devil has despaired of (making inroads in) the Arabian peninsula"

6003. Sayyiduna Abu Nawfal Mu'awiyah ibn Muslim رحمه الله narrated : I saw (the corpse of) Abdullah ibn Zubayr رضى الله عنه on the road leading to Madinah on a highland of Makkah (hanging on the trunk of a polutree). The Quraysh and others began to walk past the body. Abdullah ibn Umar رضى الله عنه also came there. He stopped opposite the body and said, 'As slaamu alayk (peace be on you), O Abu Khubayb! As salaamu alayk, O Abu Khubayb! As salaamu alayk, O Abu Khubayb! By Allah, I did forbid you to do that (which brought you to this end). By Allah, I did forbid you to do that (which brought you to this end). By Allah, I did forbid you to do that (which brought you to this end). By Allah, I had known you to be given to much fasting, keeping vigil in the night and joining bonds of kinship. By Allah, they who blame you to be the worst are evil people." But, according to another version the words are instead of (لامة سوء) evil people (لامة خير) 'good people.

Then, Abdullah ibn Umar رضى الله عنه (resumed his advance and) moved ahead.

When Hajjaj learnt that Abdullah رضى الله عنه had stopped (before the body) and spoken as he had, he sent someone and had him brought down from the trunk and thrown in the graveyard of the Jews. Then, he sent someone to his (Abdullah ibn zubayr's) mother, Sayyidah Asma bint Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه (asking her to come), but she declined to go to him. He sent for her again with the message, 'You must come to me or I shall send to you one who will you (to me) by your hair."

He (Abu Nawfal) continued to narrate: She declined to go and said, "By Allah, I shall not come to you until you send to me one who will pull me by my hair."

The narrator added: He (became infuriated and) said, "Get me my sandals. He took them (and wore them), and swaggered swiftly till he come to her. He uttered, "How did you find me when I dealt with the enemy of Allah (your son, Ibn Zubayr) رضى الله عنه?" She said, "I find that you have spoilt his worldly life but he has ruined your next world's life. And, it has been conveyed to me that you say of him. 'O son of the woman with two girdles.' By Allah, I am the woman with two girdles. I had used one of them to tie up the provision of Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم and the provision of Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه (to fasten them) high up out of reach of animals. The second is the one that a woman cannot do without.

And know! Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم had narrated to us that there will arise among the Thaqif a habitual liar and another who would unleash destruction. As for the liar, we have seen him. As for the other who would unleash rampant destruction. I think he is not but you."

The narrator said: He got up and went away from her saying nothing else to her.[1]

COMMENTARY: The highland leading to Madinah was on the borders of Makkah on the eastern side. The Madinans enter Makkah from this point the cruel man Hajjaj ibn Yusuf besieged Sayyiduna Abdulah ibn Zubayr رضی اللہ عنہ in the Masjid Haram with his army and martyred him very ruthlessly and put his corpse dangling on the trunk of a palm tree.

Later, he was buried nearby in the graveyard Janat ul Malah. However, now there is no indication to show his grave. Similarly, graves of other sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم who were buried in Jannat ul Ma'lah cannot be identified. Even the grave of Sayyidah Khadijah is in the jannat ul Mu'lah but it is unmarked. In the past, a righteous man had pinpointed it on the basis of a dream and a dome was built on it, but now that mark has disappeared and the grave cannot be identified.

IBN UMAR رضی اللہ عنہ REGRET: Sayyiduna IbnUmar رضی اللہ عنہ words at the grave meant that he had forbidden Ibn Zubayr رضی اللہ عنہ to part from Yazid ibn Mu'awiyah رضی اللہ عنہ and to make a cliam to caliphate.

BACKGROUND IN BRIEF: When amir Mu'awiyah رضی اللہ عنہ died, his son Yazid succeeded him, but Abdulalh ibn Zubayr declined to obey him and to give his pledge of allegiance to him. The Makkans pledged allegiance to Ibn Zubayr and declared him caliph. Soon he had a large number of people accepting his caliphate and many regions aligned with him. In fact, historians write that apart from Syria, nearly all the Islamic world recognized him as caliphs. Ibn Zubayr رضی اللہ عنہ did not even recognize Yazid's successors Marwan ibn Hakam and after him Abdul Malik ibn Mrwan but carried on his own caliphate. However, Abdul Malik ibn Marwan took strong steps against his caliphate. He sent Hajjaj ibn Yusuf Thaqafi to launch an armed attach on Makah. Abdullah ibn Zubayr رضی اللہ عنہ put stiff resistance with his few supporters. Indeed, his courage and boldness, as of those supporting him, in an example unmatched in history, but ultimately, he was martyred. The wretched Hajjaj severed his head from his body and sent it to Madinah. He hung the lower torso on the trunk of a tree.

Earlier, this same army had attacked Madinah when Yazid was alive. They had ravaged Madinah and killed its inhabitants mercilessly. This its inhabitants mercilessly. This is knows as the event of Harrah.

As stated, Ibn Uamr رضی اللہ عنہ recalled his words to Ibn Zubayr رضی اللہ عنہ. He had advised him to leave the tyrants to Allah and retire. But, Ibn Zu bayr رضی اللہ عنہ did not heed his advice. He hoped to raise the banner of truth and claimed caliphate. Then he paid for it with his life.

DEVOTED WORSHIP: Abdullah ibn Zubary رضی اللہ عنہ used to fast often. He also fasted for fifteen days at a stretch. These are called (طی) tay. He spent the night offering supererogatory salah, reciting the Quran and engaging in dhikr (remembrance of Allah). He joined ties of relationship and was known for it. Abdullah ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ mentioned his pious qualities on that occasion (before his corpse) because Hajjaj used to call him 'enemy of Allah; and 'cruel'. He also had accused him of other things. Hence, Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ found it necessary to exonerate him good attributes of Ibn Zubayr رضی اللہ عنہ and to refute Hajaj's charges. The masses were thereby informed of the truth.

CONTRADICTORY WORDS IN A VERSIONS: In the course of the test of the hadith,

Abdulah ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ said of Hajjaj and his stooges (لاامۃ سوء) an evil people. But another version has the words (لاامۃ خیر) 'a good people, instead. The meaning does not change because in the first version, Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ spoke directly about their character. In the second version, he called them 'good' sarcastically and ridiculed them. It is as one says to a bad man, 'Indeed, how 'good' you are yourself to accuse the pious as evil!' However, the first version is more appropriate.

THROWN IN GRAVEYARD OF JEWS: The fact that the body of Abdullah ibn Zubayr رضی اللہ عنہ was among the graves of the Jews who had died in Makkah at some past time does not rule out the possibility that he was buried in the graveyard Jannat ul Malah. His body was brought from there to Jannat ul Ma'lah.

As for the graveyard of the Jews it is not there anymore and cannot even be located now. Of course, in those times, a place had been set aside of the graves of the Jews where Hajjaj had the body of Ibn zubayr رضی اللہ عنہ thrown.

HAJJAJ'S SANDALS: Hajjaj said, "Get me my sandals.' This is the literal rendering of (اروني سبتي). The word (سبتي) is the dual form of (سبتة) which is a sandal without hair and is made of soft leather. In those days, the affluent, amirs and kings used to wear such sandals.

WOMAN WITH TWO GIRDLES: Sayyidah Asma رضی اللہ عنہا had earned this sobriquet. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم gave and her father, Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ provision she could not find anything to fasten the tiffin box, so she cut off her girdle in two and used one piece to fasten the tiffin box and wound the other on her waist. It is better to render (نطاق) as a waist band than a girdle. She had used her presence of mind to do that. So the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم called he (ذوالنطاقين) 'of two girdles.' Hence, this epithet made her proud of it because of being able to use something belonging to her for the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. There can be no greater merit. But the foolish Hajjaj regarded the epithet as belittling her, to allude that his thing was a sign of merial woman and domestic maids.

YES I AM THAT WOMAN: Since she loved the epithet of (ذوالنطاقين) – dhu nataqayn) woman with two girdles and was proud of it Sayyidah Asma confirmed to Hajjaj that indeed she was the one! She also told him how she had got it. She used to put the provision in a container and hang the container high up out of reach of animals and insects. The other she used to fasten her lower wrapper, or to check her belly from bulging. There was a time when Arab woman tied a leather belt on the waist to keep their belly in shape. Rich woman used golden belt. So Sayyidah Asma رضی اللہ عنہا made it clear that no woman can dispense with a girdle.

HAJJAJ WAS SILENCED: The brave woman Sayyidah Asma رضی اللہ عنہا grave Hajjaj a befitting reply and he was silenced. He was lost for words.

SHE DIED: Sayyidah Asma رضی اللہ عنہا is reported to have died twenty days after the martyrdom of her son, at the age of one hundred years At that age, she had not lost even one tooth.

GREETING THE DEED: Allamah Nawawi رحمہ اللہ writes against this hadith that Abdullah ibn Uamr رضی اللہ عنہ stood opposite the corpse of Abdullah ibn Zubayr رضی اللہ عنہ and offered him slaam (which is greetings). This means that one may offer salaam to the dead body. It is mustahab to offer the slaam more than once. It is also allowed to describe the good qualities of the dead standing before its body, such qualities with which the dead person was known.

This hadith also brings out the great merits and excellences of Abdullah ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ. He did not hesitate to speak out the truth, Knowing well that the oppressor Hajjaj would be told of whatever he said or did there.

IBN UMAR رضی اللہ عنہ REFUSED TO CLAIM CALIPHATE

(٦٠٠٤) وَعَنْ نَافِعٍ أَنَّ ابْنَ عُمَرَ أَتَاهُ رَجُلَانِ فِي فِتْنَةِ ابْنِ الزُّبَيْرِ فَقَالَا إِنَّ النَّاسَ صَنَعُوْا مَا تَرٰى
وَأَنْتَ ابْنُ عُمَرَ وَصَاحِبُ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَمَا يَمْنَعُكَ أَنْ تَخْرُجَ فَقَالَ يَمْنَعُنِيْ أَنَّ اللّٰهَ
حَرَّمَ عَلَيَّ دَمَ أَخِي الْمُسْلِمِ قَالَا أَلَمْ يَقُلِ اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى وَقَاتِلُوْهُمْ حَتّٰى لَا تَكُوْنَ فِتْنَةٌ فَقَالَ ابْنُ عُمَرَ قَدْ
قَاتَلْنَا حَتّٰى لَمْ تَكُنْ فِتْنَةٌ وَكَانَ الدِّيْنُ لِلّٰهِ وَأَنْتُمْ تُرِيْدُوْنَ أَنْ تُقَاتِلُوْا حَتّٰى تَكُوْنَ فِتْنَةٌ
وَّيَكُوْنَ الدِّيْنُ لِغَيْرِ اللّٰهِ. (رواه البخاری)

6004. Sayyiduna Nafi رحمہ اللہ (the freedman of Abdullah ibn Umar) رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that during he turmoil in the time of Ibn Zubayr رضی اللہ عنہ (but before his martyrdom). Two men came to Abdullah ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ and said ,"How the people have conducted themselves (concerning the caliphate and rulership) is as you have seen. You are the son of Umar رضی اللہ عنہ and a shabi of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم (So, you are most deserving of the caliphate against Abdul Maalik ib Marwan whose incompetence is known to all particulars when he made the cruel Hajjaj one of his chiefs and governors). So, what holds you back from coming (and overthrowing the usurpers and taking the reins of the uprising in your hands)?" He said, "I am prevented by my knowledge that Allah has forbidden me to shed the blood of my brother Muslim." The two men asked him, "Has not Allah the exalted, said:

وَقَاتِلُوْهُمْ حَتّٰى لَا تَكُوْنَ فِتْنَةٌ

{And sight tem, till persecution is no more?}" (2:193) (8:39)

Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ said, "Indeed we (the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم and the righteous caliphs) رضی اللہ عنہم did fight them till there was no persecution and only Allah's religion Islam prevailed. But, (now) you wish to fight till there is persecution (of the Muslims) and religion of someone other than Allah is established.:"[1]

COMMENTARY: Abdullah ibn Umr رضی اللہ عنہ said emphatically that he thought it absolutely unlawful for him to shed blood. It was necessary to refrain from fighting each other particularly for the sake of caliphate. In his saying the word (عَلَيَّ) 'for me; are superfluous otherwise it is forbidden to every Muslim to shed blood of fellow Muslim.

The two man wanted that Abdullah ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ should declare himself as a caliph. If he was not willing to do that, then he must, at least, support Abdullah ibn Zubayr رضی اللہ عنہ and take up arms against those who contend against him and fight for the tyrants to preserve their prestige and caliphate. But, Abdullah ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ thought that any such move would create a rift among the Muslims and cause widespread, deep rooted discard. That would weaken Islam. The enemies of Islam would seize the opportunity to reorganize themselves and to strengthen their ranks.

This is why Abdullah ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ advised Abdullah ibn Zubayr رضی اللہ عنہ to desist from fighting fellow Muslims for the sake of caliphate. He should have let the people alone as they were.

PRAYER FOR THE TRIBE DAWS

(٦٠٠٥) وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ جَاءَ الطُّفَيْلُ ابْنُ عَمْرِوبِ الدَّوْسِيُّ إِلَى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ إِنَّ دَوْسًا قَدْ هَلَكَتْ وَعَصَتْ وَأَبَتْ فَادْعُ اللّٰهَ عَلَيْهِمْ فَظَنَّ النَّاسُ أَنَّهُ يَدْعُوْا عَلَيْهِمْ فَقَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ اهْدِ دَوْسًا وَأْتِ بِهِمْ۔ (متفق عليه)

6005. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Tufayl! Ibn Amr Dawsi رضی اللہ عنہ came to Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and submitted, 'Indeed, the Daws have perished having disobeyed and refused (to follow Islam). So, pray to Allah (that He may punish them)." So, the people (who were there) presumed that he would curse them. But (the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم is mercy for the world sent to guide mankind to the right path, not to pray for punishment not anyone). He prayed. "O Allah guide the Daws and bring them (to Madinah and to the folds Islam)."[1]

COMMENTARY: Tufayl ibn Amr Dawsi رضی اللہ عنہ was a great sahabi (companion) belonging to the tribe of Daws. He was counted among the people of the Hijaz. He had embraced Islam in Makakh. Then he returned to his people. When the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم emigrated to Madinah, he too left his tribe and native land and emigrated (to Madinah). He joined the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم when he was in khaybar. Then he remained with the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم till he died in Madinah.

He was called dhun nur (of two lights). When the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم sent him to his tribe to propagate Islam, he requested him, "O Messenger of Allah, let me have a sign seeing which they might endorse me." The prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم prayed for him, "O Allah. Grant him nur (light!" Allah accepted his supplication. A light began to shine between his eye. But, he pleaded. "O Messenger of Allah, I fear that people will think of me as ugly." Then the light moved to his breast bone. In the dark of the night, his chest gave out light as though it has a lamp on it.

Tufayl رضی اللہ عنہ came to his tribe and preached Islam. His father responded to his call positively and embraced Islam. But, his mother was deprived of guidance.

LOVE THE ARABS FOR THREE REASONS

(٦٠٠٦) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَحِبُّوْا الْعَرَبَ لِثَلٰثٍ لِأَنِّيْ عَرَبِيٌّ وَالْقُرْاٰنُ عَرَبِيٌّ وَكَلَامُ أَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ عَرَبِيٌّ رَوَاهُ الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِيْ شُعَبِ الْإِيْمَانِ۔

6006. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "You must love the Arabs for three reasons.

i. because I am an Arab (and whatever is ascribed to dear one is also dear).
ii. The Quran is in Arabic,
iii. The language of the dwellers of paradise will be Arabic."[2]

COMMENTARY: The words that the language of paradise will be Arabic suggest that the language of the denizens of hell will not be Arabic. Anyway, the hadith means that Arabic and that Arab have merit in this world as well as the next.

This hadith gives three reason for loving the Arabs. They are the most prominent, otherwise there are other reasons, too, for loving the Arabs and Arabia, or for having love for them. For instance, the people of Arabia were the only ones to learn Islam – the religion and Sahri'ah directly from the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Then they conveyed it to us. They preserved the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم sayings, deeds habits and miracles and transmitted this asset to us. Arabia and the people of Arabia are truly the helpers of Islam and he essential energy for our nation. They combated with all the world for the sake of Islam and fought wars with great powers. They risked and gave their lives and properties and conquered large area. They spread Islam in cities, villages, everywhere, raising aloft the banner of Islam. They are the children of Prophet Ismail عليه السلام. Not only paradise but also in the grave, the Mankar and Nakir will put questions in the Arabic language. This is why it is said:

مَنْ أَسْلَمَ فَهُوَ عَرَبِيٌّ۔

"He who embraces Islam is an Arab."

CHAPTER – XXIX

THE EXCELLENT QUALITIES OF HE SAHABAH رضی الله عنهم (COMPANION OF THE PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم

بَابُ مَنَاقِبِ الصَّحَابَةِ رَضِيَ اللّٰهُ عَنْهُمْ أَجْمَعِيْنَ

MANAQIB: The word (مناقب) mnaqib is the plural of (منقبت) munaqibat. It means 'excellence' 'merit,' 'good quality' which, in turn, is applied to a good characteristic that earns are esteem in the sight of Allah or the creatures. However, real recognition lies in the pleasure of Allah. Esteem in the sight of he creatures is not worthwhile. Unless it is a means of earning Allah's pleasure. Therefore, if anyone is described as possessing excellent qualities and high rank then he is said to be esteemed in Allah's sight because of his thoughts, belief, conviction, deeds, manners and sincerity. Moreover, only such description of merit and excellence is valid if it is in accordance with the saying of the noble prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, that have been transmitted to us generation after generation.

SAHABI: He is a Muslim who has seen the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم with his eyes in a state of awakening, or has in the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم company.[1] and died while professing Islam, even though he may have apostatized during his life before reverting to Islam as Ash'ath ibn Qays is reported to have done (s an example of it).

Some authorities hold that for anyone to quality as a sahabi, he must have been in the company of he Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم for some length of time. They define as a shabi one who has been in the company of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم for a long period of time, has acquired knowledge from the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and participated in battles with him. They say that 'some length of time,' or 'a long period of time' is a minimum of six months. But, it is not known what evidence they have of the limit of six months. However, it may be asserted without a semblance of doubt that one who has spent a very long time in the company of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and participated in jihad with him is certainly of a rank higher than people who did not have an opportunity to be of service to him and be in his company for a long time, or take part in jihad with him, or saw him from a distance though all of them have the good fortune of a simple company and qualify as sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم.

---

HOW TO KNOW A SAHABI: A person may be known to be a sahabi:

(i) Though tawatar reporting (meaning continuously handed down information). Examples are Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ and Umar رضی اللہ عنہ who are recognized as shabah by every succeeding generation.

(ii) By khabar mashhur (a well-known tradition handed down by a least three distinct lines of narrators).

(iii) A shabi رضی اللہ عنہ says of another person that he is a sahabi رضی اللہ عنہ.

(iv) A person says of himself that he is a sahabi رضی اللہ عنہ, provided he meets the standard set by tradition and is (عادل) just and true, impartial and unbiased. But, it must be known that it is established by the Book and Sunnah and reliable general consensus that all sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم are just and impartial.

EXCELLENCE OF THE SAHABAH رضی اللہ عنہم: Sharh us sunnah writes on the authority of Abu Mansur Baghdadi رحمہ اللہ that all the ulama agree unanimously that of the sahabah:

(1) The most excellent are the four caliphs in this order: Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ, Umar رضی اللہ عنہ Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ and Ali رضی اللہ عنہ, the sequence of their caliphate.

(2) After them, the most excellent are the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم who are called the ashrah mubashahrah (the ten who are given glad tiding of admittance to paradise).

(3) The next in sequence of excellence are the sahabah who had participated in the Battle of Badr.

(4) Those who participated in the Battle of Uhud are next in excellence.

(5) The sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم who gave their pledge known as Bay't ur Ridwan rank next is excellence.

(6) Then follow the Ansar shabah who had pledged allegiance at Aqabah, both those at the first and second occasions which is known as Bay't al Aqabah al oola and as Bay't of Aqabah at Thaniyah when they had come to Makkah (and thence to Aqabah).

(7) Next in excellence are the sahabah who are known as (سابقون اولون) (as sabiqunal awwaloon) who preceded others in embracing Islam. They accepted it at the very initial stage of the preaching of Islam. They had the exclusive opportunity of facing both they qiblahs, mening Bayt ul Maqdis and the Ka'bah (Jerusalem and Makkah, respectively), while offering the salah.

All of the foregoing sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم are more excellent (in the sequence mentioned in these line) than those sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم who joined the folds of Islam after them.

THE PROPHET'S صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم WIVES: The ulama differ on which of the two wives of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was more excellent: Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا or Sayyidah Khadijah رضی اللہ عنہا?

SAYYIDAH FATIMAH رضی اللہ عنہا: They also differ on the excellence of Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا and Sayyidah Fatimah رضی اللہ عنہا. Which one is more excellent than the other?

MU'AWIYAH رضی اللہ عنہ: It must be known that Mu'awiyah رضی اللہ عنہ was also a just and impartial shabi and excellent like the others (of his calibre). It is disallowed to say anything derogatory about him or to censure him as it is disallowed concerning any other sahabi رضی اللہ عنہ.

DISAGREEMENT AMONG SAHABAH رضی اللہ عنہم: As for there being some disagreement or dispute or war between two groups of sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم, we must not discuss this thing or try to derive results from it. This was their own affair and none of them motivated by personal differences but everyone had resorted to ijtihad or individual judgement. They had no intention to further their worldly ambitions. Each believed that he had arrived at a just conclusion. We must be careful when speaking of them and must always utter words of praise for them. If anything is reported about them that is against praise for them, then we must ignore it. In that lies safety of our religion.[1]

SECTION I الفصل الاول

DO NOT REVILE THE SAHABAH رضی اللہ عنہم

(٦٠٠٧) عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيْدِنِ الْخُدْرِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا تَسُبُّوْا أَصْحَابِيْ فَلَوْ أَنَّ أَحَدَكُمْ أَنْفَقَ مِثْلَ أُحُدٍ ذَهَبًا مَا بَلَغَ مُدَّ أَحَدِهِمْ وَلَا نَصِيْفَهٗ. (متفق عليه)

6007. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed Khudri رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Do not revile my sahabah (companions). Indeed, were any of you to spend gold equal to Mount Uhud he would not get reward for it as much as the reward for a mudd of one of my sahabah – may, half of that."[2]

COMMENTARY: This saying is addressed to a section of the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم. Its background is found in a hadith: some differences cropped up between Sayyiduna Khalid ibn Walid رضی اللہ عنہ and Sayyiduna Abdur Rahman ibn Awf رضی اللہ عنہ and the former spoke ill of the latter. The prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم addressed khalid ibn Walid رضی اللہ عنہ and the others and said, "Do not speak ill of my sahabah" He meant his sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم who had embraced Islam before those sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم whom he had addressed, meaning Khalid رضی اللہ عنہ and the others.

However, it is also possible that the entire ummah is the subject of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم address. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم gave this command to throat such people of his ummah who would speak ill of his sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم later on (as indeed the Rawafid[3] and the Khawarij revile certain sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم who are praised by one or the other of them). The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم wished that future generations must respect all sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم equally without distinction.

Mudd was a measure of weight used at that time equal to about two thirds of a kilogram. This portion of the hadith means that a little deed of the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم is more weighty than great deeds of the people who will follow them, because of their sincerity and devotion of Allah If any of them spent a kilogram of barley, or half of it, in Allah's path, the reward that he will get for it will not be matched by any of the succeeding generation even on spending in Allah's path gold equal to the mass of Mount Uhud. The reason is that the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم were perfectly sincere and their deed was purely for Allah's sake. They were motivated by a spirit of self sacrifice. Those following them cannot do that. Besides, the property of the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم was pure and lawfully acquired and was barely sufficient for their own needs but, in spit of that, they set aside some of it to spend in Allah's path willingly ignoring their own needs.

On this basis, we can assure how they dedicated themselves and passed through extreme hardship to raise high the banner of Allah's religion. How much they exerted themselves to propagate the message of Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم. They did not hesitate to lay down their lives. Imagine the reward they may have received! And, their ranks, how much they may have been raised!

Though the initial words of the hadith imply some of the Prophet's specific Sahabah, yet it is certain that other people are also forbidden from reviling the sahabah رضى الله عنهم. The real purpose of the hadith is to more the people to refrain from speaking ill of those who had preceded others in accepting Islam and are, here fore excellent therefore, it is obligatory on those following them to respect the sahabah رضى الله عنهم.

Ali ibn Harb رحمه الله and khuthaymah ibn Sulayman رحمه الله have reported that Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه said:

لَا تَسُبُّوا أَصْحَابَ مُحَمَّدٍ فَلَمُقَامُ أَحَدِهِمْ سَاعَةً خَيْرٌ مِّنْ عَمَلِ أَحَدِكُمْ عُمُرَهُ۔

"Do not revile the companions of Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم. The position of any one of them is such that his (worship of) one hour is batter than the pious deeds of any of you over his life time"

And, Uqayli رحمه الله has written in Du'afa that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said:

إِنَّ اللّٰهَ اخْتَارَنِيْ وَاخْتَارَ لِيْ أَصْحَابًا وَأَنْصَارًا وَأَصْحَارًا وَسَيَأْتِيْ قَوْمٌ يَسُبُّوْنَهُمْ وَيَنْتَقِصُوْنَهُمْ فَلَا تُجَالِسُوْهُمْ وَلَا تُشَارِبُوْهُمْ وَلَا تُوَاكِلُوْهُمْ وَلَا تُنَاكِحُوْهُمْ۔

"Surely Allah has chosen me. And he chose for me sahabah (companions), ansar (helpers) and ashar (relatives) But, soon a people will come who will revile them, find fault with them. So, do not mingle with them, do not eat or drink with them and do not have marital relationship with them."

COMMAND OF SHARI'AH ABOUT THOSE WHO REVILE THE SAHABAH رضى الله عنهم:

It is stated in Sharh Muslim that it is a crime to revile the sahabah رضى الله عنهم and a grave sin. It is our conviction, as of the majority of the ulama, that he who reviles the sahabah رضى الله عنهم must be puished.

Some of the Maalikis say that he who reviles any of the shabah must be killed. Teebi رحمه الله, too, has written something like it. Qadi Iyad رحمه الله said that it is a grave sin to revile any of the sahabah رضى الله عنهم.

Some of our ulama have written explicitly that if anyone speaks ill of he shaykhayn (Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه and Umar رضى الله عنه then he is liable to be killed.

It is stated in the well-known book Al-Ashbah wa Amr Nazir in its section an as sayr If any disbeliever repents from disbelief then he is forgiven in this world and the hereafter. But, if anyone has been declared to be a disbeliever because he has reviled the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, or has reviled the shaykhayn, or one of them, or has practiced sorcery, or is an atheist and is arrested before he repents, than his repentance will not be accepted (if he makes it after being arrested) and he will not be forgiven.

The writer of Ishbah, Allamah Zayr ibn Najaym رضى الله عنه has also written that to speak ill of the shaykayn or curse them is disbelief. If anyone attributes excellence to Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه over the shaykhayn then he is an innovator. It is written in Manaqib kardari that if anyone believes that Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه is more excellent than the Shaykhauyn and rejects the caliphate of both of them (meaning, the shaykhayn) then he a disbeliever. If he bears animosity to both of them then too he will be termed disbeliever. The reason is that he detests them whom the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم loved with his heart. However, if anyone (does not regard Ali رضى الله عنه as more excellent than the Shaykhayn, and does not reject their caliphate, and does not hate them, and does not revile them, but) loves Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه more than the Shaykhayn, then he will not be charged with anything for this reason.

WHY THE SHAYKHAYN ONLY: Perhaps the shaykhayn (Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه and Umar رضى الله عنه are mentioned exclusively because there are many ahadith about their excellence in an exceptional manner. There are not such ahadith about other sahabah. This will be clearer from such ahadith in separate chapter to follow. Another reason could be that the caliphate of both of them was upheld by the Muslim unanimously. Their leadership was not challenged by anyone at all. On the other hand, the caliphate of Uthman, رضى الله عنه Ali ibn Abu Talib رضى الله عنه and others did not have unanimous approval. Rather, each of them had to suppress an uprising and rebellion.

ABOUT THOSE WHO REJECT ABU BAKR'S رضى الله عنه CALIPHATE: Shah Abdul Aziz رحمه الله has written that there is no doubt that the Imamiyah sect reject the caliphate of Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه. It is written in the books of fiqh that anyone who rejects the caliphate of Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه is the rejecter of ijma qat'i (absolute consensus) and whoso reject it are disbelievers. It is stated in Fatawa Alamgiri:

الرافضي إذا كان يسب الشيخين ويلعنهما العياذ بالله فهو كافر وان كان يفضل عليًّا كرم الله تعالى وجهه على ابي بكر لا يكون كافرا لكنه مبتدع ولو قذف عائشة كفر بالله۔

"when a Rawfid, reviles the Shaykhayn and cursed them – we seek refuge in Allah from such thought – he renders himself a disbeliever. And, if he gives more excellence to Ali رضى الله عنه that to Au Bakr رضى الله عنه, he does not become a disbeliever but is a mubtadi (an innovator). And if he accuses or slanders or defames (Sayyidah) Ayshah رضى الله عنها then he disbelieves in (what) Allah (says about her in the Quran, exonerating her).

It is also stated in Fatawa Alamgiri:

من انكر امامة ابي بكر الصديق فهو كافر على قول بعضهم وقال بعضهم هو مبتدع وليس بكافر والصحيح انه كافر كذلك من انكر خلافة عمر في اصح الاقوال ويجب كفار الروافض في قولهم برجعة الاموات الى الدنيا وتناسخ الارواح۔

"He who rejects the imamah (leadership) of Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه as Siddiq is a disbeliever as per the ruling of some (of the jurists) but some others (of them) hold that he is a mubtadi (an innovator) and will be became a disbeliever, but the correct thing is that he is a disbeliever. And so too according to the mot correct of opinions (he is a disbeliever) who rejects the caliphate of Umar رضى الله عنه Besides, it is wajib (obligator) to term the Rawafid as disbelievers for heir belief that the dead return to the world (are reincarnated) and that souls are transmigrated (form one body to another)."

WHY CLASSIFIED AS DISBELIEVERS: On what basis are the Imamiyah and the Rawafid said to part with Islam if they revile the sahabah رضى الله عنهم particularly the Shaykhayn or if they reject he caliphate of the latter? It must be known that not one but there are many strong evidences of their disbelief.

It is the sahabah, bearers of the wahy (revelation), who communicated it to later generations, as they did the religion and Shari'ah. If anyone rejects their statues and truthfulness, how can he retain his faith in the Quran and other branches of Islam that have been conveyed to us in a continuous manner from them. If his faith in the Quran and these other things is lacking then how will he call be called a believer.

Besides, the Quran itself bears testimony to the status and truth of those sahabah رضي الله عنهم and to their merit. Anyone who rejects the text of he Quran cannot be a believer.

Furthermore, there are innumerable ahadith about the excellences and merits of the three caliphs other than Sayyiduna Ali رضي الله عنه. These ahadith are of the level of Mutawatir (undoubted hadith handed own by numerous distinct chains of narrators and always approved) Rejection of these ahadith amounts to disbelief. None of the mujtahid imam has questioned the isnad or text of any hadith of this category. Rather, Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله who stands high among the mujtahid imams also prefers khabar wahid (tradition transmitted by one person and one chain of arrears) to Qiyas (or verdicts given by religious scholars) and prefers even the saying of the sahabah رضي الله عنهم – what to say of ahadith of the kind of mutawatir in meaning.

THE QURAN: We begin with the Quran. Let us see Allah's words about the sahabah رضي الله عنهم and about speaking ill, or cursing them or any one of them.

(1)Allah has declared that He is pleased with the sahabah رضي الله عنهم. He says:

لَقَدْ رَضِيَ اللّٰهُ عَنِ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ إِذْ يُبَايِعُوْنَكَ تَحْتَ الشَّجَرَةِ۔

{Allah was certainly pleased with the believers when they swore fealty to you under the tree.} (48:18)

وَالسّٰبِقُوْنَ الْاَوَّلُوْنَ مِنَ الْمُهٰجِرِيْنَ وَالْاَنْصَارِ وَالَّذِيْنَ اتَّبَعُوْهُمْ بِاِحْسَانٍ رَّضِيَ اللّٰهُ عَنْهُمْ وَرَضُوْا عَنْهُ

{And the brumes the first of the muhajir and the Ansar and those followed them in good doing – Allah is pleased with them and they are pleased with Him} (9:100)

(2)The caliphate of the righteous caliphs is known from the Quran. Allah says:

وَعَدَ اللّٰهُ الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا مِنْكُمْ وَعَمِلُوا الصّٰلِحٰتِ لَيَسْتَخْلِفَنَّهُمْ فِي الْاَرْضِ۔

{Allah has promised those of you who have believed and do righteous deeds that He will certainly make them successors in earth.} (24:55)

Reliable exegetes affirm that this verse is a strong evidence of the fact of the caliphate of the righteous caliphs. The people who became leader in the light of the promise in the verse and who were, as the verse says, faithful and righteous, were indeed these Khulafa rashideen (righteous caliphs). Those, who do not regard their caliphate as correct and they reject the Quran and so exit from the circle of faith. The reason is that this very verse emphasizes in its next words:

مَنْ كَفَرَ بَعْدَ ذٰلِكَ فَاُولٰٓئِكَ هُمُ الْفٰسِقُوْنَ

{And whosoever disbelieves after this, then those – they are the transgressors.} (24:55)

The word (فاسق) transgressors is used in the Quran in its perfect sense and applies to disbelievers. So the concluding words of this verse mean 'they are infidels.' Evidence for this interpretation lies in this verse:

وَمَنْ لَّمْ يَحْكُمْ بِمَآ اَنْزَلَ اللّٰهُ فَاُولٰٓئِكَ هُمُ الْفٰسِقُوْنَ *۔

{And whosoever judges not by what Allah has revealed, so those -they are the disbelievers.} (5:44) Here too (فاسق) is used.

لِلْفُقَرَآءِ الْمُهَاجِرِيْنَ الَّذِيْنَ اُخْرِجُوْا مِنْ دِيَارِهِمْ وَاَمْوَالِهِمْ يَبْتَغُوْنَ فَضْلًا مِّنَ اللّٰهِ وَرِضْوَانًا وَيَنْصُرُوْنَ اللّٰهَ وَرَسُوْلَهٗ اُولٰٓئِكَ هُمُ الصّٰدِقُوْنَ *۔

{(It is) for the poor emigrants who were expelled form their homes and their possessions, seeking bounty from Allah and (His) pleasure, and helping (the religion of) Allah and His Messenger. Those, - they are the truthful.} (59:8)

All the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم used to address Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ siddiq as 'O Khalifahtulah' (خلیفۃ اللہ). But, the sh'iah call him Kadhib (کاذب) meaning 'liar.' He who calls him Kadhib rejects the Quran and belies and contradicts it. If that is not disbelief then what is it?

(4)the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم are prosperous or successful. It is established by the text of the Quran:

اُولٰٓئِكَ هُمُ الْمُفْلِحُوْنَ

{....those - they are the prosperous)

But, those people call them (اولئک ھم الخاسرون) (those -they are the losers). So, if these deniers of the Quran are not said to be outside the fold of Islam then what will hey be called.

(5)Allah has described the merits of the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم uncountable time in the Quran. He has mentioned them again again again with their praise. For instance, he says:

مُحَمَّدٌ رَّسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ وَالَّذِيْنَ مَعَهٗ اَشِدَّآءُ عَلَى الْكُفَّارِ رُحَمَآءُ بَيْنَهُمْ تَرٰهُمْ رُكَّعًا سُجَّدًا يَّبْتَغُوْنَ فَضْلًا مِّنَ اللّٰهِ وَرِضْوَانًا* سِيْمَاهُمْ فِيْ وُجُوْهِهِمْ مِّنْ اَثَرِ السُّجُوْدِ ذٰلِكَ مَثَلُهُمْ فِي التَّوْرٰةِ وَمَثَلُهُمْ فِي الْاِنْجِيْلِ كَزَرْعٍ اَخْرَجَ شَطْئَهٗ فَاٰزَرَهٗ فَاسْتَغْلَظَ فَاسْتَوٰى عَلٰى سُوْقِهٖ يُعْجِبُ الزُّرَّاعَ لِيَغِيْظَ بِهِمُ الْكُفَّارَ وَعَدَ اللّٰهُ الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا وَعَمِلُوا الصّٰلِحٰتِ مِنْهُمْ مَّغْفِرَةً وَّاَجْرًا عَظِيْمًا *۔

{Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah and those who are with him are hard against the disbelievers, merciful among themselves. You see them bowing, prostrating, seeking bounty from Allah and (His) Good pleasure. Their mark is on their foreheads from the traces of prostration. That is their similitude in the Torah - and their similitude in the Injil: like a sown corn-seed that puts forth its shoot, then strengthens it, and it grows stout and rises straight on its stalk, delighting the growers, that through them He may enrage the disbelievers. Allah has promised those of them who believe and do righteous deeds, forgiveness and a mighty reward.} (48:29)

Given this clear testimony of the Quran, what may we say of the people who revile and curse the companions of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. If anyone accuses the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم of being antagonistic to each other after the Quran asserts that they are mercifui to each other but severe against the disbelievers, then he rejects the Quran. And, he who despises them and is jealous of them then he qualities for being called a disbeliever. This is obvious from the words (لیغیظ بہم الکفار) {though them he may enrage the disbelievers} It is the work of these disbelievers to be enraged with the Sahabah رضی اللہ عنہ. This verse also belies those who say that the Sahabah possessed correct belief during the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم life time but became irreligious after his death. Obviously Allah's promise of forgiveness and a mighty reward is only for them who continue to have faith and be righteous till their death. Hence, the promise itself is a sign that they would not cease to be faithful and righteous till their last breath. If anyone persists and speaks ill about them after this assurance of the Quran, then he speak against the Quran and -we seek refuge in Allah from such thought -˙he ascribes ignorance to Allah.

(6)He who called the (مخلفين) mukhalifieen) the villagers who had legged behind to wage jihad was the first khalifah (caliph), Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه. Not only the ahl us sunnah are unanimous about it but also the Shi'ahs cannot deny it. The Quran says about the mukhallifeen desert dwellers:

قُلْ لِلْمُخَلَّفِيْنَ مِنَ الْاَعْرَابِ سَتُدْعَوْنَ اِلٰى قَوْمٍ اُولِىْ بَاْسٍ شَدِيْدٍ تُقَاتِلُوْنَهُمْ اَوْ يُسْلِمُوْنَ فَاِنْ تُطِيْعُوْا يُؤْتِكُمُ اللّٰهُ اَجْرًا حَسَنًا وَاِنْ تَتَوَلَّوْا كَمَا تَوَلَّيْتُمْ مِّنْ قَبْلُ يُعَذِّبْكُمْ عَذَابًا اَلِيْمًا۔

{Say (O Propeht) to the desert - Arabs who were left behind: "You shall be soon called against a people of great might, then you shall fight or they shall surrender. Then if you obey, Allah will grant you a good reward; but if you turn back as you turned back before, He shall chastise you with a painful chastisement."} (98:16)

As foretold in this verse, the desert Arabs (or the villager) were called to fight the enemies of Islam by abu Bakr رضي الله عنه during his caliphate. This is clear that Abu Bakr's caliphate is confirmed by this verse and it is explained by Ibn Abu Hatim رحمه الله, Ibn Qutaybah رحمه الله, and others. Also, it is established by this verse that anyone who keeps away from jihad after his call will be punished severely. Such a great thing is said about this man by the Quran, yet there are those who curse him and call him a disbeliever. Should they not fear their fate?

(7)The Quran confirms that these sahabah رضي الله عنهم would be admitted to paradises:

لَا يَسْتَوِيْ مِنْكُمْ مَّنْ اَنْفَقَ مِنْ قَبْلِ الْفَتْحِ وَقٰتَلَ اُولٰٓئِكَ اَعْظَمُ دَرَجَةً مِّنَ الَّذِيْنَ اَنْفَقُوْا مِنْ بَعْدُ وَقٰتَلُوْا وَكُلًّا وَّعَدَ اللّٰهُ الْحُسْنٰى۔

{Not equal is he with the rest of you who spent and fought before the victory. Such are higher in rank than those who spent and fought afterwards. And to each Allah has promised a goodly (reward)} (57:10)

(The victory mentioned here is the conquest of Makah)

Therefore, if anyone says that these sahabah رضي الله عنهم will not enter paradise then he positively rejects the confirmed texts (of the Quran).

(8)Allah says of Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه in the Quran:

ثَانِيَ اثْنَيْنِ اِذْ هُمَا فِي الْغَارِ اِذْ يَقُوْلُ لِصَاحِبِهٖ لَا تَحْزَنْ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ مَعَنَا۔

{....he being the second of the two when they were both in the cave, when he said his companion ;Grieve not, surely Allah is with us} (9:40)

Those who revile Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه must themselves think of their fate, bearing in mind that Allah mentions him as the companion of His Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم and his dedicated and loyal disciple.

(9)This is another verse:

وَلَا يَأْتَلِ أُولُوْ الْفَضْلِ مِنْكُمْ وَالسَّعَةِ۔

{The men of grace and wealth among you....} (24:22)

The man named in this verse is Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ. the reliable, learned exegetes and the scholars say that he is Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ. so, if anyone denies his merit then he questions the Quran.

(10) Allah says:

وَسَيُجَنَّبُهَا الْأَتْقَى * الَّذِيْ يُؤْتِيْ مَالَهُ يَتَزَكّٰى۔ وَمَا لِأَحَدٍ عِنْدَهُ مِنْ نِّعْمَةٍ تُجْزٰى * إِلَّا ابْتِغَاءَ وَجْهِ رَبِّهِ الْأَعْلٰى

وَلَسَوْفَ يَرْضٰى۔

{For removed from it (hell) will be the most God-fearing who gives his wealth to purify himself, and not in recompense for a favour done to him by anyone, except only in seeking the countenance of his Lord the Most High. And surely he will soon be well pleased.} (92:17-21)

These verses too glorify Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ not Ali ibn Abu Talib رضی اللہ عنہ. The exegetes say the background of these verses is that Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ spent a large amount of his wealth for Allah's pleasure. He purchase Sayyiduna Bilal رضی اللہ عنہ and others from slavery from the infidels and set them free.

We asks: If Allah describes anyone as pious and righteous, then will he be eligible for mercy or for curse?

THE AHADITH: New, let us examine the ahadith. While there are many ahadith of this subject, we shall present only a few.

عَنْ عويمر ابن ساعدة إِنَّهُ صلى الله عليه وسلم قَالَ ان الله اختارلى واختار لى اصحاباً فجعل لى منهم وزراء وانصارا واصهارا فمن سبهم فعليه لعنة الله والملئكة والناس اجمعين وَلَا يقبل الله مِنْهُ صرفاً وَلَا عدلًا۔ (محاطی، طبرانی، حاکم)

Sayyiduna Uwaymir ibn Sa'idha رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Allah chose me and He chose my companions for me. Then, He made some of them my ministers, some my helpers and some my relatives. Anyone reviles them, may there be on his the curse of Allah, the curse of the angels and the curse of all mankind. May Allah not accept his repentance, nor his fidyah (expiation)." meaning his supererogatory and obligatory deeds will not be approved.[1]

عَنْ على عن النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ سياتى من بعدى قوم يُقَالَ لهم الرفضة فَإِنْ ادركتهم فاقتلهم فانهم مشركون قَالَ قُلْتُ يا رسول الله ما العلامة فيهم قَالَ يفرطونك بماليس فيك ويطعنون على السلف۔ دار قطنی۔

Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "There will arise after me a people who will be called (Arabic) ar rafadah) Rafidi. If you come across them, kill them for they are polytheists." He (Ali) رضی اللہ عنہ said that he asked, "O Messenger of Allah, what is their sign?" He said, "They will exaggerate while describing you with what you do not possess and curse (and revile) their predecessors (meaning, the sahabah."[1]

According to another version:

وذلك يسبون ابابكر وعمر ومن سب اصحابي فعليه لعنت الله والملئكة والناس۔

"And that is because they will revile Abu Bakr and Umar. And, he who reviles my sahabah - may the curse of Allah, of the angels and of all mankind be on him."[2]

Similar traditions are narrated by Anas رضی اللہ عنہ, Iyad Ansari رضی اللہ عنہ, Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ Hasan ibn Ali رضی اللہ عنہ. Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ Sayyidah Fatimah Zuhra رضی اللہ عنہا, Sayyidah Umm slamah رضی اللہ عنہا.

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم also said:

من ابغضهم فقد ابغضني ومن آذا هم فقد اذاني ومن اذاني فقد اذى الله۔

"He who is hostile to the sahabah is, indeed, hostile to me. He who hurts them has, indeed, hurt me. And, he who hurts me has, indeed, hurt Allah."

Ibn Asakir رحمہ اللہ has transmitted this hadith:

ان رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ حب ابي بكر وعمر ايمان وبغضهما كفر۔

Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "To love Abu Bakr and Umar is faith but to despise them is disbelief."

Abdullah ibn Ahmad رحمہ اللہ reported from Anas رضی اللہ عنہ in a marfu form:

انى لا رجو لامتي في حبهم لابي بكر وعمر ما ارجو اهم في قول لا اله الا اللّٰه۔

"Surely, I cherish for my ummah against their love for Abu Bakr and Umar the same reward for them as is due in return for (their testimony of) لا الہ الا اللہ (there is no God but Allah).

Obviously, there is tremendous contradiction between love and hatred. So, we can see what awaits one who love Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ and Umar رضی اللہ عنہ. The reward for that is unwavering faith and prosperity in both worlds. On this basis, it is logical to infer that hatred and hostility leads to disbelief and the consequences are disgrace and ruin in the hereafter.

SAYING OF ULAMA: Having read the ahadith about the merits of the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم we must see what the imams and guides of Shari'ah say on this subject. However, we must first bear in mind that to impeach the believers of infidelity or disbelief, and calling Muslim and Muslims and Believers unbelievers, is itself disbelief. According to a hadith: "If anyone calls another person 'a disbelievers' or 'an enemy of Allah but hat person is not so then disbelief reverts to him who charges him with it." Therefore, since it is undeniable that the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم were believers and perfect Muslims, anyone who accuses them of disbelief is himself guilty of disbelief.

It is pertinent to say here that the Rawafid not only charge the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم with disbelief and Sayyidah Ayesha رضی اللہ عنہا of being unfaithful, but they also imagine that perpetrating both these things improves their standing and gets their ranks raised. However, it is an agreed principle that regarding sin and disobedience as lawful is by itself disbelief as a mean amelioration of ranks.

(1) Imam Abu Zur'ah رحمه الله, one of the shaykhs of Imam Muslim رحمه الله said that if anyone belittles or insults any of the sahabah رضي الله عنهم of Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم then he is a zindiq (an atheist, irreligious). The reason for that is: 'The quran true and whatever Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم brought is true. And, there was no one at all besides the sahabah رضي الله عنهم who brought to us all these things in toto and with guidance. So anyone who picks faults in the sahabah رضي الله عنهم actually alleges that the Book and the sunnah are false and absurd. On these grounds the most defective and imperfect person is he himself who looks for weakness in others. The application of atheism and misled fits him correctly.
(2) Sahl ibn Abdullah Tastari رحمه الله said, "He who does not venerate the sahabah رضي الله عنهم of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم can never be said to have believed in the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.
(3) Imam Muhammad رحمه الله is quoted by Muhit to have said, "It is not allowed to offer salah behind an imam who is a Rafid because the Rawafid reject the caliphate of Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه."[1]
(4)It is stated in Khulasah:

من انكر خلافة الصديق فهو كافر

"He who repudiates the caliphate of Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه is a disbeliever."
(5)It is stated in Marghinani that it is makruh to offer salah in a congregation led by the followers of their own whims and the innovators. And, it is disallowed behind the Rafidah.
(6)Qadi رحمه الله has written in Shifa that Maalik ibn Anas رحمه الله and others said:

ن ابغض الصحابة وسبهم فليس له في المسلمين حق۔

"He who despises the sahabah رضي الله عنهم and speaks ill of them has no right to the fa'I of the Muslms." (Fai (فئ) is war booty gained without engaging in combat).
He also said:

من غاظه اصحاب محمد صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فهو كافر قَالَ الله تعالى لِيَغِيْظَ بِهِمُ الْكُفَّارَ۔

"He whom the compan'ons of Muhammad رضي الله عنه enrage is a disbeliever. Allah says:

لِيَغِيْظَ بِهِمُ الْكُفَّارَ

(that though them meaning, the believers) He (Allah) may enrage the disbelievers] (48:29)
(7)Qadi Abu Bakr Baqlani رحمه الله has also said something similar.
(8)Bayhaqi رحمه الله has transmitted something like it from Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله. The Hanafi jurists have given their verdict that the Shi'ahs are disbelievers on the basis of this statement of Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله. It is worth pointing out that Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله was the one most acquainted with the beliefs of the Sha'iahs and Rawafid, because he was a Kufi and Kufah is the place from where the Rawafid and the Shi'ahs originated. Since he was declared that the rejecters of the caliphate of Abu Bakr are disbelievers, it follows that if anyone curses Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه Umar رضي الله عنه or any other sahabi, he is more liable to be termed a disbeliever.

[1] Rafad means to abandon, to separate. Rawafid is the plural of Rafidah (or Rafid). They are a sect of the Sh'iah who regard as lawful to abuse the sahabah رضي الله عنه. They are so called because they abandoned their imam Zayd ibn Ali رضي الله عنه when he prohibitive them from abusing Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه

(9)Imam Maalik رحمه الله has given his verdict about one who reviles or speaks ill of any of the sahabah رضي الله عنهم of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

فان قال كانوا على ضلال أو كفر قتل۔

"If he says that they were misled or disbelievers, then kill him.'

(10)Imam Ahmad ibn Hanbal رحمه الله also believed that the Rawafid had apostated.

These are a few arguments and evidences of the Rawafid being disbelievers. Of course, there are many more of them but we suffice with these few to bring out the facts and to avoid lengthening the text. Our objective is to remove any doubt from the minds of our Muslim brothers and that they may esteem the sahabah رضي الله عنهم and know the sin of casting aspersions on them. They may beware of the deception of the Rawfid and preserve their own belief. They must not mingle with them and not intermarry among them.

If any Shai'ah is moved by this discourse and is enabled by Allah, then he may make a repentance. Thereby he will improve his life in the hereafter.

AN OBJECTION: Perhaps any of the Rawafid may ask why do the ahlus sunnah not go by their predecessors. For instance the well known book sharh Aqa'id Nasfi has stated that it is not so simple as the anyone who reviles the shaykhayn should be cast off as a disbelievers. Besides, the writer of Jami'al-Usool and the writer of Mawaqif have counted he Shi'ah among the sects of Islam. and shaykh Abu al-Hasan Ash'ary رحمه الله and imam Ghazzali رحمه الله have considered it improper that the ahl ul qiblah (those who are oriented to the qiblah for their salah) should be called disbelievers.

The answer to this objection is that truly these venerable man of the ummah and pillars of learning had observed caution in condemning the shi'as to disbelief and had resorted to patience in casting them out of the sphere of Islam It is not after studying the beliefs and ideologies of the Shi'ah thoroughly and observing their conditions and affairs from all angles that they expressed their views. Rather, the truth is that they did not have the full picture of the convictions of the Shi'as in their minds. They did not posses in depth knowledge about them. They gave their opinion on the premise of their knowledge and information at that time. In fact, there are examples that even great sahabah رضي الله عنهم had doubts on certain issues so that their judgement or deeds differed from the true angle of the question before them. For instance, Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضي الله عنه had doubts about covering hands in salah.[1]

Ali رضي الله عنه was uncertain on the issue of sale of the ummahat ul wlad (the mothers who bear the child of their master), and on the question of burning the zindiqs (athiests) in fire. Umar رضي الله عنه hesitated on the ruling of tayammum (dry ablution) by a sexually defiled person.

In short, the aforementioned religious elders drew their conclusions merely in the light of the fact that the Shi'as observe the qiblah of the Muslims in salah and recite the same kalimah (declaration of faith). So they preferred to be on the safe side and did not give the verdict of disbelievers against the Shi'as. However, the trust is that these elder to could not have hesitated to assert that the Shi'as are disbelievers if they were aware of their convictions which were contrary to their profession of the Kalimah and facing the qiblah of the Muslims in salah. Indeed, that was enough evidence to declare anyone a disbeliever.

When Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه, as caliph, decided to raise the sword against those who refused to pay the zakah denying that it was obligatory, Umar رضی اللہ عنہ and Ali رضی اللہ عنہ intervened on the reasoning that these people professed the Kalimah and recommended that they should be spared, saying, "We cannot fight those who recite our kalimah." And they cited the words of the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم:

[1] In the bowing posture (called itbaq)

امرت ان اقاتل النّاس حتّٰی یقولوا لا الٰه الا اللّٰه۔

"I have been commanded (by my Lord) that I should fight people till they say (لا الٰه الا الله) (There is no god but Allah)."

Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ said firmly and with full resolve, "I shall fight everyone who will differentiate between salah and fasting (If he recites the kalimah, that shall not prevent me from carrying out my resolve.)"

Umar رضی اللہ عنہ conceded, "I saw that Allah opened his breast for this issue. I can say now that he was right."

It is also possible that the aforementioned elders had expressed their opinions concerning the Shi;as who lived in their times and whose beliefs may not have been as corrupted as the convictions of their successor Shi'as and Rawafids. This opinion is upheld by Mulla Ali Qari رحمہ اللہ in Mirqat in these words:

قلت وهذا في حق الرافضة والخارجة في زماننا كانهم يعتقدون كفر اكثر اكابر الصحابة فضلا من سائر اهل السنة والجماعة فهم كفرة بالاجماع بلا نزاع۔

"I say that these views (and verdicts) hold true of the Rafidah and the Kharijah of our times because they believed that most of the senior sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم were disbelievers. They also regarded all the ahlus sunah wa aljama;ah as disbelievers. There is a consensus of the ulama that these sects are disbelievers. No one differs on this verdict."[1]

SAHABAH رضی اللہ عنہم ARE SAFETY FOR THE UMMAH

(٦٠٠٨) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ بُرْدَةَ رَضِيَ اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى عنهم عَنْ اَبِيْهِ قَالَ رَفَعَ يَعْنِي النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ رَاْسَهُ اِلَى السَّمَاءِ وَكَانَ كَثِيْرًا مَا يَرْفَعُ رَاْسَهُ اِلَى السَّمَاءِ فَقَالَ النُّجُوْمُ اَمَنَةٌ لِلسَّمَآءِ فَاِذَا ذَهَبَتِ النُّجُوْمُ اَتَى السَّمَآءَ مَا تُوْعَدُ وَاَنَا اَمَنَةٌ لِاَصْحَابِيْ فَاِذَا ذَهَبْتُ اَتَى اَصْحَابِيْ مَا يُوْعَدُوْنَ وَاَصْحَابِيْ اَمَنَةٌ لِاُمَّتِيْ فَاِذَا ذَهَبَ اَصْحَابِيْ اَتَى اُمَّتِيْ مَا يُوْعَدُوْنَ۔ (رواہ مسلم)

6008. Sayyiduna Abu Burdah رضی اللہ عنہ reported that this father (Abu Musa Ash;ary) رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he, meaning the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, raised his head to the heaven as was his wont to do often (in anticipation of a revelation). Then he said,

'The stars are a means of safety for the sky. When the stars vanish, that which is ordained will come to the sky. I am a means of safety for my shabah. When I depart (from this world), that which is ordained will come to my sahabah. And, my sahabah are a means of safety for my uymmah when my sahabah depart (from this world), that which is ordained will befall my ummah."[1]

COMMENTARY: The word 'stars' (نجوم) is used comprehensively for the heavenly bodies when they vanish they will loss their light and disintegrate. It is as the quran says:

إِذَا الشَّمْسُ كُوِّرَتْ * وَإِذَا النُّجُوْمُ انْكَدَرَتْ۔

{When the sunshine is folded up – and when the stars (are dimmed and) fall.} (81:1-2)

That which is ordained for the heaven is the last Day when they it will cleft asunder (92:1)

إِذَا السَّمَآءُ انْفَطَرَتْ

{When the heaven is cleft asunder} (82:21)

إِذَا السَّمَآءُ انْشَقَّتْ

{When the heaven is split} (84:1)

That which is ordained for the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم is turmoil mischief, dissension civil war and apostatizing of some desert Arabs.

That which is ordained for the ummah is a sudden rise in false beliefs, bad deeds innovation, calamities befalling the Muslims, death of good people, taking order of evil men, the Last Day coming on the evil. This indicates that the existence of good people is he biggest hurdle to evil. When the pious depart, evil gets an opportunity to make inroads.

The Prophet's existence was a perfect assurance for his sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم of safety from evil Mischiefs begin always when differing minds face each other but when the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم were beset with this problem, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم gave them guidance. Thereafter, all of them came to an understanding and there was no question of any dissension arising. However, when he departed from this world, the condition altered. The number of Muslims deprived of the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم company increased and personal opinion took over general consensus. Egoism and base desires were behind that with the result that temptation, trial and mischief became the order of the day. However, as long as the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم were there, they did not let their personal whims dictate. Rather, they always relied on the sayings and deeds of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم or acted on judgement based on his example. They were bright and exemplary because of his company. That is why till they were alive they prevented mischief from spreading.

However, when they too died darkness began to spread, It is this what the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم meant when he gave the example of the stars in the heaven. When the heavenly bodies vanish, it will be time for the heaven to disintegrate and the creation will came to an end in darkness. The sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم are like the stars. Their existence give light to the creation. It is as the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said:

أَصْحَابِیْ كَالنُّجُوْمِ بِأَيِّهِمُ اقْتَدَيْتُمْ اهْتَدَيْتُمْ۔

"My companions are like stars. Whichever of them you follow, you will be guided."

BLESSINGS OF THE SAHABAH رضی اللہ عنہم

(٦٠٠٩) وَعَنْ اَبِي سَعِيْدِنِ الْخُدْرِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَأْتِيْ عَلَى النَّاسِ زَمَانٌ فَيَغْزُوْ فِئَامٌ مِّنَ النَّاسِ فَيَقُوْلُوْنَ هَلْ فِيْكُمْ مَنْ صَاحَبَ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَيَقُوْلُوْنَ نَعَمْ فَيُفْتَحُ لَهُمْ ثُمَّ يَأْتِيْ عَلَى النَّاسِ زَمَانٌ فَيَغْزُوْا فِئَامٌ مِّنَ النَّاسِ فَيُقَالُ هَلْ فِيْكُمْ مَنْ صَاحَبَ اَصْحَابَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَيَقُوْلُوْنَ نَعَمْ فَيُفْتَحُ لَهُمْ ثُمَّ يَأْتِيْ عَلَى النَّاسِ زَمَانٌ فَيَغْزُوْا فِئَامٌ مِّنَ النَّاسِ فَيُقَالُ هَلْ فِيْكُمْ مَنْ صَاحَبَ مَنْ صَاحَبَ اَصْحَابَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَيَقُوْلُوْنَ نَعَمْ فَيُفْتَحُ لَهُمْ مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ لِمُسْلِمٍ قَالَ يَأْتِيْ عَلَى النَّاسِ زَمَانٌ يُبْعَثُ مِنْهُمُ الْبَعْثُ فَيَقُوْلُوْنَ انْظُرُوْا هَلْ تَجِدُوْنَ فِيْكُمْ اَحَدًا مِنْ اَصْحَابِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَيُوْجَدُ الرَّجُلُ فَيُفْتَحُ لَهُمْ ثُمَّ يُبْعَثُ الْبَعْثُ الثَّانِيْ فَيَقُوْلُوْنَ هَلْ فِيْكُمْ مَنْ رَاٰى اَصْحَابَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَيُوْجَدُ فَيُفْتَحُ لَهُمْ ثُمَّ يُبْعَثُ الْبَعْثُ الثَّالِثُ فَيُقَالُ انْظُرُوْا هَلْ تَرَوْنَ فِيْكُمْ مَنْ رَاٰى مَنْ رَاٰى اَصْحَابَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ثُمَّ يَكُوْنُ الْبَعْثُ الرَّابِعُ فَيُقَالُ انْظُرُوْا هَلْ تَرَوْنَ فِيْهِمْ اَحَدًا رَاٰى مَنْ رَاٰى اَحَدًا رَاٰى اَصْحَابَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَيُوْجَدُ الرَّجُلُ فَيُفْتَحُ لَهٗ۔

6009. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed Khudri رضی اللہ عنہ narrated The Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "A time will come to the people when a section of them will advance to fight and they will ask (each other), 'Is there among you any of the sahabah of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم?' They will say, 'Yes!' They will be given victory.

Then a time will came to the people when some of them will proceed to fight and they will be asked, "Is there among you any of those who had been a companion of the sahabah of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم (meaning a tabi'i)?' They will say, 'Yes' They will be given victory.

Then a time will come to the people when a section of them will advance to fight and they will be asked, 'Is there among you any who had given company to those who had been companions of the sahabah of Allah's Messenger (meaning, a taba tabi'ee successor for an epigone)?' they will say 'Yes' They will be given victory."[1]

According to a version in Muslim: He said, "A time will come to the people when an army will be dispatched from among them (to wage jihad). They will say, 'See whether you can find among you one of the sahabah of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, They will find one man so, they will be given victory.

Then (at another time) a second army will be dispatched. They will say, 'Is among them on who had seen any companions of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. One (tabi'I or epigone) will be found and they will be given victory.

Then a third army will be sent ahead. It will be asked, 'Look if you find among them any who had seen one who did see the companions of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.[1] Then, there will be fourth army that will be dispatched. It will be said, "Look do you find among them one who had seen any who did see one who saw the companions of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. A man will be found and they will be given victory."[2]

COMMENTARY: Both these versions of the hadith mention the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم miracle. He foretold how for four generation his sahabah رضي الله عنهم or those succeeding them will be instrumental in getting the Muslim army victory. It shows their merit and blessings.

The first version mentions three generation: the sahabah, the tabi'un and the taba'taiun, The second mentions a fourth generation too. A version of Bukhari also mentions four generation. Till the first three generation there were many good. Learned and wise people so the gate to foolishness and mischief was shut. This is why most versions mention only three generations.

A marfu hadith of Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها in Muslim is:

خير النَّاس القرن الذی انا فیه ثُمَّ الثانی ثُمَّ الثالث۔

"The best people are found in the generation in which I live. Then the second, then the third."

Tabarani رحمه الله has transmitted from Ibn Mas'ud رضي الله عنه.

خیر النَّاس قرنی ثُمَّ الثانی ثم الثالث ثُمَّ تجئی قوم لا خیر فیهم۔ (طبرانی)

"The best people are those of my time. Then, the second, Then, the third. Then a people will come not be good people (like the previous age).

The version in the Muslim has: "He who has been the sahabah رضي الله عنهم of Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم." this means that a person qualifies as a tabi'I (epigone) if he has seen a sahabi رضي الله عنه. It is like qualifying as a sahabi on merely seeing Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم. But, some ulama say that while it is enough for anyone to see (or meet) Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم to qualify as a sahabi, it is necessary to have beenin the company and service of a shabi to qualify as a tabi'I so the words seen the shabah would mean been in the company of he sahabah رضي الله عنهم.

(٦٠١٠، ٦٠١١) وَعَنْ عِمْرَانَ ابْنِ حُصَيْنٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ خَيْرُ أُمَّتِيْ قَرْنِيْ ثُمَّ الَّذِيْنَ يَلُوْنَهُمْ ثُمَّ الَّذِيْنَ يَلُوْنَهُمْ ثُمَّ إِنَّ بَعْدَ هُمْ قَوْمٌ يَشْهَدُوْنَ وَلَا يُسْتَشْهَدُوْنَ وَيَخُوْنُوْنَ وَلَا يُؤْتَمَنُوْنَ وَيَنْذُرُوْنَ وَلَا يَفُوْنَ وَيَظْهَرُ فِيْهِمُ السِّمَنُ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ وَيَحْلِفُوْنَ وَلَا يُسْتَحْلَفُوْنَ مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ لِمُسْلِمٍ عَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ ثُمَّ يَخْلُفُ قَوْمٌ يُحِبُّوْنَ السَّمَانَةَ۔

6010.Sayyiduna Imran ibn Husayn رضي الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "the best of my ummah are (they who belong to) my generation (meaning , the sahabah), then they who will follow them (on their heels the tabi'un)and then they who will follow them (the taba'tabiun). Then, after them will be a people who will give testimony though they will not be asked to bear testimony, who will be treacherous ad they will not be relied upon, who will make vows but will not fulfil their vows. They will be fat and fleshy."

According to a version: "They will swear oaths (unnecessarily) without being called upon swear oaths."[1]

6011. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated (that he said,) "Then a people will follow who will like fatness."[2]

COMMENTARY: The Arabic word (قرن) means: era, times, generation. It extends between forty years and eighty years, or one hundred years. But, the correct thing is that it is not limited to months or years. Every era or generation of people of similar age is a qarn. Or, they are a people of similar age and similar conditions, like the sahabah رضی الله عنهم whose qarn began with the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم mission and ended with the death of the last of the sahabah رضی الله عنهم namely in 120 AH. The next qarn was of the tabi'un which began in 100AH and culminated in 170 AH. The third was of the successors of the tabi'un (taba taqbi'un). It began after the qarn of the tabi'un and extended up to 220 AH hereafter the series of good and blessing came to an end which was bestowed on the first qarn and more or less on the next two qarns. Thereafter, innovations began to appear. Strange practices croped up in the name of religion. The (so called) philosophers and the intelligentsia raised their heads, the mu'tazilah showed itself and they took it upon themselves to mutilate the religion. They originated the mischief of calling the Quran 'a creation' whereby the learned were thrown into a terrible trial and religion became clouded for the people. Novel ideas were sounded. Disputes were raised and differences and discord became common replaced by love of the world. The injunctions of Shari'ah were ignored and the moral life of the people was corrupted. That which the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم had told us in this hadith about the people came to the surface.

TESTIMONY: This hadith seems to say that it is bad, to offer testimony without being invited to give it. But, according to another hadith, "the best of all witnesses. Is he who bears testimony before he is requested to give it." The fact is that if a person is known to have witnessed anything but is not called upon to testify neither by the aggrieved nor by the court then he should not give testimony uninvited, else it would be presumed that he has ulterior motives. As for the other hadith, it is about a person who has seen something happen but no one else is aware that he is a witness. So, if he is driven by good intentions and wishes to help his Muslim brother and efforts the aggrieved person to give testimony then he may give testimony on being requested to do so. This person is certainly praiseworthy. It could also be said that this second hadith means that when witnesses are invited, the man who had seen or known about the incident must not hesitate and must no conceal his testimony. He must offer it promptly.

As for the first hadith that condemns an uninvited witness it is about one who is in competent and not eligible to give testimony. Or, in concerns one who is liable to give false testimony.

Some scholars suggest that the first hadith condemning an uninvited witness concerns rights of follow men while the other hadith praising him is about rights of Allah provided there is no wisdom in concealing a testimony.

Some authorities maintain that the word (شهادة) testimony in the first hadith means 'oath' In this case, the first phrase will be translated. "there will be after them who will swear false oaths before anyone asks them to swear."
BETRAYAL: The hadith speaks of treacherous people. They will be so daring and open that people will not trust them in anything at all. This does not include one who betrays occasionally.
VOWS: The next kind is he who does not honour his vow. He will not think of it as of importance. It is essential to fulfil a vow when one makes it. Allah has praised his pious slaves who practice it. He says:

يُوْفُوْنَ بِالنَّذْرِ وَيَخَافُوْنَ يَوْمًا كَانَ شَرُّهٗ مُسْتَطِيْرًا۔

{They fulfil their vows and fear the day whose calamity shall be for reaching} (76:7)
OBESITY: The Arabic word (سمن) means fatness, corpulence, resulting from overeating and opulence. It is not the fatness that is natural or by birth. Some authorities say that in this context fatness means arrogance and boasting to show off one's wealth fake prosperity, social standing and nobility, but these are merely presumed and entirely lacking.
Some authorities say that (سمن) means to amass wealth and be engaged in nourishing one's body.
Toorpushti رحمه الله said that they will be fleshy and fat are a figurative expression to show that they would be negligent in observing religion and obeying commands of Shari'ah. They will not be mindful to what is enjoined and what is forbidden though that is the real demand of religion. This is referred to as fatness because fat people are generally lethargic. They shun tasks of hard work and energy. Mostly they crave to feed themselves, care for their bodies and look for opportunities of comfort and luxury on their mattresses.
It is stated in Sharh Muslim that such obesity is disliked as is grown intentionally. Natural fatness is neither condemned nor in that the subject of these ahadith. This explanation also makes clear the following tradition:

إِنَّ اللّٰهَ يُبْغِضُ الْحِبْرَ السَّمِيْنَ۔

"Allah does not like a fat scholar."

SECTION II الفصل الثاني

SAHABAH MUST BE HONOURED

(٦٠١٢) عَنْ عُمَرَ رَضِيَ اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى عنه قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَكْرِمُوْا اَصْحَابِيْ فَإِنَّهُمْ خِيَارُكُمْ ثُمَّ الَّذِيْنَ يَلُوْنَهُمْ ثُمَّ الَّذِيْنَ يَلُوْنَهُمْ ثُمَّ يَظْهَرُ الْكِذْبُ حَتّٰى اَنَّ الرَّجُلَ لَيَحْلِفُ وَلَا يُسْتَحْلَفُ وَيَشْهَدُ وَلَا يُسْتَشْهَدُ اِلَّا مَنْ سَرَّهٗ بُحْبُوْحَةُ الْجَنَّةِ فَلْيَلْزَمِ الْجَمَاعَةَ فَاِنَّ الشَّيْطَانَ مَعَ الْفَذِّ وَهُوَ مِنَ الْاِثْنَيْنِ اَبْعَدُ وَلَا يَخْلُوَنَّ رَجُلٌ بِامْرَاَةٍ فَاِنَّ الشَّيْطٰنَ ثَالِثُهُمْ وَمَنْ سَرَّتْهُ حَسَنَتُهٗ وَسَآءَتْهُ سَيِّئَتُهٗ فَهُوَ مُؤْمِنٌ رَوَاهُ النِّسَائِيُّ وَاَسْنَادُهٗ صَحِيْحٌ وَرِجَالُهٗ رِجَالُ الصَّحِيْحِ اِلَّا اِبْرَاهِيْمَ ابْنَ الْحَسَنِ الْخَثْعَمِيِّ فَاِنَّهٗ لَمْ يُخْرِجْ عَنْهُ الشَّيْخَانِ وَهُوَ ثِقَةٌ ثَبَتٌ۔

6012. Sayyiduna Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Honour my sahabah. They are the best of you. Then, those who succeed them and then those who succeed them (close on heels meaning, the tabi'un and the taba tabi'un). After that falsehood would expose itself till a man would take an oath without being asked to (swear) and would offer testimony without anyone asking him to give it. He who cherishes to reside in the centre of paradise (which is its best place) must stick to the community, else the devil remains with one who is alone, but distances himself from two (people who are together). Beware! no man stays in solitude with a woman without the devil being the third of them. He to whom his piety and righteousness please him and his impiety annoys him is indeed a believer."[1]

COMMENTARY: This hadith also mentions the three initial generations of Islam as the most excellent. Indeed, even those who were unknown were regarded as fair and just, barring a few rare cases for after all, even they were not innocent people. Of these three, the first generation who were the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم were outstanding. Every Muslim is bound to honour and respect them, even after their death, till the last Hour. A person may attain great height in knowledge, merit, wisdom, piety, resole, etc. but he cannot be at par with any companion of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. He is never qualified and allowed to pick faults in the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہ. If anyone dares to do that then he disobeys Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم since he damages the honour and sanctity of the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم he risk his faith. The sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم are the best people of the umah. They were the companions and servants of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and were taught and trained by him. Even for those of them who had no opportunity to serve and keep his company but merely saw him that itself was a great fortune and their rank is higher than the greatest of the scholars and religious leaders of this ummah, ascetics and warriors.

Shaykh Abu Talib Makki رحمہ اللہ has said a very true thing 'Just one glimpse of the beauty of the countenance of Mustafa صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم got him who glimpses what others could not got after prolonged devotional exercises and retiring in solitude. They achieved the wealth of visual faith and the eye of certainty in which no one else associated with them.

FALSEHOOD AFTER THAT: That hadith says that during the three generations, religion will retain its original form. People will be sincere and do everything for Allah's sake, However, after the third, times will not be safe for religion and truth. Innovations will crop up and base desires will be pursued, It was much later that sects with ideologies contrary to Islam arose like the Mu'tazillah, Riyah, Marjiyah, etc.

The hadith also emphasizes that one would stick to the community. This means the great majority of the masses in religious verdicts and teachings. No one should follow his own whims else the devil will make him his play thing. The majority may be followed by loving the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم and those of the two generations after them. And all of them should be respected.

A perfect believer is pleased when he performs a pious deed but if he happens to commit wrong than he is displeased and restless. He who lacks this kind of feeling is like one whose heart is dead. He has lost all feelings and sensations. He is like a hypocrite to whom it is the same thing piety and sin. The Quran says:

وَلَا تَسْتَوِى الْحَسَنَةُ وَلَا السَّيِّئَةُ۔

{And not alike are the god deed and the evil deed.} (41:34)

MERIT OF THE SAHABAH رضی اللہ عنہم OR THE TABI'UN رضی اللہ عنہ

(٦٠١٣) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ رَضِيَ اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى عنه عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَا تَمَسُّ النَّارُ مُسْلِمًا رَاٰنِيْ اَوْ رَاٰى مَنْ رَاٰنِيْ۔ (رواه الترمذى)

6013. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "the fire (of hell will not touch a Muslim who has seen me or seen one who has seen me."[1]

COMMENTARY: The person who saw the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم (meaning a sahabi or a companion of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and one who has seen a sahabi (meaning, a tabi'i) will be admitted to paradise, provided they had died as believers professing islam of course, the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم and the tabi'un رحمہ اللہ will go to paradise, subject to this proviso, but we have hopes in Allah's mercy that all Muslim will go to paradise.

It must be understood that hopes for anyone going to paradise has the implicit condition attached to it that he would die as a believer professing Islam. But the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had given explicit glad tidings of some people that they would be admitted to paradise definitely. Example are the ahrh mubashshirah or as he stated in this hadith, the sahabah and the tabi'un. This however does not prelude the other Muslims. In fact he comforted the other Muslims too when he said:

طُوْبٰى لِمَنْ رَاٰنِيْ وَاٰمَنَ بِيْ مَرَّةً وَطُوْبٰى لِمَنْ لَّمْ يَرَنِيْ وَاٰمَنَ بِيْ سَبْعَ مَرَّاتٍ۔

"He is blessed once who has seen me and has believed in me.
But he is blessed seven times who has not seen me yet has believed in me."[2]

MERITS OF THE SAHABAH رضی اللہ عنہم

(٦٠١٤) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ مُغَفَّلٍ رَضِيَ اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى عَنه قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَللّٰهَ اَللّٰهَ فِيْ اَصْحَابِيْ اَللّٰهَ اَللّٰهَ فِيْ اَصْحَابِيْ لَا تَتَّخِذُوْ هُمْ غَرَضًا مِنْ بَعْدِيْ فَمَنْ اَحَبَّهُمْ فَبِحُبِّيْ اَحَبَّهُمْ وَمَنْ اَبْغَضَهُمْ فَبِبُغْضِيْ اَبْغَضَهُمْ وَمَنْ اٰذَاهُمْ فَقَدْ اٰذَانِيْ وَمَنْ اٰذَانِيْ فَقَدْ اٰذَى اللّٰهَ وَمَنْ اٰذَى اللّٰهَ فَيُوْشِكُ اَنْ يَّاْخُذَهُ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

6014. Sayyiduna Abdulah ibn Mughafal رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said (addressing his ummah), "Allah, Allah! (fear Him concerning) my sahabah! Alah, Allah! (fear him concerning(my sahabah! Do not seize them after me (to blame them). He who loves them, love them because of his love of me and he who despises them, despises them because of his dislike of me. And, he who hurts them, hurts me and he who hurts me (actually) hurts Allah, and he who hurts Allah, the day is not for off when he will seize him (for punishment)."[3]

Tirmidhi said this hadith is gharib.

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, " (Fear) Allah twice in order not emphasize the message. It calls for respecting them and recognizing their merit and excellence at all time. They have attained a high position by being his companion, so their right must be given to them.

They must not be seized. These words mean that they should not be criticized. One must not do anything contrary to their high standing. No one should pick fault in them.

If anyone love them, he loves them because he loves the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم Or, he loves them because the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم Or he loves them because the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم loves them. But, the first meaning is more correct because it goes with the next sentence that if any detest them, it is like detesting the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. This means that Maalikis are correct when they say that anyone who reviles the sahabah رضي الله عنهم deserves to be killed.

The ulama maintain that for a love to be true, it is imperative that one must also love everyone connected with the dear one. The sign that one loves Allah is that he should also love His Messenger. And, the sign that he loves the messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم is that he loves his family descendants and companions.

If anyone perpetrates such deeds as suggest that he is out to hurt Allah, then he cannot escape Allah's punishment not only in the hereafter but also in this world. Perhaps, this hadith is based on these words of Allah;

إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يُؤْذُونَ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ لَعَنَهُمُ اللَّهُ فِي الدُّنْيَا وَالْآخِرَةِ وَأَعَدَّ لَهُمْ عَذَابًا مُهِينًا * وَالَّذِينَ

يُؤْذُونَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَالْمُؤْمِنَاتِ بِغَيْرِ مَا اكْتَسَبُوا فَقَدِ احْتَمَلُوا بُهْتَانًا وَإِثْمًا مُبِينًا *

{Most surely as to those who (wish to) annoy Allah and His Messenger, Allah has disapproved to them in this world and the hereafter and He has prepared for them a degrading agony. And as to those who annoy the believing men and the believing women without their having deserved it, they then surely have taken the burden of a columny and a clear sin} (33:57-58)

SIMILITUDE OF THE SAHABAH رضي الله عنهم & THE UMMAH

(٦٠١٥) وَعَنْ أَنَسٍ رَضِيَ اللهُ تَعَالَى عَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللهِ صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَثَلُ أَصْحَابِي فِي أُمَّتِي كَالْمِلْحِ

فِي الطَّعَامِ لَا يَصْلُحُ الطَّعَامُ إِلَّا بِالْمِلْحِ قَالَ الْحَسَنُ فَقَدْ ذَهَبَ مِلْحُنَا فَكَيْفَ نَصْلُحُ رَوَاهُ فِي شَرْحِ السُّنَّةِ

6015. Sayyiduna Anas رضي الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The example of my shabah among my ummah is like salt In food. Food is not good unless there is salt in it."

Hasan (Busri) رحمه الله said, "Indeed, our salt his disappeared. How then can we be good?"[1]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Hasan Busri رحمه الله said that since the sahabah رضي الله عنهم are no more among us, how may one say that we shall be good, for as long as they were among the ummah, they were an assurance of their being guided. His words depict a regret and a terrible grief at being without them. He expressed this even though there were some sahabah رضي الله عنهم alive in his time. He died in 110 AH.

[1] Bayhaqi in Sharh us sunah # 3863 (Also Abn Yala in his musnad from Anas رضي الله عنه in a marfu from).

Mulla Ali Qari رحمه الله has commented very wisely on the expression of regret of Hasan Busri رحمه الله. He said, "although the sahabah رضى الله عنهم are not among us, yet we can be good and improved if we abide by their sayings, by the traditions transmitted by them and by emulating their lofty manners and qualities. That which matters really is these very things, not their persons and bodies.

THE SAHABAH WILL BE RESURRECTED WHERE THEY HAVE DIED

(٦٠١٦) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ بُرَيْدَةَ عَنْ اَبِيْهِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا مِنْ اَحَدٍ مِنْ اَصْحَابِيْ يَمُوْتُ بِاَرْضٍ اِلَّا بُعِثَ قَائِدًا وَنُوْرًا لَهُمْ يَوْمَ الْقِيٰمَةِ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ وَ ذُكِرَ حَدِيْثُ ابْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ لَا يُبَلِّغُنِيْ اَحَدٌ فِيْ بَابِ حِفْظِ اللِّسَانِ۔

6016. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Burydah رضى الله عنه reported that his father (Abu Musa Ash'ary) narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "None of my shabah will die in a land (anywhere whatsoever) but will be resurrected (there from his grave on the day of resurrection as a leader and a light for its people (leading them to paradise with his light)."[1]

Tirmidhi termed this hadith as gharib

And the hadith of Ibn Masud رضى الله عنه (ذکر حدیث ابن مسعود لا یبلغنی احد فی باب حفظ اللسان۔) which the compiler of Masabih had placed in this chapter has been narrated in the chapter (باب حفظ اللسان) (guarding the tongue....) # 4852, previously.

SECTION III الفصل الثالث

ONE WHO REVILES THE SAHABAH رضى الله عنهم IS LIABLE TO BE CURSED

(٦٠١٧) عَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ رضى الله تعالى عنهما قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا رَاَيْتُمُ الَّذِيْنَ يَسُبُّوْنَ اَصْحَابِيْ فَقُوْلُوْا لَعْنَةُ اللّٰهِ عَلٰى شَرِّكُمْ۔ (رواه الترمذى)

6017. Sayyiduna Ibn Uamr رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "When you see those who revile my sahabah, say, 'May the curse of Allah be on your evil action."[2]

COMMENTARY: This hadith has a hint that anyone who reviles the sahabah رضى الله عنهم it rebounds on him as a curse because he is the mischievous one. The sahabah رضى الله عنهم are the good and righteous people. So they deserve praise and willing acceptance. Besides, the hadith also teaches us that instead of calling a curse on the person his action must be cursed. It is a safe course.

This hadith has been transmitted by Khatib رحمه الله too. Also, Ibn Adi رحمه الله has transmitted in a marfu form from Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها.

اِنَّ اَشْرَارَ اُمَّتِيْ اَجْرَؤُهُمْ عَلٰى اَصْحَابِيْ۔

"The evil members of my ummah are they who are disrespectful to my sahabah."

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 3865 (3891)

[2] Tirmidhi # 3866 (39892). Not the person but his action Must be cursed.

Another marfu hadith is:

يَكُوْنُ فِيْ اٰخِرِ الزَّمَانِ قَوْمٌ يُسَمُّوْنَ الرَّافِضَةَ يَرْفِضُوْنَ الْاِسْلَامَ فَاقْتُلُوْهُمْ فَاِنَّهُمْ مُشْرِكُوْنَ

"During the last days there will be a people called (الرفضه) Rafidah. They will desert Islam. So kill them, for, they are polytheists."

Another hadith is:

وَيَنْتَحِلُوْنَ حُبَّ اَهْلِ الْبَيْتِ وَلَيْسُوْ كَذٰلِكَ وَاٰيَةُ ذٰلِكَ اَنَّهُمْ يَسُبُّوْنَ اَبَابَكْرٍ وَعُمَرَ۔

"They claim to have the company of the people of the house (meaning, my family). But that will not be so evidence f it is that they will revile Abu Bakr and Umar."

The great sahabah رضی الله عنهم and the people of the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم household have departed from this world. But such disrespectful ones have arisen as the rawafid and the Khawarij who revile the sahabah رضی الله عنهم and speak ill of the Prophet 's صلی الله علیه وسلم household. The record of deeds of the former are credited even now although they cannot perform any deed because of the abuse and slander cast on them by the disrespectful evil ones whose punishment is being multiplied. Those who revile the great beings and have evil ideas about them became means of getting more and increased reward for the former but plunge themselves in more severe chastisement.

SAHABAH رضی الله عنهم ARE A MEANS OF GUIDANCE

(٦٠١٨) وَعَنْ عُمَرَ بْنِ الْخَطَّابِ رَضِيَ اللّٰه تَعَالٰى عَنْه قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ سَاَلْتُ رَبِّيْ عَنْ اِخْتِلَافِ اَصْحَابِيْ مِنْ بَعْدِيْ فَاَوْحٰى اِلَيَّ يَا مُحَمَّدُ اِنَّ اَصْحَابَكَ عِنْدِيْ بِمَنْزِلَةِ النُّجُوْمِ فِي السَّمَاءِ بَعْضُهَا اَقْوٰى مِنْ بَعْضٍ وَلِكُلٍّ نُوْرٌ فَمَنْ اَخَذَ بِشَيْءٍ مِمَّا هُمْ عَلَيْهِ مِنْ اِخْتِلَافِهِمْ فَهُوَ عِنْدِيْ عَلٰى هُدًى قَالَ وَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَصْحَابِيْ كَالنُّجُوْمِ فَبِاَيِّهِمُ اقْتَدَيْتُمْ اِهْتَدَيْتُمْ۔ (رواه رزين)

6018. Sayyiduna Umar ibn al_Khattab رضی الله عنه narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم say, "I asked my Lord about the disagreement among my companions after my death (on rulings on issues pertaining to Shari'ah). He sent me a revelation (comforting me). 'O Muhammad, in my sight, your companion are like the stars in the sky, some stronger than the others (as the stars are in their brightness) but all (of them) have light. So, if anyone adopts anything on which they differ he is in My esteem rightly guided."

Umer رضی الله عنه added that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "My sahabah are like the star, whichever of them you emulate, you will be guided."[1]

COMMENTARY: Like the stars on a dark night serve as lighthouses for the travelers { a desert, the sahabah lead people to the true path and put them away from the wrong path. It is as the Quran says:

وَبِالنَّجْمِ هُمْ يَهْتَدُوْنَ

{And by the stars they are guided} (16:16)

Their noble lies serve as guidance for the people.

The differences among the imams serves as mercy for the ummah. It is as Teebi رحمه الله cautioned, "Differences on auxiliary and subsidiary issues of religion, not on the basic tenets of faith."
Syed Jamal uddin رحمه الله has written that they are difference on worldly matter, not on religious issues, It is as the disagreement concerning caliphate and rule among the sahabah رضی الله عنهم that had cropped up.
Mulla Ali Qari رحمه الله has said that even these differences in matters of cliphate were disagreement on auxiliary and subsidiary issues of religion because they had differed in judgement (like the nature of ijtihad), not for worldly reason or selfish ends as the kings and sovereign of the world do.
None of the sahabah رضی الله عنهم locked knowledge of religion and Shari'ah. Each of them possessed knowledge of religion and figh depending on his ability. So whatever he said on these subjects may he emulated and it is an assurance of being guided.
However, the ulama have commented on the hadith (اصحابی کالنجوم الخ) (my sahabah are like stars). Ibn Hajar رحمه الله has spoken on it at length and termed the hadith as da'if. He has cited Ibn Hazm رحمه الله to say that it is mawda batil (invented, false). But, he has also quoted Bayhaqi رحمه الله who said that some portion of this hadith is supported by another hadith of Muslim whose words are:

النجوم امنة السماء

"The stars are guards of the sky."
And this hadith has the words:

واصحابي امنة لامتي

"And my companions are trustee and protectors of my ummah."

CHAPTER – XXX

EXCELLENT QUALITIES OF ABU BAKR رضی الله عنه — باب مناقب ابی بکر رضی اللہ تعالی عنه

SECTION I — اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

(٦٠١٩) عَنْ اَبِيْ سَعِيْدِ نِ الْخُدْرِيِّ رَضِيَ اللهُ تَعَالٰى عَنْهُ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اِنَّ مِنْ اَمَنِّ النَّاسِ عَلَيَّ فِيْ صُحْبَتِهٖ وَمَالِهٖ اَبُوْ بَكْرٍ وَعِنْدَ الْبُخَارِيِّ اَبَابَكْرٍ وَلَوْ كُنْتُ مُتَّخِذًا خَلِيْلًا لَاتَّخَذْتُ اَبَابَكْرٍ خَلِيْلًا وَلٰكِنْ اُخُوَّةُ الْاِسْلَامِ وَمَوَدَّتُهٗ لَا تُبْقَيَنَّ فِي الْمَسْجِدِ خَوْخَةٌ اِلَّا خَوْخَةَ اَبِيْ بَكْرٍ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ لَوْ كُنْتُ مُتَّخِذًا خَلِيْلًا غَيْرَ رَبِّيْ لَاتَّخَذْتُ اَبَابَكْرٍ خَلِيْلًا۔ (متفق عليه)

6019. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed Al -Khudri رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "surely, of the People, he who has been most co-operative with me with his companionship and property is Abu Bakr." (It is in the nominative case Abu but Bukhari has it in the accusative case Abu Bakr). "And, if I were to take friend, I would take Abu Bakr as a friend. But, the fraternity of Islam and love of it is there (and it is higher). Let no window (or opening) remain in the mosque (Masjid Nabawi) except the window of Abu Bakr."

According to another version: "If I were to take a friend other than my Lord, I would take Abu Bakr for friend."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said of Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه in very loving tones that he was always in the forefront to serve him with the spirit of self-abnegation and sincerity. He offered his property generously for religion in order to please the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and also for the well-being of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. That was his distinguishing characteristic which raised him to a rank higher than the other sahabah رضى الله عنهم and, in fact, a rank higher than all people of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ummah.,

KHALIL: Depending on how it is derived the word (خليل) khalil means:

(i) A true friend. It is close friendship that circulates in the veins. It is not only demonstrated out worldly but is also deep rooted in the heart.

(ii) Need – a friend in need to whom one resorts in need. If he were two choose a friend to whom he could turn in need then he would have chosen Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه. But in all these affairs, I turn only to Allah. He is my only support and hope. As for Islamic fraternity, I have it will all the ummah and Abu Bakr's standing is higher than every one else. "The scholars of hadith prefer the first meaning.

In the beginning, house were adjoined to the Masjid Nabawi and their windows opened toward it. People used them to enter and go out of the Masjid Nabawi. Or, their ventilators opened into it so they could see the interior of the mosque and know when the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم came to it. When he was ill, his final instructions included the command that those windows or ventilators should be closed, except that of the house of Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه. While this command indicated the excellence of Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه, it also was a hint that he should lead the Muslims after him as their caliphs. It is stated that some people raised eyebrows but he said to them, "'This is not my decision. Rather, it is a command of Allah." It is also reported that Umar رضى الله عنه requested, 'Permit me to keep a ventilator upon in my house so that I may know on seeing from it that you have arrived in the mosque." But, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "No! There should remain no opening not even the size of a needle's head."

DIFFERING TRADITIONS FOR ABU BAKR رضى الله عنه OR ALI رضى الله عنه: Hafiz Ibn Hajar Asqalani رحمه الله has stated his commentary on the sahih Bukhari that there are other ahadith transmitted by many chains of narrators that seem to contradict this hadith about retaining the window of Abu Bakr's house. For instance, Sa'd Abu Waqqas narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم had the doors of all houses of the sahabah رضى الله عنهم opening into the Masjid Nabawi closed except the door of Ali's رضى الله عنه house. Ahmad رحمه الله and Nasa'i رحمه الله have transmitted this hadith. There is no doubt whatsoever that its line of transmission is strong. Also, Tabarani has transmitted in his Awsat on the authority of trusted narrators that on hearing this command, the sahabah رضى الله عنهم met the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and submitted, :O Messenger of Allah, you have had the doors of all the sahabah رضى الله عنهم closed but not the door of Ali رضى الله عنه which you have permitted to remain open." He said, "I have neither had the doors closed nor let any remain open. Rather, Allah has had them shut and permitted any to be kept open. In fact, He has commanded me to have them closed, except the door of Ali." Ahmad رحمه الله and Nasa'i رحمه الله have transmitted a similar tradition from Ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه and Ibn Umar رضي الله عنه. Ibn Hajar رحمه الله said that each of these three traditions is a worthy evidence and deserving of being drawn on particularly these tradition give support to each other.

Ibn Hajar رحمه الله has written also that Ibn Jawzi رحمه الله has termed the hadith about Sayyiduna Ali ibn Abu Talib رضي الله عنه as mawda (invented) and he has censured some of its lines of transmission because it contradicts those sound ahadith that are about Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه saying that the Rawafid have invented the hadith to contend against the ahadith about Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه. But, Ibn Hajar رحمه الله does not agree with him saying that simply because this hadith contradicts the ahadith about Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه, it cannot be said that it is invented. Rather, the ahadith about Ali رضي الله عنه is transmitted through many sound lines of narrators some of which may be termed to at attain the peak of soundness and some the rating of hasan. Ibn Hajar رحمه الله explains that these two differing traditions concern different periods of time. The case of the door (or window) of the house of Ali رضي الله عنه pertains to the earliest time when Masjid Nabawi was barely complete. His house was adjoined to the mosque. Its door opened into the mosque so that he could go in, and came back from, the mosque through this door. It is also reported in a sound way that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said to Ali رضي الله عنه, "No one who is sexually defiled may enter this mosque but you and I are permitted to go through it into our houses." (see hadith # 6098)

As for this hadith commanding that all windows (and ventilators) should be closed except of the house of Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه, this concerns the very last period while the Prophet E) was ill. He gave this command a couple of days before his death.

Support for this contention lies in he tradition that says that when the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم gave he command that all door, opening into the mosque, with the exception of the door of Ali رضي الله عنه should be shut, Hamzah ibn Abdul Muttalib رضي الله عنه who was afflicted with conjunctivitis, and for this reason had delayed compliance with the command, submitted, "O Messenger of Allah, you have overlooked your uncle (meaning, myself) but let your uncle's son (meaning Ibn Abu Talib ibn Abdul Muttalib) keep his door open!" The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Dear uncle, I have no say in this matter. I have done that which I was commanded to do."

This proves that the hadith about Ali رضي الله عنه concerned the very early times Hamzah رضي الله عنه was martyred in the Battle of Uhud in 3 AH.

ABU BAKR رضي الله عنه POSSESSED GREAT MERIT

(٦٠٢٠) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ رضی اللّٰه تعالی عنه عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَوْ كُنْتُ مُتَّخِذًا خَلِيْلًا لَاتَّخَذْتُ اَبَابَكْرٍ خَلِيْلًا وَلٰكِنَّهُ اَخِيْ وَصَاحِبِيْ وَقَدِ اتَّخَذَ اللّٰهُ صَاحِبَكُمْ خَلِيْلًا۔ (رواه مسلم)

6020.Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضي الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "were I to take a Khalil (friend). I would take Abu Bakr as a Khalil. But he is my brother and companion. And, (It is fact that) Allah has taken your companion as a Khalil."[1]

COMMENTARY: The version of Ahmad ibn Hanbal رحمه الله has

---

أَخِيْ فِي الدِّيْنِ وَصَاحِبِيْ فِي الْغَارِ

"He (Abu Bakr) is my brother in religion and was my companion in the cave."

The version is Musnad Abu Ya'la as narrated by Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ is:

ابوبکر صاحبی ومونسی فی الغار سد واکل خوخة فی المسجد غیر خوخة ابی بکر رضی اللہ تعالی عنہ

"Abu Bakr was my companion and friend in the cave. Close all windows (or ventilators) opening towards the mosque, but not the window of Abu Bakr."

Abu Hatim رحمہ اللہ has also transmitted this hadith and has stated that it is a clear instruction that the first to deserve caliphate after the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ. The door of hope of caliphate is closed to everyone else.

The previous hadith said that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had taken Allah as a friend and this says that Allah has taken him as a friend. He who is true and sincere in love himself attain the degree of a beloved. It is as

يُحِبُّهُمْ وَيُحِبُّوْنَهٗ

{whom He loves and they love Him} (5:54)

ہر کہ اور در عشق صادق آمدہ است — بر سرش معشوق عاشق آمدہ است

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was, Habibullah. 'Habib is the love that has attained the degree of the beloved. Some people say that friendship is a high standing. They say that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was combination of love and friendship.

Imam Ghazzali رحمہ اللہ said that the friendship of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was more perfect than the friendship of prophet Ibrahim. علیہ السلام.

In short, this hadith is evidence that Abu Bakr رحمہ اللہ was a great sahabi with excellent qualities.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR ABU BAKR رضی اللہ عنہ AS CALIPH

(٦٠٢١) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ رضی اللہ تعالی عنہا قَالَتْ قَالَ لِيْ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيْ مَرَضِهٖ اُدْعِيْ لِيْ أَبَابَكْرٍ أَبَاكِ وَأَخَاكِ حَتّٰى أَكْتُبَ كِتَابًا فَإِنِّيْ أَخَافُ أَنْ يَّتَمَنّٰى مُتَمَنٍّ وَيَقُوْلُ قَائِلٌ أَنَا وَلَا وَيَأْبَى اللّٰهُ وَالْمُؤْمِنُوْنَ إِلَّا أَبَابَكْرٍ۔ رَوَاهُ مُسْلِمٌ وَفِيْ كِتَابِ الْحُمَيْدِيِّ أَنَا أَوْلٰى بَدَلَ أَنَا وَلَا۔

6021. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated: 'During his illness Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said to me 'Call your father, Abu Bakr, and your brother (Abdur rahman) to me that I may write down some instructions. I am apprehensive lest someone may crave to succeed me and some one may claim that he deserves the caliphate. But Allah and the believers will not approve anyone except Abu Bakr (as caliph)." In al-Humaydi's book it is (انا اولی) (I have more right) instead of (انا ولا) (I deserve it)."

COMMENTARY: Teebi رحمہ اللہ has stated on the authority of Qadi Iyad رحمہ اللہ that this hadith is (اجود) excellent. The Prophets صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم caliphs Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ is very clearly mentioned. As for the claim of the Rawafid that the caliphate of Ali رضی اللہ عنہ is indicated (in a perfect way) through proper texts and prophet's will it is absolutely without foundations. It is false claim. All the Muslims say unanimously that neither is there a text about Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ nor did the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم make an oral or a written will about it. In fact the first person to refute this claim was Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ himself. Someone had asked him, "Do you have anything that is not found in he Quran?" He said, "No whatever I have is found in this scripture." If he had anything, he would have disclosed it."

ANOTHER CATEGORICAL EVIDENCE

(٦٠٢٢) وَعَنْ جُبَيْرِ بْنِ مُطْعِمٍ قَالَ أَتَتِ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ امْرَأَةٌ فَكَلَّمَتْهُ فِي شَيْءٍ فَأَمَرَهَا أَنْ تَرْجِعَ إِلَيْهِ قَالَتْ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ أَرَأَيْتَ إِنْ جِئْتُ وَلَمْ أَجِدْكَ كَأَنَّهَا تُرِيْدُ الْمَوْتَ قَالَ فَإِنْ لَّمْ تَجِدِيْنِيْ فَأْتِيْ أَبَابَكْرٍ۔ (متفق عليه)

6022. Sayyiduna Jubayr ibn Mu'tin رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that a woman came to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم (perhaps during his illness) and spoke to him about something (seeking guidance on a matter or help of some kind). He instructed her to came back later (for redress). She submitted, "O Messenger of Allah (I live for away), what do you say when I come and do not find you?" (the narrator interpolated) as though she referred to (his) death. He said, "If you do not find me then go to Abu Bakr."[1]

COMMENTARY: This hadith is unequivocal suggestion of the caliphate of Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ after the death of the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. Of course, it cannot be taken as a final word, but it is a manifest confirmation of the merit of Abu Bakr. رضی اللہ عنہ

The majority of the Ulama say that nobody's caliphate is confirmed by a categorical order. As for the caliphate of Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ, it is confirmed because of the consensus of the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم on it, though Allamah Ibn Hammam رحمہ اللہ has professed in Mashairah that there is an absolute e and explicit evidence of Abu Bakr as the first caliph. He has also backed his claim with sound proofs.

Isma'ili رحمہ اللہ has reproduced in his Mu'ayyam the tradition of sahl ibn hashamah رحمہ اللہ: A villager sold some camels to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم on the undertaken that payment would be made later. Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ suggested to him that he should go back and ask, "If you are not there, then who will pay for my camel? When he returned and asked, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Abu Bakr will pay to you." Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ was told so by the villager but he sent him back to ask, 'Who will pay if Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ also dies?" The villager returned and asked this question on which the Prophet) صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم comforted him, 'Umar will give you your due." The villager conveyed this assurance to Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ and he suggested to him. "Go back and ask, 'what if Umar رضی اللہ عنہ is also dead?" The villager came to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم again and put the questions. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم assured him that in such a case uthman رضی اللہ عنہ would reimburse him. He came to Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ and told him that Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ was named as the next successor. He advised him to go again and ask the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم "If I come to Uthman after his death, then who will pay the due?" when the villager made bold to ask again (about another caliph's death), the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم demanded to know, "when Abu Bakr dies Umar also dies and Uthman is death too what will you do by surviving them?"

OF ALL MEN ABU BAKR WAS THE DEAREST

(٦٠٢٣) وَعَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ الْعَاصِ رضى الله تعالى عنه أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بَعَثَهُ عَلٰى جَيْشِ ذَاتِ السَّلَاسِلِ قَالَ فَاَتَيْتُهُ فَقُلْتُ اَيُّ النَّاسِ اَحَبُّ اِلَيْكَ قَالَ عَائِشَةُ قُلْتُ مِنَ الرِّجَالِ قَالَ اَبُوْهَا قُلْتُ ثُمَّ مَنْ قَالَ عُمَرُ فَعَدَّ رِجَالًا فَسَكَتُّ مَخَافَةَ اَنْ يَّجْعَلَنِيْ فِيْ اٰخِرِهِمْ۔ (متفق عليه)

6023. Sayyiduna Amr ibn Al-Aas رضی اللہ عنہ said that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم sent him with an army has its amir (commander) to Dhat as Salasil.
He said (before departure or on returning) "I came to him and asked him 'which of the people is dearest to you. He said 'Ayshah.' I asked, Among men?" He said, Her father" I asked who next?' He said Umar then (on my asking) he enumerated men. So I kept quit lest he name me among the last of them. (It was best not to ask any father for fear that be put among the last name)."[1]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Amr Ibn Al-Aas رضی اللہ عنہ asked about the best men of the time of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم or he may have meant the men in his army whose commander he was. He was prompted to put this question because a reinforcement of two hundred warriors under Sayyiduna Abu Ubaydah ibn Jarrah رضی اللہ عنہ comprising of the Ansar and Muhajir was sent to help him. They included the senior sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم too, like Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ and Umar رضی اللہ عنہ.

Amr ibn Al-aas رضی اللہ عنہ acted as their imam for the salah. Allah gave he Muslim army a victory causing the enemy to retreat disgracefully. Amr رضی اللہ عنہ was deceived into imagining that he w raised to a very high rank by being appointed the commander. Hence, on returning, he tried to get a confirmation of this from the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم but the response that he got from him belied his imagination. Aws رضی اللہ عنہ reaction suggests that he had the members of his army in mind when he had asked about he dearest men to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم.

However, the saying of the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم naming Abu Bark رضی اللہ عنہ and other suggests that he was speaking about the people of his time, generally.

ALI'S رضی اللہ عنہ TESTIMONY OF ABU BAKR'S MERIT

(٦٠٢٤) وَعَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ الْحَنَفِيَّةِ قَالَ قُلْتُ لِاَبِيْ اَيُّ النَّاسِ خَيْرٌ بَعْدَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اَبُوْبَكْرٍ قُلْتُ ثُمَّ مَنْ قَالَ عُمَرُ وَخَشِيْتُ اَنْ يَّقُوْلَ عُثْمَانَ قُلْتُ ثُمَّ اَنْتَ قَالَ مَا اَنَا اِلَّا رَجُلٌ مِنَ الْمُسْلِمِيْنَ۔

(رواه البخاری)

6024. Sayyiduna Muhammad Al- Hanifah (son of Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ from his wife other than (Sayyidah Fatimah) narrated 'I asked my father, 'which of the people was the best after the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم? He said, 'Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ I asked, "who next!" He said, 'umar since I was apprehensive test he name Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ (as next best) I asked (from a different angle). 'Than you of course, after Umar رضی اللہ عنہ? But he said 'I am not but one of the Muslim men."[2]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Ali ibn bu Ta'lib spoke in a very humble manner. As it is, he was the best and most superior of all man at the time of the martyrdom of Uthman. رضی اللہ عنہ.

ABU BAKR'S رضی اللہ عنہ EXCELLENCE WAS UNDENIABLE OVER ALL SAHABAH رضی اللہ عنہم IN THE PROPHET صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم TIME

(٦٠٢٥) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ رضى الله تعالى عنه قَالَ كُنَّا فِي زَمَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا نَعْدِلُ بِأَبِي بَكْرٍ أَحَدًا ثُمَّ عُمَرَ ثُمَّ عُثْمَانَ ثُمَّ نَتْرُكُ أَصْحَابَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا نُفَاضِلُ بَيْنَهُمْ رَوَاهُ الْبُخَارِيُّ وَفِي رِوَايَةٍ لِأَبِي دَاوُدَ قَالَ كُنَّا نَقُوْلُ وَرَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حَيٌّ أَفْضَلُ أُمَّةِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بَعْدَهُ أَبُوْ بَكْرٍ ثُمَّ عُمَرُ ثُمَّ عُثْمَانُ رِضْوَانُ اللّٰهِ تَعَالَى عَلَيْهِمْ أَجْمَعِيْنَ۔

6025. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated; "In the time of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم we never regarded anyone at par with abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ (but gave him excellence over all he sahabah). Then came Umar رضی اللہ عنہ and then Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ. then, we left the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم (as they were) without giving excellence to anyone of them (over the others)."[1]

According to another version: He (Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ) said, "when Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was alive, we used to say, 'The most excellent of the ummah of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم after him was Abu Bakr, then Umar and than Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ - may Allah the exalted be pleased with all of them).[2]

COMMENTARY: The words: "Then we left the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم as they were..." mean that they did not discriminate between the rest of them. If they were of equal rank that was respected and if any had any merit over the others that was honoured, like the participants of Badr and of Uhud, the ahl ul-bayt (members of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم household), those who gave the pledge known as bay't ridwan and the learned sahabah رضی اللہ عنہ.

The words could also mean that after Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ, they did not give excellence to any sahabi over others. The position of the members of the Prophets household is clearly exclusive and their ranking is absolutely different than that of others. Because of their special relationship, they have distinct merit that the other sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم do not possess. That they have a distinct, exclusive merit is as clear as daylight. So, there is not any reason to question why Sayyiduna Ali Ibn Abu Talib رضی اللہ عنہ is not named after Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ, and why Imam Hasan رضی اللہ عنہ and Imam Husayn رضی اللہ عنہ are not mentioned and why the Prophet's uncles Sayyiduna Hamzah and Sayyiduna Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ are not named.

An exponent has stated that Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ means the elderly, aged sahabah who had the position with the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم advisers and consultants. As for Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ, at that time, he was a young man so he was not grouped with the named sahabah رضی اللہ عنہ, otherwise his excellence is undeniable after Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ no one denies his merit over the remaining Sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم after Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ.

Imam Ahmad رحمہ اللہ has transmitted one hadith of Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ in these words: 'In the time of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم we know Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ as the best and most excellent man

(after the Prophet) صلی الله علیه وسلم. After him we regarded Umar رضی الله عنه. AS for Ali رضی الله عنه, it is a fact that he possesses the three distinctions of which if I had jut one, I would think of myself as better than the world and whatever it contains. The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم gave to him in marriage his dearest daughter, Sayyidah Fatimah رضی الله عنها and his descendants are from her. The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم had all doors opening into Masjid Nabawi closed except Ali's رضی الله عنه. On the day of Khaybar, the prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم gave him his spear."

According to a hadith in Nasa'i Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه narrated: someone asked Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه about Uthman رضی الله عنه and Ali رضی الله عنه He narrated the hadith under discussion (#6025), and went an to add, "Do not ask about Ali's greatness and do not compare him to anyone. His standing (so very great that) all doors were closed except his."

SECTION II الفصل الثانی

ABU BAKR رضی الله عنه MERIT

(٦٠٢٦) عَنْ اَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا لِاَحَدٍ عِنْدَنَا يَدٌ اِلَّا وَقَدْ كَافَيْنَاهُ مَا خَلَا اَبَابَكْرٍ فَاِنَّ لَهُ عِنْدَنَا يَدًا يُكَافِئُهُ اللّٰهُ بِهَا يَوْمَ الْقِيٰمَةِ وَمَا نَفَعَنِيْ مَالُ اَحَدٍ قَطُّ مَا نَفَعَنِيْ مَالُ اَبُوْبَكْرٍ وَلَوْ كُنْتُ مُتَّخِذًا خَلِيْلًا لَاتَّخَذْتُ اَبَابَكْرٍ خَلِيْلًا اَلَا وَاِنَّ صَاحِبَكُمْ خَلِيْلُ اللّٰهِ (رواه الترمذى)

6026. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "There is no one who has given us something or helped us (in any way) whom we love not reimbursed except Abu Bakr. He has given and helped us and only Allah will recompense him (in a perfect way) on the day of resurrection.

No one's property has benefited me as much as Abu Bakr's property has benefited me. Were I to take a friend, I would take Abu Bakr as a friend. Know that your companion is the friend of Allah."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Arabic word (يد) yad implies everything that gives benefit. Hence, it includes wealth and property, life and family.

Indeed, Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه had dedicated all this in the path of Allah and for the service of Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم. This includes his great monetary sacrifice in having Sayyiduna Bilal رضی الله عنه released from captivity by buying him from the infidels. The quran refers to it:

وَسَيُجَنَّبُهَا الْاَتْقَى الَّذِىْ يُؤْتِىْ مَالَهٗ يَتَزَكّٰى

{for removed from it will be the most god-fearing, who gives his wealth to purify himself} (92:17-18)

Another example is that when the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم exhorted his sahabah رضی الله عنهم to offer monetary contribution in the path of Allah, everyone brought whatever he could donate to the best of his ability. Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه brought all his belongings and assets and presented them to the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم. He spared nothing at all at home, even the necessities of his family so much so that, when he has no clothing, he wrapped a blanket round his body fastening it with thorns as pins like the kharqah of the Sufis. It is for this reason that he got a sobriquet dhul khilal too (among some other epithets). Khilal is a thorn.

According to a hadith in riyad us Saliheen, when the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said "No one's wealth has stood me in such good stead as that of Abu Bakr,' he wept and asserted that both his person and his property were at the disposal of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم [1]
According to Munafiqat, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "No one's wealth has been of more benefit to me that Abu Bakr's, He spent forty thousand dirhams on the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم [2] (on the day he embraced Islam).
According to Urwah, رحمه الله 'when Abu Bahr رضى الله عنه embraced Islam, he had with him forty thousand dirhams. He spend all of them during the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم life time in Allah's path." Urwah رحمه الله has also narrated that Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه purchased and set free in Allah's path the seven slaves who were percuted by their masters. (because they had become Muslims) Bilal رضى الله عنه and Aamir ibn Fuhayrah رضى الله عنه were among them.

CHIEF OF THE SAHABAH رضى الله عنهم

(٦٠٢٧) وَعَنْ عُمَرَ رضى الله تعالى عنه قَالَ اَبُوْ بَكْرٍ سَيِّدُنَا وَخَيْرُنَا وَاَحَبُّنَا اِلَى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ۔ (رواه الترمذى)

6027. Sayyiduna Umar رضى الله عنه said, "Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه is our chief. HE is the best of us, and he was the dearest of all of us to Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم."[3]

PROPHET'S COMPANION AT TWO PLACES

(٦٠٢٨) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ عَنْ رَّسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لِاَبِيْ بَكْرٍ اَنْتَ صَاحِبِيْ فِي الْغَارِ وَصَاحِبِيْ عَلَى الْحَوْضِ۔ (رواه الترمذى)

6028. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said to Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه, "You were my companion at the cave and will be my companion at the pond (Kawthar)."[4]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said t Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه that he was his friend in this world as he would be in the next world. The cave was the one in the mountain thaw there both of them had hid during their hijrah (or emigration) to Madinah. This verse of the quran speaks of this companionship:

ثَانِيَ اثْنَيْنِ اِذْ هُمَا فِي الْغَارِ اِذْ يَقُوْلُ لِصَاحِبِهٖ لَا تَحْزَنْ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ مَعَنَا

{he being the second of the two when they were in the cave (and) when he said to his companion 'Grieve not, surely Allah is with us."} (9:40)

The ulama say that this verse refers to the companionship of Abu Bakr. Hence they contend that while rejecting the companionship of anyone else, like Umar رضى الله عنه, Uthman رضى الله عنه or Ali رضى الله عنه does not make the rejecter a disbeliever, rejecting Abu Bakr companionship makes him a disbeliever.[5]

[5] Because that would amount to disbelief.

The Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم saying means to assure Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ that Allah has testified to Abu Bakr's رضی اللہ عنہ companionship. This is why the epithet companion of the cave us used in its real sense of friend.

ABU BAKR رضی اللہ عنہ DESERVED TO BE IMAM

(٦٠٢٩) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يَنْبَغِيْ لِقَوْمٍ فِيْهِمْ اَبُوْ بَكْرٍ اَنْ يَّؤُمَّهُمْ غَيْرُهُ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

6029. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "It does not behave o people among whom is Abu Bakr that anyone else should act as their imam."[1]

Tirmidhi said that this hadith is gharib.

COMMENTARY: This hadith lays down the principle that congregation salah must be led by one who is the most superior among them. Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ was the most superior of all the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہ. It is for this reason, too, that he deserved to be the caliph after the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. It is not proper to make a junior the caliph when a senior and more excellent man is there. This is why Ali رضی اللہ عنہ said to Abu Bakr "The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم made you the leader of our religion (by making you our Imam). Then who can put you back in our affairs of the world (which is he caliphate)?"

ABU BAKR رضی اللہ عنہ TOOK THE LEAD

(٦٠٣٠) وَعَنْ عُمَرَ رضی اللّٰه تعالی عنه قَالَ اَمَرَنَا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَنْ نَّتَصَدَّقَ وَوَافَقَ ذٰلِكَ عِنْدِيْ مَالًا فَقُلْتُ الْيَوْمَ اَسْبِقُ اَبَابَكْرٍ اِنْ سَبَقْتُهُ يَوْمًا قَالَ فَجِئْتُ بِنِصْفِ مَالِيْ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا اَبْقَيْتَ لِاَهْلِكَ فَقُلْتُ مِثْلَهُ وَاَتٰى اَبُوْ بَكْرٍ بِكُلِّ مَا عِنْدَهُ فَقَالَ يَا اَبَابَكْرٍ مَا اَبْقَيْتَ لِاَهْلِكَ فَقَالَ اَبْقَيْتُ لَهُمُ اللّٰهَ وَرَسُوْلَهُ قُلْتُ لَا اَسْبِقُهُ اِلٰى شَيْءٍ اَبَدًا۔ (رواه الترمذی وابوداؤد)

6030.Sayyiduna Umar رضی اللہ عنہ said, "Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم commanded us to give sadaqah (meaning, some portion of our properties in Allah's path). That coincided with my possession of some wealth at that time. So, I thought, 'Today, I will outdo Abu Bakr, if I can ever do it.' So, I brought half my wealth. Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم asked me, 'what have your retained for your family?' I submitted, 'he like of it. Then, Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ come with all that he had and he asked him, 'O Abu Bakr, what have you retained for you family?' He said, 'I have kept aside for them Allah and his Messenger .' I conceded, Never can I overtake him in anything."[2]

COMMENTARY: Perhaps the half portion of the wealth of Umar رضی اللہ عنہ was more in value than all that Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ had. But umar رضی اللہ عنہ retained half of his wealth while Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ did not keep anything for his family. So, he gained more merit. According to another hadith: (افضل الصدقة جهد المقل) "The better sadaqah (charity) is the one with self-sacrifice even if it is less in value.

When he said that he had kept Allah and his Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم for his family. Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه actually demonstrated his faith that the pleasure of Allah and his Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم was his greatest asset. Worldly property and wealth cannot match it. He had faith in Allah as the sustainer and in the help of Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم. Irrespective of whether he had more wealth than umar رضى الله عنه half portion. Or lesser than the half portion of Umar's wealth, Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه remains more excellent.

Umar رضى الله عنه saw that in spite of having donated more than Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه did, he could not get ahead of him, so he conceded that he could never out do Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه. some traditions have that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم addressed them and said: (مابينكم كمابين كلمتكما) "There is no difference between the two of you but what is found in your words.

WHY CALLED 'ATIQ' (عتيق)

(٦٠٣١) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ اَنَّ اَبَابَكْرٍ دَخَلَ عَلٰى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ اَنْتَ عَتِيْقُ اللّٰهِ مِنَ النَّارِ فَيَوْمَئِذٍ سُمِّيَ عَتِيْقًا۔ (رواه الترمذى)

6031. Sayidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها said that Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه come to Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم who said (to him). "You are Allah's atiq (freedman) from hell." So, since then he came to be called 'atiq.[1]

COMMENTARY: The word (عتيق) 'Atiq means 'free'. It is one of the epithets of Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه. Some authorities say that this word also means; 'beautiful, 'noble.' 'generous' which qualities were found in him. So he got the name 'Atiq. But, since the hadith itself gives the reason for his name, it is not proper to search for any other reason. According to another hadith, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said:

من اراد ان ينظر الى عتيق من النّار فلينظر الى ابي بكر۔

"He who wishes to look at the one freed from hell, let him look at Abu Bakr."

NAME & LINEAGE: The real name of Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه was Abdullah. He was the son of Abu Qahafah Uthman. His line of descent is:

Abdullah ibn Abu Qahafah Uthman ibn Aamir ibn Amr ibn Ka'b ibn Sa'd ibn Tamimn ibn Murrah. There it meets the prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم lineage.

Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه was the first man who confirmed the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم truth and embraced Islam believing in Allah. He never missed any battle in the lifetime of he Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. He participated in all the battle and all significant events with the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم as his companion and friend. He is the only person who never separated from the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم during his days of ignorance and then during Islam. Just as he was sahabi, his parents and children too were sahabah. He is the only companion with this distinction. Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه was unique not only in character and inwardly in beauty and appearance. He was fair-complexioned, and lean. He had a broad forehead, a thin face and cheeks, and beautiful eyes. On the whole he was very handsome and attractive.

Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه was born in Makkah, two years, four months and some days after the events of the elephant (when Abrahah had invaded Makkah and was disgraced). He died at the age of sixty three years on 22nd (or 8th) Jumadi ulth Thawi 13Ah on Tuesday, between maghrib and isha'in Madinah. He had left dying instructions that his body should be given both by his wife Sayyidah Asma bint Umays رضی اللہ عنہا. So, she gave the bath and Umar رضی اللہ عنہ led the funeral salah.

His caliphate lasted two years and four months. He narrated ahadith to many sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم and tabi'uyn رحمہ اللہ, But, he narrated very few ahadith, having lived a short life after the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم death.

FIRST TO BE RESURRECTED AFTER THE PROPHET صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم

(٦٠٣٢) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ رضی اللہ تعالی عنہما قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَنَا اَوَّلُ مَنْ تَنْشَقُّ عَنْهُ الْاَرْضُ ثُمَّ اَبُوْبَكْرٍ ثُمَّ عُمَرُ ثُمَّ آتِيْ اَهْلَ الْبَقِيْعِ فَيُحْشَرُوْنَ مَعِيْ ثُمَّ اَنْتَظِرُ اَهْلَ مَكَّةَ حَتّٰى اُحْشَرَ بَيْنَ الْحَرَمَيْنِ۔ (رواہ الترمذی)

6032. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "I shall be the first person for whom the earth will split (over the grave, and the first to be resurrected when people will be raised and gathered in the gathering place). Then (it will split), for Abu Bakr, then for Umar. Then, I shall come to the grave dwellers at al-Baqi; They will be gathered along with me (after being raised). Then, I shall wait for the Makkans till I brought to the Harmayn (meaning, between the people of Makah and of Madinah in the gathering place)."[1]

COMMENTARY: On the day of resurrection, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم will be the first person to be raised from his grave. After him will be Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ and Umar رضی اللہ عنہ. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم will go to al-Baqi and its grave dwellers will be raised from their graves in his presence and they will assemble before him. Then, he will wait for the people of Makah who will be raised from their graves and brought to him so that they might join the gathering. Then, he will lead them to the place of gathering, or the hashr. There all the creatures will be gathered.

ABU BAKR رضی اللہ عنہ FIRST TO ENTER PARADISE AMONG PROPHET'S صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم SLAVES

(٦٠٣٣) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَتَانِيْ جِبْرَئِيْلُ فَاَخَذَ بِيَدِيْ فَاَرَانِيْ بَابَ الْجَنَّةِ الَّذِيْ يَدْخُلُ مِنْهُ اُمَّتِيْ فَقَالَ اَبُوْبَكْرٍ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ وَدِدْتُ اَنِّيْ كُنْتُ مَعَكَ حَتّٰى اَنْظُرَ اِلَيْهِ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَمَا اِنَّكَ يَا اَبَابَكْرٍ اَوَّلُ مَنْ يَّدْخُلُ الْجَنَّةَ مِنْ اُمَّتِيْ۔ (رواہ ابوداؤد)

6033. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Jibril" come to me. He took my hand and showed me the gate of paradise by which my ummah will enter." Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ (expressed his wish and) submitted, "O Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم of Allah, how I wish that I was with you (at the time) and looked at it!" Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "indeed O Abu Bakr. You will be

first of my ummah to enter paradise."[1]

COMMENTARY: The gate of paradise was shown to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم on the night of the mi'raj (ascension to heaven) or at some other time. He than gave tidings to Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه that he would be the first of his ummah to enter paradise and see its gate. That is a greater and better prospect.

This is also evidence that Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه is the most excellent of the ummah.

TWO DEEDS OF ABU BAKR رضى الله عنه OUTWEIGH AL DEEDS

(٦٠٣٤) عَنْ عُمَرَ ذُكِرَ عِنْدَهُ اَبُوْبَكْرٍ فَبَكَى وَقَالَ وَدِدْتُ اَنَّ عَمَلِيْ كُلَّهُ مِثْلُ عَمَلِهِ يَوْمًا وَاحِدًا مِنْ اَيَّامِهِ وَلَيْلَةً وَّاحِدَةً مِنْ لَيَالِيْهِ اَمَّا لَيْلَتُهُ فَلَيْلَةٌ سَارَ مَعَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِلَى الْغَارِ فَلَمَّا اِنْتَهَيَا اِلَيْهِ قَالَ وَاللّٰهِ لَا تَدْخُلُهُ حَتّٰى اَدْخُلَ قَبْلَكَ فَاِنْ كَانَ فِيْهِ شَيْءٌ اَصَابَنِيْ دُوْنَكَ فَدَخَلَ فَكَسَحَهُ وَوَجَدَ فِيْ جَانِبِهِ ثُقْبًا فَشَقَّ اِزَارَهُ وَسَدَّهَا بِهِ وَبَقِيَ مِنْهَا اِثْنَانِ فَاَلْقَمَهُمَا رِجْلَيْهِ ثُمَّ قَالَ لِرَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اُدْخُلْ فَدَخَلَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَوَضَعَ رَأْسَهُ فِيْ حَجْرِهِ فَنَامَ فَلُدِغَ اَبُوْبَكْرٍ فِيْ رِجْلِهِ مِنَ الْجُحْرِ وَلَمْ يَتَحَرَّكْ مَخَافَةَ اَنْ يَنْتَبِهَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَسَقَطَتْ دُمُوْعُهُ عَلٰى وَجْهِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ مَا لَكَ يَا اَبَابَكْرٍ قَالَ لُدِغْتُ فِدَاكَ اَبِيْ وَاُمِّيْ فَتَفَلَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَذَهَبَ مَا يَجِدُهُ ثُمَّ انْتَقَضَ عَلَيْهِ وَكَانَ سَبَبَ مَوْتِهِ وَاَمَّا يَوْمُهُ فَلَمَّا قُبِضَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِرْتَدَّتِ الْعَرَبُ وَقَالُوْا لَا نُؤَدِّيْ زَكٰوةً فَقَالَ لَوْ مَنَعُوْنِيْ عِقَالًا لَجَاهَدْتُهُمْ عَلَيْهِ وَقُلْتُ يَا خَلِيْفَةَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ تَاَلَّفِ النَّاسَ وَارْفُقْ بِهِمْ فَقَالَ لِيْ اَجَبَّارٌ فِي الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ وَخَوَّارٌ فِي الْاِسْلَامِ اِنَّهُ قَدِ انْقَطَعَ الْوَحْيُ وَتَمَّ الدِّيْنُ اَيَنْقُصُ وَاَنَا حَيٌّ. (رواه رزين)

6034. Sayyiduna Umar رضى الله عنه wept (one day) when Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه was mentioned in his presence. He cried out." I wish all my deeds were like his deed of one day of his day during the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم life) or like his deed of one night of his night (during the life time of the Prophet) صلى الله عليه وسلم. It refer to the night on which he went with Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم to the cage (Thawr while they set emigration to Madinah). When they ended up to it, he pleaded, 'By Allah, you will not enter it. Let me go in first, for , if there is anything (like a harmful reptile) I should be smitten by it, not you.' So, he went in and swept it clean. He found some holes in a side of it, so he tore up (the hems of) his lower wrapper plugged them with the rags, but two remained after that, so he inserted (the heels of) his feet into them (to prevent any poisonous reptile from emerging). Then, he requested Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم. 'Do come in'so Allah's Messenger entered and laid his head on his lap and fell asleep. Meanwhile Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ was stung on a foot in one of the hole, but he did not stir pest Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم should wake up. (But, he could not hold back his tears). His tear , however, dropped on the face of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and he asked 'what is with you, O Abu Bakr? He submitted, 'O you to whom my parents be ransomed, I have been stung' So, Allah's Messenger رضی اللہ عنہ spot (on the place where he was stung) and the pain left him. However, the effect of the poison returned later (on in his life) and was the cause of his death.

As for day, when Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم died, the Arab apostatized, saying, 'We shall not pay zakah.' (How I wish that the deeds of my life were like his deed of that day!) He (Abu Bakr) رضی اللہ عنہ said, 'if they refuse (to pay so much as a camel's) tather, I will wage jihad against them for that,' I said 'O khalifah of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم (this is a trying time) be gentle to the people and show them kindness.' So he said to me, 'Is it that you were powerful (and authoritative) during the jihiliyah (day of ignorance) but have turned weak in the days of Islam? There is not more coming of the revelation and the religion has been perfected. Will it became weak while I am alive? (I will not let it happen)."[1]

COMMENTARY: The effect of the sting showed itself again later on in Abu Bakr's رضی اللہ عنہ last days though it had been offset when the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had applied his saliva to the heel when it was stung. It caused his death ultimately. In this way, Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ got the status of a martyr. He accompanied the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم in his journey to Maidnah an na emigrant to see the pleasure of Allah and his Messenger, and he shielded Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم from every kind of harm and danger.

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had also experienced the effect of poison returning later on in life. He had been served poisoned roasted meet at Khaybar but Allah preserved him from its effects at that time. However, during the illness that let to his death, the effects of poison reappeared.

RELUCTANT TRIBES: After the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم death, the tribes that refused to pay zakah, either declined to pay rejected the obligation altogether, This has been discussed previously in the Book of zakah (against hadith # 1890). Some of our ulama say that if a person is given the command of Shari'ah to pay zakah but he replies, ;No I shall not pay,' then he becomes a disbeliever.

EVEN THE TETHER: Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ said that he would fight those who refused to pay even a tether in zakah, if due. If anyone owns the camels and it is wajib on him to pay the zakah and he pays one or more camels against zakah payable by him then he must hand over the camel (or camels) with their tether otherwise it will not be a proper handing over. This is based on the translation of (عقال) iqal as tether.

Some scholars say, however - that (عقال)iqal is one year's zakah on camels or sheep, while both meanings are correct, the more used is the firs meaning, 'tether'. The compiler of the Qamus had given the second meaning for the word tether. He say that Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ words (عقال) mean; "If they refuse to pay zakah on camel or sheep for one year." According to another version, the word used is (عناقا) (instead of (عقالا) 'inaq' instead of iqla . Inaq means a kid (of sheep) one years old.

UMAR REPRIMINDED: Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ expressed strong resentment on Umar's رضی اللہ عنہ advice to condone the defaulters. HE reminded him that in the pre-Islamic days (of jihiliyah or ignorance). "you had great self respect and were very brave what has transformed you now? You advocate mildness in enforcing the significant command of Islam." This resolve of Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ against the Arab tribes demonstrates his courage religious devotion. In fact, Ali رضی اللہ عنہ too backed Umar رضی اللہ عنہ. But, Umar رضی اللہ عنہ conceded that Allah had made him see light and that Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ was correct. He acknowledged that this one judgement of Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ made him wish that his pious deeds during his life were all equivalent to this one act of Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ. That would be his great good fortune.

REVELATION HAS CEASED: Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ remined Umar رضی اللہ عنہ that as long as the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was alive, guidance was received through revelation. The situation changed after his death and they had no means other than ijtihad (independent deduction) to arrive at a judgment on issues not treated by the Quran and hadith. One must look at an issue from all angles and ponder deeply before coming to a conclusion.

Besides Allah has said:

اَلْيَوْمَ اَكْمَلْتُ لَكُمْ دِيْنَكُمْ وَاَتْمَمْتُ عَلَيْكُمْ

{This day have I perfected for you your religion and completed My bounty upon you} (5:3)

In the light of this verse asserting that religion has come to us in a perfect from as the Messenger caliph, Abu Bakr was bound to preserve it in its original form. He was responsible to put down any uprising that might cause harm to religion or might make it less effective.

CHAPTER - XXXI

EXCELLENT QUALITIES OF UMAR رضی اللہ عنہ بَابُ مَنَاقِبِ عُمَرَ رضی اللہ تعالی عنہ

The manaqib (fine qualities of merits) of the amir ul mumineen, Umar رضی اللہ عنہ and his excellence are innumerable. It is enough evidence of his greatness and high station that Allah accepted the prayer of His Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and enabled umar رضی اللہ عنہ to embrace Islam and caused him to give strong help and mighty glory to Islam.

His most superior excellence is that Allah used to make him see the right course brightly He was guided unperceived by others, through inspiration and impulse. He was motivated to do or say whatever was correct and his heart got very often, his suggestion turned out to be in agreement with Divine revelation and the book of Allah.

The ulama say that his opinion in favour of Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ is evidence that the caliphate of Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ , was justified. It is like the martyrdom of Ammar ibn Yasar رضی اللہ عنہ which is taken as a sign that Sayyiduna Ali ibn Abu Talib رضی اللہ عنہ was true.

Ibn Marduwiyuah رحمہ اللہ has said on the authority of Mujahid that when Umar رضی اللہ عنہ gave on opinion (on any subject). A verse of the Quran was revealed concurring with it.

Ibn Asakir رحمہ اللہ has narrated that Ali رضی اللہ عنہ, said, the Quran is one of the opinion of Umar رضی اللہ عنہ meaning that much of the Quran is in agreement with the opinion of Umar رضی اللہ عنہ.

Abdullah ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that in a marfu manner that the Prophet said, "If (opinions differ on an issue and) all people are unanimous on one side but Umar differs from them, and a verse of the Quran is revealed afterwards (on the issue), then it will be found to uphold Umar's opinion." This tradition is cited by Suyuti رحمه الله in Tarikh ul Khulafa. Then, he has added that agreement with Umar رضى الله عنه (meaning upholding of Umar رضى الله عنه point of view) is an twenty occasions.[1]

SECTION I — الفصل الأول

UMAR WAS MUHADDATH (INPIRED MAN)

(٦٠٣٥) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَقَدْ كَانَ فِيْمَا قَبْلَكُمْ مِنَ الأُمَمِ مُحَدَّثُوْنَ فَإِنْ يَكُ أَحَدٌ فِيْ أُمَّتِيْ فَإِنَّهُ عُمَرُ. (متفق عليه)

6035. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "There had been muhaddathun (محدثون) before you in the previous ummah. (They received inspiration and spoke with sagacity). If there is to be one in my ummah, he is Umar, indeed."[2]

COMMENTARY: The ummah of Muihammad صلى الله عليه وسلم is better and superior to the previous ummahs. So, if they had muhaddathun then there would certainly be such people in this ummah too. The hadith purports to say that Umar رضى الله عنه possessed the qualities necessary in a muhaddath.

MUHADDATH: (Muhaddath is the singular of muhaddathun). In this hadith muhaddath is used in the sense of mulhaam (on who receives inspiration). He is the one whose heart is inspired on motivated on the right course as though he is prompted by an unseen power that conveys to him want others do not know. Then he disclose is to other people.

It is stated in Majma ul Bihar that a muhaddath is one whose heart is prompted with something (by Allah) and he conveyed it to other people with foresight and sagacity. But, this distinction is the prerogative of only own on whom Allah wishes to bestow it.

Some authorities hold that a muhaddath is one whose surmise or conjecture adopts a correct approach (something on which different opinions are forthcoming) and his conclusion is proved correct ultimately as though he was prompted by one who was knowledgeable.

Some others maintain that a muhaddath is one whose angels speak to him. This opinion seems to be based on a tradition in which the word (متكلمون) mutakallimun (who converse) is used instead muhaddathun.[3]

DEVIL VOIDED UMAR رضى الله عنه

(٦٠٣٦) وَعَنْ سَعِيْدِ بْنِ أَبِيْ وَقَّاصٍ رضى الله تعالى عنه قَالَ اسْتَأْذَنَ عُمَرُ بْنُ الْخَطَّابِ عَلَى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى

6036. Sayyiduna Sa'd ibn Abu Waqqas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that (one) Umar ibn Khattab رضی اللہ عنہ sought permission from Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم to enter (standing at the door of his room. At that time some woman of the quraysh were with him. (They were his wives) they were talking persistently in a loud voice. (They had been demanding raise of their allowances).

When Umar رضی اللہ عنہ asked permission they get up and veiled themselves in a hurry. When Umar رضی اللہ عنہ entered, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was smiling, so he exclaimed, 'O Messenger of Allah, may Allah keep you smiling always!"

The prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, 'I am astonished at these woman who were sitting with me (speaking vociferously) but on hearing your voice, they hurried behind the screen! So, Umar said (to the woman), 'O you enemies of yourselves! (How do you act wrongly) will you fear me but not Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم They said, "Yes! You are bad tempered and very severe (while he is mild as Allah says of him: [(وَاِنَّكَ لَعَلٰى خُلُقٍ عَظِيْمٍ) – and surely you have a tremendously sub line character – 68:4)] and [(وَلَوْ كُنْتَ فَظًّا غَلِيْظَ الْقَلْبِ لَانْفَضُّوْا مِنْ حَوْلِكَ) – and had you been rude and hard hearted, they would have dispersed from around you. 3:159)].

Allah Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "O Ibn Khattab, it does not matter (do not pay heed to what they say), By Him who has my soul in His hand, the devil never meets you walking on a path but he switches over to a path other them yours (even if your path is broad)."[1]

Al-Humaydi said that Al-Baraqani added after the words 'O Messenger of Allah' – what makes you smile?'

COMMENTARY: The woman were speaking loudly and raising their voices above the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. This was before the revelation that voiced must not be raised in his presence. Or, they may have been speaking softly, each of them, but their collective voice seemed very loud. Mulla Ali Qari رحمہ اللہ says about both these possibilities that the words of the hadith do not suggest at all that their voices were louder than the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. Hence there should arise no doubt that they contravened the command of the Lord:

---

يَاأَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ آمَنُوْا لَا تَرْفَعُوْا أَصْوَاتَكُمْ فَوْقَ صَوْتِ النَّبِيِّ الآيَةِ

{O you who believe! Raise not your voiced above the voice of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم...} (49:2)

The most that we may deduce from the words of the hadith is that contrary to their normal habit of speaking softly to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and politely, this time his wives spoke some that loudly. Neither did they go beyond the limit of etiquette nor did they displeased the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم whose pleasing temperament was maintained.

DEVIL FEAR: The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said to Umar رضی اللہ عنہ that the devil did not walk on the some path as Umar رضی اللہ عنہ did. According to another tradition: "The devil flees from Umar's shadow." The word (فج) fajj means a broad path, but it may apply to any path. The devil was in awe of Umar رضی اللہ عنہ that he did not walk even by the kerb of a broad path on which Umar رضی اللہ عنہ was walking but took another road.

UMAR CASTLE IN PARADISE

(٦٠٣٧) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ دَخَلْتُ الْجَنَّةَ فَإِذَا أَنَا بِالرُّمَيْصَاءِ امْرَأَةِ أَبِي طَلْحَةَ وَسَمِعْتُ خَشْفَةً فَقُلْتُ مَنْ هٰذَا فَقَالَ هٰذَا بِلَالٌ وَرَأَيْتُ قَصْرًا بِفِنَائِهِ جَارِيَةٌ فَقُلْتُ لِمَنْ هٰذَا فَقَالُوْا لِعُمَرَ ابْنِ الْخَطَّابِ فَأَرَدْتُ أَنْ أَدْخُلَهُ فَأَنْظُرَ إِلَيْهِ فَذَكَرْتُ غَيْرَتَكَ فَقَالَ عُمَرُ بِأَبِي أَنْتَ وَأُمِّي يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ أَعَلَيْكَ أَغَارُ۔ (متفق علیه)

6037. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "I entered paradise (on the night of mi'raj) and, behold! I saw Rumaysa' the wife of Abu Talhah. And, I heard the scuff of feet and asked, 'who is he?' He Jibril علیہ السلام or another angel) said, "He is Bial.' And, I saw a castle in a side (or courtyard) of which sat a young woman (who was a maiden of paradise). I asked, 'To whom does it belong? They (the inmate paradise or the angels) said, 'It belongs to Umar ibn Khattab. I wished to enter it and look at it (from inside) but I recalled your self respect (O Umar so refrained from stepping in)."

Umar رضی اللہ عنہ submitted, "May my parent be ransomed to you, shall I be envois of you?"[1]

COMMENTARY: Sayidah Rumaysa رضی اللہ عنہا was the wife of Abu Talhah رضی اللہ عنہ and mother of Anas ibn Maalik رضی اللہ عنہ. she was wife of Maalik ibn Nadr and Ans رضی اللہ عنہ was born to them. Then she married Abu Talhah رضی اللہ عنہ. Her real name is not known definitely but she was also called Umm sulaym, Rumaysa and Ghumaysa. The last two mean rheum (that collects in the corners of the eyes) and the pouring out of foam respectively.

Umar's رضی اللہ عنہ words in response to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم saying, "I recalled your self respect, (اعلیک اغار) 'shall I be Envious of you?' are thought by some to have transposed words for (اغار منک) 'invious of you?" Some versions say that Umar رضی اللہ عنہ said:

وَهَلْ رَفَعَنِيَ اللّٰهُ إِلَّا بِكَ وَهَلْ هَدَانِيَ اللّٰهُ إِلَّا بِكَ

"Has not Allah raised me but because of you? Has Allah not guided me but through you?'

UMAR RAISED GLORY OF ISLAM

(٦٠٣٨) وَعَنْ اَبِي سَعِيْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بَيْنَا اَنَا نَائِمٌ رَاَيْتُ النَّاسَ يُعْرَضُوْنَ عَلَيَّ وَعَلَيْهِمْ قُمُصٌ مِّنْهَا مَا يَبْلُغُ الثُّدِيَّ وَ مِنْهَا مَادُوْنَ ذٰلِكَ وَعُرِضَ عَلَيَّ عُمَرُ بْنُ الْخَطَّابِ وَعَلَيْهِ قَمِيْصٌ يَجُرُّهُ قَالُوْا فَمَا اَوَّلْتَ ذٰلِكَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ قَالَ الدِّيْنُ (متفق عليه)

6038. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "While I was asleep. I saw some people being presented to me. They had their shirts on them, some of whose went down to their chests some were shorter than that[1]. When Umar was presented to me he had on him a shirt trailing (on the ground)." They asked :How do you interpret (this dream). O Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم of Allah" He said Religion (is what it means)."[2]

COMMENTARY: Some shirts were shorter Than those that reached their chests. But Mulla-ali Qari رحمه الله said that the words could also mean that they were longer (and went up to their navels or beyond, as Tirmidhi has).

The interpretation of the dream of Umar's رضی الله عنه trailing shirt as 'religion means that he will be helpful in furthering and strengthening religion. Accordingly, his caliphate lasted long and there were may conquests in his time. Then state treasury became neither because of that. Just as a shirt is a necessary part of a person's get of adorns him and preserves him, so too religion is a means of a person's spiritual and cultural life and peace. In protects him in both worlds and it is an essential part of his life.

UMAR رضی الله عنه HAD MORE KNOWLEDGE

(٦٠٣٩) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ رضی اللّٰه تعالى عنه قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ بَيْنَا اَنَا نَائِمٌ اُتِيْتُ بِقَدَحِ لَبَنٍ فَشَرِبْتُ حَتّٰى اَنِّيْ لَاَرَى الرِّيَّ يَخْرُجُ فِيْ اَظْفَارِيْ ثُمَّ اَعْطَيْتُ فَضْلِيْ عُمَرَ بْنَ الْخَطَّابِ قَالُوْا فَمَا اَوَّلْتَهُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ قَالَ الْعِلْمُ۔ (متفق عليه)

6039. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم say "while I was asleep, a bowl of milk was presented to me. I drank from it. I saw its moistness appearing on my nails. Then I gave the residue to Umar ibn Khattab." His sahabah رضی الله عنهم asked, 'O Messenger of Allah. How do you interpret it?" He said 'knowledge (is what it means)."[3]

COMMENTARY: The ulama say that is the higher world knowledge is represented of milk. This is how one must interpret his dream if he sees milk. He will acquire pure and beneficial knowledge. Just as milk as he first nourishment of man, so too knowledge if he first nourishment of his soul Milk provides energy to the body and fashions it. Knowledge orients and strengthens the soul.

Some possessors of Divine awareness say that the reflection of the radiance of knowledge from the higher world of examples comes to us in only four things:

[1] Or longer as Mulla Ali Qari رحمه الله says.

[3] Bukhari # 82, 3681, Muslim # 16. 2391, Tirmidhi # 2284 (2291)

Water, milk, wine and honey.
These are the four things whose rivers are flowing. The Quran mentions them:

مَثَلُ الْجَنَّةِ الَّتِي وُعِدَ الْمُتَّقُونَ فِيهَا أَنْهَرٌ مِّن مَّاءٍ غَيْرِ ءَاسِنٍ وَأَنْهَرٌ مِّن لَّبَنٍ لَّمْ يَتَغَيَّرْ طَعْمُهُ وَأَنْهَرٌ مِّنْ خَمْرٍ لَّذَّةٍ لِّلشَّرِبِينَ وَأَنْهَرٌ مِّنْ عَسَلٍ مُّصَفًّى۔

{.......therein are rivers of water unstaring and rivers of milk whereof the flavour changes not and rivers of wine delicious to the drinkers, and rivers or purified honey} (47:15)

Interpretation: He who (dream that he (drinks water, will be given knowledge through inspiration (or inspired knowledge) He who drinks milk is given know-ledge of the mysteries of Shari'ah. He who drinks wine is given (علم کمال) perfect knowledge. He who drinks honey is given knowledge through revelation.

Some of the possessors of Divine awareness say that the four rivers of paradise represent the four caliphs. In this sense this hadith refers by milk to Umar's رضی اللہ عنہ knowledge is placed on one pan of a scale and the (learned of all) tribes in the other, Umar's knowledge will outweigh. This is why all the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم said that of the ten portions of knowledge, Umar رضی اللہ عنہ alone has acquired nine portions.[1]

(٦٠٤٠، ٦٠٤١) وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ بَيْنَا أَنَا نَائِمٌ رَأَيْتُنِي عَلَى قَلِيْبٍ عَلَيْهَا دَلْوٌ فَنَزَعْتُ مِنْهَا مَا شَاءَ اللّٰهُ ثُمَّ أَخَذَهَا ابْنُ أَبِي قُحَافَةَ فَنَزَعَ مِنْهَا ذَنُوْبًا أَوْ ذَنُوْبَيْنِ وَفِي نَزْعِهِ ضَعْفٌ وَاللّٰهُ يَغْفِرُ لَهُ ضَعْفَهُ ثُمَّ اسْتَحَالَتْ غَرْبًا فَأَخَذَهَا ابْنُ الْخَطَّابِ فَلَمْ أَرَ عَبْقَرِيًّا مِنَ النَّاسِ يَنْزِعُ نَزْعَ عُمَرَ حَتّٰى ضَرَبَ النَّاسُ بِعَطَنٍ وَفِي رِوَايَةِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ ثُمَّ أَخَذَهَا ابْنُ الْخَطَّابِ مِنْ يَدِ أَبِي بَكْرٍ فَاسْتَحَالَتْ فِي يَدِهِ غَرْبًا فَلَمْ أَرَ عَبْقَرِيًّا يَفْرِي فَرِيَّهُ حَتّٰى رَوِيَ النَّاسُ وَضَرَبُوْا بِعَطَنٍ۔ (متفق علیه)

6040. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he heard Allah Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say, "while I was asleep I saw myself (in a dream) at a well without a parapet. A bucket was lying there. I drew from it as much as Allah willed. Then, Ibn Abu Quhafah (who is Abu Bakr) took over and drew from it one backetful or two but there was some exhaustion (on his part). May Allah forgive him for that. Then it changed into a large bucket and (Umar) Ibn Al Khattab took hold of it. I have not seen a stronger young man draw (water from a well) as Umar did so that the people quenched their thirst and satisfied their camels and made their camels stay there (because of plentiful supply of water)."[2]

6041. (The other version) Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he said, "Then (Umar) Ibn Al-Khattab took it from the hand of Abu Bakr and it turned into a larger bucket. I have not seen a stranger young man do (the task) as he did it so that the people were well satisfied and the camel had enough (to drink). The people made that a place for their camels to stop there."[1]

COMMENTARY: The word (قليب) qalib means a well without a parapet while a well that is surrounded by stones or blocks as its parapet is called (طوى) taawa. The ulama say that seeing a qalib in a dream signifies that the resolve of the people is necessary for religion not the out ward parapet.

The sub-narrator was unsure whether Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه draw one bucket or two, but the correct thing seems that he drew two bucket because his caliphate lasted a little over two years. It is also possible that 'drew one bucketful or two' really imply 'drew one bucketful - nay, two. In this case his two years as caliph are already indicate in the hadith.

The words that Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه showed some exhaustion do not imply that he himself showed any weakness and they do not detract from his standing in any way. Also, they do not mean to say that Umar رضی الله عنه was more excellent than Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه. Actually, the point is that the term of caliphate of Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه was brief while that of Umar رضی الله عنه was very long and it was this that the hadith foretells.

Some exponents have rendered the words as: 'he was very mild and sympathetic.'

The prayer 'May Allah forgive him, also does not mean that Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه had committed a sin or a wrong. Rather, it is an idiomatic phrase on everyone; tongue when speaking of someone.

The word (عطن) utan (means 'to lie down after drinking water' and is used for camel. It) is a place where water is found and camels sit around It. The well of which the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم spoke signifies religion. Just as a well is the source of water that is essential to life, so too religion is the fountainhead of everything on which man's survival depends, and which is the root of the value of culture, philosophy and spiritualism.

The drawing out of water signifies that the reins of religion would transfer from the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم to Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه and from him to Umar رضی الله عنه. Abu Bakr's رضی الله عنه pulling out one or two bucket full of water suggests that his leadership would best a couple of years and then Umar رضی الله عنه would hold the reins of caliphate for a longer period. Indeed, his term extended for ten years and three months.

The exhaustion that overtook Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه while drawing water suggests the efforts during his tenure to damage religion. This was seen in the apostasy of some Arab tribes. It also suggests that he would be miled and not use force in administrating support in the word of the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم

ان الله يغفرله ضعفه

(May Allah forgive him his weakness). But, these are words of prayer showing that his weakness and mildness were forgivable by Allah. They do not detract from his rank in any way whatsoever.

Then when the bucket goes to Umar's رضی الله عنه hand, it becomes larger. This foretells how he exerted himself as no one did before or has done afterwards to spared religion to the four corners of the world and to fortify it.

Imam Nawawi رحمه الله has written about the saying of the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم, 'I drew water from the well as much as Allah willed. Then Abu Quhafah took the bucket." In these words he spoke of his death and the succession of Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه to offset the grief of the people on his departure from the world. He added, "Then Umar took the bucket and the people took the place as a sitting ground for the camel" In these words, he indicated that the move initiated by Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ to eliminate the apostates and to strengthen Islam would be carried on by Umar رضی اللہ عنہ There would be more conquests and these things would reach their zenith. Another scholar said that Umar's drawing plenty of water was a sign of prosperity for all the subjects in religion and worldly affairs.

SECTION II الفصل الثانی

UMAR'S TRUTHFULNESS

(٦٠٤٢، ٦٠٤٣) عَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ رضی اللہ تعالی عنہما قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ اللّٰهَ جَعَلَ الْحَقَّ عَلٰى لِسَانِ عُمَرَ وَقَلْبِهٖ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةِ أَبِيْ دَاوٗدَ عَنْ أَبِيْ ذَرٍّ قَالَ إِنَّ اللّٰهَ وَضَعَ الْحَقَّ عَلٰى لِسَانِ عُمَرَ يَقُوْلُ بِهٖ۔

6042. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Surely, Allah has made truth flow from the tongue of Umar and from his heart."[1]
6043. Sayyiduna Abu Dharr رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he said, "Surely Allah has placed truth on the tongue of Umar. He speaks it (and nothing else comes out of his month).[2]

UMAR'S SPEECH BROUGHT CALMNESS

(٦٠٤٤) وَعَنْ عَلِيٍّ رضی اللہ تعالی عنہ قَالَ مَا كُنَّا نُبْعِدُ أَنَّ السَّكِيْنَةَ تَنْطِقُ عَلٰى لِسَانِ عُمَرَ۔ (رواہ البیہقی فی دلائل النبوۃ)

6044. Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ said, "we did not consider it inconceivable that calmness should be diffused from Umar's tongue."[3]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ meant that Umar رضی اللہ عنہ had the distinction of being able to elaborate on any question to the satisfaction of his listeners. Even a most confused mind could be convinced and calmed (which in Sakinah).

However, the word in the hadith 'sakinah' could also refer to any angel who inspires the heart with truth and then it comes to the tongue. This is uphelp by another hadith of Ali رضی اللہ عنہ carried by Tabarani in his Awsat. He said, "O people when you speak of the righteous put Umar رضی اللہ عنہ in the first place, for, it is very probable that his speech is inspired and he may be quoting an angels words."

Also, we must keep the tradition of Ibn Mas'ud before us in which he says, "whenever I looked at Umar رضی اللہ عنہ I sensed that an angel is between his two eyes showing him the right course."

PROPHET'S صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم PRAYER FOR UMAR'S ISLAM

(٦٠٤٥) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ رضی اللہ تعالی عنہ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ أَعِزَّ الْإِسْلَامَ بِأَبِيْ

جَهْلِ بْنِ هِشَامٍ اَوْ بِعُمَرَ بْنِ الْخَطَّابِ فَاَصْبَحَ عُمَرُ فَغَدَا عَلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ثُمَّ صَلَّى فِي الْمَسْجِدِ ظَاهِرًا۔ (رواه احمد والترمذی)

6045. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that (one night) the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم prayed. "O Allah strengthen Islam with Abu Jahl ibn Hisham or Umar ibn Khattab." In the morning, Umar رضی اللہ عنہ came to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and embraced Islam. Then, he (the Prophet) afforded salah publicly in the mosque (Masjid Haram).[1]

COMMENTARY: In the early days of Islam, the Makan idolaters persecuted Muslims to the extent that they could not offer their salah openly. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to stay in Dar ul Arqam. Allah was worshipped there secretly and measures were taken to propagate Islam and discussions were held on how to go ahead. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was aware of two men among the prominent chiefs of the Quraysh who could change the tide in Islam's favour. In fact, any one of .them could do. If one of them became a Muslim then Islam would emerge from Darul Arqam and Muslims would not be helpless against the Quraysh idolaters. They would be able to offer salah publicly and to propagate islam openly. So the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم made the supplication mentioned in the hadith. Abu Haakim Abdullah رحمہ اللہ has reported in Dala'il un Nabuwah the manner in which this prayer was granted and how Umar رضی اللہ عنہ embraced Islam. He reported that Abdullah ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that one day Abu Jahl declared, "Whoso kills Muhammad will be rewarded by me one hundred she-camels and one thousand pieces of silver." Umar asked him, 'Is the offer true?" Abu Jahl said, 'Yes, promptly. There will be no delay." So, Umar got up and proceeded to accomplish the task. Someone met him on the way and asked him, 'Umar, is everything alright? Where are you going?" (He had his sword unsheathed.) Umar said, 'I am going to Muhammad to eliminate him. The man asked, 'Have you no fear of Muhammad's clan, Banu Hashim (retaliating)?" Umar scolded the man, 'It seems that you too have abandoned your religion (which is why you try to score me away from killing Muhammad by the prospect of Banu Hashim;s retaliation.) The man uttered, "What I wish to tell you is more shocking. Your sister and brother in law have abandoned their religion and joined Muhammad! Umar changed course and headed straight towards his sister's house. When he reached the house of his sister, she was reciting the Quran and was at surah Taha. Umar stood at the door for some time listening to her recital. Then he knocked on the door and when he was inside he demanded to know, "What kind of reading I heard?" She disclosed to him everything and told him plainly "We have became Muslims sincerely." (She meant that he or anyone else may do what they like. "We shall not turn back.") Umar was nonplussed. He was driven by his sudden rage to beat them and at the same time that impending revolution in his life was pounding on his heart, He was restless all night. Later on in the night, his sister and brother-in-law wake up and worshiped Allah and recited the Quranj. They recited:

طٰهٰ مَا اَنْزَلْنَا عَلَيْكَ الْقُرْاٰنَ لِتَشْقٰى

(Ta Ha We have not sent down the Quarn to you to be (an occasion) for your distress...) (20:1-2)

---

Umar could not longer restrain himself . It seemed the recitation of the Quran was striking at his soul. Its truth began to impress his mind and heart. He said very anxiously, "Let me have the Book. I wish to read it myself."
His sister sensed that her stubborn brother was softening. She said, "Not like this, only pure people may touch this Book." So Umar had a bath and purified himself and took Allah's Book in his had, He began to read from (طٰہٰ) when he came to

لَآ اِلٰهَ اِلَّا هُوَ لَهُ الْاَسْمَآءُ الْحُسْنٰى

{Allah there is no god but He! To him belong the Most beautiful Names} (20;8)
He said suddenly, "Yes Allah! Only you are worthy of worship." And he recited the kalimah of testimony:

اشهد ان لا اله الا الله واشهد ان محمدا رسول الله

"I bear witness that there is no god but Allah and I bear witness that Muhammad is His slave and His Messenger."
He spend the night, or whatever remained of it, without sleeping. Every little while he called out (واشوقاه.واشوقاه) – expressing a deep yearning!
In he morning, Khabbab ibn Arat, رضی اللہ عنہ who was in the house beforehand and had concealed himself from Umar the moment he had entered the house, came out of concealment on seeing that Umar رضی اللہ عنہ had embraced Islam. He came to Umar رضی اللہ عنہ and congratulated him in his Islam, and told him how the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had prayed all night for the Islam of Abu Jahl or Umar to strengthen it.
Then Umar رضی اللہ عنہ hung his sword on his neck and went towards the place (Dar ul Arqam) where the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was staying. There, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم received him himself and invited him to Islam, "Umar forsake the false deities and bow down before the one God. Only in that lies success otherwise you will be disgraced in this world and the next as Walid ibn Mughirah was." Umar was shaken by this powerful voice. He trembled and his sword dropped from his hand. He said: (اشهدان لا اله الا الله وان محمدا رسول الله).
Then he submitted, "when we worshipped the laat and Uzza openly on mountain and in valleys, how is it that we worship Allah secretly and fearful of men? No! By Allah, as of today we shall not worship Him hidden from people." Then he took all the Muslims to the Ka'bah and there they worshipped Allah in view of all those who were there. (This is how Allah cause Umar to raise the glory of Islam).
Umar sister was Fatimah رضی اللہ عنہا and his brother-in-law wa Sa'eed ibn Zayd. The man whom Umar رضی اللہ عنہ had met and who had tried to dissuade him from killing the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was Nu'aym ibn Abdulah al-Nahham who to had become a Muslim and had concealed the fact).
FARUQ AZAM: The family tree of Umar صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم is:
Umar ibn al-Khattab ibn Fudayl ibn Abdul Uzza ibn Riyah ibn Qart ibn Razah (On rizah) ibn Adi ibn Ka'b ibn luayy, At this point, ka'b, his line meets the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم genealogy.
The kunyah[1] of Umar رضی اللہ عنہ was Al-Faruq.[2]
According to Imam Nawawi, رحمہ اللہ, Umar رضی اللہ عنہ was born thirteen years after the year of Elephant (aam ul fil) (عام الفيل) and, as Zahabi رحمه الله said, he became a Muslim at the age of seventeen, in the sixty year of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم mission. But, some other authorities say that he embraced Islam in the fifth year of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم mission and till then forty men and eleven women had accepted Islam.

WHY AL-FARUQ: An alternation arose between a Jew and a hypocrite on some matter. The Jew proposed the name of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم as an arbitrator but the hypocrite named a quraysh idolater Ka'b ibn Ashraf, one of their chief. Finally, however, they agreed to ask the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to arbitrate between them. He gave his judement in favour of the Jew because he was definitely deserving of it but the hypocrite refused to accept this verdict. He said, "Let us go to Umar for a decision. What he decides will be binding on us." The Jew consented, happing to get over with the matter and went with him to Umar رضی الله عنه. The Jew presented his case and said that they had approached Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم who had given his verdict on his (Jew's) favour but this man did not accept it and has brought me to you." Umar رضی الله عنه asked the hypocrite, "is it as he says?" He said, "Yes, it is so." Umar رضی الله عنه said to them, "Both of you wait here till I return." He went into his house and came back with his sword and struck the hypocrites neck with it, saying. "this is my judgement about one who does not accept the decision of Allah and Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم."
Therefore, this verse was revealed:

أَلَمْ تَرَ إِلَى الَّذِينَ يَزْعُمُونَ أَنَّهُمْ آمَنُوا بِمَا أُنزِلَ إِلَيْكَ وَمَا أُنزِلَ مِن قَبْلِكَ يُرِيدُونَ أَن يَتَحَاكَمُوا إِلَى الطَّاغُوتِ۔

{Have you not seen t hose who claim that they have believed in what was revealed to you and what was revealed before you? They want to take their disputes to the taghut (devil – though they were ordered to reject it)}[1] (4:60)

Then Jibril عليه السلام came and disclosed that Umar رضی الله عنه was the one who different tilted between truth and falsehood. Since that day, Umar رضی الله عنه got the title of Al-Farooq.

UMAR'S رضی الله عنه SUPERIORITY

(٦٠٤٦) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ رضي الله تعالى عنه قَالَ قَالَ عُمَرُ لِأَبِي بَكْرٍ يَا خَيْرَ النَّاسِ بَعْدَ رَسُولِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ أَبُوبَكْرٍ أَمَا إِنَّكَ إِنْ قُلْتَ ذٰلِكَ فَلَقَدْ سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ مَا طَلَعَتِ الشَّمْسُ عَلَى رَجُلٍ خَيْرٍ مِّنْ عُمَرَ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيثٌ غَرِيبٌ۔

6046. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه narrated that (once) Umar رضی الله عنه addressed Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه with (these words) 'O the best of men after Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم." But, Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه said (to him), "Though you say that, I had, indeed, heard Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم say, "The sun has not risen on a man better than Umar."[2]
Tirmidhi said that this hadith is gharib. Its sanad is not sound.

---

[1] See The Ma'ariful Quran (v2 p 481) the Hypocrite was Bishr and Ka'b ibn Ashraf was a jew to whom Bishr wanted to go. Thereafter, the heirs of Bishr accrued Umar رضی الله عنه of killing a Muslim unjustly but this verse absolved Umar رضی الله عنه

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم spoke of Umar رضی اللہ عنہ in these words foreseeing his caliphate. Or, the word 'after Abu Bakr are implicit in his saying. Or, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was describing his justice and administration. Apart from these explanations there are ahadith that establish Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ superiority.

PRAISE FOR UMAR رضی اللہ عنہ

(٦٠٤٧) وَعَنْ عُقْبَةَ بْنِ عَامِرٍ رضی اللہ تعالی عنہ قَالَ قَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَوْكَانَ بَعْدِيْ نَبِيٌّ لَكَانَ عُمَرُ ابْنُ الْخَطَّابِ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

6047. Sayyiduna Uqbah ibn Aamir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If there were to be a prophet after me, then he would be Umar ibn Khattab."[1]
It is a gharib hadith.

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم spoke these words figuratively because otherwise there is no prophet after him, and no one will receive a revelation after him. Umar رضی اللہ عنہ did have some qualities that made him stand out above all people other than the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم He did get Divine inspiration which the angels put in his mind and heart at Allah's command. They made the true path obvious to him while they were unseen.

DEVIL WAS AFRAID OF UMAR رضی اللہ عنہ

(٦٠٤٨) وَعَنْ بُرَيْدَةَ قَالَ خَرَجَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيْ بَعْضِ مَغَازِيْهِ فَلَمَّا انْصَرَفَ جَاءَتْ جَارِيَةٌ سَوْدَاءُ فَقَالَتْ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ إِنِّيْ كُنْتُ نَذَرْتُ إِنْ رَدَّكَ اللّٰهُ صَالِحًا أَنْ أَضْرِبَ بَيْنَ يَدَيْكَ بِالدُّفِّ وَ أَتَغَنّٰى فَقَالَ لَهَا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنْ كُنْتِ نَذَرْتِ فَاضْرِبِيْ وَإِلَّا فَلَا فَجَعَلَتْ تَضْرِبُ فَدَخَلَ أَبُوْبَكْرٍ وَهِيَ تَضْرِبُ ثُمَّ دَخَلَ عَلِيٌّ وَهِيَ تَضْرِبُ ثُمَّ دَخَلَ عُثْمَانُ وَهِيَ تَضْرِبُ ثُمَّ دَخَلَ عُمَرُ فَأَلْقَتِ الدُّفَّ تَحْتَ إِسْتِهَا ثُمَّ قَعَدَتْ عَلَيْهَا فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ الشَّيْطٰنَ لَيَخَافُ مِنْكَ يَا عُمَرُ إِنِّيْ كُنْتُ جَالِسًا وَهِيَ تَضْرِبُ فَدَخَلَ أَبُوْبَكْرٍ وَهِيَ تَضْرِبُ ثُمَّ دَخَلَ عُثْمَانُ وَهِيَ تَضْرِبُ فَلَمَّا دَخَلْتَ أَنْتَ يَا عُمَرُ أَلْقَتِ الدُّفَّ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ غَرِيْبٌ صَحِيْحٌ۔

6048. Sayyiduna Burydah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم set out on of his battle, when he returned, a block slave girl (either black complexioned by birth or an Abyssinian) came and submitted, "O Messenger of Allah I had made a vow that if Allah brought you back safely, I would beat the daff (which is the tambourine) in your presence and sing." So, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said to her, "If you have made vow then go ahead beat it, otherwise no." So she began to beat it. Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ came in and she was beating the daff. Then Ali رضی اللہ عنہ came in and she persisted in beating it. Then Uthman came in and she did not cease to beat it. But when Umar رضی اللہ عنہ came in, she put the daff down and sat on it. So, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Surely, the devil is afraid of you, O Umar. I was sitting here but she beat the daff. Abu Bakr came in and she beat it. Ali came in and she beat it. Uthman came in and she carried on with it, but when you arrived, O Umar, she put the daff aside."[1]

Tirmidhi said this hadith is hasan sahih gharib.

COMMENTARY: The word is daff but it is also spelt duff (with) (ˎ)(دف).

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said to the slave girl that if she had made a vow then she must fulfil it. This means that it is wajib to discharge a vow in which Allah's pleasure is sought. Indeed, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم safe return from jihad calls for expression of joy and this kind of expression earns Allah's pleasure. But, if has had not made a vow then she was not do it which means that beating the daff is not allowed normally. It is permitted on such occasions when the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has given the nod and his approval. Example are a vow made of the kind the slave girl had made, announcing a marriage, etc, In some places (like Yemen). Some of mash'aikh (or spiritual leaders) beat the daff when they engage in dhikr or remembrance of Allah, but this cannot be said to be permissible because their act is contrary to the hadith.

Mulla Ali Qari رحمه الله, has said about the girl's words 'and I will sing that it proves that it is allowed to listen to a woman sing (without a musical instrument a song that is not indecent and not unethical) when there is no likelihood of falling into any kind of minor or major evil. Similarly, some people have permitted it at gatherings of urs (anniversaries of spiritual leaders), on eed days (and on happy occasions. But, this things is not according to the figh hanafi rulings because the general juristic verdict is that it is forbidden to sing. This is written in Durr Mukhtar, Bahr ur Raiq etc. The Hidayah calls it a grave sin even if the singing is merely to please oneself. These jurists maintain that the ahadith that permit singing are abrogated.

When the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said to Umar رضى الله عنه that even the devil was afraid of him, he perhaps referred to the slave girl who had done something devilish and qualified to be called Shaytan ul ins (human devil) Or, he referred to the devil who was misleading her and getting her to do a makruh (disliked) thing by exceeding the limits in beating the daff and singing. She was carried to the limits of lahw (distraction).

A QUESTION MAY ARISE: When the girl asked the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم permission, he permitted her to beat the daff. He remained quiet, neither commending her not condemning her. He allowed her to continue till Umar رضى الله عنه came and she concealed the daff. Then why did he compare her with the devil. The ulama say that the whole thing begins with the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم proceeding on an expedition. The girl prayed very devotedly and loving for his victory and safe return. When he returned safely, she regarded his return as a blessing of Allah; she bound herself to express gratitude to Allah and to be pleased and happy. So the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم permitted her to fulfill her vow. Since her intention was good and her sentiments were laudable, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم gave her an exclusive permission, which is why the beating of the daff was (distraction) but fell under the class of 'justified.' It was no more no more 'disliked' but was 'recommended' or 'approved.' However, this would have been so if this act had been done for a very limited and minimum time enough for the vow to have been discharged. But, this girl was so lost in her play that her act crossed the border into the realm of disliked. However, the moment she crossed into the 'disliked' class, umar رضى الله عنه entered by a coincidence. Hence, the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم spoke the words about the devil fearing Umar رضي الله عنه. These words indicates that the act was permissible only to the extent it was allowed, no more. More than that is not permitted and to play unnecessarily (as amusement and enjoyment) is absolutely disallowed.

As for the reason the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not prohibit her in plain words, if he had done that then it would have become unlawful for her. Also, we cannot reject the possibility that the time limit in those days for beating the daff out of necessity and within the permissible border was exactly from the moment the slave girl began to beat the daff till Umar رضي الله عنه came in. This is why the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not say anything to the girl till Umar رضي الله عنه arrived. So, his arrival was a timely warning for the girl. She realized that she was surpassing the limit in the presence of he Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and coupled with that Umar رضي الله عنه arrived coincidentally at the same time instilling fear in her. She concealed her daff. This is why the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Umar the devil fears you. He flees from you." Actually the devil was tempting her to go on beating the daff into the prohibited time. When Umar رضي الله عنه came, however, the devil showed a clean pair of heels.

There also is another explanation for this. Umar رضي الله عنه always detested every such things as resembled the disallowed even though it may have been permissible and there may have been some good in it. There are many ahadith supporting this opinion. They have been cited by the writer of the Mirqat.

In conclusion though there is a possibility of permission when it becomes necessary, yet to play or beat a daff is a forbidden thing in any case. It is like playing a musical instrument. The girl know that Umar رضي الله عنه would not tolerate it, so she concealed the daff. The prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم spoke the words he did keeping Umar's رضي الله عنه disposition in mind.

6049. Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها said, 'while Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم sitting (with us), we heard a noise and voiced of children. He got up and found an Ethiopian woman dancing and children had gathered around her. He said, 'O Ayshah, come here! Look her!' So I went and placed my chin on the shoulder of Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم and looked at her from between his shoulder and head.

Then he said, to me, 'Are you not satisfied? Are you not satisfied?' I said, 'No' that I may know my standing In his sight. Suddenly, Umar came to us and the people dispersed from the woman (for fear of Umar).

Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Indeed, I saw that the devils of jinn and mankind fled from Umar.' Then, I returned."[1]

Tirmidhi has termed this hadith hasan sahih gharib.

COMMENTARY: Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا was not much interested in looking at the dancing woman but she wished to stay close to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم pleased with his high regard for her.

As for the devils from jin and human beings, they were the children around the Ethiopian woman. It was as children are often called, 'you devil!' Also the woman's prank was itself a vain play and distraction on the fact of it. But, it was not truly lahw (distraction) and wrong. If it was so the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم would not have seen it himself nor let Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا seen it, we may also say that the woman displayed her talent with the spear, etc, which is a helpful exercise and practice for jihad. But that was for a limited time whenever the necessity was over, it was stopped. There was a time limit for it. In this case, too, Umar رضی اللہ عنہ happened to come when the need was nearly over and the permitted time almost ended. Before the exercise could cross into a devilish prank, the children dispersed. The devil fled before Umar رضی اللہ عنہ could be enraged.

One thing that is clear from this hadith is that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had extremely beautiful qualities. His kind manners, mild nature and tolerant approach were of a perfect degree. On the other hand, Umar رضی اللہ عنہ was awe-inspiring. No one could dare do anything resembling evil or a disliked thing even by a distant or vague semblance.

This hadith is termed hasan sahih gharib by tirmidhi. We must know that there is a hadith through another line of transmission in the two sahih books (Bukhari and Muslim) about a demonstration by the Ethiopians. It says that some of them displayed their talent with spears in the Masjid Nabawi. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم showed their drill to Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا. Suddenly Umar رضی اللہ عنہ came and tried to stop the Ethiopians. In fact, he tossed some pebbles in their direction that they might break up. But, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Umar leave them alone. It is eed day today." (There is no harm in a little enjoyment like this on eed day).[2]

The hadith under discussion mentions the woman displaying her talent and children looking at her. So, Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا had not looked at strangers and no explanation is necessary that she was young aged and so was not disallowed to look at male strangers.

Finally, the incident cited by Tirmidhi in the hadith (# 6049) under discussion seems to be not the same as cited by Bukhari and Muslim.

6050.Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه and Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه reported that Sayyiduna Umar رضی الله عنه said "MY opinion was upheld by my Lord in three matters. I submitted, 'O Messenger of Allah, would that we took the Maqam Ibrahim (Ibrahim's station) as a place to offer salah (after circumambulating the Ka'bah). So this verse was revealed:

وَاتَّخِذُوا مِنْ مَّقَامِ إِبْرَاهِيْمَ مُصَلًّى

[Take to yourselves Ibrahim station as a place for salah] (2:125)

I submitted, 'O Messenger of Allah, the pious as well as the evil come in where your wives are. Would that you command them to observe veil. So, the verse of hijab (veil or screening) was revealed (33:53).

When the wives of the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم united in envy and resentfulness. So I said, 'If he were to divorce you, his Lord would give him wives better than you instead of you.' So, a verse was revealed conforming to that (64:5)."[1]

6051. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه narrated (in an other version) that Sayyiduna Umar رضی الله عنه said, :In three matters, my Lord's command upheld my opinion. About:

Ibrahim's station,

The hi'jab (or the veil), and

The captives of (the Battle of) Badr."[2]

COMMENTARY: Hafiz Asqalani رحمه الله has written that it does not follow that concurrence with Umar رضی الله عنه was in only three matters that the mentioned here. Actually there were many instance in which Umar's views coincided with Divine revelation. Some scholars have enumerated them as fifteen. (Suyati رحمه الله has said that they were twenty as stated in the beginning of this chapter) The more famous of them are about the captives of the Battle of Badr and the case of funeral salah of the hypocrites.

The Maqam Ibrahim is the stone on which lies the impression of he foot of Sayyiduna Ibrahim علیه السلام. This print was cast on the stone by way of a miracle when he stood on it while raising and leveling the wall of Bayt Alllah (the house of Allah).

According to one hadith, the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم took Umar رضی الله عنه by the hand and showed him the Maqam Ibrahim. Umar رضی الله عنه submitted, "O Messenger of Allah, shall we not take this maqam as a place to offer salah?" The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "I have no instructions about this." But, later on before sunset of that very day, the aforementioned verses 2:125) was revealed it calls for offering two raka'at salah as Wajib (obligatory) after every tawaf (or circumambulation of ka'bah) in such a manner that both maqam ibrahim and the ka'bah are faced by the worshipper. This command in the verse is of the nature of istihbab (or recommender) but some authorities say that is mandatory. This means that it is wajib to offer two raka'at after the tawaf but it is mustahab to offer directly behind Maqam Ibrahim.

If anyone cannot find place behind it, he may offer this salah anywhere in the Haram. It will amount to abiding by the command. Imam Shafi'is following by the command. Imam Shafi's رحمه الله following has two opinion about the obligatory nature of the two raka'at.

VERSE OF HIJAB: This verse was revealed:

وَإِذَا سَأَلْتُمُوهُنَّ مَتَاعًا فَسْئَلُوهُنَّ مِنْ وَّرَآءِ حِجَابٍ۔

{And when you ask them for anything ask them from behind a curtain} (33:53)

This wajib command to the wives of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was in addition to the normal command to cover themselves and veil themselves. This verse commanded them not to come before non-mahram men at all even if they were wrapped in garments and fully concealed. This command was given exclusively to them. As for the other homes. If they like, but only when they have covered their bodies very well.

UNITED IN ENVY: The wives of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم were united in envy when the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had drunk huney. It was practice to pay a fleeting visit to each of his wives رضى الله عنهن after asr. During one of his such visits, Sayyidah Zaynab رضى الله عنها presented him with honey that she had received form someone. He liked honey very much, so she had kept it aside for him. So, he was delayed there some time because of it. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها and some other of his wives were jealous and resentful because of it. She and Sayyidah Hafsah رضى الله عنها contrived to tell him on his visit that he smelt of maghafir (a harb resembling gum with a pungent odour). He said that he had not even touched it but had drunk honey. They said that perhaps the bee might have sat on it. Their objective was that he should not stop at the house of Sayyidah Zaynab رضى الله عنها to drink honey. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم took them at their word and as a precaution forbade himself to drink honey. Later, their secret was disclosed and it turned out to be the jealousy to his co-wives for each other, and they had involved him in it unnecessarily. On this occasion, Umar رضى الله عنه warned them and spoke the words quoted in the hadith. Then Allah's command was revealed in the Quran in which the words of Umar رضى الله عنه were retained in toto, as also their meaning. It is stated in Surah al-Tahrimi

عَسٰى رَبُّهٗ إِنْ طَلَّقَكُنَّ أَنْ يُّبْدِلَهٗ أَزْوَاجًا خَيْرًا مِّنْكُنَّ۔

{It may be that, if he divorces you, his will give him in exchange wives better than you.} (66:5)

PRISONERS OF BADR: After being victorious at the Battle of Badr the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم consulted the sahabah رضى الله عنهم about the prisoners of war. What should be done to them? Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه said, "They should be set free after getting ransom money from them." Umar رضى الله عنه said, 'These enemies of Islam should be killed."

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم opted for the advice of Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه and released them on receiving their ransom money according to their ability to pay. But, a verse of the quran was revealed that upheld the opinion of Umar رضى الله عنه (8:68). See the next hadith (6052).

(٦٠٥٢) وَعَنِ ابْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ رضى الله تعالى عنه قَالَ فُضِّلَ النَّاسَ عُمَرُ بْنُ الْخَطَّابِ بِأَرْبَعٍ بِذِكْرِ الْأُسَارٰى يَوْمَ بَدْرٍ أَمَرَ بِقَتْلِهِمْ فَأَنْزَلَ اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى لَوْلَا كِتٰبٌ مِّنَ اللّٰهِ سَبَقَ لَمَسَّكُمْ فِيْمَا أَخَذْتُمْ عَذَابٌ عَظِيْمٌ وَبِذِكْرِهِ الْحِجَابَ أَمَرَ نِسَاءَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَنْ يَّحْتَجِبْنَ فَقَالَتْ لَهٗ زَيْنَبُ وَإِنَّكَ عَلَيْنَا يَا ابْنَ الْخَطَّابِ

(رواه احمد)

6052. Sayyiduna Ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that excellence was given to Umar ibn al-Khattab رضی اللہ عنہ over the people in four ways.

(1)His mention of the captives of the Battle of Badr. He suggested that they should be killed. So Allah, the Most High revealed:

لَوْلَا كِتٰبٌ مِّنَ اللّٰهِ سَبَقَ لَمَسَّكُمْ فِيْمَا اَخَذْتُمْ عَذَابٌ عَظِيْمٌ

{Had it not been for an ordinance from Allah, that had gone before, a mighty chastisement would have afflicted you on account of what you took} (8:68)

(2)His mention of the Hijab (veil). He advised the wives of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم to observe the veil. (When he did so). Sayyidah Zaynab رضی اللہ عنہا asked him, 'O Ibn Khattab, you ask us to observe the veil though the revelation descends in our houses?' Then, Allah, the most High revealed.

وَاِذَا سَاَلْتُمُوْهُنَّ مَتَاعًا فَاسْئَلُوْهُنَّ مِنْ وَّرَاءِ حِجَابٍ

{And when you ask them for anything ask them for behind a curtain.} (33:53)

(3)The supplication the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم made (for him), "O Allah, strengthen Islam by Umar!" And,

(4)His opinion about Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ (when he led the Muslims through a difficult time and strongly recommended him as the first caliph). He was the first to pledge allegiance to him.[1]

COMMENTARY: As for the prisoners of war taken at the Battle of Badr, Umar رضی اللہ عنہ has himself narrated in these words:[2]

On the day of Badr, when The muslims defeated the enemy (and many prisoners came into their hands), Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم called on advisory council to suggest how the prisoners may be handled. Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ said, "O Messenger of Allah, these prisoners are all our relatives... If we ask them to pay ransom for their release, we shall get many resources to prepare and equip ourselves to fight our enemies in future. Perhaps Allah may guide these liberated men to Islam and they will become our supporters." Then the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم asked Me, "O Umar what do you say?"" I submitted, "O Messenger of Allah, I do not agree with Abu Bakr. All these prisoners are promoters of belief and misguidance, and are chiefs of the enemy of Islam. If we spare them, we subject ourselves to a grave risks. We must severe their necks."

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم took Abu Bark رضی اللہ عنہ advice and released the prisoners after they paid the ransom. Next day when I went to the, Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, I found him and Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ crying. I asked, "O Messenger of Allah, is anything wrong? "O Messenger of Allah, is anything wrong? Why are you and your friend weeping? The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Umar, Allah has been good. But, the punishment was not even as for away of this tree, here, facing me. Allah has revealed these verses:

مَاكَانَ لِنَبِيٍّ اَنْ يَّكُوْنَ لَهٗٓ اَسْرٰى حَتّٰى يُثْخِنَ فِى الْاَرْضِ تُرِيْدُوْنَ عَرَضَ الدُّنْيَا وَاللّٰهُ يُرِيْدُ الْاٰخِرَةَ وَاللّٰهُ عَزِيْزٌ حَكِيْمٌ لَوْلَا كِتٰبٌ مِّنَ اللّٰهِ سَبَقَ لَمَسَّكُمْ فِيْمَآ اَخَذْتُمْ عَذَابٌ عَظِيْمٌ۔

{It is not a prophet that he should have prisoners until there has been bloodshed (of the enemy) in the land. You desire the good of this life, and Allah desires (for you) eh (good of he) hereafter. And Allah is Mighty, wise. {Had there not been a command from Allah which He had passed before, surely on account of that which you took to, a great suffering would have befallen you} (8:68)[1]

(This for was Umar's narrative)

(Clearly the opinion of Umar رضی اللہ عنہ about the prisoners of Badr was most suitable. The view of Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ was that: the Muslims were beset with fiscal difficulties and though the enemy was routed they would not give up their hatred and antagonism. They would pool together their wealth and human resources and try to bring the Muslims to the battlefield once again. Hence, the prisoners should be set free against ransom – on the one hand, the muslims would not be burdened with the thought or having killed their own men, kith and kin and the prisoners might be moved to accept Islam and support the Muslims. On the other hand, the receipt of ransom would improve the finances of the Muslims and they would be able to strengthen themselves and acquire equipment. This opinion of Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ was a demonstration of the quality dominant in him and was supported by all the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم who has a mild temperament and a kind, compromising quality As for the idea of Umar رضی اللہ عنہ it was a demonstration of the trait dominant in him and it was seconded by the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم whose attribute of strictness was inherent in them. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had all kinds of attributes balanced in him. though he inclined to mildness, so, on this occasion he upheld the suggestion of Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ, But, it is a fact that no one but Allah. The all aware and the all-knowing, can know the consequences for this decision . He said that the decision to release the prisoner was inappropriate. So, the verses cited in the preceding lines were revealed and they confirmed the soundness of Umar رضی اللہ عنہ judgement.[2]

HIGHEST RANK FOR UMAR رضی اللہ عنہ IN PARADISE

(٦٠٥٣) وَعَنْ اَبِىْ سَعِيْدٍ رضی الله تعالی عنه قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ذَاكَ الرَّجُلُ اَرْفَعُ اُمَّتِىْ دَرَجَةً فِى الْجَنَّةِ قَالَ اَبُوْسَعِيْدٍ وَاللّٰهِ مَا كُنَّا نَرٰى ذَاكَ الرَّجُلَ اِلَّا عُمَرَ بْنَ الْخَطَّابِ حَتّٰى مَضٰى لِسَبِيْلِهٖ۔

(رواه ابن ماجة)

[2] See Ma'ariful Quran (v4 pp273, 281) while both coursed were open to Muslmi yet the preferable was to kill the prisoner. If they were released , the following year as many Muslim would be martyred. Only Umar رضی اللہ عنہ and sa'd Ibn Mu;ath and some other sahabah differed with majority opinion to release them. At Uhud seventy Muslims here martyed matching the member of prisoner released at Badr the prophet said, "The Divine punishment was descent but Allah held it back in His grace otherwise only Umar and Sa'd ibn Mu;adh would have been spared."

6053. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "That man will be at the highest grade in paradise among my ummah." Abu Sa'eed added, "By Allah, till he departed on his path (to death), we never thought that that man was none but Umar ibn Khattab."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم did not name the man so that every member of his ummah may do his utmost in obedience and worship to achieve that station and grade. Or, someone may have been mentioned in his presence and such qualities may have been attributed to him, so he announced that such a person will have the highest grade in paradise. Abu Sa'eed رضی اللہ عنہ remarked that they always thought that Umar رضی اللہ عنہ was the man all his life. It was not a passing phase.

The subsequent words of Abu Sa'eed رضی اللہ عنہ should not cause one to think that Umar رضی اللہ عنہ was hadith suggests that anyone who possesses the urge to obey and be faithful to Shari'ah and to do good deeds doing his utmost towards that, will qualify and get the highest grade. Abu Sa'eed صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم observed Umar رضی اللہ عنہ alone to possess this kind of urge all his life as no one else among the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم possessed. So, he suggested that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم referred to Umar رضی اللہ عنہ. It is like not specifying laylatul Qadr (the night of power). Besides, it is a surmise that if refers to Umar رضی اللہ عنہ and some people thought so. It is not a definite, confirmed statement (jut as the laylat ul qadr cannot be pinpointed) and it is incorrect to deduce a conclusion from this hadith that Umar رضی اللہ عنہ is superior to Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ. Rather, the ulama hold that Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ excellence is established and the ahl us sunnah was al-jama'ah have a unanimous conviction on that. Of course, if Abu Sa'eed رضی اللہ عنہ had spoken these words after the death of Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ keeping Umar رضی اللہ عنہ time in mind, then no one but Umar رضی اللہ عنہ qualified for this, distinction. In this time, after Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ death, Umar رضی اللہ عنہ was the most superior, undoubtfully.

UMAR رضی اللہ عنہ WAS MOST EARNEST IN PIOUS DEEDS

(٦٠٥٤) وَعَنْ أَسْلَمَ قَالَ سَأَلَنِي ابْنُ عُمَرَ بَعْضَ شَأْنِهِ يَعْنِي عُمَرَ فَأَخْبَرْتُهُ فَقَالَ مَا رَأَيْتُ أَحَدًا قَطُّ بَعْدَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مِنْ حِيْنَ قُبِضَ كَانَ أَجَدَّ وَأَجْوَدَ حَتّٰى انْتَهٰى مِنْ عُمَرَ۔ (رواه البخاری)

6054. Sayyiduna Aslam رحمہ اللہ (the freedman of Umar رضی اللہ عنہ and tabi'i) said that Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ asked about some qualities of him, meaning Umar رضی اللہ عنہ. So, he informed him (about many such things), and said, "I never saw anyone after the death of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم who was most engaged in good deeds and was of utmost rectitude to the end of his life as was Umar."[2]

COMMENTARY: The ulama say that this hadith pertains to the period of the caliphate of Umar Faruq R) so that Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ may be excluded from the generality of its words.

SYMPATHY FOR THE MUSLIMS

6055. Sayyiduna Miswar ibn Makhramah رضی الله عنه narrated that when Umar رضی الله عنه was stabbed (by Abu Lulu) he felt terrible pain. Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه said to him, while he seemed to shows violent emotion of impatience (and Ibn Abbas hoped to console him), "O amir ul mu'minee, none of this should worry you. Indeed, you were a companion of Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم and you gave the right of his companionship in full. He parted from you while he was pleased with you. Then you were a companion of Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه and you had a good companionship with him. He too parted from you while he was happy with you. And, you have been a companion of the Muslims and discharged our obligations of their companionship very well (serving them and being just to them). Now if you part from them, you will part from them while they are pleased with you"

He Umar رضی الله عنه said, "As for your mention of my companionship with Allah's Messenger رضی الله عنه and His being pleased, that is indeed Allah's favour that He has bestowed on me. As for your mention of my companionship with Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه and his being pleased (with me), that too is indeed a favour Allah has bestowed on me. As for what you see of my restlessness, it is on account of you and on account of your companions. By Allah, if I had gold to the extent that would fill the earth, I would ranson myself with it from the punishment of Allah before I see Him (or before I see His punishment)."[1]

COMMENTARY: Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه said to umar رضی الله عنه that since Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم was pleased with him and the friend of Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم was pleased with him and all Muslims are pleased with him, it is a sign that Allah is pleased with him and he is pleased with his Allah. In this case, he is one of those to whom this verse refers:

يَآيَّتُهَا النَّفْسُ الْمُطْمَئِنَّةُ ارْجِعِيْ إِلٰى رَبِّكِ رَاضِيَةً مَّرْضِيَّةً۔

{O you soul at peace! Return unto your Lord, well pleased, well pleasing!} (89:27-28)

He advised Umar رضی الله عنه not to worry any more. Death is a gift for a believer that will let one meet his Lord in the higher world and will take him to the perpetual blessings and favours of the pleasure of his Lord.

Sayyiduna Umar رضی الله عنه said in answer to Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه that he was not restless and anxious because of pain or fear of death. Rather, he feared on their account lest turmoil and dissension grip them after him. He was fearful lest the Muslims neglect their religion. Also, he was scared for himself concerning his fate in the hereafter. Indeed, Allah had favoured him in this world tremendously but he himself had failed to give the rights of Allah. So, he could be called to account for that. If Allah finds him liable to punishment, then what would happen?"

It is stated in Isti'ab that when Umar رضی اللہ عنہ was wounded and he fell down, he put his head in the lop of his son Abdullah رضی اللہ عنہ had said again and again:

ظلوما لنفسی غیر انی مسلم اصلی صلاتی کلھا واصوم

"I have wronged myself tremendously in spite of being a Muslim and though I offer salah all the time and fast regularly."

THE ATTACK & MARTYRDOM: In Madinah, there was a Persian slave named Firoz. His epithet was Abu Lulu. Once he complained to Umar رضی اللہ عنہ about his master Mughirah ibn Shu'ban رضی اللہ عنہ for levying a heavy tax on him. Umar رضی اللہ عنہ made enquiries and told him that the tax and working conditions were reasonable, Abu Lulu was very angry at that and went away promptly but next day he brought a poisonous dagger early morning and concealed himself in the mosque in a dark corner. Just as Umar رضی اللہ عنہ stepped forward to lead the congregation, he showed himself and stabbed Umar رضی اللہ عنہ six times. The mot damaging and deep cut was one below his naval. Umar رضی اللہ عنہ fell down. Abdur Rahman ibn Awf رضی اللہ عنہ led the congregation in a very brief salah. Thereafter, Umar رضی اللہ عنہ was taken to his home.

Three days thereafter Umar رضی اللہ عنہ departed from this world. He was buried on Saturday, 1st Muharam 2Ah. Suhayb رضی اللہ عنہ led his funeral salah. Some authorities say that Umar رضی اللہ عنہ was stabbed on Wednesday, 27th Dhul Hijjah. 23 AH and was buried on Sunday, 10th Muharram, 24 AH and was buried on Sunday, 10th Muharam, 24 AH. His caliphate spanned over ten years and a half. His age was 63 years. Many sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم and tabi'un رحمہ اللہ have narrated ahadith on his authority, among them are Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ aand the ten who were given glad tidings of paradise (al-ashrah al-mubashhirah).

A CHARISMA: It is stated in authentic books on the authority of reliable and trustworthy narrators that when Egypt was conquered, Amr ibn Al-Aas رضی اللہ عنہ was made its governor. The Egyptians told him that since time immemorial the river Nile gets an offering of a young virgin every year, otherwise it does not release its water. On the 11th of (Bunnah) a lunar month, every year, a young girl is taken from her parents with their consent adorned with exquisite clothing and precious jewellery and gaudy make-up and than thrown into the river. If this is not done, the river dries up. This results in shortage of water and famine in cities and villages, Amr ibn Al-Aas رضی اللہ عنہ told them, "This is a foolish custom. Islam does not tolerate such ignorant practices. I cannot permit you to do it." So, that year, they did not observe their practice. The Nile went nearly dry. All of Egypt was in the grip of famine and a dry spell. The Egyptians were compelled to emigrate.

Amr ibn Al-Aas رضی اللہ عنہ sent a detailed report to Umar Faruq رضی اللہ عنہ. He wrote to Amr رضی اللہ عنہ "You did the right thing in disallowing this practice. Islam throws out such customs I enclose an epistle (to the Nile). Do drop it into the River Nile." So, he sent this letter:

"(With the name of Allah, the beneficent, the Merciful. (بسم اللہ الرحمن الرحیم)

From Allah's slave, Umar ibn al-Khattab, amir ul mumineen, to the Nile of the people of Egypt. To proceed! After praise of Allah and invocation of blessings on His Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. If you run at your own will, then do not run. We do not need you. But, if you run at the command of Allah, the one, the Dominant (and He is the one who runs you so we pray to Allah that He cause you to flow). I command you in the name of Allah, the dominant, that you should begin to flow."[1]

Amr ibn Al-Aas رضی الله عنه dropped it into the Nile. (It was nightfall). In the morning, the people saw that in a single night, the Nile had risen sixteen cubits with full force. Thereafter, it rose more by six cubit every years.

Thereby, Allah put and end to this ancient practice. And, to-date it has been running continuously.

CHAPTER - XXXII

EXCELLENT QUALITIES OF ABU BAKR رضی الله عنه & UMAR رضی الله عنه

بَابُ مَنَاقِبِ أَبِيْ بَكْرٍ رضی اللّٰہ تعالی عنه وَ عُمَرَ رضی اللّٰہ تعالی عنه

There are sauce traditions that mention the sahaykhayn (the two Shaykhs - Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه and Umar رضی الله عنه together. Hence, the compiler of the Mishkat has created a separate chapter on these ahadith.

Indeed, both of them are mentioned together often because of their common merit that they were extraordinary assistants and helpers of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. they were constantly with him and both had the good fortune of being close to him time and again.

They were consulted by him on all religious and state affairs and exigencies. They also were his trusted men in such cases.

They were his companions at all times and in all conditions.

SECTION I الفصل الأول

ABU BAKR & UMAR رضی الله عنه PERFECT BELIEVERS

(٦٠٥٦) وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ عَنْ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ بَيْنَمَا رَجُلٌ يَسُوْقُ بَقَرَةً إِذْ أَعْيَى فَرَكِبَهَا فَقَالَتْ إِنَّا لَمْ نُخْلَقْ لِهٰذَا إِنَّمَا خُلِقْنَا لِحِرَاثَةِ الْأَرْضِ فَقَالَ النَّاسُ سُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ بَقَرَةٌ تَكَلَّمُ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَإِنِّي أُوْمِنُ بِهِ أَنَا وَأَبُوْ بَكْرٍ وَّ عُمَرُ وَمَا هُمَا ثَمَّ وَقَالَ بَيْنَمَا رَجُلٌ فِي غَنَمٍ لَهُ إِذْ عَدَا الذِّئْبُ عَلَى شَاةٍ مِنْهَا فَأَخَذَهَا فَأَدْرَكَهَا صَاحِبُهَا فَاسْتَنْقَذَهَا فَقَالَ لَهُ الذِّئْبُ فَمَنْ لَهَا يَوْمَ السَّبُعِ يَوْمَ لَا رَاعِيَ لَهَا غَيْرِيْ فَقَالَ النَّاسُ سُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ ذِئْبٌ يَتَكَلَّمُ فَقَالَ أُوْمِنُ بِهِ أَنَا وَأَبُوْ بَكْرٍ وَّ عُمَرُ وَمَا هُمَا ثَمَّ۔

6056. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger رضی الله عنه said, "While a man was leading a cow ahead, he got tired, so he mounted on its back. The cow protested, 'We are not created for this. We are created only to cultivate the land. "The people (around him) exclaimed. "Subhan Allah! (Glory be to Allah) - A cow speaks (though it is mute)." Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Indeed, I believe it!

---

[1] See also: the lives of the Noble caliphs, Ibn Kathir, p 181, (Darul Isha'at Karachi) the letter to Nile is extracted from it.

I, Abu Bakr and Umar!" But, both of them were not present in that gathering.
He also said, "While a man was pasturing his sheep, a wolf intruded and seized a sheep. Its shepherd chased it and had it released. The wolf asked him, 'Who will care for it on the day of sab' (سبع - when everyone is entangled in turmoil and no one cares for the livestock, so the beasts of prey would have a field day) and it has no shepherd but me?" The people exclaimed, "Subhan Allah (Glory be to Allah! A wolf speaks!" He (the Prophet) صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "I believe it! I, Abu Bakr and Umar!" But, the two of them were not there at that time.[1]

COMMENTARY: This hadith is evidence that it is not proper to ride on a cow or to use it to carry burden. Ibn Hajar رحمه الله has written that the scholars of hadith rule that quadrapeds and livestock should not be used for a purpose other than what is generally associated with them and for which they are normally used. However, we cannot rule out the possibility that the ruling concerns preference and first option and does not a limitation. In other words, it is better to put the quadrapeds and livestock to only such use as hey are created for and the work that they are accustomed to do. Thus, there should be no objections to slaughtering animals that are lawful and their meat is permissible to eat. They are created to supply meat for nourishment of human being. It is a custom to slaughter them and to consume their flesh.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that he had perfect conviction that a cow may, at Allah's command, speak in human language. His words could also mean that he believed sincerely that a cow in really created to till the soil and provide food for human beings, not to be ridden.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم also said that both Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه and Umar صلى الله عليه وسلم believed as he did. He named only the two of them to indicate that they had perfect faith. Though they were not there and had not seen or heard the cow, the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was confident that if this were told to them, they would have no qualms about it at all.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم spoke these words about them though they were not present in that gathering. So, he actually lauded their strong, unnerving faith and belief, If they were present and he had named them then that would have been a credit of course but, as it were, they were not present, so these words bring out their exceptional faith and conviction. This also establishes their merit over the other sahabah رضي الله عنهم.

DAY OF SOB' (سبع): The word (سبع) is pronounced sab as also sabu (ب) or (ب).

There are different interpretations of the words (يوم السبع) day of sab. Some say that sab' and saba ' mean 'to grab' 'to wrest away.' 'to seize forcibly.' It is also used to mean something useless and unworthy. It is left unattended, So someone carries it away. In this sense, the day of sab means 'turmoil'. 'Mischief' when people would be thrown into dissension and chaos, and they would fight each other. In consequence, no one would attend to his livestock or tend to his sheep. So the sheep would scatter here and there out to their fold.

The Omnipotent Allah enabled the wolf to speak in human language and inform the shepherd of these turmoil that will surround mankind in future. If dirided him asking. "Which of you will care for his sheep at that time? Everyone will be involve in bickering but I will be their shepherd."

Some other authorities say that the day of sab is a festival that Arabs celebrated during pre-Islamic era (the jahiliyah) On that day they organized a fete to which all people came unburdening their minds of all care and worry. The domestic animals were left to care for themselves so that wolves were at liberty to molest them. In this case, the wolf mocked the shepherd reminding him of their festival of the days of ignorance before Islam. "Who cared for the sheep on that day?" Or, he sneered, "The day of eed (festival) comes every years even now. When it come you will be busy celebrating it. I will see which of you looks after your sheep? How will you take it back out of my fangs?

SABS' (ARABI): If the word is with (ب) sabu, then it means a beast of prey. Even in this case, the day of sabu will have the same implication, as in the foregoing lines. When there is disorder and unrest and people are scared and compelled to go away from their homes, sheep will loiter round having to look after themselves. Wolves would devour them at will. In this sense, it will be the day of the beasts of prey.

Some others maintain that even in this variation (sabu (سبع), it means the day of festival.

OR SA'TY (سيع): It is also stated that the word is not sab' or sabu but sa'iy (سيع) – the day of sa'iy (not (ب) but (ى). It means a day of loss, suffering or damage. The word sa'iy also means (ضياع) diya (loss, neglected). So, it would mean 'a day of loss.

ALWAYS TOGETHER

(٦٠٥٧) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ رضى الله تعالى عنه قَالَ اِنِّيْ لَوَاقِفٌ فِيْ قَوْمٍ فَدَعَوُا اللّٰهَ لِعُمَرَ وَقَدْ وُضِعَ عَلٰى سَرِيْرِهٖ اِذَا رَجُلٌ مِّنْ خَلْفِيْ قَدْ وَضَعَ مِرْفَقَهٗ عَلٰى مَنْكِبِيْ يَقُوْلُ يَرْحَمُكَ اللّٰهُ اِنِّيْ لَاَرْجُوْ اَنْ يَّجْعَلَكَ اللّٰهُ مَعَ صَاحِبَيْكَ لِاَنِّيْ كَثِيْرًا مَّا كُنْتُ اَسْمَعُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ كُنْتُ وَاَبُوْبَكْرٍ وَعُمَرُ وَفَعَلْتُ وَاَبُوْبَكْرٍ وَ عُمَرُ وَانْطَلَقْتُ وَاَبُوْبَكْرٍ وَعُمَرُو دَخَلْتُ وَاَبُوْبَكْرٍ وَعُمَرُ وَخَرَجْتُ وَاَبُوْبَكْرٍ وَ عُمَرُ فَالْتَفَتُّ فَاِذَا عَلِيُّ بْنُ اَبِيْ طَالِبٍ۔ (متفق عليه)''

6057. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ said, "I was standing among the people (on the day Umar صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم died). They were making supplication to Allah for Umar رضی اللہ عنہ and he had been placed on a bed (to be given a both before burial). Suddenly, a man behind me put his elbow on my shoulder and prayed: May Allah have mercy on you! I hope that Allah will place you along with your two companions (the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and Abu Bakr) رضی اللہ عنہ because I often heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say, :I (was there and) Abu Bakr and Umar were (there too).. "I (did that and) Abu Bakr and Umar did (that alongwith me)...' 'I (went there and) Abu Bakr and Umar went there (too)....'I entered that place and) Abu Bakr and Umar entered (too)..' 'I (went out of that place and) Abu Bakr and Umar went out (of it too)... I turned round only to find that he was Ali ibn Abu Talib.'[1]

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِي

BOTH ABU BAKR & UMAR ARE IN THE ILLIYUN

(٦٠٥٨) عَنْ اَبِيْ سَعِيْدِ نِ الْخُدْرِيِّ رضى الله تعالى عنه اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اِنَّ اَهْلَ الْجَنَّةِ لَيَتَرَا اَوْنَ اَهْلَ عِلِّيِّيْنَ كَمَا تَرَوْنَ الْكَوْكَبَ الدُّرِّيَّ فِيْ اُفُقِ السَّمَآءِ وَاِنَّ اَبَابَكْرٍ وَعُمَرَ مِنْهُمْ

---

وَإِنَّمَا رَوَاهُ فِي شَرْحِ السُّنَّةِ وَرَوَى نَحْوَهُ أَبُوْ دَاوُدَ وَالتِّرْمِذِيُّ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ۔

6058. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed Al-Khudri رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The dwellers of paradise will see those of the Illiyun (which is a raised, loftily place in paradise, at their very high level) just as you can see the many bright stars at the extremities of the sky. And, Abu Bakr and Umar are among (of the illiyun) – rather, more distinguished."[1]

COMMENTARY: Illiyun is a place on the seventy heaven where the souls of the pious rise. Or, it is the station of the angels assigned to preserve the record of deeds of the pious people. Or, it is the highest rank in paradise and nearest to Allah.

The stars are described as durri (دری) which means pearls. They shine as pearls sparkle.

CHIEF OF THE DWELLERS OF PARADISE

(٦٠٥٩، ٦٠٦٠) وَعَنْ أَنَسٍ رضی اللہ تعالی عنہ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَبُوْ بَكْرٍ وَّ عُمَرُ سَيِّدَ كُهُوْلِ أَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ مِنَ الْأَوَّلِيْنَ وَالْآخِرِيْنَ إِلَّا النَّبِيِّيْنَ وَالْمُرْسَلِيْنَ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَرَوَاهُ ابْنُ مَاجَةَ عَنْ عَلِيٍّ رضی اللہ تعالی عنہ۔

6059. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Abu Bakr and Umar will be the chief of the middle aged dwellers of paradise, whether those who belongs to the earliest times or to the latest times, excepting the Prophet and the Messenger علیہ السلام. "this means those who had died at the middle- age, because in paradise all people will be young)[2]

6060. Sayyiduna Ali narrated (this hadith) too.[3]

COMMENTARY: Of course, all the dwellers of paradise will be young. So the hadith mean, when it says middle aged dwellers of paradise, those people who died at middle age.

The earliest dwellers are the people of the past ummah. They include the dwellers of the kahf (cave), the believing people of the family of the pharaoh and Sayyiduna Khidr علیہ السلام provided he is not a Prophet as a section of the scholars say (that he was not a Prophet).

The latest dwellers are those of this ummah. They include all the awliya (friends of Allah) and the martyrs.

NOT PROPHETS & MESSENGERS: This proviso in the hadith means that Prophet Eesa علیہ السلام and all the Prophet and the Messenger are excluded. Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ and Umar رضی اللہ عنہ are not their chiefs. And Sayyiduna Khidr علیہ السلام if he was a Prophet as some maintain

CALIPHATE OF ABU BAKR & UMAR رضی اللہ عنہ CONFIRMED WITH PROPHET صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم INSTRUCTIONS

(٦٠٦١) وَعَنْ حُذَيْفَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنِّيْ لَا أَدْرِيْ مَا بَقَائِيْ فِيْكُمْ فَاقْتَدُوْا بِاللَّذَيْنِ مِنْ بَعْدِيْ أَبِيْ بَكْرٍ وَّ عُمَرَ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

6061. Sayyiduna Hudhayfah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "I cannot say how long I shall remain among you. So, follow these two who are after me: Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ and Umar صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم.[1]

ANOTHER EXCLUSIVE MERIT

(٦٠٦٢) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ رضی اللّٰہ تعالٰی عنہ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا دَخَلَ الْمَسْجِدَ لَمْ يَرْفَعْ اَحَدٌ رَأْسَهٗ غَيْرَ اَبِيْ بَكْرٍ وَعُمَرَ كَانَ يَتَبَسَّمَانِ اِلَيْهِ وَيَتَبَسَّمُ اِلَيْهِمَا رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

6062. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ said, "When Allah Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم entered the mosque no one raised his head (but all of them lowered their eyes) except Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ and Umar صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. They (looked at him and) gave him a smile and he gave them a smile."[2]

Tirmidhi termed this hadith as gharib.

COMMENTARY: This was a sign of love. Those who love each other smile voluntarily on meeting. They become happy.

WILL RISE TOGETHER ON THE DAY OF RESURRECTION

(٦٠٦٣) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ رضی اللّٰہ تعالٰی عنہ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ خَرَجَ ذَاتَ يَوْمٍ وَدَخَلَ الْمَسْجِدَ وَاَبُوْ بَكْرٍ وَعُمَرُ اَحَدُهُمَا عَنْ يَّمِيْنِهٖ وَالْاٰخَرُ عَنْ شِمَالِهٖ وَهُوَ اٰخِذٌ بِاَيْدِيْهِمْ فَقَالَ هٰكَذَا نُبْعَثُ يَوْمَ الْقِيٰمَةِ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

6063. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم came out (of his room) one day and entered the mosque with Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ and Umar رضی اللہ عنہ. One of them was on his right and the other was on his left and he was holding their hands. He said, "This is how we shall be raised on the day of resurrection."[3]

Tirmidhi termed this hadith hasan gharib.

BOTH WERE PRECIOUS TO RELIGION

(٦٠٦٤) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ حَنْطَبٍ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ رَاٰى اَبَابَكْرٍ وَّعُمَرَ فَقَالَ هٰذَانِ السَّمْعُ وَالْبَصَرُ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ مُرْسَلًا۔

6064. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Hantab رحمہ اللہ narrated that (One day) on seeing Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ and Umar رضی اللہ عنہ, The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said. "These two are like the hearing and the sight.:[4]

COMMENTARY: Just as hearing and sight are important to a body so too these two men are important to the religion of Islam. Or, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم meant "These two are to me like the ears and eyes whereby I hear and see." In other words, they were his ministers and advisers. Or, these two are very eager to hear and follow truth and to observe it in the world.

MINISTERS OF THE MESSENGER

(٦٠٦٥) وَعَنْ أَبِي سَعِيْدِنِ الْخُدْرِيِّ رضی اللّٰه تعالی عنه قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا مِنْ نَبِيٍّ إِلَّا وَلَهُ وَزِيْرَانِ مِنْ أَهْلِ السَّمَاءِ وَ وَزِيْرَانِ مِنْ أَهْلِ الْأَرْضِ فَأَمَّا وَزِيْرَايَ مِنْ أَهْلِ السَّمَاءِ فَجِبْرَائِيْلُ وَمِيْكَائِيْلُ وَأَمَّا وَزِيْرَايَ مِنْ أَهْلِ الْأَرْضِ فَأَبُوْبَكْرٍ وَّعُمَرُ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

6065. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed Khudri رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "There has never been a prophet but he has two wazirs (ministers) from the inhabitants of heaven and two wazir from the inhatibant of earth. As for my two wazir, from the inhabitants of heaven, they are Jibril علیہ السلام and MIkail علیہ السلام. and as for my two wazirs from earth, they are Abu Bakr and Umar ."[1]

Tirmidhi termed this hadith hasan gharib.

COMMENTARY: The inhabitants of heaven are the angels two of whom are assigned to every Prophet as his ministers. Their task is to help and assist the Prophet from the angelic world.

The inhabitant of earth are the ummah of the Prophet (and Messenger) and his dear one among them. Two of them who are very close to him and are very wise. For sighted and very capable are to him like the ministers of a king. Their task is to serve their Prophet (and Messenger) in this world of human beings and to help and give counsel when called upon to do so.

It is clear from this hadith that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم is superior to both Jibril علیہ السلام and Mikail علیہ السلام (and in fact all the angel). Also, it is established that both Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ and Umar رضی اللہ عنہ are superior to all the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم and all sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم are superior to, and more excellent than, all people. Besides, the sequence of names is evidence that Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ is more excellent than Umar صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم.

CALIPHATE WILL GIVE WAY TO KINGDOM

(٦٠٦٦) وَعَنْ أَبِي بَكْرَةَ أَنَّ رَجُلًا قَالَ لِرَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ رَأَيْتُ كَأَنَّ مِيْزَانًا نَزَلَ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ فَوُزِنْتَ أَنْتَ وَأَبُوْبَكْرٍ فَرَجَحْتَ أَنْتَ وَوُزِنَ أَبُوْبَكْرٍ وَعُمَرُ فَرَجَحَ أَبُوْبَكْرٍ وَّوُزِنَ عُمَرُ وَعُثْمَانُ فَرَجَحَ عُمَرُ ثُمَّ رُفِعَ الْمِيْزَانُ فَاسْتَاءَ لَهَا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَعْنِيْ فَسَاءَهُ ذٰلِكَ فَقَالَ خِلَافَةُ نُبُوَّةٍ ثُمَّ يُؤْتِي اللّٰهُ الْمُلْكَ مَنْ يَّشَاءُ۔ (رواه الترمذی وابوداؤد)

6066. Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that a man said to Allah's Messenger)E). I dreamt as though a scale came down form the sky. You and Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ were weighed and you were heavier. Then Abu Bakr and Umar رضی اللہ عنہ were weighed Abu Bakr was heavier. Then Umar رضی اللہ عنہ and Uthman were weighed and Umar رضی اللہ عنہ was heavier. Then the scale was taken up."

Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was grieved at that, meaning that (dream) made him sad, He said, "That will be caliphate after prophethood (Or caliphs of the Prophet).

[1] Tirmidhi # 3680 T

Thereafter, will be rule (or kingdom) given to whom He wills."[1]

COMMENTARY: That grieved the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم because he interpreted the dream to mean that confusion and violence would brew up after Umar رضی اللہ عنہ caliphate. Dents will appear in the glorious chapter of Islam that would have reached its peak in the caliphate of Umar رضی اللہ عنہ.

When he said that it would be caliphate (of the Prophet) he meant that only the caliphate of Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ and Umar رضی اللہ عنہ would be the real caliphate for it will have no inkling of monarchy and authoritarian rule, and there will be no opposition to them. After them, the system to prophethood and caliphate would begin to show itself. Degenerative signs would appear in administration.

Then, after the four caliphs, kingdom will take over completely.

It is clear that only similar things are weighted together. Dissimilar things are not weighted against one another. Hence, the scale being taken up and weighing of two things being stopped signifies that there was nothing to weigh and compose. This is why the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that the dream indicates end of caliphate.

Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ was heavier means that he is superior to Umar رضی اللہ عنہ. So is Umar superior to Uthman.

The weighing of Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ and Ali رضی اللہ عنہ was not seen in the dream. This means comparison between them was left to the succeeding generation to decide.

SECTION III — اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

BOTH WILL GO TO PARADISE

(٦٠٦٧) عَنِ ابْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ رضی الله تعالى عنه اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ يَطْلَعُ عَلَيْكُمْ رَجُلٌ مِّنْ اَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ فَاَطَّلَعَ اَبُوْبَكْرٍ ثُمَّ قَالَ يَطَّلِعُ عَلَيْكُمْ رَجُلٌ مِّنْ اَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ فَاَطَّلَعَ عُمَرُ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

6067. Sayyiduna Ibn Mas'usd, narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said (once,) "He will come before you now who will be an inhabitant of paradise." So (suddenly), Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ appeared. Again, he said, "He will come before you (now who will be one of the dwellers of paradise." Suddenly). Umar appeared.[2]

Tirmidhi termed this hadith as gharib.

COMMENTARY: Glad tiding of paradise have been given to many sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم in different ahadith. Since it is given to both Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ and Umar رضی اللہ عنہ together, this hadith is placed in this chapter.

PIETIES OF THE TWO OF THEM

(٦٠٦٨) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ بَيْنَا رَاْسُ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيْ حَجْرِيْ فِيْ لَيْلَةٍ ضَاحِيَةٍ اِذْ قُلْتُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ هَلْ يَكُوْنُ لِاَحَدٍ مِّنَ الْحَسَنَاتِ عَدَدَ نُجُوْمِ السَّمَاءِ قَالَ نَعَمْ عُمَرُ قُلْتُ فَاَيْنَ حَسَنَاتُ اَبِيْ بَكْرٍ

---

قَالَ اِنَّمَا جَمِيْعُ حَسَنَاتِ عُمَرَ كَحَسَنَةٍ وَاحِدَةٍ مِنْ حَسَنَاتِ اَبِيْ بَكْرٍ۔ (رواه رزين)

6068. Sayyiduna Ayshah رضی الله عنها said, "While the head of Allah's Messenger رضی الله عنه was in my lap on a moonlit night, I asked, 'O Messenger of Allah, does anyone have as many pieties as there stars in the heaven?: He said, 'Yes, Umar has them. I then asked, 'Then how do the pieties of Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه stand?' He said 'the combined pieties of Umar are like one piety of Abu Bakr."[1]

COMMENTARY: The good deeds of Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه for exeed those of Umar رضی الله عنه. But, even if Umar رضی الله عنه had more pious deeds than Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه the latter will continue to be superior to the former sincerity and awareness. This distinction makes his pieties highest of all and most valuable. According to a hadith, "Abu Bakr possesses more excellence and superiority over you not because his salah and his fasting could exceed your salah and fasting, but it is because of the luster and gem that is placed in his heart."

CHAPTER - XXXIII

EXCELLENT QUALITIES OF UTHMAN رضی الله عنه

بَابُ مَنَاقِبِ عُثْمَانَ رَضِيَ اللهُ عَنْهُ

SECTION I

اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

ANGELS ARE MODEST TOWARDS UTHMAN رضی الله عنه

(٦٠٦٩) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مُضْطَجِعًا فِيْ بَيْتِهٖ كَاشِفًا عَنْ فَخِذَيْهِ اَوْسَاقَيْهِ فَاسْتَاذَنَ اَبُوْبَكْرٍ فَاَذِنَ لَهٗ وَهُوَ عَلٰى تِلْكَ الْحَالِ فَتَحَدَّثَ ثُمَّ اسْتَاْذَنَ عُمَرُ فَاَذِنَ لَهٗ وَهُوَ كَذٰلِكَ فَتَحَدَّثَ ثُمَّ اسْتَاْذَنَ عُثْمَانُ فَجَلَسَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَسَوّٰى ثِيَابَهٗ فَلَمَّا خَرَجَ قَالَتْ عَائِشَةُ دَخَلَ اَبُوْبَكْرٍ فَلَمْ تَهْتَشَّ لَهٗ وَلَمْ تُبَالِهٖ ثُمَّ دَخَلَ عُمَرُ فَلَمْ تَهْتَشَّ لَهٗ وَلَمْ تُبَالِهٖ ثُمَّ دَخَلَ عُثْمَانُ فَجَلَسْتَ وَسَوَّيْتَ ثِيَابَكَ فَقَالَ اَلَا اسْتَحْيِيْ مِنْ رَجُلٍ يَسْتَحْيِيْ مِنْهُ الْمَلٰٓئِكَةُ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ قَالَ اِنَّ عُثْمَانَ رَجُلٌ حَيٌّ وَاِنِّيْ خَشِيْتُ اِنْ اَذِنْتُ لَهٗ عَلٰى تِلْكَ الْحَالَةِ اَنْ لَّا يَبْلُغَ اِلَيَّ فِيْ حَاجَتِهٖ۔ (رواه مسلم)

6069. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم was lying in his house with his thighs, or his calves, uncovered. Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه asked permission to enter and he granted him permission, remaining in the condition he was and (Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه stayed some time and) they conversed. (Soon), Umar رضی الله عنه sought permission to enter and he granted him permission, being in the same condition as he had been and (Umar رضی الله عنه stayed some time and) they talked to one another. Then Uthman رضی الله عنه sought permission to enter and (before he come in) Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم set up and put his garments right. When he departed, Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها submitted. "Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه came and you did not move for him, nor care (to arrange you garment) for him. Umar رضی الله عنه came next and you neither shifted for him nor care (to arrange yourself) for him. But, when Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ came, you sat up and put your clothes right." He said, "Shall I not be modest towards one to whom the angels are modest?"

According to another version: He said, "Uthman is bashful. I feared that if I had let him come in while I was in that state, he might not have divulged why he had come."[1]

COMMENTARY: Nowawi رحمہ اللہ has written that the Maalikis and other people deduce from this hadith that the things is not the portion of the body that falls under satr (meaning, the limbs that must not be bared before other people). But, this conclusion is not correct. First because. It is not certain whether the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had uncovered his thighs or calves. If it was certain then the narrator would not have been in doubt and said, 'thighs or calves.' Further, it is possible that the hem of the shirt may have dropped from his thighs. It does not mean that his thighs were completely uncovered. Rather, he had his waist wrapper on him covering his thighs but the edge of his shirt was displaced from there. This is obvious from the text following. Also, it conforms to the habit of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم when he was among his family رضی اللہ عنہ and sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم.

The fact that he put clothes right support our contention. If his thighs were uncovered, Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا would have said, 'he covered his thighs.

As for the words, 'the angels are modest to him. These words mention the excellence of Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ. Haya (حیات) or modesty is a great quality in the angels. It is attributed to Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ too. Mazahir رحمہ اللہ writes that these words speak of the respect due to Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ in the sight of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم without detracting the least from the rank of Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ and Umar رضی اللہ عنہ not does it follow that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم did not give as much importance to Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ and to Umar رضی اللہ عنہ as he gave to Uthman. Actually the exceptional closeness that Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ and Umar رضی اللہ عنہ had with the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم called for the informality that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم showed to them when they visited him. He did not get up to receive them. When love between two people is perfect and grows, formality gives way to informality and nearness. It is as the saying goes.

اذا حصلت الا لفة بطلت الكفة

"When love arises, the hem (or formality) disappears."

In this sense, this hadith is more concerned with the merits of Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ and Umar رضی اللہ عنہ than of Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ. However, since its apparent meaning and its outward context point out to Uthman's رضی اللہ عنہ greatness, so it is placed in this chapter of Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ excellent qualities.

It must be observed that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم treated each of his sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم allowing for the trait dominant in him. He always made allowances for the temperament and inclination in each of them. For instance, in Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ modesty was pre-dominant, so he always showed modesty and a reserved, formal nature to him. It was the converse with Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ and Umar رضی اللہ عنہ.

As for the ange s being modest before him, an example is that during an incident in Madinah, Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ stepped forward causing his chest to be uncovered so that the angels moved back promptly. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم called Uthman's attention to his bare chest and he covered it. The angel returned to their places. On being asked the reason for their conduct, they disclosed to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم that Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ modesty had compelled them to step back, but when he concealed his chest they returned.

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِيْ

PROPHET'S COMPANION IN PARADISE

(٦٠٧٠، ٦٠٧١) عَنْ طَلْحَةَ بْنِ عُبَيْدِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِكُلِّ نَبِيٍّ رَفِيْقٌ وَرَفِيْقِيْ يَعْنِيْ فِي الْجَنَّةِ عُثْمَانُ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَرَوَاهُ ابْنُ مَاجَةَ عَنْ أَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ وَلَيْسَ إِسْنَادُهُ بِالْقَوِيِّ وَهُوَ مُنْقَطِعٌ۔

6070. Sayyiduna Talhah ibn Ubaydullah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said "Every Prophet has a friend (and companion), and my friend (and companion). meaning, in paradise is Uthman. "[1]

6071. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه (also) narrated this hadith.[2]

Tirmidhi termed it as a gharib hadith with a week isnad which is unconnected.

COMMENTARY: The interpolated words 'meaning paradise' are words of Tahah رضی الله عنه or a sub-narrator.

These words do not rule out the fact that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم did not call any one else as his friend (and companion). Thus, there is a hadith in Tabarani from Ibn Mas'ud رضی الله عنه that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Every Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Every Prophet chose, from his companions, a close friend. I have chosen Abu Bakr and Umar as my close friends." Of course every Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم had just one friend, but prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم has many friends.

Though this hadith is gharib, yet it does not detract from the soundness of its text. This is why Tirmidhi has made it clear explicitly that is isnad (Line of transmission) is weak and is munqata (or disconnected). Tirmidhi رحمه الله means that the hadith is reliable in the presentation of merits, as da'if ahadith are reliable for citing excellences. Besides, this hadith is upheld by the hadith of Abu Hurahrah رضی الله عنه carried by Ibn Asakir' that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said:

لکل نبی خلیل فی امته وان خلیلی عثمان ابن عفان

"There is for every Prophet a fried for his ummah, and indeed, my friends is Uthman ibn Affan."

EXCEPTIONAL MONETARY SACRIFICE

عَلَى الْمِنْبَرِ وَهُوَ يَقُوْلُ مَا عَلَى عُثْمَانَ مَا عَمِلَ بَعْدَ هٰذِهٖ مَا عَلَى عُثْمَانَ مَا عَمِلَ بَعْدَ هٰذِهٖ۔(رواه الترمذی)

6072. Sayyiduna Abdur Rahman ibn Khabbab narrated, "I observed the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم (being there with him) while he exhorted the people to contribute for the Batile of Tabuk) Uthman رضی الله عنه stood up and said, 'O Messenger of Allah, I am responsible for one hundred camels loaded with their cloths and saddles in the path of Allah.' Again, he exhorted (them to come forward with help) for the army. So, 'Uthman رضی الله عنه stood up and said, "O Messenger of Allah, I am bound to provide twu hundred camels with their cloths and saddles in the path of Allah's Again, he called for (help of) the army and Uthman stood up and said, 'On me are three hundred camels with their cloth and saddles in the path of Allah.'

I observed Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم get down from the pulpit, saying (at the same time) 'Nothing against Uthman رضی الله عنه whatever he does after this! Nothing against Uthman رضی الله عنه whatever he does after this."[1]

COMMENTARY: Jaysh ul-Usrah or, the ill equipped army was the army that was being prepared for the Battle of Tabuk. The word (عسره) usrah means 'straitens,' 'difficult circumstances,' 'distress. When the Battle of Tabuk was to be fought, the Muslims were facing hard times and monetary stringency. Draught and caused shortage of food and water, compelling them to eat leaves of cress and to sqeeze the tripe of the camels. Besides, against an over to helming army, their number were insufficient. The battlefield was very distant. There was a paucity of weapons, equipment and provision for the journey. It was very hot and the sun's heat was unbearable. Hence this army for the Battle of Tabuk was called (جیش العسره) jaysh ul-usrah meaning, 'the army in distress' or 'the hard pressed army.

According to this hadith Uthman contributed a total of six hundred camels to the army: one hundred, two hundred and three hundred. Some other traditions say that he gave nine hundred and fifty camels and fifty horses to make a total of one thousand.

The words that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم spoke in commendation of the magnanimous gesture of Uthman رضی الله عنه mean that his deed not only wiped out his previous sins and shortcoming but would also get him any wrong, if he happened to commit in future, expiated and forgiven.

ANOTHER PHILANTROPHIC DEED OF UTHMAN

(٦٠٧٣) وَعَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمٰنِ بْنِ سَمُرَةَ قَالَ جَاءَ عُثْمَانُ إِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِأَلْفِ دِيْنَارٍ فِيْ كُمِّهٖ حِيْنَ جَهَّزَ جَيْشَ الْعُسْرَةِ فَنَثَرَهَا فِيْ حَجْرِهٖ فَرَأَيْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُقَلِّبُهَا فِيْ حَجْرِهٖ وَيَقُوْلُ مَا ضَرَّ عُثْمَانَ مَا عَمِلَ بَعْدَ الْيَوْمِ مَرَّتَيْنِ۔(رواه احمد)

6073. Sayyiduna Abdur Rahman ibn Samurah رضی الله عنه "Uthman رضی الله عنه came to the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم with one thousand dinars touched in his sleeves when he was equipping the j.ysh ul usrah (the ill equipped army in distress). He scattered them in his lap. I saw the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم turn the money upside down in his lap and say twice, 'nothing will harm Uthman after today whatever his does.'[2]

COMMENTARY: Abdur Rhaman ibn Awf رضی اللہ عنہ said, 'I was present with the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم when Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ brought his contribution to the jaysh ul-usrah which was nine hundred ooqiyah of gold.

There are, therefore, many traditions about Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ monetary contribution to the jaysh ul-usrah (the army in distress to Tabuk). They seem to contradict each others, because they give different figures.

The fact is that he first presented six hundred camels loaded with cloths and saddles as in the preceding hadith (# 6072). Again, he gave a cash donation of one thousand dinars. Afterwards, he might have sensed that more help was necessary in the shape of riding animals and monetary contribution so he gave more camels and fifty horses and nine hundred ooqiyah gold add to one thousand dinars.

ANOTHER MERIT OF UTHMAN رضی اللہ عنہ

(٦٠٧٤) وَعَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ لَمَّا أَمَرَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِبَيْعَةِ الرِّضْوَانِ كَانَ عُثْمَانُ رَسُوْلَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِلَى مَكَّةَ فَبَايَعَ النَّاسَ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ عُثْمَانَ فِيْ حَاجَةِ اللّٰهِ وَحَاجَةِ رَسُوْلِهِ فَضَرَبَ بِإِحْدَى يَدَيْهِ عَلَى الْأُخْرَى فَكَانَتْ يَدُ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِعُثْمَانَ خَيْرًا مِّنْ أَيْدِيْهِمْ لِأَنْفُسِهِمْ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

6074. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ said that when Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم gave a command for the Bayah Ridwan (pledge of allegiance to be given by the sahabah) رضی اللہ عنہم, Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ had gone to Makkah as envoy of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. so the people gave the pledge of allegiance (to give their lives for the sake of Allah), and Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "surely Uthman has gone to discharge a task for Allah and for Allah's Messenger." So saying he struck one of his hands on the other (to stand for Uthman's hand and pledge). Thus, the hand Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم on behalf of Uthman was better than their hands for their own selves.[1]

COMMENTARY: Bay'ah Ridwan was pledge of allegiance that was given to Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم at Hudaybiyah about fifteen miles from Makkah under a tree by all the Muslims (who were there at the time). This name of the pledge is derived from the relative verse of he Quran about this event:

لَقَدْ رَضِيَ اللّٰهُ عَنِ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ إِذْ يُبَايِعُوْنَكَ تَحْتَ الشَّجَرَةِ

[Allah was pleased with the believers when they were pledging allegiance with your by placing their hands in your hands under the tree][2] (48:18)

Briefly, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم set out for umrah from Madinah with a large number of Muslims. When they were near Hudaybiya, they learnt that the Quraysh of Makkah had decided to prevent their entry into Makkah. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم sent Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ as his special envoy to the Quraysh of Makkah to tell them that the Muslims had not come to

---

[2] According to Ma'ariful Quran (v8 p 72) the pledge was given under an acacia tree. The lucky ones who took the pledge earned Allah's pleasure.

fight them but had come only to perform umrah. So, the Makkans should not prevent them from that, when he was there, someone circulated the news in Hudaybiyah that the Makans had killed Uthman. The Muslims were perturbed and they called for retaliation. So the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم sat under a tree and took a pledge of allegiance from all Muslims that they would lay down their lives to seek retribution from the people of Makkah. The sahabah رضى الله عنهم came, one by one and placed their h ands in the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم hand and took the pledge. When all had finished the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم let one of his hands represent Uthman's hand and struck his other hand with it as though Uthman رضى الله عنه had given his pledge.

In this way, Uthman رضى الله عنه got an exclusive distinction. If he had been there at that time, he would not earned this honour. His absence did not make him a loser. Rather, it brought him excellence and exceptional merit. Some authorities say that the Prophet had let his left hand repress Uthman رضى الله عنه hand but the more correct thing is that he had made his right hand stand for Uthman's.

UTHMAN'S رضى الله عنه ADDRESS TO THE REBELS

(٦٠٧٥) وعن ثمامة بن حزن القشيري قال شهدت الدار حين اشرف عليهم عثمان فقال انشدكم الله والاسلام هل تعلمون ان رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم قدم المدينة وليس بها ماء يستعذب غير بئر رومة فقال من يشتري بئر رومة يجعل دلوه مع دلاء المسلمين بخير له منها في الجنة فاشتريتها من صلب مالي وانتم اليوم تمنعونني ان اشرب منها حتى اشرب من ماء البحر فقالوا اللهم نعم فقال انشدكم الله والاسلام هل تعلمون ان المسجد ضاق باهله فقال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم من يشتري بقعة آل فلان فيزيدها في المسجد بخير له منها في الجنة فاشتريتها من صلب مالي فانتم اليوم تمنعونني ان اصلي فيها ركعتين فقالوا اللهم نعم قال انشدكم الله والاسلام هل تعلمون اني جهزت جيش العسرة من مالي قالوا اللهم نعم قال انشدكم الله والاسلام هل تعلمون ان رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم كان على ثبير مكة ومعه ابو بكر و عمر وانا فتحرك الجبل حتى تساقطت حجارة بالحضيض فركضه برجله قال اسكن ثبير فانما عليك نبي وصديق وشهيدان قالوا اللهم نعم قال الله اكبر شهدوا ورب الكعبة اني شهيد ثلاثا-(رواه الترمذى والنسائى والدار القطنى)

6075. Sayyiduna Thumamah ibn Hazn al-Qushayry رضى الله عنه narrated that he was present at the house (of Uthman رضى الله عنه when the rebels had besieged it and attempted to intrude into it and kill him) and Uthman appeared before the people (from the top). He said (according to Tirmidhi's version) to them to bring their two friends to him and to them[1] He said). "I adjure you by Allah and Islam, do you know that when Allah and Islam, do you know that when Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم came to Madinah and there was no fresh water except at Bir (well) Ruma. So, he said, 'who will buy the Bir Ruma and let his bucket be the bucked for Muslims, for a better are than that for him, in paradise?' So, I bought it from my pure wealth. But, today, you prevent me from drinking that water and compel me to drink salty water (as if from the ocean)." They affirmed, 'O Allah, yes!"

Then he said, "I adjure you by Allah and Islam, do you recall that the mosque became too crowded for its worshipers? So, Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم asked, 'who will buy the piece of land of such and such family and annexe it to the mosque for a better one than that for him in paradise? I bought it with my pure wealth. But, today you deny me access to it that I might offer two raka'at salah there. "They conceded, "O Allah, yes!"

He said, "I adjure you by Allah and Islam, do you recall that I equipped the jaysh ul usrah from my pure wealth." They conceded, "O Allah, yes."

He said, 'I adjure you by Allah and Islam, do you recall that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم was on the top of (the mount) Thabir at Makkah and with him were Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه, Umar رضى الله عنه and I? The mountain shook till its stones fell down with rapidity on the ground. He kicked it with his foot and said, 'stop, Thabir! On you are a Prophet, a siddiq (the truthful) and two shahids (martyrs). They acknowledge. "O Allah, Yes!"

Then he exclaimed, "Allahu Akbar (Allah is the Greatest)! They have testified by the Lord of the Ka'bah that I am a martyr!" (He repeated it three times.)[2]

COMMENTARY: Ruma is the name of the big well of Madinah situated in the wadi Atiq to the north of the mosque qiblatyn, Its water is very sweet, very pleasant and pure. Sayyiduna Uthman رضى الله عنه bought it and made an endowment of it, so according to Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم tidings to him, he will enter paradise. This well is also called bi'r jannah (well of paradise). Uthman رضى الله عنه had bought it for one hundred thousand dirhams.

The words let his bucket be the bucket for the Muslims are a figurative expression of endowment, meaning that: One who buys the well must not make it his personal property but give away for the good of the Muslims. It is permitted to make an endowment of a well, and whatever is so given away no longer remains anyone's personal property.

The rebels confirmed Uthman's رضى الله عنه statement with (اللهم نعم) 'O Allah, yes." Bringing Allah first is for blessing and to emphasize what one says.

The words 'the family of so and so refer to an Ansar family who lived near the mosque (Masjid Nabawi). They had a piece of land which could be annexed to the mosque and so enlarge it. Uthman رضى الله عنه bought it and gave it away as an endowment to the mosque in compliance with the wishes of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. He bought it for twenty or twenty five thousand dirhams.

Masjid Nabawi was first built in the time of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in the first year of hijrah. He joined the sahabah رضى الله عنهم in raising the structure. In 7 AH he expanded the mosque and made it square shaped. The walls were made with block and its roof was of palm leaves and twigs. The trunks of trees served as pillars. Then, no expansion or refurnishing was made in the time of Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ But, in 17 AH Umar رضی اللہ عنہ got repair work done and some expansion carried out. In 29 AH, Uthman (RH had it rebuilt and expanded He had the walls and pillars built of decorated stones and lime and the roof of wood from palm trees. After him, the caliphs and kings continued to make additions and repairs. And so on until in 1265, Sultan Abdul Majeed Uthmani had in rebuilt in a new manner. This construction was again renewed the expended in 1372 AH by shah (King) Ibn Sa'ud.

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "There are two shahids (martyrs)."[1]

Of the four man on the mountain, two men apart from him and Abu Bakr, would attain martyrdom. This came out true and these two were real martyrs. Umar رضی اللہ عنہ was stabbed by a dagger and he attained martyrdom. And Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ was killed brutally by rebels who has forced themselves in his house, so he too gained martyrdom.

These two were true or real martyrs which (حقیقی شہدا) haqiqi shuhada. But, as previous ahadith say both the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ were also martyrs and their martyrdom is (شہادت حکمی) - shahadah hukmi or theoretical martyrdom.

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم death resulted in the recurrence of the effect of poison served to him at Khaybar. And Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ had the recurring effect of a snake bite when he was in the cave Thawr on the first leg of hijrah with the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم.

Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ called Allahu Akbar first and them disclosed his impending martyrdom. He called Allahu Akbar ot make his argument with the rebels most effective. He also expressed surprise thereby that hey confirmed his merits on the one hand but, on the other hand persisted in their mischievous ways and insurgency aiming to kill him.

RIGHTLY GUIDED UTHMAN رضی اللہ عنہ

(٦٠٧٦) وَعَنْ مُرَّةَ بْنِ كَعْبٍ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ مِنْ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَذَكَرَ الْفِتَنَ فَقَرَّبَهَا فَمَرَّ رَجُلٌ مُقَنَّعٌ فِيْ ثَوْبٍ فَقَالَ هٰذَا يَوْمَئِذٍ عَلَى الْهُدٰى فَقُمْتُ إِلَيْهِ فَإِذَا هُوَ عُثْمَانُ بْنُ عَفَّانَ قَالَ فَأَقْبَلْتُ عَلَيْهِ بِوَجْهِهِ فَقُلْتُ هٰذَا قَالَ نَعَمْ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ صَحِيْحٌ۔

6076. Sayyiduna Murrah ibn Ka'b رضی اللہ عنہ said that he heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم mention the turmoil and unrest (after his death). He mentioned their nearness (putting them in the near future). Suddenly, a man who was covered by a garment passed by and he (the prophet) صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "On that day (during the unrest) this one will be rightly guided." He Murrah) رضی اللہ عنہ got up and hastened towards him. Behold! He was Uthman ibn Affan رضی اللہ عنہ. He said, "I made him face the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and asked, 'Is he the one?' He said, 'Yes!"[2]

6077. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said (to Uthman) رضی اللہ عنہ, "O Uthman Allah might make you wear a shirt (which is a reference to caliphate). Then, if the people intend to make you take it off, do not remove it for them."[1]

Tirmidhi added that there is a lengthy (and painful) account behind it.

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم instructed Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ not to bow out and cede his caliphate on the demand of the rebels. They will be on falsehood and their designs would be to create dissension in the ranks of Islam while his caliphate would raise the banner of truth and justice.

It is this hadith that prevented Uthman from surrendering to the rebels. He preferred martyrdom to disobeying the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم instructions not to crouch before pressure.

As for Tirmidhi's رحمہ اللہ addition that there is behind the hadith a lengthy and painful account, this relies to the terrible civil wars and commotion during the closing days of Uthman's رضی اللہ عنہ caliphate. They caused a heavy loss to Islam and broke the unity of the Muslims. Some examples of these are: The complaint of the Egyptians to Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ against his governor, Abdullah ibn Abu Sarh.

He deposed him after consulting the senior sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم.

And, he appointed Muhammad ibn Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ as their new governor.

Conspiracy of Marwan prevented Muhammad ibnABu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ from entering Egypt and compelled him to return from half through his journey.

This provoked the Egyptians and their minions and henchmen to surround Uthman's رضی اللہ عنہ house and to ultimately martyrs Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ in a barbarous manner.

These are some of the events that form part of the painful lengthy account. They are the roots of fitnah, civil war and commotion in the history of Islam. Books of history give a complete account of this sad chapter of the history of Islam.[2]

UTHMAN رضی اللہ عنہ DID NOT LOSE PATIENCE BUT ABIDED BY PROPHET صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم INSTRUCTIONS

(٦٠٧٩) وَعَنْ اَبِي سَهْلَةَ قَالَ قَالَ لِي عُثْمَانُ يَوْمَ الدَّارِ اِنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَدْ عَهِدَ اِلَيَّ عَهْدًا وَاَنَا صَابِرٌ عَلَيْهِ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ صَحِيْحٌ۔

6079.Sayyiduna Abu Sahlah رضی اللہ عنہ (the freedman of Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ) said, "Uthman said to me on the day of the house.[1]

Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had instructed me (not to disrobe myself of caliphate under pressure of the insurgents and not to raise the sword against them but to show endurance). And, I shall exercise patience in adhering to the instructions."[2]

COMMENTARY: The day of the house is the sad day when Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ was martyred in his house mercilessly. After besieging him, the insurgents pushed themselves into his house. The Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم instruction precluded Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ from using force against the rebels, otherwise, if he had chosen he could have done. So. In fact, some sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم did advise him to resort to force and use the strong backing of the power of the Muslims who were faithfully behind him. They advised to came out of his house. For, the rebels would not be able to face him. But, Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ did not accept their advice and preferred to make the supreme sacrifice. He was martyred.

6080. Sayyiduna Uthman ibn Abdullah Mawhab (a tabi'ee) narrated that one of the Egyptians came (to Makkah) with intention to perform hajj of the house of Allah. He saw some men sitting and asked, 'Who are they?" They (the people around) said, "They are the Quraysh." He asked, "Who is the Shaykh among them?" they said, "He is Abdullah ibn Umar." Then he (returned to him and) asked, "O Ibn Umar , I am going to ask you about something, so inform me.

Do you know that Uthman had fled on the day of Uhud?" He said, "Yes."

He asked, "Do you know that he had kept himself away from the (Battle of) Badr and did not participated in it? He said, "Yes"

He asked, "Do you know that he had absented himself from the Bay'ah Ridwan and failed to witness it? He said, "Yes."

The man exclaimed, Allahu Akbar" (Allah is the greatest! assuming that he had scored points). But, Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه said, "Come (it is not as you assume). Let me make things clear for you. As for his retreat on the day of uhud, I bear witness that Allah has forgiven him (And we know that it is wrong to blame anyone for what Allah has forgiven him. It is foolish to do so)

As for keeping himself away from (the Battle of) Badr, he had (Sayyidah) Ruqayyah رضی الله عنها, the daughter of Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم as his wife. She was indisposed. So, Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم had said to him, "you shall get a reward of a man among those who participated in (the Battle of) Badr and his share too.

And as for his absence from Bay'ah Ridwah, if there was anyone more honourable in the Makkan velley than Uthman then he would have sent him. But, Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم sent Uthman رضی الله عنه. And the Bay'ah Ridwan was pledged after Uthman رضی الله عنه had departed to Makakh. Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم then pronounced that his (own) right hand represented Uthman's hand, and the struck it on his left hand saying, 'This is (the pledge) for Uthman.'

Then Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه said (to the Egyptian). "You may go now. Let this be with you!"[1]

COMMENTARY: When Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه said about Uthman's رضی الله عنه retreat at Uhud that Allah had forgiven him, he had this verse in mind:

إِنَّ الَّذِينَ تَوَلَّوْا مِنكُمْ يَوْمَ الْتَقَى الْجَمْعَانِ إِنَّمَا اسْتَزَلَّهُمُ الشَّيْطَانُ بِبَعْضِ مَا كَسَبُوا وَلَقَدْ عَفَا اللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ إِنَّ اللَّهَ غَفُورٌ حَلِيمٌ

{Surely those of you who turned back on the day when the two hosts met, Satan alone made them slip because of part of what they had earned, and certainly Allah had pardoned them. Surely Allah is forgiving, forbearing.} (3:155)

HASTY ARCHERS: The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم had posted some of his sahabah رضی الله عنهم who were archers among whom was Uthman رضی الله عنه at a very strategic post. He had instructed them that they should never move out of it. However, when, in the initial stage, the enemy suffered reverses and took flight and the Muslim warriors pursued them, these archers presumed that the battle was over and most of them left their post. They began to collect the spoils. The commander of the fleeing enemy was shrewd. He observed that the strategic post was deserted expect for a few men. So, he took his army ahead and then made a detour to that post. From there the enemy trust themselves on the Muslims army from the rear. They were taken unawares and victory was snatched from their hands.

PARDONED: Since those sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم who had forsaken their post had been disobedient to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and it was weakness and careless ness, so Allah warned and reprimanded them, but He is Merciful and Bountiful, so He forgave them. Those people who were spiteful to Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ used this incident to deride him and pick faults in him, but once Allah forgives anyone then no one has a right to take him to task and taunt him. Secondly, Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ was not the only one involved in this incident. All those who forsook the post were equally responsible and all of them earned forgiveness. It is therefore unjust to blame only uthman رضی اللہ عنہ.

SICK WIFE: The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had advised Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ to stay with his ailing wife and had assured him that he would get the same reward and portion as those who participated in the Battle of Badr since he did that on the command of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم so no kind of blame was attached to him. His absence in the Battle of Badr was similar to the absence of Ali رضی اللہ عنہ from the Battle of Tabuk when the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had left him behind in Madinah to look after his family. So, he did not proceed with the Muslim army to Tabuk. However, it cannot be said with certainty whether the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم assigned any share of spoils to Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ in the Battle of Badr or not.[1]

PROPHET'S LOVE FOR HIM: Sayyidah Ruqayyah رضی اللہ عنہ was the eldest of the daughters of the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. She fell ill during the days of Badr and her condition was very bad. So, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم asked Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ to stay in Madinah and look after her. We can guage how much the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم loved Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ from the fact that when Sayyiduna Ruqayyah رضی اللہ عنہا died, he gave his other daughter Sayyidah Umm Kulthum رضی اللہ عنہا in marriage to him. For this reason. Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ came to be known as (ذوالنورین) 'of two lights. Then Sayyidah Umm Kulthum رضی اللہ عنہا also died. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If I had another daughter, I would have given her too in marriage to Uthman.

According to a hadith transmitted by Tabarani, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "I gave my two dear daughters to Uthman in marriage because of the command I received from Allah through revelation."

EMISSARY TO MAKKAH: The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم sent Uthman to Makkah to persuade the people of Makkah to allow the Muslims entry into Makkah to perform umrah. He had relatives in Makkah and was at no risk of being persecuted while other sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم could have been treated badly. When he came to Makkah, this relatives received him warmly. They made him ride a beast and go ahead of them in a procession. They let it be know to everyone that he was their guest and under their protection. They also offered to let him perform umrah, but he declined politely, saying that he could not do it without the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and in his absence.

AFTER HE WAS GONE: The Bay'ah Ridwanws concluded after he had gone to Makah. So, there is no point in debating on his participation or non-participation. When he was there and discussions began on reconciliation, they prolonged. This caused consternation to the Muslims because he was delayed, Add to that, the Muslims were told that Uthman's mission had failed and, on top of that, the Makkans were heading towards Hudaybiyah to fight the Muslims. There also was news that Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ had been killed. So, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم gathered the Muslims and made preparations to resist the enemy. He took pledge from each Muslim under a tree that no one would flee from there but would fight the enemy even at the risk of his life. And if Uthman رضى الله عنه had been killed then they would seek retribution.

LET THIS BE WITH YOU: Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه said to the Egyptian that he had got answers to his questions. So he must take his answers with him. Or, he meant that if he was seeing the truth, then he must take his answers with him, retaining them in his mind and his heart. At the same time, he must clear his mind of any misgivings about Uthman رضى الله عنه.

On the day of the house (yawm ud dar), we asked him, 'would you not fight' He said, "No Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم had instructed me something and I shall show patience and adhere to it."[1]

OBEY THE COMMANDER

(٦٠٨٢) وَعَنْ أَبِي حَبِيْبَةَ أَنَّهُ دَخَلَ الدَّارَ وَعُثْمَانُ مَحْصُوْرٌ فِيْهَا وَأَنَّهُ سَمِعَ أَبَا هُرَيْرَةَ يَسْتَأْذِنُ عُثْمَانَ فِي الْكَلَامِ فَأَذِنَ لَهُ فَقَامَ فَحَمِدَ اللّٰهَ وَأَثْنٰى عَلَيْهِ ثُمَّ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ إِنَّكُمْ سَتَلْقَوْنَ بَعْدِيْ فِتْنَةً وَاخْتِلَافًا أَوْ قَالَ اخْتِلَافًا وَفِتْنَةً فَقَالَ لَهُ قَائِلٌ مِنَ النَّاسِ فَمَنْ لَنَا يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ أَوْ مَا تَأْمُرُنَا بِهِ قَالَ عَلَيْكُمْ بِالْأَمِيْرِ وَأَصْحَابِهِ وَهُوَ يُشِيْرُ إِلَى عُثْمَانَ بِذٰلِكَ رَوَاهُمَا الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِي دَلَائِلِ النُّبُوَّةِ۔

6082. Sayyiduna Abu Habibah رحمه الله narrated that he entered the house (ad-dar of Uthman رضى الله عنه) when Uthman رضى الله عنه was besieged in it. He heard Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه seek permission of Uthman رضى الله عنه to speak (to him or to the besieger) He gave him permission and he stood up. He praised and glorified and said, "I had heard Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم say "After my death. You shall face civil war end dissension - or, he said, 'dissension and civil war.' (on hearing him,) someone among the people had asked, 'who should we turn to. O Messenger of Allah' - or, - what do you command us to do. Then?' He said, "you must obey the amir (commander) and his companion Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه (Placed stress on the word amir and) pointed to Uthman رضى الله عنه simultaneously.[2]

COMMENTARY: By pointing to Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ as he said 'amir' Abu Hurahray رضی اللہ عنہ proved through this hadith that because Uthman was the amir of the Muslims the Muslims must obey him.

BRIEF BIOGRAPHY: Sayyiduna Uthman Ghani رضی اللہ عنہ was born six years after the year of Elephant He had embraced Islam, in its very early days, at the hands of Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ. the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had not yet gone to Dar Arqam.

Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ had the distinction of emigrating twice. To Abyssinia and then to Madinah. He was medium stationed, fair and handsom He had a thick set beard and beautiful features and was a naturally appealing man.

Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ was the third caliphs. He was appointed caliph on the 1st of Muharram in 24AH. In 35 AH on the 18th of Dhul Hijjah, when the Egyptians had besieged him, Aswad Ansi intruded into his house with some other miscreants by climbing over the wall and martyred him. At that time, he was reciting the Quran. Some other authorities give another name of his assassin. His corpse lay unattended for three days. Finally some sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم managed to bury him after three days between maghrib and isha in the night. Sayyiduna Jubayr ibn Mut'in led his funeral salah. He was buried in the same garments he had been wearing when he was martyred, without being given a bath. He was 82 (or 88) years old when he died. His caliphate lasted twelve years les some days. A large number of he sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم and tabi'un have narrated ahadith on his authority.

CHAPTER - XXXIV

THE EXCELLENT QUALITIES OF THESE THREE رضی اللہ عنہم

بَابُ مَنَاقِبِ هٰؤُلَآءِ الثَّلٰثَةِ رَضِيَ اللّٰهُ عَنْهُمْ

Ahadith on the merits of Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ, Sayyiduna Umar رضی اللہ عنہ and the two of them together, and Sayyiduna Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ have been narrated in the previous four chapters. Since here are some ahadith detailing the merits of the three of these caliphs together, so this chapter is created to accommodate them.

SECTION I — اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

A PROPHET, A SADDIQ & TWO SHAHIDS

(٦٠٨٣) عَنْ اَنَسٍ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ صَعِدَ اُحُدًا وَاَبُوْبَكْرٍ وَ عُمَرُ وَ عُثْمَانُ فَرَجَفَ بِهِمْ فَضَرَبَهُ بِرِجْلِهٖ فَقَالَ اثْبُتْ اُحُدُ فَاِنَّمَا عَلَيْكَ نَبِيٌّ وَصِدِّيْقٌ وَّشَهِيْدَانِ۔(رواه البخاری)

6083. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم ascended (the Mount) Uhud along with Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ, Umar رضی اللہ عنہ and Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ. In began to tremble rapidly because of them (being pleased with them). The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم kicked it with his foot and said, "Step, Uhud, for, there are on you none but a Prophet, a siddiq (truthful one), and two shahids martyrs)."[1]

TIDINGS OF PARADISE

(٦٠٨٤) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ مُوْسٰى الْاَشْعَرِيِّ قَالَ كُنْتُ مَعَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيْ حَائِطٍ مِنْ حِيْطَانِ الْمَدِيْنَةِ فَجَآءَ رَجُلٌ فَاسْتَفْتَحَ فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ افْتَحْ لَهُ وَبَشِّرْهُ بِالْجَنَّةِ فَفَتَحْتُ لَهُ فَاِذَا اَبُوْبَكْرٍ فَبَشَّرْتُهُ بِمَا قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَحَمِدَ اللّٰهَ ثُمَّ جَآءَ رَجُلٌ فَاسْتَفْتَحَ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ افْتَحْ لَهُ وَبَشِّرْهُ بِالْجَنَّةِ فَفَتَحْتُ لَهُ فَاِذَا هُوَ عُمَرُ فَاَخْبَرْتُهُ بِمَا قَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَحَمِدَ اللّٰهَ ثُمَّ اسْتَفْتَحَ رَجُلٌ فَقَالَ لِيْ افْتَحْ لَهُ وَبَشِّرْهُ بِالْجَنَّةِ عَلٰى بَلْوٰى تُصِيْبُهُ فَاِذَا عُثْمَانُ فَاَخْبَرْتُهُ بِمَا قَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَحَمِدَ اللّٰهَ ثُمَّ قَالَ اللّٰهُ الْمُسْتَعَانُ۔ (متفق عليه)

6084. Sayyiduna Abu Musa Al-Ash'ary narrated: I was with the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم in one of the gardens of Madinah. A man came and requested that the gate should be opened. The Prophet said, Open it for him and give him glad tidings of (admittance to) paradise." I opened it for him and, behold! He was Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ. I conveyed to him the glad tidings that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had instructed me (to give). He praised Allah.

Then, another man came and requested that the gate should be opened (for him). The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said 'Open it for him and give him glad tidings of paradise." I opened it for him and, indeed, he was Umar رضی اللہ عنہ. I informed him of what the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had said (that I must do). He praised Allah.

Again a man requested that the gate should be opened. He said to me "Open it for him and give him glad tidings of paradise after a rebellion that he will face." Indeed, he was Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ and I informed him of what the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had said. He Praised Allah and said (humbly). "Help must be sought from Allah alone!"[1] (Only he will enable me to preserve.)

SECTION II الفصل الثانی

SEQUENCE IN WHICH THEY WERE MENTIONED

(٦٠٨٥) عَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ كُنَّا نَقُوْلُ وَرَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حَيٌّ اَبُوْبَكْرٍ وَعُمَرُ وَعُثْمَانُ۔

(رواه الترمذی)

6085. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ said, "We used to say, during the lifetime of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, Abu Bakr, Umar and Uthman. May Allah be pleased with them."[2]

COMMENTARY: All three of them were very close to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم more than any other sahabi رضی اللہ عنہ. So, they were most superior in rank of all the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم. They were mentioned very often. Whenever they were remembered, it was in this order.

UNSEEN GUIDANCE ON SUCCESSION OF THE THREE CALIPHS

(٦٠٨٦) عَنْ جَابِرٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اُرِيَ اللَّيْلَةَ رَجُلٌ صَالِحٌ كَاَنَّ اَبَابَكْرٍ نِيْطَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَنِيْطَ عُمَرُ بِاَبِيْ بَكْرٍ وَنِيْطَ عُثْمَانُ بِعُمَرَ قَالَ جَابِرٌ فَلَمَّا قُمْنَا مِنْ عِنْدِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قُلْنَا اَمَّا الرَّجُلُ الصَّالِحُ فَرَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ وَاَمَّا نَوْطُ بَعْضِهِمْ بِبَعْضٍ فَهُمْ وَلَاةُ الْاَمْرِ الَّذِيْ بَعَثَ اللّٰهُ بِهٖ نَبِيَّهٗ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ۔(رواه ابوداؤد)

6086.Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Last night a righteous man was shown (in a dream) as though Abu Bakr was joined to Allah's Messenger, Umar was joined to Abu Bakr and Uthman was joined to Umar. Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ said, "when we got up (from the Prophet) صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم we said (to each other making our independent assessment). As for the righteous man, he is Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. As for their being joined one to another, they (each of the three in the succession mentioned here) will be chiefs over the mission to accomplish which Allah has sent His Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم (in this world)."[1]

CHAPTER – XXXV

THE EXCELLENT QUALITIES OF SAYYIDUNA ALI IBN ABU TALIB
بَابُ مَنَاقِبِ عَلِيِّ بْنِ اَبِيْ طَالِبٍ

Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ possesses innumerable merits and excellent qualities. More ahadith are narrated on his praise, description and excellences than on such qualities of any other sahabi, though many of these ahadith are mawdu (invented).

Shaykh Majd ud-din Shirazi رحمہ اللہ has pointed out the invented ahadith narrated about the merits of Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ. Their being false and baseless is clear to anyone with a little sense so too he has pointed out that people have invented many false ahadith about the merits of Ali رضی اللہ عنہ. The largest collection of those false ahadith is found in the book wasya and each of these begins with the words (یاعلی) 'O Ali except one hadith:

یا علی انت منی بمنزلۃ ھارون من موسی

"O Ali, you are to meat the some position as Harun علیہ السلام was to Musa علیہ السلام. (Bukhari # 3706, Muslim # 30.2404) certainly. It is an authentic hadith.

Be that as it may, Imam Ahmad رحمہ اللہ and Imam Nasa'I رحمہ اللہ and others have affirmed that the sahih ahadith about the merits of Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ are much more than such ahadith about any of the other sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم . Suyuti رحمہ اللہ has said that the reason for it is that Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ was a successor of the others, of a later period. Not only Muslim were pitted against each other in his time, but also there were many people antagonistic to him. They fought batters with him and turned away from him.

Therefore, in order to protect and uphold the high position of Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ and silence his opponents and prove them wrong, the ulama and muhaddithin have compiled a large collection of ahadith on his merits. They spared no effort in diffusing these ahadith. However, as for as the merits of each of the first three caliphs are concerned, they are more than the merits of Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ

NAME & GENEALOGY: He was Ali رضی اللہ عنہ ibn Abu Talib ibn Abdul Muttalib ibn Hashim ibn Abd Munaf ibn Qusay ibn Kilab ibn Hurray ibn Ka'b ibn Luayy ibn Ghalib ibn Fihr ibn Nadir ibn Kinanah.

He also had the name Haider (or Haydar). This was the name of his maternal grandfather, Asad, when he was born, his mother Fatimah bint Asad gave him her father's name. Later, Abu Talib gave him the name Ali رضی اللہ عنہ.

According to a tradition, Ali رضی اللہ عنہ used to say, "I do not like any name better than Abu Turab."[1]

KUNAYAH: Actually, Abu Turab is the kunyah of Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ. It was given to him by the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. One day, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم visited his daughter Sayyidah Fatimah رضی اللہ عنہا. Ali رضی اللہ عنہ was not at home. She said, "We have had a tiff, so he has gone away angry without having his nap." He instructed Anas رضی اللہ عنہ to look for him. He said, "O Messenger of Allah, he is having a nap in he mosque." So, he went there and found him lying down on the bore floor by the wall of the mosque. His cloak had been dislodged from his shoulder, his back and sides had become dusty. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم removed the dust from his body saying at the same time. "O Abu Turab, get up!" Since then he got the kunyah Abu Turab.[2] (Turab means dust).

SECTION I الفصل الأول

ALI رضی اللہ عنہ & HARUN علیہ السلام

(٦٠٨٧) عَنْ سَعْدِ بْنِ اَبِي وَقَّاصٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ لِعَلِيٍّ اَنْتَ مِنِّيْ بِمَنْزِلَةِ هَارُوْنَ مِنْ مُّوْسٰى اِلَّا اَنَّهٗ لَا نَبِيَّ بَعْدِيْ۔(متفق علیه)

6087.Sayyiduna Sa'd ibn Abu Waqqas narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said to Ali رضی اللہ عنہ, "You are to me of the same rank as Harun was to Musa, except that there will be no Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم after me."[3]

COMMENTARY: When the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم set out for the last battle of his life, the Battle of Tabuk, he left behind Ali رضی اللہ عنہ to look after his family in Madinah. The hypocrites seized the opportunity to taunt him over that. Ali رضی اللہ عنہ wasted no time to equip himself and set out to join the army. He caught up with it at Jarf and informed the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم why he had came. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم told him that he hypocrites were liars. He said, "I had left you behind that you might look after my family as my representative." He also said immediately thereafter, "Ali, are you not pleased that your relations with me are the same as Harun علیہ السلام had with Musa علیہ السلام. When Musa علیہ السلام went to Mount Tur, he left Harun علیہ السلام as his deputy among his people."

[3] Bukhari # 3706, Muslim # 30.2404, Tirmidhi # 3724 (3744)

PERVERSITY OF THE SHI'A: The Sh'ia have taken this hadith to support their baseless belief. They hold that in these words the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم entrusted Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه his caliphate. Hence, he had the right to assume the charge of caliphate on the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم death. They call all the sahabah رضى الله عنهم disbelievers because they did not adhere to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم will. Some of them go to the extent of calling Ali رضى الله عنه also a disbeliever because he did not demand his right. These foolish people must be told that there is no greater liar than them. They designate the first generation as disbelievers and include the entire ummah in this designation. In this way they regard the Shari'ah as unreliable and demolish the edifice of Islam. So, who will doubt that they themselves are disbelievers.

IMPOSSIBLE: The ahl us-sunnah wa al-jama'ah have termed this deduction of the Shi'ahs as preposterous The prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had appointed Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه as his deputy only for the period he was out of Madinah to participate in the Battle of Tabuk. It is like Prophet Musa عليه السلام appointing prophet Harun عليه السلام his deputy for the time he was at mount tur. If the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had intended to make Ali رضى الله عنه his first caliph after his death then surely he would never have compared him with Prophet Harun عليه السلام because he did not became caliph of Prophet Musa عليه السلام after the latter's death. In fact he had died forty years before Prophet Musa عليه السلام died.

Besides, during his absence from Madinah while he was engaged in the battle, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had appointed another sahabi, Ibn Umm Maktum رضى الله عنه, as imam to lead the congregational salah. So, while Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه attended to the needs of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم family. Sayyiduna Ibn Umm Maktum رضى الله عنه led the people in their salah. If it had been an absolute caliphate in Ali's رضى الله عنه favour, the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم would have appointed him an imam too. He would never have named another man for that.

WHY COMPARED: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said to Ali رضى الله عنه "You are for me as Harun عليه السلام was for Musa عليه السلام" Clearly, he compared Ali رضى الله عنه to Harun عليه السلام, but the reason why this compassion was made is not clear from these words. He elaborated on his words that the exception was that there was to be no prophet after him. "The difference between the two of you is that while Harun عليه السلام was a Prophet, you are not a Prophet." Hence, it follows that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم made reference to his nearness to Ail رضى الله عنه like the nearness of Prophet Musa عليه السلام and Prophet Harun عليه السلام not in the sense of prophet hood, but in the sense of caliphate which is close to prophet hood in rank. Again, caliphate can be of two kinds (i) deputizing the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم during his life time for a specified period of time, to show near ness and express trust of him, (ii), declare his eligibility to succeed the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم as his caliph after his death and show nearness and trust of him.

The second kind is out of question, because Prophet Harun عليه السلام had died during the lifetime of Prophet Musa عليه السلام. So, his example was not given in the sense of a successor caliph. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not make the comparison to establish that Ali رضى الله عنه would be caliph after his death. We have no option, therefore, but to concede that the first kind of caliph is meant by the words of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم: a deputy or representative for a specified period of time during his life time. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had made Ali رضى الله عنه a caliph for the duration of his absence from Madinah during which the Battle of Tabuk took place. It was a short term or an interim arrangement that terminated on the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم return from Tabuk. So, this makeshift arrangement cannot be evidence for a full fledged caliphate after the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم death.

NO PROPHET AFTER ME: Some authorities deduce the words, 'There will be no prophet after me' to mean that even Sayyiduna Eesa ibn Maryam عليه السلام, when he descends from the heaven, will not came down as a Prophet. Rather, he will be an amir and a ruler to enforce and implement the religion of Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم. He will make people adhere to the Shri'ah of Muhammad رضي الله عنه. However. Mulla Ali Qari رحمه الله contends that the hadith does not preclude the possibility of Sayyiduna Eesa عليه السلام coming down as a Prophet and also follow the Shari'ah of our prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم. He will promote and propagate its tenets and the ways and manners of the Messenger. Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم Moreover, it cannot be ruled out that he would be guided by Divine revelation.

In this case, the words. 'There will be no Prophet after me mean that no new prophet will be commissioned after Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم. He is the seal of Prophet hood and the last of prophet in the sense that the series and commissioning of prophets has ended, No new prophet is to come after him in this world.

WERE THERE TO BE A PROPHET: This hadith places stress on a great merit of Sayyiduna Ali رضي الله عنه. It says that if prophet Muhamad صلى الله عليه وسلم was not the last of the prophet and the seal of prophethood, then Sayyiduna Ali ibn Talib رضي الله عنه would have been a prophet. However, this does not imply that this hadith refutes the hadith that is explicit about Umar رضي الله عنه, "If there was to be a prophet after me, he would have been Umar."

The fact is these two traditions are based on hypothesis and conjecture. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم presented a proposition, saying 'If prophethood were to have continued after me, then a number of my sahabah would have been designated as prophets. But, there is no denying the fact that there will be no prophet after me."

A GREAT MISTAKE: Often this hadith is quoted:

علماء امتی کا نبیاء بنی اسرائیل

"The ulama (religion scholars) of my ummah are like the Prophets of Banu Isra'il"

Even educated people have been taken in by this false narration and believe it to be authentic. But the scholars of hadith say that it is a fake and is baseless. Among these scholars are zakashi رحمه الله, Asqalani رحمه الله Darami رحمه الله and Suyuti رحمه الله

LOVE OF ALI رضي الله عنه IS A SIGN OF FAITH

(٦٠٨٨) وَعَنْ زِرِّبْنِ حُبَيْشٍ قَالَ قَالَ عَلِيٌّ وَالَّذِي فَلَقَ الْحَبَّةَ وَبَرَأَ النَّسَمَةَ إِنَّهُ لَعَهِدَ النَّبِيُّ الْأُمِّيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِلَيَّ أَنْ لَّا يُحِبُّنِي إِلَّا مُؤْمِنٌ وَّلَا يُبْغِضُنِي إِلَّا مُنَافِقٌ۔ (رواه مسلم)

6088. Sayyiduna zirr ibn Hubaysh رحمه الله (a tabi'i) narrated that Sayyiduna Ali رضي الله عنه said, "By Him who split the grain and created the breath of life (meaning living creatures), the ummi Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had convinced me that none but a believer would love me and none but a hypocrite would detest me."[1]

COMMENTARY: 'Love' in this hadith means love as demanded by Shari'ah not to the limit of worship and not descending to such low levels as paying scant respect. Thus, the Kharijis cannot qualify as believers because they do not love him. So too those people who exaggerate their love of him to the extent that detest Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ and Umar رضی اللہ عنہ cannot be called believers.

Anyway, to love Ali رضی اللہ عنہ is a sign of faith and a despise him smacks of hypocrisy. According to another hadith which is also narrated by Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said:

من احبني و احب هذين واباهما وامهما كان معي في درجتي يوم القيامة

"He who loves me and loves these two (children, Hasan and Husayn) and their father and their mother will be with me at my place on the day of resurrection."[1]

Love of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, Ali رضی اللہ عنہ and the people of his house presuppose love of the Sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم . Love of all the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم is also a sign of faith and detesting them is a sign of hypocrisy.

Ibn Asakir رحمہ اللہ his transmitted the hadith of Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said:

حب ابي بكر و عمر من الايمان وبغضهما كفر و حب الانصار من الايمان وبغضهم كفر و حب العرب من الايمان وبغضهم كفر و من سب اصحابي فعليه لعنة الله ومن حفظني فيهم انا احفظه يوم القيمة۔

"Love of Abu Bakr and Umar is a portion of faith and hatred of them amount to disbelief. Love of the ansar is part of faith and hatred of them amount to disbelief. Love of the Arabs is a part of faith and hatred of them amounts to disbelief. He who reviles my sahabah qualities for the curse of Allah and he who protects them (from the curse of other people), I shall save him on the day of resurrection (from its horrors)."

DISTINCTIVE HONOUR ON THE DAY OF KHYABAR

6089.Sayyiduna Sahl ibn Sa'd رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that, on the day of Khaybar, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "I shall give this standard tomorrow to a man at whose hands Allah will give victory. He loves Allah and His Messenger and Allah and His Messenger love him." (The sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم eagerly awaited the morning) When it was morning, everyone came to Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم cherishing the desire that he would be given the standard. But, he asked, "Where is Ali ibn Abu Talib?" They (the sahabah) رضی اللہ عنہ said, "O Messenger of Allah, his eyes give him pain." He said, "Bring him here," so, he was brought and Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم spat in his eyes. He recovered to the extent that it looked as though nothing had happened to him (and his eyes had never been painful).

Then, he gave him the standard and Ali رضی اللہ عنہ said (elated with the honour). "O Messenger of Allah, I shall fight with them till they are (Muslim) like us." He said, "Go gently (and with determination) till you are at their borders. There, invite them to embrace Islam and inform them of the rights of Allah that Islam has imposed on them. By Allah, if Allah gives guidance to a single man by means of you then it will be better for you than that you possess red camels (or quadrapeds)."[1]

COMMENTARY: Khaybar is located sixty miles from Madinah on the route to Syria This battle was fought in 7 AH.

After giving guidance to Ali رضی اللہ عنہ, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم emphasized his words by swearing on Allah that though warriors hope for spoils that might include red camels etc, yet if the enemy is invited to embrace Islam gently then often it given positive results. Many of the enemy embrace Islam without there beings any fighting. That, indeed, is the real objective of Islam. Allamah Ibn Hamam has spoken very wise words about it: "It is better to get one person to the folds to Islam than to eliminate one thousand disbelievers."

وَذُكِرَ حَدِيثُ الْبَرَاءِ قَالَ لِعَلِيٍّ أَنْتَ مِنِّي وَأَنَا مِنْكَ فِي بَابِ بُلُوغِ الصَّغِيرِ

SECTION II — اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِي

EXCEPTIONAL NEARNESS

(٦٠٩٠) عَنْ عِمْرَانَ بْنِ حُصَيْنٍ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ إِنَّ عَلِيًّا مِنِّي وَأَنَا مِنْهُ وَهُوَ وَلِيُّ كُلِّ مُؤْمِنٍ۔(رواہ الترمذی)

6090.Sayyiduna Imran ibn Husayn رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said "Ali is mine and I am his (referring to their nearness and their relationship). And he is the Wali (friend and guardian) of every believer."[2]

COMMENTARY: When the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم spoke these words, he was referring to their nearness and their relationship. He said that Ali is the Wali of all those who believe. This has reference to this verse of the Quran:

إِنَّمَا وَلِيُّكُمُ اللّٰهُ وَرَسُولُهُ وَالَّذِينَ آمَنُوا الَّذِينَ يُقِيمُونَ الصَّلٰوةَ وَيُؤْتُونَ الزَّكٰوةَ وَهُمْ رَاكِعُونَ

{Your friend is only Allah and His Messenger and those who believe – those who establish salah and pay zakah and bow down (in salah)} (5:55)

6091.Sayyiduna Zayd ibn Arqam رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "He whose friend I am, Ali too is his friend."[1]

COMMENTARY: Apart from the translation of this hadith, as given above, another is: "He who is my helper and supporter will find that Ali is his helper and supporter. In the third section, there will be comments on this hadith.

(٦٠٩٢) وَعَنْ حُبْشِيِّ بْنِ جُنَادَةَ قَالَ .قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَلِيٌّ مِنِّيْ وَاَنَا مِنْ عَلِيٍّ وَلَا يُؤَدِّيْ عَنِّيْ اِلَّا اَنَا اَوْ عَلِيٌّ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَرَوَاهُ اَحْمَدُ عَنْ اَبِيْ جُنَادَةَ۔

6092. Sayyiduna Hubshyyi ibn Junadah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Ali is mine and I am Ali's. And none may make on undertaking (to annul an agreement) on my behalf except myself or Ali."[2]

COMMENTARY: It was a custom among the Arabs that when two parties made an agreement or decided to abrogate one, the responsibility to do it and conduct mutual negotiations rested o the chief on each side, or if he was not there then his nearest relative.

BACK GROUNDS: The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم could not himself proceed to perform hajj in 9 AH after the conquest of Makah. So he appoint ed Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ as Amir ul hajj and sent him to Makkah to lead the Muslims through the pilgrimage.

Later the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم sent Ali رضی اللہ عنہ with the responsibility on his behalf to announce the annulment of the peace treaty of Hudaybiyah made in 6 AH, three years before that pilgrimage, with the Quraysh of Makkah. He was instructed to recite to the idolaters surah Bara'h (at-tawbah 9th surah) in which are revealed about this. He was also to make an announcement that the idolaters were impure and none of them should approach the Masjid Haram (the sacred Mosque) after that. He was also instructed to inform them of the other commands that were revealed on the occasion.

It was on this occasion that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم spoke the words of he hadith. These words were meant to reverse Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ and to spell out why this responsibility was not handed over to Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ. while he was the representative of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم during the period of hajj as amir ul hajj, yet in keeping with the principles in vogue among the Arabs the responsibility of repealing the treaty was entrusted to Ali رضی اللہ عنہ.

AMIR OR MAMUR: This is why Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ got a clarification from Ali رضی اللہ عنہ straightaway when he followed them and joined their caravan. "When you came as our amir (chief) or joined us as a mamur (under command)?" Ali رضی اللہ عنہ made it clear, 'I have not come as an amir. I have come as a mamur (to follow the amir)."

ALI صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم AS SECOND CALIPH: The research scholars deduce from this event that the caliphate of Ali رضی اللہ عنہ would follow that of Abu Bakr.

(٦٠٩٣) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ اٰخٰى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بَيْنَ اَصْحَابِهٖ فَجَاءَ عَلِيٌّ تَدْمَعُ عَيْنَاهُ فَقَالَ اٰخَيْتَ بَيْنَ اَصْحَابِكَ وَلَمْ تُؤَاخِ بَيْنِيْ وَبَيْنَ اَحَدٍ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَنْتَ اَخِيْ فِي الدُّنْيَا

وَالْاٰخِرَةِ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

6093.Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم paired off brotherhoods among his companions . Ali رضی اللہ عنہ come to him with tears following from his eyes. He complained, "You have established ties of fraternity among your companions, but you have not establish ties of fraternity between me and anyone." Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said "you are my brother in this world and in the hereafter."[1]

Tirmidhi termed this hadith hasan gharib,

COMMENTARY: The first thing the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم did on emigrating to Madindh was to institute brotherhood between the Muhajirs (emigrants) and the ansars (helpers) on a sincere and firm basis. He did it one day in the fifth month of his arrival there after gathering members of both of them. He paired on ansar with an emigrant.

Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ was one of those who had not been nominated as anyone's brother. He complained weeping at the some time that

- Abu akr رضی اللہ عنہ had kharijah ibn zuayr Ansari رضی اللہ عنہ as his brother,
- Umar رضی اللہ عنہ had Itban ibn Maalik Ansari رضی اللہ عنہ as his brother,
- Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ had Thabit ibn Mundhir Ansari رضی اللہ عنہ as his brother, and
- Salman رضی اللہ عنہ and Abu Darda Ansari رضی اللہ عنہ as his brother, etc.

but he had no brother from the ansar. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم comforted him that he himself was his brother in both world and, indeed, from the worldly point of view too as a relative, saying. "why then you need that I should set ties of fraternity between you and another?"

DEAREST SLAVE OF ALLAH

(٦٠٩٤) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ كَانَ عِنْدَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ طَيْرٌ فَقَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ ائْتِنِيْ بِاَحَبِّ خَلْقِكَ اِلَيْكَ يَاْكُلُ مَعِيْ هٰذَا الطَّيْرَ فَجَاءَهُ عَلِيٌّ فَاَكَلَ مَعَهُ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ

6094.Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ said that a (roasted or cooked) bird was (placed) before the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. He prayed, "O Allah, let the creature dearest to you come to me that he might eat this bird alongwith me." Then Ali رضی اللہ عنہ arrived and he ate along with him.[2]

Tirmidhi termed this hadith as gharib.

COMMENTARY: Ibn Jawzi رحمہ اللہ said that this hadith is invented (mawdu) but Ibn Hajar رحمہ اللہ has called it da'if (weak). It is stated in Mukhtasar that this tradition is transmitted through many chains of narrators, but all of them are da'if (weak).

Be that as it may, this hadith is evidence that Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ is the dearest of all His creatures to Allah. However, the exponents of hadith give this meaning of the hadith (as in the text) with some limitations and stipulations. For instance, the words that Ali رضی اللہ عنہ is the dearest of all His creatures to Allah, mean that he is one of the creatures dearest to Allah. Or, he was the dearest to Allah among the sympathizers and nearest relatives of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. Or, among those who deserved must the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم kind treatment and kindness on a priority basis, Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ was the dearest creature to Allah. However, it was not necessary make these stipulations because the words 'all creature' in the hadith do not mean all creatures without distinction. If that was so, then it would imply that the rank of Ali رضی اللہ عنہ is higher than that of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم too, but he is the dearest of creatures to Allah without any exception. He also is the chief of the dear ones and most excellent of the creatures.

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 3720 (3741)

Besides, if Ali رضی اللہ عنہ is dearer to Allah than Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ and Umar رضی اللہ عنہ then it is not completely and absolutely. So we shall say that Ali رضی اللہ عنہ has excellence over Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ and Umar رضی اللہ عنہ from some angels without, in any way, detracting, from the complete excellence of the two which they have because of plenty of reward and virtue and from all angles.

If the Rawafid try to establish the right pf Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ to caliphate directly on he death of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and his complete excellence over Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ and Umar رضی اللہ عنہ, it is not correct on their part. Similar words are also found describing the virtues of Umar رضی اللہ عنہ also. According to hadith:

ما طلعت الشمس على خير من عمر

"This sun has not risen on anyone better than Umar." And"

ارفع درجة في الجنة عمر

"Umar will have the highest rank in paradise."

However, even the Ahl us-sunnah wa al jama'ah do not take these words to mean that Umar رضی اللہ عنہ is the most excellent of all mankind on earth and in paradise. There are some limitations and stipulations to the implication of this hadith.

It must be known that the question of excellence is not related to anyone's faith and disbelief. Also, we must classify this tradition as invented. It is biased.

GAVE HIM GENEROUSLY

(٦٠٩٥) وَعَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ إِذَا كُنْتُ سَأَلْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَعْطَانِيْ وَإِذَا سَكَتُّ ابْتَدَأَنِيْ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

6095.Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ said, "When, I asked Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم for anything, quiet (and refrained from asking), he gave me something on his own."[1] Tirmidhi termed this hadith hasan gharib.

ALI رضی اللہ عنہ IS THE DOOR TO WISDOM

(٦٠٩٦) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَنَا دَارُ الْحِكْمَةِ وَعَلِيٌّ بَابُهَا رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ وَقَالَ رَوٰى بَعْضُهُمْ هٰذَا الْحَدِيْثَ عَنْ شَرِيْكٍ وَلَمْ يَذْكُرُوْا فِيْهِ عَنِ الصُّنَابِحِيِّ وَلَا نَعْرِفُ هٰذَا الْحَدِيْثَ عَنْ أَحَدٍ مِنَ الثِّقَاتِ غَيْرَ شَرِيْكٍ۔

6096.Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "I am

the house of wisdom, and Ali is the door to the house."[1]
Tirmidhi termed it as a gharib hadith. He also said that some narrators have transmitted it from Sharik but they have not named Sunabihi (as he is mentioned in other traditions from him). He also said, "We do not know this hadith from any trusted source other than Sharik."

COMMENTARY: According to another version, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said:

انا مدينة العلم وعلى بابها

"I am he city of knowledge and Ali is the gate of the city."
Yet another version has an additional saying:

فمن اراد العلم فليأته من بابه

"So he who seek knowledge, let him come to it from its gate."

NOT JUST ONE: However, the words do not single out Sayyiduna Ali رضی الله عنه as the gate. Rather, he is one of the gates, Even otherwise, naming Ali رضی الله عنه only demonstrates his excellence and merits. Indeed, he did posses that rank. There is no doubt it that among the sahabah رضی الله عنهم, he possessed an exclusive degree of knowledge and wisdom. Only a few of the sahabah رضی الله عنهم could get there. In this way, we may say that he surpassed most of the sahabah رضی الله عنهم in the field of knowledge the fact is that all the sahabah رضی الله عنهم who had acquired knowledge from the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم are sources of knowledge for the ummah. The knowledge of religion that reached the ummah was conveyed to them through the combined efforts of the sahabah رضی الله عنهم None of them can be said to have enlightened the ummah all by himself and was the sole source of knowledge after the Prophet's death. Many ahadith can be presented in support of this statement. One of them is the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saying:

اصحابي كالنّجوم بايهم اقتديتم اهتديتم

"My sahabah are like the stars. Whichever of them you follow, you will be guided.
Moreover, the tabi'un acquired knowledge of different fields of religion like recital of the quran, exegesis, hadith, figh, etc. They did not learn all that from only Ali رضی الله عنه but from all the sahabah رضی الله عنهم. Hence, we must not say that only Ali رضی الله عنه was the gate of knowledge. Of course, if we say that he was extraordinary in dispensing justice and possessed exceptional knowledge in this field, then we may use the exclusive words about Ali رضی الله عنه being the gate. He was outstanding in this field and better than all the sahabah رضی الله عنهم because it has been said about him in clear terms:

إنّه اقضاكم

"He is the best judge of you all."
It is like saying about Sayyiduna Ubayy رضی الله عنه: (انه اقرءكم), "He is best reciter of the Quran among you."
And, the saying about Mu'adh ibn Jabal رضی الله عنه is: (انه اعلمكم بالحلال والحرام) "He is the most learned of you about the lawlful and the unlawful."
Allamah Teebi رحمه الله said that the Sh'iahs say on the basis of this hadith that the only way to get knowledge and wisdom from Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم is through Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه. It is just like entering a house through its door. There is no other way to do it. This is as the Quran says:

[1] Tirmidhi #3723 (3744)

وَأْتُوا الْبُيُوتَ مِنْ أَبْوَابِهَا

[Enter (your) houses by their doors] (2:189)

(They maintain that) the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has called himself the house of wisdom and knowledge and Ali رضى الله عنه as its door. So, he is the only means by which knowledge and wisdom may be acquired. However, there is not the least evidence is this hadith for whatever the Shi'ah say. Without doubt the house of knowledge and wisdom of Ali رضى الله عنه is not more spacious and wide than the house of paradise. There are eight gates of paradise. So why can there not be more doors of the house of knowledge and wisdom?

In conclusion, we must state that the original transmitter of this hadith is Ubayy as-Sult Abbdus Salaam ibn Salaah Harwi. He was a Shi'ah, but the scholars of hadith regard him as truthful. Besides, the scholars of hadith give different opinion about this hadith. Some have called it sahih hadith. Some have called it sahih, some hasan, some da'if and some munkar.

Yahya ibn Mu'een رحمه الله has said that this hadith is baseless. Some people have termed it mawdu (Invented). But, Hafaiz Abu Sa;eed رحمه الله has said that as for its lines of transmission are concerned, this hadith is not hasan, not sahih, not da'if, and not mawdu.

Also, scholars of hadith have narrated this hadith in these words:

انا مدينة العلم وابوبكر اساسها وعمر حيطانها وعثمان سقفها وعلى بابها

"I am the city of knowledge. Abu Bakr is its foundations, Umar is it fences (or boundary), Uthman is its ceiling (or roof) and Ali is its gate.

EXCLUSIVE MERIT

(٦٠٩٧) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ دَعَا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَلِيًّا يَوْمَ الطَّائِفِ فَانْتَجَاهُ فَقَالَ النَّاسُ لَقَدْ طَالَ نَجْوَاهُ مَعَ ابْنِ عَمِّهٖ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا انْتَجَيْتُهٗ وَلٰكِنَّ اللّٰهَ انْتَجَاهُ۔ (رواه الترمذى)

6097. Sayyiduna Jabir رضى الله عنه said that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم called Ali رضى الله عنه on the day of Ta'if and confided in him (when this seemed to prolong) some people remarked, "Indeed, his secret conversation with his cousin has prolonged!" Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "I have not had secret conversation with him, but Allah has had a secret conversation with him."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم words meant, "Allah had commanded me to convey some things to Ali in whispers. If I had spoken to him secretly on my own then that would have been had manners. Since that was done at Allah's command, it is as through might compare this sentence with the verse of he Quran:

وَمَا رَمَيْتَ إِذْ رَمَيْتَ وَلٰكِنَّ اللّٰهَ رَمٰى

[....you threw not when you did throw (a handful of dust at Badr), but Allah threw (it).] (8:17)

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 3726 (3749)

The correct thing is that he must have confided in him some such things about the battle that were related to a religious aspect of future worldly administrative affairs and it might not have been wise to speak of them loudly at that juncture. But, it was not that he disclosed to him some religious affairs or commands that were revealed to him by Allah, at the exclusion of other people. Ali رضی اللہ عنہ had himself rejected such an idea.

According to a hadith in Bukhari, some people asked Sayyiduna Ali ibn Abu Ta'lib. "Do you have anything that is not found in the Quran? He said, "By Him who split the seed and created the soul, we have nothing other than what is in the Quran and the ability to understand the Book of Allah as He may bestow on a man (out of His favour). And, we have that which is written on this sheet of proper." He was asked, "What is written thereon?" He said, "Al-aql (legal procedure about diyah.[1] Inheritance, and so on)."[2]

The question was asked by Abu Juhayfah.

6098. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said to Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ, "O Ali, it is not permitted to anyone who is sexually defiled to be in the mosque, except me and you."

Ali ibn Mundhir said that he asked dirar ibn Surad, رحمہ اللہ, 'what does this hadith mean?" He explained, 'It is not permitted to anyone besides me and you to move about in the mosque when he is in a state of ceremonial impurity."[3]

Tirmidhi has termed this hadith hasan gharib (But Juzri رحمہ اللہ has asserted that the scholars of hadith say unanimously that this hadith is da'if) see hadith # 6019.

COMMENTARY: The house of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and Ali رضی اللہ عنہ opened in to the Masjid Nabawi. (In fact, of all sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم as per previous hadith # 6019 and comments thereon) So they had to walk through the mosque to come and go to their respective homes.

Ali ibn Mundhir belonged to the third century hijri. He was a prominent learned man and distinguished aseetic. He is reported to have performed fifty five pilgrimages (Ḥajj). He has to honour of having heard hadith from a section of the scholars of hadith and of transmitting them. Though he was a sh'iah, yet the reliable jurists and scholars classify him as (صدق) suduq) veracious. Ibn Hibban رحمہ اللہ has mentioned him among the trustworthy narrators.

6099. Sayyidah Umm Atiyah رضی اللہ عنہا said that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم sent an army (to a battle). Ali رضی اللہ عنہ was among them. She said, "I heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم pray with his hands raised, 'O Allah, do not cause me to die till you let me see Ali (return safe and sound)."[1]

COMMENTARY: We can gauge from these words how much dear Sayyiduan Ali رضی اللہ عنہ was to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم.

SECTION III اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

ONE WHO DETESTS ALI رضی اللہ عنہ IS A HYPOCRITE

(٦١٠٠) وَعَنْ اُمِّ سَلَمَةَ قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يُحِبُّ عَلِيًّا مُنَافِقٌ وَلَا يُبْغِضُهُ مُؤْمِنٌ

رَوَاهُ اَحْمَدُ وَالتِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ غَرِيْبٌ اِسْنَادًا۔

6100. Sayyidah Umm salamah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "A hypocrite does not love Ali and a believer does not detest him."[2]
Tirmidhi termed this a hadith hasan with a gharib isnad.

TO REVILE ALI رضی اللہ عنہ IS TO REVILE THE PROPHET صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم

(٦١٠١) وَعَنْهَا قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ سَبَّ عَلِيًّا فَقَدْ سَبَّنِيْ۔ (رواه احمد)

6101. Sayyidah Umm salamah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said "He who reviles Ai (finding fault with his pedigree). Reviles me."[3]

COMMENTARY: The hadith means that if anyone speaks ill of Sayyiduna Ai رضی اللہ عنہ he should be declared to be a disbeliever. This must serve as a warning particularly if such a man believe that it is permissible to speak ill of him.
This hadith is transmitted by Haakim too. Tabarani has transmitted from Ibn Abas رضی اللہ عنہ the version:

من سب اصحابي فعليه لعنة الله والملائكة والناس اجمعين

"He who reviles my companions, may the curse of Allah, the angels and the people – altogether – be on him."

Tabarani has narrated also from Ali رضی اللہ عنہ (that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said).

من سب الانبياء قتل ومن سب اصحابي جلد۔

"He who reviles the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم should be executed. He who reviles my sahabah should be whipped."

EXAGGERATION IN PRAISE & HEARTED

(٦١٠٢) وَعَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ قَالَ لِيْ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيْكَ مَثَلٌ مِنْ عِيْسٰى اَبْغَضَتْهُ الْيَهُوْدُ حَتّٰى بَهَتُوْا

يُقَرِّظُنِىْ بِمَا لَيْسَ فِىَّ وَمُبْغِضٌ يَحْمِلُهُ شَنَاٰنِىْ عَلٰى اَنْ يَّبْهَتَنِىْ۔(رواه احمد)

6102. Sayyiduna Ail رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said to him, "You are like Easa in the sense that the Jews detested him to the extent that they slandered his mother, and the Christians adored him to the extent that they raised him to the heights to which he did not belong (calling him God or son of God)."

After that (narration), Ali said, "Two (section of) people will perish by going astray) because of me. He who loves me so immoderately that he showers praise on me for what I do not deserve, and he who detests me so spitefully that he will be driven by his spite to slander me."[1]

COMMENTARY: What the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said about Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم Easa علیہ السلام and Ai رضی اللہ عنہ referred to it, came out to be correct. The Sh'iah crossed limits in loving Ali رضی اللہ عنہ so much so that they gave him excellence over the Prophet علیہ السلام too. In fact, some of their branches (like the Naseers) raised him to divinity. On their other hand, The kharijis went beyond limits in their dislike of him so that they slandered him excessively. Love and respect should not exceed limits but must adhere to the principles outlined by Shari'ah, otherwise it misleads.

The ahl us sunnah wa al-jama'ah pursue a moderate and balanced path. They are not excessive in love and respect of anyone.

The treasure of the believers lies in two things:

(i) Love of the family of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, and

(ii) Respect of the shabah رضی اللہ عنہ

They must keep the balance in both these things

Imam Ahmad رحمہ اللہ has transmitted from Ali رضی اللہ عنہ:

يحبنى اقوام حتى يدخلوا النار فى حبى ويبغضنى اقوام حتى يدخلوا النار فى بغضى

"Some people will love me so excessively that my love will lead them to hell (because of their over indulgence in it). Some people will dislike me so vindictively that they will go to hell because of that."

Imam Ahmad رضی اللہ عنہ has also transmitted the prayer of Ali :

اللهم العن كل مبغض لنا وكل محب لنا غال

"O Allah curse everyone who hates us and everyone who loves us to the limit of extravagance."

GHADIR KHUMM & NEARNESS OF ALI رضی اللہ عنہ TO THE PROPHET صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم

(٦١٠٣) وَعَنِ الْبَرَاءِ بْنِ عَازِبٍ وَزَيْدِ بْنِ اَرْقَمَ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَمَّا نَزَلَ بِغَدِيْرِ خُمٍّ

عَادَاهُ فَلَقِيَهُ عُمَرُ بَعْدَ ذٰلِكَ فَقَالَ لَهُ هَنِيْئًا يَا ابْنَ اَبِيْ طَالِبٍ اَصْبَحْتَ وَاَمْسَيْتَ مَوْلٰى كُلِّ مُؤْمِنٍ وَمُؤْمِنَةٍ۔(رواه احمد)

6103. Sayyiduna Al-Bara ibn Aazib رضی الله عنه and Sayyiduna Zayd ibn Arqam رضی الله عنه narrated that when Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم alighted at Ghadir Khumm, he (assembled the shabah رضی الله عنه and contrived a pulpit of the packsaddles of camels and stood on it and) took Ali رضی الله عنه by the hand and asked, "You (O sahabah) know well that I am dearer to the believers than their own lives are to them?" They confirmed, "Of course!" He then asked (again), "you know, of course, that I am dearer to every believer than his own life is to him?" They confirmed, "Of course!" Then, he prayed, "O Allah, he whose friend I am, Ali too is his friend. O Allah, take him as your friend who befriends Ali and take him as your enemy who is hostile to him." After that, Umar met him and said to him, "O Ibn Abu Talib, felicitations to you! You are a friend (and dear one) of every believing man and believing woman in the morning and in the evening (at all times)!"[1]

COMMENTARY: Ghadir Khumm is situated between Makkah and Madinah near Tuhfah which is 50 or 60 miles form Makkah. Ghadir Khumm is three miles from Tuhfah. The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم had stopped here in 10 AH while returning after performing the Farewell Hajj. There were very many sahabah along with him. He spoke the words of the hadith to them.

He called their attention to the verse of the Quran:

اَلنَّبِيُّ اَوْلٰى بِالْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ مِنْ اَنْفُسِهِمْ

{The Prophet is nearer to the believers than their own selves} (33:6)

According to one version, he spoke these words three times.

The first times the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم spoke of the believers (ahl us eeman) and the second time, he said, 'each believer (كل مومن). His words imply "I guide them to the good and success of their religious and worldly life while their own self leads them to evil, that being innate to man." It is the demand on a sound nature of man that he should love and hold dear one who is always his well-wisher more than what leads him to evil doing al the time, or even once in a while.

As for the prayer, "O Allah take him as your friend..." the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم words according to one version are:

اللهم احب من حبه وابغض من ابغضه وانصر من نصره واخذل من خذله وادر الحق معه حيث دار

"O Allah love one who love Ali. Hate him who hates Ali. Help him who help Ali. Disgrace him who disdains Ali And keep truth with Ali wherever he stays."

THE DEDUCTION OF THE SHI'AHS: Among the ahadith that the Sh'iah cite as evidence for the caliphate of Ali رضی الله عنه directly after the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم and for him excellence over others, this hadith is their strongest evidence. Their contention is that in the saying (من كنت مولاه فعلى مولاه), the word (مولا) does not mean, 'friend, 'dear' helper but implies rightful of caliphate in the first instance, before all. This means 'directly on the death Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم. They build their argument on the preceding words (انی اولی بالمؤمنین) 'I am dearer to the believers than their own selves" but they interpret them to mean the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم has more right to mould and dictate the lives of the believers than they themselves have. They argue that if the meaning was merely the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم was dearer and closer to the believers, then it was not necessary to go to all the trouble to bring together the sahabah رضی الله عنهم to merely inform them of it and to make the supplication for Ali. رضی الله عنه The reason is that this thing was very clear and commonly known. Besides, the supplication that he made for Ali رضی الله عنه cannot be made for anyone other than the innocent imam. Who is bound to be obeyed.

The shi'ah derive the conclusion that the (ولا) 'right that the prophet exercises over the entire ummah, also rests with Sayyiduna Ali رضی الله عنه Hence this hadith (according to them) is strong evidence of Ali's رضی الله عنه caliphate without gap (meaning directly) after the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم death.

REBUTTAL: We must know that this hadith is sahih. It is transmitted by the imam of hadith like imam Tirmidhi رحمه الله Imam Nasa'I رحمه الله Imam Ahmad رحمه الله and others. It is transmitted through manylines of narrators and many isnad. On an occasion during his caliphate, when his opponents questioned his caliphate, Sayyiduna Ali رضی الله عنه gathered the people in a ground and adjured them to repeat what the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم had said at Ghadir Khumm. As many as thirty sahabah رضی الله عنهم stood up and narrated this hadith and gave testimony in favour of his caliphate. Hence, there is no doubt that this hadith is sahih and also its last portion (اللهم وال من والاه الخ) 'O Allah, take as friend...' is part of it and not investede or a subsequent addition. It is also transmitted through many lines of transmission, most of which have been upheld as sahih by Zahabi رحمه الله

However, as for the interpretation of the Shi'ahs (as detailed in the preceding lines, it is baseless. They do it out of ignorance or on purpose to spread a wrong interpretation.

The first thing we ask them: Is their idea of imamah is established by tawatir? It can only be done by mutawatir hadith which should be presented to prove the right to imamah. It cannot be established by a hadith that is not mutawatir. And this hadith on which they base their argument is not mutawatir. Besides its soundness is also questioned, though this has not been accepted (and it has been declared sahih). And those who questioned its soundness include such great name in hadith as Abu Dawud Sijistani and Abu Hatim Razi to who are referred to for knowledge of hadith. The scholars of hadith recognize them as learned. Besides, the scholars like bukahri. Muslim, Waqadi and other senior scholars of hadith have not transmitted this hadith at all. We know of them that they travelled to distant places in search of sahih ahadith and then they compiled them together, each on his own. What we say casts no aspersion on the soundness of this hadith, nor do we reject its soundness. But, is it not surprising that attempts are made to term it mutawatir. The Shi'ah do so to prove their contention of imamah as correct.

THE WORDS MAWLA (مولا): This word is the word on which the Sh'iah base their contention that Ali رضی الله عنه had right to caliphate directly on the Prophet's صلی الله علیه وسلم death and they present this hadith as their evidence. The word (مولا) – mawla) has may meanings: Lord master, owner, helper, friend, follower, obedient, neighbour, paternal cousin, ally, son-in-law, freedman, grateful etc.

It is a (linguistic) principle that if a word has many meanings and some of them are synonymous then such a meaning is applied as is supported by a clear evidence and example. If that word has became disputed then such a meaning will be applied as is shared to some extent

On this basis, the ahl us sunah wa al-jama'ah reject 'ruler' and 'guardian's as the meaning of (مولا) - mawla). They regard 'friend and 'helper' as correct because the text of the hadith leads to it as the correct meaning. Secondly, it neither known nor established that the word (مولا) mawla) is used as imam, 'ruler' or 'guardian' in language or law (Shar'iah), and none of the scholars of language have stated that it is used as a 'doing verb' that is one does say 'a' is better (اولى) that 'b' but no one says 'a' is (مولا) mawla) than 'b'.

Moreover, the Shi'ahs themselves say that Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ is the friend and helper of the entire ummah. Hence, this being a shared meaning - a common ground, as it were - it is proper to take this word in this sense of friend and helper.

As for the argument why did the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم bring the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم together and take so much trouble to say what was already known, the answer is that he had to warn everyone that none should bear malice towards Ali رضی اللہ عنہ It was necessary to give this warning and to emphasize Ali's رضی اللہ عنہ merits. This is why he began:

الستم تعلمون انی اولی بالمؤمنین

"You know well that I am dearer to the believers...

Then he made the supplication on the same pattern as these words.

Some versions of this hadith through other lines of transmission, have the members of the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم family named first is a general manner. Then Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ is mentioned specifically. This also means that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم emphasized that the ummah should love the ahl ul bayt (members of the household) and particularly Ali رضی اللہ عنہ It is deduced from some versions that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم aim was to make some sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم who had complained against Ali رضی اللہ عنہ realize the significance of loving Ali رضی اللہ عنہ They had been sent to Yeman with him and when they returned at the time of the farewell pilgrimage, they made some complaints to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. Some of them also rejected his (Ali) words or actions. One of them was Buraydah Aslami رضی اللہ عنہ. According to a hadith transmitted by Bukhari and termed sahih by Zahabi.

"When the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم heard their complaint against Ali رضی اللہ عنہ, the colour of his face changed and he said, "O Buraydah, do you not know that I am dearer to the believers than their own lives?" Thereafter, he spoke the words that are reproduced in this hadith (# 6103) under discussion. Since this was an important matter, he called the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم together and spoke the words of the hadith by way of emphasis.

CLAIM IS NOT SUBSTANTIATED: The ulama of ahl us sunnah w aal-jama'ah maintain that even if the word (مولا) - mawla) is translated (اولى) - awla) as Sh'iahs want, it does not follow that Ali رضی اللہ عنہ had first night to imamah, rule and caliphate before the others. It can also be that the word simply 'preference and nearness in relationship and following. This has an example in he Quran:

اِنَّ اَوْلَى النَّاسِ بِاِبْرَاهِيْمَ لَلَّذِيْنَ اتَّبَعُوْهُ

{Surely the people of closest claim to Ibrahim (Arabic) are those who followed him} (3:68)

The Sh'iah have irrefutable evidence, not even a superficial one. To deny this possibility. Moreover, if it is conceded that he is (اولى) awla) nearest in imamah and rule, how does it follow that it means 'promptly' 'directly' without anyone preceding him. There is no evidence or argument to hold that the Prophet رضی اللہ عنہ meant (اولی بالحکومۃ) - nearest or first to rule, in which case he would have implied that Ali رضی اللہ عنہ was his heir and first successor. Or, he may have said that a time will come when Ali رضی اللہ عنہ would be the most superior of all Muslims and the best of them and he would take over imamah and caliphate. Indeed, the ahl us sunnah wa al-jama'ah too agree that in this sense Ali رضی اللہ عنہ is (اولی بالخلافۃ) – nearest to caliphate). When the time came the Muslims declared that he was (اولی بالخلافۃ) and made him their caliph. He was (مولا) and made him their caliph. He was recognized as the superior most and best of all Muslims. In short, even if (مولا) – mawla) is given the meaning of (اولی) awla), the claim of the Shi'ahs is not substantiated.

WHAT DID ALI رضی اللہ عنہ HIMSELF SAY: This hadith has a direct bearing on Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ and he is the one on whom this discussion centers. So, we must see how he interpreted this hadith. If we look deep into the matter, he did not interpret it as the Shi'ah do. First of all the caliphates of Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ, Umar رضی اللہ عنہ and Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ preceded Ali's رضی اللہ عنہ caliphate in this order and were created by the consensus of the ummah. Ali was part of the unanimous decision. It the hadith (# 6103) under discussion had meant explicitly or implicitly that Ali رضی اللہ عنہ would became caliph on the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم death and would be the most superior man after the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم then Ali رضی اللہ عنہ would never have joined the consensus to make Abu Bakr as caliphs, followed by Umr رضی اللہ عنہ and Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ.

Secondly, if it was as the sh'iah have us believe then after the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم death, Ali, رضی اللہ عنہ, Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ or anyone else of he Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم family would have presented this hadith to support the right of Ali رضی اللہ عنہ as caliph. However, Ail رضی اللہ عنہ presented this hadith in his favour much later, after he became caliph and some people had challenged his caliphate. This is a strong evidence that he know that this hadith did not make him caliph immediately after the Prophet death

Thirdly Ali رضی اللہ عنہ had himself made it amply clear, according to some traditions, that nothing is known explicitly from the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم that may suggest caliphate of himself or anyone else. We must keep in mind that Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ did not regard this hadith (# 6103) as stipulating his caliphate immediately on the death of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم.

Fourthly. When the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was ill, Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ advised Ali رضی اللہ عنہ to request the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم to nominate him as caliph, saying "If this honour comes to our family. We may know it through the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم words." But, Ali رضی اللہ عنہ declined to do so. This is as the hadith in bukhari etc. it is proved again that the claim of he Sh'iah does not hold water. If this hadith (# 6103) was evidence of Ali رضی اللہ عنہ caliphate directly on the death of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, what was the point in asking the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم about it? Why should Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ have said, "We may know abut it from the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم knowing that the hadith of Ghadir Khumm was barely two months old? It should have been fresh in their minds.

WHAT DID THE SAHABAH SAY OF MAWLA: On the day of Ghadir Khumm, there were about one hundred and twenty five thousand believer, most of whom were senior sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم , testimony for whose faith, deeds, truthfulness and honesty is given by Allah's Book and the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم words very many time. The mother-tongue of these Muslims was Arabic. They included linguists, critics and literary man so, how did they interpret the hadith? What meaning did they attach to (مولا) mawla)? Was it in the sense of love and nearness or successor and heir and direct caliphate?

The answer, because of undeniable reasons, is that on the day of Ghadir khumm, all of the gathering understood the word (مولا) mawla) to mean what the ahlas-sunah wa al-jama'ah understand. And, on the death of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, they pledged allegiance to Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه as caliph and the first successor of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. None of them said anything abut the caliphate of Ali رضى الله عنه this is clear and strong proof that they knew very well that this hadith does not imply that Ali رضى الله عنه would be caliph immediately on the death of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Obviously, it is impossible to imagine that these more than one hundred thousand mean had forgotten this hadith just in about two months! Also, no same person can say that all those believers-pillars of religion and honest men – could have willfully turned away from the saying of Allah's Messenger or, knowing, ignored this hadith.

ANOTHER SAYING: We must also realize that, according to some traditions, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم delivered a sermon one of the days after Ghadir Khumm. He spoke of the fine qualities of Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه and Umar رضى الله عنه and their worthiness. He said to them, "After me, no ruler will rule over you." Obviously, he would not have spoken in this manner to the two of them if he had Ali رضى الله عنه in mind as his successor and caliph. Therefore, the true aim of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in this hadith (# 6103) was to exhort Muslims to love Ali رضى الله عنه and to have a good relationship with him. He spoke in this way many times to exhort Muslim to love the ahl ul bayd (people of his household). There is a difference between love and caliphate and it is not concealed from the discerning people.

ALL SAHABAH ACCUSED OF APOSTACY: The Shi'ah allege that when the pledge was given to Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه after the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم death, all the sahabah رضى الله عنهم had this hadith in mind. None of them had forgotten it but, motivated by hatred, they turned away from it. Their firm conviction is that all the sahabah رضى الله عنهم misled. In act the Rawafid call them disbelievers. They say that all the Muslim apostated after the death of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. They say that apart from Ali رضى الله عنه and some of his friends, all the sahabah رضى الله عنهم departed from this world as disbelievers. (معاذالله) – we seek refuge in Allah!)

ALI رضى الله عنه BLAMED: The Shi'ah argue that amir ul muminun, Ali رضى الله عنه pledged allegiance to the three caliphs, did not make a claim to his caliphate and did not cite this hadith(# 6003) to establish his caliphate on the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم death forthwith – all because he resorted to taqiyah. This means the out of fear of oppression, he concealed the truth. In this way they blame him for cowardice and hypocrisy because what they say is something impossible, for, Ali رضى الله عنه was very brave and bold. He cannot have stayed away from making claim to caliphate if he had heard of it from the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

ACCUSING SAHABAH رضى الله عنهم AMOUNTS TO BLAMING THE PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم: The attitude of the Rawafid shakes the foundations of the religions of Islam. They blame the great men on whom centered the propagation of Islam who were close to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. If, as the Shi'ah and the Rawafid allege, they concealed the text of hadith for personal reasons and adopted the path of wrongdoing, then they can do anything and the religion, ahadith and Shari'ah that have diffused could all be a pack of lies and invented stories. (معاذالله – we seek refuge in Allah!)

Rather, it reflects adversely on Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم (معاذالله) – we seek refuge in Allah from such thought) that he had around him such dishonest people. Even after a companionship and preaching of a quarter century and continuous training effort, he was unsuccessful in bringing them on the straight path. (والله هذا لشیء عجاب) By Allah, this is a strange thing!

To top it all, even Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ was not spared. He is accused of being slack in laying stress on truth and in demanding his right. He was cowardly and chose the path of reconciliation. (We seek refuge in Allah from such thought and in having to use their such base words here)

MARRIAGE OF SAYYIDAH FATIMAH رضی اللہ عنہا

(٦١٠٤) وَعَنْ بُرَيْدَةَ قَالَ خَطَبَ اَبُوْبَكْرٍ وَعُمَرُ فَاطِمَةَ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّهَا صَغِيْرَةٌ ثُمَّ خَطَبَهَا عَلِيٌّ فَزَوَّجَهَا مِنْهُ۔ (رواه النسائی)

6104. Sayyiduna Buraydah رضی اللہ عنہ said, "Abu Bakr and (then) Umar asked Fatima's رضی اللہ عنہا hand in marriage, but Allah' s Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, 'She is young, indeed,' Then Ali proposed to marry her and he married her to him."[1]

COMMENTARY: According to another version, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم observed silence when Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ and Umar رضی اللہ عنہ had proposed marriage to Sayyidah Fatimah رضی اللہ عنہا. Perhaps when they made their request once again later, he might have said, 'She is young."
According to one tradition, Sayyidah Umm Aymon رضی اللہ عنہا suggested to Ali رضی اللہ عنہ that he should ask the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم for the hand of his daughter is marriage. She told him that his proposal would not be turned down. But, Ali رضی اللہ عنہ said, 'I feel shy to ask him." Then the proposal was sent to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم in some manner and he expressed his willingness. Hence Ali رضی اللہ عنہ made a formal request directly and the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم married her to him.
Abu Al-Khayr Qazwini Haakim رحمہ اللہ transmitted hadith from Anas ibn Maalik رضی اللہ عنہ which gives the account in some detail. First Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ asked for the hand of the daughter of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, who said, 'O Abu Bakr, I have not yet received Divine guidance about Fatimah."
Then Umar رضی اللہ عنہ and some other Quraysh made similar requests. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم told them the same thing that he had told Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ.
Then some people suggested to Ali رضی اللہ عنہ that he should send his proposal of marriage to Sayyidah Fatimah رضی اللہ عنہا. they said, "your proposal is likely to meet approval.' He said, "when the proposal of the honourable men of Quraysh were turned down, how many I hope to get an affirmation?" Finally, however, he sent his proposal and the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said "My Mighty Lord has given me command to approve it."
Some days thereafter, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم called Anas رضی اللہ عنہ and instructed him "Bring to me Abu Bakr, Umar, Uthman Abdur Rahman ibn Awf, Sa'd ibn Abu Waqqas, Talhah, Zubayr," and he also named some other men of the ansar. Anas رضی اللہ عنہ brought them and they sat down facing him on their places. Ali رضی اللہ عنہ had gone somewhere to attend to his work. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم delivered this sermon:

الحمد لله المحمود بنعمة المعبود بقدرته المطاع بسلطانه المرهوب من عذابه وسطوته النافذ امره في سمائه وارضه الذي خلق الخلق بقدرته وميزهم باحكامه واعزهم بدينه واكرمهم بنبية محمد صَلَّى اللّٰهُ

Then he said, "Allah has commanded me to give the hand of my daughter Fatimah bint Khadijah in marriage to Ali ibn Abu Talib. Be witnesses that I have married Fatimah to Ali against a dower of four hundred mithqal silver, if Ali is willing.

Then he had dried dates brought in a platter and asked them to pounce on them. They were snatching then when Ali رضی الله عنه came and sat near the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم who smiled on seeing him and Said, "Allah has commanded me to marry you to Fatimah against a dower of four hundred mithqal silver, if you are wiling." He said, "Of course, I am wiling to marry her, O Messenger of Allah!" Then the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم made the supplication:

جمع الله شملكما واسعد جدكما وبارك عليكما واخرج منكما كثيرا طيبا

'May Allah bring you two together with love and kind association! May the make the two of you fortunate! May He shower blessings on both of you! Mayhe bestow on your pure righteous children!

Anas رضی الله عنه said, "By Allah, Allah gave them very pure and pious children."[1]

ALI'S رضی الله عنه DOOR IN THE MASJID NABAWI

(٦١٠٥) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ أَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللهِ صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَمَرَ بِسَدِّ الْأَبْوَابِ إِلَّا بَابَ عَلِيٍّ رَوَاهُ

التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

6105. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم had all doors (opening into the mosque) shut except the door (of the house) of Ali رضی الله عنه.[2]

COMMENTARY: Doors of some houses of the sahabah رضی الله عنهم opened into the Masjid Nabawi. In order to prevent sexually defiled people or menstruating women using the mosque as access to their homes, the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم commanded his sahabah رضی الله عنهم to shut such doors, but he exempted Ali رضی الله عنه from the purview of this command. So he had the exclusive permission to walk through the mosque even when he was in a state impurity.

ALSO ABU BAKR: Previously, we have seen in hadith (# 6019) that this concession was given to Au Bakr رضی الله عنه. The fact is that Abu Bakr's رضی الله عنه door was allowed to be opened during the illness of the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم while there is a such proviso in the case of Ali رضی الله عنه. The ulama seen this the Prophet's صلی الله علیه وسلم wish to have Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه as his uninterrupted, first caliph. Besides, the hadith about Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه is more sahih and more well-known. It is transmitted by Bukhari رحمه الله (# 3654), Muslim رحمه الله (# 2-2382) Darami رحمه الله (# 2190) and Musnad Ahmad رضي الله عنه,(1-270) while the hadith (# 6105) about Ali رضي الله عنه is transmitted by Tirmidhi رحمه الله and termed gharib. But Mulla Ali Qari has cited the hadith in Musnad Ahmad رحمه الله etc. from Zayd ibn Arqam رضي الله عنه which suggests that the hadith of Tirmidhi رحمه الله is not gharib. Zyd's رضي الله عنه hadith is that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "I have been commanded that except for the door of Ali, all doors should be shut." Riyad us Solihin has reproduced this hadith of Musnad Ahmad رحمه الله in these words: Zayd ibn Arqam رحمه الله said that the doors of the house of some sahabah رضي الله عنهم were used to walk through the mosque. One day the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had them closed but let Ali's door remain open. Some of the sahabah رضي الله عنهم commented on it, so the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم delivered a sermon in which he made it clear that he had only conveyed and implemented what he was commanded to do. Neither did he have any door close nor spared any on his own. It is stated by Mulla Ali Qari رحمه الله that this hadith of Ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه is also narrated by Jabir رضي الله عنه, but he has made it clear that this hadith is not sahih. Only the hadith of Abu Sa'eed رضي الله عنه is sahih (# 6019): All except 'the door or window of (the house of) Abu Bakr, must not be opened into the mosque." (Bukhari Muslim). Even if the hadith (# 6105) about Ali رضي الله عنه is sahih, these two traditions pertain to different situations and conditions and they are not contradictory.

EXTRAORDINARY NEARNESS & INFORMALITY

(٦١٠٦) وَعَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ كَانَتْ لِيْ مَنْزِلَةٌ مِّنْ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَمْ تَكُنْ لِأَحَدٍ مِّنَ الْخَلَائِقِ اٰتِيْهِ بِأَعْلٰى سَحَرٍ فَأَقُوْلُ اَلسَّلَامُ عَلَيْكَ يَا نَبِيَّ اللّٰهِ فَإِنْ تَنَحْنَحَ انْصَرَفْتُ إِلٰى أَهْلِيْ وَإِلَّا دَخَلْتُ عَلَيْهِ۔(رواه النسائی)

6106. Sayyiduna Ali رضي الله عنه said, "In the sight of Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم, I had a standing as no other creature had. I would go to him at break of down and (in order to seek permission to enter I would) say, 'As salaam alaykum[1] O Prophet of Allah.' If he cleared his throat (or hawked, I went away to my family (that being a sign that he could not see me at that time), otherwise I went in."[2]

COMMENTARY: The ulama say that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم first gave a response to the greeting (salaam) of Ali رضي الله عنه and then hawked. So, it is necessary for the resident to first respond to the salaam of a person seeking his permission (and then he away or may not hawk).

Those ulama who say that the resident is not required to respond to the greeting of one seeking permission to enter hold that he may or my not hawk depending on whether he gives permission or not.

Indeed, Sayyiduna Ali رضي الله عنه had the prerogative that no one else could claim. He was the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم son-in-law and his cousin. He had more right to visit him at add hours and to shun formality.

THE PRAYERS THAT WAS ANSWERED

(٦١٠٧) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ كُنْتُ شَاكِيًا فَمَرَّبِيْ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَأَنَا أَقُوْلُ اَللّٰهُمَّ إِنْ كَانَ أَجَلِيْ قَدْ حَضَرَ فَأَرِحْنِيْ وَإِنْ كَانَ مُتَأَخِّرًا فَارْفَعْنِيْ وَإِنْ كَانَ بَلَاءً فَصَبِّرْنِيْ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ

[1] peace be or you a form of greeting.

عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَيْفَ قُلْتَ فَأَعَادَ عَلَيْهِ مَا قَالَ فَضَرَبَهُ بِرِجْلِهِ وَقَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ عَافِهِ اَوِاشْفِهِ شَكَّ الرَّاوِيْ قَالَ فَمَا اشْتَكَيْتُ وَجْعِيْ بَعْدُ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ صَحِيْحٌ۔

6107.Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ said, "I feel ill (once) and Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم passed by me while (being restless) I was praying (in a loud voice):

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنْ كَانَ اَجَلِيْ قَدْ حَضَرَ فَاَرِحْنِيْ وَاِنْ كَانَ مُتَأَخِّرًا فَارْفَعْنِيْ وَاِنْ كَانَ بَلَآءً فَصَبِّرْنِيْ

(O Allah, if my term is at hand then give me comfort – through death – If it is deferred then give me (health and) relief and abundant provision. And, if this is a trial, then grant me ability to show endurance (so that I may not complain).
Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم asked, "How did you pray?' I repeated the prayer to him and he struck me with his foot and prayed:

اَللّٰهُمَّ عَافِهِ اَوِاشْفِهِ

(O Allah heal him) or (cure him)." The sub-narrator (Shubaah) was unsure about the word (عافہ) or (اشفہ)
Ali رضی اللہ عنہ said, "Therefore, I did not have complain of that illness."[1]

COMMENTARY: The word in the prayer "If it is deferred, them..." is (فارفغنی) meaning, "give me (Plenty of) means of subsistence." In the version, it is (فارفعنی).

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم struck Ali رضی اللہ عنہ with his foot that he might not be neglectful but come out of that state and refrain from complaining. He may receive the blessing of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم foot and emulate him step by step.

One of the sub-narrators down the line of transmission was not sure which word he had heard from the narrator ahead of him (عافہ) or (اشفہ) "O Allah heal him" or "O Allah cure him."

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم prayer teaches us that a sick person must only make this prayer; O Allah, cure me" or "O Allah, give me relief."

It is not proper to make a conditional prayer or to make stipulations in it as Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ did: "This or that or that...", because it is a kind of compulsion. There is no one who an compel Allah.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH: Sayyiduna Ali ibn Abu Talib رضی اللہ عنہ the amir ul mineen, was a Quraysh. His kunyah was Abu al hasan' as also 'Abu Turab He was the first among boys to embrace Islam. There are difference reports on what his age was when he became a Muslim fifteen years, eight years or ten years.

Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ participated in all the battles with Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, except the Battle of Tabuk. When he set out for the Battle of Tabuk, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم assigned him the task of looking after his family as his khalifah (or deputy) in Madinah. He comforted him 'You are to me a Harun علیہ السلام was to Musa علیہ السلام."

He had a dark whitish complexion and large eye. He was middle structured tending to shortness. He had a large tummy and his hair on his head were somewhat thin but his beard was dense and long. All his hair were gray. He was broad shouldered. The day Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ was martyred. Friday 18th Dhul Hijjah 35 AH, he took over the reins of caliphate On Friday, 17th Ramadan 40 AH, the hard hearted Abdur Rahman ibn Muljim stabbed him with his sword and he died three days later a martyr. Some historians say that he died on 17th Ramadan and the stabbing was two days earlier. He was given both by his both sons Hasan رضی اللہ عنہ Husayn رضی اللہ عنہ and Abdur Rahman ibn jaffar رضی اللہ عنہ. The funeral salah was had by Sayyiduna Hasan رضی اللہ عنہ and he was buried in darkness of the night.

He lived sixty three years. But, some authorities say that he was sixty five years old when he died. Yet another report gives his age as seventy years. His caliphate lasted four years and nine months.

CHAPTER XXXVI

THE EXCELLENT QUALITIES OF THE ASHRAH MUBASHSHARAH (TEN WHO WERE GIVEN TIDINGS OF PARADISE)

بَابُ مَنَاقِبِ الْعَشَرَةِ الْمُبَشَّرَةِ رَضِيَ اللّٰهُ عَنْهُمْ

The ten whom the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had given glad tidings of admission to paradise exclusively were these of his glorious Sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم: (Sayyiduna) Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ, Umar رضی اللہ عنہ, Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ, Ali رضی اللہ عنہ, Talhah رضی اللہ عنہ, Zubayr رضی اللہ عنہ, Sa'd ibn Abu Waqqas رضی اللہ عنہ, Abdur Rahman ibn Awf رضی اللہ عنہ, Abu Ubaydah ibn Jarrah رضی اللہ عنہ and Saieed ibn Zayd رضی اللہ عنہ. (see hadith # 6118/9, comments).
All of them were Quraysh. The excellences and merits that are attributed to them and the ahadith about them are such that no one else has been honoured with the like of these merits or ahadith.
However, it must be known that they are not the only ones who are given tidings of paradise. Rather, such tidings were given also to the ahlul-bayt nabuwah meaning, the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم children and wives and also some other sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم.
The purpose of creating a separate chapter for them is to bring together all ahadith about their peculiarities and merits. These glorious (ten) sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم have excellence over all the others in the sequence that the four caliphs are the most excellent and then the other (six) sahabah رضی اللہ عنہ.

SECTION I
اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

NAMES SUGGESTED BY UMAR رضی اللہ عنہ

(٦١٠٨) عَنْ عُمَرَ قَالَ مَا اَحَدٌ اَحَقُّ بِهٰذَا الْاَمْرِ مِنْ هٰؤُلَاءِ النَّفَرِ الَّذِيْنَ تُوُفِّيَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَهُوَ عَنْهُمْ رَاضٍ فَسَمّٰى عَلِيًّا وَّعُثْمَانَ وَالزُّبَيْرَ وَطَلْحَةَ وَسَعْدًا وَعَبْدَ الرَّحْمٰنِ۔(رواه البخاری)

6108. Sayyiduna Umar رضی اللہ عنہ said (to the men of the advisory council about those worthy of caliphate). I do not find anyone more deserving of this duty (of caliphate) than those men with whom Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was pleased at the time of his death." Then, he named Ali رضی اللہ عنہ, Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ, Zubayr رضی اللہ عنہ, Talhah رضی اللہ عنہ, Sa'd رضی اللہ عنہ and Abdur Rahman رضی اللہ عنہ.[1]

COMMENTARY: As it is, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was pleased and happy with all his sahabah

[1] Bukhari # 3700,

during his life time, yet he was more happy with those whom Umarرضی اللہ عنہ named. It was known to everyone with certainty. Anyway, they were more preferred particularly because they were among the ashrah mubashsharah.

He named only six because Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ (was dead) and he (was dying and both) were already known to all, and Abu Ubaydah ibn Jarrah رضی اللہ عنہ had died already and the Prophetصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had called him amin ul ummah[1] (the trusty or faithful man of the ummah) and amin haqulamin. The fourth man, Sa'eed ibn Zaydرضی اللہ عنہ was his own brother-in-law. So he did not name him and avoided naming a relative. But according to some other versions, he named him among these with whom the Prophetصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was pleased at the time of his death, but he did not nominate him to the advisory body.

CREATING THE CALIPHATE: Imamah (ruler-ship) and Khilafah are permissible and lawful in Shariah. It is done: (1) when certain responsible persons charged with this task appoint a man imam and khalifah who is worthy and deserving of the offite. This was how Abu Bakrرضی اللہ عنہ became caliph. Or, (2) An imam and khalifah nominates his successor a man who is capable of carrying the burden of this office. Abu Bakrرضی اللہ عنہ had nominated Umarرضی اللہ عنہ.

Or, (3) Aman is selected or appointed caliph who is known because of his dignity and capability but there is another man more qualified. In this case, the caliphate of the man appointed is proper and lawful because, after the righteous caliphs, the ulama had unanimously approved the caliphate of such men of Quraysh among whose subjects were more qualified and worthy men. The reason is that sometimes a less qualified man turns out to be more competent and runs the affairs of the state more efficiently and serves religion and the modins more dedicatedly. He can curb and tackle mischief and dissension more effectively.

Some people, meaning the shi'ahs say that only such a man deserves to be a caliph and ruler who is Ma'sum (innocent) and a Hashmi and he demonstrates a miracle ora charisma that establishes his truthfulness. This is pure imagination and product of an ignorant mind. The fact is that this kind of thinking was behind the division they created in the Islamic world and the resultant disorder. One of their major straying is that they declare all the caliphs, except Sayyidana Aliرضی اللہ عنہ as without foundation and spurious.

TALHAKS DEVOTION

(٦١٠٩) وَعَنْ قَيْسِ بْنِ أَبِي حَازِمٍ قَالَ رَأَيْتُ يَدَ طَلْحَةَ شَلَّاءَ وَقَى بِهَا النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَوْمَ أُحُدٍ۔(رواه البخاری)

6109. Sayyiduna Qays ibn Abu Hazimرضی اللہ عنہ (a tabirt) said, "I saw the hand of Abu Talhah رضی اللہ عنہ withered *even many year after) he had protected the Prophetصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم with it at the battle of Uhud (from the swords of the infidels),"[2]

COMMENTARY: On the day of Uhud Sayyiduna Talhahرضی اللہ عنہ had evinced an unprecedented selflessness. He had shielded the Prophetصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم from the onslaught of the infidels. He stopped the swords with his bore hands preventing them from reaching the Prophetصلى الله عليه وسلم. the result was that not only did his hand became numb for life, he also had eighty wounds on his body. His penis also suffered wounds.

Whenever the sahabah رضى الله عنهم recalled the Battleof Uhud, they said, "It belonged to Talhahرضى الله عنه".

Talhahرضى الله عنه was the son of Ubaydullah. He was a Quraysh. His kunyah was Abu Muhammad (or, as per another report, Abu Amer). He was an early Muslims.

He participated in all Battles with the Prophetصلى الله عليه وسلم except the Battle of Badr when he had been sent on a mission by the Prophetصلى الله عليه وسلم.

Talhahرضى الله عنه had a wheatish complexion. He was hairy. He was very impressive and handsome. He was martyred in the Battle of Jamal on Thursday, 20th Jumadinth Thani 36 AH. He was buried in Busrah.

MERIT OF ZUBAYRرضى الله عنه

(٦١١٠) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ يَأْتِيْ بِخَبَرِ الْقَوْمِ يَوْمَ الْاَحْزَابِ قَالَ الزُّبَيْرُ اَنَا فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ لِكُلِّ نَبِيٍّ حَوَارِيًّا وَحَوَارِيُّ الزُّبَيْرُ۔ (متفق عليه)

6110. Sayyiduna Jabirرضى الله عنه narrated that on the day of Al-Ahzab (or Battleof the Trench), the Prophetصلى الله عليه وسلم asked, "who will bring me information of the people of the enemy)?" Zubayrرضى الله عنه said, "I (shall bring it)" So, the Prophetصلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Every Prophet has a hawari (sincere friend), and my hawari is Zubayr."[1]

COMMENTARY: Ahzab is the plural of hizb. It means "confederates", 'groups'. All the enemies of Islam who included the tribes of the Quraysh and non-Quraysh, the Banu Qurayzah Jews of Madinah and the expelled Jews of Banu Nadir put their forces together and tried to invade Madinah to fight with the Prophetصلى الله عليه وسلم. Hence, this battle is called Ghazwah of Ahzab or the Battle of Ahzab. The enemy was a colossal vexation – twelve thousand against three thousand Muslim warriors. Their objective was to liquidate the centre of Islam and the Muslims. But, it was a pigeon hearted mass of numbers. It besieged Madinah for one month.

The Prophetصلى الله عليه وسلم had taken a defensive measure by digging a trench around Madinah. All the mujahid (warriors) had combined with him to dig it. Hence, this battle is also called ghazwah khandaq. (Battle of trench). Those were difficult days for the Muslims who went through very trying times. While there was no fighting on a battle level, some stone-throwing and arrow-shooting did take place. Then Allah sent His angels and a windstorm that blew away the tents of the enemy and upturned their cooking pots. Fire was extinguished everywhere and it was pitch dark all around. The enemy panicked and disappeared in the night.

Given the conditions both outside and within Madinah with the Jews and hypocrites conspiring against Muslims and supporting the infidels, it was well-nigh impossible to pry on the enemy and get inside information. This is why the Prophetصلى الله عليه وسلم showered praise on Zubayrرضى الله عنه when he offered to bring information about the enemy in spite of heavy odds. He honoured him by describing him as his hawari.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH: Zubayrرضى الله عنه was the son of Awam. He had the kunyah Abu Abdullah Qarshi. His mother was Sayyidah Safiyah bint Abdul Muttalib رضی اللہ عنہ. She was the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم paternal aunt.

Zubayr رضی اللہ عنہ had embraced Islam in early life at the initial stage of Islam. He was sixteen years old at that time. His paternal uncle persecuted him mercilessly for that and tried to suffocate him but he did not give in.

He participated in all battles with the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. Indeed, he was the very first warrior to draw a sword for Islam. In the Battle of Uhud, he stood undauntedly with the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and showed his valour.

He was tall, lean and fair.

He was martyred in 36 AH while returning from the Battle of Siffin in the territory of Busrah at Safwan by Ams ibn Jarmuz رضی اللہ عنہ. He was 64 years old. He was buried in the wadi Asba'. Then his body was moved to Busrah and his grave is known to be there.

ZUBAYR EARNED ESTEEM

(٦١١١) وَعَنِ الزُّبَيْرِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ يَّأْتِيْ بَنِيْ قُرَيْظَةَ فَيَأْتِيْنِيْ بِخَبَرِهِمْ فَانْطَلَقْتُ فَلَمَّا رَجَعْتُ جَمَعَ لِيْ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَبَوَيْهِ فَقَالَ فِدَاكَ اَبِيْ وَاُمِّيْ۔(متفق علیه)

6111. Sayyiduna Zubayr رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم asked, "who will go to (the Jews) Banu Qurayzah and bring me news about them?" So, he went and when he returned, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم mentioned his parents together for him, saying. "May my father and mother be ransomed to you!"[1]

COMMENTARY: The Banu Qurayzah had betrayed the Muslims during the Battle of Ahzab. So, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم decided to punish them. After the battle, he laid a siege to them and made them pay for their evil deeds. Before that he had collected news about them to find out their conduct during the Battle of Ahzab.

The words of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم about Zubayr رضی اللہ عنہ are spoken only when that person is highly esteemed and honoured. According to one tradition, Zubayr رضی اللہ عنہ disclosed that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم spoke these words 'May my father and mother be ransomed to you" in his favour at the Battle of Uhud and again during the punitive action against Banu Qurayzah.

Zubayr رضی اللہ عنہ disclosed to his son Urwah, "Son, there is a scar all over my body from swords. I have not received one of them but when I was with the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم (in the cause of Allah)."

MERIT OF SA'D رضی اللہ عنہ

(٦١١٢) وَعَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ جَمَعَ اَبَوَيْهِ لِاَحَدٍ اِلَّا لِسَعْدِ بْنِ مَالِكٍ فَاِنِّيْ سَمِعْتُهُ يَقُوْلُ يَوْمَ اُحُدٍ يَا سَعْدُ اَرْمِ فِدَاكَ اَبِيْ وَاُمِّيْ۔(متفق علیه)

6112. Sayyiduna Ali said, "I never heard the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم name his parents together for anyone but for Sa'd ibn Maalik رضی اللہ عنہ. indeed, I heard him say on the day of Uhud, 'O Sa'd, shoot, may my father and mother be ransomed to you!"[2]

[2] Bukhari # 4059, Muslim # 41-2411, Tirmidhi # 3755 (37740

COMMENTARY: Sa'd ibn Maalik رضی الله عنه was Sa'd ibn Abu Waqqas, for, Abu Waqqas was Maalik ibn Wahb.

Sayyiduna Ali ibn Abu Talib had not heard the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم speak similar words about Zubayr رضی الله عنه, so he said about himself that he had heard these words in favour of Sa'd رضی الله عنه only. It is possible that he may have heard from someone else that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم spoke these words about Zubayr رضی الله عنه too.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH: The kunyah of Sa'd ibn Abu Qaqqas رضی الله عنه was Abu Ishaq and he was known also as Zuhri and Qarshi. He embraced Islam in its initial stages when he himself was seventeen years old. He used to say that he was the third Muslim. Only two had embraced Islam before him. He also said that he was the first person to shoot an arrow in Allah's path. He participated in all battles with the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم. He was known to be one whose prayers were granted, so people were afraid of displeasing him and having him cuase them and were eager to earn his prayers. Actually, the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم had made a supplication for him, "O Allah,, grant Sa'd his prayers!".

Apart from Zubayr رضی الله عنه, Sa'd رضی الله عنه is the one for whom the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم named his father and mother together. No one else has this distinction which these two men have.

Sa'd رضی الله عنه was wheat complexioned and was hairy. He died in 55 AH in the castle that he had built in Wadi Ateeq. His body was brought to Madinah and the governor, Ibn al-Hakam led the funeral salah. He was buried in Jannat-ul-Baqi. He was just over seventy years old and the last of the ashrah mubashsharah to die.

Umar رضی الله عنه had appointed him governor of Kufah. After him, Uthman رضی الله عنه re-appointed him at the same office.

A large number of the Sahabah رضی الله عنهم and tabiun رضی الله عنه have narrated ahadith from him. (see also hadith # 6136)

SA'D رضی الله عنه SHOT THE FIRST ARROW

(٦١١٣) وَعَنْ سَعْدِ بْنِ اَبِيْ وَقَّاصٍ قَالَ اِنِّيْ لَاَوَّلُ الْعَرَبِ رَمٰى بِسَهْمٍ فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ۔ (متفق عليه)

6113. Sayyiduna Sa'd ibn Abu Waqqas رضی الله عنه said, "I am the first Arab (Muslim) to shoot an arrow in Allah's path.[1]

COMMENTARY: This was the event of 1 AH. The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم had sent a small force of about sixty men - a squad - under the command of Abu Ubaydah ibn Harith رضی الله عنه to tackle Abu Sufyan ibn Harb and his polytheist colleagues. There was no fighting except that Sa'd ibn Abu Waqqas رضی الله عنه shot an arrow at them. This was the first arrow shot by an adherent of Islam on the enemy of Islam.

SA'D'S CONCERN FOR THE PROPHET صلی الله علیه وسلم

(٦١١٤) وَعَنْ عَآئِشَةَ قَالَتْ سَهِرَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَقْدِمَهُ الْمَدِيْنَةِ لَيْلَةً فَقَالَ لَيْتَ رَجُلًا صَالِحًا يَحْرُسُنِيْ اِذْ سَمِعْنَا صَوْتَ سِلَاحٍ فَقَالَ مَنْ هٰذَا قَالَ اَنَا سَعْدٌ قَالَ مَا جَاءَ بِكَ قَالَ وَقَعَ فِيْ نَفْسِيْ خَوْفٌ عَلٰى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَجِئْتُ اَحْرُسُهُ فَدَعَا لَهُ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ثُمَّ نَامَ۔ (متفق عليه)

[1] Bukhari # 3728, Muslim # 12-2966, Tirmidhi # 2365 (2372), ibn Majah 131, Musnad Ahmad 1-174

6114. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم arrived in Madinah (from a battle) but could not sleep (lest an enemy cause harm). So, he prayed, "How I wish that a pious man stood guard for me (tonight)!" Barely had he spoken when they heard a rustle of weapons. He asked, "Who is there?" There came the response, "I am Sa'd!" He asked "what is the matter?" He said "I was concerned for the safety of) Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. So I came to guard him." So, Allah's Messengerr صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم prayed for him and then went to sleep.[1]

AMIN UL UMMAH

(٦١١٥) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِكُلِّ اُمَّةٍ اَمِيْنٌ وَاَمِيْنُ هٰذِهِ الْاُمَّةِ اَبُوْعُبَيْدَةَ بْنُ الْجَرَّاحِ۔(متفق علیہ)

6115. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "There is an amin (faithful man) of every ummah (who does not commit treachery against Allah. His creatures and his own self). And the amin of this ummah is Abu Ubaydah ibn al-Jarrah."[2]

COMMENTARY: While all the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم had great qualities, some excelling others, Abu Ubaydah رضی اللہ عنہ was outstanding in faithfulness over the others, Or, this was the most outstanding of his own traits.

He was a glorious, majestic sahabi. There are very many ahadith about his virtues. Many words of advice are attributed to him in different books. Among them, this one is very worthy:

بادروا السیئات القدیمات بالحسنات الحادثات والارب مبیض لثیابه مدلس لدینه والارب مکرم لنفسه وهو لها مهین۔

"Expunge past sins (before you have to bear their consequences) by more new good deeds. And, know there are such people who keep their clothing neat and tidy but let their religion be unclean. And, some people regard themselves as respectable but as for as their end is concerned, they are casting themselves into disgrace and loss."

BIOGRAPHY: The name of Abu Ubaydah رضی اللہ عنہ was Aamir ibn Abaullah ibn Jarrah. He was called fihri Qurshi. He embraced Islam along with Uthman ibn Maz'un رضی اللہ عنہ. First, he emigrated to Abysinia and the second time to Madinah. He participated in all battles with the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. In the Battle of Uhud he was not deterred from his position and was firmly grounded with the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. When the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was wounded and the rings of his helmet pierced his face, Abu Ubaydah رضی اللہ عنہ was the one who pulled them out with his bare teeth with the result that he lost his two front teeth.

Abu Ubaydah رضی اللہ عنہ was tall statured, handsome and lean. He died in 18 AH of plague (Amwas) in Jordan. He was buried in Bunyan. He was 58 years old when he died. Sayyiduna Mu'adh ibn Jabal led his funeal Salah.

MERIT OF ABU UBAYDAH

(٦١١٦) وَعَنِ ابْنِ اَبِي مُلَيْكَةَ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ عَائِشَةَ وَ سُئِلَتْ مَنْ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

مُسْتَخْلِفًا لَوِاسْتَخْلَفَهُ قَالَتْ اَبُوْبَكْرٍ فَقِيْلَ ثُمَّ مَنْ بَعْدَ اَبِيْ بَكْرٍ قَالَتْ عُمَرُ قِيْلَ مَنْ بَعْدُ عُمَرَ قَالَتْ اَبُوْعُبَيْدَةَ ابْنُ الْجَرَّاحِ۔(رواہ مسلم)

6116. Sayyiduna Ibn Abu Mulaykah رضی الله عنه (a tabi'i) narrated that he heard Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها say when she was asked whom Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم would have nominated as Khalifah ~. "Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه." She was asked, "Then who after Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه?" She said, 'Umar رضی الله عنه" She was asked. "And who after Umar رضی الله عنه?' She said, "Abu Ubaydah رضی الله عنه ibn Jarrah."[1]

COMMENTARY: Abu Ubaydah رضی الله عنه was described by the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم as amin ul ummah (a faithful man of this ummah). So he deserved to be a Khalifah. After the death of the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم, when Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه was selected as the first caliph, he said, "why do you want me to be the Khalifah. There is Umar رضی الله عنه, Ali رضی الله عنه and Abu Ubaydah رضی الله عنه ibn Al-Jarrah. Choose one of them as Khalifah." But, those on whom rested the responsibility to make the transition smooth and perfect insisted on Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه. They cited that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم had made him imam during his illness for a religious affair, so why should they not choose him for their worldly affairs too?

In short, Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها held that after Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه and Umar رضی الله عنه, Abu Ubaydah رضی الله عنه ibn Jarrah was the most worthy man for caliphate.

ON MOUNT HIRA

(٦١١٧) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ عَلٰى حِرَآءٍ هُوَ وَ اَبُوْبَكْرٍ وَعُمَرُ وَ عُثْمَانُ وَعَلِيٌّ وَطَلْحَةُ وَالزُّبَيْرِ فَتَحَرَّكَتِ الصَّخْرَةُ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِهْدَئْ فَمَا عَلَيْكَ اِلَّا نَبِيٌّ اَوْصِدِّيْقٌ اَوْشَهِيْدٌ وَزَادَ بَعْضُهُمْ وَسَعْدُ بْنُ اَبِيْ وَقَّاصٍ وَلَمْ يَذْكُرْ عَلِيًّا۔(رواہ مسلم)

6117. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم was on (the mountain) Hira ~ he, Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه, Umar رضی الله عنه, Uthman رضی الله عنه. Ali رضی الله عنه Talhah رضی الله عنه and Zubayr رضی الله عنه. The rock (under their feet) shook. So, Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said (to the rock). "Be steady, for none but a Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم, a Siddiq, a martyr[2].

Some of the narrators added: "and Sa'd ibn Abu Waqqas رضی الله عنه" but they did not name Ali رضی الله عنه.[3]

COMMENTARY: The martyrs include Umar رضی الله عنه, Ali رضی الله عنه, Uthman رضی الله عنه, Talhah رضی الله عنه and Zubayr رضی الله عنه. All of them were martyred. Talhah رضی الله عنه and Zubayr رضی الله عنه were martyred in the Battle of Jamal, not during fighting but mercilessly after the battle.

Sa'd ibn Abu Waqqas رضی الله عنه was not martyred but died in his castle in wadi Atiq. Sayyid Jamal ud-din رحمه الله wrote that Sa'd رضی الله عنه died of an illness which raises the dead to the sank of a martyr. Stomachache is one of these illness.

ASHRAH MUBASHSHARAH

(٦١١٨، ٦١١٩) عَنْ عَبْدِالرَّحْمٰنِ بْنِ عَوْفٍ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اَبُوْبَكْرٍ فِي الْجَنَّةِ وَعُمَرُ فِي الْجَنَّةِ وَعُثْمَانُ فِي الْجَنَّةِ وَعَلِيٌّ فِي الْجَنَّةِ وَطَلْحَةُ فِي الْجَنَّةِ وَالزُّبَيْرُ فِي الْجَنَّةِ وَعَبْدُالرَّحْمٰنِ بْنُ عَوْفٍ فِي الْجَنَّةِ وَسَعْدُ بْنُ اَبِيْ وَقَّاصٍ فِي الْجَنَّةِ وَسَعِيْدُ بْنُ زَيْدٍ فِي الْجَنَّةِ وَاَبُوْعُبَيْدَةَ بْنُ الْجَرَّاحِ فِي الْجَنَّةِ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَرَوَاهُ ابْنُ مَاجَةَ عَنْ سَعِيْدِ بْنِ زَيْدٍ۔

6118. Sayyiduna Abdur Rahman ibn Auf رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ will enter paradise. Umar رضی اللہ عنہ will enter paradise. Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ will enter paradise. Talhah رضی اللہ عنہ will enter paradise. Zubayr رضی اللہ عنہ will enter paradise. Abdur Rahman رضی اللہ عنہ ibn Auf will enter paradise. Sa'd ibn Abu Waqqas رضی اللہ عنہ will enter paradise. Sa'eed ibn Zayd رضی اللہ عنہ will enter paradise. And, Abu Ubaydah رضی اللہ عنہ ibn Jarrah will enter paradise.[1]

6119. Sayyiduna Sa'eed ibn Zayd رضی اللہ عنہ narrated the same hadith.[2]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Sa'eed ibn Zayd رضی اللہ عنہ, one of the ten who were assured of entry into paradise, was the brother in law of Umar رضی اللہ عنہ. he was husband of Sayyidah Fatimah رضی اللہ عنہا who was behind Umar's رضی اللہ عنہ embracing Islam. Sa'eed died in 51 AH when he was 70 years old.

The hadith names the ten men. They have become famous because they are named together in one hadith, otherwise other people were also given similar tidings.[3]

SEQUENCE OF NAMES OF CALIPHS: Whichever hadith names the four righteous caliphs, it mentions them in the same sequence in which they are named in this hadith under discussion: Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ, Umar رضی اللہ عنہ, Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ, Ali رضی اللہ عنہ. To this conforms the thinking of the ahlus-sunnah wa al-jamma'ah but it is wrong to presume that the narrators have distorted the sequence to show that their own thinking is upheld by the hadith. However, on rare occasions, narrators do change the order of the words only if the meaning and message does not alter, but we cannot imagine that in such important matters they would twist the sequence of words as spoken by the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم to suit their ends.

DISTINCTION OF SOME SAHABAH رضی اللہ عنہ

6120. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The most merciful man of my ummah to my ummah is Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ. (He invites them to Allah's path success). And, the most strict of them concerning the commands of Allah is Umar رضی اللہ عنہ. (He is very stern in enforcing religious injunctions and enjoining them and for bidding the disapproved.) And, the most sincere of them showing modesty is Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ. And, the most knowledgeable of them about the laws of inheritance (fara'id) is Zayd رضی اللہ عنہ ibn Thabit. And, the most knowledgeable of them about recital of the Quran is Ubayy ibn Ka'b (He is the most read of them.) And, the most knowledgeable of them about the lawful and unlawful is Mu;adh ibn Jabal. And there is for every ummah an amin (faithful man) and the amin of this ummah is Abu Ubaydah رضی اللہ عنہ ibn Al-Jarrah.[1]

Tirmidhi termed this hadith as hasan sahih,

This hadith is transmitted also in a mursaf form on the authority of Ma`mar from Qatadah. It also has the words:

"And the best of them as a judge is Ali رضی اللہ عنہ. (He gives sound judgement)."

COMMENTARY: Modesty is a branch of faith. It was a distinctive and exclusive feature of Uthman's رضی اللہ عنہ character. His modesty was exemplary. As for the words; most sincere of them showing modesty', they mean the true and reliable modesty that is demanded by religion. It is not the kind that is demonstrated on occasions when it is neither called for nor proper from the point of view of religion. A time modesty is as demanded by religion and shairah and is in accordance with the command of Allah and His Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ was known for this time and sincere modesty, unassuming and humble.

Zayd رضی اللہ عنہ ibn Thabit was a jurist and he possessed tremendous knowledge of the laws of inheritance. He also had the honour of being a scribe of wahy (revelation of the Quran). Later in the time of Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ and of Umar رضی اللہ عنہ he undertook diligently the task of writing down the Quran and collecting together its parchments.

Ubayy ibn Ka'b رضی اللہ عنہ Ansari Khazraji was the most learned in the science of recital of the Quran, known as tajweed.. He also was a scribe of Divine revelation and he was one of those six men whohad memorized the whole Quran during the lifetime of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم when he was called Sayyid ul Qurra (Chief of the recites of the Quran). And, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had given him the title of Sayyid ul Ansar (Chief of the Ansar). Umar رضی اللہ عنہ used to call him Sayyid ul Muslimeen (Chief of the Muslims). When the surah al Bayyinah (#98) was revealed, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "I have been commanded to recite this surah to you." He asked "Did Allah name me?" He said, "Yes!" (Ibayy رضی اللہ عنہ cried on hearing that and the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم wept with him. Ubayy رضی اللہ عنہ ibn Ka'b died in Madinah in 19 AH. A large number of people have transmitted ahadith from him.

Mu`adh ibn Jabal رضی اللہ عنہ who was an ansar was the most learned about that which is lawful and unlawful. He is one of the seventy fortunate ones who had come to Makkah before the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم emigration to Madinah and had given the pledge at Aqabah with the second batch. When the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم set up bonds of fraternity between the muhajirs and the ansars in Madniah, Mu`adh was made brother of Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ ~or, according to one version, of Jafar ibn Abu Talib. The Prophetصلى الله عليه وسلم had sent him to Yemen as a judge and a teacher when he was eighteen years old. He died when he was 38 years old in 18 AH of plague Amwas. When he was dying, he kept saying, "O Allah this (very harsh plague) is actually your mercy on your slaves! Do not deprive Mu'adhرضى الله عنه and the family of Mu'adhرضى الله عنه, of this mercy!" Some versions give the words on Mu'adh'sرضى الله عنه lips at the time of his death as: "O Allah, soften the pangs of death as much as you like. By your might, you know well that I am your friend!" Abdullah ibn Mas'udرضى الله عنه said that they used to compare Mu'adhرضى الله عنه ibn Jabal with Prophetصلى الله عليه وسلم Ibrahimعليه السلام, Khalil Allah (friend of Allah) in reference to the message of this verse:

كَانَ أُمَّةً قَانِتًا لِّلَّهِ حَنِيفًا

{He was an ummah obedient to Allah, and an upright man of pure faith} (16:120)

We may gauge the excellence of Mu'adhرضى الله عنه ibn Jabal in learning from the fact that even in the time of the Prophetصلى الله عليه وسلم he was responsible to give verdicts and rulings on juristic issues. This was retained in the time of Abu Bakrرضى الله عنه too. When he went away to Yemen as a judge and teacher, Umarرضى الله عنه used to say, "Mu'adhرضى الله عنه has gone to Yemen but created a vacuum in Madinah in the field of jurisprudence." Mu'adhرضى الله عنه participated in all battles. It is said that when he was dying, his colleagues began to weep. He asked them "Why do you weep?" They said, "We lament the loss of knowledge that will be lost with your death." He said, "knowledge and faith are unending. They will remain till the last Hour. Acquire truth from whoso has it but reject him who follows falsehood."

Abu Ubaydah رضى الله عنه ibn Al-Jarrah demonstrated his love for Allah and Allah's Messengerصلى الله عليه وسلم in a most emphatic way by consigning his father to death when he had come with the enemy to fight the Muslims. In the Battle of Uhud, he did not yield a bit but kept the enemy away from the Prophetصلى الله عليه وسلم bravely. During the caliphate of Abu Bakrرضى الله عنه he was the custodian of the State Treasury. Then, Umarرضى الله عنه made him the commander in chief of the army replacing Khalid ibn Walidرضى الله عنه. He was instrumental in conquering many areas of Syria and Palestine. On his death bed, Umarرضى الله عنه said. "If Abu Ubaydahرضى الله عنه was alive today. I would have entrusted him the responsibility of this affair" (meaning the caliphate or the selection of the caliph). Abu Ubaydahرضى الله عنه was an ascetic and had attained a high level of contentment. This may be seen in the narration of Urwah ibn Zubayrرضى الله عنه as transmitted in some authentic books. When Umarرضى الله عنه visited Syria and Palestine, the commanders and officers of these regions received him, but Abu Ubaydahرضى الله عنه, the commander-in-chief of that area, was not there. Umarرضى الله عنه asked those men, "Where is my brother?" They asked, "Who?" He said, "He must be here anytime." When he came the amir ul mumineen alighted from his beast and embraced him and visited his house. There he found that there was nothing in the house apart from a small sword and a shield. According to another version, Umarرضى الله عنه said to Abu Ubaydahرضى الله عنه, "Come take me to your house." When he was taken there, he found the house was empty. Nothing could be seen, So, he asked, "Abu Ubaydahرضى الله عنه, where are your belongings? I only see a saddle cloth, a saucer, a sword. You are the commander-in-chief of this region and ruler. Do you have anything to eat or not?" Abu Ubaydahرضى الله عنه brought some crumbs of dried stale bread. On seeing that Umarرضى الله عنه wept suddenly and exclaimed, "O Abu Ubaydahرضی اللہ عنہ! Only you are the ture ascetic! As for us, we have succumbed to temptations of the world!".

Sayyiduna Aliرضی اللہ عنہ has been described as one who gave fair judgment and was the best judge. No one could compare with him in that field. Umarرضی اللہ عنہ never passed a judgment and never issued an order without his advice. If Aliرضی اللہ عنہ was not accessible, he waited for him before giving a judgment. The hadith means that Aliرضی اللہ عنہ was more learned in the commands of Shari'ah and procedures of judgment than anyone else. However, this describes Ali'sرضی اللہ عنہ excellence in one field while Umar'sرضی اللہ عنہ merit was overall and complete. The narrations about Abu Bakrرضی اللہ عنہ and Umarرضی اللہ عنہ confirm their excellence and merit over the entire ummah, in respective order. Indeed, Abu Bakr'sرضی اللہ عنہ excellence is confirmed by this very varse:

لَا يَسْتَوِىْ مِنْكُمْ مَّنْ اَنْفَقَ مِنْ قَبْلِ الْفَتْحِ وَقَاتَلَ ۔ اُولٰٓئِكَ اَعْظَمُ دَرَجَةً مِّنَ الَّذِيْنَ اَنْفَقُوْا مِنْ بَعْدُ وَقَاتَلُوْا

{Not equal is he with the rest of you who spent and fought before the victory. Such are higher in rank than those who spent and fought afterwards,} (57:10)

This verse was revealed particularly about Abu Bakrرضی اللہ عنہ because only he had spent his wealth toward jihad before the conquest of Makkah. So Allah said that no other Muslim can be at par with him.
If the ahadith seem to differ and disagree, the right course is to adopt the point of view of the majority of the sahabahرضی اللہ عنہم. Hence, the ahlus sunnah wa al-jama'ah adopt their view and it is that after the Prophetصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, Abu Bakrرضی اللہ عنہ is the most excellent in terms of reward accrued to him. Then follow Umarرضی اللہ عنہ, Uthmanرضی اللہ عنہ and Aliرضی اللہ عنہ.
DIFFERENCES BETWEEN ALIرضی اللہ عنہ & MUA'WIYAHرضی اللہ عنہ: The dispute and battle between Sayyiduna Aliرضی اللہ عنہ and amir Mua'wiyahرضی اللہ عنہ may be said to be based on differences in their ijtihad (or personal judgment). Each assumed that his caliphate was justified. But the ijtihad of Sayyiduna Aliرضی اللہ عنہ was correct.. It was proved that he was the most senior and most excellent of all. Mau'wiyah'sرضی اللہ عنہ ijtihad was in-correct. In the presence of Aliرضی اللہ عنہ, he was not at all eligible for the caliphate. In spite of that neither of them called the other a disbeliever though both of them had their supporters. There was a serious conflict, some of them blamed others and deviled them but did not say that anyone was outside the folds of Islam though some of them, out of ignorance and hatred perpetrated such deeds as prove that they became sinners.
Thus, it is never proper for a believer to describe anyone of these disputants as disbelievers and to think of them in such away as one cannot imagine about a believer.

TALHAHرضی اللہ عنہ ASSURED OF PARADISE

(٦١٢١) وَعَنِ الزُّبَيْرِ قَالَ كَانَ عَلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَوْمَ اُحُدٍ دِرْعَانِ فَنَهَضَ اِلَى الصَّخْرَةِ فَلَمْ يَسْتَطِعْ فَقَعَدَ طَلْحَةُ تَحْتَهُ حَتّٰى اسْتَوٰى عَلَى الصَّخْرَةِ فَسَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ اَوْجَبَ طَلْحَةُ۔(رواه الترمذی)

6121.Sayyiduna Zubayrرضی اللہ عنہ narrated that on the day of Uhud the Prophetصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم wore two coats of mail. He decided to go up to the rock (to have a surveillance of the enemy and be seen by the Muslims). But was unable to climb up (because of the weight of the coats of mail). So, Talhah رضی الله عنه sat down below him and he settled himself on the rock (after stepping on his back). He (Zubayr رضی الله عنه) heard Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم say, "Talhah رضی الله عنه has made (paradise) binding (and certain for himself)."[1]

COMMENTARY: Allay says:

خُذُوا حِذْرَكُمْ

{Take your precautions.} (4:71)

(This is addressed to the believers.) In order to abide by this command, the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم put on two coats of mail, these being a means of protection in battle. Such measures do not negate tawakkal (or trust and reliance in Allah). He also set an example for his ummah that they must adopt precautionary measures always.

RIGHT OF TALHAH رضی الله عنه: Some versions include the word 'paradise' in the Prophet's صلی الله علیه وسلم saying (while in this version his saying is, "Talhah رضی الله عنه has made it his right)". He had performed great feats in this battle, selflessly. So, the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم was moved to give him these tidings. He risked his life and let his body work as a shield for the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم. He took all the arrows shot at the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم on his body which was covered with wounds. His hand became numb and lost all sensation for life. More than eighty wound were counted on his body and his penis also had a wound. In fact, whenever the Battle of Uhud was remembered, the sahabah رضی الله عنهم called it a day of Talhah رضی الله عنه and his selfless, brave fighting.

PROPHET صلی الله علیه وسلم SUFFERED WOUND AT THE BATTLE OF UHUD: Abu Sa'eed Khudri رضی الله عنه said that on the day of Uhud, an enemy Utbah ibn Waqqas hit a stone at the Prophet's صلی الله علیه وسلم face whereby his tooth on the right side was dislodged and his lower lip was wounded. Another wretched man, Abdullah ibn Shahab Zuhri struck him causing a deep wound on his forehead and two rings of his helmet pierced and lodged in, his face. The enemy had dug pits on the battle field and camouflaged them by covering them up to trap unwary Muslims. The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم also fell down in one of these pits. Sayyiduna Ali رضی الله عنه rushed forward promptly and held his hand and Talhah رضی الله عنه ibn Ubaydullah raised him out of the pit. Blood was oozing out of the wounds on his face and Abu Sa'eed Khudri رضی الله عنه sucked the blood. The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "He who has sucked my blood and cleaned it will not be touched by the fire of hell."

MERIT OF TALHAH رضی الله عنه

(٦١٢٢) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ نَظَرَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِلَى طَلْحَةَ بْنِ عُبَيْدِ اللّٰهِ قَالَ مَنْ أَحَبَّ أَنْ يَّنْظُرَ إِلَى رَجُلٍ يَمْشِيْ عَلَى وَجْهِ الْأَرْضِ وَقَدْ قَضٰى نَحْبَهُ فَلْيَنْظُرْ إِلَى هٰذَا وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ مَنْ سَرَّهُ أَنْ يَّنْظُرَ إِلَى شَهِيْدٍ يَمْشِيْ عَلَى وَجْهِ الْأَرْضِ فَلْيَنْظُرْ إِلَى طَلْحَةَ بْنِ عُبَيْدِ اللّٰهِ. (رواه الترمذی)

6122. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم looked at Talhah رضی الله عنه ibn Ubaydullah and said, "He who loves to look at a man who walks on the surface of the earth though he has fulfilled his vow (meaning, attained martyrdom). Must look at this man (Talhahرضی اللہ عنہ)."

According to another version: "He to whom it pleases to look at a martyr walking on the surface of the earth must look at Talhahرضی اللہ عنہ ibn Ubaydullah."[1]

COMMENTARY:"Attained martyrdom" is a rendering of (Arabic). The word (Arabic) means 'to vow' 'to promise' but it also is 'to die' 'death'. These words are found in the Quran:

من المؤمنين رجال صدقوا ماعاهدوا الله عليه فمنهم من قضى نحبه ومنهم من ينتظر

{Among the believers are men who are true to the covenant they made with Allah; so of them is he who fulfilled his vow (10 martyrdom) and of them is he who awaits.} (33.23)

The exegetes apply both meanings to (قضى نحبه) in this verse. In this hadith, it is more correct to take the second meaning, 'death' though either can be applied. This is corroborated by the other version: 'martyr walking on the surface of the earth'. In this saying, the Prophetصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم meant that Talhahرضی اللہ عنہ was the man who fulfilled his promise to fight in Allah's path and to raise his religion supreme and he did taste death on the battle field though he remained alive. He put himself in front of the Prophetصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم as though a shield with the result that no portion of his body was spared from wounds.

Some authorities say that whatever this hadith says about Talhahرضی اللہ عنہ actually concerns the voluntary death that Sufis go through on their path when they surrender themselves to extinction. It could also mean to immerse oneself wholly in the thought of Allah and remembrance of Him and pandering on the heavenly world. In such an experience, one disappears from the world of the living. This happens (because of voluntary death).

Another possibility is that the Prophetصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم called Talhahرضی اللہ عنہ 'dead' in the sense that eventually he would attain martyrdom. Indeed, he was martyred in the Battle of Jamal (جمل).

MERIT OF TALHAHرضی اللہ عنہ & ZUBAYRرضی اللہ عنہ

(٦١٢٣) وَعَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ سَمِعَتْ أُذُنَيَّ مِنْ فِيْ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ طَلْحَةُ وَالزُّبَيْرُ جَارَايَ فِيْ الْجَنَّةِ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

6123.Sayyiduna Aliرضی اللہ عنہ said, "My both ears heard from the mouth of Allah's Messengerصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم the saying. 'Talhahرضی اللہ عنہ and Zubayrرضی اللہ عنہ are my neighbours in paradise."[2]

Tirmidhi termed this hadith gharib.

COMMENTARY: These words disclose the close relationship and nearness these two men had with the Prophetصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم.

PRAYER FOR SA'Dرضی اللہ عنہ

(٦١٢٤) وَعَنْ سَعْدِ بْنِ أَبِيْ وَقَّاصٍ أَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ يَوْمَئِذٍ يَعْنِيْ يَوْمَ أُحُدٍ اَللّٰهُمَّ اشْدُدْ رَمْيَتَهُ وَأَجِبْ دَعْوَتَهُ۔ (رواه فی شرح السنة)

6124. Sayyiduna Sa'dرضی اللہ عنہ ibn Abu Waqqas said that Allah's Messengerصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم prayed (for him) that day, meaning on the day of Uhud:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اشْدُدْ رَمْيَتَهُ وَاَجِبْ دَعْوَتَهُ

"O Allah, strengthen his (arrow) shooting and grant his prayers.[1]

COMMENTARY: Strengthening arrow shooting is combined with granting of prayers. This complies with the common idiom in which arrow and prayer have a deep link with one another. The arrow is used figuratively with prayer. We say 'prayer at arrow speed' to mean prayer being efficacious and being answered rapidly.

We might say that Sa'd رضی اللہ عنہ became one whose prayers were granted as a consequence of the first arrow that he shot in Islam in Allah's path.

(٦١٢٥) وَعَنْهُ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ اسْتَجِبْ لِسَعْدٍ اِذَا دَعَاكَ۔ (رواہ الترمذی۔)

6125.Sayyiduna Sa'd رضی اللہ عنہ ibn Abu Waqqas narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم prayed:

"O Allah, grant Sa'd رضی اللہ عنہ (the prayer) when he supplicates you."[2]

MERIT OF SA'D رضی اللہ عنہ

(٦١٢٦) وَعَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ مَا جَمَعَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَبَاهُ وَاُمَّهُ اِلَّا لِسَعْدٍ قَالَ لَهُ يَوْمَ اُحُدٍ اَرْمِ فِدَاكَ اَبِيْ وَاُمِّيْ وَقَالَ لَهُ اَرْمِ اَيُّهَا الْغُلَامُ الْحَزَوَّرُ۔ (رواہ الترمذی)

6126. Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ said, 'Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم never named his parents together except for Sa'd رضی اللہ عنہ. On the day of Uhud, he said to him, 'Shoot, my father and my mother be ransomed to you!' And, he also said to him, 'Shoot, O you robust young man!'"[3]

COMMENTARY: When this young man had embraced Islam at the hands of Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ, he was seventeen years old. Previously, his biographical sketch is given (see comments on hidith #6112). He is named there as Sa'd رضی اللہ عنہ ibn Maalik. (Maalik was his father Abu Waqqas). He was always in the forefront for Islam in every important event and offered great sacrifices for the sake of religion. In his final days when the people were gripped by dissension and infighting and were divided into groups on the issue of caliphate, he withdrew from all worldly affairs and locked himself in the house as though restricted in a grave. He had instructed members of his household not to convey to him news of the outside world till the ummah was united on one imam and ruler.

(٦١٢٧) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ اَقْبَلَ سَعْدٌ فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ هٰذَا خَالِيْ فَلْيُرِنِيْ امْرُؤٌ خَالَهُ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ كَانَ سَعْدٌ مِنْ بَنِيْ زُهْرَةَ وَكَانَتْ اُمُّ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مِنْ بَنِيْ زُهْرَةَ فَلِذٰلِكَ قَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ هٰذَا خَالِيْ وَفِي الْمَصَابِيْحِ فَلْيُكْرِمَنَّ بَدَلَ فَلْيُرِنِيْ۔

uncle. Let anyone (who has such a one) show me his maternal uncle."[1]
Tirmidhi said that Sa'd رضی اللہ عنہ ibn Abu Waqqas belonged to the tribe Banu Zuhrah and the mother of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم also belonged to this tribe. This is why the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Here is my maternal uncle!".
Al-Masaabih has (فلیکرمن) 'let him honour' instead of (فلیرنی) "let anyone show me."
But, Ibn Hajar رضی اللہ عنہ said about this change that it is 'an error', while Mulla Ali Qari رحمہ اللہ called it a change' 'a distortion'.

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Let anyone show me his maternal uncle (if he thinks that he has such a one)". There cannot be the like of him!
Zuhrah was a woman. She was the wife of Kilab ibn Murrah ibn Ka'b ibn Luayy ibn Ghalib. Her offspring were called Banu Zuhrah. They were a popular branch of the Quraysh. The mother of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, Sayyidah Aaminah and Sa'd رضی اللہ عنہ were related to this branch. So, on this basis they were siblings, meaning Sayyidah Aaminah and Sa'd رضی اللہ عنہ ibn Abu Waqqas.

SECTION III اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

FIRST ARROW SHOT BY SA'D رضی اللہ عنہ

(٦١٢٨) عَنْ قَيْسِ بْنِ أَبِيْ حَازِمٍ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ سَعْدَ بْنَ أَبِيْ وَقَّاصٍ يَقُوْلُ إِنِّيْ لَأَوَّلُ رَجُلٍ مِنَ الْعَرَبِ رَمٰى بِسَهْمٍ فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ وَرَأَيْتُنَا نَغْزُوْمَعَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَمَا لَنَا طَعَامٌ إِلَّا الْحُبْلَةُ وَوَرَقُ السَّمُرِ وَإِنْ كَانَ أَحَدُنَا لَيَضَعُ كَمَا تَضَعُ الشَّاةُ مَالَهُ خِلْطٌ ثُمَّ أَصْبَحَتْ بَنُوْ أَسَدٍ تُعَزِّرُنِيْ عَلَى الْإِسْلَامِ لَقَدْ خِبْتُ إِذًا وَضَلَّ عَمَلِيْ وَكَانُوْا وَشَوْا بِهِ إِلٰى عُمَرَ وَقَالُوْا لَا يُحْسِنُ يُصَلِّيْ۔ (متفق علیه)

6128.Sayyiduna Qays ibn Hazim رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he heard Sa'd ibn Abu Waqqas رضی اللہ عنہ say, "Surely, I am the first man among the Arabs to have shot an arrow in Allah's path. And I have seen (the time) when we went to battles with Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and had nothing to eat except the fruit and leaves of mimosa (with which we managed to word off our hunger). But, when any of us passed stool, it was dry and tiny like droppings of a sheep. But, now (I face the time when) the Banu Asad reprove me about my (poor observance of) Islam (meaning, salah). Indeed (if I am so worse off that I need their warning and am interior to them), then (there is no doubt that) I am a loser and am deprived of the benefit of whatever deeds (I have performed)."
(Sa'd رضی اللہ عنہ had to say so because) Banu Asad reported against him to Umar رضی اللہ عنہ accusing him of being lax in observing salah as it should be observed.[2]

COMMENTARY: Banu Asad were the progeny and family of Zubayr ibn Al-Awam ibn Khuwaylid ibn Asad.
When Sa'd ibn abu Waqqas رضی اللہ عنہ was Umar's رضی اللہ عنہ governor over Yemen, Banu Asad sent complaint to Umar رضی اللہ عنہ often either in writing or at the hands of travellers that Sa'd رضی اللہ عنہ was slack in offering salah as their imam. He was amiss in its obligatory section or its recommended section. Umarرضی اللہ عنہ called for Sa'd'sرضی اللہ عنہ explanation and he made it clear that he offered salah and led the congregation as he had seen the Prophetصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم do. He said, "I make the first two raka`at long and the next two brief." Umarرضی اللہ عنہ accepted Sa'd'sرضی اللہ عنہ explanation. The complaint of Banu Asad was un precedented and Sa'dرضی اللہ عنہ was very hurt by it and compelled to recall his distinguished position in the time of the Messengerصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. When those difficult times could not make him lethargic, how could he be lethargic and lax in such a basic worship as salah in times that were relatively easy and comfortable.

Sa'dرضی اللہ عنہ expressed his indignation at Banu Asad ignoring his early Islam, scarifies in the cause of its propagation, his steadfastness, and his obedience and worship to blame him and defame him. He said that he was upset both mentally and spiritually.

This is evidence that Shari'ah permits one who is censured for his slackness in religion unfairly to proudly recall his genuine services to Islam, his knowledge and excellences as they truly were. It is established that the noble Suhabahرضی اللہ عنہ were wont to express proudly their attributes and merits to each other for virtuous and righteous purposes.

SA'D رضی اللہ عنہ AS THE THIRD TO ACCEPT ISLAM

(٦١٢٩) وَعَنْ سَعْدٍ قَالَ رَأَيْتُنِي وَأَنَا ثَالِثُ الْإِسْلَامِ وَمَا أَسْلَمَ أَحَدٌ إِلَّا فِي الْيَوْمِ الَّذِي أَسْلَمْتُ فِيهِ وَلَقَدْ مَكُثْتُ سَبْعَةَ أَيَّامٍ وَإِنِّي لَثُلُثُ الْإِسْلَامِ۔(رواه البخاری)

6129. Sayyiduna Sa'd رضی اللہ عنہ said, 'I know of myself that I am the third to embrace Islam (the two before me being Khadijahرضی اللہ عنہا and Abu Bakrرضی اللہ عنہ). No one accepted Islam before the day I did. For seven days, I remained one-third of Islam.[1]

COMMENTARY: Sa'dرضی اللہ عنہ said that the three people who embraced Islam on the first day were Sayyidah Khadijah رضی اللہ عنہا, Abu Bakrرضی اللہ عنہ and himself. Though they had embraced Islam before him, yet all three of them had done it on the same day. Then for seven days thereafter no one else had embraced Islam. Whoever became a Muslim after him, became and only after seven days of his Islam.

However, Sa'd'sرضی اللہ عنہ words mean that of the free and adult people, only the three of them had embraced Islam and no one else became a Muslim for seven days. Or, he may not have known of the Islam of other people, for, Sayyiduna Aliرضی اللہ عنہ (who was a minor when he embraced Islam) and Sayyiduna Zayd ibn Harithahرضی اللہ عنہ (who was a slave) had both embraced Islam on the very first day. On this thinking, Sa'd'sرضی اللہ عنہ hadith will not contradict Sayyiduna Ammar'sرضی اللہ عنہ in which he said, "When I met Allah's Messengerصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم the first time, no one had embraced Islam with him besides five slaves, two women and Abu Bakrرضی اللہ عنہ."

6130.Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that Allah's Messengerصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم often said to his wives, "I am concerned about your welfare after I am dead. None but the persevering and the truthful will take care of you always. "Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا said, "He meant (by the persevering and truthful) they who give sadaqah". Then Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا said to Abu Salamah رضی اللہ عنہ, the son of Abdur Rahmanرضی اللہ عنہ (commending his father's generous monetary contribution to them). "May Allah give your father drink from salsabil (which is a fountain) in paradise!" Indeed, (Abdur Rahmanرضی اللہ عنہ) Ibn Awf had given as sadaqah to the mothers of the faithful a garden that was sold for forty thousand (dinars).[1]

COMMENTARY: The persevering are they who spend their wealth for Allah's pleasure giving charity. They may seem to decrease their wealth in this world but they actually augment their assets of the next world. If there is any hesitancy on spending, they persevere. They are truthful meaning genuinely generous and give much sadaqah.

The Prophetصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم told his wives that he did not leave behind any inheritance for them so was concerned about their future, how they would make two ends meet. How people would look after them and would anyone become responsible for their upkeep? Those who spend on them would be like the persevering and the truthful in Allah's sight.

She then prayed before the son of Abdur Rahmanرضی اللہ عنہ ibn Awf for his father. This highlights Abdur Rahman'sرضی اللہ عنہ merit for setting aside one of his large properties for the mothers of the faithful.

MONETARY SACRIFICE OF ABDUR RAHMANرضی اللہ عنہ IBN AWF: Apart from this hadith that puts the price of the garden at forty thousand dinar, there is another hadith of Tirmidhi which he has termed as hasan gharib and says that the garden that Abdur Rahmanرضی اللہ عنہ ibn Awf had contributed was sold for four hundred thousand dirhams or dinars. This is only one example of the philanthropy of Abdur Rahmanرضی اللہ عنہ ibn Awf. He was a great businessman and earned a lot of money. At the same time, he spent generously in Allah's cause. Indeed, his objective in doing business and earning money was to be able to spend in Allah's path abundantly. Once, he presented to the Prophetصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم half of his property and four thousand dinars or dirhams. Then he gave away forty thousand dinars in charity. After that he donated five hundred horses for jihad and thereafter one thousand and five hundred camels. Most of these donations were part of his business capital.

Once, he gave one hundred and fifty thousand dinars for Allah's pleasure to the sahabahرضی اللہ عنہم. Then, that very night, he set aside all the rest of his property for all the sahabahرضی اللہ عنہم, both ansar and muhajir, allotting to each of them a share of it. He allotted his personal clothing too to different people by name. He left nothing to himself and went to sleep. In the morning, he offered the salah of fajr with the Prophetصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and said to him, "Allah says that He has accepted Abdur Rahman'sرضی اللہ عنہ donation. Take his list of donations and then return it to him. Tell him that he is the agent of Allah and His Messengerصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم over all that property and wealth, and may spend at his discretion. He will not be called to reckoning. Also, give him tidings of paradise."

He set free thirty thousand slaves (after purchasing them).
He left behind four wives each of whom got eighty thousand dirhams. According to anothe: tradition, each wife got two hundred thousand dirhams, out of sixteen shares for his relatives, from what he had left behind.

PRAYER FOR ABDUR RAHMAN رضی اللہ عنہ IBN AWF

(٦١٣١) وَعَنْ أُمِّ سَلَمَةَ قَالَتْ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ لِأَزْوَاجِهِ إِنَّ الَّذِيْ يَحْثُوْ عَلَيْكُنَّ بَعْدِيْ هُوَ الصَّادِقُ الْبَارُّ اَللّٰهُمَّ اسْقِ عَبْدَ الرَّحْمٰنِ بْنِ عَوْفٍ مِنْ سَلْسَبِيْلِ الْجَنَّةِ۔ (رواه احمد)

6131. Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated: I heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say to his wives, "He who will spend fistfuls on you after I am dead is the sincerely pious and truly kind." (She prayed:) 'O Allah, let Abdur Rahman رضی اللہ عنہ ibn Awf drink from salsabil in paradise!'[1]

COMMENTARY: It is obvious that the prayer was made by Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضی اللہ عنہا just as it was in the previous hadith by Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا. Some authorities however, attribute then to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had known beforehand that Abdur Rahman رضی اللہ عنہ ibn Awf would be kind to his wives. This hadith, therefore, discloses the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم wonders.

Sayyiduna Hudhayfah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the people of Najran came to Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and submitted, "O Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم of Allah send us (as our ruler and judge) someone who is trustworthy." He said, "I shall definitely send to you a trustworthy man who deserves to be called trustworthy." The people (meaning of being regarded) as trustworthy.
Hudhayfah said, "He sent Abu Ubaydah رضی اللہ عنہ ibn Jarrah."[2]

COMMENTARY: Najran is a place in Yemen. It was conquered in 10AH. It is also said that Najran is a place between the Hijaz and Syria. The sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم craved the honour of being describe as trustworthy, not to get the post.

WHO SHOULD BE OUR AMIR AFTER YOU

(٦١٣٣) وَعَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ قِيْلَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ مَنْ نُؤَمِّرُ بَعْدَكَ قَالَ إِنْ تُؤَمِّرُوْا اَبَا بَكْرٍ تَجِدُوْهُ اَمِيْنًا زَاهِدًا فِي الدُّنْيَا رَاغِبًا فِي الْآخِرَةِ وَإِنْ تُؤَمِّرُوْا عُمَرَ تَجِدُوْهُ قَوِيًّا اَمِيْنًا لَا يَخَافُ فِي اللّٰهِ لَوْمَةَ لَائِمٍ وَإِنْ تُؤَمِّرُوْا

[2] Bukhari # 3745, Muslim #55.2420

عَلِيًّا وَلَا أُرَاكُمْ فَاعِلِيْنَ تَجِدُوْهُ هَادِيًا مَّهْدِيًّا يَأْخُذُ بِكُمُ الطَّرِيْقَ الْمُسْتَقِيْمَ۔ (رواه احمد)

6133.Sayyiduna Ali رضی الله عنه narrated that someone asked, "O Messenger of Allah, who should we nominate our amir after you are gone?" He said, "If you shoos Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه as amir, you shall find him trustworthy, abstinent of worldly desires but desirous of the hereafter. If you name Umar رضی الله عنه as (your) amir, you shall find him strong and trustworthy, not fearing anyone's censure for the sake of Allah. If you nominate Ali رضی الله عنه as (your) amir - you will find him a guide who is himself well guided and will lead you to the straight path."[1]

COMMENTARY: Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه would not fail in giving the rights of religión. His judgment in maters of religion and state will be just and honest. He has no love of the world but all his attention is toward the hereafter. The Prophetصلی الله علیه وسلم thereby indicated these attributes should dictate the selection of the first caliph. These attributes will raise him to sincerity and it is only sincerity that will assure deliverance. The words in one version are (تجدوه مسلما امینا) "You will find him a trustworthy Muslim". And in yet another version the words we: (قویافی امرالله ضعیفافی نفسه) "You will find him very strict in matters concerning Allah, but weak in his personal matters."

As (or Umarرضی الله عنه, he will be fearless of external forces in matters of religion unconcerned with reasoning in such cases. But, in matters of Shari'ah, he will give no liberty or concession. He will not how down to opposition in matters of religion. He will not hesitate in the face of criticism. According to one version:

تجدوه قویا فی امر الله قویا فی نفسه

"You will find him strict in matters concerning Allah and also strict in his personal matters."

This hadith does not mention Uthmanرضی الله عنه. Either the Prophetصلی الله علیه وسلم did not mention him or the narrator forgot to mention him.

Mentioning Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه first hints at his caliphate ahead of all. Further, though Uthmanرضی الله عنه is not named clearly yet while mentioning Aliرضی الله عنه, the Prophetصلی الله علیه وسلم said, (لااراکم فاعلین)"But I do not suppose that you will do it." Again, there is a faint hint in these words about Uthman'sرضی الله عنه caliphate before Ali'sرضی الله عنه.

One meaning of these words is as the one given in the translation. You will disagree and dispute: A large number will oppose him. Another meaning is that he said, "After my death, you will not make Ali رضی الله عنه the first caliph because I have learnt from Divine revelation that Aliرضی الله عنه will live long. He will survive both Abu Bakrرضی الله عنه and Umarرضی الله عنه. If Ali رضی الله عنه is made caliph straightaway after my death then the two of them will never become caliphs." Hence, the word (اراکم) - "I suppose you will not do it" would mean "I am sure you will not do it – appoint Aliرضی الله عنه as the first caliph."

In short, the gist of what the Prophetصلی الله علیه وسلم said in answer to the question is: "O Muslim, after me, you are responsible to name your caliph, being yourselves/trustworthy and mujtahids. Allah has given you enough insight to come to a right decision because you also possess a strong faith. So, the man you choose unanimously after me will be your caliph because you can never agree among yourselves on anything but truth.

Shaykh Abdul Haq A`hlawiرحمه الله has written that the Prophetصلى الله عليه وسلم did not nominate anyone as his caliph at all. He never specifically named anyone.

MERITS OF THE FOUR CALIPHS

(٦١٣٤) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ رَحِمَ اللّٰهُ اَبَا بَكْرٍ زَوَّجَنِيْ اِبْنَتَهُ وَحَمَلَنِيْ اِلٰى دَارِالْهِجْرَةِ وَصَحِبَنِيْ فِي الْغَارِ وَاَعْتَقَ بِلَالًا مِنْ مَالِهِ رَحِمَ اللّٰهُ عُمَرَ يَقُوْلُ الْحَقَّ وَاِنْ كَانَ مُرًّا تَرَكَهُ الْحَقُّ وَمَالَهُ مِنْ صَدِيْقٍ رَحِمَ اللّٰهُ عُثْمَانَ تَسْتَحْيِ مِنْهُ الْمَلَآئِكَةُ رَحِمَ اللّٰهُ عَلِيًّا اَللّٰهُمَّ اَدِرِالْحَقَّ مَعَهُ حَيْثُ دَارَ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

6134. Sayyiduna Aliرضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messengerصلى الله عليه وسلم said, "May Allah have mercy on Abu Bakrرضى الله عنه. He gave me his daughter (Ayshah رضى الله عنها) in marriage. He brought me (on his camel) to dar-ul-hijrah (the house of emigration, Madinah). He was with me in the cave (Thausr). He emancipated Bilal with his wealth (and handed him over to me).

May Allah have mercy on Umar رضى الله عنه. he speaks the truth even if it sounds bitter. Truthfulness has left him without friends.

May Allah have mercy on Uthman رضى الله عنه. The angels show modesty to him.

May Allah have mercy on Ali رضى الله عنه. O Allah, let truth be with him wherever he is"[1]

COMMENTARY: According to some traditions, Abu Bakrرضى الله عنه had kept two she-camels aside for the hijrah. But the Prophetصلى الله عليه وسلم accepted one she-camel only if he sold it to him. A price of eight hundred dirham as agreed in deferred payment.

As for Umarرضى الله عنه having no friend, that means a friend who would keep close ties otherwise all sincere. Muslims were his friends, most of all Abu Bakrرضى الله عنه.

The prayer that truth may remain where Aliرضى الله عنه is: These words are like what Suyuti has reproduced in Jama-ul-Jawami':

القران مع على وعلى مع القران

"The Quran is with Aliرضى الله عنه and Aliرضى الله عنه is with the Quran".

CHAPTER - XXXVII

THE EXCELLENT QUALITIES OF AHL ULBAYT UN NABI صلى الله عليه وسلم (MEMBERS OF THE HOUSEHOLD OF THE PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم)

بَابُ مَنَاقِبِ اَهْلِ بَيْتِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

WHO ARE AHL UL BAYT UN NABI صلى الله عليه وسلم: Ahl ul-bayt are the members of the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم household.

WHO ARE INCLUDED IN THIS TERM? There are different interpretations. They include those people who are forbidden to receive zakah, meaning the Banu Hashim who include the aal (descendents of) Abbas, aal Ali, aal Jafar and aal Aqeel.

- Some traditions say that the family of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم are ahl ul bayt and his wives are definitely included therein. Therefore, those who exclude his wives from the purview of ahl ul bayt engage in unnecessary contention and take issue with this verse of the Qur'an:

اِنَّمَا يُرِيْدُ اللّٰهُ لِيُذْهِبَ عَنْكُمُ الرِّجْسَ اَهْلَ الْبَيْتِ وَيُطَهِّرَكُمْ تَطْهِيْرًا

{Allah only desires to take away from you all abomination, O people of the household (of Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم, and to purify you with a through purifying.}(33:33)

The Qur'an addresses the wives of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in the words preceding this verse and following it, so it is incorrect to exclude them (ahl ulbayt) from the text of this verse and interrupt the continuity of the message Imam Muhammad Fakhruddin Razi رحمه الله has written: This verse includes the noble wives of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم because its context strongly supports it. Hence it is wrong to exclude the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم wives from the purview of ahl ul bayt and to restrict its application to others." Imam Razi رحمه الله writes further that it is better and more preferable to interpret ahl ulbayt as applicable to the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم children and wives, including Imam Hasan رضي الله عنه and Imam Husayn رضي الله عنه and even Sayyiduna Ali رضي الله عنه because of his exceptional relationship with the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and privileged position with him.

However, sometimes the application of ahlulbayt is limited to Sayyidah Fatimah رضي الله عنها, Sayyiduna Ali رضي الله عنه, Hasan رضي الله عنه and Husayn رضي الله عنه. It is as in the hadith of Anas رضي الله عنه: "When the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم came to the mosque for the salah of fajir he would call at the door of the house of Sayyidah Fatimah رضي الله عنها

الصلوة يا اهل البيت، انما يريد الله ليذهب عنكم الرجس اهل البيت ويطهركم تطهيرا

"The salah, O people of the household, Allah only desires to take away from you all abomination and to purify you with a thorough purifying."[1]

Also, Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضي الله عنها narrated that while she and the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم were in the house, their servant informed them that Ali رضي الله عنه and Sayyidah Fatimah رضي الله عنها were waiting at the door. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم instructed Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضي الله عنها to retire to a corner of the room and she did it. They came in along with Hasan رضي الله عنه and Hysayn رضي الله عنه who were little tots at that time. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم put them on his lap and held Aliرضی الله عنه by one hand and Fatimahرضی الله عنها by another and drew them in an embrace on his body. Then he put the black cloak that was on him over all of them and prayed, "O Allah, they are my ahlulbayt (members of my household). Draw me and my ahlulbayt near you, not towards the fire of Hell."[1]

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 3206 (3217)

Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضی الله عنها also narrated that the Prophetصلی الله علیه وسلم said, "This, my mosque is forbidden to every menstruating woman and sexually defiled person. But, it is not forbidden to Muhammadصلی الله علیه وسلم and to the ahlulbayt of Muhammadصلی الله علیه وسلم who are Aliرضی الله عنه, Fatimahرضی الله عنها, Hasanرضی الله عنه and Husaynرضی الله عنه."[2]

Bayhaqi classifies this tradition as da'if.

To sum up, there are those traditions that describe the ahlulbayt as Banu Hashim and the Prophet's صلی الله علیه وسلم wives and family. There also are traditions that describe the ahlulbayt as only Aliرضی الله عنه, Sayyidah Fatimahرضی الله عنها, Hasanرضی الله عنه and Husaynرضی الله عنه and, in fact, they restrict the application to merely these four pure people and this is the more accepted view.

The ulama have reconciled these traditions and defined their application. Their contention is outlined in these 'lines.

They say that بیت- bayt can be of three kinds:

1. Bayt un-nasb (Family house).
2. Bayt sakni (residential house).
3. Bayt wiladah (house where born)

Banu Hashim, the children of Abdul Muttalib, are the ahl ul-bayt of the Prophetصلی الله علیه وسلم because of family and ancestral ties ~ family members of the Prophetصلی الله علیه وسلم. Among the Arabs children of near forefathers were called bayt (family or household-member). We say in English, too, 'that family - or house - is respectable'. Or, he belongs to a noble family'.

The wives of the Prophetصلی الله علیه وسلم are his ahlulbayt because of their residence in his bayt (house). They are the members of the household. A man's wife is called in common parlance (a member of) his household.

The children of the Prophetصلی الله علیه وسلم are his ahlulbayt because they were born in his house. While all his children should be designated his ahlulbayt, yet only four of them are recognized as his ahlulbayt. They are Aliرضی الله عنه, Fatimahرضی الله عنها, Hasanرضی الله عنه and Husaynرضی الله عنه. (The last two are known as Hasnaynرضی الله عنه). They had extreme closeness to him and very many ahadith are narrated about their excellences.

As for the ahadith put together by the compiler of Mishkah about the ahlulbayt in this chapter, they concern Banu Hashim, Aliرضی الله عنه, Fatimahرضی الله عنها, Hasanرضی الله عنه and Husaynرضی الله عنه, and Ibrahimرضی الله عنه the son of the Prophetصلی الله علیه وسلم. Besides, Zaydرضی الله عنه ibn Harithah and his son Usamahرضی الله عنه are also mentioned either because the Prophetصلی الله علیه وسلم loved both of them immensely, or because the compiler of Mishkah counted them among the ahlulbayt.

Apart from this, he has not mentioned the noble wives of the Prophetصلی الله علیه وسلم in this chapter but created a separate chapter for them. This could be because of their exclusive merits for which a separate chapter seemed appropriate, or he made allowances for the common thinking and mentioned them separately from ahl ul-bayt because generally ahl ul-bayt is applied only to the four persons named in the foregoing lines.

SECTION I الفصل الاوّل

MUBAHALAH & AHL UL-BAYT

(٦١٣٥) عَنْ سَعْدِ بْنِ اَبِيْ وَقَّاصٍ قَالَ لَمَّا نَزَلَتْ هٰذِهِ الْاٰيَةُ فَقُلْ تَعَالَوْا نَدْعُ اَبْنَآءَنَا وَاَبْنَآءَكُمْ دَعَا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَلِيًّا وَّفَاطِمَةَ وَحَسَنًا وَّحُسَيْنًا فَقَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ هٰؤُلَآءِ اَهْلُ بَيْتِيْ۔ (رواه مسلم)

6135. Sayyiduna Sa'd ibn Abu Waqqas رضى الله عنه said that when this verse was revealed:

قُلْ تَعَالَوْا نَدْعُ اَبْنَآءَنَا وَاَبْنَآءَكُمْ

[Say. 'Come! We will summon our sons and your sons], (3:61) Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم called Ali رضى الله عنه, (Sayyidah) Fatimah رضى الله عنها, Hasan رضى الله عنه and Husayn رضى الله عنه. Then, he said, "O Allah, these are my ahl ul-bayt (members of my household)."[1]

COMMENTARY: The entire verse:

فَمَنْ حَآجَّكَ فِيْهِ مِنْۢ بَعْدِ مَا جَآءَكَ مِنَ الْعِلْمِ فَقُلْ تَعَالَوْا نَدْعُ اَبْنَآءَنَا وَاَبْنَآءَكُمْ وَنِسَآءَنَا وَنِسَآءَكُمْ وَاَنْفُسَنَا وَاَنْفُسَكُمْ ثُمَّ نَبْتَهِلْ فَنَجْعَلْ لَّعْنَتَ اللّٰهِ عَلَى الْكٰذِبِيْنَ

[And whosoever disputes with you concerning it (meaning the Quran or religion) after the knowledge that has come to you, say to him, "come! We will summon our sons and your sons, and our women and your women, and ourselves and yourselves, then we will pray humbly to (Allah) and (solemnly) invoke Allah's curse upon the liars.] (3:61)

This is called the verse of mubahalah. This word is derived from (بهل) or (بهلة) and it means to invoke a curse. Mubahalah is to mutually invoke curse on one another. This meaning was expressed originally by the word(ابتهال), but subsequently it came to be used for the supplication that is made humbly with hope and fear and submissively. It was a custom among the Arabs that when two parties disputed over something and belied and accused one another of oppression, they came out of their homes to assemble at an agreed place and began to invoke curses on one another, praying. "O Allah, whichever of us is unjust, send your curse on them".

When the Christians disputed with the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم about the geniuses of the religion of Islam or the Qur'an and they opposed and belied him. Allah commanded him to challenge them to a mubahalah. According to traditions, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم took his dearest and nearest members of his household to engage in mubahalah. He citied Hasan رضى الله عنه and Husayn رضى الله عنه who were very little boys in his arms. Sayyidah Fatimah رضى الله عنها followed him and Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه walked behind her. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم instructed them, "When I have made the invocation of mubahalah, all of you say, 'aameen!"

The priest of the Christians observed the radiance on the faces of the Muslims, so he could not do without saying to his votaries, "Loot at these faces. They belong to such people who if they pray to God to move a mountain: He will do it. So, do not challenge them." He told them that if they do, then they would be annihilated.

So, they did not engage in mubahalah and agreed to pay the jizyah and accept the authority of the Prophetصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم in administration of the state. But, they remained deprived of faith.

According to one version, the Prophetصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If they had engaged in mubahalah, their faces would have been metamorphosed. They would have been transformed into apes and swine's. There would have erupted fire in the wilderness and it would have engulfed not only them but also the birds on trees.

AHL UL-BAYT AS DEFINED IN THE QUR'AN

(٦١٣٦) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ خَرَجَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ غَدَاةً وَّعَلَيْهِ مِرْطٌ مُّرَحَّلٌ مِّنْ شَعْرٍ اَسْوَدَ فَجَآءَ الْحَسَنُ بْنُ عَلِيٍّ وَاَدْخَلَهُ ثُمَّ جَآءَ الْحُسَيْنُ فَاَدْخَلَ مَعَهُ ثُمَّ جَآءَتْ فَاطِمَةُ فَاَدْخَلَهَا ثُمَّ جَآءَ عَلِيٌّ فَاَدْخَلَهُ ثُمَّ قَالَ اِنَّمَا يُرِيْدُ اللّٰهُ لِيُذْهِبَ عَنْكُمُ الرِّجْسَ اَهْلَ الْبَيْتِ وَيُطَهِّرَكُمْ تَطْهِيْرًا۔ (رواہ مسلم)

6136. Sayyidah Ayshah narrated that the Prophetصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم went out one morning. He had on him a cloak of black hair. It was adorned with pictures of saddles of camels. Hasanرضی اللہ عنہ ibn Aliرضی اللہ عنہ came and he took him under the cloak. Then Husaynرضی اللہ عنہ came and he took him along with him. Then, Fatimahرضی اللہ عنہا came and he took her under it. Then, Aliرضی اللہ عنہ came and he took him under it. Then, he recited (the verse 33:33):

اِنَّمَا يُرِيْدُ اللّٰهُ لِيُذْهِبَ عَنْكُمُ الرِّجْسَ اَهْلَ الْبَيْتِ وَيُطَهِّرَكُمْ تَطْهِيْرًا

{Allah only desires to take away from you all abomination, O people of the household (of Muhammadصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, and to purify you with a thorough purifying.}[1]

COMMENTARY: The context of this verse says explicitly that the wives of the Prophetصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم are also among the ahl ul-bayt because the preceding verse is about them:

يٰنِسَآءَ النَّبِيِّ لَسْتُنَّ كَاَحَدٍ مِّنَ النِّسَآءِ

{O wives of the Prophetصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, you are not like any of the other women.} 33:32)

This verse addresses them and the verse following also addresses them:

وَاذْكُرْنَ مَا يُتْلٰى فِيْ بُيُوْتِكُنَّ

{And remember that which is recited (by the Prophetصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم in your houses.} (33:34)

As for the masculine plural in the words (عنکم الرجس) – {take away from you all abomination}, it is either to express greatness or to refer to the male members of the ahl ul-bayt.

DEATH OF PROPHER'Sصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم SON IBRAHIMرضی اللہ عنہ

(٦١٣٧) وَعَنِ الْبَرَآءِ قَالَ لَمَّا تُوُفِّيَ اِبْرَاهِيْمُ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ لَهٗ مُرْضِعًا فِي الْجَنَّةِ۔

(رواہ البخاری)

6137.Sayyiduna Bara`رضی اللہ عنہ said that when Ibrahimرضی اللہ عنہ (the son of the

Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and Mariah Qubtiyah رضی اللہ عنہ) died (in infancy), Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Indeed, there is for him a wet nurse in paradise."[1]

COMMENTARY: Some exponents interpret wet nurse to mean all kinds of blessings in paradise will be bestowed on Ibrahim رضی اللہ عنہ, son of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. However, neither is it necessary nor proper to go for this for-fetched interpretation. The real meaning is very appropriate.

The word (مرضعۃ) (- murda'ah) is wet nurse or nursing mother. But, this word is spelt in an authentic manuscript (مرضعہ) (- Murda'ah) and means place where milk is given for drink or suckled.

This hadith is evidence that pious souls are admitted to paradise immediately on death. It also is evidence that paradise already exists.

MERIT OF SAYYIDAH FATIMAH رضی اللہ عنہا

(٦١٣٨) وَعَنْ عَآئِشَةَ قَالَتْ كُنَّا اَزْوَاجَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عِنْدَهٗ فَاَقْبَلَتْ فَاطِمَةُ مَا تَخْفٰى مِشْيَتُهَا مِنْ مِّشْيَةِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَلَمَّا رَاٰهَا قَالَ مَرْحَبًا بِابْنَتِيْ ثُمَّ اَجْلَسَهَا ثُمَّ سَارَّهَا فَبَكَتْ بُكَآءً شَدِيْدًا فَلَمَّا رَاٰى حُزْنَهَا سَارَّهَا الثَّانِيَةَ فَاِذَا هِيَ تَضْحَكُ فَلَمَّا قَامَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ سَاَلْتُهَا عَمَّا سَارَّكِ قَالَتْ مَا كُنْتُ لِاُفْشِيَ عَلٰى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ سِرَّهٗ فَلَمَّا تُوُفِّيَ قُلْتُ عَزَمْتُ عَلَيْكِ بِمَا لِيْ عَلَيْكِ مِنَ الْحَقِّ لَمَّا اَخْبَرْتِنِيْ قَالَتْ اَمَّا الْاٰنَ فَنَعَمْ اَمَّا حِيْنَ سَارَّنِيْ فِي الْاَمْرِ الْاَوَّلِ فَاِنَّهٗ اَخْبَرَنِيْ اَنَّ جِبْرَئِيْلَ كَانَ يُعَارِضُنِي الْقُرْاٰنَ كُلَّ سَنَةٍ مَرَّةً وَاِنَّهٗ عَارَضَنِيْ بِهِ الْعَامَ مَرَّتَيْنِ وَلَآ اَرَى الْاَجَلَ اِلَّا قَدِ اقْتَرَبَ فَاتَّقِي اللّٰهَ وَاصْبِرِيْ فَاِنِّيْ نِعْمَ السَّلَفُ اَنَا لَكِ فَبَكَيْتُ فَلَمَّا رَاٰى جَزَعِيْ سَارَّنِي الثَّانِيَةَ قَالَ يَا فَاطِمَةُ اَلَا تَرْضَيْنَ اَنْ تَكُوْنِيْ سَيِّدَةَ نِسَآءِ اَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ اَوْ نِسَآءِ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ فَسَارَّنِيْ فَاَخْبَرَنِيْ اَنَّهٗ يُقْبَضُ فِيْ وَجَعِهٖ فَبَكَيْتُ ثُمَّ سَارَّنِيْ فَاَخْبَرَنِيْ اَنِّيْ اَوَّلُ اَهْلِ بَيْتِهٖ اَتْبَعُهٗ فَضَحِكْتُ۔ (متفق عليه)

6138.Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated, "We, the wives of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم were with him (just before or during his illness). Fatimah رضی اللہ عنہا arrived, too. Her gait was not different in the least from the manner of walking of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. When he saw her, he said. 'Welcome, my daughter!' He made her sit (near him) and spoke to her softly. She wept profusely. Seeing her grief, he spoke to her softly once again and she began to laugh. When Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم got up and went out (for some purpose like offering salah), I asked her about what he had spoken to her softly, but she said, 'I am not one to divulge the secrets of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. (So, I said nothing, but) after he died. I requested her. 'I adjure you by my right over you (as your mother) do tell me (what made you weep and then laugh when he spoke to you)." She said, 'Yes. Now I will. The first time he spoke to me he informed me that Jibril علیہ السلام used to revise the Qur'an with him once every year (in the month of Ramadan) but, that year, he revised it twice with him. So, he did not but see that his death was near. He exhorted her to fear Allah and exercise patience. Surely, he was an excellent predecessor for her. I wept and he observed my anxiety so he spoke quietly once again and asked me if I was not pleased that I would be the chief of all women in paradise – or women of the believers?"

According to another version (she said,) He spoke to me quietly (the first time) and said that he would die of his illness. So, I wept. Then he spoke to me quietly (again) and disclosed to me that I would be the first member of his household to follow him (and meet him). So, I laughed.[1]

COMMENTARY: Sayyidah Fatimahرضی الله عنها refused to divulge what the Prophetصلی الله علیه وسلم had spoken to her quietly. If he had wished, he would have spoken loud enough for everyone to hear. Her words teach us that it is mustahab (recommended) to keep secrets of our elders, relatives and friends.

To revise the Qur'an is mustahab. Two people may recite to one another from memory. The Prophetصلی الله علیه وسلم used to do so in the presence of Jibrilعلیه السلام. We learn from this hadith that it was narrated after the last Ramadan of the Prophet'sصلی الله علیه وسلم life.

When Jibrilعلیه السلام had him revise two times, the Prophetصلی الله علیه وسلم concluded that revelation of the Qur'an was over and religion was perfected. Hence, it must be retained in memory perfectly.

The Prophetصلی الله علیه وسلم told Sayyidah Fatimahرضی الله عنها that she should be please that he was departing from this world. She should be grateful to Allah and pleased with His decree that she had earned a high rank.

EXCELLENCE OF SAYYIDAH FATIMAHرضی الله عنها: It is clear from this hadith that Sayyidah Fatimahرضی الله عنها is more superior than all women even Sayyidah Maryamعلیها السلام, Sayyidah Khadijahرضی الله عنها and Sayyidah Ayshahرضی الله عنها. Suyuti رحمه الله has said the same thing. There are two other ahadith that call for reconciliation with this one.

(i) Sayyidah Fatimahرضی الله عنها has superiority over all women except Sayyidah Maryam bint Imranعلیها السلام.

(ii) Sayyidah Fatimahرضی الله عنها has the same standing in this ummah as Sayyidah Maryam bint Imranعلیها السلام had among her people. Each of them is superior most among her own ummah,

The fact is that the standing of Sayyidah Fatimahرضی الله عنها and her rank rose gradually over the years. Allah informed His Prophetصلی الله علیه وسلم of this rise through revelation and His angels and he continued to speak of it at different times according to her prevailing standing. Finally, her superiority was established over all women without exception.

ANOTHER VIEW: Some ulama hold that Sayyidah Ayshahرضی الله عنها is more excellent than Sayyida Fatimahرضی الله عنها. They argue that while Sayyidah Ayshahرضی الله عنها will stay with the Prophetصلی الله علیه وسلم in paradise, Sayyidah Fatimahرضی الله عنها will be with Sayyiduna Aliرضی الله عنه. Obviously, the rank and standing of the Prophetصلی الله علیه وسلم is higher than that of Sayyiduna Aliرضی الله عنه.

However, this argument is meaningless before these ahadith: The Prophetصلی الله علیه وسلم said to Sayyidah Fatimahرضی الله عنها, "I, you, Aliرضی الله عنه, Hasanرضی الله عنه and Husaynرضی الله عنه will be in paradise in the same rank and same castle."

[1] Bukhari # 6285, Muslim # 98.2450

The speakers on behalf of Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا also say that she was qualified to make ijtihad and was recognized as a mujtahid.[1]
In the time of the four caliphs, she used to issue religions rulings and verdicts.
Suyuti رحمہ اللہ has written in fatawa (who is superior: Fatimahرضی اللہ عنہا or Ayshahرضی اللہ عنہا?) and the most correct is that Fatimahرضی اللہ عنہا is superior to (and more excellent than) Ayshahرضی اللہ عنہا. Some scholars say that they are at one level. Some others prefer to maintain silence on this issue, particularly some Hanafi and some Shafi Ulama. Imam Maalikرحمہ اللہ was asked about it and he said, "Fatimahرضی اللہ عنہا is part of the flesh of the Prophetصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and I do not give excellence to anyone over the flesh of the Prophetصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم." Imam Subkiرحمہ اللہ said, "The most correct thing is that the most superior is Sayyidah Fatimahرضی اللہ عنہا. Next in superiority is her mother Sayyidah Khudijahرضی اللہ عنہا and next is Sayyidah Ayshahرضی اللہ عنہا. The ulama also differ about the superiority of Sayyidah Khadijahرضی اللہ عنہا over Sayyidah Ayshahرضی اللہ عنہا, or otherwise.
The fact is that these glorious women of Islam have each a position of her own. Each is excellent in one field or another. Some scholars have based excellence on the degree of reward and this basis is recognized by them. Though Sayyidah Fatimahرضی اللہ عنہا on this basis may not excel over others, yet there is no doubt whatsoever that nobility, purity, disposition and sacredness are the jewels which ensure that no one can be superior to, and better than, Sayyidah Fatimahرضی اللہ عنہا, Sayyiduna Hasanرضی اللہ عنہ and Sayyiduna Husaynرضی اللہ عنہ.
BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH: She was born to the mother of believers, Sayyidah Khadijahرضی اللہ عنہا and was the youngest daughter of Allah's Messengerصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. She is the chief of all women of the world. She was married to Sayyiduna Aliرضی اللہ عنہ in Ramadan 2 AH, and she was sent to his house in Dhulhijjah. Hasanرضی اللہ عنہ, Husaynرضی اللہ عنہ, Muhsinرضی اللہ عنہ, Zaynabرضی اللہ عنہا, Umm Kulthumرضی اللہ عنہا and Ruqayyahرضی اللہ عنہا were born to her
She died six months - or as some say three months - after the death of the Prophetصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. She was then twenty eight years old. She was given a bath by Sayyiduna Aliرضی اللہ عنہ and he led her funeral salah.
Those who have transmitted ahadith from her include Aliرضی اللہ عنہ, Hasanرضی اللہ عنہ, Husaynرضی اللہ عنہ and many others. Sayyidah Ayshahرضی اللہ عنہا used to say, "I have not seen anyone more truthful than Fatimahرضی اللہ عنہا apart from her father, Allah's Messengerصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم."

DISPLEASING FATIMAHرضی اللہ عنہا IS LIKE DISPLEASING THE PROPHETصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم

(٦١٣٩) وَعَنِ الْمِسْوَرِ بْنِ مَخْرَمَةَ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ فَاطِمَةُ بِضْعَةٌ مِّنِّي فَمَنْ اَغْضَبَهَا اَغْضَبَنِيْ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ يُرِيْبُنِيْ مَا اَرَابَهَا وَيُؤْذِيْنِيْ مَا آذَاهَا ۔ (متفق عليه)

6139.Sayyiduna Miswar ibn Hakhramahرضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messengerصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Fatimahرضی اللہ عنہا is a piece of me. He who angers her, angers me.
According to another version: "I am upset by what upsets her and I am pained by what pains her."[2]

COMMENTARY: In these words, there is an eloquent comparison between the Prophetصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and Sayyidah Fatimahرضی اللہ عنہا, his daughter. However, some ulama are not correct when they say that to hurt Fatimahرضی اللہ عنہا amounts to disbelief, because these kind of ahadith are meant to throw light on perfect unity and nearness. For example another tradition of this kind is: The Prophetصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "He who hurts a Muslim, hurts me, and he who hurts me, hurts Allah." Or, he said, "He who loved the ansar, loves Allah and he who antagonizes the ansar, antagonizes Allah." And, he also said, "To befriend the Quraysh is a sign of faith and to vex them is to disbelieve." And, "To be friendly to the Arabs is to have faith but to be hostile to them is disbelief." And, "He who befriends the Arabs is friendly to me but he who annoys them, annoys me."

[2] Bukhari # 3767. Muslim # 94.2449

WHAT PAINS HER, PAINS ME: According to some traditions Harith ibn Hisham the brother of Abu Jahl decided to marry Abu Jahl's daughter, Ghawra, to Sayyiduna Aliرضی اللہ عنہ. According to another tradition, Aliرضی اللہ عنہ himself wished to marry Ghawrs. When the Prophet'sصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم permission was sought, he said, "I shall never give permission for that," and then he spoke the words of this hadith. He also said, "I do not declare the unlawful to be lawful and the lawful to be unlawful, but the daughter of Allah's friend will not be at the same place as the daughter of an enemy of Allah." Sayyiduna Aliرضی اللہ عنہ heard this saying and presented himself before the Prophetصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and made an apology, saying, "O Messenger of Allah, I shall never do what you do not like."

DIFFERENT VERSIONS: This hadith of Miswarرضی اللہ عنہ is transmitted through different chains of narrators. One of them is that he narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم stood up on the pulpit and he heard him say. "The son of Hisham ibn Mughirah, Harith, seeks my permission to give the daughter of Abu Jahl in marriage to Ali ibn Abu Talib. But, I do not give my consent to it. I repeat that I shall not approve it. But, if Ibn Abu Talib has resolved to go ahead then let him divorce my daughter and marry the daughter of Abu Jahl. Fatimahرضی اللہ عنہا is a piece of me. He who angers Fatimahرضی اللہ عنہا angers me."

ALI DISALLOWED TO MARRY ANOTHER WOMAN AS LONG AS FATIMAHرضی اللہ عنہا WAS HIS WIFE: It is stated in Sharh Muslim against this hadith that to do anything that hurts the Prophetصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم is forbidden and unlawful even if that thing is permissible. This is the prerogative of the Prophetصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. There were two reasons why the Prophetصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم disallowed Aliرضی اللہ عنہ to marry the daughter of Abu Jahl.

(i)Sayyidah Fatimahرضی اللہ عنہا would have been displeased. That would have hurt the Prophetصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم which would have proved detrimental to Aliرضی اللہ عنہ. So, it was better for himself to abstain from his desire. Love of the Prophetصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم also lamented of him to desist.

(ii)The Prophetصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was apprehensive lest Sayyidah Fatimahرضی اللہ عنہا may find her honour outraged and he involved in extreme anxiety.

Some scholars say that the Prophetصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم did not mean to forbid Aliرضی اللہ عنہ to take a second wife but he meant that it was Divine decree that Aliرضی اللہ عنہ cannot have both Fatimahرضی اللہ عنہا and the daughter of Abu Jahl at the same time. But, other traditions and opinions do not uphold this explanation. For instance, Yahya ibn Sa'eed ibn Ahqutanرضی اللہ عنہ said that he mentioned the Prophetصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم words to Abdullah ibn Dawudرضی اللہ عنہ and he said, "Allah had forbidden Aliرضی اللہ عنہ to take another wife while Fatimahرضی اللہ عنہا was with him. this is known from the verse:

وَمَا اٰتٰكُمُ الرَّسُوْلُ فَخُذُوْهُ وَمَا نَهٰكُمْ عَنْهُ فَانْتَهُوْا

{And whatsoever the Messengerصلى الله عليه وسلم gives you, take it and whatsoever he forbids, abstain (therefrom)} (59:7)

This establishes that when the Prophetصلى الله عليه وسلم said, 'I do not approve it,' it was no longer lawful for Aliرضى الله عنه that, in spite of the Prophet'sصلى الله عليه وسلم disapproval, he should take a second wife while Sayyidah Fatimahرضى الله عنها was his wife."

Yahya ibn Sa'eedرضى الله عنه also said that he heard. Umarرضى الله عنه ibn Dawud say that when the Prophetصلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Fatimahرضى الله عنها is a piece of me and what she dislikes, I dislike, and what hurts her, hurts me" then Allah made it unlawful for Aliرضى الله عنه to marry another woman while Fatimahرضى الله عنها was his wife, that he may not hurt the Prophetصلى الله عليه وسلم The Qur'an says:

مَاكَانَ لَكُمْ اَنْ تُؤْذُوا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ

{It is not for you to annoy the Messengerصلى الله عليه وسلم of Allah.....} (33:53)

Hafiz رحمه الله and Abu Al-Qasim Dimishqiرحمه الله have cited both these traditions of Yahya ibn Sa'eedرضى الله عنه.

According to another tradition, the Prophetصلى الله عليه وسلم said, "What breaks Fatimah'sرضى الله عنها heart, breaks my heart .... Know well! All family ties will be severed on the day of resurrection, but my bonds with my family and in-laws will be retained."

According to another tradition narrated by Abu Ayyubرضى الله عنه, Allah's Messengerصلى الله عليه وسلم said, "On the day of resurrection, a voice will call from the throne as though a crier proclaims:

يا اهل الجمع نكسوا رءوسكم وغضوا ابصاركم حتى مرت فاطمة بنت محمد على الصراط۔

'O the assembled people, bow down your heads and shut your eyes till Fatimahرضى الله عنها bint Muhammadصلى الله عليه وسلم goes over the sirat."

Then the Prophetصلى الله عليه وسلم said:

فتمرّ مع سبعين الف جارئة من الحور العين كمر البرق۔

"She will go over (it) accompanied by seventy thousand large-eyed maiden slaves (of paradise) at the speed of lightening."

We learn from traditions that when Allah's Messengerصلى الله عليه وسلم departed on a journey, he bid farewell to Sayyidah Fatimahرضى الله عنها last of all. When he returned from a journey the first person he met was Sayyidah Fatimahرضى الله عنها.

NOT EVERY WIFE'S DISPLEASURE COUNTS: The fact that the Prophetصلى الله عليه وسلم prevented Sayyiduna Aliرضى الله عنه from taking a second wife lest Sayyidah Fatimahرضى الله عنها be displeased does not mean that every husband must respect his first wife's wishes before deciding to marry another woman. This is only the Prophet'sصلى الله عليه وسلم privilege. Sayyiduna Aliرضى الله عنه was disallowed because his second marriage could hurt the Prophetصلى الله عليه وسلم as is explained in some traditions. Besides, no woman is an equal of Sayyida Fatimahرضى الله عنها and no woman's father can be like her father, the chief of the worldsصلى الله عليه وسلم. So, no man is disallowed to marry another woman on this count.

FOUR WIVES: The Qur'an permits a man to marry more than one woman up to a maximum of four. This is a general permission not restricted by the specific and limited nature of this hadith. The verse of the Qur'an is:

فَانْكِحُوا مَاطَابَ لَكُمْ مِنَ النِّسَاءِ مَثْنٰى وَثُلٰثَ وَرُبَاعَ

[....then marry such women as seem good to you, two, three or four...] (4:3)

RIGHTS OF PROPHET'S صلى الله عليه وسلم FAMILY

(٦١٤٠) وَعَنْ زَيْدِبْنِ اَرْقَمَ قَالَ قَامَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَوْمًا فِيْنَا خَطِيْبًا بِمَآءٍ يُدْعٰى خُمًّا بَيْنَ مَكَّةَ وَ الْمَدِيْنَةِ فَحَمِدَ اللّٰهَ وَاَثْنٰى عَلَيْهِ وَوَعَظَ وَذَكَّرَ ثُمَّ قَالَ اَمَّا بَعْدُ اَلَا اَيُّهَا النَّاسُ اِنَّمَا اَنَا بَشَرٌ يُوْشِكُ اَنْ يَّاتِيَنِيْ رَسُوْلُ رَبِّيْ فَاُجِيْبَ وَاَنَا تَارِكٌ فِيْكُمُ الثَّقَلَيْنِ اَوَّلُهُمَا كِتَابُ اللّٰهِ فِيْهِ الْهُدٰى وَالنُّوْرُ فَخُذُوْا بِكِتَابِ اللّٰهِ وَاسْتَمْسِكُوْا بِهٖ فَحَثَّ عَلٰى كِتَابِ اللّٰهِ وَرَغَّبَ فِيْهِ ثُمَّ قَالَ وَ اَهْلُ بَيْتِيْ اُذَكِّرُكُمُ اللّٰهَ فِيْ اَهْلِ بَيْتِيْ اُذَكِّرُكُمُ اللّٰهَ فِيْ اَهْلِ بَيْتِيْ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ كِتَابُ اللّٰهِ هُوَ حَبْلُ اللّٰهِ مَنِ اتَّبَعَهٗ كَانَ عَلَى الْهُدٰى وَمَنْ تَرَكَهٗ كَانَ عَلَى الضَّلَالَةِ۔ (رواه مسلم)

6140.Sayyiduna Zayd ibn Arqam رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم got up before them at a watering-place between Makkah and Madinah called Khumu to address them. He praised Allah and glorified Him and gave them audionition and reminded them (of reward and punishment). Then, he said, "To proceed! Know, O people, I am but a human being (like you with the distinction that Allah has chosen me as His Messenger to guide you). Very soon a Messenger of my Lord (the angel of death) will come to me (to take me away) and I shall respond positively. I have behind with you two great or fine things. The first of them is the Book of Allah. It contains guidance and light. Study it and abide by its commands (and retain it in your memory)." Having exhorted (them) to follow the Book of Allah and called towards it, he then said, "And the members of my household! I remind (you of the punishment of) Allah lest you fail to give the rights of the members of my household. I remind you of Allah lest you fail to give the rights of the members of my household.

According to another version: "The Book of Allah. It is the rope of Allah. He who abides by it has followed guidance. And, he who neglects it has gone astray."[1]

COMMENTARY: Khumm is between Makkah and Madinah, near Juhfah. It is also called Ghadir Khumm (see hadith # 6103). Ghadir is a watering place. This address was delivered while homeward bound after performing the Farewell Pilgrimage.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had said toward the end of Dhul Hijjah 10AH that his time was meaning its end. About three months thereafter in rabi ul Awwal 11 AH, he died.

He said that he was leaving behind two great or fine, things. This is the rendering of the word (ثقلين) thaqalayn. It could mean a heavy thing or a traveller's retinue or his any great and find thing. Some authorities say that the Book of Allah and the ahl ul bayt (members of the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم household) are called two great things because they have a great rank or because it is difficult to abide by and care for, them. Not everyone can carry their weight. The jims and mankind are also called thaqalayn in the sense that the earth carries them on its back. Come authorities have explained that both of them are the provision of religion. They are instrumental in furthering religion and strengthening it. The populace of the earth grows through them

The Qur'an or the Book of Allah is described as guidance and light The true path is brightened This light will lead the people on the day of resurrection. The word nur (light) is also one of the names of the Qur an.

Hold Allah's Book firmly. Go by it in all your affairs and deeds Make it your guideline And abide by it. To abide by the sayings of Allah's Messengerصلى الله عليه وسلم is also the same as abiding by the Book of Allah This is in the light of Allah's words:

مَا اٰتٰكُمُ الرَّسُوْلُ فَخُذُوْهُ وَمَا نَهٰكُمْ عَنْهُ فَانْتَهُوْا

{And whatsoever the Messenger gives you, take it, and whatsoever he forbids, abstain (there from)} (59:7)

And He says:

وَمَنْ يُّطِعِ الرَّسُوْلَ فَقَدْ اَطَاعَ اللّٰهَ

{Whosoever obeys the Messenger, he indeed obeys Allah.} (4:80)

And He says:

قُلْ اِنْ كُنْتُمْ تُحِبُّوْنَ اللّٰهَ فَاتَّبِعُوْنِيْ يُحْبِبْكُمُ اللّٰهُ

{Say, If you love Allah then follow me. Allah will love you."} (3:31)

According to another version this phrase under discussion has these words:

فتمسكوا بكتاب الله وخذوا

"So hold firmly the Book of Allah and abide by it."

The listeners were exhorted forcefully to recite Allah's Book, to memories it, to learn the science of recited and meanings of its words and to abide by it, without the least slackness.

The Prophetصلى الله عليه وسلم spoke to them such things as bring them to Allah's Book. He told that they would prosper in this world and the next if they follow it. He gave them glad tidings of Allah's mercy. Perhaps, he did not warn them of Allah's punishment, or he may have done so.

The Prophetصلى الله عليه وسلم reminded them twice of (the punishment of) Allah if they failed give the rights of the members of his household. It may have been to emphasis, or he may have referred to his children by ahl ul-bayt (members of the household_ the first time and his wives the second time. We have stated previously that the term ahl ul-bayt (members of the household) includes both his children and his wives.

According to one version, he repeated these words three times. The rope of Allah' is the rendering of (حبل الله). It means the covenant protection and whatever takes a man towards his Lord. It becomes a means of nearness to Him and His pleasure. The Qur'an is the promise of Allah for the success of man and for his protection from punishment. It is a means of nearness to Him. He who holds fast to it is safe from punishment, attains nearness to Allah and gets to the peak of success in the hereafter. In contrast, one who does not take the Qur'an as the source of his belief and deeds and does not obey its commands and guidance is lost on the wrong path. He is deprived in the world.

Thus the Qur'an is a rope in both senses. Those who seek guidance attain high ranks of prosperity through it. And those who disobey and rebel fall down to the lowest level of deprivation.

يُضِلُّ بِهٖ كَثِيرًا وَّ يَهْدِي بِهٖ كَثِيرًا

{He sends many astray thereby, and He guides many thereby.} (2:26)

According to a hadith

القرآن حجة لك اوعليك

"The Quran is an argument (or an evidence) either in your favour or against you". (It will either get you deliverance or combing you to punishment).

And, Allah, the Most High, says:

وَنُنَزِّلُ مِنَ الْقُرآنِ ماهُو شفاء ورحمة اللمؤمنين ولا يزيد الظلمين الاخسارا

{And we send down, of the Qur'an that which is a healing and a mercy to the believers, and it increases the evildoers in nothing but loss.} (17:82)

SON OF ONE WITH TWO WINGS.

(٦١٤١) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ اَنَّهُ كَانَ إِذَا سَلَّمَ عَلَى ابْنِ جَعْفَرٍ قَالَ السَّلَامُ عَلَيْكَ يَا ابْنَ ذِي الْجَنَاحَيْنِ۔ (رواه البخاری)

6141.Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه narrated that whenever he (himself) offered salaam to the son of Ja'far رضی الله عنه, he would say: "As-salaam u Alayka, O son of the possessor of two wings."[1]

(Salaam is greetings or salutation and assalaamu alayka is peace be on you.')

COMMENTARY: Ja'far رضی الله عنه was son of Abu Talib and the Prophet's صلی الله علیه وسلم cousin. He fought bravely in the Battle of Mutah in 8AH. He was martyred.

This battle fought at Mutah in Syria was the first against the Christians who were supported by the army of the Emperor of Byzantine. During the battle, the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم who was in Madinah watched the proceedings from there with his amazing, miraculous sight. He saw that Jafar رضی الله عنه was given wings with which he was flying along with the angels. He was worried what it could mean. Later, when news of his martyrdom was conveyed to Madinah, the mystery was solved. Since that day, he was called 'Ja'far Tayyar' (the flying Jafar) and 'Dhul-Janahouyn' (possessor of two wings).

According to one tradition, the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "I saw Ja'far fly in the sky of paradise with the angels."

Sayyiduna Ja'far Tayyar رضی الله عنه had embraced Islam at an early stage. Thirty one people had preceded him in Islam. He was ten years senior to his brother Sayyiduna Ali رضی الله عنه. He resembled the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم very much in features and disposition. He was forty-one years old when he was martyred in the Battle of Mutah in 8 AH. There were as many as ninety wounds on his body from arrows and swords.

Ahadith were transmitted on his authority by the Sahabah رضی الله عنهم as well as his son, Abdullah رضی الله عنه

PRAYER FOR HASSAN رضی الله عنه

(٦١٤٢) وَعَنِ الْبَرَاءِ قَالَ رَاَيْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَالْحَسَنُ بْنُ عَلِيٍّ عَلٰى عَاتِقِهٖ يَقُوْلُ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اُحِبُّهٗ فَاَحِبَّهٗ۔ (متفق علیه)

[1] Bukhari # 3709

6142.Sayyiduna Bara رضی الله عنه said, "I saw the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم while Hasan ibn Ali رضی الله عنه was placed on his shoulder, and he prayed. 'O Allah, I love him, so (I pray to you to) love him."[1]

COMMENTARY: The prayer of the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم was granted, there being no doubt about it. So, it is binding on every Muslim to love Hasan رضی الله عنه wholeheartedly.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH OF HASANرضی الله عنه: Hasan رضی الله عنه is the son of Sayyidah Fatimah رضی الله عنه and Sayyiduna Ali رضی الله عنه, and grandson of the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم to whom he was the apple of his eye. He is the chief of all the youth of paradise. His kunyah is Abu Muhammad. According to the most correct tradition, he was born on 15th Ramadan 3AH and he died in 55AH. Other reports put his death in the years 58AH, 49AH or 44AH. He was buried in Baqi graveyard.

Ahadith narrated by him are transmitted by a large number of sahabah as well as his son Hasan ibn Hasan رضی الله عنه Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه is also one of them.

After the martyrdom of Sayyiduna Ali رضی الله عنه in Ramadan 40AH, some forty thousand people n Kufah installed him as caliph and pledged allegiance to him. However, in order to prevent dissension among the ummah, he stepped down in favour of amir Mu'awiyah رضی الله عنه just six months thereafter on 15th Jumadiul-awwal 41AH

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH OF HUSSAYN رضی الله عنه THE CHIEF OF THE MARTYRS: His Kunyah is Abu Abdullah. He was born on 5th Sha'ban in 4AH and was younger than Hasan رضی الله عنه by merely 10 months and thirty days. He was martyred on Friday 10th Muharrum 61AH in Karbala, Iraq, by the army of Yazid ibn Muawaiyah. The wretched man who martyred him was Sinan ibn Anas Nakh'i, or as same versions say. Shamr Dhul Jawsh. Then Khawli ibn Yazid Asbahi took his body and the members of his household from the plain of Karbala Abdullah ibn Ziyad. According to traditions along with him twenty-three male members of his household were also martyred, among them his sons, brothers, etc. He was fifty-eight years old when martyred.

LOVE OF HASAN

(٦١٤٣) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ خَرَجْتُ مَعَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيْ طَائِفَةٍ مِّنَ النَّهَارِ حَتّٰى اَتٰى خِبَآءَ فَاطِمَةَ فَقَالَ اَثَمَّ لُكَعُ اَثَمَّ لُكَعُ يَعْنِيْ حَسَنًا فَلَمْ يَلْبَثْ اَنْ جَاءَ يَسْعٰى حَتّٰى اعْتَنَقَ كُلُّ وَاحِدٍ مِّنْهُمَا صَاحِبَهُ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اُحِبُّهُ فَاَحِبَّهُ وَاَحِبَّ مَنْ يُّحِبُّهُ۔ (متفق عليه)

6143. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated, 'I went out with Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم sometime during a day till we were at the house of Fatimahرضی الله عنها. He asked, 'Is luka (young lad) here? Is luka' here?' He meant Hasanرضی الله عنه. He had not waited awhile when he came galloping and each of them embraced the other. Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم prayed, 'O Allah, I love him. So you too love him and love whoever loves him!"[2]

COMMENTARY: We learn from this hadith that it is allowed to embrace another person (of the same sex) or a child. Also, as Nawawi رضی الله عنه said, it is mustahab to love children and be kind to them and to hug and caress them. It is also mustahab to be humble and polite to children[1]

MERIT OF HASAN رضی اللہ عنہ

(٦١٤٤) وَعَنْ أَبِي بَكْرَةَ قَالَ رَأَيْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَلَى الْمِنْبَرِ وَالْحَسَنُ بْنُ عَلِيٍّ إِلَى جَنْبِهِ وَهُوَ يُقْبِلُ عَلَى النَّاسِ مَرَّةً وَّعَلَيْهِ أُخْرَى وَيَقُوْلُ إِنَّ ابْنِي هٰذَا سَيِّدٌ وَلَعَلَّ اللّٰهَ أَنْ يُّصْلِحَ بِهِ بَيْنَ فِئَتَيْنِ عَظِيْمَتَيْنِ مِنَ الْمُسْلِمِيْنَ۔ (رواه البخاری)

6144. Sayyiduna Abu Bakrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated, "I saw Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم on the pulpit (while delivering a sermon) with Hasan ibn Ali رضی اللہ عنہ at his side. He looked now at the people (whom he addressed) and now at him (with a loving glance). He would say, 'This my son is a sayyid (pious and cool). We must hope that Allah will reconcile two large groups of Muslims through him."[2]

COMMENTARY: Sayyid is of outstanding piety. Also he is cool-tempered and of a good disposition. This word is also applied to a guardian, master, noble, one who endures hardship at the hands of his people, chief or leader.

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم hoped that Hasan رضی اللہ عنہ would make peace between two large groups. This was a true foretelling of subsequent events that took place after the caliphate of Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ. The majority of the Muslims had divided into two groups. While one advocated the caliphate' as Imam Hasan, رضی اللہ عنہ the other recognized the caliphate of Amir Mu'awiyah رضی اللہ عنہ through, without any semblance of doubt, the rightful one to this office was Imam Hasan رضی اللہ عنہ. He was more excellent from the point of view of are ancestry, and personal, religious standing. This very hadith is a great evidence in which the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم called him Sayyid. Besides, he had an invincible support from the people. An amry of forty thousand young men had vowed to lay down their lives for him against Mu'awiyah. But, in spite of the right and supreme strength, he was afraid that his grandfather's ummah would fall apart and there would be bloodshed, so he threw aside the worldly leadership and opted for success in the hereafter. He was not compelled by weakness but was impelled by pious motives to retain the unity of the Muslims, so willingly and of his own accord he made peace with Mu'awiyah and stepped down from caliphate in his favour. He used to say, "By Allah, I cannot shelter that even a drop of blood of anyone of the ummah of Muhammad should fall on the ground," Many among his supporters did not agree with him so much so that the extremists among them jeered him: (السلام علیک یا عار المسلمین) "Peace be on you, o the black-mark on the Muslims!" He would respond in a very tolerant way (العار خیر من النار) "The black-mark is better than the fire!"

The Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم saying in the favour of Sayyiduna Hasan رضی اللہ عنہ that Allah may cause him to reconcile two large groups of the Muslims, is ample evidence that both were part of Islam and Muslims – the supporters of Mu'awiyah رضی اللہ عنہ and the supporters of Imam Hasan رضی اللہ عنہ though one of them was right and the other wrong. The ahlus-sunnah wa al-jamaah maintain that after Imam Hasan رضی اللہ عنہ concluded of the latter was lawful in the eyes of shari'ah.

SILENCE ON MUSHAJ-RAT SAHABAH رضی اللہ عنہم: A word of caution is necessary here. Whatever adpute a disagreement took place among the Sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم at that time and it led them to the verge of fighting with each other, is called (مشاجرات صحابہ) Mushajarat Sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم (wrangling of the companions). All our predecessors and leaders and scholars of religion have maintained silence on this issue. It was never tolerated by anyone of them to criticize or comment on these events and situation let alone targeting these sacred beings. They say, "Whom Allah kept our hands away from their blood then why should we use our tongues to pick faults in them."

MERIT OF SAYYIDUNA HASAN رضی اللہ عنہ:The merit and excellence of Imam Hasan رضی اللہ عنہ is very obvious from the fact that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم called him Sayyid.

According to another tradition of Abu Bakrah رضی اللہ عنہ, "When Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم led us in salah, Hasan رضی اللہ عنہ, who was a little child at that time, would come to the Mosque and perch himself on the neck and back of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم as he went down into the prostration posture. So he would raise himself from the prostrations very slowly and carefully allowing Hasan رضی اللہ عنہ to alight. Some of the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم submitted once, 'O Messenger of Allah, we see you conduct yourself with this little one as you do not do with anyone else.' He said, 'this little one is the flower of my life. Surely, this my son is Sayyid. We must hope that Allah will cause two groups of Muslims to come to peace through his efforts.'"

Mu'awiyah رضی اللہ عنہ has said that Allah's Messenger used to lick the tongue or the lips of Hasan رضی اللہ عنہ.[1]

There is no doubt at all that Allah will never subject the limbs to punishment which His Messenger had licked.

(٦١٤٥) وَعَنْ عَبْدِالرَّحْمٰنِ بْنِ اَبِيْ نُعْمٍ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ عَبْدَاللّٰهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ وَسَاَلَهُ رَجُلٌ عَنِ الْمُحْرِمِ قَالَ شُعْبَةُ اَحْسِبُهُ يَقْتُلُ الذُّبَابَ قَالَ اَهْلُ الْعِرَاقِ يَسْاَلُوْنِيْ عَنِ الذُّبَابِ وَقَدْ قَتَلُوْا اِبْنَ بِنْتِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ هُمَا رَيْحَانَيَّ مِنَ الدُّنْيَا۔ (رواه البخاری)

6145. Sayyiduna Abdul Rahman ibn Abu Nu'm رضی اللہ عنہ said that someone (belonging to kufah) asked Abdullah ibn umar رضی اللہ عنہ about one (pilgrim) who has assumed the ihram (which is a sacred state). Shu'bah رضی اللہ عنہ (a sub-narrator from Abdur Rahman رضی اللہ عنہ) interjected, "I suppose it was about (this pilgrim) killing a fly (or a mosquito, what command he attracts)."(so, Abdur Rahman رضی اللہ عنہ said) "I heard Abdullah ibn umar رضی اللہ عنہ say, 'The people of Iraq ask me about a fly, yet they have killed the son of the daughter of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. And, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had said that both of them (Hasan رضی اللہ عنہ and Husayn رضی اللہ عنہ) were his two flowers in the world!"[2]

(They had killed Imam Husayn رضی اللہ عنہ.)

COMMENTARY: A man of kufah asked Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ about a person who has assumed the ihram for hajj (or umrah) and happens to kill a fly, how may be atone for that? Will he have to pay a penalty, give a sadaqah or do anything else?

Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ gave him a very convincing reply. They asked about commands of shari'ah on killing flies but thought nothing of that when they killed the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم grandson, Husayn رضی اللہ عنہ, very mercilessly. Thereby they raised their identity among the cruelest of oppressors.

The word rayhan (ریحان) is translated 'flowers'. But, it also means mercy, comfort, livelihood, ease, luxury. In this sense, a son is also called rayhan because he gives comfort to the heart and coolness to the eyes. Besides, fragrant grass and flowers are also called rayhan, then, by way of comparison, this meaning it also applied to a son and children. Just as a fragrant flower or any other fragrant thing is smelled, to too people smell and kiss children, and please their own heart.

CLOSE RESEMBLANCE OF BOTH BROTHERS (HUSNAYN) TO THE PROPHET صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم

(٦١٤٦) وَعَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ لَمْ يَكُنْ أَحَدٌ أَشْبَهَ بِالنَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مِنَ الْحَسَنِ بْنِ عَلِيٍّ وَّقَالَ فِي الْحُسَيْنِ أَيْضًا كَانَ أَشْبَهَهُمْ بِرَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ۔ (رواه البخاری)

6146. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ said. "There was no one resembling the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم more closely than Hasan ibn Ali رضی اللہ عنہ." He said about Husayn رضی اللہ عنہ also, "He resembled Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم most closely of all of them."[1]

COMMENTARY: See hadith (#6170) of Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ on the resemblance of his two sons to Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم.

PRAYER FOR IBN ABBAS رضی اللہ عنہ

(٦١٤٧) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ ضَمَّنِيَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِلَى صَدْرِهِ فَقَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ عَلِّمْهُ الْحِكْمَةَ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ عَلِّمْهُ الْكِتَابَ۔ (رواه البخاری)

6147. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ said. "The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم clasped me to his chest and prayed 'O Allah, teach him wisdom.'"

According to another version the words are: 'Teach him the Book.'[2]

COMMENTARY: The chest is the source and cache of knowledge and wisdom. The ulama say that 'wisdom' does not mean 'philosophy' but it is a compatibility of knowledge and deeds. It is to perfect oneself in learning with all its attributes and goodness and a proper understanding of the subjects of religion. This is a great blessing for man to which this verse of the Qur'an points out:

يُؤْتِي الْحِكْمَةَ مَنْ يَّشَاءُ وَمَنْ يُؤْتَ الْحِكْمَةَ فَقَدْ اُوْتِيَ خَيْرًا كَثِيْرًا

{He grants wisdom to whom He pleases. And whoever is granted wisdom then he is indeed granted a great good.} (2:269)

---

[1] Bukhari # 3748, Tirmidhi # 3778

[2] Bukhari # 3752, Tirmidhi # 3823

Some scholars say that the word 'wisdom' in this prayer means the 'knowing of the truth of different things and to put into practice that which can be done.'
Some other scholars say that 'wisdom' is sound, good character and good manner of speech or conversation.
Some others have applied 'wisdom' to the Prophets's sunnah including his sayings deeds and tacit approval (of words or actions of others). This is as Allah says:

وَيُعَلِّمُهُمُ الْكِتَابَ وَالْحِكْمَةَ

{And, He teaches them the Book and the wisdom.}(3:164)

In short, the Prophetصلى الله عليه وسلم prayed for Abdullah ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه to be given knowledge and wisdom and an understanding. He was a great scholar of this ummah. The senior sahabah رضى الله عنهم have acknowledged that he possessed outstanding learning, wisdom and understanding and that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had prayed for him.
Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه was born in Makkah three years before the hijrah. When the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم died, he was thirteen years old-or, as other reports suggest, he was fifteen years old or ten years old. He had seen Jibril عليه السلام twice and the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had prayed for him two times.
In his closing years, he lost his eyesight. He died at the age of seventy-one in Ta'if in 68 AH during the rule of Ibn Zubayr رضى الله عنه

PROPHET'S صلى الله عليه وسلم PRAYER

(٦١٤٨) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ إِنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ دَخَلَ الْخَلَاءَ فَوَضَعْتُ لَهُ وَضُوْءً فَلَمَّا خَرَجَ قَالَ مَنْ وَضَعَ هٰذَا فَأُخْبِرَ فَقَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ فَقِّهْهُ فِي الدِّيْنِ۔ (متفق عليه)

6148. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbasرضى الله عنه said. "The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم went to the toilet and I placed water for him to make ablution. When he came out, he asked, 'who has placed it?' On being informed, he prayed, 'O Allah, grant him an understanding of religion.'"[1]

COMMENTARY: This has been reported previously (see hadith # 1195) in the chapter 'Salah during the night.' Ibn Abbasرضى الله عنه had spent the night at the house of his maternal aunt Sayyidah Maymunahرضى الله عنها, the wife of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Salah of tahajjud as offered by him.
The meaning of the prayer is: O Allah, grant Ibn Abbas such knowledge of religion as may make him a complete, perfect scholar of every branch of religion, and grant him a perfect understanding of all shades of religion and Fiqh, not a superficial knowledge.
Nawawi رضى الله عنه said that this hadith establishes the excellence of Fiqh. It proves also that a prayer in absentia is mustahab. It is also mustahab to pray for someone who has been of service in some way or done a favour.
The Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم prayer was granted. Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه was raised to high levels as a scholar.

PRAYER FOR USAMAHرضى الله عنه AND IMAM HASAN رضى الله عنه

(٦١٤٩) وَعَنْ أُسَامَةَ بْنِ زَيْدٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ انه كَانَ يَأْخُذُهُ وَالْحَسَنُ فَيَقُوْلُ اَللّٰهُمَّ أَحِبَّهُمَا

[1] Bukhari # 143, Muslim # 138-2477, Musnad Ahmad # 1-314

فَإِنِّي أُحِبُّهُمَا وَفِي رِوَايَةٍ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَأْخُذُنِي فَيُقْعِدُنِي عَلٰى فَخِذِهِ وَيُقْعِدُ الْحَسَنَ ابْنَ عَلِيٍّ عَلٰى فَخِذِهِ الْأُخْرٰى ثُمَّ يَضُمُّهُمَا ثُمَّ يَقُوْلُ اَللّٰهُمَّ ارْحَمْهُمَا فَإِنِّي أَرْحَمُهُمَا۔ (رواه البخاری)

6149. Sayyiduna Usamah ibn Zayd رضی اللہ عنہ narrated. That the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to take him and Hasan and pray, "O Allah, do love the two of them. I, too love them both."

According to another version: Usama رضی اللہ عنہ said, "Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to take me and put me on his lap and put Hasan ibn Ali رضی اللہ عنہ on his other lap." Then, he who would clasp them together and pray, "O Allah, have mercy on the two of them. I, too, have mercy a them."[1]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Usamah's رضی اللہ عنہ father was Sayyiduna Zayed ibn Harithah رضی اللہ عنہ, the freedman of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم as well as his adopted son. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had married him to his maid-servant Sayyidah (Barakah) Umm Ayman رضی اللہ عنہا. She was the freedwoman of his father Abdullah ibn Abdul Muttalib. Usamah رضی اللہ عنہ was born to them. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم loved both father and son dearly.

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم showed his love for Usamah رضی اللہ عنہ at the same time as his own grandson. This demonstrates how greatly merciful he was as also how high ranking and glorious the two lads were.

When the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم died, Usamah رضی اللہ عنہ was about twenty years old. He used to reside in Wadi al Qura and he died there after the martyrdom of Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ. Some historians put his death in 54AH. Allamah ibn Abdul Barr رحمہ اللہ agreed with this report.

USAMAH AS COMMANDER

(٦١٥٠) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ أَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بَعَثَ بَعْثًا وَأَمَّرَ عَلَيْهِمْ أُسَامَةَ بْنَ زَيْدٍ فَطَعَنَ بَعْضُ النَّاسِ فِي إِمَارَتِهِ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ تَطْعَنُوْنَ فِي إِمَارَتِهِ فَقَدْ كُنْتُمْ تَطْعَنُوْنَ فِي إِمَارَةِ أَبِيْهِ مِنْ قَبْلُ وَايْمُ اللّٰهِ إِنْ كَانَ لَخَلِيْقًا لِلْإِمَارَةِ وَإِنْ كَانَ لَمِنْ أَحَبِّ النَّاسِ إِلَيَّ بَعْدَهُ. مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ وَفِي رِوَايَةٍ لِمُسْلِمٍ نَحْوَهُ وَفِي آخِرِهِ أُوْصِيْكُمْ بِهِ فَإِنَّهُ مِنْ صَالِحِيْكُمْ۔

6150. Sayyiduna Abdulllah ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم sent an army placing Usamah ibn Zayd as its Commander. Some people were cynical about his commandership. So, he said. "If you are cynical about his commandership (now), then, indeed, you had been cynical about the commandership of his father before. By Allah, he was worthy of being a Commander and was also dearer to me than other people. And (now), he is one of the dearest of people to me after him."

According to a version in Muslim which is similar to the foregoing, its concluding words are: "I recommend him to you, Surely, he is among the righteous of you."[2]

COMMENTARY: The people who were cynical could have been the hypocrites who lost no opportunity to give tongue to their expressions. Or, they may have been neo-Muslims not yet out of ignorant prejudices and class hatred.

Usamah's رضی الله عنه father, Zayed ibn Harithah, was a glorious sahabi and an early Muslim. The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم loved him dearly. He was a very worthy man. According to Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها whenever an army was dispatched by the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم, he was made its commander and this highlights his capabilities as leader.

In 8AH, the Byzantine armies had taken positions at the border of Syria. So, the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم sent a defensive army under the command of Zayd رضی الله عنه. There in the ensuing battle he was martyred and, after him, Ja'far Tayyar رضی الله عنه and Abdullah ibn Rawahah رضی الله عنه. This was the battle of Mutah. When he was sent, some of the people were critical of him. Next year, the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم sent Zayd's رضی الله عنه son, Usamah رضی الله عنه as commander of an army to the borders. Again, some people denounced his appointment on the grounds that he was too young and an offspring of slave parents. The hypocrites made capital out of the fact that senior sahabah رضی الله عنهم were members of the army under Usamah's رضی الله عنه leadership. They failed to recognize that Islam erases false considerations of colour, race, ancestry and wealth replacing them with eligibility, learning, piety and sincerity and high morals. The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said on oath that he was a worthy man and then he said the same thing of Usamah رضی الله عنه.

NOT ZAYD IBN MUHAMMAD

(٦١٥١) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ إِنَّ زَيْدَ بْنِ حَارِثَةَ مَوْلَى رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا كُنَّا نَدْعُوْهُ إِلَّا زَيْدَ بْنَ مُحَمَّدٍ حَتّٰى نَزَلَ الْقُرْاٰنُ اُدْعُوْهُمْ لِاٰبَآئِهِمْ مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ وَذُكِرَ حَدِيْثُ الْبَرَاءِ قَالَ يَعْلِيْ اَنْتَ مِنِّيْ فِيْ بَابِ بُلُوْغِ الصَّغِيْرِ وَحِضَانَتِهٖ۔

6151.Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Umar رضی الله عنه said about Zayd ibn Harithah رضی الله عنه, the freedman of Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم, "we did not call him but Zayd ibn Muhammad till the verse of the Qur'anwas revealed:

اُدْعُوْهُمْ لِاٰبَآئِهِمْ

{Call them by (the names of) their fathers}" (33:5)[1]

COMMENTARY: The entire verses are:

وَمَا جَعَلَ اَدْعِيَآءَكُمْ اَبْنَآءَكُمْ ذٰلِكُمْ قَوْلُكُمْ بِاَفْوَاهِكُمْ وَاللّٰهُ يَقُوْلُ الْحَقَّ وَهُوَ يَهْدِى السَّبِيْلَ اُدْعُوْهُمْ لِاٰبَآئِهِمْ هُوَ اَقْسَطُ عِنْدَ اللّٰهِ فَاِنْ لَّمْ تَعْلَمُوْٓا اٰبَآءَهُمْ فَاِخْوَانُكُمْ فِى الدِّيْنِ وَمَوَالِيْكُمْ الخ۔

{And He (Allah; has not made your adopted sons as your sons in fact. That is your own saying, by your mouths, whereas Allah says the truth, and He guides on the (right) way. Call them by (the names of) their father: That is more equitable in the sight of Allah; but if you know not their fathers, they are your brethren in faith and your friends....}(33: 4-5)

Thereafter, people began to call him by his father's name, Zayd ibn Harithah. This hadith also demonstrates how much love and compassion the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم had for Zayd رضی الله عنه.

SECTION II الفصل الثاني

(٦١٥٢) عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ رَأَيْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي حَجَّتِهِ يَوْمَ عَرَفَةَ وَهُوَ عَلَى نَاقَتِهِ الْقَصْوَاءِ يَخْطُبُ فَسَمِعْتُهُ يَقُوْلُ يَاَيُّهَا النَّاسُ إِنِّي تَرَكْتُ فِيْكُمْ مَا إِنْ اَخَذْتُمْ بِهِ لَنْ تَضِلُّوا كِتَابَ اللّٰهِ وَعِتْرَتِي اَهْلَ بَيْتِي۔ (رواه الترمذی)

6152.Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ said, "I saw Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم while performing his hajj. He was seated on his she-camel Qaswa on the day of Arafah delivering a sermon. I heard him say, 'O you people1 I am leaving among you that which if you adhere to, you will not go astray: Allah's Book and my children-members of my household (ahlul-bayt).'"[1]

COMMENTARY: Qaswa is the name applied to a she camel whose ear is split at the edge. The she-camel of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had a split ear from birth.

But, it is possible that the name Qaswa is applied to mean distant, for ahead. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم's Qaswa was quick-footed and (oat paced other beasts and) walked swiftly for long distances.

The Arabic words (اخذتم بہ) 'hold fast to it' are translated 'adhere to it.' They also mean, 'to obey' and' to follow.' Ibn Maalik رضی اللہ عنہ said, "They mean to abide by the Book. And to hold fast to his children is to love them, to emulate them and not to hurt them by words or deeds."

The word (عترة) means children and (عترتی) my children. His ahlul-bayt are his relatives and offspring of his near ancestors and also his wives رضی اللہ عنہن. May Allah be pleased with all of them.

The anxieties that we find in the Islamic world today can be cleared in only one way: to abide by this command of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. We have forgotten his saying completely.

TWO THINGS TO WHICH YOU MUST STICK

(٦١٥٣) وَعَنْ زَيْدِ بْنِ اَرْقَمَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنِّي تَارِكٌ فِيْكُمْ مَا إِنْ تَمَسَّكْتُمْ بِهِ لَنْ تَضِلُّوا بَعْدِي اَحَدُهُمَا اَعْظَمُ مِنَ الْاٰخَرِ۔ كِتَابُ اللّٰهِ حَبْلٌ مَمْدُوْدٌ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ إِلَى الْاَرْضِ وَعِتْرَتِي اَهْلُ بَيْتِي وَلَنْ يَتَفَرَّقَا حَتّٰى يَرِدَا عَلَيَّ الْحَوْضَ فَانْظُرُوا كَيْفَ تَخْلُفُوْنِي فِيْهِمَا۔ (رواه الترمذی)

6153. Sayyiduna Zayad ibn Arqam رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "I am leaving behind with you that to which if you hold fast, you will not go astray after my death. One of them is mightier than the other: the Book of Allah, a rope hanging down from heaven to earth, and (the other is) my children members of my household. Both of them will not separate till they come to me at the pond.

[1] Tirmidhi # 3786 (3811) Musnad Ahmad 3-14

So, watch out how you represent me in them."[1]

COMMENTARY: Zayd ibn Arqam al-Ansari al-Khazraji رضی الله عنه is a famous Sahabi.

At the time of the Battle of Uhud, he was very young. So the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم did not include him in the army. He participated in the Battle of Trench and every battle thereafter, He reported the boastful saying of Abdullah ibn Ubyy ibn Salul to the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم which is mentioned in the Quran:

لَئِن رَّجَعْنَا إِلَى الْمَدِينَةِ لَيُخْرِجَنَّ الاعزّ منها الاذل

{If we return to Al-Madinah, the mightier ones of it will expel there from the meaner ones…} (63:8)

However, the hypocrite Ibn Salul denied having said anything of the sort and the Sahabah رضی الله عنهم too believed him thinking that the boy Zayd رضی الله عنه was under some misconception. Shortly, thereafter, Surah al-Munafiqun was revealed and Zaydرضی الله عنه was vindicated.[2]

He participated in seventeen battles with the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلمHe died in 66AH. All the six books of hadith have a hadith narrated by him. In short he was a glorious Sahabi.

The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم has exhorted his Ummah, even in this hadith, to stick to the Quran and has reminded them of the rights of his ahlul-bayt. He has said that they are mighty and they should take care of them. The more they do, the better for them. They would prosper in both the worlds. His advice was like a father commending his children to someone's care before his death.

The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said of the Book of Allah and his children that they will be together at every stage of the Last Day. They will come to him to the Pond together. They will name everyone who had been good to them in the world and thank him, and the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم will reward everyone they name. Allah, too, will reward each one of them perfectly. But, those who had violated their rights and been ungrateful to the two in the world, they would be treated as they deserve.

The concluding words means that the ummah must take an account of themselves how they represent him concerning the two. If they held fast to both of them then they would have been faithful. But, if they did not maintain a good relationship with them, then they would be termed to have been unfaithful to him.

WAR WITH ONE WHO IS AT WAR WITH FOUR DEAR ONES

(٦١٥٤) وَعَنْهُ أَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لِعَلِيٍّ وَّفَاطِمَةَ وَالْحَسَنَ وَالْحُسَيْنِ أَنَا حَرْبٌ لِّمَنْ حَارَبَهُمْ وَسَلْمٌ لِّمَنْ سَالَمَهُمْ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

6154.Sayyiduna Zayd ibn Arqam رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger said about Ali رضی الله عنه, Fatimah رضی الله عنها, Hasan رضی الله عنه and Husayn رضی الله عنه, "I am at was with him who makes war on them and I keep peace with him who is at peace with them."[3]

COMMENTARY: This hadith means that he who is friendly to these four people is friendly to the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم but he who is hostile to them it hostile to the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم.

[1] Tirmidhi # 3788 (3795)

[2] See Ma'arif ul Quran (Mufti Muhammad Shafi رحمه الله) v8 pp 464f. for a comprehensive account of this incident.

[3] Tirmidhi # 3870(3896)

According to a tradition narrated by Ali رضی اللہ عنہ the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "He who befriends me and befriends the two of them - Hasan رضی اللہ عنہ and Husayn رضی اللہ عنہ - and their father and their mother - Ali رضی اللہ عنہ and Fatimah رضی اللہ عنہا, will be with me on the day of resurrection in the same group." Ahmad and Tirmidhi have transmitted this hadith and their concluding words are, "He will be in paradise with me."

MERIT OF ALI رضی اللہ عنہ & FATIMAH رضی اللہ عنہا

(٦١٥٥) وَعَنْ جُمَيْعِ بْنِ عُمَيْرٍ قَالَ دَخَلْتُ مَعَ عَمَّتِي عَلَى عَائِشَةَ فَسَأَلْتُ أَيُّ النَّاسِ كَانَ أَحَبَّ إِلَى رَسُولِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَتْ فَاطِمَةُ فَقِيلَ مِنَ الرِّجَالِ قَالَتْ زَوْجُهَا۔ (رواہ الترمذی)

6155.Sayyiduna Jumay ibn Umayr رحمہ اللہ (a tabi'i) said, 'I went with my paternal aunt to visit (Sayyidah) Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا and asked her, 'which of the people was dearest to Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم.' She said, 'Fatimah رضی اللہ عنہا!' Then, it was asked, 'who was dearest to him among men?' She said, 'Her husband (Ali رضی اللہ عنہ)!'"[1]

COMMENTARY: Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا spoke the truth and if the same question was put to Sayyidah Fatimah رضی اللہ عنہا she too would have been straight forward and named Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا and her father Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ. Neither of them bore grudge for the other. So those who are prejudiced and try to show that the two women were at loggerheads with one another should abstain particularly in the light of this hadith.

It must be known that one who is the dearest need not accessorily be the most superior. It is natural for man to love his children and near relatives even if he knows anyone to be more superior to them. Of course, if his own child is more superior than other children then it becomes necessary to love his child more than others on this count too.

HURTING PROPHET'S PATERNAL UNCLE IS TANTAMOUNT TO HURTING PROPHET صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم

(٦١٥٦) وَعَنْ عَبْدِ الْمُطَّلِبِ بْنِ رَبِيعَةَ أَنَّ الْعَبَّاسَ دَخَلَ عَلَى رَسُولِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مُغْضَبًا وَأَنَا عِنْدَهُ فَقَالَ مَا أَغْضَبَكَ قَالَ يَا رَسُولَ اللّٰهِ مَا لَنَا وَلِقُرَيْشٍ إِذَا تَلَاقَوْا بَيْنَهُمْ تَلَاقَوْا بِوُجُوهٍ مُبْشَرَةٍ وَإِذَا لَقُوْنَا لَقُوْنَا بِغَيْرِ ذٰلِكَ فَغَضِبَ رَسُولُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حَتّٰى احْمَرَّ وَجْهُهُ ثُمَّ قَالَ وَالَّذِي نَفْسِي بِيَدِهِ لَا يَدْخُلُ قَلْبَ رَجُلٍ الْإِيمَانُ حَتّٰى يُحِبَّكُمْ لِلّٰهِ وَلِرَسُولِهِ ثُمَّ قَالَ أَيُّهَا النَّاسُ مَنْ آذٰى عَمِّي فَقَدْ آذَانِي فَإِنَّمَا عَمُّ الرَّجُلِ صِنْوُ أَبِيهِ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَفِي الْمَصَابِيحِ عَنِ الْمُطَّلِبِ۔

6156. Sayyiduna Abdul Muttalib ibn Rabi'ah رضی اللہ عنہ (ibn Harith ibn Abdul Muttalib) narrated, "Abbas came to Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم in a rage while I was there with him. He asked, 'what makes you angry?' He said. 'O Messenger of Allah. What makes us (Banu Hashim) different from the (nest of the) Quraysh? They meet amongst themselves in a very familiar manner,' Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم became very angry and his face became red. He said, 'By Him in whose hand is my soul, faith will not find place in a man's heart till he loves you (the ahlulbayt) for the sake of Allah and His Messenger.' He went on to say 'O you people! If anyone hurts my paternal uncle then he hurts me, for, indeed, the paternal uncle of a man is like his father'"[1]

The Masabih names the narrator as Muttalib ibn Rabi'ah رضي الله عنه (but the correct is Muttalib ibn Rabi'ah رضي الله عنه and both of them were companions of the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم).

COMMENTARY: Faith will not find place in his heart could refer to faith by itself in an absolute manner in which case this is a very serious warning. Or, it could mean 'perfect faith'. Their faith will be wavering unless they fill their minds with love of the members of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم household.

Banu Hashim, the ancestors of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم were the most honourable of the branches of Quraysh Its members held most of the key offices. Most of all the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم belonged to them. This is why the other branches of Quraysh regarded them as alien. Abdu Jahl used to complain, "The Banu Hashim have appropriated the leadership of Makkah and the Quraysh. They have seized the right to serve Zamzam to the pilgrims. If they get prophethood, too, what do the rest of Quraysh have?"

MARIT OF AL-ABBAS رضي الله عنه

(٦١٥٧) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الْعَبَّاسُ مِنِّيْ وَاَنَا مِنْهُ- (رواه الترمذی)

6157.Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said," Abbas belongs to me and I to Abbas."[2]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم meant the Abbas رضي الله عنه was among his household. The Ulama say that on merit and nobility and on the basis of honour and prophethood, the person of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is singular and distinct, but as an ancestor and uncle, Abbas رضي الله عنه is distinguished. This saying is a figurative expression of love, kinship and unity. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had spoken the same words about Ali رضي الله عنه, too.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH: Sayyiduna Abbas ibn Abdul Muttalib رضي الله عنه was the paternal uncle of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. He was born one year prior to the event of the Elephant. His mother belonged to the tribe Nimr ibn Qasit. She was the first Arab woman to put the covering on the Ka'bah of silk and of different kinds of precious cloth.

In his childhood days Abbas رضي الله عنه was lost and could not be traced. So, his mother made a vow that if he was located, she would get a covering for the Ka'bah-baytul-Haram or the sacred House, when he was found and brought home, she fulfilled her vow in a very dignified manner,

Abbas رضي الله عنه was a very influential man among the Quraysh and in Makkah. He was recognized as a chief. The duties of imarah and siqayah were assigned to him. (They are maintenance of the Ka bah and serving water to the pilgrims.)

He was two years older than the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم yet he was very respectful to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Someone asked him. (انت اکبر او النبی صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم) "Are you older or the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم?" He said:

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 3758(383) Musnad Ahmed

[2] Tirmidhi # 3759(3784)

هو اكبر وانا اسن

"He is the elder and I am older."

This eloquent answer reflects his sagacity and sound nature.

Sayyiduna Abbas رضی الله عنه had embraced Islam very early but some serious reasons prevented him from making it known to others. This is why he could not help fighting the Muslims in the Battle of Badr as a member of the Quraysh army of Makkah. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had instructed his Sahabah رضی الله عنهم to refrain from killing or wounding him in the battle 'because he fights on the side of idolaters unwillingly!

At the end of the battle, Abbas رضی الله عنه was among the captives. He was captured by Abu Al-Yasir ibn Ka'b ibn Umar. Then he obtained his release after paying a fidyah (ransom), and returned to Makkah. Thereafter, he emigrated from there to Madinah making a proper declaration about that.

He died on Friday, 12th Rajab, 36AH, at the age of eighty-eight. He was buried in jannat ul-baqi graveyard. According to reports, he set free seventy slaves just before death.

PRAYER FOR ABBAS رضی الله عنه AND HIS OFFSPRING

(٦١٥٨) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِلْعَبَّاسِ إِذَا كَانَ غَدَاةُ الْإِثْنَيْنِ فَأْتِنِي أَنْتَ وَوَلَدُكَ حَتّٰى أَدْعُوَلَكُمْ بِدَعْوَةٍ يَنْفَعُكَ اللّٰهُ بِهَا وَ وَلَدَكَ فَغَدَا وَغَدَوْنَا مَعَهُ وَأَلْبَسَنَا كِسَاءَهُ ثُمَّ قَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ اغْفِرْ لِلْعَبَّاسِ وَوَلَدِهِ مَغْفِرَةً ظَاهِرَةً وَّبَاطِنَةً لَا تُغَادِرُ ذَنْبًا اَللّٰهُمَّ احْفَظْهُ فِيْ وَلَدِهِ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَزَادَ رَزِيْنٌ وَاجْعَلِ الْخِلَافَةَ بَاقِيَةً فِيْ عَقِبِهِ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

6158. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه narrated that (once) Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said to Abbas رضی الله عنه, "When it is Monday morning come to me- you and your children so that I may pray for all of you whereby Allah may benefit you and your children." So (on Monday) he came and they came in the morning. He put his cloak over them and prayed, "O Allah, forgive Abbas and his children, a forgiveness that is apparent as well as concealed that leaves no sin unforgiving. O Allah, preserve and protect Abbas among his children."

Tirmidhi termed this hadith as gharib.

Razin has these more words: "And, let the caliphate (and kingdom) remain among his descendants."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم put his cloak over all of them to sort of pray to Allah that He should cover them with his Mercy in the same way

He prayed for Abbas رضی الله عنه to be preserved with glory from all trials to be able to protect the rights of his children.

The prayer was answered even for caliphate and rule to remain among them. Indeed, rule continued to be held for centuries together by the Abbasides.

This supplication is also a guidance for the Ummah that caliphate and rule are the right of the Abbasis (Abbasides) too. When choosing a caliph or amir, their prerogative must be under consideration.

MERIT OF IBN ABBAS رضی اللہ عنہ

(٦١٥٩) وَعَنْهُ اَنَّهُ رَاٰى جِبْرَئِيْلَ مَرَّتَيْنِ وَدَعَالَه رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَرَّتَيْنِ۔ (رواه الترمذى)

6159. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ said that he had seen Jibril علیہ السلام twice and that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had prayed for him twice.[1]

COMMENTARY: Suyuti رضی اللہ عنہ has transmitted in Jama 'ul-Jawami' that Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ said, "One day, I passed by the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم wearing bright white clothing. I saw him conversing quietly with Dihyah Kalbi. But, he was not Dihyah Kalbi رضی اللہ عنہ. Jibril علیہ السلام had assumed his features and I did not know till I heard Jibril علیہ السلام say, 'O Messenger of Allah, if Ibn Abbas had offered salaam to us then I would have given him a response. He is wearing bright white clothing but, after him, his descendants will be compelled to don black garments.' When Jibril علیہ السلام departed, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم returned from there and asked me. 'why did you not greet us when you walked by us?' I submitted, 'O Allah, you were having a private conversation with Dihyah Kalbi رضی اللہ عنہ and I did not deem it proper to interrupt you.' It was then that he informed me that he was conversing with Jibril علیہ السلام, not Dihyah Kalbi رضی اللہ عنہ.' Tirmidhi says that this had happened twice.

Shaykh Abdul Haq Muhaddith Dahlawi رضی اللہ عنہ said that other Sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم had also seen Jibril علیہ السلام in the form of Dihyah Kalbi رضی اللہ عنہ, but Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ had seen him in the angelic world while no other Sahabi رضی اللہ عنہ saw him in the angelic world, All others used to see Jibril علیہ السلام in the physical, human world,

According to one tradition, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said to Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ, "If anyone other than a Prophet or Messenger sees Jibril علیہ السلام, then his eye-sight is taken away from him. So, O Abdullah, you too will lose your eyesight, but, on the day of your death, you will get it back." Indeed, Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ had become blind. When he died and was enshrouded, suddenly a white bird appeared and disappeared into his shroud. The people tried to find it but it could not be found. Ikrimah رضی اللہ عنہ, the freedman of Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ exclaimed, "What are you looking for? That was not a bird, but it was his eyesight of which the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had said, 'It would return to you on the day of your death.'"

When Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ was placed in the grave, a voice from an unseen source called:

يٰاَيَّتُهَا النَّفْسُ الْمُطْمَئِنَّةُ ارجعى اِلٰى رَبِّكِ راضية مرضية

[O soul made tranquil, return to your lord well-pleased, well-pleasing! Enter you among My servants! And enter you My garden!] (89:27-30)

The hadith also says that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم prayed for Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ twice. The first time he embraced and prayed, "Allah, grant him wisdom." Or "Allah, teach him the Book" (see hadith # 6147).And, the second time was when he placed for him water for ablution and the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم prayed "O Allah, give him an understanding of religion" (and make him a jurist). This is as the hadith # 6148. He also prayed for him when he put his cloak on Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ and his children and prayed for them. (see hadith # 6158.)

GRANT IBN ABBAS رضی اللہ عنہ WISDOM

(٦١٦٠) وَعَنْهُ اَنَّهُ قَالَ دَعَا لِىْ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَنْ يُّؤْتِيَنِىَ اللّٰهُ الْحِكْمَةَ مَرَّتَيْنِ۔ (رواه الترمذى)

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 3822 (3848)

6160.Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم prayed for him twice that Allah should grant him wisdom.[1]

COMMENTARY: This is as the hadith (# 6147) – for wisdom, and hadith (# 6148) – for the Book. He made the two supplications at different times.

KUNYAH OF JA'FAR رحمہ اللہ

(٦١٦١) وَعَنْ اَبِیْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ كَانَ جَعْفَرٌ يُحِبُّ الْمَسَاكِيْنَ وَيَجْلِسُ اِلَيْهِمْ وَيُحَدِّثُهُمْ وَيُحَدِّثُوْنَهُ وَكَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُكَنِّيْهِ بِاَبِي الْمَسَاكِيْنَ ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

6161 Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Ja'far رحمہ اللہ loved the poor dearly. He used to sit with them and converse with them. They too talked with him (of their problems). So, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم addressed him often by the Kunyah Abu al-Masakin (friend of the poor).[2]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم called him Abu al-Masakin just as he called Ali رضی اللہ عنہ Abu Turab because he often sat and lay down on a dusty ground. It is also like calling a traveler Ibn us-Sabil (wayfarer or 'belonging to the thorough fare), or calling a sufi Abu al-waqt.

MARIT OF JA'FAR

(٦١٦٢) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ رَاَيْتُ جَعْفَرًا يَطِيْرُ فِي الْجَنَّةِ مَعَ الْمَلٰٓئِكَةِ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ حدِيثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

6162. And Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "I have seen Ja'far flying in paradise along with the angels."[3]
Tirmidhi termed this hadith gharib

COMMENTARY: Ja'far was the commander of the Muslim army in the Battle of Mutah holding their standard. He was martyred in this battle. Actually, Zayd ibn Harithah رضی اللہ عنہ was the commander of the Muslim army. When he was martyred during the battle, Ja'far رحمہ اللہ became the commander. He fought very bravely. First, he lost one hand and then the other too. After that his legs too were severed and he was then martyred. While this was happening here in Syria, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was shown this thing in Madinah that Ja'far رحمہ اللہ had two wings with which he flew in paradise along with the angels

CHIEF OF THE YOUTH OF PARADISE

(٦١٦٣) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ سعِيدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَلْحَسَنُ وَالْحُسَيْنُ سيد شَبَابِ اَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

6163.Sayyiduna . bu Sa'eed رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Hasan and Husa n are the Sayyids of the young people of paradise.[4]

---
[1] Tirmidhi # 3823(3849)
[2] Tirmidhi # 3767(3792)
[3] Tirmidhi # 3763(3788)
[4] Tirmidhi # 3768(3793)

COMMENTARY: Teebi رضی اللہ عنہ said that the hadith means that Hasan رضی اللہ عنہ and Husayn رضی اللہ عنہ are the chief of all those people of paradise who died in Allah's path at a young age. But, this opinion is debatable because they are superior even too many who died in old age. Rather, the more correct opinion is that they are the chiefs of all dwellers of paradise because all of them will be young in paradise. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and the righteous رضی اللہ عنہ caliphs are exempted. The two of them are not superior to them.
Some authorities say that here the word (شباب) 'youth' does not mean 'young of age.' But, it means 'bold' 'generous' 'noble'. They are chiefs in paradise of all bold people excluding Prophet and the righteous caliphs. Or the word (شباب) 'young' is superfluous and they are the chiefs of all dwellers of paradise. They are described 'young' out of love as a father calls his children, 'o young men!' whatever their age.

HASAN AND HUSAYN TWO FLOWERS

(٦١٦٤) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ أَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ إِنَّ الْحَسَنَ وَالْحُسَيْنَ هُمَا رَيْحَانَايَ مِنَ الدُّنْيَا۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَدْ سَبَقَ فِي الْفَصْلِ الْاَوَّلِ۔

6164.Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "surely, Hasan and Husayn are my two flower in the world." [1]
This hadith has been narrated in section I (#6145).

COMMENTARY: Sayyed Jamaluddin رضی اللہ عنہ says that by pointing out that this hadith has been narrated in section I, the compiler of Mishkah criticizes the compiler of Masabih. Mulla Ali Qari رضی اللہ عنہ, however, says that the criticism, if at all, is uncalled for because the first hadith belongs to Bukhari and has been placed in section I correctly. This one of Tirmidhi has been placed where it should be. Besides, there is a difference in the words of both.

LOVE OF HASAN AND HUSAYN

(٦١٦٥) وَعَنْ أُسَامَةَ بْنِ زَيْدٍ قَالَ طَرَقْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ذَاتَ لَيْلَةٍ فِي بَعْضِ الْحَاجَةِ فَخَرَجَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَهُوَ مُشْتَمِلٌ عَلَى شَيْءٍ لَّا أَدْرِيْ مَا هُوَ فَلَمَّا فَرَغْتُ مِنْ حَاجَتِيْ قُلْتُ مَا هٰذَا الَّذِيْ أَنْتَ مُشْتَمِلٌ عَلَيْهِ فَكَشَفَهُ فَإِذَا الْحَسَنُ وَالْحُسَيْنُ عَلَى وَرِكَيْهِ فَقَالَ هٰذَانِ ابْنَايَ وَابْنَا ابْنَتِيْ اَللّٰهُمَّ إِنِّيْ أُحِبُّهُمَا فَأَحِبَّهُمَا وَأَحِبَّ مَنْ يُّحِبُّهُمَا (رواه الترمذی)

6165. Sayyiduna Usamah ibn Zayd رضی اللہ عنہ said, "One night I went to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم for need of mine. He came out having clasped something but I could not say what it was. When I had submitted my need (for coming), I asked. 'What is this that you have clasped.' He uncovered it and behold! Hasan رضی اللہ عنہ and Husayn رضی اللہ عنہ were on his hips. He said, 'They are my sons and sons of my daughter. O Allah, I love them. So, you too love them both, and love those who love them.'" [2]

COMMENTARY: The son of one s daughter is like one's own son in the same way as the son of a son is. This hadith is also evidence that genealogy is traced from the mother too.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم made this prayer in the presence of Usamah رضى الله عنه to exhort people to love Hasnayn رضى الله عنه (the two lads, Hasan and Husayn رضى الله عنه)

DREAM OF UMM SALAMAH رضى الله عنها ABOUT HUSAYN'S MARTYRDOM

(٦١٦٦) وَعَنْ سَلْمٰى قَالَتْ دَخَلْتُ عَلٰى أُمِّ سَلَمَةَ وَهِيَ تَبْكِيْ فَقُلْتُ مَا يُبْكِيْكِ قَالَتْ رَأَيْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ تَعْنِيْ فِي الْمَنَامِ وَعَلٰى رَأْسِهٖ وَلِحْيَتِهِ التُّرَابُ فَقُلْتُ مَا لَكَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ قَالَ شَهِدْتُ قَتْلَ الْحُسَيْنِ اٰنِفًا رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

6166. Sayyidah salma رضى الله عنها (wife of Abu Rafi رضى الله عنه narrated: I went to visit Umm Salamah رضى الله عنها and found her weeping. I asked her. "Why do you weep?" she said, "I saw Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم in a dream. His head and beard were covered with dust. and I asked him: 'what has happened, O Messenger of Allah?' He said: 'I have just now seen the killing of Husayn.'"[1]
Tirmidhi termed this hadith gharib

COMMENTARY: Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضى الله عنها, the mother of the believers, died in 59AH, though some put it in 63AH. The martyrdom of Imam Husayn رضى الله عنه took place in 61AH. From this point of view, the second report that she died in 63 AH seems correct. There also is the possibility that Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضى الله عنها saw the dream before the tragedy of the martyrdom of Imam Husayn رضى الله عنه.. In that case, the words 'just now' would mean that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was shown the martyrdom in his dream at the very time.

THE PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم LOVED MOST HASAN & HUSAYN

(٦١٦٧) وَعَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ سُئِلَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَيُّ أَهْلِ بَيْتِكَ أَحَبُّ إِلَيْكَ قَالَ الْحَسَنُ وَالْحُسَيْنُ وَكَانَ يَقُوْلُ لِفَاطِمَةَ أُدْعِيْ لِيَ ابْنَيَّ فَيَشُمُّهُمَا وَيَضُمُّهُمَا إِلَيْهِ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

6167. Sayyiduna Anas رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم was asked, "which member of your household is dearest to you?" He said, "Hasan and Husayn." He used to say to Sayyidah Fatimah رضى الله عنها, "Call my two sons to me." And (when they came,) he would sniff and clasp them in an embrace.[2]
Tirmidhi termed this a gharib tradition.

TREMENDOUS LOVE FOR HASNAYN

(٦١٦٨) وَعَنْ بُرَيْدَةَ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَخْطُبُنَا إِذَا جَاءَ الْحَسَنُ وَالْحُسَيْنُ وَعَلَيْهِمَا قَمِيْصَانِ أَحْمَرَانِ يَمْشِيَانِ وَيَعْثُرَانِ فَنَزَلَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مِنَ الْمِنْبَرِ فَحَمَلَهُمَا وَوَضَعَهُمَا بَيْنَ يَدَيْهِ ثُمَّ قَالَ صَدَقَ اللّٰهُ إِنَّمَا أَمْوَالُكُمْ وَأَوْلَادُكُمْ فِتْنَةٌ نَظَرْتُ إِلٰى هٰذَيْنِ الصَّبِيَّيْنِ يَمْشِيَانِ وَيَعْثُرَانِ فَلَمْ أَصْبِرْ حَتّٰى قَطَعْتُ حَدِيْثِيْ وَرَفَعْتُهُمَا۔ (رواه الترمذى والنسائى)

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 3771(3795)
[2] Tirmidhi # 3772(3796)

6168. Sayyiduna Buraydah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated, "Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was delivering a sermon to us. Suddenly, Hasan رضی اللہ عنہ and Husayn رضی اللہ عنہ came along clad in red shirts now walking now stumbling. So, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم got down from the pulpit, carried them and made them sit in front of them. Then he said, 'Allah has spoken the truth (when He says):

انما اموالکم واولادکم فتنة

[Your riches and your children are only a trial.] (64:15)

I looked at the two little ones stumbling and (getting up and again) walking. So, I could not avoid interrupting my sermon to pick them up.'"[1]

COMMENTARY: It is allowed to one who delivers the sermon to turn his attention to a pious deed for a few moments. To show love and kindness to children is a praise worthy and mustahab deed. This action of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم during the sermon is called (تداخل في العبادة)'included in worship'. He gave a reason for this action of his which was an expression of humility. Besides, he also meant to caution his listeners that they should not cite his action as an evidence at all times. They should not make a habit of it and should not suppose that anyone may do as he had done, at all times.

(٦١٦٩) وَعَنْ يَعْلَى بْنِ مُرَّةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حُسَيْنٌ مِّنِّيْ وَاَنَا مِنْ حُسَيْنٍ اَحَبَّ اللّٰهُ مَنْ اَحَبَّ حُسَيْنًا حُسَيْنٌ سِبْطٌ مِّنَ الْاَسْبَاطِ۔ (رواه الترمذی۔)

6169.Sayyiduna Ya'la ibn Murrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Husayn is mine and I am from Husayn. Allah will love him who loves Husayn. (Or, he who loves Husayn, loves Allah.) Husayn is a sabt out of the asbat."[2] Sabt means a tribe, So, "Husayn is a tribe" meaning, he will have several descendants. It could also mean, "Husayn is my grandson." (See comments)

COMMENTARY: According to an exponent, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had perceived in advance this impending tragedy that took place about half a century later at the hands of the Yazidis who martyred Imam Husayn رضی اللہ عنہ. He mentioned only Husayn رضی اللہ عنہ saying, "I and Husayn are one though we are two bodies" He said, "Just as it is wajib to love me so too it is wajib to love him. Just as it is forbidden to dispute and fight with me, so too it is unlawful and forbidden to fight with Husayn."

The person who loves Husayn, loves Allah because loving him is like loving the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم which is like loving Allah. These words could also mean that Allah loves him who loves Husayn.

The word sabt can also be sibt. In the latter case it means 'has many descendents.' Some have put it: 'Hysayn is an ummah by himself' because of his goodness. Another translation is: 'Husayn is my offspring.' This word also means 'tribe' as in the verse of the Qur'an:

وَقَطَّعْنَا هُمُ اثْنَتَيْ عَشْرَةَ أَسْبَاطًا امما

And we divided them into twelve tribes, communities.

This could mean that Husayn رضی اللہ عنہ will be forefather of a large tribe and progeny. Allah will bless him with many off springs. They will spread and continue to remain ever. Indeed, he did have a large progeny and many of his genuine descendants survive to this day.

Shaykh Abdul Haq Muhaddith Dahlawi رضی اللہ عنہ also says that sibt is descendants. Prophet Yaqub's علیہ السلام children. Were called (اسباط) asbat (plural of sibt). This word asbat is used for Jews in the same sense as qabilah for Arabs, to mean tribes. Sabt is a tree with many branches Imam Hasan رضی اللہ عنہ is called sabt because he will have many descendants.

RESEMBLANCE TO PROPHET صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم

(٦١٧٠) وَعَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ الْحَسَنُ أَشْبَهُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا بَيْنَ الصَّدْرِ إِلَى الرَّأْسِ وَالْحُسَيْنُ أَشْبَهُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا كَانَ أَسْفَلَ مِنْ ذٰلِكَ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

6170.Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ said, "Hasan رضی اللہ عنہ resembled Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم from the chest to the head. Husayn resembled the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم below that."[1] (see hadith #6146)

COMMENTARY: The two of them together resembled the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم from head to toe.

MERIT OF FATIMAH AND HASNAYN

(٦١٧١) وَعَنْ حُذَيْفَةَ قَالَ قُلْتُ لِأُمِّي دَعِيْنِي آتِيَ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَأُصَلِّيَ مَعَهُ الْمَغْرِبَ وَأَسْأَلَهُ أَنْ يَسْتَغْفِرَ لِي وَلَكِ فَأَتَيْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَصَلَّيْتُ مَعَهُ الْمَغْرِبَ فَصَلَّى حَتّٰى صَلَّى الْعِشَاءَ ثُمَّ انْفَتَلَ فَتَبِعْتُهُ فَسَمِعَ صَوْتِي فَقَالَ مَنْ هٰذَا حُذَيْفَةُ قُلْتُ نَعَمْ قَالَ مَا حَاجَتُكَ غَفَرَ اللّٰهُ لَكَ وَلِأُمِّكَ إِنَّ هٰذَا مَلَكٌ لَمْ يَنْزِلِ الْأَرْضَ قَطُّ قَبْلَ هٰذِهِ اللَّيْلَةِ اسْتَأْذَنَ رَبَّهُ أَنْ يُسَلِّمَ عَلَيَّ وَيُبَشِّرَنِي بِأَنَّ فَاطِمَةَ سَيِّدَةُ نِسَاءِ أَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ وَأَنَّ الْحَسَنَ وَالْحُسَيْنَ سَيِّدَا شَبَابِ أَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

6171. Sayyiduna Hudhayfah رضی اللہ عنہ said, "I sought my mother's permission to go to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and offer the Salah of maghrib with him and request him to seek forgiveness for me and for her, Then, I went to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and offered the Salah of maghrib behind him, But, he remained occupied (after that) in (optional) Salah till the Salah of isha where after he moved out and I followed him, He heard my voice and asked, 'who is there? Is that Hudhayfah?' I submitted, 'yes'. He asked, 'what do you need? May Allah forgive you and your mother! This, here is an angel who has never come down to earth before this night. He asked permission of his Lord to convey greetings to me and to give me tidings that Fatimah is the chief of the women of paradise and that Hasan and Husayn are the two chiefs of the 'youth of paradise.'" (Tirmidhi classified this hadith as gharib.)[2]

COMMENTARY: Perhaps their house was at some distance from the Masjid Nabwi, so Hudhayfah's رضی اللہ عنہ mother might have disallowed him to go that far
This hadith recommends that one must engage in supererogatory Salah between Maghrib and Isha. The shaykhs describe this kind of occupation as ahya' Ma baynalisha'ayn (keeping alive that which is between the two Salah after sunset).

The coming down to earth of an angel for the first time demonstrates the significance of the purpose for which he descended.

MERIT OF THE EXCELLENT RIDER HASAN رضی اللہ عنہ

(٦١٧٢) وَعَنِ ابْنِ اَنَسٍ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حَامِلِ الْحَسَنِ ابْنِ عَلِيٍّ عَلٰى عَاتِقِهٖ فَقَالَ رَجُلٌ نِعْمَ الْمَرْكَبُ رَكِبْتَ يَا غُلَامُ فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَنِعْمَ الرَّاكِبُ هُوَ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

6172. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was carrying Hasan ibn Ali رضی اللہ عنہ on his shoulder. A man remarked, "What an excellent conveyance you are riding, O young man!" The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "And, what an excellent rider he is!"[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم described the attributes of Hasan رضی اللہ عنہ in these words.

MERIT OF USAMAH رضی اللہ عنہ

(٦١٧٣) وَعَنْ عُمَرَ اَنَّهٗ فَرَضَ لِاُسَامَةَ فِيْ ثَلٰثَةِ الْاٰفٍ وَّخَمْسِ مِائَةٍ وَفَرَضَ لِعَبْدِاللّٰهِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ فِيْ ثَلٰثَةِ الْاٰفٍ فَقَالَ عَبْدُاللّٰهِ بْنُ عُمَرَ لِاَبِيْهِ [illegible]مَلْتَ اُسَامَةَ عَلَيَّ فَوَاللّٰهِ مَا سَبَقَنِيْ اِلٰى مَشْهَدٍ قَالَ لِاَنَّ زَيْدًا كَانَ اَحَبَّ اِلٰى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مِنْ اَبِيْكَ وَكَانَ اُسَامَةُ اَحَبَّ اِلٰى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مِنْكَ فَاٰثَرْتُ حِبَّ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ عَلٰى حِبِّيْ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

6173. Sayyiduna Umar رضی اللہ عنہ (as caliph) fixed the stipend of Usamah رضی اللہ عنہ at three thousand and five hundred (annually) and of Abdullah ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ at three thousand over which Abdullah ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ protested to his father, "you have given Usamah رضی اللہ عنہ superiority over me. But, by Allah, he has never preceded me at any Mashhad (a battle ground or any place where any good is practiced)." He said, "Surely, Zayd رضی اللہ عنہ was dearer to Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم than your father and Usamah رضی اللہ عنہ was dearer to Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم than you, So, I have preferred one who was dearer to Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم over him who is dear to me."[2]

COMMENTARY: The word Mashhad means 'a place where one presents oneself where one takes part in a good.' In this hadith, it is used in the sense of 'where martyrdom may take place 'or'a battle'.

Abdullah ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ complained that Usamah رضی اللہ عنہ had a rank lower than him in learning and religious services.

Umar رضی اللہ عنہ explained to him that an extra stipend did not necessarily go to a more qualified person. The father Zayd and the son Usamah were dearer to Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and being his freedmen were members of his household.

ZAYD رضى الله عنه PREFERRED TO STAY WITH THE PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم

(٦١٧٤) وَعَنْ جَبَلَةَ بْنِ حَارِثَةَ قَالَ قَدِمْتُ عَلَى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقُلْتُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ ابْعَثْ مَعِيَ أَخِيْ زَيْدًا قَالَ هُوَذا فَإِنِ انْطَلَقَ مَعَكَ لَمْ أَمْنَعْهُ قَالَ زَيْدٌ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ وَاللّٰهِ لَا أَخْتَارُ عَلَيْكَ أَحَدًا قَالَ فَرَأَيْتُ رَأْيَ أَخِيْ أَفْضَلَ مِنْ رَأْيِيْ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

6174. Sayyiduna Jabalah ibn Harithah رضى الله عنه narrated: I came to Allah's Messenger and submitted, "O Messenger of Allah, send with me my brother, Zayd." He said, "He is here (yours)! If he does with you, I shall not stop him." But, Zayd interjected, "O Messenger of Allah, by Allah, I do not prefer anyone to you." Hence, I realized that my brother's opinion was better than mine.[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that he would not prevent Zayd رضى الله عنه from going anywhere because he had already set him free, but he would also not compel him to go away.

Jabalah رضى الله عنه heard his brother's words and conceded that his decision was superior. No one of the believers would be willing to abandon the company of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. It is a very fortunate and great auspicious opportunity to be with him.

When Zayd's رضى الله عنه brother had made the request, Zayd رضى الله عنه was no longer a slave. Zayd رضى الله عنه was independent and master of his fate.

As stated previously, Zayd ibn Harithah رضى الله عنه was from Yemen. He was enslaved by some Quraysh when he was eight years old and was sold by them to Hakim ibn Hizam who presented him to his paternal aunt Sayyidah Khadija رضى الله عنها. When she was married to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, she handed him over to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم as a gift. He adopted him as a son and married him to Sayyidah Umm Ayman رضى الله عنها his freedwomen. Usamah رضى الله عنه was born to them. Then the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم gave his cousin Sayyidah Zaynab bint Jahsh رضى الله عنها in marriage to Zayd رضى الله عنه as his second wife, but he divorced her after a few days. Some authorities say that he was twenty years younger than her.

Zayd participated in the Battle Badr and other battles thereafter.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had made him brother of Ja'far ibn Abu Talib رضى الله عنه when he had established fraternal ties among the Muhajir and ansar in Madinah.

Zayd was martyred in the Battle of Mutah in 8AH when he was 55 years old.

LOVE FOR USAMAH رضى الله عنه

(٦١٧٥) وَعَنْ أُسَامَةَ بْنِ زَيْدٍ قَالَ لَمَّا ثَقُلَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ هَبَطْتُ وَهَبَطَ النَّاسُ الْمَدِيْنَةَ فَدَخَلْتُ عَلَى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَقَدْ أُصْمِتَ فَلَمْ يَتَكَلَّمْ فَجَعَلَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَضَعُ يَدَيْهِ عَلَيَّ وَيَرْفَعُهُمَا فَأَعْرِفُ أَنَّهُ يَدْعُوْ لِيْ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

6175. Sayyiduna Usamah ibn Zayd رضى الله عنه said, "when Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم had become very weak (during the illness that led to his death), I came down to Madinah along with the others. I went to visit Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم but he had become quiet (because of his illness), He did not say anything. But, he continued to put his hands on me and raise them, so I understood that he was making a supplication for me."[1]

COMMENTARY: This what Usamah رضى الله عنه said was when the army that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had sent under his command had returned to Madinah on hearing of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم illness from their base that they had set up before proceeding.

Their base had been at a higher level. This is why Usamah رضى الله عنه said, "we came down to Madinah." Their height is called (جوف) jawf. Their kind of speech is part of Arabic idiom.

Mulla Ali Qari رحمه الله has translated these words thus! "I came down from my house (which is located in an elevated place of the city) and other people also came down from their homes to Madinah."

The love that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had for Usamah رضى الله عنه and his appreciation for his obedience prompted him to pray for Usmah رضى الله عنه. He did that even in such a painful, difficult time of his illness.

(٦١٧٦) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ اَرَادَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَنْ يُّنَحِّيَ مُخَاطَ اُسَامَةَ قَالَتْ عَائِشَةُ دَعْنِيْ حَتّٰى اَنَا الَّذِيْ اَفْعَلُ قَالَ يَا عَائِشَةُ اَحِبِّيْهِ فَاِنِّيْ اُحِبُّهٗ . (رواه الترمذى)

6176. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها narrated that the Proph صلى الله عليه وسلم intended to wipe the nose of Usamah رضى الله عنه (when he was a child). ر, she pleaded, "Let me do it." He said, "O Ayshah, love him for I love him."[2]

COMMENTARY: The prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم advised Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها that even if she did not feel naturally inclined to love Usamah رضى الله عنه, she must love him because he was dear to him. True love is what goes beyond him who is dear to those people, things, homes and lands that are connected with the dear one.

(٦١٧٧) وَعَنْ اُسَامَةَ قَالَ كُنْتُ جَالِسًا اِذْ جَآءَ عَلِيٌّ وَالْعَبَّاسُ يَسْتَأْذِنَانِ فَقَالَا لِاُسَامَةَ اسْتَأْذِنْ لَنَا عَلٰى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقُلْتُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ عَلِيٌّ وَالْعَبَّاسُ يَسْتَأْذِنَانِ فَقَالَ اَتَدْرِيْ مَا جَآءَ بِهِمَا قُلْتُ لَا قَالَ لٰكِنِّيْ اَدْرِيْ اِئْذَنْ لَهُمَا فَدَخَلَا فَقَالَا يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ جِئْنَاكَ نَسْأَلُكَ اَيُّ اَهْلِكَ اَحَبُّ اِلَيْكَ قَالَ فَاطِمَةُ بِنْتُ مُحَمَّدٍ قَالَا مَا جِئْنَاكَ نَسْأَلُكَ عَنْ اَهْلِكَ قَالَ اَحَبُّ اَهْلِيْ اِلَيَّ مَنْ قَدْ اَنْعَمَ اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَاَنْعَمْتُ عَلَيْهِ اُسَامَةُ بْنُ زَيْدٍ قَالَا ثُمَّ مَنْ قَالَ ثُمَّ عَلِيُّ بْنُ اَبِيْ طَالِبٍ فَقَالَ الْعَبَّاسُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ جَعَلْتَ عَمَّكَ اٰخِرَهُمْ قَالَ اِنَّ عَلِيًّا سَبَقَكَ بِالْهِجْرَةِ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَذُكِرَ اَنَّ عَمَّ الرَّجُلِ صِنْوُ اَبِيْهِ فِيْ كِتَابِ الزَّكٰوةِ۔

6177. Sayyiduna Usamah رضى الله عنه narrated: while I was sitting (at the door of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم), Ali رضى الله عنه and Abbas رضى الله عنه came to seek permission to enter. They said to Usamah رضى الله عنه (who was young at that time), "Ask permission for us

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 3817(3843), Musnad Ahmad # 5.201

to enter." So, I said, "O Messenger of Allah, Ali رضی اللہ عنہ and Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ seek permission to come in." He asked, "Do you know what has brought them here?" I submitted, "No," He said, "But, I know, Give them permission." They came in and said, "O Messenger of Allah, we have come to ask you which of your family members is dearest to you?" He said, "Fatimah bint Muhammad." They said, "We have not come to ask about your (closest) family (like your children and wives, but about others of your household)." He said, "The dearest to me of the members of my household is he on whom Allah has bestowed bounty and to whom I have shown favour, Usamah ibn Zayd." They asked, "Who is next?" He said, "Ali ibn Abu Talib." So, Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ pleaded, "O Messenger of Allah, you have placed your paternal uncle the last of them." He reminded him, Ali preceded you with hijrah (emigration)."[1]

COMMENTARY: Allah's bounty on Usamah رضی اللہ عنہ was that He made him to embrace Islam and be guided. The Prophet's favour was to grant him freedom and honour him with nearness to him. These favours were actually bestowed on Usamah's رضی اللہ عنہ father as are mentioned in the Qur'an, but they did reach him, too. So, both father and son were dear to him.

Then, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم named Ali رضی اللہ عنہ as the next most dear one to him. This upholds the view point of the ahlus-sunnah wa al-jama'ah that being very dear to anyone does not imply that it is [illegible]n of excellence too. Clearly, Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ is more excellent and is better than Sayyiduna Usamah رضی اللہ عنہ. Besides, the latter was dearer because of his service and obedience and the faromer because of his relationship and learning. Thus, from some angles Usamah رضی اللہ عنہ was dearer to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and from some other angles Ali رضی اللہ عنہ was dearer to him.

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said to his paternal uncle Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ that Ali رضی اللہ عنہ had preceded him in Islam and also in emigrating to Madinah. His love for Ali رضی اللہ عنہ was more than for him not because of their relationship or a natural demand, Rather, it was because of his merit and excellence.

An example of this lies in the tradition about Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ, Abu Sufyan رضی اللہ عنہ, Bilal رضی اللہ عنہ and Salman Farsi رضی اللہ عنہ who came to Umar's رضی اللہ عنہ door and asked permission to be allowed entry. When his gate-keeper announced them, he said that Bilal رضی اللہ عنہ must be allowed entrance first of all. Abu Sufyan رضی اللہ عنہ was provoked by this and he remarked about it to Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ, "How is Bilal given preference over us?" Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ reminded him, "This is because we lagged behind in embracing Islam and emigrating to Madinah."

The tradition about a man's paternal uncle being like his father is at # 1778.

HASAN RESEMBLED THE PROPHET صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم

6178. Sayyiduna Uqbah ibn Harith رضی اللہ عنہ said, "Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ offered the salah of asr. Then he went out walking. Ali رضی اللہ عنہ was with him. He saw Hasan playing with the children. He picked him p on his shoulder and said, 'May my father be ransomed to him! He resembles the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم but does not resemble Ali.' And, Ali رضی اللہ عنہ laughed (being pleased with that)."[1]

IBN ZIYAD'S INSOLENCE

(٦١٧٩) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ اُتِيَ عُبَيْدُاللّٰهِ بْنُ زِيَادٍ بِرَاْسِ الْحُسَيْنِ فَجُعِلَ فِيْ طَسْتٍ فَجَعَلَ يَنْكُتُ وَقَالَ فِيْ حُسْنِهٖ شَيْئًا قَالَ اَنَسٌ فَقُلْتُ وَاللّٰهِ اِنَّهٗ كَانَ اَشْبَهَهُمْ بِرَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَكَانَ مَخْضُوْبًا بِالْوَسْمَةِ رَوَاهُ الْبُخَارِيُّ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةِ التِّرْمِذِيِّ قَالَ كُنْتُ عِنْدَ ابْنِ زِيَادٍ فَجِيْءَ بِرَاْسِ الْحُسَيْنِ فَجَعَلَ يَضْرِبُ بِقَضِيْبٍ فِيْ اَنْفِهٖ وَيَقُوْلُ مَارَاَيْتُ مِثْلَ هٰذَا حُسْنًا فَقُلْتُ اَمَا اِنَّهٗ كَانَ مِنْ اَشْبَهِهِمْ بِرَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ صَحِيْحٌ حَسَنٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

6179. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ said, "The head of Husayn رضی اللہ عنہ (severed from his body) was brought to Ubaydullah ibn Ziyad. It was put in a dish. He (the wretched that he was) began to tap it (with his stick to show his hatred for him). Then, he said something about his beauty. So, I said, 'By Allah, he had the closest resemblance to Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم (among the ahl ul-bayt)' He was dyed with indigo.[2]

According to the version in Tirmidhi, he said, "I was with Ibn Ziyad when the head of Husayn رضی اللہ عنہ was brought to him. He tapped his nose with his stick repeatedly, saying, 'I have not seen anyone as beautiful as this man.' I said, 'Indeed, he is the one who resembles Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم most closely.'"[3]

Tirmidhi termed this hadith Sahih hasan gharib.

COMMENTARY: The version in Tabarani has that Anas رضی اللہ عنہ said, "When Ubaydullah ibn Ziyad began to poke his stick in the eyes and on the nose of Husayn رضی اللہ عنہ, and I said, ('O wretched man!) Put away your stick. I have seen Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم put his mouth at these places where you poke your stick.'"

According to Bazzar, Anas رضی اللہ عنہ said that he said to Ubaydullah ibn Ziyad, "The places that you put your stick on, I have seen Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم kiss them." On that Ibn Ziyad put away his stick.

Ubaydullah ibn Ziyad was Kufah's governor for Yazid ibn Mu'awiyah. Yazid had appointed him commander of the army that was assigned the task of slaying Husayn رضی اللہ عنہ. He had them, meaning Husayn رضی اللہ عنہ, his relatives and companions, killed mercilessly and then made fun disdainfully of his head. This was enough proof of his callousness and hardheartedness.

Then, he was subject to nature's retaliation. In 66AH in the time of Mukhtar ibn Abu Ubayd, he was consigned to death with many of his associates at Mosul at the hands of Ibrahim ibn Maalik ibn Ashtar Nakha'a.

According to Dhaka'ir, Amarah ibn Umayr reported "In the battlefield, the heads of Ibn Ziyad and his associates were severed from their bodies. Then they were brought to the Jami'Mosque of the city. I was there on the platform of the Mosque. Ibn Ziyad's head was lying there. Suddenly, the people began to shriek and say, 'It's come! It's come!' I saw a snake crawl towards the head and.quickly go into his nostril and disappear. Then it came out and went away. After a while, again there was a clam our. The snake came crawling again and quickly slithered towards the head and made its way into the nostril. After some time, it came out and went away. This strange thing happened twice or thrice again.

While the head of Husayn رضی اللہ عنہ was with him, Ibn Ziyad found some defect in its beauty. On, he jeeringly said, "How beautiful is he!" This is apparent from the version of Tirmidhi.

(٦١٨٠) وَعَنْ أُمِّ الْفَضْلِ بِنْتِ الْحَارِثِ أَنَّهَا دَخَلَتْ عَلَى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَتْ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ إِنِّيْ رَأَيْتُ حُلْمًا مُنْكَرًا اللَّيْلَةَ قَالَ وَمَا هُوَ قَالَتْ إِنَّهُ شَدِيْدٌ قَالَ وَمَا هُوَ قَالَتْ رَأَيْتُ كَأَنَّ قِطْعَةً مِّنْ جَسَدِكَ قُطِعَتْ وَوُضِعَتْ فِيْ حِجْرِيْ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ رَأَيْتِ خَيْرًا تَلِدُ فَاطِمَةُ إِنْ شَآءَ اللّٰهُ غُلَامًا يَكُوْنُ فِيْ حِجْرِكِ فَوَلَدَتْ فَاطِمَةُ الْحُسَيْنَ وَكَانَ فِيْ حِجْرِيْ كَمَا قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَدَخَلْتُ يَوْمًا عَلَى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَوَضَعْتُهُ فِيْ حِجْرِهٖ ثُمَّ كَانَتْ مِنِّي الْتِفَاتَةٌ فَإِذَا عَيْنَا رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ تُهَرِيْقَانِ الدُّمُوْعَ قَالَتْ فَقُلْتُ يَا نَبِيَّ اللّٰهِ بِأَبِيْ أَنْتَ وَأُمِّيْ مَا لَكَ قَالَ أَتَانِيْ جِبْرَئِيْلُ عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ فَأَخْبَرَنِيْ أَنَّ أُمَّتِيْ سَتَقْتُلُ ابْنِيْ هٰذَا فَقُلْتُ هٰذَا قَالَ نَعَمْ وَأَتَانِيْ بِتُرْبَةٍ مِّنْ تُرْبَتِهٖ حَمْرَآءَ۔

6180. Sayyidah Umm Fadl bint Harith رضی اللہ عنہا (wife of Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ) said that she visited Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and submitted, "O Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم of Allah, I have seen a nightmare last night." He asked, "What is it?" She submitted, "It was very frightening." He again asked, "But what is it?" She submitted, "I saw as though a piece of your body was cut off and placed in my lap." Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "you have seen that which is good. Fatimah will give birth to a son in sha Allah and he will be put in your lap."

Indeed, Fatimah رضی اللہ عنہا gave birth to Husayn رضی اللہ عنہ and he was placed in her lap just as Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had said.

Later, one day she visited Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and placed him (Husayn رضی اللہ عنہ) in his lap. After a little distraction, she turned (toward him) and observed tears dropping from the eyes of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. So, she asked, "O Prophet of Allah, my parents is ransomed to you, what has happened to you?" He said, "Jibril علیہ السلام came to me and informed me that my Ummah will kill this my son." She asked, "This son?" He said, "Yes. He also brought me a piece of red earth

(of the place where he would be martyred)."[1]

COMMENTARY: According to a tradition of Sayyidah Salma رضی اللہ عنہا, she said that she went to the mother of believers Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضی اللہ عنہا and found her weeping. She disclosed to her that she had seen the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم in a dream with his head and beard covered with dust. She asked him, "O Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم of Allah, why are you coming straight away from the place where Husayn has been martyred." Tirmidhi transmitted it, terming it gharib. Baghami also transmitted it from Hassan. (see hadith # 6166.)

DREAM OF IBN ABBAS رضی اللہ عنہ

(٦١٨١) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ اَنَّهُ قَالَ رَاَيْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيْمَا يَرَى النَّائِمُ ذَاتَ يَوْمٍ بِنِصْفِ النَّهَارِ اَشْعَثَ اَغْبَرَ بِيَدِهِ قَارُوْرَةٌ فِيْهَا دَمٌ فَقُلْتُ بِاَبِيْ اَنْتَ وَاُمِّيْ مَا هٰذَا قَالَ هٰذَا دَمُ الْحُسَيْنِ وَاَصْحَابِهِ لَمْ اَزَلْ اَلْتَقِطُهُ مُنْذُ الْيَوْمِ فَاُحْصِيَ ذٰلِكَ الْوَقْتُ فَاُجِدَ قُتِلَ ذٰلِكَ الْوَقْتَ رَوَاهُمَا الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِيْ دَلَائِلِ النُّبُوَّةِ وَاَحْمَدُ الْاَخِيْرَ۔

6181.Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ said, "At noon, one day, I saw the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم as anyone sees in his sleep. He was disheveled and covered with dust, holding a bottle containing blood. I asked, 'may my parents be ransomed to you, what is this?' He said, 'This is the blood of Husayn and his companions that I have not ceased to collect all through today.' I (remembered and) reckoned that time and found out that he was killed at that time,"[2]

(٦١٨٢) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَحِبُّوا اللّٰهَ لِمَا يَغْذُوْكُمْ مِّنْ نِعْمَةٍ وَاَحِبُّوْنِيْ لِحُبِّ اللّٰهِ وَاَحِبُّوْا اَهْلَ بَيْتِيْ لِحُبِّيْ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

6182.Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Love Allah because of the sustenance He provides you out of His bounties. And love me because of the love of Allah. And love the members of my household (ahlul-bayt) because of the love of me."[3]

COMMENTARY: Allah showers His bounties on you and thereby nourishes you. Without that, you could not have survived. The Quran says:

فَمَا بِكُمْ مِنْ نِّعْمَةٍ فَمِنَ اللّٰهِ

{And whatsoever of the blessings you have, it is from Allah...} (16:53)

In short, if you can love Allah only because He is your Nourishes, then do it, otherwise the Sufis and pious people love Him because of Himself and His attributes, we must love Him in all cases whether He bestows favours or not. This hadith in its message is like the words of Allah:

فَلْيَعْبُدُوا رَبَّ هٰذَا الْبَيْتِ

{Let them; therefore, worship the lord of this House.} (106:3)

[2] Bayhaqi in Dala'il un-Nubuwah, Musnad Ahmad 1-232

[3] Tirmidhi # 3789

If you love Allah then you should also love His messenger. He is the beloved of Allah. One must love him who is loved by one's beloved. Allah says:

قُلْ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ تُحِبُّوْنَ اللّٰهَ فاتبعونى يُحببكم الله

[Say, "if you love Allah, then follow me, Allah will love you? (3:31)

Shaykh Abdul Haq Dahlawi رحمه الله has explained (لحب الله)- 'because of love of Allah' to mean: 'love me because you love Allah,' or 'love me because Allah loves me.'

On the same count, you must love the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم ahlulbayt because he loves them. Or, it you love the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then you must love them too.

AHLULBAYT LIKE NUH'S عليه السلام ARK

(٦١٨٣) وَعَنْ أَبِي ذَرٍّ أَنَّهُ قَالَ وَهُوَ اٰخِذٌ بِبَابِ الْكَعْبَةِ سَمِعْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ اَلَا إِنَّ مِثْلَ أَهْلِ بَيْتِيْ فِيْكُمْ مِثْلُ سَفِيْنَةِ نُوْحٍ مَنْ رَكِبَهَا نَجَا وَمَنْ تَخَلَّفَ عَنْهَا هَلَكَ۔ (رواه احمد)

6183.Sayyiduna Abu Dharr رضى الله عنه said, while holding the door of the Ka'bah, "I heard the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم say, 'Know! The similitude of my ahl ul-bayt (members of my household) before you is as the similitude of the ark of Nuh عليه السلام. He who embarks it is safe and he who stays away from it is doomed.'"[1]

COMMENTARY: It is an allegorical speech to say that those who embarked on the ark survived the tempest. Those who did not were annihilated. In the same way, the members of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم household are a refuge for his ummah. Those who cling to their protection with love and those who respect them and love them and love them and emulate them, will be safe in both the worlds. But those who fail to attach themselves to them cannot be safe from destruction in both the worlds even if they spend lavishly, claim to be honourable and reputable and call on a strong support. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has compared the world and its pleasures, deceptions, disbelief and polytheism, innovation and ignorance, and immodest wishes and desires to a deep, violent ocean whose surface is turbulent with frightening waves and the atmosphere above it is covered with dark and dense clouds. It is dark all around and the ocean surrounds the lands and inhabitants menacingly.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that only he can be safe who sails in the ship of love of his ahlul-bayt. There is a subtle connexion between the words of this hadith comparing the ahlul-bayt to the ark of Nuh عليه السلام and the hadith that compares his companions رضى الله عنه to the stars. "Whichever of them you follow, you will be guided." It is in the light of this subtle link that Imam fakhruddin Razi رحمه الله has written in his Tafsir, "We, the ahlas-sunnah wa al-jama'ah have embarked the ship of love of the ahlulbayt and have been guided by the guiding stars who are the companions of Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم. So, we are safe from the terrors of the day of resurrection, darkness's and destruction in hell, and we hope to get high ranks and the perpetual blessings there."

The conclusion that is derived here is that he who did not embark the ship, at all, like the Khawarij, is among those who have perished. As for him who did embark but failed to get guidance from the stars, like the Rawafid, he is lost in the dark misguided paths so that it is impossible for him to emerge safely.

CHAPTER - XXXVII

THE EXCELLENT QUALITIES OF THE PROPHET'S صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم WIVES رضی اللہ عنهن

بَابُ مَنَاقِبِ أَزْوَاجِ النَّبِيِّ (صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ) رَضِيَ اللهُ عَنْهُنَّ

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم married Sayyidah Khadijah رضی اللہ عنها bint Khuwaylid رضی اللہ عنه in Makkah. She was his first wife. He was 25 years old and she was 40 years old. She died three years prior to the hijrah (emigration).

After her death, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم married the 50 years old Sayyidah Sawdah bint Zama'ah رضی اللہ عنها in Makkah. He to was about 50 years old,. She died in 54 AH, or according to one report in 41 AH.

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم married Sayyidah Ayshah bint Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنها in Makkah in the tenth year of prophethood when she was 6 years old. She was brought to his house in 1AH when she was 9 years old. She died in 55 AH or 58 AH.

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم married Sayyidah Hafsah bint Umar رضی اللہ عنها in 2 AH or 3 AH. She died in 41 AH or 45 AH.

He married Sayyidah Zaynab bint Khuzaymah رضی اللہ عنها in 3AH but she died within a few months in 4 AH – or, in 3 AH itself.

In 3 AH or 4 AH, he married Sayyidah Umm Salamah bint Umayyah Fakhrumi. She died in 59 AH, or 62 AH.

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم married Sayyidah Zaynab bint Jahsh in 5 AH. She died in 20 AH or 21 AH. She was the first of his wives to die after his death.

Sayyidah Umm Habibah رضی اللہ عنها was the daughter of Abu Sufyan and sister of Muawiyah. She was first married to Abdullah ibn Jahsh. Both of them emigrated to Abvyssinia from Makkah. But, there, Abdullah ibn Jahsh converted to Christianity and died there as a Christian. She remained firm on here religion, Islam. In 6 AH, the Negus (Emperor of Abyssinia) gave her in marriage to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and paid her a dower of four thousand dirhams from his own resources. Sayyidah Umm Habibah رضی اللہ عنها died in 44 AH.

Sayyidah Juwayriyah was taken captive in the Battle of Muraysi which is also known as the Battle of Banu al-Mustaliq in 6 AH. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم set her free and married her. She died in 56 AH.

Sayyidah Maymunah رضی اللہ عنها was the maternal aunt of Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنه. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم married her in 7 AH. She died in 61 AH, or 51 AH.

Sayyidah SAfiyah bint Huyayرضی اللہ عنها ibn Akhtab was taken captive in 7 AH in the Battle of Khaybar. She was 17 years old. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم set her free and married her. She died in 50 AH or 52 AH.

There are the eleven wives of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. There is an agreement on it in the light of the traditions.

There is a difference of opinion on whether he took a twelfth wife, Sayyidah Rayhanah رضی اللہ عنها. Some scholars say that she was a female slave, but others say that she belonged to a Jew family and was taken prisoner in a battle. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم set her free and married her in 6 AH.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم married all these women who are mothers of the believers. He consummated all these marriages too.
Traditions mention twenty, or more than twenty, women whom the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم married but even before the marriages could be consummated, divorce was effected.
There were some women with whom marriage was proposed, but he did not marry them.
Traditions also mention such women who were his wives. However, when the verse:

يَاَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ قُلْ لِاَزْوَاجِكَ الخ

{O Prophet, say to your wives...}(33:28)

was revealed, these women preferred the world to the hereafter and separated from him.
As for the female slaves of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, they were four. The most known of them was Mariyah Qubtiyah رضى الله عنها (Copt). The Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم son, Ibrahim, was born to her. She died in 16AH.
The other is the very Royharah رضى الله عنها bint Samun, or bint Zayd, of whom some say that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had not married her, but she was his female slave whom he had not set free. He did have sexual intercourse with her because she was his slave.
Of the other two, one was his female slave whom his wife Sayyidah Zaynab bint Jahsh رضى الله عنها had presented to him. The remaining one was taken captive in a battle.
These details have been drawn from the sharh of Mishkah by Shaykh Abdul Haq Dahlawi رضى الله عنه. He has collected it on the authority of Jami'ul-usool. There certainly is much disagreement in the relative traditions and there are varying opinions of the Ulama on these points: his number of wives, sequence of marriage to them, the years of death of those of them who died after his death, those with whom he did not consummate his marriage, the women to whom marriage was proposed but did not take place.

SECTION I الفصل الاول

MERIT OF SAYYIDAH KHADIJAH رضى الله عنها

(٦١٨٤) عَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ خَيْرُ نِسَآءِهَا مَرْيَمُ بِنْتُ عِمْرَانَ وَخَيْرُ نِسَآءِهَا خَدِيْجَةُ بِنْتُ خُوَيْلَدٍ مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ قَالَ اَبُوْ كُرَيْبٍ وَاَشَارَ وَكِيْعٌ اِلَى السَّمَآءِ وَالْاَرْضِ۔

6184. Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم say, "The best women of her Ummah is Maryam bint Imran عليه السلام, and the best women of her Ummah is Khadijah bint Khuwaylid."
According to a version Abu Kurayb رحمه الله said that Waki رحمه الله (a scholar of hadith and a contemporary of Imam Maalik رحمه الله) pointed to the heaven and earth (to indicate that both these women were the most excellent and noble of all women on earth).[1]

COMMENTARY: This hadith does not say which of these two women the better of the two is. According to Tafsir Nasfi, Sayyidah Khadijah رضى الله عنها and Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها are better than Sayyidah Maryam عليها السلام because she was not a Prophet or Messenger and it is agreed that this Ummah is better than all other Ummahs. However, the opinions of the ulama differ on this issue as also on which of the two Sayyidah Khadijah رضى الله عنه and

Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا is better.
Imam Maalik رحمہ اللہ said that Sayyidah Fatimah رضی اللہ عنہا is a piece of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and dearest of all to him, and he added, "I will not give excellent to anyone over the one who is most dear to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم."

(٦١٨٥) وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ أَتَى جِبْرَئِيْلُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ هٰذِهٖ خَدِيْجَةُ قَدْ أَتَتْ مَعَهَا إِنَاءٌ فِيْهِ إِدَامٌ أَوْطَعَامٌ فَإِذَا أَتَتْكَ فَاقْرَأْ عَلَيْهَا السَّلَامَ مِنْ رَّبِّهَا وَمِنِّيْ وَبَشِّرْهَا بِبَيْتٍ فِي الْجَنَّةِ مِنْ قَصَبٍ وَّلَا صَخَبَ فِيْهِ وَلَا نَصَبَ۔ (متفق علیه)

6185. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Jibril علیہ السلام came to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and said, "O Messenger of Allah, here is Khadijah coming to you (at the cave Hira from Makkah) with a vessel containing stew and food. When she comes to you, convey to her the salaam (greetings) from her Lord and from me. And give her glad tidings of a house in paradise of brilliant pearls where will be no clamour and no toil."[1]

COMMENTARY: This hadith pertains to the days when the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to retire to the cave Hira for days together to worship and remember Allah. He carried provision with him, food and water. One day, Sayyidah Khadijah رضی اللہ عنہا brought to him his provision and received the glad tidings. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had not been commissioned as Prophet till then and Jibril علیہ السلام had not begun to visit him. So, this visit of Jibril علیہ السلام may have been after prophethood had been bestowed on him but he may have continued his visits to Hira for some more time. Syyidah Khadijah رضی اللہ عنہا may have come on one of these days.
The ulama say that no woman in this world has been honoured by the salaam of the Lord of the worlds. Jibril علیہ السلام had once conveyed salaam to Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا too but only his own (not the Lord's). Hence, this hadith is evidence that Sayyidah Khadijah رضی اللہ عنہا was more excellent and was better.
The word (قصب) is a very large pearl that is hollow. The domes on the castles of paradise will be large pearls of the shape of domes. So, either the dome will be made of a large pearl, or the castle itself will be a mighty pearl.
There will be no clamour or noise in the castle as we hear in this world. Besides, there will be no hard work to maintain it, repairing it, etc.
The ulama say that Sayyidah Khadijah رضی اللہ عنہا was given this news particularly because of her spontaneous response to the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم invitation to Islam.

(٦١٨٦) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ مَا غِرْتُ عَلٰى أَحَدٍ مِّنْ نِّسَاءِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا غِرْتُ عَلٰى خَدِيْجَةَ وَمَا رَأَيْتُهَا وَلٰكِنْ كَانَ يُكْثِرُ ذِكْرَهَا وَرُبَّمَا ذَبَحَ الشَّاةَ ثُمَّ يُقَطِّعُهَا أَعْضَاءً ثُمَّ يَبْعَثُهَا فِيْ صَدَائِقِ خَدِيْجَةَ فَرُبَّمَا قُلْتُ لَهٗ كَأَنَّهٗ لَمْ تَكُنْ فِي الدُّنْيَا امْرَأَةٌ إِلَّا خَدِيْجَةُ فَيَقُوْلُ إِنَّهَا كَانَتْ وَكَانَتْ وَكَانَ لِيْ مِنْهَا وَلَدٌ۔ (متفق علیه)

6186. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا said, "I was never as jealous of any of the wives رضی اللہ عنہ

of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم as I was of Kahdijah رضی اللہ عنہا. I had not seen her at all, but he mentioned her very often. Many a time, he would slaughter a sheep, cut it into ieces and sent them to the friends of Khadijah رضی اللہ عنہا. I would say to him 'Perhaps there is no woman in the whole world other than Khadijah رضی اللہ عنہا? He would say, 'Indeed, she was such and like that too. Besides, I did have children from her.'"[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم confirmed that Sayyidah Khadijah رضی اللہ عنہا was such and like that, meaning like Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا had described her: unique! She was pious, ascetic, given to fasting and she kept vigil in the night. She served the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم wholeheartedly, helped him and made sure that he was comfortable. She was kind and loving. Instead of enumerating her attributes, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم chose to understate and leave it to imagination. He hinted that her attributes were beyond enumeration.

Another merit and a significant one was that she gave birth to all the children of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. None of his other wives can compare with her in this regard. None of them had a child, except Sayyidah Mariyah Qubtiyah رضی اللہ عنہا who was the mother of Ibrahim. She was the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم female slave.

As for Sayyidah Khadijah رضی اللہ عنہا, her children included such greats as Sayyidah Fatimah رضی اللہ عنہا whose merits are uncountable.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH: She was the mother of the believers, Khadijah al-Kubra رضی اللہ عنہا, daughter of Khuwaylid ibn Asad. He was famous merchant among the Arabs and a respectable, well known member of the Quraysh.

She was first married to Ibn Halah ibn Zararah. When he died, she married Atiq ibn Aa'id. Then, she married the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم at the age of 40 years. That was the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم first marriage. Neither did he marry any woman before that nor did he take a second wife during her life time.

Sayyidah Khadijah رضی اللہ عنہا has the exclusive honour of being the first Muslim, both among men and women. She died at the age of 65 years, five years before the hijrah of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم to Madinah, in Makkah. Some authorities put her death four years, or three years, before the hijrah. Their marriage lasted twenty-four years and six or five months.

MERIT OF SAYYIDAH AYSHAH رضی اللہ عنہا

(٦١٨٧) وَعَنْ اَبِي سَلَمَةَ اَنَّ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَا عَائِشُ هٰذَا جِبْرَئِيْلُ يُقْرِئُكَ السَّلَامَ قَالَتْ وَعَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ وَرَحْمَةُ اللّٰهِ قَالَتْ وَهُوَ يُرٰى مَالَا اَرٰى۔ (متفق عليه)

6187 Sayyiduna Abu Salamah رحمہ اللہ (a tabi'i) narrated that Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا told him that (once) Allah s Messenge صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم aid, "O Aysh! Here this is Jibril علیہ السلام. He off. s you salaam" She responded, "And on him be as-salaam wa rahmatullah," sa ing further, 'He could see (Jibril علیہ السلام) but I could not see (him)."[2] (salaam means 'peace' and is a greeting The r sponse is 'and on upon you be peace and the mercy of Allah.'

PROPHET'S صلى الله عليه وسلم DREAM ABOUT HER

(٦١٨٨) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ لِيْ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أُرِيْتُكِ فِي الْمَنَامِ ثَلٰثَ لَيَالٍ يَجِيْءُ بِكِ الْمَلَكُ فِيْ سَرَقَةٍ مِّنْ حَرِيْرٍ فَقَالَ لِيْ هٰذِهٖ امْرَأَتُكَ فَكَشَفْتُ عَنْ وَجْهِكِ الثَّوْبَ فَإِذَا أَنْتِ هِيَ فَقُلْتُ إِنْ يَّكُنْ هٰذَا مِنْ عِنْدِ اللّٰهِ يُمْضِهٖ. (متفق عليه)

6188. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said to her, "for three nights, I was shown yourself in a dream. You were brought in a (precious) silk cloth by an angel who said to me, 'This is your wife.' When the cloth was removed from your face, behold! You were the one! So I would say, 'If this is from Allah, He will get it done.'"[1]

COMMENTARY: According to another version, Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها said, "When Allah commanded His Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم to marry me, Jibril عليه السلام brought my picture on his palm (in the Prophet's dream)." We might say that the silk cloth which had the picture was in the hand of Jibril عليه السلام, or the picture was shown to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in both ways, either by Jibril عليه السلام both times or by another angel on the silk cloth the first time, and Jibril the second time on his palm.

As for the words 'Behold! You were the one!' they could also imply that when, after marriage, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم removed her veil, he exclaimed, 'Behold, you were the one!' the picture belonged to you.

This dream could have been before prophethood was bestowed on him, for, angles may not necessarily be seen only by Prophets عليه السلام. So, he may have wondered whether it was a true dream, otherwise, dreams of Prophets عليه السلام are always true. They are one form of revelation. If the dream was seen after prophethood then the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم words 'if it is from Allah' do not imply a doubt, but, in fact, re a confirmation that Allah would give it practical shape. Some people suggest that the words seem to ask whether the dream would materialize as shown or the contrary would turn out. Would that be in this world or the next?

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH: Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها was the daughter of Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم proposed marriage and they married three years before hijrah in Shawwal the tenth year of prophet hood. She was 9 years old when she was brought to the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم house in Madinah in Shawwal, 2 AH. Some authorities say that she was taken to his house seven months after the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم came to Madinah.

They were together for nine years. She was 18 years old when he died, of the mothers of the believers, she was the only one who was not married to anyone else before marrying the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. He did not marry and virgin apart from her.

She had a singular position as a learned, wise and perfect woman. She was a capable and extra ordinary jurist, too She remembered many of the ahadith of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and she narrated them to many sahabah and tabi'un. She had a good mind for poetry and literature and had memorized much of poetry.

She died on 17th Ramadan in 57 AH or 58 AH, or on 27th Ramadan 57 AH on the night preceding Tuesday at the age of 63 years in Madinah. She had left instructions to be buried in the night. So she was buried at night in jannat ul-Baqi.

Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه had her funeral salah. At that time Marwan was the governor of Madinah for amir Mu'awiyah.

DISTINGUISHING MERIT

6189. Sayidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها narrated that people waited for the day of Ayshah (when the Prophetصلی الله علیه وسلم was at her house) to bring their gifts to him that they might please Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم (more than otherwise).
She added that the wives of Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم were in two groups (each of like-minded women). One was made up of Ayshah رضی الله عنها, Hafsah رضی الله عنها, Safiyah رضی الله عنها and Sawdah رضی الله عنها. The other had Umm Salamah رضی الله عنها and the rest of the wives of Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم.. Those with Umm Salamah رضی الله عنها encouraged her to ask Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم to instruct the people that whoever wished to present a gift to him may present it to him at whichever house he was. She made the request and he said to her, "Do not hurt me concerning Ayshah, (Perhaps, you do know that) revelation does not come to me when I am in the blanket of any wife (of mine) except Ayshah's." She submitted, "I repent to Allah that I should annoy you, O Messenger of Allah." They (the women on the side of Umm Salamah رضی الله عنها) called Sayyidah Fatimah رضی الله عنها and inclined her to go to Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم (with the same message). She went (perhaps unaware that they had already made the request through Umm Salamah رضی الله عنها and he had turned it down). She presented their petition to him. But, he asked lher, "O my dear daughter, will you not love what I love?" She said, "Of course! (I will do so)." He said, "Then, you must love this one!"[1]
(Ayshah, and do not do anything that may pain her.)

COMMENTARY: Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها was the guide of her co-wives who were on her side. She was the dearest of his wives to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. Sayyidah Hafsah رضی اللہ عنہا bint Umar رضی اللہ عنہ was also on her side. The two of them were close friends too just as their fathers were. Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضی اللہ عنہا was the chief of those of her fellow wives who were on her side.

As for the people choosing the day of Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا to present their gifts, they did it on their own and were under no command from Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم to do so. Besides, this did not involve breach of the rights of his wives, so he gave no instructions to the people to change their practice.

It was only at the house of Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم received revelation from Allah even when he was lying under her blanket. She narrated that while they were together, covered by one blanket, the verse(56) of surah al-Qasas (28) was revealed:

إِنَّكَ لَا تَهْدِي مَنْ أَحْبَبْتَ الخ

{Surely you cannot guide whom you love....} (28:56)

And the hadith of Anas رضی اللہ عنہ about Sayyidah Ayshah's رضی اللہ عنہا superiority over women..... has been narrated in the chapter on Bada al-Khalq as narrated by Abu Musa رضی اللہ عنہ (# 5724). The compiler of as Masabih has placed it here as narrated by Anas رضی اللہ عنہ but he compiler to Mishkah has placed it in the chapter bada ul Khalq (beginning of the creation) on the authority of Abu Musa رضی اللہ عنہ.

{Abu Musa رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم aid that while many men have been perfect... only Maryam علیہا السلام.... Aasiyah ....were perfect .... and Maryam... Aysiyah ...were perfect ....and Ayshah's superiority over woman is like ......of Gharib over other feed.}[1]

COMMENTARY RESUMED ON TO 5724: As stated previously, there are varying opinion on the application of the word 'woman' in this hadith (# 5724) quated in the foregoing lines. For instance:

1. All woman as a species
2. Only the wives رضی اللہ عنہن of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم..

Again, whether they are all his wives or Sayyidah Khadijah رضی اللہ عنہا exempted.

However, the correct things seems to be that Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا is more excellent than all woman. Her perfection, In knowledge, learning and practical life which the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم compared to 'tharid.' Also make it more plausible.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH OF OTHER WIVES: We have presented some data about the wives of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم in the beginning of this chapter. We have given also a short biography of Sayyidah Khadijah رضی اللہ عنہا and and Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا. so, it seems proper that we give some information about the other wives of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم.[2]

SAYYIDAH SAWDAH رضی اللہ عنہا: She was the daughter of Zama'ah. She was first married to Sukran ibn Amr رضی اللہ عنہ ibn Abdur her paternal cousin. She was the first of the couple to embrace Islam. Then she exhorted Sukran to follow suit and he too became a Muslim. Both of them emigrated to Ethiopia (Abyssinia) where Sukran رضی اللہ عنہ died. So, after the death of Sayyidah Khadijah, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم married Sayyidah Sawdah رضى الله عنها to raise her spirits. This was in the tenth year of the prophethood. He had not married Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها till them. Sayyidah Sawdah رضى الله عنها was fifty years old at that time. Once, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was prompted by some reasons to divorce her, but when she pleaded with him, he gave up his idea. From that time on, she surrendered her day (of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم nightly visit s to her) to Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها. She died in Madinah in Shawwal 19 AH. But, other reports put her death in 54 AH, or 41 AH.

SAYYIDAH HAFSAH رضى الله عنها : She was the daughter of Umar رضى الله عنه. her mother was Zaynab bint Maz'un. She was first married to Khunays ibn Hudhafah Sahmi رضى الله عنه with whom she emigrated to Madinah. He was martyred in the Battle of Badr.

Umar رضى الله عنه intended to give her in marriage to Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه or Uthman رضى الله عنه, both of them declined. Then, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم proposed to marry her and they married in Sha'ban 3 AH. Once, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had made one pronouncement of divorce to her but then he received a revelation (before he could make the remaining two pronouncements) that she should withdraw his pronouncement because she was given to much worship, fasting and was his spouse in paradise. So, he revoked the first pronouncement of divorce.

A section of the sahabah رضى الله عنهم and tabi'un رحمه الله have narrated ahadith from her.

She died at the age of sixty in Sha'ban 45 AH Mua'wiyah was caliph. Others put her death in 41 AH or 37 AH).

SAYYIDAH ZAYNAB BINT KHUZAYMAH رحمها الله: Right from the days of ignorance (jiyhiliyah) she was known as Umm ul Masakin (Mother of the needy).

Her first husband was Aqil and second husband was Ubaydah. Then she was married to Abdulah ibn Jahsh رضى الله عنه. He was martyred in the Battle of Uhud. After that, in 3 AH, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم married her, but she died within a few months of that.

SAYYIDAH UMM SALAMAH رضى الله عنها: Her name was Hind. She was the wife of Abu Salamah رضى الله عنها Abdullah ibn Abdul Asad. He was wounded in the Battle of Uhud and could not survive and died a maratyr. That very year, or in 4 AH, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم married her. She died at the age of 84 years in Madinah in 59 AH, or 60 AH. She was buried in Al-Baqi.

SAYYIDAH ZAYNAB BINT JAHSH رضى الله عنها: Her mother, Umaymah, was the daughter of Abdul Mutallib, and the paternal aunt of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

She was first married to Zayd ibn Harithah رضى الله عنه, the freedman of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. When Zayd رضى الله عنه divorced her, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم married her.

Her real name was Barrah, but the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم changed it to Zaynab. She died at the age of 52 years, in Madinah.

Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها said of her, "I have not come across any woman better than her in religion and were fearful of Allah than her. more truthful than her and more kind to kith and kin. There was no woman who spent more wealth an devoted herself more in Allah's cause than Zaynab. رضى الله عنها.

SAYYIDAH UMM HABIBAH رضى الله عنها: Her name was Ramlah. She was the daughter of Abu Sufyan ibn sakhr. Her mother was Safiyah bint Abu al-Aas, the paternal aunt of Uthman ibn Affan. Her first husband, Ubaydullah ibn Jahsh converted to Christianity in Abyssinia and died as an apostate. In 6 AH, the Negus of Abyssinia gave her in marriage to the Propeht صلى الله عليه وسلم. She died in 44 AH in Madinah.

SAYYIDAH JURAYRIYAH رضى الله عنها: She was the daughter of Harith. She was taken captive in the Battle of Muraysi, She came to the lot of Thabit ibn Qays رضى الله عنه who had taken her as a prisoner. He made her a mukatab (whereby she could buy her (freedom). The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم paid the money and set her free. Then he married her. Her name was barrah but the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم changed it to Juwayriyah.

She died in 56 AH at the age of 65 years.

SAYYIDAH SAFIYAH رضى الله عنها: She was the daughter of Huyay ibn Akhtab ibn Shu'bah. She belonged to the sabt (or sibt) or tribe of Prophet Harun عليه السلام. She was first married to kinanah ibn Abu al-Huqayq the Jew. In the Battle of Khaybar (In Muharam 7 AH) Kinanah was killed and she was taken captive. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم chose her for himself. But some historians say that she came to share of Dihyah Kalbi رضى الله عنه but the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم bought her from him. She embraced Islam and the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم married her assigning her freedom as her dower. She died in 50 AH, and was buried in al-Baqi

SAYYIDAH MAYMUNAH رضى الله عنها: Her name was Harah but the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم changed it to Maymunah. She was first married to Masud ibn Amr Thaqafi. He divorced her after a few days. Then Abu Dirham married her when he died, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم married her at Sarf some distance from Makkah when he was on his way to perform Umrah al-qada (or the redeeming umrah). By a strange coincidence, she died at he some place sarf, in 61 AH or 51 AH.

She is the last of the wives of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم one of her sister Sayyidah Umm ul-Fadl was the wife of Abbas رضى الله عنه and mother of Abdullah ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه The other Sayyidah Asma bint Umays رضى الله عنها was the wife of Ja'far Tayyar رضى الله عنه.

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِيْ

FOUR SENIOR MOST WOMEN OF THE WORLDS

(٦١٩٠) عَنْ أَنَسٍ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ حَسْبُكَ مِنْ نِّسَآءِ الْعٰلَمِيْنَ مَرْيَمُ بِنْتُ عِمْرَانَ وَخَدِيْجَةُ بِنْتُ خُوَيْلِدٍ وَّفَاطِمَةُ بِنْتُ مُحَمَّدٍ وَّاٰسِيَةُ امْرَأَةُ فِرْعَوْنَ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

6190.Sayyiduna Anas رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "It is enough for you to know (of the merits of four) women of the women of all the worlds. They are: Maryam bint Imran, Kghadijah bint Khuwaylid, Fatimah bint Muhammad and Aasiyah wife of Fir'awn (the Pharaon)."[1]

COMMENTARY: The sequence mentioned in this hadith is exactly the sequence of their different ranks. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها is not mentioned in this hadith among the most superior women but she is mentioned a some of those in other ahadith. Also, perhaps this saying of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم may have been when she had not yet got this high position of perfection and the company of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم whereby her excellence is determined. We must keep the hadith of Abu Musa Ashary رضى الله عنه before us (# 5724) to which we have referred in the preceding lines (before the biographical sketches). It is transmitted by Ahmad رحمه الله, Bukhari رحمه الله, Muslim رحمه الله, Tirmidhi رحمه الله and Ibn Majah.

Abu Musa رحمه الله, narrated in a marfu form that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "while many men have attained perfection, yet among women only Aasiyah wife of the pharaoh, and Maryam daughter of Imran have attained perfection. And Ayshah's superiority over women is like that of tharid over other food."

Suyuti رحمه الله has written in Niqayah; "We believer that Maryam عليه السلام and Fatimah are the most superior of all women in the entire universe. And, of he wives of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم the most superior are Sayyidah Khadijah رضى الله عنها and Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنه. As for which of them surpasses the other, opinions are divided. Some name (Sayyidah) Khadijah رضى الله عنها and some (Sayyidah) Ayshah رضى الله عنها. A third opinion is to say nothing on the subject."

Mulla Ali Qari رحمه الله has reproduced the views of Suyuti رحمه الله and said, "It is not that we must say nothing about the superiority of only these two women but we must say nothing about the superiory of all the wives of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم over each other. The reason is that we have no conclusive evidence about it by which we might decide which of these women is most superior. As for the inconclusive evidences, They are contradictory and unhelpful.

MERIT OF SAYYIDAH AYSHAH رضى الله عنها

(٦١٩١) وَعَنْ عَآئِشَةَ اِنَّ جِبْرَئِيْلَ جَآءَ بِصُوْرَتِهَا فِيْ خِرْقَةٍ مِّنْ حَرِيْرٍ خَضْرَآءَ اِلٰى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ هٰذِهٖ زَوْجَتُكَ فِي الدُّنْيَا وَالْاٰخِرَةِ۔ (رواه الترمذى)

6191.Sayyidha Ayshah رضى الله عنها narrated that Jibril عليه السلام came with a picture of her on a piece of green silk for Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم, saying, "This is your wife in this world and the next."[1]

COMMENTARY: In a previous hadith (6180) the words are (خرقه من حرير), so it is not correct to say that it was a white silk cloth, unless the picture was shown to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم many times indifferent forms or, a sub narrator may have confused his words.

SAFIYAH رضى الله عنها GIVEN SOLACE

(٦١٩٢) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ بَلَغَ صَفِيَّةَ اَنَّ حَفْصَةَ قَالَتْ لَهَا بِنْتُ يَهُوْدِيٍّ فَبَكَتْ فَدَخَلَ عَلَيْهَا النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَهِيَ تَبْكِيْ فَقَالَ مَايُبْكِيْكِ فَقَالَتْ: قالت لِيْ حَفْصَةُ اِنِّيْ ابْنَةُ يَهُوْدِيٍّ فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّكِ لَابْنَةُ نَبِيٍّ وَاِنَّ عَمَّكِ لَنَبِيٌّ وَاِنَّكِ تَحْتَ نَبِيٍّ فَفِيْمَ تَفْخَرُ عَلَيْكِ ثُمَّ قَالَ اتَّقِي اللّٰهَ يَا حَفْصَةُ۔ (رواه الترمذى والنسائى)

6192. Sayyiduna Anas رضى الله عنه narrated that Sayyidah Safiyah had learnt that Sayyidah Hafsah رضى الله عنها commented (disparagingly about her), "daughter of a Jew." So, she wept Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم came to her and found weeping. He asked her. "Why do you weep?" She complained,. "Hafsah says about me that I am a Jew's daughter." The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "And you are the daughter of a Prophet. Your uncle was a Prophet. And, You aer married

(now) to a Prophet. So of what does she boast over you?" Then, he said (cautioning Hafsah). "Fear Allah O Hafsah!"[1]

COMMENTARY: Sayyidah Safiyah's رضی اللہ عنہا father Huyay ibn Akhtab was a descendant of the Prophet Harun علیہ السلام who was brother of Prophet Musa علیہ السلام Hence, her forefather was a Prophet and her uncle too was a Prophet.

Or, he may have spoken the words in reference to her great grandfather Prophet Ishaq علیہ السلام describing Sayyidah Safiyah رضی اللہ عنہ as daughter of Prophet Ishaq علیہ السلام and so calling prophet Ismail علیہ السلام her uncle.

Add to that she was wife of a prophet too. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم intention was to comfort Sayyidah Safiyah رضی اللہ عنہ and raise her spirits. His intention was not to lower the merit of his other wives, because Sayyidah Safiyah رضی اللہ عنہ was not the only one who possessed noble lineage. His other wives, to, shared this distinction with her, for hey too, are offspring's of Prophet Ismail علیہ السلام, brother of Propeht Ishaq علیہ السلام. Besides all of them were wives of a Prophet.

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم cautioned Sayyidah Hafsah رضی اللہ عنہا that he ought not to have spoken such words against Sayyidah Safiyah رضی اللہ عنہا. The smacked of the jahiliyah (or days of ignorance before Islam). Allah never likes such conduct.

ABOUT SAYYIDAH MARYAM BINT IMRAN علیہا السلام

(٦١٩٣) وَعَنْ أُمِّ سَلَمَةَ أَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ دَعَا فَاطِمَةَ عَامَ الْفَتْحِ فَنَاجَاهَا فَبَكَتْ ثُمَّ حَدَّثَهَا فَضَحِكَتْ فَلَمَّا تُوُفِّيَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ سَأَلْتُهَا عَنْ بُكَائِهَا وَضِحْكِهَا فَقَالَتْ أَخْبَرَنِيْ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَنَّهُ يَمُوْتُ فَبَكَيْتُ ثُمَّ أَخْبَرَنِيْ أَنِّيْ سَيِّدَةُ نِسَاءِ أَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ إِلَّا مَرْيَمَ بِنْتَ عِمْرَانَ فَضَحِكْتُ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

6193.Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated, "In the year of the conquest, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم sent for Fatimah رضی اللہ عنہا. HE confined with her and she wept. Then he said something to her and she laughed. Later after Allah's Messenger died. I asked her about her weeping and her laughing. She disclosed;. Allah's Messenger informed me of his impending death, So I wept, then he informed me that I was to be the chief of the women of paradise, apart from Maryam علیہ السلام, the daughter of Imran. So, I laughed."[2]

COMMENTARY: In a previous hadith (# 6138), narrated by Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا. Sayyidah Fatimah رضی اللہ عنہا had said that she laughed because the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had confided to her that she would be the first of the members of his household to meet him. This does not in any way contradict this hadith (6193).

However, Sayyidah Umm Sulaym's رضی اللہ عنہا placing this event in the year of the conquest is a great error. It took place during the farewell pilgrimage or during the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم illness that led to his death.

[2] Tirmidhi # 3873 (3899) also # 3893 (3919)

It is difficult to understand why this hadith is placed in this chapter. It belongs to the previous one about the excellences of the member of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم household (like # 6138) perhaps it is placed here to complement the hadith (# 6190) of Anas رضى الله عنه mentioning the supreme women of the worlds. It is also possible that this hadith under discussion is placed in this chapter in the light of certain traditions that Sayyidah Maryam عليها السلام would be a wife of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in paradise.

KNOWLEDGE OF SAYYIDAH AYSHAH رضى الله عنها

(٦١٩٤) عَنْ اَبِيْ مُوْسٰى قَالَ مَا اشْتَكَلَ عَلَيْنَا اَصْحَابَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حَدِيْثٌ قَطُّ فَسَأَلْنَا عَآئِشَةَ اِلَّا وَجَدْنَا عِنْدَهَا مِنْهُ عِلْمًا رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ صَحِيْحٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

6194.Sayyiduna Abu Musa رضى الله عنه said, "whenever we, the Sahabah of Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم, were uncertain about a hadith (or a verdict on a religious issue), we turned to (Sayyidah) Ayshah رضى الله عنها (for redressed) and always found that she did have knowledge bout it."[1]

Tirmidhi termed this hadith hasan sahih gharib.

COMMENTARY: Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها had acquired abundant knowledge from the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and she possessed a strong power of judgement. So, she was able to solve difficulties on various kind of judgement and understanding religious questions and ahadith.

FLUENT ELOQUENT

(٦١٩٥) وَعَنْ مُوْسٰى بْنِ طَلْحَةَ قَالَ مَارَاَيْتُ اَحَدًا اَفْصَحَ مِنْ عَآئِشَةَ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ صَحِيْحٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

6195.Sayyiduna Musa ibn Talhah رحمه الله (a tabi'i) said, "I did not find anyone whose speech was more fluent than of (Sayyidah) Ayshah رضى الله عنها."[2]

Tirmidhi termed it hasan sahih gharib.

COMMENTARY: Ibn Talhah رحمه الله spoke these words to praise the fine qualities or Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها, or he did, indeed, really find her speech unmatched in fluency.

CHAPTER - XXXIX

THE EXCELLENT QUALITIES OF SOME WELL-KNOWN SAHABAH رضی اللہ عنہ

باب جامع المناقب

The compiler has not specified in this chapter any particular section and has not created separate chapters for them. Rather, he has grouped together the ahadith on the merits and excellences for certain well-known sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم

They include the righteous caliphs, the ahl ul bayt (or members of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم household), the ashrah mubashsharah (or ten given tidings of paradise) and the noble wives of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. There are the muhajirs as well as the ansar, and other sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم, too.

اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

(٦١٩٦) عَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ رَأَيْتُ فِي الْمَنَامِ كَاَنَّ فِي يَدِيْ سَرَقَةً مِنْ حَرِيْرٍ لَا اَهْوِيْ بِهَا اِلٰى مَكَانٍ فِي الْجَنَّةِ اِلَّا طَارَتْ بِهِ اِلَيْهِ فَقَصَصْتُهَا عَلٰى حَفْصَةَ فَقَصَّتْهَا حَفْصَةُ عَلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ اِنَّ اَخَاكَ رَجُلٌ صَالِحٌ اَوْاِنَّ عَبْدَاللّٰهِ رَجُلٌ صَالِحٌ۔ (متفق عليه)

6196.Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ said, "I saw in a dream as though I had in my hand a piece of silk. I never intended to go to any place in paradise but it flew me there with it. I related this dream to (my sister) Hasah رضی اللہ عنہا. She related it to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. He said, "Surely, your brother is a righteous man,' or (he said) Abdullah is a righteous man.'[1]

COMMENTARY: The pious deeds of Abdullah ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ are represented by the piece of silk. They take him to the high ranks of paradise.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH: He was the son of Umar Faruq رضی اللہ عنہ. He was born one year before the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was commissioned. He embraced Islam at an early age with his father in Makkah. He participated in all battles after the Battle of Trench. He was considered to be perfect in learning, wisdom, piety and asceticim.

Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ used to say, "There is no one among us when the world did not attract to it and he learned to it, but not Umar and his son Abdullah."

Sayyiduna Nafi رحمہ اللہ said that the slaves whom Abdullah ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ set free during his life time numbered one thousand. He added "Rather, more that that."

He had a singular distinction among the those who obeyed and loved the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم.

Whenever he performed hajj, he was particular to precede the pilgrims to all those places where the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to stop.

It is reported that one day Hajjaj ibn Yusuf procrastinated in offering the salah of Fajr, or of asr, Abdullah ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ said to him, "Do not delay the salah, for the sun will not wait for you." Hajjaj was annoyed by these words and exploded with rage, "I feel like putting your eyes out." Or, he said "I am inclined to severe your head." Abdullah رضی اللہ عنہ said, "If you do that, would not be surprising, because you are a foolish dictator subjugating us." Some people say that Abdullah رضی اللہ عنہ spoke these words softly so that Hajjaj did not hear him. Anyway Hajjaj was severely infuriated and had the spear of Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ taken away. Then he had stones hurled at him while he was on the road and had him struck on the back of his feet with a poisoned weapon. The result was that Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ feel seriously ill and died after a few days. This happened three months after the tragic martyrdom of Ibn Zubayr رضی اللہ عنہ in 73 AH. Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ was 84 years old at that time. He was buried in Dhu Tuwa (ذی طوی).

MERIT OF ABDULLAH IBN MAS'UD رضی اللہ عنہ

(٦١٩٧) وَعَنْ حُذَيْفَةَ قَالَ إِنَّ أَشْبَهَ النَّاسِ دَلًّا وَسَمْتًا وَهَدْيًا بِرَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَابْنُ أُمِّ عَبْدٍ مِنْ حِيْنَ يَخْرُجُ مِنْ بَيْتِهٖ إِلٰى أَنْ يَّرْجِعَ إِلَيْهِ لَا نَدْرِيْ مَا يَصْنَعُ فِيْ أَهْلِهٖ إِذَا خَلَا۔ (رواه البخاری)

6197.Sayyiduna Hudhayfah رضی اللہ عنہ said, "Surely, he who resembles Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم most closely in gait, way of living and conduct is Ibn Umm Abd from the time he emerges from his house till the time he returns to it, But, we cannot say how he conducts himself. with his family, or when he is alone."[1]

(Ibn Umm Abd is Abdullha ibn Mas'ud.) رضی اللہ عنہ

COMMENTARY: The kunyah of the mother of Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ was Umm Abd. So, he was Ibn Umm Abd (Ibn meaning son of).

Some authorities say that (دل) translated 'gait' means 'kind temperament.' He was dignified, serious. He was pious and righteous.

These were his outward traits as known to everyone. As for his inner condition, only Allah knows that.

(٦١٩٨) وَعَنْ أَبِيْ مُوْسَى الْأَشْعَرِيِّ قَالَ قَدِمْتُ أَنَا وَأَخِيْ مِنَ الْيَمَنِ فَمَكَثْنَا حِيْنًا مَا نُرٰى إِلَّا أَنَّ عَبْدَ اللّٰهِ بْنَ مَسْعُوْدٍ رَجُلٌ مِّنْ أَهْلِ بَيْتِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِمَا نَرٰى مِنْ دُخُوْلِهٖ وَدُخُوْلِ أُمِّهٖ عَلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ۔ (متفق علیه)

6198. Sayyiduna Abu Musa رضی اللہ عنہ Al-Ash'ary رضی اللہ عنہ said, "I and my brother came from Yemen (to Madinah) and stayed (at the house of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم) for a length of time, during which we had no doubt but that Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ was a member of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم household. This was because we saw how often he and his mother came to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم."[2]

(This translation stayed at the house of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم is as in the Urdu text, otherwise the English translation of Bukhari and Muslim do not mention staying at the Prophet's house: For quite some time the brothers took Abdullah to be a member of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم house hold).

COMMENTARY: According to a tradition the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had authorized Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضى الله عنه "When you see any men with me, You may come in without asking permission to enter."

According to another version, Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضى الله عنه said "the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said to me 'when the curtain is not drawn and you hear my voice, that itself is your permission to enter. As long as I do not forbid you, you may come in, without asking permission."

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH: His Kunyah was Abu Abdur Rahman. He was a Hadhali and known by the sobriquet of Sahib us-Siwad waas-siwak (keeper of cushion and tooth stick) He was a very early Muslim, even before the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had moved to Dar ul Arqam. Umar had not embraced Islam till then, It is said that Ibn Mas'ud رضى الله عنه was the sixth Muslim. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم kept him close to him and assigned to him assorted tasks like keeping the siwak handy, helping the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم put on his sandals, looking after his cushion and vessel of water for his ablution during journeys. When the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had his bath, he stood ahead to screen him from view.

Abdullah ibn Mas'uid رضى الله عنه had emigrated to Abyssinia first and then to Madinah. He participated in the Battle for Badr and other battles and expeditions.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had given him tidings of admittance to paradise. He had said, "I like for my ummah whatever Ibn Umm Abd likes and I do not like for my ummah whatever Ibn Umm Abd dislikes.

He had a whitish complexion. He was very lean and so very short statured that a seated tall man's head would be level with his while he stood next to him.

Umar رضى الله عنه Furqan had appointed him, during his caliphate, judge of Kufah and head of its state Treasury. He retained these assignments till the initial days of Uthman's رضى الله عنه caliphate after which he returned to Madinah where he died in 32 AH when he was slightly above sixty years of age.

The ahadith that he had narrated have been transmitted by a large number of the sahabah رضى الله عنهم and tabi'un رحمه الله among whom are Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه, Umar رضى الله عنه and Uthman رضى الله عنه.

The ulama say that, with the exception of the four caliphs, Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضى الله عنه was the most superior jurist of all the sahabah.

FOUR SAHABAH RECOMMENDED AS TEACHER OF QURAN

(٦١٩٩) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اسْتَقْرِؤُا الْقُرْاٰنَ مِنْ اَرْبَعَةٍ مِّنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ وَّسَالِمٍ مَوْلٰى اَبِيْ حُذَيْفَةَ وَاُبَيِّ ابْنِ كَعْبٍ وَّ مُعَاذِ بْنِ جَبَلٍ۔ (متفق عليه)

6199.Sayyiduna Abdulah ibn Amr رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Get these four men to recite the Quran to you (and acquire it from them): Abdullah ibn Mas'ud, saalim the freedman of Abu Hudhayfah, Ubayy ibn Ka'b. and Mu'adh ibn Jabal."[1]

COMMENTARY: These four remarkable sahabah رضى الله عنهم had acquired the Quran directly from the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم while the other shabah رضى الله عنه had learnt it from them and from each other.

---

The four of them had retained the Quran in memory and were also great qaris (reciter of the Quran learned in the science of recital). The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم let them know of their distinction.

SAALIM رضی اللہ عنہ: He was Saalim ibn Ma'qil رضی اللہ عنہ. He was the freedman of Abu Hudhayfah ibn Uthbah ibn Rabi'ah ibn Abd Shams. He belonged to Istarakh or Istakhar (ancient name of persopolis) in Iran. He is counted among the meritorious and glorious sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم He had participated in the Battle of Badr, and had the honoour of leading those muhajirs in congressional salah who had emigrated to Madinah before the arrival there of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم though Umr رضی اللہ عنہ and Abu Salamah رضی اللہ عنہ were among them.

The name of Abu Hudhayfah رضی اللہ عنہ was Hisham. He was one of the great, learned sahabah and the earliest muhajirs. He had embraced Islam even before the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had moved to Dar ul Arqam.

UBAYY IBN KA'B رضی اللہ عنہ: He is one of the ansar sahabah, and a prominent reciter of the quran. He was called sayyid ul qurra (chief of the reciters of he Quran0. Umar رضی اللہ عنہ used to call him sayyid ul Muslimeen (the chief of the Muslim). He was a scribe of the revelation received by the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم.

MU'ADH IBN JABAL رضی اللہ عنہ:He too was an ansar. His merits and excellent qualities are very many, uncountable. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had established bonds of fraternity between him and Abdulah ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ.

MERIT OF IBN MAS'UD رضی اللہ عنہ AMMAR رضی اللہ عنہ AND HUDHAYFAH رضی اللہ عنہ

(٦٢٠٠) وَعَنْ عَلْقَمَةَ قَالَ قَدِمْتُ الشَّامَ فَصَلَّيْتُ رَكْعَتَيْنِ ثُمَّ قُلْتُ اَللّٰهُمَّ يَسِّرْ لِيْ جَلِيْسًا صَالِحًا فَاَتَيْتُ قَوْمًا فَجَلَسْتُ اِلَيْهِمْ فَاِذَا شَيْخٌ قَدْ جَاءَ حَتّٰى جَلَسَ اِلٰى جَنْبِيْ قُلْتُ مَنْ هٰذَا قَالُوْا اَبُوْدَرْدَاءِ قُلْتُ اِنِّيْ دَعَوْتُ اللّٰهَ اَنْ يُّيَسِّرَ لِيْ جَلِيْسًا صَالِحًا فَيَسَّرَكَ لِيْ فَقَالَ مَنْ اَنْتَ قُلْتُ مِنْ اَهْلِ الْكُوْفَةِ قَالَ اَوَلَيْسَ عِنْدَكُمْ ابْنُ اُمِّ عَبْدٍ صَاحِبُ النَّعْلَيْنِ وَالْوِسَادَةِ وَ الْمِطْهَرَةِ وَفِيْكُمُ الَّذِيْ اَجَارَهُ اللّٰهُ مِنَ الشَّيْطٰنِ عَلٰى لِسَانِ نَبِيِّهٖ يَعْنِيْ عَمَّارًا اَوَلَيْسَ فِيْكُمْ صَاحِبُ السِّرِّ الَّذِيْ لَا يَعْلَمُهٗ غَيْرُهٗ يَعْنِيْ حُذَيْفَةَ۔ (رواه البخاری)

6200. Sayyiduna Alqamah (a tabi'i) said, 'I come to Syria and offered two raka'at salah (in Jami mosque of Damascus). Then I made a supplication: 'O Allah, let me have a pious companion.' I then joined some people when suddenly a venerable shaykh came and sat down beside me. I asked (the others). 'who is he?' They said. Abu Darda. I said (to him overjoyed as I was). 'I had prayed to Allah to let me have a pious companion and He has given me your company.' He asked, 'Who are you?' I said, I am a citizen of kufah,' He asked, 'Is there not among you Ibn Umm Abd (Abdullah ibn Mas'ud) رضی اللہ عنہ who was responsible for the (prophet's) sandals, pillow and vessel of water for ablution? And, is there not among you whom Allah protected from the devil by means of the tongue of His prophet (meaning, Ammar), And, is there not among you (he who has the honour of being the confident of the Prophet whose secrets no one know beside him?"[1]

COMMENTARY: Allah answered the supplication of Alqamah رحمه الله forthwith and Abu Darda came next to him. We must bear I mind the tradition;

ان لله ملائكة تجر الاهل الى الاهل

Surely allah has angels who lead people to each other. (They draw them closer.)
He said to him that Ibn Mas'ud was Prophet's personal assistant. When the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم intended to sleep, Ibn Mas'ud رضی الله عنه brought him the pillow. When he woke up, he brought him water for ablution and always carried a vessel during journeys. So, Abu Darda رضی الله عنه advised Alqamah رحمه الله that no student and novice need by pass Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضی الله عنه and look for another teacher. This confirms the adage that a student must first acquire knowledge from the scholar in his own city in a perfect way. Having done that, If he needs to learn more, than he must travel to another city and endure the ordeals of the journey. At the same time, if a scholar knows of another scholar more learned than him, then he must direct the student to him.
AMMAR رضی الله عنه: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم called Ammar رضی الله عنه 'pure' and 'purified' or ' perfume' and perfumed.' He gave him glad tidings of entry into paradise. The enemies of Islam used to persecute him severely. Once, he was thrown into fire and the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "O fire cool down for Ammar as you had cooled down for Ibrahim عليه السلام, the khalil (trend) of Allah, and be peace for him." Once, he said to Ammar رضی الله عنه, "Some rebels will kill you, You will call them to paradise but they will try to take you to the fire." In these words, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم exhorted him to be steadfast on the right path, and not allow the devil to tempt him. This is what Abu Darda رضی الله عنه meant when he said that Allah has preserved him from the devil through the means of His Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم tongue.
Ammar's رضی الله عنه father was Yasir رضی الله عنه. His mother was Sumayyah رضی الله عنها Yasir رضی الله عنه belonged to Yemen but had settled in Makkah where he made a sworn friendship (known as hilf) with Abu Hudhayfah ibn Mughirah رضی الله عنه who belonged to Banu Muakhzum. He also married his female slave Sumayyah رضی الله عنها Ammar رضی الله عنه was born to them whereafter Abu Hudhayfah رضی الله عنه set them free. This is why Ammar رضی الله عنه is called the freedman of Banu Makhzum.
Ammar ibn Yasir is among those who had preceded others in embracing Islam. But, he was among those weak Muslim whom the infidels tortured mercilessly to compel them to renounce their new religion. Rather, he was the most persecuted of all of them The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم would came to him, stroke him and pray.

یا نار کونی بردا وسلاما علی عمار کما کنت علی ابراھیم

"O fire become cool and peace for Ammar as you had become for Ibrahim."
Ammar رضی الله عنه was among the first muhajir (emigrants). He participated in the Battle of Badr and All other battles. He was martyred in 37 AH in the Battle of Siffin while fighting on the side of Sayyiduna Ali رضی الله عنه. He was 93 years old then.
HUDHAYFAH رضی الله عنه: He is called the keeper of the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم secrets, because the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had confided in him such confidential matters as are not generally disclosed to anyone. One such secret was the names of the hypocrites, their ancestry and kinds of their hypocrisy. So, he was very well aware about one who is not a perfect, sincere Muslim, It is reported that once Umar رضی الله عنه, who was then the caliph, asked him, "Do you find any sign of hypocrisy in me?" He said, "By Allah, no! But, some people say that your meals comprise of many kinds colourful food. So, this was investigated and it was found that eggs were placed at your meals and when their shells were removed, they gave out yellow and red yoke and white albumen. These were the different colours that deceived some people into believing that you were served diverse dishes at your meals." Hudhayfah رضی اللہ عنہ died in 35 AH at Mada'in. He was buried there.

MERITS OF MOTHER OF ANAS رضی اللہ عنہ & OF BILAL رضی اللہ عنہ

(٦٢٠١) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اُرِيْتُ الْجَنَّةَ فَرَاَيْتُ امْرَاَةَ اَبِيْ طَلْحَةَ وَسَمِعْتُ خَشْخَشَةً اَمَامِيْ فَاِذَا بِلَالٌ۔ (رواہ مسلم)

6201.Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "I was shown paradise. There I saw the wife of Abu Talhah (Umm sulaym, mother of Anas). Then, I heard ahead of me a susurration (of footsteps) and there was Bilal!"[1]

COMMENTARY: The mother of Anas رضی اللہ عنہ was Umm Sulaym رضی اللہ عنہ but her name is not known definitely. She was married first to Maalik ibn Nadr. Anas رضی اللہ عنہ was born to them. Maalik ibn Nadr was a polytheist and died as such. Then, she became a Muslim and Abu Talhah رضی اللہ عنہ proposed marriage to her but was not a Muslim. So, she rejected his proposal and invited him to become a Muslim. He did so and they married. She said, "I give myself up to you your wife in return for your Islam. Your Islam is my dower رضی اللہ عنہ.

BILAL رضی اللہ عنہ: He was the son of Abu Ribah. Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ had set him free. He was a very early Muslim and he was the first one to declare his Islam in Makkah before everyone else. He was the chief mu'adhdhin of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. He had taken part in the Battle of Badr and thereafter every jihad. Finally, he emigrated to Syria where he died in 20 AH at Damascus. He was buried in the graveyard Baab us Saghir. He was 63 years old when he died. He had no one to succeed him. A section of the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم and tabi'un رحمہ اللہ have transmitted ahadith from him. He too was one of them who was severely persecuted by the infidels of Makkah among whom Umayyah ibn Khalaf caused him much hardship. As destiny would have it, Bilal رضی اللہ عنہ was the one who killed him in the Battle of Badr. Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ said that Umar رضی اللہ عنہ used to say (ابوبکر سیدنا واعتق سیدنا) "Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ is our chief. And, he set free our chief (Bilal) رضی اللہ عنہ

Imam Ahmad رحمہ اللہ has stated in his Musnad that seven people preceded others in announcing their Islam. They are:

Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم Abu Bakr, رضی اللہ عنہ Ammar رضی اللہ عنہ, his mother Summayah رضی اللہ عنہ, Suhayb رضی اللہ عنہ, Bilal رضی اللہ عنہ and Miqdad رضی اللہ عنہ.

Allah protected His Messenger through his uncle Abu Talib from the persecution of the enemies of Islam.

Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ had the protection of his tribe. But, the remaining five were weak and helpless, so that idolaters earmarked them for their persecution. They punished them in a savagely manner. They made them wear iron fetters and put them in the hot sun. then Allah had all of them, except Bilal رضی اللہ عنہ released from victimization and made them honourable. Bilal رضی الله عنه continued to be helpless. He had no one to help him out. Rather, they increased their pressure on him. Vagabonds of Makkah were set against him. They bound him in ropes and dragged him through the streets of Makkah, but he had on his tongue only (احد) – (احد) – Allah is one! Allah is one!

---

WHOM THE QURAYSH DESPISED

(٦٢٠٢) وَعَنْ سَعْدٍ قَالَ كُنَّا مَعَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ سِتَّةَ نَفَرٍ فَقَالَ الْمُشْرِكُونَ لِلنَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اُطْرُدْ هٰؤُلَاءِ لَا يَجْتَرِءُونَ عَلَيْنَا قَالَ وَكُنْتُ أَنَا وَابْنُ مَسْعُودٍ وَرَجُلٌ مِّنْ هُذَيْلٍ وَّبِلَالٌ وَرَجُلَانِ لَسْتُ أُسَمِّيْهِمَا فَوَقَعَ فِيْ نَفْسِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَاشَاءَ اللّٰهُ اَنْ يَّقَعَ فَحَدَّثَ نَفْسَهٗ فَأَنْزَلَ اللّٰهُ وَلَا تَطْرُدِ الَّذِيْنَ يَدْعُوْنَ رَبَّهُمْ بِالْغَدَاةِ وَالْعَشِيِّ يُرِيْدُوْنَ وَجْهَهٗ۔ (رواه مسلم)

6202.Sayyiduna Sa'd رضی الله عنه narrated, we were six people with the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم (when he intended to speak to the chiefs of the Quraysh, but the idolaters demanded, 'Remove these (despised) people and forbid them to (have the cheek to) mingle with us."

Sa'd رضی الله عنه added, "There were besides me, Ibn Mas'ud a man of Hudhay! Bilal رضی الله عنه and two other whom I will not name. Then, when Allah willed came to the mind of Allah's Messenger. So while he nominated over it, Allah, the Exalted revealed:

وَلَا تَطْرُدِ الَّذِيْنَ يَدْعُوْنَ رَبَّهُمْ بِالْغَدَاةِ وَالْعَشِيِّ يُرِيْدُوْنَ وَجْهَهٗ

{And do not expel those who call their Lord morning and evening seeking His pleasure}[1] (6:52)

COMMENTARY: He did not name the two men because there was some logic in not disclosing them at that time. They were Khabbab ibn Arat رضی الله عنه and Ammar ibn Yasir رضی الله عنه. some people allege – but this possibility is remote – that he had forgotten their names. The prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم was thinking over the demand of the idolaters from the point of view that they might enter the folds of Islam if he conceded to their demand, but he also know that it would be very insulting to sincere Muslims. So, he was trying to find a way out. But, Allah revealed the verse whereby the honour and respect of the poor Muslims was violated.

MERIT OF ABU MUSA ASH'ARY رضی الله عنه

(٦٢٠٣) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ مُوْسٰى اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَهٗ يَا اَبَا مُوْسٰى لَقَدْ اُعْطِيْتَ مِزْمَارًا مِّنْ مَّزَامِيْرِ آلِ دَاوُدَ۔ (متفق علیه)

6203.Sayyiduna Abu Musa رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said to him. "O Abu Musa, you have been granted a sweet voice that is a portion of the sweet voice of Dawud علیه السلام."[2]

COMMENTARY: The Arabic word is (مزمار) Mizmar. It is a musical; instrument, like a pipe, and implies singing while playing a musical instrument. In this hadith, however, it means ' a sweet voice.'

The words (آل داود) –descendants of Dawud رضی اللہ عنہ means Dawud علیہ السلام himself. The word (آل) is superfluous, because only Prophet Dawud علیہ السلام is known for his sweet voice, not his descendants. Some authorities say that here (آل) is used for one person and he is Prophet Dawud علیہ السلام. He had a very sweet and melodious voice.

Allah granted a sweet, pleasant voice to Abu Musa Ash'ary رضی اللہ عنہ too. When eh recited the Quran, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم listened to him with immense love.

ABU MUSA رضی اللہ عنہ:His name was Abdullah ibn Qays Ash'ary رضی اللہ عنہ. Abu Musa was his kunyah. He had embraced Islam in Makah and was one of those who had emigrated to Abyssinia. He returned from there to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم when he was at Khaybar. In 20 AH. Umar رضی اللہ عنہ appointed him governor of Busrah and he retained the post till the early days of Uthman's caliphate. Then, he was discharged and he moved to Kufah. When the people of Kufah showed their governor, Sa'eed ibn Aas رضی اللہ عنہ, the door and requested Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ to appoint Abu Musa رضی اللہ عنہ their governor, he conceded to their request and instated him as governor of Kufah. But, after Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ was martyred. Ali رضی اللہ عنہ dismissed him. Then, after the arbitration[1].

Abu Musa رضی اللہ عنہ moved to Makkah where he died in 52 AH.

(As for his emigration to Abyssinia, the facts are that he had gone to yemen to his tribe Ashar. When they learnt of the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم emigration to Madinah , they took a ship to Madinah to join him but the unfiriendly winds diverted their ship to land at Abyssinia where they met Ja'far رضی اللہ عنہ, with him they came to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم when he was at khaybar.)

FOUR WHO HAD COMMITTED THE QURAN TO MEMORY

(٦٢٠٤) وَعَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ جَمَعَ الْقُرْاٰنَ عَلٰى عَهْدِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَرْبَعَةٌ أُبَيُّ بْنُ كَعْبٍ وَمَعَاذُ بْنُ جَبَلٍ وَزَيْدُ بْنُ ثَابِتٍ وَأَبُوْ زَيْدٍ قِيْلَ لِأَنَسٍ مَنْ أَبُوْ زَيْدٍ قَالَ أَحَدُ عُمُوْمَتِيْ۔ (متفق علیہ)

6204.Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ said, "In the time of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم the Quran was gathered together (meaning committed, to memory) by four (sahabah): Ubayy ibn Ka'b رضی اللہ عنہ Mu'adh Ibn Jabal رضی اللہ عنہ, Zayd ibn Thabit رضی اللہ عنہ and Abu Zayd رضی اللہ عنہ."

Anas رضی اللہ عنہ was asked, "who is Abu Zayd رضی اللہ عنہ?" He said, "One of my Paternal uncles."[2]

COMMENTARY: The name of Abu Zayd رضی اللہ عنہ was either Sa'eed ibn Umayr رضی اللہ عنہ or Qays ib Sakan رضی اللہ عنہ.

All these four sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم,belonged to the Khazraj tribe of the ansar It was the tribe of Anas رضی اللہ عنہ. thus, he spoke these words express the distinctions of his tribe that it possessed four men who had memorized the Quran. His words do not say outright that there was no other sahabi in the time of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم who had not committed the Quran to memory. While it is not correct to give any importance to numbers in such cases, there are sahih ahadith that affirms that very many sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم had memorized the entire Quran in the time of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم (from among the ansar and the mujahir). One of these sahih hadith mentions the seventy sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم who were martyred treacherously in Yamamah. All of them had memorized the Quran. Also, all the four righteous caliphs had memories the Quran.

MERIT OF MAS'AB IBN UMAYR رضی اللہ عنہ

(٦٢٠٥) وَعَنْ خَبَّابِ بْنِ الْأَرَتِّ قَالَ هَاجَرْنَا مَعَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نَبْتَغِيْ وَجْهَ اللّٰهِ تَعَالٰى فَوَقَعَ اَجْرُنَا عَلَى اللّٰهِ فَمِنَّا مَنْ مَضٰى لَمْ يَأْكُلْ مِنْ اَجْرِهٖ شَيْئًا مِّنْهُمْ مُصْعَبُ ابْنُ عُمَيْرٍ قُتِلَ يَوْمَ اُحُدٍ فَلَمْ يُوْجَدْ لَهٗ مَا يُكَفَّنُ فِيْهِ اِلَّا نَمِرَةٌ فَكُنَّا اِذَا غَطَّيْنَا رَأْسَهٗ خَرَجَتْ رِجْلَاهُ وَاِذَا غَطَّيْنَا رِجْلَيْهِ خَرَجَ رَأْسُهٗ فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ غَطُّوْا بِهَا رَأْسَهٗ وَاجْعَلُوْا عَلٰى رِجْلَيْهِ مِنَ الْاِذْخِرِ وَمِنَّا مَنْ اَيْنَعَتْ لَهٗ ثَمَرَتُهٗ فَهُوَ يَهْدِبُهَا۔ (متفق عليه)

6205. Sayyiduna Khabbab ibn Arat رضی اللہ عنہ said, "We emigrated (to Madinah) alongwith Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم seeking Allah's pleasure. So, our reward is assured from Allah. There were those of us who died before receiving their reward (in this world) Mus'ab ibn Umayr رضی اللہ عنہ was one of them. He was martyred at the battle of Uhud. Nothing could be found with which to enshroud him except a striped cloth like a leopard skin (that he had on him). When his head was covered with it, his feet became exposed and if it was stretched over his feet his head was bared. So, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, 'Cover his head with it and put idhkar over his feet. (Idkhar is leman grass) There were others among as who survived to reap their fruit, it having ripened."[1]

COMMENTARY: Certain of those who struggled for Islam died before seeing the victories of Islam and these prosperity of he Muslim, while they could not have a share of it, or of the war booties, they will get their reward in the hereafter.

As for those who have survived, they are getting there reward, like was booty etc. They witness the prosperity of Islam. This is their reward in this world.

Mus'ab ibn Umayr رضی اللہ عنہ was among those whose reward they will get in full in the hereafter. According to a hadith, those warriors who fight in Allah's path and get the booty, they have earned in this world two thirds of their reward and will get the remaining one third in the next world.

MUS'AB IBN UMARYR رضی اللہ عنہ: He was a Quraysh and Abdari, a glorious sahabi, He had embraced Islam before the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم come to Darul Arqam. He was one of those who emigrated to Abyssinia. He participated in the Battle of Badr.

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had sent him to Madinah after the second pledge of Aqabah. He was responsible to teach the people of Madinah the Quran and religion. The man who was the first to offer the salah of Friday (and lead the congregation), before the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم emigration to Madinah, was Mus'ab ibnUmaryr رضى الله عنه.

In the pre-Islamic days, Mus'ab used to live a very luxurious life. He wore the most expensive garments. When he became a Muslim, however, he led the life of an ascetic, giving up every comfort of life what to speak of luxury. One day, he came to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم (wearing a coarse blanket) with a leather belt on his waist. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said to the sahabah who were around "Look at him whose heart Allah has made radiant with the light of faith. In Makkah, his parents fed him the best of food and he donned garments worth one hundred dirhams. Now love of Allah and His Messenger has brought him where you see."

Some authorities contend that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم(had sent Mas'ab to Madinah after the first pledge of Aqabah. He would visit every house of the ansar to preech Islam tirelessly. As a consequence people embraced Islam in one's and two's till the light of Islam spread in Madinah and a large number of the Madinans became Muslims, then, he sought the permission of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم through someone to initiate and lead the congregational salah of Fridah.

Thereafter, he took a group of seventy men to Makkah to meet the Prophet at Aqabah for the second pledge.

He is described in the verse of the Quran.

مِنَ الْمُؤمِنِين رجال صَدَقُوا ما عاهدوا اللّٰه عَليه

{Among the believers are men who are true to the covenant they made with Allah...} (33:23)

MERIT OF SA'D IBN MU'ADH رضى الله عنه

(٦٢٠٦) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ اِهْتَزَّ الْعَرْشُ لِمَوْتِ سَعْدِ بْنُ مُعَاذٍ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ اِهْتَزَّ الرَّحْمٰنُ لِمَوْتِ سَعْدِ بْنِ مُعَاذٍ. (متفق عليه)

6206.Sayyiduna Jabir رضى الله عنه narrated that he heard the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم say, "The Throne swayed at the death of Sa'd ibn Mu'adh."

According to another version (he said): "The Throne of the Merciful shook at the death of Sa'd ibn Mu'adh."[1]

COMMENTARY: The commentator explain the meaning of the swaying of the Throne. They say:

(i) The thrones was overjoyed at the coming of a pure soul, so it literally swayed.

(ii) The words that the Throne swayed or shook are a figurative expression for the real or symbolic elation of the Throne at the arrival of the pure soul of Sa'd رضى الله عنه.

The correct interpretation is that the words 'the Throne shook' must be read in their literal sense. As in clear from the first opinion. The reason is that Allah has empowered even inanimate objects with knowledge and a sense of discrimination. This is borne out by the Quran, when it says about rocks:

وَاِنَّ مِنْهَا لَمَا يَهْبِطُ مِنْ خَشْيَةِ اللّٰه

{And there are some of them that fall down for the fear of Allah.} (2:74)

It is also borne out by the saying of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم about the mount Uhud, "It is the mountain that loves us.

Some others say:

(i) The shaking of the Throne means that the bearers for the Throne, meaning the angels, were immensely pleased.

(ii) The tragic death of Sa'd رضى الله عنه is compared to the shaking of the Throne.

(iii) This is an allegorical way of expression of the mighty way in which Sa;d رضى الله عنه died. When a great a person dies, people say that his departure had thrown them in darliness, or "His death has hastened the last Day."

SA'D IBN MU'ADH رضى الله عنه: Sa'd ibn Mu'adh ibn Numan رضى الله عنه is among the ansar of Madinah. He is Ash'hali, Awsi. He is counted among the glorious, great sahabah رضى الله عنه. He had embraced Islam in Madinah at the hands of Mus'ab ibn Umayr رضى الله عنه whom the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had sent ahead of him to propagate Islam in Madinah. After he became a Muslim, the whole clan of Banu Abd al-Ash'hal embraced Islam. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم gave him the title of Sayyid ul Ansar. He participated in the battle of Badr and of Uhud. On the day of Uhud, be fought with determination and did not move away from the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم at all, as though pinned to the ground. He defended him boldly.

In the Battle of the Trench, an arrow struck him on the arm and blood gushed forth profusely form his wound. Bleeding did not stop and Sa'd finally died a martyr after a month, in Dhul Qa'dah 50 AH. He was 37 years old. He was buried in al-Baqi.

It was on this occasion that the Prophet)E) said, "When sa'd died, seventy thousand angels descended and the Throne of the Most Merciful shook."

(٦٢٠٧) وَعَنِ الْبَرَاءِ قَالَ أُهْدِيَتْ لِرَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حُلَّةُ حَرِيْرٍ فَجَعَلَ اَصْحَابُهُ يَمَسُّوْنَهَا وَيَتَعَجَّبُوْنَ مِنْ لِيْنِهَا فَقَالَ اَتَعْجَبُوْنَ مِنْ لِيْنِ هٰذِهٖ لَمَنَادِيْلُ سَعْدِبْنِ مُعَاذٍ فِي الْجَنَّةِ خَيْرٌ مِّنْهَا وَاَلْيَنُ۔

6207.Sayyiduna Bara رضى الله عنه said, "A silk robe was sent (by a king of a non-Arab state) as a present to Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم. His sahabah رضى الله عنهم touched it and were astonished by its softness. So, he said, "Are you astonished at the soft texture of this? Indeed, the handkerchief of Sa'd ibn Mu'adh in paradise is better and softer than this.'[1]

COMMENTARY: According to one hadith the sahabah رضى الله عنهم had never seen such a costly and fire cloth before. So, they said that it was sent from heaven.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said to them that in paradise even such a thing as the handkerchief would be better than the costly cloth of this world. Then what may one say of the clothing and wearing apparel of paradise.

PRAYER FOR ANAS رضى الله عنه ANSWERED

(٦٢٠٨) وَعَنْ اُمِّ سُلَيْمٍ اَنَّهَا قَالَتْ يَارَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اَنَسٌ خَادِمُكَ اُدْعُ اللّٰهَ لَهٗ قَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ اَكْثِرْ مَالَهٗ وَوَلَدَهٗ

وَبَارِكْ لَهٗ فِيْمَا اَعْطَيْتَهٗ قَالَ اَنَسٌ فَوَاللّٰهِ اِنَّ مَالِيْ لَكَثِيْرٌ وَاِنَّ وَلَدِيْ وَوَلَدَ وَلَدِيْ لَيَتَعَادُّوْنَ عَلٰى نَحْوِ الْمِائَةِ الْيَوْمِ۔ (متفق عليه)

6208.Sayyidah Umm Sulaym رضی اللہ عنہ (the mother of Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that she submitted (when she entrusted him to him). "O Messenger of Allah, Anas is your servant. Pray to Allah for him." He prayed, "O Allah, let his property and his children increase manifold, and bless in whatever you have granted him." Anas رضی اللہ عنہ said, "By Allah, my property is plentiful and my children and children of my children add up to about one hundred."[1]

COMMENTARY: After this statement of his, he had more children. Ibn Hajar رحمہ اللہ has cited a tradition of Anas رضی اللہ عنہ in which he said, much time later that his children and grand children numbered one hundred twenty five, only two of them were daughters. About his property, he said that it was multiplied many time and his garden bore fruit twice every year. One of the sons of Anas رضی اللہ عنہ said, "I had buried about one hundred of my father's children." We know from this that wealthy, property and children are a great blessing of Allah provided they do not lead one away form remembrance and into sin and disobedience. Imam Nawawi رحمہ اللہ said that the fact, that Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ had so many children and very abundant property is a miracle of the prophethood of prophet Muhammad رضی اللہ عنہ Beside, this hadith upholds the contention that the rich have more excellence over the poor. But, some others say that this is a singular case of Anas رضی اللہ عنہ in the sense that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم prayed for Anas رضی اللہ عنہ to how abundant wealth and property. So his property was blessed and once Divine blessing entered it, the aspect of fitnah (Or final) disappeared from it. Hence, that property was not a means of evil and not a cause of neglect of rights of Allah. Therefore, the ulama say that it anyone makes a supplication for anything connected with the world then he must include a prayer for blessing in it and pray to Allah to preserve him from the trial and wrongs of that which he pray for.

ANAS رضی اللہ عنہ: He was Anas رضی اللہ عنہ ibn Maalik ibn Nadr, a resident of Mudinah, a Khazraji. His kunyah was Abu Hamzah. When he was twelve years old, his mother, entrusted him to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم to serve him. In the time of Umar رضی اللہ عنہ, he moved to Busrah to be able to impart religious education to its people. He died there in 91 AH at the age of one hundred and three. He was the last of the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم to die.

Ibn Abdul Barr رحمہ اللہ has said that Anas رضی اللہ عنہ had one hundred sons and this is correct though some others say that he had eighty children of whom seventy eight were male children. Hence, the report of Ibn Hajr that he had 125 children is incorrect because it also does not agree with this hadith under discussion which puts his children and grand children at some more than one hundred, not merely his own children.

6209.Sayyiduna Sa'd ibn Abu Waqqas رضی اللہ عنہ said, "I have not heard the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say of anyone walking on the surface of the earth. 'He will be among the dwellers for paradise, except about Abdullah ibn Salaam رضی اللہ عنہ."[1]

COMMENTARY: He was a great, glorious sahabi رضی اللہ عنہ His ancestral tree joins Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم Yusuf علیہ السلام. He was a Jew scholar of high rank. Then Allah gave him guidance and he became a Muslim and he served the Muslims and Islam dedicatedly. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said of him that he would go to paradise, but Sa'd صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم made it clear that the ten who were given the glad tidings were not included because they had died already and were not 'walking on the surface of the earth. He meant that he had heard the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say 'he is of paradise' and of no one else who walked on the surface of the earth at that time when Sa'd spoke his words.

Nawawi رحمہ اللہ said that this hadith does not imply that ahadith about Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ, Umar رضی اللہ عنہ etc. being 'men of paradise' are contradicted, because Sa'd merely said about himself that he had not heard the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم name anyone else. If he had not heard anything, then that does not mean that no one else was given these tidings. Moreover, when both kinds of traditions are known, preference is given to those that are positive and affirmative.

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم did give these tiding to many of the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہمnotably those ten who are distinguished as ashrah mubashsharah and Sa'd ibn Abu Waqqas رضی اللہ عنہ is also one of them. So, apart from the foregoing explanations, we might say that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had not till then given these tidings to others. Sa'd رضی اللہ عنہ may have spoken these words when the remaining of the ten had departed from this world. Indeed it is known that Abdullah ibn Salaam رضی اللہ عنہ was alive even after those ten sahabah رضی اللہ عنہمand when he died only Sa'd and Sa'eed رضی اللہ عنہ survived him. This opinion is supported by the tradition in Daraqutni that Sa'd رضی اللہ عنہ said, "I did not hear the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say of anyone apart from Abdullah ibn Salaam R) who is alive and moving about on earth that he would go to paradise." The question does arise why Sa'd ignored himself and Sa'eed رضی اللہ عنہ? The point is that Ibn Salaam رضی اللہ عنہ was walking on earth while the others were given tiding in a different form.

6210.Sayyiduna Qays ibn Ubadah رضی الله عنه (a tabi'I of high rank) said, "I was sitting in the mosque of Madinah and saw a man enter, humility writ large on his face (There was light on it of nearness to Allah) The people said, 'He will go to paradise." He offered two brief raka'at of salah and departed. I followed him and (catching up with him I) said, 'when you came to the mosque, the people; said about you that you will not behave anyone to say what he does not know. But I shall tell you the reason for that. In he time of Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم I had a dream that I disclosed to him. I saw as though I was in a garden. Then he described its largeness and greenery, and (continued to say) 'There was an iron column in its centre. Its lower extreme was in the earth and the upper in the sky. There was a (firm) support (or hand hold) at the top I was told to ascend it but I said that I could not do that. So a servant came to me, raised my garments behind me and I climbed up till I was at the top of it and grasped the support. I was asked to grasp it firmly . while it was in my hand, I woke up. I related it to the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم. He said The garden is (the religion of) Islam. The column is the pillar of Islam (meaning its commands and obligations) and the support (that you grasped) is al-urwah al wusqa (the firm hand hold). So you will remain firm on Islam till you die." That man was Abdullah ibn Salaam."[1]

COMMENTARY: Abdullah ibn Salam رضی الله عنه refused to confirm what those people had said about him being a man of paradise. As for those people, they may have heard the hadith of Sa'd ibn Abu Waqqas رضی الله عنه (# 6209). Abdullah ibn Salaam رضی الله عنه may not have known about it, or he may have been modest and humble. He may have feared that he would become famous and known to everyone as such.

However, he explained how the People had came to speak as they did. But, the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم did not say specifically that he would enter paradise. On the other hand, some exponents say that Abdullah ibn Salam رضی الله عنه do not refuse to affirm what those people said, Rather, his words do confirm their saying about him. What he said means that anyone who has been a companion of the prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم and is aware of his sayings can never say anything that he does not know. So those people may have known about him whatever they said, Then he substantiated their words by relating his dream to Qays. رحمه الله.

He said that while he had a grasp on the support, he awoke. That was he last thing that he saw. He woke while his first was closed as though holding something.

The words al urwah al wuthqa are a reference to the verse:

يومن بالله فَقَدِ اسْتَمْسَكَ بِالْعُروة الوُثْقٰى

[(who has) believed in Allah, has indeed grasped a firm handhold...] (2:256)

They imply that his faith was perfect and he had attained the highest rank.

The concluding words 'That man was Abdullah ibn Salaam were spoken by Qays. However, they may have been spoken by Abdullah رضی اللہ عنہ himself to emphasise that the vision was been by him.

TIDINGS OF PARADISE TO THABIT IBN QAYS رضی اللہ عنہ

(٦٢١١) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ كَانَ ثَابِتُ بْنُ قَيْسِ بْنِ شَمَّاسٍ خَطِيْبَ الْاَنْصَارِ فَلَمَّا نَزَلَتْ يٰٓاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا لَا تَرْفَعُوْٓا اَصْوَاتَكُمْ فَوْقَ صَوْتِ النَّبِيِّ اِلٰى اٰخِرِ الْاٰيَةِ جَلَسَ ثَابِتٌ فِيْ بَيْتِهٖ وَاحْتَبَسَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَسَاَلَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ سَعْدَ بْنُ مُعَاذٍ فَقَالَ مَاشَانُ ثَابِتٍ اَيَشْتَكِيْ فَاَتَاهُ سَعْدٌ فَذَكَرَ لَهٗ قَوْلَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ ثَابِتٌ اُنْزِلَتْ هٰذِهِ الْاٰيَةُ وَلَقَدْ عَلِمْتُمْ اَنِّيْ مِنْ اَرْفَعِكُمْ صَوْتًا عَلٰى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَاَنَا مِنْ اَهْلِ النَّارِ فَذَكَرَ ذٰلِكَ سَعْدٌ لِلنَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بَلْ هُوَ مِنْ اَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ۔ (رواہ مسلم)

6211.Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ said that thabit ibn Qays رضی اللہ عنہ was an eloquent (persuasive) speaker among the ansar. He stayed in his house and refrained from coming to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم when this verse was revealed.

يٰٓاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا لَا تَرْفَعُوْٓا اَصْوَاتَكُمْ فَوْقَ صَوْتِ النَّبِيِّ الآية

{O you who believe! Raise not your voice above the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم voice.....} (49:2, to the end of the verse)

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم asked Sa'd ibn Mu'adh رضی اللہ عنہ, "what is wrong with Thabit? Is he unwell? So Sa'd went to him and repeated to him he words of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. Thabit رضی اللہ عنہ said, "This verse has been revealed (49:2) and you know that I have the loudest voice above (the voice of) Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, so I will go to hell. Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Rather, he is among the inhabitants of paradise. [1]

COMMENTARY: The sincerity of Thabit ibn Qays رضی اللہ عنہ was effective and the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was prompted to ask about his welfare. He was worried lest Thabit رضی اللہ عنہ had fallen ill.

Thabit رضی اللہ عنہ had presumed that since by nature he had a loud voice, he would be unable to abide by the verse. He did not know that the command in the verse was about those who raise their voices above the Prophet voice deliberately. That was had manners.

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم assured Thabit رضی اللہ عنہ that he would go to paradise. He was impressed by Thabit's رضی اللہ عنہ respect for him and his observance of etiquette. Then the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم words were doubly confirmed when he was martyred in the Battle of Yamamah in the time of Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ. It is reported that when Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ decided to wage jihad against Musaylamah Kadhdhab, Thabit ibn Qays رضی اللہ عنہ took his shroud, wrapped it and fought in the Battle of Yamamah against Musaylamah till he was martyred wearing that shroud.

The verse before the one quoted in this hadith and is the first of the surah) was revealed in 9 AH but Sa'd had died in5 AH. Actually the second verse of the surah which is the subject of this hadith was before the death of Sa'd ibn Mu'adh رضی الله عنه.

MERIT OF SALMAN FARSI رضی الله عنه

(٦٢١٢) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ كُنَّا جُلُوْسًا عِنْدَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا نَزَلَتْ سُوْرَةُ الْجُمُعَةِ فَلَمَّا نَزَلَتْ وَاٰخَرِيْنَ مِنْهُمْ لَمَّا يَلْحَقُوْا بِهِمْ قَالُوْا مَنْ هٰؤُلَآءِ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ قَالَ وَفِيْنَا سَلْمَانُ الْفَارِسِيُّ قَالَ فَوَضَعَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَدَهٗ عَلٰى سَلْمَانَ ثُمَّ قَالَ لَوْ كَانَ الْاِيْمَانُ عِنْدَ الثُّرَيَّا لَنَالَهٗ رِجَالٌ مِّنْ هٰؤُلَآءِ۔ (متفق عليه)

6212.Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه said, we were sitting with the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم and surah al-Jumu'ah was reveled. (He recited it and) when he came to the words:

وَآخَرِيْنَ مِنْهُمْ لَمَّا يَلْحَقُوْا بِهِمْ

{....and others of them (too) who have not yet joined them....} (62:3)
The sahabah رضی الله عنهم asked. 'O Messenger of Allah, who are they (who have not yet joined us)?" He (Abu Hurayrah) رضی الله عنه continued to say, 'Salman Farsi was among us. The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم put his hand on salman and said, 'If faith were in the Pleicles, men from these people would get it."[1]

COMMENTARY: The entire verses is:

هُوَ الَّذِيْ بَعَثَ فِي الْاُمِّيّٖنَ رَسُوْلًا مِّنْهُمْ يَتْلُوْا عَلَيْهِمْ اٰيٰتِهٖ وَيُزَكِّيْهِمْ وَيُعَلِّمُهُمُ الْكِتٰبَ وَالْحِكْمَةَ وَاِنْ كَانُوْا مِنْ قَبْلُ لَفِيْ ضَلٰلٍ مُّبِيْنٍ وَّاٰخَرِيْنَ مِنْهُمْ لَمَّا يَلْحَقُوْا بِهِمْ وَهُوَ الْعَزِيْزُ الْحَكِيْمُ الآية۔

{He is (Allah) who had raised among the unlettered people a Messenger from among themselves, who recites to them His revelations and purifies them, and teaches them the Book and the wisdom - though before that they were certainly in manifest error -
And (also for) others of them who have not yet joined them. And He is the Mighty. The wise} (62:2-3)

The unlettered people in this verse are the Arabs, referring to the sahabah رضی الله عنهم who had given up ignorance and straying and had embraced Islam at the hands of the last of the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم.

And the others of them, are they who were not there when the Quran was revealed. Rather, they embraced Islam in the time of the sahabah رضی الله عنهم. so, they are the tabi'un (the epigones who succeeded the sahabah رضی الله عنهم. Most of them were non Arabs, just as most of he sahabah رضی الله عنهم were Arabs. Only a few tabi'un رحمه الله are Arabs and only a few sahabah رضی الله عنهم non Arasbs.

In this hadith the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم praised Salman رضی الله عنه who was a non Arab. He also made it clear that the others of them were they who had not come within the sphere of Islam either because they were not born till then or the message had not reached them. They would came later and enter the folds of Islam. Most of them would be non Arabs. They would be very enthusiastic about religion and knowledge so much so that if religion, knowledge and faith were at Pleiades, they would go to it and get them.

Indeed, it is true that the tabi'un acquired faith, religion and knowledge very earnestly. They spared no effort in doing so. They accomplished great feats in these fields and ijtihad. It was their distinct accomplishment after the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہ.

Salman Farsi:His name was Salman and Kunyah was Abu Abdullah. He belonged to Persia (Iran), so he is called Farsi, He was a freedman of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم who had bought him from a Jew and set him free. He is counted among very prominent and glorious sahabah رضی الله عنهم. He came from (the city) Ramhurmuz whose residents were Magi (Zoroastrians) and worshippers of piebald horses.

Salman رضی اللہ عنہ was a seeker of a true religion since his childhood. He had abandoned his ancestral religion and converted to Christianity and studied its Books. His father and other relatives did not approve his conversion to Christianity. Therefore, they punished him severely but he was unmoved and undaunted.

Then he emigrated to Syria where he fell prey to some Arab travellers who deceived him and sold him to a Jew of Madinah when they returned home. It is reported that he was sold again and again ten times as a slave.

When the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم came to Madinah, he met him and embraced Islam. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Salman will go to paradise and he is one of those whom paradise awaits."

Salman رضی اللہ عنہ lived a long life. Some say that he died when he was 350 years old but the more correct report is that he lived for 250 years. He spent most of his years in search of he true religion till he met the last of the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and he achieved his cherished ambition.

Salman رضی اللہ عنہ earned his living by engaging in hard labour and spent most of his earning in Allah's path. He had many merits and good qualities and the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم praised him such. He died in 35 AH an Mada'in.

PRAYER FOR ABU HURAYRAH رضی اللہ عنہ

(٦٢١٣) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَللّٰهُمَّ حَبِّبْ عُبَيْدَكَ هٰذَا يَعْنِيْ اَبَاهُرَيْرَةَ وَاُمَّهٗ اِلٰى عِبَادِكَ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ وَحَبِّبْ اِلَيْهِمَا الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ۔ (رواه مسلم)

6213.Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم prayed. "O Allah, let this little slave of yours-who is Abu Hurayrah - and his mother be dear to your believing creatures and let the believers be dear to them."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم meant that Abu Hurahrah رضی اللہ عنہ and his mother who were both very poor and needy should become dear and beloved in the sight of the believers. At the some time, both of them should love, and sympathies with, the believers.

THE WEAK MUST BE RESPECTED

سُيُوْفُ اللّٰهِ مِنْ عُنُقِ عَدُوِّ اللّٰهِ مَأْخَذَهَا فَقَالَ اَبُوْبَكْرٍ اَتَقُوْلُوْنَ لِهٰذَا الشَّيْخِ قُرَيْشٍ وَسَيِّدِهِمْ فَاَتَى النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَاَخْبَرَهُ فَقَالَ يَا اَبَابَكْرٍ لَعَلَّكَ اَغْضَبْتَهُمْ لَئِنْ كُنْتَ اَغْضَبْتَهُمْ لَقَدْ اَغْضَبْتَ رَبَّكَ فَاَتَاهُمْ فَقَالَ يَا اِخْوَتَاهُ اَغْضَبْتُكُمْ قَالُوْا لَا يَغْفِرُ اللّٰهُ لَكَ يَا اَخِيْ۔ (رواه مسلم)

6214. Sayyiduna Aa'idh ibn Amr رضی الله عنه narrated that Abu Sufyan (the father of Mu'awiyah رضی الله عنه came to Madinah, before he embraced Islam, and) happened to pass by a company of the sahabah رضی الله عنهم among whom were Salman رضی الله عنه, Suhayb رضی الله عنه and Bilal رضی الله عنه. They remarked, "The swords of Allah have not yet received their due from the neck of the enemy of Allah." Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه asked, "Do you speak in this manner about a great man of the Quraysh and their leader." Then, he come to the prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم and informed him (of it). He said, "O Abu Bakr, perhaps you have displeased them and if you have displeased them then you have indeed annoyed Allah." So, he come to them and asked, "O my brothers! Have I displeased you?" They said, "No! may Allah forgive you my brother." (only one of them spoke on behalf of all of them).[1]

COMMENTARY: Abu Sufyan who was an infidel till then had come to Madinah as an envoy of the Quraysh to renew the peace treaty of Husaybiyah. The Buraysh of Makkah had been obstructing the preaching of Islam very harshly and had been persecuting the Muslim incessantly and cruelly. They often violated the peace treaty of Hudaybiyah too. This conduct of theirs prompted the three sahabah رضی الله عنهم to comment as they did. It was natural of them to wonder why the idolater was moving about scot-free. But Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه was mindful of the mission of Abu Sufyan as an envoy who must be given protection by every Muslim. Besides, his heart had to be was over as the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم was chiefs of the idolaters and polytheists to incline them to Islam.

The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said to Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه that the three man were sincere and whatever they had remarked was only because of their love of Allah and His religion and hatred for an enemy of Islam. So, Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه had contradicted them and might love offended them. So, he must apologies to them.

Accordingly, Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه went to them and they assured him that he had done nothing of he sort. But, instead of saying 'Our brother! (یااخانا), they said (یااخی) 'My brother!" perhaps only one of them spoke for all three. The word (یااخی) is spelt variously in different manuscripts of the Makkah.

The three men, Salman رضی الله عنه Farsi, Suhayb Roomi رضی الله عنه, and Bilal Habshi رضی الله عنه, were among those sahabah رضی الله عنهما who were considered by the non- Muslim society to be of a lower class because they had been slaves. They were very poor and deprived. This is why the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم was careful not to hurt their feelings. The hadith shows how the poor sahabah رضی الله عنهم need to be respected, and they have great merit.

SUHAYB ROOMI رضی الله عنه: He was Suhayb ibn Sinan رضی الله عنه, the freedman of Abdullah ibn Jud'an Taymi. His kunyah was Abu Yahya. He belonged to Mosul between Euphrates and Tigris. When the Byzantines attacked this region, Suhayb رضی الله عنه was one of those who were taken prisoners. He was very young at that time and as he grew up, he began to look like the Romans. Then, the people of Kalb bought him from them and brought him to Makkah where Abdullah ibn Jud'an purchased him and set him free. But Shuhayb رضی اللہ عنہ continued to remain with him till he died, According to one tradition, when Suhayb رضی اللہ عنہ grew and was sensible enough, during captivity, he fled from the Byzantines and came to Makah where he met Abdullah ibn Judan and became his ally and lived with him.

Suhayb رضی اللہ عنہ was a very early Muslim. He had embraced Islam in Makakh at the initial stage of he propagation of Islam. It is reported that he and Ammar ibn Yasir رضی اللہ عنہ had joined the folds of Islam of the same day when Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was at Dar ul Arqam when some thirty plus men had embraced Islam. He was one of those few weak and helpless Muslims who were persecuted mercilessly because of their belief in Allah. Then he emigrated to Madinah. He died in 80 AH at the age of 70 years in Madinah and was buried in al Baqi.

The verse of the Quran (2:207 was revealed concerning Suhayb رضی اللہ عنہ:

وَمِنَ النَّاسِ مَن يشترى نفسه ابتغاء مَرْضَاتِ اللهِ

[And amongst men there be one who offers his soul seeking the acceptance by Allah]

MERIT OF THE ANSAR

(٦٢١٥) وَعَنْ أَنَسٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ آيَةُ الْإِيمَانِ حُبُّ الْأَنْصَارِ وَآيَةُ النِّفَاقِ بُغْضُ الْأَنْصَارِ. (متفق عليه)

6215.Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The sign of (Perfect) faith is love of the Ansar and the sign of hypocrisy is hatred of the Ansar."[1]

COMMENTARY: The word 'ansar' is the plural of 'nasir' or 'nasr', In the terminology of Shariah, it is applied to those people of Madinah who believed in the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and helped him whole heartedly.

There were two tribes in Madinah. One of them was descended from Aws and the other from Khazraj. They were two brothers, but their descendants divided into two great tribes who were at loggerheads with one another before the arrival of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. They had been at war for one hundred and twenty years. However when they became Muslims, their enmity gave way to mutual love and harmony. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم called them Ansar and they became famous with that title. Their progeny and their slaves whom they set free, all were known as ansar.

The merits of the ansar are uncountable. They occupy the highest rank and honour in Islam. The Quran praises them. All this is because they were very sincere in providing accommodation to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, helped him selflessly with their lives and property and were potential supporters of his mission of propagating Islam.

In doing this, they invited on themselves the wrath of all enemies of Islam, both Arabs and non Arabs." Hence it became necessary to label love for them as a token of faith and hatred towards them as a sign of disbelief and hypocrisy, and unflinching love for them as perfect faith, and any kind of reduced love for them as reduced faith. And, undoubtedly, if anyone dislikes them because they became supporters of Islam and the Prophet of Islam, then he is a real disbeliever, in the true sense of the word.

HE WHO LOVES THE ANSAR IS DEAR TO ALLAH

(٦٢١٦) وَعَنِ الْبَرَاءِ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ الْاَنْصَارُ لَا يُحِبُّهُمْ اِلَّا مُؤْمِنٌ وَلَا يَبْغَضُهُمْ اِلَّا مُنَافِقٌ فَمَنْ اَحَبَّهُمْ اَحَبَّ اللّٰهُ وَمَنْ اَبْغَضَهُمْ اَبْغَضَهُ اللّٰهُ۔ (متفق عليه)

6216.Sayyiduna Bara رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say. "None but a believer loves the Ansar, and none but a hypocrite despises them. So whoever loves them is loved by Allah and whose despises them is despised by Allah."[1]

COMPLAINT OF THE ANSAR ANSWERED SATISFACTORILY

(٦٢١٧) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ اَنَّ نَاسًا مِّنَ الْاَنْصَارِ قَالُوْا حِيْنَ اَفَآءَ اللّٰهُ عَلٰى رَسُوْلِهٖ مِنْ اَمْوَالِ هَوَازِنَ مَا اَفَآءَ فَطَفِقَ يُعْطِيْ رِجَالًا مِّنْ قُرَيْشٍ اَلْمِائَةَ مِنَ الْاِبِلِ فَقَالُوْا يَغْفِرُ اللّٰهُ لِرَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُعْطِيْ قُرَيْشًا وَيَدَعُنَا وَسُيُوْفُنَا تَقْطُرُ مِنْ دِمَآئِهِمْ فَحُدِّثَ لِرَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِمَقَالَتِهِمْ فَاَرْسَلَ اِلَى الْاَنْصَارِ فَجَمَعَهُمْ فِيْ قُبَّةٍ مِّنْ اَدَمٍ وَلَمْ يَدْعُ مَعَهُمْ اَحَدًا غَيْرَهُمْ فَلَمَّا اِجْتَمَعُوْا جَآءَهُمْ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ مَا حَدِيْثٌ بَلَغَنِيْ عَنْكُمْ فَقَالَ فُقَهَاءُهُمْ اَمَّا ذُوْوَرَ اْيِنَا يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ فَلَمْ يَقُوْلُوْا شَيْئًا وَاَمَّا اُنَاسًا مِّنَّا حَدِيْثَةً اَسْنَانُهُمْ قَالُوْا يَغْفِرُ اللّٰهُ لِرَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُعْطِيْ قُرَيْشًا وَيَدَعُ الْاَنْصَارَ وَسُيُوْفُنَا تَقْطُرُ مِنْ دِمَآئِهِمْ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنِّيْ اُعْطِيْ رِجَالًا حَدِيْثِيْ عَهْدٍ بِكُفْرٍ اَتَاَلَّفُهُمْ اَمَّا تَرْضَوْنَ اَنْ يَّذْهَبَ النَّاسُ بِالْاَمْوَالِ وَتَرْجِعُوْنَ اِلٰى رِحَالِكُمْ بِرَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالُوْا بَلٰى يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ قَدْ رَضِيْنَا۔ (متفق عليه)

6217. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that when Allah gave His Messenger the Property of the Hawazin as much as He gave him, and he began to apportion it to the men of Quraysh one hundred camels, some to the Ansar complained, "May Allah forgive His Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم! He gives to the Quraysh but neglects us though our Swords are dripping with their blood." Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was told of what they did say. So, he called the Ansar and brought them together in a tent made of leather and he did not invite anyone else with them. When they were assembled, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم came to them and asked "What is this that I hear you have said?" Those of their sagacious ones submitted. "O Messenger of Allah, as for our learned men of sound opinion, they did not say anything. But, some of our young men did say (foolishly), 'May Allah forgive His Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم who gives to the Quraysh but neglects the Ansar though our swords dripping with their blood.' So, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "I give such men who were disbelievers until recently in order to win them over. But are you not pleased that while (those) people may go back with the property yet you should return to your homes with Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم?" They submitted, "Of course, O Messenger of Allah, we are pleased, indeed!"[1]

COMMENTARY: The property of the Hawazin was immense. There were six thousand prisoners, twenty four thousand camels, four thousand ooqiyah silver and more than forty thousand sheep. According to one tradition, the sheep were innumerable. (One ooqiyah is equal to forty dirhams).

Those whom the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم gave many camels were the people of Makah who had embraced islam after the conquest of Makkah, They were fresh Muslim and faith was not yet well-grounded in their hearts. They were nightly called (مولفة القلوب) 'those whose hearts had to be won over.' The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم gave them one hundred camels each so that they might firmly incline to Islam and became familiar with Muslims.

The father of amir Mu'awiyah رضى الله عنه, Abu Sufyan was also none of those whose heart had to be won over.

As for the remaining Muslim whether Muhajirs or Ansar who were sincere and true, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم gave them less then one hundred camels each. The spoils were disbursed at Ja'rana where the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had routed Banu Hawazin and others in the Battle of Hunayn after the conquest of Makah in 8 AH. Initially, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had all he spoils placed together. Then, on returning from Ta'if, he distributed the spoils among the Muslim warriors.

When some Ansar said that their swords were dripping with the blood of the Quraysh, they referred to the Battle and expeditions in which they fought bravely on the side of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم against the Quraysh idolaters. They shed their blood in Allah's path. Perhaps they imagined that the Prophet was favoring them because of their tribal links and relationship with him.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked them, 'what do you think is better: "their taking worldly property back home of your returning home with Allah's Messenger?"

Indeed those auspicious souls gave the reply expected of them. A very large portion of worldly goods - howsoever large - was of no significance to them if they got Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم with them.

MORE ON MERIT OF ANSAR

(٦٢١٨) وَعَنْ اَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَوْلَا الْهِجْرَةُ لَكُنْتُ امْرَأً مِّنَ الْاَنْصَارِ وَلَوْ سَلَكَ النَّاسُ وَادِيًا وَسَلَكَتِ الْاَنْصَارُ وَادِيًا اَوْشِعْبًا لَسَلَكْتُ وَادِيَ الْاَنْصَارِ وَشِعْبَ الْاَنْصَارِ شِعَارٌ وَالنَّاسُ دِثَارٌ اِنَّكُمْ سَتَرَوْنَ بَعْدِيْ اَثَرَةً فَاصْبِرُوْا حَتّٰى تَلْقَوْنِيْ عَلَى الْحَوْضِ۔ (رواه البخاري)

6218. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If there was no hijrah, I would have been one of the Ansar. If people were to walk by a wadi and the Ansar were to trek by a different wadi" – or, he said, "(The Ansar) by a mountain road, - I would follow by the wadi, or mountain road, of the Ansar. The Ansar are like Sh'iar (شعار) – garments worn directly on the body, like shirt, trousers) while the (other) people are like dither (دثار) - garment thrown over garments. Like cloak, sheet of cloth, etc). (O Ansar!) After I depart, you will find that others are preferred over you without deserving it show patience till you meet me at the pond."[1]

COMMENTARY: When the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that he would have been an ansar if there had been no need to emigrate, he did not mean a change in descent. Such a desire is forbidden. Besides his own descent is the noblest and test. He only meant that he would have been a Madinah, referring to a change of nationality. He meant, "If hijrah had not been compulsory in religion and it was not necessary to be known by it, I would have moved to the city the Ansar. Instead of a Muhajir, I would have been known as an Ansa. But since it is a great religious honour to emigrate for religions and to be known by it. I cannot accomplish my with or desire.

This saying of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم implies that making hijrah (or emigrating) in the highest from of merit, for the Muhajirs (emigrants) forsake their dear native land, homes, families and friends for the love of Allah and his Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم. The merit of the Ansar is the next highest. They gave tremendous sacrifice in helping Allah's religion and His Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم, but, of course, they were not compelled to abandon their native land, tribe, families and other connections. Hence, the merit of help and support is secondary to hijrah (or emigration) and the merit of the Ansar is secondary to the Muhajir.

This saying of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has been interpreted by some to mean, "That which distinguished me from the Ansars is the merit of hijrah. If this merit was not my portion then I too would have been an Ansar." The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم evinced humbleness on his own part and, at the same time, bolstered the spirits of the Ansar.

WADI OR MOUNTAIN ROAD: These words in the hadith are interpolated by a sub narrator who may not have been sure of the exact saying. A wadi (وادی) is a piece of land or a path between two mountains or hillocks – a valley. It is also called (فرجه) - furjah. A (شعب) sh'b is a road through a mountain – a mountain pas. There are numerous mountains and hillocks in the Hijaz. So, too there are many valleys (wadis) and mountain passes (Shi;bs) In those days, when the leader of a caravan or chief of a tribe decided to go through a valley or a mountain pass, his caravan or tribe or followed him through it and thence to their individual destination. It is this to which the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم alluded. If people divided into two groups, he would follow the Ansar. This shows how much he loved the Ansar.

According to another interpretation the words wadi and Shi'b in this hadith mean maslak (school of thought) and opinion, or set of beliefs. So, the words of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم mean that he would pursue the opinion and judgment of the Ansar when their opinion differs from that of the others. In these words, he reciprocated the sentiments of the Ansar, but it does not mean that he agreed to follow their school of thought because he is the one who is followed and obeyed and everyone follows and obeys him.

The words (شعار) shi'ar and (دثار) dither are basic clothing and coordinates or complementary clothing. The former is worn directly on the body, like a shirt. The latter is worn over the basic clothing, like on overcoat, a cloak, a blanket etc. The Prophet compared the Ansar to his shi;ar, meaning that they are nearest to him. They have a firm, sincere faith and genuine love is ingrained in them.

The next words are that other people would be preferred over the Ansar though they would not deserve that the Ansar would be wronged and deprived. He said to the Ansar. "After my death, people will prefer themselves over you in picking for assignment and offices. They will occupy key posts of rulership and government. People with poor caliber will take over high offices and thus become your seniors." Indeed, whatever he said turned out to be true. In the time of Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ, the Ansar suffered serious injustices at the hands of his governors and officers, as also in the time of the Umayyad, their merit was ignored and they were deprived of their rights in government.

These words of he Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم could also mean that the amirs and rulers would appropriate the spoils of war and bypass the Ansar and prefer themselves or junior people over the Ansar.

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم assured the Ansar that if they showed endurance in the face of gross injustices and did not rebel against the rulers, they would get their reward on the day of gathering when they met him at the pond. They would meet him and get unending bounties. It is reported that some Ansar complained to Amir Mu'awiyah رضی اللہ عنہ about the injustices of the Muhajirs but he could not redress their complaint. So, the Ansar said to Amir Mu'awiyah رضی اللہ عنہ, 'The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had spoken the truth when he said, 'O Ansar, you will see after my death that other people are given preference over you even though they are incompetent." Mu'awiyah رضی اللہ عنہ asked them, "Has not the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم given you instructions to counter such a situation?" They said, "He advised us to persevere at such a time." So, Mu'awiyah رضی اللہ عنہ reprimanded them, Then you must endure (instead of complaining) because Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم gave you this command."

6219.Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated: we were with Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم on the day of the conquest (of Makkah). He said, "Anyone (of the idolaters) who enters the house of Abu Sufyan is safe. He who lays down his arms in safe..." So, (some of) he Ansar said, "As for this man, sympathy for his tribe and love for his follow citizens have had the better of him." Divine revelation descended on Allah's Messenger (informing of their thinking). So, he said (to them), "You have said that this man had sympathy for his tribe and love for his follow citizens. But, no! It is not so. I am Allah's servant and His Messenger. I have retreated to Allah and (emigrated) to you and (now) life is with our lives and death is among you." They submitted (in a regretful manner). "By Allah, we did not say anything but to keep you tenaciously with us." He said, "Allah and His Messenger recognize that you are truthful and accept your apology."[1]

COMMENTARY: "Every idolater who takes refuge in the house of Abu Sufyan is safe and who surrenders is safe." No Muslim could hurt him. Abu Sufyan ibn Sakhr ibn Harb was father of Mu'awiyah رضی اللہ عنہ one of the chiefs of Quraysh. He embraced Islam on the day of the conquest of Makkah رضی اللہ عنہ. He participated in the Battle of Hunayn along with the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. He was one of those whose heart had to be won over, so the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم gave him more than due to him out of the spoils - one hundred camels and forty ooqiyah silver. During the silage of Ta'iof, he lost on eye and it could not be restored all though the rest of his life. Again, in the Battle of Yarmuk, his other eye was blinded when struck with a stone. He died in Madinah in 34 AH, and was buried in al Baqi.

When Abu Sufyan had embraced Islam on the day of conquest, Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ submitted, "O Messenger of Allah, this man craves for honour and position. Do grant him some high recognition that he might feel proud of it." This is why the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had it announced, "Whoever seeks refuge in Abu Sufyan house is safe."

Some traditions say that during the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم life in Makkah when the Quraysh were bent on persecuting him, Abu Sufyan had given him protection in his house. So, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم reciprocated the gesture on the day of the conquest of Makkah.

The Ansar were puzzled at the favourable treatment of Abu Sufyan who had been a swor enemy of the Muslim for a long time. They presumed that it was not in keeping with the modesty and sense of honour. So they spoke foolishly as they did.

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم assured the Ansar that he was not being favourable to Abu Sufyan because he intended to stay on in Makah. Rather he had emigrated for the last and final time. Since that was at Allah's command, there was no question of turning away from it, It was done only for Allah's sake. He was Allah's servant and His Messenger, so he should not even think of reversing his hijrah. It was Allah's command that he should emigrate to Madinah because the Ansar had a soft corner for him and the Muhajirs. It is as Allah says:

وَالَّذِينَ تَبَوَّءُ الدَّارَ وَالْإِيمَانَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ يُحِبُّونَ مَنْ هَاجَرَ إِلَيْهِمْ

{And those who made their abode (in al-Madinah) before them and in faith, loving those who emigrated to them.} (59:9)

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم assured them that he was not going away from then all his life. Only death would part them.

The Ansar said to him that they were selfish in their desire to have the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم with them. They were unwilling to share this honour with anyone else. They were envious that he should incline towards others and they should deprived of his love.

The Ansar seemed to say: "Allah has granted us a blessing in your person." They were feawrful that love of relatives and native land which is natural to man should deprive them of his company and love. They were so much afraid of losing him that they could not avoid uttering unbecoming words from their lips, In this case they cannot be blamed for speaking out such an anapt sentence in spite of Allah's command:

لَا تَجْعَلُوا دُعَاءَ الرَّسُولِ بَيْنَكُمْ كَدُعَاءِ بَعْضِكُمْ بَعْضًا

{Make not the calling of the Messenger among yourselves like your calling one of another.} (24:63)

(٦٢٢٠) وَعَنْ أَنَسٍ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ رَأَى صِبْيَانًا وَّنِسَاءً مُقْبِلِيْنَ مِنْ عُرْسٍ فَقَامَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى

اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ اَنْتُمْ مِنْ اَحَبِّ النَّاسِ اِلَيَّ اَللّٰهُمَّ اَنْتُمْ مِنْ اَحَبِّ النَّاسِ اِلَيَّ يَعْنِي الْاَنْصَارَ۔

(متفق عليه)

6220.Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم saw some children and women (of the Ansar) return from a wedding. So, he stood aside (along their path) and exclaimed, "O Allah, (I call you to witness that I assure the Ansar). 'You are the dearest of all people to me!' O Allah (I call you to witness that I declare to the Ansar) 'You are the dearest of all people to me!" – He meant the Ansar.[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم repeated his words to place stress that the Ansar were dear to him. In the version in Bukhari he is said to have spoken these words thrice. Besides, some versions have (الی اللہ) instead of (الی) 'to Allah' instead of (dear) 'to me' But the version in Bukhari is three times with (الی) – (dear) to me one it is more correct.

The words (اللھم) 'O Allah ' is used as on oath 'By Allah' or to call upon Him to bear testimony. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم saw the women and children in a very cheerful mood, so he become happy and gave vent to his feelings for the Ansar. He called upon Allah to be witness to what he said.

(٦٢٢١) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ مَرَّ اَبُوْبَكْرٍ وَالْعَبَّاسُ بِمَجْلِسٍ مِنْ مَجَالِسِ الْاَنْصَارِ وَهُمْ يَبْكُوْنَ فَقَالَا مَا يُبْكِيْكُمْ قَالُوْا ذَكَرْنَا مَجْلِسَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مِنَّا فَدَخَلَ اَحَدُهُمَا عَلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَاَخْبَرَهُ بِذٰلِكَ فَخَرَجَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَقَدْ عَصَبَ عَلٰى رَاْسِهٖ حَاشِيَةَ بُرْدٍ فَصَعِدَ الْمِنْبَرَ وَلَمْ يَصْعَدْ بَعْدَ ذٰلِكَ الْيَوْمَ فَحَمِدَ اللّٰهَ وَاَثْنٰى عَلَيْهِ ثُمَّ قَالَ اُوْصِيْكُمْ بِالْاَنْصَارِ فَاِنَّهُمْ كَرِشِيْ وَعَيْبَتِيْ وَقَدْ قَضَوُا الَّذِيْ عَلَيْهِمْ وَبَقِيَ الَّذِيْ لَهُمْ فَاقْبَلُوْا مِنْ مُحْسِنِهِمْ وَتَجَاوَزُوْا عَنْ مُسِيْئِهِمْ۔ (رواه البخاری)

6221.Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ and Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ passed by a company of the Ansar. They were weeping. So, the two asked, 'What makes you weep?" (This was during the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم illness). They said 'We suddenly recalled the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم sitting among us.' So, one of the two went to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and informed him (of their coming upon the ansar). The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم came out having tied the border of his cloak wrapped round his head (to mitigate his headache) and climbed the pulpit but he never did climb it after that day. He praised and glorified Allah and then said, "(O Muhajir) I command to you the ansar. (Be kind and loving to them). They are my faithful friends and confidents. Indeed, they have discharged their obligations (to me). The reward due to them is payable. (They will get it from Allah) Do accept the excuse of the pious of them (for their shortcomings) and pass over the lapses) of the bad doers among them."[2]

COMMENTARY: The word (کرش) – kirsh translated as faithful friends' actually means stomach of a ruminating animal.' It is a human being's stomach. And (عیبہ) aybah translated as 'confidents' is a 'receptacle' or 'depository of secrets. So the phrase means that the Ansar are keepers of secrets and close friends! They are 'depositories of my secrets and reliable allies! The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم secrets and trusts were confided to them in the same way as hay and food are collected in the stomach and clothes are stored in a receptable.

These words could also mena little children.' So, "The ansar are my group, my sahabah, my friend and, for me, my family and little children. I am kind and compassionate to them. And, I sympathies with them."
The obligations of the Ansar cover help and support with life and property. It refers to their pledge at Aqabah to submit to Islam and to help the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in every manner in the path of Allah with their life and property. They were assured to paradise in return for that. This is clear from the verse revealed on the occasion:

إِنَّ اللّٰهَ اشْتَرٰى مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ اَنْفُسَهُمْ وَاَمْوَالَهُمْ بِاَنَّ لَهُمُ الْجَنَّةَ

[Surely Allah has bought from the believers their lives and their riches – for theirs shall be the Garden (in return).] (9:111)

The ansar did, indeed, fulfil their pledge.

MORE ON ANSAR'S MERITS

(٦٢٢٢) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ خَرَجَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيْ مَرَضِهِ الَّذِيْ مَاتَ فِيْهِ حَتّٰى جَلَسَ عَلَى الْمِنْبَرِ فَحَمِدَ اللّٰهَ وَاَثْنٰى عَلَيْهِ ثُمَّ قَالَ اَمَّا بَعْدُ فَاِنَّ النَّاسَ يَكْثُرُوْنَ وَيَقِلُّ الْاَنْصَارُ حَتّٰى يَكُوْنُوْا فِي النَّاسِ بِمَنْزِلَةِ الْمِلْحِ فِي الطَّعَامِ فَمَنْ وَلِيَ مِنْكُمْ شَيْئًا يَضُرُّ فِيْهِ قَوْمًا وَيَنْفَعُ فِيْهِ اٰخَرِيْنَ فَلْيَقْبَلْ مِنْ مُحْسِنِهِمْ وَلْيَتَجَاوَزْ عَنْ مُسِيْئِهِمْ - (رواه البخاری)

6222.Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that, during the illness of which he died, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم came out (of his room). He sat on the pulpit praised and glorified Allah, and then he said, "To proceed! The people (meaning, the Muslims) will have increased much in number but the ansar will be few. (This because Muslims would emigrate to Madinah from their different native lands) It will became such that the proportion of the Ansar relative to other people will be like self relative to (all of) food. Hence, (O Muhajir) if any of you wields some authority whereby he can punish some people and reward to hers, then let him accept the pious and good work of the pious people of the Ansar and pass over the evil of those of them who are bad doers."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Ansar are those of the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم who welcomed the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم to the Madinah and helped him and the Muslims in every possible way. So, for anyone to be called an Ansar is limited to a particular age those who were destined to become Ansar became. No one else can get this honour after that. This means that the number of the Ansar cannot increase at all. On the other hands, the concept of hijrah[2] subsists and will subsist. As and when people emigrate to Madinah in Allah's path, the number of Muhajirs[1] will multiply in Madinah. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had foreseen that people will come to Madinah from different lands and the scope of their authority will widen. The Ansar will continue to diminish. Their number will be limited. This is what actually happened.

The Ansar would be like salt in food.' Just as a little salt makes food delicious, so, too, the few Ansar would set the adherents of Islam right.

PRAYER FOR ANSAR & THEIR DESCENDANTS

(٦٢٢٣) وَعَنْ زَيْدِ بْنِ أَرْقَمَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَللّٰهُمَّ اغْفِرْ لِلْاَنْصَارِ وَلِاَبْنَاءِ الْاَنْصَارِ وَاَبْنَاءِ اَبْنَاءِ الْاَنْصَارِ۔ (روه مسلم)

6223.Sayyiduna Zayd ibn Arqam رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم prayed, "O Allah forgive the Ansar, the sons of the Ansar and the grandsons of the Ansar"[2]

COMMENTARY: They are respectively the sahabah رضى الله عنهم the tabi'un رضى الله عنهم and the Taba tabi'an رحمهم الله. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم prayed for three generations of the Ansar and the epithet khayr ul-qurun (best of generations) applies to them. However, the scope of this prayer could extend to their descendants up to the Last Day – both male and female offspring. The word (ابناء) abna though translated 'sons' is used also in the sense of children.'

THE BEST TRIBES OF THE ANSAR

(٦٢٢٤) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ اُسَيْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ خَيْرُ دُوْرِ الْاَنْصَارِ بَنُوْ النَّجَّارِ ثُمَّ بَنُوْ عَبْدِ الْاَشْهَلِ ثُمَّ بَنُوْ الْحَارِثِ ابْنِ الْخَزْرَجِ ثُمَّ بَنُوْ سَاعِدَةَ وَفِيْ كُلِّ دُوْرِ الْاَنْصَارِ خَيْرٌ۔ (متفق عليه)

6224.Sayyiduna Abu Usayd رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The best of the homes (meaning tribes) of the Ansar are the Banu An-Najjar, then the Banu Abd Al-Ashhal, then the Banu Al-Harith ibn Al-Khazraj, then the Banu Sa'idah. And, there is good in all the tribes of the Ansar."[3]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم specified certain tribes of the Ansar but then extended his statement to cover all their tribes. They are more excellent than the other residents of Madinah. According to Asqalani, all the Ansar have good in them, but there are grades of excellences within their whole body. The Ulama explain that these grades are in accordance with their precedence in accepting Islam.
The word (دار) daar 'house' or 'home' is used here in the sense of tribe. The tribes of the Ansar resided in neighbourhoods which were said to be daar of Banu (so and so). Also, a tribe was called by the word Banu... Many traditions have dropped the word daar and have used merely Banu (so-and-so).
This hadith is evidence that is proper to ascribe excellence to sections of a people, tribes or individuals. This will not amount to backbiting provided it is not motivated by hatred, fault finding or cavilling.

6225.Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ said, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم sent me, Zubayr رضی اللہ عنہ and Miqdad رضی اللہ عنہ - but, another version has: Abu Marthad instead of Miqdad - "saying, 'Go till you are at Rawdah Khakh. A woman is there riding a camel. She carries a letter. Take it from her (and bring it to me).' We went off, our horses galloping at full speed till we came to the rawdah. Behold! We came upon her! We said, 'bring out the letter. She protested, 'I have no letter with me.' We insisted, 'You will surely hand over the letter or strip off your garments. She produced it from her tresses, and we brought it to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. It originated from Hatib ibn Abu Balta'ah رضی اللہ عنہ and was addressed to certain idolaters of Makkah, passing on some vital information about Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. He asked 'What does this mean, O Hatib? He pleaded. "Do not be hasty concerning me, O Messenger of Allah. I have certain affairs with the Quraysh as their ally but am not one of them while the Muhajir with you have a relationship with them so that they protect their properties and families in Makkah. I have no such facility so I thought that if I do them a favour, they would protect my relatives. I have not fallen into disbelief or apostasy from my religion nor am I pleased with unbelief after embracing Islam. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم asserted. 'He has spoken the truth before you' but Umar رضی اللہ عنہ submitted, 'Permit me, Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم of Allah, to sever the head of this hypocrite.' Allah's Messengerصلى الله عليه وسلم said. 'He was a participant at Badr. What may make you understand that (he deserves not to be killed)? Perhaps Allah has a compassionate sight on the participants of Badr, telling them: do what you like. You are assured of entry into paradise.'"

According to another version: Instead of you are assured of... paradise, the words are (that "Allah says) 'I have forgiven you.' Then Allah, the Exalted, revealed (to caution such people):

يٰٓاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا لَا تَتَّخِذُوْا عَدُوِّيْ وَعَدُوَّكُمْ اَوْلِيَآءَ

[O you who believe, take not My enemy and your enemy for friends...] (60:1)[1]

COMMENTARY: Either Miqdadرضی الله عنه was sent with Aliرضی الله عنه and Zubayrرضی الله عنه or Abu Murthadرضی الله عنه was sent with them. Miqdadرضی الله عنه was the son of Amr Kind: He was a very early Muslim and one tradition puts him as the sixth Muslim, there being only five who had embraced Islam before him. He died in 35 AH at Jawf some three leagues from Madinah and his corps was brought to Madinah to be buried in the graveyard al-Baqi: He was 70 years old at that time.

Abu Murthadرضی الله عنه was the son of Husayn Ghanawi and a senior sahabi. He too participated in the Battle of Badr as well as his son, Murthadرضی الله عنه. According to Ibn Sa'dرضی الله عنه, he participated, besides Badr, in the Battles of Uhud, Khandaq (or Trench) and all others at the side of the Prophetصلى الله عليه وسلم. He died in Madinah in the time of Abu Bakrرضی الله عنه in 12 AH at the age of 66 years.

The Rawdah Khakh is a place between Madinah and Makkah, nearer Madinah. While rawdah is a garden' or 'o grassland near a river,' Khakh is the fruit 'peach'. There were many peach trees at this place. Hence, the place got the name Rawdah Khakh.

The woman to who the Prophetصلى الله عليه وسلم sent them was Sarah, or Umm Sarah. She was a slave whom the Quraysh had set free. She was carrying the letter to the idolaters of Makkah. Indeed, this was a miracle of the Prophetصلى الله عليه وسلم that he detected this serious espionage without apparent means.

She produced the letter from her tresses. Another version has: 'from her waist! So perhaps she had very long hair and had tucked them to the folds of her dress at her waist and brought it out from there.

The vital information pertained to the conscription into the army to conquer Makkah. When the Prophetصلى الله عليه وسلم commanded the Muslims to enlist and prepare for the long journey, he emphasized on them the need to keep the strategy confidential. According to one tradition, instead of disclosing his intention to invade Makkah, he made it known that he was proceeding to Khaybar. This was part of war strategy. Hatib ibn Abu Balta'ah, one of the sahabah رضی الله عنهم, knew of this confidential move. He sent information to the Qyraysh about the Prophet'sصلى الله عليه وسلم intention to further his own selfish motives. He sent it in a letter through the said woman secretly. However, Jibrilعليه السلام came down and disclosed the conspiracy to the Prophetصلى الله عليه وسلم. So, he had her intercepted. We know from this that it is allowed to intercepted and disclose a spy and read his or her letters. It is also allowed to disclose mischief-mongers when necessary and when silence would be damaging.

Hatibرضي الله عنه wished to earn gratitude of the idolaters by favouring them so that they might support his family and relatives. His intention was not to hurt the Prophetصلى الله عليه وسلم, for, it that was his motive then there was no doubt about his being a disbeliever. He had imagined that he would not harm the Prophetصلى الله عليه وسلم by passing on the secret information, and he committed a foolish mistake. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم accepted his excuse. If he was lying, then the Prophetصلى الله عليه وسلم would have known it and would never affirmed that he was true. Of course, he had committed a terrible mistake in judging his own action as permissible without consulting the Prophetصلى الله عليه وسلم.
Mulla Ali Qariرحمه الله has pointed out that though the Prophetصلى الله عليه وسلم had absolved Hatibرضي الله عنه of crime and let the sahabah رضي الله عنهم know that his excuse was justified, yet Umarرضي الله عنه asked they Prophet'sصلى الله عليه وسلم permission to cut off the hypocrite's neck; This was motivated by his strong feelings for religion which was an innate nature of Umarرضي الله عنه. He was not in favour of being soft and condoning such breaches of rules of religion. As it is, this conduct of Hatib was very serious. Moreover, at that time there were some people whose behavior smacked of hypocrisy. Shakh Abdul Haqرحمه الله says that perhaps Umarرضي الله عنه had spoken his words first and the Prophetصلى الله عليه وسلم had absolved Hatib after that because it seems far-fetched to believe that Umarرضي الله عنه called Hatibرضي الله عنه a hypocrite even after hearing the Prophetصلى الله عليه وسلم condone his conduct.
The participants of Badr were told, "You may do what you like." This does not mean that they were at full liberty in their practical life to do bad and neglect their religious obligations. Rather this Divine saying assures them of Allah's favour and their great rank in the hereafter because of their participation in the Battle of Badr. This had been decreed. So, they were permitted to perform (supererogatory) righteous deeds and optional worship as they liked, little or much. Whatever they did was regarded as enough.
They were assured of paradise. Teebi said that the word (لعل) – perhaps was used by the Prophetصلى الله عليه وسلم to express hope while addressing Umarرضي الله عنه otherwise he himself was confident of their entry into paradise. He also used this word so that the participants of Badr might not become over-confident and begin to neglect their obligatory duties in religion, and they might not construe (اعملوا ما شئتم) (do what you like) to imagine that they might perpetrate whatever they liked.
Allah assured them that He had forgiven them. This assurance is more strong than 'you are assured of paradise.' According to Nawawiرحمه الله this assurance of forgiveness pertains only to the hereafter, not to this world, too. For example, if any of the participants of Badr were to perpetrate a crime which attracts the had (or, a prescribed punishment) then he was liable to be punished. Thus, Mistah ibn Uthathahرضي الله عنه, one of the participants of Badr slandered Sayyidah Aysahرضي الله عنها but the Qur'an exonerated her and affirmed her chastity. So, the Prophetصلى الله عليه وسلم awarded Mistahرضي الله عنه with the prescribed punishment for slander.
The verses that were revealed on the occasion of Hatib's affair speak of it thus:

يٰۤاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا لَا تَتَّخِذُوْا عَدُوِّيْ وَعَدُوَّكُمْ اَوْلِيَآءَ تُلْقُوْنَ اِلَيْهِمْ بِالْمَوَدَّةِ وَقَدْ كَفَرُوْا بِمَا جَآءَكُمْ مِّنَ الْحَقِّ

{O you who believe take not My enemy and your enemy for friends, offering them love, while they indeed deny the Truth that has come to you (and) have expelled the Messenger and yourselves because you believe in Allah, your Lord. If you go forth to strive in My way and seek My good pleasure (then take them not for friends), secretly loving them, yet I know best what you conceal and what you reveal. And whosoever of you does that, he has indeed strayed from the right path. If they overcome you, they will be enemies to you, and stretch against you their hands and their tongues with evil, and they desire that you disbelieve. Neither your relationships nor your children will avail you upon the day of resurrection. He shall decide between you. And Allah is seer of what you do. Indeed, there is for you an excellent example in Ibrahim and those with him, when they said to their people, "We are quit of you and of that which you worship besides Allah. We disbelieve in you, and there has arisen between us and you enmity and hatred forever, until you believe in Allah alone" - except Ibrahim's saying to his father, "I shall ask forgiveness for you, though I own nothing for you from Allah." (They prayed) "Our Lord in You do we trust and to you do we turn and to you is the eventual return."} (60: 1-4)

Though the background of these verses was the case of Hatibرضی الله عنه, yet the address is of a general nature to cover other people of the type of Hatib. This is why it is said:

العبرة بعموم اللفظ لا بخصوص السبب

"Reliance is on the general message, not one with a specified reason."

If a verse is revealed against a specific background or about a particular person, then it will not necessarily be restricted to that background or that person. Rather, its application will be overall. It will apply to anyone who falls under its purview. It will be presumed that the verse was revealed concerning him who falls under its purview.

THE GREATNESS OF PARTICIPANTS OF BADR

(٦٢٢٦) وَعَنْ رِفَاعَةَ ابْنِ رَافِعٍ قَالَ جَاءَ جِبْرَئِيلُ إِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَا تَعُدُّونَ أَهْلَ بَدْرٍ فِيكُمْ قَالَ مِنْ أَفْضَلِ الْمُسْلِمِينَ أَوْ كَلِمَةً نَحْوَهَا قَالَ وَكَذَٰلِكَ مَنْ شَهِدَ بَدْرًا مِنَ الْمَلَائِكَةِ۔ (رواه البخاری)

6226.Sayyiduna Rifa'ah ibn Rafiرضی الله عنه said that Jibrilعلیه السلام came to the Prophetصلی الله علیه وسلم and asked, "How do you rate among you those who had participated in the Battle of Badr?" He said, "Among the most excellent of the Muslims." Or, (he spoke) words like these in meaning. He (Jibrilعلیه السلام said, "So it is with the angels who took part in (the Battle of) Badr."[1]

COMMENTARY: Jibrilعليه السلام said, "Just as you rate the participants of Badr as superior to other Muslims, so do we rate those angels who were at Badr as better than the other angels who did not have an apportunity to be there."

PEOPLE AT BADR & AT HUDAYBIYAH

(٦٢٢٧) وَعَنْ حَفْصَةَ قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنِّيْ لَأَرْجُوْ أَنْ لَّا يَدْخُلَ النَّارَ إِنْ شَاءَ اللّٰهُ أَحَدٌ شَهِدَ بَدْرًا وَالْحُدَيْبِيَّةَ قُلْتُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ أَلَيْسَ قَدْ قَالَ اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى وَإِنْ مِّنْكُمْ إِلَّا وَارِدُهَا قَالَ فَلَمْ تَسْمَعِيْهِ يَقُوْلُ ثُمَّ نُنَجِّي الَّذِيْنَ اتَّقَوْا وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ لَا يَدْخُلُ النَّارَ إِنْ شَاءَ اللّٰهُ مِنْ أَصْحَابِ الشَّجَرَةِ أَحَدٌ نِ الَّذِيْنَ بَايَعُوْا تَحْتَهَا۔ (رواه مسلم)

6227.Sayyidah Hafsah رضی الله عنها narrated that Allah's Messengerصلى الله عليه وسلم said, "I am hopeful that, if Allah will, whoever was present at Badr and at Hudaybiyah will not enter hell." So, she asked, "O Messenger of Allah, has not Allah, the Most High, said indeed:

وَإِنْ مِّنْكُمْ إِلَّا وَارِدُهَا

{And there is not one of you, but shall come to it.}" (19:71)

Then, he asked, "Have you not heard Him say (after that):

ثُمَّ نُنَجِّي الَّذِيْنَ اتَّقَوْا

{Then we shall deliver those who fear (Allah)}?" (19:22)

According to another version: (He said,) "If Allah will, none of the ashab ush shajarah will enter hell. They are those who swore allegiance under the tree." (ashab ush-shajarah are they who pledged allegiance under the tree)[2]

COMMENTARY: The verse(n) of the surah Maryam (19) means that on the day of resurrection, everyone will have to go over the bridge, sirat, which will be erected above hell so, everyone will have to encounter hell without doubt. Nawawiرحمه الله said that 'coming to hell' is to pass over the sirat.' When people are manoeuvring themselves on it, those destined to go to hell will fall down into it, but those who are to go to paradise will go past it safely and enter paradise.

However, Sayyidah Hafsah رضی الله عنها perhaps thought that the verse implied that everyone, including those who were at Badr and Hudaybiyah will have to go to hell first. The Prophetصلى الله عليه وسلم made it clear to her that the verse meant that everyone will encounter the bridge, sirat, and the condemned will fall into hell. He cited the next verse (72). She did not mean to question the Prophetصلى الله عليه وسلم, but sought to know how his words may be explained in the context of the verse (19:71)

Her question was in obedience to the command to ask a scholar to explain what one does not understand, whether a verse, a hadith or any religious issue.

MERIT OF THOSE WHO WERE AT HUDAYBIYAH

(٦٢٢٨) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ كُنَّا يَوْمَ الْحُدَيْبِيَّةِ اَلْفًا وَاَرْبَعَ مِائَةٍ قَالَ لَنَا النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَنْتُمُ الْيَوْمَ خَيْرٌ مِّنْ اَهْلِ الْاَرْضِ۔ (متفق عليه)

6228.Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه said, "On the day of Hudaybiyah, we were one thousand and four hundred people. The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said to us. 'Today, you are the best of all people on the earth.'"[1]

COMMENTARY: Previously, we have spoken on the number of people at Hudaybiyah. Traditions differ on their number. Suyuti رحمه الله and others have said that the most excellent among the sahabah were respectively: the four caliphs, ashrah mubashsharah, participants at Badr. Participants at Uhud and the people (who pledged) at Hudaybiyah.

MERIT OF THESE WHO WERE AT BADR

(٦٢٢٩) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ يَّصْعَدُ الثَّنِيَّةَ ثَنِيَّةَ الْمُرَارِ فَاِنَّهٗ يُحَطُّ عَنْهُ مَا حُطَّ عَنْ بَنِيْ اِسْرَائِيْلَ فَكَانَ اَوَّلُ مَنْ صَعِدَهَا خَيْلُنَا خَيْلُ بَنِي الْخَزْرَجِ ثُمَّ تَتَامَّ النَّاسُ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كُلُّكُمْ مَغْفُوْرٌ لَّهٗ اِلَّا صَاحِبَ الْجَمَلِ الْاَحْمَرِ فَاَتَيْنَاهُ فَقُلْنَا تَعَالَ يَسْتَغْفِرْ لَكَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَاَنْ اَجِدَ ضَالَّتِيْ اَحَبُّ اِلَيَّ مِنْ اَنْ يَّسْتَغْفِرَ لِيْ صَاحِبُكُمْ رَوَاهُ مُسْلِمٌ وَذُكِرَ حَدِيْثُ اَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِاُبَيِّ بْنِ كَعْبٍ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ اَمَرَنِيْ اَنْ اَقْرَاَ عَلَيْكَ فِيْ بَابٍ بَعْدَ فَضَائِلِ الْقُرْاٰنِ۔

6229. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه narrated, "Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said (while on the way to Hudaybiyah), 'He who climbs the (mountain) pass of Thaniyyat ul-Murar will be forgiven what was forgiven to Banu Isra'il. So, the first to ascend it were our horses, the horsemen of Banu al-Khazraj. Then other people followed. And, Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, 'All of you are forgiven but not the owner of the red camel' (who was the chief hypocrite, Abdullah ibn Ubayy). So, we went to him and said, "Come! (We shall request) Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم (and he) will ask forgiveness for you!' But, he bragged, 'That I find what I have lost is dearer to me than get your companion to ask forgiveness for me"[2]

COMMENTARY: The thaniyah is a pass (and is repeated at thaniyah thaniyah murar). Murar is a place between Makkah and Mandinah near Hudaybiyah.

The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم had spoken these words when, in 6AH, he was on his way to perform umrah at Makkah. But, he did not proceed beyond Hudaybiyah where that famous Peace Treaty of Hudaybiyah was concluded. When he came to the pass of Murar at night, he spoke those words to raise the spirits of the people, his sahabah, because the climb was a very difficult proposition or there was likelihood of the enemy lying in wait on the other side to attack the Muslims suddenly. So it was necessary to climb up though it was beset with danger.

The reference to Banu Isra'il recalls the words of the Qur'an:

وَقُولُوا حِطَّةٌ نَّغْفِرْ لَكُمْ خَطَايَاكُمْ

{Say, Zittatun' (O Allah forgive us, we repent), we shall forgive you your sins} (2 : 58)

When the Banu Isra'il were in the wilderness moving aimlessly, very perplexed, for forty years in the time of Prophet Musaعليه السلام. Allah was kind to let them have the shade of a cloud over them and sent down mann and salwa (quails) to eat. Then He commanded them to move to Ariha in Syria. They were instructed to enter the city with humility and submission, saying, (حطة) hittatun (O Allah, forgive us). They were assured that if they obided by it, then their past sins would be forgiven. But, not only did they not obey these instructions, they changed the word (حطة) hittatun to one that asked for their worldly desire. So they were punished with plague because of which seventy thousand of their people died.

Hence, the words of the Prophet, ... what was forgiven to Banu Isra'il' mean the promise to forgive them if they abided by the instructions.

The Khazraj was a tribe of the Ansar of Madinah. Jabirرضى الله عنه belonged to it. As stated previously, Aws and Khazraj were two brothers (see hadith # 6215 comment).

As for Abdullah ibn Ubayy, perhaps his red camel may have disappeared or he may have lost something. When the sahabah رضى الله عنهم offered to take him to the Prophetصلى الله عليه وسلم, he said in a very disinterested manner that he was more concerned with locating what he had lost. His words had the odour of disbelief and he was very wicked internally. So, he was a rejected person all through his life. It is about such people that Allah says:

وَإِذَا قِيلَ لَهُمْ تَعَالَوْا يَسْتَغْفِرْ لَكُمْ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ لَوَّوْا رُءُوسَهُمْ وَرَأَيْتَهُمْ يَصُدُّونَ وَهُمْ مُسْتَكْبِرُونَ *

سَوَاءٌ عَلَيْهِمْ أَسْتَغْفَرْتَ لَهُمْ أَمْ لَمْ تَسْتَغْفِرْ لَهُمْ لَنْ يَغْفِرَ اللَّهُ لَهُمْ۔ (الاية)

{And when it is said to them, 'come! Allah's Messenger will ask forgiveness for you,' they twist their heads and you see them turning away their faces, while they show arrogance. Equal it is for them whether you ask forgiveness for them or ask not forgiveness for them.} (63 : 5-6)

وَذُكِرَ حَدِيثُ أَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِأُبَيِّ بْنِ كَعْبٍ إِنَّ اللَّهَ أَمَرَنِي أَنْ أَقْرَأَ عَلَيْكَ فِي بَابٍ بَعْدَ فَضَائِلِ الْقُرْآنِ۔

And the hadith of Anasرضى الله عنه that he said to Ubayy ibn Ka'b .... has been mentioned at # 2196.

SECTION II الفصل الثاني

MERIT OF ABU BAKRرضى الله عنه, UMARرضى الله عنه AND IBN MAS'UDرضى الله عنه

(٦٢٣٠) عَنِ ابْنِ مَسْعُودٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اقْتَدُوا بِاللَّذَيْنِ مِنْ بَعْدِي مِنْ أَصْحَابِي أَبِي بَكْرٍ وَعُمَرَ وَاهْتَدُوا بِهَدْيِ عَمَّارٍ وَتَمَسَّكُوا بِعَهْدِ ابْنِ أُمِّ عَبْدٍ وَفِي رِوَايَةِ حُذَيْفَةَ مَا حَدَّثَكُمُ ابْنُ مَسْعُودٍ فَصَدِّقُوهُ بَدَلَ وَتَمَسَّكُوا بِعَهْدِ ابْنِ أُمِّ عَبْدٍ۔ (رواه الترمذى)

6230.Sayyiduna Ibn Mas'ud رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "After I depart follow (and emulate) these two of my sahabah, Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه and Umar رضى الله عنه (who will be caliphs) take the guidance of Ammar and hold fast to the covenant of Ibn Umm Abd (meaning Abdullah ibn Masud)."

According to the version of Hudhayfah رضى الله عنه (the words are:) "Confirm what Ibn Mas'ud رضى الله عنه narrates or tells you, instead of hold fast to the covenant of Ibn Umm Abd.[1]

COMMENTARY: The translation 'who will be caliphs' is in keeping with the rendering of Shaykh Abdul Haq. But, the translation suggested by Mulla Ali Qari رحمه الله is: "After my death – or, after following me – follow these two who are my sahabah. They are Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه and Umar رضى الله عنه. "These two are to whom (الذين) refers. The word (اقتدوا) emulate' is used in reference to them.

For Ammar (اهتدوا) take guidance' is used. It is less general than emulate, which covers both 'words' and 'deeds', while 'guidance' is had only by following someone in 'deeds'.

These words of the hadith speak of the merit of Ammar Ibn Yasir رضى الله عنه. He was not removed from pursuing true guidance. These words also confirm the caliphate of Sayyiduna Ali Ibn Talib رضى الله عنه as true and justified because when he and Muawiyah رضى الله عنه differed, Ammar رضى الله عنه supported him.

The word (عهد) translated 'covenant' (of Ibn Umm Abd) means 'saying' and instructions. Whatever Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضى الله عنه said about the commands and rulings of religion and urged to do should be observed strictly.

ABU HANIFAH'S رحمه الله FIQH: It is this command of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم on which Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله has based his fiqh. He deduces the rulings from the traditions and sayings of the four caliphs and after them, from the traditions and sayings of Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضى الله عنه whose rulings were perfect and instructions sincere.

Toorpushti too has given nearly the same meaning of (عهد) 'covenant', but he has preferred to say that the 'covenant of Ibn Umm Abd' means his opinion about the caliphate and his verdict. In other words, the ummah was given instructions that, after the death of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, the opinion of Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضى الله عنه should be respected concerning the caliphate. Accordingly, he gave testimony for Abu Bakr's رضى الله عنه caliphate and all senior sahabah رضى الله عنهم gave similar advice. His main evidence was that they could not ignore the example of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم who put Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه ahead during his illness (to lead people in the salah) as Imam. It was not possible to put behind (one whom the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had selected as our imam) when selecting our leader for religious and state affairs.

A similar opinion was expressed by Ali رضى الله عنه too. The portion of the hadith between the initial words about following (and emulating) Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه and Umar رضى الله عنه and the closing words about holding fast to the covenant of Ibn Umm Abd supports the opinion of Toorpushti. But, the version of Hudhayfah رضى الله عنه supports the view that 'covenant' stands for 'sayings' and instructions'.

(٦٢٣١) وَعَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَوْ كُنْتُ مُؤَمِّرًا اَحَدًا مِنْ غَيْرِ مَشْوَرَةٍ لَاَمَّرْتُ عَلَيْهِمُ ابْنَ اُمِّ عَبْدٍ۔ (رواه الترمذی و ابن ماجة)

6231.Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Were I to appoint someone as an amir without consulting anyone, I would appoint Ibn 'Umm Abd."[1]

COMMENTARY: Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ possessed such qualities that there was no need to give second thought before appointing him to any office of authority. The ulama say that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had spoken these words while making him commander of an army, or entrusting to him a responsibility. But, he did not had caliphate in mind which was to begin after his death. An important condition of caliphate was that the incumbent should be a Quraysh and Ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ was not a Quraysh.

6232.Sayyiduna Khaythmah ibn Abu Sabrah رضی اللہ عنہ (a senior tabi'r) narrated, "When I came to Madinah, I prayed to Allah to let me have the company of a good man. He made me meet Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ. I sat with him and disclosed to him, I had prayed to Allah to let me have a good companion to sit with and He let me have (one like) you.' He asked, "I am a resident of Kufah and have come desiring and looking for good.' He asked 'Is not there among you Sa'd ibn Maalik رضی اللہ عنہ whose prayers are answered? And, Ibn Mas'ud (the privileged attendant) who was responsible for the water for ablution and sandals for Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم? And, Hudhayfah رضی اللہ عنہ who was the confident of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم (who had confided to him the names of the hypocrites, and other secrets)? And, Ammar رضی اللہ عنہ whom Allah gave protection from the devil through the tongue of His Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم? And Salman رضی اللہ عنہ, who believed in two Books - the Injil and the Quran?"[2]

SA'D IBN MAALIK رضی اللہ عنہ: He is Sa'd ibn Abu Waqqasرضی اللہ عنہ whom we have mentioned previously as one where prayers were granted. Abu Waqqas was Maalik. (see hadith # 6112) We have also spoken previously of A mar رضی اللہ عنہ.
Before Salman embraced Islam, he was a Christian. So, he had read the Injil too and believed in it. He is also mentioned previously. He was known as Salmanرضی اللہ عنہ al-Khayr. No one knows the name of his father. When asked, he would say (انا ابن الاسلام) "I am the son of Islam."

MERIT OF SOME MORE SAHABAH رضی اللہ عنہم

(٦٢٣٣) وَعَنْ اَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نِعْمَ الرَّجُلُ اَبُوبَكْرٍ نِعْمَ الرَّجُلُ عُمَرُ نِعْمَ الرَّجُلُ اَبُوْعُبَيْدَةَ بْنُ الْجَرَاحِ نِعْمَ الرَّجُلُ اُسَيْدُ بْنُ حُضَيْرٍ نِعْمَ الرَّجُلُ ثَابِتُ بْنُ قَيْسِ ابْنِ شَمَّاسٍ نِعْمَ الرَّجُلُ مُعَاذُ بْنُ جَبَلٍ نِعْمَ الرَّجُلُ مُعَاذُ بْنُ عَمْرِو بْنِ الْجَمُوْحِ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هذا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ.

6233.Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrahرضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messengerصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said. "How excellent a man is Abu Bakrرضی اللہ عنہ! Umarرضی اللہ عنہ is an excellent man! Abu Ubaydahرضی اللہ عنہ ibn Al-Jarrah is an excellent man! Usayd ibn Hudayr is an excellent man! Thabit ibn Qays ibn Shammas is an excellent man! Mu'adh ibn Jabal is an excellent man! Mu'adh ibn Amr ibn Al-Jamuh is an excellent man!"[1]

COMMENTARY: Previously, we have mentioned merits of Abu Bakrرضی اللہ عنہ, Umarرضی اللہ عنہ, Abu Ubaydahرضی اللہ عنہ, Thabit ibn Qaysرضی اللہ عنہ and Sa'd ibn Jabalرضی اللہ عنہ.
Usayd ibn Hudayr was an Ansar of Madinah and he belonged to the Aws. He was present at Aqabah for the pledge and at Badr too as also the Battles thereafter. He narrated ahadith and many shahbahرضی اللہ عنہم transmitted from him. He died in Madinah in 20AH and was buried in al-Baqi'
Amr ibn Jamuhرضی اللہ عنہ was also an Ansar. He belonged to the tribe Khazraj. He was present at Aqabah and at Badr. He died in the time of Uthmanرضی اللہ عنہ.
All the sahabah mentioned in the hadith are senior shahbah and are both Muhajir and Ansar. Perhaps, they may have been together with the Prophetصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم some time. Or, there may have been some reason for naming them one by one in such a way

THREE FOR WHOM PARADISE WAITS

(٦٢٣٤) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ الْجَنَّةَ تَشْتَاقُ اِلٰى ثَلٰثَةٍ عَلِيٍّ وَعَمَّارٍ وَسَلْمَانَ. (رواه الترمذى)

6234.Sayyiduna Anasرضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger said, "Indeed, paradise awaits (with longing) three people: Aliرضی اللہ عنہ, Ammarرضی اللہ عنہ and Salmanرضی اللہ عنہ."[1]

COMMENTARY: These three men are such inhabitants of paradise that even paradise anxiously awaits them. Or, as some interpret it, the angels and the maidens of paradise await their arrival.

Teebiرضی اللہ عنہ has said that this hadith may be compared with a previous one about the throne shaking on the death of Sa'd ibn Mu'adhرضی اللہ عنہ (see hadith # 6206)

MERIT OF AMMARرضی اللہ عنہ

(٦٢٣٥) وَعَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ اسْتَاذَنَ عَمَّارٌ عَلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ ائْذَنُوْا لَهُ مَرْحَبًا بِالطَّيِّبِ الْمُطَيَّبِ۔ (رواه الترمذى)

6235.Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ said that (once) Ammarرضی اللہ عنہ sought permission to enter into the presence of the Prophetصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. He said, "Let him come in. Welcome O pure one with pure habits".[2]

COMMENTARY: The word (طیب) tayyib refers to Ammar'sرضی اللہ عنہ intrinsic purity while (مطیب) mutayyib (in the Arabic text) to his pure manners and habits. Mullah Ali Qariرحمہ اللہ said that these words are used to accentuate praise of Ammarرضی اللہ عنہ.

(٦٢٣٦) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا خُيِّرَ عَمَّارٌ بَيْنَ الْأَمْرَيْنِ إِلَّا اخْتَارَ أَشَدَّهُمَا۔ (رواه الترمذى)

6236.Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that Allah's Messengerصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, 'Ammarرضی اللہ عنہ is never given a choice between two possibilities but he chooses the more difficult course."[3]

COMMENTARY: Ammarرضی اللہ عنہ chose the difficult course to be able to get more merit in the manner of sufis and mystics who aim to get more nearness to Allah. However, the Prophetصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم always chose the easier and the lighter course. His intention was to create ease and facility for his Ummah.

According to another version: Ammarرضی اللہ عنہ opted for the easier course.' The ulama say that the hadith means that it depended on how Ammarرضی اللہ عنہ considered the choice before him. He chose the one which he himself rated as difficult for him. As for the second version, it depends on how the others rated the work, meaning they thought that Ammarرضی اللہ عنہ had often for an easier course but in fact it was difficult and severe for him.

MERIT OF SA'D IBN MU'ADH رضی اللہ عنہ

(٦٢٣٧) وَعَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ لَمَّا حُمِلَتْ جَنَازَةُ سَعْدِ بْنِ مُعَاذٍ قَالَ الْمُنَافِقُوْنَ مَا أَخَفَّ جَنَازَتَهُ ذٰلِكَ لِحُكْمِهِ فِي

[2] Tirmidhi # 3798 (3823)

[3] Tirmidhi # 3799 (3824) (اختار اشدھما) Note: Tirmidhi has (اختار اشدھما) instead of chose the better course (and not edifficult course). So it is in the Arabic text of Mishkah of Dar Kutub ul-Ilmiyah, Beirut. (See comments of Mazahir Haq) Also Ibn Majah # 148 has as Tirmidhi & the Beirut edition: (اختار اشدھما)

بَنِيْ قُرَيْظَةَ فَبَلَغَ ذٰلِكَ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ إِنَّ الْمَلٰٓئِكَةَ كَانَتْ تَحْمِلُهُ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

6237.Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه narrated that when the bier of Sa'd ibn Mu'adh رضی الله عنه was carried, the hypocrites commented, 'How light is his bier! That is because of his judgment against the Banu Qurayzah". This was conveyed to the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم and he explained, "Surely, the angels carried it."[1]

COMMENTARY: The judgement against Banu Qurayzah pertained to their treachery and betrayal of their promises to Muslim during the Battle of the Trench in Dhul Qa'dah 50 AH. After the Battle, the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم besieged them to nip in the bud their mischief, conspiracies and betrayal forever. They neither came out to resist nor agreed to surrender, but when the siege extended to twenty five days and they found no relief, they sent message that they would submit to the judgement of Sa'd ibn Mu'adh رضی الله عنه. so, the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم instructed Sa'd رضی الله عنه to decide the case in a fair and just manner. He considered all aspects of the case and gave his judgement: All make members of Banu Qurayzah must be put to death. Their women and children must be dealt with in the same way as war prisoners are treated. Their properties and estates must be divided among the Muslims.

The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم put his judgement into action. He said to Sa'd رضی الله عنه, "Your decision concurs with the command of Allah issued above the seven heavens."

Therefore, when Sa'd ibn Mu'adh رضی الله عنه died and his bier was being carried, the hypocrites, who never lost an opportunity to give vent to their evil feelings against Islam and its adherents and were sympathetic to the enemies of Islam, seized the moment to criticize Sa'd رضی الله عنه. They alleged that his corpse was light in weight because he had been unjust to Banu Qurayzah. In truth, it was the evel mind of the hypocrites and their hatred of the Muslims that they termed a very just judgement as cruel and unjust.

The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said that Sa'd's رضی الله عنه bier was light in weight because the angels had joined in carrying it. Its light weight had no connexion with his judgement which was only a fig of the imagination of the ignorant hypocrites. Besides, if a corpse is light in weight, it is a good sign but if it is heavy then that is not a good sign. Those possessed with Divine awareness contend that if a dead body is heavy then it means that the person had lived a life craving for worldly pleasures. If it is light in weight then it suggests that the person was disinterested in worldly advancement, and was desirous of the hereafter and the meeting with Allah, and his soul flew away swiftly to the higher world.

The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم spoke about the angels carrying the bier to raise the esteem of Sa'd رضی الله عنه and to make known his greatness. Allah says:

وَلِلّٰهِ الْعِزَّةُ وَلِرَسُوْلِهٖ وَلِلْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ وَلٰكِنَّ الْمُنَافِقِيْنَ لَا يَعْلَمُوْنَ

{And might belongs to Allah and to His Messenger and to the believers, but the hypocrites know not.} (63:8)

MERIT OF ABU DHARR رضی الله عنه

(٦٢٣٨) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ مَا أَظَلَّتِ الْخَضْرَاءُ وَلَا

اَقَلَّتِ الْغَبْرَاءُ اَصْدَقَ مِنْ اَبِیْ ذَرٍّ۔ (رواه الترمذى)

6238.Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Amrرضی اللہ عنہ narrated, "I heard Allah's Messengerصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say, 'Neither has the blue heaven given shade to, nor has the dust covered earth carried, anyone more truthful than Abu Dharrرضی اللہ عنہ."[1]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Abu Dharr Ghifariرضی اللہ عنہ was one of those great, glorious shahbahرضی اللہ عنہ who led a contended, ascetic, celibate life and preferred poverty. He shunned every kind of worldly comfort. He has been mentioned previously too.

What has been said about him here is meant to lay over emphasis on his excellence, not to absent that no one else was as truthful as he was. This clarification becomes necessary because Abu Bakrرضی اللہ عنہ is the Siddiq of this ummah and the Most excellent and superior man of the Ummah after the Prophetصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. So, Abu Dharrرضی اللہ عنہ cannot be said to be more truthful than Abu Bakrرضی اللہ عنہ. Besides, the Prophetصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and all the Prophetsعلیہ السلام are definitely more truthful than Abu Dharrرضی اللہ عنہ and all people on earth. So, this saying is actually an overstatement.

(٦٢٣٩) وَعَنْ اَبِیْ ذَرٍّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا اَظَلَّتِ الْخَضْرَاءُ وَلَا اَقَلَّتِ الْغَبْرَاءُ مِنْ ذِیْ لَهْجَةٍ اَصْدَقُ وَلَا اَوْفٰى مِنْ اَبِیْ ذَرٍّ شِبْهُ عِيْسَى بْنِ مَرْيَمَ يَعْنِیْ فِی الزُّهْدِ۔ (رواه الترمذى)

6239.Sayyiduna Abu Dharrرضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messengerصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Neither has the blue heaven given shade to, nor has the dust-filled earth carried, a speaker more truthful than Abu Dharrرضی اللہ عنہ who gives the right (of Allah and His Messenger). He resembles Eesa ibn Maryamعلیہ السلام, meaning in asceticism."[2]

COMMENTARY: The second phase 'and who gives the right ...' has been translated also as 'who gives the right of speech' (more than Abu Dharrرضی اللہ). The right of speech is to bring nothing on the tongue but what is right, true and pious, Another right is to speak clearly with correct delivery and pronunciation with proper sentences, etc. allowing for nuances.

The gist of the hadith is that Abu Dharrرضی اللہ عنہ was never deterred in expressing the truth. He was always truthful and straight forward even if it was unpleasant to the listeners. He obeyed Allah and His Messengerصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم in a perfect, unwavering way.

Thus there is no one under the heaven or an the surface of the earth as truthful, faithful to his word and to the right of Allah and His Messengerصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and fluent in speech as Abu Dharrرضی اللہ عنہ. Abu Dharr'sرضی اللہ عنہ asceticism, abstinence and celibacy earned a comparison to Sayyiduna Eesa Ibn Maryamعلیہ السلام. He was abstinent to such an extent that not only the unlawful, he abstained also from the permissible things, and deprived himself of them. He was perfectly perseverant with his life of celibacy. He regarded keeping wealth and property as forbidden, even if earned through lawful means, and Zakah and other dues were paid regularly.

One day, Abu Dharrرضی اللہ عنہ went to the caliph Uthmanرضی اللہ عنہ. Ka'bرضی اللہ عنہ was also there and they were conversing about Abdur Rahmanرضی اللہ عنہ ibn Awf who had died leaving behind abundant wealth and property. Sayyiduna Uthmanرضی اللہ عنہ wondered if his wealth would not prevent his rank from being raised. Ka'bرضی الله عنه said, "If he had been giving Allah's rights and paying zakah on his wealth regularly then there is no harm in owning as much wealth as he did." Abu Dharrرضی الله عنه could not endure these words of Ka'bرضی الله عنه, so he picked up his staff and struck Ka'bرضی الله عنه with it and he said that he had heard Allah's Messengerصلی الله علیه وسلم say, "If I had as much gold as this (Uhud) mountain and I spent it in Allah's path, then, though my spending may have been approved, I shall not like that I should leave behind six ooqiyah (which equals two hundred and forty dirhams) of gold."

[1] Tirmidhi # 3801(3827)

Then, Abu Dharrرضی الله عنه asked Uthmanرضی الله عنه, "I adjure by Allah, tell me had you heard the Prophetصلی الله علیه وسلم speak these words. He asked this question three times. Uthmanرضی الله عنه said, "Yes! I had heard the Prophetصلی الله علیه وسلم say so."
In short, Abu Dharrرضی الله عنه was a perfect ascetic who had abandoned the world. He led a life of poverty. So, it was his contention that it is not allowed to spend everything Allah gives in His path. He was so very strong in his conviction that he was not prepared to listen to anything in favour of saving wealth.
However, as far as the real issue is concerned, the majority opinion is that if zakah and other dues, if any, are paid on it regularly then there is no sin in saving wealth howsoever much it be. As for the Prophet'sصلی الله علیه وسلم saying quoted by Abu Dharrرضی الله عنه, there is nothing in it about the evil of wealth or at saving it, though Abu Dharrرضی الله عنه may have presumed otherwise. All the Prophetعلیه السلام expressed was his disinterest with wealth and property of the world and he exhorted people to spend in Allah's path. He did not mean to say that it was disallowed to save wealth if acquired through lawful means and if its right is given (its right is to pay zakah due on it.)
The concluding words 'meaning in asceticism' are spoken by a sub-narrator. They are not part of the real tradition. The compiler of Isti'ab has reproduced a hadith with these words of the Prophetصلی الله علیه وسلم: "He who cherishes the hope to observe the humility and simplicity of Eesaعلیه السلام must see Abu Dharrرضی الله عنه." The is evidence that when the Prophetصلی الله علیه وسلم said in the hadith(#6239) under discussion that Abu Dharrرضی الله عنه resembled Sayyiduna Eesa ibn Maryamعلیه السلام, he meant in humility and unassertiveness. Hence the sub narrator who said in asceticism was not aware of the hadith cited by the compiler of Isti'ab. Of course, both attributes 'asceticism' and 'humility' are not contradictory and may be found in anyone together. In fact, an ascetic will essentially be humble. Moreover, this quotation meaning in asceticism' does not in the original book, Masabih, but is added by the compiler of the Mishkah.

FOUR LEARNED SAHABAH رضی الله عنهم

(٦٢٤٠) وَعَنْ مُعَاذِ بْنِ جَبَلٍ لَمَّا حَضَرَتِ الْمَوْتُ قَالَ الْتَمِسُوْا الْعِلْمَ عِنْدَ اَرْبَعَةٍ عِنْدَ عُوَيْمِرٍ اَبِي الدَّرْدَآءِ وَعِنْدَ سَلْمَانَ وَعِنْدَ ابْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ وَعِنْدُ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ سَلَامٍ الَّذِىْ كَانَ يَهُوْدِيًّا فَاَسْلَمَ فَاِنِّي سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ اِنَّهُ عَاشِرُ عَشَرَةٍ فِي الْجَنَّةِ۔ (رواه الترمذى)

6240.Sayyiduna Mu'adh ibn Jabalرضی الله عنه said when his death was at hand, "Seek knowledge from these four:
From Uwaymir (whose Kunyah was) Abu Dardaرضی الله عنه, from Salmanرضی الله عنه (Farsi), from Ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ and from Abdullah ibn Salaam رضی اللہ عنہ who had been a Jew before he embraced Islam. I had heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say (about Ibn Salaam), 'He will be the tenth of the (first) ten to enter paradise."[1]

COMMENTARY: Knowledge' here is the knowledge of Allah's Book and the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم Sunnah. It could also mean the specific potential to distinguish between the lawful and the unlawful. This second meaning is more sound in the light of the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم words:

اعلمکم بالحلال والحرام معاذ بن جبل

"Among you, Muadh ibn Jabal رضی اللہ عنہ is the most learned about what is lawful and what unlawful."

The real name of Abu Darda رضی اللہ عنہ was Uwaymir, but he was better known by his Kunyah. (Sayyidah) Darda رضی اللہ عنہ was his daughter. He was an Ansar of the Khazraj tribe. He was a great jurist and a glorious scholar. He was a high ranking ascetic and a very wise man. He was one of the ahl us-suffah. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had established fraternal ties between him and Salman Farsi رضی اللہ عنہ. Later, he moved to Syria and died in Damascus in 32 AH.

Ibn Salaam: Abdullah ibn Salaam رضی اللہ عنہ had been Jew and a great scholar of the religion of Prophet Musa علیہ السلام, and the Torah. So, he recognized the signs of Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم as given in the Torah. He was waiting for him and was very anxious to see him. therefore, when the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم arrived, he met him on the very first day and promptly embraced Islam.

Tenth of the ten: These words might give an impression that Abdullah ibn Salaam رضی اللہ عنہ was on the ashrah mubashsharah (ten who were given tidings of entry into paradise). But, this is not so, Rather, he is like the tenth who was given these tidings, or he will enter paradise after nine of the sahabah have entered it and will be tenth in sequence to go to paradise. But, this latter meaning is defective in the sense that it implies he will enter paradise even before some of the ashrah mubashsharah.

This sentence may also mean that he is the tenth of the ten Jews who accepted Islam. Or, he will be the tenth of the first ten to enter paradise after the ashrah mubashsharah have entered it, so he will be the nineteenth of the sahabah to enter paradise.

MERIT OF HUDHAYFAH & IBN MAS'UD رضی اللہ عنہ

(٦٢٤١) وَعَنْ حُذَيْفَةَ قَالَ قَالُوْا يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ لَوِ اسْتَخْلَفْتَ قَالَ اِنِّي اسْتَخْلَفْتُ عَلَيْكُمْ فَعَصَيْتُمُوْهُ عُذِّبْتُمْ وَلٰكِنْ مَا حَدَّثَكُمْ حُذَيْفَةُ فَصَدِّقُوْهُ وَمَا اَقْرَاَكُمْ عَبْدُاللّٰهِ فَاقْرَءُوْهُ۔ (راه الترمذی)

6241. Sayyiduna Hudhayfah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that some of the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم submitted, "O Messenger of Allah, would that your named a successor" (meaning, a caliph after you. Or, they asked, "If you were to name a caliph who would he be?") He said, "If I named anyone as a caliph over you and you happened to disobey him then you would be punished. But (I instruct you), believe whatever Hudhayfah رضی اللہ عنہ tells you (or whichever hadith he narrates to you), and whatever Abdullah (ibn

Mas'ud(رضی اللہ عنہ) reads to you, read it.[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophetصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said to them that it was not very necessary for them to think about the caliphate at that stage. When the time come, they would know it at Allah's command. He will become their caliph whom they choose unanimously, for, otherwise if he appointed anyone and they disobeyed him, or rejected him, then they would invite Divine punishment. Rather, they should concentrate on abiding by the Book and the Sunnah, for, that alone is important for them always.

In this hadith only these two shahbahرضی اللہ عنہ are mentioned at the exclusion of others because they held a distinct position in learning and belief and were dominantly excellent. Besides, every believer must steer clear of hypocrisy most of all and must believe and adopt the commands of Shari'ah more than anything else. So, as for the first thing, Hudhayfahرضی اللہ عنہ was the most prominent of all sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم who possessed knowledge of hypocrisy. He had the distinguished position of being the confident of Allah's Messengerصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and no one else knew about the hypocrites as he did.

As for the second thing, the commands of shari'ah, Abdullah ibn Mas'udرضی اللہ عنہ had more knowledge about them than anyone else. Allah's Messengerصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said of him:

رضیت لا متی مارضی به ابن ام عبد

"I am pleased with what pleases Ibn Umm Abd (Ibn Mas'ud) for my Ummah."

He also said:

تمسکوا بعهد ابن ام عبد

"Hold fast to that which Ibn Umm Abdرضی اللہ عنہ urges you to follow and adopt."

The ulama say that there is an indication of the caliphate of Abu Bakrرضی اللہ عنہ in this hadith (#6241) as also in the first hadith of thi section (#6230). It is reported that after the death of the Prophetصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم when the question of naming a caliph arose, Abdullah ibn Mas'ud suggested Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ for the office. He said, "Abu Bakrرضی اللہ عنہ is he whom the Prophetصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم put forward to lead in (as our imam in Salah). So, we must make him our leader for our worldly affairs too."

MERIT OF MUHAMMAD IBN MASLAMAH رضی اللہ عنہ

(٦٢٤٢) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ مَا اَحَدٌ مِّنَ النَّاسِ تُدْرِكُهُ الْفِتْنَةُ اِلَّا اَنَا اَخَافُهَا عَلَيْهِ اِلَّا مُحَمَّدَ بْنَ مُسْلَمَةَ فَاِنِّيْ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ لَا تَضُرُّكَ الْفِتْنَةُ رَوَاهُ اَبُوْدَاوُدَ وَاسْكَتَ عَنْهُ وَاَقَرَّهُ عَبْدُ الْعَظِيْمِ۔

6242. Sayyiduna Hudhayfah رضی اللہ عنہ said, "When fitnah (or trial) overtakes the people (and Muslims will be in the grip of strife and dissension), I fear that no one will be spared by it, except Muhammad ibn Maslamah رضی اللہ عنہ. Indeed, I had heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say (to him), 'Fitnah will not harm you.'[2]

COMMENTARY: Muhmmad ibn Maslamah رضی اللہ عنہ was an Ansar, Khazraji and Ash'hali. He was a glorious sahabi of high merit. He had embraced Islam in Madinah at the hands of Musab ibn Umayr رضی اللہ عنہ. He participated in all battles apart from Tabuk. Some authorities say that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had deputed him as his Khalifah (caliph) in Madinah while departing for the Battle of Tabuk.

[1] Tirmidhi # 3812

[2] Abu dawud # 4663

He obeyed the command of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and preserved himself from every trial and dissension. Whenever such an unpleasant thing happened, he retired from public life into seclusion and so remained safe from mischief and trouble. He died in 43AH or 46 AH.

Abu Dawud has said nothing about the classification of this hadith, but scholars of hadith, classify it differently; as sahih, hasan or da'it but worth transmitting. It is worth pointing out that the original manuscript of the Mishkah has a blank after (رواہ) 'transmitted by', but the foregoing text is appended by Jazri رحمہ اللہ in the margin.

ABOUT ABDULLAH IBN ZUBAYR

(٦٢٤٣) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ رَاى فِيْ بَيْتِ الزُّبَيْرِ مِصْبَاحًا فَقَالَ يَا عَائِشَةُ مَا أُرٰى اَسْمَاءَ إِلَّا قَدْ نُفِسَتْ وَلَا تُسَمُّوْهُ حَتّٰى اُسَمِّيَهٗ فَسَمَّاهُ عَبْدَاللّٰهِ وَحَنَّكَهٗ بِتَمْرَةٍ بِيَدِهٖ۔ (رواہ الترمذی)

6243. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that (one night,) the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم saw a lamp in the house of Zubayr رضی اللہ عنہ. so, he said, "O Ayshah, I think that Asma has given birth to a child. You people must not give the child a name till I name it." Then he named the child Abdullah and rubbed his palate with a moistened date with his own hand.[1] (This is called tahnik.)

COMMENTARY: Tahnik is to chew a date or any sweet thing and rub the palate with the moistened piece. This is a mustahab practice. When a child is born, a pious person may be requested to give it a name and perfrom its tahnik with date, honey or any sweet eatable. This augurs well for the child as a blessing.

Zubayr ibn Al-Awam رضی اللہ عنہ was a cousin of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, son of his paternal aunt Sayyidah Safiyah رضی اللہ عنہا and son-in-law of Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ. His wife sayyidah Asma رضی اللہ عنہا was the sister of Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا. He was a top-ranking sahabi and one of the ten who were given glad tidings of paradise.

Abdullah رضی اللہ عنہ was the son of Zubayr رضی اللہ عنہ and Sayyidah Asma رضی اللہ عنہا. the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم gave him the kunyah of his grandfather Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ and also named him after him. Abdullah رضی اللہ عنہ was the first of male children born to any Muhajir after Hijrah, in 1 Ah in Madinah. When he was born Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ called the adhan in his ear. Sayyidah Asma رضی اللہ عنہا bright him to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and placed him in his lap and he asked for a piece of date and performed his tahnik and prayed for him.

Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Zubayr رضی اللہ عنہ was an extremely pious man and given to fast often and offer salah frequently. He was very particular about joining ties of relationship and was very kind to his kith and kin. He was a very brave fighter. His feats on the battlefield served as a role-model for the Quraysh. He was known for his truthfulness. He was an excellent orator and had a loud voice. When he spoke his voice boomed and echoed. Many people have transmitted hadith from him.

Abdullah ibn Zabayr رضی اللہ عنہ was among those sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم who did not accept the lead of Yazid ibn Mu'awiya after the death of Mu'awiyah رضی اللہ عنہ. They disjoined from the rule of the governor of madinah appointed by Mu'awiyah رضی اللہ عنہ and came to Makkah whose people were already exasperated with Yazid. They pledged allegiance to Abdullah ibn Zubayr رضی الله عنه and installaed him as their governor over Makkah. Yazid could not thereafter gain power over Makkah in spite of great effort. After he died, Abdullah ibn Zubayr proclaimed himself caliph in 64 AH and got the people's pledge for him whereafter the entire Islamic world, except some regions of Syria, Submitted to his caliphate. For about nine years, the Hijaz, Iraq, Yemen, Khurasan, remained part of his territory under his cliphate. Then, in Jumadi ul- Awwal in 72 AH, the umawi ruler of Damascus, Abdul Malik sent a colossal army under the command of the cruel hajjaj ibn Yusuf Thaqafi to invade Makkah and topple Abdullah ibn Zubayr رضی الله عنه. His army overtook Ta'if and then began war man oeuvres against Abdullah ibn Zubayr رضی الله عنه. This continued for many months at a stretch. Then Hajjaj called for reinforcements from Abdul Malik, and he launched a full-scale offensive on Makkah in Ramadan 72 AH and besieged it for a number of months during which the army shot mangonels at Makkah and the Ka'bah and caused devastation of a great magnitude.

Abdullah ibn Zubayr رضی الله عنه resisted Hajjaj's large army with his meager forces bravely but, gradually, he lost his men. Finally, the great courageous man put on a one-man fight against the cruel enemy and was martyred. Hajjaj beheaded the corpse and suspended the body at a place. Then permission was given to bury the body.

MU'AWIYAH رضی الله عنه

(٦٢٤٤) وَعَنْ عَبْدِالرَّحْمٰنِ بْنِ اَبِیْ عُمَيْرَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَنَّهٗ قَالَ لِمُعَاوِيَةَ اَللّٰهُمَّ اجْعَلْهُ هَادِيًا مَّهْدِيًّا وَاهْدِبِهٖ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

6244. Sayyiduna Abdur Rahman ibn Abu Umayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم prayed for Mu'awiyah رضی الله عنه, "O Allah, let him be a guide who is himself well guided. And, guide people through him."[1]

COMMENTARY: The prayer of the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم is granted without doubt. Hence, it is not proper to entertain evil thoughts about anyone for whom the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم has made such a prayer. Such a peson is beyond any semblance of doubt.

Mu'awiyah رضی الله عنه was an Umawi, a Qurayshi . His mother was Hindah, she was the daughter of Uqbah a chief of the Quraysh. His father was Abu Sufyan رضی الله عنه, a chief of the quraysh himself. He was among those who embraced Islam on the day of conquest of Makkah. For some days thereafter he was regarded among those whose hearts had to be won. Then he became a faithful, sincere adherent of Islam.

Mu'awiyah رضی الله عنه was one of those sahabah رضی الله عنهم who were scribes for the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم. same authorities say that he did not write down the wahy (revelation) at all. Rather, he was responsible for writing letters. When Umar رضی الله عنه was caliph, he appointed Mu'awiyah رضی الله عنه governor of Syria. He remained at this office for twenty years, meaning up to the end of Uthman's رضی الله عنه caliphate. Then differences cropped up between him and Ali رضی الله عنه and they also fought battles, After the martyrdom of Ali رضی الله عنه Mu'awiyah رضی الله عنه and Hasan رضی الله عنه came to an understanding and the entire Islamic world accepted

Mu'awiyah رضی اللہ عنہ as their caliph. He continued to occupy the office of caliphate for nearly twenty years. He died in the month of Rajab in 60 AH at the age of seventy-eight in Damascus. He was afflicted with facial paralysis during his last days.

Longing: During his closing life, he often expressed a wish, "Perhaps, I had lived and ordinary life of a Quraysh at Dhu Tuwa" (a place in Makkah). "How I wish I had never drifted toward prominence!"

RELICS: It is said that Mu'awiyah had some mementoes of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم which he had preserved carefully. These included a cloak, a waist-wrapper and a shirt. He also had some strands of hair and nails of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. Before dying, he instructed that the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم shirt should be used as his shroud and his waist wrapper as his lower garment and he should be covered around with the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم cloak. And some of his hair and nails should be inserted in the hollow of his throat. Same others of them should be tied on those parts of his body on which he prostrated (like his forehead, palms, knees, toes). "Then," he added, "I should be left alone with the most Merciful of those who show mercy!" He meant that he should be buried and entrusted to Allah.

AMR IBN AL-AAS رضی اللہ عنہ

(٦٢٤٥) وَعَنْ عُقْبَةَ بْنِ عَامِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَسْلَمَ النَّاسُ وَآمَنَ عَمْرُو بْنُ الْعَاصِ

رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ وَلَيْسَ إِسْنَادُهُ بِالْقَوِيِّ۔

6245. Sayyiduna Uqbah ibn Aamir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The people embraced Islam, but Amr ibn Al-Aas believed (or, had faith)."[1]

Tirmidhi termed this hadith as gharib with an isnad that is not strong.

COMMENTARY: The people who embraced Islam were those who submitted on the day of conquest of Makkah when Islam had overpowered them and they had no option open to them but to seek protection of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. Of course, when Allah decreed, their faith became stronger and perfect and all of them became sin cere believers and Muslims. But, as distinct from them. Amr ibn Al- Aas رضی اللہ عنہ became a Muslim willingly and faithfully one year before the conquest of Makkah. He forsook his native land for the love of Allah and His Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and emigrated to Madinah. Thus, those who embraced Islam on the day of the conquest submitted because of fear while Amr ibn Al-Aas رضی اللہ عنہ believed voluntarily with conviction.

According to one exponent, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم named Amr ibn Al-Aas رضی اللہ عنہ particularly because of the circumstances that prompted him to accept Islam. The background is that the chiefs of the Quraysh in Makkah had sent him as their envoy to the Negus of Abyssinia to persuade him to deport the Muslims who had emigrated to Abyssinia back to Makkah. But, the Negus declined to accede to their request. He said to Amr, رضی اللہ عنہ "Amr, I am astonished at you. Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم is your cousin but you are unaware of his worth! By Allah, he is truly Allah's messenger." Amr asked, "Do you say so?" The Negus asserted, "By Allah, I do speak the truth. Believe me!" That was the turning point. He abandoned his mission and returned having resolved to believed. No one had invited him to Islam His inner nature woke him up and the urge to believe overtook him. He rushed to madinah and met the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and professed belief and became a sincere and true Muslim. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم gave him a tremendous avation and promptly made him commander of an army that also had Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه and Umar رضى الله عنه as its warriors. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم gave him this honour because before he became a Muslim, he harbored strong animosity to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and was constantly engaged in harassing the Muslims. So, after accepting Islam, he was very terrified because of his past and saw himself as a stranger among the Muslims. When the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم gave him the extreme honour, he was relieved and felt accepted. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم aim was that he should not despair of Allah's mercy.

According to one tradition when Amr ibn Al-Aas came tc the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to embrace Islam, He requested the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to let him have his hand that he might pledge allegiance. But, just as the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم put forward his hand, Amr in threw his own. When the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked him, "Amr why did you withdraw your hand?" he said, "I have some conditions." The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked, 'What conditions?" He said, 'My past sins must be forgiven." The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked, "Amr, do you not know that Islam erases all those sins that had been perpetrated before embracing Islam? and, hijrah erases those sins that had been committed before hijrah," (or just as he said.)

According to another version, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Amr ibn Al-Aas and his brother Hisham ibn Al-Aas are both (sincere) believers."

According to yet another hadith: "Amr ibn Al-Aas is a Quraysh.

According to yet another hadith, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said to Amr ibn Al-Aas رضى الله عنه; (انك الرشيد) "Surely, you are guided." He also said, "Amr ibn Al-Aas brought a better sadaqah."

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

Amr ibn Al-Aas رضى الله عنه was very intelligent. He was recognised all over Arabia as a wise and sagacious man. It is said about Umar رضى الله عنه that whenever he came across a stupid rich man, he would exclaim, "Allah is glorified! He who created him also created Amr ibn Al-Aas!"

It is reported that toward the end of his life, Amr رضى الله عنه was gripped with strong fear and restlessness. He was overcome by a deep fear of Allah. His son Abdullah said to him, "Father, you have the honour of being a companion of Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم. He regarded you as highly reliable. You participated in the battles. Then why are you overcome by fear an d restlessness?" He said, "Son, you know that I have lived through three stages. I had been very hostile to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and to Islam. Then Aliah guided me and I became a Muslim and began to earn the blessings of Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم. Then I found myself ruling over people as governor of different regions at different times whereby I earned my portion of the world. Now I cannot say on which basis I shall be judged. What will be my consequences?"

(٦٢٤٦) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ لِقَيَنِيْ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ يَا جَابِرُ مَالِيْ اَرَاكَ مُنْكَسِرًا قُلْتُ اسْتُشْهِدَ اَبِيْ وَتَرَكَ عِيَالًا وَدَيْنًا قَالَ اَفَلَا اُبَشِّرُكَ بِمَا لَقِيَ اللّٰهُ بِهٖ اَبَاكَ قُلْتُ بَلٰى يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ مَا كَلَّمَ اللّٰهُ اَحَدًا قَطُّ اِلَّا مِنْ وَّرَاءِ حِجَابٍ وَاَحْيَا اَبَاكَ فَكَلَّمَهٗ كِفَاحًا قَالَ يَا عَبْدِيْ تَمَنَّ عَلَيَّ اُعْطِيْكَ قَالَ يَا رَبِّ تُحْيِيْنِيْ

فَأُقْتَلُ فِيْكَ ثَانِيَةً قَالَ الرَّبُّ تَبَارَكَ وَتَعَالٰى إِنَّهُ قَدْ سَبَقَ مِنِّيْ أَنَّهُمْ لَا يَرْجِعُوْنَ فَنَزَلَتْ فَلَا تَحْسَبَنَّ الَّذِيْنَ قُتِلُوْا فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ أَمْوَاتًا الاية. (رواه الترمذى)

6246. Sayyiduna Jabir رضى الله عنه narrated: Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم met me and asked, "O jabir why do I see you broken?" I submitted, "O Messenger of Allah, my father (Abdullah) is martyred leaving behind a family and a debt." He asked "Shell I not let you have glad tidings of how Allah has met your father?" I said, "Of course O Messenger of Allah!" He said, "Allah does not speak to anyone but from behind a screen, but He revived your father and spoke to him directly. Saying, 'O My slave, wish for what you like. I shall grant it? He submitted, 'I my Lord, I wish that you resurrect me and let me be slain for Your sake a second time,' the Lord, Blessed and High said, 'I have decreed already that they (who die) will not return (to earth)." Then this verse was revealed (concussing the martyrs):

فَلَا تَحْسَبَنَّ الَّذِيْنَ قُتِلُوْا فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ أَمْوَاتًا الاية

[And never take those Killed in the way of Allah as dead . . . .][1](3:169 to the end)

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said to Jabir that every anxiety one faces in this world is removed sooner or later and gives way to ease. Allah would provide for the large family left behind by Iabir's رضى الله عنه father and would get his debt repaid. So he must show patience and gratitude. He must be pleased that Allah gave his father martyrdom. These words indicate that if children are on the straight path, father's merit is inherited by them and that they must by pleased that their father is happy.

The father of Jabir رضى الله عنه was more excellent than all those martyrs who were martyred before him. Allah never spoke to any of them directly but He spoke to him face to face. Allah's says in the Qur'an:

وَمَا كَانَ لِبَشَرٍ أَنْ يُكَلِّمَهُ اللّٰهُ إِلَّا وَحْيًا أَوْ مِنْ وَرَآءِ حِجَابٍ الاية

[And it is not (vouchsafed) to a mortal that Allah should speak to him, except by revelation, or from behind a veil . . . . .] (42: 51)

This saying pertains only to this world and not to the hereafter.

The words, "Allah resurrected your father" raise a question about the words of the Qur'an:

بل احياء عند ربهم

[Rather they are alive with their Lord] (3: 169)

How the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم words reconcile with the words of the Qur'an? One of the exegetes explained that Allah transferred the soul of Jabir's رضى الله عنه father into the heart of a green bird and gave life to the bird through that soul as is done with every martyr. This is the meaning of the words of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم another explanation is that Allah enabled the soul of the father of Jabir رضى الله عنه to withstand the vision of Allah while speaking to Him directly.

Allah's words that they who die will not return to this earth mean that they will not get a long life on earth once again to do righteous deeds here. This explanation allows for some dead people to be re-born in this world. This honour is reserved for Prophet Eesa عليه السلام, For, he did reaise some dead people to life at Allah's command for some period of time. There is another deeper explanation, too. It is that Allah has decreed that those who have died cannot revive or be reborn ir. 'his world by making a request or a wish for that. This explanation also clarifies the tradition about a martyr and the dajjal. Besides. Sayyid Jamal ud-din رحمه الله writes about (انهم لا يرجعون) - "They will not return (to this world)" 'that the preposition (انهم) "They" reverts to only the martyrs whether only martyrs of the Battle of Uhaud or all martyrs. This specific application becomes necessary in order to remove any doubt that might arise because of the case of Sayyiduna Uzayr صلى الله عليه وسلم.

The Hadith mentions that the words of the verse (3: 169) were revealed. The entire verse is:

وَلَا تَحْسَبَنَّ الَّذِينَ قُتِلُوا فِي سَبِيلِ اللّٰهِ أَمْوَاتًا بَلْ أَحْيَاءٌ عِنْدَ رَبِّهِمْ يُرْزَقُونَ * فَرِحِينَ بِمَا آتَاهُمُ اللّٰهُ مِنْ

فَضْلِهِ وَيَسْتَبْشِرُونَ بِالَّذِينَ لَمْ يَلْحَقُوا بِهِمْ مِنْ خَلْفِهِمْ أَلَّا خَوْفٌ عَلَيْهِمْ وَلَا هُمْ يَحْزَنُونَ *۔

[Think not of those who were slain in Allah's way as dead. Nay, they are alive and are provided with sustenance from their Lord, rejoicing in the bounty (of martyrdom) which Allah has granted them, and they feel happy for the sake of those who, being left behind have not joined them, that no fear shall be on them, nor shall they grieve.]

JABIR رضی اللہ عنہ

(٦٢٤٧) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ اسْتَغْفَرَ لِي رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ خَمْسًا وَعِشْرِيْنَ مَرَّةً۔ (رواه الترمذی)

6247. Sayyiduna Jabir said, "Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم sought forgiveness for me twenty-five times."

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم prayed for Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ twenty-five times during one sitting or at different times. But, another tradition of Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ supports the first possibility. He said:

استغفر لی رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ليلة البعير خمسا وعشرين

"Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم sought forgiveness for me twenty-five times on the night he had bought my camel."

Sayyiduna Jabir ibn Abdullah was a well-known companion of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. he was an Ansar of Madinah, a Salami, He has narrated very many ahadith. He participated in the Battle of Badr and about eighteen battles thereafter along with the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. he also took part in the wars against and expeditions to Syria and Egypt.

Many people have transmitted ahadith from him. He became blind during his last days and he died in Madinah in 74 AH at the age of 94 years. According to one report, he was the last of the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم to die in Madinah.

BARA IBN MAALIK رضی اللہ عنہ

(٦٢٤٨) وَعَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَمْ مِنْ أَشْعَثَ أَغْبَرَ ذِي طِمْرَيْنِ لَا يُؤْبَهُ لَهُ لَوْ

أَقْسَمَ عَلَى اللّٰهِ لَأَبَرَّهُ مِنْهُمُ الْبَرَاءُ بْنُ مَالِكٍ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَالْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِي دَلَائِلِ النُّبُوَّةِ۔

6248. Sayyiduna Anas narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "How many there are with disheveled hair and dusty bodies, wearing a pair of ragged garments. No one heeds them (because of their shabby condition), yet, if they were to adjure by Allah, He would confirm them as righteous (such is their internal condition). One of them is Bara ibn Maalik."[1]

COMMENTARY: Bara ibn Maalik رضی اللہ عنہ was a real brother of Aans ibn Maalikرضی اللہ عنہ. He was one of the learned sahabah رضی اللہ عنہمof great merit. He was a brave Arab and one of their wrestlers. He participated in the Battle of Uhud and other battles thereafter, Allah had bestowed him with exceptional gallantry and dexterity so much so that in a battle single-handed, he consigned one hundred enemy warriors to death. This does not include the others whom he killed with support from his companions. In the Battle of Yamamah (in the time of caliph Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ)he demonstrated unusual prowess and ability. He was martyred in 20 AH.

THE AHL UL-BAYT & THE ANSAR

(٦٢٤٩) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ سَعِيْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَلَا اِنَّ عَيْبَتِيَ الَّتِيْ اٰوِىْ اِلَيْهَا اَهْلُ بَيْتِيْ وَاِنَّ كَرِشِيَ الْاَنْصَارُ فَاعْفُوْا عَنْ مُسِيْئِهِمْ وَاقْبَلُوْا عَنْ مُحْسِنِهِمْ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ صَحِيْحٌ۔

6249. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Know, indeed, my confidants (in whom I confide and) among whom I find comfort are the members of my household, and my intimate friends are the Ansar. Hence, pardon the wrong of their wrong doers and accept the excuse of the righteous amoung them." [2]

Tirmmidhi is termed this hadith a hasan.

COMMENTARY: the word (عیبہ) has been explained previously against the hadith of Anas رضی اللہ عنہ (# 6221). Though this word has been used here to praise the Ansar, yet it may be used to praise anyone else, particularly the ahlul-bayt (members of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم's household). They have a close bond with this word.

MORE ABOUT THE ANSAR

(٦٢٥٠) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَا يُبْغِضُ الْاَنْصَارَ اَحَدٌ يُّؤْمِنُ بِاللّٰهِ وَالْيَوْمِ الْاٰخِرِ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ صَحِيْحٌ۔

6250. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "One who believes in Allah and the Last Day does not despise the Ansar."[3]

Tirmidhi terms this hadith hasan sahih.

MERIT OF ABU TALHAH'S PEOPLE

(٦٢٥١) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ عَنْ اَبِيْ طَلْحَةَ قَالَ قَالَ لِيْ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِقْرَأْ قَوْمَكَ السَّلَامَ فَاِنَّهُمْ مَا عَلِمْتُ اَعِفَّةٌ صُبُرٌ۔ (رواہ الترمذی)

6251. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated on the authority of Sayyiduna Abu Talhah رضی اللہ عنہ (his step father), Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said to me, 'convey to your people salaam (qreeting). For, as far as I know, they are self-disciplined and persevering.'"[1]

MERIT OF PARTICIPANTS OF BADR

(٦٢٥٢) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ أَنَّ عَبْدًا لِحَاطِبٍ جَاءَ إِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَشْكُوا حَاطِبًا إِلَيْهِ فَقَالَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ لَيَدْخُلَنَّ حَاطِبٌ النَّارَ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَذَبْتَ لَا يَدْخُلُهَا فَإِنَّهُ قَدْشَهِدَ بَدْرًا وَالْحُدَيْبِيَّةَ۔ (رواه مسلم)

6252. Sayyiduna Jabir narrated that a slave of Al-Hatib رضی اللہ عنہ (ibn Abu Balta'ah) came to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and complained to him about Hatib, saying "O Messenger of Allah, Surely Hatib will go to hell (because of the cruelty he unleashes on me)." But, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "You lie! He will never go to it, for, he was present at Badr and Hudaybiyah."[2]

COMMENTARY: those Sahabah who took part in the battle of Badr and those who pledged allegiance to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم at Hudaybiyah to lay down their lives in Allah's path will be safe from the fire of hell. This is either a certainty or a strong possibility. Since Hatib رضی اللہ عنہ was present at both these places, it is a falsehood to assert that he will enter hell. Moreover, even the Qur'an says that Hatib was a believer:

يا ايها الذين آمنوا لا تتخذوا واعدوى وعدوكم اولياء الاية

[O you who believe, take not My enemy and your enemy for friends . . . .] (60: 1)

This verse is addressed, first of all, to Hatib رضی اللہ عنہ. It was revealed when he had committed a serious mistake. (see hadith # 6225)

Therefore, to say of a believer that he belongs to hell is a lie without doubt.

SALMAN FARSI رضی اللہ عنہ AND PEOPLE OF PERSIA.

(٦٢٥٣) وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ أَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ تَلَا هٰذِهِ الْآيَةَ وَإِنْ تَتَوَلَّوْا يَسْتَبْدِلْ قَوْمًا غَيْرَكُمْ ثُمَّ لَا يَكُوْنُوْا أَمْثَالَكُمْ قَالُوْا يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ مَنْ هٰؤُلَاءِ الَّذِيْنَ ذَكَرَ اللّٰهُ إِنْ تَوَلَّيْنَا اسْتُبْدِلُوْا بِنَا ثُمَّ لَا يَكُوْنُوْا أَمْثَالَنَا فَضَرَبَ عَلٰى فَخِذِ سَلْمَانَ الْفَارِسِيِّ ثُمَّ قَالَ هٰذَا وَقَوْمُهُ وَلَوْ كَانَ الدِّيْنُ عِنْدَ الثُّرَيَّا لَتَنَاوَلَهُ رِجَالٌ مِّنَ الْفُرْسِ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

6253. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم recited this verse:

وَإِنْ تَتَوَلَّوْا يَسْتَبْدِلْ قَوْمًا غَيْرَكُمْ ثُمَّ لَا يَكُوْنُوْا أَمْثَالَكُمْ

[If you turn away, He will substitute for you another people, then they will not be your likes.] (47: 38)

[1] Tirmidhi # 3903 (3929)

They (meaning, the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم asked, "O Messenger of Allah, who are they about whom Allah says that if we turn away, they will replace us whereafter they will not be the likes of us?"
He struck Salman Farsi رضی اللہ عنہ on the thigh and said, "this one and his people, were religion in the Pleiades (Thurayya), many a people of Furs (non-Arabs or Persians) would not fail to fetch it."[1]

COMMENTARY: the word (فرس) Furs in the text cou8ld refer to the ajami (non-Arabs) or to those whose mother tongue was Persian or only those who belonged to Persia and their ancestors lived there, However, the first possibility is more correct, for, the next hadith corroborates it.

VIRTUES OF THE AJAMIS (NON-ARABS)

(٦٢٥٤) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ ذُكِرَتِ الْأَعْجَامُ عِنْدَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَأَنَا بِهِمْ أَوْبِبَعْضِهِمْ أَوْثَقُ مِنِّيْ بِكُمْ أَوْبِبَعْضِكُمْ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

6254. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah narrated that the ajmi ()non- Arabs) were mentioned in the presence of Allah Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. He said, "Indeed, they, or some of them, are more trustworthy in my sight than you or some of you."[2]

COMMENTARY: According to Teebi رحمہ اللہ, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had addressed these words to a particular tribe of the Arabs whom he had commanded to spend their wealth toward jihad. But, they displayed some lethargy. Anyway, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم praised the non- Arabs and showed kindness to them.

SECTION III اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

ILLUSTRIOUS FRIENDS

(٦٢٥٥) عَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ لِكُلِّ نَبِيٍّ سَبْعَةَ نُجَبَاءَ وَرُقَبَاءَ وَأُعْطِيْتُ أَنَا أَرْبَعَةَ عَشَرَ قُلْنَا مَنْ هُمْ قَالَ أَنَا وَابْنَايَ وَجَعْفَرٌ وَحَمْزَةُ وَأَبُوْبَكْرٍ وَ عُمَرُ وَمُصْعَبُ بْنُ عُمَيْرٍ وَبِلَالٌ وَسَلْمَانُ وَعَمَّارٌ وَعَبْدُاللّٰهِ بْنُ مَسْعُوْدٍ وَأَبُوْذَرٍّ وَالْمِقْدَادُ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

6255. Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Every Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم is given seven illustrious protecting friends, but I am given fourteen." (When Ali رضی اللہ عنہ narrated these words to us, we) the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم asked him, "who are they?" He (Ali رضی اللہ عنہ)said, "I, my two sons (Hasan رضی اللہ عنہ and Husayn رضی اللہ عنہ), Ja'far رضی اللہ عنہ , Hamzah رضی اللہ عنہ, Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ, Umar رضی اللہ عنہ, Musab ibn Umayr رضی اللہ عنہ, Bilal رضی اللہ عنہ, Salman رضی اللہ عنہ, Ammar رضی اللہ عنہ, Abdullah ibn Masud رضی اللہ عنہ, Abu Aharr رضی اللہ عنہ and Miqdad رضی اللہ عنہ."[3]

COMMENTARY: Previously, we have presented brief biographical sketches of all of them, except Sayyiduna Hamzah رضی الله عنه.

Hamzah ibn Abhdul Muttalib رضی الله عنه kis the paternal uncle of the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم. His Kunyah was Abu Umarah. The female slave of Abu Lahb, Thawbiyah, had suckled both the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم and Hamzah رضی الله عنه. Hence, the two of them were also foster brothers on this count. It is said that Hamzah was four years older than the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم, but ibn Abdul Barr رحمه الله does not agree because if thawbiyah had suckled both of them then they ought to have been of same age, of course, if she had suckled them at different times then their ages can differ. Some others say that Hamzah رضی الله عنه was two years senior to the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم.

Sayyiduna Hamzah رضی الله عنه was bold and courageous and this had earned him the title of Asadullah (Lion of Allah). He had embraced Islam at the early period of the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم preaching. According to one report, he became a Muslim in the second year of prophethood but another puts it in the sixth year when the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم was residing in Dar ul-Arqam. The Muslims and Islam gained tremendous strength and glory because of him. Allah caused him to raise Islam high as a potential power. He took part in the Battle of Badr and he was martyred in the Battle of Uhud by Wahshi ibn Harb.

AMMAR IBN YASIR رضی الله عنه

(٦٢٥٦) وَعَنْ خَالِدِبْنِ الْوَلِيْدِ قَالَ كَانَ بَيْنِيْ وَبَيْنَ عَمَّارِ بْنِ يَاسِرٍ كَلَامٌ فَأَغْلَظْتُ لَهُ فِي الْقَوْلِ فَانْطَلَقَ عَمَّارٌ يَشْكُوْنِيْ إِلَى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَجَاءَ خَالِدٌ وَهُوَ يَشْكُوْا إِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ فَجَعَلَ يُغَلِّظُ لَهُ وَلَا يَزِيْدُهُ إِلَّا غِلْظَةً وَالنَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ سَاكِتٌ لَا يَتَكَلَّمُ فَبَكَى عَمَّارٌ وَقَالَ يَارَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ أَلَا تَرَاهُ فَرَفَعَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ رَأْسَهُ وَقَالَ مَنْ عَادٰى عَمَّارًا عَادَاهُ اللّٰهُ وَمَنْ أَبْغَضَ عَمَّارًا أَبْغَضَهُ اللّٰهُ قَالَ خَالِدٌ فَخَرَجْتُ فَمَا كَانَ شَيْءٌ أَحَبَّ إِلَيَّ مِنْ رضى عمار فَلَقِيْتُهُ بِمَا رَضِيَ فَرَضِيَ۔

6256. Sayyiduna Khalid ibn Walid said "Ammar ibn Yasir and I exchanged bandy words. This led me to speak harshly to him and he went to Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم and complained to him about me." (The sub narrator went on:) Khalid رضی الله عنه also arrived while he was complaining to the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم and (being provoked at the) began to give vent to his anger on him. His rage grew much. The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم remained silent all the while and spoke not a word. (This encouraged Khalid رضی الله عنه to burst out on Ammar رضی الله عنه with added venom). So, Ammar رضی الله عنه began to weep and he pleaded, "O Messenger of Allah, do you not see him (how he disgraces me)?" The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم raised his head and said, "If anyone is hostile to Ammar, Allah will be hostile to him and if anyone despises Ammar, Allah will despise him." So, Khalid رضی الله عنه said, "Then I went out (having regained my senses and become cool as a cucumber. I resolved to please Ammar رضی الله عنه). There was nothing dearer to me then earning Ammar's pleasure. I behaved with him in such a way that made him happy. And he was pleased with me."[1]

[1] Musnad Ahmad 4-90

COMMENTARY: The narration of Khalid ibn Walid رضی اللہ عنہ is interrupted by a sub-narrator when he said, "Khalid also arrived." Later, Khalid's رضی اللہ عنہ narration is resumed when he says, "Then I went out." However, it is possible, as one exegetes says, that Khalid رضی اللہ عنہ himself spoke in the third person about himself.

KHALID رضی اللہ عنہ IS SAYFALLAH (ALLAH'S SWORD)

(٦٢٥٧) وَعَنْ اَبِیْ عُبَيْدَةَ اَنَّهُ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ خَالِدٌ سَيْفٌ مِّنْ سُيُوْفِ اللّٰهِ عَزَّوَجَلَّ وَنِعْمَ فَتَى الْعَشِيْرَةِ رَوَاهُمَا اَحْمَدُ۔

6257. Sayyiduna Abu Ubaydah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say, "Khalid is a Sword of the (several) swords of Allah, Mighty and Glorious. He is an excellent young man of the tribe (Banu Makhzum, a branch of Quraysh)."[1]

COMMENTARY: Describing Khalid رضی اللہ عنہ as a sword of Allah is to say that he is an unsheathed sword, ready to use against the polytheists and the infidels. It is to say that Allah has made Khalid رضی اللہ عنہ a bearer of scimitar. These words praise Khalid رضی اللہ عنہ for his bravery and courage against the enemies of Islam.

ALI رضی اللہ عنہ ABU DHARR رضی اللہ عنہ, MIQDAD رضی اللہ عنہ & SALMAN رضی اللہ عنہ

(٦٢٥٨) وَعَنْ بُرَيْدَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ تَبَارَكَ وَتَعَالٰى اَمَرَنِیْ بِحُبِّ اَرْبَعَةٍ وَاَخْبَرَنِیْ اَنَّهُ يُحِبُّهُمْ قِيْلَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ سَمِّهِمْ لَنَا قَالَ عَلِیٌّ مِنْهُمْ يَقُوْلُ ذٰلِكَ ثَلٰثًا وَاَبُوْذَرٍّ وَالْمِقْدَادُ وَسَلْمَانُ اَمَرَنِیْ بِحُبِّهِمْ وَاَخْبَرَنِیْ اَنَّهُ يُحِبُّهُمْ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِیُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

6258. Sayyiduna Buraydah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Indeed, Allah, Blessed and Most High, has commanded me to love four men and has informed me that He too loves them." He was asked, "O Messenger of Allah, name them to us" he said, "Ali رضی اللہ عنہ is one of them." He spoke these words three times (to emphasise that he deserves to be loved more than each of the others), "And, Abu Dharr, Miqdad and Salman. He has commanded me to love them and has informed me that He loves them." [2]

Tirmidhi has terand this hadith as gharib hasan.

ABU BAKR رضی اللہ عنہ

(٦٢٥٩) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ كَانَ عُمَرُ يَقُوْلُ اَبُوْبَكْرٍ سَيِّدُنَا وَاَعْتَقَ سَيِّدَنَا يَعْنِیْ بِلَالًا۔ (رواه البخاري)

6259. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Sayyiduna Umar رضی اللہ عنہ used to say, "Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ is our sayyid (Chief). He set free our sayyid (Chief), meaning, Bilal رضی اللہ عنہ."[3]

COMMENTARY: Umar was very Humble when he called Bilal رضی اللہ عنہ our chief, for, otherwise, Umar رضی اللہ عنہ was the superior, The entire Ummah is agreed on this question.

---

[1] Musnad Ahmad 4-90.

[2] Tirmidhi # 3718

[3] Bukhari # 3754

Umar رضی اللہ عنہ meant that Bilal رضی اللہ عنہ was one of the chiefs of Islam. Besides, Umar's رضی اللہ عنہ words do not imply that Bilal was the senior. The wordo could also mean that Bilal رضی اللہ عنہ is the chief of most of us:

BILAL رضی اللہ عنہ

(٦٢٦٠) وَعَنْ قَيْسِ بْنِ أَبِي حَازِمٍ أَنَّ بِلَالًا قَالَ لِأَبِي بَكْرٍ إِنْ كُنْتَ إِنَّمَا اشْتَرَيْتَنِي لِنَفْسِكَ فَأَمْسِكْنِي وَإِنْ كُنْتَ إِنَّمَا اشْتَرَيْتَنِي لِلّٰهِ فَدَعْنِي وَعَمَلَ اللّٰهِ. (رواه البخاری)

6260. Sayyiduna Qays ibn Abu Hazim رحمہ اللہ (a tabi') narrated that Bilal said to Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ, "If you had bought me only for your own sake then keep me with you (and assign to me whatever work you wish me to do). But, if you had bought me only for the sake of Allah (and His pleasure) then let me go and do deeds for Allah." [1]

COMMENTARY: Bilal رضی اللہ عنہ was a slave of the enemies of Islam. Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ paid a hefty sum of money to buy him and set him free. After that, Bilal رضی اللہ عنہ served the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم as one of his chief servants. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم appointed him a muadhdhin to call the adhan (five times a day in the Masjid Nabawi).

Bilal رضی اللہ عنہ continued to serve as the muadhdhin of Masjid nabawi till the death of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. when he died, Bilal رضی اللہ عنہ who was immersed in the love of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم found living in Madinah a difficult trial for him. He would look at the Masjid nabawi and not find the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and yet he had to call the adhan. So, he decided to move to Syria. When Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ learnt of it, he tried to persuade Bilal رضی اللہ عنہ to stay on and continue as the muadhdhin of the Masjid Nabawi, But Bilal رضی اللہ عنہ spoke these words of the hadith:

"If you had bought me for your own sake, then keep me and assign any duty to me. I shall do it. If you had bought me for Allah's sake, then leave me to myself. I will go away wherever I like and have no concern with the creatures but devote my creator's works all the time."

According to one version, he said, "I cannot raise my sight at the place where Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to live. It is not possible for me to live here without him."

Therefore, Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ gave up the idea of trying to detain Bilal رضی اللہ عنہ in Madinah, he went away with the army that was proceeding to Syria and he went to Damascus. He resided there for the rest of his life. He died there in 18 AH or 20 AH. This account gives the lie to the story that Bilal رضی اللہ عنہ saw the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم in a dream in Damascus and came to Madinah where he called the adhan on which the Madinans were won destruck and overjoyed. (This story is base less.)

ABU TALHAH رضی اللہ عنہ

(٦٢٦١) وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ جَاءَ رَجُلٌ إِلَى رَسُولِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ إِنِّي مَجْهُودٌ فَأَرْسَلَ إِلَى بَعْضِ نِسَائِهِ فَقَالَتْ وَالَّذِي بَعَثَكَ بِالْحَقِّ مَا عِنْدِي إِلَّا مَاءٌ ثُمَّ أَرْسَلَ إِلَى أُخْرَى فَقَالَتْ مِثْلَ ذٰلِكَ وَقُلْنَ كُلُّهُنَّ مِثْلَ ذٰلِكَ فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ يُضَيِّفُهُ يَرْحَمُهُ اللّٰهُ فَقَامَ رَجُلٌ مِنَ الْأَنْصَارِ يُقَالُ

6261. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that a man came to Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and pleaded, "I am worn -out (facing poverty and hunger)." So, he sent message to one of his wives (for some food), but she regretted, "By Him Who has sent you with the truth, there is nothing with me but water." Then, he sent to another wife who regretted in the same manner. Indeed, all of them expressed similar inability. Then, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Who will take a guest. May Allah have mercy on him!" An Ansar known as Abu Talhah رضی اللہ عنہ got up and submitted, "I (shall take him), O Messenger of Allah!" he took him home where he asked his wife, "Do you have anything?" She regretted, "No, except food for the children." He said, "Distract them somehow and put them to sleep. Then when our guest comes in, pretend that we are eating. When he stretches his hand to partake, get up and go to the lantern as though to set it right but put it out." She did accordingly and they sat down while the guest was eating. Then they went hungry all night.
In the morning, he came to Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم who said, "Indeed, Allah has liked very much - or Allah has smiled in recognition of - such - and - such a man (Abu Talhah) and such - and - such a woman (his wife, umm Sulaym."
Another version has the same account but does not name Abu Talhah رضی اللہ عنہ and it concludes: Allah the Most High then revealed:

وَيُؤْثِرُوْنَ عَلٰى اَنْفُسِهِمْ وَلَوْ كَانَ بِهِمْ خَصَاصَةٌ

[.... But preferring them above themselves even though poverty was their lot.][1] (59: 9)
COMMENTARY: It seems that this took place before the conquest of khaybar and before spoils and property were acquired. At that time life was very straitened for the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and his noble wives رضی اللہ عنہ.
The food at Abu Talhah's رضی اللہ عنہ house was enough for the children. This is to say, to meet their repeated demands as children do.' But, the children had been fed at that particular time, for, it is disallowed to let them go hungry and serve the guest.
Abu Talha رضی اللہ عنہ said that the children should be put to sleep lest they keep asking for more food when they see the guest eating.
The hosts pretended that they too were eating because the food was not sufficient for all of them. If he had been able to see in the light then he would have hesitated on seeing that there was not enough food for all of them. Besides, it is possible that this episode pertains to the time before the veil was enforced. This is why Abu Talhah رضی اللہ عنہ brought the guest and he and his wife sat at the meal with him.

[1] Bukhari # 3798, Mulim # 172.2054. [Tirmidhi # 3304 (3375) part.]

KHALID IBN WALID رضی اللہ عنہ

(٦٢٦٢) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ نَزَلْنَا مَعَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْزِلًا فَجَعَلَ النَّاسُ يَمُرُّوْنَ فَيَقُوْلُ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ هٰذَا يَا اَبَا هُرَيْرَةَ فَاَقُوْلُ فُلَانٌ فَيَقُوْلُ نِعْمَ عَبْدُاللّٰهِ هٰذَا وَيَقُوْلُ مَنْ هٰذَا فَاَقُوْلُ فُلَانٌ فَيَقُوْلُ بِئْسَ عَبْدُاللّٰهِ هٰذَا حَتّٰى مَرَّخَالِدُبْنُ الْوَلِيْدِ فَقَالَ مَنْ هٰذَا فَقُلْتُ خَالِدُ بْنُ الْوَلِيْدِ فَقَالَ نِعْمَ عَبْدُاللّٰهِ خَالِدُبْنُ الْوَلِيْدِ سَيْفٌ مِّنْ سُيُوْفِ اللّٰهِ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

6262. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated, "In a journey with Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم we halted at a place. As the people went by Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم asked, 'who is he, O Abu Hurayrah?' I would named him and he would remark, 'Excellent slave of Allah, This!' he would ask again, 'who is this one?' I would say. 'so-and-so,' and he would remark, 'and evil man of Allah, he!' so on till Khalid ibn Walid passed by and he asked (as was his wont), 'Who is he?' I named him, 'Khalid ibn Walid,' he remarked, 'An excellent servant of Allah, Khalid ibn walid – a sword of the swords of Allah!'" [1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم would be saying of anyone, 'An evil slave . . . .' When he must have been sure that he was a hypocrite, for, he would never say such a thing about a believer. Also, it is not known from any source that he ever spoke in this manner about a believer even if may have found him on a bad path.

Moreover, there was never any such evil man among believers of that time as would have prompted the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم to pass an uncomplimentary remark about him, And, if there had remained any such, he would have been a rare case.

ANSAR'S REQUEST FOR PRAYER

(٦٢٦٣) وَعَنْ زَيْدِبْنِ اَرْقَمَ قَالَ قَالَتِ الْاَنْصَارُ يَا نَبِيَّ اللّٰهِ لِكُلِّ نَبِيٍّ اَتْبَاعٌ وَاِنَّا قَدِ اتَّبَعْنَاكَ فَادْعُ اللّٰهَ اَنْ يَّجْعَلَ اَتْبَاعَنَا مِنَّا فَدَعَابِهٖ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

6263. Sayyiduna Zayd ibn Arqam رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Ansar submitted (once), "O Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم of Allah, there were followers of every Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and we have followed you (sincerely). So, mry to Allah that He cause our followers to be of our own group." So, he prayed (for them).[2]

COMMENTARY: The Ansar requested the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم to pray that their progenty and freedmen should also be counted as Ansar. They hoped that just as he had advised the common body of Muslims to be kind to the Ansar, so too their successors should receive the same treatment. He had said to the Muslims generally:

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 3846(3872, Musnad Ahmad # 8728

[2] Bukhari # 3787

اوصیکم بالانصار

"I urge you to be kind and good to the Ansar."
He also said, "Accept the excuse of the pious men of the Ansar and overlook the fanlts of their evil-doers." (see hadith # 6249)
The Ansar hoped that all their merits should pass on to their successors.
Their request could also mean that he should pray that their successors should be obedient to them and their true and honest followers, so they should pursue the pioua, straight path and emulate them.

MORE ABOUT THE ANSAR

(٦٢٦٤) وَعَنْ قَتَادَةَ قَالَ مَانَعْلَمُ حَيًّا مِّنْ اَحْيَاءِ الْعَرَبِ اَكْثَرَ شَهِيْدًا اَعَزَّ يَوْمَ الْقِيٰمَةِ مِنَ الْاَنْصَارِ قَالَ وَقَالَ اَنَسٌ قُتِلَ مِنْهُمْ يَوْمَ اُحُدٍ سَبْعُوْنَ وَ يَوْمَ بِئْرِ مَعُوْنَةَ سَبْعُوْنَ وَيَوْمَ الْيَمَامَةِ عَلٰى عَهْدِ اَبِيْ بَكْرٍ سَبْعُوْنَ۔ (رواه البخاری)

6264. Sayyiduna Qatadah رحمه الله said, "We know not of any tribe of the tribes of Arabs that has more martyrs than the martyrs of the Ansar and that would be use excellent (and distinguished) on the day of resurrection than the Ansar would be. He (also) reported that Anas رضی الله عنه said, "In the Battle of Uhud, seventy Ansar were martyred. At Bi'r Ma'unadh, seventy (of them who were reciters of the Qur'an) were martyred. And, in the Battle of Yamamah in the time of Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه (Against Musaylamah Kadhdhab) seventy (were martyred)."[1]

COMMENTARY: The tribe that has more martyrs than others will be more honourable on the day of resurrection and the Ansar is th only tribe whose martyrs are known to exceed those of other tribes, they gave their lives in the path of Allah, so they will be nearer to Allah on the day of resurrection.
In the battle of Uhud, seventy believers were martyred. With the exception of a few, all were Ansar. The books of history, hadith and biography put the number of Ansar at sixty four and the Muhajirs at six.

THE PARTICIPANTS AT THE BATTLE OF BADR

(٦٢٦٥) وَعَنْ قَيْسِ بْنِ اَبِيْ حَازِمٍ قَالَ كَانَ عَطَآءُ الْبَدْرِيِّيْنَ خَمْسَةَ الْاٰفٍ وَقَالَ عُمَرُ لَاُفَضِّلَنَّهُمْ عَلٰى مَنْ بَعْدِهِمْ۔ (رواه البخاری)

6265. Sayyiduna Qays ibn Abu Hazim رحمه الله said, "The allowance to each of those who were present at Badr was five thousand (dirhans). And Umar رضی الله عنه Said, 'I do give preference to them over those who came after them."[2]

COMMENTARY: Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه had fixed an allowance of five theousand dirhams to every sahabi رضی الله عنه who participated in the Battle of Badr payable from the state Treasury. This was more than what was paid to the others.

[1] Bukhari # 4078
[2] Bukhari # 4022

In his time, Umar رضی اللہ عنہ followed suit. Except for the allowances of a few people (like Sayyiduna Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ and the noble wives of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم), the allowance paid to everyone was lesser than what was paid to the participants of Badr. In this way, Umar رضی اللہ عنہ raised the rank of the participants of Badr above the at of every other person. He made it clear that he had fixed a higher grant to some people because of their relationship with the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم than the grant of the companions of Badr, but the rank of these great men was higher than that of the other people and their allowances were higher than of all other's (except the few named in the foregoing lines).

NAMES OF THE PARTICIPANTS IN THE BATTLE OF BADR AS GIVEN IN THE JANI BY BUKHARI رحمہ اللہ

Imam Bukhari رحمہ اللہ has devoted in his book a separate chapter for the names of some selected sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم of the participants of the battle of Badr. He has named them in a concise but complete form. These men of Badr are those who are mentioned as such in Bukhari and their traditions are transmitted in this book.

The aim of Imam Bukhari in naming them in a separate chapter is to demonstrate their superiority over all the other participants of the Battle of Badr and a separate and exclusive supplication may be made for them for mercy and pleasure of Allah in their favour.

Here, it is imperative to state that the Ulama say that if a supplication is made when mentioning and recalling the names of the companions of Badr enumerated in this chapter of Bukhari then Allah grants that supplication, whatever it be, thought His favour and mercy. In this chapter, Imam Bukhari رحمہ اللہ mentions the name of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, the chief of the two worlds, first of all. Then, he names the four caliphs. Then he enumerates the remaining shabah رضی اللہ عنہ in their (Arabic) alphabetical order. The compiler of Mishkah ul-Masabih has reproduced here these blessed names unchanged in the same form in order to receive the blessing of the objective of and to cumulate Imam Bukhari رحمہ اللہ.

Mulla Ali Qari رحمہ اللہ said that those participants of badr are mentioned in this chapter who are recognized in Sahih Bukhari as participants of Badr (i) in reality and physically as well as (ii) by decree. This stipulation becomes necessary so that the name of Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ may be said to be included correctly. (He had not taken part in the battle physically on the command of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, but he is counted among the companions of Badr because of the decree of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم.)

This chapter does no have the names of those sahibah of Badr whom Bukhari رحمہ اللہ has not mentioned in his (separate) chapter and who are not mentioned anywhere in sahi Bukhari. This means that Imam Bukhari رحمہ اللہ has named only such participants in the list of those present at Badr in this chapter who are explicitly mentioned in Sahih Bukhari as having taken part in the Battle of Badr, whether these sahabah may have themselves confirmed their participation unambiguously or others may have confirmed categorically that they had taken part in the Battle of Badr.

So, such participants of Badr do not find mention in this chapter who though named in sahih Bukhari (in other capacity) are not confirmed categorically to have participated in the battle of Badr. Given this explanation, we need not be surprised at not finding in this chapter, the name of the glorious sahabi and participant of Badr, Sayyiduna Ubaydah al-

Jarrah رضی اللہ عنہ. Without doubt, Sayyiduna Ubaydah رضی اللہ عنہ had participated in the Battle of Badr and the scholars of hadith and witers of the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم biography agree unanimously about this fact and he is otherwise gmeel in sahih Bukhari frequently, but none of the traditions of Bukhari رحمہ اللہ state categorically that he had participated in the Battle of Badr.

COMMENTARY: These blessed names begin with the name of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم so the blessings may accrue because of it, besides, his name belongs there as a participant of the Battle of Badr

After his name, the names of the four caliphs are given. Thereafter the names of the remaining selected participating people are given in (حروف تهجی) alphabetical order. We present here biographical sketches of the aforementioned companions of Badr in a brief compact manner.

(1) THE PROPHET MUHAMMAD IBN ABDULLAH AL- HASHIMI رضی اللہ عنہ

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was born in Makkah in the year known as (عام الفیل) – the year of the elephant. (it was when the army of Abraha had invaded Makkah on their elephant.)

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was commissioned when he was forty years old. Allah bestowed on him prophethood and aressengership. He remained a Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم of twenty three years and he lived for 63 years. He is the chief of all Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and the seal of the Prophets علیہم السلام. (صلی اللہ علیہ وعلی آلہ واصحابہ واتباعہ واجر اجمعین) (may blessings of Allah be on him, on his family and descendents, his companions, his followers and his allies – all of them!)

(2) ABU BAKR SIDDIQ رضی اللہ عنہ.

His name (after he embraced Islam) was Abdullah. His father was Uthman. Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ was his kunyah and Siddiq was his title. He was a Qurayshi belonging to the line of Tamim ibn Murrah. His line of descent meets the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم at Murrah. In the pre-Islamic days of ignorance, his name was Abd Rabb ul- Ka'bah. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم changed it to Abdullah. He also gave him the name Atiq and the Kunyah Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ'.

However it is also said that Atiq is his ancient name, and also that he was very handsome, good- looking, And very noble, so he was called Atiq because Atiq also means 'noble,' 'beautiful' and 'integrity.' Some other traditions say that his mothers' children did not servive and died in infancy. When he was born. She took him to the ka'bah and prayed standing opposite it, "O Allah, let this child live and have mercy on me!"

The Ummah agrees unanimously that the title of Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ is 'Siddiq' because he had fearlessly confirmed that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was true. Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ had bound himself to speak the truth always. He was also quick to uphold the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم account of the Mi'raj (ascension to the heavens) when the infidels were skeptical.

His father Uthman was better known by his kunyah Abu Qahafah. He accepted Islam after the conquest of Makkah. He died in 14 AH, six months and a few days after the death of Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ at the age of 97 years.

After the death of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, in Rabi' ul- Awwal 11 AH, the ummah unanimously selected Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ as the first caliph. He died on the night between 22nd and 23rd Jumadi uth – thani 13 AH at the age of 63 Years. His caliphate lasted some two years plus three months.

He was medium statured, good looking, handsome, lean and light-cheeked. Light blue colored veins were prominent on his face. رضی اللہ عنہ (may Allah be pleased with Abu Bakr!)

(3) UMAR FARUQI رضی اللہ عنہ

Umar ibn al- Khattab رضی اللہ عنہ was descended from Adi ibn K'ab. He was a Quraysh. His Kunyah was Abu hafsah. His line of descent meets the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم at the fifth ancestor. Even before Islam, he was counted among the important men of the Quraysh and he was responsible to represent the people of Makkah. He acted as an envoy of the Quraysh to chiefs of other tribes of leaders of other regions.

Umar رضی اللہ عنہ was very fair. His face was radiant white with rose-red eyes. He was tall so much so that, among others he could be seen over people's heads. It was as though he was sitting on camel loack and the others were on their feet.

Wahb ibn Munabbih said that Umar رضی اللہ عنہ is described in the Torah in these words:

قرن حدید شدید امین

"Like a high mountain, majestic, quick, stern, trustworthy."
As a Muslim, Umar رضی اللہ عنہ earned the title of Faruq because he differentiated between truth and falsehood and disbelief and Islam. Allah caused him through his faith to grant Islam tremendous honour, power and glory. He was very brave and bold. He was awe-inspiring to the extent that even great antagonists feared him.
Umar رضی اللہ عنہ had emigrated at the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم command before the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم set out on his emigration to Maddinah. Before leaving Makkah, He took his sword, put the Quiver in position held an arrow and came to the ka'bah where the chiefs of the infidel Quraysh were seated in groups. Umar رضی اللہ عنہ performed the tawaf and offered two raka'at salah. Then he went to each of those groups and said to them in plain words, "May your faces be ruined! Whichever one of you wishes that his mother should mourn him, his children should be orphaned and his wife should be widowed, let him follow me and meet me outside Makkah!" None of them dared follow him.
Umar Faruq رضی اللہ عنہ was the second of the righteous caliphs. He was caliph for ten years and a half. He lived for sixty-three years according to the more acceptable report. رضی اللہ عنہ - (May Allah be pleased with Umar!).

(4) UTHMAN GHANI رضی اللہ عنہ

Uthman ibn Affan رضی اللہ عنہ was a Quraysh. He was born in the sixth year of the year of Elephant. He had embraced Islam even before the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had moved to Dar ul- Arqam. Those who had preceded him in accepting Islam were Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ, Ali رضی اللہ عنہ and Zayd ibn Harithah رضی اللہ عنہ. Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ had embraced Islam at the hands of Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ. When his paternal Uncle Hakam ibn Abu al-Aas learnt of it, he put him in fetters, saying, "You have forsaken the religion of your forefathers and adopted a new religion. By Allah, I shall not unbind you till you renounce your new religion." Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ said, "Uncle! I shall never give it up. You may do what you like." Hakam ibn Abu al-Aas relented and set him free.
The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم daughter, Sayyidah Ruqayyah رضی اللہ عنہا, was married to Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ. When the Battle of Badr was to be fought, she became seriously ill. So, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم instructed Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ to tend to her and not accompany them to the Battle, since he was obeying the command of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, he was counted among the participants and was given his share of the spoils.
However, Sayyidah Rqayyah رضی اللہ عنہا Could not recover and she died. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If I had another daughter, I would surely have given her in marriage to Uthman." There never was anyone other than uthman رضی اللہ عنہ who had married two daughtyers of any Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, one after the other. This is why he is called Dhu an-nurayn (possessor of two lights).
Uthman was medium statured, reddish white complexioned, good looking and hairy. His face had marks of small pox. On the whole, he was very handsome.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had said to his daughter Sayyidah Umm Kulthum رضى الله عنه, "I have given you in marriage to the man who resembles very much your grandfather. Ibrahim صلى الله عليه وسلم, and your father Muhammad." Uthman رضى الله عنه was very shy and modest. When he had a bath in his house, he used to shut the door. No one could see his stomach or back. It is said that because of his exemplary modesty he could not keep his back straight.
He was the third righteous caliph of Islam. He was martyred in 35 AH during the days of tashriq after being caliph for thirteen years. He was 82 years old, or 83 or 86 years old. رضى الله عنه (May Allah be pleased with Uthman!)

(5) ALI رضى الله عنه

Sayyiduna Ali ibn Abu Talib رضى الله عنه was the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم paternal cousin. In this sense they were brothers. Besides, fraternal ties were also established between them (when the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had done that between the Ansar and Muhajir in Madinah). He was the husband of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم favourite daughter, Sayyidah Fatimah رضى الله عنها, and Father of Sayyiduna Hasan رضى الله عنه and Sayyiduna Husayn رضى الله عنه. He is the first person who is a Hashmi from his father's side as well as from his mother's side. Ali رضى الله عنه possesses the honour of being a very early Muslim. A majority of People aver that Ali رضى الله عنه was the first of the sahabah رضى الله عنهم to embrace Islam. The Ulama state that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was commissioned on Monday and the very next day, Tuesday, Ali رضى الله عنه accepted Islam. He was three years old at that time, or, as some versions say, seven years old.
Ali رضى الله عنه earned many sobriquets in Islam. These include: Amin, Sharif, Hadi Ya'sub ul-Muslimeen,[1] Abu ar- Rayhanayn[2] (ARABIC) and Abu Turab.
Ali رضى الله عنه was of medium-height, wheat complexioned, slightly radish, but radiant. He was fat. He had large black eyes and pitch black, dense beard. He had a bulging belly.
He was unique in learning, knowledge and intelligence. He was abstinent and righteous. He was generous and large-hearted, very strong, brave and courageous. He was also Mansur in the sense that he received Allah's help and he triumphed in every encounter.
According to Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه, "on the day of Badr, Ali رضى الله عنه had taken the spear of Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم."
Other traditions tell us that not only on the day of Badr but during other battles too, Ali رضى الله عنه had taken the spear of Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم.
Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه was the fourth righteous caliph of Islam. He was caliph for five years. He was martyred in the night of 17th Ramadan in 41 AH at the time of dawn of Friday. According to a sound opinion, he was sixty-three years old when he died, رضى الله عنه (May Allah be pleased with Ali!)

(6) IYAS IBN BUKAYR رضى الله عنه

He was Iyas رضى الله عنه son of Bukayr or al-Bukayr. He was among the earliest Muhajirs (emigrants). He participated in the Battle of Badr and then the subsequent battles too.
He and his brother Aamir ibn Bukayr رضى الله عنه embraced Islam when the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was residing in Dar ul-Arqam. He died in 34 AH. رضى الله عنه. (May Allah be pleased with Iyas!)

(7) BILAL IBN RABAH THE FREEDMEN OF ABU BAKR رضی اللہ عنہ AS- SIDDIQ رضی اللہ عنہ

He is the well-known sahabi of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and his Mu'adhdhin. Father was Rabah and his mother was Imamah. Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ had set him free. Bilal's kunyah was Abu Abdur Rahman or Abu Abdullah. But, Some say that it was Abu Abdul Karim or Abu Aamir.

Bilal رضی اللہ عنہ was an early Muslim. He was the first man to declare his Islam in Makkah. As a result, he was persecuted severely. At that time, he was a slave of an enemy of religion, Umayyah ibn Khalaf Ajami who tormented him very much. He would put him in iron chains and leave him in burning heat in the open and beat him with sticks. Finally, Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ bought him from the cruel man against a very heavy sum of money and then set him free.

Then in the Battle of Badr, the cruel Umayyah was slain at the hands of Bilal رضی اللہ عنہ. After the conquest of Makkah, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم commanded Bilal رضی اللہ عنہ to call the Adhan from the Ka,bah.

Bilal رضی اللہ عنہ possesser many virtues. It is enough to say that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "There are four sabiqs (who go ahead and precede). I am sabiq of the Arabs, Bilal is sabiq of Abyssinia. Suhayb is sabiq of Rome (or Byzantine) and Salman is sabiq of Persia."

Bilal رضی اللہ عنہ was wheat complexioned. He was tall and had much hair on his body.

He died in Damascus in 20 AH, but some put his death in 18 AH. He was slightly over sixty years of age, but some people give his age as seventy years. رضی اللہ عنہ (May Allah be pleased with bilal!)

(8) HAMZAH رضی اللہ عنہ IBN ABDUL MUTTALIB رضی اللہ عنہ

He was an hashmi and the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم paternal uncle. He was called sayyid ush-shuhada (Chief of the martyrs). He was also called Asdullah (lion of Alalh). His mother was Halah bint wahb. She was the sister of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم mother, Aaminah. From this point of view Hamzah رضی اللہ عنہ رضی اللہ عنہ was the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم maternal cousin.

Hamzah رضی اللہ عنہ was a brave, strong and large-hearted man. The books of history and biography are replete with accounts of his brave feats.

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "I saw that the angels gave bath to Hamzah رضی اللہ عنہ ibn Abdul Muttalib and to Hanzalah."

According to a hadith, his name is written at the seventh heaven (حمزہ بن عبدالمطلب اسد اللہ واسد رسولہ) "Hamzah رضی اللہ عنہ ibn Abdul Muttalib, lion of Allah and lion of His Messenger." رضی اللہ عنہ (May Allah be pleased with , Hamzah!)

(9) HATIB IBN ABU BALTA'AH رضی اللہ عنہ

His kunyah was Abu Ubaydullah. He took part in the Battle of Badr and the Battle of the Trench and the four thereafter, he had committed a serious mistake when he wrote a secret letter to the people of Makkah revealing to them the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم plans to attack them. The letter was intercepted and delivered to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم as has been mentioned previously. He died in 30 AH in Madinah at the age of 65 years. رضی اللہ عنہ (May Allah be pleased with, Hatib!)

(10) ABU HUDHAYFAH رضی اللہ عنہ IBN UTBAH

He was Abu Hudhafah ibn Utbah ibn Rabi' al- Qurashi. His real name is said to be Hisham.

His father was Uthbah son of Rabi'ah ibn Abdush Shams.

Abu Hudhayfah رضی الله عنه was a prominent sahabi and is counted among the earliest Muhajir. He is one of theose Muslims who had the oppportunity to offer salah facing both qiblahs. He also emigrated twice, first to Abyssinia and then to Madinah. He had embraced Islam in Makkah when the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم had not moved to Dar ul-Arqam. He had the good fortune of participating in the Battle of Badr and the succeeding battles. He was martyred in the Battle of Yamamah at the age of 53 years or 54 years. رضی الله عنه (May Allah be pleased with, Hudhayfah!)

(11) HARITHAH IBN AR-RABI OR (AR RUBAYYI) AL- ANSARI

According to one version he was Ar-Rubayyi, this is the name of his mother. His father was Suraqah. He was martyred in the Battle of Badr thoug he was not on the battlefield. Rahers, his duty was with a unit to recomoitre and keep a watch on enemy movements. He was young and very alert. While he was watching out, an arrow strunct him suddenly on his neck and he was martyred.

His mother came to the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم and said, "O Messenger of Allah, you know very will how I loved Harithah. Tell me if he has gone to paradise, or to hell. In the former case, I shall show patience, but if the has gone to hell, I shall cry my eyes out." He said, "There is not one paradise. There are many degrees of paradise. Your son Harithah has gone to Al-Firdaws the topmost," she said, "I shall persevere!" رضی الله عنه (May Allah be pleased with, Harithah!)

(21) KHUBAYB IBN ADI AL-ANSARI

He participated in the Battle of Badr. Then, in 3 AH, in the Battle of Raji, the idolaters seized him as a prisoner and took him to Makkah where the sons of harith ibn Aamir bought him. Harith ibn Aamir had been killed by Khubayb رضی الله عنه in the battle of Badr so his sons bought him to seek vengeance from him. After keeping him in prison for some time. They hanged him on the scaffold. Khubayb رضی الله عنه was the first Muslim who was put on the scaffold. He was also the first one who initiated the practice of offering two roka'at salah before being executed at the place of execution.

According to a tradition, when he was taken to the gallows, he prayed, "O Allah I do not find anyone here who would convey may greetings to Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم. Allah, so you convey it from me." So, Jibril صلی الله علیه وسلم came to the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم and conveyed to him the salaam of Khubayb رضی الله عنه.(May Allah be pleased with, Khubayb!)

(13) KHUNAYS IBN HUDHAFAH AS-SAHMI رضی الله عنه

He was a Quraysh and one of the muhajirs. He had emigrated to Abyssinia and on coming back from there, he participated in the Battle of Badr. In the Battle of Uhud, he was wounded and could not recover, but died. He was the husband of Sayyidah Hafsah رضی الله عنها daughter of Umar رضی الله عنه, she was then married to the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم. رضی الله عنه (May Allah be pleased with, Khunays!)

(14) RIFA'AH IBN RAFI' AL-ANSARI

He took part in the Battle of Badr. His father was the chief of their tribe. He took part in every other Battle after Badr. He took the side of Sayyiduna Ali رضی الله عنه in the Battle of Jaml and the Battle of siffin. He died during the early days of Mu'awiyah's رضی الله عنه caliphate. رضی

رضي الله عنه (May Allah be pleased with, Rifa'ah!)

(15) RAIFA'AH IBN ABDUL MUNDHIR ABU LUBABAH AL-ANSARI

He belonged to the tribe Aws and was one of the chiefs. According to one tradition, he did not take part in the Battle of Badr. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had left him behind as an amir and governor of madinah. Then, he gave him his portion of the spoils of the Battle, just as he had allotted to Uthman رضي الله عنه his share. He died during the caliphate of Ali رضي الله عنه.

Though this is not a proper place for his story yet we refer to it in brief. He had not been up to the mark in the expedition against the Banu Nadir, the Jews. So he bound himself to a pillar in the Masjid Nabawi till his repentance was accepted. That particular pillar was remembered thereafter by his kunyah, Abu Lubabah. رضي الله عنه (May Allah be pleased with, Rifa'ah!)

(16) AZ ZUBAYR IBN AL-AWWAM AL- QURASHI

He is one of ashrah mubashsharh (the ten who are assured admission to paradise). His lineage meets the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم at Qusay, Zubayr's رضي الله عنه ancestor fourth up the tree. His mother was the daughter of Sayyidah Safiyah bint Abdul Muttalib رضي الله عنها and the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم paternal aunt. Sayyidah Asma رضي الله عنها daughter of Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه was his wife.

Zubayr and his mother had embraced Islam together at the hands of Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه. he was then 16 years old or 25 years old. His paterral uncle punished him severely for that. He would shut him in smoke but he endured the torture.

He had first emigrated to Abyssinia. He participated in the Battle of Badr and thereafter. In the next Battle at Uhud, he stood undaunted by the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم when the enemies had surrounded him. He is said to be the first man in Islam to have drawn his sword.

He was fair and had a bright radiant face, was tall and hean. He had thin checks and was hairy. He was martyred in the Battle of jamal at the age of 64 years in 36 AH. He was buried temporarily in Dar us-Saba' and then his body was taken to busrah for final burial. He was offering salah when a warrior of Ali رضي الله عنه, named Jarmuz martyred him. Then Jarmuz said to Ali رضي الله عنه, "Good news! I have slain Zubayr." But, Sayyiduna Ali رضي الله عنه said to him. "Get tidings yourself! You will go to hell!" رضي الله عنه (May Allah be pleased with, Zubayr!)

(17) ZAYD IBN SAHL رضي الله عنه

He was an Ansar and his Kunyah was abu Talhah. He was one of the seventy who had walked from Madinah to Makkah before the hijrah and had met the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم at Aqahah where they gave him their pledge of allegiance.

He participated in the Battle of Badr and other battles thereafter. He was the husband of Sayyidah Umm Sulaym رضي الله عنها, mother of Anas رضي الله عنه ibn Maalik. He was among the prominent men of the Ansar. He was a good archer. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had said about him that only Abu Talhah's voice is better in an army than the voice of a section of it. In another version it is: 'better than the combined voices of one hundred men.' Yet another version las: 'thean ont thousand men.' The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had established fraternal ties between him and Abu Ubaydah رضي الله عنه. he died in 31 AH at the age of 70 years. رضي الله عنه.

(18) ABU ZAYD AL-ANSARI رضي الله عنه

He was one of those sahabha رضي الله عنهم who had put together the Qur'an in the time of Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم. (The revelations were received at different times and were not arranged in a book form).

He wa a paternal uncle of Anas رضي الله عنه. He had participated in the Battle of Badr. He was better known as Sa'd Qari but his real name is not known definitely. Some have said: Sa'd ibn Umayr and some Qays ibn Sakan. رضي الله عنه (May Allah be pleased with, Abu Zayd!)

(19) SA'D IBN MAALIK AZ-ZUHRI

He is the famous sahabi who is more known as Sa'd ibn Abu Waqqas رضي الله عنه one of the ten who were given glad tidings of admission to paradise. The name of his father Abu Waqqas was Maalik. He was a Quraysh. He had embreaced Islam at its initial stage at the hands of Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه when he was 17 years old or 19 years old. He said that only two people had embraced Islam before him and that he was the first man to shoot arrows in Allh's path, He participated in the Battle of Badr and all subsequent battles. In the Battle of Uhud the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم exhorted him. "shoot arrows one after another, may My parents be ransomed to you."
He was wheat- complexioned, short statured, stout, large- headed, thin fingered and hairy. His nose and body were covered with hair.
He died during the caliphate of Mu'awiyah in 55 AH or 58 AH in the ca: .le that he had built ten miles away from madinah in the Wadi Atiq. His body was brought to Madinah and buried in al- Baqi,. He was above seventy or, as some say eighty-two years old. He was the last of the ashrah mubashsharah to die.
He had a great part in the conquests of Islam. He over-ran very many cities and large regions of the non-Arabs. He was the chief warrior who brought Iran to the folds of Islam and who battered the mighty chosroes (Kisra).
His merits are uncountable. رضي الله عنه

(20) SA'D IBN KHAWLAH AL-QURASHI رضي الله عنه

He belonged to Banu Aamir al-Luayy of the Quraysh. But some say that he did not belong to them yet was an ally of them. He was among those who emigrated to Abyssnia a second time. He took part in th Battle of Badr, and died in Makkah during the Farewell Pilgrimage. رضي الله عنه

He had embraced Islam even before the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had moved to Dar al-Arqam. He participated in all the battles and at Badr, he was appointed with Talahah ibn Zubary رضي الله عنه to get news of the caravan of the Quraysh.
Sa'eed ibn Zayd رضي الله عنه was wheat complexioned and tall. At the eleventh ancestor his line of descent meets the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, the ancestor being Ka'b ibn Luayy.
When he accepted Islam, his age was twenty years. He said, "When Umar learnt that I became a Muslim, he put me in fetters." His wife sayyidah Fatimah bint Khattab رضي الله عنها had also embraced Islam before her brother Umar رضي الله عنه.
Sa'eed رضي الله عنه died in 51 AH or 52 AH in wadi Aqiq near Madinah when he was over seventy years old. His father Zayd ibn Nufayl had followed the religion of Prophet Ibrahim Khalil Allah صلى الله عليه وسلم during the Jahiliyah and abstained from the slaughter of the idolaters. In fact, he had met the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم too before the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was commissioned and he was called (موحد الجاهلية) "monotheist of the jahiliyah." رضی اللہ عنہ

(22) SAHL IBN HUNAYF AL ANSARI رضی اللہ عنہ

He participated in the Battle of Badr and other battles. On the day of Uhud, he stood besides the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم like a rock. After the death of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم he became one of the close companions of Ali رضی اللہ عنہ, who appointed him as his deputy in Madinah. Then he made him governor of Persia. He died in Kufah in 38 AH and Ali رضی اللہ عنہ led his funeral salah. رضی اللہ عنہ

(23, 24) ZUHAYR IBN RAFI' AL- ANSARI

(25) ABDULLAH IBN MASUD AL-HUDHAYLI رضی اللہ عنہ

He belonged to a tribe other than Quraysh. His Kunyah was Abu Abdur Rahman. He is Known by the epithet sahib us -sawad wa as -siwak (because he was responsible for the water of ablution and tooth-cleaning stick).
He died in Madinah in 32 AH. He lived a little more than sixty years. رضی اللہ عنہ

(26) ABDUR RAMAN IBN AWF AZ-ZUHRI رضی اللہ عنہ

He was a descendant of Zuhrah ibn Kilab. His line of descent meets the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم at Kilab ibn Murrah. His name during the jahiliyah was Abdul Ka'bah. He was born ten years after the year of Elephant. He accepted Islam at the hands of Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ at the initial stage of Islam. He emigrated to Abyssinia twice. He participated in the Battle of Badr and all subsequent battles, and he was one of those who did not budge from their positions in the Battle of uhud. He suffered more than twenty wounds on that day.
During a journey, he led a congregational salah and the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was behind him in the congregation.
He could not participate in the Battle of Tabuk, so he made amends by giving charity in Allah's path of four thousand dinars, forty thousand dinars more, five hundred horses for the warriors a... one hundred camels too.
After the death of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, Abdur Rahman ibn Awf رضی اللہ عنہ took upon himself the responsibility of maintenance of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم noble wives رضی اللہ عنہن.
Allah had bestowed on him abundant wealth and had also enabled him to spend generously in His path. He was engaged in trading and much of his wealth and property was acquired through trading.
It is reported that when he had emigrated to Madinah, he was extremely poor. He began to prosper in this blessed, pure city. Allah bestowed on him wealth beyond his expectations. When he died, he had four wives and it became necessary to come to an understanding on one fourth of the one-eighth of what he had left behind. Even in this case, their portion came to eighty thousand dirhams or dinars. His legacy was distributed to one thousand and sixty people and each of them got eighty thousand dirhams.
It is also reported that he had made a will that every participant of the Battle of Badr should be paid four hundred dinars each and this was done from this legacy.
According to a traditions sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا told him that she had heard the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say, "I saw Abdur Raman go into paradise in the same way as a child crawls on its hips or on all fours." On the day, he heard her, his trade caravan arrived with seven hundred camels laden with property from Syria to Madinah. In gratitude for the news that he was going to paradise, he gave away in charity whatever the caravan had brought together with the camels and their equipment.

Before dying, Abdur Rahman رضی اللہ عنہ had swooned. When he regained consciousness, he said, "Two angels had come to me. Thye looked very fierce. They said, "We are taking him to the Ruler, Trustworthy, Mighty.' Meanwhile, two more angels arrived and they asked the first two, where will you take him?" They named the Ruler. The newcomers said, 'He is the one who was auspicious since birth and he is pious.'

Abdur Rahman ibn Awf رضی اللہ عنہ was very learned. He possessed a mastery of religious and juristic issues and becames of that he was distinguished among the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہ. Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ, Umar رضی اللہ عنہ and Uthaman رضی اللہ عنہ had made him responsible during their respective caliphates to answer and issue verdicts on religious posers.

Abdur Rahman was reddish white and tall. He had a small face. He had been hit by an arrow on his leg, so he limped. He died during the caliphate of Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ.

(27) UBYDAH IBN AL-HARITH AL-QURASHI رضی اللہ عنہ

His father Harith ws the son of Muttalib ibn Abd Manaf. The kunyah of Ubaydah رضی اللہ عنہ was Abu al-Harith or Abu Mu'awiyah. He was ten years older than the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and had embraced Islam before the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had moved to Dar ul- Arqam. He and his two brothers, Tufayl رضی اللہ عنہ and Husayn رضی اللہ عنہ had emigrated to Madinah together. In the Battle of Badr he grappled with Walid ibn Utbah and both suffered injuries. Ubaydah رضی اللہ عنہ ws martyred. And walid too was Killed on the same day as Ubaydah. رضی اللہ عنہ

(28) UBADAH IBN AS- SAMIT AL- ANSARI رضی اللہ عنہ

He is counted among the chiefs of Madinah. He had presented himself to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم in all three Aqabahs, first, second and third. He had taken part in the Battle of Badr and the subsequent battles. He is one of those sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم who had put the Qur'an together (from the revelations that had descended at different times and were not collected at one place).

Ubadah رضی اللہ عنہ was tall and handsome, Umar رضی اللہ عنہ had appointed him the qadi (judge) of Syria and a teacher during his caliphate. He took up residence in Hims and discharged his duties from there. Then, he moved to Palestine where he died in Ramlah. But some accounts say that he died in Bayt al-Maqdis in 34 AH. He was 72 years old at that time. However, one report says that he was alive in the time of Muawiyah رضی اللہ عنہ.

(29) AMR IBN AWF رضی اللہ عنہ

He was an Ansar, He was an ally of Banu Ammir ibn Luayy. He had taken up residence in Madinah. He had participated in the Battle of Badr.

He died in Madinah towards the final days of Mu'awiyah's رضی اللہ عنہ rule. He departed from this world childless.

He had embraced Islam at a very early stage. So he is called an ancient Muslm. He is one of those sacred people about whom the Qur'an says:

تَرٰى اَعْيُنَهُمْ تَفِيْضُ مِنَ الدَّمْعِ

[You will see their eyes over flowing with tears on account of their recognising the truth.] (5: 83)

He has narrated a hadith of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم in which he says to the Muslims, "I do not fear poverty and need afflicting you. Rather, I fear the time when the world will expand for you (with its wealth and property)." رضی اللہ عنہ

(30) UQBAH IBN AMR AL-ANSARI رضی اللہ عنہ

He was among the well known sahabah رضی اللہ عنہ, he was present at Badr, and earlier at Aqabah the second. A majority of the ulama say that he is called Badri because he used to reside at Badr not because he participated in the Battle of Badr.

He died in the time of Ali رضی اللہ عنہ as caliph. But some people say that he died in 41 AH or 42 AH. رضی اللہ عنہ

(31) AAMIR IBN RABI'AH AL-HNZI رضی اللہ عنہ

He was the son of Amr ibn al-Jamuh. He was present at Aqabah and at the Battle of Badr, as also his father, amr ibn al -Jamuh.

He is that very young Mua'adh ibn Amr رضی اللہ عنہ who had attacked Abu jahl in the Battle of Badr and had cut off one of his legs. After that the Afra brothers Mu'adh رضی اللہ عنہ and Mu'awwidh رضی اللہ عنہ put an end to Abu jahl.

(38, 39) MU'AWWIDH IBN AFR رضی اللہ عنہ

Mu'wawwidh ibn Afra رضی اللہ عنہ and his brother Mu'adh ibn Afra رضی اللہ عنہ were both present at the Battle of Badr.

Afra was the name of their mother while their father was Harithah ibn Rifu'ah Al- Ansar. Bothe brothers had killed Abu jahl in the Battle of Badr (after Mu'adh ibn Amr رضی اللہ عنہ had severed his legl. Mu'awwidh was martyred in this Battle but Mu'adh رضی اللہ عنہ survived to take part in other battles. They had a third brother Awf ibn Afra رضی اللہ عنہ who also attained martyrdom in the Battle of Badr. رضی اللہ عنہ

(40) MAALIK IBN RABI'AH ABU USAYD AL- ANSARI رضی اللہ عنہ

Abu usayd was his kunyah and he is more known by his kunyah than by his name Maalik ibn Rabi'ah. He had participated in the Battle of Badr and all battles thereafter. He belonged to the tribe Musa'idi.

He died in 60 AH at the age of seventy-seven or seventy-eight. He had lost his eye-sight by then. He was the last of the participants of Badr to die. رضی اللہ عنہ

(41) MISTAH IBN UTHATHAH IBN ABBAD IBN AL-MUTTALIB IBN ABD MANAF رضی اللہ عنہ

He took part in the Battle of Badr and every Battle thereafter. He was the one who had accused Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا of infidelity and he was awarded the prescribed punishment of Qadhaf (for false accusation of unchastily, slander). He was given the stripes. This case is known as ifk.

Some reports say that Mistah was his sobriquet. His real name was Awf.

He died in 34 AH at the age of 56 years. رضی اللہ عنہ

(42) MURARAH IBN AR-RABI' AL- ANSARI رضي الله عنه

He belonged to banu Amr ibn Awf. He had participated in the Battle of Badr. He was one of the three sahabah رضي الله عنهم who had not gone for the Battle.of Tabuk, the most known of them was Ka'b ibn Maalik رضي الله عنه. Hilal ibn Umayyah رضي الله عنه was the third of them. Allah relented to them and revealed verses of the Qur'an about them in the surah which is titled at-Tawbah (Repentance) in accordance with their regret.رضي الله عنه

(43) MA'N (معن) IBN ADI AL- ANSARI رضي الله عنه

He was an ally of Banu Amr Ibn Awf because of which he is counted among the Ansar. He was present at Aqbah and also in the Battle of Badr and the succeeding battles. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had established his fraternal ties with Zayd ibn Khattab رضي الله عنه, brother of Umar رضي الله عنه. By a coincidence, both of them were martyred in the Battle of Yamamah in the time of Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه. رضي الله عنه

(44) MIQDAD IBN AMR AL-KINDI رضي الله عنه

He was also known as Miqdad ibn Aswad. His father Amr was an ally of Kindah, so the appellation kindi. And, Miqdid رضي الله عنه himself was an ally of Aswad ibn Baghuth Zuhri a man of Banu Zuhrah, so he was called Zuhri and on that basis, he got his second name Miqdah ibn Aswad.

Miqdad was an early Muslim. He is said to be the sixth to embrace Islam. He is counted among the very pious sahabah رضي الله عنهم of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Among those who have transmitted ahadith from him are Ali ibn Abu Talib رضي الله عنه and Tariq ibn Shihab رضي الله عنه.

He died in 33AH at Jarf three miles from Madinah. His body was brought to Madinah and buried in al-Baqi'. He was 60 years old. Uthman ibn Affan رضي الله عنه led his funeral salah. رضي الله عنه (May Allah be pleased with, Miqdah!)

He had accused his wife of having committed adultery and had resorted to li'an (an oath taken by both husband and wife in which the former accuses and the latter claim innocence). He had taken part in the Battle of Badr. Of those who transmitted the ahadith narrated by him are Jabir ibn Abdullah رضي الله عنه and Abdullah ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه.(The verse of li'an was revealed concerning him.)رضي الله عنه

NUMBER OF PARTICIPANTS AT BADR

Reports differ on the exact number of warriors in the Muslim army at Badr. They are said to be three hundred and fifteen or three hundred and thirteen. In the beginning of this chapter, they are given as three hundred and fifteen in one tradition and three hundred and seventeen in another. The compiler of isti'ab has mentioned their number as three hundred and thirteen, Forty-five of them are as mentioned in the foregoing lines and the remaining are others besides them.

Ja'far ibn Hasan ibn Abdul Karim Barzanji رحمه الله has written a book on the names, merits and virtus of the participants of the Battle of Badr. The title of the book is (بحالية الكرب باصحاب سيد العجم والعرب). He has cited many sources to say that the participants of the Battle of Badr were three hundred and sixty-five, but he has made it clear that the preferable opinion is that they were three hundred and thirteen, as the compiler of isti'ab has written.

MERITS OF THE PARTICIPANTS AT BADR

Of the merits of the participants of the Battle of Badr, the most remarkable is that Allah has given them tidings of paradise through the tongue of His noble Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. He said: (وجبت لكم الجنة) "You are assured admission to paradise."

Another merit is that Allah has forgiven them their sins completely. Thus if any of them had perpetrated a sin, then it would not be necessary for him to make a repentance because he has been forgiven already and his admission to paradise has been decreed. But, it is a different question if his sin is liable to a punishment in this would under shari'ah and the said punishment is awarded to him.

Another of their merits is that Allah sent down the angels at Badr. The angels fought side by side with the men of Badr against the enemies of Islam. There is no different opinion about it at all, though the ulama differ on the other battles like Uhud and hunayn (whether angels were sent or not).

PECULIARITIES & BLESSINGS OF THEIR NAMES

Allah, the Most High, has placed wonderful peculiarities and blessings in the names of the participants of the Battle of Badr and in remembering them. A supplication made on mentioning these names is granted. Burhan Halbi رحمه الله has written in his book on seerah and Dawani رحمه الله has stated that they heard the masha'ikh (learned men) of Hadith say: "Any prayer made while mentioning the names of those present at Badr is granted. This is established through experience."

Shaykh Abdul latif رحمه الله has written, "Some ulama say that many awliya attained this station through the blessing of the names of the participants of Badr." (Awliyah means friends of Allah)

It is also a fact that when the sick people prayed for recovery by virtue of the participants of Badr, Allah granted them cure. A pious man possessing Divine awareness said, "Whenever I placed my hand on the head of a patient and read the names of the participants of Badr sincerely, Allah cured him. And if the time of his death was around, Allah made if soft and light from him."

Another such man said, "In important tasks, I have seen that by reading the names of the participants of Badr and by writing them down, it is a fact that no supplication is granted more quickly than that."

Sayyiduna Ja'far ibn Abdullah رضي الله عنه said, "My father had instructed me that I should love the sahabah رضي الله عنهم of Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم and that for every significant task of mine I should make supplication by virtue of the participants of Badr. He had said, 'Whatever prayer is made by virtue of the participants of Badr is accepted.' And he also said, 'If anyone mentions the people of Badr or prays by virtue of them then forgiveness, mercy, blessing and pleasure surround him."

The Ulama say that one who reads these names every day and makes prayer for his needs by virtue of these names, it is better for time to say رضي الله عنه May Allah be pleased with him!" after each name. for instance, he must say:

"Muhammad Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم. Abu a Bakr رضي الله عنه, Umar ibn Khattab رضي الله عنه, so on to the last name, he must say رضي الله عنه (may Allah be pleased with him!) afterevery name.

The compiler رحمه الله of the book has reproduced the names of all the participants of Badr from Isti'ab, And he has adopted the same sequence of the words of their significance and the words of the prayer by their virtue as the compiler of Isti'ab has followed. However, the writer of Isti'ab has presented a supplication after the names which is very lengthy and difficult. So, the complier of this book has substituted that by a brief but comprehensive prayer. He has drawn it from ahadith. The names of (nearly all) the participants of Badr with the words of the pryer-by-their virtue are reproduced here. The Arabic text is followed by transliteration in Roman script. Then the closing prayer flows in Arabic with its translation.

CHAPTER XL

REFERENCES TO YEMEN & SYRIA AND MENTION OF UWAYS AL-QARNI

بَابُ ذِكْرِ الْيَمَنِ وَالشَّامِ وَذِكْرِ اُوَيْسِ الْقَرَنِيِّ

YEMEN: The word 'Yemen' is applied to those cities and inhabitations that lie to the right side of the ka'bah. Now, However, it is applied to a famous historical country. It is situated to the south west of the Arabian peninsula. Presently, however, Yemen does not include all those territories that were known as Yemen in the past though the main part as well as most of those areas still from portions of its territories. If anything or any person is related to Yemen then they are called Yemeni, Yamaan or Yamaani and the last word is also pronounced Yamaanyi, the (ى) being stressed with (ّ) the shddah.

SHAAM: 'Shaam' is the word applied to the cities and inhabitations that were situatied to the left side of the ka'bah. In Arabic, 'Shaam' means 'left'and 'yameen' or 'ayman' mean the 'right', the words 'shaam'and 'mashaam' are written with 'Hamzah' (ء) too (which gives the word a jerk), as with out the 'Hamzah.'

Shaam today too is a famous country called Sayria.

QARAN: Qaran is a habitation situated in yemen. The word (قرن) has a fathah on both (قرن) and (ر) . If was known after a man Qarn ibn Rooman ibn Namiyah ibn Murad. He was an ancestor of Uways Qarni.

The word (قرن) also is spelt with a fathah on (ق) and a sukun on (ر) and pronounced qarn. It is now called qarn aul-manazil. It is a mountain situated between twenty and thirty miles from Makkah to its east on the road thirty miles from Makkah to its east on the road leading to Najd. This Qarn is the miqat of the people of Najd, meaning they must assume their ihram from here when proceeding for a pilgrimage. Johri is mistaken in pronouncing it Qaran and in ascribing it to Uways Qarni.

MERIT OF UWAYS QARNI

(٦٢٦٦) عَنْ عُمَرَ بْنِ الْخَطَّابِ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اِنَّ رَجُلًا يَأْتِيْكُمْ مِنَ الْيَمَنِ يُقَالُ لَهُ اُوَيْسٌ لَا يَدَعُ بِالْيَمَنِ غَيْرَ اُمٍّ لَهُ قَدْ كَانَ بِهِ بَيَاضٌ فَدَعَا اللّٰهَ فَاَذْهَبَهُ اِلَّا مَوْضِعَ الدِّيْنَارِ اَوِالدِّرْهَمِ فَمَنْ لَقِيَهُ مِنْكُمْ فَلْيَسْتَغْفِرْ لَكُمْ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ اِنَّ خَيْرَ التَّابِعِيْنَ رَجُلٌ يُقَالُ لَهُ اُوَيْسٌ وَّلَهُ وَالِدَةٌ وَّكَانَ بِهِ بَيَاضٌ فَمُرُوْهُ فَلْيَسْتَغْفِرْ لَكُمْ۔ (رواه مسلم)

6266. Sayyiduna Umar ibn Khattab رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, Indeed a man will come to you from Yemen. His name will be Uways. He will not leave in Yemen anyone but his mother. He had been suffering from leprosy and he made supplication to Allah and he relieved him of it leavning only (a mark) to the extent of a dinar or a dirham. So whoever of you meets him, must ask him to pray for forgiveness for you."

According to another version, he said that he heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say, "The best of the tabi'un (who will succeed us) will be a man known as Uways. He will have a mother. He sufers from leprosy. Request him to seek forgiveness for you."[1]

COMMENTARY: There was no one in yemen known or related to him (Uwasys) but hi mother. He was precluded from coming to meet the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم because of his care of her.

The sub-narrator was unsure whether the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had said that a mark of leprosy remained equal to one dinar or one dirham on him. Anyway, the prayer of Uways was answered and he was cored except for the small mark. It was noture's reminder of the disease that had afflicted him. It is like what is said of Sayyiduna Aadam صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. His clothing in paradise was pure sparkling white like the nails never getting dirty. When he came down to this world, there remained in him and his descendandts a tiny reminder of white in the nails. It is possible that Allah let that mark remain on Uways so that he might feel shy and not mingle with other people. This is why he had secluded himself and had preferred anonymity.

According to one tradition, he had himself made a prayer that Allah should leave a small mark of the disease so that he might rememeber Allah's favour and continue to express gratitude.

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم called Uways رحمہ اللہ the best of the tabi'un because he was alive in the time of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم but was precluded from coming to him because of a genuine reason recognized by Shari'ah. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم praised him. His words also mean that one must ask pious people to pray for one even if the person requesting him is more excellent.

Some authorities maintain that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم prasied Uways رحمہ اللہ to make him happy. In this way he set at rest doubts in suspecting minds that Uways رحمہ اللہ had deliberately avoided coming to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. the real reason why he did not come was that he had to please his mother and look after her. This was an excuse approved by Shari'ah.

While this hadiths ranks Uways Qarni رحمه الله as the best of the tabi'un, Imam Ahmed ibn Hanbal رحمه الله placed sa'eed ibn Musayyib رحمه الله as the best of the tabi'un. The fact is that sa'eed ibn Musayyib outclasses the other, Tabi'un because of his learning and knowledge of religion and commands of Shari'ah. Uways Qarni out paces them because of the rewards that he earned from Allah.

As for the words of the Qamus that Uways ibn Aamir Qarni رحمه الله is among the chiefs, of the tabi'un, perhaps the hadith too refers to the same meaning.

We reproduce here the aathar and akhbar (traditions narrated by the sahabah رضي الله عنه) in praise of Uwasys Qarni which Suyuti رحمه الله has collected in Jama' al-Jawami,'

(1) Asir ibn jabir said that till Uways Qarni رحمه الله did not come to Umar Faruq رضي الله عنه, he used to ask travellers from Yemen if someone by the name Uways ibn Aamir was known to them. When he did come to Umar's presence, he asked him "Are you Uways ibn Aamir?" He answered, "Yes, I am Uwasy ibn Aamir, He asked, "Do you belong to the tribe Murad? And are you Qarni?" he answered in the affirmative. Then Umar رضي الله عنه asked him, did you suffer from leprosy and were cured but for a small mark?" he confirmed that he had been afflicted by leprosy and was cured except for a small remnant. Umar رضي الله عنه asked him, "Do you have a mother?" he said, "yes!" then Umar رضي الله عنه disclosed to him, "Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم had told us that a man Uways ibn Aamir will come to us with the Muslim army of Yemen from the tribe Murad and will belong to Murad. He will have been cured of leprosy except for a small portion on his body. He will have a mother whose service will keep him busy. If he adjures by Allah, then Allah will make his promise true. And he advised us to get Uways to pray for our forgiveness." So Umar رضي الله عنه said to Uways, "O Uways, I request you to pray that I be forgiven." But Uways رحمه الله was astonished that a man of Umar's Calibre should ask him to pray fro him. Umar رضي الله عنه insisted, so Uways رحمه الله prayed for Umarرضي الله عنه.

Umar رضي الله عنه then asked Him, "Tell me Uways where do you intend to go now?" He said, "I intend to go to Kufah," Umar asked, "Shall I write a letter of recommendation for you?" He said "O Amir ul- muminin, leave me to myself. If prefer to keep away from people." Then, he departed. During the year following, a respectable man of Yemen came to Umar رضي الله عنه from Kufah. Umar رضي الله عنه asked him if he knew anything about Uways رحمه الله. The man said, "I had seen him in worn out garments and in dire straits," Umar رضي الله عنه narrated to the man this hadith of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. So, when the man returned to Uways رحمه الله, he requested him to pray to Allah for his forgiveness. Uways رحمه الله said, "You too make the same prayer for me because you have returned from a pious journey." The man repeated his request and narrated to him the hadith he had heard from Umar رضي الله عنه. So, Uways رحمه الله prayed for him, However, this news spread and people began to talk of him with the result that Uways رحمه الله departed from there into oblivion.

(2) Asir Ibn Jabir رحمه الله also narrated: A scholar in Kufah used to would stay behind and discuses among themselves. One of them always recounted strange accounts such as I had not heard before. So, I would sit with him. One day, I missed him and I asked others if anyone knew of him. One man disclosed that he was Uways Qarni رحمه الله. I asked the man to take me to him. There, when he opened the door of his room, I asked him, "Brother, what kept you away from us today?" He said,, "I did not have enough garments to cover myself." His fellow citizens and his neighbours used to tease him. I offered him a cloak of mine but he declined to take it. He said, "When people see it on me they will make fun of me." When I insisted very much, he took it, put it on himself and went out among the people. They sneered, "who have deceived into handing this over to you?" Uways رحمه الله said, "You see? This is why I did not wish to take it from you." I drove those people away. Later, when I was with Umar رضي الله عنه, some people of Kufah came to him. Among them was the man who used to make fun of Uways رحمه الله. During their conversation, Umar رضي الله عنه asked them, "is there anyone among you who is from Qarn?" They pointed out the man who had been teasing Uways رحمه الله. Umar رضي الله عنه narrated to him that hadith and told him that Uways resided in Kufah. But the man first denied that any such man lived there. When Umar رضي الله عنه described Uways رحمه الله to him, he said, "Yes! There is a man among us by the name Uways and who make fun of him." Umar رضي الله عنه said to him, "When you go to Kufah, meet him and apologies to him for your misconduct. Then request him to pray for your forgiveness. But. I do not think that you will find him now."

That man went to Kufah and straightaway to Uways رحمه الله Qarni even before going home to his family. On seeing him, Uways رحمه الله asked him, "How is it that I find a change in you?" The man told him about his meeting with Umar رضي الله عنه and requested, "For Allah's sake pardon me. I was very rude and impolite. Overlook my faults and pray to Allah for My forgiveness.' Uways رحمه الله assured him that he would pray for him but requested him not to tell anyone else what he had heard from Umar رضي الله عنه.

However, the people of Kufah learnt of the real rank of Uways رحمه الله.

Umar Faruq رضي الله عنه said that once the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم called him and said, "O Umar, there will be a man named Uways in my Ummah. His body will be afflicted with a disease, leprosy. He will pray to Allah and Allah will cure him of it, leaving a small mark of it on his side. If you see him, He will remind you of The Mighty and Glorious Allah. When you meet him, give him my salaam and request him to pray to Allah for your forgiveness. He is so high in his Lord's esteem that were he to rely on Allah and take an worth to do something, Allah world make his promise good. He will intercede with Allah for so very many people as exceed the number of members of the large tribes of Rabi'ah and Mudar."

Umar رضي الله عنه then began his search for this great man even during the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم life time, but to no avail. He did not succeed even in the time of Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه. He continued his search for him with more vigor when he became the caliph. He would ask every traveller he met about this man till one man from Qaran said, "O Amir ul-muminin, the man you seek is my cousin. But, he is in a sorry state of offairs, very poor and lowly. He cannot be the one whom a man of your caliber searches." Umar warned this man that he was inviting Allah's wrath by ridiculing Uways رحمه الله. While they were conversing, they saw a camel approach. It had a crumbling packsaddle on which sat an unkempt, ragged man who had barely covered himself. Umar رضي الله عنه felt he had found his man. He went to him quickly and asked, "Are you Uwasy رحمه الله Qarni?' He confirmed, "Yes I am Uways!" He said to him, "Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم had sent his salaam to you." He responded." May salaam be on Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم and on you, O Amir ulmniminin!" Then Umar رضی الله عنه said to him, "Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم had commanded that you make Istiqhfar for me."

Thereafter, Umar رضی الله عنه met Uways رحمه الله every year during the pilgrimage. They confided in one another and enquired after their mutual states of affairs.

(4) Hasan Busri رحمه الله said that when the people of Qarn came during the pilgrimage, Umar رضی الله عنه asked them if there was a man by the name of Uways among them. One of these travelers asked, "Why do you ask of him, O Amir ul-minminin? He confines himself in the ruins and shuns company." Umar رضی الله عنه said, "When you go back, meet him and convey to him my salaam and tell him that he sould meet me." The man did as instructed and Uways رحمه الله came to Umar رضی الله عنه. He put to him questions about his name, his disease, his prayer and some mark of leprosy remaining on him. Uways رحمه الله gave affirmative answers to these questions and askedative answers to these questions and asked, "O Amir ul-muiminnin, who informed you about these things?" he said, "Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم had informed me and had commanded me to request you to make who informed you about these things?" he said, "Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم had informed me and had commanded me to request you to make Istighfar for me." Therefore Uways رحمه الله for Umar رضی الله عنه and pleaded, "O Amir ul-mu'mu'minin, I request you to not make me known to others and to permit me to depart." Uways رحمه الله kept to the side lines till he was martyred in the Battle of Naha wand.

(5) Sa'eed ibn Musayyib رحمه الله reported that during hajj one year, Umar رضی الله عنه stood on the pulpit in Midna and called. "O people of Qarn!" Theiraged men stood up on their places and said, "Here we are at your service; O Amir ul-muminin!" Umar رضی الله عنه asked, "Is there a man in Qaran called Uways?" One of them said, "Thereis no one by this name among us, but an insane man goes by this name. He resides in the wilderness. No one has affinity with him now does he mingle with others." Umar رضی الله عنه exclaimed, "He is the one I ask you about. When you return to Qaran, find him and convey to him my greetings. Tell him that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم had given me glad tidings about him and had commanded me to convey his salaam to him." They found him in a deseit and conveyed to him Umar's رضی الله عنه message. He said, "The Ami ul - muminin has divulged my unknown aspect. Salaam to Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم and his descendants and family members." Then he disappeared never to be heard of for a long time. He came out in the time of Ali رضی الله عنه and fought on his side in the Battle of Siffin in which he was martyred.

(6) Sa'sah ibn nu'auiyah رضی الله عنه reported that whenever a caravan of the people of Kufah came to Umar Faruq رضی الله عنه, he would ask them about Uways ibn Aamir Qarni رحمه الله. They would concede that they had not heard of Him. Indeed, in those days Uways رحمه الله had continued himself to a mosque in Kufah incognito. Neither did he emerge from it nor was intimate with anyone. He had a cousin who used to dride him. By a coincidence, he was a member of a caravan from Kufah that met Umar Faruq رضی الله عنه. As usual Umar رضی الله عنه asked them about Uways رحمه الله and his cousin stood up and boosted, "O Amir ul Muminin, Uways is not worth knowing about. He is a lowly, worth less man though he is my cousin. "Umar رضی الله عنه exclaimed, "Love to you! You have invited destruction on yourself by speaking in this manner about Uways." Then he narrated the hadith of the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم about Uways رحمه الله and said to him, "When you return, convey to him my salaam."

Thereafter, Uways رحمه الله became a well-known personality, but he remained out of sight.

(7) Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه narrated that initially Umar رضی الله عنه made no enquiries at all about Uways Qarni رحمه الله for ten years. Then, one year, during hajj he addressed the people of Yemen and requested those who belonged to Murad (Tribe) to stand up. He asked them about Uways رحمه الله and one of them answered, "O Amir ul Muminin, we do not know which Uways you ask about. I have a nephew by this name but he is not such a one that a man of your calibre should pay him any heed." Umar رضی الله عنه asked, "Is he now within the limits of the Haram (sacred territory)," he said, "Yes! He is grazing the camels of the people in the greenery of Arak in the neighborhood of Arafat. ,(So, Uways رحمه الله disguised himself as a shepherd or camel herd to be unknown to the people.)

Umar رضی الله عنه took Ali رضی الله عنه with him and the two of them went towards Arak on donkey. They found Uways رحمه الله engaged in salah, his sight fixed down on the place of prostration. Umar رضی الله عنه and Ali رضی الله عنه agreed that he was the man they were looking for Uways رحمه الله heard their footsteps and he made his salah brief. When he finished it, he offered them salaam and they responded to him saying. (علیکم السلام ورحمة الله) "Peace be on you and Allah's mercy!" they asked him, "Brother, what is your name, May Allah's Mercy and peace descend on You!" Uways رحمه الله said, "I am Abd Allah (Allah's slave)!" Sayyiduna Ali Murtada رضی الله عنه said, "We know. Every living thing in the Heaven and on earth is Abdullah! I adjure you by the Lord of the ka'bah and of the Haram tell us the name that your mother gave you. "Uways رحمه الله asked in wonder, "What is it that you are after? My name is Uways ibn Murad." Umar رضی الله عنه and Ali رضی الله عنه said, "Now let us see your left side," He uncovered it. They found a white spot about one dirham in circumference. They jumped to Kiss it and said, "Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم had commanded us to convey his salaam to you. And he had instructed us to request you to pray for us to be forgiven." Uways رحمه الله said, "I pray for every Muslim man and woman from the east to the west." They said, "We seek forgiveness for ourselves particularly." So, he prayed for them exclusively and for every Muslim man and woman generally that they should be forgiven." Umar رضی الله عنه said, "I wish to present to you some thing." But, Uways رحمه الله said, "I am wearing these worn out clothes. My sandals are mended and I have four dirhams. When these are exhausted, I shall accept your gift. If a man hopes for a week, that prolongs for a month and if he hopes for a month that prolongs for years together. (If he is not content then his desires and greed know no bounds."

Then Uways رحمه الله handed wert her camels to their owners and disappeared never to be seen again.

MERIT OF THE PEOPLE OF YEMEN

(٦٢٦٧) وَعَنْ اَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اَتَاكُمْ اَهْلُ الْيَمَنِ هُوَ اَرَقُّ اَفْئِدَةً وَّاَلْيَنُ قُلُوْبًا اَلْاِيْمَانُ يَمَانٍ وَالْحِكْمَةُ يَمَانِيَّةٌ وَالْفَخْرُ وَالْخُيَلَاءُ فِي اَصْحَابِ الْاِبِلِ وَالسَّكِيْنَةُ وَالْوَقَارُ فِي اَهْلِ الْغَنَمِ۔ (متفق علیه)

6267. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah narrated that (when Abu Musa رضی الله عنه Ash'ary and other people of Yemen had arrived), the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "The people of yemen have come to you. They possess kindest of hearts (internallay) and softest of hearts (outwardly) Faith belongs to yemen and wisdom (too) belongs to Yemen. Arrogance and haughtiness are peculiar to the mastyers of camels while tranquility and dignity are the characteristics of the owners of sheep."[1]

COMMENTARY: The word (ارق) means 'mildness' and 'compassion.' It is the opposite of 'hard-heartedness' and 'collonsness.' The word (ارق افيده) mean that their intrinsic nature is very kind and compassionate. And (الين قلوبه) they are outwardly receptive to admonition and have more ability to accept the truth.

Shaykh Abudl Haq Dahlawi رحمه الله has explained the words (افئدة) and (قلوب) which mean heart. But, the second word signifies change from one condition to another. The hadith uses the two syuonemous words to place emphasis. A similar hadith has been narrated previously too in the chapter on the death of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم (#5969, concluding portion). However, while the words (ارق افئدة) are found the words (الين قلوبا) are not included. This shows that both sets of words are synonymous. They are a peculiar state of a Muslim's heart. When a man's heart is not impressed by Allah's signs and the preaching of His pious slaves then it is a hard callous, heart. When a man's heart accepts that, then his heart is said to be soft and mild.

Teebi رحمه الله has said that perhaps the hadith means by (ارق) a 'sound understanding' and by (لين) 'Accepting the truth.'

As for faith and wisdom belonging to Yemen, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم meant that relative to other people of the east the people for Yemen have more perfect faith. It is as in ahadith in the chapter on the beginning of creation (hadith # 5698). This man was Abu Musa Ash'ary رضى الله عنه. He led people to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to embrace Islam. He had asked questions about creation, the beginning and the secrets of nature. This demonstrated the wisdom of the people of Yemen. It was natural to them. This was carried on by his descendants. Abu al- Hasan Ash'ary رحمه الله was one of the imams of the ahl us, sunnah was al-Jama'ah. He was a descendant of Abu Musa رضى الله عنه. The word (حكمة) 'wisdom,' here, implies knowledge of every creature - its conditions, socialites, reality and nature. But, some authorities say that it implies an understanding of religion. Others say that it is to utter only pious words that are beneficial in both worlds and preserve one from destruction.

This hadith implies that when a man associates with animals their traits creep into him, if anyone looks after camels and remains among them, then he tends to be rough, rude and har-hearted. If anyone keeps sheep, he will be mild, patient and submitting. We may say something of the kind about other animals and people who are associated with them.

It is also said that shepherds and those who domesticate sheep reside nearer to habited places and mingle with people. This creates in them an affable and friendly temperament. They are faithful and obedient to their ruler. On the other hand the camel is tough and hard natured. It lives matly away from populated places in plains and deserts. The keepers of camels also have to live away from people. They rarely come in constant contact with fellow men. This creates in them an aloofness and an unfriendly and a hostile attitude. They are rebellious to the ruler.

Another point is that the camel is a large and an expensive animal and an asset. The sheep on the other hand, is cheap. The owner of the camel will look down on others arrogantly regarding himself as a rich man. The keeper of sheep will be humble and think of himself as poorer.

DISBELIEF SPRINGS FROM THE EAST

(٦٢٦٨) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ رَأْسُ الْكُفْرِ نَحْوَ الْمَشْرِقِ وَالْفَخْرُ وَالْخُيَلَاءُ فِيْ اَهْلِ الْخَيْلِ وَالْإِبِلِ وَالْفَدَّادِيْنَ اَهْلِ الْوَبَرِ وَالسَّكِيْنَةُ فِيْ اَهْلِ الْغَنَمِ۔ (متفق عليه)

6268. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The origin of disbelief is towards the east. And, arrogance and pride are found among the keepers of horses and camels (and their drivers who reside in tents made of camel hair (away from population). And calmness is found among the keepers of sheep."[1]

COMMENTARY: The origin of disbelief refers to 'the complete, unrelenting disbelief,' as Suyntic رحمه الله says, It is more correct to say that the east is the source and origin of disbelief where it makes its appearance. Teebi رحمه الله has compared the Arabic words in the hadith to the saying. (راس الامر الاسلام) "The source of religion is Islam."

Disbelief is seen mostly in the east. Ibn Maalik رحمه الله has concluded from it that the great fitnah (trials) which will emerge from the east are disbelief, the dajjal and Yajuj and Majuj (Gog and Magog).

Nawawi رحمه الله said that the hadith means that the devil had a greater inherence on the people of the east and this was true in the time of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم (when they) were deeply involved in disbelief and idolatry, like the Tartars, the Indians, the Chinese, the Japanese and so on). But, this may be true of the future, too, because the dajjal will come from this region which is to the east of Arabia.

Suyuti رحمه الله has cited Baji to say that in this hadith 'east' refers to Persia or Najd.

Some others say that it points to Iblis (The devil). It is like the traditions that say.' 'The sun rises between the two haorns of the devil.' This means that when the sun rises in the east, the devil puts his head near the sun so that when the sun-worshippers prostrate, their prostration may seem to be to him.

EAST IS THE ORIGINAL PLACE OF FITNAH

(٦٢٦٩) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ مَسْعُوْدٍ الْاَنْصَارِيِّ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مِنْ هٰهُنَا جَآءَتِ الْفِتَنُ نَحْوَ الْمَشْرِقِ وَالْجَفَآءُ وَغِلَظُ الْقُلُوْبِ فِي الْفَدَّادِيْنَ اَهْلِ الْوَبَرِ عِنْدَ اُصُوْلِ اَذْنَابِ الْاِبِلِ وَالْبَقَرِ فِيْ رَبِيْعَةَ وَمُضَرَ۔ (متفق عليه)

6269. Sayyiduna Abu Mas'ud al-Ansari narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said pointing to the east, "From nere fitnah (traials and strife) have descended. And rudeness and hard- heartedness is found in the Bedouin and dwellers in tents made of camel-hair who drive camels and oxen by their tails and who belong to Rabi'ah and Mudar."[2]

COMMENTARY: The Hadith speaks of the fitnah that obstructs propagation of religion. It harms Islam and Mudims and becomes a trial for the people in their observance of their religious life.

The Bedouin are the villagers or any other uncivilized tribal or desert dwellers. They keep themselves away from cities and populated places on mountain tops and deserts so that they are out of touch with knowledge and civilized behavior. City-dwellers can aavil of the company of the pious and the learned. They also acquire morals and etiquette. It is of the uncivilized that Allah says:

اَلْاَعْرَابُ اَشَدُّ كُفْرًا وَّنِفَاقًا وَّاَجْدَرُ اَلَّا يَعْلَمُوْا حُدُوْدَ مَاۤ اَنْزَلَ اللّٰهُ عَلٰى رَسُوْلِهٖ

[The desert Arabs are the hardest in disbelief and hypocrisy and most likely not to know the limits of that which Allah has revealed to His Messenger.] (9: 97)

HARD-HEARTEDNESS SO RUDENESS ARE FOUND IN THE EAST

(٦٢٧٠) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ غِلَظُ الْقُلُوْبِ وَالْجَفَاءُ فِي الْمَشْرِقِ وَالْاِيْمَانُ فِيْ اَهْلِ الْحِجَازِ۔ (رواه مسلم)

6270. Sayyiduna jabir رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Callousness and insolence are found in the east (because disbelief and dissension originate there) while faith [predominates among the people of the Hijaz." [1]

COMMENTARY: The Hijaz includes Makkah, Madinah, Ta'if and their neighboring regions. It refers to the Ansar. The peninsula of Arabia is what lies between Najd and Tihamah. It is called Hijz because this region obstructs Najd from Tihamah. Najd is the tract of land about eight hundred miles by two hundred and twenty-five miles comprising the northern and southern deserts between an -Nufoodh and ar-Rabi' ul Khali situated on elevated land. Najd means 'raised surface,' Tihamah is a low-lying land.

EXCELLENCE OF SYRIA & YEMEN

(٦٢٧١) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَللّٰهُمَّ بَارِكْ لَنَا فِيْ شَامِنَا اَللّٰهُمَّ بَارِكْ لَنَا فِيْ يَمَنِنَا قَالُوْا يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ وَفِيْ نَجْدِنَا قَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ بَارِكْ لَنَا فِيْ شَامِنَا اَللّٰهُمَّ بَارِكْ لَنَا فِيْ يَمَنِنَا قَالُوْا يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ وَفِيْ نَجْدِنَا فَاَظُنُّهٗ قَالَ فِي الثَّالِثَةِ هُنَاكَ الزَّلَازِلُ وَالْفِتَنُ وَبِهَا يَطْلُعُ قَرْنُ الشَّيْطَانِ۔ (رواه البخاری)

6271. Sayyiduna ibn Umar رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said,(one day) "O Allah, bleass us in our Syria! O Allah bless us in our Yemen!" they (the sahabah رضی الله عنه) submitted, "O Messenger of Alalh, and in our Najd," But he said (again), "O Allah, Bless us in our Syria! O Allah bless us in our Yemen!" They requested (again), "O Messenger of Allah, and in our Najd." The narrator said, "I presume that the third time he (prayed in the same words and) said (about Najd), "There will be earthquakes and dissensions and the horn of the devil will be seen there."[2]

COMMENTARY: Syria is mentioned before Yemen perhaps because Syria where Palestine is located is a blessed place always from aforehand in the light of Allah's words:

[2] Bukhari # 7094, Muslim #82-58, Tirmdhi # 3853 (3979)

اَلَّذِیْ بَارَکْنَا حَوْلَهٗ

[. . . . . the precincts where of we have blessed. . . .] (17: 1)

Besides, this land is the resting place of very many Prophets عليهم السلام. Hence, it is mentioned before Yemen. The blessing in Syria could imply an increase in the blessing already found there and it could also call for a blessing that would embrace the people of Madinah and all the believers.

Similarly, blessing in Yemen means blessings in the real sense as also in the spiritual sense. Allah may make it prosperous, peaceful and profitable from the worldly point of view and also he may make its people religious and spiritually advanced. Indeed, Allah blessed it in the material form and caused many awliya (friends of Allah) and scholars to arise there.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم prayed for these two places because the provision of Madinah arrived from there. Another exponent explained that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم prayed for these two places because his birthplace Makkah is nearer yemen while his residence and grave Madinah are nearer Syria. These proximities are enough to make the two places more meritorious. This is why the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم referred to the two countries as his own and added to their excellence by using the plural pronoun 'our Syruia,' 'Our Yemen.' He prayed for blessing in them three times.

He said that earthquakes shall rock the direction of Najd and this is toward the eastern side of the Hijaz as stated in the hadith (# 6270). Earthquakes may mean the real quakes but may also mean that hearts of people will be unsteady and will lock spiritual calmness. Fitnah are the trials and tribulations that weaken religion.

As for the horn of the devil making its appearance, this means that disbelief and trials are very common in Najd. The devils people are seen most in this area. Hence, it is not proper to pray for blessing on such a place.

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِیْ

PRAYER FOR THE YEMENIS

(٦٢٧٢) عَنْ اَنَسٍ عَنْ زَيْدِبْنِ ثَابِتٍ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نَظَرَ قِبَلَ الْيَمَنِ فَقَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ اَقْبِلْ بِقُلُوْبِهِمْ وَبَارِكْ لَنَا فِيْ صَاعِنَا وَمُدِّنَا۔ (رواه الترمذى)

6272. Sayyiduna Anas رضى الله عنه narrated on the authority of Sayyiduna Zayd ibn Thabit رضى الله عنه that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم looked in the direction of Yemen and prayed, "O Allah, And bless for us our sa' and our mudd." [1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم prayed to Allah to cause the hearts of the Yemenis to love them and be inclined to come to them to Madinah. At that time, foodstuff was imported by the people of Madinah from Yemen. It is in this background that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم made this supplication. And, this is why he prayed for blessing in the units of weight, sa' and mudd, that the most possible quantity of grain should come to Madinah.

Sa' and mudd were two units of weight used at that time to buy and sell grain mudd was one- fourth of sa' which is about 3 kg.

1 Tirmidhi # 3993 (3960)

Toorpushti رحمه الله said that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم prayed that the people of yemen should emigrate to Madinah. At the same time, he prayed for blessings in the units of weight - meaning, in that which they weighted. He did this that neither should the Madinans find shortage of food because of the added population, nor should the emigrants find it uncomfortable. There should be a liberal supply of provision and an ample living space all round.

GOOD FORTUNE OF PEOPLE OF SYRIA

(٦٢٧٣) وَعَنْ زَيْدِ بْنِ ثَابِتٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ طُوْبٰى لِلشَّامِ قُلْنَا لِاَيٍّ ذٰلِكَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ قَالَ لِاَنَّ مَلٰٓئِكَةَ الرَّحْمٰنِ بَاسِطَةٌ اَجْنِحَتَهَا عَلَيْهَا۔ (رواه احمد والترمذى)

6273. Sayyiduna Zayd ibn Thabit رضى الله عنه narrated, "Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, 'blessed is Syria!' We asked, 'How is that, O Messenger of Allah?' he said 'It is because the angels of the Merciful (Allah) have spread their wings over it (and its people)."[1]

COMMENTARY: The construction of the words 'the angels of the Merciful' suggests angels of mercy.' Shaykh Abdul Haq رحمه الله says that the angels spread their wings over the particular people of Syria, the abdaal (the Sufis of a high rank), or over all its people. Allah's mercy has spread over all the people of Syria.

The wings of the angels may not be compared with the wings of birds of the world. None of the birds has very many wings but the angels have as many as six hundred wings which the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had seen on Jibril صلى الله عليه وسلم on the night of Mi'raj (ascension to the heavens), We must believe that the angels do have wings but we ought to know that their built is different from the wings we have seen.

ABOUT HADRAMAWT

(٦٢٧٤) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ سَتَخْرُجُ نَارٌ مِّنْ نَّحْوِ حَضْرَمَوْتَ اَوْ مِنْ حَضْرَمَوْتَ تَحْشُرُ النَّاسَ قُلْنَا يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ فَمَا تَاْمُرُنَا قَالَ عَلَيْكُمْ بِالشَّامِ۔ (رواه الترمذى)

6274. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Umar رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "A fire will erupt from the direction or hadramawt," or, he said, "From hadramawt. It will gather the people (land drive them out)." They (the sahabah رضى الله عنه) asked, "O Messenger of Allah, then what do you command us to do?" he said, "You must go to Syria."[2]

COMMENTARY: The narrator was not sure whether the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "....The direction of Hadramawt "or simply, "Hadramawt." In either case the meaning is in the direction of hadramawt.

The 'fire' could mean the real fire or it may refer to dissension and strife.

At that time Hadramawt was a city in Yemen but now it is a wide region spreading from the borders of Yemen upto near Oman.

Previously a hadith (# 5534) has been narrated about the last day and the day of resurrection mentioning the fire that will drive the people to the place of gathering. That place is Syria. That hadith says that people will be dictated by the fire. They will not go there on their own while here in this hadith the words, 'You must go to Syria' indicate that they will have a choice and will go there on their own. Given this explanation, we may say safely that in this hadith the word 'fire' refers to fitnah or dissension and mischief. It will erupt in hadramawt during the last days.

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 3954 (3986), Musnad Ahmad 5-184

[2] Tirmidhi # 2217, Musnad Ahmed 2-119

MORE ABOUT SYRIA

(٦٢٧٥) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ عَمْرِو بْنِ الْعَاصِ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ اِنَّهَا سَتَكُوْنُ هِجْرَةٌ بَعْدَ هِجْرَةٍ فَخِيَارُ النَّاسِ اِلٰى مُهَاجَرِ اِبْرَاهِيْمَ: وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ فَخِيَارُ اَهْلِ الْاَرْضِ اَلْزَمُهُمْ مُهَاجَرَ اِبْرَاهِيْمَ وَيَبْقٰى فِي الْاَرْضِ شِرَارُ اَهْلِهَا تَلْفِظُهُمْ اَرْضُوْهُمْ تَقْذِرُهُمْ نَفْسُ اللّٰهِ تَحْشُرُهُمُ النَّارُ مَعَ الْقِرَدَةِ وَالْخَنَازِيْرِ تَبِيْتُ مَعَهُمْ اِذَا بَاتُوْا وَتَقِيْلُ مَعَهُمْ اِذَا قَالُوْا۔ (رواہ ابوداؤد)

6275. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Amr ibn al-Aas narrated: I heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say, "There will be emigration after emigration. He will be the best of the people who will emigrate to the place where Ibrahim صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم emigrated." (To Syria after departing from his native land Iraq).

According to another versions: "The best people on the earth are they who bind themselves to emigrate to where Ibrahim صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم emigrated (which is Syrai). Then the worst of its people will remain on earth (meaning the disbelievers and the sinners)., they will be thrown out of their lands, regarded as impure by Allah Himself, gathered by the fire along with apes and swine and it will spend the night where night comes and stay with them where they have a nap (at midday)."

COMMENTARY: The first emigration was the one to Madinah. The next will be during the last Days when people will emigrate to Syria to preserve their religion and to get Allah's mercy.

These are also interpreted to mean that the emigration to Madinah is not the final emigration. There will follow many one after another. This second interpretation seems more appropriate and correct. It will be when the last Day approaches and is very close. Dissension will be rife. Infidels and sinners will rule the roost and even in Islamic states, religious personalities and abiders by shair'ah will be scarce. Only the cities and villages of Syria will remain safe like fortresses protected by the armies of Islam through whom Allah will cause truth to triumph. These very armies will eliminate the dajjal. Hence, anyone who will wish to preserve his religion and faith during those days will emigrate ot Syria an settle down in any city or village there.

The best person will emigrate from his native land when the herticals and heathens are in command and look down upon religion. This person and other like him will preserve their faith. But, those whose faith is weak will stick to their hones and properties. Love of wealth will not let them fight the enemies of Islam. They will save their skins and stay on where they are inheriting those who have emigrate. The pure souls will regard them as disgraceful and shameful and their own lands and countries will be fed up of them. They will grope for peace and comfort and their greatest misfortune will be that Allah too will dislike them and put them away from His mercy,. He will deprive them of His blessings. They will be repulsive as though foul-smelling, As a result these people will not be inclined to make emigration and Allah will let them remain in their own place with the enemies of Islam. They will be treated in the same manner as the Qur'an says:

وَلٰكِنْ كَرِهَ اللّٰهُ انْبِعَاثَهُمْ فَثَبَّطَهُمْ وَقِيْلَ اقْعُدُوْا مَعَ الْقٰعِدِيْنَ۔

[But Allah disliked their going forth, so he made them pause and it was said to them, "Stay back with those who are staying back."] (9: 46)

Mulla Ali Qari رحمه الله writes about the words 'Allah will regard them as impure', he will dislike these people immensely and will cause the fire to prevail over them. It will follow them by day and by night and drive them towards the infidels who will have taken up resemblance to swine's and apes because of their old age.

Shaykh Abudl Haq رحمه الله has written that Allah will detest these people very much. The fire of dissension that will be the consequence of their bad deeds or the fire that will arise at that time with the apes and swine's, will assemble them and drive them forth.

As for swines and apes this could mean the real ones and their appearances or it could refer to a conduct behavior like these animals.

The fire will never leave them alone whether they steep or have a nap.

6276. Sayyiduna ibn Hawalah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Soon it will happen that you (Muslims) will have separate armies, one in Syria, one in Yemen and one in Iraq." Ibn Hawalah رضی الله عنه submitted. "O Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم of Allah, pick one for ue, if I find myself there at that time." He said, "You must go to Syria because it is the best of Allah's lands to which the best of His servants will be gathered. If you do not choose that then you must go to your Yemen. And (If you go to Syria) draw water (for yourselves and your animals) from your (own) tanks. Indeed Allah, Mighty and Glorious, has taken responsibility for my sake (in favour of my Ummah) for Syria and its people (against the mischief of the disbelievers)."

COMMENTARY: The armies of the Muslims will have a common faith on the kalimah of Islam. But, their aims and objectives for state affairs will be diverse. Their points of view will differ on this account.

As for Iraq, it is either its Arab territories of Busrah, Kufah, etc, or non-Arab territories comprising the regions other than Khurasan and Mawara an-Nahr.

The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said 'Your Yemen' because his listeners were the Arabs and at time Yemen was geographically considered to be an Arab land. He gave a command, "You must go to Syria or if you do not wish, to your Yemen." The second clause is and intervening clause between must go to Syria' and (if you go there) draw water from your own tanks.' So, the command is', "Must go to Syria and draw water from your own tanks. If not then you must go to your Yemen."

When you go to Syria, do not disturb their administrative working. Avoid altercation and mischief and draw water only from the source allotted to you. Do not create trouble by taking someone else's water.

SECTION III اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

AL- ABDAL WILL BE IN SYRIA

(٦٢٧٧) عَنْ شُرَيْحِ بْنِ عُبَيْدٍ قَالَ ذُكِرَ اَهْلُ الشَّامِ عِنْدَ عَلِيٍّ رَضِيَ اللّٰهُ عَنْهُ وَقِيْلَ الْعَنْهُمْ يَا اَمِيْرَ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ قَالَ لَا اِنِّيْ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ الْاَبْدَالُ يَكُوْنُوْنَ بِالشَّامِ وَهُمْ اَرْبَعُوْنَ رَجُلًا كُلَّمَا مَاتَ رَجُلٌ اَبْدَلَ اللّٰهُ مَكَانَهُ رَجُلًا يُسْقٰى بِهِمُ الْغَيْثُ وَيُنْتَصَرُ بِهِمْ عَلَى الْاَعْدَاءِ وَيُصْرَفُ عَنْ اَهْلِ الشَّامِ بِهِمُ الْعَذَابُ۔

6277. Sayyiduna Shurriyh ibn Ubayd narrated that the people of Syria were mentioned in the presence of Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ. Someone suggested, "O amir ul Muminin, curse them." He said, 'No! I had heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say, 'Al-Abdal are found in Syria and their number is forty. Whenever one of them dies, Allah replaces him with another. By virtue of them, rain pours down. By virtue of them, action is taken against enemies of religion. And by virtue of them punishment is anerted from the people of Syria." [1]

COMMENTARY: The people of Syria of those days were opponents of Ali رضی اللہ عنہ and supporters of Mu'awiyah رضی اللہ عنہ who was unfriendly with Ali رضی اللہ عنہ. He had been governor of Syria in the time of Umar رضی اللہ عنہ. Later he refused to acknowledge Ali رضی اللہ عنہ as caliph and proclaimed himself ruler of Syria declaring it an autonomous state. These were the people who were mentioned in the presence of Ali رضی اللہ عنہ and he was asked to curse them.

Ali رضی اللہ عنہ declined to oblige, saying that the abdul existed in Syria and he could not risk including them in his curse. The ulama of ahl us-sunnah wa al-jama'ah say that Ali رضی اللہ عنہ did not wish to fuel warfare by cursing the Syrians. However, it does not follow that Ali رضی اللہ عنہ was willing to exclude the Abdal and curse the other people of Syria. We cannot imagine such a thing from him, because he himself had said, "They are our brothers who have turned away from us."

It is also reported that once someone from his army had arrested a man of Mu'awiyah's army and brought him before Ali رضی اللہ عنہ. One of those present remarked. "How astonishing! I thought this man is a good Muslim." Ali رضی اللہ عنہ said, "Why do you say so? He still is a good Muslim."

There are other such traditions about him that prove that Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ was convinced that Mu'awiyah رضی اللہ عنہ and his supporters of Syria were Mulims.

The punishments is put off from the people of Syria by virtue of the abdal. The people of Syria are mentioned specifically because the abdal lived among them otherwise their blessings are available to all the world.

A part from this hadith of Ali رضی اللہ عنہ رضی اللہ عنہ, Shaykh ibn Hajar رحمہ اللہ has transmitted other ahadith about them. He has included a hadith of Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The best of the ummah who are always present number five hundred and the abdal are forty. There is never a decrease from, the five hundred and never from the forty. Whenever an abdal dies, Allah replaces appointing one from the five hundred as an abdal." The sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم submitted, "O Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم of Allah, tell us about their deeds (that raises them to that rank)." The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Thy forgive him who oppresses them. They are kind to him who is unkind to them and whatever Allah gives them they use that to look after the poor and the needy." This is corroborated by this verse of the Qur'an:

وَالْكَاظِمِيْنَ الْغَيْظَ وَالْعَافِيْنَ عَنِ النَّاسِ وَاللّٰهُ يُحِبُّ الْمُحْسِنِيْنَ۔

[... and restrain their anger and are forgiving to wards mankind. And Allah loves the good doesrs.] (3: 134)

Ibn Asakir رحمہ اللہ has transmitted a hadith of Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ said, "Allah appoints forty such people whose hearts are on the pattern of the heart of Sayyiduna Aadam صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. And he appoints seven others whose hearts are set like the heart of Ibrahim صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. And he appoints five others whose hearts are oriented to the heart of Jibirl صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, and three others whose hearts are set on the pattern of Mika'il صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, and He appoints one such whose heart is oriented to the heart of Israfil صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. when that one man dies, Allah replaces him by one of the three. Anyone of the three is replaced when he dies by one of the five and when one of the five expires, he is replaced by one of the seven. When a man of the seven dies, Allah replaces him by one of the forty. When one of the forty dies, Allah replaces him by one of the three hundred. When one of the three hundred dies, Allah appoints one to take his place from among the common people. By virtue of all these men, every trial and affliction is averted from this ummah."

Learned men who possess Divine awareness have pointed out that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم did no say that Allah appoints anyone whose heart synchronizes with the heart of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم . the reason is that Allah has not created anyone in the whole universe whose heart is more dear, more noble, more fine and more pure then the heart of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. Hence, no one's heart - even from Allah's poious slaves – is like the heart of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم whether they be abdal or aqtab.

ABOUT DAMASCUS

(٦٢٧٨) وَعَنْ رَجُلٍ مِّنَ الصَّحَابَةِ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ سَتُفْتَحُ الشَّامُ فَاِذَا خُيِّرْتُمُ الْمَنَازِلَ فِيْهَا فَعَلَيْكُمْ بِمَدِيْنَةٍ يُقَالُ لَهَا دِمَشْقُ فَاِنَّهَا مَعْقِلُ الْمُسْلِمِيْنَ مِنَ الْمَلَاحِمِ وَفُسْطَاطُهَا مِنْهَا اَرْضٌ يُقَالُ لَهَا الْغُوْطَةُ رواهما احمد۔

6278. A man one of the Sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "soon (the territories of) Syria will be conquered (by the Muslim forces). If you are offered choice to build houses (and to reside) there, then you must choose the city that is called Damascus, because it is a refuqe for the Muslims from warfare. It is its (Syria's) main city. There is a place in it called al-Ghutah."[1]

COMMENTARY: The name of the companion who narrated this hadith could not be Known. This does not reflect adversely on the soundness of this hadith because all the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم are reliable and authoritative.

Damascus is actually (Dimishq or) Dimashq. It is the capital city of Syria.

It is a refuge from fighting. The Arabic word (معقل) ma'qal means a refuge or a fort. It is derived from (عقل) which means 'to prevent,' 'to bind,' the word (ملاحم) is the plural of (ملحمة) meaning 'war,' 'fighting' and 'Killing.' So Damascus is like a strong fort for the Muslims. Those of them who come to this city are safe from the bullying of the enemy. It is like a sheep that ascends to the peak of a mountain and makes it its refuge.

The word (فسطاط) fustat is a principal or main city. It is a large city that accommodates the largest possible number of people, this is why Misr[2] (Cairo) is also called a Fustalt. This word is also used for a tent or a camp.

Ghut, is a word for gardens and springs. They surround Damascus. Thore is a village near Damascus called al-Ghutah.

CALIPHATE IN MADINAH MONARCHY IN SYRIA

(٦٢٧٩) وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الْخِلَافَةُ بِالْمَدِيْنَةِ وَالْمُلْكُ بِالشَّامِ۔

6279. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The caliphate is in Madinah while kingdom will be (taken over) in Syria."[3]

COMMENTARY: 'The caliphate was in Madinah' for a long time. Then Ali رضی اللہ عنہ moved it to Kufah. The strong caliphate in Madinah ended.

Kingdom will be in Syria. When Imam Hasan رضی اللہ عنہ relinquished caliphate in favour of Mu'awiyah رضی اللہ عنہ, even then Mu'awiyah رضی اللہ عنہ did not become caliph. This view is upheld by the saying of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم transmitted by Ahmad, Tirmidhi, Abu Ya'la and ibn Hibban: "After me caliphate will remain in my ummah for thirty years."

This hadith refers to the caliphate of Ali رضی اللہ عنہ and Kingdom of Mu.awiyah رضی اللہ عنہ. According to another hadith: the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم birth place is Makkah. His emigration is to Mdinah and his Kingdom is in Syria. There (ملک) Kingdom means prophetood and religion. While his Prophethood and religion are now worldwide towards the last days, they will be more marked and felt in Syria.

Some others say that Syria is the greatest place of jihad for his religion. The people of Syria will be continuously and energetically occupied in jihad for the sake of his religion.

In these words, Muslims are exhorted to go to Syria in the last days to wage jihad and protect territories of Islam.

MERIT OF SYRIA

(٦٢٨٠) وَعَنْ عُمَرَ رَضِيَ اللّٰهُ عَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ رَأَيْتُ عَمُوْدًا مِّنْ نُّوْرٍ خَرَجَ مِنْ تَحْتِ رَأْسِيْ سَاطِعًا حَتّٰى اِسْتَقَرَّ بِالشَّامِ رَوَاهُمَا الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِيْ دَلَائِلِ النُّبُوَّةِ۔

2 Misr is ablso used for Egypt.

3 Bayhaqi in Balail & Nabuway 6-447, Mustartrak Haakim 3-72

6280. Sayyiduna Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "I saw (in a dream) a column of light come forth from under my head, rise up till it pitched in Syria."

COMMENTARY: This foretells that the religion of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم will reach Syria rapidly. It will become strong there and it will prevail.

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم mother had seen when he was born that a light issued from her body and brightened the castles of Syria and its houses.

(٦٢٨١) وَعَنْ أَبِي الدَّرْدَاءِ أَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ إِنَّ فُسْطَاطَ الْمُسْلِمِيْنَ يَوْمَ الْمَلْحَمَةِ بِالْغُوْطَةِ إِلَى جَانِبِ مَدِيْنَةٍ يُقَالُ لَهَا دِمَشْقُ مِنْ خَيْرِ مَدَائِنِ الشَّامِ۔ (رواہ ابوداؤد)

6281. Sayyiduna Abu Darda رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Indeed, the place of gathering of the Muslims at the time the offensive action (against the dajjal) will be al-Ghutah in the suburbs of the city of Syria that is called Damascus, the best of the cities of Syria." [1]

COMMENTARY: Damascus is the best of Syria's cities and this is indicated in a previous hadith (# 6277). Al-Ghutah, too, is mentioned there. There, Damascus is described as the place of gathering. In this hadith its neighbourhood Ghutah is pinpointed exactly as the place of gathering.

DAMASCUS WILL NOT FALL TO A NON-ARAB INVADER

(٦٢٨٢) وَعَنْ عَبْدِالرَّحْمٰنِ بْنِ سُلَيْمَانَ قَالَ سَيَأْتِيْ مَلِكٌ مِّنْ مُّلُوْكِ الْعَجَمِ فَيَظْهَرُ عَلَى الْمَدَائِنِ كُلِّهَا إِلَّا دِمَشْقَ۔ (رواہ ابوداؤد)

6282. Sayyiduna Abdur Rahman ibn Sulayman (a # 6252) said, "The time will come when one of the non-Arab kings will invade and occupy all the cities, but not Damascus (a city of Syria)." [2]

COMMENTARY: the scholars have not identified the king who would invade Syria.

However, we must make it clear that there are innumerable ahadith about the merit of Syria, plasetine, bayt al-maqdis, Sakhrah, Asqalan, Qazwin, Andalus, Damascus and some other cities. But, the scholars of hadith have termed most of them as da'if (weak).

CHAPTER XLI

THE REWARD OF THIS UMMAH

باب ثواب هذه الامة

The words 'this ummah' mean the Ummah (or community) of Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم. They are the people who have not only responded to his call but have also obeyed and followed him. They believed in him as Allah's Prophet and Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم and they emulated him by following is teachings. They are called firqah najiyah (فرقه ناجيه): 'those who are saved, delivered.'

It is written in tanqeeh (تنقيح) that a mubtadi' (one who innovates and practices it) is not one of this ummah, at all.

According to Tawdih (توضيح), those who are absolutely members of this ummah include the ahlus-sunnah wa al-jama'ah and they who follow the path of Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم and his sahabah رضى الله عنهم.

The writer of Talweeh (تلويح) has stated that a mubtadi' (an innovator) is absolutely an outcast from this ummah. Though the innovators may be 'the people of the qiblah' yet they will be regarded merely as ummah da'wah (people who have been invited) just as the disbelievers too are ummah da'wah, but they will not be counted among the ummah ijabah (people who have responded).

MUHAMMAD'S صلى الله عليه وسلم UMMAH

Relative to every other ummah (community) and millah (faith), the merits and excellences of this ummah to whom Divine mercy is shown, and its rewards and recompenes are uncountable and beyond words. Without doubt the ummah of the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم is more excellent then every other ummah. The creator of the universe, Mighty and Glorious, says of this ummah in the Qur'an:

كُنْتُمْ خَيْرَ أُمَّةٍ أُخْرِجَتْ لِلنَّاسِ

[you (o believers) are the best community raised up for mankind] (3: 110)

– and He says:

وَكَذٰلِكَ جَعَلْنٰكُمْ أُمَّةً وَّسَطًا لِّتَكُوْنُوْا شُهَدَآءَ عَلَى النَّاسِ

[And thus have we made you a midmost (justly balanced) community so that you may be witnesses to mankind . . . .] (2: 143)

Moreover, it is enough to say in praise of this Ummah that it is the Ummah of Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم, the seal of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم the chief of the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم and the most excellent of the creatures. Every Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and every Messenger عليه السلام had expressed a desire to have lived in the time of Muhammad and to have been a member of his ummah. Apart from this such things are affirmed of its peculiarities, excellence and wonders as are not known of any of the previous Ummahs.

اللهم اجعلنا من امة وارزقنا محبة وتوفنا على دينه وملته برحمتك يا ارحم الراحمين

O Allah, cause us to be of his ummah, and instill in us love of him, and make us die on his religion and his faith – with Your mercy, O The Most merciful of those who are merciful!

SECTION I الفصل الأول

EXCLUSIVE DIVINE FAVOUR ON THIS UMMAH

(٦٢٨٣) عَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ عَنْ رَّسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ إِنَّمَا اَجَلُكُمْ فِيْ اَجَلِ مَنْ خَلَا مِنَ الْاُمَمِ مَا بَيْنَ صَلٰوةِ الْعَصْرِ إِلٰى مَغْرِبِ الشَّمْسِ وَإِنَّمَا مَثَلُكُمْ وَمَثَلُ الْيَهُوْدِ وَالنَّصَارٰى كَرَجُلٍ اِسْتَعْمَلَ عُمَّالًا فَقَالَ مَنْ يَّعْمَلُ لِيْ إِلٰى نِصْفِ النَّهَارِ عَلٰى قِيْرَاطٍ قِيْرَاطٍ فَعَمِلَتِ الْيَهُوْدُ إِلٰى نِصْفِ النَّهَارِ عَلٰى قِيْرَاطٍ قِيْرَاطٍ ثُمَّ قَالَ مَنْ يَّعْمَلُ لِيْ مِنْ نِّصْفِ النَّهَارِ إِلٰى صَلٰوةِ الْعَصْرِ عَلٰى قِيْرَاطٍ قِيْرَاطٍ فَعَمِلَتِ النَّصَارٰى مِنْ نِّصْفِ النَّهَارِ إِلٰى صَلٰوةِ الْعَصْرِ عَلٰى قِيْرَاطٍ قِيْرَاطٍ ثُمَّ قَالَ مَنْ يَّعْمَلُ لِيْ مِنْ صَلٰوةِ الْعَصْرِ إِلٰى مَغْرِبِ الشَّمْسِ عَلٰى قِيْرَاطَيْنِ قِيْرَاطَيْنِ اَلَا فَاَنْتُمُ الَّذِيْنَ يَعْمَلُوْنَ مِنْ صَلٰوةِ الْعَصْرِ إِلٰى مَغْرِبِ الشَّمْسِ اَلَا لَكُمُ الْاَجْرُ مَرَّتَيْنِ فَغَضِبَتِ الْيَهُوْدُ وَالنَّصٰرٰى فَقَالُوْا نَحْنُ اَكْثَرُ عَمَلًا وَّاَقَلُّ عَطَاءً قَالَ اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى فَهَلْ ظَلَمْتُكُمْ مِّنْ حَقِّكُمْ شَيْئًا قَالُوْا لَا قَالَ اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى فَإِنَّهُ فَضْلِيْ اُعْطِيْهِ مَنْ شِئْتُ (رواه البخاری)

6283. Sayyiduna ibn Umar narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said (to the Muslims), "Indeed, your term of life reliative to the term of life of the Ummahs (communities) who have passed away is merely like the time between the salah of asr and the setting of the sun. And, (in the sight of Allah) your example relative to the Jews and the Christians is like that of a man who hires some laboures and asks, 'Who will work for me till midday at one qirat each?' so, the Jews (agreed and) worked till midday against a qirat each. Then, he asked, 'who will work for me from midday till the salah of asr at one qirat each?' so, the Christians (agreed and) worked from midday till the salah of asr against one qirat each. Again he asked, 'who will work for me from the salah of asr till the setting of the sun at two qirat each?' Know! You are they who work from the salah of asr till the setting of the sun. Know! For you is the reward twice over!

The Jews and the Christians were annoyed and protested, 'We have put in more work but have received less pay." Allah, the most High, asked, 'Did I wrong you in the least concerning your rights? (Did I pay you less than the agreed wages?)' They said, 'No!' So, Allah, the Most High, said, 'this is My favour. I grant it to whomsoever I will.'" [1]

COMMENTARY: the Arabic word (اجل) ajal is a stipulated time for anything. Allah says:

لِتَبْلُغُوْٓا اَجَلًا مُّسَمًّى

[. . . . that you may reach an appointed term . . . .] (40: 67)

Sometimes, this word is used for man's death. For example, it is said (دنا اجله) 'his death is near.' This is what Mulla Ali Qari رحمه الله has written on the authority of Teebi رحمه الله. Then he writes: Sometimes, this word refers to the entire period of life that is determined (whether suspended or inevitable) as this word is used in Allah's saying:

---

ثُمَّ قَضٰى اَجَلًا وَّاَجَلٌ مُّسَمًّى عِنْدَهٗ

[......then decreed a term (fro you). And a term is fixed with Hm.] (6: 2)

Sometimes, this word is applied to the end of the term of life and the last moments before death. It is as in the saying of Allah, Most High:

اِذَا جَآءَ اَجَلُهُمْ لَا يَسْتَاْخِرُوْنَ سَاعَةً وَّلَا يَسْتَقْدِمُوْنَ

[.... So when their term comes, they cannot put it back by a moment, nor can they put it forward.] (7: 34)

This verse refers to the application of the word to the last moments of of one's life.

However, in this hadith this word (اجل) ajal must be read in its first meaning, the entire life period. The hadith therefore, means, 'O Muslims, in comparison to the long lives of the past people, the ratio of your lives is from the salah of asr till sunset against theirs of from break of dawn till asr. In spite of that, your wages - or reward - is more. This is your prerogative and exclusive honour.

Qirat is one-twelfth of a dirham or one-twentieth or one -twenty fourth of a dirar.

The Jews who followed Prophet Musa صلى الله عليه وسلم performed many deeds for a little reward. They were like those labourers who laboured from morn till nidday to earn one qirat each.

The Christians who followed Prophet Eesa صلى الله عليه وسلم also performed many deeds, when their time came, against a small recompense. They compared to laboures working from midday to the time of asr to get one qirat each.

These two people got the reward that was due to them. But (O Muslims) you are honoured. You get a dual reward in comparison to them.' These words of the hadith are adopted from the saying of Allah:

يٰٓاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوا اتَّقُوا اللّٰهَ وَاٰمِنُوْا بِرَسُوْلِهٖ يُؤْتِكُمْ كِفْلَيْنِ مِنْ رَّحْمَتِهٖ

[O you who believe (in Eesa), fear Allah and believe in His Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم (Muhammad), he will give you twofold portion of His mercy.] (57: 28) /

The people of this ummah believed in and confirmed not only their Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم but they also believed in and confirmed the previous Prophets عليهم السلام and Messengers عليهم السلام. Hence, they became deserving of a dual recompense and a twofold reward.

The Jews and Christians complained that their portion was little though they had to do more work. There are two possibilities:

(i) they will make this complaint on the day of resurrection when they find the rewards being given to the Muslims.

(ii) they might have complained when they had read in their Scriptures about Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم and his Ummah.

It is clear from this hadith that whatever reward Allah gives, it is not commensurate with the trouble one takes or the effort one puts in to worship Allah or to perform pious deeds, nor is it on the basis of what one deserves. No creature becomes deserving of reward from his creator because of any worship of his or because he has shown some outstanding performance. Rather, the creator bestows on His creature merely out of His favour and mercy. He has complete authority to bestow favours on whosoever he likes and as much as He wishes.

فَإِنَّهٗ يَفْعَلُ مَا يَشَآءُ وَ يَحْكُمُ مَا يُرِيدُ

[Allah does what he wills](3: 40)
[Surely Allah ordains what he pleases.] (5: 1)

THE JEWS & CHRISTIANS

The jews and Christians mentioned in this hadith are the ones who had believed in their respective Prophet, Prophet Musa عليه السلام and Prophet Eesa عليه السلام. They obeyed the Book that was revealed to him and followed his Shari'ah till the last of their lives. As for those Jews and Christians who turned away from their religion, rejected the Messenger and the Book, they are not mentioned here in any way because they are deprived of reward completely.

Besides, it must be clear that the Christians who believed in Prophet Eesa عليه السلام and the Injil did not get more reward than the Jews though they also believed in Prophet Musa عليه السلام and the Torah while the Jews did believe only in Prophet Musa عليه السلام and the Torah.

TIME OF SALAH OF ASR

This hadith is cited by the ulama to support the opinion of Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله for the hour of the salah of asr. He says that the time of asr commences when the shadow of everything becomes twice (or double) of it. They hold that the Christians will be thought to have worked more than the Muslims only when their duration of labour had been till the shadow of everything became twice that thing.

MERIT OF BELIEVERS OF NEXT GENERATIONS

(٦٢٨٤) وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ أَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ إِنَّ مِنْ أَشَدِّ أُمَّتِي لِي حُبًّا نَاسٌ يَكُوْنُوْنَ بَعْدِيْ يَوَدُّ أَحَدُهُمْ لَوْ رَآنِيْ بِأَهْلِهٖ وَمَالِهٖ. (رواه مسلم)

6284. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Indeed, those of my ummah who love me most strongly will be they who will be born after my death. Some of them would have a yearning to see me even being prepared to sacrifec their families and properties of that."[1]

COMMENTARY: Those people would go to the extent of surrendering their dear ones and whatever they possess in order to be able to see the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

This hadith and some other similar ahadith tell us that there will be people of succeeding generations who will be peers of the noble sahabah رضي الله عنهم in the merit and excellences that they possess. In fact, some night be more excellent. One of the famous scholars of hadith Allamah ibn Abdual Barr رحمه الله inclines to support this view. This is mentioned by shaylkh ibn Hajar رحمه الله Makki in Sawa'iq muharriqah. However, most of the ulama hold that the best and most excellent of the ummah are the sahabah رضي الله عنهم themselves. They maintain that no one else can attain their position howsoever pious and righteous, learned and God-fearing he may be. They say about the ahadith from which Ibn Abdul Barr رضي الله عنه draws his conclusion that we might say that at most a partial excellence over a sahabi رضي الله عنه might be, possible in any remote unconnected section. As far as the thorough excellence is concerned and is related to an abundant reward, it is only for the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہ.

The ulama say that in this discourse, reference is those sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم who the very special sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم who were fortunate to have been in the company of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم for a very long time and who acquired too much knowledge and blessings from him and who participated in battles with him. As for those very common, general sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم who had met him once or twice , now and then, their case cannot be as strang. In fact, there are some who had seen him just once in their life time. Nevertheless, it is a fact that any sahabi رضی اللہ عنہ gets a higher and better rank and merit than one who is not a sahabi. This applies to every sahabi رضی اللہ عنہ even if he may have seen the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم just once. No one else can equal any sahabi رضی اللہ عنہ in this singular honour and distinction. There may perhaps be some debate where learning and deeds are concerned. Even from this point of view, it is better to declare that the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم are more excellent and more noble than the reast of the ummah without any reservations.

UMMAH WILL NEVER LACK ADHERENTS TO ALLAH'S RELIGION

(٦٢٨٥) وَعَنْ مُعَاوِيَةَ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ لَا يَزَالُ مِنْ أُمَّتِيْ أُمَّةٌ قَائِمَةٌ بِأَمْرِ اللّٰهِ لَا يَضُرُّهُمْ مَّنْ خَذَلَهُمْ وَلَا مَنْ خَالَفَهُمْ حَتّٰى يَأْتِيَ أَمْرُ اللّٰهِ وَهُمْ عَلٰى ذٰلِكَ مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ وَذُكِرَ حَدِيْثُ أَنَسٍ إِنَّ مِنْ عِبَادِ اللّٰهِ فِيْ كِتَابِ الْقِصَاصِ۔

6285. Sayyiduna Mu'awiyah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he heard the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say, "There will not section who adhere to the command of Allah. They will not be hurt by those who desert them and who oppose them till the command condition (of rectitude)." [1]

COMMENTARY: Adhering to the command of Allah is to mould one's life completely according to the tenets and commands of Shari'ah. Convictions and deeds are as prescribed by religion. One learns the book of Allah, acquires knowledge of Shari'ah, observes the sunnah, takes part in jihad for the sake of Allah and wishes well for Allah's creatures and is heedful of fard kifayah (which are obligations deemed discharged by all if some members of the community attend to them). Allah says about this:

وَلْتَكُنْ مِّنْكُمْ أُمَّةٌ يَّدْعُوْنَ إِلَى الْخَيْرِ وَيَأْمُرُوْنَ بِالْمَعْرُوْفِ وَيَنْهَوْنَ عَنِ الْمُنْكَرِ

[And let there be of you a community who invite to goodness and enjoin what is right, and forbid what is wrong.] (3: 104)

It is clear from this hadith that the earth will never lack such pious people who steadfastly stick to obeying the commands of Allah. They abstain from what Allah has forbidden and, come what may, they abide by shari'ah always. They are engaged constantly in keeping Islam alive and high irrespective of whether they are helped or opposed.
As for the words till the command of Allah comes,'; they mean 'death' and end of term', Another interpretation by a scholar is 'the day of resurection' or 'the Last Day' but this ill create a misunderstanding of another hadith that says"

1 Bukhari # 3641, Muslim # 174-1637,. Abu Dawud # 4752, Ibn Majah # 1304, Musnad Ahmed

لا تقوم الساعة حتّٰى لا يكون في الارض من يقولُ الله

"The last Day will not come as long as there is on earth one who says 'Allah'."
Another scholar has said about (قائمة بامر الله) 'will remain on the command of Allah' that this means 'to follow Allah's religion strictly.'
Some authorities have said about the section who adhere to Allah's command that they will be the scholars who teach hadith and religion at all times, in every age. They propagate religion and enforce the sunnah. Another explanation is that 'this section' refers to those who keep to Islam always and in all conditions. Another exponent suggests that the hadith means that the glory and might of the followers of Islam will never disappear from the surface of the earth. If there is some weakness in the Muslims in some area then there surely would be other places where Islam is firmly rosted and strong and the kalimah of Allah is well practiced.
The gist of these opinions is that 'the section' are the 'warriors of Islam' charged with waging jihad against the enemies of Islam. And to strengthen Islam. In the final days, such people will protect the boundaries of Islamic lands.
Some versions also have the words (وهم بالشام) 'and they are in Syria'. Some others have these words too.'

حتّٰى يقاتل اخرهم مسيح الدجال

'Till the last wen of this section fight the dajjal.'
These versions too, suggest that the section' are the warriors of Islam. However, the apparent meaning of this hadith (under discussion) is that 'the section' includes every such group and people who adhere to Allah's religion and serve and propagate it. They are occupied always in raising Islam everywhere.

وَذُكِرَ حَدِيثُ أَنَسٍ إِنَّ مِنْ عِبَادِ اللّٰهِ فِي كِتَابِ الْقِصَاصِ

SECTION II الفصل الثاني

SIMILITUDE OF THE UMMAH OF MUAHMMAD صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم

(٦٢٨٦) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَثَلُ أُمَّتِيْ مَثَلُ الْمَطَرِ لَا يُدْرٰى أَوَّلُهُ خَيْرٌ أَمْ آخِرُهُ. (رواه الترمذی)

6286. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The example of my ummah is like rain. It is not known whether the first of it is better or the last of it."[1]

COMMENTARY: There should arise no misgivings because of the words of the hodith. It does not raise the question whether the earlier people of this ummah were better or the later are. Rather, it says explicitly that the entire ummah is good when rain powers in a dry season, then all of it is good and beneficial. Hence the earlier people of this umma as well as the latter ones who are true and pious are all good people. Then, the question arises: how are the first and the last at par? The first ones had the honour of the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم company. They obeyed him and conveyed his message to the others. They helped further his religion and shari'ah. The ones who followed and follow accepted his religion and shari'ah in too. They remain firm on every portion of his teachings and preserved and preached his religion, strengthening it. They spread it in the four corners of the world.

It may also be said that there are different reasons for being good. The earlier people were good for some reasons, on some counts while the succeeding ones may be good in other departments and for other reasons. In short the whole ummah is beneficial and good and equal in this respect. The first members of this ummah are good for some reasons peculiar to them and the succeeding members are good for reasons common to them.

However, the majority of the ulama say that on the overall basis only the foremost members who were the sahabah رضى الله عنهم are the most excellent but this does not rule out the possibility that anyone else might be more exrcllent in some partial respect or an exclusive department.

As for 'overall basis' it implies 'earning the highest reward from Allah.'

Toorpushli رحمه الله has written that this hadith does no cast doubt on the merit of the earlier members of this ummah being exceeded by the succeeding members because the first generation of the sahabah رضى الله عنهم is more excellent and superior than all other generations without any semblance of doubt whatsoever. The next generation after the first are better than all generations succeeding them and then the next is better than those following it. The message of the hadith is that the entire ummah is beneficial as for as propagation of religion and Shari'ah is concerned.

Qadi too, has mentioned something like it in a lengthy discourse. The gist of it is that it is difficult to pinpoint the more beneficial portion of rain and why, and the portion lacking benefit, because there are varying aspects of benefit and different kinds. In this sense, every period of this ummah bears goodness and benefit for one reason or another and in one respect or the other. However, on the principle of (الفضل للمتقدم) 'excellence of the preceding,' the merit belongs to the members of the first generation of this ummah, The sahabah رضى الله عنه. This hadith offers solace to the members of the succeeding generations. Allah, Lord of the worlds, has the door of His mercy open and hope of receiving blessing from Him never ceases.

Teebi رحمه الله has written that the comparison of the ummah with rain is only to guide and to teach. It is like a saying of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم comparing rain with guidance and knowledge. The ummaah that is compared to rain in this hadith are the perfect scholars who are perfect themselves and are a means of taking the others to a perfect degree. Goodness may be read in the sense of beneficial so that it does not presuppose that the entire ummah is equal in excellence.

In short, the ummah of Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم has never lacked goodness at any stage or period. It is as the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم words elsevohere, "the entire ummah is the ummah that has been shown mercy." This is the consequence of its Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم being a 'Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم of mercy'. This is in contrast to other ummahs with whom goodness was found only at their initial stage and the succeeding ones became evil to such an extent that they changed their sacred heavenly books too. Thereby they attered their religion making it different from what their earlier members had followed and obeyed.

SECTION III   اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

MORE ABOUT THE EXAMPLE OF THE UMMAH OF MUHAMMAD صلى الله عليه وسلم

(٦٢٨٧) عَنْ جَعْفَرٍ عَنْ اَبِيْهِ عَنْ جَدِّهٖ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَبْشِرُوْا وَاَبْشِرُوْا اِنَّمَا مَثَلُ اُمَّتِيْ مَثَلُ الْغَيْثِ لَا يُدْرٰى اٰخِرُهٗ خَيْرٌ اَمْ اَوَّلُهٗ اَوْ كَحَدِيْقَةٍ اُطْعِمَ مِنْهَا فَوْجٌ عَامًا ثُمَّ اُطْعِمَ مِنْهَا فَوْجٌ عَامًا لَعَلَّ اٰخِرَهَا فَوْجًا اَنْ يَّكُوْنَ اَعْرَضَهَا عَرْضًا وَاَعْمَقَهَا عُمْقًا وَاَحْسَنَهَا حُسْنًا كَيْفَ تَهْلِكُ اُمَّةٌ اَنَا اَوَّلُهَا وَالْمَهْدِيُّ وَسْطُهَا وَالْمَسِيْحُ اٰخِرُهَا وَلٰكِنْ بَيْنَ ذٰلِكَ فَيْجٌ اَعْوَجُ لَيْسُوْا مِنِّيْ وَلَا اَنَا مِنْهُمْ۔ (رواه رزين)

6287. Sayyiduna Ja'far رضى الله عنه (Sadiq) narrated on the authority of his Father (Imam Muhammad Baqir رحمه الله) who narrated from (his father Imam Zaym ul-Aabideen Ali ibn Husayan ibn Ali رضى الله عنه) Ja'far's رحمه الله grand father that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Rejoice! And rejoice! Indeed. The example of my ummah is like the rain of which it is nort known whether the last of it is better or the first of it. Or (the example of my ummah is) like a garden from (a portion of) which a company (of men) fed themselves for a year then from (another portion of) which another company fed themselves for a year. It may be that the last company that eats from it is berader, deaper and more splendid (than the first). How can a ummah perish when I am the first of it, mahdi the middle of it and Masih the last of it? But, between this there will arise a crooked group (or, a misled people). They do not belong to me and I have nothing to do with them." (I am displeased and fed up with them.)[1]

COMMENTARY: The word 'Rejoice' is repeated for emphasis and perhaps to suggest that the glad tidings are for this world as well as for the next.

The example of the ummah is the rain. The intervening conjunction 'or' might also mean 'and' (its example is like a garden). The garden has green trees that are fruit -bearing. The comparison with the garden is actually of religion from the point of view of its laws, parts and departments.

The breadth and depth represent a large company of men. Length is not mentioned because reference breath and depth follows reference to length, so it is taken for granted after breath and depth are mentioned.

THE TABI'UN BELIEVED IN THE UNSEEN

(٦٢٨٨) وَعَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ شُعَيْبٍ عَنْ اَبِيْهِ عَنْ جَدِّهٖ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَيُّ الْخَلْقِ اَعْجَبُ اِلَيْكُمْ اِيْمَانًا قَالُوْا الْمَلٰٓئِكَةُ قَالَ وَمَا لَهُمْ لَا يُؤْمِنُوْنَ وَهُمْ عِنْدَ رَبِّهِمْ قَالُوْا فَالنَّبِيُّوْنَ قَالَ وَمَا لَهُمْ لَا يُؤْمِنُوْنَ وَالْوَحْيُ يَنْزِلُ عَلَيْهِمْ قَالُوْا فَنَحْنُ قَالَ وَمَا لَكُمْ لَا تُؤْمِنُوْنَ وَاَنَا بَيْنَ اَظْهُرِكُمْ قَالَ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ اَعْجَبَ الْخَلْقِ اِلَيَّ اِيْمَانًا لَقَوْمٌ يَكُوْنُوْنَ مِنْ بَعْدِيْ يَجِدُوْنَ صُحُفًا فِيْهَا كِتَابٌ يُؤْمِنُوْنَ بِمَا فِيْهَا۔

6288. Sayyiduna Amr ibn Shu'ayb رحمه الله reported from his father from his (Aowr's)

grandfather that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم asked (his sahabah رضی اللہ عنہ), "Which of the creatures do you like for their faith?" They said, "The angels!" He asked, "And why should they not believe? They are near their Lord." They said, "Then the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم!" he asked, "And why should they not believe? Revelation comes down to them." Then, They said, "Then, we!" he said, "And why should you not believe while I am among you?"

The narrator added that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The creatures whom I like most for their faith are the people who will come after I die (the tabi'un and those after them through succeeding generations till the last Day). They will find the scriptures, meaning the Qur'an, and they will believe in what it contains."[1]

COMMENTARY: The angels are not more excellent than Prophets علیہم السلام. The Prophets علیہم السلام are more excellent in Allah's sight because of the higher rewards they earn.

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم should have a stronger faith because whay or revelation is the real means of religion being known in this world. The angel, Rooh ul-Amin (Jibri علیہ السلام) brings down the revelation from the heaven. The Prophets صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم see the angels with their eyes. They observed their radiance. The dictionary meaning of wahy is inspiration. In the terminology of Shari'ah, it is revelation brought by Jibril صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم to the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم.

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم told the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم that they should have no hesitation in believing because he was among them. They could see his life like an open book. They could see the signs of Prophethood, too.

As for the people who will come after the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم death, their faiths will be faith and belief in the unseen. Thy will not have seen the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, or had his company, or seen the revelation descend or observed the signs of Prophethood but merely heard these things from the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہ. However they will hold fast to the belief. Allah has said of them:

يُؤْمِنُونَ بِالْغَيْبِ

[Who believe in the Unseen] (2: 3)

These words support the meaning given in the foregoing lines. It is supported further by a tradition that some people spoke of the faith of the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم in the presence of Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ who said, "the truth of Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, his call and all his life was very obvious to anyone who saw him and was fortunate to have his company. By Him besides whom there is no one worthy of worship, no believer's faith is better than faith in the unseen." Then he recited the verse:

يُؤْمِنُونَ بِالْغَيْبِ

[who believe in the Unseen] (2: 3)

Though the tabi'un too had seen the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہم and had received their traditions from very close, yet they had not seen the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. Also the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہ's faith too may be said to be 'unseen,' but that was only on such things in which it is mandatory to believer, like Allah's existence, The Engels and the affairs of the hereafter. But, they also had many things before their eyes. As against this the tabi'un and the believers after them had a faith that was completely, all of it faith in the Unseen. Hence, their faith was better and desirable and pleasing.

[1] Bayhaqi in Dala'il un-Nobuwal 6-538

REWARD OF THE LAST PEOPLE

(٦٢٨٩) وَعَنْ عَبْدِالرَّحْمٰنِ بْنِ الْعَلَاءِ الْحَضْرَمِيِّ قَالَ حَدَّثَنِيْ مَنْ سَمِعَ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ اِنَّهٗ سَيَكُوْنُ فِيْ اٰخِرِ هٰذِهِ الْاُمَّةِ قَوْمٌ لَّهُمْ مِثْلُ اَجْرِ اَوَّلِهِمْ يَاْمُرُوْنَ بِالْمَعْرُوْفِ وَيَنْهَوْنَ عَنِ الْمُنْكَرِ وَيُقَاتِلُوْنَ اَهْلَ الْفِتَنِ۔ رَوَاهُمَا الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِيْ دَلَآئِلِ النُّبُوَّةِ۔

6289. Sayyiduna Abudr Rahman ibn al- Ala al-Hadrami said, "He narrated to me who had heard the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم say, 'There will be among the last of this ummah a people who will earn "reward like that of the first of them (meamin) the sahabah رضى الله عنه). They will enjoin that which is reputable and forbid that which is disreputable. They will fight with those who create fitnah (dissension among the Mulims);"[1]

MERIT OF BELIEVERS WHO HAVE NOT SEEN THE PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم

(٦٢٩٠) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ اُمَامَةَ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ طُوْبٰى لِمَنْ رَاٰنِيْ وَطُوْبٰى سَبْعَ مَرَّاتٍ لِمَنْ لَّمْ يَرَنِيْ وَاٰمَنَ بِيْ۔ (رواه احمد)

6290. Sayyiduna Abu Umamah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Happiness (or greetings) to him who has seen me, and seven times happiness (or greetings) to him who has not seen me and has believed in me (and confirmed my Prophethood)."[2]

COMMENTARY: The seven times greetings indicates the merit of those poeple of the ummah who believe in the unseen. What is the wisdom in the number seven is known only to 'Allah and to His Messenger. We may also say that the number seven implies 'very many', as generally it is used in Arabic to depict a large number.

BELIEVERS AFTER THE PROPHET'S صلى الله عليه وسلم TIME

(٦٢٩١) وَعَنِ ابْنِ مُحَيْرِيْزٍ قَالَ قُلْتُ لِاَبِيْ جُمُعَةَ رَجُلٍ مِّنَ الصَّحَابَةِ حَدِّثْنَا حَدِيْثًا سَمِعْتَهٗ مِنْ رَّسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ نَعَمْ اُحَدِّثُكُمْ حَدِيْثًا جَيِّدًا تَغَدَّيْنَا مَعَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَمَعَنَا اَبُوْ عُبَيْدَةَ بْنُ الْجَرَّاحِ فَقَالَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اَحَدٌ خَيْرٌ مِّنَّا اَسْلَمْنَا وَجَاهَدْنَا مَعَكَ قَالَ نَعَمْ قَوْمٌ يَّكُوْنُوْنَ مِنْ بَعْدِكُمْ يُؤْمِنُوْنَ بِيْ وَلَمْ يَرَوْنِيْ رَوَاهُ اَحْمَدُ وَالدَّارِمِيُّ وَرَوٰى رَزِيْنٌ عَنْ اَبِيْ عُبَيْدَةَ مِنْ قَوْلِهٖ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اَحَدٌ خَيْرٌ مِّنَّا اِلٰى اٰخِرِهٖ۔

6291. Sayyiduna Ibn Muhyriz رضى الله عنه (a tabi'i) narrated that he asked Sayyiduna Abu Jumu'ah رضى الله عنه, one of the sahabah رضى الله عنه, "Narrate to us a hadith that you may heard from Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم." He said, "Yes. I shall narrate to you a good hadith. One day we had our meal with Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم. Abud Ubaydah ibn al-jarrah رضى الله عنه was there with us. He asked 'O Messenger of Allah, is anyone better than us? We embraced Islam (at your hands) and participated in jihad (against disbelievers) along with you." He said, "Yes, a people who will come after you (have passed away). They will believe in me though they will not have seen me."

The version by Razin is on the authority of Abu Ubaydha رضى الله عنه. It begins from: 'O Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم of Allah, is anyone better than us. . . . . . up to the end.[1]

COMMENTARY: "The succeeding people will be better than you from the point of view that they would believe in me without having seen me. On the other hand, you are more excellent because you have preceded them in Islam, have been my sahabah and have taken part in jihad."

MERIT OF THE MUHUDDITHIN

(٦٢٩٢) وَعَنْ مُعٰوِيَةَ بْنِ قُرَّةَ عَنْ اَبِيْهِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا فَسَدَ اَهْلُ الشَّامِ فَلَا خَيْرَ فِيْكُمْ وَلَا يَزَالُ طَائِفَةٌ مِّنْ اُمَّتِيْ مَنْصُوْرِيْنَ لَا يَضُرُّهُمْ مَنْ خَذَلَهُمْ حَتّٰى تَقُوْمَ السَّاعَةُ قَالَ ابْنُ الْمَدِيْنِيِّ هُمْ اَصْحَابُ الْحَدِيْثِ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ صَحِيْحٌ۔

6292. Sayyiduna Mu'awi yah ibn Qurrah narrated on the authority of his father that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "When the people of Syria turn evil there will be no good in you. But a section of my ummah will continue to be helped and they will suffer no harm at the hands of those who let them down till the last Hour comes." (Ali) Ibn Madini رحمه الله said that they are the scholars of hadith.[2]

COMMENTARY: Mu'awiya's رحمه الله father was Qurrah ibn Iyas رضى الله عنه. Mu'awiy ul ibn Qurrah رحمه الله was a learned man, a great juoist, who was born on the day of the Battle of jamal and he died in 113 AH.

When Syria becomes evil, there will be no point in settling down in Syria. It will not be good to emigrate there.

Shaykh Abdul Haq رحمه الله has explained this in these words: the pople of Syria will persist on the true religion of Allah. They will discharge their obligations, on the best of ummah (communities). However, finally they too would succumb to evil just before the last day when only the evil people will survive in this world. When the people of Syria fall into destruction goodness and piety will disappear. None of the good doors will remain in this world.

"When the Last Hour comes." These words mean when the Last Hour is very near. As stated previously, when that comes there will not be found anyone recitng and professing the kalimah.

The words of Ibn Madini mean that they will be scholars of hadith who are adept in this field. They will have committed the ahadith to memory, will narrate the ahadith and abide by the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم sunnah which is an exposition of the Qur'an. They will serve the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم by teaching and propagating the ahadith. They are those people who are called ahl us-sunnah wa al-jama'ah.

THIS UMMAH IS FORGIVEN

(٦٢٩٣) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ تَجَاوَزَ عَنْ اُمَّتِيَ الْخَطَأَ وَالنِّسْيَانَ وَمَا اسْتُكْرِهُوْا عَلَيْهِ۔ (رواه ابن ماجة والبيهقي)

6293. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Surely, Allah has forgiven my Ummah their mistakes and forgetfulness, and that sin which they are compelled to commit."[1]

COMMENTARY: The first word (خطاء) is the opposite of rectitude. It is committed by oversight. According to Sarah it is the opposite of correctness. The word (خطيئة) is derived from the same reoot as (خطاء) but means 'Sin.' Or, a sin that is committed inintentionally. But, if the word (خطء) is read with a kasrah on (خ) and Sukkun or (ط) then it would also mean 'sin.' Some authorities say that (خطاء) is used for a sin that is perpetrated intentionally. As for the sin that is committed unintentionally, the word (اخطاء) is used. The word (مخطی) applies to one who intends to do good but happens to commit a sin. He commits a mistake, for instance, he aimed his gun at a game, but the bullet hit a man, so he killed that men. Or, a man was fasting. He took water to rinse his mouth but the water went down his throat unintentionally. This is (خطا) to which this hadith refers.

Forgetfulness is the opposite of remembering. A person may forget something. He was distracted so he did not remember to do it.

The hadith means that whatever is done by mistake and forgetfulness by this ummah is not counted as sin and the perpetrator of this action is not a sinner. This does not mean that he will not be answerable under laws of the land. For instance, accidental killing is liable to diyah or bloodmit. If a man happens to break his fast by mistake then he will have to redeem it, But if anyone eats or drinks by mistake and realizes his mistake and desits from further consumption then he may complete his fast because it is not invalidated. His intake was a concession by Allah. If anyone makes a mistake in salah then amends may be made by the remedid prostrations. If anyone appropriates another's property by mistake then it is wajib to make a recompensation.

If anyone is compelled to commit a sin and he is unwilling to do it and detests it, then he is not regarded a sinner. However, there are different aspects of rights of Allah and rights of fellow men. These may be seen in relative books.

THIS UMMAH IS THE MOST EXCELLENT

6294. Sayyiduna Bahz ibn hakim رضى الله عنه narrated on the authority of his father (Hakim ibn Mu'awiyah) who reported from his (Bahz') grandfather (Mu'awiyah ibn haydah رضى الله عنه) who said that he had heard Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم say concerning Alalh's words:

كُنْتُمْ خَيْرَ اُمَّةٍ اُخْرِجَتْ لِلنَّاسِ

[You are the best community raised up for mankind] (3: 110)

"You are the ones to perfect seventy ummah (communities) and you are the best of them and the most noble of them."

COMMENTARY: This ummah is the best from day one in Allah's estimation but ti was disclosed offer the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was commissioned. Or, it has been so mentioned in the preserved tablet from the beginning, Or, the previous ummahs had known of it always. The words 'this ummah' include all its believers both the common members and the cream. The qualifications for this distinction are a pious conviction, stead fastness in belief, deep love of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, sticking to faith, keeping within the Islamic limits and such other things. This makes all members eligible for the merit of 'best of communities'. However, some authorities say that the best of ummahs are the ulama the truthful, the martyrs and the righteous. They say that 'best' means perfect and complete in all respects. Some other authorities contend that this word applies to the muhajir (or the emigrants). But, it is not known why they limit the scope of 'the best of ummahs' to a specific section. It is proper to enlarge the scope to include the general body of Muslims.

The figure 'seventy' in the hadith is used to mean 'many', 'innumerable.' It could also refer to the previous large ummah and they number seventy. The smaller ummahs also come under their purview.

As for the word 'you are the ones to perfect seventy ummah's,' the implication is 'you end or conclude the series of the ummahs.' Just as your Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم is the khatam un nabiyeen (the seal of the Prophet's) and the last of them, and the chief of them, so too you are the seal and the last of all Ummahs. You are the most precious and honourable of all of them and the perfect.

Baghawi رحمہ اللہ has narrated another tradition with his line of transmission in a marfu' from to show the excellence and superiority of the ummah of Muhammad over all the previous ummahs. Its words are:

قَالَ اِنَّ الْجَنَّةَ حُرِّمَتْ عَلَى الْاَنْبِيَاءِ كُلِّهِمْ حَتّٰى اَدْخُلَهَا وَحُرِّمَتْ عَلَى الْاُمَمِ حَتّٰى تَدْخُلَهَا

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Entry into paradise is forbidden to all the prophets صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم till I enter it. And it is forbidden to all the ummah till you (My ummah) Enter it."

This saying indicates a good ending of this ummah. Allah says:

ان الذين سبقت لهم منا الحسنى

[Surely these for whom the goodly reward has preceded from us .. . . .] (21: 101)

Though this ummah of Muhammad has come to this world last of all ummah, yet it is the best and highest of all in respect of excellence and nobility.

وَالْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ الَّذِىْ جَعَلَنَا مِنْ اَهْلِ الْاِسْلَامِ وَعَلٰى دِيْنِ نَبِيِّنَا صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَالْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ الَّذِىْ بِنِعْمَتِهٖ تَتِمُّ الصَّالِحَاتُ وَبِشُكْرِهٖ تَزِيْدُ الْبَرَكَاتُ وَالْخَيْرَاتُ۔

Praise belongs to Allah who has placed us among the adherents of Islam and on the religion of our Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم (may the blessings of Allah and peace be on him).

And praise belongs to Allah who perfected the good thing s(on us) as His favour, and increased it with His blessings and goodness!.

CONCLUSION

This is the last hadith of Mushkah al-Masabih. The complier of the Mishkah has concluded his great book with this hadith. Thereby he acknowledges that the book is perfected, completed and concluded actually because of the favour, grant, help and enablement of the Mighty lord, Allah, Who really is the One to complete it.
The hadith preceding this one. (# 6293)

ان الله تجاوز عن امتى الخطاء والنسيان

"Surely Allah overlooks the mistakes and forgetfulness of my ummah" is very appropriate. It is an expression of regret and a prayer for forgiveness of every mistake and forgetfulness of the compiler of this book during the putting together and writing of the ahadith of the book.

خَتَمَ اللّٰهُ لَنَا بِالْحُسْنِ وَتَجَاوَزَ عَنَّا مَا وَقَعَ مِنَ السَّهْوِ وَالنِّسْيَانِ بِحُرْمَةِ نَبِيِّ اٰخِرِ الزَّمَانِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَعَلٰى اٰلِهٖ وَاَصْحَابِهٖ ذَوِي الْفَضْلِ وَالْاِحْسَانِ

May Allah make our end good. And may he over look and forgive us what has transpired of our faults and forgetfulness by virtue of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم of the last era of this world.

صلى الله عليه وسلم وعلى اله واصحابه

(May Allah's blessings and peace be on him, his descendants and his companions).
While the commentaries of Mishkah conclude it with this hadith, the texts of Mishkah al-Masabih have this passage after this hadith:

ثُمَّ قَالَ مُؤَلِّفُ الْكِتَابِ شَكَرَ اللّٰهُ سَعْيَهُ وَاَتَمَّ عَلَيْهِ نِعْمَتَهُ وَوَقَعَ الْفَرَاغُ مِنْ جَمْعِ الْاَحَادِيْثِ النَّبَوِيَّةِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اٰخِرَ يَوْمِ الْجُمُعَةِ مِنْ رَمَضَانَ عِنْدَ رُؤْيَةِ هِلَالِ شَوَّالٍ سَنَةَ سَبْعٍ وَثَلَاثِيْنَ وَسَبْعِ مِائَةٍ بِحَمْدِ اللّٰهِ وَحُسْنِ تَوْفِيْقِهٖ وَالْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ رَبِّ الْعٰلَمِيْنَ وَالصَّلٰوةُ وَالسَّلَامُ عَلٰى مُحَمَّدٍ وَّاٰلِهٖ وَصَحْبِهٖ اَجْمَعِيْنَ ......

ABOUT THE COMPILER

May Allah accept his effort and may he perfect His blessings! The compiler says that he finished the gathering together and arranging of these ahadith of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم on the last Friday of Ramadan in 735 AH just before it ended and a little before the sighting of the new moon heralding first of the month of Shawwal with praise and glorification of Allah and His help.
All praise belongs to Allah who is the Lord of the worlds and invocation of blessings and peace on Muhāmmad and his descendants and companions.

الحمد لله حمدًا كثيرًا مباركًا فيه

The complier of Mazahir Haq, Nawab Qutb ud. Din Dahlawi says:

This translation (in Urdu) is completed. It was possible by the mercy, favour and help of the Most High Lord. O Lord, I crave for Your wide- encompassing mercy. Do accept my effort and forgive the errors and forget fullness of this incapable, weak and lean man. Forgive me, my teacher and my parents on the day of resurrection. Do not cause us to be disgraced, O Lord of the worlds.

I repeat my prayer with humility forgive me, my teacher Mawlana Ishaq رحمه الله, muhajir in Allah's cause, My parents and all the Muslims. Forgive us and have mercy on us. You are the sattar (who conceals faults). Let our faults be concealed.

اَللّٰهُمَّ اٰتِنَا فِي الدُّنْيَا حَسَنَةً وَّفِي الْاٰخِرَةِ حَسَنَةً وَّقِنَا عَذَابَ النَّارِ اَللّٰهُمَّ لَاتَدَعْ لَنَا ذَنْبًا اِلَّا غَفَرْتَهٗ وَلَا هَمًّا اِلَّا فَرَّجْتَهٗ وَلَا دَيْنًا اِلَّا قَضَيْتَهٗ وَلَا حَاجَةً مِّنْ حَوَائِجِ الدُّنْيَا وَالْاٰخِرَةِ اِلَّا قَضَيْتَهَا يَآاَرْحَمَ الرَّاحِمِيْنَ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنَّا نَسْأَلُكَ مِنْ خَيْرِ مَا سَأَلَكَ مِنْهُ نَبِيُّكَ مُحَمَّدٌ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَنَعُوْذُ بِكَ مِنْ شَرِّ مَا اسْتَعَاذَ مِنْهُ نَبِيُّكَ مُحَمَّدٌ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَالْمُسْتَعَانُ وَعَلَيْكَ الْبَلَاغُ وَلَا حَوْلَ وَلَا قُوَّةَ اِلَّا بِاللّٰهِ الْعَلِيِّ الْعَظِيْمِ

The organiser of Mazahir Haq jadeed, Abdullah Jawayd son of Mawlana Muhammad Abdul Haq Ghazipuri may Allah have mercy on him and overlook his mistakes and forgetfulness. Says: it is with the favour and help of the Merciful Lord that this book is completed. Writing it down was completed on Friday, 18th Ramadan 1400 AH in the night preceding it. May Allah accept this effort on my part by virtue of His dear Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم to whom the words and interpretation of this book refer. May he forgive and let us have the intercession of His dear Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم on the day of gathering in the hereafter - me, my teachers, my Shaykhs, my parents, my family members, all relatives and friends, all who have cooperated and assisted me in arranging, writing, printing and publishing this book and the readers of this book. Shower on us Your favours and compassion. Aameen!

مُبْدِيهِ وَتَخْشَى النَّاسَ وَاللَّهُ أَحَقُّ أَن تَخْشَاهُ فَلَمَّا قَضَىٰ زَيْدٌ مِّنْهَا وَطَرًا زَوَّجْنَاكَهَا لِكَيْ لَا يَكُونَ عَلَى

الْمُؤْمِنِينَ حَرَجٌ فِي أَزْوَاجِ أَدْعِيَائِهِمْ إِذَا قَضَوْا مِنْهُنَّ وَطَرًا وَكَانَ أَمْرُ اللَّهِ مَفْعُولًا ﴿الأحزاب: ٣٧﴾

Behold! Thou didst say to one who had received the grace of Allah and thy favour: "Retain thou (in wedlock) thy wife, and fear Allah." But thou didst hide in thy heart that which Allah was about to make manifest: thou didst fear the people, but it is more fitting that thou shouldst fear Allah. Then when Zaid had dissolved (his marriage) with her, with the necessary (formality), We joined her in marriage to thee: in order that (in future) there may be no difficulty to the Believers in (the matter of) marriage with the wives of their adopted sons, when the latter have dissolved with the necessary (formality) (their marriage) with them. He replied that Hamzah embraced Islam three days before me, then Almighty Allah granted me conviction that I could bear witness.

الله لا اله الا هو له الاسماء الحسنى

Allah! There is no god but He! To Him belong the most beautiful names. After that there was no too important for me then the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم Then I asked where is the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم my sister told me that he is staying in Arqam's house near the Safa Hill, I approached him Hamza was there alongwith the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم in Arqam's house I knocked the door, as soon as thief got known that I am standing outside the door same companions were scared and wanted to get out But he Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم came himself out and caught my shoulders and jolted me severely that I couldn't resist shock and dropped on knees. And said Umar how long will you take to avoid disbelief? Spontaneously it come out of my mouth.

اشهد ان لا اله الا الله وحده لا شريك له واشهد ان محمد عبده و رسوله

I bear witness that there no god but Allah! He is alone he has no partner. And, Muhammad in his servant and his Messenger.

Everyone in the house of Arqam raised a high slogan (اللہ اکبر): (Allah is the greatest) that was heard for the wide in the valley of Makkah. Umair exclaimed then whether we are not on night path that could be favorable for our lives or death? The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, why not we are or the right path that is favorable for our lives and deaths and lives hereafter. Then Umar said, so, why do not we show our faith? By the Allah Almighty who sent you with this glorious and perfect faith we would definitely go our and expose our faith to all. So, we look him out in two rows, Hamzah was in front of a row and I was in front of the other. Due Do high emotions, the rumbling of hearts were audible out of our chests, until we reached the Masjidul Haram (Ka'bah), The Quraishies were surely red shocked to see Hamzah and me along with the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, the same day the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم granted title of FAROOQ; As he true and false has been separated by me clearly zuhri reported that when u mar embraced Islam The Gabriel came and paid residents of skies and heaven are pleased to see Umar as a believer – the other version is narrated by Hassan and Abu Dawud too. from his grandfather. There is confusion if he intend to say by (عن ابيه) from his father, and (عن جده) from his grandfather. It means he is narrating from his father who is Shuaib and from his grandfather "who is Muhammad" So the sense clears; that He took hadith from his father and his father (Shuaib) took hadith from his father (Muhammad) and he said that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said so and so, while Muhammad (his grandfather didn't meet the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم it means there is some other narrator between his grandfather Muhammad and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. who is not mentioned! So this authority certificate is not complete that made if unauthentic And if it assumed in another way; that, he got hadith from his father Shuaib and he (Shuaib) got from his grandfather (Abdullah) and he listen from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then it is also unacceptable as in this condition the link are still in-continuous as Shuaib didn't see his grandfather Abdullah. {ABOUT LEADERS OF THEORY AND ORIGIN OF RELIGION}

1006. MALIK رضی اللہ عنہ BIN ANAS رضی اللہ عنہ: He is son of Anas bin Malik bin Abi Amir. He is Asbahi, His surname is Abu Abdullah. We start by mention in him because he is first as per knowledge, status and era He is guide of scholars and teacher of leaders. However I have mentioned Bukhari, Muslim before him in preface of the book. His reason is that conditions which they both have utilized in their books. Here he has more right of priority an capable person. He was born in 95 AH and died in 179 AH in Madinah. At that time He was 84 years old. Waqidi said he was 90 years old. He was not only leading scholar of Hijaz but also a guide to all human beings in tradition and jurisprudence. To prove his pride, it is sufficient to say that Imam Shafi was one his pupils. He received knowledge of traditions from Yahya bin Saeed Nafe! Muhammad bin Mankadir, Hisham bin Urwah Zaid bin Aslam, Rabee'ah bin Abi Abdur Rahman and many other scholars. And countless numbers of people have narrated traditions on his authority. His pupils become leading scholars of the regions. They include Imam Shafi, Muhammad bin Ibrahim bin Dinar, Abu Hashim, Abdul Aziz bin Abi Hazim. These pupils of him are similar to him in knowledge. In addition to this people like Ma'n bin Esa. Yahya bin Yahya, Abdullah bin Maslamah, Qa'anbi and Abdullah bin Wahab are countless which are teachers of Imam Bukhari, Muslim, Abu Daud, Trimidhi, Ahmed bin Hambal. And Yahya bin Mu'een like people are teachers leading "Muhaddithin" scholars of traditions.

Bakr bin Abdullah Sanani said, we joined the company of Malik bin Anas رضی اللہ عنہ, He narrated traditions to us on behalf of Rabee'ah bi Abi Abdur Rahman. We wanted to listen more on behalf of some person. One day he asked why are you so interested in Rabee'ah? He is sleeping there in arch, we raused him from sleep and asked him, Are you Rabee'ah?" He said yes, We said, the same Rabee'ah on whose behalf Imam Malik bin Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrates? He said yes. We said then what is the matter Imam Malik has benefited from you so much, but you did not reach upto such a greet status (interpretations of Islamic law (اجتهاد). He said you don't know that riches or blessings of Allah be it slight is better than one bundle of knowledge, Abdur Rahman bin Mahdi says that Sufyan Thauri is leader in traditions but not in Prophet's practices (سنت) and Awzaii is leader in Prophet's practices (سنت) but not in traditions whlie Imam Malik رحمہ اللہ is the leader in both of important things. Imam Malik used to pay regard to knowledge and religions too much, therefore whenever he intended to narrate Hadith, he made ablution, sat at the proper place, used to comb his beard, used perfume and sat very elegantly and reverently. When he stated traditions. His attention was driven towards this. He replied I want to establish reverence of traditions of Allah's Messenger.

Once Abu Hazm was narrating Ahadith (traditions), Imam Malik passed and leaded forward and did not sit. When asked he said I found no place to sit and I did not feel like to listen while standing! That's why I didn't stay. Yahya bin Saeed said no body possesses traditions authentic Then Imam Malik رضی اللہ عنہ Imam Shafi said when teacher of traditions are discussed Imam Malik رحمہ اللہ is like stars. And also said that when any spurious person (null and void) person visited him he used to say I have evidence of my religion. Just become a dubious. And join any dubious person to debate to him. He also said when you get any tradition from Imam Malik grab it firmly. Imam Malik said when inner of anybody does not contains good, people are not to received food from him. He said, knowledge is not the name of abundance of narrating, instead that is a light which Allah puts in heart to anybody. Abu Abdullah says dreamt that the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم is in the Mosque and people are surrounding him. Imam Malik is standing jut infants of him. The Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم has musk in his front and he is giving handful to Imam malik and Malik is showing into the people. Mutrif said, I interpreted it as knowledge and following of Prophet's teaching and practice. Imam Shafi said,.my paternal aunt once said, to me, tonight I had a strange dream, we were in Makkah at that time, I said, what did you see? She said, any body was saying tonight greatest scholar of the world has died. Imam Shafi says, we kept it in mind, Afterwards we come to know that this was the time when Imam Malik رضی اللہ عنہ died. Imam Malik says that I visited caliph Harunur Rahid, He said to me, how good it is that you visit us oftenly so that our children may listen your Muta from you, I said may Allah maintain your honour, this knowledge has emerged from family of your forefather, if you respect it, if will be honoured and if you humiliate it, it will be disgraced and degraded. Knowledge is such a thing that you should reach it rather than to call it. Harun said you are right, and said to children to listen traditions going to mosque, with other people Rashid narrated that he asked Imam Malik, do you have any home? He replied no. Rashid handed him three thousand dinars, and said to purchase a residence. Imam malik رضی اللہ عنہ take the dinar but didn't spend when Rashid intended for departure, he said to Imam Malik to accompany him. He said I have determined firmly to bound people to Mu'atta as Sayyiduna Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ bound people to Holy Quran. Imam Malik replied compelling people for Muatta is beyond your authority, because companions of the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, have dispersed in different cities after his demise, and they have narrated traditions. And Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that "Discussion of my Umah is Blessing." And accompaning you is a thing which I am not capable of the Holy Prophet said Madinah is better for it, would that they knew it And the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم further said, Madinah expels out its impurity These are your dinars if you wish take them back or leave. His purpose was that you want to compel me to leave Madinah because you have favoured me, I cannot prefer these dinars than the city (Madinah). Imam Shafi'i said, I saw a number of horses of Khurasan and mules of Egypt, I never saw better than these. I said to Imam Malik how good are these! He said, O Abdullah these are gift to you from me. I said choose any one out of these for yourself. He said, I am ashamed to Allah, if I trample the soil where messenger of Allah rests, with the hoofs of any animal like these a great number of excellences are mentioned for this mountain of knowledge and ocean of righteousness.

1007. NU'MAN BIN THABIT: This is imam Abu Hanifah. His name was Nu'man, son of Thabit bin Zota; resider of Kufah, from the family of Hamazah Zayyat. He was mercer, He used to trade silk dresses and cloths. (silk febric); His grand father Zota; hailed from Kabul and was slave of Bani Taimullah bin Thalbah, He was later freed. His father embraced Islam, some people said, he was free and never did he go through period of slavery. Thabit in his childhood come to Sayyiduna Ali R) bin Abi Talib. Ali رضی اللہ عنہ invoked for betterment of him, and his offspring. He was born in 80AH and died in 150AH in Baghdad. He was buried in Khairzan. His tomb is famous there. In his life time four companions of the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم were alive. In Basra Anas bin Malik, Abdullah bin Abi Awfa in kufah, Sah'l bin Sa'd Sa'idi in Madinah, while Abu Tufail Amir bin Wasilah in Makkah. Abu Hanifah met non of them nor got any knowledge from them. Achieved knowledge jurisprudence from Hammad bin Abi Suleman, and got hadith from Ata bin Abi Ribah, Abu Ishaq Sabee'ii, Muhammad bin Munkadir, Nafe', Hisham bin Urwah, Samak bin Harb etc. While Abdullah bin Mubarak, Wakee bin Jarrah, Yazid bin Harun, Qadi Muhammad Yousuf Muhammad bin Hasan As-Shaibani and other narrated on his authority. Caliph Mansur took him alongwith him to Baghdad from Kufah. He kept living there till death. During the dominion of Marwan bin Muhammad Umavi, Ibn Hubairah wanted him to take the responsibility of judiciary but he refused (strictly). He ordered to flog him ten lashes daily up to ten days But when he realized that he won't be agreed ; he released him; And this practice was repeated when caliph Mansur sent his call to Iraq and intended to hand over the judiciary department to Abu Hanifah; but he refused to lake responsibility. The caliph swore, that you will have to do so, Abu Hanif also swore that he will never obey the caliph and will not take responsibility of judiciary in his reign; They aften repeated their determination to firm on their decision. After all he imprisoned Abu Hanifah. He died during his imprisonment. Hakeem bin Hisham was told in Syria that Imam Abu Hanifah was very trust worthy; the king showed his intention to keep the keys of his treasure but he denied; besides he was threatened otherwise you will have to face punishment; He denied strictly; he tolerated the punishment of world Than the punishment of God. He mentioned before Ibn Mubark; he said Do you talk about; to whom was provided the treasures of world but he ran away (to his God's mercy). He was of medium height, tan colored, some said he was tall man, he had beautiful face; and was best in conversation and he had high sound. He was really courteous in his meetings, and very generous to friends and attentive to colleagues Imam Shafi said, Imam Malik was asked once about Abu Hanifah; whether you see him or not? He said, Yes I have seen a man If he says to you about any pillar that it is made of gold, then will have sufficient proof to prove his claim. Imam Shafii said whosoever, who wants to become expert in jurisprudence; he cannot get the optimum level without consulting him. Imam Abu Hamid Ghazali said, it is said that Abu Hanifah used to offer supererogatory prayer every night one day he was going on the way; a man pointed his finger to him and said he is the man who worships whole night every night. Since the night he started waking up to worship Almighty every night he said, "I am ashamed that people believe in me some attributes that are not in me. Sharik Nakhi said Abu Hanifa was a reticent person, always in deep thoughts, it is the sign that he had not only contemporary knowledge but Esoteric knowledge also. As the one is granted these two blessings; (become recluse and reticent) he gets the complete knowledge. It's enough as if the detail of each and every attribute be discussed it will be too long article, which is not our intention at this place. In short keep in mind, he was recluse, pious intelligent, skillful, very learned scholar and a pioneer jurisprudent. We discussed him here in this book thoug there is no tradition narrated by him or on his authority; but it was just to have blessing by discussing his virtuous personality.

1008. MUHAMMAD BIN IDRIS SHAFII: He is Imam Abu Abdullah Muhammad bin Idris bin Abbas bin Uthman bin Shafe bin Sa'ib bin Ubaid bin Abd-e-Yazid Hashim bin Abdul Mutalib bin Abd-e-Manaf, He hails from Hashimi, Qurashi family His forefather Shafe; son of Sa'ib had seen the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, as his father Sa'ib was the flag bearer of Bani Hashim in Battle of Badr he was captured and get freed by paying ransom then embraced Islam; Imam Sahfi was born in Ghazah, in 150 AH, when he was only two year old he was brought to Makkah, some scholars reported different saying about his place of birth as some said, he was born in Asqalan, some said he was born in Yemen; Although there is confirm about his place of birth but all agree that he was born in 150 AH. The same year when Abu Hanifah died; some scholars said, Even their day and time of birth and death were also same. Imam Baihiqi said this as per only a few traditions reported by some people that on the same day Shafii was born and Abu Hanifah died; otherwise we know and it is renowned that both incidents were occurred on same year but not on same day or on same time.

Muhammad bin Hakeem reported that when Imam Shafi was in his mother womb; his mother saw a dream that Jupiter came out of her womb and burst up; the particles dispersed to each and every city; interpretor; interpreted that you will give birth a scholar a learned scholar.

Once Imam shafii said, I saw the Holy Prophet in dream he asked me," A boy ! who are you? I replied I am from your tribe (family). He ordered me to be nearer to him so, I did. He put his saliva in my mouth and rubbed it on my lips and face; further he said, Now you may go, you would be blessed. And once again he exclaimed that I had seen a dream; that I saw the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم; he was really very beautiful, he was leading prayer in Masjidul Haram in Makkah. When completed prayer he turned to the people and preached them; I went nearer to him and requested, please let me offer the prayer in your leading. He look out a balance from his sleeve and granted it to me; And said it is yours, Shafii said there was an interpreter I asked about the dream he replied; As per my interpretation you would be a leader in Islamic knowledge and strict follower of Prophet's teaching and practice, because the Imam of Ka'ba is greater than all (who granted you balance) and it is an indication that you would be able to find the facts of each things as guided by Allah.

Imam Shafi was from a poor family, Evan they don't have to pay his fee to his tutor, so he become non attentive to Imam Shafii and when he teach other students Imam Shafii, carefully picks and get remembered. And whenever the teacher go where for a while, Shafii reminded the lesson to students soon; teacher realized that he is more beneficiary than his fees. So, he didn't demand his fee again, He kept learning until he got learnt the Quran when he was only 9 years old. Imam Shafii says, I get registered to a mosque for further education and began to set with scholars. When. they discuss any religious issue I remember that at once. We live Khaif velley of Makah and I was so poor that I could not buy a paper to write on, so I pick up a bone (flat bone essy to write on) and kept writing important points He get early education of jurisprudent from Muslim bin Khalid, then he come know that Imam Malik رضی اللہ عنہ is the supreme leader and Imam (very learned and worthy; to be felled). Shafii says; It set in my mind that I should go there to meet and learn from him So, I borrowed his book Muatta and Studied not only studied but leant it by heart then I approached the governor of Makah to get a recommendation letter to Imam Malik رضی اللہ عنہ, I got two letters one for Imam Malik and one for governor of Madinah, when I approached governor of Madinah to get favor to introduce me in Imam Malik's is gathering / class. The governor of Madinah exclaimed oh my dear! It would be easy for me to walk from Madinah to Center of Makkah on foot rather you intend, I give a fover to you in this regard, that I go to Imam Malik's door. I said so, if you wish you may call him here. He said no It's too difficult to call him here. Would that you approach him and stay there for awhile, it may be possible that his door be open for us too because of you; then he mounted on his beast and we accompanied him reached to he Imam Malik's door. A man stop forward and knocked the door, a negro slave girl come out, governor said to her please inform your master that I am here to meet him. After a long period of time she returned back to us and said, my master said, If you have any problem/issue give me in black and white, it will be answered. And if there is any other important discussion then you know for such work a day has been decided for that. Governor said to negro slave girl, please say him I have a note from governor of Makkah for him. She went inside and returned with a chair. She put near the door, soon after Imam Malik رضی اللہ عنہ come and sat down on chair, he was very dignified and was awesome and most inspiring, he had a shawl on his head and shoulders (طیلسان), Governor step forward and handed him over the role from governor of Makkah in favor of mine He studied and as he read about me hat Muhammad son of Idris is a noble person and is from poor family and so on, he dropped the role and said (سبحان) Allah is most exalted; The knowledge of Allah's messenger would be taught on letters of favors. Imam Shafii said, I step forward and requested may Allah enhance your goodness, I am offspring of Abdul Mattalib and I explained my whole condition, he look at me and kept quite for a while then said, What is your name? I replied, Muhammad, he said fear Allah, avoid sins because soon you would be a dignified person, I said I will do, he further said Allah has granted you a (umiferous heart don't put if off by making sins; you may go now and come to me tomorrow with a person who can recite Mautta I replied sir, I will recite myself unto you by heart. I appeared before him next day and initiate reciting of Muatta, as I thought to stop because of his other responsibilities, he instructed me to recite more and more, again again unfill I got to end in a few days. Imam Shaii kept residing in Madinah till death of Imam Malik رضی الله عنه, whenever Imam Shafii narrate a tradition from Imam Malik, he used to say my teacher Imam Malik said like this or say it is opinion of our teacher Imam Malik. Abdullah son of Imam Ahmad bin Hambal says, I asked my father about shafii, that who is Shafii? because I noticed you oftenly pray for him? He replied, my dear son, Shafi was like a luminous Sun and for people he was like peace and blessing; now think what could be the alternate of these both attributes! Abdullah! Brother Saleh bin Ahmad, bin Hambal said, once Imam Shafii came our house; he came to see my father as he was ill, Sale exclaimed that my father got up and kissed his eyes and let him sit on his place while he himself sat in front of him. As Imam Shafi mounted on his beast my father hold its bridle and walked with him to a distance; As Yahha bin Moeen come to know about the incident, he said (سبحان الله) Allah is most exalted; why you did so, when you were ill. My father Imam Ahmad bin Hambal replied you could hold the bridle of his mole from other side you might have had some benefit (keep in mind) anyone who wants to get knowledge of jurisprudence he would have to smell the tail of his mole (He must be with him obediently). Ahmad bin Hambal said I don't know anyone who had more prominent relation with Islam than Imam Shafi had in his era. I do pray for him after each and every prayer I offer; as O! Allah forgive my parents and Imam shafii, Hussain bin Muhammad Za'frani said whenever and whatever book I read before Imam Shafi, Imam Ahmad bin Hamble was present there Imam Shafii used to say "Any one who gets knowledge with ego and luxuries he will never get success but who get knowledge without ego and without luxuries from scholars, He will be successful, (in his goal). He said whenever I did debate with someone I wished that may Allah help him and make it easy for his optimize his self as per true belief. And may Allah protect his from perversion. I never ever took part in my debate but I wished that may Allah release the truth either by my tongue or by my opponent.

Yunus bin Abdul Ala said, I had heard from Imam Shafii, He said, In my view it is better for any person to fall in any biggest sin except polytheism rather than he concentrate in any issue of (علم الکلام) knowledge / science of words. By God I have come to know such things about these people that I cannot imagine, he further said whosoever adopted their beliefs he will never succeeded. Abu Muhammad nephew (son of Shfaii's sister) he said sometime we visit him oftenly even 30 times or in a might and we found him, there had been a lamp in front of Imam Shafi and he was lying there -thinking, then called his slave girl to take him lamp away; she took away then when he calls her bring the lamp from she would bring the lamp and he used to write in lamps light. It was asked form Abu Muhammad; what was the secret returning of lamp? it might be-there and when ever he unfounded to write something he might write otherwise it could be there! He said in dark echology heart thinks more deeply that's he did so.

Imam shafii said, To impower your conversation; Take help of Silence (avoid useless talk; talk when need) and impower your solution extracting / dreving the solutions use the power of thought, means, don't talk useless and use your mind with full concentration to bring out the solution of any issue. And he further said, one admonish him (muslim) brother secretly he did a work of benevolence, he made his easy and beautiful and he showed sincerity to him. And one who admonishes publically he defaned him, and he did act of dishonesty to him Humaidi reported that Imam shafi brought ten thousand Sana in a cambric and he installed his tent out side of Makkah, I was there seeing all, people came to him and he gave them some money in a while he had finished that sum He gave all in charity. He entered the Makkah when he had spend all the money he had in charity.
Muzani said; I never saw generous more than Imam Shafi, once when he was in need, 'I saw a slave come to him and presented a pouch I think it had some money, that he offered him to use for his provisions on Eid, it was Eid night, at night, at the same time I noticed as I was walking with him and asking something; as he reached near his door; the slave presented that pouch; but at the some time a man came to his and said, my wife has given birth to a child I need some money, he granted him that pouch (Even didn't see, how much it has). And he entered the house empty handed. He had countless virtues. He was Imam of East and West and was very learned scholar. Almighty granted him knowledge, sincerity and high position among attributes at a time, he got the highest rank of admiration and good fame that someone else did not get it He listened hadith from Malik bin Anas Sufyan bin Uyainah, Muslim bin Khalid, and many others, while Imam Ahmad bin Hambal, Abu Thaur Ibrahim bin Khalid, Abu Ibrahim Muzani, Rabee bin Sulaim Muradi and many people narrated on his authority. He came to Baghdad in 195 AH and lived there two years then moved to Makkah and after staying a few month, he went to Egypt and died their on Friday night (Thursday) at the time Isha and was buried next day (Friday) after Asr prayer; in Rajab 204 AH at the age of 54 years. Rabee said a few days before his death; I saw a dream, that Sayyiduna Adam عليه السلام had died and people gathered to offer his funeral, prayer, I asked from some scholars, they replied, it has indication that world's biggest scholar is about to die. As Allah had granted Adam the knowledge all names (of All things) A few days later Imam Shafii died, Muzani said I met him during the disease, in which he died, I asked How are you feeling today? He replied I am about to die. Departing from friends, and I am going to meet my bad deeds, I don't now weather my soul would be shifted to heaven so that I may congratulate it or would be pushed to hell so that I should mourn, than he wept and cried. He said some poetic verses.
When my heard was caught in. And any paths become narrowed, so I made the hope of a stair to approach your forgiveness.
I know my sins are great, but as I saw your forgiveness; I realized your forgiveness is greater than my sins.

You keet forgiving me, And with enless generosity of forgiving, over looking, you enhanced my dignity.
If you do not support the worshipper he would not be protected from satan. As he removed Adam from the straight path for a while.
Imam Ahmad bin Hambal said I saw shafi in a dream and asked what happened to you? He replied Allah has forgiven me; and he granted me a crown and gave me a wife and said this is for you because you didn't show verity on what you were granted in the world by me. We exalted you because you were not arrogant to our blessings. All the scholars, no matter wether scholars of hadith or jurisprudence they all are agree that Shafii was authentic, pious, virtuous well wisher, devout, prayerful, righteous, generous, excellent, great, outstanding His attributes are countless we cannot explain his personality, he was really self esteemed person.

1009. AHMAD BIN HANBAL: He is Imam Abu Abdullah Ahmad bin Muhammad bin Hambal Muruzi, He hails from Banu Shiban He was born in 146 AH in Baghdad and died in 223 AH at the age of 77 years. He was leader in piety, Jurisprudence, and worship. He was brought up in Baghdad where he learnt what is correct, incorrect amended and improved (regarding Hadith); He got knowledge from learned scholars then travelled to various cities such as Makkah, Madinah, Kufah Basrah, Yemen, Syria, and Jazirah and listen Hadith from scholars of traditions. He listened and got Hadith from Yazid bin Harun, Yahya bin Saeed Qattan, Sufyan bin Uyanah, Muhammad bin Idris Shafi Abdur Razzaq bin Hammam and many others. While His sons Saleh and Abdullah and his cousin Hambal bin Ishaq and Muhammad bin Ismail Bukhari, Muslim Qushairi Naeshapuri, Abu Zur'ah, Abu Dwud Sajihani and many more people narrated on his authority, though Bukahri didn't narrated from him except one tradition without its certificate is Book of Charity and as well as Imam Ahmad bin Hussan Tirmidhi also narrated one tradition from him.

His attributes are countless, and his virtues are also of high level. His effects are known in Islam. His high rank is mentioned in religious affairs. Ahmad bin Hambal is evidence between God and His servants on the Earth. When I left Baghdad I didn't see a scholar more cautious, knowledgeful, high ranked jurisprudent than Ahmad bin Hambal. (said Imam Shafi) Ahmad bin Saeed Darmi said, I never saw a young man more memorizer of Hadith and having sense of this meaning, in deep then Imam Ahmed bin Hambal. Abu Zurah said he had learnt tan lac traditions; some one asked how did you know that? He replied I asked numerous chapters of Hadith and countless traditions discussed before him (I get the answer whatever asked) Ibrahim Harbi said I have seen Imam Ahmad bin Hambal رضی اللہ عنہ, Allah Almighty had granted his the abundant knowledge. And he was granted exuberant knowledge of all fields. It seemed that he was given knowledge of all of the previous and who will come in future. He had full control on his knowledge and on himself and what even he liked to present he could, he was a best orator. Imam Abu Dawud Sajristani said, In his gathering worldly issues were not discussed but there were discussion of hereafter only.

Muhammad bin Maslamah said, Hasan bin Abdul Aziz sent three pouches having one thousand dinar in each, he got his right of inheritance which was one lac gold coins; he sent this money (3000 Dinar) to Imam Ahmad bin Hambal and requested to please utilize it for yourself and family but he denied to accept saying; I have the provision I need; He returned the money had didn't accept even a pony from it. His son Abdur Rahman reported that my father used to pray after each prayer O! Allah as you saved my face not to prostrate elsewhere, save me to ask something from anyone except you.

Maimon bin Asba said I was in Baghdad; suddenly I heard a sound (scream). I asked what is it? Someone replied Imam Ahmad is being lasted, I approached there, and saw, he was given a lashe; when first lash whipped, he loudly recite (بسم الله) with the name of Allah, on second lash he recited (لاحول ولاقوة الا بالله) there is no one grants the power to do good and to be secure from evil except Allah, on third whip he said The Quran is Allah's sentence, It is not creature; on fourth whip he recited (لن يصيبنا الا ما كتب الله) Nothing will be (trouble, misfortune) unto you except whatever Allah he decided for you. He was given 29 lashes, His trouser-string cut off with strike of Hunter which was made of mining of cloth, and his trouser lowered from his navel, he looked to sky and his laps murmured; Allah knows, what he did, people become astonished to see that his lowering trouser, set up; It didn't lowered to ground. Maimon said I visited him after a week I asked,, what your murmured when your trouser strong cut off; what did you recite? He replied I had prayed to Allah if I am right, then I do ask you with your name through which you have your throne up don't let them humiliate me.

Ahmad bin Muhammad kind said I saw Ahmad bin Hambal in a dream I asked what happened to you? He said, Allah forgave me. And further said, Allah said, Ahmad you were beaten for us. I said yes, Allah said look upon our face; Do see it. You are allowed to see.

1010. MUHAMMAD BIN ISMAIL: He is Abu Abdullah Muhammad son of Ismail bin Ibrahim bin Mughirah, He is also jafi from Bukhara (therefore he is called, Bukhari) And as well as the reason jafi is nomenclature is due to worship of fir, grandfather was Zoroastrian already, he embraced Islam by convincing of Yaman Bukhari; he took oath of Islam on his hand. As he was ruler of Ja'fi and Bukhara therefore he is called Buykhari and Jafi. Ja'fi was actually a man forefather of a tribe of Yemen and Jafi was son of Sad, Imam Bukhari was born on 13h Shawwal (10th month of Islamic calendar) in 194 AH and died on 1st Shawwal 256 AH. He got 62 year of age excep 13 days he had no brother after him. Imam Bukhari has travelled for to seek knowledge. He met scholars of all countries and collected tradition from Khurasan, Jibal, Iraq, Hijaz, Syria and Egypt. He look tradition from those scholars of traditions who had learnt all traditions by heart; or they were renowned in memorizing hadith such as Makki bin Ibrahim Bukhari Abdullah bin Musa, Esa, Abu Asim Shabani, Ali bin Madini, Ahmad bin Hambal, Yahya bin Mu'een Abdullah bin Zubair Humaidi, and other high ranked scholars are included in this list in every city where Imam Bukhari narrated Hadith, numerous people got from him. For by said that Bukhari's book was heard by ninety thousands people through Bukhari's own lectures, Now there is no one except me who narrates from Imam Bukhari, when Imam Bukhari visited first to seek tradition, from scholars of traditions he was eleven years old that time, while seeking intention of knowledge initiated in me when I was ten years old. He says that whenever I recorded any tradition in my book, I offered two rakah prayer before (entering a tradition). And I compiled my book selecting tradition by out of six lac traditions. He further says that he remembered one lac true and correct traditions and two lac false traditions as well. There are seven thousand two hundred and seventy five traditions in his book if the repeated traditions are excluded then there would be four thousand only. He compiled his book in sixteen years when Imam Bukhari reached Baghdad the scholars of tradition gathered and they selected one hundred traditions and they mixed their text and certificate of authority with one another. They prepared ten men who were ready to ask about these traditions. They were asked to sit in the audience of Imam Bukhari and read one by one the selected traditions in order to find the knowledge and memory of tradition's certificate. Then this group of scholars come to Imam Bukhari and sat in his audience; and one of them asked Imam Bukhari about one of the selected traditions, Bukhari replied I do not know this traditions with this certificate. Until he has read ten traditions and Imam Bukhari kept repeating the same words, As soon as Imam Bukhari denied the first persons narrated traction, the actual scholars come to know that Bukhari is really expert in Hadith. However some still did not know the depth of Bukhari's knowledge, so another man stood up and a similar incident occurred like before. Even all the ten persons did their job. And Imam Bukhari kept saying; I do not know. When everyone had finished their narrations. Imam Bukhari turned to first person and said your first narrated tradition is in this way and he narrateded complete tradition with it's correct certificate of authority with all narrators of that tradition and he informed him about all of his narrated ten traditions and in the same way he replied to all people. He read all traditions with full text and certificate of authority, so all people had to confess that his memory is high and perfect. They bowed their necks before the grace of Bukhari. Abu Mus'ab says, In our view Bukhari is greater scholar than Imam Ahmad bin Hambal according to his knowledge of jurisprudence has higher vision Than him. People said to him, you have exceeded the limit, he replied, if you have seen Imam Malik's looking at the faces of both you would say they are equal in knowledge of Jurisprudence and traditions.

Imam Ahmad bin Hambal said, There is no one like him (Bukhari) in Khurasan. Imam Ahmad further said people of memorizing is not for more than four people of Khurasan and he counted Bukhari in those four people, Raja said Bukhari's excellence to other scholars is same as man preferred to women, A man said to his O! Abu Muhammad is this everything? He replied he is the moving sign of God on the Earth. Muhammad bin Ishaq said I didn't see a scholar a greater than Bukhari under the canopy (of sky) Abu Saeed bin Mushir said when ruler of Bukhara Ameer Khalid bin Ahmad Dheeli sent a message to Imam Bukhari that bring your compiled comprehensive books of Hadith and History so that I can hear by you. Imam Bukhari replied, I do not disgrace and humiliate the knowledge, Neither I am visiting people door to door to teach. If you really seek knowledge you should come to me; in my mosque or at my home and if you do not like it, then you can order to stop my gathering and preaching so that my excuse before Allah become clear on the day of resurrection. As I won't keep back the knowledge and keep teaching and preaching to whom who really intend to learn. As the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, A man who is asked because of knowledge (he has) and he does not tell, would be given rein for fire. Some people have said that the reason for leaving Bukhari was that Khalid (ruler requested him to teach his children at his palace, but when his wish was not fulfilled, he said atleast arrange a separate class for my children, so when they come to you, there should be no one except my children. Imam Bukhari replied I cannot arrange such separate class which may not be interfered by other learners. Then Khalid sought helf against him by scholars. And on ruler's behalf they raised objections against his religion and point of view and after all khalid exiled him. Imam Bukhari besnrewed for all of them who were involve, and it was accepted and they had to suffer soon.

Muhammad bin Ahmad Murazi says, once I was sleeping between Rukn (Ruykne Yamani; a corner of Ka'ba) and Maqam (Maqame Ibrahim the sacred stone that was used as lift for Ibrhim during the building of Ka'ba) suddenly I saw the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم in my dream, He said, How long will you teach the book of Shafi'i Will you not teach our book? I asked which one is your book, he replied that is compiled by Buykhari; Najam bin Fadal said, I also saw the Holy Prophet in my dream I saw, the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم walking; and Imam Bukhari is following him as the holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم stakes a step; so as Bukhari takes a step and puts on Prophet's foot steps and follows him carefully. Abdul Wahid Tuwawesi said, once I saw the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم in my dream. He was alongwith a group of his companions and he is staying at a place (Abdul Wahid mentioned that place). He further says, I saluted him and he replied, when I asked why he was stayed there? He said that He was waiting for Muhammad bin Ismail Bukhari; a few days later we heard the news of Imam Bukhari,s death. I come to know that he died at the same time I saw the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم.

1011. MUSLIM BIN HAJJAJ: He is Abul Hussain, Imam Muslim son of Hajjaj bin Muslim, from Qushairiyah and Neesha Pur. He is one of the memorizers of Hadith. He was born in 204 AH And in Rajab (6 days before completion) in 261 AH he died. He travelled to Iraq, Syria, Hijaz,Egypt and got traditions from Yahya bin Yahya Neesha puri, Qutaibah bin Saeed, Ishaq bin Rahvaih Ahmed bin Hambal. Abdullah bin Maslamah Qa'nbi and from other scholars of traditions. He visited Baghdad many times and taught Hadith Imam. Muslim say I have compiled this book selecting from three lac traditions that I had heard, Muhammad bin Ishaq bin Mundah exclaimed that I heard from Abu Ali Neeshapuri he used to say, There is no book more than correct of Imam Muslim's book under the canopy of heaven. Khateeb Abu Bakr Baghdadi said actually, imam Muslim did follow Imam Bukhari thoroughly and monitored his knowledge and followed him carefully. When Imam Bukhri visited Baghdad last time Imam Muslim was with him and, kept visiting frequently Imam Dar Qutni said "If Bukhari was not there, so, Muslim would not have gone there."

1012. SULEMAN BINASH'ATH: He is Abu Dawud Suleman son of Ash'ath. He is form Sajistan, He is one of those who travelled to seek knowledge and compiled book. He got traditions from people of Iraq, Khurasan, Syria and Egypt and as well as from Jaziratul Arab. He was born in 202 AH. And died on 14th Shawwal 275 AH, in Basrah. He visited Baghdad many times, He departed from Basrah last time in 271

AH. He got traditions from Ibrahim bin Suleman bin Harb, ABdulah bin Maslamah, Qa'nbi, Yahya bin Mueen Ahmad bin Hambal, and from many more scholars of traditions. His son Abdullah and Abdur Rahman Neesha puri and Ahmad bin Muhammad Khalal and others got traditions from him. He kept residing at Basrah. Then came to Baghdad and narrated traditions that he compiled in his book Sunan Abi Dawud; The people of Baghdad got the traditions and they presented before Imam Ahmad bin Hambal, he admired his hard working and excellence. Abu Daud said I got almost five lac traditions narrated by narrators from the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. And I selected only four thousand and eight hundred traditions out of five lac traditions. I categorized these traditions in three categories (i) correct, (ii) suspicious, (iii) Near to correct, and I say to a man who want to learn his faith only four traditions are enough.

The Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said;

1. The rewards for deeds depends upon intentions.
2. One's best Islam is to give up rubbish and absurd.
3. No one would be believer until he likes for his Muslim brother what he likes for his self.
4. Lawful and unlawful things are clear; but there are some things suspicious between......

Abu Bakr Khalal said Abu Daud was Imam and leader of his era. There was no man who had predomination on him, He was expert in all the sciences of knowledge, he was precedable and had high vision. Muhammad Barvi said, Abu Daud was memorizer of Haadith, and knew the defects and flaws of traditions and their certificates of authority, he was also memorizer of traditions certificate of authority, as by which link and by whom it is narrated onward and he made corrections in it. He was high ranked worshipper of Almighty, recluse, pious, and forgiving person. And most expert in science of traditions, Once he was asked, one of your sleeves is open while the other is narrow; He replied the open (wide) is for books, so why should be the other some like it.

He further said, there is no abandoned narration in my book; which unanimously declared abandoned. Ibrhaim Harbi said when Abu Dawud wrote / compiled book it was made as easy to him as the iron become soft to Dawud علیہ السلام Ibn Arabi said, if a person had only the Holy Quran, and book of Abu Dawud (Sunan-e-Abi Dawud then he will not need any knowledge

MANIFESTATIONS OF TRUTH

Translation & Detailed Explanation of MISHKAAT AL-MASAABIH

The recording, arrangement and compiling of hadith that was initiated in the time of the Prophet ﷺ was accomplished gradually and perfected in the era of the tabi'un and tab' tabi'un. Books of hadith began to be compiled. The scholars of hadith spared no effort and left no stone unturned to compile books of hadith. Today they serve us as lights of knowledge and learning, diffusing profound knowledge to the seekers and students.

One such book is Mishkaat Al-Masaabih. It is a complete and compact form of Masaabih-us-Sunnah. It is a selection of the ahadith of the six authentic Books of hadith and other reliable collections. It has 6294 ahadith from these sources. Since the time it was compiled, this basic book of hadith continues to form part of the syllabus of religious institutions. Students of hadith derive beneficial knowledge from it.

Manifestations of Truth is an authentic, reliable and approved sharh (exposition) of the Mishkaat Al-Masaabih in Urdu by Sheikh Nawab Qutubuddin Khan Dehlavi and edited by Abdullah Javed Ghazipuri. It is the most reliable and authentic Sharh (exposition, commentry) of the Mishkaat Al-Masaabih in Urdu language. The commentary and explanation of each hadith is given in the light of the issues and problems pertaining to current times. The most authentic books on the subject have been consulted. The authorities whose works are cited include Mullah Ali Qari رحمة الله عليه (Mirqat), Teebi, Toorpushti, Khattabi, to name a few. The ahadith are numbered in sequence and appropriate headings and sub-headings are given.

It has been a reference and guide since last 30 years, it was first published for the scholars, students and layman. Now, its English translation is presented to you and we can say without any reservation that there is no other matching English renderring of Mishkaat Al-Masaabih and its explanation. It is an unparralleled book on lessons of hadith filled with precious pearls of the Prophet's ﷺ sayings.

We at Darul-Ishaat, Karachi have done our utmost to meet the needs of our valued patrons and present to them a book unequalled in getup, printing, paper and binding.

May Allah accept our effort through His Mercy and Favour. And may He make it a means of deliverance and an asset in the hereafter for us.
